How the voting goes this fall in municipal elections is of paramount importance to Mr. Dewey and the state Republican ticket. It is a barometer that will indicate the likelihood of Dewey's re-election or defeat next year.

The Governor has been stumping for months in behalf of various candidates for mayoralty posts in the larger cities. His recent broadcasts (and others to come) emphasized the accomplishments of his administration — taking bows for many he rightfully deserved grabbing a few credits that by no means belonged to him — but rather to the other side of the fence. Dewey and his boys want to make a good showing and particular attention will be shown to Syracuse and Buffalo.

In the Salt City the boys are girding their loins for a real battle. The Democrats are conceded an excellent chance after many years of Marvin rule and "his boys." In nearby Buffalo there is a hot battle promised. You will recall that Buffalo's Republican leader Edw. Jaecle quit his state chairmanship last election and walked out. He, according to those close to him, considers Dewey "wholly inadequate as presidential timber" — and that goes for Governorship too. It's doubtful that Mr. Jaecle will do much to aid and abet Mr. Dewey, thus improving the Democratic chances immensely.

The Governorship in 1946 will hinge on the results in these two upstate cities. In the Democratic ranks (Continued On Page 7)

VPICODW Slips; Phones Ring; Winners Named

We've got to use a five dollar word to explain our dereliction in not announcing a $25 winner in last week's Sun. Here's what happened.

The VPICODW (Vice-President In Charge Of Drawing Winners) inadvertently (that's the five dollar word) neglected to draw a winner and we offer our sincere apologies to the many readers who called to draw our attention to the oversight, also to those who were either too polite or too busy to call but who undoubtedly wondered why no winner was announced.

Therefore, the VPICODW has decided to announce two winners this week to balance the account.

Here they are:
MRS. MARGARET A. FOEY, 100 AVE. B wins $25 for paying her Sun carrier Bill Vogt, 77 Avenue B. 10 cents a month for delivering The Sun. Bill receives a $5 bonus.

MRS. FRED W. BRANDT, 694 MEIGS ST. is the other $25 winner this week. Her carrier, Bob Brimacombe, 29 Paul Pl. collects an extra $5 bonus.

(Editor's Note) — The VPICODW has finally broken down and admitted that no matter how he explains it, he just plain forgot about the winner but he has promised never to do it again.

Buckin' Horses Coming with Rodeo

Because so many millions of easterners have been unable to heed Horace Greeley's admonition to "Go west" the west has had to come east to satisfy the populace's demand for western atmosphere, sports and customs.

A bit of the old west is coming to Rochester Monday July 23, when the Lalla Rookh Grotto opens its tenth annual rodeo at Edgerton Park. The show will stay here through Saturday, July 28, with daily evening performances and matinees on Wednesday and Saturday.

Contracts have been signed with Col. Jim Eskew, western ranch owner to supply 150 head of wild stock, bronks, brahma bulls, longhorn steers, calves and saddle horses for use in the various contests of riding, bulldogging and roping. The Grotto is offering more than $3,000 in cash awards to the winners. In addition, all points scored here will be credited toward the world's championship.

According to Bryant G. Parsons, who will again manage the rodeo for the Grotto, there will be no dearth of cowboy and cowgirl contestants. Already, he says, he has received many inquiries from some of the best cowhands in the country asking for the date of the Grotto Rodeo.

Headquarters for the transaction of all rodeo business have been opened at 418 Main St. E. opposite Eastman Theater. Advance sale of tickets, at reduced rates are now in the hands of all members of the Grotto.

INVASION—A good share of Rochester's population views a scene like this at Charlotte last night when the Navy "invaded" the bathing beach and "secured a beachhead" after an 18-minute "battle." Shown here is an LCVP attack boat (landing craft vehicle and personnel), part of the museum fleet which put on last night's show.

EXTRA! Charlotte Invaded! Defense Plans Crumble As Troops Storm Ashore

The Navy invaded Charlotte last night. A crowd estimated at more than 50,000 jammed the area surrounding Ontario Beach to witness the landing.

The task force was composed of seven landing craft manned by Coast Guardsmen, and 65 Marines, who made the landing and "secured" the beachhead.

Just before 11:00 p. m., Marine assault troops aboard LVTs and LCVPs (Landing Vehicle, Tracked and Landing Craft, Vehicle and Personnel) came into view from the Genesee River Coast Guard Station where they rendezvoused. Newspaper reporters, photographers, and radio announcers were on one of the vessels, dressed in camouflage suits exactly like those the Pacific veterans wore. "Jap" anti-aircraft fire rent the air above the beach, and the LVTs started shoreward. Their machine guns opened up. As they neared the beach, "Jap" mortar shells exploded in the water around them. The craft landed as they hit the beach, the rear ramps were lowered, and Marines and newspapermen charged ashore. An armored amphibious tractor, mounting a 75 mm. gun, which had hit the beach 30-40 yards from the shore, was the last to land. (Continued On Page 6)

Police Pay Hike Urged By Labor

The politically powerful Central Trades and Labor Council of Rochester, this week added its voice to that of The Rochester Sun in advocating a substantial salary increase for the city's police and firemen.

In a resolution, adopted by the labor body's executive board, the Central Trades cited the average "take-home pay" of approximately $186 per month as inadequate to "maintain the American standard of living."

The bluecoats charge that they have been stymied in their efforts to get a wage hike through political deals, buckpassing and double talk. They claim, and thousands agree with them, that present wage scales force them to seek extra jobs during off duty hours in order to cope with the present high cost of living. They have pointed out that increases have been given almost all workers — both municipal and in private employment — even to workers in the city disposal plants who now receive a higher hourly rate than that averaged by the bluecoats.

The resolution follows:
WHEREAS, as it has always been the policy of the Central Trades and Labor Council to favor a fair living wage and as the cost of living is constantly rising, it seems the policemen and firemen of the City of Rochester (Continued On Page 5)

Scrap Firm Reorganized As Partners Return From War and War Work

Not all returning veterans will need psychiatrists to tell them what lines of endeavor they should follow, nor a course of rehabilitation to fit them for the rigors of civilian life.

Take the case of Abe Dubitsky, 461 Hudson Ave. In October, 1942, Uncle Sam decided he needed the services of Abe, one of the three members of the firm of S. Dubitsky & Sons, 671 Clifford Ave. scrap dealers. Along with Abe, the draft board took brother Louis, whereupon brother Jack, not eligible for army service, decided to suspend business and contribute his share to the war effort by entering a defense plant.

But now brother Abe has returned from the wars. Discharged on points he left the service with the rating of Lieutenant in the air forces. Louis is still in the army — right now is in Germany giving the Krauts a new slant on who, and which, if any, is the super race. But with two-thirds of the organization home, the firm of scrap dealers has reorganized and will swing into action this week. Of course, the firm won't be complete until brother Louis gets back — they're saving a place for him.

Abe served in the Asiatic Pacific area after training at Santa Anna, Calif. and Carlsbad, N. M. where he received his commission. He wears the Asiatic-Pacific ribbon with five campaign stars, the air medal with four oakleaf clusters and a Philippines Liberation ribbon with a bronze campaign star. As an army bombardier he served aboard a B-24 Liberator bomber and saw action in the New Guinea, Eastern Mandates, Western Mandates, Luzon and Southern Philippines campaigns.

Ed Randall's Scene and Word
During a London air raid people were filing into a shelter. Among them was an old man. He carried a long-handled shovel to deal with incendiaries and under his other arm he carried an old-fashioned harp. "My word," said one onlooker, "there's a fellow who's ready to go either way."
There's nothing like a weed --
To make a fellow learn

Tip to girls: The next time a wolf gets a strangle hold on you, be sure to ask: "Is this grip really necessary?"

A successful business man was making one of those "How I did it" speeches before an audience of college hopefuls. "My financial prestige," he said proudly, "I owe to one thing alone — pluck. Now take that for your motto, my friends — pluck, pluck, pluck!" He made an impressive pause here for effect. But it was all ruined by an impetuous student who shouted: "Yes, but tell us, please — how, and whom did you pluck?"

Overheard in the Brighton Hotel taproom: "Yeah, my girl's got a one-track mind, but there's always a troop train on the track."

The third wave of Coast Guard craft hit the beach a few moments later, loaded with reinforcements and supplies. A jeep towing a 37 mm anti-tank gun charged out of an LCPV. Marines with flame throwers came up.
Suddenly the "Jap" pillboxes were subjected to direct fire from flame-throwers. The heat was so intense onlookers could feel the blaze many yards away.
Lieut. Paul Cramer of Columbus, Ohio, who won the silver star for heroism and fought in three Pacific campaigns, signaled the men on.
Just 18 minutes after H-Hour the beach was "secured" and the show over.

Women in your '40's
Do these symptoms Betray your Age?
Do you—like so many women between the ages of 38 and 52—suffer from hot flashes, nervous tension, irritability, or a bit blue at times—due to the functional "middle-age" period peculiar to women?
Then start at once—try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. This great medicine helps nature. Taken regularly it helps build up resistance against such "middle-age" distress.
For almost a century—thousands upon thousands of women have reported benefits. Also grand stomachic tonic. Follow label directions.

Political Polka . . .
there isn't the bustle of activity found in that of their opponents. The Democrats are just preparing for the war to come, strengthening local organizations, cementing friendships and making necessary alliances. The GOP has a treasury bursting with contributions on the part of big business. Of course, the especially favored never have to be very concerned about campaign expenses that's a problem which usually bothers only the Democrats.

This year it may be different. Nearly a thousand men have already contributed two hundred dollars to the Democrat's general fund — which gives the boys a pretty fair start even before the annual collections get underway. It'll be a merry little party this talk with no holds barred and few punches pulled.

Anti-Labor Propaganda
In a daily newspaper, published in a nearby city, we ran across this headline: "War Production Imperiled As Strikes Spread."

The casual reader of the newspaper, seeing the headline, and not reading the article, would receive an entirely erroneous impression. The truth of the matter is that war production is not now imperiled by strikes.

For some reason, there is widespread propaganda in this country, designed to create the belief that laboring people are interfering with the progress of the war. Moreover, there are interests in the nation which would, if they could, persuade

PAPER SHORTAGE HITS HOME
Drastic Cuts Will Affect Everybody Unless We Save More Wastepaper!

No Paper Towels, Napkins or Facial Tissues
—that's what your grocer and your druggist may report to you one of these days soon. And soon you may have to carry your order unwrapped, your books and publications may be thinner, some paper articles that you're used to may seem much more scarce than today.
Here's why. Essential military paper and paper-board requirements made it necessary for the War Production Board to cut the use of woodpulp by nearly 100,000 tons for the second quarter of 1945.

Military Needs Come First — Naturally!
—because our fighting men must have the essential wrappings for medicines, food, and other vital supplies. Ammunition boxes, shell cases, blood plasma containers — by the million — are made of paper.
Even more paper may be needed now as the war turns to the Pacific. Troops in Europe must continue to be supplied. And goods shipped to the Pacific areas must be double and even triple-wrapped with heavy waterproofed paper to survive the hazardous long sea trip, dry rot, dampness, and very often poor warehousing.

How to Help Get More Paper Yourself
To avoid further drastic cuts in civilian paper allotments, everyone should turn in waste paper. Waste paper, once reprocessed, is war paper. Paper shipped overseas doesn't come back. But paper for home use can be used again. Here are the two simple rules you should follow:

1. CONSERVE PAPER—Use your own shopping bag, and carry bundles unwrapped except where paper is necessary for sanitary reasons.
2. SAVE WASTE PAPER—Never burn waste paper, but turn in every scrap of it after separating and bundling.

Who Turned On The Spotlight?

Dial Phones Coming As Company Sees 'Handwriting On Wall'

By ORVILLE ALLEN

Rochester will soon be as modern and up-to-date as Olean, Penn Yan, Canandaigua and other New York State cities.

Dial telephones will, at long last, be installed in this city starting in 1947.

Complete changeover is expected to take 10 to 12 years.

But Rochester is catching up.

That The Sun's efforts to get modern dial telephones for Rochester had borne fruit was seen in last week's announcement of John P. Boylan, Rochester Telephone Company president, that the company could "see the handwriting on the wall."

And to The Sun goes the credit for turning the spotlight on the wall so that phone company officials could see that handwriting.

Boylan's announcement that the manual switchboard had outlived its usual life" and would be replaced with dial equipment brought joy to the hearts of thousands of local subscribers who have lost hundreds of man-hours waiting for overworked telephone operators to heed their pleas for service.

The dial phone installation announcement showed a complete reversal of opinion among telephone company officials. Only a few months ago Boylan said that after an extensive survey "it

Special Events Planned For Rodeo

The horse comes into his own again in Rochester on Monday, July 23. For then old dobbie's younger and friskier cousin, the rodeo pony will hold the spotlight at the tenth annual Grotto rodeo which opens a one-week stand in Edgerton Park.

Performances will be given each evening with matinees listed for Wednesday and Saturday.

A complete card of special features has been scheduled by Col. Jim Eskew, in addition to the bucking horse, steer riding and calf roping events. A contest for trick riders will be included. Among the entrants is Miss Beverly Shaw, present holder of the world's title for cowgirls.

Miss Shaw, a native of Topafield, Kan., performs seemingly impossible stunts on the back of a fast cowpony with an ease, grace and rapidity that is amazing. Other cowgirls entered in this event are Edith Clancy, Fort Worth, Tex.; Margie Roberts, Strong City, Kan.; Carol Davis, Boise City, Okla.; Pearl Dowell, Chandler, Ariz.; and Byron, Chandler, Ariz.; and

Volunteer Workers Needed In City

A corps of 300 volunteer workers will scour the city and surrounding towns on Sunday to scrape up every scrap of scrap paper to help in the scrap over in the Pacific.

Even if it rains, it is still good paper salvage weather in the opinion of William T. Nolan, Rochester salvage chief, who with city officials and Harry Stevenson and Matthew D. Lawless are planning the drive. Rain does not harm the waste paper for salvage purposes as the paper is thrown into huge vats and turned into a wet mass in the first operation of its conversion to new paper for war purposes.

Residents of Rochester, Brighton, Greece, Gates and Irondequoit have been urged to bundle up scrap and waste paper of all kinds and place it at the curb Saturday night for the Sunday pickup.

In Brighton and Greece, veterans organizations will handle the collection while the Boy Scouts and town trucks will do the job in Irondequoit. In the

LIQUOR STORE LICENSES NEW REPUBLICAN PLUMS

How many new liquor stores there will be in Rochester in the near future is no longer the bi-partisan concern of the political parties, its now strictly a Republican affair and the plums will be handed out to the faithful of that party.

When the Democrats were in control of the State both parties were fairly represented on the ABC Commission, and each party regardless of who was in power were permitted to recommend their allotment of new licenses for retail package stores. Mr. Dewey has changed all that—and its made Mr. Broderick and other Republican county leader anything but dis-

We say secretive, because the Republican bosses, would rather have the organized "drys" (who have a vote too), believe that its the Democrats who authorize additional liquor stores. Maybe they'd like to have the present owners of Retail Package stores believe it too.

Here are the members of the State ABC Commission: Mrs. John F. Sheppard (R) New York City; Edward Schoeneck (R) Syracuse and a former Lieutenant Governor; Vincent J. Ferris (R) New York City; John F. O'Connell (R) New York City; Chairman and Dewey's former

Sampson Naval Units To Conduct Outdoor Service

The Navy will take a prominent part in next Sunday's outdoor service sponsored by the Federation of Churches at the Highland Park bowl beginning at 7 p.m.

The 45 voice choir from Sampson Naval Training Station will highlight the musical program while Capt. Joseph Brooks, chief of chaplains will be the chief speaker. It is also expected that Commodore Harry Badt, chief of Sampson will be on the platform. Students of the V-12 program at the University of Rochester under the direction of Comm. William T. Neill will usher. Other naval units of the city will participate.

This Week's $25 Winner

Mrs. Frank L. Doyle of 86 Hurstbourne Road is the lucky winner of this week's $25 cash prize offered by The Sun each week to its sustaining subscribers for the current month. This is the reward Mrs. Doyle got for paying her Sun carrier, Bernard Bayer of 673 Laurelton Rd. 10 cents. Bernard incidentally collects an extra five dollars bonus.

Each week The Sun conducts a drawing and pays the winner $25. Names of all sustaining subscribers for the current month are entered in the drawing. Since inception of the award plan more than $2500 has been paid out to sustaining subscribers.

Yes, it has happened again — the canning season is here — and you can't beg, borrow or steal enough sugar to supply your needs. Here's a suggestion if you're interested. H. G. & E. H. O. M. E. SERVICE have a booklet — compiled by Corn Products Refining Co. — called "HOW TO CAN FINER FRUITS". There's as simple as ABC — and supplied with this info — you can forget about sugar. Drop into ROCHESTER GAS & ELECTRIC — 29 East Ave. — and ask for it by name. "HOW TO CAN FINER FRUITS!"

On these scorching days there's nothing like a long cool drink of HOMOGENIZED VITAMIN D MILK. Its delicious flavor is a delight to the young and old. You will find that your cooking improves if you use this famous milk. It will be delivered to your door by simply calling BRIGHTON PLACE DAIRY — Glenwood 144 Milk is a health drink. It gives you that "old pep," so lacking at this time of the year. Try this HOMOGENIZED VITAMIN D MILK for two weeks — if you're not satisfied, no questions asked, you may switch back to your regular milk, but I'm betting on HOMOGENIZED VITAMIN D MILK — delivered by BRIGHTON PLACE DAIRY — 45 Fulton Ave.

Teentimers Tips Merita Helms, fashion advisor to the teentimer crowd, suggests raiding the scrap bag and ribbon box for conservation-wise accessory ideas. For instance, braid red and green satin ribbon from holiday packages to make a dazzling belt for a plain dress. Braid or crochet lengths of bright yarn into gay laces for your saddle shoes, add fat tassels of matching or contrasting wool. Miss Helms foresees more use of the new wonderful fabrics for teentimers dresses such as labtex-tegra cloth, ameritex ruffbar, arale and cohama spicella.

Apparently, the situation has now changed and the city is "suited to dial phone operation."

The announcement also bore out the prediction of this writer made in The Sun on January 11, 1945, when I said:

" . . . you simply cannot stop progress. And even the telephone company's biggest bigwig Mr. John Boylan will one day admit that and sign the order for the installation of dial phones in Rochester."

Another prediction made by The Sun and borne out by last Saturday's announcement was that present telephone operators would not lose their jobs because of the changeover.

Operators To Stay
The operators have been against the installation of dial phones because of the belief that it would mean the end of their jobs. Some of them condemned The Sun's efforts to get dial phones for this city. It was pointed out to them by this paper that in other cities arrangement had been made so that none of the operators who wanted and needed to keep their jobs were dismissed when dial phones were installed. According to Boylan, the same procedure will be followed here.

Stone Exchange First
First to feel the changeover will be subscribers of the Stone exchange. A new building costing upwards of $500,000 will be erected in Stone St. and the dial phone system installed. Gradually the entire city will make the changeover to the modern automatic devices.

And then Rochester will join the ranks of other New York state cities which have enjoyed dial phones since the late '20s and early '30s. Dial equipment is now in operation in every large city in the state (and many of the smaller ones) except Rochester.

But, we're catching up. We've seen the handwriting. And, we're going to do something about it.

Hats off to The Rochester Telephone Company. And thanks to their optician.

Political Polka . . .

wire tapper in Dewey's racket busting days, and a synthetic Democrat — one in name and enrollment only — Albert H. Meyer of Buffalo. Mr. Meyer was recommended and endorsed, not by Democrats, but by ex-state chairman Ed Jaeckle, Buffalo's long time Republican boss. As you may have surmised Mr. Meyer and Mr. Jaeckle are warm personal friends, and frequently talk over the back fence together — as they live next door to one another in the Bison city. No its not on the record that Mr. Meyer has as yet raised his voice in the interests of any fellow Democrat.

So if you are one of the many who think that running a liquor store is a soft way to make a living and that Rochester hasn't enough of them already, don't bother Roy Bush with your problem — go and see Uncle Tom Broderick.

And you'd better hurry — there have already been more than a hundred and fifty inquiries and about fifty actual applications. If the license-hungry populace has its way there will be a liquor store for every fire hydrant in town. There are four applications for Hudson Ave., six for Joseph, three for North Clinton St. and the swanky Park Ave. group can stumble out of any apartment house in their section and buy a bottle if the four additional locations are granted on that street.

So boys and girls, enroll Republican make a few hints about the size of your contribution this fall and go see Mr. Broderick, than fall in line at the local ABC board — if the Republican fathers smile on you, — you may get a license and find out that owning a Retail Liquor store isn't half as much fun nor nearly as profitable as a Tenth Ward picnic.

NOT "WHAT'S COOKING" — BUT "WHERE?" — OPA
With all the talk about fair trade, fair employment, non-discrimination and equal rights it seems to us that the local OPA in charge of restaurant red points becomes the horrible example in bad judgement and lack of fairness.
Recently the Chateau was enjoined for a two month period from purchasing sugar, meat and other red point items for being 20,000 points short in their account over a two year period. This amount, according to restaurant men, is negligible for such a long span. The Chateau however was pounced upon with apparent delight and the OPA court threw the book at them.

A few days later they had Eddie's Chop House on the carpet — and no one would call chop house pickers. This famous eating establishment was overboard a mere million and a half points plus ration stamps for a trifling item like a ton of sugar. The OPA attempted to soft pedal the violation by quoting the overdraft as 674,333 meat points and 14,000 pounds of butter. As your wife will tell you butter goes for 24 red points per pound (when you can get it) and 24 multiplied by 14,000 equals 336,000 additional red points or a total of 1,010,333 of the kind everybody is short of — total overdraft in points 1,526,315. Oh yes, added to that total was 516,182 (Continued On Page 5)

Deft Hands, a pleasing personality, a substantial following, have made JEANNE'S HAIR STYLING popular in a very short time. Jeanne's shop is quiet, immaculate and private. As a summer time special you may have the BONAT machine or machineless permanent for $12.50 usually $15. The ESKA COLD WAVE is on at special prices. The No-Heat for $10 — the Deluxe for $15. The Frosted for $20. Talk to Jeanne about a new hair style. She has some "good" ideas. Call her at Main 2180 for an appointment. JEANNE'S HAIR STYLING — 725 GRANITE BLDG.

SALE When RIPTON DRESSES say SUMMER CLEARANCE — they mean it. All spring and summer DRESSES reduced. Prints, pastels, dark sheers, in all sizes and styles — PRICES ARE RIGHT. You'll be able to afford more than one — when you see the price tags. There is plenty of time ahead to wear summer clothes. After all we are just getting into our real summer, so my advice is — SHOP RIPTON DRESSES early, while the selection is good. You're always welcome at RIPTON DRESSES, where the customer is treated as an individual. RIPTON DRESSES — 739 MONROE AVE. — Open Eve.

Well — EDWARDS have done it again. It's with the new fall and winter — FUR TRIMMED COATS. Priced at exactly $50 — with no tax. They are values. I promise you won't be able to duplicate later. Every garment outstanding for style and quality. Sizes: Juniors 9 to 15. Misses 10 to 20. Women 33 to 45. Your selection in the fur trim is as follows: Tingona Lamb, Persian Lamb, Silver Fox, Sable-dyed Squirrel, Mouton Lamb, Northern Sealine, (dyed cone). As for the styling, you'll love the new rounded look, deeper armholes, new back interest, interesting sleeves, curved-in-waist, gently elegant wool, plenty of length. One lovely model, is a smartly fitted ALL-WOOL coat with a flattering shawl collar of gleaming silver fox. This coat is in sizes 12 to 20. Think about a tuxedo style. They cut you down, and are very becoming. A dressy model in tuxedo in black wool, with elegant black sealine (dyed cone) panels, is a knockout. Slim gored back. This model comes in sizes 12 to 20. Another becoming model is a slender black wool, impeccably fitted. A brief collar and wide revers of Persian lamb, would please the most discriminating of women. This model comes in sizes 33 to 45. Ideal for the women who require the half-size. Remember all these models are priced $59 — NON-TAXABLE. You'll find these coats on the Third Floor at EDWARDS — my suggestion is take advantage of this timely advanced showing EARLY. A $5 deposit and weekly or monthly payments will reserve your coat until November 1st. No storage charge of course. EDWARDS.

SALE JUST SALES into summer — so the "300" SHOP thought have planned a SUMMER CLEARANCE. In this group — you'll find plenty of wearables with price tags marked $6.95 — formerly sold for $10.95. These dresses are REAL VALUES. COTTONS — CREPES — MATERNITY DRESSES included. My advice is to shop early — while the selection is intact, 'cause of course you won't find all styles in all sizes — but the EARLY BIRD will get the best. "300" Shop (Moreass sponsored) Located corner MONROE & Canterbury — Open eve.

Oh, Boy! Breakfast never tasted better than when served with HOMOGENIZED VITAMIN D MILK — delivered by BRIGHTON PLACE DAIRY — My suggestion is a two weeks trial — if you're not satisfied no questions asked — but I'll bet you'll stick with HOMOGENIZED VITAMIN D MILK — it is uniform in quality — no heavy top milk and thin bottom milk. It improves your cooking — and you'll find those 'kids' of yours will really enjoy their milk. Call Glenwood 144 — and ask BRIGHTON PLACE DAIRY — to start delivering this famous milk at your home tomorrow. Glenwood 144 is the telephone. Ask for HOMOGENIZED VITAMIN D MILK — 43 Fulton Ave.

The R. G. & E. will be glad to help prospective new home owners plan their kitchen. They have established a Kitchen Planning Service where advice and suggestions are yours for the asking. In most new kitchens a modern ventilation system that carries off objectionable cooking odors and eliminates deposits of grime and grease on the walls and ceiling will be the number one consideration. Inquire about the Kitchen Planning Service at the demonstration kitchen on the Main Floor at R. G. & E. — 89 East Ave.

Summer drinks become special when served in a gay glass. There are many in the stores — for little or nothing.

We have a new juice extractor in our kitchen. Believe me it saves plenty of "elbow-grease". They only cost round $4, and well worth it. But here a suggestion — wash it — right after use — you'll find this way much easier. Try keeping your cologne in the refrigerator — you'll find it more refreshing and much more pungent.

Don't hesitate about washing dark colors or pieces having deepened faces for fear they will fade. These fabrics are usually well-dyed and will hold their color if cool water and a cool iron are used. Hang in shade to prevent fading by sun. Good idea is to wash before wearing to remove any excess dye.

Corners at noon. It will proceed up Exchange St. to Court St., to Broadway to East Ave. to Main St. to State St. and then return to the park. Headed by an Indian Band the parade will consist of cowboys and cowgirls in full regalia as well as a contingent of local "western style" riders.

Several special features have been listed for the rodeo in addition to the calf roping, bronc riding and bulldogging contests. Among these will be the appearance of Jack Andrews and his trained Brahma bull. He will also demonstrate his prowess with the bull whips. Another thrilling event will be a Brahma bull riding contest.

Riding Brahma bulls is said to be one of the most dangerous and thrilling of the rodeo habitue's sports.

With a score or more top bull riders of the west assembling here for the rodeo along with the fastest calf ropers, steer through rabies deaths. According to the May, 1945 issue of Veterinary News, official organ of the New York State Veterinary Medical Society, only one case of rabies in dogs was reported in the entire state of New York for the full year of 1944. And, according to George West, there have been "only three or four" in the city during the first six months of 1945.

Cats, Cattle, Exempt

It is interesting to note further that the same issue of Veterinary News reports 12 cases of rabies among cats and 47 cases among cattle found in the state during 1944.

But the present quarantine does not apply to cats or cattle, according to authorities of the local Health Bureau.

So it looks as though Rochester dogs are simply taking a bad beating.

"But," Mr. Average Citizen is beginning to say, "Why?" One informed person who has an answer to that question any duly appointed dog warden or any peace officer shall and any person may seize and confine or kill any dog found at large . . . Such person shall not be held liable for damages for killing a dog found in violation of this section . . . Any peace officer and any duly appointed dog warden . . . shall be entitled to a fee of four dollars for each dog seized and confined and for each dog killed in the enforcement of the provisions of this section . . . The expenses incurred in carrying out the provisions of this section shall be paid from moneys raised or to be raised for the suppression of rabies as provided in section twenty-one of this chapter.

The "racket" angle, says Miss Foubister, is found in that section of the law pertaining to payment for dogs seized and killed by "duly appointed dog warden." Locally the Humane Society. And, under the terms of the state law, the Humane Society collects four dollars for each dog killed.

They've killed more than 800 since June 28, according to William J. Boyink, superintendent.

Paid Killers

In addition to the four dollars per dog seized, the Humane Society collects expenses incurred as provided by the state law. The Society also exacts a payment of 75 cents per day for all dogs held at the pound. And, to top it all off, the City of Rochester pays the Humane Society $18,000 per year for contractual routine duties in connection with their work.

So, according to Miss Foubister, the more dogs the Humane Society is able to grab and kill, the more money they gather into their coffers. What happens to all the money they receive? Why does Miss Foubister say that the local veterinarians are "in" on the racket? We'll tell you that next week.

Youth Group Torn By Strife . . .

Cause of strife within the committee's ranks is a proposed affiliation with the Rochester Federation of Churches. This, say opponents, will align the movement with the "modernists" who, they charge, are in control of the Federation here. The movement originally was said to be strongly fundamentalist.

One adviser to the committee, in approving the move said that the organization "probably intended to follow a middle road" between the two opposing factions, but others pointed out that this would be comparable to "trying to ride two horses going in opposite directions."

When news of the proposed affiliation leaked out, leaders of the movement were taken to task by the more conservative elements of the committee. At first denying, later hedging, and finally admitting that such a proposal had been made, leaders defended their action by stating that they were trying to obtain the "cooperation of all religious groups in the city."

Upon that basis it was being freely predicted this week that many of the sponsors would withdraw their support.

Most of the troubles are being caused by the extreme youth of the committee members said one pastor who declared that "we are very much alarmed by the new direction which the movement had taken."

Members of the steering committee are: Dale Chaddock, Addison Clay, Miss Mary Wolcott, Howard Joss, Alfred Orger and Miss Dorothy Lindgren.

DON'T NEGLECT LOWER HALF OF YOUR DIGESTION
If Constipation Causes Gas, Bloating, Indigestion and Misery, That May be a Sign Your Food Needs Help after It Leaves the Stomach.
When food passes out of the stomach, most of it is only partially digested. The greater part of digestion is done in the 25 feet or more of intestine. Upon how well this lower half of your digestion works depends how regular and satisfactory your bowels move... how free you are from gas, bloating and indigestion distress that may come from decaying food.
To help this lower half of digestion, try Beecham's Pills. They help to get your liver ble, one of the most important digestive organs, to working freely. The liver also helps to digest fats, and at the same time, to activate the bowels to relieve constipation.
Then most folks start off the day with that beautiful morning feeling. Be sure to get Beecham's Pills, used for centuries since 1842. Caution: Use only as directed.

Ed Randall's Scene and Word

Most servicemen returning from Europe are anxious for the folks to know the places they visited and fought in. The first thing a lot of them say is: "Get me a map and I'll show you just where we gave the Heines a good going-over one day." Probably some families don't happen to have a detailed map of the European continent but would like to have one when their GI arrives home. If so, I have a quantity of these maps furnished by Carstairs Distilling Company. They are standard Rand McNally reference maps and they are yours for the asking. I also have some maps of the Pacific Theatre and some World maps. If you'd like one, just come into the office and ask for your choice or drop me a line.

The other morning one of the phones in our office rang before our telephone operator was on the job. I picked it up and said: "This is the Rochester Sun." And a very pleasant female voice inquired: "Hello, is Loretta there?" I replied: "You must have the wrong number, there is no Loretta here. What number did you call?" The voice answered: "I asked for Stone 3585!" Our number is Stone 6000. Will dial telephones ever get here?

Overheard in the Brass Rail tatteroom: "For years I've been wondering where my husband spent his evenings. Then one night last week I came home early—and there he was."

Political Polka Talks About Political 'Rubes' And O.P.A.

plum is lost to th city in general and the 10th Ward in particular. G. Robert Witmer, Webster supervisor, gets the Republican nod. With the exception of the county judgeships, Messrs O'Connor, Rosenberg, and Shedd incumbents, all key county positions are held by "boys" from the towns. County Manager, Clarence A. Smith, Pittsford, $10,000; Sheriff, big-hearted, efficient Al Skinner, Greece, salary $7,500; County Clerk, Walter Wickins, Chili, $7,500; District Attorney, Daniel O'Mara, Irondequoit, $9,000, to name a few with pretty fair takes. Then the towns have grabbed these bits of patronage: Clerk Board of Supervisors, J. L. Wiles, Rush; Supt. of Highways, Francis H. Carroll, Irondequoit (they get quite a few down that way); Purchasing Agent, C. A. Bennett (doing a good job) Perinton; Director of Public Welfare, popular, practical and wise Jesse B. Hannan, also of Perinton; County Auditor James Klos (here it is again) Irondequoit; Penitentiary Superintendent; Thomas Owens, Henrietta.

Two of the three Supreme Court Justices are town boys, too: John Van Voorhis, $15,000, (and again) Irondequoit; H. Douglas Van Duser, $15,000, Brighton; and Bill Love, $17,500, the 12th Ward.

The total salaries of the above jobs amounts to well over $150,000 per annum and if you are one of the Republican faithful we can understand your growing concern. The small towners and your boss (also a townner) are certainly doing a good job-grabbing stint on their 18 per cent contribution to County costs.

It's pretty obvious that the Republicans with a set-up like this should carry the towns this fall — there are still three out of the many county jobs they can get — the City Boys' — promises again.

At least give Mr. Broderick credit for an accomplishment — he has completely changed the old saying: "You can take the boy out of the country but you can't take the country out of the boy." Tom B. not only took the country out of the boy — he put it in the city boy — hi ya' Rubes!

Selected From the Mail Bag:
To Joe M. — I agree with you. The printer who set Political Polka's story on the OPA-Eddie's Chop House-Chateau last week must have had a mental lapse. Or else he is buying red points from some gal in the OPA and didn't like our remarks. Just to straighten you and the story out, we'll reprint that part which was bungled last week.

If you remember the gist of the story was that when the Chateau showed up with 20,000 red points missing, the OPA enjoined that restaurant from purchasing or serving sugar, meat and other red point items, but when Eddie's Chop House, a few weeks later, came up with a much larger shortage, the OPA was not nearly so drastic in its punishment. In substance, we said:

This (Eddie's Chop House) famous eating establishment was overboard a mere million and a half points plus ration stamps for a trifling item like a ton of sugar. The OPA attempted to soft-pedal the violation by quoting the overdraft as 674,333 meat points and 14,000 pounds of butter (representing 236,000 additional red points at the then better value of 24 points per pound). That made the actual total shortage of 1,010,333 red points plus 316,182 processed food points. Here was our added comment (as it should have been printed):
You know what happened—Eddie's Chop House was slapped smartly on both wrists. The manager was suspended indefinitely for being such a poor bookkeeper (or such a good one) and all was forgiven.
We are certainly not recommending that the OPA be more severe with the Chop House — it's essential that Rochester have at least one of two places where a hungry man can get something to eat. But by the same token, it's just as necessary that those who go out after dark have a ham sandwich with their high ball.

The local OPA in making such a decision and showing such partiality has turned back the pages of history to Puritan days. Apparently if you operate a night club, it makes you a subject for the stocks or a candidate for the Friday night Witch burning parties.
If the OPA is interested — Eddie's Chop House has a bar too. On a square foot basis it's said to be the most profitable one in town.
I thought, Joe, you might be interested in knowing that this week The Chateau was obliged to throw out more than 150 pounds of choice beef. You see, you can't keep beef until September. We presume this information will make the OPA witch-burners very happy.
The weather begins to make us years for that manufactured climate we read about.

Political Polka

By Curt Gerling

The publicity writers for the local Republican party have been somewhat silent on Mr. Broderick as the "Great Debt Reducer" of late weeks. Perhaps it is because they, too, have read the recently released statistics on the outstanding debts of the country's local governments. Although Mr. B's party has earned an unenviable reputation as debt "pile-uppers," these tax figures indicate they are no "great shakes" as tax reducers, despite what the Herald MacFarlin would have us believe.

The Tax chart shows that the total debt of all local governments in the United States was sixteen billion six hundred and eighty million dollars in 1932. Ten years later it was down to sixteen billion four hundred and seventy-nine million. Then in 1944, only two years later, it had risen to fourteen billion seven hundred and three million. Thus it looks as though the local boys have no corner on tax reduction. In fact, in these boom days, it's a cinch all over the U. S. A. Dunn and Bradstreet might state unofficially that the hardest business to find work for these days is a collection agency.

The report further indicates that the City of Rochester, on percentage of tax reduction, was miles behind the majority of its fellows. What the firemen, police and political office workers were paid in these other cities is not indicated but it seems unbelievable that two communities in the U. S. A. would dare to under pay these services so flagrantly.

Aqua Show Added To County Fair Program

With rationed automobile driving and curtailed railroad travel keeping Rochester and Monroe County residents at home over the week-end at the close of August and the Labor Day holiday, indications are that sponsors of the revived Monroe County Fair will entertain record-breaking crowds August 30, 31 and Sept. 1.

The Fair, an outgrowth of the institution held at Rush several years and the 4-H Achievement Day, is planned to include a flower show by all the garden clubs of the seventh judicial district, embracing several counties; display of garden produce, poultry and livestock exhibits.

Other features will include displays of homemade clothing, baked foods and canned fruits and vegetables.

For entertainment there will be an up-to-the minute midway, featuring rides and games of skill for old and young.

Dogs Continue Racket; Humane Society Not Guilty

By ORVILLE ALLEN

These were "dog days" in Rochester, but that didn't mean the dogs were happy about it. They were literally in the doghouse, on a leash, or running the risk of being picked up by the dogcatcher in the current quarantine to curb the outbreak of rabies, said to be threatening this area. At least, the majority of the population understood the quarantine as a measure to reduce the dangers of rabies but one warworking "Roland" injected a new angle yesterday morning when, in a letter to the editor of the Democrat & Chronicle, he interpreted the quarantine as a city-sponsored measure adopted to give night workers a full day of rest by eliminating the barking of dogs during the daytime. Others found that dogs on leash emitted more and louder barks per minute than when running loose.

Quarantine Stays
But, whatever was the real reason for the dog quarantine, it was still very much in effect in this area. The number of stray dogs picked up had fallen off considerably, and the killing of dogs at the City Pound had waned to a mere trickle. More than 800 dogs, less than 100 of which were strays have been destroyed since the quarantine went into effect on June 29.

Many owners, wishing to avoid the trouble and inconvenience of continual leashing have taken their pets to the pound for disposal. According to Dr. Robert Westphal, state veterinarian, those owners who had their dogs inoculated at from three to five dollars a head in the fond belief that inoculation would automatically free the dog from the end of the leash 30 days after immunization were due for a shock. Dr. Westphal said that no dog, inoculated or not could legally run loose until this area has been properly designated by the state commissioner of health. That can only happen after it has been determined that all stray dogs have been picked up, a large percentage of the licensed dogs inoculated and the quarantine generally obeyed here. Dr. Westphal called upon Dr. Albert Kaiser, city health officer to furnish figures showing how many dogs had been inoculated during the past six months. But, according to one veterinarian, no check-up has been made.

Strong fiberboard boxes are recommended for mailing parcels. Banned from the parcels are perishable goods, intoxicants, inflammable materials.

Since Navy, Coast Guard and Marine Corps personnel may receive parcels without a request at any time of the year, it is not the policy of the Navy Department to encourage the mailing of parcels during any particular period.

The Navy does suggest, Dailey said, that parcels intended as Christmas gifts be mailed not later than Oct. 15 to afford probability of delivery prior to Christmas.

All gift packages must be marked "Christmas Parcel" and a five-pound maximum weight has been set for each parcel. They shall not exceed 15 inches in length or 36 inches in length and girth combined.

Ed Randall's Scene and Word

A man has one advantage in hot weather. When the heat becomes unbearable, he still has some article of apparel that he can take off.

One evening recently a nattily attired gentleman of dignified appearance walked into one of our better restaurants. Seating himself, he beckoned the waiter to his table with an imperious wave of his hand. "Now, pay attention, waiter," he said, "I want some oysters. They mustn't be too large or too small. They must be neither too old or too tough and they must not be salty. I want them cold and I want them at once. Do you understand?" "Yes, sir," replied the waiter, bowing, "With or without pearls?"

I heard about an American soldier who married a girl in Italy but he complains that since he brought her to this country she spends all of her time hanging out of the windows. She must be a Venetian blonde.

The other day a patient who had noticeably weak eyes entered the Clinton Avenue office of Doc Hildreth, the eminent optometrist. After an examination, three pairs of glasses were recommended. One for long sight, one for short sight, and the third pair to look for the other two.

An elderly couple had been sitting in front of the fire one evening for a long time without speaking. Finally the husband inquired: "What are you thinking about?" To which the wife replied: "Oh, I was just thinking how long we have lived together and that it couldn't go on forever like this and that the time will come some day when one of us will have to go." "Yes," nodded the old gent, "that's right, but it's no use to worry about that now, mother." "No," was the calm reply, "but I was just thinking that when it does happen, I would like to go to California to live."

Occupied Germany has begun to take on the appearance of a cow. U. S. troops are occupying the front part, the part that needs feeding, while Russia occupies the part that produces the milk.

Then there's the woman who went to Reno to divorce her husband on the grounds of flat feet. She found them in the wrong flat.

A BIT ROUGH — Why this bucking bronk was so upset by carrying lovely Ann Greely, Ardmore, Okla., remains a mystery. Perhaps he hasn't had as good a look at her as have the thousands attending performances of the 19th annual Grotto Rodeo at Edgerton Park this week. Ann gives an exhibition of bronk busting that meets with the complete approval of the crowd, if not of the horse.

Human 'Rocket' Returning Here For Carnival Show

Returning to Rochester for his second engagement of the season is "Zacchini" the man who thinks so little of his bodily welfare that he has himself shot out of a cannon every day, just to amuse the public. At amusing the public he is apparently a great success. Already he has a reputation in Rochester as one of the most daring men alive.

Zacchini will be featured at the Endy Bros. Carnival and Thrill Show coming to the Scottsville Rd. showgrounds opposite the airport all next week under the auspices of the Kaufman Post War Veterans. Fifteen shows will be supplemented by 15 rides to make up the carnival.

Zacchini will get his daily "shot" each evening — out of his specially built cannon — across the top of two giant ferris wheels and, if all goes well, into a huge net.

West Sider Mans Navy 'Privateer'

John L. Curry, aviation machinist's mate, third class, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. Curry, 15 Trafalgar St., was a crew member of a Navy Privateer search-plane which flew through a showering mass of flak and debris to sink three enemy armed trawlers off the coast of Japan recently.

The debris and flak damage almost knocked the plane out, but the Privateer was maneuvered into position to attack the remaining vessels. The run was made, bombs were dropped and the vessels were strafed. There was so much flak and smoke it was impossible to observe the results of this attack. So the Privateer struck again. This was the third run and direct bomb hits were scored on both ships, demolishing them. The battle-scarred Privateer left the scene with flames shooting 2,000 feet into the sky.

Dog 'Racket' ...

as yet been made by the Health Department. Therefore it looked like the quarantine might remain in effect for weeks to come.

In last week's issue of The Sun an article characterized the rabies campaign as a "racket," and perhaps insinuated that the Humane Society of Rochester is guilty of commercialism. Upon subsequent investigation, it has been ascertained that not all of the information therein was correct. For such lapses we make profuse apologies.

At one time, in France, laws had to be passed against the poisoning and shooting of wretched people whom frightened townsmen merely suspected of having rabies. Louis Pasteur, with the picture in his mind of babies crying for the water their strangled throats would not let them drink, placed hollow glass tubes into the gaping mouths of dogs writhing mad with rabies.

The Humane Society is a non profit institution and was organized for the prevention of neglect and cruelty to animals. One of its incidental objectives is to promote the health of the community. Under its contract with the City of Rochester it receives $17,500 per year for its services in keeping the city free from stray dogs and suffering animals. It maintains its buildings, operates four trucks, and has a staff of eight employees. Operating expenses are reputed to be far in excess of the remuneration it receives from the city. It is a self sustaining organization, receiving no share of the Community Chest Funds, but surviving by the dues of its members and voluntary contributions. The charge made that it receives four dollars per dog seized is without foundation, as the section of the State Law is applicable to only communities in which no Humane Society exists.

Prior to and since the quarantine went into effect many owners of dogs voluntarily have requested the Humane Society to dispose of their dogs.

The employees of the Humane Society conduct regular inspections of transportation facilities for many animals.

The State of New York, without consulting the Humane Society, ordered a quarantine of dogs. There have been 13 cases of rabies in Monroe County since January 1 — 3 or 4 of which were in Rochester.

In view of the foregoing, to refer to the Society as "paid killers" can be considered an unfair appellation. It is a charitable organization devoted to the humane enforcement of the New York State laws relating to animals. The Society is said to be opposed to the disposal of dogs unless absolutely necessary. On the contrary, it claims to be vitally interested in their retention by their owners. The Humane Society appears to have rendered additional services and incurred additional expenses during the quarantine period.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN THAT License No. 02-1822 has been issued to the undersigned to sell beer at retail under the Alcoholic Beverage Control Law at 380 Portland Avenue, City of Rochester, County of Monroe, for off-premises consumption.

TO BE OR NOT TO BE — Edward L. Frank, 30 year postal vet here will sit at the desk of Assistant Postmaster John J. Sullivan permanently if Washington gives the departmental Okay. Frank, Rochester postoffice cashier for the past 10 years has been named to fill the place of Sullivan who died last week.
Born in Rochester 67 years ago, Frank at one time worked for Eastman Kodak Co. but the lure of the diamond finally won out and took him through the ranks of semi-pro baseball and into the professional leagues. His career ended in 1909 when a lame arm caused his resignation from the Toronto club of the International League.
Frank has been connected with the postoffice here since that date, as substitute clerk, regular clerk, assistant cashier and head cashier. He lives with two sisters at 514 Parkside Ave.

IS YOUR MARRIAGE Lacking something

Because You Don't Know These Intimate Physical Facts?
If your husband seems indifferent—maybe you don't realize how important douching often is to feminine cleanliness, health and happiness—Many women still foolishly use weak, homemade mixtures of salt, soda or vinegar which so irritate and can not give the great germicidal and deodorant action of ZONITE—And many use overstrong solutions of harmful poisons which can burn and severely irritate. But ZONITE is different. No other type liquid antiseptic-germicide for the douche of all these tested is so powerful yet so safe to delicate tissues! ZONITE destroys odor, helps guard against infection. It kills every germ it touches. You know it's not always possible to contact all germs in the tract. But you can be sure—ZONITE immediately kills all reachable germs. Use ZONITE as directed often as you wish without risk of injury! Buy today!

The Cost of Electricity

The latest cut in electric rates will save R. G. & E. customers $753,000 annually on their service bills. The savings will be spread among all classes of customers—residential, commercial and industrial.

Electricity was cheap before the war and the recent reduction, which is the fifth major slash in rates in the past ten years, brings its cost to a new low in our history.

Because they have continuously found new uses for electric service many people have not realized how steadily the unit cost has gone down. In the beginning people used electricity only for lighting, but today electricity makes our ice refrigerators, our food washes and irons our clothes, sweeps our floors, toasts our bread, runs our radios and our clocks and performs many other services, all for a cost so low as to make it the smallest item in the family budget.

HAS GONE

DOWN

AGAIN!

Electric Rates Cut More Than $2,000,000 In Last 10 Years

Major electric rate reductions in the past ten years have been made as follows:

1937	98,540
1938	398,830
1940	400,515
1945	753,300
Miscellaneous	27,345
Total	$2,024,000

The average family today gets nearly twice as much electric service for the same money as it did twenty years ago.

Political Polka

By Curt Gerling

The city coal contract caused consternation in Republican headquarters last week. There was only one bid. The same company that was successful last year won out again. The other coal dealers refused to play.

MONROE COUNTY REPUBLICAN FORMULAS MADE TO ORDER

ROCHESTER SOLDIER REPORTS:

Buchenwald Prison Tales All Too True

We've all heard the story of the Buchenwald — the infamous Nazi camp where prisoners were tortured, killed and cremated. It's a story the squeamish would rather not hear. In fact, many have labeled some of the aspects as "pure propaganda."

Teacher Pay Raise Advocated By Mead

Increases in salaries for New York State teachers were advocated this week by Senator James M. Mead of Buffalo who took time off from his senatorial duties to put in a good word for the pedagogues.

STRIKE VICTIM

Who was right and who was wrong in the dispute between maintenance employees of the Cutler Bldg. and the building's management mattered little to tenants and patrons as they trudged up and down the stairways on Monday.

GI Bill Called 'Fraud' By Vet Head

"The biggest fraud ever thrust upon the American public and the American Veteran," was the verdict of Leon Austin newly-elected commander of the local chapter of the Disabled American Veterans, who this week sought to clarify the stand of the national DAV on the GI Bill of Rights.

Laughs From Life

PRACTICAL ILLUSTRATION

A youngster asked his father how wars began.

"Well," said the pater, "suppose America quarreled with England and —"

"But," interrupted mother, "America mustn't quarrel with England."

"I know," he answered, "but I am taking a hypothetical instance."

"You are misleading the child," said the mother.

"No, I am not," he answered. "Yes, you are."

"I tell you I am not! It's outrageous —"

"All right, dad," said the boy. "Don't get excited. I think I know how wars begin."

PATERNAL APPETITE

While visiting a friend living in a small suburban town recently I noticed that a fox terrier belonging to the family had a new litter of puppies. I said to my friend's younger brother: "Well, Bobbie, I see Mitzie has puppies, Bobbie promptly replied: "Yes, and it's her third helping, too."

"Better protect your overcoat from the moths."

"I don't think moths will bother it."

"Oh! How about boll-weevils?"

SWEET SIMPLICITY

Young Bride (telephoning grocer) — That pumpkin you sent me isn't any good. It's all hollow inside. Please send me a solid one.

Who Was She?

Hartford, Conn. — A small grave in Northwood Cemetery, with only a number, 1365, to identify it, holds the body of one of the six unidentified victims of the circus fire only July 6, 1944, that claimed 168 lives and sent more than 600 others to hospitals. Two detectives, neither of whom knew the little six year old girl, placed a bouquet of flowers on the grave on the anniversary of the tragedy, and continue to wonder why the body remained unidentified and unclaimed. No friend or relative of the child has ever made inquiry about her in the year that has elapsed since the tragedy.

PLENTY OF OCCASIONS

Smith — I'm not thin-skinned. I'm the first to laugh at my own foolishness.

Smart — What a merry life you must lead.

Fur fashions are kind to clothes budgets and don't change too often or too much. But this year, they do an about face that is certain to date older coats. Silhouettes and lengths are new. So are yaks, waists, hoods, hemline flaring like pelumps and simple necklines. Two furs used together, brown with black, for instance are in the season's bag of tricks. All into a tunic MR. Doctors recommend MILK to people on reducing diets. It is the most important of all food for nourishing and protecting the body. Of course I'm not talking about just plain milk — I mean HOMOGENIZED VITAMIN D MILK. Did you know that you get NINE valuable advantages of Vitamin D in HOMOGENIZED MILK. Natural milk lacks Vitamin D, which insures the utilization of calcium in the milk. You'll find on a reducing diet when that morning and afternoon fog almost overpowers you — a drink of HOMOGENIZED VITAMIN D MILK will turn the trick. Call BRIGHTON PLACE

DAIRY today — Glenwood and have this famous milk delivered to your home. 45 Fulton Ave.

Fresh milk can be removed from laundry followed by sunning and bleaching. Old milk is usually possible to remove. Apply potassium permanganate in mildew on non-washable until it disappears. Follow with hydrogen peroxide and spray thoroughly with fresh water.

Buchenwald . . .

"Dear Mother:
Yesterday was a warm Sunday here in Saxony. No one would have thought a few short weeks ago two armies had battled to the death in this now peaceful and beautiful countryside. All that remains as evidence of the strife is the rusted twisted machinery of the once proud Wehrmacht.

What I saw yesterday has given me the clearest picture yet of what we were fighting for — or against. A group of us went through Buchenwald prison just a few miles outside the once beautiful and industrious city of Weimar, and surrounded by a very formidable looking barbed wire fence which was charged with electricity when the camp was in operation. It is now being used to house displaced persons — Russians, Poles, Hungarians and people of all the other conquered nations.

As we passed into the camp we came on a large area paved with square blocks which were brought to the spot on the shoulders of prisoners — not in trucks, carts or wheelbarrows. Who knows how many innocent persons died that this area might be paved.

We first visited the "better part" of the camp where barracks about a hundred feet long were made to house 150 men each but housed five to seven hundred when the camp was operating at top capacity. Then we went over to the building where the SS troops had housed the healthiest prisoners to be used for medical experiments. Inmates were allowed to be bitten by lice and other vermin so that they would contract typhus. Then their blood was drawn off to provide serum for the SS. Mortality rate here was 95 percent a month.

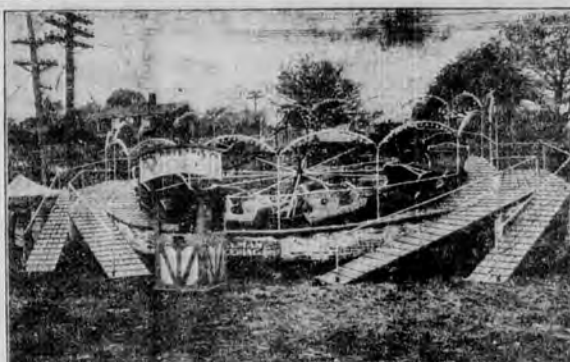

In the small camp where the worst conditions existed beds were built in tiers of five the entire length of the building. Five men slept in each five foot space. Constructed to hold five to seven hundred men, at times they housed 15 to 17 hundred. The floors were so crowded no one could even lie down. Most of the prisoners suffered from dysentery, typhus, paralysis or tuberculosis. Only one toilet was provided for all these men — most of them Jews. One small room was reserved for the leader of the camp, a political prisoner.

A man who had spent 27 months as a prisoner here told us that when inmates died their bodies were thrown outside on a pile to await the pickup carts on their daily rounds. It has been estimated that 800 to 1000 died every day. Once a week an SS Major came to the camp hospital and checked on the patients' condition. Those believed to be incurable were given an injection and killed. Later their bodies fed the vast crematoriums on the place.

Eight large ovens in the crematorium were able to handle eight bodies every half hour. The place was run around the clock and sometimes as many as three bodies would be burned at once — so far behind were they in their work. Over 150,000 bodies were disposed of here. I didn't see any gas chamber here for killing people but in the cellar was a large room in which 64 hooks were placed around the four walls close to the ceiling. Men were hung up here until dead. The marks where their fingers clutched at the walls and their feet kicked are plain to see in the walls. More than 7000 Russian officers were killed here in two months, as were 46 Canadian airmen who were captured when their planes were shot down.

This place will live forever as a ghastly monument to the cruelty and inhumanity of the German people. The nations whose citizens were prisoners here should never forget this place and when the Germans, with their smiles and handshakes try to win their friendship again, those people should turn aside the hand and see to it that these Germans are never allowed to have equal footing in a world of decent people.

UNRATED THRILL—One of the big feature rides with the Endy Bros. Show now showing on Scottsville Rd. opposite the airport is this device said to offer patrons "60 thrills a minute." Fourteen rides and a dozen shows make up the carnival sponsored by Kaufman Post War Veterans.

Scottsville Rd. Carnival Attracts Large Crowds

Given half a chance by the weatherman, Rochester likes a carnival. At the Endy Bros. Shows playing this week on Scottsville Rd. opposite the airport large crowds are in attendance — whenever the grounds are dry. Monday was a banner night, but Tuesday's rains slimmed the crowds who were afraid of muddy grounds. Last evening the throngs returned to ride the rides, see the shows and watch Zacchini, the human rocket, who is shot out of a cannon to go zooming through the air over two ferris wheels and land in a huge net below. To date he has landed safely every time. The first time he doesn't will mark his final appearance here — or any, where else — at least on this earth.

The show is sponsored in its local showing by the Kaufman Post War Veterans who will devote the proceeds to charitable work among veterans in government hospitals.

CHEERFULLY CREDULOUS

"Do you believe that awful story they are telling about Alice?"

"Of course I do. What is it?"

Auxiliary To Meet Tuesday

Mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of honorably discharged veterans or of veterans who died in the line of duty are invited to attend a meeting of the United States Global War Veterans Auxiliary planned for next Tuesday at 8 p. m. at 185 Chestnut St.

J I Right Bill . . .

Bar 90 Per Cent

"The original law had 17 lines on home farm and business loans. The Veterans Administration then put out 20 pages of regulations on home loans alone that completely emasculated the law. It now effectively bars at least 90 per cent of the veterans from securing a loan.

The American public has come to believe that any man who had been in uniform could secure a loan if he wanted it, but if he can pass all the Veterans Administration regulations he could qualify whether he'd ever worn a uniform or not."

Commander Austin pointed out that many disabled veterans who are entitled to vocational training under Public Law 16 are being guided into the GI Bill of Rights training provisions.

"Under the Public Law 16," he said, "a disabled veteran gets $92 a month while in training; under the GI Bill he gets $50."

Builders Warned About Gouging Home Buyers

Unless building costs come down from their war time level, prospective postwar home buyers will go on strike as they did in 1920, Harold H. Rosenberg, Editor-Publisher of the building trades magazine, Practical Builder, warns in an editorial in the forthcoming August issue.

A reasonable price increase is to be expected, Rosenberg says, but "if the house that cost $6000 before the war costs $8500 or $9000 after the war, few people will buy it."

"Let's not think that just because this country needs ten million homes it will necessarily buy them in the next ten years," says Rosenberg. "People will buy a million homes a year only if the price is right. They'll buy five million automobiles only if the price is right. People don't have to buy new homes. They doubled up in the 30's and they can do it again."

Three things are necessary to reduce building costs, according to Rosenberg. These are: Elimination of excessive labor costs arising from make-work restrictions; revision of obsolete, cost-raising building codes; and the exercise of ingenuity by builders to find ways of producing a good house for less money.

The public suffers when the building industry does not get the chance to use its most advanced techniques and materials, and many a building workman will not be able to buy the product of his own labor if restrictive, make-work practices continue, the magazine asserts. This could, however, prove a blessing in disguise by offering excessive wages to lesser paid white collar workers. Building codes, Rosenberg adds, must be written to benefit the people and not to "line the pockets of a few selfish manufacturer, labor unions and politicians."

Junior 'Sunbeam' Cited By Clothing Tycoon

By Ed. Randall

To prove that successful business men are not too busy to recognize and appreciate efficient and courteous service, even from a small boy, we reprint a letter received from John A. (Jack) Morton, vice-president and advertising director of the National Clothing Company. Mr. Morton writes:

"Gentlemen: May we take this opportunity to compliment you on the selection of your newest representative, Master Bob Meagher. He is courteous, fast and most efficient. The writer is permitting Bob to deliver his proofs, etc. to this desk (the wrong place here) just so we may not be deprived of contact with your organization through this alert new ambassador.

Our attention was first attracted to Bob, because of his speed. The writer happens to have a weakness for little fellows just starting out in business, who look as if they're really doing a job for their money, even when the boss isn't looking. Bob appears to be that sort.

Obviously, we remember our first job, one summer; it was dusting willow plumes with a wholesale millinery company in Boston. Our pay was $4.00 a week. We tried to be the fastest duster of the crew, and, before the summer was over, we had been promoted to the dusting of artificial flowers. This, of course, required greater skill, as you can well imagine.

The writer is certain that had his inconsiderate parents not insisted on his returning to school that Fall, he would have made rapid progress there... all of which is mentioned merely as an inspiration to Bob (in the event you wish to tell him) so that he may look forward to progress with you, by continuing his present commendable effort.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) John A. Morton.

P. S. In order not to lose Bob's respect, I wish you would explain to him that following the Civil War, $4.00 a week was considered good pay for a boy, during vacation time."

We quite agree with everything you have said about Bobby, Mr. Morton. He is efficient, courteous and fast, very fast, on his feet. Of course, he's built rather close to the ground and doesn't offer very much wind resistance on his travels with proofs. The only regret we have is that we didn't discover him. He discovered us. He came in one day, asked for a job, and someone in the organization was smart enough to hire him.

But we were deeply interested in that part of your letter relating to your first job. To work up one summer from willow plumes to artificial flowers was quite an achievement and should have been, if we may be permitted a pun, quite a feather in your cap. Your success in such a short space of time should serve as a flaming inspiration to all boys of school age.

I am sure that Bobby is very grateful for your kind words about his efficiency and that he will profit from your words of wisdom. Your letter has already enabled Bobby to pass one milestone in his progress towards success as the boss has threatened to turn the National Clothing account over to him, so that he can pound your desk for equal copy in addition to furnishing you with proofs.

Navy Flier Returns From Pacific Duty

With the Pacific Fleet—Robert E. Smith, 22, aviation ordnance man, third class, 100 Hickory St., has returned to the U. S. after eight months in the forward Pacific area where he flew antisubmarine and search missions aboard a Navy Marine patrol plane.

He and his crew covered the waters around Luzon prior to our invasion there and winged long patrols over the South China Sea. They completed 50 sorties from bases in the Philippines.

Forced down by engine trouble on one flight, the Marine crew waited all night for rescue. A destroyer towed their aircraft into an island where repairs were made and the plane started back to its base. While landing, however, fire broke out and the plane sank. All hands escaped uninjured.

Chaplain Assigned To Cruiser

Lieut. S. H. Shears, 406 Lakeview Pk. for the past year administrative assistant in the main chaplain's office at the U. S. Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif., has been detached from that assignment to report for duty aboard a cruiser in the Pacific, the Eleventh Naval District announced this week.

Prior to entering the Navy in May, 1942, Lieutenant Shears was pastor of the First Methodist Church in Spencerport, N. Y.

Chaplain Shears is a veteran of two years' overseas duty with the 22nd Marine Division in the South Pacific. His headquarters were at Samoa and he returned to the United States following the Marshall Islands campaign.

Rochester WAVE Sent To Hawaii

WAVE Betty Alberta Speltz, storekeeper, second class, of 21 Fillingham Dr., has reported for duty in the Hawaiian Islands. She previously was stationed at the Armed Guard Center, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McDevitt, live at the Fillingham Dr. address. Miss Speltz attended John Marshall High School and before enlisting was employed by Bausch and Lomb.

War-Inspired Charity Frauds Said Widespread

American club women are the victims of thousands of fraudulent promotions put over in the names of sweet charity, says She magazine in its August issue, which directs an appeal to women to be businesslike in their charities. Several instances of fraud have been uncovered by the magazine and schemes galore are said to be flooding the country. Most of them are war-born. But war or peace, there will always be those who can promulgate some scheme to bilk hard-earned cash from the unsuspecting.

Decrees of Fashion

Funny jingles about betroussered women would lose all their humor if as much attention were given to the fitting of slacks as is spent on skirts, according to Margaret Macdonald of CBS "Radio Newspaper."
In assuming the masculine style feminine figure problems of round- hips, heavier thighs and not-so-flat tummies cannot be camouflaged but may be modified by proper tailoring. Few women run true to the proportions on which slacks are sealed, since the patterns of manufacturers are built on a mean average of all women, and it then becomes the duty of every purchaser to have the garment adjusted to her various anatomical deviations from the common figure denominator.

Top news of the week in the style field has been the establishment of trends in millinery.
No single shape of hat dominates, but each showing stresses the importance of feathers in the decorative scheme and a better head fit than in previous years. Soft and bulky crowns continue the march they started this spring. This autumn they re-combined with smaller brims and dressed up with effective accents of bows, beads and new feather motifs, but the line and silhouette are highlighted by rather than subordinated to ornamentation.

Glamorous habit of hiding behind dark sun glasses will eventually take its toll, we learn from young CBS starlet Miriam Wolfe. The original purpose of dark glasses being to relieve eye strain from strong lights and glaring reflections of old Sol does not include tempering for ordinary indoor lighting. Unless glasses are especially ground for the wearer, by prescription, it would be better to guard the valuable orbs by igving them normal outlook when away from the blinding sun.

Little Things About the Stars

By GEORGE LILLEY
NEW YORK, N. Y. — At 60, gangling, ex-vaudevilian Tom Howard has hit his peak with a radio quiz show critics called "too limited" to last. That was this season "It Pays to Be Ignorant," CBS's
Friday night half-hour of the mass stupidity, is going,
according to Hooper ratings, stronger than ever.

at $28,000 a week, you can see it would take nerve for a fellow like Benny to try such a thing.

Presented any obvious query this quartet can argue and ad-lib, as radio time goes, virtually indefinitely. To the "poser"
"For whom is the George Washington Bridge named," they disserted seven minutes without,
of course, reaching an answer.
Such ignorance doesn't come easy, is the result of 150 years in show business: for Howard,

E. Z. Grayson, whose appointment as advertising manager of Three Feathers Distributors, Inc., has been announced in New York by Harold L. Job Plans For Returning Vets Told by Oil Co.

When returning G.I.s appear at Sinclair Refining Company's sales offices throughout the country, they'll get considerably more than the usual warm welcome. John I. Mulvaney, local general agent for the company, revealed this week that a detailed program looking toward re-absorption of veterans in the Sinclair Sales organization has been prepared. The program embraces the following broad elements: (1) Helping the returning veteran "find himself". (2) Placement of the veterans in a position to capitalize his war acquired experience and special skills. (3) A training program designed as a refresher course to bring veterans up-to-date on developments and changes that have occurred during the war years. In a letter dated February 26, 1945 to the more than 3,000 employees in the armed forces, Harry F. Sinclair, chairman of the board stated his intention to provide veterans the fullest opportunity to adjust themselves upon their return. Of the replies to his letter, more than 79 per cent indicate a desire on the part of the veteran to return to his old job.

Central Trades Member Seeks Supervisor Post

Seeking election on the Democratic ticket as supervisor of the 12th Ward is Nicholas A. DeConte, who lives with his wife and two children at 36 Parkway. A member of the A. F. of L., Local No. 291, DeConte is a former secretary and delegate to the Central Trades and Labor Council. At present he is in the coal and coke business. He attended Jefferson High School.

12th Ward Attorney Named By Democrats

A newcomer to the political arena is Clayton N. Stein, 267 Oxford St., who this fall will make his bid for the post of supervisor of the 12th Ward on the Democratic ticket. A graduate of the Rochester public schools, East High and the University of Rochester, Mr. Stein obtained his law degree from Syracuse University. He has maintained a law office in the Terminal Bldg. for 17 years. Stein is a member of Yonendon Lodge, F & M; Damascus Temple, Rochester Consistory; Lalla Rookh Grotto; Rochester Bar Association; Past Chancellor of Knights of Pythias; former director and secretary of the Genesee Conservation League; National Association of Colored People; Sigma Alpha Mu Fraternity; and the Syracuse Alumni Association.

Political Polka . . .

(Continued From Page 1) to thirty thousand of the half million rat population have been exterminated. We presume in the few weeks that this drive has been underway the results are considered satisfactory.

But in the opinion of many an harassed householder these rodents would never have gained the headway had the Department of Public Works been on its toes in the prompt removal of trash and garbage. Many a city resident gave up on the department last winter and has had little cause to change his opinion since. The now well-damned DPW, even in falling on its inefficient pass, gave the rats a start that will cost the taxpayers another pretty penny to correct — and it looks as if the owms will have to spend nearly as much.

In Brighton where no one ever gave much thought to establishing a DPW, even one as bad as Rochester's, the rats are having a picnic. In under-industrialized Brighton there is little or no smoke, but there is a rat population that runs Tokyo a close second. In this fair town, with an occasional bottle of ten year old scotch, passes to the ball games and free circus tickets you might induce a free-lancing garbage and trash man to collect your refuse every week for a monthly fee—which he does, if the weather's nice, his truck is running or his wife hasn't got him helping out with the canning.

Down Irondequoit way it's worse. Trash piles and garbage dumps are just what the Jersey minks need for a well rounded homelife, with plans for expansion.

We have on what is known in some circles as unimpeachable authority the facts that the dignified dean of Rochester newspaper men has established a new all time record with his Irondequoit trap lines. Six rats last Thursday met death in his cunningly concealed snares and on Friday seven were flattened. Each day the bag is maintained with little fluctuation. Some claim that "Cray the Catcher" has inherited his trapping skill, via Daniel Boone and Kit Carson on his father's side and is a direct descendant of the Pied Piper on his maternal side. Others claim that it's just that Irondequoit, like the city, is Anyway son, you can smoke the cigars and snatch the scotch of both parties this fall without a dirty look.

Political Polka

- Ghosts of Newport House Recalled
- Golf Clubbers Irlked By Slot Machine Snatch

By CURT GERLING

The colorful character of the supervisors' picnic apparently passed with the late George Aldridge and his cohorts. According to all reports last week's event was duller than a Times-Union editorial.

In the not-too-long-ago, Republican Boss Aldridge stood 'neath the weeping willows of the Newport House and handed out smiles and political plums to the faithful, said plums usually being designations for office. In those days a GOP supervisors' picnic was a "must!"

Mr. Aldridge held "Court" properly flanked by his confi-

Name Band Signed for Harvest Queen Ball

The quick tempo of a famous name band will mark the closing hours of the revived Monroe County Fair, Edgerton Park, Aug. 30, 31 and Sept. 1. Howard B. Bloomfield, manager, told the Rochester Sun this week.

Contract for the band was signed this week by Bloomfield, who explained that the musicians will play for the Harvest Queen dance in the Sports Arena, Saturday night, Sept. 1st.

The march of queens in Monroe County towns continues. All of the queen candidates will be paraded at the dance as the judges decide the young Monroe County maiden eligible to be crowned Harvest Queen.

Advance sale of Harvest Queen dance tickets indicates a capacity crowd. Capacity of the dance floor is 4,000.

"The younger set of Rochester and Monroe County follow a name band anywhere in the vicinity of Rochester, our experience shows," commented Manager Bloomfield.

"The Harvest Queen Dance will be no exception. More than 2,000 tickets have been purchased as of today. Sale of tickets will spurt the minute we announce the name of the band and its leader."

The Fair is co-sponsored by the Monroe County Fair Association, Rochester Democrat and Chronicle and Times-Union.

MAYBE YOU COULD REMEDY THIS—Nurse Geraldine Casey illustrates what nurses in local hospitals are up against today because of the nursepower shortage. She is trying to take care of two patients at the same time. A drive this week, sponsored by the Monroe County Nursing Council for War Service, is seeking the return to duty of 500 inactive nurses in the area. According to Mrs. Florence Marshall, executive secretary of the Council, 215 beds in city hospitals and approximately 200 beds at the county hospital are vacant because of the acute nurse shortage. Retired nurses and others who are not now on the job are being asked by a corps of Red Cross volunteers to register for full or part-time duty at the hospital of their choice until the present crisis is over.

This Week's $25 Winner

Mrs. E. Noonan of 275 West High Terrace, is the lucky winner of this week's $25 cash prize, offered by the Sun each week to its sustaining subscribers. This is the reward Mrs. Noonan gets for paying her Sun carrier, Donald Stevenson, of 285 Flanders St., 10 cents. Don, incidentally, collects an extra five dollars bonus, that no sugar of any kind is used in the manufacture of whiskey.

Each week the Sun conducts a drawing and pays the winner $25. Names of all sustaining subscribers for the current month are entered in the drawing. Since the beginning of the weekly drawing more than $2500.00 has been paid to the lucky winners.

Buffalo Man, 75, Starts New Business

Buffalo, N. Y. — Although Frank Winch retired from business six years ago, he recently celebrated his 75th birthday by opening a new department store. He says, "I'm afraid of idleness."

Sweet Shy? Official Says Distillers Not To Blame

Despite what you've read in your local newspapers, the whiskey makers are not responsible for the sugar shortage!

Authority for that statement is Stewart Berkshire, deputy commissioner of internal revenue with supervision over the Alcohol Tax Unit in Washington. Berkshire revealed that no sugar of any kind is used in the manufacture of whiskey.

These facts should stop unthinking editorial writers and other professional dyes in their attempts to blame demon whiskey for the lack of sugar on the nation's breakfast tables.

"Sugar is not used in distillation of any kind of whiskey, declared Berkshire, "and according to Federal regulations must

Politicos Vie for Labor, G. I. Vote

Democratic Country Chairman Roy Bush and Republican Generalissimo Thomas Broderick have at last gotten together on a program. But they will travel their own separate paths trying to insure success of that program.

Their point of agreement is that in this fall's city and county election, the decision will rest with two blocks of voters—war veterans and union labor.

That this decision has been reached by both sides was revealed when the two parties announced their candidates for supervisors of the city's wards and the county's towns as well as five seats on the nine-man city council, a surrogate, county clerk and city judges. Further evidence of the importance attached to the GI and labor vote was seen this week in the announced plans of the Democrats to set up a special campaign committee to aid the candidacies of veterans on the ticket.

Veterans Named

To help woo a majority of the 10,000 service votes expected in this area the Democrats have named four veterans for supervisors in the city wards. They are Michael Salone, 7th Ward; Ben Morlan, 14th Ward; William Caparico, 16th Ward

Ed Randall's Scene & Word

INSPIRED BY A VICTORY GARDEN

Her legs were shaped like carrots.
Her cheeks were ketchup red.
But, quite unlike a cabbage,
She didn't use her head.
For, when I asked, "What's cooking?"
She left me in a stew —
She said, "You cold potato,
I cantaloupe with you!"

A workman at one of our power stations recently received a severe electric shock and narrowly escaped electrocution. When he resumed work after a couple of weeks, his foreman came to him and asked him if he had fully recovered from his accident. "Well," answered the workman, in puzzled tones, "I feel as good as ever, my doctor says I'm all right, but every time I pick up an electric bulb the darned thing lights up."

Overheard in the Sheraton taproom: "Are you really in love with your new boy friend?" "Well, I don't know. I sorta half like him, and I sorta half don't like him, but I half don't like him the most."

Then there was the young bride whose husband left her because of illness. He became sick and tired of her.

There was an old fisher named Fischer,
Who fished from the edge of a fissure,
Till a fish, with a grin,
Pulled the fisherman in,
Now there's fishing the fissure for Fischer.

During the early part of the African campaign a British army asked for a machine gun and a camel, so that he could stage a one-man commando raid. He was given the items requested, and disappeared into the desert. Days later came a message reading: "Returning immediately, Rommel captured." His arrival was eagerly awaited, but everyone was disappointed when he staggered into camp alone. "Where's Rommel?" asked his commanding officer, quoting his wire to him. "Rommel?" asked the soldier, indignantly, "I didn't wire 'Rommel captured,' I said 'Camel ruptured.'"

And a friend of mine came home one day and found his wife preparing dinner in her pajamas. "I'm making a salad without dressing, dear," was her explanation.

What?
"What's the matter with your boss' eyes?"
"They're all right as far as I know. Why?"
"Well, I had to go and see him in his office the other day and he asked me twice where my hat was, and it was on my head all the time."

G. I. Labor Vote Eyed By Political Parties and William Geier in the 22nd Ward. In addition, First Lieut. Paul McNamara, now on active duty in the China-Burma-India theater has been named for a City Judge post.

Other candidates who are expected to have a particularly strong appeal for the servicemen include several veterans of World War I who have been given major places on the ticket. Harold G. Hutchens, running for surrogate heads the list and the others include Charles J. Knapp, for county clerk, Joseph P. Flynn and Dr. Charles Maggio for councilmen and Paul S. Kregg and Mario Ventura for City Court judge.

The Republican attempt to "steal" the labor vote by naming Frank Niger, prominent A. F. of L. member to the city council appeared to have been effectively countered in the Democrats' action designating Julius Hoestery, former Democratic Councilman and present chairman of the American Labor Party. Then, for good measure they added Mario Ventura, ALP worker for City Court judge, William Mostyn as supervisor for the 18th Ward and Thomas Donaldson for supervisor in the 19th ward. All four are members of A. F. of L. Unions.

C. I. O. Not Represented
In connection with the labor vote, political observers have noted that the American Labor Party, which is supposed to be dominated by the CIO has endorsed the Democratic slate and in so doing lost their only chance to name a member of a CIO union to a spot on the ticket. This action is believed to be predicated on the theory that CIO members will vote the ALP ticket regardless, whereas the naming of A. F. of L. members will draw additional support from Federation union members.

Nine Local Men Serve Aboard Carrier 'Shangri-la'

Aboard the USS Shangri-La in the Pacific. — Nine Rochester, N. Y., Navy men serve aboard this great aircraft carrier which today is a very real source of danger to the Japs and not just the mythical base popularized three years ago when the Doolittle raiders hit Tokyo.

The Rochester men are: Fredrick A. Prevost, machinist's mate, second class, Mt. Hope Ave.; Paul Joseph Reiss, fireman, second class, 1274 Buffalo Rd.; James Walter Toombs, seaman, second class, 17 McEwan Rd.; Edward V. Rybacki, seaman, first class, 30 Peckham St.; Joseph B. Kaltenbach, seaman, second class, 359 Duran St.; Edward Brewster MacKendrick, seaman, first class, 84 Barthol Rd.; Roy E. Graham, seaman, first class, 17 Carlyle St.; John F. Goodman, Jr., private, first class, USMC, 57 Winsor Rd.; John Arthur O'Keefe, seaman, first class, 29 Linden Pk.

Planes from the Shangri-La helped defeat the Japs in the recent Okinawa campaign, raining bombs, rockets and bullets on enemy pillboxes, caves, airfields and communications centers, in support of ground troops.

Plans For 6,000 Made By Moose For Sunday Picnic

Plans to entertain upwards of 6,000 picnickers were being completed this week by officers of the Rochester Lodge of Moose whose annual family picnic is slated for Sunday in Genesee Valley Park. Always well attended, it is expected that this years through will be even larger than usual, according to Junior Governor Stanley Dombrowski, general chairman.

A streamlined program of sports and entertainment has been arranged with the music of two bands alternating to keep things "humming." Vic Sweet and his solo-vox and orchestra will play as will Max Raney and his Moose Hi-Boys. "Novelty sports events, under direction of Fred Weismiller, will be climaxed by a baseball game between teams representing Batavia and Rochester Moose Lodges. Six acts of vaudeville will be presented with James Slater as master of ceremonies, and a host of clowns will cavort around the grounds for the amusement of the "kiddies."

Members of the lodge are urged to secure tickets for themselves and families by presenting their paid-up Moose receipt cards at the club on or before Saturday.

Third Ward Democrats Plan Picnic Sunday

Political Polka . . .
tam, Charlie Chaplin who stood no higher than a five-foot shelf and weighed a scant hundred pounds soaking wet, could be seen at the boss' left, popping off in a scratchy falsetto that ran the old-fashioned coffee grinder a close second in cacophony. Little Charlie, then owner of the "Hustlers," Rochester's ball club, usually swept into the picnic grounds at the wheel of an enormous Stephens-

Duryes with Charlie Owen at his side.
No one dared miss the Supervisors' picnic in those days. Every ward leader appeared, complete with henchmen, to bask in the reflected glory of the mighty and to partake of the grand groceries. Succulent viands were topped by prodigious quantities of lager and liquor, all strictly on the house—or at least paid for from the bottomless barrel which contained the party's entertainment fund.

Last week, they say, the 1945 version of the picnic was but a ghost of its former self. It was an invitation affair (one of the reasons this is not a first hand report) and you had to buy a ticket (which might well be another). They even changed locale to Louis Rind's summer establishment farther down the bay. There were a few pitchers of Manhattans, not more than enough to make the circle twice and a roast beef dinner, the merit of which brought forth divided opinion. That was as far as your ticket took you. From there on in you bought your own drinks and cut your own capers on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Even the dancing dominos failed to come to light and the poker game was a five and ten affair. To make matters worse a Democrat—probably run over on the way down and revived at the picnic—recovered sufficiently to win all the money.

Yes, gone are the days! The Supervisors' affair has become just another picnic. Instead of the boss being there to greet and smile upon his faithful workers, he even failed to show up.

As one old time GOP'er said, "Maybe Tom thinks he better put in some time elsewhere to see that we don't get licked this fall or else he thinks we are going to get licked anyway—which, on proper reflection, might do our party a whole lot of good".

The Weeping Willows seemed to have turned into lonesome pines.

The Oak Hill brass hats are very unhappy, in fact they are in high dudgeon (a phrase fancy writers use to denote a cross between mad-as-a-hatter and fi-to-beddie.) Oak Hill misses its slot machines—particularly the revenue. The brass hats are rattling their sabers and pounding their chests. "Something's got to be done about this," is the battle cry.

Spear-heading the assault on Albany and the audacious group that dared to okay a "Knock-off" of the club's machines, is one of Rochester's top Republican grandees, whose easy thousand dollar smile has turned to a snarl, and his ready outstretched hand into a closed fist.

"After all I and my friends have done to keep Monroe safely Republican (except in presidential years and maybe 1945) Oak Hill deserves more consideration from Albany." Rumor hath it that the opening guns will be withheld until the GOP Oak Hillers find out who and what is behind the visit of the troopers. Then power politics will lay down the opening barrage.

A plea will be entered that Oak Hill is a private club, not owned by an individual as is Midvale and Lake Shore, (both knocked off by the troopers earlier). It will be pointed out that the club's more than a million-and-a-half cost and enormous outlay for upkeep necessitates some such extra-curricular income. Otherwise, they will say, dues would be so high that Rochester and Rochesterians could not afford membership in sufficient quantity to keep the club open. There will be other interesting points raised to which Mr. Dewey and his Albany boys might cock an ear.

It is said they have met with some degree of success. The expensive one-armed bandits have not, as yet, fallen under the axe of the presumptuous troopers. They are being stored all shiny and bright until "further investigation".

On the subject of club operated slot machines there is a story current, which many affirm, that a sharp gentleman with a New York and Albany address was around town recently selling "protection" to clubs at five hundred the protect, and that he was paid off in some quarters and denied it in others. Meanwhile the GOP Oak Hillers are going to find out more about that gentleman too.

- Liquor Store "Plums"
- Republican "Peace Plans"
- Postwar Projects
- Dear Al

—BY CURT GERLING—

A great many of the liquor license plums for retail package stores are going to prove wormy. There have been approximately sixty applications for stores in all parts of the city handed in to the local ABC board.

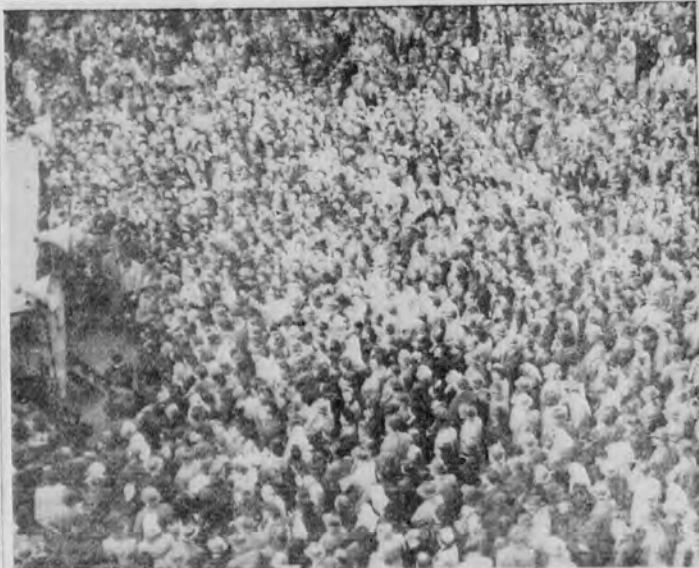

Rumor hath it that forty-seven of these have had the parental blessing of the "great White Father" of the Union Trust building. This makes the forty-seven applicants, joyful in the extreme because now they feel that they are a cinch to get a store and make hay the easy way, regardless of whether the sun shines or not.

One doesn't have to be a master mind to know that these plums are not all going to ripen. Forty-seven new stores are more than even the "we do as we please" Republican brass hats dare foist on Rochester.

The greater share of the applicants will be turned down by the State board (also Republican controlled) but the local okayers will be held blameless, as they will be obliged (so they will say) to bow to the higher authority of the State board.

This way, it is possible to get the affection and campaign contribution of forty-seven prospective purveyors of the boisterous beverage, while the intelligent gentry know that Rochester can stand not more than a dozen more such establishments — and at that, such

Sampson Patients To Get Auxiliary Gifts

Patients at Sampson Naval hospital will receive gifts of fruit, books and cards Sunday when members of the United States Global War Veterans Auxiliary have planned to visit the Geneva naval base.

TOWNSEND CLUB

Townsend Temple Club No. 2, will meet Monday at 8 p. m. at 386 Main St. for a short business meeting, refreshments and dancing will follow.

ALL ROCHESTER WAS THERE
(above)—Well, almost all. Shortly after Tuesday when President Truman announced that "his time is official, Main St. became a beehive of noise, humanity and color. Scenes like the above were duplicated up and down the street from Broad St. to East Ave. When a sudden shower drenched the throngs about 9:30 p. m. only the apparel of the crowd was dampened—not its spirit.

A NEW DAY FOR COUNTRYMEN
—Three Rochesterians who shared liberally in the joy over the Japanese surrender news: were three young gentlemen, all of whom have families in China. Happy over the prospects of a brighter day for their kindfolk are (from left) Yuan K. Lew, Y. Heng Lew and Leo S. Gong.

News of Victory Greeted Here With Mingled Emotions

After several false starts and days of dress rehearsal V-J Day finally came to an expectant Rochester Tuesday.

Sunday night a premature celebration was set off by an erroneous radio report that Japan had surrendered. Even though the flash was quickly denied, Rochester had a vigorous, but short-lived celebration.

Tuesday was a different story, even though the reports which first sent the crowds downtown proved just as premature and without any more factual basis than Sunday's.

Up until noon, downtown Rochester looked like the real thing. The youngsters got out their long-prepared bicycles, complete with tin cans, flags and bunting and joined their elders in Main St. Many went completely haywire and few there were who even stopped to listen to the loudspeaker reports that Japan had not yet officially given up. By early afternoon the celebration had petered out both because the more sober minded finally gave reign to their better judgement and decided to go home where it was cool and comfortable and wait for the official announcement.

That came from the White House at 7 p. m. Tuesday, August 14, 1945.

And from the on, Rochester really took the town apart. Just as World War II had far surpassed its 1917-18 counterpart in duration and intensity, so did the victory celebration in Rochester Tuesday night.

The oldsters took one look down Main St. and turned their thoughts to a crisp, fall day in 1918 when Rochester went wild over the crushing of the Kaiser's forces. This time there was more than one enemy whose hopes for world domination lay crumpled in the dust.

But those over 35 years old were not quite as enthusiastic as the younger generation who had never before celebrated the winning of a "war to end all wars." The last generation remembered the many effigies of the Kaiser — hung from lampposts and on vehicles. This time it was Hirohito.

Decrees of Fashion

Fall fashions, it's true, are the big topic of conversation right now, but nevertheless it really is still summer, and for the most part of the time it's very warm. Every once in a while the temperature breaks into a new high, and you feel your wilted worst. What to do about it? You have undoubtedly had a lot of suggestions given you. One very important one is in the matter of clothing. It's coolest with nothing on at all, of course, but convention seems to be here to stay, so the next best thing is to wear lightweight washable cottons with open styling, day and night.

Style details can contribute much toward coolness. Choose dresses with short sleeves, deep armholes, low neck, and enough fullness to let the air circulate around the body. Avoid surplice effects, double-breasted fronts, heavy belts, any unnecessary overlapping.

If you are a blonde and have trouble keeping your hair light — and highlighted — Claire Pell has a recipe that's been handed down in her family. She washes her hair with liquid castile soap and then rinses it thoroughly. Then, she says, she pours over her head a well-beaten yolk of a strictly fresh egg, to which she has added half a cup of cool, good quality witch hazel, and rubs the mixture into the scalp and on the hair. After another rinse, all you have to do is dry and set it.

Fall Hat Fashions

Smart women start thinking about fall hats long before the leaves begin to turn. Because it's too warm to wear real cool weather hats so soon, milliners make gay little in-between hats in fall fabrics or colors. This year there are tall-crowned clothes of velvet or satin, with cool open crowns; high Victorian bonnets of felt, with open backs; airy open-crowned circlets of felt and velvet instead of flowers; and gay head-bugging half hats of bright feathers. The beauty of it all is that many of these mid-season pre-cups are available at pin-money prices at hat bars and in smart shops.

FRUSTRATED SUCCESS

Alan Young (25), clever comedian just handed a flattering new contract that extends his Tuesday night American (Blue) network show to October '48. But with the success goes frustration. Young's always wanted to be a writer, says he was happiest at $40 a week in Toronto when he could write his own script. In New York the sponsor has provided five writers to get out the show. British born... happy at 144 Canadian reared (Vancouver) the blond wisfling fellow is the most "un-Broadwayish" of the comedy lot, also the most conservative — and smartest — dresser. Ed Randall's Scene & Word

Tuesday's V-J Day celebration started with a bang in the wee sma hours of the morning but it tapered off and fell flatter than a pancake about 1:30 in the afternoon. It may have been the oppressive heat of Main Street or the closing of the taprooms, but, whatever the cause, enthusiasm dwindled to a trickle shortly after the noon hour. Of course, most of the restaurants and lunch counters were closed and it is very difficult, in fact, almost impossible, to celebrate on an empty stomach. Cops, MP's and Shore Patrolmen stood around waiting for something to happen but what crowd there was downtown was very orderly and the main excitement seemed to consist of elaborately decorated motor cars and trucks which dashed through the streets with horns blowing and various noisemakers tied to the rear bumpers. As one burly cop said: "A lot of these jerks are going to wake up tomorrow morning with a big head and a dead battery."

The V-J Day celebration came to Main and Clinton officially about 6:30 Tuesday morning when an overambitious celebrant shinned up the electric light pole in front of Liggett's Drug Store, detached the large glass light globe and dashed it into a million pieces on the sidewalk.

Leo Gong, one of C. Lee Sing's laundrymen, stood in front of his place of business on upper East Main Street and gleefully exclaimed: "Ho, ho. Japonee get velly sick. Have atomic-ache, then see Red, ho, ho!"

One of the oddest downtown sights Tuesday morning was that of three teen-age bobby-soxers sitting placidly in the middle of Main Street in front of McCurdy's playing a game of cards. The hard, hot, unyielding asphalt of Main Street was both their table and their chairs. One of them had brought along a portable radio to keep abreast of the latest news and there they sat, oblivious to the passing crowd and seemingly having as much fun from the game as they would in their own living rooms. Maybe one rude lad was right when he said: "Aw, they're just putting on an act. They want people to notice them." If that was their purpose, they certainly succeeded.

Overlooked by the law a tempting pile of bricks left unguarded at the construction work being done in front of Penney's store on South Clinton Avenue. Many envious glances at the Irish confetti were cast by the celebrants, but as speaks well for the orderly crowds that none took advantage of the obvious temptation. Which reminds me of a story of an Irishman who kept a common brick and a faded rose under a glass dome on the living room table of his home. To inquiring visitors, he explained the souvenirs as follows: "The brick caused the dent you see in the middle of me forehead and as for the rose, shure and that is from the grave of the man who threw the brick."

A sign in the window of the Frances Fur Shop on East Avenue probably expressed the feelings of all of us. The sign read: "V-J. DAY. THANK GOD!"

“That girl there — is she laughing... or crying? I had a girl — once. Sure I wrote her when this happened to me. I told her I was tired of her. What else could I say?

“Listen to that newsboy... “UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER!” I'd give anything to see those headlines. What else does it say? Does it tell about the months of tough goin' we had — or do they make it sound easy now?

“Yeah, I was there all right. If you could have seen what I saw, you wouldn't need anyone to tell you not to forget the guys like me and the rest of us. It was pretty rugged, Mac, believe me. But the one thing that kept us going when the going was tough was the thought that a grateful nation would surely make it up to us. Not with money — not with a big salary. Not a lot of soft-soap for awhile and then a spot on the corner from which to sell our apples.

“You and you and you promised you'd never forget. Starting now — and for years to come — you're going to have a chance to prove it.

“Yes, we'll be coming back now — those of us who got through it alive. Some of my buddies will be missing an arm — or a leg or both. But, we'll still have to eat. We still want to live. How we live is up to you.”

Daily Press Editorial Tries To Stop The Hand of Progress

BY THE OBSERVER

It is not exactly news that the Gannett Newspapers are smug. But they seldom reach the heights of complacency displayed by the editorial writer who, in last Tuesday's Times-Union wrote:

"Newspapers look with tolerant amusement upon the floundering of chagrined newscasters, trying to escape responsibility for the fake flash which set off the premature celebrations."

The writer continued in that vein, speaking of "nervous, impulsive broadcastmen, who talk before they think." He said among other things that radio in any event had to rely for their facts upon news men who toil to dig out the facts. And then he concluded with this sententious sentence:

"Radio is young; perhaps as it ages it will acquire more poise."

There is the indictment. Let's take a look at it.

First, radio is not trying to escape responsibility for that false flash. Rather, it relied upon the customarily responsible United Press for its facts. And that newsgathering organization cannot explain how it got on the wire. It is, in fact, offering $5,000 reward for information leading to identity of the miscreant.

Missed the Point

But the editorial writer misses the point of the whole matter. Radio did not "blurt" out that report on its own. It simply gave it to the listening nation as it was received — not vouching for its truth. And, less than two minutes later, it also gave to the listening nation the correction that came from those hard-working news men who toil to dig out the facts.

The plain truth is this: It was one of those mechanical errors — whether deliberate or not — on the part of some person in the United Press organization — that seem to plague the reporting profession. An error for example, like the false flash of Armistice in 1918 — one that was published so impulsively by an earlier generation of newspaper men, who presumably had learned to think before acting. An error somewhat like the Associated Press "boner" on the verdict in the Hauptmann trial at Flemington, N. J., also published by those newspapers who "consider all the possibilities."

What About A. P.?

An error such as the one perpetrated by that "toiling foreign correspondent, Edward Kennedy of the Associated Press, who sneaked an Army public relations hand-out past an unwary censor and thus pulled the worst journalistic "double cross" in modern history — to the loud applause of the same smug editorial writer on the Gannett Newspapers. One of the few, incidentally, who defended the Kennedy action. By the way, where is that shining light of sober journalism, Mr. Kennedy?

Radio Too Fast?

The gist of the editorial writer's gripe may be found in his own admission. He wrote: "Possessed of facilities for teaching the public instantly, radio blurted out a report before it considered all the possibilities." That's what really hurls the traditional newspaper publisher. Radio does have those facilities and, by using them with ever-increasing intelligence, this medium of communication has already made the newspaper obsolete as a matter of getting out spot news. Best testimony to that is the manner in which the vast majority of the public relies upon radio for last minute developments.

Nearsighted Publishers

Newspapers generally are slow to learn the inevitable journalistic lesson of the age. It is simply that there is a place for both radio and newspapers in the matter of reporting the news. But the publishers are reluctant to give up their spot news prerogatives. If they are to continue at their current status, they had better learn to devote more of their space to commentary and background of the news. This advice is passed on without charge with little idea that newspaper publishers generally will avoid themselves of it. The reason? It is largely that publishers have reduced their coverage to a formula that requires comparatively little reportorial background for local news men. Thus, it is possible to staff the average local news rooms with low salaried, inexperienced persons, with little background. The headlines can be taken largely from the news services — the same ones, incidentally, that serve the radio stations of the nation. For the newspapers to occupy their rightful field of the future would require revision of staff qualifications — upward. That would mean higher salaries. And lower profits. No wonder it is so bitter a pill for the Gannetts.

They Laughed At Progress

His editorial writers may now "look with tolerant amusement upon the floundering of chagrined newscasters." For their predecessors also looked tolerantly upon the replacement of mules by steam along the Erie Canal, as the editorial writer might learn by reading Arch Merrill's excellent series on that ancient waterway. They also were among the sidewalk scoffers who looked "tolerantly" upon the linen-dusted gent who cranked his two-cylinder Buick at the turn of the century as they still plumped for the horse as a means of highway locomotion. They were the men who, at the outset of this war, told the nation that this land — our United States of America — was safe from foreign attack with the broad expanses of the Atlantic and Pacific to protect us.

They are the writers who still think age is a virtue per se. As long as newspapers continue to think in that vein, youthful, impulsive but imaginative radio will stride to the fore even more quickly as the world's most reliable purveyor of spot news.

In all this, the facts of last Tuesday developed one clear-cut refutation of the Times-Union editorialist's boast about radio relying upon news men to dig out their material. While this same "soberly studious Times-Union" was issuing editions bearing the premature banner "VICTORY," a radio correspondent, Max Jordan of NBC, clearly "scooped" all those news service representatives in Bern, Switzerland, with the authentic news of Japan's surrender note, by a full half hour. Even then, the news services had to use Mr. Jordan's facts as the basis for their related stories of the biggest news break of the era — the one for which a confused world had waited more than 96 hours.

That authentic, on-the-scene report reached millions of radio listeners throughout the nation before the Times-Union newsmen even heard about it from their own vaunted newspaper correspondents.

The Jordan "scoop" was a real one. It should puncture the complacency of even that smug Times-Union editorial writer.

Lt. Sippel Completes 34 Air Missions

Lt. (jg) Joseph T. Sippel, 118 Middlesex Rd., pilot of a Wildcat fighter, has returned to the States on leave after 34 missions with composite squadron 91 in the Langayen Gulf and Okinawa campaigns.

The squadron's Wildcat fighters and Avenger torpedo bombers dumped more than 325,000 pounds of bombs on Okinawa rockets and almost 300,000 pounds of ammunition, in close coordinated support of our ground forces.

When the squadron retired, it had destroyed eight planes, 29 trucks, 28 artillery pieces and their emplacements, 20 cave fortifications, 65 buildings, five command and observation posts, a radar station, 10 ammunition dumps, three bridges, two shore defense mines, a big dam and a radio tower.

Peace—The period during which the licked nations prepares to get even.—Buffalo News

Food Distributor Named By Democrats

Now that the war is over, William J. Beckler, 39 Buchanan Pk., is even more sure of election to the post of supervisor of the 8th Ward. He has three daughters, all of whose husbands are in the armed services. If they can reach home to join the rest of his family before November he'll have a sizeable vote total right in his own family.

Beckler, a salesman for the Berger-Kleigen Co. Inc., was formerly sales manager for the Simon-Pure Brewery Agency here in Rochester. Prior to that he operated the Beckler Dry Cleaning Co. at 494 Lyell Ave. At one time he served as president of the Lyell Ave. Businessmen's Association and at present is a member of the Elks, the Eagles and the Odd Fellows.

NORMAL, Ill. — Although Mrs. C. A. Poulton has more than 800 pairs of shoes, she still needs her shoe stamp. The shoes she has are a collection mostly of antique ornaments of glass, bisque, luster-ware and china. She has one miniature pair of gold slippers less than an inch long, a pair in the shape of a pipe and one shoe with an inlaid mother-of-pearl sole.

Harold S. W. (for so What) MacFarlin, the Republican mouthpiece opened wide Monday and gave full play to his vocal chords at a meeting of 12th ward Republicans.

IS YOUR MARRIAGE lacking something

Because You Don't Know These Intimate Physical Facts?
If your husband seems indifferent—maybe you don't realize how important douching often is to feminine cleanliness, health and happiness. Many women still foolishly use weak, homemade mixtures of salt, soda or vinegar which are not only ineffective, but may give the great germicidal and deodorant action of Zonite.

which no one knows anything and it was pretty obvious that Mr. MacFarlin didn't either.

The proposed improvements for postwar projects makes an extremely interesting propaganda release for the city administration. It really requires close reading to discover that the millions earmarked for spending aren't in the treasury in spite of Mr. Broderick's much publicized financial ledger.

With V-J Day over Rochester is going to be treated to a large dose of unemployment—thousands have already been laid off—the master minds at City Hall have had lots of time to ready a few good sized projects to help take up this unemployment every day for some months to come.

sets should be ready now. No jobs, no dough and dwindling savings is what Mr. Hoover gave the people under his administration—and the Republicans haven't been able to get back the lost ground yet.

Most people think a political job is a "soft touch." On that point we won't argue. But few realize that in Rochester it's one of the poorest paid "soft touches" in the country.

In order to get a raise these officerholder have to have the approval of the City Council, and the councilmen would rather toy with an atomic bomb than bring the matter up—at least while Marce Tom Broderick eyes such "goings on" with disdain and disapproval.

Bill Doane will have a lot of loyal men working for his reelection this fall. Few other councilmen will.

Dear Al:
The waitress in question is "Dixie Apron" Doris. She does not admire your column "Political Schmaltz" as she has trouble with one syllable words.

But they remembered too how the Kaiser, unkind and unharmed, lived a long and peaceful life in a home of his own choosing.

Victory News...

They wondered whether or not Hirohito, Hitler and all the others might also live out their natural span of life.

But the answer came positive, and clear:
Once again free men of good will were in control of the world. And there they would remain—as long as the common people retained good will in their own hearts.

There was no good and valid reason why it could not go on permanently.

Notice that the victory had been won.

Costly Slam

CAMDEN, N. J. — Angry because of a sentence of two and a half to three years in prison imposed by the judge, Anthony La Pella, a Camden junk collector, convicted of stealing $1,500 worth of jewelry from the home of a woman while collecting junk in her house, slammed the courtroom door while on his way to a cell. Called back, he told the judge he slammed the door "because I didn't like the sentence." Obligingly, the judge changed it for him—from five to seven years.

Obstetrical Cop

PHILADELPHIA, Pa. — Sgt. Samuel van Gilder, of the police department, has officiated at so many emergency births that he is known as "Mr. Stork" of the police department. Recently, when a doctor was unavailable, he was called on for his 26th delivery; this time a seven-pound boy.

Helpful Neighbors

SPRING VALLEY, Ill. — When Edwin W. Weller, a farmer, died suddenly while working in a hayfield, Mrs. Weller had 60 acres of oats to be harvested. So 83 neighbors—47 men and boys and 18 women—pitched in and reaped, not without three days later.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

We spent a great deal of time last week trying to find out a few facts about the Republican program ballyhooed by the party's big mouth piece Harold (So What) Mac Farlin but could learn little until we finally crowded a twelfth warder into an upholstered corner of Nusbbaum's Sea Shell. In our most disarming manner we kept the waitress busy bringing the gentleman "doubles" until he confessed he had attended last week's meeting at which The Herald Mac Farlin held forth.

Said he "Yes, I was there — but to tell the truth I didn't get what it was all about."

"You mean that The Herald wasn't lucid?" I demanded incredulously. "It seems unbelievable."

"Nope, he wasn't lucid and

Post War Store Shifts Started

Real Estate deals affecting a furniture store, ladies apparel store, a men's clothing firm, a restaurant, shoe shop and The Rochester Sun were completed this week.

Foremost among the changes was the announcement of plans for a new four-story building to house the David's Ladies Apparel Shop on Clinton Ave. S. The building will be erected on the site now occupied by the Waldorf restaurant and the Ormond Hosiery Shop. It will mark the first step in clearing the Main St. site for the new Woolworth store which will be erected on property leased from the Odenbach and Hotel Mayward interests.

Furniture Concern Shifting

Another real estate transfer which will bring one of Rochester's leading furniture concerns to Main St. is the announcement that the People's Outfitting Co., now located on Central Ave. at Ormond St. will move to the building now housing the Gravin Clothing Co. and originally constructed for the Union Clothing Co. Robert Heller, a New York City industrial designer has been awarded the contract to modernize and remodel the four story building which has been leased by the furniture company for a ten-year period beginning next March. Remodeling is expected to be completed by June 1st.

No announcement has been made regarding the future of the Gravin concern but Main St. rumors are that the concern will be dissolved.

Sun Office Space Expanded

Nearly doubling the floor space occupied by The Rochester Sun will be the move of this paper's office to 133 Clinton Ave. by the end of the month.

Sun reporter Ed Randall lets go with a dandy last as the photographer snaps this candid shot of the hay fever victim during his inspection tour of the city's weed lot.

Uncut Weeds Aggravate Hay Fever Sit-choo-ation

By Ed (Kerchoo!) Randall

This assignment seems silly. I've been asked to drive around the city and investigate the ragweed situation. I was told that people were complaining about the way the weeds are allowed to grow unchecked and that the city fathers are supposed to be doing something about it. So I asked the editor: "What harm does a little ragweed do?" He replied, nastily: "I guess you never had hay fever, did you, bud?" He had me there, so I started my investigation. I first looked over the weed side and when I got to the

Labor Rift Playing Into GOP Hands

If the Central Trades and Labor Council carries through with its contemplated recommendations of political candidates this fall — the Republicans will still control the city council after the November election.

When the Republicans named Frank Nizer, a delegate to the labor body, to the city council it was said the move was an attempt to split the ranks of labor.

If the Central Trades body carries through the contemplated program, that split will become a fact.

Endorsements Rejected

Political observers predict that the council tonight will of-

This Week's $25 Winner

Mrs. F. Terry, of 259 Breck St., is the lucky winner of this week's $25 cash prize, offered by the Sun each week to its sustaining subscribers. This is the reward Mrs. Terry gets for paying her Sun carrier, George Watson, of 32 Breck St., 10 cents. George, incidentally, collects an extra five dollars bonus.

Each week the Sun conducts a drawing and pays the winner $25. Names of all sustaining subscribers for the current month are entered in the drawing. Since the beginning of the weekly drawing more than $2500.00 has been paid to the lucky winners.

Capitol Chatter . . .

by Hugo Sims

The Government, which was spending $100,000,000 annually in the peak of the war effort, is expected to cut its expenditures to around $25,000,000 now that peace has come.

It should be obvious to everybody that the elimination of this spending will have a depressive effect upon the national economy. It will be offset only to the extent that private enterprise spends its money and even the most optimistic estimates do not envision a $75,000,000,000 annual expenditure from private sources.

This means, inevitably, that there will be something of a slump or recession in the economic activity of the nation. Obviously, it will take some time for private capitalism to increase expenditures at the rate established by the Government under the exigencies of war.

If these were the only factors involved it would be fairly safe to predict a drastic deflation with the possibility that an acute economic crisis would confront the country in a short time after the end of hostilities. This was what happened after the First World War but it was almost two years before the post-war depression hit the nation.

Now, having reached the end of the war with Japan, we must recognize factors which did not exist at the close of the earlier struggle. Whether these are insufficient to prevent a precipitate decline in economic activity and thus avoid a drastic depression is a question upon which economists differ widely.

The world situation, at war's end is much more favorable to the development of foreign trade than at the conclusion of the last war. The victorious nations seem resolved to cooperate for economic advantages as well as victory. The Bretton Woods Agreements offer a ray of hope and the Reciprocal Trade Treaty program of the United States suggests that tariffs will not be allowed to stifle the barter of goods and services between the peoples of the world.

In addition to the international aspect, the domestic situation appears to be much better than that which followed the last war. The magnitude of expenditures for the present struggle has made possible extensive savings by individuals and corporations. The backlog of cash is available to cushion any depression by providing for capital investment and the purchase of consumer goods. If this immense fund is fed into the economic system gradually it will have an exceedingly beneficial influence upon the entire economic activity of the nation.

A more serious situation involves the workers and service men of the country because, with the end of fighting, many of the are being transferred to other fields of endeavor. About one-third of the nation's working force of 61,000,000 individuals have been in direct war work. Cancellation of government contracts inevitably causes unemployment. Whether it is temporary or permanent depends upon the speed with which the nation reconverts from war to peace.

Some authorities predict that unemployment will reach 4,000,000 within sixty days after the cessation of hostilities with Japan. This number will be increased as men are discharged from the armed services. When Germany collapsed we had 8,300,000 men in the Army and 3,500,000 in the Navy. The redeployment of our armed forces will represent a gigantic reallocation of manpower and it is expected that close to 6,000,000 men will be discharged as early as possible. About half of the total, it is believed will be released within the year.

In approaching the vast problem connected with the realignment of a nation's energy into peaceful pursuits, it might be a good idea to review the factors involved in our mobilization for war. In this belligerent process the nation cut loose with unlimited funds, making possible enormous profits to those who responded to the war production program.

Spurred by the lure of profits and inspired by patriotic impulses businessmen and the people generally accepted government regulations designed to mobilize the full economic power of the country.

In the process of reconversion the patriotic impulse will be lacking. Unless the people of this country, including businessmen, are wise enough to recognize the magnitude of the undertaking and smart enough to insist upon the retention of essential regulations the job will be botched. This will mean an economic crisis with a deflation that will be dangerous to us all.

The demands of the Locomotive Engineers has created a crisis in connection with the operation of the railroads. Two of the brotherhoods have asked for an increase of twenty-five percent in existing wage rates, with a minimum rise of $2.50 on the basic day and for changes in the rules and working conditions that would accentuate "feather-bedding" in the industry.

The demand of the Locomotive Engineers and Trainmen is expected to be followed by similar demands from the Railway Conductors, the Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and the Switchmen's Union. Altogether something like 500,000 railroad employees are involved.

With the deployment of soldiers from Europe and the necessary mobilization of soldiers destined for service in the Far East, and the enormous demand now being made upon the railroads of the nation, the five unions probably suspect that the time is ripe to take advantage of the swollen revenues pouring into the railroads as a result of war activity.

Railroad officials point out that since the country entered the war, railroad employees have had two general wage rises. For the five operating unions, these have amounted to 21.3 per cent and, the present demand, if granted, would mean a rise of more than fifty per cent since 1941, plus other benefits. It is also pointed out that the payroll of the nation's class one railroads now total $2,853,345,000 a year, which is $171,000,000 more than in 1920 when railway employment engaged a half million more men.

The dispute will be followed, no doubt, by further conferences between management and employees and if no agreement is reached within thirty days, the question will be referred to the National Mediation Board, under the Railway Labor Act. If this fails to bring an agreement the controversy will be cited to the President of the United States who may appoint a fact-finding committee to conduct hearings and make recommendations.

WAR REVENUE

More than 20 per cent of the $9,692,437,542 in alcoholic beverage taxes collected by the Internal Revenue Bureau from 1933 through 1944 was received in 1944 alone as a result of the 50 per cent higher wartime emergency taxes imposed on distilled spirits, wine and beer.

Victory Brings Word From Long-Lost GI Joe

Perhaps he was working on the atomic bomb—or on some secret phase of radar, but GI Joe Brewer, former Sun Columnist, suddenly blacked out after this office's March 8th mail call. It was first assumed Joe had gone overseas, and as days passed into weeks without further word, the belief that the one time photographer-adman was stranded on some lonely Pacific atoll became general among his office friends.

All rumors as to his fate, all conjecture as to his whereabouts were put at rest this week when the following message was received at The Sun office from the aforementioned GI Joe.

Dear Gang:

"I'm gonna get on the end of every line I see from now on... it might be for discharges."

That's the popular sentiment in this Oceanside, Calif. army camp.

For five minutes after the official announcement of Nipponese surrender at 6 p. m. Pacific coast time, this barracks sounded like a hot rodeo. But enthusiasm waned quickly... some never got jubilant at all. Some stood with hands in pockets and just stared. They were thinking their own thoughts, and found no cause to rejoice. We do not come home tomorrow. Not even those of us who were literally poised on the coast here to take off. Some will go overseas for occupation. Some will not be released for six months or more—because it might, or probably, would—create economic panic to unload two million men presently training in the States on a world where victories close faster than they pen.

And it was not our victory, anyway.

Tonight I stood by the sea and watched 20 destroyer escorts exult. It was their victory—their's and the others who fought. They had the right to celebrate; to swing 60 searchlights in wild arcs across the sea; to discharge every round of every rocket, smoke rockets and parachute flares they possessed. It was their privilege to blink out happy 'V-J's' on the fingers of light reaching high up to spot the overseas skies.

Every light on the ships burned and hundreds of trains stood silently by the Pacific coast. Gradually they turned silently away and returned to barracks where radios picked the mad cheers of Times Square out of the ether. Radios with announcers who had unmistakably had a drink (bless'em!), and whose joy knew no bounds.

"We ought to feel that happy," some one said. He switched off the set and nobody complained.

"I'll raise merry hell when I get those discharge papers in my mitt," vowed another. He was not enthusiastic.

G. I. JOE BREWER

We are your 'lucky' sons. Your 'fortunate' husbands and brothers. We will all return home to you. Without Purple Hearts. Without overseas ribbons. Without pride. We are the men who were trained in reserve. Who spent 2 years of our lives in the States without thanks—without reason or reward. We were just ready.

Brush off our civilian clothes for us. We're coming home. And for God's sake... don't go around telling folks we were in the war.

Let's just forget it.

Sincerely... G. I. Joe

Shifts To Change Main St. Complexion...

Woolworth's move to the south side of the street will cause several changes when the five-and-ten chain erects its building in the area now occupied by David's. The Peacock Room, The Toggery Shop, Sculpta Hosiery Shop, Wilson Jewelers, Joel's Millinery and the Nisley Shoe Co. Land for the building has been leased for a 33-year period and construction will begin as soon as permission is cleared with government authorities. The building will also front on Clinton Ave. S. and will force the removal of Schief Bake Shop, Noeth's Liquor Store, and The Biltmore Hat Shop. The Odenbach Coffee Shop will be shifted to the southern part of the present building with an entrance at 23 Clinton Ave. S. now occupied by The Sport Shop. Another entrance will face on Downs St.

New Chain Coming

As with an avalanche, one move forcing another, the relocation of Woolworth's is expected to change the complexion of the Main - St. Paul St. corner. Real estate operators report that several chain stores are interested in the Granite Bldg. site and it is expected that an additional variety store chain will enter the Rochester picture. Newberry's and Fishman's chains have been nominated as the most likely candidates.

Teeth Held—He Didn't

Spokane, Wash. — In a Liberator brought in to the Spokane Army Air Depot for repairs, a workman found a dental bridge "gripping firmly to the seat of the plane", leading the inspector to speculate that an air corpsman must have been hanging on too tightly during a rough ride in the B-24 bomber.

what's more he didn't know what he was talking about — if you follow me." The waitress set down another double for him while I gave Mr. Wehler another dime.

"Why I thought Mac had a beautiful program about what he thought the public would like — at least like well enough to vote the boys back in again this fall."

"Shay said the twelfth-winner somewhat thickly." "Shay—Mac made a nice speech — Mac always does — but he just push a lotta words together — they come out nice but they don't mean anything."

"Then this program is a myth-am I to believe that?"

My man drank deeply. "It's not only a myth — it's a nebulous idea — you know what I mean by nebulous?" he didn't wait for an answer but continued. "Nebulous-sh — means it's jussa stary idea and not down together on paper — or anything like that. (hic) — musta been those peanuts (hic) allus gives me indigestion."

"How are you going to kid the public again with mythical and nebulous program?" we demanded.

"We been doing it since 1934 ain't we?" he demanded indignantly.

"Shay that waitress didn't go out to lunch dish she?"

"This is a more enlightened day," we warned our friend. "Yass whush you think — they'll line up and vote straight (hic) Republican — jus like before." He tried to shake an admonishing finger, gave it up. "We got this town by the seat of the pants — all we gotta do ish promish 'em a program — we don't need any."

"You're sure about that," we demanded. The waitress was back again.

"Ssh sure, I'm shure — we won't have any program — and whush more we wouldn't give it to 'em if we did." His head bumped on the table.

We walked back to the office. So thash the way it ish folks.

Sen. Mead . . .

Asks Speedy Discharges

Mead called upon the War Department to speed the discharge of men who have the necessary point credits. He claims that in many instances the right to discharge has been "illusory" in that men doing routine tasks were declared essential. With the war over, said the senator, there can now be no excuse for not discharging promptly men who have the necessary point credits.

One other suggestion made by Mead is that military authorities reduce the age of men entitled to release from the present 38 to at least 35. He said he recognized the necessity for drafting older men during the war even though all agreed that their sacrifice would be greater. But now he claims, the least the country can do is give them a speedy release so they can readjust themselves to civilian life.

Lands Volunteer Plan

Mead commended the War Department for its efforts to obtain an army through voluntary enlistments of discharged soldiers and those still in service. He claims that many, because of the spirit of adventure "or for other reasons" would welcome an occupation assignment.

Hay Fever . . .

corner of Arnett Blvd and Westgate Ter. — ah! — there was a crop of ragweed to delight a connoisseur. It covers the entire vacant lot on the southwest corner and grows so high a motorist has difficulty seeing any car approaching the intersection. I stopped my car and got out for a closer look. The boss told me this was an important assignment and to be sure of my facts. "Be sure it's ragweed," he said. Sure enough, it was. (I had scanned a picture of it in the office in Webster's dictionary, so I would be an authority on ragweed). Then I drove out Buffalo Rd., and found another healthy crop, just beyond Mount Read Blvd. I again made sure it was ragweed and turned my car toward the city's east side.

I drove across Elmwood Ave. bridge and down South Ave. Going through Rockingham St., I saw the granddaddy of all ragweed patches at the corner of Rockingham and Meigs Sts. True to my instructions to get all the facts, I surveyed this plot and found it was about 90 percent ragweed. The remainder was clover, thistles, burdocks, and similar flora. Tough on the troupers but not particularly harmful to hay fever sufferers.

Continuing my journey, I drove through Culver Rd. to Norris Dr., which was literally teeming with ragweed, along both sides of the road. I thought to myself: "God help anyone who is susceptible to hay fever and drives along here." Hay fever must be a terrible thing, I have known people who had it and... achool! I've always felt sorry for them. It must be awful to be continually sneezing and having watery eyes till the first frost comes. I — achool! — must be catching cold. I never had hay fever in my life. But — achool! — achool! — dab it, I MUST be catching a cold. But cad anyone catch cold in the middle of the summer? I'd go back to the office and take a few days off to get over this cold. But — supposig I have hay fever of account of getting close to all that ragweed! That would be a fine thig to have happen to be. That's by fack tryig to do the boss a favor by writig about the disgraceful ragweed growths and I catch the disease bysself.

Achool! achool! Why dot't the goodness, his father's out of city put some of those guys to town.

work who are stading in lide for unemployment. Insurance I'd goig to give this story to the boss and head for the sea shore. If dothig else helps, I — achool! achool! achool! drowid bysself.

Labor Rift . . .

for its list of approved candidates and Frank Nizer's name will be prominent among them. Another Republican incumbent due for approval is Gregory F. Mills. The Labor body will also endorse Julius Hoestery, Joseph Silverstein, and Joseph P. Flynn, Democratic-ALP candidates for the city council.

Should the voters follow the dictates of the A. P. of L. body, the new council would be composed of six Republicans and three Democrats.

Niger To Shun

It is definitely expected, that Niger will shun the endorsement of the Central Trades and make his run solely as a Republican. Mills, too, is expected to follow suit and turn down labor's back-pat, Niger and Hoestery clashed at a meeting of the body last week, making it evident that they did not intend to join hands under any common banner.

That would leave the Central Trades with only three candidates to be considered "theirs." Observers point out that by endorsing only two Republicans the labor group is, in effect, expressing its disapproval of the other three Republican council members up for reelection. But, by splitting their endorsement between the two major parties they will in reality be helping the Republicans to retain their grip on the city legislative body.

Endorsement Basis Questioned

Some wonderment has been expressed in political circles as to how any labor body could choose between individuals now making up the city council. With all members acting as one at the behest of Republican headquarters it is difficult, say those close to the picture, to figure out how the Central Trades can recognize one councilman's actions from another and single out some for endorsement while others are given the condemnation of silence.

WAKE UP YOUR DIGESTION BELOW THE BELT
Without Stomach Relievers
This Kind of Laxative Help Often Needed When Lower Sluggishness Causes Gassy, Bloating Misery
When most food leaves the stomach, it is in no more than 24 hours. It is in the 24 feet or more of intestine that the greater part of digestion is done. When we get congested these later stages of digestion often slow down. Then food is apt to ferment and decay in the bowels. As a result we may feel full of gas, bloating and other indigestion troubles. That's when you need Benham's Pills. They're the sure way to remove the suggestion of more and encourage the welcome stimulation which helps promote better digestion, below the belt. Ask your druggist for gentle, safe, vegetable Benham's Pills today. Caution: Use only as directed, 25c.

BE RID of ANTS
Kills Whole Colonies of ANTS in Their Nest
Simple to use. Place a little ANT-EX wherever ants are seen. The sweet-scented ants are attracted and will carry the poison to their nests thereby killing all who feed on it. Use ANT-EX as directed in the bottle and you'll soon be rid of these annoying pests.

- War Memorial
- Grass In Streets
- Startling Story
- Palm St. Club

—BY CURT GERLING—

The Community War Memorial proposal is an indication of just how lucky we taxpayers can get. For years those on the city tax rolls have been ready to give up on a tax reduction program. Those who owned the property, particularly in the downtown districts, had watched their losses grow year after year. It wasn't too many years back that, if you went to buy a piece of property, it was found that some bank or insurance company was the owner — all distress properties taken back via the foreclosure route.

The city administration has proven itself about as capable as this year's ball club in handling city affairs and giving the taxpayer and realty owner relief.

But, as we said before, Rochester taxpayers have at last found a ray of hope. The inability of the city administration to do anything constructive or to launch a big project on its own has at long last irked the city's leading professional and business men to the point of realizing that they cannot rely on the Republican city fathers to do anything — and if anything is to be done, they had better do it themselves.

The program to raise two and a half million for the War Memorial building gets under way October 5th. As the campaign is to be in the hands of Rochester's business and industrial heads with politicians on the board and committees

Three-Day Victory Fair Opens At Edgerton

Monroe County Victory Fair is in full swing. Gates opened at noon today with indications that thousands of Rochesterians and their Monroe County neighbors will pass through the turnstiles before the closing hour of 11 p. m. Saturday.

A 60-foot swimming pool has been completed for the night aquashow, featuring a ballet, diving and fancy swimming. Music will be by Frank Skuluty's Orchestra.

Union Charges Race Bias

The United Electrical Radio & Machine Workers of America CIO, this week charged the Bausch & Lomb Optical Co. with discrimination against workers of Italian descent.

The charge, made public through a letter addressed to Mayor Samuel B. Dickler, called upon the mayor to use his good office to investigate the situation, call a halt to any "discrimination," and to urge the Bausch & Lomb Co. to "correct any discriminatory acts" by reinstating all Italian workers who were "unjustly" laid off.

Company spokesmen branded the union's charges "completely false" and stated that layoffs were made "without any regard to race, color, creed or racial origin."

The Philco radar bombsight long did a notable job in the darkness, usually was able to catch its prey unawares, and sent cruisers, destroyers and large transports to the bottom without damage to the bomber itself. The Japs never knew what hit them!

Now It Can Be Told! Rochester has been risking trouble on the home front during the war years by skimming on its two most vital protection units — the police bureau and the fire department.

What is more more startling is that this situation has had the full knowledge and the apparent approval of the present Republican city administration headed by City Manager Cartwright.

$2,500,000 Memorial Drive Set For October

Staking their prediction on Rochester's reputation of invariably going "over the top" in drives to aid both local and national causes, civic, business and professional leaders were predicting this week that the county-wide drive to raise $2,500,000 for a veteran's war memorial would meet with speedy success.

The drive, which is expected to be one of the most intensive ever engineered in this area, will open October 5 under the supervision of a membership organization headed by Arthur H. Ingle, one of the town's leading industrialists and who was among the first to dream of the memorial as an everlasting tribute to the city's fallen heroes.

The memorial will include a large auditorium suitable for general meetings and large conventions, a huge sports arena patterned after the very successful Buffalo Memorial Auditorium facilities for veterans and civic groups of the county and "such other different facilities for the betterment of social and economic conditions as may be found to be desirable upon a further and detailed study."

City Donates Site
The site for the edifice, bounded by Exchange, Broad and Court Sts. and the Genesee River, will be provided by the city. The County Board of Supervisors will purchase the site. (Continued on Page 8)

This Week's $25 Winner

Mrs. C. Smith of 3 Florence Ave., is the lucky winner of this week's $25 cash prize, offered by the Sun each week to its sustaining subscribers. This is the reward Mrs. Smith gets for paying her Sun carrier, William Jones, of 253 Remington Dr., 19 cents. Bill, incidentally, collects an extra five dollars bonus. Each week the Sun conducts a drawing and pays the winner $25. Names of all sustaining subscribers for the current month are entered in the drawing. Since the beginning of the weekly drawing more than $250,000 has been paid to the lucky winners.

To Cut Force
Observers contend that this method of saving money could be likened to an individual cancelling his burglar insurance to save the premium cost.

According to reports the 1942 city budget, made up before this country's entrance into the war, called for 943 police and firemen. Last year's budget, adopted in the midst of America's greatest war effort provided for 1,033 members of the two protection departments. That budget proviso could mean only one thing — the department of public safety by Thomas C. Woods believed it would take a force of (Continued on Page 7)

Philco-Built Mickey Given 4-Way Role

Take it from Frank Beucaire, "Mickey" is a quadruple-threat weapon, responsible, in a large measure, for the allied success in bombing Germany into submission.

This particular "Mickey" is no relation to the more familiarly known Mickey Finn sometimes served to obstreperous drinkers. The sobriquet is the common, or garden variety name for the famous hitherto secret Radar bombsight manufactured by the Philco Corp. for the air arms of the Army and Navy.

When military censorship lifted the veil from the bombsight story, Beucaire, president of Beucaire, Inc., 114 Monroe Ave., local distributor for Philco's peace-time products, was invited to inspect the huge factories where the airborne radar equipment has been turned out in huge quantities. He returned to Rochester this week enthralled by the story he learned and enthusiastic over the peacetime uses of the former weapon of war.

Saved Lives
"Mickey" made possible successful bombing through clouds of the German coastal defenses along the Normandy beach just 30 minutes before H-hour, saving many thousands of American lives. This airborne radar guided the American bombers which destroyed 1,500,000 tons of German oil supplies in a single mission. Devastation of Hitler's aircraft and ball bearing factories in 28 days of concentrated pinpoint bombing is another typical accomplishment credited to "Mickey" radar. General Henry H. Arnold, Commanding General, U. S. Army Air Forces, is reported to have called this airborne radar device "the most important piece of equipment used by the aerial forces in the invasion of France."

Operationally, this Philco-

built radar is a quadruple-threat weapon, used in Allied bombers both for offense and defense.

Targets Spotted

Offensively, "Mickey" gives a bomber crew "eyes" that can pierce the overcast or darkest night and spot targets more than 100 miles away. When the radar-equipped bomber approaches a selected target—a Nazi synthetic oil plant, for example—special attachments on the "Mickey" enable the bombardier to concentrate his radar picture on the specific target area and determine the precise bomb release point. As a result, the radar not only locates the target, but tells exactly where in its flight the plane must drop its bomb-load to score a direct hit. For several months, this Philco-built airborne radar was used with the Norden bombsight in bright daylight, as well as in bad weather or at night, for improved bombing accuracy.

Defensively, "Mickey," also serves two vital purposes. Used in conjunction with land radar beacon stations near the bomber's airfield, this airborne instrument provides the plane's navigator with a simple, accurate course to and from the target area. Thus a bomber can fly a direct course in bad weather or darkness, without wasting precious gasoline or time. Also, the "Mickey" picture tube immediately shows the presence of unfriendly enemy aircraft within radar range. Thus the bomber crew is promptly warned when enemy fighters are approaching, and can frequently take evasive action in time or at least be prepared to shoot down attackers.

Illuminated Map Operate

"Mickey" accomplishes these four functions of target location, bomb direction, navigation and anti-fighter warning by utilizing the basic radar principle with numerous modern improvements. Briefly, the "Mickey" radar transmitter sends out super-high frequency radio waves through a special antenna. These radar waves travel at the speed of light, 186,000 miles per second, and are reflected from buildings, bridges, railroad tracks, ships, rivers and other objects in the terrain below the bomber. The reflected waves return to the bomber's radar receiver almost instantaneously and are translated electronically into a complete illuminated map which appears on the screen of a large tube like the picture tube in a home television receiver. By flipping a switch, the plane's radar operator can make his radar map cover a large radius. Or, if he wants to see targets in more detail, he can switch in a split second to ranges of 50, 30 or even 5 nautical miles.

Typical ground targets, such as an enemy bridge or munitions plant, appear as bright spots on the radar picture tube and are easily identified by their shape and position on the radar "map." Lakes, rivers or the ocean produce darker images on the radar screen.

Development of "Mickey" radar was what the Navy and Air Forces call a "crash" assignment for Philco. Tentative delivery schedules demanded round-the-clock work by research scientists and engineers to permit American bombers to smash Hitler's "Festung Europa" during the winter of 1943-1944, when General Arnold knew that the weather would be almost invariably bad. No previous radar could do the job with the detailed mapping and precision required for pinpoint bombing.

Navy Assigns Philco
As a result of its excellent record in manufacturing other airborne radar equipments for the Army and Navy, Philco was given the "Mickey" assignment by the Navy Department in mid-June 1943. The Radiation Laboratory of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology had done preliminary research work on this equipment, and made it available to Philco. With the cooperation of Navy scientists, Philco and the Radiation Laboratories completed the development work.

Leads Way to Wilhelmshaven

By November 3, 1943, Pathfinder navigators, bombardiers and radar operators were trained, and nine wings of 80 bombers each flew with "Mickey" to guide them. Target: Wilhelmshaven. Operation: Successful.

Spots Japan

The Philco radar bombsight long did a notable job in the Pacific. By 1944, patrol bombers of the Navy as well as the Army were hunting Japanese shipping . . . and sinking it with deadly pin-point bombing at night . . . thanks to Mickey. Such a radar-equipped bomber, stalking Jap ships in complete darkness, usually was able to catch its prey unawares, and sent cruisers, destroyers and large transports to the bottom without damage to the bomber itself. The Japs never knew what hit them!

NOW PHILCO RADAR BOMBSIGHT SMASHED NAZI FORTIFICATIONS

Here is how Mickey, the Radar Bombsight destroyed German coastal fortifications and saved tens of thousands of American lives on D-day!

headwear which neatly protects the hair and offers an opportunity to give colorful dash to monotone costumes. An accent against her simple, yellow playsuit, actress Elizabeth Eustis wears a lime green version of the mood. It's about eight inches wide at the back and graduates in circular line to fit the head and tie above the forehead. Park Avenue, Jr. introduced this trim design in a wide range of colors, using washable rayon linen fabric.

Pull in your belt for a trimmer, minimized waistline this fall and winter, fashion designers say. At a recent showing, the makers of Criterion belts proved how wide belts could be used to delight and deceive the eye into believing inches have been pared from the waistline. Especially attractive are their polo belts, wide in front and narrow in back or in reverse pattern if you wish. They're chunky, new and good with everything from sports to evening. Daytime designs are executed in saddle, pigskin or suede, some studded with nailheads, some combining two-tone leathers. Daytime hours, that same simple dress takes on the spirit of the occasion by changing the belt for a shining sensation of gold or kid or multi-colored stone trim on a suede background.

Dainty blouses for the pinafore-wearing little miss of three or four years ring practically impossible to buy at the moment, one smart mother solved the problem for her young daughter's wardrobe by using short, batiste, baby dresses which had become too short for the little lady. Shoulder width changes much more slowly than height in a tiny tot, and the longer tuck-in portion in a baby dress assures comfortable assurance against pulling at the waistline.

Candidate Offers Wide Educational Experience

If the voters of Rochester send Mrs. Robert J. Heilbrunn to the Board of Education as school commissioner at the fall election, one fact is certain — there will be few, if any educational problems coming before the board with which Mrs. Heilbrunn is not already acquainted.

Mrs. Heilbrunn, Democratic candidate for the school post has had wide experience in the educational field, as a teacher in public schools of New York City, as a board member of the Harley School and as educational chairman of the League of Women Voters.

At present, Mrs. Heilbrunn, who lives at 1423 Highland Ave., is council field representative for the American Red Cross, president of the Visiting Nurses Association, a member of the N. Y. State Conference on Social Work executive committee, and a member of the board of the National Council of Jewish Women. She also serves on the board of the JYMA Library committee, the Baden St. settlement and the Women's Volunteer Board of the OCD.

She is actively identified with the Children's Play committee of the Civic Music Association, giving radio broadcasts in conjunction with the play series presented each year at the Eastman Theater.

Her keen interest in education is not entirely that of a professional. She is the mother of three children, Margot and Louise, both of whom are graduates of the University of Rochester and Robert E., a sophomore at the university.

Finance Writer To Lecture at RBI

Harry C. France, financial writer, lecturer and investment counselor will conduct a course in practical investment finance at the RBI starting Sept. 11, according to Ernest Vigel, president.

France lectured at the business school last year and drew a large class of registrants.

In addition to this work at the RBI France is known in Rochester for his column appearing in the Democrat & Chronicle financial section. At one time he was a publicity executive of the Government Loan Organization of the U. S. Treasury Dept. He has served a number of the nation's largest banks and for the past 16 years has been an independent financial writer and counselor.

Local Band Slates Tour of Europe

At a time when everyone's thoughts are turning to a better understanding of the people and customs of other nations, Rochester socialites are recognizing the cosmopolitan atmosphere of Carl Dengler's local orchestra.

Destined for the big time, Dengler and his top notch artists, who have been playing 170 weeks at Odenbach's Peacock Room, are planning a tour of Europe.

Drummer man Dengler is recognized not only for his unusual versatility, but his ambition and braveness, confronted as he is with blindness.

The promoter of young stars, Dengler's newest band members are the three Block Sisters, Jean, Claire and Polly, who offer sweet, modern tunes and blend voices with Chuck Collins, well known baritone and guitarist.

Twenty-one year old Dick Koons, who used to be with Dengler back in '33 and left to play first trumpet with the National Symphony in Washington, has rejoined him for the Fall season.

Rochester friends remember him for his comical songs ("Surrey With The Fringe On Top"), pantomime performances and G. I. haircut.

John Lo Verde, violinist, who has been in town only a short time, has played with leading orchestras in New York and Florida; such as, Hughie Barrett and the famous Lou Long Trio.

Peter Andrews, pianist, who has been with band a year, does much of the orchestration work. Austrian by birth, Andrews has toured the world playing with top notch European orchestras.

Arriving in America in 1940, he played with Al Donahue's orchestra in Hollywood and wrote musical scores for films.

Eighteen year old harpist, Marion Campbell, who began studying harp at the age of five and was recognized as a child genius, is Dengler's pride and joy.

A student at the Eastman School of Music for 10 years, Marion is now in Senior College.

John Tamon, who doubles on the tenor sax and clarinet, has played with big name bands in the Midwest.

Clinton Manning on the string base, was with the St. Louis Symphony for 11 years and with the Rochester Philharmonic and Civic Orchestras for the past two years.

The orchestra was formerly known as Carl Dengler and his Rainbow Rhythm. Their ever popular theme song "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows" has been heard over NBC, CBS and MBS and lately over Rochester's remote broadcasting station WHFM.

Hail Return of 'Peppy' Gas

Another casualty of the military victory is the little "ping-ping, ping" of the auto engine so much in evidence since the onset of war.

"The ping" was caused by the inferior quality gasoline allowed civilian motorists when the high octane grades were reserved for military uses.

Now, gasoline with the old-time "punch" is making its reappearance on the market, much to the relief of local motorists — and their cars' power plants.

According to John Mulvaney, local Sinclair agent, 75 octane regular gas and 89 octane premium grade are rapidly being fed into dealers storage tanks.

He predicted that regular pre-war grade will be available at all stations within a few days.

Mulvaney also promised that soon gasoline quality will be "better than ever" even more powerful than the best pre-war grades.

Scene and Word

By Ed. Randall

Overheard in the Brighton Hotel taproom: "Gosh, you're beautiful, honey. Your hair is like spun gold. Your eyes are like two limpid pools of sunlight water and your lips — gee — what a mess you must make on the rim of a coffee cup!"

One day last winter a school-teacher, thinking of other matters, drove through a red light. An alert prowl car copper overtook her and handed her a ticket to appear in court the next morning for a moving traffic violation. The teacher, highly indignant, asked for an audience with the judge before court opened and her request was granted. She opened right up with both barrels and told the eminent jurist that it seemed silly for her to be compelled to appear in court for such a trivial matter as passing a red light, no one was injured, she had to teach her class or what would happen to America if the children grew up ignorant, she could see he was a fair-minded man and she was sure he would recognize the justice of her argument. The judge waited very patiently for the harassed lady to finish her harangue and then replied: "So — you're a schoolteacher, are you? That's fine. Your presence here fulfills a long-standing ambition of mine. Now — sit down at this desk here and write. I went through a red light, five hundred times!"

I know a girl who has been engaged so many times that you might say she is a creature of many passing fiancés.

Would you call a blonde an established blackhead?

It wouldn't be so hard for people to live on a small salary if they didn't spend so much money trying to keep it a secret.

A chap was making a telephone call in a hotel in a nearby city not so long ago. While waiting for his call to be completed he noticed the name "Mabel" written in the telephone booth, followed by a telephone number. When he had finished his original call, he called Mabel and a voice said: "Hereafter, save your nickels and buy bond."

Police, Fire Cut . . .

(Continued from Page 1) 1,033 men to adequately cover the needs of Rochester. It means the city council who hired Cartwright agreed with Woods, agreed with Cartwright and ordered them to establish a force that size.

But that was not done. Instead, the police and fire departments continued with only 886 men.

Reverses Stand
And now Cartwright, himself, is going to tell the City of Rochester through its city council that Rochester never needed that large a force anyway.

The new budget will provide only for 886 men, plus those now in the service who are expected to return during the year, a total estimated strength of less than 1,000.

Padding Charged
One police officer who refused to be quoted said that either the city fathers had plans for "padding" the police and fire bureau payrolls with unnecessary help when they adopted the 1945 budget, or else they were now toying with the taxpayers' safety by withholding necessary protection from the city at large. He suggested that one way to make a still greater saving in the budget was to eliminate the police and fire bureaus entirely.

Underpaid, Undermanned
Other members of the department, equally shy about speaking for publication in the light of threatened political reprisals, opined that the force might "just as well be undermanned as well as underpaid." And they were all very definite about the present salary schedules leaving them "underpaid."

Don't Blame Flatfoot
When, some dark night after the contemplated budget is adopted, you get no immediate response to your hurried plea to "send a cop quick" don't blame the flat feet of the over-worked patrolman. Instead blame the flat thinking of a city administration which will let the citizens of Rochester continue underprotected simply to make a grandstand play of saving money.

Helena, Mont. — When Representative Larry W. Gusch, of Baker, Mont., planked his No. 13's down on his desk in the Montana House of Representatives with "Vote for House Bill 110" on the soles in white chalk, it had the desired effect — the bill was passed.

Seattle, Wash. — Although he is 67, Dr. Howard Snively, a mountain climber for years, has climbed up 90,000 feet of mountains so far this season, with his two sons. He hopes to get 100,000 feet of altitude under his boots before the summer closes.

Community Benefits Listed
Among the benefits to the community cited by the sponsoring committee is the attracting of new industries to lower the tax rate on the entire community and warned that "unless something is done to stop further decline in downtown property values and to create new ones, there is a strong probability of an increase in tax rates that not only will discourage new industries but start an exodus that will be hard to stop."
The committee admitted that "present downtown appearance will never sell Rochester to any progressive industry" and said that "something visible must be done to revitalize the downtown area — something to convince discouraged property owner that Rochester has at last come to life.

that the city was not going to make a contribution to this project. It is. The city will give the land on which the Memorial will rise. Much of the land another business man (the late George Eastman) had the foresight to purchase and give to the city fathers, years before.

Thus you see we may be unlucky in our choice of picking political jobholders but we certainly are the luckiest guys in the world when it comes to picking our business and professional men.

So when they call on you for your contribution to this Memorial — give more than you planned — it'll be lucky money — and it may help the tax rate as it surely will the social and business life of the Rochester area.

It was Herbie Hoover, during his campaign for re-election, who alleged that if the Democrats won "The grass would grow in the streets." We've all lived under a Democratic regime for more than a dozen years now and we haven't seen any Democratic grass growing in the streets. However, down in Irondequoit, which never could wriggle out from under the Republican grip, there is plenty of grass growing in the streets — fighting its way in large patches right through the concrete of Paxton Rd. and adjoining streets. (You should at least mow it, Tom!)

Herbie was right about the grass — but he had the wrong political party.

The startling situation in the nineteenth ward is booming — or maybe we should say boom-booming. The shotgunning has driven the birds from one part of the ward to another. We asked Don Mac Sweeney who has been having quite a little to say about things in the nineteenth lately, "when are you going to have the starlings under control?"

"Patience!" said Mr. Mac Sweeney. "We of the nineteenth have been reared on patience. For years we have been trying to keep Republican and Democratic leaders from nesting together — but they continue to bill and coo at one an-

The Palm St. Association, deep down in the Fighting Tenth, will probably light a political fire-cracker or two this fall where it'll get the most attention, if their wishes are not properly considered.

A James L. Whitley Jr. is head of the association and we strongly suspect is the son of "Ex-Congressman Jim Whitley, names as Messers Wilcox, Cas-ference for young Jim Whitley.

The Republicans can't afford an indignant Palm St. added reason they may.

• Democrats Named
• Dewey Popularity
• Cartwright Going?
• Republican Labor Policy

—BY CURT GERLING—

The Board of Supervisors overdid themselves in generosity last week — although 100 per cent Republican, they gave a Democrat a job. John F. Allen, 141 Milton St. was named a member of the Monroe County Tax Foreclosure Committee.

The job doesn't pay a salary so it's rather obvious why a Democrat was appointed. They couldn't find a Republican willing to work for nothing.

Mr. Tom Dewey is making a new low in popularity with the city, town, village and county fathers. He is also under fire by the nonpartisan New York city press.

When Tom was campaigning he was going to be Johnny-on-the-spot with reconversion plans. In fact to hear him chatter, he had the postwar problem in his back pocket all figured out on a very small piece of paper — it was that simple to the Albany master mind.

Right up to last March Tom led us to believe he had the postwar situation measured for a well timed "one-two" and was promising a special session of legislature right on the heels of VJ Day to put the Dewey Master mind program right in to high gear and some of the heavy dough he insisted be put away for the rainy postwar days, would be in circulation. It's raining right now and Mr. Dewey apparently was only

Former Distiller Joins Ad Agency

S. D. Hesse, recently resigned vice-president and director of advertising promotion for Schenley Distillers Corp. has been elected vice-president and member of the board of directors of Peck Advertising Agency, Inc.

Upon ascendancy to his new post Hesse said that the agency is already stepping up its services to clients in anticipation of an era of unprecedented advertising and promotion activity.

Better Turn To Butter Churn If You Want Point-Free Spread

Butter—real, honest-to-goodness butter—and all you want of it—point free—is here! And you want have to deal with the black market to serve it on your table, either. That's the hidden meaning in the WPB order releasing heavy cream, for with that cream anyone with a good right arm and a little know how can make all the butter he can use.

Those Rochesterians who were raised on farms need jog their memory only a little to bring back to their mind the simple method of turning bossy's cream into America's favorite spread for bread.

But even the city born-and-bred can turn out butter to match the flavor of the finest brands. Here's all you'll need to accomplish the metamorphosis: A quart of cream (40 percent butterfat), a miniature churn or bowl, an egg beater, a refrigerator, running cold water, a fork and a pinch of salt. Subject the cream to a few deft manipulations with these utensils and the result will be a pound of butter on which you save 12 red points. Of course, at the present going price of heavy cream, your pound of butter will cost you in the neighborhood of 90 cents—but think of the fun—think of the butter—think of the extra meat you can buy with those 12 red points.

Here are the five steps to butter happiness:

- 1.—Go to your grocery and buy a quart of cream. Make sure it's marked HEAVY, not that sky-blue product in vogue for the past several years. Place the cream in the coldest part of refrigerator and leave it there for two or three days.
- 2.—Remove cream from refrigerator and let stand an hour or so until it loses its severe chill. Then pour into mixing bowl or table-size churn and go to work with handle or egg beater. In five minutes you will notice another rare item—real whipped cream—but don't stop now.
- 3.—Continue whipping. In 10 to 12 minutes you will notice minute globules of yellow butter.

State To Probe Bias Charges

Immediate steps to investigate alleged discriminatory practices on the part of Bausch & Lomb Optical Co. have been promised by Robert Stewart of the New York State Commission Against Discrimination.

Charges of discrimination on the part of the optical firm against workers of Italian descent were made last week by Jack Davis, local representative of the United Electrical Radio & Machine Workers of America.

In requesting an investigation by the state body set up under the recently enacted Ives-Quinn law, Davis declared that a survey of several sections of the plant had shown discrimination against workers of Italian descent in that they were being laid off due to war contract cutback out of all proportion to their percentage of the total number of employees.

In addition to the complaint lodged with the state body the union addressed letters to Mayor Samuel B. Dicker, Congressman George F. Rogers and Congressman James W. Wadsworth reiterating the charges and calling upon them to use their good offices to stop the alleged discriminatory practices in the local plant.

Company spokesmen have denied the charge saying that workers have been laid off

East High Evening School Offers Subject For Vets

New courses aimed at returning GI's have been added to the curriculum of the East High Evening School, according to William Howe, principal. Also added are several courses of particular benefit to ex-war workers returning to peacetime jobs, including advertising, journalism, salesmanship, office management and accounting, commercial art, etc.

Straight high school subjects for those seeking a diploma are also offered, according to Howe who says that two classes will be held nightly, with each class meeting twice weekly. Registrations are now being accepted

Decrees of Fashion

The Faile System for bridging that difficult wardrobe between late summer and early fall has become one of the most popular style practices of fashion-conscious women. Through the past few seasons, dressmaker suits of the light weight and comfortable fabric have been established as an extremely adaptable background for timely accessories. Frilly chiffon gilets give way to satin and fur accompaniments on cooler days and for evening. Appearing at a studio rehearsal of the "Saturday Night Serenade" Jessica Dragonette gave convincing proof of the practical fashion. Highlighted against her simple brown suit she carried a shining satin "after five" bag matching her sleek, tall turban of the same fabric. Discreetly evident at the key hole neckline of her jacket, a brown satin dickey echoed the bright accessory plan.

Rise and Shine, admonishes actress Betty Winkler, if you want to be in the autumn fashion picture. She's referring to dress shoes with platform soles, studded with metallic nail heads. Great strides have been taken by shoe designers in bringing the cumbersome proportions of Betty Winkler early platform shoes into the next line of today's attractive dimensions. Betty gives seasonal flip to a black jersey dress by adding a suede belt matching her shoe decor.

A Perfume Pocket is the latest trick of Esther Dorothy, famous fur designer. Each coat in her winter collection has a tiny pocket in the lining, placed high near the shoulder pad. Obvious purpose of the clever cache is to hold a dolsize mainline handkerchief tied around a piece of perfume-scented cotton. Beyond the practical advantage of permitting a woman to change the perfume at will is the prevention of actual injury to precious pelts from repeated "burning" by alcohol when perfume is applied directly to the fur.

Expressive Wedding Ring, fashioned of white palladium is a band bearing the words "I LOVE YOU" in raised, decorative lettering. Sentimental couples can also have their initials and date of wedding engraved on the scroll design of the outer band. The marital record may be omitted for a trim of small, semi-precious garnets, the emblem of constancy.

Winner and Loser
El Paso, Tex. — After eating his breakfast, which was served to him in bed by his squadron commander when he purchased a $3,000 war bond in a war-bond contest, Sgt. James Finlap, of Rochester, N. Y., had to roll out, make the bed and shine the shoes of squadron's second-ranking bond-buyer, Corporal Max Stegal of New York City. Stegal had put out thirteen pairs of shoes to be shined, too.

One of the outstanding developments of the Pacific war, and one that meant daily disaster to the Japs, was refueling at sea.

Nobody ever tried it before the war and fighting ships were limited to the amount of fuel they could carry. Thus, after each extended operation, fleets were forced to return to their bases. During the war all that was changed. Service Squadron Six, operating in the Pacific, acted as a huge flotilla of auxiliary ships, tankers, ammunition and food carriers, salvage vessels, and so forth.

Political Polka...

kidding about his program. He refuses to call a special meeting of the legislature.
There are 1604 local and county governments in the state and they are waiting for the legislature to revise the system under which the state is to grant them financial aid. All these communities are faced with reconversion problems in varying degrees of seriousness. They want the financial help promised them and for which last sums have been earmarked.
Another point on which these same 1604 communities have more than passing curiosity is the $400,000,000 State Post-War Reconstruction Fund. This is the fund that was built up by the state during the years of war and high tax revenues, when the state was unable to repair roads, build new institutions or in many cases even man or repair them properly.
The promised session of the legislature that isn't materializing was going to take up the little matter of how communities were to share in this fund.

Those who voted and worked hard for Mr. Dewey in the presidential race beginning to feel he is a little too much like the commission-appointing Herbie Hoover to have made a good president after all.
Tom's excuse for not calling the special legislative session is that the 12-Man Committee on Special Revenues "needed more time." That is just like Herbie — he'd wait just so long — then he'd appoint another committee to investigate the committee he had already appointed.
In the Ugly Rumor department the current nasty is that Mr. Cartwright will get the "heave ho" come January first, regardless. If the Democrats win, he goes for sure. If the Republicans win he goes, in all probability. Clarence Smith, so is said, has moved into Rochester from Pittsford, thus establishing himself as a proper candidate for the City Manager post.
If Mr. Cartwright does get the sack via the Republican "thumbs down" — a second Cartwright Report would make mighty interesting reading.

Indications are that Mr. Broderick (Tom) has told both Councilman Mills and Judge Rogers to have no part of labor's support and to decline it forthwith.
Thus it's more apparent that ever that there is little difference in the Republican viewpoint locally or nationally. The common man has always viewed with distrust the rich representatives of industry and commerce who head up the advisory and cash-contributing clique of all national Republican tickets. All the common man or labor ever got was an ambiguous platform for labor — no place in the parades councils.
At least this move on the part of the local Republican party lets it be known that the Republicans don't want the vote of the laboring or common man — and don't want to be obliged to do anything for him.
It seems one must have a Dun & Brandstreet AAA rating in order to qualify as a Republican in Rochester, too.

The union has produced figures on employees and layoffs to prove their alleged charges. The company contends that these figures are not correct but has refused to reveal company records on discharged to prove their contention.
This week the union's charges took on a double-barreled aspect when leaflets were distributed throughout the city declaring that the two daily newspapers had "suppressed" the story, and crediting The Rochester Sun with making the complain against the company known to the public. The leaflets, besides quoting figures to back up the alleged discrimination charge, called upon the citizens of Rochester to urge the Mayor and the City Council to protect the company's alleged practice. Citizens were also urged to call Bausch & Lomb Co. directly in protest against the layoffs.

fer forming. Watch closely and keep whipping because, presto, the particles come together and float in a lump atop the buttermilk. Drain off buttermilk and scoop out the butter.
4.—Caution, don't sample this or you'll lose confidence in yourself. It tastes terrible, being at least 30% buttermilk which must be washed out in cold water, kneading with a fork or butter paddle. This is known as "working the butter." If not done, the product will turn rancid.
5.—After thorough washing, add salt to taste and place in icebox dish and work into desired shape. The butter probably is very soft now, but two hours in the refrigerator will make it just right.
This homespun trick, known to all farm wives, produces the finest butter that can be made. It may cost 35 cents more a pound, but it's fresh, sweet-tasting and really melts in your mouth. We recommend very little salt.
Several dairies reported heavy cream on sale over the weekend and all dairies promised to have an available supply by the end of this week.

CARST THE PERFECT

CAPITOL CHATTER by Hugo Sims

EQUAL ACCESS TO NEWS — President Truman goes on the record in favor of giving foreign newspaper correspondents equal access to the news in Washington, regardless of their origin or nationality.

BRITISH WORST-DRESSED — During the war the British people were severely restricted in the purchase of clothes and it may surprise some Americans to hear that now, when both wars have ended, the allowance of clothing coupons has been reduced one-fourth.

Sir Stafford Cripps, President of the Board of Trade, suggests that his nation has dropped to third place from the bottom among Europe's best-dressed populations. As he made his statement he was standing side-by-side with Sir Thomas Barlow, Director General of Civilian Clothing, who wore a ten-year-old coat, darned flannel trousers and a frayed collar.

U. S. POPULATION INCREASES — The Census Bureau advises that the population of the United States has increased more than eight million in the last five years, now reaching the top figure of 130,382,000.

It is interesting to note that the rate of increase, despite the war, was nearly twice that of the preceding ten years. This about disposes of the theory that the pressure of populations produced wars we are in for more fighting.

BLACKOUT IN ENGLAND — The blackout, which disappeared in Britain when peace arrived, has returned. The necessity of saving coal has led the Minister of Fuel and Power to order extinguishment of street lights at midnight and reduction in the number of lights.

This emphasizes the serious problems which confront one of the victorious powers. The British readily admit that the war has done them great economic damage and that, if the nation wishes to resume a leading role in the world of commerce, it must prepare for sacrifices.

WAR WORKERS — Nearly 2,000,000 war workers have lost their jobs since the Japanese surrendered, according to Robert C. Goodwin, director of the United States Employment Service. Goodwin based his estimate on reports from the chief labor markets.

LEND-LEASE — Five nations,

Russia, China, France, Belgium and Holland, have indicated their willingness to "go along" with a United States credit program designed to continue the flow of goods formerly supplied through land-lease, according to Foreign Economic Administrator Leo T. Crowley. Crowley estimates that when lend-lease officially ends on V-J day, about $4,500,000,000 worth of goods will be stock-piled in the United States, in process of delivery and on contract. Half of these commodities is destined for Great Britain.

NAVY CUT-BACKS — The Navy plans for a cut-back of 2,839,000 men within the next twelve months to reduce its force to 500,000 men and 50,000 officers, according to Secretary of the Navy James V. Forrestal. The present strength of the United States Navy is 3,389,000 men.

STETTINIUS — Edward R. Stettinius, Jr., former Secretary of State, is en route to London to serve as personal representative of President Truman at an interim commission meeting of the United Nations organization in London.

SPECIAL SHOES — Practically all manufacturing restrictions on riding boots, leather house slippers, hiking shoes and flat-bottomed "wedgies" have been lifted by the War Production Board, which declared that drastic military cut-backs in leather and shoes made the action possible.

ACHESON — Dean C. Acheson has been sworn in as Undersecretary of State, succeeding Joseph C. Grew, former ambassador to Japan.

POULTRY — Practically all controls on chicken procurement programs have been withdrawn by the United States Department of Agriculture, leaving the armed services to purchase fowls on the regular market. All that is left now of direct controls over poultry procurement is an order affecting 23 states, mostly in the Midwest, under which turkeys are being produced for the armed forces.

LAUNDRIES — Laundries and dry cleaners now have unrestricted use of cleaning solvents, according to the Office of Civilian Requirement, which announced that all controls have been lifted on carbon tetrachloride, trichloroethylene, and perchloroethylene. During the war, these establishments were restricted to about 20 cent of their normal requirements.

CLOTHING — The American people have contributed enough clothing in the last year to "meet the desperate needs of 25,000,000 war sufferers," according to Roy F. Hendrickson, acting Director of UNRRA. Mr. Hendrickson stated that the entire collection of clothing donated for the war-stricken of Europe and the Far East will be distributed before winter sets in.

SALVAGE — Military and naval craft, valued at millions of dollars, in addition to an estimated $600,000,000 in sunken merchant vessels and cargo were salvaged during the war, according to a navy announcement. More than 800 vessels have been salvaged from Manila Bay, since its capture from the Japanese.

SUBMARINES — Fifty-two American submarines were lost during the war but the fleet of more than 200 U. S. submarines sank 1,187 enemy vessels, including 146 combatant ships, according to official figures. Of the submarines lost, 43 failed to return from war patrols, four are known to have been sunk, two were destroyed to prevent capture and three of the old type were stricken from the navy list.

Mother Attends Son's Golden Wedding Fete

Cleveland, O. — One of the real honor guests at the recent celebration of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. William Ramsey was Mr. Ramsey's mother, Mrs. Anna Marie Ramsey, 88 years old. Mr. Ramsey is 71 and his wife is 67.

Five Year Old Tot Said Youngest Killer

Detroit. — Finding a 22-caliber rifle on the Peter's porch and some extra bullets that were available, Billy Smith, 4 and Billy Peters, 5, decided to "shoot" a turtle in a tub on the back porch. However, instead of hitting the turtle, little Billy Smith was hit in the side, and fatally wounded.

Not So Safe

Council Bluffs, Iowa — Albert Lattery, 70, a professional acrobat, was giving an exhibition of handspings. Usually, he did handspings without using his hands, but because of his age, he decided to do them the "safe way." He tried it, using his hands, and fractured his hip.

Force of Habit

Salt Lake City. — It must have been force of habit for two convicts at the Utah State Penitentiary, who passed insufficient fund draft against accounts they had deposited with prison officials. They are now in solitary confinement.

Even nations that dislike Uncle Sam have an idea that his pocketbook can be helpful.

makes this whiskey good

Barrels of whiskey on the way to age at the distillery.

Guesswork has no place in fine whiskey-making. It's the whiskey-wisdom gained by Hiram Walker through all the years since 1858 that makes Imperial good—uniformly good. You'll recognize the difference in this whiskey—it's always there.

Hiram Walker's Blended Whiskey

It takes barrels of money to win a war.
The $135 of excise tax paid on every barrel of whiskey... more than one billion dollars a year from the distilling industry... it's only a fraction of America's war cost. It takes all the money you can put into war bonds, too! Buy more... hold them!

Ed Randall's
Scene and Word

We open the clambake this week with a contribution from Veteran Food's Don Damond, quite a punster in his own right, who submits the following bit of whimsy. It seems that two Marines were discussing their travels and battles, and the conversation turned to China. "You ever been to China, Bud?" asked one of the battle-weary vets. "Aw, sure," replied the other, "spent about five years in Shanghai." Then you must have ridden in one of those "jinkishas," inquired the first. "Oh, yeah," was the reply. "They are those two-wheeled carts that have horses that look like men, aren't they?"

Speaking of appropriate names, and we weren't, but one of the most appropriate I've seen recently is the sign on a Monroe shop reading: "H. SHNIPPER-TAILOR." And by the same token, why wouldn't the obvious car for a barber be a Packard Clipper?

Then we have the sad tale of the inexperienced and nervous telephone operator in a downtown office who was asked by her employer on her first day on the job to get his attorney on the phone for him. The jittery girl looked up the number, called it, and was greeted thusly: "Good morning, this is Johnson, Throckmorton, Embrey, Thistlewaite, Lipsitz and Montmorency." "Oh, good morning, good morning, good morning, good morning, good morning and good morning."

cent weekend a bunch of the boys were making merry in a cottage just up the road from Phil Farley's Excelsior Springs Hotel. The libations were circulating freely, tongues became loosened, and eventually two of the celebrants fell to bragging of their fishing prowess. One word led to another and finally one of them bet the other a sizable chunk of cabbage that he could land a fish before the other could. Before it ended, the other members of the party picked their choice in the argument so that when the two sportsmen adjourned to the dock in front of the cottage to try their luck, nearly a yard of moola was riding on their respective piscatorial abilities. They baited hooks, dropped lines in the water, and anxiously awaited the first nibble. Suddenly, one of them felt a tug on his line and in his excitement fell off the dock into the water. "That's no fair," said the other lish, "this wash to be a contest of skill. If you're goin' to dive for 'em, all bet's r' off."

Maybe you never heard the silly story about the dean of girls at a co-educational college who summoned the student body one morning for an important announcement. "The president and I, students," she said, "have decided to stop necking on the campus." This being greeted with gales of laughter, the flustered lady tried to mend matters but only made them worse by explaining, "What I mean is, all this kissing that's been going on under my nose must stop."

The clerks in one of our better downtown jewelry stores are still chuckling about the gag pulled by one of their members the other day. It seems that a young, recently discharged soldier, came into the store to select an engagement ring for his one and only. He picked up one sparkling beauty and inquired the price. "That one is one hundred dollars," replied the clerk gently. The young man whistled in surprise. Then he pointed to another ring and asked, "How much is that one, please?" "That one, sir," said the clerk still more gently, "is two whistles."

Bob Hope To Take Shows To Colleges, GI Hospitals

Hollywood. — Industry may have its reconversion problems — but think about Bob Hope, who brings his radio show back to NBC next Tuesday, at 10 p. m.

Ever since the war began, Bob broadcast from camps and hospitals, and during the summer he visited every fighting front — the Aleutians, North Africa, Italy, England, the Pacific, France and Germany. Men who know have said that he did much for our troops with his morale-lifting and fun-making.

"He covers a record amount of territory, and the good he does keeps snowballing until everybody in the area he has visited is affected by it," said an officer recently.

Now, however, with the war over, Bob feels that he has an even bigger job to do. The hospitals will still be there waiting for the brand of humor that Hope always brings, and it is reported that he also plans to take his NBC show to college campuses where many of the GIs he met overseas will be returning to finish their college education.

Meanwhile, everyone — from Bob Hope those very GIs to his friends in Hollywood — wonders whether he's ever going to take a rest.

Inside Hollywood . . .

The public will greet with approbation the news that the flood of gangster films, which was expected to follow the unusual box-office success of the biographical film of "Dillinger," has subsided, mostly because Joseph I. Breen, the Hollywood Hays Office Production Code Administrator, refused to approve the screenplay for "Wanted for Murder," which was to have dealt with the criminal activities of Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow.

The seven ways to succeed in Hollywood, according to John Garfield, are: "Get yourself an agent, get a contract; get your first part in a movie; buy a bigger and better car; rent a bigger and better house; buy your first annuity; and, get advice from a local cemetery and choose your final resting place."

"The Bells of St. Mary's," which stars Ingrid Bergman and Bing Crosby, and is directed by Leo McCarey, is to be released in November, which is considered the best time of the year to get a repeat award for all three.

Every time William Powell, Esther Williams or Angela Lansberry "blew" their lines during the filming of "The Hoodlum Saint," they deposited a dime in the "St. Dumas Box" on the set. When the box was opened, it contained $180, which means there were 1,800 blow-ups.

Ted Collins, the man who put Kate Smith on the radio map, is planning to make his Hollywood appearance to do a movie serial of the Bible, using authentic ministers, priests, rabbis and divinity students in the cast.

Those who were much concerned over Deanna Durbin's blond tresses will be delighted to learn that she has now reverted to her original hair color — brown.

Deanna, by the way, gets two old standbys, Charles Laughton and Franchot Tone, in "Because of Him," the new title for "Catherine Was Last."

Because of a Western costume shortage in Hollywood, Randolph Scott wears the same outfit that Gary Cooper wore in "Along Came Jones," and which Joel McCrea had in "Buffalo Bill," and Lynn Baggett wears the black silk evening gown in "Confidential Agent" that Hedy Lamarr wore in "The Conspirators."

Under her new contract, singer Kathryn Grayson begins at $1,000 a week. She started work in the films at $75.00 per week.

More than $1,000,000 was raised by Gracie Fields in six concerts in Australia and was given to "down under" charities.

We hear that Frank Sinatra has hired three bodyguards — why, no one seems to know.

Out of the Army, Van Heflin's first film will be "Love Lies Bleeding," with the new glamor gal, Elizabeth Scott and Barbara Stanwyck.

One of the first British actresses to come to this country since the end of the war is slim, blue-eyed, dark-haired Patricia Roc, British film star. In real life, Miss Roc is Mrs. F. M. Laing, a doctor's wife.

Marlene Dietrich, who just recently returned to this country after a long tour of European war fronts, plans to go to the Pacific before making a picture in Hollywood.

When Joy Hodges went to Europe with an entertainment unit, she hoped she would see her husband, Lieut. Paul Dudley, although she had been warned that her chances of meeting him were very slim. Imagine her surprise, then, when the first person she saw when she stepped off the plane in Paris — was her husband.

IS YOUR MARRIAGE lacking something

Because You Don't Know These Intimate Physical Facts?
If your husband seems indifferent — maybe you don't realize how important douching often is to feminine cleanliness, health and happiness. Many women still foolishly use weak, homemade mixtures of salt, soda or vinegar which do not and can not give the great germicidal and deodorant action of Zonite.
And many use overstrong solutions of harmful poisons which can burn and severely irritate, but Zonite is different. No other type liquid antiseptic-germicide for the douche of all those tested is so powerful yet so safe to delicate tissues.
Zonite destroys odor, helps guard against infections. It kills every germ it touches. You know it's not always possible to contact all germs in the tract, but you can be sure — Zonite immediately kills all that you can reach — Zonite as directed often as you wish without risk of injury! Buy today!

Woman, 117, Refuses Pension Aid
Moscow. — Although she has celebrated her 117th birthday, a woman on a Soviet collective farm in Yakutia Siberia, refused to be pensioned off, stating that she has worked all her life and would feel worse with nothing to do. Her son, 90, works on the farm with her.

45-Year Old Cracker Hails Surrender
Allentown, Pa. — Less than 10 minutes after President Truman announced the surrender of Japan, Frank Hagenbuch set off a five-inch dynamite firecracker he had kept in a bottle for the past 45 years. It went off with a bang. The firecracker was a memento of a picnic Hagenbuch had attended with his fiancée on July 4, 1900 and was saved for sentimental reasons to be used on a "special occasion."

She's Thankful Prohibition Over
Chicago. — Falling 50 feet from a third-floor apartment window, Janice Boardman, 2½ years old, suffered only a broken arm, thanks to a beer sign, a passerby, and a dozen eggs. As she fell, the child grasped at some chains holding a beer sign over the door of a saloon on the first floor. When she let go the chain, she fell on Lindsey Lowry, homeward bound from a grocery store. In trying to catch her, she landed on a dozen eggs in Lowry's arms.

Add Sentiment To Your Gift

Give a truly sentimental touch to the Christmas remembrance you send to the WAC overseas. There's plenty of time to make something really personal for her before the mailing deadline, October 15. If she's in a cold climate, a handknit pair of olive drab gloves will draw her thanks by day, and a pair of pastel footies or bed socks will continue the warm feeling at night. Sweaters, of course, are a constant necessity. No matter where she's stationed, however, she'll appreciate a couple of well-constructed skirt hangers, since they're not available at Post Exchanges "over there." Personalize the gift by painting her initials on the wood part of the hangers so she'll have no trouble identifying them as her very own.

Wrap 'Em Up In That Good Christmas Spirit

The post office asks you to make the outside packing of gift boxes sturdy—but that doesn't say that individual packages inside the main box can't be wrapped and tied in the Christmas manner. The ounce or two extra that such wrapping will weigh will probably be more than offset by the Christmas spirit that the looks-like home packing will bring.

Postal Officials Urge Early Buying, Mailing

Yes, despite the sunshine and summer weather—the Christmas mailing season is here. That is, if the recipient of your gift is overseas or on the seas.

Relatives and friends of Army personnel serving in distant lands have been warned that the mailing period is here and immediate action should be taken to insure your GI of receiving his parcel in due time and in good order.

As in previous years, the mailing period is Sept. 15 to Oct. 15, the postmaster advises, but it is best to mail parcels ahead of the deadline to be certain of delivery by Christmas.

Rochester merchants have done their part to lighten your shopping burdens. They have been searching the markets for months to find appropriate gifts for service men and women and are making a special feature of such gifts this weekend. Contained in the pages of this section are scores of gift ideas, hand-picked to please those who are serving their country abroad.

Shopping for overseas gifts has already started, according to local merchants, but a full supply in most all lines is available this weekend. Both merchants and the postoffice have advised that "early shopping and early mailing" will insure the delivery of all overseas packages by Christmas.

Regulations Gift Mailing

Packages must not exceed 5 pounds in weight, must not be over 15 inches in length or 36 inches in length and girth combined. Full addresses must appear on the wrapping along with the words, "Christmas Package." Date for mailing without a request are September 15 to October 15.

Don't Despair—Here's a 'Preferred' Listing To Help You

Perhaps the best gift guide of all is the individual preference of the service man to whom the gift is being sent. He may have asked for some special item in a letter, and if it's something that can be sent without violating any regulations, of course that's what you'll choose.

Although the list of articles that may be sent overseas is limited, there's still a fairly wide selection, and in case we've missed mentioning any, here is a list of some of the gifts that are approved by the government: cigarettes (if he has asked for them—in some stations he can get them more easily than you can send them), cigarette cases, windproof lighters, pocket size books, automatic pencils, fountain pens, pocket games, handkerchiefs, small pocket note books, soap, hard candy, pipes, playing cards, small puzzles, razor blades, pocket flashlights, small regulation articles of clothing such as socks and ties, stationery, tobacco pouches, wallets, wrist watches.

Gifts for women serving overseas are another matter, although some of the things mentioned above—watches, pocket flashlights, stationery—are suitable for them, too.

But letters coming back to America give us an idea of other things that they like. Nurses, for example, ask their families for knit rayon slips, the kind that don't require any ironing, and one nurse asked for stockings—any material, just as long as they were stockings. Also welcome are stick colognes and the new stick deodorants, soap, lighters (if you can find them), and handkerchiefs.

Canned, vacuum-packed peanuts are tops on the list of eatables that American boys and girls overseas enjoy. "Worth their weight in gold," they say in appreciation.

Now They're Made For Women Too

One of the most popular gifts with men in service has been the fitted small-size duffel bag or foldup toilet kit. Now you will find them with a feminine accent, designed especially for the woman in service, who still likes practical things to be pretty whenever they can.

The fitted kit and duffel bag are made of a beautiful—but durable—fabric, a heavy rayon with the sheen and softness of satin. The kit and bag come in blue and in olive drab, and are fitted with all manner of toilet accessories. There is even one of those little cases for cosmetics, and tucked neatly out of sight are lip stick tissues.

They'd Rather Read Than Eat

Officers who have inspected army and navy postal facilities overseas report that mail of all kinds is vital to the spirit of the men. They have been known to disregard mess call when it conflicted with mail call—the letters come first. Officers at large military and naval stations say that the spirit of efficiency of their men gets a distinct lift when mail is distributed and that a delay in mail service causes a decided decline in spirit. So please—get all your parcels off in plenty of time!

Mrs. Muggs Meant Well, But—

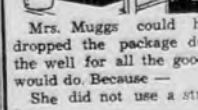

Mrs. Sophie Muggs was most careful in selecting the presents for her son overseas in the Navy.

She shopped early and she mailed early—she followed size mailing regulations religiously, but

She did a bad wrapping job. Now, even though Mrs. Muggs selected her presents carefully and shopped and mailed early—

Mrs. Muggs could have dropped the package down the well for all the good it would do. Because—

She did not use a strong box. She did not use shredded paper inside the box. She did not use strong wrapping cord. So—

When her son received his package, perhaps the mermaids enjoyed it—He couldn't use it!

MAILING PERIOD FOR OVERSEAS CHRISTMAS GIFT PACKAGES... SEPTEMBER 15 TO OCTOBER 15

Packages mailed before October 15 will in most instances, arrive overseas in time for Christmas. So, if you don't want your service man to spend Christmas empty handed and empty hearted, remember those dates. And if you're wise you won't wait until the last minute either. You'll want to do everything you can to give your package the best chance of arriving on time. Guard against your package being broken because it's too flimsy or lost because it's not properly addressed. Mail it in time to make this Christmas a merry and happy one.

Give Your Favorite WAC One of Those Unusual Gifts

In trying to make suggestions about gifts to women in all branches of the service, you're bound to have to make a selection — spaces just isn't available to describe all the lovely things from which you may choose. And so passing over wearing apparel such as slippers and nightgowns, and stockings, and gifts that would more or less naturally come to mind, we suggest two of the more unusual, yet useful items.

How About Some Comfy Slippers!

Gifts that are, above all, practical, things that can be packed or carried in a small space — these are the presents that are sure of finding a welcome from the service man.

Right at the head of such a list of gifts come slippers. One style is made of khaki cotton; lined with cotton flannel for comfort. They fold into a small space and pack compactly into a handy traveling case.

Knit a Home Made Gift—Instructions Are Available

If you have a boy in service, chances are that he has probably asked you for warm woolen clothing for winter wear. Manufacturers of wool have had their designers issue new books of knitting instructions, taking in practically every bit of knitwear a man could want. These instructions all conform to military regulations, so you can be sure that your boy can wear the sweater you send him. If a home made gift seems to have special significance to you, and you have nimble fingers, there is still time for you to do some knitting and still make the mailing deadline. The art needlework departments of downtown department stores have materials and instructions.

Don't Get Personal

It's all right, of course, to enclose a Christmas or gift card in your package for overseas, but you mustn't include any other writing in it. You may put "Do Not Open Until Christmas" on the outer wrapping of the package, as long as it does not interfere with the easy reading of the address. If you're sending books, they may bear simple dedicatory inscriptions, no personal note.

Go Easy On Chocolates

If your service man overseas yearns for American candy, the best bet, according to those who know, is to send hard candy—it's a better traveler. And the post office department advises that candy that is packed in thin pasteboard boxes should be enclosed in wood, metal, or corrugated board before shipping.

This Is How Your Package Should Look If It's To Weather The Trip

This is how the finished package should look ready for mailing. John M. Glenn, Seaman First Class, USNR, of Dallas, Texas, a mail clerk at the San Diego Fleet Post Office, compares a properly-wrapped gift with some of the hundreds which have literally fallen apart. Loss of address, breakage of weakly-protected contents or spoilage of perishable foods make it impossible to send such parcels to their destinations. Yet people wonder why Sonny or Sis didn't get their Christmas gifts!

He'll Answer Letters Sooner

We're told that one of the most constant requests from military men is for writing equipment. Letters from home require answers, and answers will come to you more quickly if your boy has a convenient writing portfolio.

Choose The Right Billfold - He'll Use It Every Day

Billfolds are on the approved list for gifts to military men. One popular billfold was made with their special needs in mind. It is made of fine soft leather, cowhide that is both good-looking and durable, and is a convenient size — not too large or bulky.

For That Stitch In Time

The armed forces, as every member of them quickly learns, set great store by neatness, and aren't inclined to accept any excuse for missing buttons and such. So you may be interested in a little sewing kit now very popular. It's small and handy, and contains all the materials needed for emergency repairs.

You Can Send Candy To Men In Europe

Men still in Europe have a somewhat better break when it comes to Christmas gifts than those in hot Pacific areas. For one thing, the weather is cooler, reducing spoilage of foods; for another, the distance which packages must travel is only about half as far as they will have to go in the other direction.

Spread The Tinsel With Lavish Hand

No matter how crowded your box is going to be, save a few ounces of the five-pound limit and spread yourself on giddy, gaudy, gay Christmas wrappings. Do each package separately, and do it up proud.

Don't Send Him Soap Unless He Wants It

Soap is a good gift in Italy, but otherwise, don't send it, unless your GI has mentioned that he could use some state-side soap for himself or to barter for native trinkets.

Book in Every Box: GI's Read and Share

One of the most constant requests from men and women in any overseas station is for reading matter. Magazines arrive so late that their news is a bit stale; books that they have access to are dog-eared from many thumbings-through.

Every package sent abroad in this open mailing season should carry some reading material. If every man received a pocket-sized magazine or paperbacked novel, he and all his buddies would share and enjoy it. Stay away from heavy matter and war stuff — they've been too close to the war to relish reading about it right now.

Send plenty of pictures, no matter how commonplace they seem to you. Familiar surroundings are incredibly dear to a person who is thousands of miles away from them.

By CURT GERLING

One of the reasons that the Republican party is going to have hard going this fall fall is the report that lesser office holders are unhappy, underpaid and mighty suspicious. A political machine depends on the small job holder to put in a good many hours getting out the vote. A disgruntled group, convinced that they have been pretty well double-crossed, can do a little double crossing on their own.

A few years back all city and county officeholders whose salaries were 3,000 dollars or less were granted a "War Emergency" increase of 150 dollars per annum. The well informed city hall underground alleges (Continued On Page 6)

Seek Aid In Paper Pickup Sept. 23

The war may be over, but the need for waste paper definitely is not.

That is the word Chairman Harry Stevenson of the paper salvage committee brought to Rochester this week in urging a wholehearted response to the next waste paper collection slated for Sunday September 23 when volunteers and paid workers will comb the city for the much-needed supplies.

In warning the city against what he termed "mistaken complacency," Stevenson cited reports from Washington indicating that the return to normalcy, as far as adequate paper supply are concerned, is still many months away.

Although the cessation of hostilities in Europe and in the Orient has somewhat lessened the military requirements for paper, there are still millions of men in our forces overseas who are practically operating "on paper." Few are the items sent overseas that are not wrapped in paper. The matter of discharges alone, and the tremendous amount of bookkeeping and filing records connected with them, will require huge stocks of paper. Then, too, there are the great reconversions now taking place in so many plants (Continued On Page 10) may still be emperor of Japan, but he'd better stay out of Rochester — or at least from the vicinity of the Elks Club. Last night they gave Mr. Yellowpass his just deserts "in absentia." At a mock trial of the three war makers the judge (Nate Rejn) landed a full wallop on the noggin of Jules Michaels (who played the part of Hirohito) sending him sprawling among his partners in crime. Admiral "Bull" Halsey was not able to be present to take over the emperor's white horse for the above reasonable facsimile thereof. The parts of Mussolini and Hitler, sprawling on the floor, were played by Albert Yogg and Sylvester Buelte.

Probe of Race Bias Charges Opens

Signed statements from a large group of employees and former employees said to substantiate charges of alleged racial discrimination on the part of the Bausch & Lomb Optical Co. are expected to be laid before the State Commission Against Discrimination this weekend. The statements were gathered her this week by Field Investigator Robert Stewart of the state body.

The charges were leveled against the giant optical concern by the United Electrical Radio & Machine Workers of America, a CIO-affiliated union, which through representatives Jack Davis claims that discrimination has been made against workers of Italian descent in that they were laid off in unduly large numbers when the cancellation of war contracts necessitated an at least temporary reduction in the number of workers at the plant.

The company has flatly denied the charges.

Meanwhile the City Council took cognizance of the controversy when a letter from the union, addressed to Mayor Samuel B. Dieker was laid before the city ruling body on Monday. Mayor Dieker said that he would await the report (Continued On Page 6)

1200 Dog Owners Rue Hasten As Rabies Clinic Opens

More than a thousand Rochester dog owners chafed up a two to four dollar loss this week as the city, at long last, inaugurated a rabies inoculation clinic set up in conjunction with local veterinarians.

While those owners who had already forked over from three to five dollars for pochie's inoculations charged off their loss as tuition in the college of experience, they wondered why the city had waited since June 28th, when the dog quarantine was clamped on this area, to set up the clinic.

Under the Clinic plan cost of the vaccine is assumed by the city. It is being administered to the dogs by the same veterinarians who have been charging up to five dollars per inoculation. But with the clinic plan, dog owners are charged only one dollar per job, but (Continued On Page 10)

This is the reward Mrs. Sheehan gets for paying her Sun carrier, Roy Buckert of 281 Ridgeway Ave., 10 cents. Roy, incidentally, collects an extra five dollars bonus.

No 59th Anniversary Sale this Year!
We're not celebrating our birthday this year with a Sears Anniversary Sale. Uncle Sam's needs come first nowadays and that's as it should be. Though you may miss this traditional event of many low priced values, you can still count on Sears to bring you the best of what is available. You can still depend on Sears for quality merchandise at money-saving prices... for friendly, courteous service. We've been satisfying folks for 59 years. We intend to continue doing so. That's why it's always a good idea to SHOP AT SEARS AND SAVE.

Mary Jones

..... SEARS STOCKHOLDER

Mary Jones OWNS part of Sears. She's a stockholder. She's the girl who wants to please you, to make you like to shop at Sears, because Mary knows that the more customers she can satisfy, the more she will receive as her share of the earnings. You probably know her. She's the helpful cute blonde in the lingerie department... the friendly brunette who sells hosiery... the jolly, painstaking red head in drugs... yes, she's all the girls who help you at Sears.

Mary is so proud of HER company. Proud of the way it serves folks all over America. Proud of the quality merchandise Sears sells so reasonably. Proud of Sears guarantee of satisfaction or your money back. Proud also to be one of Sears best customers. Everybody working at Sears a year or more is eligible to share in Sears Profit Sharing and Pension Plan. Mary was very happy at the time this opportunity was offered to her. Today she and her co-workers own 15% of all stock in the company. They are the biggest single shareholder.

Mary would have enjoyed telling you all this herself, but she's mighty busy these days taking care of all her millions of customers. That's why she asked us to tell you about her company—Sears!

And by the way—if you don't know Mary Jones, come in to meet her today. She'll be so glad to serve you.

So you want a new vacuum cleaner — well who doesn't I am so darn sick of trying to stick up dog hairs — with a vacuum older than the dog that at times it is maddening. But don't run right out and buy the first vacuum you see. There will be several on the market — all good — but maybe one will be more suited to your needs than the next one. So be sure and buy from a reputable dealer — like ROCHESTER GAS & ELECTRIC for instance. Before stocking any appliance at R. G. & E. plenty of research and thought will be given to them. So hold your horses, you've waited this long — you can wait a little longer — remember your next vacuum — must serve you as long as the last one. R. Ed Randall's Scene and Word Webster's definition of the word "move" is "to pass or go in any manner or direction, or at any rate or speed, from any place or part of space to another," and, boys and girls, he didn't tell the half of it.

The Sun family, offices, fixtures and appurtenances as you probably all know, have just moved to the second floor of the Copeland Building at 133 Clinton Ave. S. It's a nice building and I think we are going to be very happy here but when, Oh Lord, are we going to get settled?

Take right now, for instance. I'm sitting in my spacious, sunlit office trying to bat out a column. I'm using a strange typewriter, mine is buried somewhere under a pile of carrier bags, I'm groping for an inspiration, and trying to ignore the carpenter hammering ten-penny nails into a cupboard in Editor Allen's office, next door.

I'm sitting here, staring at one of the most monotonous brick walls I have ever seen, which is my only view unless I stick my head out of the window and get a grand glimpse of a lot of sky. Suddenly someone outside the office yells: "Hey, Eddie, where is the wrapping paper?" The wrapping paper comes in a roll that is all of six feet long and at least three feet in diameter, but no one can find it. That'll give you some idea of the chaotic conditions that prevail here.

The carpenter just walked through my office and this time he dropped a couple of two-by-fours and a handful of nails and tools. Maybe I should have stuck to the violin. Now he's sawing something. This would be an ideal place for Rosie-the Riveter. Now he's hammering again. Why, oh why, did we ever have to move? There he goes through my office again. He didn't drop anything this time, but he might just as well have as I braced myself for it.

There goes the 'phone.' Hello. No, this isn't Gene Davis. Wait like to know something of our new location. Well, we have five offices. They are sunlit, well-appointed rooms. It is in the lease that the rooms are "sunlit." But three of them get the morning sun and two the afternoon sun, but three and two are five so I guess we can't break the lease on that account. The boss took care of the "well-appointed" part of it. He said: "This will be your office, this will be the editorial department, this will be the advertising department, this will be the business office, we'll use this office for storage, this one for the general office and I'm going to occupy this office." What I mean, our offices were appointed to us, and how!

Things have quieted down a little bit now, comparatively speaking, and maybe you would

There goes the carpenter again. Pulling nails this time. Every time one comes out of the wall I die a little bit. Oh, well, it won't last forever and we hope you will all come up and pay us a visit. But, please, please, wait for a week or two.

Frank E. Robertshaw Post Auxiliary will have a tureen supper at 8 p. m. Wednesday, at 300 Brockley Rd. The hostess, Mrs. Elizabeth Pinkman, will be assisted by Helen Moran. A business meeting will follow with election of officers and annual reports.

Civilization should be judged by the welfare of the average citizen.

Banks Here Join 3-State Observance

Joining a three-state movement to publicize the benefits of saving bank life insurance, the Rochester Savings Bank and the Community Savings Bank have designated September as Savings Bank Life Insurance Month in Rochester.

Mutual savings banks in New York, Connecticut and Massachusetts are making a combined drive in the Month's effort through the Savings Bank Life Insurance Council, headed by P. Raymond Haulenbeck, president and an executive of the North River Saving Bank.

The program will be publicized in radio, bus and newspaper messages, posters, banners and special literature, and is designed to emphasize the need and value of life insurance as well as the merits of the bank-issued policies.

In charge of the program in Rochester is William F. Hamilton of the Rochester Savings and Richard Barker of the Community Savings Bank. More than two million dollars of life insurance is reported to have been issued by the two local outlets.

Political Polka...

that this pleyune sum is going to be dropped from the budgets when they come up, conveniently, enough, right after election.

All things point, they say, to a continuation of political penuriousness with the little fellow who can't fight back, and open handed "you're our pal" stuff with the boys in the bigger brackets.

Incidentally, tossing this emergency salary increase out the window also effects the fire and police departments, who, of all people, can ill afford to take anything more off their nearly — nothing wage.

If any of the safely enrolled Republican men in blue are found voting for the Republican ticket this fall, they are quite apt to be recommended for a South Ave. I. Q. test by the fellow workers.

So if the Republican fathers are depending on "the boys" at city hall and in the service departments this fall to get 'em out to vote they're due for a surprise on the first Wednesday after the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November.

Local Ornithologists assert that it was real nice of the people in the nineteenth ward to thank the city fathers for driving the starlings out of the west side arbors but nature had a lot more to do with it than the efforts of the shotgunning gentlemen sent out by the administration. A startling just gets the urge at this time of year to leave his summer abode and cruise around in flocks of ever increasing size — then suddenly they disappear southward. This they will do, no matter whether a Republican wants them to or not.

Rumors that the head of the Republican party in the nineteenth is to relinquish his reins are, shall we say, "Gaughn with the wind."

The estimable Emmett may according to the rumor department, decide to wear the cloak of that office indefinitely. As chairman of the State Youth commission he has a tough job. It has to be organized and put into motion — and it's unlikely that the Gaughn gifts for such could be put into action over the long distance telephone.

Thus, it seems improbable that these rumors could be on firm foundation unless Gaughn intends to drop the toga gracefully on the shoulders of Assemblyman Allen Oliver. By so doing he could keep not only a finger in the nineteenth ward pie but at least one hand up to the elbow. Oliver and Gaughn see eye to eye on things political and no doubt Mr. Oliver would often seek the counsel of his predecessor.

The Advocates of such men as Emmett Norton, Frank Ryan and others might not be too happy about such an arrangement.

Those who says the Rochester voting public is too disgusted with the "carrying on" of the present administration to vote them back in office again this fall still concede Bill Doane of the Tenth the best chance of making grade on the Republican ticket. Although Doane carries the party label where it should be, he has often shown his independence in council voting, and would be the least objectionable of the Republican candidates as far as the Democrats are concerned. Doane would be quite apt to vote on one side of the fence as often as the other.

job he'd sharpen his axe on a few Republican necks, and would probably give Mr. Broderick a few orders — which would be refreshing to say the least.

According to a few impartial observers who went to Palmyra to hear the Governor wove 'em with rhetoric Tom picked a safely Republican community to do his talking. Mr. Dewey congratulated them on having such a smart Governor and spoke at great length on his remarkable achievements in building up such a staggering postwar fund.

He didn't mention that there had been a war on; that a great many of 48 states show an even better record; nor that he couldn't have spent any money to speak of had he wanted to — there was a dearth of manpower and materials to prevent such disbursements.

It can be said, however, that Mr. Dewey is a lot better looking than either Governor Lehman or Al Smith — and he ties his ties better.

The liquor store squabble out in the nineteenth ward will continue to make the headlines. The clergy, when up in arms does not quit so easily. It looks as though sooner or later they will find out that the "word" of a politician is somewhat different than the word of men of their own calling.

It wouldn't be surprising if Mr. Broderick had the clergy kidded into thinking he has nothing to do with liquor stores permits; that it is entirely a state Board matter and that the state Board is still under Democratic control — not Republican.

They might ask to peep into the little book that records the names and political affinities of all state office holders (they can find one at either Democratic or Republican headquarters) and either political boss (or at least one) would probably show it to them on request.

There, in deep black and lily white, it will be found that it is the Republicans who call the plays on who gets what and where in package store licenses.

As far as Mr. Tom having nothing to do with who gets stores that's funnier than anything that Bob Hope has said yet.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, Rochester Sun.
I would like to protest against the reported discrimination said to be shown by the Bausch & Lomb Co. toward workers of Italian descent.

My brother, a former worker at B & L, was born and raised in Rochester, inducted into the armed forces from this city and killed in action Oct. 5, 1944. He now lies buried somewhere in France. Was his life along with thousands of others boys of Italian descent, given in vain? Did his buddies refuse to fight at his side because of his parentage? His buddies were either of Irish, English, Italian or other foreign descent. How does mothers, fathers, wives and relatives of boys of Italian descent, killed on battlefields all over the world feel? Do they, like myself, feel cheated out of something that my brother fought and died for? Let's hear from of the state commission before taking any action.

It is expected that the commission's next step will be a conference with Bausch & Lomb officials to get their version of the charges. Julian J. Reiss, upstate director is expected to head the state commission's representatives at the proposed conference.

Inside Hollywood . . .

CINDERELLA ON SKATES — As dainty and charming as the famous heroine of fairyland is glamorous Gloria Nord, star of the opulent extravaganza, "Skating Vanities," which makes its debut on September 19th at the Buffalo Memorial Auditorium. Gloria with all her beauty, grace and talent tops the list of 125 stars comprising the new edition of the "Vanities."

News comes that Australia, where weather conditions make outdoor locations more feasible, may become the British "Hollywood." It is said that J. Arthur Rank, London film magnet, and Hoyt's Theaters of Australia have joined to start the production of motion picture film in the near future.

Some of George Gershwin's haunting, imaginative melodies which he jotted down in his notebook and was planning to use when death overtook him in 1937 will be played and sung for the first time in "The Shocking Miss Pilgrim" in which that national and essential business institution—the stenographer—will be glorified on the screen. Betty Grable, backed by Dick Haymes, who will co-star with her, will sing a number of these unpublished songs and other singers will take care of the score.

Major Gene Raymond after four years of service with the Army Air Forces, is enjoying a fifty day terminal leave with his wife, Jeanette MacDonald, after which he will be free to resume his motion picture career.

Betty Hutton back from an overseas tour entertaining troops, married Theodore Brikkin of Chicago, a camera company executive, and they are honeymooning in Florida.

Jimmy Stewart, now a Colonel in the Army Air Forces is back in this country, after several years' service in Europe. He admits that he is anxious to get back to his old job before the cameras but he does not know just what his military status is at the present time.

Paulette Goddard is said to be asking $150,000 to play opposite Bob Hope in "Monsieur Beaucaire."

Hedy Lamar has her husband, John Loder, busy trying to find that last print of "Ecstasy" that keeps turning up in the United States. Her first husband, Fritz Mandl, thought he had cornered all the prints of that movie shortly after he married the beautiful Hedy.

Shirley Temple is busy as a bee, getting her trousseau ready for her marriage to Sgt. John Agar. It's to be performed in the Wilshire Methodist Church, Los Angeles (where Deanna Durbin married Hugh Paul) in the presence of about 400 invited guests. After the honeymoon, he plans to return to school to complete his education while Shirley continues with her acting career.

It took a plastic operation on his nose for Robert North, handsome young Detroit actor, who played with Helen Hayes in "Harriet," to attract the attention of movie scouts. Turned down cold by one scout, he had the operation and was snapped up by another company. He has been assigned by MGM to one of the leading roles that of Murdock, in "The Green Years."

'Vanities' Star Acclaimed Queen of Roller Skaters

Meteor would be a better name than star for skater Gloria Nord. Gloria, who is starred in the "Skating Vanities of 1946" coming to the Memorial Auditorium in Buffalo on September 19th, through 23rd, covers the specially silenced roller floor like a lovely comet with her blond hair flying.

In a startling combination of arabesque and spins, split jumps and rhythm steps, she presents the best of dancing on wheels.

As a one-time child ballerina, this is a snap for Gloria, who has been dancing since she was 11 years old. Her dancing debut, made in her native city of Santa Monica, California, started Gloria in short musical pictures until Sid Grauman, known for his Chinese Theatre, discovered that she could also dance on ice and on wheels.

Grauman put Gloria into skating exhibitions and when she was 15 years old she began her first nationwide tour. Last year as acknowledged roller skater of the United States, she appeared with Betty Grable in the technicolor musical, "Pin-Up Girl."

For recreation Gloria has a hobby — she collects handkerchiefs in every city the "Vanities" books. The rest of the time she is either rehearsing or studying vocal technique under her father, Andre Nordskog, the Norwegian concert singer.

"Sure she takes spills. 'Every skater tumbles sometimes.'"

Gloria says "A chip or break in one of the wooden wheels will throw the best skating artist."

NEW! WAKE UP YOUR DIGESTION
BELOW THE BELT
Without Stomach Relievers

This Kind of Laxative Help Often Needed When Lower Stomach Issues
Cause Gassy, Bloating Misery.

When most food leaves the stomach, it is by no means fully digested. It is in the 28 feet or more of intestine that the greater part of digesting is done. When we get something "stuck" later stages of digestion often slow down. Then food is apt to ferment and decay accordingly. In the bowels, as a result we may feel full of gassy bloating and other indigestion miseries. That's where you need Laxative's "Glee". They work to relieve this condition of waste and encourage the welcome elimination which brings prompt, better digestion, better the feel. Ask your druggist for gentle, all-repa-rable Laxative Pills today. Caution: Use only as directed.

Poison Ivy Clue
Newton, N. C. — When a service station window was smashed and 70 gasoline ration coupons were missing, a keen-eyed policeman noticed that a poison ivy vine near the window had been broken. He just went around looking for a man with poison ivy and, sure enough, found him. He pleaded guilty and the stamps were recovered.

Women in your 40s

Do these symptoms
Betray your Age?

Lydia E. Pinkham's VEGETABLE COMPOUND

Do these symptoms
Betray your Age?

Do you—like so many women between the ages of 35 and 45—suffer from backaches, nervous tension, irritability, are a bit blue at times—due to the functional "middle-age" period peculiar to women?

Then start at once—try Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to relieve such symptoms. This great medicine treats nervous tension, irritability—helps build up resistance against such "middle-age" distress.

For almost a century—thousands upon thousands of women have reported benefits. Also grand stomachic tonic. Follow label directions.

Political Polka

• Republican Promises
• Strategy Backfire
—BY CURT GERLING

The Republican advertising campaign opened this week with an expenditure of $614,76 in the daily papers. The magic pen of Harold S. W. MacFarlin who holds down four or five jobs was in evidence throughout. So was the fact that Harold keeps a scrap book of former ads and mutterings. It's the same old stuff — The Republican party will campaign on a set of rosy promises with intent to befuddle, rather than a set of explanations designed to enlighten. The grandiose and habitual assumption that the Republican party can do no wrong and has made no glaring mistakes in management and administration is just as much in evidence and is just as funny or even funnier than last year.

Mr. MacFarlin goes slightly off his beam when he writes, "What is best for the future of our town, county and city government. It is upon this issue—and this issue alone—that we propose to conduct our campaign. This issue is the only issue of interest to the public." That isn't the way we hear it, and we hear a lot. The people want a whole of a lot of explanations as to why past promises have not been fulfilled and why the duties of present office holders are so inefficiently discharged. What's more, they don't want it explained in another Cartwright Report, either. If the GOPers are kidding themselves that they can run

Albany To Get Liquor Ban Plea

Churchmen Plan Mass Meeting To Block West Side Store

Political aspect of the awarding of retail liquor store licenses are reported to be due for a close scrutiny unless John F. O'Connell, state liquor authority chairman, heeds the message telegraphed to him by several west side clergymen and reserves his decision to permit a liquor store at 352 Arnett Blvd.

While plans for further protest were underway, it was revealed this week that ten more applications for liquor licenses in this area were under consideration by the local board. The new batch of applications were dated for October 1st and it is expected that action on them will be held in abeyance until that date. Any of those granted will be in addition to the 20 just approved.

Smoke Eaters Point To Veteran's Dismissal Reilly Promotion

The playing of politics is not the exclusive prerogative of the Republican and Democratic parties in Rochester, if current reports are to be believed. Even the most naive of citizens knows that when a public safety department is "politically controlled" there's bound to be a lowering of efficiency and morale, favoritism, unfairness and bootlicking.

The Case of Reilly

When pressed for specific examples of unfairness local firemen almost to a man, point first to the case of one Lawrence E. Reilly. Reilly has been connected with the department for 18 years. Until recently he had never risen above the rank of private, but since 1939 worked on the arson squad at a salary somewhat greater than the ordinary man in the ranks. Suddenly he was named chief instructor of the Fire College, installed at Edgerton Park and given the same salary as a battalion chief.

Called "Capable"

Heads of the department say that Reilly is "a very capable and talented man." He is reputed to be very deft in explaining the multitudinous charts gathered together by the fire college and is said to be able to talk "very well" on the poisonous gas phases of warfare.

But many members of the department, disgruntled by Reilly's sudden elevation at the not inconsequential salary of $3,200 per year, are wondering why he remained a private for so many years if he had his currently reputed great talents and capabilities. Why he never competed for, or was awarded the intermediate posts of lieutenant, or captain remains a mystery. Those who disagree with the department head's estimate of Reilly admit that one of his greatest talents is talking not on poison gas, but rather the brand of gas which is the stock-in-trade of the political genius. They further charge that his present post, as appointive one, was created to reward Reilly without running amid the civil service requirements for competitive examination. Other instructors at the fire college include Battalion Chiefs William Murray and Ambrose Foss. The dispute

As St. Patrick's Day is only six months from last Monday, you might like to hear an Irish story. This concerns an elderly Irish woman who was traveling from North Ireland to Eire and was stopped at the boundary line by the customs officer. He asked her if she had anything to declare. "Only a bottle of water," she replied. "What kind?" asked the official. "Holy water," was the prompt reply. The customs officer had been on the job a long time and had learned to take nothing for granted, so he asked to see the bottle. The lady protested a bit, but he snatched it from her and took a whiff of the cork. "Aha," he exclaimed triumphantly. "It's as I thought. It's whiskey." "Glorious," exclaimed the old lady in a fervent voice. "— a miracle!"

...Overheard in The Chateau taproom: "Was my girl glad to see me when I got home? She ran over for a hug and a kiss but the pressure was all mine!"

A silly question usually brings forth a silly answer. Take the case of a party gentleman who was standing alone at one of our better bars the other night. Alongside him was a returned paratrooper chatting with a couple of friends. The soldier was decorated with campaign ribbons galore and had the appearance of an individual who had seen plenty of hard service. The portly one eyed him for some time and his curiosity finally got the better of his manners. He nudged the service man and said: "I see you're a paratrooper, soldier." "Uh-huh," was the disinterested reply, as the soldier turned back to his friends. Rebuffed but not discouraged, the citizen tried again. "Bet you saw plenty of service, didn't you?" "Oh, some," answered the still disinterested GI. Determined to continue the conversation, the gentleman tried once again. "Tell me, how many jumps does a paratrooper have to make before he graduates?" "All of them," was the squelcher that ended what might have become a beautiful friendship.

passing the largest brewery in Germany. Came the reply from the rear of the group: "I'm not."

Simile — As unpopular with the clergy as a man trying to open a liquor store on Arnett Boulevard.

You might like to hear about the salesman who called on a big businessman near the close of a rush day. When the salesman was admitted to his august presence the tycoon said: "You should feel honored. During the day I've refused to see eleven salesmen." "I know," replied the salesman, "I'm all of them!"

Would you call a gossiping lady a woman with a strong sense of humor?

Definition of Europe: a collection of countries with chips on their shoulders and none on the table.

We might as well close this silly symphony with the story about the father who was trying to answer a series of questions being put to him by his young son and heir. One of the questions was whether there were such things as mermaids in the ocean. "Of course there are, son," answered the father, "they are beautiful. They are half women and half fish, they spend all of their time in the water and only come to the surface to flirt with sailors." "Well," continued the child, "where do they sleep?" The father was stumped by this one for a moment, but finally came up with this classic. "The young ones are rocked in the cradle of the deep and the older ones sleep in the bed of the ocean."

I'm sorry, but I've got to fill this space some way.

War Vet Seeks
Post In 7th Ward

A "new deal" is in store for 7th warders after the November election, if Michael Solone has anything to say about it. And he expects to have a lot to say. Solone is confident that he will be named supervisor of that ward at the fall polling. He is running on the Democratic ticket.

Born and raised on Ward St., Solone attended No. 9 school and was graduated from Washington Junior High School in 1927. He has only recently returned from Army service where he was awarded battle stars for participation in the Papuan, New Guinea and East Indies campaigns. When released he had amassed 96 points and was a technical sergeant.

Prior to his army service Solone was connected with the federal government in the food stamp plan of the Department of Agriculture.

No stranger to politics, Solone is 4th district leader in his home ward and has been active in ward affairs since casting his first vote 1934. He is the brother, as well as protegee of ward leader and former supervisor Sam Solone. He lives at 448 Clinton Ave. N.

area condemning the proposed license grant as "detrimental to the youth" of the community. But the state body granted the license anyway.

Appeal To Governor
Now, say the leaders in the fight to keep the liquor store out of the vicinity of the Arnett branch library and YMCA if the state board does not reverse itself they will lead the community in an appeal direct to Gov. Dewey and also sponsor a public mass meeting of protest.

To Air 'Politics'
The churchmen have threatened to "air the whole subject" of granting liquor licenses if they are forced to take their fight to the community at large. As an indication of what they might unearth is seen in the statement that nineteen of the twenty permits granted in Monroe County are scheduled for the city of Rochester. It is further pointed out that of the 19 new permits, 18 were awarded to Republican enrollees or those with Republican connections. It is said that the only license going to a Democrat is one awarded to a veteran of three years of Pacific service and charge that this was done solely because that to reject his application might have proven "embarrassing."

No new word is reported to have been received from the state liquor board chairman on the protests.

the town as they please and for whom they please, they should be due for a very rude awakening. Such a point of view does have its benefits—it gets more votes for the other side.
The Republican publicity man also brought out the fact that the Republican county enrollment is nearly two-to-one more than that of all other political parties combined. However he neglected to mention it was that way last year too—yet the city went overwhelmingly for Roosevelt and a Mr. Rogers was elected to Congress.
This is a "fact" and the Republican ads state that they will be concerned only with "facts." If that's the case (and we doubt it) they had better face the "fact" that a whole of a lot of people only enroll Republican. They vote as they please and as their judgment dictates.

In Jersey City where Boss Hague rules with a heavy and allegedly corrupt hand—a Republican enrollee is a pretty scarce article. Rochester citizens have learned, like those in Jersey, that it is often expedient to enroll with the party in power in order to have garbage, ashes and trash removed with a smile instead of a snarl or get an inside "yes" when Uncle Louie tangles with the police. But voting—that's different—it's a private affair—and the citizen can file his protest with his ballot—in Jersey City—or in Rochester. This is another "fact" that the GOP would like to have us overlook—at least in their advertisements.

In the Powers lobby the betting still favors boss Broderick against the west side clergymen who seek to have the Liquor license for 352 Arnett Blvd. rescinded. "If Tom OKs something it stays OKed—he won't back down on a decision for anybody," said a staunch organization lieutenant. "Furthermore," he added, "the whole Nineteenth can go Democratic to boot." To which we opined "and it probably will."

There is a growing feeling down in the Lentz Ward that the mistakes which have been made there in such abundance can be attributed to collusion on the part of Leader Riley and Mr. Broderick and are not attributable to Supervisor Joe Kaufman.
The boys have to decide whether or not they want to sacrifice Kaufman by punishing him for deeds he was not responsible for, in order to put the Riley clique in the ash can.

A fellow who didn't have his street plowed out last winter, either, remarked, "I note in the papers that a big ad says 'The Republican campaign will keep faith with the pub-lie"—"but it didn't say what year!"

One of the widely acclaimed (at least by the daily press) feats of master-minding was the appointment of Frank Nizer to an avacouncil seat, thus tying the Labor vote into the Republican party. This master-minding back-fired and involved the Republican soothsayers and their candidates in something more than tepid water. Then Mr. Broderick forced his candidates to reject the support of labor and slapped the man who works hard for a living on both cheeks. It'll be harder this year than ever to find a Republican vote in the local shops. We presume the Republicans will charge off the vote loss to a "trend" rather than had judgment.

make great quantities of salvaged paper available in order to speed up the vitally-important reconversion of our peacetime industries on the home front.
Sunday's pick-up will cover the entire city area with trucks starting on their rounds at an early hour. Therefore, the committee is stressing the importance of placing bundles at the curb on Saturday night.

press this week promising to keep faith with the public. The messages contended that the only issue in the coming campaign is what was best for the future.

Past To Be Buried
Many observers construed that statement to be an indication of how little will be said by Republican campaign orators of past performances and how much will be said concerning promises for the future. The Democrats are expected to fill in the background by reporting on the past and current activities of the Republican-controlled city administration. The Democratic-ALP declaration of principles, to be unveiled tonight, is expected to pledge both parties to the principle of minority representation on their city council at all times. What other principles are among the 10 contained in the declaration could not be learned. But, with cold weather just around the corner it was certain that, whether listed in the joint declaration or not, much will be said during the campaign about the Republicans' handling of the snow storms last winter.

BIAS FIGHT . . .

mittee is reported to be under way with an investigator for the body gathering affidavits from affected workers here last week.

In pledging his aid, Rogers said that he did not condone any racial discrimination on the part of private industry and promised he would do "everything possible" on behalf of those workers who have been discriminated against. Spokesmen for the optical concern deny the discrimination charges, asserting that the recent layoffs, made necessary by the sudden cancellation of war contracts were conducted "without any regard to race, color, creed or racial origin."

In its fight with the Company the union has also enlisted the aid of Mayor Dicker and the city council. It has also requested action by the National Fair Employment Practices Commission and has notified Congressman James Wadsworth of its charge.

FIREMEN . . .

ment is headed by Deputy Chief Thomas Coates. From all that can be learned, the fire bureau is run along strictly legal lines. Politicians are smart enough for that, because they usually make the rules. But even though legal, say some of the smoke-eaters, many of the firemen's estimate of the operation of the department coincides with the reply of the taxi driver to a passenger's query as to whether or not the fare he had paid was right. The amount paid was exact to the penny and included no tip. To his passenger's question, the taxi driver replied, "it may be correct, mister, but it ain't right."

HISTORY STUDIES LISTED AT EAST

A course in world history as well as current history is being offered at the East High Evening School with both courses carrying regents credits, according to William Howe, principal. Classes are held on Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 7 to 8:30 p. m. and 8:30 to 10 p. m. Each class is limited to 20 students.

Both history courses are under the direction of Samuel Grossfield.

WHAT EVERY WOMAN KNOWS...

Well, here it is 1955! And Tom in business for himself—already heading for a real success.

Set himself up with those matured War Bonds we bought back in the 1940's—four dollars for every three we saved originally!

Back in 1945, even, we knew it would turn out this way. Buying all the Bonds we could. And saving them . . . for our future! Tom's a wonderful husband. And he deserves all the credit.

Well, almost all!

There was a time—that was back in 1945, too, I guess—when he needed a little help from me. I found he'd let down on his Bond buying. Not only that, he actually almost suggested we cash in a Bond or two to pay for something we wanted . . .

And that's where I put my foot down.

"YOU LISTEN TO ME, Tom Lapham," I told him. "Don't you know that the biggest difference between a success and a failure is that the success sticks to his plans? I don't want to be married to a man who hasn't the resolution (or maybe I said 'gumption') to slack off on what he knows is right! You're not going to sabotage our future!"

I guess every husband needs a wifely dressing down once in a while! And thank heaven Tom listened to me!

We kept our Bonds—and bought more and more of 'em! First thing we knew, we had enough so we began feeling secure. That gave Tom confidence—helped him get ahead. And this year, enough bonds matured to make our dreams come true!

TOM'S A SUCCESS—yet he might have failed if I hadn't spoken at the right time. And, of course, he's forgotten. I wouldn't dream of reminding him—it's a secret between us girls.

MORAL: Think of your future—hang on to your bonds! And keep on buying more!

WAR BONDS...to have and to hold!

WAKE UP YOUR DIGESTION BELOW THE BELT

Without Stomach Relievers

This Kind of Laxative Help Often Needed When Lower Sluggishness Causes Gas, Bloating, Nausea

When most food leaves the stomach it is by no means fully digested. It is in the 24 hrs. or more of retention that the greater part of digestion is done. When we get constipated, some later stages of digestion often slow down. This food is apt to ferment and decay excessively in the bowels. As a result we may feel full of gassy bloating and other indigestion miseries. That's when you need Benham's Tills. They work to relieve the congestion of waste and encourage the normal elimination which helps promote better digestion below the belt. Ask your druggist for genuine Benham's Tills today. No 59th Anniversary Sale this Year!
We're not celebrating our birthday this year with a Sears Anniversary Sale. Uncle Sam's needs come first nowadays and that's as it should be. Though you may miss this traditional event of many low priced values, you can still count on Sears to bring you the best of what is available. You can still depend on Sears for quality merchandise at money-saving prices... for friendly, courteous service. We've been satisfying folks for 59 years. We intend to continue doing so. That's why it's always a good idea to SHOP AT SEARS AND SAVE.

Mary Jones
SEARS STOCKHOLDER

Mary Jones OWNS part of Sears. She's a stockholder. She's the girl who wants to please you, to make you like to shop at Sears, because Mary knows that the more customers she can satisfy, the more she will receive as her share of the earnings. You probably know her. She's the helpful cute blonde in the lingerie department... the friendly brunette who sells hosiery... the jolly, painstaking red head in drugs... yes, she's all the girls who help you at Sears.

Everybody working at Sears a year or more is eligible to share in Sears Profit Sharing and Pension Plan. Mary was very happy at the time this opportunity was offered to her. Today she and her co-workers own 15% of all stock in the company. They are the biggest single shareholder.

Mary is so proud of HER company. Proud of the way it serves folks all over America. Proud of the quality merchandise Sears sells so reasonably. Proud of Sears guarantee of satisfaction or your money back. Proud also to be one of Sears best customers. But then that's natural, for she's familiar with what she's buying and she realizes it's good. So Mary gets over 50% of all her needs from her own company.

Mary would have enjoyed telling you all this herself, but she's mighty busy these days taking care of all her millions of customers. That's why she asked us to tell you about her company—Sears!

And by the way—if you don't know Mary Jones, come in to meet her today. She'll be so glad to serve you.

BY CURT GERLING

At a meeting of the Nineteenth Ward Marching and Chowder Club the other evening, where Mr. Oliver said he didn't want Mr. Gaughn's job because Mr. Gaughn intended to keep it anyways, a Mr. Jack Little, also had a few choice words for the partisan assembly.

Mr. Little is an assistant district attorney and as such in this town, has to do his own, as well as his boss' work. Thus we wonder how he finds time to make these "bakes" and prepare a speech too. Mr. Little told his jury (and the newspapers) what a swell job the GOP had done in reducing the county debt. But he neglected to give any comparative figures as to how much better Orleans, Erie, Onondaga and a number of other counties may have done in this boom era. To do so could have proved embarrassing.

As Mr. Little had the nineteenth ward, club and courtroom to himself there was no defense attorney present to ask him what party got Monroe county into such a mess of debt, nor to call his attention to the ornate and rocco County Poor House which makes many a spot at Miami look like a Mills Hotel — and which will forever be a monument to the GOP grab system. It is the same system which got the county into such a quagmire of debt. (See POLKA Page 9)

JOHN HANOVEN DEMOCRATS SEEKS ACTION SEEK HEAVY ON JOB PLEA REGISTRATION

Ousted City Aide Asks Court To Restore Job Lost In Snowstorm

John Hanoven, former supervisor of maintenance in the city's public works department has served notice on the City of Rochester to "quit stalling" and prepare to defend itself at the October term of the Appellate Division. Through his attorney, Emmet O'Brien, Hanoven will seek reinstatement to the city post from which he was removed last winter as a result of the now-famed snowstorm tie-ups. He was ousted by August Wagner, commissioner of public works, after a hearing on charges that Hanoven had been negligent in his duty in ordering out snow plowing equipment.

County Chairman Predicts Heavy Vote Will Favor Party Candidates

Declaring that the Democrats always win when there is a heavy vote, Democratic County Chairman Roy Bush this week urged all ward and town committeemen to make every effort to insure a big registration of voters.

Registration Necessary

The county chairman pointed out that the first step in securing a large and representative vote was to get eligible voters to register. Newspaper ads sponsored by the Democratic County Committee told voters to be sure and register so "you can vote to clean house in City Hall and the Court House."

Independents Organize

Unexpected help in the Monroe County Democratic Committee's efforts to get out a large registration was seen this week in the placing of advertisements by the Rochester Committee for Better Government.

While no mention was made of Democratic candidates, the committee is obviously in sympathy with the aims of the party here. In the advertisement the committee proclaimed that "This is your opportunity to register your protest against the mismanagement and derelictions of the Republican and County administration."

DEMOCRATS OPEN LADY REALTORS TOWN VOTE DRIVE NAME OFFICERS

The Greece Democratic Town and County Committee will formally open its election campaign tomorrow at 8:30 p. m. in the newly opened headquarters at 3167 Dewey Ave. Town and county candidates will speak and present a platform for action to capture the election in November. Included in the program are promises to reduce taxes without increasing indebtedness, promote town-controlled ash and garbage collection, eliminate health hazards, promote playgrounds and award salary increases to town employees at no extra cost to taxpayers.

K of C Plans Sunday Degree Assembly Here

Fourth Degree of the Knights of Columbus will be exemplified in Rochester on Sunday, Oct. 7 on a class of candidates from assemblies in the Fifth District comprising the area covered by Rochester Catholic diocese. Master of the Fifth District, Cyril J. Statt will be in charge.

Permanent officers have been named by the recently-organized Women's Council of the Rochester Real Estate Board which was formed to "secure for members the benefits of united effort."

Heading the new division is Mrs. Nora Shackelford, chairman; Miss Claire Connors, vice-chairman; Mrs. Irene Harrison, secretary and Mrs. Ruth Golden, treasurer.

Other objectives of the group are: to create a feeling of harmony among members to observe the national standards of ethics, to create and stimulate real estate transactions; to cooperate with local, state and national real estate bodies; to further, in every way, the real estate business.

Popular Singing Star To Return With Romberg

When Sigmund Romberg, famous composer-conductor, starts wielding his baton Monday evening, October 8, in the Eastman Theater, the singing star of his concert will be blond and lovely Marie Nash.

Romberg, who is bringing his own 55-piece orchestra here, will have three other soloists. They include Grace Panvini, coloratura soprano, Mary Becker, violinist, and Gene Marvey, tenor.

But Miss Nash is his special pride. Romberg selected her from a number of star possibilities as featured singer in his program, "An Evening with Romberg." She has been a leading singer in such Broadway hits as "I'd Rather Be Right," "Crazy with the Heat" and "Higher and Higher."

Miss Nash, who was with Romberg on his first trip to Rochester three years ago, turned down the singing lead in Cole Porter's "Something for the Boys," as well as other important offers, in order to accept her present concert tour engagement.

The Viennese composer of more than 75 highly successful musicals on Broadway — the latest one being "Up in Central Park" — added another star to his crown when he conducted a series of musical shows over a coast-to-coast radio network this past summer.

America knows and loves his songs from such shows as "Naughty Marietta," "The Student Prince," "Blossom Time," "The New Moon" and "Desert Song."

When the time comes for a showdown there should be a showdown.

Candidate Offers Town Program To Voters

Sewers or cesspools? That is the choice being offered Point Pleasant and Sea Breeze area residents as the main issue in the election of a supervisor for the town of Irondequoit in November.

The residents now have "cesspool conditions" according to William A. Woods, Democratic candidate for supervisor in the town. He blames Republican lethargy for the conditions.

As an alternate to the present "unhealthy and unsanitary conditions in the area of Point Pleasant, Sea Breeze and the Ridge-Culver vicinity," Woods is offering voters a program of sanitary sewers and in a speech last Thursday night before the Northeast Democratic Club declared he was offering "more than promises. I will give you results," he said.

Woods outlined the plans he has formulated to carry through his proposed program and said he would use every means and seek the aid of any state or federal agency that will help make the program available to residents of the community.

Takes Dad's Advice; Seeks County Post

To make sure he'd never forget the political party to which they thought he ought to belong, the parents of Grover Cleveland Scott gave him the name of the then greatest Democrat of them all — the president.

He didn't forget, he took his dad's advice and today he is campaigning for supervisor in the 15th Ward on the Democratic ticket.

Scott, who lives at 47 Austin St. has been active in politics for many years. He managed the campaign of James E. Malley when Malley ran for sheriff in 1928. But this is Scott's first try for office.

Associated with the paint and varnish business for 25 years, Scott later headed a distributing business here. For the past three years he has been in war work at the General Railway Signal Co.

At various times Scott has held membership in the Elks, the Moose, and the Eagles. He is active in veterans circles being chaplain of Glidden Camp, Sons of Union Veterans and the S.O.U.V. Reserves. He has been chairman of the 15th ward Democratic committee for 10 years and war leader since 1943.

FIREFIGHTER MAKES COOKIES IN SPARE TIME

Freeport, Ill. — Alvin Lawyer, as a boy, always liked to hear around in his mother's kitchen, especially when she was baking a batch of cookies. Now Alvin is a fireman and he bakes 25 to 40 dozen cookies weekly for the service men's snack bar.

Scene and Word

By ED RANDALL

Now that the golf season is about over, you'd probably like to hear a golf story. This one concerns the two players who had met at the first tee, introduced themselves, and started to play. Along about the twelfth hole, they sighted two women coming toward them over a hill.

One of the divot-diggers took a second look at the approaching women and said: "Here comes my wife with some old hag she's picked up somewhere." "And here comes mine with another," was the icy retort of his companion.

I wonder why some enterprising manufacturers don't adopt the idea of putting liquid stockings in curved bottles for women who are bowlegged.

Then they tell about the housewife who had been having trouble with the laundry shrinking her unmentionables. She finally reached the point of utter frustration and sent a large railroad spike with her next bundle. To the spike she tied a tag with the inscription: "Try and shrink this." When her laundry was returned, she found a small carpet tack with a tag tied to it saying "We did."

Definition of perfumery: A business firm that makes money by sticking its business in other people's noses.

One of the stumblers who makes Washington Square his headquarters was walking past a statue in the park the other day when he thought he heard the sculptured figure say: "I wish I were an aviator." Startled, he turned back and asked: "Pardon me, but did I hear you say you wanted to be an aviator?" "Yes," replied the statue, "I'd like to fly over a pigeon just once."

Said the cow to the new, inexperienced farmhand: "Go ahead and see if I give a dram."

The first Florida story of the season is about to unfold itself before your eyes with the anecdote about the man from New England who appeared at a hotel in St. Petersburg early last winter. He handed his traveling bag to the porter with the remark: "I've come to Florida to spend the winter." "You've come to the wrong place, mister," replied the porter. "We don't have any winter here."

Here's another one of those perennial small boy stories. This particular little gem is about the lad who invaded the privacy of a first-class railway car in which a honeymooning couple were doing a bit of billing and cooing. "If you'll go into the next car, sonny," "I'll give you a penknife," said the young husband hopefully. "I don't wanna penknife," replied the boy. "Well, I'll give you my fountain pen," urged the newlywed. "I don't wanna fountain pen." "Well, what DO you want?" "I wanna watch," was the emphatic reply.

A woman who was spending a vacation in a very lonely rural spot wrote to a friend as follows: "My sister and I aren't exactly lonely out here. We have each other to talk to, but we need another woman to talk about." And on that catly note, I'll leave you for another week.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, Rochester Sun,

The following letter was mailed to the Times-Union Reader's Forum on Aug. 28, 1945. I asked them to print it, but it seems that they have too much political pull to have Mr. Gannett print such a thing. Maybe the truth hurts, but thanks to The Sun for opening the people's eyes. Please print the following.

Thank you.

NO DISCRIMINATION? NUTS

Why is it that now that there is a big layoff on account of reconversion Italians or descendants of Italians who are American born are first to get laid off at Baisch & Lomb? I had worked there for four and half years and others I know have worked there that long. When asked to put in a few hours extra many were willing. Not that we were hungry for money but because we felt we were doing a little extra for our loved ones in the service. The way the bosses used to plead: "Please put in a few extra hours — I need the work." A lot of people refused but we said, "OK," regardless of how bad we needed the rest. I have put in as much as 72 to 80 hours some weeks. On Fridays or Saturdays you could count the people that were present — 95 percent of them were of Italian extraction. Now we are back in the same boat we used to be. Aren't we human? Aren't we good workers? Or are we just good in a pinch? All I can say is, I think we helped Baisch's to get those five stars they are so proud of and, if there should ever be another war, God forbid, I hope they come pinading to us again like they did before. And when the boys come home I hope they get a better deal than we did, but I don't think they will because even though born in America they are unfortunate enough to have an Italian name.

Yes, I'm proud to be of Italian extraction.

Surrender Document. — The original Japanese surrender document signed on the deck of the battleship Missouri, has been put on exhibition in the Archives Building in Washington, after being presented to the people by General Jonathan M. Wainwright. Exhibited with it is President Truman's proclamation announcing that victory had come and calling upon the American people to observe Sunday, August 19th, as a day of prayer.

Axis Prisoners. — The last of the 470,034 German, Italian and Japanese prisoners of war will have left the United States by early spring according to the War Department. By mid-winter all Italian service units which have been doing special voluntary work will be sent back to Italy. By early spring all Italian prisoners, now numbering 49,784, the 362,170 German prisoners and the 5,080 Japanese prisoners in this country will be cleared out.

Tulips From Holland. — One hundred thousand tulip bulbs have been given by the people of Holland to the U. S. Army to be used to beautify national cemeteries in this country. The War Department declared that the tulips would be used at the Arlington, Baltimore and Long Island cemeteries. Under present arrangements, an equal number of tulip bulbs will be presented next year for use in other cemeteries.

Chewing Gum. — The Navy recently announced the cancellation of $38,500,000 in outstanding orders for delivery of chewing gum, cigarettes, candy bars and similar items sold in ships' stores. The contracts were for delivery in October, November and December. Similar cancellations were recently announced by the Army. As a result, manufacturers will be able to divert these goods to the civilian market.

Colleges. — Colleges and universities in all parts of the United States face the greatest era of expansion in their history. As the post-war building campaign of more than $2,000,000,000 is contemplated.

Records Center. — At a cost of $3,000,000, a giant Army records center will be established at St. Louis. All buildings of the St. Louis Ordnance Depot, except those of the Chevrolet Shell plant and the McQuade-Norris plant, are to be converted into a record station, according to the War Department.

Ships. — In asking for legislation providing for the sale or charter of surplus seagoing vessels, built or acquired by the Maritime Commission during the war, Admiral Emory S. Land, chairman, declared that of 74,000,000 dead-weight tons of ships in 1939, 11,000,000 was American. Of 94,000,000 to 96,000,000 tons now, 66,000,000 were American. Great Britain had 27,000,000 tons in 1939 and will have 24,000,000 to 26,000,000 by January 1st.

Says Everybody Is Hypnotized

A strange method of mind and body control, that often leads to immense powers never before experienced, is announced by Edwin J. Dingle, well-known explorer and geographer. It is said to bring about almost unbelievable improvement in power and mind. Many report improvement in health. Others acquire superb bodily strength, secure better positions, turn failure into success. Often, with surprising speed, talents, ability and a more magnetic personality are developed.

The method was found in remote and mysterious Tibet, formerly a forbidden country, rarely visited by outsiders, and often called the land of miracles in the astounding books written about it. Here, behind the highest mountains in the world, Mr. Dingle learned the extraordinary system he is now announcing to the Western world.

He maintains that all of us are giants in strength and mind-power capable of surprising feats, from the delay of old age to the prolonging of youth, and the achievement of dazzling professional success. From childhood, however, we are hypnotized, our powers put to sleep, by the suggestions of associates, by what we read, and by various experiences. To realize their really marvelous powers, men and women must escape from this hypnotism.

The method found by Mr. Dingle in Tibet is said to be remarkably instrumental in freeing the mind of the hypnotizing ideas that paralyze the giant powers within us.

A nine-thousand word treatise revealing many startling results of this system is now being offered by the Institute of Mentalphysics, 213 South Harbor Blvd., Dept. T-457, Los Angeles, Calif. They offer to send it free to any readers of this paper who quickly send their names and addresses. Readers are urged to write them promptly, as only a limited number of the free treatises have been printed.

Defense Delays
While political observers have predicted that Hanoven would predict the hearing of his case before the high state court to coincide with the November election campaign, his attorney declares that it has been the city, as defendants who have caused the delays by securing postponements on the plea that "defense attorneys had not had time to properly prepare a case."

Predict Restoration
Observers say that no matter how much time is consumed in preparation, Hanoven's case is very strong and the city will undoubtedly be obliged to return him to his post, as well as restore his back pay from the date of his dismissal. This, it is pointed out, amounts to several thousands of dollars.

Despite the current supposition that a decision of the court will be used as "campaign material" by one or both the major political parties, legal advisors say that no decision would be rendered before early next year, even if the case were to be called up immediately. Therefore, it can be assumed that neither party is afraid of the decision.

Testimony Important
However, political observers say that the trial testimony in open court, more than the decision of the court itself is political "dynamite." Therefore, it is said, the present city administration will do everything in its power to keep the case off the records until after election.

Now O'Brien has served notice that he will brook no further delay.

It is known that little testimony was presented at the "closed-door" hearing conducted by Wagoner before he ousted Hanoven which would seriously undermine the former maintenance chief's chances for reinstatement. Local attorneys predict he will be successful in his efforts to regain his job. They point to the many similar cases now on the record involving those with civil service and veteran's status decided in favor of the person dismissed. Courts have decreed, it is said, that "single errors in judgment do not warrant dismissal."

FIREMEN . . .

Reilly Rank Amazes

There was much amazement over the disclosure that Lawrence Reilly, jumped from the rank of private to chief instructor of the Fire College at a battalion chief's salary, did not actually hold that rank. Members of the bureau report that Reilly wears the uniform and insignia of a battalion chief, undertakes to carry out several of the duties of that rank and receives the same pay as any other battalion chief in the department. A poll of 28 members of the bureau, representing a cross section of all ranks including privates, lieutenants, captains, battalion chiefs, and even retired battalion chiefs gave the almost unanimous opinion that "Reilly hasn't a friend in the department."

Must Have Friends

Evidence would prove, however, that this estimate of Reilly's ability to win friends and influence people is not entirely accurate. Observers point to his rapid rise after hiding his talents for nearly 16 years as a private in the ranks of the department without ever having made even the first step toward the top — the post of lieutenant.

Reports of even more serious deviations from strict fairness in the matter of promotions are now being bandied about. It is said that ever since the end of the war appeared imminent with the consequent return of war veteran members of the bureau the "clique" has been scurrying around finding "safe" jobs in which to land so that no veteran could possibly get ahead of them. It is said that more officers have been appointed than there are stations in which to place them and that with the ending of the furlough period more special jobs will have to be created for these new appointees. It is also charged that no vacancies are available for the two captains and five lieutenants appointed last July 15. Observers declare the purpose of the sudden appointments was to secure advances for these alleged favored members so that the returning war veteran would have no chance at promotion for years to come.

Topheavy Officer List

The department is said to be topheavy with officers at the present time. There will be no foreseeable need for any additional promotions. This means the returning war veteran will have little chance at the added salary and prestige which go with advancement in the ranks. All that is said to have been reserved for members and friends of "the ruling clique."

Who composes the ruling clique?

Rumor says that the power behind the throne is a political leader, who through his control of jobs, is able to dictate appointments, transfer firemen from one station to another, and see that the proper special jobs are created to "keep the boys in line."

Politics Seen

Beneficiaries of the favors passed out by the unseen political hand are reported to be right at the top of the bureau at the present time. Firemen will tell you that the present Slattery-Coates combination as Chief and Deputy Chief was created in a most amazing manner.

The present chief, John A. Slattery rose rapidly through the ranks as any ambitious, intelligent fireman might, to the eventual post of battalion chief. When a vacancy occurred in the next higher rank — that of deputy chief — a civil service examination was held and the results showed Alexander J. Sutherland, now retired, at the head of the list, with Slattery close behind. But, mysteriously, Slattery was appointed to the post and Sutherland shunted aside. Later, when George N. Fletcher retired as head of the department Slattery again was pushed ahead, this time jumping both Sutherland and William E. J. O'Leary.

Sutherland, a veteran of two wars, was the instructor of the Firemen's Training School. O'Leary a fireman of many years standing and with an unblemished reputation, was also a war veteran.

And then there is Thomas Coates — now Deputy Chief.

Taken from Civil Service

When the Civilian Defense Corps was organized Coates, then a Battalion Chief was assigned as director. In that post, he has been credited with doing a very capable job. But soon, the hand of politics reached into the department and took the post of deputy chief out of civil service ranks. The service system, it might be noted, was created to promote fairness in the promotion of civil employees and to protect their jobs rights. But, it has also provided a bar, over the years, to the appointment of favorites. And so, as in the custom in many instances, the post eyed by the politicians was taken out from under the protection of civil service.

Appointment Made

Presto, Battalion Chief Coates is Deputy Chief Coates by appointment and not as the result of a competitive examination. Suppose they say Coates had taken an examination and someone outside the alleged clique had come through with a higher rating. In that event, ask firemen with a penchant for conjecturing on such things, who would run the department for Slattery?

Headlines in Tuesday's papers announced a reduction of nearly a million dollars in city assessments. That's been done before. No mention was made that a sharp political trick is to announce a decline in assessments, then boost the tax rate. It's doubtful that the next tax rate will get headlines.

Speaking of tax rates! Last year the city fathers reduced them in the city. The year before they were 30.38 per thousand, last year 30.37. Down a whole cent! Thus, if your home was assessed for six thousand dollars, Republican "good" government saved you a total of six cents. We have a friend who owns a four thousand dollar house (assessed for six thousand) who was so overjoyed and surprised with this windfall that he blew the tax savings in one chunk. He bought a nickel coke and left the odd penny for a tip!

The latest Republican ad asks the public to remember 1935 (the Democrats, they say, did something bad that year). Well, if we were writing Republican ads (and as you may have guessed, we aren't) the last thing we'd do would be to ask the public to do any remembering.

It's a lot easier for Rochesterians to remember last year (we almost said, last December) and the year before, and to recall a whole lot of things the Republicans didn't do and a whole lot of things they did do—but badly.

The people will remember alright—but its doubtful they will strain themselves to go as far back as 1935.

One of the unhappiest guys on the city payroll is Gus W. agener. If he makes any mistakes these days Mr. Hanover isn't there to hang it on to—and a lot of the work that Hanover did for him (and according to City Haulers) wasn't supposed to—he now has to do himself.

We also note that Mr. Wegeier is his ads for garbage collectors has raised the pay of these executives to 90 cents per hour. One of his other executives (so he and Mr. Cartwright said) was Mr. Ferrari, chief snow plow dispatcher who got only 80 cents per hour.

Mr. Ferrari, we learned, after being transferred and his salary raised has decided to give up political life and open a tavern. We hope Mr. Ferrari prospers and suggest that he cater exclusively to members of his party who feel the same way about City Haul "shenanigans" as he does. That should insure capacity business.

In Monday morning's paper, one of the editors insured himself of continuing in his job by blasting the Democratic program for better government. His boss should be very happy with the whole thing. Apparently the Editor-in-Chief has not forgotten that his paper supported the Republican's last year (most of us remember "last year" but he shouldn't forget that a few days after Dewey's defeat, his boss, in a public speech, suggested that the Republican party, disband, reorganize and call itself by another name, with a fresh set of ideas and principles.

Oh well, the editor will probably vote Democratic anyway—and a job is a job these days.

Newspapermen can't get an opinion even on the weather or a statement on yesterday's ball scores from any public official these days. No statement can be issued by city heads without first "clearing it with Tom" (and we mean Broderick—not Woods).

A little more originality boys—you used that in the last campaign—and not too well either.

Charges of corruption and political monkey business in the police department are borne out by the fact that some things don't get on the police blotter. For instance witnesses say on the morning of March 18th at 2 a. m., the fire alarm box at Winton Road and East Avenue was struck and smashed by a fancy driving motorist. Fire companies answered the call and the police investigated, but the record at police headquarters was "lost".

Records often get "lost" for a "right" guy. Yes, sir—it pays to enroll Republican.

Action And Progress For Rochester In 1946

WHY

- WHY have fundamental municipal services like snow removal, garbage removal and the like broken down in Rochester?
- WHY are costs of operating Rochester's government DOUBLE the average?
- WHY does Rochester have the highest over-assessment in the State?
- WHY is Rochester's tax rate as high as ever when welfare costs have dropped from $9,000,000 to almost nothing?
- WHY did Rochester become the laughing stock of the State last December?
- WHY are cities like Springfield and Toledo ready to move with the times, while Rochester is standing still?
- WHY are Rochester's municipal public buildings a disgrace to the "City of Beautiful Homes"? Dozens and dozens more WHYS?

THE ANSWER:

REPUBLICAN INCOMPETENCY In the Management of the City Government for Some 40 Out of Last 45 Years

THEIR SECRET OF POWER:

"The People Don't Care" . . . "This is a Republican Town" . . . "We Can Get Away With Anything"

Can They? Will They?

WITH THAT AS A PREAMBLE, THE DEMOCRATIC AND AMERICAN LABOR PARTIES HEREBY PRESENT A MUNICIPAL ACTION PROGRAM FOR 1946 AS THE PARTIES OF PROGRESS, IN HARMONY WITH THE SPIRIT OF THE TIMES:

1. A Trained Competent City Manager and Trained Qualified Department Heads.

(A) We promise the people of Rochester a competent non-political City Manager, FULLY TRAINED for the job—A MAN OF VISION—qualified to handle the big CONSTRUCTION AND REHABILITATION problems which face the city in the post-war period—with the ability to direct street cleaning, snow removal, collection of ashes and garbage and other municipal operations.

(B) We likewise promise that the head of each department of the City Government will be a person particularly trained and qualified for the work of his department.

2. Post-War Planning and Full Employment.

Rochester's legal debt limit is insufficient to permit large scale public works and capital improvement. We must, therefore, make use of federal and state assistance in post-war construction. This WE can do and will do far more effectively than the present city administration has done through all its years of control. Only in this way can Rochester help to achieve the goal of FULL EMPLOYMENT FOR ALL.

3. A Reorganized and Modernized Police Department—Free of Politics.

The present Police Officials have lost the confidence of the people, and of the men in the ranks. The low morale of the Department is reflected in the many unsolved crimes. Those officially responsible for police work are without authority. That has been taken over by Republican Party Headquarters. THE ROCHESTER POLICE DEPARTMENT HAS BECOME A PUBLIC SCANDAL.

WE PROPOSE:

- (1) To appoint a civic minded and experienced man as Commissioner of Public Safety.
- (2) To reorganize the Department completely and introduce the latest scientific police methods.
- (3) To eliminate political control of the Department.
- (4) To bring to an end the mounting number of unsolved crimes.
- (5) To establish a scale of compensation for the Department on a par with those in other progressive cities.

4. A Municipal War Veterans Agency.

(A) Thousands of honorably discharged war veterans are returning to our community. They have served us and their country well. We owe them a basic city program to supplement state and federal aid. We favor the immediate establishment of a new combined city and county agency to be known as "THE VETERANS AGENCY".

(B) This will operate as a central clearing house for ALL matters concerning the veteran—eliminat-

5. Consolidation of City and County Welfare Departments.

(A) In line with our pledge to eliminate gross inefficiency in City Government, we propose to do away with the many duplications of maintaining two distinct welfare departments with two costly commissioners and many other expensive employees and services in duplicate.

(B) We further propose to study and merge other departments if it is in the public interest.

6. Increased Pay For City Employees At No Extra Cost To Tax-Payers.

These city employees who are doing an honest job deserve increased salaries to meet the higher cost of living. THIS WE CAN AND WILL GIVE THEM—not by increasing taxes but by streamlining, modernizing and employing the best business methods possible in our municipal service.

7. A Low Cost Public Housing Plan—In Operation.

(A) Large cities in this state and elsewhere have for years actually built housing projects. ROCHESTER HAS DONE NOTHING.

(B) We pledge the elimination of blighted areas in the City of Rochester and the construction of new low-cost rental houses on the sites of those areas as soon as possible. The low-cost housing program will be an important element in the post-war program.

(a) No housing program in any form shall receive any direct or indirect city assistance if it is guilty of any discriminatory practices in selection of tenants or purchasers.

(b) To carry this program into effect we feel that a Citizen's Public Housing Authority should be established AT ONCE.

8. Better Bus Service and The Dollar Pass.

(A) The Democratic Party, against Republican opposition, GAVE THE DOLLAR PASS TO THE PUBLIC and we pledge that no one will take it away.

(B) Efficient transit service is a public obligation of the same status as police and fire protection. A conscientious Commissioner of Railways WHO IS ON THE JOB can assure Rochester FAR BETTER SERVICE than we have had in many years.

9. Broadened Educational Opportunities And More Democracy.

(A) We urge broadened educational opportunities to all our children and adult citizens. As quickly as additional funds are made available, as they must, we urge:

- (a) Increased medical and dental care for school children, more nursery schools and child-care centers.
- (b) A program of all day and all year round utilization of school properties, which represent an investment of many millions of dollars not now being fully used.
- (c) Fuller development of the program of free adult education.

(B) Along with a comprehensive educational program in our public schools against discrimination, we urge the prohibition of any meetings or literature whose purpose is to incite discrimination against any race, creed or color.

10. Minority Representation on the City Council.

(A) Every legislative body (as many nationally prominent Republicans have stated) needs an effective opposition. We guarantee it. (Four Republican members out of nine in the next Council.)

(B) Immediately after our organization of the City Council, we will appoint a committee to study the most effective plan for changing the method of electing the Council to guarantee minority representation.

11. Tax Reduction—NOW!

(A) There is no reason why Rochester's operating costs should be DOUBLE the average for cities of its class. Such gross inefficiency must and will be eliminated.

(B) There is no reason why the millions saved in reduced welfare costs should not be reflected in lower tax rates.

WE PROPOSE TO MAKE BOTH CHANGES:
1—More efficient service at lower operating cost.
2—LOWER TAX RATE.

12. Our Aim: Rochester—The Model City of America.

(A) Why not? We have the fine people, beautiful homes, splendid location—every asset BUT GOOD GOVERNMENT.

(B) We propose to start IMMEDIATELY on the road to make Rochester THE MODEL CITY OF AMERICA—not a laughing stock (remember last December), but the ENVY of every other American Community.

(C) With YOUR help, we can do it.

1. That the people DO care.
2. That this is a progressive city—not owned by Republicans, Democrats or any other special group.
3. That the Republicans CAN'T get away with ANYTHING! CAN THEY? WILL YOU LET THEM?

Inside Hollywood...

Hollywood is busy putting out the welcome mat like all other communities the country over, for her returning GIs. Every major studio has some of its warriors already back in the fold, with others returning daily.

Jimmy Stewart, now a Colonel in the Army Air Forces, is back on the Coast, expecting his discharge soon. Lieutenant Van Heflin, who won an Academy Award in 1942 for his role in "Johnny Eager," is another MGM returnee. He's to be seen soon in "Bridgit" with Margaret O'Brien.

Only two of Twentieth Century-Fox's warriors have returned so far. They are Jerry Payne, who was in the ferry command for two years, and Caesar Romero. Others to return include Henry Fonda, Tyrone Power, Lee Cobb, Richard Greene (British Army), John Howard, Richard Jaeckel, Victor Mature, Lon McCallister, George Montgomery and John Sutton.

Frank Capra, also recently released from the Army, has formed an independent producing company in partnership with Samuel J. Briskin and will direct, as his first film, "The Greatest Gift," a fantasy by Philip Van Doren Stern.

Political Polka

BY CURT GERLING
There seems to be some difference of opinion as to whether or not (to quote the ads) "Rochester is a Republican City." It seems it is on the enrollment books but is Democratic when it comes to voting. (Such an arrangement must be highly satisfactory to the Democratic party.)

You Read It-Now You'll Hear It!

Whether or not citizens of Rochester as taxpayers are getting their money's worth will be decided next Monday in a radio program over Station WHEC, from 10:30 to 11 p. m., when Curt Gerling, Political Polka Master, will cross verbal swords with William Scott, research analyst on the question. The promised fireworks mark the opening of the "Forward Rochester" series, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Station WHEC. Will Richardson will act as moderator.

In one of those "Remember Ads" (that the Republicans run and then wish they hadn't) there was an inference (that the Democrats were pretty bad boys in the matter of wanting to have Lake Ontario water piped into Rochester — and that said Democrats were lacking in vision — just wanted to spend the taxpayers' cash and that L. Ontario aqua was n.g. It so happens that for the

FIRE BUREAU UNITED IN SHOW PLANS

Internal Strife Shunted Aside as Benefit Show Dates Near

Rochester's firemen temporarily put aside their internecine strife this week and, to a man, put shoulders to the wheel to insure the success of the 1945 version of their annual benefit show. From Broadway and Hollywood will come the tops in the nation's theatrical world to give five performances for the firemen's benefit fund on the Eastman Theater stage Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 12, 13, 14. Proceeds will be used to aid the widows and orphans of Rochester firemen.

'Rascals' Headliners

Heading the nine-act vaudeville show are Borrah Minervitch's Harmonica Rascals with their always-popular music and comedy. Sharing the spotlight with the "Rascals" will be Bob Chester and his Broadway Band, claimed by critics to be one of the nation's fastest-rising musical aggregations. Now on a nationwide tour, this will be their first appearance here.

Stage Favorites on Bill

According to Fire Chief John A. Slattery, general chairman, the supporting bill is studded with Broadway stage favorites, including Sara Ann McCabe, beautiful singing star of "The Ziegfeld Follies"; Gil and Bernice Maison and their trained

THE BIG ONE THAT GOT AWAY BY JAMES

'Memory Contests' Highlight Campaign

"If the memories of Rochester voters were as proficient as the campaign master minds apparently think they are, all the politicians would have been thrown out of office long before this." That was the sentiment of Mr. Average Q. Citizen as he amusedly watched the memory contests being staged by both Democrats and the Republicans in their drive to fill the city council majority and the county board of supervisors. Remember December. The Democrats, in addition to setting forth their program

TIN PICKUP SCHEDULED FOR OCT. 13

Tin Can Salvage Needed To Speed Reconversion Says Chairman

If you want to hurry along that proposed new family jiney, you'd better not throw away those tin cans coming across your cookery tables. That was the word differently worded however, received this week from the Rochester Salvage Committee in announcing that a city-wide collection of tin cans will take place on Saturday, October 13.

Lest you get the idea that motor car manufacturers are going to sell us "tin cans" it should be noted that no cans of tin have been proposed or even dreamed of. But the demand for tin in the automotive industry far exceeds the limited supplies now available from the far east. Used in body solder, for instance and in a hundred other ways, tin is vital to the production of many items.

Tin Shortage Felt
"In fact," said William T. (See TIN Page 5)

Fire Prevention Is Your Business

Help in cutting down the toll of lives and dollars taken each year by fire is asked of all Rochesterians who are urged to join in the celebration of Fire Prevention Week starting next Monday. Fire Bureau officials and the Chamber of Commerce have urged all citizens to make a complete check of residences, stores, shops and offices to see that all fire hazards are eliminated. Figures released by the Fire Bureau show that last year six persons lost their lives in Rochester through fire and that $475,829.17 worth of property was destroyed by the same cause.

CANVASSERS PLAN RALLY AT CHAMBER

$2,500,000 Auditorium Planned As Tribute To War Veterans

Nine divisions mustering more than 6,000 workers, awaiting the opening rally tomorrow at 6 p. m. in the Chamber of Commerce to spur them to the task, are pledged to the successful completion of Monroe County's greatest civic project — the raising of $2,500,000 to erect an everlasting tribute to its servicemen and women. The machinery to bring this appeal to a successful conclusion during the campaign opening tomorrow and ending Oct. 22 has been in motion for several months forming the nine (See MEMORIAL Page 5)

Decrees of Fashion

Too much has been said on when or whether teen-age girls should be permitted to use cosmetics, and too little has been done in the line of educating young ladies in the art of make-up.

Dolly Dawn

Star Dolly Dawn, who started her career at the age of 17 explained that most creams, rouges and lotions were compounded to feed older skins and were not intended for young and vital faces. Go to a color expert at any good department store for your first lipstick and powder shade and use each item discreetly until the technique is mastered. More important than any cosmetic that can be applied is a thorough cleansing of the skin at the end of each day. Remove the top layer, if you will, with cold cream, but that is not enough. Young skins should be gently sudsed with mild soap and tepid water—after which cold water should be dashed on the face and neck to close the pores. Never apply make-up over make-up, cautioned Dolly, the art of patch-work has no place in skin care.

Turtle Neck Blouses in wool jersey, satin or crepe with long, short or bracelet sleeves are today's top style news. They're featured by most Fifth Avenue stores as the perfect foil for sparkling necklets, rows of bracelets and wide belts—all bright changes in the autumn picture.

Start, as CBS actress Vivian Smolen did, with a deep-armed, black jersey which she can be dressed up or down to the size of a daytime or date time occasion. Worn over a straight black skirt, Vivian adds a wide polo belt and gold snake chain choker for early morning. As the day progresses, she changes for brighter accessories. After sundown, a wide gold belt, shimmering earrings and matching glittering necklace give evening propriety.

CIVIL SERVICE GROUP TO HEAR OF PENSIONS

City, county and state employees will hear an explanation of the state retirement fund system for civil service workers at a meeting of the Monroe County Civil Service Employees Association, scheduled for next Wednesday at 8 p. m. in the Rindel Memorial Bldg. The speaker will be Edwin B. Kennon, deputy comptroller in the N. Y. State Department of Audit and Control.

Ed Randall's Scene and Word

It's been a long time since we had a story about a nut-house in this so-called pillar of wit and wisdom, so here goes. This facetious little anecdote is about the class in psychology which was making a tour of the local insane asylum. At one point in the excursion one of the students asked an inmate his name. "My name, young man," replied the witless one, "is George Washington." "That's funny," retorted the student, "the last time we came through here you said your name was Abraham Lincoln." "Oh, that was by my first wife."

Overheard at the Park Avenue Grill bar: "Now, don't you start highbating me, Mabel. I don't think you were ever born — you were assembled. And when they came to your nose, they took the first thing that turned up!"

Harry (Little Elmer) Brown, busy soliciting funds for the Community War Memorial, stopped long enough to drop this fantastic tale in my good ear. He said a little girl went into in candy store on day, walked up to the counter and said: "I want some of those licorice drops, some of those chocolate creams and some of those gumdrops." The proprietor put the candy in a bag handed it to the little girl and was amazed to see her start out of the store without making any effort to recompense him for the sweets. "Hey, wait a minute," he exclaimed, "how about paying me for that candy?" "Nothing doing," replied the embryo golddigger, "my name is Crime and crime doesn't pay."

Overheard in the Lake Avenue bus: "Pardon me, but is my elbow crushing your rib?"

Jack Wiseman, the suave erudite Court and Clinton tobacconist, thinks a sculptor has a soft job. Quoth Jackson: "Why, all he has to do is to take a block of marble and a chisel and just knock off all of the marble he doesn't want."

I don't suppose this corner would be complete without a child's story, so I will submit the chronicle of the young lad about ten years old whose parents were blessed with twins. The evening after the happy occasion the father called his young son and said: "Now, Johnny, be sure and tell teacher that you have a new brother and sister and I'm sure she'll give you a day's holiday. Twins are quite an event in a family, you know." So, the next day the boy came home from school wearing a radiant expression and said to his father: "Hey, pop, I don't have to go to school tomorrow!" Replied the father: "Did you tell your teacher about the twins?" "Aw, no," was the child's retort, "I just told her I had a baby sister. I'm saving the other for next week."

Costly Error
In Scotland they evidently continue the practice, on certain occasions, of putting a coin in the pudding. At any rate, we read this in Tit-Bits:
Scotch Host—Folks, ma cook has inadvertently put a sixpence in the pudding instead of the customary threepenny-bit—So I'll trouble the lucky one for the change.

Now, turn the lights down low and set for a scary ghost story Ready? Here 'tis: It was a dark and windy night. The clock in the village church had just struck the witching hour of twelve. Down by the turgid river the cemetery lay dreary and deserted. The only sound to be heard was the wind meaning through the bare willows and around the gaves-tones. Suddenly, from the mists along the river bank appeared a ghostly figure clad all in white, a figure which seemed to merge with the wisps of fog as it drifted into the cemetery. Soon the apparition was joined by another shade which had materialized from a large mausoleum in the middle of the graveyard. The two out-of-this-world wraiths had seated themselves on a handy grave when turned to the other and said: "Oh, my dear, it's been so long since I've seen you. I must tell you about my apparition." THE END.

CENTRAL ADDS HOSTESSES TO CRACK TRAINS

Evidently taking a leaf from the up and coming airlines, the New York Central railroad has added a bit of extracurricular femininity to the lines' crack passenger trains.

Young ladies representing the road's passenger traffic department made their debut last Sunday on the Empire State Express.

Attractive in trim, distinctive uniforms the young ladies' mission is to be courteously attentive to passengers' problems. Not to be confused with traveling "Mr. Anthonys" they are expected to confine their problem solution to those connected with travel, travel connections, resort information, even local history and recent good books.

Inside Hollywood

With the easing of wartime restrictions, film companies are turning from process photography and synthetic settings to the proverbial far-away "green fields" for "true locales." As a result, many stories which had been held up because of location and set problems are back on active production lists.

While much of the "shooting" will still be done just outside of California in other Western States, the trend seems to be definitely toward Latin America, where a number of films will be made. There will also be an increase in authentic locale filming in the Eastern States and, by agreement, there will be considerable production by Hollywood companies in Europe.

Then, too, now that rationing is about over in this country, the food you will see served from now on will more than likely be the real McCoy. A case in point was during the recent filming of scenes for MGM's Technicolor musical "Holiday in Mexico." Hot, steaming turkey, pheasants and the other fowl (the genuine article) were shown being carved and served to the garden party guests. This film, by the way, has Lina Massey, Walter Pidgeon, Jose Iturbi and Jane Powell in featured roles.

Esther Williams, beautiful swimming star and equally charming actress, has been spending three hours a day recently taking "bull fighting" lessons from Antonio Marquez, a master of the Mexico City bull ring, to prepare herself for her roles as a lady matador in the proposed "Fiesta," Technicolor picture to be produced soon. Much of the film is to be photographed in and about Mexico City.

Two years ago, Warner Brothers made a picture, "Devotion," in which Nancy Coleman had the role of a Bronte sister. Subsequently, she was fired by that studio. Recently, someone at Warners apparently just got around to seeing the film, was delighted with Miss Coleman's performance. Result: She has a new long-term at double the former salary.

During a recent visit to Paris Ray Milland paid 5,000 francs for a dinner for four. Milland plans to go to New York for a real vacation as soon as she finishes work in "Nocturne." Van Heflin's first picture work since his discharge from the Army is scheduled to be one of the two male leads in "Love Lies Bleeding," for which Barbara Stanwyck and Elizabeth Scott have been named.

Dear Mr. Russell:

During the years of war the close teamwork of all elements of industry made possible the success of the Rochester Ordnance District's tremendous program. I am most appreciative of the contribution made by the Rochester Gas & Electric Corporation toward assuring adequate supplies of Ordnance materials for our men in combat.

Maintaining dependable and adequate sources of power and war conditions required ingenuity and resourcefulness of a high order. But without that power the Industry-Ordnance Team in your service area would not have been able to attain the production levels that were reached in satisfying requirements for many critical types of Ordnance equipment produced in Rochester and vicinity.

You and your employees share in the final success. You have a right to be proud of what you did toward speeding the final victory for which we are all so thankful.

Sincerely yours,
Frank J. Atwood

COL FRANK J. ATWOOD
Chief Rochester Ordnance District

Naturally our men and women workers feel pretty good about the fine words of commendation given their war record by the head of the Rochester Ordnance District. Although not eligible themselves because the R. G. & E. did not produce goods or supplies directly for the armed services, our employes helped many plants in this area to win coveted Army-Navy E awards.

Here Are a Few R. G. & E. Achievements
From Pearl Harbor to V-J Day

OUTPUT OF ELECTRICITY AND GAS FOR WAR WAS DOUBLED

Doubled output of electricity and gas for war purposes. This was accomplished despite loss of 276 employes to the armed services. Their fellow workers on the home front toiled long extra hours to maintain a steady flow of electricity and gas for vital war uses.

NO SHORTAGES—NO RATIONING

No shortages. No rationing. All demands of war plants were met. Civilian needs were cared for. Electric power and gas service were never "too little or too late," a remarkable record in view of nation wide shortages and curtailment of practically everything else.

ENGINEERING AID LOANED TO LOCAL INDUSTRIES

Highly trained engineers were "lend-leased" to local industries and to educational institutions to help them with war problems. Engineering advice and assistance were furnished without charge, wherever desired.

WON NATIONAL SECURITY AWARD FOR PLANT PROTECTION

More than 1,100 employes were trained for Civilian Defense and Air Raid Plant Protection service. The character of this work for the Company and its workers the National Security Award.

COST OF ELECTRICITY CUT

Despite increases in cost of most commodities electric rates were slashed $73,000. New rural electric lines were built as fast as wartime restrictions of materials would permit.

EMPLOYEES HELPED WAR LOAN AND RED CROSS CAMPAIGNS

Employees over-subscribed every war loan, contributed hundreds of gallons of blood to the Red Cross and participated extensively in every "Win the War" activity. Thousands of families were helped with food rationing problems.

"We are publishing Colonel Atwood's letter because it provides an opportunity to publicly recognize and show appreciation of a record of loyal and efficient service by all our employes."

past several years Rochester's water resources have been woefully inadequate (predicted by the Democrats) and the city of Rochester has been using millions of gallons of the alleged n.g. Lake Ontario water by arrangement with Kodak, a big buyer of the aforesaid aqua. Kodak permits the city to use its facilities when and if the Kodak company has more than enough for its own use.

Meanwhile the city fathers have okayed expenditures of thousands of dollars for surveys to find other water sources for the city—and reportedly more thousands to drill artesian wells. To make matters worse and to make the people of Mendon township become Democrats in ever increasing numbers—they have failed to keep Honeoye Creek at the water level promised. Hence from early spring to fall, low water cannot carry off the refuse of the town and its factories. It's often so bad that Honeoye Falls can be detected by the olfactory senses—four or five miles from the town line. Yes sir, it stinks!

Still "remembering" as urged by the ads we "remember" December 12th, 1940, when scare headlines in the daily press announced "DRINKING WATER POLLUTED—BOIL YOUR WATER" and a serious epidemic was imminent.

There was a little matter of a valve or two which some typical Republican appointee turned on or forgot to turn off, and then forgot to mention it. The people didn't think much of the city administration in those desperate days—and the City Haulers indulged in considerable hand-wringing. We have forgotten how they smoothed that one out—but they probably found a Ferrari and a Hanoven to hang it on and begged for forgiveness in a "report." It's been as easy as that for years.

Speaking of Mr. Hanoven (and a great many are these days), Messrs Cartwright, Wagener, and Broderick, goaded on by a "worthy" (the quotes are ours) from the nineteenth and the tenth insisted that Mr. Hanoven be the goat on the grounds of inefficiency (and by now they probably wish they hadn't).

A short time later they inadvertently cleared Mr. Hanoven of these charges and condemned themselves for pinch-penny government, shortsightedness and lack of adequate equipment—by ORDERING MORE THAN SIXTY THOUSAND DOLLARS WORTH of snow fighting equipment.

Those who know the ins and outs of the case insist that Hanoven had been clamoring for more and modern equipment for years. His cry was always denied on the poverty plea.

No doubt the boys are concerned that they never will quite be able to pay for fancy plumbing fixtures and twelve hundred dollar timepieces in the E. Henrietta Rd. Biltmore-Plaza Home and Infirmary.

"You used to come at ten o'clock" is a well remembered line from an old nursery rhyme—to which Tenth Warders have added "and now you come at 3 a. m. if you come at all."

When they sing this ditty without a smile—they're referring to garbage and ash gangs that descend on this community in the wee hours of the morning (that is on those rare instances when they do come). These ninety-cents-per-hour executives are in jubilant spirits and "good voice." They sing smatches of their favorite arias and bang the cans in perfect accompaniment, quite unmindful of the slumber of the taxpayers.

As one critic remarked "I'm the fightingest, maddest resident of the Fighting Tenth." What's the guy want 'em to do—sing 'hoogie-woogie' stuff instead of opera?

Overheard on one of Rochester's "crush-crush," "step back in the aisle there's plenty of room on the tail light" buses.

"I see where Mr. MacFarlin has been awarded a Navy E or something for service to the federal government" "for his service to transportation."

His friend politely pushed a neighboring elbow from the small of his back and dodged the business end of a closed umbrella while he screamed "For What?"

A "stick" in political parlance is a sort of "repeater"—a person who, at the behest of and under the protection of an unscrupulous political leader, registers in different districts of his ward, using various addresses, names and aliases. On election day, he proceeds to vote each one of the phony names for his candidates.

In wards where there are many rooming houses and a large floating population such "sculduggery" is often difficult to detect. For many years the seventh ward has been accused of having enough "sticks" to keep your fire burning brightly all winter.

This year it's apt to be different. Mike Salone, Democratic candidate for supervisor and fresh from 26 months overseas service will haunt the registration booths and many a "stick" is quite likely to be snapped in two or more pieces.

If there are any Mike can't ferret out, his brother Sam, wise in the ways of politics, can.

It'll be a very tough year for the two dollar votes in the rootin', tootin', shootin', Seventh.

The idea behind democracy is the belief that men and women have sense enough to govern themselves, not perfectly, perhaps, but as well as any small group of self-appointed superior individuals.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Rochester Sun

In recent issues, you have printed protests, relative to the Bausch & Lomb Co. releasing employees of Jewish and Italian origin. Hence we are asking you to look at both sides of the employment situation as functioning here in Rochester.

With other residents, you no doubt have heard coming over the radio, appeals by the "Bond Clothing Mfgs." for hundreds of inexperienced new workers to be paid while learning.

So, why do not these disgruntled people, with the overactive, inferiority complex; apply to that company for employment?

If you probe deep enough, you might be surprised to learn that both the Amalgamated and the Clothing firms discriminate against persons with deep American roots. Just how many of the foremen and how many in the higher executive positions are American born?

We are becoming wearied, by the continual harping by these people of Italian extraction, on the theme of their class having served in the armed forces of this country. If they call it their country, just why should they not be willing to take part in the defense of it.

They frequently assert that the only real Americans are the Indians. With this we disagree! The real Americans were the pioneers who developed the country! Who struggled and suffered in the wilderness. Living in tiny cabins in the wilderness, without schools or churches. Their only means of lighting these tiny cabins, their homemade tallow candles. With the wolves and other wild beasts of the forests, howling around these cabins through the long, lonely, winter, nights.

Those who have come to this country within the past fifty years, have not found themselves in such situations! We concede, that our country is big enough in space, and great enough in principle, to give a living to all. And we affirm—that all people who live here, regardless of racial background should be mentally big enough to show the patience necessary during the period of business reconversion and readjustment.

If your recent correspondent worked all the hours as stated in their letter, it would seem that if they had practiced some thrift and foresight, they would now be in a position financially to enjoy a period of idleness and relaxation.

The unfortunate attitude of these people, who make themselves victims of their own inferiority complexes, does not always mean they are being unfairly treated. People of all national backgrounds must expect to share in idleness as well as busy-ness. As in the marriage ritual, we must take it "for better or for worse." And if we get the worst of it, we must make the best of it. If—we truly believe in the law of averages.

We are in no way connected with, and have never worked for the Bausch & Lomb Co. but are just average citizens of pioneer background, who have grown wearied at the constant repetitions of these people who bring race and nationality into the foreground. In other words, "Let them keep their background out of the foreground, and take their todays with courage and faith in the tomorrows."

"Just another Rochesterian."

Rochester should strive to persuade every discharged war veteran to make it his permanent home. Smart businessmen will help the veterans to secure well-paying jobs.

crats were reminding them of how the present Republican city administration had handled the snowstorm difficulties. They remembered the now famous "Cartwright Report" wherein entire blame for the catastrophic conditions following the storms were put upon the shoulders of God Almighty, a minor Public Works employee and a sub-executive of the department. All other officials, along with their politically-appointed subordinates were the recipients of what political opponents termed "Cartwrightwash."

Remember 1935

Meanwhile the Republicans, through their newspaper advertising writers decided that the average busy citizen, like they thought of nothing but politics and therefore asked them to stretch their memories back to the far-distant days of 1935 when, said the Republicans, the Democrats advocated using Lake Ontario water to drink. This, according to the Republicans, was a preposterous proposal and was proof that the Democrats could not be trusted.

Of course there was a comeback from the Democratic side (there are comebacks to all arguments). "Seeing as to how the Republicans have brought up the subject of water," said the Demmys, let's turn our thoughts to 1940."

Remember 1940

Few were those who could remember what happened in 1940 other than that Franklin D. Roosevelt has again been elected president in November. But research developed that the Democrats were not thinking of November, but rather their familiar phrase — Remember December. For it was on another December night — December 12, 1940 to be exact — that Rochester Republican officialdom had again "snafued" the situation through the action of one of its employees in allowing polluted river water to flow through the same pipes from which the Republicans had heroically kept Lake Ontario water five years before. Water-boiling residents would undoubtedly be reminded of that scare again and again and again during the current campaign, if the trend for memory contests was continued.

'Republican' or 'Democratic'

Meanwhile another argument between the two schools of thought as to whether on not Rochester was Republican or Democratic. According to Republican enrollment figures, Rochester was a Republican city by a country mile. And they quoted the figures to prove their argument.

Undaunted, the Democrats referred, not to enrollment figures but to election records. Election, they said, was the story that paid off. And, by records just as accurate as their Republican brethren, they were able to prove that, last year anyway, Rochester was Democratic by nearly 27,000 votes.

Voters Eye Future

Between trying to prod his brain in memory of particular political misdeeds (of which there are legions) and decide whether the Flower City was "Republican" or "Democratic" the average voter had almost lost sight of the fact that the election coming up in November was important in that what would happen to the city in the future was at stake.

He felt certain the ads and the speeches would continue to bombard his brain but he also knew that the only answer to all the speculation was his vote in November. How he would cast that vote no one but himself knew, although many were those who thought they knew.

People who think they are too smart to be governed by the laws of their land are over-estimating their smartness.

TIMES-UNION, DECEMBER 14, 1944:

"It did not lighten Rochester's reaction to read that Buffalo had dug out from under a 13 1/2 inch snow, while this city was still struggling to open its main arteries."

DEMOCRAT & CHRONICLE, DECEMBER 18, 1944:

"Let's not pussy-foot over this storm situation. The city government failed to meet the emergency in time and efficiently. The citizens and taxpayers of the city have a right to demand that the City Manager supply the answer."

DEMOCRAT & CHRONICLE, DECEMBER 20, 1944:

"There's something wrong with a city administration that fails so abjectly in so fundamental a function as maintaining street traffic. It won't do to replace one or two men, most immediately responsible."

DEMOCRAT & CHRONICLE, DECEMBER 26, 1944:

"Nor can we believe that leaders of the Republican organization can fail to understand the deep, angry resentment of all Rochesterians at the failure of the city forces to act in time and to make better use of what organization and equipment were available."

MEMORIAL PLANS BENEFIT WHOLE COMMUNITY

$2,500,000 Needed To Insure Success

Community Project To Be Erected In Heart Of Downtown Rochester, Dedicated To Civic Betterment

Dedicated to community service on a scale that will benefit nearly every resident of Monroe County, the plans and policy of Monroe County's $2,500,000 Community War Memorial envision this greatest civic project as a huge public building seating more than 13,000 as part of its facilities.

Located in the very heart of Rochester, where the city's founders first settled and built their first homes and buildings, the memorial will consist of four acres of floor space, a huge exhibition hall, an 8,000 to 10,500-seating capacity arena, and a score of smaller auditoriums and rooms accommodating about 3,000.

Workers Spurred

The plans and policy, announced by Arthur H. Ingle, president of the Rochester and Monroe County Community War Memorial Inc., non-profit citizens organization in charge of details, featured preparations for the greatest community campaign in local history, and spurred 6,000 workers for the opening rally tomorrow at 6 p. m. in the Chamber of Commerce.

The campaigners, who have until Oct. 22 to complete the drive, according to Thomas L. Lee, general chairman, will carry to the public the $2,500,000 challenge that, if answered, means a perpetual tribute to those who fought for America and American ideals.

Although the Memorial structure will be the scene of great gatherings of all types, ranging from major conventions, religious meetings and athletic contests, the underlying note sounded in the policy outlined by the directors was ready use at all times to veteran and patriotic groups.

Construction In 1946

Lee, in a statement to workers and the public, forecast start of actual construction next year, if the drive succeeds. The Memorial building will be located in the area bounded by Court, Exchange and Broad streets, and the Genesee River, a large part of which now is occupied by the City Hall Annex.

It will have four acres of floor area and will accommodate any but the very largest of the exhibitions, public gatherings or conventions.

Arena To Seat 8,000

Largest unit in the structure will be the arena with a fixed seating capacity of approximately 8,000, when used for conventions, public meetings, sports events, or other spectacles.

Through utilization of temporary floor seats for stage or (See DRIVE Page 13)

Sportsters Hail Memorial Plans

Recreation Proponents See Project As Means of Combating Juvenile Delinquency; Pro Sports Also Benefit

Rochester sports enthusiasts and proponents of healthful recreation, especially as a means of combating juvenile delinquency, have hailed the proposal to erect a Community War Memorial and have voiced unqualified support of the Oct. 5 to 22 campaign to raise $2,500,000 in Monroe County to combine a living monument with facilities that can be used by nearly every resident in the area.

Spokesmen of the promoters of professional sports, educational institutions and recreational groups have united in their agreement that the Memorial will be a fitting tribute to those who returned and a solemn reminder of those who gave their lives from Monroe County.

Representatives of these groups have commented as follows:

Louis A. Alexander, University of Rochester director of athletics: "The Memorial will honor our war heroes, living and dead, and will provide facilities for which there has been a crying need for years.

Herman J. Norton, director of health and physical education, Board of Education: "The Community War Memorial is a most fitting way in which to honor those gallant sportsmen from Rochester and Monroe County who fought to maintain the principles of fair play in this world. The recreational and sports facilities of the Memorial will furnish clean, vigorous and thrilling activities for war veterans as well as the youth of our community.

Elmer K. Smith, New York State Public High School Association, Section V, athletic chairman: "The Memorial will be an asset to Rochester for a long time to come. Wholesome community recreational activities will be possible for all.

Rev. Cyril Carter, CSB, Aquinas Institute director of athletics: "The magnificent response of the citizens of Rochester to the Aquinas Memorial Stadium Drive of last winter proves very clearly that all are anxious to remember our heroes in a becoming and useful way.

Lester Harrison, Rochester Professional Basketball Club president: "There has been a genuine need here for adequate facilities to accommodate the civic, industrial and recreational functions of a community so progressive as Rochester and Monroe County.

Pedro Martinez Civic Sporting Club president: "To honor Rochester and Monroe County war heroes with a 'living' Memorial and at the same time augment civic facilities in a single enterprise is unqualified gratitude to those who fought and died. And it should foster wider, more varied community activity."

Henry T. Copenhagen, Genesee Valley Kennel Club: "Rochester can well profit by erection of a Memorial as a constant reminder of the sacrifices made. That it will make available improved facilities for a wide variety of veterans, recreational and indoor sports activities never before possible here is clearly another factor recommending the enterprise."

John T. Sullivan, Rochester Football Officials Board president: "To honor our fighting men is the primary purpose. The Memorial will do that, at the same time fostering wider activity, sports and otherwise, which cannot fail to profit community life."

PLENTY OF PARKING—(Within a quarter-mile radius of the Community War Memorial (see circle on map above) there will be parking space for more than 3,500 cars, more than enough to accommodate a capacity crowd at any event in the huge arena. The black areas indicate sites of present parking stations, with the cross-lined locations representing extension of facilities.

Plenty of Parking Space Available In Memorial Area

Monroe County residents who will drive their cars to the varied events proposed in the $2,500,000 Community War Memorial will not have to worry about parking facilities. It was assured today by announcement of a city survey of the area within a quarter of a mile.

Completion of negotiation between the city and the Erie Railroad will include the site of the old Erie station on Court Street across from the site of the memorial among the parking facilities, making available space for 500 cars, the survey indicated.

This space alone, the memorial committee announced, would give patrons of the memorial almost twice the space now available at the Buffalo auditorium.

Within a radius of a quarter of a mile of the new Memorial in Exchange, Court and Broad Streets, is adequate space to park 3,500 cars, the city survey disclosed. Covered in the study were garages, parking lots and available street parking spaces.

Reports that the city may take over old and economically poor buildings in the Memorial area would further increase parking facilities and would give an opportunity to beautify the surrounding property.

Parking for 10,000 Transportation experts reported studies show that, in normal times, the average passenger automobile brings more than three persons to a concert, sports event or other mass gathering. Assuming the average will be correct for Memorial Auditorium functions, the 3,500 cars that would be accommodated within a short distance

TAXPAYERS TO BENEFIT BY MEMORIAL

'Trend Toward Lower Valuation Must Be Checked,' Says Ingle

On the outcome of the $2,500,000 campaign opening tomorrow to erect a Community War Memorial rests a matter of great interest to the taxpayer, warns Arthur H. Ingle, city planning enthusiast and president of the Community War Memorial of Rochester and Monroe County, Inc.

Placing the emphasis on the heart of downtown Rochester, the president of the Consolidated Machine Tool Corporation pointed out that this area annually pays 26 per cent of the city's tax bill.

Unless the market trend during the last decade toward lower valuations in the center of the city is checked and reversed, an increasingly heavier burden will fall on the other taxpayers, he observed. Memorial is a springboard that will give new impetus to launch the downtown area on the upward movement, he said.

"Rochester must face the facts," Ingle explained. "The people of Rochester and Monroe County, the taxpayers, are the ones to gain or lose by the success or failure of the coming War Memorial campaign."

"In the last 15 years, outside of the Rundel Memorial Building, not one major public improvement has been made to revitalize the downtown area."

Downtown 'Tried Old Man'

"Its appearance is that of a tired, old man. It needs a new suit, a shave and a shot in the arm. If it cannot have the looks and vision of youth it can at least have the vigor and outlook of approaching middle age."

"If the downtown area isn't revitalized there will be further demands for lowered assessments that will reflect itself in largely increased taxes on the rest of the city."

New impetus will be given by new activities made possible through the presence of the Memorial. Conventions, national exhibitions, public meetings and recreational events will attract new persons and new revenue to the trade and commerce channels of Rochester.

WIDESPREAD APPEAL—Attractive posters, spotted by thousands in store windows, on industrial bulletin boards and other strategic places, are carrying the appeal for support of the Oct. 5 to 22 campaign for $2,500,000 to build the Community War Memorial. Mrs. Lee Gassler, above, of 1650 East Avenue, displays one of the window cards.

A PERFECT SITE—The proposed site for the Community War Memorial on the area bounded by the Genesee River, Court, Broad and Exchange Streets, has been termed the "perfect site" by leaders of the $2,500,000 campaign opening tomorrow, and hundreds of representative citizens who were canvassed for their opinions before the decision to make the drive had been reached. The new air view above shows the fine relation of the site to the Bonded Memorial Library and the site of a proposed civic center, as well as its location on the subway, near to bus lines and parking facilities.

CIVIC GROUP FACILITIES—As well-rounded service for all types of community programs, entertainment and culture, the proposed $2,500,000 Community War Memorial will offer splendid facilities for groups of men and women who have a need for meeting places of dignity and convenience. Just how such a gathering would fit in the scheme of the memorial is pictured above by the artist.

AN EVER-LASTING TRIBUTE—Dignified, beautiful and useful to a high degree, the $2,500,000 Community War Memorial will serve the citizens of Monroe County as an ever-lasting reminder of the sacrifices of Monroe County's youth in the service of their nation. Artist John Wernick is pictured below his conception of the memorial as viewed from the Exchange and Court Street sides.

TEEN-AGE RECREATION—Important as a means of combating juvenile delinquency and interesting the youth of Monroe County in healthful recreation programs, there will be plenty of facilities for "teen-age" entertainment and play in the $2,500,000 Community War Memorial. Typical of such activities as planned for the memorial is the artist's conception, above, of a teen-age recreation center.

INDUSTRIAL EXPOSITIONS—The huge exhibition hall, designed for use in agricultural exhibits, auto and machinery shows and other educational programs is envisioned by the artist in the sketch at the left. Rochester has long been pointed out. Addition of such an exhibition hall to the memorial would mean much in encouraging large conventions to visit Rochester.

FACILITIES FOR VETERANS—As a Community War Memorial, the first thought of the planners of the $2,500,000 structure was its use by the very men whose sacrifices will be honored by its erection. The veterans themselves will be able to say the word as to their requirements and every facility will be provided for comfort and convenience for the thousands who will make the memorial their headquarters and meeting place.

SPORTS AND RECREATION—A huge arena, designed to accommodate up to 10,000 spectators, will eventually bring to Rochester sports events, shows, lectures and other entertainment (exclusive of boxing) Rochester. Thousands of dollars spent by thousands of the Rochester area in visiting other cities for the entertainment and sports unavailable here thus will be spent at home. Artist John Wernick has painted above his conception of the arena which will occupy the second floor of the Community War Memorial, with entrance from the Broad Street level.

SMALL AUDITORIUM—Musical programs, lectures and more intimate gatherings will have the use of the Community War Memorial of a small auditorium that would accommodate 1,400, with dining facilities for 100 and room for 1,700 dancers. The artist has pictured above a view of the auditorium, ideal for small audiences.

Rochester's Greatest Tribute!

COMMUNITY WAR MEMORIAL

Rochester will back this Community War Memorial as enthusiastically as they backed the War Loans. This is the tribute to our fighting men and women... a tribute to the peace and our progress in the peace. The benefits will long be sung of a great, new Community War Memorial for Rochester.

LANDMARK TO ABDICATE AIR PERCH

One of Rochester's best-known landmarks, familiar to the civic scene for the past 62 years, will go into temporary eclipse when buildings on the site of Monroe County's $2,500,000 Community War Memorial are razed.

MERCURY TO STAY—The 21-foot bronze statue of Mercury atop the chimney of the City Hall Annex will be razed with the rest of the buildings on the site of the Community War Memorial, but the long familiar landmark will not be missing from the civic scene for long, since another spot will be found, possibly on a new city hall.

With construction of the memorial on the site of the City Hall Annex in Court Street and on property now housing buildings on Exchange Street, the 21-foot bronze statue of the God of Commerce and Prosperity will have to leave his time-hallowed perch atop the chimney of the old Kimball tobacco factory, that now houses city offices.

He probably will be in "retirement" until a new City Hall is constructed when, once again, he will take his one-footed, graceful stance over Rochester.

William G. Kaelber, member of the City Planning Commission and architect for the war memorial, says that Mercury does not fit into the Memorial plans.

"Mercury is one of the landmarks of Rochester," said Kaelber. "I question if it will be used on the Memorial, but if I have anything to say about it, it will be used on a public building."

He suggested the proposed City Hall as the logical location.

Regardless of where the venerable and immobile messenger lands, he will not go to the scrap pile, Kaelber averred.

Mercury, although borrowed from the Greeks, is thoroughly American and 100 per cent Rochesterian.

DRIVE . . .

theater entertainment, nationally known public speakers, musical events or recreational activities requiring smaller areas, an additional 2,500 persons can be handled.

Special Rooms For Vets

A wing of rooms of varying sizes for meetings and quarters of patriotic and veterans organizations, equipped for their needs, rounds out the general facilities. The smaller rooms offer meeting space for the committees or small organizations. In all, the veterans and other rooms add 400 to the potential capacity of the Memorial.

Entrances In Three Sides

Visitors will have little difficulty approaching the Memorial, which will have entrances to the exhibition area on both Exchange and Court Street, and an entrance to the arena on Broad Street.

Lee, speaking for the directors of the Memorial, promised that "just as soon as our quota is reached, architects will prepare final plans."

"Every effort will be made, subject to availability of necessary materials and equipment, to begin construction as early as possible in 1946, we hope by midsummer or early fall."

The directors also explained that the building, after it is completed, is to be turned over to the city and county authorities. It is proposed thereafter that a non-partisan commission, composed of leading citizens, be appointed to operate and manage the project in a manner similar to that of the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences or the Rundel Memorial Building.

City To 'Go After' Big Conventions

Erection of Monroe County's $2,500,000 Community War Memorial soon will place Rochester on the map as a "big league" convention city, predicts J. Allan Doyle, director of the Rochester Convention and Publicity Bureau, who speaks from the experience of 20 years in the business of singing conventions on the dotted line and then making them want to come back again.

Rochester In First Ten

"Rochester now ranks, or did before the automatic wartime ban on conventions, among the first 10 convention cities in the nation in total number of convention visitors entertained," Doyle said.

"But it never could handle the big conventions because it lacked the facilities."

"With construction of the new Community War Memorial, that lack will be filled."

Doyle, while wise to the convention possibilities, eyes the proposed memorial from other angles. He likes the civic aspects of the enterprise.

"The Memorial will become part of a grouping of attractive buildings that will be a credit to Rochester, and a source of pride for her residents. The Memorial will be something the average Rochesterian can talk about to his out-of-town neighbors. It will be the hub of civic endeavor."

Back on the convention track, the astute bureau manager rattled off the names of conventions that he knows, from past experience, would like to come to Rochester if the city had the proper facilities to offer.

Cultural Background Lure

"Rochester has an industrial and cultural background that appeals to a number of large groups," Doyle said. "The organizations want to come here, but their meetings are large and they require exhibiting space. Meeting and exhibit space, properly, should be under one roof."

"With such facilities, Rochester speedily would rise to the major leagues among convention cities. It would entertain the really big ones, and still be in position to keep its hospitality hand extended to the smaller groups."

Grocers May Come

Among the large national meetings that Doyle sees as strong possibilities for the city are the American Dental Society, with 7,000 delegates and visitors; the American Public Health Association, 7,800; the American Medical Association, 6,000 to 7,000; the Society of Steel Treators, 4,500 to 5,000; the American Nurses' Association, 7,000; the National Retail Grocers' Association, 3,000; the American Chemical Society, 4,000; the National Conference of Social Workers, 7,000. Political Polka

BY CURT GERLING

Around the Powers Hotel Bar there seems to be a lot of long faces these days. Habitués of the auxiliary Republican headquarters do not banter the latest bon mots across the mahogany strip with their customary fire. They seem to be worried. Normally, a low registration would augur well for the "organization" (and we use the word in the political not the administrative sense), the "boys" are wondering just how many of these people who have registered are merely "enrolled" Republicans with a grudge to settle or a protest to register on election day. They just can't be happy — no matter what.

The conscience of a politician bothers him only on the thirty days just prior to election.

There is a very quiet and subrosa move underway to tamper with the municipal airport. Those boys who have been in power for so long think that the possibility of losing the city in an election is much greater than that of the county. Therefore the idea germinating is that the "safe" place for the airport is under county domination. So don't be surprised if the Union Trust Bldg master minds some day quietly transfer it to county rule.

Or maybe they will have one of those caucuses first. Just to make it legal.

Another example of "how to lose friends and irritate people" came to light at the city garage the other day. Employees arrived one morning to find a letter (See POLKA Page 8)

FIREMEN SET FOR BENEFIT SHOW START

Five Performances Listed At Eastman Starting Tomorrow Night

Large and enthusiastic audiences are expected to greet the five performances of the 1945 Firemen's Show scheduled for the Eastman Theater tomorrow, Saturday and Sunday evenings and Saturday and Sunday matinees.

Reportedly large ticket sales were rewarding the city's smoke eaters in their efforts to swell their Benefit fund to take care of widows and orphans of Rochester firemen.

Harmonica Rascals To Show
Headlining the cast at tomorrow's show which is already near the sellout stage, will be Borrah Minevitch's Harmonica Rascals. The "Rascals" through previous performances here, have gained a wide following.

Sharing the spotlight with the "Rascals" will be Bob Chester and his Broadway Band, now on a nationwide tour.

The supporting bill is studded with Broadway stage favorites, including Sara Ann McCabe, beautiful singing star of (See FIREMEN Page 9)

DRAWINGROOM—Here is a scene from the "drawingroom" of Rochester's most recent unofficial "hostelry" for men. Several of the guests were searching their throats from the bottles in the center of the above scene when the photographer entered the "lobby." Labels on the bottles identified them as a deadly poisonous shellac thinner. The picture was made last Friday night unbeknown to the assembled "guests." What happened to one of the "hotel's" inhabitants is shown in a picture made a few hours later — on Saturday morning. The picture is on Page 5.

Canadians Inspect 'Model' Rochester

Ten officials of the City of Ottawa were in town this week to survey Republican Rochester's "model garbage and refuse collection system" which operates like clockwork except during snowstorms, severe winds, damp showers, excessive humidity and labor shortages.

The Canadians, fortunately for the peace of mind of the GOP city fathers, did not inquire into the model city's provisions for salvaging members of its lowest social strata, the shifting human flotsam which this time of year seeks shelter from bleak autumn weather in the filth of whatever vacant building is handiest.

Police attention was finally called Saturday morning to one of the most squalid of these winter cesspools of foundering humanity when the body of Frank Crowley, 60, a disabled veteran of World War I, was found on the second floor of the abandoned old Rochester Laundry building at the corner of Court and Stone streets.

Bottles that had contained beer, whisky, soda and a commercial lacquer-thinning preparation, an old auto seat, broken (See INSPECTION Page 5)

CAMPAIGNERS CHEERED BY RESPONSE

Drive Chairman Warns of 'Let Up' Says Toughest Part Ahead

Hopes of filling the $2,500,000 quota set for the War Memorial within the time allotted for the fund drive soared anew today as campaigners tabulated a total of $575,762 received up to noon yesterday.

Helping to swell yesterday's figure was a total of 37 pledges amounting to $156,900 by the special gifts committee. This was in addition to $327,040 previously reported by the group together they represent nearly 40 percent of the committee's $1,250,000 quota.

Balance of the pledges reported at yesterday's meeting were from the junior division and all city wards west of the Genesee River.

Warns of Let Up
While cheers rang through the Chamber of Commerce at yesterday's reports were tabulated, warning came from Thomas L. Lee, general chairman that "the toughest part of the drive lies ahead." He cautioned workers against a "letup due to (See MEMORIAL Page 9) that life span, the yearly cost is about $55 or approximately the amount a woman spends on hats and shoes. So we learned from New York furrier Harry Jay Treu who proved the logic and economy of his statement when he recently conducted a treasure hunt for the oldest fur coat in existence. Winner was a 70-year-old Alaska sealskin which is being Hollanderized and remodeled to start life anew. Object of Mr. Treu's search was to illustrate the practicality of buying the very best fur possible in the range of a specified budget rather than selecting a second rate fur in a higher price bracket. Good furs thus are lifted out of the luxury class and placed in the light of sincere economy. Thanks to the expert craftsmanship of this modern stylist.

CARTER'S CARTER HAT SHOP is dedicated to the proposition that practicality by all women are created equal in the eyes of Fashion. And a lot depends on the HAT. RIPTON DRESSES has always been associated with the drama of good taste, the spice of imagination, when it comes to selecting "clothes" for you. Fine craftsmanship is considered important and this is what you "get" when you buy at RIFTON'S. This fall with the new silhouette, dresses have taken on a new air. Combination of bright shades do "things" for your figure. WOMEN'S DRESSES — in half-sizes are wonderful at this shop. Glitter at the necklines help to detract from the larger figure. One model in particular with soft shoulder line, narrow V neck — with splashes of sequins across the soft shirred front. This model is available in black and the new high autumn shades. Of course there are plenty of regular and juniors — prices start at $9.95. RIFTON DRESSES — 739 MONROE AVE. — Open Eve.

The most versatile of food in my way of thinking — MILK and CREAM. Don't you agree? Now that is possible to have the BEST CREAM delivered to your home, you'll find desserts are no longer a problem. For instance just plain fruit or plain cake, becomes a party dish, when topped by a heaping mound of rich REAL SEALEST CREAM. You may order the light or heavy — and my advice is to order the pint size. It will keep beautifully, with a little added care, placed well back in your refrigerator. A simple telephone call to BRIGHTON PLACE DAIRY — Glenwood 144 — will bring this treat to your home. Ask for REAL SEALEST CREAM — delivered by BRIGHTON PLACE DAIRY (Division of General Ice Cream Corp) 45 Fulton Ave.

Revival of sparkling black jet as a high style note has sent many a woman scurrying to grandmother's trunk in search of the finely cut beads, buttons and other heirloom decorations. The current scarcity of real jet has given unusual value to finding the shining black trim. Capitalizing on the popularity of chokers and tiaras for evening wear, Madeline Lee of the "Valiant Lady" cast fashioned a distinctive duo from fine beading that had long lain idle in the family attic. The neckband builds from a rare flat jet button in the center front. As an accompanying headress, Madeline created an unusual tiara by padding and covering a head clip with velvet, then adding a row of the same jet beading motif as her choker. From the back of the tiara, she draped a glittering hand-sewn sequin sheath — part of an elaborate evening gown bodice of years ago.

Snuff, a rich shade of brown as provocative as its name, is being given top billing on the autumn color scene for women who seek variety from the popular all-black costume. Coats, suits and dresses of the refreshing color introduced by Lord and Taylor of New York graciously accept black accessories to highlight this up-to-the-minute autumn tone.

Black looks jersey dress with sleeves of bold black and pink stripes. Almost cocktail in style — it buttons in the front fashion to the hemline. It is smart.

Magazine Tells of Whooping Cough Control Efforts

Although whooping cough is still the most crippling and fatal of childhood infections, recent tests indicate that it can be controlled through inoculation, says Good Housekeeping magazine.
Hope that this fatal malady may soon be brought under nationwide control is seen in the result of recent tests in Cleveland, according to the October issue of the magazine, which states:
"Children of Shaker Heights, a suburb of Cleveland, were inoculated against whooping cough with a vaccine and were compared after a period of time with similar groups of Cleveland children which had not been inoculated.

"Proof was positive that such inoculations actually do prevent whooping cough. There was a tremendous reduction in the cases in Shaker Heights and only a very small reduction in Cleveland."

"Among six cases of whooping cough in pre-school children in Shaker Heights, not one had been inoculated."
Whooping cough is particularly deadly to infants in their year, and from 1938 to 1940 more than 10,000 children died from this disease.

Nine candidates will be initiated into membership of the Germania Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star at ceremonies next Monday in Room A of Masonic Temple. Worthy Matron, Grace E. Kurzrock and Worthy Patron Arthur Taylor will preside. Officers of the group have been requested to wear white gowns.

COLLEGE DEAN TO STAGE 'SEANCE'

Those who attend the "Ghost Show" to be presented next Thursday evening at the Masonic Auditorium by Dr. Howard Higgins, dean of Emerson College, Boston, will really witness two shows in one. Dr. Higgins, a world-known authority on psychic phenomena, first stages a composite seance with a securely bound medium and then reveals how it is all accomplished.

The show is designed to analyze the psychology of suggestion and explore the technique of spirit forces, spirit vision, writing by invisible hand, spirit slate writing and the materialization of a spirit, that bewitches an audience into accepting the "other world" as real.

The show which is being sponsored by Rochester Consistory of the Scottish Rite is described by reviewers as weird, gripping and hilarious. Tickets may be obtained from the Rochester Consistory office, Masonic Temple.

PLASTIC Resists Heat, Repels Water

By HARLAND MANCHESTER
Condensed by the Readers Digest from The Rotarian
About a year ago a General Electric publicity man tore open a pack of cigarettes and threw them into a bowl of water. "Have a smoke boys," he said. When they fished out the cigarettes the water rolled off them in little beads and they weren't even damp. March is far less sensitive to temperature and would give this new merit to a plastic. Finally they succeeded. It's a kind of them-

Local crossbreeding a completely new molecule was produced. The carbon partner contributes the convenient versatility which permits the formation of silicones in the wide variety of liquids and solid products.
Reprinted in Part From Times-Union, March 14, 1945
Liquid silicone resins are also slated for an important future in paints and enamels which will withstand heat, sunlight and corrosive chemicals. In the General Electric laboratory I saw a metal panel which had been coated with silicone enamel and baked for 100 hours at 482° Fahrenheit. It was still as white as when put in the oven. Such an enamel should find a ready use in finishing ranges, radiators and enameled articles of all kinds. "Accelerated aging" tests have also shown that silicone coatings are not affected by years of exposure to sunlight. This would make them ideal for outdoor use, as on automobiles.

Roosevelt 'Double'
Seeks School Post

Not only does Walter H. Kinnear look like the late president, Franklin D. Roosevelt, he agrees with Roosevelt's political philosophy as well. And, like Roosevelt, Kinnear believes in "doing rather than saying."

Kinnear is the candidate of the Democratic and American Labor parties for School Commissioner. Known throughout Rochester for his striking similarity to Roosevelt, Kinnear is a former board member of the Parent-Teacher's Association, as well as that of the Sunshine Camp for Handicapped Children sponsored by the Rotary Club. He is active in the C.Y.A., Y.M.C.A., the Community Chest and other civic agencies, as well as a member of the Returned Veterans Committee of the Fraternal Order of Eagles.

Noting that his friend looked a bit sad and forlorn, the other, whom we shall call Frank because that is his name, inquired: "What's the matter, George? You look a little down today." "I should be down," replied George. "I've just come from the doctor and am I a sick man! The doc says I have high blood pressure, heart trouble, arthritis, diabetes and he wouldn't be surprised if I had a brain tumor. Any day now I might die." "Well," consoled Frank, "It might be worse." "Oh yeah!" wailed the sufferer. "On top of all my health worries, the bank is threatening to foreclose on me. I'm broke! Bankrupt!" "It could still be worse," was the Pollyannaish advice from Frank. "Worse? Even my wife wants to leave me. She's going to give me a divorce and take away the children. I'll be all alone." Came the same comforting assurance: "It could be worse." "What is this 'could be worse' stuff?" shouted poor George. "How could it be worse?" "Well, it could happen to me."

Any old cat can be the cat's whiskers, but it takes a tomcat to be a cat's paw.

Here is a silly little story about turtles that you might enjoy. Once upon a time there were three turtles, two of them large and full-grown, the other small and shy. One day the three of them went into a bar to quench their thirst. Each ordered a glass of root beer. As they began to quaff the refreshing beverage, one of the large turtles noticed that it had begun to rain outdoors. Fearing that it might develop into a lengthy downpour, they decided that they should have their umbrella and that the little turtle should go home for it. This decision did not meet with the small turtle's approval at all. He declined to fetch the umbrella, expressing his fear that if he left the bar, the two big turtles would drink his root beer while he was gone. After considerable persuasion, the big turtles convinced the little fellow that his drink would be perfectly safe while he went home for the umbrella. Three weeks passed, and finally one of the turtles said: "Let's drink the little jerk's root beer." "I've been thinking the same thing," returned the other, "and that's just what we'll do." From down the end of the bar near the door, a shrill voice cried: "If you do, I won't go after that umbrella."

One sunny day last summer a boy and his beautiful blonde girl friend were sitting on a bench in Genesee Valley Park admiring the scenery or doing whatever a boy and a beautiful blonde do to pass the time on a bench in the park on a sunny day. The boy asked his girl friend if she would like an ice cream cone and when she expressed a desire for one he got up and started for the refreshment stand which was some distance from the bench on which they were sitting. During his absence a detachment of sailors from the nearby university marched past the bench and many an admiring glance was thrown in the direction of the gorgeous blonde. The boy returned with the ice cream cones and being of a jealous disposition asked the girl if she had flirted with any of the passing sailors. "Oh, no, dear," was the quick-witted reply. "I've just been catching farty winks."

Seeking of the telephone service, as who isn't, reminds me of a tale a friend of mine told me recently. It seemed that he had a very important call to make and when he picked up the phone, found one line busy. "I just put on some beans for dinner," he heard a woman say. A few minutes later he tried again. The same two women were talking. "Say, lady, I smell your beans burning," he broke in. There was a scream, two receivers went up, and the line was open.

In case you don't know, but you probably suspect, "reinstated" means that the powers have an opportunity to investigate your political qualifications — and if you are a border line case or have been a bad boy you are quite apt to get the "heaveho" — and a more desirable character put in your place.

With this bulletin staring them in the face Democratic Leader Bush can put the city garage personnel safely into the Democratic column.

Now, with the closing of the Hotel De Gink more elegantly referred to as the former home of the Rochester Laundry, poli-ing place watchers will have a much easier time of it. The closing eliminates about forty or fifty "sticks" who probably could have been urged to vote at the Stone St. fire house for the right place.

With the closing of the Balavia Downs track this week Rochester taxpayers will get a break — city-owned, and we presume city-gassed car 33-29 won't have to make the nightly trek, so that its driver can watch the sulkies sloop around the oval — or as some say work at one of the mutual windows.

Republican economy is wonderful!

One of the big headaches of political bosses is to supply funds to rural communities to wage their election battles. The boys from the town want to splurge and toss dough around just like their urban brothers — but they want the city contributors to supply the funds.

In the old days a candidate running for office in the farm belt, started out at 5 a. m. with a box of nickel cigars and a box of candy. Got home at 6 P. M., a little late for chores, with the cigars only half gone and still enough candy left for the kids at home.

Inside Hollywood . . .

Believing that every possible media must be used to promote international understanding in the present era, one large film corporation has announced an ambitious program, which for the first time will enable the general American public to see outstanding foreign films with synchronized English dialogue. While there is sound business reasoning behind the idea, the program should prove to be of great cultural advantage to all concerned.

In her role as "Ma" in "The Yearling," which she took over from Jacqueline White, Jane Wynans plays the part without benefit of make-up. It is her most unglamorous role since she began her film career. But, make-up or not, she gets Gregory Peck as her movie husband. Wonder how she manages to do it, girls!

Paramount's proposed "epic" is "California," a Technicolor picture, which is to be in production for more than six months. A camera crew of fifty-five members, headed by Director John Farrow, has already started work in the vicinity of Flagstaff, Arizona, filming wagon train scenes for the film. According to present plans, Ray Milland and Barbara Stanwyck have the leads.

Because their fans are so insistently demanding that Nelson Eddy and Jeanette Mac Donald be returned to the screen as a team, two studios are bidding for their services.

For some unexplained reason there is to be a flood of "Western epics" to take over the screens of the nation in the near future, similar, it seems, to what we hear is correct to those outstanding films of the past. "The Covered Wagon" and "Cimarron."

The railroad station you will see in the John Hodiak-Lucille Ball film, "Time for Two," is the same set, decorated and refurbished, of course, that started out thirteen years ago as the Cairo station for the Ramon Novarro picture, "The Barbarian." Since then it has been used in "Anna Karenina," "Waterloo Bridge," "The Clock," "Mrs. Miniver," "Andrew Johnson," "Ninotchka," "Idiot's Delight," and the Grand Central, New York, for numerous other films.

Susan Peters is to get her own radio show, as a result of her appearance on the air recently with Van Johnson. As it is doubtful if Susan will ever be able to resume her screen work, as a result of her accident, radio work will be a swell substitute.

News comes that Red Skelton, radio and screen comedian, is soon leaving the service and there are big plans for Red to return to the air.

Myrna Loy will make her third comeback to the screen via the starring role opposite Paul Henreid in a romantic comedy, "Who Is My Love?"

in which he co-starred with Rosalind Russell, Jimmy doesn't need any re-introduction, however.

be known before next month when the Supreme Court is scheduled to render a decision in the case of Heffner vs. the city of Rochester et al.

A dispute as to whether William J. Heffner, wounded veteran of World War II voluntarily quit his job as a commerce department employee, or was fired by Harold S. W. MacFarlin, Commissioner was the immediate cause of all the maze of conflicting testimony, affirmations and denials emerged one definite fact—

Heffner, a city employee prior to the war and now a wounded veteran of that war, want his job back. He is asking the courts to get it back for him. He claims he was fired. According to his testimony he tried many times to see his former boss, MacFarlin and received the "rush-off." He then to the United States Attorney, went Goodman Sarachen who corresponded with City Manager Louis Cartwright concerning the matter and then, according to Heffner, advised him to "get a lawyer" if he wanted his job back.

Testimony brought out at the trial of the case led observers to believe that more was job. Witnesses were questioned as to MacFarlin's ability with still and motion picture cameras and his close attachment to Heffner who, it was claimed, gave him pointers about several phases of photography.

Talk of cameras left defense attorneys cold but a lively wrangle developed each time Heffner's attorney, Leo Rosenfield attempted to question actually at stake than Heffner's witnesses regarding authorship of a movie script which Heffner maintained was written by MacFarlin. The movie is now said to be in the hands of the city police.

Meanwhile, as he awaits the decision of the court, Heffner walks the street of Rochester, peddling apples in the approved 1932 fashion. And with the entire city united in a war memorial fund drive to honor servicemen and women, Rochesterians were indignant that the city itself should be making in necessary for any veteran to trudge the streets peddling apples. Some say Heffner is out because he sang ribald songs about MacFarlin. Others say that he quit, just to make trouble. But many were those who believed emphatically that Heffner was no longer working for MacFarlin because he had "too much on the boss."

overoptimism" and urged them to "carry on in your present enthusiastic spirit to a successful conclusion."

The drive will officially close on Oct. 22.

Individuals Importance Stressed

Largest single contributor to date is the Eastman Kodak Co., who, it was revealed Monday night, had pledged $300,000. But the campaigners, from chairman to volunteer workers, knew that the success or failure of the campaign to gather funds for a huge community war memorial building depended on the individual giver. And that, observed one campaign leader, is as it should be. "The memorial," said he, "is a tribute from all of us to all our boys and girls who served so nobly and sacrificed so much. Every citizen will do his share because every one of us is proud and grateful to those who did so much for us and for the community when the nation was in peril."

The Community War Memorial is conceived as a tribute to and service for the Veterans of Rochester and Monroe County. It is important that the citizens of our community know these essential facts regarding the use of War Memorial facilities by Veterans and Veterans' organizations:

group. Civic, educational, and cultural projects should fall within the second classification of service at actual cost.

Why doesn't the city build the Memorial or why aren't government funds sought for its erection?

The city does not have the money available for the purpose under its "hold the line 'til '49" financial plan. The possibility of governmental grants for this purpose is uncertain. Community sentiment has been strongly in favor of starting the project immediately—as a spontaneous expression of public appreciation of the sacrifices of the thousands of men and women of Monroe County who have served in our Armed Forces. A community memorial, built with public funds, would have little about it of the right-from-the-heart feeling which is expressed by a contribution given in appreciation and recognition of supreme service and sacrifice.

Why isn't the Memorial built and then turned over to the Veterans?

As a community facility, built primarily as a tribute to the sacrifices of its Veterans, and for the benefit and use of the varied organizations and age groups composed of the thousands of Veterans of three wars, a supervising agency seems essential for impartial control and to insure the continued successful operation of the Memorial. Under such control, either by the Memorial Corporation or a non-partisan community-municipal commission, every group and every activity sponsored by them will receive proper consideration and afforded use of facilities as will best serve the interests of the Veterans themselves. As complete assurance that the Memorial will be operated primarily for the benefit of the Veterans, it is intended that they, through their organizations, shall have as complete a voice as possible in the construction of facilities for their use and in plans for operation of the completed project.

Who will benefit most from the Community War Memorial?

All Veterans who have served in America's military services. Their needs and interests will always be regarded as the most important consideration in the development of facilities and in the operating plans.

Have you made your pledge? If a solicitor has not already talked to you at your home or place of business or if you want to increase the amount of your subscription, call at the War Memorial office, 37 Exchange St. or phone Main 7444. Let your gift be the measure of your gratitude.

THE COMMUNITY WAR MEMORIAL of Rochester and Monroe County Inc.

What do the Veterans think of this project?

Veterans' organizations are wholeheartedly supporting the Community War Memorial with the publicly-voiced approval of their leaders. Veterans' organizations have already contributed thousands of dollars. Hundreds of enthusiastic letters and subscriptions from our men overseas are evidence of the sentiments of the Veterans themselves. It has been the experience of campaign leaders that questions relative to the Community War Memorial come in most instances from an incomplete understanding of its aims and purposes. A project of this magnitude is based on careful consideration, painstaking investigation, and a most thorough study of the Memorial as it affects actual use by the Veterans themselves.

Will the Memorial be completely non-political?

The Memorial Corporation which is conducting the campaign will direct the erection of the Memorial and supervise the organization of its facilities. Ultimately, its operation will be in the hands of a non-partisan commission representing City and County. There is every assurance that the men and women who are conducting the campaign and who will erect the Memorial will never permit this tribute to Monroe County's Veterans to become other than the community service for which it was conceived.

Will there be profits from the operation of the Memorial building? If so, where will they go?

The Memorial is planned as a non-profit enterprise. However, the experience of other cities indicates that it should be more than self-supporting. Any profits derived will revert to the Memorial treasury. Such funds will be used for the improvement of facilities with particular consideration to the needs of Veterans.

How will Veterans be charged for facilities?

Headquarters and meeting rooms for Veterans' groups will be provided without charge. In general, there will be three price classifications applied to available facilities: (1) No charge; (2) Charge to cover cost of maintenance; and (3) Charge to produce income. Generally speaking, Veterans' activities should fall in the first group, to whatever extent possible, by reason of revenue produced by the third

We don't know who forms the Republican campaign policies, but of course, we can guess. Observers (that's four guys on any street corner) believe that this year's technique is, if nothing else, unique (and it is nothing else). Outside of a few corny ads stating that Rochester is a Republican city, and that this is a Republican County (but never admit that that's what has been wrong with both right along), there is little but large gobs of stence regarding their record, policies and principles of which the former is too bad to mention and the latter are too ambiguous for ordinary comprehension. Thus the voter is left very much in the dark — which we presume is the very best place to keep him if the Republicans want any votes this fall.

In conversations with the few Republicans who don't cross the street on viewing our uncertain approach we learn that "head-quarters" wants it that way. No arguments, no discussions, no apologies, — just "make talk-talk" so flowery and rambl- (See POLKA Page 9)

ATTORNEY IMPLICATES CITY OFFICIAL

Commissioner Mum On Charges Levelled At Vet's Hearing

Rochester was still awaiting direct denial, this week, of two serious charges levelled against one of the city's most prominent figures during a trial before the Supreme Court on Sept. 24 and 25.

The silent figure who had many morally upright Rochesterians obviously worried, was Harold S. W. MacFarlin, commerce commissioner, railways commissioner and one of the leading lights of the local Republican machine.

Attorney Levels Charges

The charges were brought out by Leo Hosenfeld in his cross examination of the commerce commissioner during a hearing before Supreme Court Justice John C. Wheeler of William J. Heffner's plea for reinstatement to his post in the city's commerce department. Heffner, a wounded veteran of World War II claims he was fired from his city post by MacFarlin.

Shortly after Hosenfeld began his cross examination of MacFarlin, court observers noted that questions were being raised which by innuendo, charged MacFarlin with participation in the production of a movie which was later seized and destroyed by police. MacFarlin made no denial of such participation.

Denial Lacking

Attorney Hosenfeld, in another line of questioning, sought (See COMMISSIONER Page 6)

DAVENPORT TO DIRECT CIRCUS HERE

Member of Famed Circus Family To Have Charge of Annual Shrine Event

Orrin Davenport — a name synonymous with everything that pertains to circus — will be the director and ringmaster of the 1945 Shrine Victory Circus which is scheduled for the New York State Armory Armistice week, starting November 12. That announcement, made by General Chairman A. Elmer Raithel of the Damascus Temple circus committee, has created much enthusiasm among Shrine members, as well as the circus-loving public.

For two generations the Davenport family has been connected with the largest shows in the country, Barnum & Bailey Forepaugh and Ringling Bros., and today Orrin Davenport is regarded as the outstanding member of the famous family.

Opening performance, on Monday, will be devoted to the entertainment of orphans, old folks and other underprivileged of the city. This annual event is provided by the "Circus Daddies," a group of prominent citizens who make it possible.

ONLY FIVE DAYS LEFT TO REACH GOAL

Campaign Head Pledges Success; Urges Workers To Redouble Efforts

Where to find $1,330,888 within the next five days was the problem that faced volunteer workers today in the drive to raise $2,500,000 for a community war memorial honoring Monroe County men and women who served their country during World War II. The drive which opened Oct. 5 will end next Monday.

At a meeting yesterday in the Chamber of Commerce pledges totalling $163,741 were reported. Added to previous gifts the total pledged since opening of the fund drive stands at $1,169,112 or 46.8 percent of the $2,500,000 goal.

An all-in-one washing machine, dishwasher, mixing machine and vegetable parer is in the making and promised for the near future. The unit is 36 inches high and has separate receptacles for dishes, washables and clothes sections that lift out easily. The mixing machine will churn butter and make ice cream. It's going to a great world — the post-war one. Will be rather confusing on the abstruse minded — when they suddenly find the baby among the sudsy dinner dishes — bathed in thick brown gravy.

At this time of the year — supplies in your household seem to be on the low side. If your house is anything like mine, at EDWARDS — on the Sixth Floor, you'll find household needs to satisfy the most exacting of housekeepers. For instance OLD ENGLISH NO-RUB WAX — sells for $1.29 for a half gallon. Waxing is no chore with this efficient wax. DDT SCIENTIFIC INSECT KILLER — sells for $1.75 for one quart. Kills flies, mosquitoes, fleas, moths, ticks, roaches. JOHNSON PRODUCTS CLEANER — sells for $1.29 for one gallon. Helps cut grease and dirt and cleans quickly. WILBERT'S NO-RUB WAX is a boom. Sells for $1.29 for one half gallon. Leaves a glowing surface, goes on without rubbing and dries in just ten minutes. EFFICIENT CHIMNEY SWEEP — $1 for a three-pound can. Removes soot and scale from fire box to chimney top. Can be used in coal or oil furnace in wood or coal stoves. Have you ever used MYSTIC FOAM? It is jiffy cleaner — sells for $1 for one half gallon. It is quick-acting. Removes dirt, grease, stains. Another must in a well-managed household is the SWING AWAY WALL CAN OPENER — Selling for $1.98 — it fastens securely to kitchen wall, flat — when not in use, slips around cans in record time. Another MUST is the ORANGE JUICE-O-MAT — Sells for $3.98. It is the newly improved Juice-O-Mat, beautifully designed in white with plastic can and chrome strainer. WINDOW VENTILATORS — that sells for 79c — made of heavy steel aluminum finish. Eight inches in height. Adjustable to 28 inches. Protects against rain, snow or drafts. RUBBISH BURNER — sells for $1.98. Easiest and safest way to destroy trash or rubbish. Another valuable is the EASY-TO-USE "Rid-Jid" Ironing table. Letters to the Editor

Editor, Rochester Sun:

Under date of October 6, 1945, I addressed the following letter to the Editor of the Democrat & Chronicle and the Times-Union. On October 10th, the Times-Union published the letter but conveniently deleted some sixty words therefrom which I have indicated in bold type:

"Certain political advertisements state that 'Under Republican Administrations Rochester Has Become A Great City.' I DO NOT BELIEVE THERE ARE MANY ROCHESTERIANS WHO DISAGREE WITH THE STATEMENT THAT ROCHESTER IS A GREAT CITY. HOWEVER, I FEEL POSITIVE THAT THOUSANDS OF OUR CITIZENS JOIN ME IN CHALLENGING THE STATEMENT INFERRING THAT THE GREATNESS WAS ACHIEVED STRICTLY UNDER REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATIONS.

THE PURPOSE OF THIS LETTER IS TO CALL TO THE ATTENTION OF THE FRAMERS OF THAT ADVERTISEMENT THAT under Democratic Administrations in Washington an allocation of more than ten million dollars was made to Rochester and Monroe County to operate WPA projects and provide employment to upwards of twelve thousand workers in the construction of more than one hundred miles of county roads, city pavements, sidewalks, water lines, sewers, construction of hangars and runways at the Rochester Airport. Construction of sewage disposal plants in Brighton, Irondequoit, Pittsford, Honeye Falls. Construction of recreational facilities in city and county parks. Construction of town halls and other town facilities. Construction of Rundel Library (PWA grant). Repairs and improvements to city schools and subway bridges, etc.

In connection with this FAR-FLUNG MONUMENTAL program, I should like to mention the names of two prominent Rochesterians who played no small role in THESE ACCOMPLISHMENTS, Thomas J. Morrison, General Superintendent, and Francis H. (Midge) Carroll. Yes, Rochester is a great city, but no one political party can claim all the credit!

On several occasions the two local Republican papers have published an invitation to readers to express their views in "Letters to the Editor." I accepted their invitation with complete confidence that my views would be correctly reflected when published. Needless to say, I cannot accept another such invitation.

EDWARD A. JONES.

Editor, Rochester Sun.

I was glad to see you publish the photo and details of what Mr. Gerling calls the Hotel De Gink. The police have known for some time that floaters and bums have been using the old Rochester Laundry building for a hangout. Cops have a way of ignoring such things as they are not inclined to make trouble for unfortunates unless ordered to do so.

It's pretty silly that the great city of Rochester cannot provide for these men or do something to get them started toward a better life. They don't have much chance and their condition is helped along by a lot of so-called business men with good records as churchgoers. This "smoke" which is usually denatured alcohol, shellac thinner or what have you is readily obtainable by these obvious bums at a half dozen so-called legitimate paint and hardware stores. These places, for the sake of a few pennies profit, sell the stuff knowing full well that the product is sure death eventually. It would be a pretty dumb clerk who couldn't tell one of these bums from a legitimate painter or decorator.

I think Dr. Kaiser had better enlist the police and newspapers in a campaign to eliminate this open-and-don't-care policy in the sale of the liquid death by these paint stores.

I am asking that my name be withheld as I am a member of what is known as Rochester's protective services.

solution of the city's youth problem. Of the 813 memberships reported at the first meeting on Monday evening, 250 were turned in by the special committee which has been organized exclusively to work for memberships for boys and girls under the co-chairmanship of Elmer E. Fairchild and John D. Hayes.

Arthur P. Kelly, general chairman of the drive, announced that 813 memberships represent 32 percent of the campaign quota. The Men's Division, headed by Carl J. Meisenzahl, reports 320 memberships with one of the teams headed by Francis "Cap" Carroll over the top with 46 members for 171 percent of its quota.

The Women's Division, operating under the joint chairmanship of Mrs. John J. Finigan and Mrs. Rudolf S. Siebert, has 243 memberships reported including 97 from the unit headed by Mrs. William F. OPERA FRIDAY OPENS EASTMAN CONCERT SEASON

An operatic treat — Verdi's celebrated "Il Trovatore" — will be the opening event in what promises to be the Eastman Theater's greatest music season.

There will be two performances, tomorrow and Saturday evening.

Rose Hampton Stars

In this music drama will be a group of outstanding guest stars. They include three leading singers of the Metropolitan Opera Company — Rose Hampton, Arthur Carron and Thelma Altman. A fourth visiting artist will be Edwin Steffe, noted American baritone.

Conducting the Rochester Civic Orchestra will be Guy Fraser Harrison, while direction of the opera is in charge of Nicholas Konraty.

To Be Sung in English

"Il Trovatore," which will be sung in English, has long ranked as one of the most popular of standard operas. Some of the reasons lie in its wealth of melody and swift action.

Musically, "Il Trovatore" is a triumph of Verdi's uncanny skill in expressing the dramatic. Here, at times, on a mere dance rhythm, such as a waltz or mazurka, he develops melodies of real beauty and dramatic probability.

It seems to be now established that the end of the world was over-predicted.

HOMEMAKERS CLASSES LISTED BY HOME BUREAU

A series of five free classes for homemakers is scheduled for Thursday evenings, beginning Nov. 1st at 7:30 p. m. at the Rochester Home Bureau, 150 Plymouth Ave. N. The classes are sponsored by the Rochester and Monroe County nutrition committee, and will include lectures and demonstrations concerning the following topics: sandwiches and cookies; pies and pastry; yeast bread and rolls; the use of fruits and vegetables; and the selection, use and care of kitchen equipment.

All women are invited to attend the series which will continue through December 6th. No session will be held on Thanksgiving Day.

Magazine Tells of Change In Name

Effective with the November issue now on sale, Life Story Magazine becomes Today's Woman.

In announcing the new title, the publishers explain that contents of the magazine will remain basically the same, but with more emphasis placed on interests of the woman of today, including news coverage on social, beauty and health problems, new developments in fashion, homemaking and job ideas.

REPUBLICAN WOMEN PLAN BENEFIT PARTY

A benefit party at the home of Mrs. Florence Alexander, 25 Reynolds St. has been planned for tomorrow at 8 p. m. by the 11th Ward Women's Republic Club. Miss May Taylor will act as chairlady.

Those who seek the truth must first establish an unbiased mind and divest it of personal interest. No wonder truth is so elusive!

Our own prediction is that the country will soon be overrun by salesmen.

IRONDEQUOIT JEWISH WOMEN PLAN BRIDGE

Final plans for a public bridge party sponsored by the Jewish Women's Irondequoit group were made last evening at a meeting in the home of Mrs. Alex Kopen on St. Paul Blvd. The bridge fete will be held in the JYWA on Nov. 8 starting at 8 p. m. A hair style show will be given by Mrs. Louise Schaad as a feature of the evening.

Mrs. Maurice Cherney was appointed chairman of the party and will be assisted by Mrs. Louis Kipsky, Mrs. Lou Goodman, Mrs. Abe Schulman, Mrs. Archie Schiff, Mrs. Hyman Kaufman and Mrs. Joseph Goldblatt.

Rabbi Leon Statkin was a guest speaker at last evening's meeting.

Widespread curiosity was aroused by the following bits of testimony taken from the official transcript of court stenographers: (The questions were asked by Hosenfeld and answers supplied by MacFarlin.)

Q. You knew, Mr. MacFarlin, that prior to his induction into the army that he (Heffner) had refused to sign certain requisitions for Kodak equipment and films which he was requested to sign and which he claimed the supplies didn't come into the office? You knew that, didn't you?

A. I knew no such thing.

Q. You were quite interested in photography and still are?

A. Yes, sir.

Q. And with that in mind, refreshing your recollection, isn't it true that you knew that Mr. Heffner had refused to sign requisitions for certain Kodak equipment and films not needed by the city?

A. I have no knowledge of any such refusal on his part.

Interested legal lights were quick to point out that Hosenfeld had, by innuendo, accused MacFarlin of taking part in the production of a movie which was ordered seized by the police, and had further accused him of charging his camera equipment and supplies to the city of Rochester. Neither of the accusations had been denied by MacFarlin while on witness stand. Nor, say observers, has he denied the charges at any time since. That is why friends and foe of MacFarlin alike are asking, "where did MacFarlin get his camera," and "what kind of pictures does MacFarlin make with that camera?"

ing and so farfetched that no one can understand it—thereby leaving undisturbed the mental process of the electorate—depending on their indifference to coast back into office. As one of these dyed-in-the-habit politicians, laughed, "We're just going to depend on the public being dumb and ignorant as usual and we'll all start another term Jan. 1st." (I was too polite to mention that in the last few Presidential years they had been neither dumb nor ignorant.)

This next month we will discover the proper technique, whether it is wise to wage a vigorous campaign such as the Democrats are doing or play ostrich like the GOP, in the high hope that on election day the populace will remain "dumb and ignorant".

Deep concern over the fate of the Tenth in November's political columns is indicated in the half victory won by the Palm St. "get the darn busses off it" Association. Mr. Mac Farlin (Harold S. W.) Commerce Commish. has condescended to route the busses only in one direction on narrow Palm St. The half-a-loaf theory, it is presumed, may turn a few indignant Palm St. Republicans back into the fold. But that isn't the way we hear it. Palm Streeters are confident a Democratic city government would grant all of their sensible request.

Strange (or is it?) that Mr. Cartwright should suddenly hit the news pages like this, just before election. One photo shows him poring over the city budget. Underneath this reproduction of the Snow Report expert are lots of nice-fresh data on how he and the Republican administration are going to save us (if it goes through) 27 cents on each thousand dollars of property assessment.

There are 89,000 pieces of taxable property in Rochester. The average property owner has really assessed for a total of $5,732. Thus the average taxpayer is going to save (if it's approved) a total on the next tax bill of $1.56. This saving will buy a fair necktie but would be inadequate to sponsor as much as a short party even at such economical establishment as Clifford's Old Fashioned Tea Shoppes.

In the news article there was also a wealth of statistical information on the amount of debts and loans paid off and going to be paid off. It didn't say (or if it did we missed it) what administration piled up this astronomical debt. Nor could we find (search as we might) any mention of the $750,000 Mr. Cartwright borrowed not so long ago which he wasn't supposed to — and which made his friends at the City Tax League very unhappy. It violated the "Hold the Line til '49" policy which is regarded as most serious by the City Tax League but to the Republican administration it's just another slogan like "Tippecanoe and Tyler Too" or "Keep Cool with Coolidge".

As we won fifty cents on the registration figures — we bet a couple guys (I. e. Al Moss) that the final figures would show a gain over 1943 — that makes us an expert. It also makes the Republicans unhappy. They already concede six supervisors to the Democrats although fifteen would be a more accurate figure — and if they only lose that many they'll be lucky — and happy. They also concede certain councilmen a "chance" which is pretty big hearted of the boys. We just can't see in an election of councilmen-at-large why if one Democrat has a chance they all won't.

We just can't see, in an election of councilmen-at-large why if one Democrat has a chance they all won't.

You can bet the thirty four gain in the seventh's registration roles are 100 per cent authentic and "legit".
For Veterans Mike Solone fought twenty-six months in the Pacific, he should be able to fight the battle of the Seventh with both hands in his pockets — and win.

One reason why so much bologney is written these days is because so many writers have so much space to fill up regularly.

● Campaign Tactics
● City War Record
● Slot Machines
● Mac Farlin Ablutions

BY CURT GERLING
The other mid-day between brunch and pick-me-up-time, chairs four and five in the Powers lobby were groaning under the weight of two paunchy politicians of the heavy gold watch chain era. As they picked their teeth and nibbled sensen they discussed the old days and their fiery campaigns, with both sides throwing mud and punches right up until the final bell.

Ex-members of the steeple ward Marching, Chowder and Torchlight Clubs, both derided the current moribund, comatose and generally apathetic efforts of their party (Republican) to stand up and fight or do something about winning an election.
To them, an election had to be a knock-down, drag-out affair. Otherwise it was duller than a Cartwright report.

Others in higher places have the same opinion but with a slightly different conception of the present campaign. Personally, we consider it a classic example of an attempt on the part of the Republicans, not to win an election, but to sneak back into office.

We must admit that is the only course open to them. Their odorous record, the breakdown of essential services, their astronomical over-assessment and city costs coupled with their too-well-known "to hell with the public" attitude makes it obvious the less they say the better off they are.

VICE ADMIRAL TO GREET MEDIC ON CITY VISIT

Fighting Admiral 'Grand Fellow', Says Former Navy Surgeon

VICEADMIRAL ROBERT
C. GIFFEN

When Vice Admiral Robert C.
Giffen comes to Rochester Saturday to speak at the Navy Day dinner at the Chamber of Commerce, he'll have to arrange his plans to keep a luncheon engagement with Dr.
Samuel J. Stabbin, made months ago in the Naval hospital at Annapolis.

Dr. Stabbin returned to Rochester to resume his surgical practice only four weeks ago after serving as chief surgeon of the Naval Hospital at Annapolis. He became acquainted with Vice Admiral Giffen while Giffen was a patient at the hospital for a checkup after several strenuous Pacific cam-

FLYNN HITS COMMERCE DEPARTMENT

Calls Complaint Bureau Clearing House For Republican Sins

Councilman candidate Joseph
P. Flynn this week accused Commerce Commissioner Harold S. W. Mac Farlin of appropriating taxpayers' money to install a bureau, the costs of which should rightfully be borne by the Republican Party.

The service bureau of the Department of Commerce, according to Flynn, is merely a clearing house and complaint depot for the sins of omission and commission of the present administration.

"I see no reason", said Flynn,
"why the overworked taxpayer who isn't getting much in the way of essential services, should also be taxed for making the complaints about these faulty services." "Furthermore," he added, "it seems rather obvious that this is just another extension of the patronage system to make more jobs for the Republican faithful."

There are seven office employees including Harry J.
Gaynor director, and three outside employees who call on the complainants. Their salaries are fifteen hundred dollars per year each plus one hundred and twenty dollars car allowance.

"According to a statement by Mr. MacFarlin," commented Flynn "the service bureau is causing nationwide attention, which we do not doubt. Un-

MUNICIPAL GENEROSITY — Here is the city-owned paving machine used by private contractor Thomas Holahan in the paving of the Bond Clothing Co. parking lot on Hawkins St. The city purchased the paver from Holahan at a reputed cost of $4,500. Now he is said to use it without payment of any rental charge.

Yes - Rochester Is A Great City - For Republicans - Especially Contractors

Here is a bedtime story that may help some little sonny sleep better and more quickly.
But, it isn't likely to have the same effect on taxpayers — nor on Republican politicians who didn't suspect that anyone would so betray party machinations as to take a photograph of the accompanying scene.

"Who owns the paver, daddy?"
"The city of Rochester owns the paver, son."
"Who is running the paver daddy?"
"A private contractor son."
"Why, daddy?"
"Because the city loaned it to him, son."
"Does the private contractor pay rent on it, daddy?"
"Heaven forbid son, that would be against the rules."
"Then why do they let him borrow it, daddy?"
"Because the contractor is a nice fellow and a pal, son."

"But doesn't that make the taxpayer mad, daddy?"
"Shhh, son — the taxpayers are not supposed to know."
"Nice of the contractor not to ask the city to supply the men for nothing too, wasn't it daddy?"
"Yes indeed son, but I told you he was a nice contractor."
"Rochester is a great city — a Republican city — isn't it daddy?"
"That's what they tell us, son."

REAL SEALTEST CREAM — yum — yum — it solves many a desert problem in your home. Delivered by BRIGHTON PLACE DAIRY — my advice is to order it by the pint. It is more economical — as it will knock out a whole quart of cream in the refrigerator. It is available in the heavy or light. Both will whip. On cereals — whipped for desserts — or in just good old plain coffee, you'll notice the difference in the flavor of everything. At this time of year — try pumpkin pie heavily laden with "cocoa" whipped cream — flavored with vanilla. Ed Randall's Scene and Word

Here is probably the silliest story ever told about our Allies, the British people. This one concerns the American soldier who was billeted in a small English town and was out for a ride in a pony cart with the squire of the village, a typical retired British colonel. As they rode through the tree-bordered lanes, the GI noticed that every few feet the Englishman would take a pinch of powder out of a can and toss it behind the cart. Finally, his curiosity was aroused to the point where he inquired what the powder was and why it was being strewn on the road. "But, my dear chap," answered the Englishman, "this is lion powder. Used it all the time in Africa. Kills our scent, you know. No lions dared attack us because they didn't know we were in the neighborhood." "There are no lions in England, are there?" inquired the GI. "No," was the reply, "and a dashed good thing, too. This blawated powder's no good, anyhow."

Candidate Terms Teacher Salary 'Insult'

New hopes for a long sought salary increase were sighted this week by Rochester public school teachers in the promise of Earl Van Deusen, Democratic candidate for school commissioner to "back up the teachers 100 percent" in their fight for a living wage.

His promise came in answer to a letter from the Rochester Teachers Association, sent to all school commissioner candidates by Miss Mary Wintish, chairman of the association's salary committee. She asked for a reply "through the public press" this week.

Van Deusen, in his reply, termed the present salary schedule an "insult to the teachers" and a "cause for citizen concern and investigation."

The association's letter pointed out that, while the cost of living has risen 25 percent since 1941, teachers' salaries have been increased only seven percent. The letter recalled the additional funds received by the city through state aid during that period but said the local budget had been cut proportionately to "make a showing of saving in the local tax rate."

Van Deusen's letter promising support to the teachers follows:

Dear Miss Wintish, I believe that the teachers of Rochester are worth not alone more than they are receiving, but I further believe that regardless of what they were paid they could not and would not receive a fair return on the value of their effort to ward our future citizens.

I live on Seneca Pkwy. I happen to have an extremely high assessment. Yet I do not consider the infinitesimal saving which I will make through this "insult" to teachers of any value whatever.

Of course, I understand that under the present administration the teachers are always told "it is the wrong time to ask for an increase." But I also am told that when an increase is "reluctantly" accepted by a member of the over-paid "staff" on Fitzhugh St. it is not the "wrong time."

Yes, I am back of the teachers 100 percent for a living wage. I understand that because of their wages, they are one of the best sources of loans by the small loan agencies and the banks. I believe this is not alone an insult to the teachers, but it is a cause for citizen concern and investigation.

May I hope that through the vote on Nov. 6, we may have a change in these conditions and that we may be able to assist you in solving these regrettable conditions.

Earl Van Deusen

P. S. I am sending a copy of this letter to the Democrat and Chronicle and to the Rochester Sun. Can you guess which paper will give it publicity?

Letters To The Editor

Editor, The Sun.

Many union barbers resent the political propaganda to the effect the every union barber will turn out election day to work for FRANK NIGER business agent of the Barbers, for councilman on the Republican ticket. This is very much like an attempted intimidation by a labor leader and is not only not to the liking of most of the barbers but it does not give our leadership a good impression with the public generally. Many of our customers resent the fact we feel compelled to put pictures in our windows regardless of our voting intention.

We have many customers who criticize such partisan appearance it gives us. Mixing politics in such a one-sided way with our business is making hard feelings.

FRANK NIGER has much to account for in putting us in this hole and in turning his back on labor's central body the Central Trades and Labor Council, putting his private political advantage ahead of his obligation to labor organization interests.

The Republican politicians made pretty small potatoes of NIGER, ROGERS and MILLS in making them refuse labor endorsement. It is noteworthy that Supreme Court Justice Love as endorsed by the American Labor Party did not stoop to it.

Y. CAMPAIGNERS REPORT MONDAY

First reports on the progress of the 500 workers in the YMCA Membership Campaign will be heard next Monday night, according to George R. Farrier, general chairman.

Rallies of each of the six divisions held last week marked the opening of the drive for 5000 new members, the highest goal ever established.

Using the slogan, "ENJOY LIFE — THE Y'S WAY", campaign workers have been emphasizing the many opportunities available for social and recreational activity at each of the four YMCA Branches.

This year the campaign has an election motif, with each of the divisions seeking to elect its chairman as "Mayor of the Town". There will be parades, speeches, election bulletins, promotion stunts, and the point value of each membership turned in by a worker will be credited as a vote for his candidate.

Lawrence S. Callaghan is the candidate of the Carpet Bagger Party or Central "B" Division, John L. Tozier is the candidate of the Kodacrat Party or Kodak Division, Wilbur S. Shockley is the candidate of the Rang Party or Central "A" Division, Vernon E. Jones is the candidate of the Raw Dealers Party or Arnett Division, John W. Hewitt is the candidate of the Mugwumps Party or Maplewood Division and Kenneth C. Mook is the candidate of the Monroshevik Party or Monroe Division.

Reports will be heard on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of next week, and the final report will be on Monday, November 5th.

paings. It was then that Commander Stabbin exacted a promise to "look me up if you ever hit Rochester." Little did either realize then that the viceadmiral would so soon visit

Dr. Stabbin's home town.

"He's a grand fellow," said Stabbin yesterday. "They call him the fighting admiral in the Navy," he added, "but you'd never know it from talking with him personally. Modest to a degree, the admiral is liked by all the men under him, around him, and those who come in contact with him.

If you can draw him out, he's got a whole packet of battle tales to relate. He ought to have, too. He saw a whale of a lot of action as commander of a squadron in the South Pacific under Admiral Chester
W. Nimitz.

Giffen will be principal speaker at Saturday's affair.
He will discuss the topic, "The Future of the United States
Navy." He has won the Navy
Cross and two Distinguished Service Medals.

Another feature of the Navy Day celebration dinner will be the awarding of the third annual Good Citizenship Medal to Carl S. Hallauer by the Rochester Chapter, Sons of the American Revolution. The dinner is sponsored by the SAR, the Navy League, Milton Lewis Post of the American Legion and the Rochester Chamber of Commerce.

Hallauer, vicepresident of Bausch & Lomb Optical Company, was chosen to receive the award as a "responsive citizen who has built solidly for Rochester" and who has merited the "approval of all those with whom he has dealt."

Hallauer is identified with many civic organizations and has participated actively in the Republican Party.
He is the third outstanding citizen honored with the SAR medal since the award was inaugurated two years ago. Last year Edward G. Micer, Rochester industrialist and philanthropist, was the recipient and the previous year the honor went to Rep. James W. Wadsworth.

FOR A MALTEX BREAKFAST

The call to breakfast gets a speedy response, when Maltex Cereal is on the table. Its rich, hearty goodness, so delightfully different from any other hot cereal, has an irresistible appeal to most children.

Maltex—made of Wheat and Barley, Toasted Wheat and Malted Barley—tastes something like malt... and nuts... with an over-all, delicate sweetness. This sweetness, that adds so much to the appetite appeal of Maltex, is due to "natural" sugars developed in combining the two grains.

Maltex Cereal is nourishing and satisfying, with all the good food value found in wheat, yet it's light and easy to digest. And Maltex contains generous amounts of Vitamin B-1, naturally—not added.

Give your family the opportunity to enjoy this delicious cereal, and benefit from its wholesome goodness—get a package of Maltex, today.

Says Everybody Is Hypnotized
A strange method of mind and body control, that often leads to immense powers never before experienced, is announced by Edwin J. Dingle, well-known explorer and geographer. It is said to bring about almost unbelievable improvement in health. Others acquire superb bodily strength, secure better positions, turn failure into success. Often, with surprising speed, talents, ability and a more magnetic personality are developed.
The method was found in remote and mysterious Tibet, formerly a forbidden country, and often called the land of miracles in the astounding books written about it. Here, behind the highest mountains in the world, Mr. Dingle learned the extraordinary system he is now disclosing to the Western world.
He maintains that all of us are giants in strength and mind-power capable of sur-

We strongly suggest that all the people of Rochester who have war bonds make every effort to hold them, not to help the U. S. Treasury, but to benefit themselves. Monroe County Democratic Committee

POLKA . . .

They are depending on habit, short memory and the public's indifference to sneak in via the back door for another term. They are fighting the election battle with the only weapons they have left — a badly battered but nevertheless working organization, political promises and patronage and the firm conviction that the Republican party of Monroe County "can get away with anything."

We note in the current ambiguous advertising of the GOP that inferentially, Rochester's War Record was strictly something for which Mr. Broderick and his club can take all the credit. It is presumed that the Civilian Defense Corps, and Women Volunteers were all Republicans. Only Republicans contributed to the scrap drives (we might pause here to remark that only Republicans handled the proceeds of the scrap drives) and that the War Industries of Rochester had to ask the city to provide them with buildings or bog down. Now any war industry knows better than to ask a Rochester city father to provide him with buildings—they wouldn't be ready in time for World War IV.

Dansville Airport. (They had one before we did—or didn't they?)

With the cry of the Veterans Memorial Campaign still ringing in our ears (fortunately the cry is from business men and should therefore be heeded) it is reported that the county and city administrations are doing their share to help the veterans. In Walter Wicklin's department a veteran may have his discharge papers photostated for —(thought I was going to say free didn't you?)—seventy-five cents. Two of Rochester's progressive department stores have spent hundreds of dollars advertising the fact that they do the photostating for nothing.

Speaking of slot machines (and we know we shouldn't) we learned (under things-you'll-never-know-until-you-ask department) that they do have a certain legality in the eyes of the Federal government. Sufficient legality to warrant the annual imposition of a one hundred dollar federal tax on each machine. The tax year runs from July 1st each year. Hence, if you notice the machines in your club, cigar store, confectionary, restaurant, grocery store or meat market are screwed down to the point of utter penny come next May and June, you'll know the operators are getting ready to pay their taxes.

Our advice to all citizens is opportunity to better the spirit and take advantage of every dual.

Political Polka

- City Employees' Chance
- Kodak Subway Stop
- The Lone Lobo
- Long Hair Stuff

BY CURT GERLING

The people who have nothing to lose can win the election for the Democratic party. School teachers, firemen, policemen and small city jobholders, averaging two to two and a half votes on a family basis of computation, have it in their power to register their protest against the shabby treatment of the present administration and tip the scales in favor of the Democrats.

They have been told by the Republicans that they will receive no further consideration in the way of salaries and wages and they have received promises of consideration from the Democrats. And its a political promise quite apt to be kept. They can't lose anything by voting the Democratic ticket. And they're awfully foolish if they don't.

The recent Republican advertisement attempting to extol the step-child of the Transit company, i.e. the subway, caused a rise in temperatures and blood pressures in State St. Kodak offices. There are more than 9,000 employees (See POLKA Page 13)

$25 Winner

Mrs. A. C. Hertell of 73 Superior St., is the lucky winner of this week's $25 cash prize, offered by the Sun each week to its sustaining subscribers. This is the reward Mrs. Hertell gets for paying her Sun carrier, Richard Kling of 315 Epworth St., 8 cents. Dick, incidentally, collects an extra five dollars bonus.

Bond Drive Off To Flying Start

With three industrial firms already reported "over the top" Rochester's 50-million dollar Victory Loan Drive got off to a flying start this week.

Opening ceremonies at the war bond kiosk on Main St. Monday night drew an estimated crowd of 20,000 attracted to the site by the appearance of air ace Lt. Col. Francis S. Gabreski and the playing of massed high school bands.

First industrial plant in the nation to exceed its quota was Stromberg - Carlson Co, which reported 116 percent of its $175,000 quota already raised

UNION SETS STRIKE VOTE AT DELCO

Parent Union Asks Vote In Entire Electronics Industry

Word was received this week that the United Electrical Radio and Machine Workers of America, a CIO affiliate, is demanding a strike vote in the electronics industry, covering General Electric Co., General Motors and Westinghouse plants.

Frank Murray, president of Local No. 509 at the Delco plant of General Motors announced the demands of the parent union in reporting his participation in a negotiations meeting at Detroit between the union and General Motors.

According to Murray, the union demanded a two dollar per day increase but company representatives of the conference board suggested that the matter of wage increases was up to the government.

The union rejected a company proposal to grant the increase through raising the prices of its manufactured products. Union members of the board claimed the company should pay any increases out of its alleged huge margin of profit.

Charges Fly In City Vote Drive

VOTERS CHOICE—WHICH ROAD BY JAMES

'SAY NOTHING' REPUBLICANS IRK VOTERS

'Silence' Rule of Boss Broken Only By Minor GOP Candidates

Hurling restraint to the winds, political foes rolled up their sleeves, doffed gloves and went in for bare knuckle slugging as the current struggle to fill all ward supervisorships and a majority of the city council entered its final lap this week.

Next Tuesday it would be all over. Then it would be up to the voters to decide. But until then, both Republicans and Democrats looked for and planned heavy verbal slugging to sway voters toward their organizations.

Democrats Shell Foes

On the Democratic side, all candidates, from city council nominees to ward constables were throwing charges ranging from small side arms fire to heavy cannonading. Despite the heavy artillery thrown at them, Republicans limited their answers to mere squeaks from small-time candidates.

Even the non-partisan League of Women Voters had to admit failure in their at-Paver Pay Provides Problem - Who Gets Rent?

Last week the Rochester Sun revealed that contrary to rules and regulations, the city of Rochester has permitted free use of city equipment by private contractors. These disclosures elicited quick response from officials of the Holahan Construction Company which is using a city owned paver to install a parking lot and the Bond Clothing factory.

For my money — I'll take a MACHINE WAVE every time. — And I think there are loads of women like me — well, almost like me. VIRGINIA'S BEAUTY SALON is offering you a SPECIAL — and it is a REAL SPECIAL. A BONAT MACHINE LIPOIL CREME WAVE — for $7.50 — regularly $10.50. Virginia told me that every curl is steamed in a bath of oil — and to my way of thinking — herein lies the beauty of a permanent. Don't you agree? This BONAT MACHINE LIPOIL CREME WAVE is for a limited time only. So make your appointment now. Call Stone 346 — VIRGINIA'S BEAUTY SALON Present High. Opposite Hotel Seneca. Ask Virginia about a new hair-do.

LOOK Have you called LUCILLE WELD yet about that MINIATURE SCENE for your table when you entertain. If you haven't you're missing the chance to be called the hostess with the unique ideas. As I have told you MRS. WELD designs and makes MINIATURE SCENES for birthdays, showers, anniversaries, Thanksgiving, etc. They may be rented for the small sum of $5 up. — RETAIL STORES are also invited to rent them. CORDE BAGS also made to order for Christmas. There's nothing more fun to buy than FUR — NATURE FOR A NEW HEIR. And no better place to buy it than EDWARDS THE FOLDING BABY CARRIAGE selling for $36.98 — a carriage design baby's complete comfort. a "WHITNEY". You must know by now that this name assures you of masterful craftsmanship combined with such features as Steer-o-matic wheels, a storm shield and sun visor. The TRIPLE FEATURE SAFETY CHIB sells for $39.92 is also a knock-out. A "Kroll" crib is not only a snug restful baby-bed, but also has an adjustable spring which can be lifted for additional comfort and an extra junior youth side which enables the growing youngster to climb in and out with safety. Another must is a WATERPROOF MATTRESS sells for $10.25. For your LITTLE BIG SHOT — another item is a sturdy decorative high-chair balanced to prevent tipping. Comfortable back-overhead tray — adjustable foot-rest. Maple and wax birch. This high-chair sells for $87.75. Here are two items I simply MUST tell you about. A TUXEDO PREPARED shortie coat — priced at $79 — NO TAX. It is sporty — and as versatile as can be. Silver-blue muskrat adds the beauty of star-light to the traditional style craftsmanship and quality of Furstmann virgin wool. Your choice of brown or black. Sizes 10 to 18. The next item is a LUXURIOUS PERSIAN LAMB — priced at $488 plus tax. This aristocrat of furs for discriminating women is lovely. Soft lustrous curly black pelts deftly manipulated to make it the coat of your dreams. Wide turn back cuffs and tuxedo closing. Beautiful linings. A coat to wear and enjoy. Women's and Misses EDWARDS FUR SALON. Third Floor.

What is smarter and more becoming than a BLACK FUR FEEL HAT. At CARTER HAT SHOP you'll find a selection of these kinds of hats — that are beautiful. Highly styled — of superb quality — designed to give loads of wear — and modestly priced. CARTER'S also have their GAGE LINE to show. Matrons and Teen-Age hats — the Teen-Age priced at $3. The regular "line" of hats start at $3.95. JEWELRY is also smart at this popular shop. Priced $1 and up. For instance SLAVE BRACELETS — adorable $1 and $2. BAGS are also "in" to add that zip to your winter clothes. Well — what more do you want? It's Mrs. Carter every time — when it comes to selecting the JEWELRY — BAGS — and last but not least HATS — 636 MONROE AVE. — Open Eve. PS. Ask about the new SCARF SNOODS. Fashioned with elastic to hug the head — they are practical as well as smart. Nice and comfy. Gay Colors $3.

I think it's wonderful the way HOME SERVICE at R. G. & E. anticipates the needs of women. Now they are giving a series of demonstrations for the new housewife. And believe me — there isn't another woman in the world who needs more sympathy and guidance than the new cook. When I was new at it — I was burnt up to my elbows — simply because I was bent on trying complicated dishes — and trying to get them all cooked at the same time. In the Basement of R. G. & E. 89 East Ave. — these demonstrations are being held every Wednesday at "2 P.M. and 7:30 P.M." Menus are simple — the dates are November 7-14-28. Plan to attend. — HOME SERVICE, 89 East Ave.

The unexpected guest is made welcome with a quickly prepared tray of seasonal cheer surrounded with crackers and pretzel sticks, and decorated with olives and celery. — New with a drink.

Flake boneless sardines (the kind that's put up in tomato sauce) and mix with equal parts of cream cheese and softened butter. Season with lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce. Serve on white toast.

That indispensable little black crepe is done with molded top and wide sleeves. Its only decoration are some rows of stitched bands. Boasts that new front fullness in skirt.

After knocking yourself out during the war — to think (up a dessert without the aid of REAL SEALTEST CREAM — it's like heaven to have it always in the refrigerator. Last Sunday — I was lazy — I hadn't planned a dessert — but when dinner was almost ready — I stuck a few apples in the oven topped with sugar and cinnamon baked them — and poured REAL SEALTEST CREAM over them while still hot. My "old man" and Son loved them. They really were a party dessert — without the REAL SEALTEST CREAM — they would have just been baked apples. Of course you know by now that BRIGHTON PLACE DAIRY is delivering REAL SEALTEST CREAM in light or heavy right to your door. The pint size is the most economical — and will keep with a little added care. Call BRIGHTON PLACE DAIRY today — Glenwood 144 — 45 FULTON AVE. (Division of General Ice Cream).

It's convenient — it's quiet — it's staffed by gentlewomen — it's stocked with the newest and the best of frocks — what am I talking about — RIPTON DRESSES of course. — When you shop RIPTON'S — you aren't just another customer that happened "in". You are treated as an individual who knows her own mind — whose wishes are taken into consideration. The staff has one object in mind — to make a permanent customer of you. They must succeed "cause their "trade" is outstanding. RIPTON DRESSES have regulars and juniors — WOMEN'S DRESSES — all starting at the modest price of $8.95 and up. Located 739 MONROE AVE. Open Eve.

So your becoming an EXPANDABLE. — It's pretty disconcerting if you're not properly prepared. At the "600" SHOP SENIORITY DRESSES are a special pet. New arrivals daily. Prices start at $1.95 — About three frocks will "see you through". For instance a dressy black with side drape with flattering neckline to hold the eye. Then a basic dress for afternoons etc. Then a casual for marketing wearing at home. At this modest price, you can afford this kind of wardrobe for those trying months. Of course the "600" SHOP stocks regular and junior frocks also starting at $3.95. — (Moress sponsored as you must know). Located corner Monroe & Canterbury. Open Eve.

LLOYD'S FLOWERS are beautiful at this season of the year. Sick rooms, the rooms of shut-ins really take on a pleasant atmosphere when fall flowers adorn the room. Especially flowers from LLOYD'S. At this popular shop, your wishes and pocketbook are taken into consideration. Funeral work is an item given lots of thought at LLOYD'S. A simple call — telling Mr. Lloyd Higbie how much you want to spend — and presto — your flowers are delivered promptly — and you'll be proud to have your name attached to the card. Two stores for your convenience. POWERS HOTEL — REYNOLDS ARCADE. LLOYD'S LEAD AGAIN — Main 7689.

Helmet Hoods, inspired by the romantic era of knighthood, crusade again to bring a new note of elegance for festive but chilly winter evenings. The huggled-to-the-head silhouette can be demure or dashing as CBS actress Mary Patton proves with her black jersey replica of the historic hood. A d d bright clips to match dress ornamentation or give splendor with annual heirloom pieces to bring out the traditional significance of the helmet. The style has had various interpretations by top-flight milliners. John Fredericks designs a sophisticated hood of scarlet tweed with a voluminous shoulder cape held in place by heavy gold metallic cord. Another model is a sauntily black velvet, smoothly fitted and trimmed with ruffles of taupe Chantilly lace above the brow and around the edge of a brief shoulder cape. Lilly Dache makes a fitted gray velvet, the hood of which is elaborately embroidered with multicolor bulge beads, sequins and pearls; she adds full scarf and that may be draped about the neck for added warmth. Laddie Northridge glamorizes his special design of black velvet with a snowy white fox

Neglected small fry have at long last been considered in the general fashion scheme. Heretofore, youngsters in the two to six year group have been dressed in the haphazard method of being by age with no regard for general variations in size. Now comes a plan called "W-H-W" to provide better fitting garments. The letters mean "waist, height and weight," and little ladies and gentlemen will have these small matters considered in each age range.

Elephant Romance Blossoms In Circus Herd

"Big Myrtle," largest of the herd coming with the 1945 Shrine Victory Circus, slated for the East Main Street Armory for one week starting Monday, November 12, is rated by her trainer as the most intelligent pachyderm in the country. Like all females she is romantic. The object of her attentions currently is "Snuffy," smallest of the herd, who just seems to take the matter in stride.

"It is not material affection or platonic friendship," says MacDonald, "It's pure romance."

The elephant act is presented by petite Mabel McDonald, daughter of the trainer. "Big Myrtle" is, of course, the star performer. It is claimed some of her equilibristic feats are nothing short of sensational.

The Shrine Show will run for six nights and six matinees, with evening performances starting at 8:15 and the matinees at 2 o'clock. All seats will be reserved and reservations may be made on and after Monday at the James E. Field Store, 338 Main St. E.

NEW UNIT OPENED BY NATIONAL SHOE CONCERN

One of the first postwar changes in the downtown retailing picture took place this week with the opening of the Schiff Shoe Store at 30 Clinton Ave. N.

Known throughout the nation, the Schiff organization brings to Rochester its many lines of nationally advertised shoes for men, women and children. Rubbers, house slippers, hosiery and bags are also offered by the company. The unit is under the direction of Meyer After, district manager for the company.

Extensive alterations have been made in the building housing the shoe company which is situated next door to the Clinton Ave. entrance of Sibley, Lindsay & Curr Co.

Included in the lines which are said to be exclusively offered at Schiff's are Jack Cunningham for men, Madison Square for boys, Polyanna Health shoes for misses, children and infants, Fashionbilt Arch, Fashion Poise and Life Guard Arch shoes for women.

Some Congressmen profess to believe that the way to make the people rich is to remit taxes to corporate industry.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, Rochester Sun:

We, members of the Police and Fire Bureaus know that we have some ward leader to thank for our positions, but by the same token, over a period of several years, we individually have paid for our positions by contributing each year, or have been the victims of "small touches" by our ward leaders. We have observed that Mr. Cartwright's "budget" calls for a reduction of a measly 27 cents per thousand on real estate. No doubt the realtors board will give Mr. Cartwright a vote of thanks but we won't.

We took our positions because they appealed to our sense of intrigue — we were young and had no family responsibilities. Certainly every taxpayer realizes the hazardous duties which we perform every day. According to the FBI crime will be more than doubled in the coming years, making our positions much more dangerous. While the major industries are raising their employees 15 percent for a 40-hour week in order to cope with the high cost of food, etc., we are obliged to work 58½ hours a week before we even have a Sunday off.

When our clothing becomes frayed, we are ordered to purchase new suits and overcoats regardless of whether or not we have an emergency doctor bill to meet. "Rochester's finest" are supposed to look their finest even though it empties their pocketbooks to the last penny.

Here is a list of what a policeman has to pay out for clothing:
Summer hat, $3.50.
Summer uniform, approx. $40.
Fall coat, $42.
Winter trousers, $20.
Winter overcoat, $70.
Raincoat, $10.

If one of us can slip his foot into a 4½AAA shoe he can settle for five dollars. Otherwise his shoes cost $12 per pair.

From the above standpoint, why should Rochester's firemen and policemen be the "forgotten men?" Think it over, Mr. Broderick. Labor is on the move. Mr. Churchill woke up one morning and found that out.

Rochester's papers are already getting their headlines ready for the morning after

Editor, Rochester Sun,

election, "CARTWRIGHT OUT — DEMOCRATS IN."

A Member of the Bureau.

Editor, Rochester Sun,

My letter today is in connection with a political advertisement which appeared in the local press entitled RECREATION Embodied therein are quotations from the Republican "Statement of Principles," viz: "To the national fame attained by the Rochester Park System established and developed over years by succeeding Republican Administrations, there has been added an expanded recreational program." I wonder whether the Republicans purposely forgot to remember the recreational facilities constructed in Rochester and Monroe County Parks by the W. P. A. under Democratic Administration. To refresh one's memory I cite a few for consideration: Band Shells in Highland and Ontario Beach Parks; Ski Jumps and Toboggan Slide in Ellison and Powder Mills Parks; Swimming Pools, Tennis Courts, Fire Places, Comfort Stations, Bridges, Roads, Trails in City and County Parks. It is difficult to evaluate the worth of these facilities for recreational purposes without delving into statistics, but it is possible that no other area throughout the nation may be able to duplicate this record of achievement, made possible by federal aid. Despite this fact we read press editorials that such aid is expensive and undesirable.

The City of Buffalo welcomed the federal funds procured through the efforts of U. S. Senator James M. Mead (Democrat) to help build the popular stadium in that great metropolis.

Edward A. Jones.

Editor, Rochester Sun,

I am glad your paper has exposed the shameful conduct of Frank Nizer who allowed Boss Broderick to make a disloyal stooge out of him in politics. It is not enough that he should call himself a Republican when it is notorious that the Republican party is always the agent of anti-labor forces in industry. He makes his living as a representative of labor, but when a political job is dangled before his eyes by a shrewd political boss, he jumps at it. The only purpose is to make a division in labor's own political party.

I don't think all this political shiftiness is helping the prestige of our Italian-American community. I recall Joseph Guzzetta deserting the good government non-partisan movement; Paul Muscarella, after drawing thousands of dollars in a fat Democratic job, jumping on Dewey's bandwagon; Mike Rogers, another ingrate who solicited labor endorsement to get into office and now, at the crack of the boss's whip spurs any trucking with labor. His action, along with that of Gregory Mills is simply to bolster up Nizer in an effort to split the labor vote which the machine has learned is a balance of power to be feared.

The Republicans are lying mighty low in their campaign, relying on trickery to fool the people. We can't let them get away with it.

Couple To Be Feted On Golden Wedding Date

Dinners tonight and Saturday will mark the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. James McKinlay, Sr., 77 Michigan St.

Married in Perth, Scotland in 1895, the McKinlays came to the United States in 1907 to visit relatives in Chattanooga, Tenn. Visiting Rochester before returning to their homeland, the McKinlays decided to settle and have raised a family of four children here.

Employed by the A. Friederich & Sons Co., McKinlay's chief outside interest is in soccer football. For more than 28 years he was president of the Northwestern New York State Football Association and is at present a council member of the U. S. Football Association, the governing body for the game in this country. McKinlay is a member of Clan MacNaughton, Order of Scottish Clans, and a member of Damascus Temple. Mrs. McKinlay has been an active member of Lady MacNaughton Lodge, Daughters of Scotia and is a past chief daughter of the group. She is also a past president of the Frank L. Simes Post Auxiliary, American Legion.

Tonight's fete will be a private family affair at home. On Saturday the family will be hosts at a dinner and reception in Bauman & Baynes Hall on Driving Park Ave. Guests are expected from Chattanooga, Niagara Falls, Buffalo and Toronto.

Three of their four children are residents of Rochester. They are James, Jr., 51 Florence Ave.; Mrs. Catherine MacPhail, 9 Florence Ave.; and Mrs. Ann Graham, 81 Castleford Rd. Another son, Samuel, resides in Chicago.

TOWNSEND GROUP OPENS NEW QUARTERS MONDAY

Moving Day for members of Townsend Temple Club No. 2 will take place next Monday when the group meets at 708 University Ave., for its first session at that address. Installation of new officers and a guest speaker from regional district headquarters are on the program.

THIS CITY OFFICIAL'S CHICKENS DON'T HAVE TO GO HOME TO ROOST — They stay right on city-owned and operated property at the Seneca Park Zoo. Discovered by The Sun photographer this week in a loft of the Parks Department barn, upwards of 75 chickens said to be owned by Frank Widmer, politically appointed zoo foreman, were contentedly munching their city-purchased feed. Who gets the eggs was not determined, but it is presumed that the Widmer table will not lack for poultry this winter. Once before the recipient of Republican generosity (for members of its own ruling clique) Widmer received much unwanted publicity several years ago when pictures of a driveway installed free by the city at his home on Saranac St. were published in the newspapers. After the publicity revealed how far the Republican bosses had gone in taking care of themselves, Widmer and three or four other recipients of driveways were forced to pay the city for the work. Whether or not he will be forced to pay the city for feed consumed by his chickens and rental for space occupied by the brood as a result of this exposure by The Sun remains to be seen, but, one fact is evident — Republican politicians still consider taxpayers' money as chicken feed!

Even if we never expect another war the nation might as well keep its defense forces ready for possibilities.

There are many people in the land who refuse to believe that when a gentleman violated a law he becomes a criminal.

MISSIONARIES FROM WAR ZONE TO SPEAK HERE

A two-way missionary conference will be held in Brighton Community Church, Winton Rd., and the North Baptist Church, Clinton Ave., simultaneously, tomorrow through Sunday. Missionary speakers will be interchanged between the two churches.

Among the speakers are three from Rochester: The Rev. and Mrs. Robert Kohler, members of North Baptist Church, and Miss Louise Lynch of Brighton Community Church. All three served on the Island of Mindanao in the Philippines. Never caught by the Japs, they were able to hide in the mountains until they escaped on a submarine.

Other speakers at the conference will include the Rev. Paul Friederichsen, who with his family were interned for a year in the Iloilo internment camp and then at Santo Tomas; Mrs. John Hamilton who was interned in the Santo Tomas camp; the Rev. Victor Barnett, a missionary to China for the last 20 years who was interned in his own home with his wife and child until 1943 when they were able to escape through free China; and the Rev. Don Moffat, deputation director of the Association of Baptists for World Evangelism, and a missionary to Brazil in the Amazon River valley.

About this time of the year we usually call attention to the fact that forward-looking children know how many weeks it is until Christmas.

WORKING MEN AND WOMEN,—

WHY

DID THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES REJECT A. F. of L. ENDORSEMENT

We are convinced that, in rejecting Labor's endorsement, Messrs. Niger, Mills, and Rogers and the Republican bosses have made it crystal-clear that organized labor has no voice nor place in today's Monroe County Republican Party!

It is apparent to us that even Labor men have been forced to abide by the dictates of the Republican Party Machine!

Therefore, we urge working men and women to uphold Labor's principles and Labor's independence by decisively defeating Niger, Mills and Rogers.

Be loyal to those who are loyal to you,---

Liquor Wholesalers To Aid Legion Rehabilitation Fund

for its rehabilitation efforts on behalf of returning veterans, Arthur J. O'Neill, of the Seagram Distillers Corp. was chief speaker at a meeting in Syracuse last week called by the Upstate New York Wholesale Liquor Dealers Association to formulate plans for collecting contributions to the Legion's Rehabilitation Fund.

O'Neill announced that the liquor industry's collection campaign for the Legion fund will run from Nov. 1 to Nov. 11 and will cover all distillers, wholesalers, retailers and taverns in the state.

Urging members of the group to get behind the drive with all their energy, O'Neill said that the Legion's rehabilitation service has been "the veteran's prime representative" in the various steps required to properly institute and expedite the rights and benefits due returning veterans. "It is imperative," he said, "that all civilians get behind this campaign."

Ed Randall's Scene and Word

Two Rochester sportsmen decided to visit the Batavia Races one night last summer. Arriving early, they decided to make an inspection of the stables before the races began. All they knew about horses was that they ran and that people could bet on them. Therefore, they were quite amazed to hear one experienced horseman tell his companion that the horse at which the two tyros was looking was worth six hundred dollars. The two gamblers looked at each other in surprise and one of them said to the other: "That's silly. How could a horse save that much money?"

In the Seneca Hotel lobby the other day, one of the bill-boys was circulating around with a message in his hand, calling "Mr. Muestronantz. Call for Mr. Muestronantz." Finally a chap sitting at the extreme edge of the circle of chairs rose and asked: "What initials please?"

Time is stiff between pay-days.

Once upon a time, long, long ago, a missionary journeyed to a far distant South Sea isle in an effort to convert the natives.

Ward Candidate Pushes Vote Drive

Not content with visiting ward voters personally, Maxwell Posner, Democratic candidate for supervisor of the 21st ward, is conducting a vigorous direct mail campaign for the county post. As a reminder to voters, Posner has backed up his oral campaigning with definite written promises to devote "all necessary time" to the interests of 21st ward residents. He cites his ability and willingness to work for the ward's interests as an inducement to voters.

Inside Hollywood

The scarcity of good non-war story material explains, to some extent, the six-figure prices being paid by film companies for novels reaching, or destined for, the best-seller lists. Notable are the current "Cass Timberlane," bought by MGM, "Captain from Castile," (Fox), "A Lion Is In The Streets" (Cagney), and "The Black Rose" (Fox).

Some twenty-one years ago, Corinne Griffith and the late Conway Tearle appeared in "Black Oxen." Remember the film? Now, Adela Rogers St. John is writing an adaptation of the novel for the screen and MGM would like to get Greta Garbo to make her return to the screen in it. Whether Greta can be persuaded remains to be seen.

Little Margaret O'Brien, is to have three of the screen's greatest character actors, Lionel Barrymore, Frank Morgan and Lewis Stone, in her next picture, Austin Strong's memorable story, "Three Wise Folks."

Don Dreyer, who has played a succession of villain roles in films, is to have a chance to prove that he isn't all villain. He's been assigned the romantic lead in RKO's forthcoming "Come On Along." His part is to be that of The Calico Kid, described as a Robin Hood-type of Western bandit. As you might suspect, it's to be a musical.

Gracie Fields, British screen and stage actress, who recently announced her retirement, is keeping a diary which she plans to turn into a book, with the title, "One Ham Coming Up."

While working on "Some Must Watch," Dorothy McGuire saw a script of "They Dream of Home," liked it, went straight to Producer Dore Schary, asked for a part in it and got it. That's the way to go places.

The romantic leads in "Third Avenue," a Paramount film to feature Barry Fitzgerald, have been assigned to Sonny Tufts and Diana Lynn. The picture, to be based on a series of sketches of characters living on New York's Third Avenue by John McNulty is in production.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

Sunday we watched dawn struggle through cold night clouds as we sat in a Sodus bay duck blind. A fine rain seeping through the rushed roof oozed down our neck and the frosty boards of a decoy crate pinched our posterior. Curled and dozing in another corner was a burly hunting companion of the past twenty years. Don Warren, a Republican by nature and employment, was mulling hazily over last night's pinocle hands and no doubt devising ways, like all good G.O.P., or deducting the previous night's losses from his 1945 income tax.

We were both silent, peering through half closed eyes for swinging ducks that might be attracted to our decoys riding life-like on swells stirred by an early morning wind. Far above and well out of range were some hundred circling, cacophonous geese. As hunters, we knew what the disturbance and uncertainty of these fowl was all about. We'd seen it many times before. They were having their daily election.

They grouped into flocks of ten, thirty, forty and smaller numbers, honking and swinging into, then away from, other geese. Trying to choose a leader for the further flight to the south, they would gather together for a few moments, seemingly ready, only to disintegrate into small bands to circle and scream their protests once more.

These fowl in floundering flight seemed so like the citizenry of any community before an election-indecisive, uncertain followers. What issues are raised among the feathered migrants man has no way of knowing but it is not too improbable that issues and records of each leader-candidate are discussed, and the opinions (See POLKA Page 9)

$25 Winner 14TH WARD WOMEN REPUBLICANS MEET

Mrs. Fred Larson of 343 Marion St., is the lucky winner of this week's $25 cash prize, offered by The Sun each week to its sustaining subscribers. This is the reward Mrs. Larson gets for paying her Sun carrier, Ralph Schwartz of 876 Atlantic Ave., 10 cents. Ralph incidentally collects an extra five dollars bonus.

Each week The Sun conducts a drawing and pays the winner $25. Names of all sustaining subscribers for the current month are entered in the drawing.

A meeting of the 14th Ward Women's Republican club will be held next Tuesday at 8:30 p. m. in Erie Social Hall on Clinton Ave. S. at Meigs St. Mrs. Isaac Russell will preside.

At a social hour to follow the business session, Mrs. Thomas Bahringer and her committee will act as hostesses.

DECEMBER FORGOTTEN AS GOP WINS

Tradition Outweighs Storm Memories In Voter's Choices

With the votes in Tuesday's election in and tabulated, the results announced, and the excuses of losers, as well as the weighty words of the winners now part of the record, all that was left for political wisecracks to do this weekend was to "analyze" the vote.

One fact emerged crystal clear. In approximately 54 percent of city voters' minds, tradition was stronger than the memory of last December. Voters who took oaths late last year and early in 1945 to "throw them bums out of office" suffered severe qualms of conscience when they were finally left alone with their thoughts inside voting booths. Grandfather had always voted Republican, and so had dad. How could the regular party voter throw over the traces and fly in the face of tradition to pull down levers along the star-studded Democratic row? The answer was that 54 percent of them couldn't.

Sweden Sets Pace
Indications of the voting trend were seen in the nearby town of Sweden where voters (See ELECTION Page 9)

HE KNOWS WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT — S. J. Chas. Palumbo, former East High School student and now stationed at the Naval Air Training Station at Pensacola, Fla., urges his former classmates to buy bonds and stamps to overflow the school's Victory Loan Fund chest. Here he stops at the bond selling booth to purchase stamps from Miss Janet Schmittner, school chairman for the drive. Helping her with the sale is Donald McKie, faculty adviser to the bond sellers. Palumbo is surrounded by former classmates.

SURRENDER TRAIN DUE ON NOV. 29

Documents of German and Japanese Officials To Be Exhibited

The Rochester Victory Loan drive gets into full swing this week-end.

Tomorrow evening, Friday, the Combat Infantry Band will render its anxiously awaited concert at Eastman Theatre. Tickets are yet available to industry's Victory Loan leaders at drive headquarters, an American Legion committee, under Charles Ralinger, will entertain the musicians at a Dutch supper at the 40 & 8 University Avenue club rooms after the concert.

The big news of the week was the announcement of the coming on Thursday, November 29, from 8 a. m. to 2 p. m., of the No. 1 Victory Bond Special at the New York Central station.

The train is one of six which will tour forty states to promote Victory Loan drives.

The original Japanese and German surrender documents—papers that signify the final victory for the world's peace-loving nations—will be on display.

The documents, in a setting of Army equipment for airborne, infantry, engineer and medical troops, as well as captured enemy weapons, may be seen free. The display is designed to rally support for the Victory Loan drive.

There, under cover of glass and guarded by secret service men are:

The signature of Emperor Hirohito on his receipt which starts: "Accepting the terms set forth..."

Of Tomoyuki Yamashita, General, Imperial Japanese Army, Highest Commander, Imperial Japanese Army in the Philippines, now on trial in Manila for war crimes.

Credentials From Hirohito
The credentials for Yoshijiro Umezo, Chief of Staff, and Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu, from the Emperor, which start: "Hirohito by the Grace of Heaven, Emperor of Japan, seated on a throne occupied by the same dynasty unchanged through the ages eternal..." (See TRAIN Page 3-A)

Shrine Circus Signs High Wire Artist

Announcement was made yesterday by Potentate Culver A. Barr that arrangements have finally been completed to bring one of the most daring aerial acts known to the circus world to perform in this year's annual "big show" which opens at New York State Armory next Monday.

Other aerial acts with the Shrine Circus include the Flying Valentines, the Great Aerial Ballet, Bob Eugene and his comedy aerial acrobats and the Valencia Trio, head balancing on the trapeze.

Marking his first appearance before a Rochester audience, the great Con Colleano will perform his feats of daring on a light wire stretched some eighty feet above the floor. In an exhibition of perfect balance, without the aid of a balancing pole, usually employed in such acts, Mr. Colleano performs the dangerous trip across the wire several times during his breath-taking act. The entire act is executed without the aid of a safety net.

Complications in booking Mr. Colleano's act for Rochester arose when the circus with which he is now traveling in the South, planned to extend its itinerary. However, the famous wire acrobat was released as fulfilling his contract, which will enable him to reach this city for the week of the Shrine show.

Matinee performances will start at 2 o'clock and evening show at 8:15. Doors will open at 1 and 7 o'clock. All seats will be reserved and tickets may be obtained at the Shrine ticket office, 338 Main Street East in the James E. Field store.

JUST LIKE CHRISTMAS — Additional pay totaling approximately $25,000 was distributed this week to 150 maintenance workers at the Delco plant of General Motors. Individual checks averaging $150 each were given workers as the result of a War Labor Board order awarding them an increase of five cents per hour retroactive to Oct. 4, 1944. They are represented by Local 509, United Electrical and Machine Workers of America, a CIO affiliate.

KAY'S COMMENTS by kay shearer

ALICE A trip to ALICE DRESS SHOP will convince you — that these "things" I've been telling you about this shop are really true. It is fast making and keeping new friends and customers. And why not — it is well-stocked with fresh merchandise. Carefully selected at the source — these clothes are what all well-dressed demand. Plenty of color — if you are so inclined — also the beloved blacks — browns and greens so popular in the autumn. Prices start at $8.95 and up. Drop into this shop and mention this column. It will be appreciated. ALICE DRESS SHOP — 636 MONROE corner Wilner St. Open Eve.

CARTER'S There's NOTHING like a SMART BAG to complement your winter costume. At CARTER HAT SHOP a new shipment will take care of the wants of everyone. First on the list are the NEW CORDAYS. You know what this name means and long life — beauty — quality — on a label — Priced at $12.95 and up — I dare to match this value. Next are the SATIN EVENING BAGS in black only — with winking black sequins — they are adorable. The PLASTIC LEATHER — Mrs. Carter will guarantee. They are adorned with a Mock "Frolic" Shell frame. Priced $10.95 and up — these are also an unusual value in my way of thinking. The JUNIOR MISS — of genuine leather — with nail-head trim is priced with newness. Very very nice. Of course don't forget CARTER'S first love are HATS — HATS and more HATS. Priced $3.95 and up — also the best GAGE LINE JEWELRY is also there for your inspection, priced $1 and up. CARTER HAT SHOP — 636 MONROE AVE. Open Eve.

LLOYD'S Remember your hostess — on THANKSGIVING. It is a nice gesture — and one she won't forget in a hurry. Send a piece of flowers for her table — or a grouped piece for the living room. There isn't any other time of the year — that flowers are so beautiful — and so much appreciated. Of course LLOYD'S FLORIST — you must know by now — is your best bet, when it comes to VALUE. You get just what you expect — no disappointments — delivery is prompt — and all you have to do — is pick up your telephone and call MAIN 7698 — and MR. LLOYD HIGBIE will "send to" your wants. Or if you would rather drop in — do so — to POWERS HOTEL — or REYNOLDS ARCADE — LLOYD'S LEAD AGAIN.

Have you called VIRGINIA — to make your appointment — for your permanent. Dates are starting to "pile up" — Virginia says — so my advice is to make your appointment TODAY. Here is what VIRGINIA is offering. A BONAT MACHINE LIFE-OIL, CREME WAVE — for $7.50. This wave regularly $10.50. As I said last week — I think — that a MACHINE WAVE is the only kind of permanent. This particular Bonat Lifeoil wave — has every curl steamed in a bath of oil. That's the answer to a soft manageable wave, don't you agree? This offer is for a limited time only. Call Stone 346, VIRGINIA'S BEAUTY SALON — Present Bldg. — Fourth Floor — Directly opposite HOTEL SENECA.

Smooth traveling in best — dressed circles in a RIPTON DRESS. Figure flattering in all colors — all sizes — all styles. Carefully selected after a back breaking job in the "markets". Prices start at $8.95. WOMEN'S DRESSES are a particular pet with this popular shop. Cut to flatter the larger figure — with becoming necklines — and good looking trim. These also start at the modest price of $8.95. Why don't you make your headquarters RIPTON DRESSES — when you are shopping for "clothes". If you do you'll acquire the RIPTON habit — and a darn good one — I'll say — and you'll agree when your friends admire your clothes. RIPTON DRESSES — 739 MONROE AVE. — Open Eve.

A suit that will shine brightly under soft lights. Black hula beads, very bright, form a geometric pattern across the halter front that tops a slender high-waisted skirt in matching black wool.

Cuba sugar returns to civilian tables as government war purchases are slashed in half. First allotments go to hotels and restaurants but already limited supplies appear on the grocer's shelves.

Young wives just beginning to cook and keep house and even the more experienced housewife who has been devoting much time to the war work will be interested alike in seeing the newest, easiest ways to assure good meals for the family. If you've never baked a pie or planned a meal or if you think making rolls is a task for an experienced cook only, HOME SERVICE — at R G & E — invite you to attend their demonstrations — each WEDNESDAY afternoon at 2 P. M. and each WEDNESDAY evening at 7:30 P. M. Plan to attend and if you are unable to — call or write and the recipes will be mailed to you promptly. Courtesy of R G & E — HOME SERVICE, 89 East Ave.

Wool jerseys cross-proof even after a days travel is dressed up for after dark with a splatter of sequins over the modified turt. Under lacy drape — it is available in royal blue, shocking, Kelly green and black.

I hope someone I know will read this and buy one for Christmas. The next item is the TWO COMPARTMENT MAGAZINE RACK. All wood and particularly well — constructed. Practical, decorative and sturdy. Compartments are large enough to hold many magazines neatly. Sells for $3.98. BRIGHT GAY FANCY PILLOWS. Plump pillows with unusual floral design and myriad colors. The bereaved husband, not wishing to be parted from his spouse even in death, had her remains cremated. The ashes were placed in a beautiful urn which the husband kept on a shelf above the fireplace in his living room. As time went on, heedless friends fell into the habit of leaning on the shelf before the comfortable fire and flicking their cigar ashes into the urn. WHEC Looks At -

The PAST With AMUSEMENT - -

Amusing in the light of present progress, but highly creditable for pioneering courage, were WHEC's early struggles. On January 1, 1925, a few crude amateur radio sets—many of them still requiring earphones, but some equipped with horn-shaped speakers—picked up for the first time the now-famous call-letters: "WHEC"!

The PRESENT With PRIDE - - -

Today—only 21 years since those first faltering steps — WHEC has become a powerful force in Western New York's cultural, educational life, a sturdy supporter of every project aimed toward the public good, a dependable source of fine entertainment!—During the war, WHEC reached new peaks of service: — brought you news reports from every zone of action, — energetically backed all patriotic campaigns,—provided outstandingly excellent entertainment for the relaxation of war-harassed minds!

The FUTURE With CONFIDENCE -

The future's possibilities are limitless! — Frequency Modulation is here. (Most new radios are "F.M." equipped). — Television is surely on its way.—And, as the whole picture of broadcasting expands and flowers, WHEC will continue — then as now — out in front!

NO. 24 SCHOOL PTA TO STAGE 'OPEN HOUSE'

In keeping with the aims of American Education Week, the PTA of 24 School will hold an "Open House" for parents and friends at the school next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. All classrooms will be open and the teachers will be on hand to welcome visitors and answer questions pertaining to their pupils' progress and welfare.

Mrs. Kate Cox Goddard, well-known Rochester writer of juvenile stories and poems will speak on "Children's Books."

Mrs. Howard Clavin's committee will provide refreshments, with teachers of the school acting hostesses during the social hour.

ATOM SMASHER TO LECTURE ON RADAR HERE

The Rochester Museum Association will present Lee A. DuBridge as its second speaker on the 1945-46 lecture season free to the public in the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences.

Dr. DuBridge will speak next Monday at 8:15 p. m. on the subject, "Radar in War and in Peace." The lecture is to be illustrated with lantern slides.

Dr. DuBridge, well known to Rochesterians as head of the physics department and dean of the faculty at the University of Rochester, played a key role in the development of both radar and the atomic bomb. Since Nov. 11, 1942, he has been on leave from the U. of R. to head the Radiation Laboratory at Massachusetts Institute of Technology, under contract with the Office of Scientific Research and Development.

Dr. DuBridge was instrumental in the planning and construction of the huge cyclotron which was built on the River Campus in 1935. One of the largest in the country, this atom-smashing machine was used here for experiment in the field of nuclear physics. Government sources have since revealed that experiments with such instruments were responsible for the victory of Allied scientists over German scientists, since Germany had the principle of Atomic Energy ahead of the world, but was hampered by the lack of cyclotrons.

A graduate of Cornell College, Mt. Vernon, Iowa, Dr. DuBridge worked with Dr. Robert A. Milliken, celebrated scientist at the California Institute of Technology, before he was engaged as professor of physics at the University of Rochester in 1934. In 1938 he spent a summer at the University of California in experimental work with Dr. Ernest O. Lawrence, Nobel prize winner in physics and "father" of the atom-smashing cyclotron.

During the war, Dr. DuBridge's work at M. I. T. contributed both to the development of atomic energy and the development of radar.

CIVIC ORCHESTRA PLANS ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM

Soloist for the occasion will be petite Rima Rudima, violinist, who spent many months during the war playing the violin in U.S.O. shows for battle-weary G. I.'s.

Miss Rudima, who was a member of the Rochester Philharmonic violin section before she embarked on her overseas tour, will appear in her uniform, just as she played for the troops.

What are your Thanksgiving plans?

Victory... peace... reunited families — most of us have plenty of cause for an especially heartfelt Thanksgiving this year.

Oh, yes, there'll be turkey and fixin's at the Veterans' Hospital, too. With maybe some awkwardness in eating — trying the hook that replaces the hand lost at Anzio, or feeling around the plate to locate a drumstick that sightless eyes can't find.

But there'll be Thanksgiving at the Hospital just the same. Thanksgiving for life itself — and for the chance to make something out of it. The chance you can provide with your Victory Bond purchases.

Giving thanks this year? Then give thanks to the men who gave you cause for Thanksgiving. Give practical thanks by lending the means for their rehabilitation... for their hopes of a future.

You'll be surprised how much sweeter your turkey will taste when you know you've bought as many Victory Bonds as you should.

And how much sweeter life will be for some mighty gallant guys.

They've Finished Their Job— Let's Finish Ours!

He states that man, instead of being limited by an average power mind, has within him a power of a thousand or more, as well as the power of the universe, which is used in his daily affairs. According to him, this lightning of mind-power, awakened, can make man a power of surprising accomplishments. It is as amazing as atom bomb in comparison of former sources of energy. Thousands of people through the world have already tried methods. Many reports important in power of mind, achievement of brilliant business professional success. Other reports improvement in health, increased strength, courage, energy or a more personality.

But a dead man beckin on office rather than vote Democratic. Observers remarked that "they probably figured they'd rather have a dead Republican than a live Democrat." Solace came to Democratic headquarters, however, when the city vote showed a marked increase over other "off year" elections in Democratic choices. A percentage difference of approximately eight points separated victors from the losers in city council races. Leading the Democratic losers was Joseph P. Flynn. The popular "Stubby" Flynn polled 46,476 votes on the Democratic and ALP tickets.

Strong Minority Shown

One other important fact emerged from conflicting statements of partisans immediately after election. During the next two years, the Republican city administration would have a large, strong and vocal segment of the city acting as "watchdogs" over its actions and antics. The mere fact that more than 45,000 out of a total of less than 100,000 voters had chosen Democrats was proof enough that an undercurrent of dissatisfaction with the present administration would make city governing an interesting task in the future.

Leaders Look To '46

Whether the 45,000 had voted "for" the Democrats or "against" the Republicans was a question no one could decide. But "for" or "against," political leaders cleared their desks today, ready to start on the new task of mending fences, plugging holes and mapping campaign strategy for 1946.

Radio Anniversary Celebrated By WHEC

Twenty-five years ago this week, the first chapter in the story of actual broadcasting was written when station KDKA Pittsburgh sent out over the air the news that Harding had defeated Cox in the campaign for the Presidency of the United States. Four years later, while broadcasting was still in its early infancy, Rochester's WHEC was born as an outgrowth of Rochester's pioneering station WHQ, one of only 30 broadcasting stations in the United States when it started a series of sporadic broadcasts from the old Times-Union Building in Exchange Street back in 1922.

On January 1, 1925, Lawrence G. Hickson installed a "studio" in the rear of the Hickson Electric Company in South Avenue, and for the first time the call letters "W H E C" went on the air.

By 1928, the WHEC studios had been moved to the Terminal Building at the corner of Broad and Filchuck, all-day broadcasting was in effect, and occasionally even a network show reached the ears of WHEC listeners. Meanwhile, the Federal Radio Commission granted the station an increase of power to 500 watts at night.

The next year, WHEC's studios were moved to their present site, occupying two floors of the Rochester Savings Bank Building on Franklin Street.

In 1932 WHEC became a full-fledged affiliate of the Columbia Broadcasting System, and in 1937, the new aerial and transmitting station was erected on Mt. Read Boulevard.

The late war afforded WHEC the opportunity to demonstrate the important part it has come to play in the life of Western New Yorkers — and, indirectly, in the nation itself. WHEC's listeners were kept up to the minute with every development along the world's far-flung battle lines by means of thousands of on-the-spot broadcasts by leading news analysts and commentators.

Today, with a staff of 35 employees functioning in twelve departments, and a group of potential listeners estimated at 750,000, WHEC maintains an 18-hour-per-day schedule of offering programs of every variety, ranging from the highly intellectual to the purely entertaining.

of the electorate as divided as in those men holds each November.

As the early sun rays splattered across the water, the geese continued to cry and wheel, gather, divide, subdivide and finally in a dim, swing solidly together to form their traditional V an wingarrulously southward.

This, too, we thought, was like one of man's elections. The leader finally chosen, the minority opinion follows, protestingly along.

These at least were my thoughts; my shivering companion, no doubt, quite unaware of them. As it grew lighter and colder it was encouraging to have an unimaginative Republican guilty of the duck hunting urge, but we couldn't help but think of two other companions in a warm cabin fifty yards away — one a non-partisan who votes only in Presidential years, and the other a guy who forgot to register.

Those two snug ones were still asleep. And that too, was significant as in man's elections.

The results of the Tuesday's polling was not a blow to Democratic hopes as many might suspect. Leaders realize in the apathetic years between presidential and gubernatorial campaigns that the traditional Republicanism of the community is an extremely difficult condition to overcome. The close margins of victory in many wards is an indication that gradually the two party system in local elections is creeping back into evidence. The Democrats may not be too happy that they failed to elect any congressman but they are far from discouraged.

It seems to us Mr. Broderick was misquoted in his statement in the Wednesday D&C — "the people refused to be fooled". He could have made a more complete and more accurate statement, like "You Can Still Fool Most of the People Most of the Time".

And his party sure enough did it.

We wonder if Mr. Alfredo Moss and Mathias Jackson will make a winter book on the gubernatorial race of 1946, and what the prices are.

One Democrat was heard to remark at 10:30 Tuesday night: "Follows, we Democrats will have to be satisfied with running the Presidency and the Congress". It wouldn't be fair to take everything away from the G.O.P.

Hoping So
Jones — Is this the first night you will have slept in the city?
Smith — I don't know yet.

Does the Atomic Bomb Explain Bible Miracles?

According to Edwin J. Dingle, world-renowned geographer honored by leading geographical societies, the power of the atom bomb, as disclosed in the Bible, is small compared with little known and seldom used powers of the human brain. He maintains that man, instead of being limited by an average man's mind power, has within him the mind power of a thousand men or more, as well as the energy power of the universe, which can be used in his daily affairs.

He tells how he found these strange methods in far off and mysterious Tibet, often called the land of miracles by the few travelers permitted to visit it. Here, he discloses, he learned rare wisdom and long hidden practices, closely guarded for three thousand years by the sages, which enabled many to perform amazing feats. These immense powers, he maintains, are latent in all of us, and methods for using them are now simplified so that they can be used by almost any person with ordinary intelligence.

As part of a great movement to make his methods available to more people, a 9000-word treatise is offered absolutely free for the time being. It reveals many startling results. Readers of this announcement can get their free copy by sending a post card or letter to the Institute of Mental Physics, 213 S. Hobart Blvd. Dept. U-430, Los Angeles 4, Calif. Beware Investment Rats

It won't be long now. Indeed, they're here already. We mean the investment rats. Sometimes they term themselves investment brokers. Sometimes they term themselves something else. But they are always the same. They're rats.

These so termed investment brokers, or whatever they may happen to term themselves at the time, call at your home with a proposition.

They are smooth, polite. They discuss the weather, if you happen to be interested in the subject, and then solicitously they ask after you health and for the health of your family.

They disclose, apparently reluctantly, that they know of fine, even wonderful investments, and, possibly, if prodded hard enough, they would be willing to let you in on them.

You regret, perhaps, that you are not financially able to cooperate with them. You say, frankly, that you have no money, and add that you invested your savings in War Bonds.

Ah, here your caller seems to be interested. Indeed he perks up quite a bit and becomes even more solicitous, if it were possible.

He intimates that he would be pained dreadfully to see you miss rare financial opportunities for want of ready cash. On second thought, and his face brightens, he announces that he feels that, possibly, he might be able to help you get money. How?

What about the War Bonds? You have them, have you not? Yes, indeed, and it's well. He thinks, but he admits that he's not certain, that possibly he might be able to transfer some of his own valuable investments, stocks, common and preferred, provided you can arrange to get cash for your War Bonds, and of course you can.

Following World War I the vermin, described in the foregoing were common enough, too common. They were the buzzards of the first great war.

They are a few of them, back now. If all signs do not fall more of them, along with new ones, will visit you.

All of which proves to you, if you harbored doubts, that your War Bonds are very valuable indeed. They are just as good as money. Indeed they are worth more than money because unlike mere money they pay good interest.

Be very careful indeed when these buzzards call upon you. Do not cash your War Bonds to buy other investments, other than the ones you create yourself. Your War Bonds are valuable and the financial buzzards who may call upon you know it the best of all.

The stock they would wish to sell to you may pay big interest, believing them, even as high as six per cent, but you have no proof of that except their own say-so, and the chances are that they are prevaricators.

First see your banker and explain the situation and suggest to your caller that he accompany you to your banker or to any banker who is recommended to you.

The chances are that the Buzzard won't be willing to accompany you, because he and his kind never buzz that way.

Remember always, if you have bonds, that you have the best property in the world and that no brokers, visiting house to house, have anything nearly as good to exchange for them. Indeed the chances are that the stuff the buzzard would give you in exchange is worthless.

So, be wise and sit tight. If you follow this admonition you will never need worry nor will you ever be sorry.

Remember that when you buy a Victory Bond you are not giving anything to anybody. You are merely making a gilt-edged investment for yourself. This shouldn't be hard to do.

It is no more difficult for you to find money to buy Victory Bonds than it was for millions of our men to leave their homes and families and friends to go Over There to meet up with—they knew not what.

THERE ARE MANY REASONS NOW TO BE THANKFUL

This Thanksgiving Day, above all others, let us remember that we have much to be thankful for.

Let us be thankful that we attained a decisive victory—that freedom and decency still live. Let us be thankful that America was untouched by destruction and that we had a united will to carry on to victory. Too, let us be thankful that we had leaders of great vision and that we had men and women of courage.

Let us never forget, however, that we barely attained the victory! Let us never forget that Germany was a few months behind us in developing the atomic bomb. Let us never forget that on innumerable occasions in both wars our battles were won with very slender margins.

Pill For Your Dinner

This is a Victory Bond digest, a little tablet, like an aspirin tablet to take when you think you need it. Why should I buy a Victory Bond now that the war is over?

A good question, with many answers. Buy them for the sake of our boys—the millions still in uniform and the hundreds of thousands still on the way home. Buy bonds to help bind the wounds of the suffering and to help them start life anew.

The shooting has stopped, but it is not all over. Not until the last man is back can we on the home front consider that our obligations are even partially met.

There are obligations we owe to every man who served in the cause of liberty. It's a costly undertaking and a responsibility we must not neglect.

That's why our government needs eleven million dollars invested in Victory Bonds.

Could there be a better reason?

Your personal thankfulness for the Victory will be measured by your support for the Victory Loan.

Why is America asking for eleven billions of dollars? To help bring our men home again.

To cure the wounded and battle weary.

To administer the GI Bill of Rights.

To clear the decks for quick reconversion.

Be thankful you are asked to buy Victory Bonds.

Mrs. Booth Says Battle Not Won

Mrs. John R. Booth, deputy manager of the local Victory Loan drive now in progress, has definite ideas indeed on, as she terms it, the sheer necessity for success for this drive.

"From the very start," she said, "I have recognized the serious responsibility of this endeavor, and I am much encouraged with the start of the campaign."

"When I think of all the hospitalization that will be needed and of all the efforts needed to bring all of our boys back home I become even more serious."

"None of us can afford to rest the least bit until this job, our job, as well as unforeseen jobs to come, have been successfully accomplished. To my mind the war, or that part of it which we people at home have been doing and shall have to do in the future, is not done. We cannot rest until we have raised this final loan, the Victory one."

Mrs. Booth's offices are up in the Lincoln-Alliance Building, where she accomplishes her daily loan stints in a quiet and orderly manner, minus great ado.

Mrs. Booth, for the information of women, seems to be as efficient at her job as is a good housewife at baking a batch of cookies. With her, things keep moving along all the time, as on a Detroit assembly line. The answer to it all is that the finished products come out at the end at a steady pace.

Jive Ban Out of Pupils of local public schools and their parents and friends enjoyed more than 100 war service entertainments when the famous 299th Ground Forces Band, T. L. Reeves, under Sgt. R. L. Reeves, "Sweet" Reeves before Rochester school children.

It was, everybody said, purest jive serene. America present was entered. Some of the oldest soldiers at least, some doubt, but admitted, under pressure, the band was good. Everybody thought, that the GIs on the front, where the band entertained many months. "Sweet" Reeves and his the best ever. After all, cannot be measured by sticks.

The local young Miss J. cas, present at the local concerts, declared the "simply out of this world" which, with them, was complimentary apex. Mr. America, too, was ferociously reluctant in. Indeed, he couldn't keep his eyes off the young Americas he was cutting and, at Benjamin Franklin School one grandmother actually noticed to be do little rug cutting of her. Such was the magic spell by this war service band. You probably know by

Jive Band Really
Out of Our World

Pupils of local public schools, and their parents and friends, enjoyed more than reflected war service entertainment when the famous 299th Army Ground Forces Band, The Junglers, under Sgt. Reuben B. Reeves, "Sweet" Reeves, played before Rochester school audiences.

It was, everybody said, the purest jive serenade. Young America present was entranced. Some of the oldsters suffered, at least, some doubt, but admitted, under pressure, that the band was good. Everybody said, though, that the GIs on Pacific fronts, where the band entertained many months, voted "Sweet" Reeves and his men the best ever. After all, music cannot be measured by yard sticks.

The local young Miss Americas, present at the local school concerts, declared the band "simply out of this world," which, with them, was the complimentary apex. Young Mr. America, too, was vociferously redundant in praise. Indeed, he couldn't keep motionless nor quiet during the concerts. With the young Miss Americas he was cutting rugs, and, at Benjamin Franklin School one grandmother was actually noticed to be doing a little rag cutting of her own. Such was the magic spell cast by this war service band.

You probably know by now that the Junglers travel in their own busses and trucks and boast its own public address system. The men wear colorful jungle uniforms.

It should be added that the leader, "Sweet" Reeves, was formerly with Cab Calloway, and the small army of musicians, under Reeves, have previously played under many jive masters, including Count Basie, Louis Armstrong, of the famous trumpet, Don Redman, Lucky Millinder, Noble Sissie and Lionel Hampton.

As you may easily imagine, these gentlemen are all masters of brass. They more than make the brass talk. They make it sing.

The Junglers spent three years on the Pacific, at times actually playing at the front, amidst crescendos of flying shells and plane dronings. They performed aboard many carriers and battle ships and they made tours with such celebrities of the show world as Bob Hope, Jack Benny, Carole Landis, Betty Hutton, Moss Hart, Jack Carson, Boris Karloff and others.

During the big Seventh War Bond drive, Eddy Duchin, Orin Tucker and Art Jarrett took turns conducting the Junglers at rallies in the Hawaiian Islands.

American jive music is peculiarly its very own. And "Sweet" Reeves and his merry men are the top in jive.

There are the unconditional surrender at Reims on May 7, the surrender at Berlin and other surrender instruments and the V-E Day proclamation of President Truman.

The document, borrowed for the tour from the exhibition hall of the National Archives Building in Washington, are in the same car with a display of the weapons and equipment of the infantryman, a box of all United States Army medals, a display of the insignia of all combat divisions and an exhibit of captured German and Japanese weapons. Also the new 57-mm and 75-mm recoilless rifles, until recently secret weapons of our Army.

Equipment Nailed to Floor

In another refurbished baggage car is the equipment of airborne troops and of engineers. Much of the equipment is nailed to the floor or fastened with chains, except for such items as a 4.2 recoilless chemical mortar that could not be carried off easily by souvenir hunters.

At a preview a sergeant in the airborne car, one of twenty-four combat veterans staffing the train, transferred to his pocket a .45-caliber automatic pistol after he had seen a civilian fingering it as it lay in its holster on the floor.

Another baggage car holds a display of medical equipment, including blood plasma, in one end and field kitchen equipment in the other end. Two cars are reserved for the personnel.

On two flat cars may be seen an M-4A3 Sherman tank, with its long 76-mm gun, costing $50,000; a 60-inch, 800 million candlepower anti-aircraft searchlight; a heavy 8-inch mortar and four .50-caliber machine guns mounted as a unit, capable of firing 2,400 shots a minute at enemy aircraft.

Ball Real Veteran On Home Front

Raymond N. Ball, district 2 Chairman of the War Finance Committee, is indeed a veteran in war loan campaigns. He has now presided over the openings of seven such campaigns, and he's now sweating out his seventh, the Victory Loan one. On the opening evening of the present campaign, Monday, Mr. Ball said: "You veterans of World War II are an inspiration to us. You have finished your job and now by your presence here you signify your sincere desire to help those of us who have fought the war on the home front to finish our job."

County is 50 millions dollars, about half of the sum raised in the preceding campaign, the mighty seventh. The individual quota of $15,500,000 is exclusive of the money of big investors.

As in previous campaigns, it's the little fellows, the so termed individual, in which the government is most interested.

Mr. Ball said:

"In sheer gratitude that the war is over we should buy liberally. In high hopes of eternal peace we should invest. In tribute to the former members of our armed forces we should strive to make this—our Victory Loan—the most successful of all. They, our veterans, have finished their job. Let's finish ours."

In the years to come Mr. Ball will be termed a veteran of this World War II. Although he didn't serve in the armed forces, he did serve, and wonderfully well, in helping to finish the wherewithal, and he's still serving.

A busy man has just so much time, and no more, but Mr. Ball has managed miraculously well to stretch all his time.

The job of World War II is not finished until we finish successfully the job of the Victory Loan.

The boys on the land and on the sea did their parts. Now we must, and shall, do our part by completing the Victory Loan drive.

TO PLAY HERE — All Army veterans recently returned from service on America's many battlefields, these members of the Combat Infantry Band will present a musical program here at the Eastman Theater tomorrow as an attraction of the Victory Loan Drive. The visit here was arranged by Rochester's war finance committee as a salute to volunteer bond salesmen.

Colonel Gabreski Great American

Being an American does not come from blood derivatives. Your name may be Murphy, it may be Obolowski or it may be Capone. You are an American just the same provided you've earned the title. This late World War II may have taught this major truth to all of us, including some of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

When Col. Francis S. Gabreski hopped off a plane at the Rochester airport the other day he may have impressed the foregoing fact more firmly than ever upon the minds of many of us. If he did not he should have.

Anyhow this 28-year-old air American but a great American, Rochester saw a great deal of him the fore part of the week.

The Rev. Joseph A. Balcerak of St. Stanislaus Church presented Col. Gabreski a copy of the Polish history of Rochester upon his arrival here last Sunday.

Lt. Edward Sisson, 370 Cottage street, who flew under Gabreski's command in Europe, was one of the first to greet this major truth to all of us, including some of the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Their buzzfests would have made another book on World War II, albeit there are thousands on hand already.

Col. Gabreski is modest, indeed. He is credited with 28 enemy planes destroyed in the air and three more on the ground. The Army says that record makes him the champion. Col. Gabreski himself claims only to have destroyed more planes in the air over Europe than any other American pilot who has served there.

No one will quarrel with the air ace over this. The men who do things individually have little to say.

Remember that when you buy a Victory Bond you are not giving anything to anybody. You are merely making a gilt-edged investment for yourself. This shouldn't be hard to do.

It is no more difficult for you to find money to buy Victory Bonds than it was for millions of our men to leave their homes and families and friends to go Over There to meet up with—they knew not what.

Liquor Interests Will Help Drive

The Victory Bond goal for New York State is $3,335,000,000 in the Treasury's eighth and final bond drive appeal.

The wine and spirits, carbonated beverage, brewing and tobacco industries of the state have promised more than their share in contributions. The Treasury has asked these industries for $75,000,000 and, at a luncheon at the Empire State Club, they promised to buy even more.

Frederick W. Gehle, chairman of the New York State War Finance Committee, has promised Secretary of the Treasury Fred M. Vinson that New York State would overshoot its $3,335,000,000 goal with $5,000,000,000.

When we read such huge numerals as the foregoing we lose all track of things, we are treading the clouds.

Lester E. Jacobi lead the conference of liquor and tobacco interests in New York City. Jacobi suggested that a general response, which is assured, be termed a thanksgiving loan in gratitude to those who made victory possible. The liquor and tobacco trade press, Jacobi said has and will go the limit in furtherance of this Victory Loan drive.

Bringing home 9,000,000 men, maintaining armies of occupation, producing the best medical services for thousands of men convalescing and maintaining the GI Bill of Rights are a few of the things for which the Victory Bond money is needed.

Let's All Job Right

Epigrammatically the Victory Loan drive, now underway, may be described this way: They finished the job. Let's finish ours.

Too, it may also be said, this is definitely the last campaign. The quotas are to be sure, but none of us count on the emotional to cash this present, and last, campaign over the top. It is obvious, selling job, this time but, locally, District II, achieved an enviable record which will be maintained this, the final campaign.

The Victory Loan quotas counties in District II follow: Monroe County — E. B. $9,300,000; individuals, $1,200,000.

Livingston County — E. B. $400,000; individuals, $800,000.

Ontario County — E. B. $600,000; individuals, $1,000,000.

Seneca County — E. B. $250,000; individuals, $450,000.

Wayne County — E. B. $700,000; individuals, $1,000,000.

Yates County — E. B. $200,000; individuals, $300,000.

All of the counties entered have held highly energetic organization meetings materials for campaign have long since been distributed, and more material follow.

You will ask, no doubt, what purposes all this will be used.

It is estimated that more than 150,000 hospital beds were needed for World War I veterans. A 1,000 bed hospital costs in the neighborhood of $6,500,000, or $65 per bed.

Vocational training for disabled veterans costs a mere $1,800 a man. The average cost of a veteran education under the GI Bill of Rights is more than $1,200 a year.

The average mustering-out pay is $270 a man. Yes, plenty of Victory Bonds are needed. There isn't a cent of daily battle now to make the purchase of Victory Loan bonds arrive, but none should be.

Remember, always when you buy a bond, not giving anything, not ny. You are merely investing your money in one of perhaps the best, profitable in the world.

So, in the foregoing of District II, of which a unit, is made simple. There are a lot of many hands and you make the job easy.

And oddly enough, one of us buys his or her share of Victory bonds, and

Straight Talk about the Victory Loan

You are being asked to buy War Bonds—Victory Bonds, they are now—after the War is over.

Why? All of us know, without being told, some of the reasons.

We know that a million and a quarter Americans were killed or wounded and that we must take care of the injured men and the families of the dead.

We know that there are still millions of Americans overseas and that we must bring them home as soon as we can and maintain them till they get here.

We know that the G.I. Bill of Rights gives these men—and rightly—mustering-out pay, loans, education—a chance to make up for the years they have lost—a chance to get a start in the free and peaceful world they won for all of us.

These facts are obvious—just as obvious as the fact that it will take a lot of money to handle the problems they present.

It's also obvious, when you come to think of it, that waging up a war as big as this one is expensive business in other ways. For instance, huge sums are still required to pay for war materials which were ordered, produced, and delivered some time ago.

These reasons for buying extra Bonds in the Victory Loan are clear and easily understood.

But there is another reason for making the Victory Loan a success which, perhaps, doesn't come so easily and clearly to mind.

In these years of war, the American people have displayed mighty sound judgment.

Man by man, family by family, group by group they have come to accept Bond buying as a way to obtain financial and economic security for themselves as individuals and for their country.

Whole communities have thus changed, in the last few years, from debt-ridden, hand-to-mouth groups to communities of solid citizens with a financial reserve, a financial stake in the American system, and a newly formed habit of regular saving.

As a result of this good judgment, we have been able to hold off a disastrous inflation, finance a good part of the costs of war, and save the almost incredible sum of one hundred billion dollars.

And as a result of these accomplishments, we, as a nation, stand ready now to win our final battle in the fight to throw off the effects of war and get this country back, as fast as we can, on a solid, prosperous, peacetime economic basis.

To win this final battle, we need only keep on doing, for a little longer, the same things we did so well during 3½ years of war. We need to keep on saving until reconversion is complete.

The next few months will tell the story. And if, during this critical period, we will only use the brains, the will power, the energy, the enterprise, the materials, and resources with which we won our war, we can't fail to win the peace and make this the richest, happiest land the world has known.

Making the Victory Loan a smashing success will be a clear notice of our intentions.

Yes, he's a war baby, born after December 7, 1941, the date that will live in infamy. Since then some 250,000 American men have died that he might live and grow in a world of peace—that he may never have to take up arms to defend his country and his loved ones.

Our heroic dead have left us a legacy—and a trust. To us they have given the knowledge that free men will fight, and die, to preserve that freedom, not only for themselves but also for those who come after them.

To us, too, they leave the solemn duty of making certain that America will remain spiritually, economically and financially sound . . . truly a land of freedom and opportunity for little children, rich and poor, in a world at peace.

Think of those who fought and died—and then join with a generous heart and an open pocketbook in this last great Victory Loan. The money we lend will help to lay the groundwork of a finer, better America. It's our last great debt. Let's stand shoulder to shoulder till it's won.

Job Right Now

Epigrammatically the Victory Loan drive, now underway, may be described this way: They finished the job. Let us finish ours.
Too, it may also be said, that this is definitely the last loan campaign. The quotas are less, to be sure, but none of us can count on the emotional to carry this present, and last, campaign over the top. It is obviously a selling job, this time but this locality, District II, has achieved an enviable record which will be maintained in this, the final campaign.

The Victory Loan quotas by counties in District II follow:
Monroe County — E bonds, $9,300,000; individuals, $15,200,000.
Livingston County — E bonds, $400,000; individuals, $800,000.
Ontario County — E bonds, $600,000; individuals, $1,100,000.
Seneca County — E bonds, $250,000; individuals, $450,000.
Wayne County — E bonds, $700,000; individuals, $1,500,000.
Yates County — E bonds, $200,000; individuals, $300,000.
All of the counties enumerated have held highly enthusiastic organization meetings, and materials for campaign work have long since been distributed, and more material will follow.

You will ask, no doubt, for what purposes all this money will be used.

It is estimated that more than 150,000 hospital beds will be needed for World War II veterans. A 1,000 bed veterans hospital costs in the neighborhood of $6,500,000, or $6,500 a bed.

Vocational training for our disabled veterans costs approximately $1,800 a man.

The average costs a year of veteran education under the GI Bill of Rights is more than $1,200 a year.

The average mustering out pay is $270 a man.

Yes, plenty of Victory dollars are needed. There isn't the incentive of daily battle news now to make the purchasing of Victory loan bonds an incentive, but none should be needed.

Remember, always, that when you buy a bond you are not giving anything, not a penny. You are merely investing your money in one of the best, perhaps the best, propositions in the world.

So, in the foregoing, the job of District II, of which you are a unit, is made simple to inspect. There are a lot of us, and many hands and purses can make the job easy.

And oddly enough after each one of us buys his or her share of Victory bonds, and even more than our quotas, not a single one of us, nor any county mentioned, nor District II will be a single penny poorer than before. Indeed, we shall be richer.

Another thought, too, and well worth while is that the money from these, the Victory bond sales, will not be used for waste, and all war is waste, but for rehabilitation, for rebuilding, which will be making new wealth.

This is a loan drive in which we cannot afford to fail. Our wounded men must be cared for and re-built. Our conquered territories must be supervised.

In short, we, the people of the United States of America must look after our investment. It's a big investment and well worth looking after.

THE BAREFOOT BOY

Salt Lake City. — During a hot school soccer game, in which the score was tied with only one minute to play, Paul Derrick, 11, landed a mighty kick on the ball. His shoe split down the back and flew across the field. Thinking it was the ball, opponents chased the shoe and Paul, in his stockinged foot, pushed the ball between the goal posts to win the game for his team.

Tucson, Ariz. — Just as Mrs. Minnie E. Wooley was reporting the loss of her purse to railroad officials, a fast eastbound train pulled into the yards, stopped and delivered the purse to its harried owner. The engineer and fireman, riding in the cab of a train following the one Mrs. Wooley was traveling in, saw the pocketbook along the railroad right-of-way. They stopped their train, retrieved the purse and delivered it to its owner.

Bend, Ore. — A cow on the Carlin and Mattson farm seems to like to keep step with current history. She was born on Dec. 7, 1941, gave birth to her first calf, named Leyte, the day the Yanks stormed ashore on that island, and her second calf was born on the same day American forces first landed on Japan. The new arrival will probably be christened "Tokyo Rose."

It's the NEW $200 Victory Bond

Here it is — a brand new Victory Bond issued in honor of Franklin Delano Roosevelt and the Victory he helped us win.

Take a good look at it. Examine it carefully. Then consider what it can mean to you — what it will mean to our returning wounded.

To you it's the safest investment in the world. It's a private mint of your own that's working day and night — 24 hours a day — turning every $3 you invested in "E" Bonds into $4 for you alone!

And to our more than 300,000 wounded it's a ticket to recovery, health, rehabilitation. Your buying this $200 Roosevelt Victory Bond will help pay for a hospital ship, $4,500,000; a hospital plane, $110,000; supplies for a thousand-bed hospital, $177,500.

It's patriotic, it's generous, it's good business sense to add it to your nest egg. And it costs only $150.00.

Think of the wounded who need your help. Yes — think of your own future, too. Buy your Roosevelt Victory Bond today.

Capitol Chatter Big Bad Wolf Today Is Inflation

The Way of the Balkans

Mark Etheridge, Louisville newspaper publisher, is touring the Balkans on a State Department mission, trying to find out "the approximate truth" of conditions there by personal investigation.

The other day, he was dining with Bulgarian journalists in Sofia when adherents of political parties demonstrated in front of the hotel to show him that public support was behind the respective political groups.

Supporters of the Fatherland Front and the opposition clashed in street fighting after memorial services for Social Democrats that served as the occasion for the first meeting of the political opposition in Bulgaria since the war. It would be much letter, of course, if the Bulgarians determined their political differences at the ballot box but this is impossible if free elections are not permitted.

Construction — Construction costs worry those who are interested in building and some authorities fear the long-advised construction boom may be retarded. Costs are from 30 to 50 per cent above pre-war and rising. Pre-war houses are selling as much or more above first prices.

Rents — An idea of what to expect in rents is gained from what happened after the last war when rents went up until 1925, reaching a level 57 per cent above armistice figures. In 1925 new home units caught up with the demand.

Truman — There is reason to believe that President Truman has entered upon a period of more aggressive leadership. His advisors have been convinced that the public is not satisfied with a let-drift policy.

The Big Bogey Man, the Big Bad Wolf, today is inflation.

Everybody is talking about it but, like those who talk about the weather, nobody does much, if anything.

The situation in a nut shell, as your Uncle Samuel sees it, is this way: Americans will have earned more than $150,000,000,000 during 1945. Taxes will take away about $20,000,000,000 of this.

Goods and services available during this period are around $100,000,000,000 at present prices. The difference of $30,000,000,000 or more must be substantially absorbed by savings, or competition for available goods will push prices through the proverbial ceilings. This, as you know would be inflation.

Dollars saved now will protect the value of future dollars. If this is successfully accomplished it will be one of the greatest victories in World War II.

Many of the Asiatic and European countries are now suffering violent inflation. Mostly this inflation is proving a greater trial by far than the conflict in the actual war. This inflation, like actual conflict, has its big casualty list, too.

The other day in Rochester a woman in a Main Street eating place protested paying ten cents, a dime, for a ham sandwich.

"I used to pay a nickel," she said. "Madam, there's been a war on," the waiter behind the counter said. "Don't I know," said the woman. "My son was in the war, and is still in it. He isn't

Maybe The Owner Will Now Invest in Bonds
Clinton, Ill. — While loading used household furniture on a truck, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wrono, used furniture dealers, were surprised when a library table drawer fell out and a large amount of currency and silver spilled on the ground. Officers were summoned to count the money, which totaled $1,126, and to hold it for the absent owner of the library table.

TRUSTIES RAISE FUND FOR DOG'S LICENSE
Pocatello, Idaho. — When city officials told several trustees in the city jail that Gandy, their mongrel pup companion, would be shot for lack of a dog license, the prisoners pooled their resources, bought a $3 license and saved him.

Each Man Could Eat Ten Breakfasts
Kansas City. — In response to Clarence Hartman's wife, "Have breakfast ready for 60. Am bringing a few buddies," the breakfast was prepared. Hartman arrived alone. Six buddies — the ciper was added in transmission — were forced to cancel their visit, leaving him to consume 17 pounds of ham, 75 cups of coffee and ten dozen eggs.

Suffers Three Broken Arms in Three Months
Salt Lake City, Utah. — Elray Jenkins, 6, has suffered three broken arms in the last three months. The first occurred when he tumbled from a tree and broke his right arm. Then, he broke his left arm two months later when his gymnastics on a clothesline - pole crossbar ended disastrously and then recently, he broke his left arm again. His frequent visits to the doctor's office, however, have caused him to make up his mind that he wants to be a doctor.

HE CAME IN—BUT HE WASN'T WELCOME
Springfield, Ill. — When an uninvited intruder broke into the house of T. P. Sullivan, Illinois director of public safety, he drove the family out. Windows and doors remained open for several hours thereafter, because the unwelcome visitor was a skunk, which was killed and removed by police.

Maybe Former Owner Trained This Mule
Poplar Bluff, Mo. — A mule which Jeff Woods, veteran livestock dealer, bought kicked him, breaking his jaw and causing him to wonder if the mule didn't have some kind of working agreement with his former owner — an undertaker.

home yet."

This was not inflation, the dangerous kind, but merely an omen. With inflation, real inflation, the price of a ham sandwich might mount until it reached 50 cents or even a dollar.

With true inflation conditions would be terrible, and judging by inflationary conditions in other countries now suffering its tortures, all hands, excepting the few persons who are profiting from it, would be frantically accusing each other of helping to bring about these inflationary conditions. In reality, of course, they all, each individual who had been recklessly spending, would be to blame, or, at least, as much to blame as the next one.

The GIs are coming home, now, day by day. They, too, need a lot of things, necessary goods, which they must buy.

We men and women who remained at home must try to aid them by not needlessly buying for ourselves wearing apparel we don't really need and which the returned GIs do need.

The returned GIs are buying suits of clothes and overcoats and shirts and ties and shoes and socks. They need them because, after marching out of the armed forces, they have none. And, oh, it seems so good to them to get back in mufti. And it seems so good to us, too, to see them again in mufti.

Yes, the big job on hand for Americans is to keep the lid on threatened inflation. It's going to be a hard job, but we, all of us, if we work together, can do it. Putting your spare money into the present Victory Loan drive will help. Indeed it may accomplish the very thing. This would be a war victory, indeed.

Over in some sections of China a package of American cigarettes costs from $4 to $5. One doesn't go out to buy things with money. One has goods, preferably cigarettes, with which to pay for other goods.

Fantastic, yes, but that's the way things are over there. You do not want similar conditions here. Neither does anybody.

VICTORY BOND DIGEST...

Why should I buy Bonds now that the War is over? A good question with many answers. Buy them for the sake of our boys... the millions still in uniform... the hundreds of thousands on the way home. To help them start life anew.

The shooting has stopped, but it's not all over yet... not till the last man is back can we on the home front consider our obligations met. Obligations we owe to every man who served in the cause of Liberty. It's a costly undertaking, a responsibility we must not neglect. That's why our Government needs Eleven Billion Dollars invested in Victory Bonds. Could there be a better reason!

Remember? How can we ever forget! Disaster and death came out of the clear blue sky to strike like a thunderbolt! Never again will America be so totally unprepared... never again will America let her guard down. We're going to make sure it won't happen again by backing our words with action. Action that will make Post-war America strong. That means a solid economy... without inflation. That means giving the boys who did the fighting a break... backing up the G. I. Bill of Rights. The best way to do it... Buy Victory Bonds. The best time... right now... December 7th... a DARK day in America's past, a great day to reaffirm your faith in America's future.

ELECTION IN, CAT OUT, OF BAG By JAMES

Political Polka

By Curt Gerling

A nauseating example of how easily the local Republican organization can make a complete fool of the Rochester electorate is too clearly demonstrated in two local news items that got into (the good lord knows how) the daily press immediately after election.

First, of course, is the new ruling of which Commerce Commissioner Mac Farlin knew before election (and we strongly suspect the daily papers did as well) to the effect that Roch-

SCOUT RALLY TO SPUR CITY BONDCANVASS

Area Sales Hit Third Of Quota As Committee Plans Loan Activities

With 12 local firms "over the top" and total war bond sales in the area reported at the one-third mark, Rochester's Victory Loan drive for 50 million dollars roared full steam ahead this week.

Rallies, a house-to-house canvass by Boy Scouts and plans for the coming of a trainload of war souvenirs on November 29th all added interest to the intensified effort to reach the quota before the drive's end set for Dec. 8.

Scout Rally Saturday
On Saturday in the Eastman Theater, Rochester Boy Scouts will receive their "marching orders" in a canvass to flush up additional bond sales from the city's housewives.

Presentation of the General Eisenhower Awards to 900 Boy Scouts and Cubs for work in paper salvage by Col. Edward T. Wentworth, former commander of the 19th General Hospital overseas, will be one of the highlights of the rally. The Scouts will be sworn in as Treasury agents by Raymond N. Ball, District Two chairman of the War Finance Committee.

Concert Group To Play
The Infantry Concert Group, to appear at the rally Saturday will bring as oboe player Harry Schulman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Schulman of 68 Oakdale Dr. Schulman, a graduate of Curtis Institute, played with the National Broadcasting Company orchestra before he joined the service. He will be LAUGH MAKERS—Animal Trainer Marton Knowlton enjoys a chuckle with Susy, a member of the Shrine Circus elephant herd appearing at the Main St. Armory all this week. Joining in the general merriment inside the "big top" is Clown Earl Shipley who practices his laugh-producing art on Aerialist Wills Levolla. Matinees at 2 p. m. and evening performances at 8:15 are scheduled at the Armory through Saturday.

EXPOSE OF GAMBLING STUNS CITY

Newspaper's Gag Lifted To Tell Of Horserooms' Tie Up With Police

With the election over and out of the way this week, Rochester evidently was again going to get the news — or some of it, anyway — as it happened and not as the Republican high command dictated. That the censorship against any city news which might reflect on the integrity or intelligence of the city administration or on controllers of the Republican party here had been lifted became evident Sunday when the heretofore silent Democrat & Chronicle, Rochester's best morning newspaper and loyal Republican mouthpiece finally broke down and confessed that horserooms not only actually ran wide open in Rochester, but in news reports strongly hinted that the operators of the horserooms had police protection. To add to the bad news which they at long last were able to tell Rochester it was revealed, the day after the election had been safely tucked into the GOP bag, that the dollar bus pass was in danger of elimination.

Starts Court Action

The admission as to the reality of Rochester's horserooms was made when it was revealed that Joseph Groch, proprietor of a candy store at 394 Main St. E., had brought court actions against Chief Henry T. Copenhagen, Inspector Charles Roth of the Rochester Police Dept., and a representative of a national race wire service to force them to furnish him the same service as was allegedly being given to the other horserooms of Rochester. In his complaint Groch, a World War II veteran charged that the wire service representative told him he would have to get permission from Chief Copenhagen before he could open up Copenhagen, according to the soldier's story, referred him to Inspector Roth who, it was alleged, refused to OK his plea for service on the basis that there were already enough places in his chosen area. Observers here were being given a closeup of cartels at work right in their own fair Republican (by a few thousand votes) Flower City.

Editor Risks Neck

On Monday morning, the aforementioned Democrat & Chronicle created a sensation when editorially it spoke right out in clarion tones and said that there were horserooms operating in Rochester. This admission from the newspaper which up to this point had admitted only that Rochester was a "great city — a Republican city" came as a distinct shock to its rock-ribbed Republican leadership.

However, observers recalled the rumors that accompanied the D & C's long-forgotten blast at the Republican city administration last December. At that time, newspaper circles reported (See GAMBLING Page 7)

FORMER PROFESSOR TO OPEN LABOR FORUM

Kendrick P. Shedd, former professor of languages at the University of Rochester will open the full series of Labor Open Forums at the Labor Lyceum, 580 St. Paul St. next Sunday at 3:15 p. m. Prof. Shedd's topic is, "How Free are Our Freedoms?"

People with extra money will do well to hold on to most of it for the present, at least.

$25 Winner

Mrs. E. Young of 365 Avis Street, is the lucky winner of this week's $25 cash prize, offered by the Sun each week to its sustaining subscribers. This is the reward Mrs. Young gets for paying her Sun carrier, Mary Jane Hardick of 102 Steko Avenue, 10 cents. Mary Jane incidentally collects an extra five dollars bonus.

Each week The Sun conducts a drawing and pays the winner $25. Names of all sustaining subscribers for the current month are entered in the drawing.

10th WARD DEMOCRATS TO FETE CONSTABLE

An old-fashioned turkey festival and Thanksgiving party will be held at Bauman & Baynes Hall, 333 Driving Park Ave. next Tuesday evening under the sponsorship of the Men's and Women's Democratic Clubs of the Tenth Ward. Guests of honor will be Patrick Monaghan, victorious candidate for constable in the recent city election.

Everett Kulp, chairman, has announced that entertainment will be offered, as well as refreshments. There will be no admission charge and an invitation for all of Monaghan's friends to attend has been issued by the sponsoring committee.

KAY'S COMMENTS

ALICE To Promote your Charm will be a "cinch" in a frock from ALICE DRESS SHOP. Flatter-wise details are prevalent in the merchandise at this shop. Styles are becoming—stock is fresh and carefully selected at the source. This shop is comparatively "new" to the average shopper—but has already made loads of friends and customers. Colors for those who want them—and plenty of the beloved blacks—browns and autumn shades. Prices start at $3.95 and up. BLOUSES and SWEATERS are also to be found. Gently priced—with unusual details—and in the sweaters—the softest of wools. Drop into ALICE DRESS SHOP—630 MONROE AVE.—Corner Wilmer—Open Eve.

There's no substitute for a GOOD PERMANENT. And there's no other permanent like a MACHINE WAVE. (Of course you may not agree—but you will when I tell you about the MACHINE WAVE offered as a special by this VIRGINIA GAL.) It's a BONAT MACHINE LIFE-OIL CREME WAVE. Every curl is steamed in a bath of oil. I think this is the answer to a REAL SOFT LASTING PERMANENT. The SPECIAL PRICE is $7.50 regular price $10.50. For a limited time only. OH! I forgot—to tell you all this may be found at VIRGINIA BEAUTY SALON, Stone 348—PRESENT BLDG. Fourth Floor. Opposite Hotel Seneca.

RIPTON DRESSES go gaily about the business of living. They are the "kind of dresses" one lives in. Casual, dressy, or basic, priced at $3.95 and up, they are really a joy to wear. Nicely tailored, high-necked, with a selection of colors, that are becoming and geared to give plenty of wear. WOMEN'S DRESSES at Ripton's are "knock-outs." Priced $3.95 and up, these kind of dresses are a "boom" to the larger figure. Cut with details to hide figure defects, with trim to flatter, why don't you drop in and "look them over"? RIPTON DRESSES are open every evening. Located at 739 MONROE AVE.

CALLING ALL VALUING CONSCIOUS WOMEN. A Clearance of Casual Coats at EDWARDS. Believe me, they really are values. Priced at mere $35—values from $39.75 to $49.75. I defy you to beat this clearance. Here's a very simple description of them: All WOOL TOPPERS—Box Coats, Boy Coats, Chesterfields, Belted Coats. The Materials include Sued Cloth, Fleeces, Shetland Types. A galaxy of autumn colors. Including the beloved black. If you don't possess a TOPPER—you don't realize the need in this climate for one. They are wearable so many days—in the autumn—and will see you "through" a Spring—that we always "ret" in our fair Rochester. The BEAUTIFUL BLACK CHESTERFIELD richly detailed with velvet-trimmed pocket flap and velvet collar 100% virgin wool, shetland weave with platter buttons. Originally $49.75—now just $36. (Don't that a BUY). Then SHAGGY WOOL BOY COAT—with all the latest tricks, elephant ear lapels, brown saddle stitching far-flung shoulders, Milk chocolate brown. Pure wool. Originally $39.75—now only $35. YOU will find these COATS—on the Third Floor at EDWARDS. On the same floor THIRD FLOOR to see the ORIGINAL MOLLY MALONE dresses. They are cut and styled for the 5 ft. 4" and under women. They are darling. The Perky Peplum "Princess" so kind to the small figure, is a rayon faille bodice in hush blue or pink it hugs you tight. A portrait neckline laced in black velvet sets off your face. Add a black rayon crepe skirt and stand-out peplum and you'll give off the "Romantic Look." In sizes 12 to 20—priced $14.95. There are others just as attractive—and I know you'll adore them. Try EDWARDS—Third Floor and see if I'm wrong.

Here's something unusual. FERN CURTISS MAKIN (her Dad is Jack Curtiss of Curtiss Sign Co.) is a talented young woman. Her business is ADVERTISING DISPLAY WORK—SHOW CARDS—INDIVIDUALISTS—FOR Beauty Shops—Cocktail Lounges—Retail Stores etc. When your eye is "caught" by the unusual in the above mentioned places—if you'll take the trouble to ask—you'll find Mrs. Makin has come through with another brain-child. Demands are great on this "lady," but she will always find time to serve you—if you call her—at GLENWOOD 4537-R—or drop into 338 Avis St.—OFF Dewey. P.S. Ask about the SILVER BELL DISPLAY—or the CHRISTMAS CANDLE to enhance your shop or any place of business. The name I repeat is FERN CURTISS MAKIN.

So you're going to have a baby. But the problem of buying "clothes" for the period is really harassing. But not if you shop the "800" SHOP. Here you'll find MATERNITY DRESSES in abundance. New arrivals daily. Prices start at $3.95 and up. Drop in buy "all" you need for this period. You'll be amazed at the high styles, the becoming colors of these "kind of dresses. Select a "dressy" frock—a "casual"—then a "basic" and you're all set. Of course as I always say—the "800" shop has plenty of regular and juniors dresses for your inspection. Priced also $3.95 and up. Located at corner MONROE & CANTONBURY—The "800" SHOP is open eve.

It's smart—It's becoming—It's flattering—It's a HAT—from CARTER HAT SHOP. And you know mildly—a HAT can make or break you. At CARTER'S—you'll never be "sold" a chapeau that doesn't "do something" for you. Mrs. Carter's policy is "a satisfied customer is a permanent one." And her policy has worked so far—more and more women are wearing CARTER'S HATS. BAGS are stunning too at this shop. The famous CORDAY—the PLASTIC GENUINE LEATHER BAG guaranteed. The EVENING BAG with blinking sequins. —THE JUNIOR MISS JEWELRY is also there for you. Priced $1 and up. CARTER HAT SHOP—636 MONROE AVE.—Open Even.

WELD. The prices for this service range from $5 up. Mrs. Weld designs for all occasions. Birthdays, Showers etc. These MINIATURE SCENES are also available to RETAIL STORES. Mrs. Weld also "makes" beautiful CORDE BAGS. Your early order will insure Christmas delivery. Also Doll Wardrobes to delight that young lady in your household. Call MRS. LUCILLE WELD—Genesee 3203 R. 366 INGLEWOOD DRIVE.

It's really a JOB to plan and get that "old turkey" on the festive board THANKSGIVING DAY. And there's no better place to look for help than HOME SERVICE AT ROCHESTER GAS & ELECTRIC. In the basement at 89 East Ave.—HOME SERVICE are giving cooking demonstrations every WEDNESDAY—at 2:30 P. M. and 7:30 P. M. The dinner you've planned for Thanksgiving Day, will be made much simpler to you after attending one of these demonstrations. Whether you're a NEW COOK—or a experienced one—you'll gather one of several shortcuts—at these demonstrations. Plan to attend. Call one of your friends and make a date. R. G. & E. 89 East Ave.

LOOK AT ZWEIG DRESSES—you may now use the "LAY-AWAY PLAN." Select your dress—pay a small deposit—and Mrs. Zweig will "hold it" for the holidays. At this popular shop you'll find HALF SIZES up to 28½, also large sizes 44 to 52. Lovely colors browns, blues, pinks—all becoming. BLACKS in all sizes. Woolens—100% in sizes to 14. Prices start at $3.95. My suggestion is make your selection EARLY. When the busy holidays arrive—you'll have your wardrobe ready—or that gift for the favorite member of your family. ZWEIG DRESSES—240 ROSEDALE—Off Monroe. Open Eve.

Catlet with his great feeling for free and easy lines does a daytime waist lightly draped and tied at the waist—in a full length coat—It is a bright purple with a double file of pearl buttons dyed to the same shade. Nice—don't you think?

Brown steed livercoat in butter along with a little chopped onion.

When onion is cooked, mash livercoat with onion to form a paste and add a little mustard.

We Recommend Fresh Dressed QUICK FROZEN EVISCERATED TURKEYS

And Here's Why . . .

1. Because, under present conditions, unless an old time expert draws a bird, there is a great chance of its being spoiled by unskilled workmanship.
2. Because the logical place to have turkeys drawn is in the packing house itself where specially designed machines and experienced workmen do the work under the most sanitary conditions.
3. Because the freezing keeps them fresh as the day they were drawn.
4. Because each bird has been government-inspected to insure that it is up to strict standards.
5. Because the heart, gizzard and liver have been cleaned, separately wrapped and quick-frozen and put back in the turkey.
6. Because Eviscerated turkeys are ready for the oven, simply unwrap them, wash dry with clean cloth, brush with fat, sprinkle with flour, season with salt and pepper to taste, bake 15 minutes to the pound at 325° if uncovered pan or at 375° if covered.
7. Because YOU ACTUALLY SAVE MONEY: Under OPA ceiling prices, a regular, undrawn turkey with feet and head on weighing 15 pounds will cost you 54c a pound or $8.10. A frozen, eviscerated turkey WITH HEAD AND FEET REMOVED AND DRAWN will weigh about 12 pounds and cost you 67c a pound or $8.04.

EVISCERATED means thoroughly cleaned, head and feet removed, and entrails drawn.

I Am An Empty Wallet

Seven times now I have emptied my contents into the crucible of war, and now . . . for the Eighth time, I pour out the sinews of Victory again . . . Yet, I am something more than a source of munitions and supplies . . . Something more than a pledge for the planes and the tanks and the guns . . . I am the hope of a woman who is waiting . . . I am a solace to the homesteads of America . . . And if an Empty Wallet will comfort an empty heart and restore even one American fighting man to the home that is empty without him, let me not miss this opportunity to buy Victory Bonds, for it will not come my way again.

Republican leader Tom Broderick where he was forced to offer abject apologies for his editorial spanking. Because of that action, minor Republican employees at the Union Trust Co. Bldg. Republican headquarters were dusting off the carpet in front of Broderick's desk this week anticipating the arrival at any moment of the author of the latest "offensive" editorial.

Story "Held" for Election
When the original story "broke" in last Sunday's D & C it was evident that the newspaper's management had "planned it that way" when it was noted that the veteran had filed his action through William L. Clay "about 10 days ago" (from last Sunday). That brought the date of the filing to the Thursday before election. Nothing was reported in the daily press concerning the charges at that time. The answer as to why it has been censored can be found in the phrase . . . the Thursday BEFORE election. And of course, say those wise in the way of politics, it just wouldn't do to let Rochester's church-going voters think that Rochester's policemen protected, or, for that matter, even knew the existence of horserooms in Rochester — the great city — the Republican city.

a whole of a lot of trusting voters who blindly believed the Republican party's "statement of principles", or were gullible enough to believe the local organization had any.

Now . . . in time for Christmas giving . . . we bring back the sensational portrait offer that made this studio famous in Rochester for better pictures at lower prices. Every portrait made with painstaking care by our portrait expert.

the fact that Rochester had half a hundred flourishing, wide-open horse player's parlors and strangely enough the police department and the district attorney's office never, never knew it. This embarrassing revelation by the astute police reporter of the morning paper has resulted in a temporary cessation of Rochester's number one indoor sport—and no end of red faces in the Union Trust Building inner sanctum. There are several remarkable phases in the situation. Not unimportant is how Mr. Elliot's story ever got by the paper's censors (it's not good cricket, you know, to make unkind remarks or reveal detrimental details about the city administration) nor how the politicians managed to keep the lid down so tightly until after election. The suit brought by attorney Clay was filed before Nov. 6. It is rumored among the wise guys that there was a promise of "fix" given the horse room owners until they got in their heavy annual political contributions, and secrecy was maintained in a lot of places. It shouldn't have been, until after election and the unsuspecting public had voted by force of habit for good, clean, Republican rule.

Just another Allee in Wonderland story with the D. A. and Chief Copenhagen and the GOP falsetto chorus singing "I never knew"—and it's lousy!

You'll have to join one of our better clubs if you want to play the slot machines. They have disappeared from their former locations with the horse room scare.

WAKE UP YOUR DIGESTION BELOW THE BELT
Without Stomach Relievers
This Kind of Laxative Help Often Needed When Lower Sluggishness Causes Gassy, Bloating Misery
When most food leaves the stomach, it is not really fully digested. It is in the 24 hours or more of intestine that the greater part of digestion is done. When we get constipated these later stages of digestion work and decay accordingly in the bowels. As a result we may feel full of gas, bloating and other indications of misery. That's when you need Bechmann's Pills. They work to relieve this congestion of waste and encourage the welcome elimination which helps promote better digestion below the belt. Ask your druggist for gentle, safe, reliable Bechmann's Pills today. Caution! Use only as directed.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

At the Penn Central Airline cocktail party Monday night, the hors d'oeuvres were delectable and the potables likewise. Tycoons, retailers, politicians and newsmen gathered to greet the distinguished members of the PCA personnel. Newspapermen in particular were more or less abundant as there is nothing a newsmen likes better than to work on someone else's scotch and groceries.

In a far corner of the suite, two bars and a snack table away from the mayor, vice-mayor, and Councilman Tex Erwin the fourth estate took out their knives and performed an autopsy on the body politic which apparently even after two weeks, is not yet too badly decomposed for the performance. Interrupted only by side trips for refills and canapes this voluble group drew some rather interesting conclusions, to wit:

That the Democrats didn't do too badly. Mr. Mac Farlin (S. W.) took pains to tell those who read his ads that the enrollment showed a "preference for Republicanism of five to one" but it seems when the voting is done it's a long way from the fact. Harold's club got in by an approximate eight per cent margin in the city, and apparently a great many "preferred" not to vote the way they enrolled.

Also there are some 45,000 Rochesterians who are sick enough of Republican "shenanigans" to vote Democratic. It should slightly stir the mental processes of the local rulers to (See POLKA Page 17)

St. Andrews Seminary
Seeks Half Million
For New Building

The diamond jubilee campaign to raise half a million dollars for a new St. Andrew's Preparatory Seminary will be conducted throughout the Rochester Diocese next February 7 to 22, 1946. Bishop James E. Kearney announced this week.

Bishop Kearney is honorary chairman of the drive to build a new preparatory seminary for the training of candidates for the diocesan priesthood. An advisory committee of seven clergymen has been named by Bishop Kearney to assist in the direction of the campaign. A layman will be selected. (See ST. ANDREWS Page 13)

Exchange Greetings At

Painting a promising picture of the future of air travel in this area, C. Bedell Monro, president of the Pennsylvania Central Airlines formally opened the Rochester-Washington route of the company at a dinner meeting Tuesday in the Chamber of Commerce. Welcomed to the city by business, industrial and civic leaders, Monro coupled his promises for the future with a warning that "communities must keep abreast of developments if air travel is to be developed to its full potential."

City Groups Join Bond Sale Drive

Reports of City-Wide Scout Canvass Awaited As Brokers Plan Loan Aid

With Boy Scouts, school students, investment brokers, liquor dealers, volunteer workers and other organized groups all pressing for bond sales and pledges, Rochester's Victory Loan campaign this week headed down the stretch toward its $50 million overall goal with $15,200.00 of that in bonds to individuals.

CITY JOINS BIBLE READING MOVEMENT

Rochester today joins with thousands of other communities in a world-wide daily Bible reading program sponsored by the American Bible Society.

As a result of the movement's success in 1944, Congress has passed a resolution setting aside the period from Thanksgiving to Christmas each year for that purpose, according to the Rev. Harold E. Dickens, Rochester representative of the Bible group.

Last year confined solely to the United States, the society is said to have enlarged the idea for this year to include the whole world and through its agencies scattered over the globe has scheduled a list of selected passages of scripture for daily reading during the program.

In addition to the 25,000 copies of the reading schedule distributed in Rochester and vicinity by the Rev. Dickens, 3,000 copies were to be placed on trays of hospital patients this morning. An Additional (See BIBLE Page 7)

While final reports of the citywide canvass being con- ducted by Boy Scout bond sel- lers have not been heard, it is expected that scores of bond buying pledges will be garner- ed by the khaki-clad lads, ac- cording to Leo M. Sandefur, chief of the Oletiana Council, scout organization in this area.

School Pupils Active

Meanwhile it was reported this week that Rochester public school pupils had pushed their Victory Loan drive past the 36 percent mark with more than $90,000 already purchased. Quota for the schools is $248,202, but this mark is expected to be surpassed, according to Jackson Gallup, principal of No. 17 School and chairman of the drive.

Toyland 'Shows' Ready—Stores Await Rush of Small Fry

By ORVILLE ALLEN

The traditional Christmas shopping "rush" is scheduled to begin tomorrow morning in Rochester stores. And "shopping" is expected to include more than just a buying trip for thousands of youngsters as well as grownups. Officials of downtown stores have completed programs planned months ago to lure the city's younger set into their toy departments where they will be exposed to all sorts of ideas as to what Santa should include in his pack for them.

At Sibley's the kids can talk to Santa in person and then view a free circus, complete with menagerie, bareback riders, clowns and animals. Main difference between Sibley's circus and the sawdust and tent variety is that the department store's performers and animals are of papier mache rather than flesh and blood. They are otherwise completely realistic.

Travel-minded small fry are again delighting in the "toy-town trip" offered in Edward's toy department. An electric train carrying some 20 passengers makes regular trips into "fairyland" converted from the store's subway formerly connecting two units of the firm. Another "genuine" Santa is ready to hear the pleas and hopes of the kids in Edwards.

Proving that Santa can be all things to all people as well as everywhere at once, the youngsters will be happy to discover "he" is also at McCurdy's. In addition to that affable person, chief attraction for the junior shoppers will be the automobile merry-go-round which has proven a big "hit" with the youngsters in former years. Special shopping hours announced by the Retail Merchants Council will include eight evenings when stores will remain open until 9 p. m. Regular openings of 10 a. m. and 12:30 p. m. on Mondays will be maintained except on Monday, Dec. 24 when stores will be open from 10 a. m. to 5:30 p. m. Downtown stores will be closed all day Monday, Dec. 31.

Evening shopping dates are as follows:
Sat., Dec. 8; Mon., Dec. 10; Fri., Dec. 14; Sat., Dec. 15; Mon., Dec. 17; Thurs., Dec. 20; Fri., Dec. 21; Sat., Dec. 22.

Spanish Dancers At Eastman Tomorrow

When the death of the late Argentinita was announced this summer Rochester followers of the exotic Spanish dancer felt that a void had been created which might never again be filled. That they were wrong will be proven on the stage of the Eastman Theater tomorrow evening when Rosario and Antonio, two exciting Spanish dancers bring their company to Rochester for the first time. While they will rekindle memories of the former Spanish favorite, reports from other cities say they will also make admirers forget that same Argentinita. Rosario and Antonio are from Seville, Spain. There they were called affectionately, "Los Chavallitos," which in its simplest form means, "The kids." After triumphs in their native Spain, they came to South America to arouse Latin-American excitement to a high pitch. Then came Argentina, Brazil, Chile, Peru, Cuba and Mexico.

BIBLE . . .

4000 copies were scheduled for distribution among worshippers at the Eastman Theater's Union Thanksgiving service today.

Copies of the Bible reading schedule may be obtained from church pastors, bookstores and book counters or from the Rev. Dickens. Aiding in publicizing the program will be the reading of the daily passages on national and local radio programs. More than 1000 posters have been placed in store windows throughout the city urging participation in the campaign.

What's the use to worry about weighty issues—Congress is in session.

Ed Randall's Scene & Word

The other night a gentlemen slightly the worse for drink was standing at one of our downtown bars. Suddenly, with no warning, he shouted to the world at large: "I'll give five bucks to any guy who can drink 6 pints of beer in two minutes." Nobody paid much attention to this magnificent offer with the exception of a small, nondescript-appearing chap who suddenly left the bar and vanished into the night. About five minutes later he returned and took his place beside the lush who had offered the bet. "Is that offer still on?" he inquired. "Sure is," was the reply, "but I don't think you can do it." "Well, you order the beer and I'll show you." So, the 6 pints of beer out a watch to time the imbibing, and, lo and behold, the runty little guy downed the 6 pints with two seconds to spare. Amid the cheering, he pocketed the fin and said to no one in particular: "I wasn't sure I could do it, so I went up the street to Louie's and timed myself."

Definition of a barber: A man who is paid to get in your hair.

And you probably know what one little watch said to the other little watch: "Darling, we must always tick together."

Definition of a split second: The interval between the time the light turns green and the motorist behind you begins blowing his horn.

Down south one day a patriotic civilian noticed a sad-looking soldier standing outside a baseball park and decided to cheer him up by talking in the GI's own language. "Say, Corporal," he greeted, "what time does the game start this afternoon — 1400 hours or 1430?" The sad-panned soldier took off his cap and scratched his head. "Far as I can make out, bub," he answered in pure and beautiful Brooklynese, "it commences at t'ree toity!"

One of the routine questions asked undergraduates every year is: "Why did you come to college?" Most of the answers are intelligent and reasonable, but the dean was stumped at this one from a disappointed co-ed: "I came to college to be went with — but I ain't yet."

Definition of a wedding ring: A matrimonial tourniquet designed to stop circulation.

Here's another silly animal story! It concerns a party of men who were elephant-hunting in India. The preparations for the hunt had been elaborate, deep pits were dug and all the tricks of the trade had been used, but results were only fair. One of the party, who made no fuss at all, was phenomenally successful in bagging a number of elephants. "I say, old man," asked one envious member of the party, "how do you do it? We who have put so much time and effort into the business don't seem to do nearly as well as you." "Well, it's all very simple," replied the successful one. "All I need is a blackboard and easel, with chalk, of course, a pair of opera glasses, a pair of tweezers and a jam jar." "Good heavens," cried the others, "you can't catch elephants with stuff like that!" "Oh, yes, I can," was the calm reply. "I go out in the jungle, set up my blackboard, write on it two plus two are five. An elephant comes along and sees it, and being a sociable sort of animal, goes and fetches other elephants to share the joke of my error. There I am, sitting up a tree, and there are all the elephants laughing their heads off around the blackboard. Then all I have to do is to look at them through the wrong end of the opera glasses — which makes them very small, of course — pick them up with tweezers, and pop them in the jar, and there you are!"

Then there's the fanciful tale of the two painters who were working on the interior of one of our better homes. One of them was atop a high ladder painting the ceiling of a room when his helper called to him: "Hey, Joe, got a good grip on that brush?" "Sure thing," replied Joe. "Good," said the first painter, "I'm taking the ladder."

The telephone rang in one of our hospitals the other day. The lady at the other end of the line identified herself as Mrs.

Smith and said: "I want to inquire about my neighbor's little boy, Willie Jones. He swallowed a half dollar the other day. How is he?" Came the reply: "No change in him yet."

Neglect Intimate Feminine Cleanliness!

Too many young women still don't realize how important douching with such an effective product as Zonite is to womanly health and appearance. Such ignorance of cleanliness has wrecked many a marriage. Weak, homemade mixtures of salt, soda or vinegar so hot and can not give the great germicidal and deodorant action of Zonite. No other type liquid antiseptic-germicide for the douche of all those tested is so powerful, yet so safe to delicate tissues. Zonite positively contains no mercuric bichloride, no mercury, no phenol.

SUPPORT THE VICTORY LOAN

A Typical Day In The Life of a Boy Scout Victory Loan Canvasser

SETS THE PACE — Eagle Scout Bob Maloney, 160 Pershing Dr., a member of Boy Scout Troop No. 44 sets out to fill his quota of pledges in the Scouts' city-wide canvass for Victory Bonds. Here is how he spent his first day:

- 1—Thinking of his best girl, Bob goes first to the home of Joyce Erath, 45 Mitchell St. But Joyce was not at home, so Bob sells the bond idea to her mother, Mrs. Fred W. Erath. She's used to buying things, too—her husband is city purchasing agent.
- 2—Because he has a "fair" reputation in the neighborhood, Bob decides to seek pledges from residents in his area. Mrs. Carl Wolf, 195 Pershing Dr. hears his story and gladly signs a pledge card.
- 3—The corner delicatessen looks like a good spot, so Bob drops in to see J. D. O'Connell, proprietor of O'Connell's Delicatessen, Pershing Dr. and Bay Sts. He scores another.
- 4—Eager to get on with his work, Bob spots the approaching milkman, Wesley A. Mertz, 405 Hurstbourne Rd., forgets his deliveries for a moment to "help finish the job."
- 5—Bob may be accustomed to hiking through his scout activities, but he's never hiked like this before. Arriving home late in the afternoon, he "freshens up a bit" by soaking his feet while taking a "snooze." His dog "Skipper" can't quite understand the comatose condition of his usually-active master.

STILL behind the Eight Ball..

and is our face red?

BACK around V-J Day it looked as though your Transit Company would shortly be able to eliminate much of the delay and inconvenience resulting from more than three and a half years of wartime operation. But things haven't worked out that way.

The lifting of wartime restrictions hasn't yet made available the parts desperately needed to repair the 125 buses lying idle in our shops.

And with today's unsettled conditions, there seems to be no immediate prospect of correcting this situation. In fact, it may become still worse before it gets better.

We had counted on having 115 new buses! On order since last year, they were scheduled to arrive last July. But now the manufacturer tells us not to expect them "before Spring at the earliest".

For your understanding cooperation during the war we are grateful. And now, because of circumstances beyond our control, we ask your indulgence a little longer. We realize the short-comings of our present service—regret we are powerless to remedy matters until vitally needed repair parts (or new buses) are available.

Until peacetime material flows more freely, Rochester Transit Corporation engineers, executives, workers in all departments are exerting every effort to keep our buses rolling—to maintain and deserve your continued good will.

BONDS . . .

they met with Raymond N. Ball, District Two chairman of the War Finance Committee to formulate plans for their participation as a group in the drive.

Army and railroad officials were in Rochester this week to complete plans for the one-day visit of the Victory Train, bearing original German and Japanese surrender papers, next Thursday, at the New York Central Station. The train has been receiving visitors at the rate of 2,000 an hour, according to Lieut. Jack Thompson.

He's Still a Long Way from Home!

...Yes, the war was no pink tea. With V-J Day many a fighting man was too tired to think. For a long time we're going to have to do a lot of thinking and "doing" for the men who have done their part in winning the complete victory.

...That will cost money. There were well over a million casualties during this most destructive of wars. Many of these men will have to have medical care and treatment for a long time to come. Others need guidance before they can return to normal life. Millions of dollars will be needed for this and other rehabilitation work.

...That's why this Victory Loan is so important. It's your chance to prove to your fighting men that they are not forgotten... that we can never repay them for what they have done.

...Gaze deep into your heart—and remember and act. Victory has brought us tremendous obligations. Every American must do his part in this great task. Right now, our job is to buy more bonds than ever before during the Victory Loan. Buy them in humble gratitude—buy them now.

find that about 43 percent of the voting public is "agin 'em," and seem to disagree with their policies.
Furthermore, those who run on the local GOP ticket next year are quite apt to be sacrificial lambs. Observers are voluble enough to state that Governor Dewey is not only "through" but is not likely to seek re-designation (nor be accorded it if he does). He may try for the senate, and much of his barnstorming in the "sticks" is with that in mind. With New York City turning out a Democratic plurality nearing the three-quarter million mark and Tammany so definitely back in the saddle, whoever runs for governor on the Republican ticket next fall is going just for the ride. The predicted Democratic sweep in '46 will surely be more than enough to overcome the slim local Republican margin and take city and county posts in the Democratic column as well.

"And that with the whole-hearted support and co-operation of the daily press, unlimited funds, five to one enrollment and heavy patronage in their favor it's obvious enough that the Republican party's close squeak indicates they are beginning to fall apart at the seams. Roy Bush, in the face of these odds, did by far the better job.

A few days ago Representative Noah M. Mason of Illinois harrumphed to his feet in the sacred halls of Congress and recommended that Bob Taft, the senatorial prissy puss from Ohio, was just what the doctor ordered "to lead us out of the financial and economic morass into which Roosevelt's New Deal Socialism has plunged the nation." Congressman Mason urged the GOP to make balding Bobby the standard bearer in '48. He suggested Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Mass. as his running mate. (Henry being both a Cabot and a Lodge can at least speak to himself.)

We don't know how seriously this was accepted in Republican circles but we know of nothing that would bring greater joy to the Democrats. Mr. Taft no doubt has many fine points and well-concealed abilities but his personal life is about as interesting as a pickled parsnip and it would take all the dough in the GOP's treasure chest to sell him to the voting public.

It is rumored that Democratic National Chairman Bob Han-negan now gets Mr. Taft in his prayers each night—right after "God Bless Grandma" he injects "God Bless Bobbie Taft, keep him healthy and make him
the Republican nominee in '48 —for as you know, oh Lord, we can beat the pants off him and carry Maine and Vermont, too!"

Maybe it's mean to mention anything more about the Rochester sales des chevaux but as curtailed wire service hasn't had a salutary effect on "the great city's" phone service this statistic might be of interest to local do-gooders to wit:

For the first six months of New York State's fiscal year the bits on the ponies swelled the already swollen coffers of Mr.
Dewey's put and take office much more than did John Barley Corn. The pari-mutuel tax was up the trifling sum of $1-240,519 to $22,654,334. The alcoholic beverage tax take was up only $1,088,442 to $13-050,474.

The Anti-Saloon League seems to be missing a beautiful opportunity to take on another issue and make themselves obnoxious to our state senators.

It's been uncommonly quiet around town lately. No one has given Carl Hallauer a medal in more than two weeks.

Happy Housewife

"I bought a summer resort hotel for almost nothing."
"You won't get any business though, will you?"
"It doesn't matter. We got ten dozen sheets and sixteen dozen pillow cases with it."

WE GIVE THEE THANKS

In the name of the living, and of the dead,
And of those unborn — Lord, bless the bread
Of brotherhood that we now break
In gratitude for Thy sweet sake.

In the name of the living — we thank Thee, Lord,
For deliverance from flame and sword;
For loved ones spared; for the task well done;
For the battle fought — and the victory won.

In the name of the dead — locked deep in sleep
Under alien earth — give us strength to keep Their dearly-bought gift — untarnished, free,
The brave, bright armor of liberty.

And for those unborn — Lord, we lift a prayer
For a wiser world where we all may share
Enduring friendship and accord;
For this we give thee thanks, O Lord!

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

The snow-laden wind whooped around the Statler corner in Buffalo Friday and it was all a body could do to make the revolving doors without the aid of the mounties or the board of supervisors. Chilled to what is usually referred to as "the marrow" we sought out the establishment's most popular lounge bar gives the incomers the perfect illusion. Everyone is not only cold but gets the impression he is "snow blind." (The real reason for the low wattage, I am told by customers, is to prevent the customers from screaming out loud at the size of the shot you get for six bits). Shuffling on half-frozen feet (we wore our open-toed jobs—and no rubbers) we reached the bar by ear—the buzz and mumbling was louder in that direction. Clutching the necessary in a frozen fist we finally reached it. From out of the murk a bartender appeared (it could have been a St. Bernard) and took our husky voiced order.

Warmed by internal applications of a well-known scotchish product we took interest in the surroundings. On our right a silent young man in Canadian flyer's uniform with the words "Norway" on the shoulder of his sleeve. On the left two voluble and well-dressed gentlemen of about fifty, discussing the Pearl Harbor Inquiry to which the young soldier was apparently paying more than passing attention.

The Pearl Harbor conversation was safely Republican. We

MAGAZINE URGES HOME BUILDING PLAN

700,000 New Homes in Nation Next Year Seen By Trade Paper

CHICAGO—Constructive action to channel presently scarce labor and materials to the home builders of the country could result in 700,000 new home and apartment units being built in the next 12 months, says "Practical Builder," trade magazine of the building industry. The magazine suggests a four point program involving cooperation on the part of materials manufacturers, dealers, builders, labor and the government, as the best means for getting more homes and apartments quickly.

There is not enough material and labor to go around and the home owner and home builder can not compete with the high prices offered labor on commercial, industrial and public works construction. Practical Builder says, pointing out that skilled workers on factory and other jobs are being offered as much as $2.50 an hour.

Housing shortages have reached crisis proportions in many cities and will grow worse as more R. I.'s come back and

CENTER OF INTEREST—Original documents of surrender of Germany and those signed aboard the U. S. S. Missouri for the Japanese capitulation are attracting a throng of viewers to the Victory Loan Special Train which is open to the public until nine o'clock tonight. Other materials of war are also on display in the five-car train at the New York Central Station.

CITY GREET'S VICTORY LOAN TRAIN

Surrender Documents, War Materials on Display Here, Until 9 P. M. Tonight

The shooting may be over, but Rochester is still definitely interested in the war and the tools of war.

That was proved at an early hour this morning when the giant No. 1 Victory Bond special train opened for inspection on Track 14 at the New York Central Station.

Creeching into the city from Syracuse during the night, the train and its displays of war materials was opened to the public at 8 a. m. Even at that early hour, a considerable crowd had gathered, intent on seeing the original German and Japanese surrender documents and other paraphernalia.

Ceremonies Aired

But festivities really got underway at 8 a. m. when all three local radio stations carried a 15 minute broadcast direct from the station where Mayor Samuel B. Dicker, city and war finance officials and veterans organization's commanders welcomed the army group to the city.

The train will be open for public display until 9 p. m. tonight.

No bond purchases are necessary for admittance to the train but booths have been set up inside the station to take care of those who may wish to buy additional bonds. Entrance to the train is made through the

FORMER GERMAN NEWS MAN TO SPEAK HERE

Paul Hagen, former German newspaper editor, will speak at the Labor Open Forum in the Labor Lyceum, 580 St. Paul St. next Sunday at 3:15 p. m. His topic will be, "Germany Under Allied Government."

Hagen received his education at the University of Vienna. As a newspaper editor in Germany he watched the Nazis rise and in 1932 helped found small anti-Nazi groups to function underground after Hitler had power. He was eventually forced to flee Germany to escape the Gestapo. In the United States since 1940, he has written and spoken constantly on German conditions. His books "Will Germany Crack?" and "Germany Under Hitler" are widely known.

Governor Urges Liberal Buying of Health Seals

Governor Thomas E. Dewey this week urged generous purchase and use of Christmas Seals as a practical means of citizens participation in the final drive to wipe out tuberculosis.

"In a recent public address I proposed that as a State we take the far reaching step of declaring all out warfare on tuberculosis and to direct our efforts toward finishing the job in 20 years," said the Governor.

"Now comes the 39th annual nationwide sale of Christmas Seals. This will provide the funds with which the citizen tuberculosis associations—city, county and state—can do their part in this great enterprise.

ADULT, CHILD'S MOVIE BILLS SET AT MUSEUM

Two free movie programs have been scheduled for this weekend by the Rochester Museum on East Ave. On Saturday morning youngsters will be entertained by several comedies, and a nature study. On Sunday afternoon a program of travel and industrial films will be exhibited for adults.

The Saturday bill, which starts at 10:30 a. m. includes two Popeye cartoons, a short on the "Quiz Kids," and a short entitled "Nature's Songsters," showing the habits of American birds.

Included in the Sunday afternoon program which will start at 3 p. m. are the films "The Bottom of the World," "Freedom Rides on Rubber," and "Week-end in Bermuda."

WAKE UP YOUR DIGESTION BELOW THE BELT
Without Stomach Relievers

When most food leaves the stomach, it is by no means fully digested. It is in the 24 hours of more or less rest that the greater part of digestion is done. When we eat undigested food, the later stages of digestion are hindered. This leads to gas, bloating, flatulence, and other unpleasant symptoms. That's why you need Barbasol. They work where you need them. They break down the food, so that it is fully digested before it reaches the stomach. Barbasol is the only medicine that works so fast.

KAY'S COMMENTS—by kay shearer

SALE AT RIPTON DRESSES—you'll find a group of dresses on SALE. They are priced at $5.95 to $10.95—formerly $8.95 to $16.95. They have been carefully selected from the regular stock and marked at these low prices. They are EXCELLENT VALUES. Of course you won't find all sizes in all styles—but after all, at these prices—in these days—you can't expect the impossible. They are all typical RIPTON quality—highly styled and will give you plenty of service. My advice is to shop TODAY—while selections are at their peak. RIPTON DRESSES—739 MONROE AVE.—Open Eve.

Why not ask your "old man" for a pair of real worky pajamas for Christmas. No—not the kind you slip in—but the kind you entertain "in". For instance I saw a beautiful pair—with long beautifully tailored black trousers—and top in a bright shocking pink top.

Black rayon jersey takes care of dress-up occasions. Wear the long full skirt with a turtle-neck blouse in black or white and set them off with a sequin-studded grosgrain ribbon belt. The blouse sells for about five dollars—the skirt—for about ten.

The Phil (but not) harmonic Orchestra displayed in a Monroe Ave. Music Store. The display copped third prize in a national window display contest.

Orchestra Wins Prize In First Appearance

By ORVILLE ALLEN
It took Leo Goldman more than two years to complete but now that his "orchestra" has won third prize in a nationwide contest, he agrees it was worth all the time and effort put into the project.

Goldman, who has operated the Monroe Record Shop at 722 Monroe Ave. since last June has long been interested in music. That's how he happened to start his "orchestra" which is now attracting considerable attention from passersby at his Monroe Ave. store.

This week Goldman received word that he had won third prize in a nationwide window display contest sponsored by Columbia records. His orchestra is the window's center of interest.

Each of the 55 musicians was constructed of pipe cleaners. Instruments were gathered in novelty shops from New York to Chicago. And if Goldman looks a bit bald headed to his friends, source of the hair on his musicians heads revealed the answer. Yes, there's some of Goldman's own hair glued to the top of the heads which represent heads on the orchestra players. And, just to lend variety, Goldman also snipped and used locks from the heads of his sister, his mother, his wife — and even a couple from his four-year old daughter.

Technical help on the project was rendered by Herman Surasky who arranged the orchestra layout to match the Rochester Philharmonic. Surasky should know about that — he plays first violin in the philharmonic.

But Goldman claims his orchestra is being conducted by Bruno Walther and that little fellow to the left of center with the fiddle is Nathan Milstein. They're playing Mendelssohn's Concerto in E Minor, says Goldman. And he can prove it to each musician has the proper score on the music rack in front of him.

SCHENLEY SETS NEW HIGH IN WAR ALCOHOL

Production and delivery of 54,000,000 proof gallons of war alcohol to government agencies during the fiscal year ended on August 31, 1945, raising the company's total deliveries since the war's inception to a peak of 202,000,000 proof gallons, or approximately 14 per cent of all the alcohol produced by all registered beverage distillers for war purposes, was reported this week by Schenley Distillers Corp. in its annual report mailed to stockholders.

While continuing to carry out its broad objectives directed toward a maximum contribution to the war effort throughout the period ending almost coincidentally with war's end, the company also continued to maintain the distribution of varied civilian products, while extending the diversification of its business and expansion of physical properties, according to the statement signed by Lewis S. A girl, filling out a form before going to college, came to the question: "What is your denominational preference?" She wrote: "I like to be called Betty."

POLICE NAB GANG OF SHOPLIFTERS

GIRL ELECTRICIAN PAYS COLLEGE BILLS AT TRADE

Rushville, Mo. — Electrical wiring is paying the college expenses of Betty Jean Canovan. The seventeen-year-old girl, who liked to watch her father work, ended up the summer by wiring 15 farm homes and a schoolhouse, single-handed. She has contracts to wire 20 more farms this fall and winter and she does most of the electrical repair work in Rushville.

An article which tells of "a discovery more important to the welfare of mankind than the atomic bomb."

QUALITY—A COMPLETE NOVEL

The story of Finkley, who came home after twelve years to a strange welcome. Why was the big house forbidden to her? And the love of a man like Chester?

Don't miss this Christmas issue. It's crammed with fascinating fiction, many special features for the holiday season, beauty and fashion articles and helpful suggestions for food and homemaking.

Rush the Policy

The insurance office was called by an excited woman.

"I want to insure my house," she said. "Can I do it over the phone?"

"I'm afraid not. Perhaps we'd better send a man along."

"I've got to do it immediately. I tell you," came the frantic voice. "The place is on fire!"

Ed Randall's Scene & Word

The other day an harassed-looking Christmas shopper approached the clerk in the pet shop of one of our department stores.

She pointed to a bright appearing canary that was singing merrily and told the clerk she wished to buy it.

"That's fine," replied the clerk, "but you'll have to take the canary in the cage below, too."

The customer looked at the bird in the lower cage. It was a battered, broken-down, tired canary that no one would ever want in their home.

"But I don't want the bird in the cage below," the customer told the clerk. "I want the bird above, the one that sings."

"I'm sorry," the clerk retorted, "but if you take the one above you have to take the other one, as well."

"I haven't any use for that bedraggled-looking bird. I'll be glad to pay you for it, but I don't want to take it with me," said the customer.

"Look, lady," shouted the clerk, "you can't take the one above without taking the one below, and that's final."

"But, why?" asked the customer in some anger.

"Because," explained the clerk, "he's the song arranger."

Then there was the department store floor manager who who caught one of the clerks drawing and said: "Pardon me, but your sleep is showing."

And a reporter was interviewing a leathery, alert elderly gentleman who admitted to the ripe old age of 105.

"I'll tell you, bub," said the old codger, "good eating and good drinking is what has preserved me."

Wine is the only beverage for a sensible human being. Why am I in such perfect health today? Because not a drop of water has ever passed my lips.

"Oh, come now, grandpop," laughed the reporter. "Don't you ever brush your teeth in the morning?"

"For that," replied the old gent gravely, "I use a light sauterne."

While we're on the subject of drinking, and not a bad subject either, you can do yourself a favor by sending for that cocktail recipe book which is being offered free to our readers.

It contains recipes for forty different kind of drinks, all of the old favorites and many new ones.

There's one for a party egg nog made of rum that sounds a-o-o g-o-o-d. Full details about this offer will be found on another page of the paper, but I can tell you here that all you have to do is to send me your name and address specifying the number of books you want.

Don't enclose any postage, just name, address and number of books. Why not do it now while you're thinking about it and have the recipe book in time for Christmas entertaining. It will take about three weeks for the book to arrive and the man of the house will bless you for it.

Ran into an old friend on Main Street the other day who had just returned from the Pacific. He said one of the favorite stories making the rounds out there concerns the time that General MacArthur and Admiral Nimitz went fishing together.

In a sudden squall the boat overturned, and the two eminent fighting men found themselves floundering helplessly in the water.

The Admiral was the first to get back to the boat. With the aid of an oar, he finally got the General aboard.

"Now, Mac," cautioned Nimitz, "don't mention this to anyone. I'd be disgraced if the men of the Navy find out that I can't swim."

"Don't worry," MacArthur replied. "Your secret is safe with me. I'd hate to have my men find out I can't walk on water."

Observation: He who throws mud only loses ground.

You might like to hear the sad tale about a merchant who rented a store in a poor section of a city, stocked it with shoddy merchandise, and sat back waiting for fortune to come his way.

As was to be expected, business did not materialize, the poor guy couldn't pay for the stock on his shelves, so he decided after four anxious weeks that his only out was to declare himself a bankrupt.

The next day a large sign on the store window read: "OPENED BY MISTAKE"

Know the Type?

Barry Fitzgerald was late for dinner at his brother's house in Hollywood one night last week, and when he finally arrived, he was furious.

People, he said, had detained him at HIS house. "What kind of people were they that detained you?" his brother asked.

"They were the kind of people," said Mr. Fitzgerald, "that when they stand up, they think they've gone."

Candid Comment

A woman who had never enjoyed many comforts or pleasures in her life was seeing the ocean for the first time. She stood with folded hands and looked at it.

"It's the first thing I've ever seen," she said, "that there's enough of."

HOMEMAKERS CLASSES RESUME AT BUREAU

The series of free classes for homemakers sponsored by the Rochester and Monroe County Nutrition committee will resume its sessions this evening with a lecture and demonstration on "Use of Fruits and Vegetables." The class will be held at 7:30 p. m. in the Rochester Home Bureau.

Final meeting of the class will be held next Thursday when a talk and demonstration on "Yeast Bread and Rolls" will be given.

All Rochester women are invited to attend remaining meetings of the course, according to Miss Marguerite Popp, executive secretary of the committee.

"Out with it!" said the skipper. "If you can't say it, sing it!"

The sailor took a long breath and sang: "Should auld acquaintance be forgot and never brought to mind? The bosun's mate fell overboard—he's a half a mile behind."

Heard at the U. S. O. Dance

She (cooly): "You can take me to the theater tomorrow night unless of course you meet someone more attractive in the meantime."

He (frankly): "I say, that's very decent of you. We'll leave it like that, then, shall we?"

Here's one of two men whose future should interest you

Yesterday, this fellow was an American fighting man. Today, he's an ex-soldier—wondering what kind of a future he'll find in the country he fought for.

We've all agreed that his future interests us—that we have an obligation here. Loans, education, a chance for a decent job—they're not too much to give a man who had the toughest of this war.

The way to discharge your obligation to this fellow is to buy extra Bonds in the Victory Loan. And the nice part of it is that, when you do this, you're taking care of another fellow's future, too.

You're making sure that you, yourself, will have a financial anchor to windward. You're putting your money to work, earning more money for you. You're making sure you'll have extra cash, in a few short years, for the things you want.

For the ex-soldier's sake, and for your own, buy all the Victory Bonds you can.

Following the Victory Loan, the sale of E, F, and G U. S. Savings Bonds will continue through regular authorization agencies and through the Payroll Savings Plan.

POLKA . . .
judged from their remarks that Roosevelt not only was guilty of all the crimes in the book but had really antagonized the peace-loving Japanese and provoked them into the assault on the now infamous 7th F. D. R. had been a rascal, had run the country to the dogs and so forth.

The young Canadian had by this time, been joined by a Sergeant in American uniform and they were paying a whole lot more attention to the conversation than we. Finally they plumped their empty glasses on the bar and climbed over me to accost the well-dressed gentlemen.

Said the American Sgt.: "My friend here is from Norway.
He's pretty sure he knows more about who started the war than you do—or the congressmen in Washington."

The w.d.g. were taken aback.
The Norwegian boy began to speak for himself, said he, "You men are talking about a man who is considered everywhere, but in this room, apparently, as the greatest American of all time. You further have the bad taste to accuse him when he is dead and unable to put you in your place with a simple phrase.
You are a disgrace to America —you are (and he seemed to want to spit) Quislings."

"Here, here — don't get excited," said the w.d.g., "have a drink." Whereupon the American Sgt. chimed in, "Hell," said he, "we'd rather drink with Hitler," and withdrew, stepping across me again.

The well-dressed gentlemen eyed each other a minute, finished their drinks hurriedly and scrammed.

The American Sergeant watched them leave. He turned to his friend, "why couldn't this have happened next week
—I'll be out of the army then—and I could have punched them both in the puss."

The Stoller bar may be right about their dim lighting but they will have to do something about the accents or w.d.g. with Republican leanings won't be any safer there than they are in Alabama.

When Frankenstein, the CIO man, failed to make the grade in the Detroit mayoralty race the unions had a clubby little chat among themselves. They won't venture out on their own again (at least for some years) but will be satisfied to back candidates of one or the other of the political parties.

HOUSING . . .

more war workers return to their home towns. The magazine's four point program to get more housing asks that:

1. Dealers and manufacturers of materials or equipment pledge themselves to give priority to new home and apartment construction.
 2. Labor pledge itself to deliver a full day's work for a day's pay, and to work with general contractors to resist black market labor.
 3. Government devote energies to providing full cooperation with the building industry in the removal of bottlenecks in materials, labor and price. Surplus material should be ferreted out and made available to builders.
 4. Builders exert all their energies to get home building started quickly and pushed with all possible speed and to hold prices down.
- In addition to this program, the building trade organ points out a little patience on the part of the public would help. "We have a housing shortage today for the same reason that we have an automobile shortage—because of the war." The industry is converting from war work as rapidly as possible, but labor is slow in returning to mines, forests, factories and building sites.

Cocktail Recipe Booklets Free To Sun Readers

A cocktail recipe book—first of its kind to be published since the war is now available to Sun readers free of charge. Called the "Mixer's Manual," the book contains recipes for whiskey, gin and other favorite cocktails and is designed to help home mixers who will entertain during the holiday season.

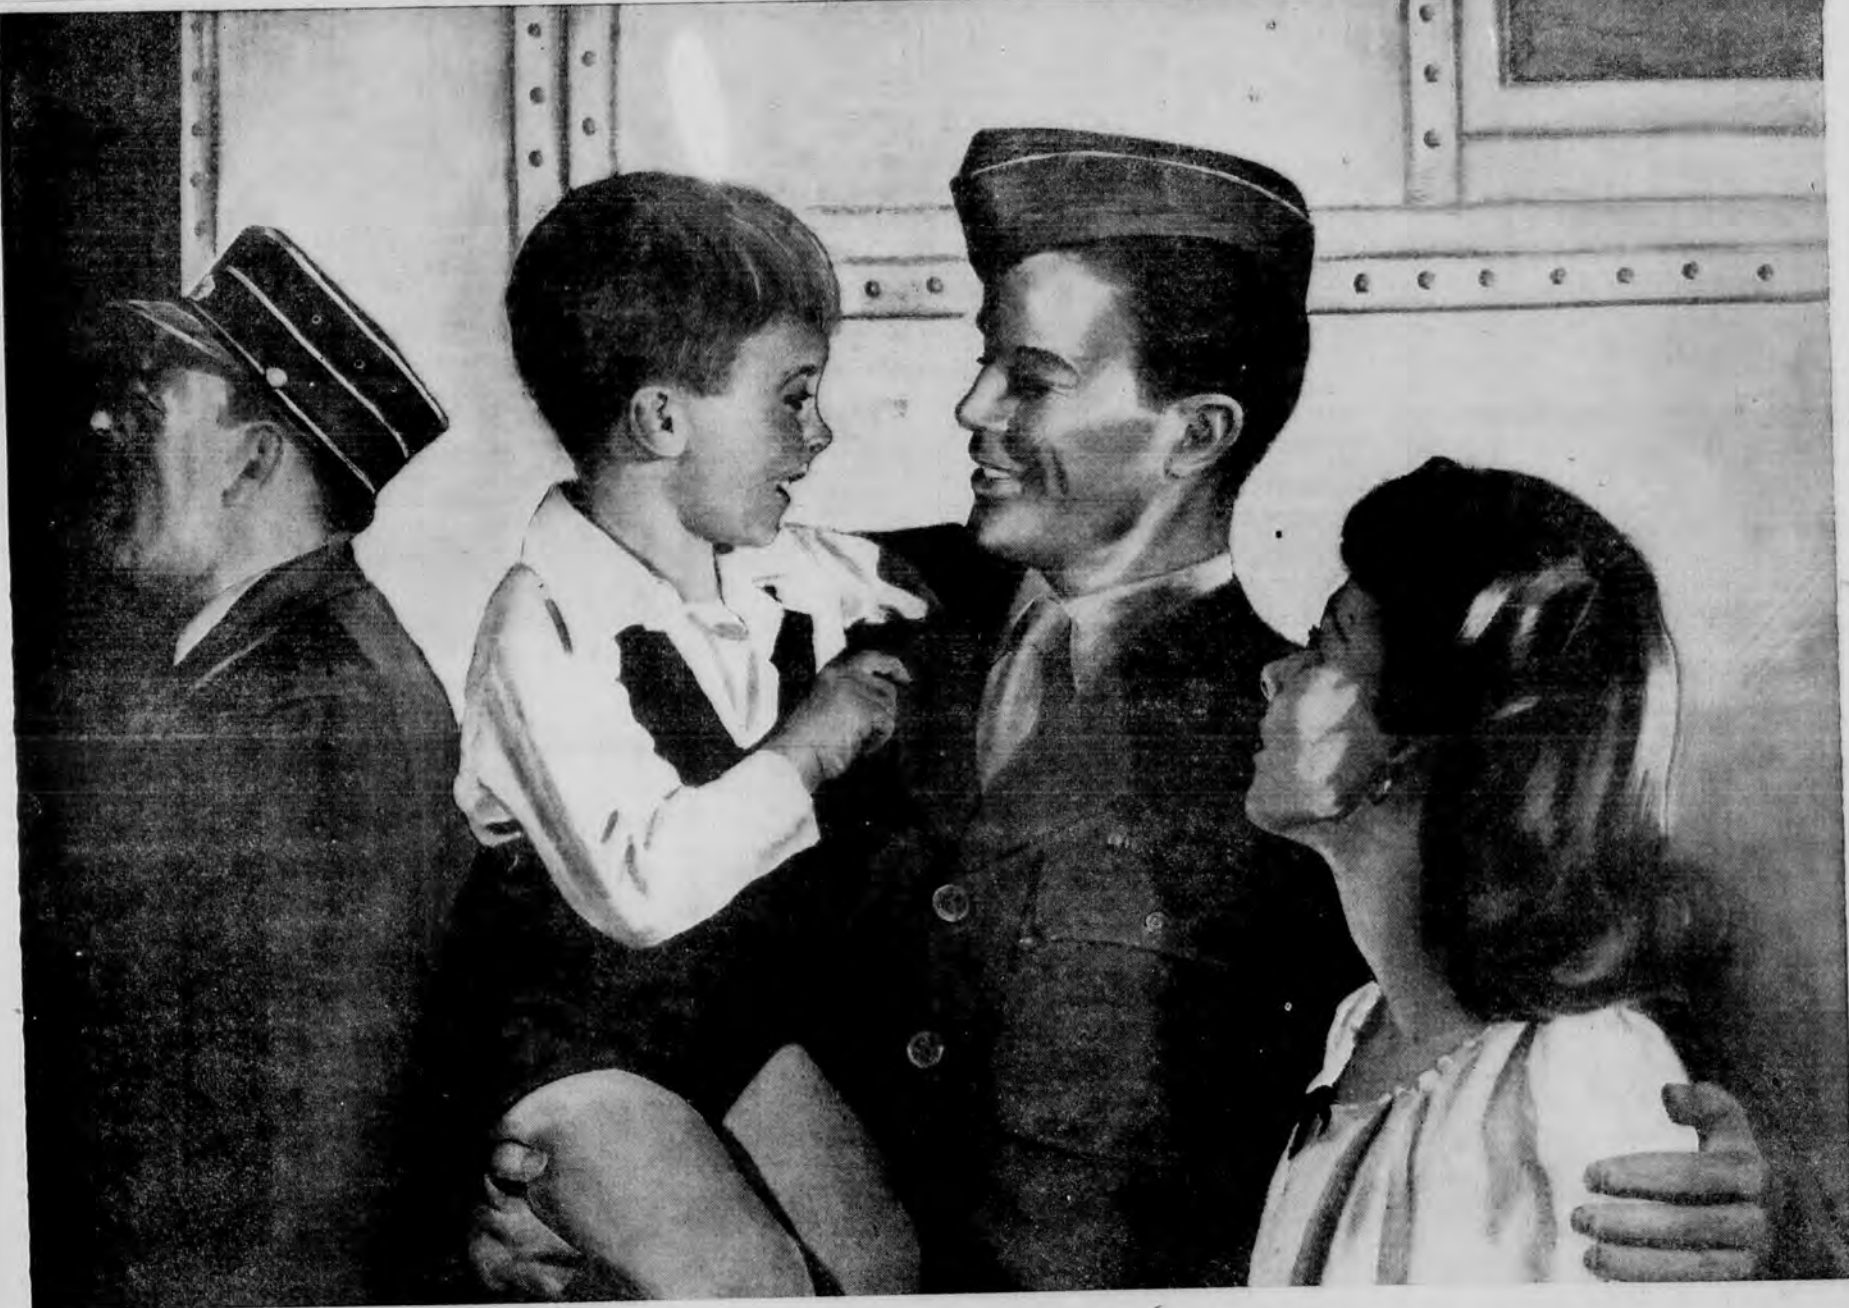

In addition to the recipes there are some hints for happy mixing. Here's one: "Glasses washed in soap suds and rinsed should be placed on a shelf right side up. Otherwise some flames which are liable to be retained may easily ruin the flavor of a drink."

The six whiskey recipes for cocktails which are always popular, including Manhattan, whiskey sour, highball, mint julep and eggnog. The 26 recipes include favorites both old and new, dry martini for old and a newer one—Alexander. Another older favorite is Tom Collins, a new one—gin buck. There's a go-ahead punch also. The three Scotch include the popular one—fashioned and Major Bilk. The five rum recipes of course include a daiquiri and palmetto.

Sun readers may receive a free copy for themselves as well as free gift copies for their friends. Here is how to get your free books: List (print) all names and addresses to whom the book is to be sent. Don't ask for return postage. Simply return your list to Ed Randall, The Rochester Sun, 133 Clinton Ave. S., Rochester 4, N. Y. Lists must be in by next Wednesday night. Books should be received through the mails about three weeks.

HEADLESS ROOSTER REPORTED GAINING

Fruita, Col. — Mike, a 10-month-old white Wyandotte rooster, has gained a pound since his head was cut off three weeks ago. Scientists say that happened because the portion of the brain remaining connected with the spinal cord and the throat and windpipe were left intact.

Something to remember when you say "Welcome Home!"

Some of our boys have waited years to hear those two words.

What they've endured for the sake of hearing them is more than we like to dwell upon.

But those two words, "Welcome Home!" can become just an empty phrase if you forget, for one minute, your responsibility to the man you say them to . . . and to the several million men overseas who are still yearning to come home.

What we're talking about, of course, is your responsibility to continue buying Bonds—and holding on to the ones you already have.

Your purchase of Victory Bonds helps the man who's just come home, helps him in a very real way. For your money, in Victory Bonds, helps prevent inflation—and that, in turn, means security for him, and a better chance to get a job.

And remember this: It will cost plenty of money to maintain and supply our forces of occupation . . . to bring home the men whose period of service so richly entitles them to return . . . and to care for the sick and wounded in our Navy and Army hospitals.

No—the job isn't over. You didn't think it was, did you?

Then show that you know it isn't over! Show it to the boys who've come home—and to those who wish they could—by buying another Bond—today!

IS YOUR MARRIAGE lacking something

Because You Don't Know These Intimate Physical Facts?

If your husband seems indifferent—maybe you don't realize how important douching often is to feminine cleanliness, health and happiness.

Many women still foolishly use weak, homemade mixtures of salt, soda or vinegar which do not and can not give the great germicidal and deodorant action of Zonite.

And many use overstrong solutions of harmful poisons which can burn and severely irritate. But Zonite is different. No other type liquid antiseptic-germicide for the douche of all those tested is so powerful, yet so safe to delicate tissues.

Zonite destroys odor. Helps guard against infection. It kills every germ it touches. You know it's not always possible to contact all germs in the tract. But you can be sure—Zonite immediately kills all reachable germs. Use Zonite as directed unless you wish without risk of injury! Buy today!

GI ARTIST—Eugene List, brilliant young American concert pianist, will be guest soloist on the "Harvest Stars" broadcast, Sunday, Dec. 2, at 2:00 p. m. This will be his first appearance in America since he was invited to play for Marshal Josef Stalin at the Potsdam Conference. List will be accompanied by Howard Barlow, the 70-piece orchestra and 30-voice chorus.

German Signatures

There are the unconditional surrender at Reims on May 7, the surrender at Berlin and other surrender instruments and the V-E Day proclamation of President Truman.

The documents borrowed for the tour from the exhibition hall of the National Archives Building in Washington, are in the same car with a display of the weapons and equipment of the infantryman, a box of all United States Army medals, a display of the insignia of all combat division and an exhibit of captured German and Japanese weapons. Also the new 57-mm and 75-mm recoilless rifles, until recently secret weapons of our Army.

Equipment Nailed to Floor

In another refurbished baggage car is the equipment of airborne troops and of engineers. Much of the equipment is nailed to the floor or fastened with chains, except for such items as a 4.2 recoilless chemical mortar that could not be carried off easily by souvenir hunters.

Another baggage car holds a display of medical equipment, including blood plasma, in one end and field kitchen equipment in the other end. Two cars are reserved for the personnel.

On two flat cars may be seen an M-4A3 Sherman tank, with its long 76-mm gun, costing $30,000; a 60-inch, 800 million candle power anti-aircraft searchlight; a heavy B-inch mortar and four 50-caliber machine guns mounted as a unit, capable of firing 2,400 shots a minute at enemy aircraft.

RETURNING VETS GET OK TO BRING PETS

San Francisco — The War Shipping Administration has ruled that veterans returning home on USA ships may not bring home monkeys, honey bears or birds of the parrot family.

However, they may bring with them their dog, giraffe, camel, ox, antelope, horse, deer, goat or sheep.

Don Ameche, whose latest role was opposite Myrna Loy in "Genius in the Family," will have the lead in "French Town," a musical having New Orleans as a background.

Inside Hollywood

According to the annual popularity poll conducted by the magazine, Boxoffice, Greer Garson and Bing Crosby are still the favorite screen stars of America. The next ten favorites are in order, Ingrid Bergman, Van Johnson, Bette Davis, Humphrey Bogart, Gary Cooper, Spencer Tracy, Claudette Colbert, Judy Garland, Cary Grant and Irene Dunne. Roy Rodgers is the most popular Western star.

Susan Hayward is to star in "Angelica" so Walter Wagner announces. She also has the lead in "Canyon Passage."

The part of Lady Thiang in "Anna and the King of Siam" is to be portrayed by Gale Sondergaard.

Fifteen thousand dollars was paid by RKO for the rights to the title of the song "Till the End of Time." It will be used on picture about the rehabilitation of service men now titled "They Dream of Home."

"Rhapsody in Blue" with a twenty-one week run at the Hollywood Theater, has beaten the record run of "Yankee Doodle Dandy" which was twenty weeks in length.

Johnny Weissmuller's brother Pete is to have a part in "Swamp Fire" in which Johnny is to be starred.

Ide Lupino will have the lead opposite John Payne in "The High Window," a murder mystery based on the novel by Raymond Chandler.

"Barma Victory" is to be shown unedited in Warner Brothers theaters of the United States. This is the official picture.

COUNCIL SPLIT BY STORM FIASCO

Former Catcher Turns Pitcher

'Tex' Irwin Tires of Receiving End; Pitches 'Bawl' to Council Mates

By CURT GERLING

Last week as the roads filled up, the buses stopped, and the plows failed to appear Rochester's voting public came to the realization that they had been kidded and promised into voting back into office the greatest group of rubber stamp "do nothings" ever to vote "aye" at a Republican caucus. The ever gullible "straight Republicans" voters who had again performed their customary disservice to the "Great Republican City" were confronted with a dark picture.

Then came a ray of hope. The man who caught the best which National League hurlers of thirty years ago had to throw, decided it was time he became a pitcher himself. "Tex," formerly known as Ross E. Erwin had been catching 'em all day Thursday anyway.irate taxpayers besieged him with insult and criticism via phone, mail and personal contact. They weren't gentle criticisms, they were profane, pointed and provocative — not only of him but the whole Republican party. Mr. Erwin was due at a meeting of the Council on Thursday to discuss real estate problems. The meeting just got under way when "Tex" tossed his catcher's mitt in the corner, spit in a pitcher's glove and started burning 'em across to a surprised and supine group of fellow councilmen. In fact the lads who figured that they would excuse this one away by finding another Hanover were somewhat indignant about it. They called it to his attention that the meeting was to discuss real estate. They heckled him, and they behaved like a bunch of frustrated ostriches with no sand to stick their heads into. It didn't stop old "Tex," every time one of the rubber stamps made an articulate remark "Tex," a pitcher at last, threw a "bean ball" in his direction and gave him a verbal "dusting off" that made him wish he was back on the bench in the Powers Tap room. "Tex" had his say and the councilmanic ostriches sat there without sand, until their posterior plumage was plucked bare. "Tex" threw nothing but strikes and having retired the side left the box and the council chambers, leaving the ostriches and their red cheeks to find doors to crawl out under as best they could.

MOUNDSMAN

Big leaguers of today and yesterday need fight and courage. It's won more ball games than base hits, it took just that kind of courage to stand up before what people laughingly call our council and dish out the censure our bungling administration had coming to them. Erwin willingly put his political future on the block in the interests of the taxpayer. He put Rochester ahead of the Republican party when he hand-plucked their hand-picked councilmen. The boys who took it didn't like it. It made them look almost as ridiculous as they really are. He demanded that they fix the blame (this time) where it belongs and to clean house. By doing so he kicked over party traces and behaved like a duly elected and proper servant of the people. No one else had that courage or that interest in the taxpayer's welfare. We hope the people of Rochester will always remember that.

DPW AGAIN PROVES IT'S INEFFICIENCY

'Time For a Change' Says Councilman As Continued Bungling Arouses Protests

Here is the story you've been waiting for! This is the answer to the question in the minds of thousands of Rochesterians since the season's first heavy snowstorm last Thursday again demonstrated the inefficiency and laxness of the city's snow-cleaning division in this so-called "great" Republican city. The question: What will The Sun say about the city's handling of THIS snowstorm?

The answer: Ha ha ha! Or, to elaborate — one may not be able to fool all the people all the time, but in Rochester, if you're a Republican it has now been proved you can still fool enough of 'em to win an election!

Report Awaited Now that the Republican-steeped daily newspapers had administered their annual verbal spanking to the same city administration they so loudly applauded just before election, and now that the state had again stepped in with snow fighting equipment to pull the city out of a bad tieup, all that was left to an expectant public was another edition (See STORM Page 5)

Political Polka

BY CURT GERLING

There is quite a difference of opinion as to just whom to blame for the city's second successive failure in storm fighting.

We doubt if it can all be laid at the door of Boss Broderick. After all, he is just the party boss and it's his job to win elections. The important thing is to win 'em. If he can line up the majority vote with a lot of second rate, politically conscious timber (and we do mean timber) it makes it just that much easier. It's far more difficult, expensive and often embarrassing to get competent office holders who know their jobs. It also costs more money.

It's not God's fault. It snows in Democratic strongholds as well as Republican ones. The Lord is impartial and despite what some mouthy apologists would like to claim, has no party interests. To call Thursday's failure an "Act of God" (See POLKA Page 9)

$25 Winner

Mrs. R. Crawford of 165 Alphonse St. is the lucky winner of this week's $25 cash prize, offered by the Sun each week in its sustaining subscribers. This is the reward Mrs. Crawford gets for paying her Sun carrier, Raymond Conlan of 210 Lincoln St., 10 cents, Ray, incidentally, collects an extra five dollars bonus.

GETTING TO BE A HABIT BY JAMES

Flakes From The Snowstorm

When Commissioner Wagener stuck out his neck so far Tuesday, Nov. 27 and said, "Let the storms come — we're ready for them," he forgot to say, "Positively." That should let him out.

The "holcy" streets have caused some awful "unholcy" talk from hardpressed motorists. Bus drivers had less than praise for the snow cleaning department, too.

Famous Last Words: "Let the storms come we are ready," — Gus Wagener.

Next to a plowed street the hardest thing to find Thursday morning was a guy who would admit he voted the Republican ticket.

KAY'S COMMENTS — by kay shearer

SALE Any old day—you'll find the modern young women these days—giving up "anything" just "cause she's preppy." And she doesn't need to—when she possesses the right kind of clothes.

Where to find these MATERNITY CLOTHES the "800" SHOP of course. There are new arrivals daily—that keep the "stock" up to their usual standards. Prices start at $9.95. You'll find the casual—the dressy—and the basic MATERNITY dress. All with remarkable gadgets for expansion purposes. Of course the "800" also has plenty of regular and junior clothes—also starting at the modest sum of $9.95. Located corner MONROE & CANTYBURY—Open Eve. P.S. A group of Fall and Winter dresses reduced to $5.95, formerly $8.95 and $10.95.

Can it be that it's time at last—that peace-time Christmas has been promised. No more gallant aviators passing in the sky for presents. Pop the cork—shoot the works—this is the CHRISTMAS FOR PURS. And it's making my reputation (and not my shyness) on the fact you won't find better furs or workmanship anywhere for your money than at SHAFER CO. For instance a priceless beauty of SEARFB from SHAFER'S will knock her eye out—come Christmas morning. Kohlinsky Scarfs—prime quality, selected pelts arranged in groups—of three to five skins or more. The price is $21.50 to $42.50 per skin. My favorite however are the Natural Wild or Ranch Mink. These soft beautiful skins make a flattering scarf. The price is $34.50 to $60.00 per skin. Consider the wearing qualities of this fabulous fur too when you invest. You just can't wear them out. A good mink skin (and they are all top quality at SHAFER CO.) will give years of service—ask to see the lovely arrangements of M.L. Sable, Squirrel, Blended Baum Marten—Hudson Bay Sables etc. Prices range from $18.50 to $220.00. Be guided by Mr. George Shafer's advice—he has served the public of Rochester for many a Christmas—and knows what mink can and should have. Your gift furs will be beautifully gift packaged and held for Christmas delivery instruction. But make your selection early—furs are still on the "scarce list." All prices at SHAFER CO. include tax. Convenient charge and budget accounts. SHAFER CO.—51 East Ave.

HOMELSS VET TOSSED OUT OF PARK TENT

Los Angeles.—David Mishabi, a Marine Corps veteran, has been looking for an apartment since last March. In desperation, he finally pitched his pup tent in a park but city authorities ordered him to leave by midnight. He, with his wife and two-year-old son had been living with relatives.

A Victory Bond today will not loom nearly as big and as sound an investment as it will ten or even twenty years hence.

Catholics Here Join Food Drive For Foreign Needy

Sparked by a nationwide radio address tomorrow by Archbishop Francis J. Spellman of New York, Rochester and vicinity Catholics will open their participation Sunday in a national campaign to gather canned foods for war-stricken people of Europe and the Far East.

A goal of 400,000 food containers has been set by the Rochester Diocese for the drive which will run until December 16. The campaign is being conducted by the War Relief Services of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

Archbishop Spellman's talk will be heard tomorrow from 12:30 to 12:45 over stations of the National Broadcasting System.

Commercial packed and home-canned foods of all kinds are needed including soups, meats, fruits and vegetables. Each parish will serve as a collecting station.

Large warehouses in Chicago, have been obtained to facilitate the shipment of this food to the affected areas to avert possible starvation during the critical months which lie ahead.

The Rev. John S. Randall, who has been appointed by Bishop James E. Kearney to direct the drive, pointed out this week that daily food rations in many countries vary from 850 to 1,500 calories whereas the average ration in this country is 3,000 to 3,900 calories a person.

Does the Atomic Bomb Explain Bible Miracles?

According to Edwin J. Dingle, world-renowned geographer, honored by leading geographical societies, the power of the atom as disclosed in the atom bomb is small compared with little known and seldom used powers of the human brain. He maintains that man, instead of being limited by an average mind or more, as well as the energy power of the universe, which can be used in his daily affairs.

According to him, this sleeping giant of mind-power, when awakened, can make man capable of surprising accomplishments. It is as amazing as the atom bomb is compared with former sources of energy. Many thousands of people throughout the world have already tried his methods. Many report improvement in power of mind, achievement of brilliant business and professional success. Others report improvement in health, increased strength, courage, poise or energy, or a more magnetic personality.

He tells how he found these strange methods in far off and mysterious Tibet, often called the land of miracles by the few travelers permitted to visit it. Here, he discloses, he learned rare wisdom and long hidden practices, closely guarded by the sages, which enabled many to perform amazing feats. Their immense powers, he maintains, are latent in all of us, and methods for using them are now simplified so that they can be used by almost any person with ordinary intelligence.

As part of a great movement to make his methods available to more people, a 9000-word treatise is offered absolutely free for the time being. It reveals many startling results. Readers of this announcement can get their free copy by sending a post card or letter to the Institute of Mentalphysics, 213 S. Hobart Blvd., Dept. U-430, Los Angeles 4, Calif. Readers are urged to write promptly, because this offer may be withdrawn at any time.

OPTICAL CO. CLEARED OF BIAS CHARGES

Bausch & Lomb Optical Co. this week was cleared of racial discrimination charges brought against the company the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers of America, CIO.

In one of the first decisions handed down by the newly created New York State Commission Against Discrimination, no basis was found for the union's charges that the company had discriminated against workers of Italian descent in the laying off war workers at the plant following V-J Day.

According to Julian J. Reiss, a member of the state body, the percentage of Italian workers laid off was almost identical with that group's percentage of total workers in the plant.

The company, which heretofore had remained silent regarding the charges, issued a folder explaining the case and charging that it had been "smeared, vilified and scurrilously attacked." How this was accomplished was not explained, however. The daily newspapers had strangely decided not to "cover" this case until the firm was cleared, whereupon they reversed their decision of silence and gave large amounts of space to the story.

Now, with their charges quashed, it was the union's turn to adopt a policy of silence. They did.

Observers were quoted as saying that main basis of the charges in the first place was a desire on the part of the union to obtain some publicity. The union is said to be attempting to organize workers at Bausch & Lomb.

STORM . . .

It was freely predicted, even before the city council met, that City Manager Louis B. Cartwright would come up with a report; but upon whose shoulders the blame would be placed was causing some speculation. With Louis Ferrari transferred and John Hanover pushed out of the Public Works Department, only God was left as the prospective "goat." Last year's storm had been labeled "an act of God." This time, a repetition of that edict could be expected.

But, outside of those responsible for cleaning snow from the city's streets, all Rochester finally realized that God has been acting that same way ever since the dawn of history. Rochester has had snowstorms every winter since the burg was known as Rochesterville and the Whigs were making excuses for the bad condition of the streets.

Question God's Politics

Three schools of thought prevailed in City Hall as to the Deity's political affiliations. Embarrassed officials concluded that God must be a Democrat—He was always sending storms to prove how incompetent were the Republicans. But Republican party leaders were equally vehement in their opinion that the Lord was a Republican and cited His thoughtfulness in producing the storms right AFTER rather than just BEFORE elections. The third segment, however, seemed to have logic on their side. They were sure that God was without political party connections and for proof pointed to the piles of snow in front of the houses of those who had voted Democratic in November, neither higher nor lower than those who had put the present administration back into office.

Councilman Speaks

Only major political difference between last week's storm and that of Dec. 11, 1944 was that where last season's had produced not a ripple of dissension in the august chambers of the city council, this time, with election safely out of the way and an assurance of four years more in which to "serve" the people, a voice was heard, like that of John the Baptist, crying in the wilderness.

The voice, surprisingly enough, was that of a "good" Republican councilman — Ross E. (Tex) Irwin. The same man who had found nothing wrong in 1944 had, at long last, come to the conclusion that the snow removal personnel was not all it was claimed to be — even as late as Tuesday, Nov. 27 when Public Works Commissioner August Wagener proclaimed, "We are ready."

Irwin Blows Top

Irwin, gathering his courage, finally spoke out. To his shocked and amazed brother Republicans, he advised a "housecleaning." This was akin to Churchill calling for a Hitlerian victory in the late fracas across the sea. A Republican condemning a Republican administration — and right here in Rochester — was almost more than some of the bootlickers could stand. In fact, they hadn't even recovered enough from the shock to attend a meeting of the council called to "investigate" the storm. The meeting was called for four o'clock Monday by Councilman William A. Doane, chairman of the Public Works committee and supporter of Irwin in admitting the situation was snafu. Present at the meeting besides Irwin and Doane were Councilmen Schlueter and Kreckmen, Commissioner of Public Works Wagener, and City Manager Cartwright. Mayor Dieker and Councilmen VanLare, Mills, Nizer and Ruppel showed their disinterest by completely ignoring the gathering.

Heaving Fizzles

The hearing got nowhere as was to be expected when Republican city officials get together for action.

Councilman Doane did, however, give a statement to the press. In that not unusual endeavor he said that there was no valid excuse for the failure in snow removal this time. His verdict was that "dissension within the public works department and lack of proper organization of same" had caused the breakdown. He even went further, outlining suggestions made at the meeting which might prove beneficial in fighting future storms (yes, they finally admitted that storms might again fall on Rochester) and wound up his oratory to the press by insisting that "salary standardization was essential to harmony in the Public Works Department." Whether he meant all workers should be raised to the wage level of Commissioner Wagener who draws down the not inconsequential sum of $7,500 yearly — snow or no snow — or that Wagener should be cut down to the 90 cents per hour level enjoyed by many of the department's employees was not explained by the suddenly articulate Doane.

Council Split

But whoever finally received the blame for this latest fiasco, political dopesters were sure of one thing — city politics were going to be more interesting from here in. A split had developed within Republican council ranks, said those who are supposed to be in the know. It was further stated that the split would not be healed easily. The lines for battle were drawn. A segment of the council had finally had enough of a supine Republican do-nothingism. They were determined to do something — even if it was only to yell their heads off.

Meanwhile the populace of Rochester continued to slobber and slide through ice-covered streets running the danger of broken legs as well as broken automobile springs. They loudly cursed the men they had so recently elected — and silently cursed themselves for electing them.

Missed the Bus

Yes, while it was evident from election returns that a majority of Rochester had forgotten last December by November — they certainly remembered last November THIS December — and they hung their heads in embarrassment as the thought burned in their minds that they had figuratively "missed the bus" in November just as they were now literally "missing the bus" while waiting on icy street corners.

is as idiotic as it is irrelevant. It's not the Council's fault they, with the exception of the fighting four, are just a bunch of boys trying to build a political future, enjoying the extracurricular emoluments of political office, and a few easily earned bucks. They don't even have to think (Tom does that for them). It's a Republican town, they're on the ticket. They'll get elected anyways. The taxpayer is just a guy named Joe that votes for them. It really isn't Mr. Cartwright's fault either. Nor Mr. Wagener's. They got away with the last one. Nobody remembered "December last November" at least not enough of them. So they can be just as sloppy in their methods and organization as they please. "We can get away with anything" is more than a Democratic political charge at election time. So if you agree up to this point there can be none to blame but you. At least you fifty-eight thousand or so who were content to step behind the curtain and vote the old tried and true Republican straight ticket, because father did and because Joe Doakes is a "nice" guy.

Yes dear voter, in elections and in government you get only what you vote for. You wanted Rochester to remain a great Republican city (and the laughing stock of the neighboring towns) and that's what you have and are going to suffer along with for too long a time. There is only one unfortunate thing. There were forty-five thousand people who voted against your opinion that must suffer along with you.

Mr. John Hanoven must have been laughing quietly up his sleeve last week. Never was a man more completely exonerated and vindicated.

The redoubtable Joe Malone political reporter for that morning newspaper proved that all the famous Fibbers are not on the radio. Hizzoner Mayor Dicker said he did not have a meeting with Messrs Wagener and Cartwright in his office Sunday. Yet the ledger of registry required in all bank buildings for visits on Sunday plainly showed that the three gentlemen were in conference there for some hours. No doubt discussing the Army-Navy game or Prudence Penny's new recipe for "brownies".

The Times-Union recommends that the plows be called out as soon as one inch of snow has fallen. The Sun suggests that in Rochester they be summoned with the first warning of a heavy frost.

No one has denied that Rochester equipment was loaned to Buffalo and Watertown to help their snow battle in spite of the storm warnings so plainly posted for Rochester.

A rumor that stinks louder than the rest is the report that a contractor offered bull dozers and trucks to aid the plight of Rochester's citizenry and was told to "see his ward leader first." The contractor said "nuts" and sent his equipment downtown to clear parking stations at a substantially higher rate.

The Democrats should have the election law changed. Instead of the "first Tuesday after the first Monday" it should be the "First Tuesday after the first snowstorm".

The mayor's secretary, saucy but personable June Fields denies the story that Hizzoner opened the door to attend Mr. Doane's meeting Monday on "why we fell down again" but saw the eagle eye of George Washington, the man who never told a fib, staring at him from the west wall of his office. The conscience-stricken mayor allegedly withdrew in what we now realize is customary Republican confusion.

No one could blame County Democratic Chairman Roy Bush for laughing right out loud last Thursday. This is exactly what he had predicted. But you should have seen his smile turn to a frown when he arrived home Thursday evening only to find that the plows hadn't been down his street either. That "act of God" sure was impartial.

Being snowed under the past week reminds me of the story of the colored woman who was being baptized by immersion in the chilly waters of a river. When it came her turn to be baptized, two husky church deacons grasped the convert by the feet and shoulders and waded out about five feet in the river. Suddenly they thrust her under the cold, muddy water. Shuddering, the woman shouted: "I believe!" They gave her another ducking and again she shouted: "I believe!" For the

Once upon a time a traveling salesman with a fondness for cheese checked in at a hotel. The guy was so fond of cheese, in fact, that he always bought a pound at night to munch upon when his craving for the lactic delicacy became too great to withstand. At this particular hotel, however, he found he had nearly half a pound left over when he was ready to leave, so he buried the remainder of the cheese in a flower pot on the window sill of his room. Imagine his surprise when he received a wire from the hotel some time later, reading: "We give up. Where did you put the body?"

And, speaking of cheese, I wonder why they don't put holes in limburger instead of in swiss. The limburger needs the ventilation more.

Orville Allen, the Sun's editor, who doubles in brass as our staff photographer, was asked the other day why he always like to take pictures of pretty girls when a high wind was blowing. Answered resourceful Allen: "Because I want to get a clothes-up of them."

Sam Imburgia's pre-opening dinner at his Triton Hotel on Tuesday night brought forth a brilliant assemblage of legal lights, politicians, members of the radio and the fourth estate. The lavish dinner had just reached the flet de mignon with mushrooms stage when, as usual, one of the diners was reminded of a story. He told of a group of ladies, members of the United Association of Lady Vegetarians, who were having their annual picnic. The ladies were comfortably seated and waiting for the luncheon to be served when a savage bull appeared on the scene. Immediately there was a wild rush for safety, while the raging creature took off after one good soul who was unlucky enough to be carrying a red parasol. By great good fortune she clambered over the fence before the bull could reach her. Then, after regaining her breath, she turned around and angrily cried: "Why, you ungrateful creature. Here I have been a vegetarian all my life. That's gratitude for you!"

A modern girl is a miss who can make rings around the third finger of her left hand.

I don't know how true it is, but I hear that the Japs are singing a new theme song. It goes something like this: "Nobody knows the rubble I've seen."

MARYLAND BOY KILLS RATTLER WITH ROCK

Hancock, Md. — Returning home from school, along a lonely mountain road, Calvin Trail, 13, found a large rattlesnake, measuring 45 inches and with 19 rattles and a button, coiled up in his path. The boy stoned the snake to death. It was one of the largest rattlesnakes seen in this section for some time.

Mitropoulos To Play And Conduct Here And On Air

Dimitri Mitropoulos' greatest fame lies in his conducting ability. But music lovers who have closely observed the Greek-born musician throughout his career agree that had he chosen a concert piano career, his name would be up among the top-ranking keyboardists.

DIMITRI MITROPOULOS

16—he will again demonstrate his talents as a pianist as well as a conductor. During the hour, he will conduct the orchestra from the keyboard of the studio grand, where he will do the solo part of Prokofiev's "Third Piano Concerto."

It is interesting to note that when he made his Paris debut in 1934, he did the identical stint of conducting the Orchestre Symphonique in the same

Prokofiev concerto while playing the difficult solo part himself.

Mitropoulos was born in Athens in 1896. He studied in Athens and Berlin, and became assistant conductor of the State Opera in Berlin. He conducted in Athens Conservatory Orchestra and scored as a guest conductor in other European cities.

ALL MONROE AVE. BUSES STOP DIRECTLY IN FRONT OF STORE
STONE 183 MONROE AVE. N. Y. S. License L-4229

THIS Christmas the bus problem is really serious!

EVERY passenger can HELP!

- 1. SHOP FROM 9:15 A. M. to 12:15 and between 1 and 4 when round trip costs only 15c, and when there's more room for you and your packages.
- 2. SHOP EARLY—you'll find a better choice of gifts, avoid last-minute crowds, save yourself lots of discomfort!
- 3. MAKE A SHOPPING LIST. With a complete list, you can make more purchases each trip, make fewer trips.
- 4. HAVE FARE OR PASS ready when you board bus—this helps prevent delays, which saves your time.
- 5. MOVE BACK IN BUS—so that jams near entrance won't reduce the number of Christmas shoppers and workers each bus can carry.
- 6. LEAVE BY "EXIT" DOOR at center or far end of bus. Then you won't have to fight and push your way out.
- 7. PLEASE BE PATIENT—bus service is under the worst strain ever! Your sympathetic understanding will help everyone make the best of a bad situation.

DURING December 1944, Rochester Transit buses carried a few thousand short of seven and one-half million (7,500,000) riders! Daily averages so far this year indicate that this December—right now—we are faced with the staggering task of transporting about two million more passengers than last year.

In normal times we would take this unusually heavy Christmas traffic in our stride—but this is NOT a normal year.

At present we've 125 buses in the shops for repair. But repair-parts are unavailable because parts manufacturers are not operating. Which is also holding up delivery of the 115 new buses we've had on order since last year!

With a limited number of buses, there is naturally a limit to the number of passengers we can carry—regardless of the untiring efforts of every member of our organization.

To the right are 7 simple suggestions that will help make things easier. We hope you'll agree they're worth practicing—for your own comfort and to help meet this Holiday emergency!

Inside Hollywood...

A Swedish newspaper says that Greta Garbo is planning to spend the Christmas holiday in the land of her birth which she has not visited since 1938. Rumor has it that Garbo and Bing Crosby will be teamed in a musical, she having the role of a countess and he, that of a traveling salesman.

The screen rights of "They Won't Believe Me" have been bought by Hal B. Wallis. It is the story of an Army officer condemned to death for a murder he did not commit.

Marian Anderson, Rubenstein, the Don Cossack Choir, Alesia Markova and Patrice Munsel, will be in the picture "Impresario."

A movie script of the radio play "Mary and the Fairy" is to be written expressly for Elsa Lanchester (Mrs. Charles Laughton). The radio broadcast was made in 1941 with Miss Lanchester as Mary and Ruth Gordon as the Fairy.

The story concerns Mary Porter, a good girl, who worked at the perfume counter of a dime store and who won a newspaper contest.

Celeste Holm, star of "Oklahoma," has arrived in Hollywood. She will have a featured part in "Three Little Girls in Blue" based on the old stage comedy "Three Blind Mice."

Sir Aubrey Smith will have a part in "Cluny Brown" in which Jennifer Jones and Charles Boyer are co-stars.

One sequence in Jerome Kern's musical biography "Till the Clouds Roll By," has already been filmed by Vincent Minnelli. It features his wife, Judy Garland.

PHOTOGRAPHER TO LECTURE AT MUSEUM

Ben East, writer, photographer, and lecturer, who twice before has appeared in the yearly lecture series sponsored by the Rochester Museum Association, will present an illustrated lecture on the Great Lakes, in the Rochester Museum, next Wednesday at 8:15 p. m.

The lecturer is outdoor editor of the Grand Rapids Press. For twenty years he has traveled thousands of miles a year, photographing, hunting, fishing, gathering newspaper and magazine material.

Titled "Waters that Run to the Sea," the film shows 2,000 miles of coastline on the Great Lakes and their connecting rivers, in color.

Night clubs come and night clubs go—but "something new" has finally been added to the nocturnal picture of Rochester—a night club with a back-bar stage! It had to come—the same type bar is all the rage in New York where the Cafe Metropole has come in for more than its share of publicity—simply because the entertainers perform—behind—and above the bar rather than in the more conventional spot.

In Rochester, the Glass Bar, recently opened at 58 South Clinton Ave. is featuring just such an arrangement.

Probably what is more important than the location of the stage is the type of entertainment offered therefrom. At The Glass Bar entertainment is handled by Dick Streb, Pianist, and Charles Sullivan, Bartender. Streb has a varied repertoire ranging from Bach to Boogie Woogie. The club is under the management of Wm. P. Gormley.

What do I think of the servant situation?

Why, I haven't any servants! I do all my own housework.

Not quite all, Mrs. Smith. You have some household appliances, haven't you?

Of course, but—

OF COURSE—that's the answer, Mrs. Smith. You DO have a servant, but you take that servant for granted. You've got a combination laundress, cook, cleaning woman, lamp-lighter, seamstress and entertainer—one who doesn't mind a few odd jobs like heating the bath water, guarding your food, fanning your fevered brow—

Oh, you mean ELECTRICITY—

Yes, Mrs. Smith, electricity—the universal servant who works 24 hours a day at lower than pre-war wages—and never asks for time off. Why, Mrs. Smith, your "servant situation" here in America where business-managed companies provide 80% of the electric power, is better than anywhere else in the world.

COMPTROLLER 'CONFUSED' BY RATE

Figures Show Only Corrupt Jersey City Tops Rochester As 'High Tax' Town

It was inevitable that some day it would happen. But now that it actually transpired, even the lowliest of Rochesterians was surprised. Added to his surprise was amusement, disgust and a still more confused mind.

A Republican city official, close to the city tax situation had finally allowed himself to be put on record as unable to understand the adjusted tax rate of Rochester and Monroe County.

Whitley John The Confused W. Raymond Whitley, the uncontrollable city comptroller, admitted he could not understand what the said magazine, "The National Municipal Review" meant by its published "adjusted" tax rates showing Rochester second highest in the nation for cities of its class.

He had finally caught up to the average citizen who has been unable to "understand" the city's tax rate—particularly its size—for years. To make the publicity more odious to the current administration (See TAXES Page 12)

Balloon Merchant Has World's Biggest Store—The World Itself

By ORVILLE ALLEN
He wanted to join the circus 65 years ago. But, being only four years old at the time, his mother insisted that first he would have to attend school and get an education. So that day Alfred Bentley's plans for nearly five years.

By that time, he figured he had enough book knowledge and would get the rest of his education in the great school of hard knocks from which so many of his forbears had received their diplomas. What prompted his decision to take "French leave of home and hearth" was the arrival in town of a circus company. Offered the job of selling balloons, Bentley grabbed the chance to be in, or near the sawdust circle and when the circus left town, he left with it.

Still At It
That was nearly 60 years ago. Today Bentley still sells balloons and is a familiar figure to Main St. shoppers as well as to sports enthusiasts within a (See BALLOONS Page 6)

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

Maybe a two-and-a-half pound lobster a la Triton is too much for a 43-year old stomach to wrestle at 2 A. M. Apparently it is a prodigious mid-night snack. At least we had a violent nightmare shortly after consuming one in which snow storms and icy roads played a vivid part. We were shoveling out our 100 foot driveway and as fast as we shoveled, Councilmen Greg Mills and other members of the silent five pushed it back in again with broken snow shovels. Mayor Dieker threw snowballs at our windows and the snow clouds were thicker than Republican inefficiency or administrators.

The nightmare changed (they do you know) The new locale was the breakfast table in the Gerling manse. My wife was saying how nice it was to have our street plowed the day after the storm. Instead of five days after as of last December—and that Brighton Highway Superintendent George Klem must be a nice man and we should have him in for dinner even if he is a Republican.

The kids were butting in with an account of a birthday party they had attended the previous afternoon. Billy aged eight said it was "very funny." Jon aged four said the cake was swell. It seems that the mother of the party-shower had read (See POLKA Page 10)

Safety Officer To Coach Class of Police 'Hopefuls'

Prospective bluecoats who have an ambition to get on the "force" when the next Civil Service test comes up are going to get some expert coaching in a free class to be conducted by School Safety Officer Henry H. Jensen. Bureau of Police starting Saturday.

Jensen, of course, won't guarantee to get appointments for his pupils, but he does point to a record of 65 appointments out of 100 pupils in a similar class he conducted just prior to the 1940 tests. And he won't try to get or put candidates in physical shape, either. That, he says is the work of the Y. M. C. (See JENSEN Page 12)

KAY'S COMMENTS

On this, our first peaceful Christmas in years... particular emphasis is placed on the home. People feel, and rightly so, that their homes could do with a few new extras they have been doing without. So EDWARDS has assembled a few items I would like to tell you about. First NET CURTAINS. Priced at $3.49 per pair. They are cheery, fashioned of rayon, and will give your home that warm "at home" feeling. Use them alone or with your favorite drapes. They are 76 inches long and 40 inches wide. The material is rich heavy net, ready to hang. All first quality and, as I said before, only $3.49 per pair. To be found at EDWARDS - in the BASEMENT. Next are more of those Navy Reest ALL WOOL BLANKETS. Priced at a mere $9.97 - I defy you to beat this value. EDWARDS last shipment sold out in a few hours, so my advice is GET THERE EARLY. Made of the finest and deepest wool. Shell stitch, size 66 x 84, weighing 4 1/2 pounds. Would make an acceptable Christmas gift. Next are EGYPTIAN TABLE COVERS. Priced at $1.97, they are colorful and ideal for that snack or luncheon hours. Fruit and floral designs on white grounds. Red, blue and more beautiful. Bathroom is a BATH MAT SET priced at $2.97, you'll think this price an error when you see this set. Size 21x33 made of soft chenille and lid to match. Multi-colored designs. Peach, blue, gold, green. First quality and easy to launder. All the above items are to be found at EDWARDS BASEMENT, PS. Also in EDWARDS Buy-Way BASEMENT you'll find CHRISTMAS GIFT NOTIONS. Everybody needs hangers. Everybody has been looking for them. This item is a thoughtful way to wish someone a MERRY CHRISTMAS. Wood and wire suit hangers 25c. Combination all wire suit hangers 25c. All wire skirt hangers 15c. -MERRY CHRISTMAS - EDWARDS.

Grab your list and make for either one of the LLOYD'S stores. One located in the POWERS HOTEL, the other in the REYNOLDS ARCADE. Think about planning for your Christmas hostess - by ordering a centerpiece for her table - sent in advance - or a beautiful plant - or cut flowers for her living room. Call Main 7658 - and your order will be promptly filled. LLOYD'S LEAD AGAIN.

ALICE How about paying a visit to the ALICE DRESS SHOP - with your Christmas list - clutched in your grubby little palm - and solving your Christmas giving. First a DRESS would be nice for a member of your family or (for yourself) a very smart dress - highly styled - priced $9.95 and up. All sizes - all styles - all colors. Crystal-gazing gift destined to appeal to every inquisitive member of the family from junior to grandpa is the happy find of Claudia Morgan. It's a three-inch magnifying glass that serves as a paper weight when not in active use. The high magnification of the Lensite clarifies most minute details for stamp collectors or map students — to say nothing of detecting often hidden details of small-sized pictures and finding telephone numbers in a hurry.

gold or silver kid belts designed by Criterion to transform a simple basic dress into a festive costume. If you can't hold them in place by adjusting the lengths to fit your waist, make inch-wide belt loops at the side seams of the dress, using a strand of embroidery silk of golden tone.

Typatune, a new educational musical toy, should delight the heart of every child who has reached the educational stage of quick reading. This exciting novelty actually teaches typing through its standard keyboard and emits musical tunes covering a range of over two octaves. A simplified instruction chart teaches the child letter positions on the keyboard, and so fascinating is the procedure that bright youngsters are soon punching out melodies without much effort.

Give the illusion of wearing stars in your hair by making an angelic holiday halo according to the clever design of CBS singer Evelyn MacGregor. Merely crochet in loose square pattern a headband about an inch and a half wide, using coarse hook and silver, gold or hair-matching silk thread, cover the mesh with sequins, bugle beads, iridescent clusters or opalescent buttons.

Adjust to individual coiffure requirements with invisible hairpins or elastic cord. The same bright handiwork can double as an evening belt by attaching ribbon tie streamers of tinsel tones.

Resourceful Stylists of costume jewelry cast a tempting new fashion before the shopping public — authentic trout flies, colorfully feathered above silver hook and backed with a brooch pin fastening. They're worn in clusters on dress shoulders, in smaller groups on hats or in twin or triple congregation as lapei ornaments. Macy's have over forty different types of these brilliantly devised conversation pieces that create decorative news when combined in varied tones.

'Hit Paraders' To Appear In New Year's Show Here

A special musical treat will be offered to Rochester New Year's Eve celebrants at the Eastman Theater, Monday evening, Dec. 31.

Mark Warnow, conductor of one of the most popular of all radio programs, the weekly "Hit Parade," will direct a varied program of popular music with the Civic Orchestra.

Warnow, who has been recognized as one of radio's best music makers for a number of years, will bring with him a featured Broadway singer and will also offer a number of piano and choral novelties on this unusual program.

He will present several of the lighter classics, but the major portion of the evening's music will be chosen from the popular hits of the day. They will be presented in novel orchestral and solo instrument form. The program has been chosen for its sheer entertainment value, with the popular conductor as the keystone of a musical salute to the departing year.

ED RANDALL'S
Scene and Word

The other night at the Palace Theatre a woman was ushered into the row of seats in which I was trying to keep awake. Blundering along in the darkness, she stumbled over the feet of a chap sitting next to me. "Oh, I beg your pardon," she apologized. "I'm sorry I stepped on your feet." "That's all right," assured the courtly young man, "I walk on them myself."

Said the unhappy husband when his wife left him: "Divorce is yet to come."

Speaking of marriage reminds me of the story of the farmer and his wife who were discussing their son, Elmer. Said the wife: "Paw, I'm getting worried about Elmer. Seems as if he has no desire to get married. What can we do about him?" The farmer removed a straw from his mouth, spat, and replied: "Now, don't you go worrying about Elmer, Maw. He'll get married just as soon as the wrong girl comes along."

Definition of a southpaw: A man who raises a family in Florida.

Overheard at the Powers bar: "Who's that long, lanky girl just coming in the door?" "Quiet. She used to be long and lanky, but she just inherited $100,000. She's tall and stately now."

Two drunks were discussing life at a bar one day. "I had the most awful dream last night," said one. "I dreamed that all of a sudden about a thousand funny little men were dancing all over me. They had blue caps and green suits and funny red boots that curled up in the front." "Yes," said the other,

"and there was a tinkly little bell at the toe of each of the boots." "How do you know?" said the first one in surprise. "There are a couple of them still sitting on your shoulders," said the other.

Sol Posner says a budget is something you can't live within without.

A group of roisterers were discussing women in a night spot recently and one of them, a confirmed woman-hater, undertook to explain the reason why there were women on earth. "Women wouldn't be here except for a little misunderstanding," he said. "The Lord came down from the sky one day and asked Adam how things were going. Adam happened to be feeling a little low that day and said, 'Lord, why can't I have some company. I get pretty lonely all by myself.' 'That's right,' said the Lord. 'Maybe what you need is a nice woman.' Adam turned white at that and said, 'Aw, Lord, can't you take a rib?' Well, sir, that's just what the Lord did. The next day Eve put in an appearance and you all know the rest of the terrible story."

Then there was the man who was looking at a huge mounted fish in a museum. After gazing at it for several minutes, he said: "The man who caught that fish is a liar."

Big Fish
Key West, Fla.—One of the largest stingrays ever caught in the Florida Keys was landed recently here by Frank Wayne, a Navy shore patrol man. The fish weighed 250 pounds and gave birth to nine little ones a few minutes after it was landed.

BALLOONS —

200-mile radius of Rochester. He's been following the carnivals, circuses and parades ever since he was a kid and if there is a novelty made for street selling, Bentley has either sold it, or has found it not worth selling.

Between his start 80 years ago and today, he has found time to marry, raise and educate two sons. Today he is the grandfather of six youngsters and, as you can well imagine, one of his favorite tasks is keeping the grandchildren supplied with balloons — and for free, too. Since his wife died nine years ago he lives with son Harold at 51 Glenora Dr. Both Harold and Alfred, Jr., his other son, are employed at Eastman Kodak Co.

"Never let either of 'em sell a balloon," says Bentley, "that was my racket."

Mechanized Blower Aids
Today Bentley isn't as young as he used to be and doesn't have quite the lung power he possessed back in the old days. But that doesn't bother an entrepreneur like Bentley. Remembering the bellows with which mother got the cookstove fire going when he was a young lad, Bentley has enlisted the aid of a pair of the same old-fashioned type bellows. Now he blows up his balloons with a few short pumps of the bellows and saves what lung power he has to sell his wares.

Yes, he says, he could have sold the bellows a hundred times in the past week. According to him, they're antiques and recognized as such by local collectors. But, no sale says Bentley. Why dispose "of a capital asset?"

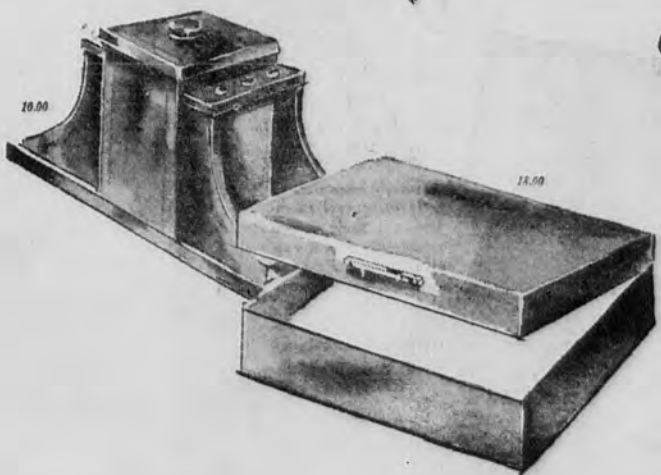

The nation has much to be thankful for as 1946 rolls toward the end and one of the greatest blessings was the determination of the war, with far fewer casualties than expected.

Employees of Kodak bought homes out Monroe Ave. to have some influence, the line was Under present conditions, this them humorous stories.

"She read us the Cartwright Snow Report too, daddy," said Bill. "It was even funnier than the first time, when it was published in the papers."

"Did you think it funny too, Jon?" queried the lady of the house. Jon bolted an extra large gob of Cream 'o Rice and gurgled "I ate seven pieces of cake — it was that good."

"Then she read us Mayor Dicker's Snow Report (a fellow can dream can't he?) and it was hilarious," interrupted Billy. "In fact, I fell off the chair."

"What did you do?" we asked the cake-consuming Jon.

"Me?" said Jon, "I frowned up."

There must be something in this dream business of that. When the Dicker Report on "Why We Fall Down Again" comes to Rochesterians as a Christmas present, it's quite likely that a great many will react as did Jon.

According to a 500 dollar party contributor whose name we couldn't find on the official "put and take" report of Republican campaign funds, the hardest guy to see in Rochester is Boss Tom Broderick. The president of Kodak, the Lincoln-Rochester Bank, and Harry Truman all rolled into one would be a breeze by comparison. Mr. B. is out of town.

"In a meeting," or "not in, leave your name we expect to hear from him by phone later."

We don't expect it will concern the grand sashon greatly to learn that the afternoon and similar crowd heavy sugar contributor, will give the dough to the Democrats or put it in Victory Bonds, next year.

The clamor for the Republican designation for Congress to oppose George Rogers next year died aborning. The picture looks so black for Dewey and the Republican state ticket, that no one wants to be the sacrificial lamb.

It's getting so the daily papers don't care what they print. Monday they thoughtlessly published the report of the National Municipal Review whose opinions are academic and impartial. As you may recall, they stated next to Boss Hague's politically infamous Jersey City, Boss Broderick's "Great Republican City" had the highest tax rate in cities of its class.

It even costs more to give poor service in Rochester.

The verbal brickbats cast at the rubber stamp council by "Tex" Erwin is still the talk of the Powers Tap Room (Republican Auxiliary Headquarters). The reports conflict. Some say Tom will smooth it over. Some say he'll let the Council stew it out themselves; the Mayor's report will be another whitewash job with a new painter, Dicker instead of Cartwright. Others nod and say that Hizoner will recommend that a few heads be taken off; (A likely story son), Erwin will be placated; Ditto Doane; Erwin will be a new leader; Erwin will get his head chopped off; Doane will do what he feels like; Doane will do what the boss asks him; Kreckman will sit tight and jump which ever way the wind blows; Kreckman will fight; Schlueter will withdraw from the new faction; Schlueter will fight it out; It's been decided the citizens can be fooled again. It's been decided that the GOP is on the spot and must do something; There is a move a foot to march on City Hall; Indignant voters won't march on City Hall, or maybe they will or did.

At the Powers you can get as many opinions as you care to buy beers for.

The biggest laugh of the current week. (If you can laugh at the tragedy of poorly qualified men trying to cover up for their deficiencies.) was the protest of the rubber stamp five who accused Erwin and Doane of "putting them on the spot."

If you are a councilman and asked to do anything to remedy an intolerable situation and earn your pay, you're "put on the spot." It's a "great city" folks.

Among the more sober minded Republican gentry, Tex Erwin's tirade against his lax and indifferent conferees was the greatest service performed for the Republican Party since F. D. R. obligingly beat Hoover.

The people with the biggest "beef" on snowstorms are strangely silent. The Rochester Transit Company should send the city a bill for busted buses all caused by improperly cleaned streets.

Incidentally, what's become of "We Saved the Dollar Pass" MacFarlin?

Definition: A Rochester Republican is a guy that can get away with the same thing "twice." Or should we say, "indefinitely?"

TAXES —

tration the magazine placed only base-ridden Jersey City (under the control of "I am the Law" Hague) ahead of Rochester. It was easy for anyone who has ever read a Rochester newspaper to comprehend why Jersey City's rate was high. What with the high hand of Hague extracting toll from every revenue source to keep his well-oiled political machine rolling. But that Rochester was a neighbor to the New Jersey city came as a distinct shock to those who had read and believed the late lamented political slogan that Rochester was a "great city—a Republican city."

Why So High?

Added to Whitley's red-faced confusion was the question in many a taxpayer's mind as to the reason for Rochester's sky-high rate. Surely, mused the taxpayer, it could not be because of the superior public service rendered by the city fathers. Only too recently had a reputation of snow-storm bungling demonstrated the complete lack of efficiency and desire for service in the minds of the powers that be. And, to add to his woes, the property owner could not even place the blame for the high rate on the county government's efficiency. He had only to consult the records of unsolved crimes—both in city and county to explode any theory that good county government costs more. He surely wasn't getting good government—that, he easily admitted. But now, to have the Democrats' statement that Rochester's rate was "way out of line" admitted by a reliable, conservative publication of national distribution and unblemished reputation was a bit more than he could bear. Even the comptroller had begun to wonder just how long and how far the city could "get away with it."

Schenectady Laughs

But if the heads of Rochester taxpayers were still "bloody but unbowed" they became a bit nearer bowing—in shame—when more coals of fire were heaped on their heads this week by a citizen of neighboring Schenectady. It was reported that Leon F. Nie, a Schenectady business man, coming to Rochester to look over the clothing market last week had stayed to laugh at the feeble efforts of the city's feeble Department of Public Works in trying to cope with very ordinary winter snowstorm. Nie, previously believed to be reliable in his statements, declared that Rochester was way, way behind Schenectady in the matter of snow removal. Albany's neighbor, he said, was able to get "well out of the woods" (meaning snow) a day and a half after its first big storm. Hearing that, citizens of the Flower City were busy looking up the population statistics of Schenectady only to learn it was less than half the size of Rochester.

Great For Whom?

Yes, Rochester was a great city. That could still be said. But for whom it was great was the question in the minds of many of its citizens this week. Perhaps it was a great city for its people. But then again, perhaps the signs had meant only that Rochester was great city of "suckers" or could it be they meant a great city for machine politicians?

RADIO POLL —

the best comedy show in the 1945 poll just completed.

There was spirited competition in the best program classification this year with Fred Allen, Fibber McGee and Molly and Bing Crosby winding up in a dead heat for second place honors not far behind Hope. The Lux Radio Theatre and Edgar Bergen and Charlie McCarthy tied for third.

H. V. Kaltenborn won the nod over Raymond Swing by a close margin as the Best News Commentator, Harry Von Zell was voted Rochester's Best Announcer and also found favor as a master of ceremonies, Fred Waring's NBC daytime musical show was voted the Best Daytime Program.

CBS Best News Job

CBS did the Best News Job in Radio in 1945, according to the voters who specifically designated the network's handling of V-E Day, V-J Day and the death of President Roosevelt as the three biggest radio news stories of the year.

One of the surprises of the poll was the failure of Jack Benny to duplicate his standing in earlier polls in the comedian and comedy show classifications. With the radio scribe balancers seemingly agreeing with Fred Allen this year, four comedians (including a tie) placed ahead of him and, in the comedy show classification, Benny's program failed to place among the leaders this year.

JENSEN —

A., the Columbus Club and such organizations. The instruction which he proposes to give will center on mental equipment and knowledge for law enforcement work.

The class will start Saturday at 3 p. m. in the board room of the Board of Education, 13 Fitzhugh St. S. Enrollment will be limited to 100 candidates. A second class will get underway next Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the same room.

Particularly aimed at returning veterans, Jensen is volunteering his time as coach as his contribution to refitting the servicemen for active community life. He has the approval of Police Chief Henry T. Copenhagen and Commissioner of Public Safety Thomas Woods in his project.

All men between the ages of 20 and 29 are eligible to attend, but Jensen advises that physical qualifications for copers will limit students to those not under 5 ft. 9½ inches nor over 6 ft. 4 inches in height. Other qualifications are that the candidate have at least 90 percent of his own teeth, be in good health with good eyesight wearing no glasses, of good moral character with no criminal record and a citizen of Rochester for at least a year.

A new test is expected to be called by the civil service commission some time during 1946 but, according to report no definite date has as yet been set.

Whether or not Jensen will teach his pupils how to snitch a banana from the corner fruit stand with the proper éclat could not be learned. But he says he'll teach em what it takes to be a good cop. That should include the banana snatch.

All interested are invited to attend the opening class next Saturday.

Eisenhower Diary Notes Rochester Aide

Friends of Major General Ray Barker whose home is at 52 Tratalagar St. (when he isn't fighting a war) will be particularly interested in the account of "My Three Years With Eisenhower," the diary of Captain Harry Butcher which is being published serially in The Saturday Evening Post beginning this week. Major General Barker was a senior general on General Eisenhower's Staff for Plans during the tense days of 1942, before the African invasion and is one of the notables mentioned in Captain Butcher's interesting account of events at GHQ.

Under date of August 17, 1942, Butcher relates that General Barker was one of the group who discussed training and supplying Combat Teams of the 1st Division for the all-important invasion.

Roosevelt Favored Invasion

President Roosevelt and American military leaders, Captain Butcher relates, were willing to risk an unsuccessful thrust across the English Channel in 1942 to save Russia from being knocked out of the war. Although available Allied forces were far inferior to the Nazis, he explains, the American strategists feared Russia would collapse under the German onslaught unless a second front was established to relieve the pressure.

The British, doubting that the move would aid Russia materially and believing it would lead the Allies to disarray, argued for a limited invasion of North Africa "to get on Rommel's tail." Ultimately the North African campaign was undertaken, but on a broader scale than the British originally had proposed.

At lunch on July 22nd in Eisenhower's headquarters, Presidential Secretary Stephen T. Early informed Butcher that Harry Hopkins had indicated that the British would agree to a second front that year. But the situation changed by dinner-time. Butcher recorded: "Steve said the barometer had gone down, and the British had refused to go along on the American proposal for a second front this year, but had made alternative proposals. This I had known from Ike, but this job makes me tongue-tied."

Plans Changed

Operation "Sledgehammer", the code name for an immediate landing in Europe, was tossed aside. The attack on "Festung Europa" was to wait for a grand invasion called "Roundup", scheduled tentatively for 1943.

The following day the Combined Chiefs of Staff decided to clean up Africa first, subject to the approval of Roosevelt and Churchill, as Rommel's Afrika Corps was then battling within 70 miles of the Nile Delta. A code name for the operation was selected: "Torch."

The first Post installment of Butcher's diary, covering the period between July 8 and September 4, 1942, discloses the numerous difficulties confronting the military planners. There was a shortage of combatant ships and a shortage of landing craft. Sometimes Eisenhower wondered aloud about the vaunted American production of war material.

Ten Installments

Butcher wrote more than 1,000,000 words, all told. The Saturday Evening Post paid a record $175,000 for the magazine rights and, by concise editing, presents the best of the diary in ten installments. The installments are filled with hitherto unrevealed information about the leaders who made recent history; how Ike, to combat the "social front," declined to attend Lady Astor's reception at which George Bernard Shaw was to be present; how General Patton prepared a demand for the French to surrender Casablanca two months before the battle; how Churchill calmly changed his socks in the midst of a long war council. The diary will be published in book form later by Simon and Schuster.

Butcher, who has known Eisenhower since Ike was a major 19 years ago, recently resigned as a CBS vice president to devote himself to writing the book.

CASH PRIZES OFFERED IN HANDICRAFT CONTEST

New York City — American servicemen and veterans will have a chance to cash in on the ingenuity they have demonstrated in all theatres of war by entering their own craftwork in a contest conducted by Popular Science Monthly. Gadgets they devised to pass the time may win them some of the $3,300 in cash prizes.

The contest, which opened Dec. 1st, is for all servicemen and servicewomen. It closes April 30, 1946. First prize is $1,000 with a second prize of $500. Fifty-six other prizes range down to $25. Any article of handicraft made while in the service is eligible for the competition, and may be made from discarded shell cases, strips of scrap metal, shells from the South Pacific, or any type of surplus or salvaged materials. No paintings, drawings, prints or renderings may be entered.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

Monday was comedy day in the Court House and, running Bob Hope a close second for funny remarks, was our own Deputy Corporation Counsel Charles B. Forsythe who stated that the suit of Joseph Groeck to obtain wire service on horse racing was brought "to interfere with police enforcement action against horse rooms."

Everyone in the courtroom was too stunned to laugh right out loud at the statement, but all vowed it was the most humorous remark made since Amos and Andy started broadcasting.

As everyone knows, including the ladies of the Fluttering Butterfly Sewing Circle and the deaf Mrs. Flegleheimer who lives over the grocery store at Douds Corners, the police of Rochester have yet to interfere with the local horse parlors. To do so would embarrass a great many local politicians. In fact, a year or two back when the horse room workers were unionizing or striking for more pay and shorter hours, Mr. Tom Woods, who as Commissioner of Public Safety should know all about such matters, denied in a statement to the press "that he knew of the existence of any such establishments." To Mr. Woods a cigar store is just a cigar store — and the penny profits on cigarettes could easily pay the fancy rents on a number of such downtown locations.

Heirs Of Pioneers Estate Sought In Area

Chicago, Ill. — A Christmas present in the form of an estate of between $5,000 and $6,000 to which they are the heirs, is trying to find and give itself to the children of George and Franklin Fuller, who are obviously now quite old if still living.

This became known here this week when Walter C. Cox, probate genealogist, took over the search for the Fuller children over a trail which leads from Wyoming County, Pa., through the eastern half of that state, and thence to several cities in New York state.

Cox said that George and Franklin Fuller, brothers, are known to have been born in Wyoming County in the 1840s. "The Fuller Family," he added,

COUNTY GETS HALF OF 'DIMES' MARCH' FUND

County Chairman Makes Plea For Response In January Drive

In how many ways are contributions to the March of Dimes used for the aid of infantile paralysis sufferers?

This question was answered today by Harry B. Crowley, chairman of Monroe Chapter of National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

"All the money contributed to the March of Dimes," he said, "is divided into two parts. Half remains in the county where it is subscribed, to provide direct aid to infantile paralysis patients. It is used by the County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis for medical and nursing care, hospitalization, physical therapy treatments, orthopedic surgery, if necessary, orthopedic equipment and appliances, and all other services necessary to the complete care of poliomyelitis patients."

For National Program

"The other half goes to headquarters of the National Foundation for emergency aid in epidemics, for training professional personnel in care and treatment methods, for education and the vital program of scientific research which is our only hope of finally wiping out this dread disease."

"This intensive fight against infantile paralysis is undoubtedly the greatest voluntary humanitarian movement in the recorded history of mankind. It has enlisted the personal interest and contributions of a majority of America's adult population. It exists only by (See DIMES Page 12)

It takes more to be a policeman than flat feet—in fact, flat feet would bar a candidate from even getting on the force. But what it does take to be a "copper" is being learned by an enthusiastic class of candidates meeting in the Board of Education Bldg. every Saturday afternoon under the direction of Safety Officer Henry Jensen. Jensen is voluntarily offering free coaching to those who intend taking the next civil service examination for membership on "the force," expected some time during 1946. Here John J. McGrath, 16 Cady St., practices putting the cuffs on Ray E. St. Aubin, 33 May St., another student in the class. Watching for errors in procedure is Officer Jensen. Both McGrath and St. Aubin are veterans of World War II. McGrath is the son of John McGrath a police officer attached to the Second Precinct.

The class is open to all men, including veterans between the age of 21 and 30.

UNION HITS FINDINGS IN BIAS CHARGE

Claims Exoneration Of Bausch & Lomb Is 'Whitewash'

Condemnation of the state anti-discrimination committee's handling of charges leveled against the Bausch & Lomb Optical Co. by the United Electrical and Machine Operators CIO union were heaped on the state body this week by Hugh Harley, Rochester representative of the union.

The union filed charges with the commission in September against the optical concern which, said the union, had discriminated against several Italian-American workers in the layoffs immediately following V.J. Day. They were laid off, said the union, because of their racial background.

Last week the state commission completed its investigation and declared the charges without foundation.

Charges "Whitewash"

According to Harley, the investigation was a "whitewash" and declared that the commission had "flagrantly violated the intent of the state's anti-discrimination law." He added that "the decision, in effect, condones the discriminatory practices of the Bausch & Lomb Co."

In its complaint against the handling of the charges, the union says that employees affected by the layoff who filed affidavits with the commission were not interviewed, nor were they given opportunity to present any additional evidence at any formal hearing. The investigators, says the union, apparently made contact only with Bausch & Lomb officials who, declared union spokesmen, "naturally were anxious to disregard the charge."

Asks CIO To Intervene

Harley has turned his complaint (See UNION Page 12)

$25 Winner

Miss Emile Chapman, 330 Monroe Ave., is the lucky winner of this week's $25 cash prize, offered by the Sun each week to its sustaining subscribers. This is the reward Miss Chapman gets for paying her Sun carrier, Howard Reed, 507 Averill Ave. 10 cents. Howard, incidentally, collects an extra five dollars bonus.

City Shocked At Wanton Killing of Innocent Babes

If the younger generation this week had begun to have their doubts about the reality of Santa Claus and the ancient theory that life was all sweetness and light, it was hardly surprising. What with trying to dodge future atomic bombs and overcome the mistrust and suspicion of so-called "stainable" allies, those who did survive the wrath of hot tempered fathers and the neglect of careless mothers had somewhat of a bleak outlook for the future.

Two Deaths Slook

Those who could read already knew about the now infamous Cayman case, the Chelsea, Mass. "kidnapping" which suddenly turned out to be a case of parental neglect or, as police charge, a pure case of murder. And while Rochester was still trying to recover from the shock engendered by the action of the Massachusetts mother, police here uncovered a crime as revolting and disgusting, if not more so, right in Rochester.

SLAYINGS . . .

According to police little two-and-a-half month old Louis Walter, of Louis Fink, or something, was beaten, choked and strangled by one Lawrence Walter, alleged father of the child, who then buried the little one's broken body in a vacant lot on Park Ave. The child's mother, Abigail Fink, was said to have stood mutely by while her baby was destroyed. Miss Fink and Walter, say police, had neglected to commit matrimony — he already being encumbered with one wife who bore him a son now 11 years of age. Miss Fink is also said to be expecting another visit from the stork as a result of Walter's attentions.

Sordid Tale

The story he told police was a solid one — a story that dismayed all Rochester. Even though Rochester might be a "great city" as the politicians claimed, the story proved that underneath its lid of decency was the same seething mass of inhumanity as can be found anywhere in the world where people give themselves over to their baser urges.

Party Wins Over Baby

In the Carlan case, the mother confessed going to a party leaving her six-month old baby alone at home. According to her story she returned later to find the baby dead but, with the milk of human kindness flowing through her breast, she returned to the party and said nothing because, she explained, "she didn't want to spoil the party." She undoubtedly could not see the wisdom of breaking up a Saturday night party merely because her baby had up and died.

Police, however, who found the infant's body stuffed into a bureau drawer now charge the party-going mother with murdering her baby.

Cries Anger Father

In the Rochester case Walter said he "got mad" at his two-month old son for crying. His story to police related that he and Miss Fink were still in bed about 11 a. m. and the baby cried. The mother, said Walters, refused to do anything about it so he got up and took the baby into the kitchen. Probably going on the theory that it was time the lad's training began and, perhaps, to teach him a lesson for his ingratitude for crying out just because he hadn't yet been fed at 11 a. m., Walter slapped him in the face. That it was a hard blow was evidenced by Walter's tale that the slap brought blood from its mouth. The infant made no effort to defend himself — he didn't, as would a person Walter's size, sock his tormentor back. He just plain quit breathing. Whereupon big, husky Walter, wanting to make sure that his son had learned his lesson and wouldn't again cry out — even if it was 11 o'clock in the morning, put the baby on the floor and choked it for "perhaps five or ten minutes."

After such a short little chokin', Louis was dead.
That was last February. But the police had finally uncovered the crime.

When apprehended Walter is said to have exclaimed, "I'm glad you finally got me."
With that sentiment, decent Rochester concurred.

A Good Question
The new and old teachers meeting in an informal get-together at the beginning of the new school year, and trying to forget they had not received a raise in their meagre pay, pretended they didn't have a care in the world.

After they had eaten, the Superintendent of Education proposed the toast: "Long live our teachers!"
To which a bright, unfettered young teacher near the foot of the table rejoined, "What on?"

Almost any prescription will cure a patient who believes in it.

"platonic interest in turf performance." In spite of what Mr. Clay wrote into the complaint we strongly suspect that Mr. Groeck's interest is about as platonic as a three-horse parlay at a Toronto track.

There has always been gambling in Rochester and there probably always will be. It can be open and above board as it has been for many years or it can be kicked back into the "knock three times and say Charlie sent you" type of operation with a typical "clip joint" atmosphere and viewpoint.

We realize when a thing is unlawful the police and the administration can't chat with the local "do-gooders" and explain to them that it is better to have horse rooms wide open and thereby subject to frequent scrutiny by police and public than to have the "boys" on the run looking here and there for a quick clean-up.

possibility, gambling is apt to become a dangerous, bootlegging type of pastime and the police may have real trouble.

This is not a brief for gambling. We write politics, not sports. It's merely a statement of bald facts — there is going to be gambling in Rochester — just like there was drinking in the prohibition era — regardless of the outcome of the now famous case in the courts. It's just our opinion, and it probably isn't worth a nickel, that it's preferable that Chief Copenhagen and his boys know the whereabouts of each horseshoer (and contrary to Mr. Woods, they do) than to have a dozen "sharpies" setting up out of a suitcase in a different spot each day with the sole intent of clipping the suckers.

We wouldn't be a bit surprised if privately the police department might concur with us on this point and many politicians as well. That's what makes the present court case so ridiculous.

By and large horse-betting in Rochester on the "up-to-a-few-weeks-ago" basis was, in a sense, a legitimate if illegal business. The proprietors of such places, businessmen in a businesslike way had worked out the mathematical chances on the total volume of bets taken in their "stores" each week in such a way as to guarantee them a certain percentage of profit. They had good weeks and bad ones just like the man in the furniture business or department stores. Fundamentally they were just as honest, they had their mathematical margin just as the merchant had his mark-up. No one was cheated, black-jacked or high-pressured into buying a ticket on any horse or race. If you wanted to buck the percentage they had with them on each race that was your business and that's what they were there for — and you didn't have to show your draft card or birthmark to enter the place.

If the political lid is held down in these stores of chance, which is very unlikely, yet a

It might have been a good idea if Mr. Broderick had oked the expense voucher, to have Messers Wagener and Cartwright in Buffalo the past few days. They could have had a free lesson on how to fight a real storm — one that makes anything these boys had to contend with look like a light frost.

There is nothing to the report that Super-deoper Sudy Flakes wants to sponsor Mr. Forsythe on a new comedy program.

If Rochester had had the 50-inch Buffalo snowfall, right about now Mr. Cartwright might be considering the announcement that "an emergency existed."

If you have a team of horses and a few men to go along with them, call Bob Smith or Pat Grimes, election commissioners. They want 20 election booths removed to winter quarters.

Light after Darkness

This is our brightest Christmas in a long, dark time. The lighted trees—the glowing windows that greet night with cheerful challenge—are shining symbols of the passing of war's shadow.

There is radiant happiness in family gatherings this year. Men are coming home from the war. And those who hear their Christmas carols under strange skies are closer, nearer to home than they have been in a great while.

For many, this will be a wistful Christmas—but a Christmas brave and strong in the knowledge that those who bought victory so dearly will make tomorrow's world a brighter place for us all.

BROOKS AVE. GUN CLUB TO HAVE TURKEY SHOOT
A Christmas turkey shoot is scheduled for the Brooks Ave. Gun Club Sunday. But that doesn't mean they're going to shoot turkeys, paradoxical as it may seem.

According to members of the club located on the Brooks Ave., a mile west of the canal bridge, turkeys will be awarded as prizes for high gun, both skeet and trap, for 50 targets. A large turkey will also be put up as grand prize. The fields will be open from 10 a. m. to dark.

Also on the gunners' schedule is a special Christmas morning shoot from 9:30 a. m. to noon.

An invitation to participate has been issued to all interested in shooting.

SCOUT GROUP PLANS NEW YEAR'S EVE FETE
Members of Explorer Scout Unit Post 123 will sponsor a New Year's Eve dance at Fellowship Hall on Winton Rd. N. at Farmington Rd. Recorded music from 8:30 p. m. is scheduled. Refreshments will be served. Acting as chairman is Robert McVee, assisted by Gene Almikinder and Robert Styles.

Swing Club's Originality Finds Favor From Start

The Swing Club came into being and into Rochester with a rush and a bang. For pep, sparkle and gaiety it gets the vote of every "getabout" in town. The Swing Club is one of the few spots in the country that started off "packing 'em in" and has been doing it ever since.

Success of this sort doesn't happen. A place doesn't catch on just by chance and doesn't stay at the top for that reason either. Ideas are just as important in night club operation as they are in research for the atomic bomb—and ideas are what the management of the Swing Club has most of—and what's more, they have put them into practice.

It's obvious that the Swing Club owners had two main ideas in mind when they undertook to provide their share of Rochester's after-dark entertainment. First, to be "hot," that is, lively, peppy and popular—abreast of things, not following trends, but leading them. No one can deny that the club definitely does that.

Originality Important

The second conception was to be original. No run of the mill, out-can-see-it-on-every-corner decorations, shows or atmosphere. It had to be the best it didn't fit into the Swing Club scheme. Able and hardworking proprietors put their ideas into effect, had them nicely going only to be visited by a devastating fire that ruined years of planning. Ordinary folks would have been discouraged and dismayed at a dream so tragically ended.

It was only a momentary shock, in spite of heavy financial loss. The ashes were hardly cold before the boys were in the blue-print stage for a newer and more modern club. One was reputed to have said "we may have been a blessing in disguise—we were only up-to-date as the club was—and the fire will make us get back into our stride, back into our place—and TWO YEARS AHEAD OF EVERYONE ELSE!"

CHATEAU HAS NATIONAL REPUTATION

Rochester's Most Famous Night Club Prepares Gala New Year's Party

No matter where you go when the conversation turns to night clubs in Rochester, the first one mentioned is the Chateau. You may be rattling between New York and Chicago in the sumptuous lounge of the Century or en route to Havana by luxury liner for a winter holiday, your company may be people from cities all over the country "who go places and see things." These traveled acquaintances have various impressions about your town but one of their most lasting ones was the night they went to the Chateau. "How's Al Richards" and "What's new at the Chateau" from the man in Miami or Memphis, or the girl you met in Sard's is often music to the ear of the Rochesterian away from home.

Gains National Fame

The nation-wide fame of the Chateau came only with years. Years in which fine food, skillfully mixed drinks, good service and top flight entertainment were carefully blended to give the visitor not only a memorable evening but an outstanding value. Only with such a policy could the Chateau have earned such a national reputation and survived these many years. The Chateau is Rochester's oldest night club. That speaks for itself.

This New Year's Eve program will be the greatest in the club's history according to the Michaels men. Returned service men, who, until recently, have swayed out the traditional celebration in fox holes all over the world are expected to attend the party in numbers. The management believes that they are entitled to a real old-fashioned American New Year's Eve party—and plans are being made with that in mind.

Enlarged Floor Show

There will be gay decorations, favors and noisemakers galore. A vastly augmented floor show with top-flight New York entertainers imported for the occasion, will join with the best of the present bill to make the Chateau party the gala occasion it has always been.

The fine food that has made good living a byword at the Chateau could hardly be improved upon but on the carefully selected dinner menu countless added delicacies will be found.

Rochesterians "in the know" have already elected the Chateau as the place to welcome in 1946. Reservations are going fast and they are limited. Call Monroe 9040 for yours—now.

Favorite Summer Spot Popular In Winter, Too

Although many Rochesterians associate the Terrace Gardens with a soft summer breeze, starlit nights and al fresco dining in a romantic Miami atmosphere, a host of patrons know it as a year 'round rendezvous whose cordiality and service is unaffected by season and temperature changes.

Yes, the Terrace Gardens is justly famous for summer fun and dancing on a terrace bathed in moonlight but it is equally renowned among epicures who want the best in food, potables, and eye and ear entertainment as a year round haven for those who like "to go places" evenings.

Secret of Success

What makes a place "click" and keep on "clicking" over the years is in no small measure due to the personality of the proprietor. The Terrace Gardens have been entertaining people from near and far for many years. Good food, properly served drinks, fine music and entertainment are the reasons for the existence of night clubs. What brings the visitors back week after week is that ambiguous thing people call "atmosphere." No two persons, you know, define the word alike. Some say it's the people you meet there, or the "spirit" of the place. If you meet there a lot of people you know (and you always do) it does contribute to a successful evening. The spirit, many would say it is, the air of gaiety, the laughter, tinkling glasses, and the zestful aroma of the sizzling platters set before you.

All of which may be true, but what makes the Stork Club click in New York is the gentility of the men who run it. There are a hundred places in New York where the entertainment, food and drinks are the equal of the Stork but few that have such ingratiating hosts. What is true of the Stork in New York is just as true in a degree to the Terrace Gardens here at home. Mrs. Martin, whose managerial skill in providing the essentials of a good "night out" is requisite of a successful operation, and is what makes them come the first time. But why they come back so often is that she is a host first and a business manager afterwards. Personal charm, diplomacy and an honest-to-goodness "I am glad you have come back" attitude, plus a desire to give every patron his or her money's worth along with a good time is what the Terrace Gardens have in Mrs. Martin and is why the Terrace Gardens in Rochester, and the Stork in New York, have something in common.

Banqueters' Rendezvous

Only 15 minutes from the Four Corners the Terrace Gardens has long been the popular spot for groups of three to three hundred wanting to celebrate with a party or banquet, anniversaries and wedding events. The management has always been able to prepare just the proper menu and to quote prices within the budget of the celebrants.

'46 EXPECTED TO GET GALA RECEPTION

In the first peacetime New Year's celebration since the advent of 1941, Rochester will join the rest of the nation in "taking off the lid" in greeting Kid 1946.

Night clubs, who will get the greatest share of the celebrators have made extensive plans to handle the largest crowds since World War II put a damper on celebrations of any kind.

All-night licenses are being granted to night spots so that curfews will not interfere with celebrants' revelry. They can keep on until dawn of New Year's day for all official care. However, the licenses will impose a closing hour, but that is expected to be so late that no one will mind, much less wish to continue.

And while Police Chief Henry Copenhagen says he doesn't anticipate any overexuberant celebration, he'll have a full force of policemen on duty "just in case."

Most clubs which ordinarily offer floor shows will augment their holiday bill with additional star entertainers and acts. Some clubs who do not regularly schedule floor shows have planned special entertainment for the New Year's eve celebration. All have their orchestras primed and ready and dance floors are expected to be a bit on the crowded side.

Prices, in view of the current HCD (high cost of drinking) will remain favorable—for the client. Rochester nightclub owners are not expected to adopt the New York City practice of "ballooning" the prices up to the most the traffic will bear.

Even the Bromo-Seltzer Co. is joining the celebration. They have stocked dealers' shelves to overflowing with their familiar headache and hangover remedy.

Political Polka

No one was surprised to learn that Mayor Sam found his Republican confederates blameless for the November snow removal fiasco. In fact, the Republicans went even further than that — this time even God wasn't to blame. We presume that it was so close to Christmas Mr. Broderick deemed it would be an irreverent accusation.

Those who closely read Mr. Dicker's skin-deep revelations did not have to have an official interpreter to see that the whitewash was as thin as the chocolate on two-bit candy and that the Brothers Hungele were just trying to work their way out of another tough spot.

Hizzoner stated that he did not find the executives "remiss or neglectful in calling out the contractors and equipment." You see folks if you are a City Haul executive, all you do is call'em out. Then you go back to bed. That's how we won the last war. Someone told the generals that the Japs had attacked us. The generals phoned the first sergeants who in turn routed out the privates. The generals went back to bed. The army without any further delay went out and won the war.

Further along in the Dicker Declaration, Sam let his guard down. He recommended the purchase of 16 three ton trucks, 10 more plows, four bulldozers (not to be construed as the report itself) and six Snow-Go apparatuses. If the administration had not been "remiss" they would have had these ready after last December's storm, not just talking about them a year and a storm later. The Brothers

Messenger Takes Penicillin To Storm-Bound Buffalo

Six hospitals in the blizzard-buried Buffalo area, partly isolated by an embargo on rail express shipments and suspension of traffic at the local airport, received 1,000 vials of life-saving penicillin brought by special courier just as all supplies of the "miracle drug" were exhausted.

Dr. Charles E. Dutchess, medical director of Schenley Laboratories, Inc., said the emergency delivery of penicillin was distributed to five hospitals in Buffalo and one in Lackawanna less than 24 hours after P. J. Kohler, vice president of the 600 Oxford units of penicillin firm of Jeffrey-Fell Company, telephoned to New York to report the crisis. The penicillin was loaded into several suitcases at the Lawrenceburg, Ind., plant of Schenley Laboratories and placed in charge of a messenger who boarded a Buffalo-bound train at Cincinnati a short time later.

The six hospitals had exhausted supplies of penicillin despite efforts to meet the emergency by pooling available stocks. Kohler reported later. Hospital officials estimated the 1,000 vials, containing 100,000,000 Oxford units of penicillin.

CUT SEEN IN STATE INCOME TAX

Officials Map Plans For Additional 25% Reduction In Levy

State income tax payers may have their payment cut another 25 percent if rumors circulating the Albany capitol turn out to be correct.

According to informants a reduction in 1946 state personal income taxes is under serious consideration. Already cut 25 percent, observers see another cut of like amount for next year.

Governor Dewey and the Republican majority of the legislature are expected to push the tax cut. They are afraid the Democrats will recommend it before they have a chance to act. The Republicans want to be first and, with the Democrats right at their heels, they don't want to be left in the position of having their political rivals get credit for a tax reduction — something always dear to the hearts of the taxpayers who, incidentally, are also voters.

Tax Halved

The net effect of such a reduction would be that New York State taxpayers, after figuring total tax due on their 1945 incomes, would send a check to the tax department for exactly half that amount.

Gov. Dewey is working on his annual message to the legislature, to be delivered Jan. 9. It is probable, however, the references to tax cuts will be withheld until he submits his 1946-47 executive budget about Feb. 1.

Treasury Full

State finances are in an extremely healthy condition, with the surplus approaching $500,000,000 and every prospect for a continued high yield from existing tax sources during 1946. The situation would permit a tax reduction, provided the administration does not decide that all possible revenue is needed for the gigantic post-war construction program, part of which is already under contract.

Democrats To Urge Cut

The Democrats plan to submit their program before the session begins, so they will get in the first punch. They followed that policy in 1943, Gov. Dewey's first year in office, but dropped it in 1944 and 1945.

One of the planks in the Democratic platform it is reported will call for a state bonus to all returning New York veterans, perhaps of $150 each. Such a bonus was given by the state to the returning veterans of World War I. The Dewey administration has taken no stand on the bonus question.

The Democrats also plan to renew their demands that the state share part of its huge surplus with the localities, which did not benefit as much financially from the war boom as did the State Treasury.

BANK PROMOTES RETURNED VET, BRANCH HEAD

Cyril G. Kress, formerly assistant secretary of the Lincoln-Alliance Bank and Trust Company, recently returned Lieutenant Colonel of the 209th Regiment, Coast Artillery, was made assistant vice president of the Lincoln Rochester Trust Company at a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of that company.

Announcement was also made by Raymond N. Ball, president of the company, that Ward S. Ward, returned veteran, formerly manager of the Portland-Clifford Office, has been made assistant secretary.

Cy Kress entered the bank in 1918 as a messenger and after service in the various departments of the bank became Manager of the Monroe Office. He was made Assistant Secretary in 1936.

Ward entered the bank in 1921 as a messenger and after serving in various departments of the bank was made Manager of the Portland Office on March 31, 1941.

Kress enlisted in the New York National Guard Cavalry in 1922 and commanded Troop F of the 121st Cavalry from 1932 to 1940. He entered active service with the 209th Coast Artillery in February 1941. He served with that outfit in Ireland, England, Africa, Italy, Corsica, France and Germany as Commanding Officer of the Second Battalion of the 209th Artillery Anti-Aircraft, later known as the 189th AAA. In addition to five campaign stars and his European Theatre decoration, he was awarded the Ribbon of Merit with Bronze Star Medals.

Kress is married and lives at Forest Hills, East Rochester, New York.

Ward served for fourteen months at an airbase in England attached to the 437th Troop Carrier Group. In France from February 1945 to August 1945 he was then transferred to Headquarters Squadron of the 463rd Air Service Command at Frankfurt, Germany, where his unit operated the United States Army Air Base. Sergeant Ward returned to this country on the Queen Mary and received his much coveted discharge papers on October 21, 1945 at Camp Dix.

Truman Endorses 'March of Dimes'

The annual fund-raising appeal of the Monroe County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis to be held Jan. 14-31 has the hearty support of President Truman.

He will climax the campaign in a special broadcast over all network on January 30, birthday of the late Franklin D. Roosevelt. He will carry on the tradition established by Roosevelt, who created the National Foundation and led the organized campaign against the polio.

In a letter to Basil O'Connor, president of the foundation, President Truman stated:

"For years I have followed with sympathetic interest the important work of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, founded by Franklin D. Roosevelt. I know it has given new hope to countless sufferers from poliomyelitis and that it has restored thousands of men, women and children to active lives in the community."

Must Have Victory

"There can be no slow-down in the fight against disease. Our victories abroad must be followed by a victory on the home front against this common enemy of all mankind. I am certain that no American can fail to respond to such a challenge."

"I know that the National Foundation recognizes no boundaries of race, creed or color. I know, also, that you have dedicated yourselves and your resources to the end that no victim on infantile paralysis shall go without care and treatment for lack of funds, and to the day when science can proclaim its conquest of this crippling foe."

"Therefore I am happy to extend my fullest co-operation in your annual appeal."

To Place Boxes

Harry B. Crowley is chairman of the Monroe County campaign. As in the past coin collection boxes will be placed at convenient spots throughout the country and coin cards will be distributed.

Mrs. Francis P. Beattie is general chairman of the women's division. Mrs. John L. Wehle is vice-chairman and Mrs. Leo F. Dwyer is secretary.

President Harry S. Truman (above), in a letter to Basil O'Connor, President of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, pledged full cooperation in the Foundation's 1946 March of Dimes.

Group Chairmen Named

The following are chairmen of the various women's groups: Theaters, Mrs. Hobart Whitmore and Mrs. Roy E. Vandendiner; Rochester Section National Council of Jewish Women, Mrs. Myer Brulman; Council of Church Women, Mrs. Irving L. Walker; Catholic groups, Mrs. Joseph L. NATION'S TRAFFIC TOLL TOPS WAR CASUALTIES

There were three times as many traffic casualties during the war period as there were among the fighting men despite reduced car use. But the toll is increasing rapidly since V-J day and threatens to reach an all-time high, Myron M. Stearns warns in Redbook Magazine for December. Analyzing the causes and explaining what steps should be taken to halt the toll, Stearns says:

"About one million, one hundred thousand American fighting men were casualties — killed, wounded and missing — in World War II. Traffic casualties in the United States from the Pearl Harbor attack to V-J day were approximately three times our losses in war. Not as many civilian deaths, of course, but far more injured."

"Accidents caused by mechanical defects have more than doubled. Worn-out cars add to driving hazards as one-third of all cars on the road today are more than ten years old. Last year, in a nationwide brake inspection campaign, more than 1,800,000 cars were checked; 257,000 showed bad brakes or other dangers."

Obliging Bandit

Los Angeles—When a gas station attendant protested to the hold-up man that he would lose his job because the boss wouldn't believe him, the robber obligingly called the owner over the phone and told him not to discharge George as he had no control over circumstances and was giving up the money at the point of the gun.

Cops Chuckle At Reporter's Crash Alibi

Question — When is a parked car at fault if smashed by a moving automobile?
Answer — When the Democrat & Chronicle's Safety Zealot, Roy Elliott is behind the wheel of the moving automobile.

Rochester police, who are not exactly in love with Elliott because of his proclivity for condemning the blue coats for most of the traffic accidents in town are still chuckling over last week's crash involving the D & C reporter and a parked car on Plymouth Ave. S.

Elliott, according to police, crashed into a car parked at the curb in front of 228 Plymouth Ave., S. about 10:30 p.m. Tuesday December 18. Visibility was reported good.

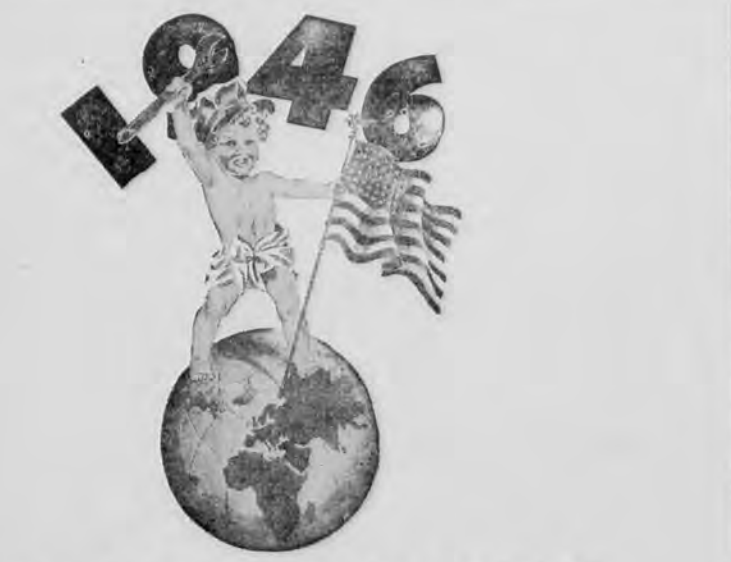

When questioned by police, always on the lookout for new and novel excuses for accidents, Elliott naively explained that the accident was the fault of a parked car, "because," he said, "he wouldn't have hit it if it hadn't been parked in a 'no parking zone.'"

Observers added that neither would he have hit it had he been driving his car in the manner to which he would like to have the rest of the city become accustomed.

Question — When is a parked car at fault if smashed by a moving automobile?

A poll of policemen 'friends' of the reporter showed seven voted in favor of death by hanging; 22 voted for a life sentence; 45 voted for ten years in the brig, and 18 for banishment for life. But officials who decide such things voted — no charge.

Any day now we can expect a vigorous campaign in the Democrat & Chronicle against the police department for allowing cars to be parked in no parking zones. It's so dangerous, you know, for reporters — a parked car might jump out and kill one of 'em some day.

MARY WARNOW

The "BIG AFFAIR" in Rochester this week is the appearance of MARK WARNOW, at the EASTMAN THEATRE—New Year's Eve. — December 31, 1945. The "show" starts at 8:15 P. M. on the dot. You must know who Mark Warnow is, if you're a radio fan, (and who isn't.) He is conductor of the coast-to-coast "Hit Parade" every Saturday evening at 9 P. M. Mr. Warnow will conduct his own special arrangements, with our own Civic Orchestra. Lovely GENEVIEVE ROWE, another famous number of solo works. Miss Rowe will also be featured with a chorus and orchestra in one of Warnow's specialties. Here's the program — if you're anything like I am (average) you like to know in advance what you are going to hear — and I think you'll agree the following will "stack up" with what we "ordinary people" like to hear on this gala evening.

Tiger Rag (In an 18th Century arrangement) ... Gershwin
Summertime ... Gershwin
What's There to Say ... Vernon Duke
Millard Taylor (Violin Soloist) ... Roumanian Rhapsody ... Enesco
Yankee Doodle ... (In the Manner of the Three B's) ... Straus
Bolero ... Ravel
American Calvacade arr. by ... Warnow
Lowell MacMillan, another radio personality, will be narrator in a production number that will enlist the orchestra, soloist, chorus and conductor as a climax to the evening.

If you agree (and you will I know) that this is the ideal way to spend the first part of our first peaceful New Year's Eve, make "tracks" for the BOX OFFICE—EASTMAN THEATRE

PAUL ROBESON

On FRIDAY — January 4th, PAUL ROBESON is scheduled as the first musical event of 1946. Mr. Robeson has been justly called America's Greatest Singing Actor. He will sing a full evening's recital of song. Within the past year, Mr. Robeson was starred in a special Broadway production of Shakespeare's "Othello." He created a new record for performances of that repertoire. He also has been starred in past years in the stage version of Eugene O'Neill's "Emperor Jones," and in the production of the late Jerome Kern's "Showboat." However he is just as much at home in the popular song field and Negro spirituals. I'm sure if you plan to attend this particular concert, you will enjoy it. Remember the date FRIDAY, JANUARY 4th. PAUL ROBESON

LARRY ADLER

LARRY ADLER was born in Baltimore, Md. His climb up the ladder of fame was slow and tedious. His piano teacher told him in his early youth, "he would never amount to much musically." However he won his first prize in a harmonica contest sponsored by a Baltimore newspaper. In 1943 he was signed up by Charles Cochran to tour England. From then on — he climbed to "top-notch" headlines. In 1945, he went "overseas" with the Jack Benny troupe — and in conjunction with Paul Draper entertained at a number of camps and hospitals. He remained in the States, typically American he has become the idol of thousands of us. Mr. ADLER will appear JANUARY 6th, 1946, on SUNDAY with the Civic Orchestra with Guy Fraser Harrison conducting. A typical notice as to Larry Adler's ability is the following: "He has a tone reminiscent of many instruments — musical sounds to astonish and entrance layman or musician. The effects he obtains are inconceivable." Nuff said. Remember LARRY ADLER — EASTMAN THEATRE — Sunday Evening January 6th.

PCA ELEVATES FAMED PILOT TO EXECUTIVE POST

James H. (Slim) Carmichael, widely known aviator whose colorful career is a major contribution to the development of commercial aviation, has been named executive vice-president of Pennsylvania Central Airlines.

Elevation of the former barnstorming pilot who rose from the ranks to help direct development of air line was announced by C. Bedell Monro, PCA president, following a meeting of the Board of Directors in Washington last week.

Carmichael learned to fly in 1920, and worked out of Chicago as a general utility pilot, flying crop-dusting and in aerial circuses which astonished county fair crowds before whom airplanes rarely appeared. He made uncharted trips throughout the Midwest.

PAUL ROBESON TO OPEN CONCERT SERIES HERE

America's greatest singing actor will be in Rochester for a full evening recital to open the 1946 concert season of the Civic Music Association.

He is Paul Robeson who will sing in the Eastman Theater on Friday evening, January 4.

Robeson is the only great singing star of our generation who was able to attain equally important rating as a stage personality. Withing the past year he was starred in a special Broadway production of Shakespeare's "Othello," which created a new record for performances of that repertoire.

He has been starred in past years in the stage version of Eugene O'Neill's "Emperor Jones" and in the production of the late Jerome Kern's "Showboat."

MARK WARNOW HEADLINES HOLIDAY BILL

With all that, Robeson has maintained his place among the most popular of baritone recitalists. He is just as much at home in the operatic aria field as he is in the sector of popular songs and Negro spirituals.

Louise Silsbe has been named worthy matron of the Germania Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, for 1946. Other officers elected by the lodge for the coming year include: Ernest Zarpentine, worthy matron; Dorothy Kofahl, associate matron; Emma Schieber, secretary; Louise Wolf, treasurer; Wilma Bean, conductress; Margaretthe Slack, associate conductress; Grace E. Kurrock, trustee for three years.

It isn't the hungriest pig that squeals the loudest. It's the one you pull away from the trough. — Grit.

O.E.S. LODGE NAMES NEW OFFICERS FOR '46

Mark Warnow, famed "Hit Parader" to millions of radio listeners throughout the country is expected to make a definite "hit" with Rochesterians when he "parades" his list of arrangements across the stage of the Eastman Theater next Monday evening in a special New Year's Eve concert starting at 8:15 p.m.

The program will be a slight departure from the usual "long hair" concerts at the Eastman with Warnow offering an evening of popular music in his own special arrangements with the Civic Orchestra.

He will bring with him one of America's best loved radio singers, lovely Genevieve Rowe. Miss Rowe will sing a number of solo works and will

There will also be a special piano and orchestra arrangement of Romberg's "Lover, Come Back to Me."

"Slim" Carmichael achieved national recognition in 1935, when one of his motors dropped out on a mail-passenger flight from Washington to Pittsburgh. Flying the crippled plane at night while directing emergency measures, he brought it back safely to Washington and landed it without injury to either passengers or mail. For this feat, President Roosevelt awarded him the Air Mail Flyer's Medal of Honor, a recreation few pilot have merited.

DRUG MAKERS REPORT HALF MILLION NET

The net income for 1945, of Plough, Inc., Memphis, Tennessee, proprietary medicine, cosmetic and household necessity manufacturer, is estimated to approximate $465,000, equal to $1.55 a share on 300,000 common shares, Abe Plough, President, told stockholders in notifying them of the recent listing of Plough Inc. common stock on the New York Stock Exchange. Earnings as estimated would compare with a net of $443,211 or $1.48 a share reported for 1944. Since May 9, 1936, the common stock of the Company has been listed on the New York Curb Exchange.

Sales in 1945 will total about the same as the $10,025,800 reported in 1944 and it is estimated that approximately 100,000,000 packages of Plough products will be shipped in 1945, Mr. Plough said.

Decrees of Fashion

First snow storm of the season and a few biting days thereafter brought out some ingenious warm styles that prove practicality can also be exciting style. Neat find of CBS actress Angel Casey was a loosely knit, pullover sweater with ledge shoulders into which separate long sleeves in matching knit pattern were buttoned. Small round buttons are sewed on the sleeve itself and easily slip through the openwork pattern of the sweater edge for secure holding. Come evening time, Angel removes the sleeves, brings out bright costume jewelry and a metallic belt from her purse and carries through dinner. Lucky is the girl who adeptly clicks a pair of knitting needles, for she can choose whatever unusual yarn shade she wishes for the before and after five sweater trick.

Angel Casey

ered with a ruffle and studded throughout with dime-sized gold sequins, can be tied over the head as romantic coiffure protection en route to festive frolic, draped around the waist and tied over the hips in bustle loops, or quaintly and becomingly caught fichuwise atop a bare-shoulder decolletage.

Importance of glitter in the current fashion picture brings up the problem of keeping costume jewelry at its original glow. Bright plan of singer Janette Davis reduces polishing duties to a minimum by keeping her gold and silver accessories in an envelope

Janette Davis case lined with a fabric called "silver wrap." It's impregnated with a compound that draws tarnishing agents in the atmosphere to itself. Any convenient box can be lined with the economical material.

SOPHISTICATED BLADESTER—Billed as the world's smoothest skater is Roy Shipstad, one of the major hits in the Ice Follies of 1946 which opens at Buffalo Memorial Auditorium for a five-day stand on January 30. Shipstad is also co-owner of the show.

'Ice Follies' Open at Buffalo Aud. Jan. 30th

Acclaimed as the greatest galaxy of skating stars ever featured in an ice show, the Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies of 1946 will open its tenth anniversary edition engagement at Buffalo Memorial Auditorium on January 30, and will continue through February 3rd, with matinees on Saturday and Sunday, February 2nd and 3rd.

The Shipstads, Roy and Eddie, and Oscar Johnson, co-owners and co-stars of the original musical revue on ice, have gone all out to make their anniversary production the greatest in the history of the Ice Follies. With the end of the war letting up on priorities, costumes and settings are more beautiful and thrilling than ever. The company of 163 has packed its post-war enthusiasm into every number.

Oscar Johnson and Eddie Shipstad, famed comedy team who organized the Ice Follies, are featured this year in "The Bawery" number. The three ambitious Swedes, Roy and Eddie Shipstad and Oscar Johnson, have topped themselves again with this year's "Scandinavian Christmas" number. There are beautifully costumed children and peasants playing and dancing. Santa Claus comes down through the fireplace.

Gay colored Christmas trees and toys are among the settings.

Little Heinie Brock, billed as "That Man", has a brand new comedy skit in which he makes like the tipsy inebriate. The master of pantomime will have fans rollicking with greater laughter than ever as he frolics about the frozen surface.

Roy Shipstad, acclaimed by critics and skating authorities as the world's smoothest skater, does his thrilling maneuvers in "The Romantic Hour" with the most beautiful of Ice Follies.

Mae Ross, former motion picture star, is the "Crystal Jewel" in the brightly-costumed "Fantasie in Gold". The Ice Follies also display their loveliness and charm in this production number. Lovely Hesty Schalow and Marshall Beard also are featured in this routine.

Evelyn Chandler thrills skating fans with her famous acrobatic on blades in the fast-moving "Steeplechase."

Even Walt Disney's "Pluto" takes to the ice in the newest Ice Follies in the persons of Ole Eriksen and Dick Mershon.

Two new starlets, Shirley Halsied and Ginger Clayton hold most of the spotlight in "Nocturne", a celestial ballet. Moving the scene quickly to the Orient, comedians Dick Rasmussen and Bill Cameron take the roles of the Mandarin's daughter and a coolie.

Other stars who will thrill local blade enthusiasts are little Frank Sawers in the "Mississippi Levee", The Wiltons in a comedy number and Phyllis Legg, Still Skater, with the Roberts in "Sunset on the Desert."

Something entirely new in ice shows is Walter Rudolph, famous pianist, who plays the piano on the ice in the "Concerto."

Of course, the "Swing Waltz", a favorite since the first Ice Follies, is another highlight of the musical ice revue.

Paradox: The best schools are in the cities and the majority of the pupils are in the rural areas. No wonder some people think that education fails to click.

Letters To The Editor

Editor, The Rochester Sun,

Now that we're entering another of those good old "Republican Winters," with all of the blessing (?) incident thereto, it is certainly heartening to read the advertisement in last Sunday's D. & C., within which a forward-looking local concern advertises "To guarantee SNOW REMOVAL from your parking lot, factory or store parking area next winter!"

One just can't beat the Yankees for progressiveness!

Ho hum! How many daze to election?

OBSERVER.

Editor, Rochester Sun.

My husband is an ex-serviceman, honorably discharged, and has returned to his job on the railroad where he formerly worked. Before the recent coal strike his bosses wouldn't let him have even one day off because, they told him, he was one of the men they could depend on. During the strike he worked only two or three days a week. His average pay is $38 every two weeks after everything is taken out. That is only $19 a week. We have two small children. Have to pay rent, gas and electric, coal, phone and other little bills. How can we live on $19 a week?

He was first on the list for three days recently but wasn't called. Do you mean to tell me that no train left the yards in three days? Another time, he called the caller in the morning and was told he was fifth on the list. In the afternoon he was sixth and in the evening seventh. Can you figure this one out? I can't.

If this keeps up much longer I will have to break up my home again and board my children out and go to work to help my husband so we will have enough money to live on. Please print this letter as I would like the public to see what the railroads are doing to the ex-servicemen.

Railroader's Wife.

Wachman, Matchman Where's Thy Gun?

Kansas City, Kan. — After years of walking the beat as watchman for a group of offices, Edward F. Smith walked up on three men robbing the safe in one of them. He reached for his gun and he didn't have it. The safecrackers escaped with $45 in cash and checks while Smith ran for his pistol.

SOME FAN MAIL!—Jack Benny doesn't know whether to be flattered or insulted by all of the mail coming in on the JACK BENNY CONTEST, in which he is giving away $10,000 in Victory Bonds. Contestants just have to finish the sentence "I Can't Stand Jack Benny Because" in 50 words or less. Fred Allen is head judge.

Worth waiting for are the seam-free nylon stockings soon to reach the market from a new hosiery knitting machine recently perfected by Scott and Williams. A patented gusset technique at the heel gives two-way stretch and thereby conquers a point of strain at which most runs formerly started. The same elasticity at toes and an improved process of leg shaping promise longer wear in beautifully sheer weaves.

Harassed Husbands

"Daddy, what is leisure?" asked the child.

"My boy," replied the sire, "leisure is the two minutes rest a man gets while his wife thinks up something for him to do."

Don't Tie Kids To Apron Strings, Says Expert

The child who "won't play with other children" may depend too much on parents, in the opinion of Dr. George D. Stoddard, child training expert.

Writing in McCall's for December, Dr. Stoddard says: "You parents may, yourselves, have forged the silver cord that binds you child too closely to you. In spite of the importance between child and parents, the child must learn to enjoy companions of his own age, for the child who does not learn this whiel young may be hampered in making friends. Do not force the child into large groups of children. Invite a few young friends for lunch or an afternoon of play. Let your youngster help you plan the menu or entertainment for the afternoon.

"If your youngster does not like to play with children, it may be because of a feeling of inferiority. You can help this feeling, not by undeserved flattery, but by creating a situation in which the child can excel. For instance, if she knows how to make cookies, let her invite another child who doesn't cook, so she can take the lead.

"Both you and your youngster must develop the ability to be happy when away from each other."

What's become of the old-fashioned jackknife, beloved of our youth, with attachments and appliances for doing 17 specific jobs — none of them very well? — Detroit News.

Sons Pay Off

Raytown, Md.—When R. H. Kenagy celebrated his 98th birthday this month he collected on the insurance policy he had taken out in 1896. His three sons, who are in the insurance business, had to pay up the policy as policy holders are not supposed to live over 95 years.

The motto today seems to be: Trust in the United Nations Organization but get yourself some atomic bombs.
