COMMUNITIES SWAP MAIL CARRIERS

Alexandria, Minn. — Spencer Smith, Alexandria rural mail carrier, wanted to go to California to live and Fred G. Schroeder, of San Bernardino, Calif., also a mail carrier wanted to live in Minnesota. With permission of the Post Office Department in Washington, they exchanged jobs, swapped houses and furniture, too.

BLOWN INTO YARD BY BASEMENT GAS BLAST

Kansas City. — An explosion which occurred when Mrs. Ruth Toner went to the basement of her home to fire a coal furnace blew her into her backyard and shattered the peace and quiet of the neighborhood. Apparently gas leaking from a main in the front yard caused the blast. Mrs. Toner suffered severe burns from the explosion.

THIS LITTLE STINKER WENT TO SCHOOL

Baltimore, Md. — When pupils of the first grade of School 69, Oakford and Granada avenues, recently arrived for class, they found that a skunk had gotten there first. The entire class was moved upstairs to an empty room while the school engineer removed the skunk which had dug a hole and set up house-keeping on the playground, outside the first grade window.

PET SNAKE COULDN'T STAND PUBLIC GAZE

Detroit, Mich. — Evidently Nakomis, pet snake owned by Mrs. Matilda Milton, an Indian woman, was too sensitive to undergo the gaze of the curious public. After one day of strangers staring at her, flash bulbs flashing in her face and a court appearance, the king snake gave up the ghost and died.

Guest 'Fixer' Leaves Mission In A Fix

Goshen, Ind. — A transient who was fed and lodged at the Salvation Army citadel, left a note on the basement wall, which read: "I've fixed your light meter so it won't register." His "kindness" was not appreciated so much, however, because his "fixing" had blown all of the fuses out.

KAY'S COMMENTS

with pride, EDWARDS announces a return engagement extraordinary — for F R I D A Y and S A T U R D A Y of a collection of fashion jewelry by ROBERT EDWARDS, America's brilliant young designer. With HIS hair for the new and exciting, Robert has translated old world silver into dramatic modern antique — STERLING for instance set with his exotic richly hued jewels — combined with dainty filigree created an exquisite, revolutionary new line of Robert Jewels in gold or rhodium plated sterling. Gold also comes in for its share of drama. Dramatic modern antiques, set with exotic richly hued stones and combined with dainty gold filigree. Chateaux, earrings, pins, and rings, are included in this wonderful selection. Originality and beauty are the keynote of Robert — but you also receive quality and value. Remember you'll find ROBERT — at EDWARDS — Friday and Saturday — in JEWELRY — located on Street Floor, EDWARDS — Setting a New Pace in Rochester.

When red wine was plentiful in happier days in France, it was used as a sauce for poached eggs. Here's how. Use it as a liquid for the poaching. Some bread in liquid left instead of toasting. It gives an agreeably different flavor. Put eggs on bread. The acid in wine "firm" the eggs, makes them taste unusually hearty.

It's here — the only cream wafer makeup in the world! REVYON'S NEW "FASHION PLATE". The first cosmetic fashion for the face. It outdates all ordinary makeups. For the first time in twenty years, a new "look" is born. With Revlon's "FASHION PLATE" the opaque, enameled, mask-like look becomes as old-fashioned as the boyish bob. Now you can change your complexion as easily as your hat. For "FASHION PLATE" is an altogether new type product. It's a cream wafer, hard to the eye, soft to the touch, and goes on in a flash WITHOUT WATER. It is non-drying — may be used with or without face powder. Most women, however prefer to use it with. Easy to apply, slides on with a glide of the fingers, no digging or rubbing. Ask for it by name Revlon's "FASHION PLATE", at your favorite cosmetic department.

ERICH LEINSDORF NAMED BY PHILHARMONIC
On Tuesday it was announced locally that Erich Leinsdorf, outstanding young conductor, had been named permanent conductor of the Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra.
But the announcement was hardly news to most Rochesterians who had heard of the appointment over the radio Sunday evening from New York.
Leinsdorf directed the orchestra in five appearances here last season and had previously conducted in the city as leader of the Metropolitan Opera Company orchestra in one of their annual spring appearances here.
His appointment brings to the Eastman the orchestra's first permanent conductor in three seasons. Since 1943-44, the Philharmonic has been under the batons of guest conductors.
Leinsdorf, at 35 a veteran of twelve years of conducting symphony orchestras and opera in Europe and the United States, got his start in his native Vienna under the tutelage of Arturo Toscanini, then conducting the Vienna Philharmonic.
Critics have been virtually unanimous in their praise of his work. One of the most enthusiastic reviews appearing after his return to Vienna last year said he was a conductor "who has matured to the stature of an Austrian musician of world rank in competition with international artists."

BORDEN CONCERN CITES DRIVER SAFETY RECORD

Borden vehicles in the Rochester area played a major part in traffic safety during 1946, the company's bureau of safety reports. The Northeast District, which includes Rochester, turned in a traffic accident average well below its 1945 figure. The district set a mark below the Borden nationwide average. This average, in turn, was considerably lower than the overall national figure.

Borden vehicles averaged 24,875 safe miles per vehicle last year, an improvement of 5 per cent on 1945. The Northeast District averaged 26,525 safe miles per vehicle, an improvement of 9 per cent over the previous record for the same period. In this sector the company operated 32 more vehicles for more than 600,000 additional miles than it did in 1945.

'Firetrap' Construction No Answer To Shortage

Temporary solution of the housing problems by relaxing building codes to allow construction of flimsy, firetrap homes will be a permanent headache to the veterans who buy such homes and the community which lets them be built, warns Brick and Clay Record, building trades even elementary rules of fire safety, so that veterans can be housed. Fire is a problem in all buildings, not only homes, and fire hazards are met in the design of a building as well as in the materials used to construct it. Some of the worst fire traps are found in taverns, stores, loft buildings, hotels and even our older schools. Building codes, adequate and strictly enforced, requiring the principles of fireproof design, would do much to reduce the present high ratio of one fire to every 345 persons. For instance, some fire will happen, in spite of precautions, and furniture, rug and drapery fires are going to be less damaging if they take place within a building designed to meet fire hazards.

Fire loss statistics, month by month, tell the continued story of appalling waste of life and property in the United States — loss which will mount if building standards are relaxed. Losses in January amounted to more than $7 million dollars a figure only 1.6 lower than the record loss month of December, 1946, according to tabulation from the National Board of Fire Underwriters.

BEER INDUSTRY
OF LEGALIZATION

Fourteen years after its legalization by Congress the sale of beer has doubled the most optimistic expectations of the industry, E. V. Lahey, newly-elected president of the United States Brewers Foundation, said recently.

In a communication addressed to C. H. Loeb, secretary and treasurer of the American Brewing Company and a director of the Brewers Foundation, Lahey recalled that it was April 7, 1933 that Congress relegalized the manufacture and sale of beer, with the avowed purpose of stimulating business and providing "a much-needed revenue for the government."

"In 1946," Lahey said, "almost 80,000,000 barrels of beer were sold, doubling the 1933 estimates. Federal revenues from beer in 1946 amounted to $653,949,192, more than tripling the predictions. In the 14 years since legalization, federal taxes have totaled more than five billion dollars. Adding state and local taxes, estimated at $175,000,000 a year, revenues from beer are now going into the public coffers at the rate of two and a quarter million dollars a day." Lahey pointed out that benefits in the 14 years have been widespread. It created much needed employment, he said. Fifty-five thousand people have been employed by breweries alone, with a million employed in distribution and sale. It has meant new business for many allied industries; malsters, processors of other brewing ingredients, manufacturers of brewing equipment and machinery, bottles, cans, cooperage, labels, lithography, pitch and transportation. Relegalization provided new markets for the farmers in years of surplus; 20 million pounds of brewers yeast a year are used as diet supplement as well as for livestock and poultry. "The United States Brewers Foundation," Lahey said, "asks its determination to maintain the conditions of true moderation and temperance, not alone in the month of April, but in every month of the year."

POLKA . . .

how some of our big manufacturers and industries have "suffered." It's not unlikely that the A. F. of L. and the C. I. O. spokesmen have compiled some interesting data on the "suffering" of the companies with whom they will do business. What's happened to the Cost of Living since the dear old GOPer's knocked off OPA gives them some mighty good arguments as well.

Labor is going to get more dough and the Republican rugged individualists who straddle the big corporations are going to have to indulge in some plain and fancy price cutting unless they want this sort of "carrying on" to continue.

Congressman Keating has the best "press" of any office holder Democrat or Republican since the old non-monopolistic days. Mr. Keating had the good taste to read a statement of the local newspaper owner into the Congressional record which would hurt his "press" either.

In case anyone thinks we are criticizing Mr. Keating, "perish the thought." What he has accomplished along these lines is highly commendable.

Furthermore we think Mr. Keating isn't going to be a half-bad Congressman. He has already indicated that he knows there are more votes from those who make fifty bucks a week than those who make five hundred. Thus he has been espousing the cause of the common man which set to music is going to make him difficult to unseat.

Strange as it may seem the recently polled slump in the popularity of Mr. Dewey is bringing smiles of satisfaction to the faces of many a GOPer who made him what he is today. We mean of course, governor.

CAR BURIED—BUT GOOD IN 10-FOOT SNOWDRIFT

Duanesburg, N. Y.—The highway superintendent recently was notified by a farmer that when the snowplow opened the road by his farm that they should be warned to proceed with care. In a snowdrift about 10 feet deep and 50 feet long just a few yards from the farmer's house was the farmer's automobile, so deeply buried that the farmer was "not quite sure just where."

ment to check-off dues and one regular assessment;
7. Group health and accident insurance now in force; and

8. Several minor time-and-a-half pay schedules.

"The company-proposed contract submitted to us," said Russell A. Gerling, business agent of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees (AFL), "goes back into the dark ages."

"That's the type of contract we worked under more than 20 years ago," he added.

He said that approval by the drivers of "any such contract" would wipe out the gains made through arbitration during the past 20 years.

Wipes Out Closed Shop

The new contract as submitted by John Uffert would substitute a maintenance-of-membership clause for the present closed-shop contract. Under it no employee would be obliged to join the union, but once in, he would have to stay in as long as he worked for the company. New employees could join the union if they so chose after a probationary period of 90 days from the date of their employment.

Other proposals in the new company-drawn contract would eliminate the present 15 days per year leave of absence granted to drivers; would change vacation schedules now calling for one week after one year and two weeks after two years' service to one week after one year and two weeks after five years' service. Vacationers would also receive their vacation pay upon return to work instead of when they leave as now.

Insurance Out

Under the present contract, which is up May 1, employees are covered by a group health and accident insurance plan, with the company and individual employees each paying half the cost. The company proposes to do away with this arrangement.

Earlier Gerling and William Allen, president of the union, had submitted their version of a new contract to the company for consideration. Not only did the union-proposed contract retain all the present benefits, but added several new ones. The 25-cents per hour hike in pay was the chief innovation. Others included a vacation schedule calling for eight days after one year's service and 15 days after two years' service and several new time-and-a-half schedules.

Profits Tripled

Whether or not the news had influenced the union's thinking in drawing up its new contract could not be learned, but on Tuesday, it was revealed that the Rochester Transit Corp. had almost tripled its earnings in 1946 as compared with 1945. The corporation reported net profits for the year of $348,205 as compared with $116,440 the year before. The record net was earned in spite of an expenditure of $1,280,385 for new buses during the year, according to Uffert.

Evidently the bus drivers have decided that they too, want to share with stockholders a little slice of last year's melon. Negotiations to bring the two parties to agreement, somewhere in the middle of their current views, are expected to open within the next few days.

BUNNY BREEDERS TO HEAR FURRIER

April 4 in the Rochester Museum to hear Henri Projaneky, local furrier, discuss the place of the rabbit pelt in the fur industry. The group will also discuss plans for the annual spring show to be held at Edgerton Park on May 4. Gene Hamlin and Dewey Malna have been named judges for the show.
Menlo Park, Calif. — Sammy Yates recently showed up in the eighth grade at school with a cigar box. Opening it, he passed around all-day suckers, explaining, "I'm a brother."

BUSES . . .
can make application for a warrant.
This week Gerling was pondering (a) how bus drivers could swear out warrants for passengers with whom they were not acquainted and (b) how the police department could or would catch the miscreants once a warrant had been sworn out, and (c) how many bus drivers would be willing to appear in court, on their own time, to testify against such violators.
To Gerling, Woods' idea had all the appearances of a "run-around."

parently, has he seen company inspectors jam the vehicles until the riders compared unfavorably with sardines in a can.
"The bus rider's "safety-consciousness" is strictly secondary to his desire to get home from work as rapidly as overcrowded buses can take him. He cares little whether or not he is obstructing the driver's view — just as long as he gets on the bus. A look at any Main St. corner between 5 p. m. and 5:30 p. m. any day of the week except Sunday will convince the most skeptical of that—even Commissioner Woods if he will take the trouble to make that observation," Gerling declared.

'NORA PRENTISS' AT REGENT HAS LARGE CAST

Warner's new melodrama, "Nora Prentiss," with Ann Sheridan in the title role opened yesterday at the Regent for a second big week. The film, which co-stars Kent Smith and Bruce Bennett with Miss Sheridan, also features an imposing cast of supporting players including Robert Alda, Rosemary DeCamp, John Ridgely and Robert Arthur. The picture, an intensely dramatic love story, tells the strange tale of Nora Prentiss, a girl who gives up everything for her love, a love which eventually involves her in a series of unusual and frigidating situations.

Based on an original story by Paul Webster and Jack Soble, the pictures present Miss Sheridan as a San Francisco night club singer. Having been knocked about a lot in her lifetime, she is cynical about life and men, until she meets Dr. Richard Talbot, a staid, respected member of a suburban Frisco community. The Doctor conceals a deperate scheme whereby they can be together. However, fear of discovery plagues his mind and finally, when his secret is publicly distorted the film moves to a powerful climax.

The supporting program includes the Academy Award winning short subjects, "A Boy and His Dog" and "Facing Your Danger."

The Popular Call is for "Tammy" — Fred Mac Murray, who has been kept as busy as a bee lately, wants to do two more pictures right away so he and his wife can get away for a nine-month vacation. He will probably do "Singapore," the Seton I. Miller story about the pearl smuggling first, and then he'll move into "The Miracle of the Bells."

FAVORITE STAR NAMES FAVORITE BRUNETTE—Bob Hope puts the "finger" on Dorothy Lamour as his favorite darkhaired lass in his new picture "My Favorite Brunette" which opened at the Century theatre yesterday.

BOB HOPE OPUS AT CENTURY HAS LAUGH A MINUTE — When a dog bites a man, it is, as everyone agrees, old hat. But when someone bites Bob Hope, that's news.

Hope neglected to tell two year old Roland Soo Hoo about not biting the hand that feeds you when he did a scene with the Chinese youngster in his new comedy for Paramount, "My Favorite Brunette," now at the Century Theatre. Dorothy Lamour is co-starred with Bob Hope.

Bob plays a baby photographer in the film, and figured it would be worth a laugh to have the child bite his wiggling finger with his teeth. It was all very funny, too, except that little Roland took the business very seriously, clamped down hard, and took a chunk out of Bob's right index finger. Bob was howling with pain as he extracted his bleeding digit.

"Send the man around with a Purple Heart," bravely grinned the wounded comedian.

For the next "Take," Hope's finger was encased in a metal strip and wrapped with flesh colored adhesive.

Hope runs into plenty of trouble in "My Favorite Brunette," what with bucking such menacing characters as Peter Lorre, Lon Chaney, John Hoyt and Charles Dingle. But he comes through.

Also on the program are the latest Bugs Bunny cartoon, and the latest issue of Paramount News.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

(In the absence of Curt Gerling this column has been written by Hugo Sims. Mr. Gerling will return next week.)

Is The Big Debt A Danger?

The income of the Federal government, it seems, will be greater than expected for the present fiscal year which ends on June 30th.

This news encourages those who demand a reduction in taxes. For some strange reason it does not seem to inspire those who believe that the time to pay the national debt is when there is a surplus income.

In view of the fact that Congress gave some tax relief last year, mostly to corporations, it would seem advisable to devote any cash surplus to trimming the $260,000,000,000 debt. This is much more than the debt that caused so many financial and business experts to predict, a few years ago, national insolvency.

What has become of all these experts? If a national debt of $100,000,000,000 constituted a threat to national security, some years ago, what must be the peril of a debt more than two-and-a-half times as much?

Can it be that the experts were only disturbed about the way the Government was using its money some years ago, that they were not worried by the size of the indebtedness and that their warnings represented nothing more than hokum. Can it be that the temptation of tax reduction, which might put money in their pockets, silences the protests of the financial wizards.

Consider The Dead

Rescuers removed more than 100 bodies from an Illinois coal mine, following a blast which trapped 125 dayshift workers 540-feet below the surface.

This fact might be pondered when one hears argument about the pay of coal miners. We should not overlook the dangers (See POLKA Page 10)

Roosevelt Memorial Rally To Be Held At Eastman Theater

Two nationally-known figures, with the possible addition of a third, will come to Rochester Saturday to participate in an Eastman Theater rally honoring the memory of Franklin Delano Roosevelt on the second anniversary of his death.

Former Senator and 1946 Democratic candidate for Governor James M. Mead will head the speaker list. Young Robert Wagner, son of Senator Robert Wagner, who was a close friend and political associate of former President Roosevelt, will also speak.

If transportation problems can be solved Elliott Roosevelt, second son of the former president will appear and make a short speech. Roosevelt will be in Washington Saturday afternoon for ceremonies in the U. S. Senate but if plane transportation can be arranged, he will fly to the city at the conclusion of the Senate rites.

The rally is being sponsored by more than 25 civic, church, labor and social organizations and individuals including the American Jewish Congress, American Labor Party, American Veterans Committee, the

PHONE STRIKE HAS LITTLE EFFECT IN CITY

Sometimes Rochester's perpetually poor telephone service has its advantages. Take this week for example:

While the rest of the nation is in more or less turmoil trying to convert to a slowed-down telephone service because of a strike among employees, Rochester went on its placid way.

It never knew any other type of service and therefore, the long waits for the operator's more or less pleasant "number please?" was no novelty, caused no excitement, and elicited little more than the usual cussing at the antiquated telephone system tolerated by easy-going Rochester for — lo — these many years.

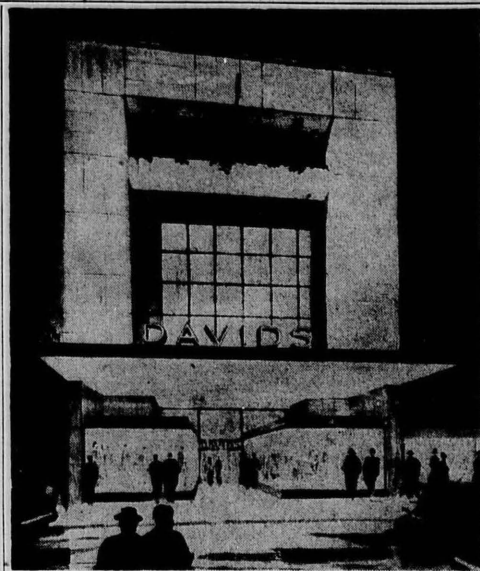

The Rochester Telephone Co. spent considerable cash to place an advertisement in the daily newspapers apologizing for any delay to which subscribers might be subjected.

Why they chose this week for that apology was somewhat of a mystery. The service differed little from the usual "Rochester variety."

The nation-wide strike was called last Monday at 6 a. m. by the National Federation of Telephone Workers. In Rochester that affected members of the Genesee Valley Telephone Union Local 57 composed chiefly of maintenance and repair men. Some operators are also members.

Chief bone of contention between the company and the union is the matter of wages paid to maintenance men.

NEW BUILDING FOR CLINTON AVENUE — Here is an artist's sketch of the new David's store now under erection on Clinton Ave. S. It will be ready for occupancy next Fall.

Specialty Shop Reveals Details of New Building

A firm faith in the future growth of Rochester was expressed this week by David's Specialty Shop in revealing plans for the company's new structure at 12 Clinton Ave. S. on the site of the former Waldorf restaurant.

Move to the new building was necessitated by plans of the F. W. Woolworth Co. to erect a new building in the area taking in the store's present location on Main St. E. The present structure will be torn down starting May 1.

Until David's new building is completed the store will be housed in quarters at 1 Clinton Ave. S. S. Birnfield, general manager of the local unit since its opening in Rochester 25 years ago estimates that it will be "late summer or early fall" before the (See STORE Page 9)

Officials Differ On Antonelli Release Details

By ORVILLE ALLEN

Who "sprung" Amerigo Antonelli from Lewisburg (Pa.) Federal Prison? And how? And why?

Antonelli, former munitions maker was convicted of conspiracy to defraud the government and was handed a 2-year sentence. After several appeals in his behalf had failed he was turned over to the U. S. Federal Marshall last Nov. 7 for confinement in the Pennsylvania institution.

Last Friday he was transferred from the prison to the Genesee Hospital here for treatment of a heart ailment. Warden D. H. Hiatt of the prison said that Antonelli's release came as the result of a transfer order issued by Attorney General Tom C. Clark.

First reports on the strange proceedings had Antonelli released in the custody of former Representative Joseph J. O'Brien. Later this was denied. But on Tuesday it was revealed in Washington that O'Brien, who is now assistant commissioner of the Workmen's Compensation Board of the N. Y. State Dept. of Labor, had acted as an intermediary for the prisoner. O'Brien would not confirm the report. He fended all questions concerning his representations in the case with the stock answer, "I'm not an attorney." When asked specifically whether or not he had acted as Antonelli's Washington representative he reiterated that "he was not an attorney" and refused to give a simple "yes" or "no" answer.

O'Brien said he was unable to talk about the case because he "didn't know anything about it." But on Sunday when asked how much bond was required to

'SWEET' ROLES WIN OSCAR AWARDS

It's strange that while practically every actress in Hollywood wants roles depicting tough characters, most of those who have won Oscar awards have been given them for playing just the opposite type of women. For example, take Janet Gaynor in "Seventh Heaven," Marie Dressler in "Minn and Bill," Helen Hayes in "The Sin of Madeleine Claudet," Katherine Hepburn in "Morning Glory," Claudette Colbert in "It Happened One Night," Louise Rainer in "The Great Ziegfeld," and "The Good Earth," Ginger Rogers in "Kitty Foyle," Jennifer Jones in "Song of Bernadette" and Ingrid Bergman in "Gaslight." They were all "good" girls. And then, of course, there's Myrna Loy as the perfect wife in 1946's best picture, "The Best Years Of Our Lives."

DIVINITY SCHOOL CHORUS TO SING

Selects from both the classics and modern church music literature will be offered by the Colgate-Rochester Divinity School Chorus in a program at the Lake Ave. Baptist Church next Tuesday at 8 p. m. The chorus is under the direction of Prof. Gustave Lehman, music director at the school.

Two violin solos by Walter Marchand and a baritone solo by Phillip Griffith with high-light the program.

Marchand obtained his master of music degree from the Eastman School of Music and was a member of the Philharmonic orchestra for two years while a student there. His is now a student at the divinity school after serving with the Navy for three years.

The chorus has sung at many state and national conventions, including the Atlantic City, Cleveland and Grand Rapids Northern Baptist Conventions. Recently the men sang at the meeting here sponsored by the New York State Council of Churches for famed Pastor Martin Niemöller.

The men were honored this year by an invitation to appear on the World Baptist Alliance program at Copenhagen next July, but travel restrictions have compelled the chorus to decline.

Producer Mark Hellinger calls it "the story of a hero with the heart of a heel."

N. Y. 'BANK' ASKS FOR EYE DONATIONS

The Eye-Bank for Sight Restoration Inc. which has its national headquarters in New York, is undertaking a nationwide crusade. It is seeking public support in its drive to help many of the blind in the United States to see again through a surgical miracle—the "corneal grafting" operation.

The Eye-Bank collects and redistributes eyes of doctors who perform this delicate operation. It is estimated that about 15,000 of the 250,000 blind can hope to have their sight restored through the corneal graft operation. Hundreds of sightless persons, including some war veterans, are already reported to have benefited since the Eye-Bank was founded two years ago. The cornea is the protective tissue of the eye—known as the window. The need for this tissue is said to be very great and, therefore, the Eye-Bank is asking people to sign a slip giving permission to use their eyes after death.

Those who wish to help this cause may secure a free booklet explaining the work by writing to the Eye-Bank for Sight Restoration, 210 E. 64th St., New York 21, N. Y. Special literature for the physicians is also available from the EyeBank upon request.

- Perm-o-lotion will set it
- Perm-o-comb will keep it set

Perm-o-comb $1.98

Perm-o-lotion $1 plus tax

Ever since Cramer's introduced Perm-o-comb back in July, it's been a success. Women wrote, phoned, came in from all over. Perm-o-comb keeps hair wavy. Use it on wet hair — it actually sets in a finger wave. Use it on dry hair — it keeps combing the wave back in (two sets of wavy teeth, set crosswise, do the trick). Perm-o-lotion sets soft lustrous waves in your hair. It doesn't leave it looking like a stiff board. It doesn't flake all over your hair. Perm-o-lotion is just loaded with lanolin (lanolin is the closest oil to natural hair oil, contains stimulating vitamin G). Write or phone, Cramer's will deliver the lotion and comb set to your door. Add 20c tax. Set $2.98.

competition with each other, that the plan is a hedge hedge, a business and will only benefit the great number of given office holders who will have to give jobs to tax collectors and clerks.

"We are most concerned, however, with the collection of a direct sales tax. It places additional burdens on the wage earners of the state who are least able to pay taxes because of limited incomes and the ever-mounting cost of food, clothing and other necessities. We have previously suggested that the most equitable tax is the income tax and have urged our representatives in the state legislature to favor collecting the state income tax in full. Upon your recommendation half of the tax has been forgiven. This is of no benefit to wage earners who have incomes of less than $50 per week.

"During the war years your administration has built up a state surplus of more than six hundred million dollars. What is this money being saved for except to pay state expenses which would otherwise cause additional taxation. This money is tax money, paid by the taxpayers if the state and it should be used now when the high cost of living emergency makes it necessary to raise an additional $100,000,000. The state has the money and we believe that it should be spent to benefit the taxpayers who poured into the state treasury. It is the people's money and we see no reason why it should not be used now and eliminate additional taxes."

The United Labor Action Committee will send delegations to the Board of Supervisors and the City Council to ask these bodies to send a similar request for a special session of the state legislature.

About Buying Power

Without going into an argument as to the effectiveness of price controls during the war, we call attention to figures quoted by Ray Tucker, Washington columnist:
In 1940, he says, dollar sales of consumer goods amounted to $46,400,000,000. In 1946 sales amounted to $96,700,000,000. This was a gain, in dollars, of 108 per cent, but represented a purchasing power of only $62,600,000,000 in terms of 1935-39 prices.

As the columnist remarks, "Buyers spent ninety per cent

Looks Like Poor Economy

It is not often that we agree with the remarks of Senator Kenneth McKellar of Tennessee, but, in discussing the reduction in funds allowed the Bureau of Internal Revenue, the veteran legislator remarked: "We want to be very careful about cutting off these fellows that collect the money."

The wisdom of this remark is explained by Under-Secretary of the Treasury A. L. M. Wiggins, who says that the $30,000,000 slash in funds for the Bureau which collects taxes will cost the Government at least $600,000,000 of income. He explains that the Government expects to collect about $2,500,000,000 extra from taxpayers through enforcement proceedings but that the cases could not be handled with a reduced staff.

This is a sample of penny-wise, pound-foolish action. The need in this country is for a more rigid enforcement of the income tax laws. Too many Americans are cutting the corners and chiseling on their income tax payments. It is only fair that the Government have a sufficient number of enforcement agents to make such cheating extremely risky.

Robertshaw Auxiliary To Meet Wednesday

STRIKE . . .

Writer of the telephone company's advertisement walked a literary tight rope in explaining the company's side of the strike story to the public without placing the blame on its own employees. According to its version, responsibility for the strike rested on the shoulders of national union officials.

"Your telephone company," it said, apparently turning the organization over to the public, "is confident that the strike of the employees in its Plant Department could have been avoided if Local 57 had not been bound to follow the policies of its national organization."

But Harry Hicks, president of the local union doesn't see it that way.

"The decision," says Hicks, "of the G. V. T. U. to strike was made in Rochester by the membership of the G. V. T. U. in a vote taken by secret ballot."

Hicks said the decision to strike was an outgrowth of efforts of union members to obtain a wage increase which would bring their top rate up to parity paid workers in comparable jobs in Rochester and with other telephone craftsmen in Western New York.

Hicks said his union had been negotiating with the company since Feb. 1 but that no agreement could be reached. The strike followed.

During negotiations the company had offered a wage increase but it was not sufficient, according to union spokesmen.

Hicks compared wages paid to telephone plant department employees with those of other "skilled craftsmen" and declared that the phone men were on the short end of the stick.

He said, "Bricklayers receive $84, iron workers $80, carpenters $76.40, telephone craftsmen in other upstate cities $71. The weekly earnings of an electrician for a 40 hour week are $79.40 as compared with the Rochester telephone man's top rate of $67 for a 40 hour week. The electrician reaches his top rate after a 5 year apprenticeship. The telephone worker's wage increases are controlled by the merit system under which it may be years before he reaches the top rate for his work. There are some telephone craftsmen in Rochester who are now paid top scale but many are not. The estimated average wage is $43 a week."

release Antonelli he had quickly replied, "None."

Queries to the Attorney General's office in Washington were referred to James Bennett, director of the Federal Prisons Bureau. Bennett said the department had the authority to release any federal prisoner to any institution upon the advice of prison physicians that a change of environment might speed the recovery of an ailing prisoner. This advice was received, said Bennett and the release action followed.

Tuesday morning Bennett said that Antonelli was now in the custody of U. S. Marshall Frank Blackford. Told that Blackford had no official knowledge of Antonelli's release, Bennett said the department had experienced difficulty in contacting Blackford by long distance telephone because of the telephone workers' strike.
Reminded that the strike didn't begin until Monday and that Antonelli had been in Rochester since last Friday Bennett said Blackford had been notified by telegram. A few moments after the telephone conversation with Bennett, The Sun called Black-ford's office here but got the telephone busy signal. Within half an hour another call was placed to Blackford's office and resulted in the information that Blackford had received "no notice as yet." Strangely, Marshall Blackford was already aware that The Sun had talked to Washington only a few moments before. He didn't get that information from The Sun.
Later in the day it was announced that Blackford had received word from Washington placing Antonelli in his custody.

There were further confusing angles to an already confused situation. Federal Prisons Bureau Director Bennett advised The Sun that arrangements had been made with the hospital so that Antonelli could not be released without the authorities' knowledge. But L. J. Bradley, director of Genesee Hospital denied that any such arrangement existed "up to this moment" (late Tuesday afternoon). Bradley said, however, that as soon as hospital physicians pronounced Antonelli as cured, Warden Hiatt would be notified. "After that," said Bradley, "it's up to the warden as to what happens to Mr. Antonelli." Because of the current local shortage of hospital bed space Bradley is anxious to have Antonelli vacate his bed as soon as he is cured.

But Warden Hiatt had already said that Antonelli was now under the jurisdiction of the Department of Justice, and Bennett claimed the erstwhile prisoner was in the technical custody of U. S. Marshall Black-ford, who didn't know it. What authority the warden would have to remand Antonelli to the prison was obscure.

Still other reports had. Antonelli in the custody of his physician, Dr. James L. Mangano no but The Sun learned that Dr. Mangano is not now treating Antonelli. He is under the care of hospital staff physicians.

That Antonelli's condition was rapidly improving came as a cheerful note in the proceedings. On Saturday he was reported as "gravely ill." On Sunday his condition was reported
"just fair." But by Tuesday, the hospital said his condition was "fair."

Among the long list of those who seemed to know little about the mechanics of Antonelli's release without bond, without a court order, without a Presidential pardon, without parole and without a time limit is his Rochester attorney, William J. Maloney. Maloney said that about all he knew was that Antonelli was ill and that he had been in the hospital prison since his incarceration.

Assistant District Attorney
Austin J. Donovan and Chief Parole and Probation Officer
John Coughlin were also reportedly "in the dark" about the matter. Donovan said that under federal law a prisoner can be released normally under one of two provisions — a court order or a Presidential pardon. But Bennett, in Washington claimed this "was not necessarily so." He maintained the department had the authority to take the action it did.

Antonelli was convicted of conspiracy to defraud the government in the manufacture of defective firearms during the war. He was free on bail during a long series of appeals that cuminated in the United States Supreme Court. That body denied his plea as well as a second one made in his behalf. He was finally confined to the prison early in November. The earliest date at which he will be eligible for a parole, according to the Prisons Director Bennett is July 7.

Meanwhile he is an unguard-ed patient in Genesee hospital suffering from a cardiac condition.

But unlike other prison inmates he is cheered by a reported roomful of flowers and unlimited visitors. He is in a private room — another convenience denied may ill prisoners.

By CURT GERLING

Harold "Initials" MacFarlin like the budding crocus came out of long winter hibernation this week. The GOP's Little Boy Blue blew his horn for the first time since November. Tootled L.B.B. "The GOP will win this fall under wraps and with the ease of the man on the flying trapeze" — but of course Mr. MacFarlin was more pontifical.

The man with all the initials hasn't been reading much lately or perhaps he would not have been so brash. He might have recalled that his national chairman Mr. Carroll Reece was equally sure that the Republicans would sweep Chicago in the mayoralty elections. In fact Mr. Reece said the name "Republican" would alone do it.

Well, contrary to Mr. Reece and his assurances of easy victory, the Democrats again swept Chicago and snowed under the GOP nominee with far greater ease than the aerialist of the recently popular song.

After the vote was in Mr. Reece forgot his prognostications and blandly passed the election off as "not significant." Harold is quite apt to be quoted likewise—if any one can find him after November's election day.

We shared the joy of the majority when the Man Bilbo was eased out of the Senate. Accused of sub rosa relationships with war contractors by the War Investigating Committee the Senate refused to honor his credentials at the opening of Congress.

Rather than risk a long delay and debate some of the smarter senators talked Bilbo into a compromise—he was to return home and undergo an operation and in the interim would enjoy his salary and other emoluments of office. Restored to health he was to try gain.

PHONE WORKERS STICK TO 'LIVING WAGE' DEMANDS

How wide a divergence of opinion exists between management of the Rochester Telephone Corp. and employee members of the Genesee Valley Telephone Workers union is shown in the latest series of negotiation meetings attempting to settle a strike of the union.

Union demands are for a flat $12 per week increase for plant workers. The sum would bring the average weekly wage of the craft workers up to $55 for a 40-hour week, says Reed Clapp, a member of the union's negotiating committee. According to Clapp wages scales in the departments covered by the union vary from $32 per week for beginners, up to a top wage of $67 per week for the highest crafts. Union spokesman says average wage is $43 per week.

The telephone company originally offered the union an eight percent increase, but after the workers had gone on strike, after several days of negotiation, and after the services of a federal conciliator had been offered and accepted, the "big" minds of the company changed their tune and upped their original offer, by the magnificent degree of an additional one percent. If the union's figure is correct on wage average, the company's latest offer, which incidentally was quickly turned by the workers, would have added approximately $3.87

Police Ball At Armory To Replenish Depleted Benevolent Fund Coffers

The old time songwriter who hit upon the idea that "a policeman's lot is not a happy one" wasn't fooling.

Policemen can't get insurance. They could, if they could pay for it, but because of their precarious existence insurance companies ask such high premiums for insurance that policemen simply can't afford it. That's one, and a major, reason why the Rochester policemen have a Police Benevolent Association, which maintains a fund from which widows and families of deceased policemen and former policemen draw a $2,000 benefit.

To augment this fund the Police Department stages its annual Spring Police Ball. This year it will be held at the Main Street Armory on Monday night, May 13. Highlight of the event will be, as usual, a big name band.

This year it Garry O'Connor will be the original Glenn Miller Orchestra, which since the war and the death of Miller has been under the direction of Tex Beneke.

TEX BENEKE

In addition to Tex Beneke and the orchestra, there will be numerous individual stars with the band at the Armory. Garry O'Connor and Garry Stevens are featured soloists.

Last year 17 policemen and former policemen died. That cost the Police Benevolent Association's fund a total of $34,000, and left a big void in the fund's treasury to be filled in part, at least, by proceeds from this year's dance. Two committees are handling arrangements for the ball, one composed of members of the association headed by Deputy Chief William H. McLaughlin, and the other a citizens' committee, of which Carl S. Hallauer is chairman.

Tickets for the ball are on sale at all police precincts.

TO BEER OR NOT TO BEER IS CIVIC MUSIC QUESTION

Whether or not members of the Civic Music Association want a summer series of outdoor concerts is the question being decided upon this week. The group's executive committee is discussing proposals that before it proceeds with definite plans it wants to sound out ideas of the membership at large. Members may record their sentiments on a ballot printed in this week's issue of Rochester Civic Music News, journal of the group.

The city will find out just how the music lovers feel about beer, too, if both questions on the ballot are answered. Before the summer is out it will be known whether or not they like the brew served up with their music or would rather content themselves with "pop."

This question came up through the proposed choice of locations for the series if they should materialize. Two alternative sites are offered in the ballot—the Red Wing Stadium where beer would be available, or the U of R stadium where liquors are confined to soft drinks.

Observers are watching with keen interest the results of this balloting.

Vets Angered By Antonelli 'Deal'

Undoubtedly members of his family, as well as his friends and well-wishers are glad to have Amerigo Antonelli back in Rochester even though he is confined to the Genesee Hospital. All agree that the sunny, cheery, flower decked hospital room is not only much superior, but in great contrast to the dull drab prison hospital ward of the U. S. Federal Penitentiary at Lewisburg, Pa., where Antonelli was held as a prisoner since last November.

But there are others—and a great number of them, one might even say without exaggerating the true state of affairs, who are not so happy about Former Munitionmaker Antonelli's quick release from the federal "clink" due to a "serious heart ailment."

Antonelli was sentenced to a 2-year term for conspiracy to defraud the government in the manufacture of defective firearms during the war. Several appeals in his behalf failed and he was finally jailed at Lewisburg early in November to start his 2-year stretch. But on Friday, April 4, less than four months later, he was brought back to Rochester and admitted to Genesee Hospital with all the rights and privileges of other patients in the Alexander St. institution. Washington reports said that Antonelli was released through an order signed by Attorney General Tom C. Clark.

Clark, in turn, was reported to have acted after former Republican Congressman Joseph J. O'Brien had interceded by telephone or personal visit for Antonelli.

O'Brien refused to confirm the reports of his activities on Antonelli's behalf, but neither did he deny them. Particularly after it was reported that he and Attorney General Clark are warm personal friends.

Among the many letters received by The Sun commending it for revealing details of the former firecracker-manufacturer-turned-munitions-maker's release from the stifling confines of the gaol was one from a former Army nurse who waxed eloquent through several

JUNIOR LEAGUERS TO STAGE SHOW AT AUDITORIUM

The Rochester Jr. League's version of "Follies of 1947" will be staged at the Auditorium Theater on May 9 to 10.

A cast studded with the names of many of Rochester's "400" is expected to attract a record turnout of so-called Rochester society. And they'll probably have a very good time as well as see a hilarious—if not always entirely professional show.

But what interests the Junior leaguers most about the affair is its money-raising potential. Proceeds will be turned over to the group's welfare fund to support local projects under its sponsorship.

Mrs. Frederick Pierson has been named general chairman of the "Follies"

- Adjust to proper length, and hem both ends
- Attach with common pins to the ingenious Pinadrape
- Fasten arm bracket holder to window frame and attach Pinadrape

Edwards Order your Pinadrapes by mail, by phone STONE 2300

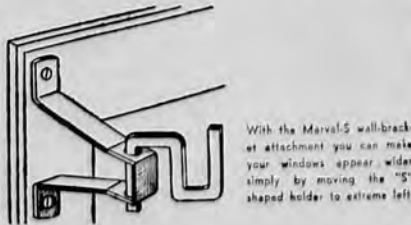

HERE'S HOW you do it, simple as A-B-C

A Starting with the straight end of Pinadrape, place the material over with the top, and anchor it by pushing a common pin through the material, and through the slot provided, as shown in sketch.

B Fasten material to side of first pleater by pushing a common pin through the material, and through the slot in the Pinadrape, on the base of the pleater. Then wrap material around pleater, and fasten to other side in the same way. See sketch "B."

C Repeat this simple process on each of the pleaters, and then anchor the material at the end of the Pinadrape, as you did when starting. There you are, with your drape completed, ready to attach to your windows.

With the Marvel-S wall-bracket attachment you can make your windows appear wider simply by moving the "S" shaped holder to extreme left.

Meanwhile Harry E. Hicks, union president, claims that telephone service in this area is badly crippled. But John W. Morrison, company president, says service is "near normal." And the amusing side of that argument is that both are correct. Telephone service is badly crippled here — and that is "normal." ANTONELLI . . .
needed a change of environment but had to return to the front lines after hospitalization if they were at all able! Please let us give justice where it is due."

Antonelli remains in the hospital under the care of staff physicians who say that "undoubtedly Antonelli is a sick man." But that offers little satisfaction to those who are upset by his early leave-taking of the federal penitentiary. They point to other prisoners who are indisposed — but remain in prison hospitals far from family, friends and other public hospital niceties. Some prisoners have even died in prison hospitals and why they, too were not released to return to their home towns to recuperate is a question bothering many thinking citizens in Rochester this week.

Antonelli has all the rights and privileges of any other non-convicted hospital patient, but none of the penalties of a convicted prisoner except the stigma of the sentence.

Despite newspaper reports of Marshall Frank Blackford's declaration that "there'll be some changes made" when he was at long last notified to keep an eye on Antonelli by federal prison officials, no changes have been made to date. Even Black-ford admitted that. Blackford was notified that Antonelli was in his custody only after The Sun had prodded Washington officials. Visitors still stream in and out of Antonelli's room bringing him food, delicacies, flowers, good cheer and companionship. He remains in a private room crowded with gay flowers and with the sunshine streaming into his unbarred, unguarded window.
Visiting hours are strictly regulated in prisons — even in the hospital wards.

Some are wondering why U.
S. prisons even have hospitals.
If the same justice is to be meted out to all Americans — as the idealists would have it — and if some prisoners can be transferred to private or public hospitals because they are sick
— why, say these thinkers, do not all indisposed prisoners merit transfer to their home towns.

Does the release regulation apply only to those convicted of conspiracy to defraud the government in the manufacture of defective hand grenades?
If so, what are the veterans, both disabled and those lucky enough to get home in one piece, going to do about it?

reports was successful but another is deemed advisable and hence he will be unable to return to Washington until August.

In August, Congress it is expected, will be in recess. Thus Mr. Bilbo's problem cannot be reopened until next year. In the meantime the not so dumb Mr. Bilbo is drawing down fifteen thousand per year and the "other emoluments." In one way or another the politicians take care of their own. Even thoroughly discredited ones. The anti-labor bill recently heralded as part of the fulfillment of GOP pledges but yet to be passed has caused considerable tittering on the part of labor leaders. There wasn't anything much in the bill as reported out of committee that labor would not have agreed to under proper pressure, years ago.

Phil Aronowitz, the "Lone Wolf" engrossed in the problems of cleaning up the housing shortage finds it helps a lot if he smokes two bit cigars. "I don't function right without the two-for-a-quarters in my kisser" he admits.

Arnett Y Auxiliary To Hear Mrs. Hockstein

Rochester hurriedly phoned the merchant to ask him to place the wax dummy back in the window, only to learn that the outfit had been sold and that it was the only one in stock.
The shocking disclosure started a frantic search for the customer who purchased the wedding gown, and she was finally located. But, as might be expected, the bride wasn't too eager to let her precious wedding gown out of sight.

TENTH YEAR—No. 41

By CURT GERLING

Two weeks ago tonight we were enjoying the bland tropical breezes on the veranda of a Bermuda hotel. Four men from widely separated parts of the country were sharing the luxury of no top coats, nothing to do and little to worry about. With the international situation one man's improved short game, the high cost of living and the scarcity of good scotch disposed of to the satisfaction of all, we asked a question. "Why was it that all four of my friends had been sharply critical of Washington and it's pussyfooting were not actively interested in politics themselves?"

The lawyer from St. Louis pulled on a reflective pipe and opines that he had "never had the time." The breezy salesman from New York said he was making a whole lot more than a U. S. Senator right now and "why should he?"

The gentleman from Texas who specialized in oil asserted that more could be obtained from sitting just outside the political circle and making contributions — and that furthermore he was not egotistical enough to covet political power.

The tweedy gentleman from Portland, Oregon, who was feeling better now that his golf had improved, gave by far the more reasonable answer. Said he, "I just couldn't be bothered making a whole lot of people who I don't give a hang about, like me well enough to vote for me."

That indeed sums up the reason why so many competent men shun political office. They have to be gregarious by nature. Love crowds, enjoy back slapping, baby-kissing, and unending tables of cold cuts and beer surrounded by noise and cigar smoke.

TO HEAR N. Y. MAYOR — Democrats are dusting off their best bibs and tuckers in anticipation of the pending visit of New York's Mayor William O'Dwyer who will be chief speaker at a Democratic dinner rally in Hotel Seneca on May 13. Of course, along with their dusting and shining activities, Democrats planning to attend will have to follow the example of former Congressman George F. Rogers shown here buying his tickets from Miss Ruth Wobus, secretary at local Democratic Headquarters. The pastebords are $7 each while, in addition to purchasing a typical Hotel Seneca treasury, Roy Bush, chairman, says that current ticket sales indicate an SRO throng at the O'Dwyer fete.

Antonelli Condition Unchanged... Still Free

Little change in the condition of Amerigo Antonelli, is the gist of hospital reports this week. Antonelli, convicted of conspiracy to defraud the government in the manufacture of defective hand grenades during the war has been ensconced in a private room in Genesee Hospital since April 4, despite his sentence of two years in the federal prison in Lewisburg, Pa.

Antonelli is reportedly suffering from a heart ailment. Several hundred ex-GI's are reportedly suffering from maimed faces and hands due to defective hand grenades, which they attempted to use at Salerno, Normandie, Iwo Jima, the Solomons and points east and west. In fact, army and marine records show that many battlefield warriors were killed by such defective ammunition.

Antonelli is in the technical custody of U. S. Marshall Frank Blackford who admittedly has not gone near his prisoner, has issued no regulations concerning his mode of living and has placed no guard at or near the prisoner-patient's door.

Meanwhile detachments of soldiers, sailors and marines carefully and reverently pace off their measured steps guarding the soil where the country's honored dead lie still and uncomplaining. Antonelli landed in Lewisburg prison after several appeals. (See ANTONELLI Page 6)

Charge of 'Boycott' Riles Rally Promoters

Was the Roosevelt memorial rally, staged in the Eastman Theater Saturday, April 12 by several civic, labor, fraternal and social organizations an intended "show of strength" of liberal elements of the city? If so, was it boycotted by "straight line" Democrats? Or was it just a coincidence that such political figures as former Senator James M. Mead, Monroe County Democratic Chairman Roy Bush, former Congressmen Frank Kelly and George F. Rogers, and Abraham Chatman, manager of the joint board of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers just happened to be "unavailable" for the meeting?

Al Moss, astute political reporter for the Times-Union, says the Democrats boycotted the affair.

But Jack Shore, chairman of the rally, says that isn't true. To Shore the combined absence was a coincidence. To Moss, it was planned that way.

Promoters of the rally originally listed Elliott Roosevelt and former Senator James M. (See BOYCOTT Page 9)

Noted Figures To Participate In Catholic Conference

Labor, industry, the government and the clergy will be represented at six meetings of the Catholic Conference on Industrial Problems next Monday and Tuesday in the Chamber of Commerce auditorium. Sessions will be held Monday at 10 a. m., 2 p. m. and 8 p. m. and on Tuesday at 10 a. m. and 2 p. m. and close with an informal dinner at 6:30 p. m.

Discussion will center on full employment and production, America's productive capacity, balance among prices, wages, and income, industry-wide collective bargaining, conciliation, expansion of social security, low cost housing, programs for industry and labor, and a blueprint for an economic order.

Both the Congress of Industrial Organization and the American Federation of Labor have representatives on the program. Walter P. Reuther, president of the UAW, and Harry Read are from the CIO, while Nelson W. Cruikshank, and James Brownlow come from the Washington Headquarters Office of the AFL.

Cruikshank is director of social insurance activities of the AFL and Brownlow is secretary-treasurer of the metal trades department, AFL. Industry will be represented by Brig. Gen. Robert Johnson, (See CONFERENCE Page 9)

Don't Get Caught In The Sunday Clock Twisting

Manifestations of a disease peculiar to the last Sunday in April are expected to be seen in Rochester next Sunday. People will (1) sneak into church a full hour late, (2) miss train connections, and (3) accuse or be accused by their friends of a snub for failing to keep appointments.

Outbreak of the disease is occasioned by the onset of daylight saving time which goes into effect Sunday morning at 2 a. m. to remain until Sept. 28.

Three courses of action can be expected from the citizenry. Some will forget all about it and leave six o'clock's face alone (See CLOCK Page 6)

Glenn Miller Band Group To Sing At Police Ball

It happens everywhere, say those who have been with the Glenn Miller Band, under leadership of Tex Bencke.

When the Mello-Larks, a singing quartet, take to the microphones the dancers want more dance music. But once the Mello-Larks have given one number, the crowds want more of the Mello-Larks.

It may happen in Rochester when the Rochester Police Benevolent Association stages its annual Spring Police Ball at the New York State Armory on Monday night, May 12, for the Mello-Larks will be with the Glenn Miller Band. In addition, Tex himself will feature and sing the songs for which he is famous, including "Ida," "Melancholy Baby," and, of course, "Chattanooga Choo-choo." In addition also, the Glenn Miller band will play all the top selling record numbers it has accounted for. These include the historic "Juke Box Saturday Night." "In the Mood," "Little Brown Jug." Rhubarb is in. When buying select fairly thick stalks. They are better. As a buying guide, one pound will make about two cups of cooked rhubarb.

AUTOMATIC HOT WATER My entire family agree, we never have spent $189.50 for a better cause, than our new RUD AUTOMATIC HOT WATER HEATER — recently installed by ROCHESTER GAS & ELECTRIC. What service R G & E gives you. Your heater is delivered on the day designated, installed promptly, and inspected twice by experts from R G & E. Buy your new appliances from R G & E. Adding the sugar when making meringues is very important. Use two tablespoons of sugar for each egg white. Add slowly, when eggs have reached their full height. To prevent shrinking of meringue, add one-eighth of teaspoon of cream of tartar for each egg white. A pinch of salt for flavor—and there you have it.

STORAGE AT SHAFER'S

We are all familiar with the damage MOTHS can do to furs, but did you know HEAT does even worse damage. Here's how. It dries out the natural oils in pelts, and once these oils have been destroyed, nothing can replace them. Store your furs with a FURRIER. SHAFER CO. of course. The best possible care is given to your precious possessions. Shafer's are FUR SPECIALISTS. Their entire attention is given to FURS, naturally they excel in their field. Call Stone 18, or bring your coat to SHAFER'S. If you're thinking of remodeling now is the time to make your decision. Repairing and Cleaning is also given careful attention. Remember SHAFER CO. Fur Specialists for over 67 years. Located 76 East Ave. Opposite Chestnut Stone 18.

HOME FURNISHING EDWARDS

For years, women have been looking forward to what we called, the Post-War world. It's been slow coming — but as usual — EDWARDS have "jumped the gun" on the largest and most wonderful display of all kinds of appliances, cooking utensils, all kinds of gadgets, you haven't seen in years. Located on the Sixth Floor, you'll find yourself spending hours just looking at the wonderful new "things". Demonstrations on all kinds of appliances are in session. Ironers, ranges, refrigerators, irons, pressure cookers, broilers, every one a beauty in design and efficiency. A complete line of MIRROR, the finest aluminum is also on display. The famous Restemo Bed Size Electric Warmer a wonderful idea. It occurred to me this item would be ideal for the bed-ridden, who always seem to suffer from the cold. Space doesn't permit giving even a bird-eye-view of the wonderful HOME FURNISHING EXHIBITION, you just have to see it to appreciate it. Drop in today to EDWARDS — on the Sixth Floor. Edwards—Setting A New Pace in Rochester.

Cotton is sometimes handled formally and then it is smart. A marine blue singham with spiral drapery and bare shoulder top with glitter belt is still washable.

LOOK It doesn't matter what "type" you are, ZWEIG DRESSES have just what you can wear. Mrs. Zweig "buys" for all sizes and in such a vast assortment of materials, your selection is as easy as pie. At a food center in San Carlos, Calif., stalls have been provided for your pet, to be anchored. Of course they are far enough away from one another to prevent conflict. I can just imagine tying that crazy Angus thus, he would empty the place in five minutes with his hocks. He screams like a banshee, even when left in the car alone. But then all dogs aren't as spoiled as our pet.

EAGLES TO FETE MONTREAL AERIE

Rochester Eagles will celebrate International Organized Labor Day this weekend with a delegation of 100 members of the Montreal Aerie here to join the festivities.

The Canadians will arrive Saturday to be entertained that evening at a dinner in Powers Hotel.

On Sunday the Degree Team of the Montreal Aerie will exemplify the ritual for 100 candidates to be initiated into the local lodge as an "organized labor class." Anthony R. Schneider, vice-president of the Central Trades and Labor Council will be guest of honor at Sunday's rites.

Following the initiation, a banquet will be served in Eagles Dining Room. Delegates from several neighboring aeries as well as a group of state officers will attend. Lewis G. Hines, legislative representative of the American Federation of Labor in Washington, will be the speaker.

OK It doesn't matter what "type" you are. ZWEIG DRESSES have just what you need in wear. Mrs. Zweig "buys" for sizes and in such a vast assortment of materials, your selection is as easy as pie. As for price, a pleasant surprise, you'll find yourself being able to afford more than you planned to buy. ZWEIG DRESSES — 240 ROSEDALE Off Monroe. Open Eve.

At a food center in San Carlos, Calif., stalls have been provided for our pet, to be anchored. Of course they are far enough away from one another to prevent conflict. I can just imagine trying that crazy Angus thus, as would empty the place in five minutes with his hoofs. He screams like a banshee, even when left in the car alone. But then all dogs aren't as polite as our pet.

Cancer Group Awaits Eve Curie Talk Tomorrow

As if the appearance of Mlle. Eve Curie, daughter of the renowned co-discoverer of radium, were not, in itself to attract a capacity audience, several "added attractions" will be offered in the Eastman Theater tomorrow at 8:15 p. m. when Mlle. Curie will speak under the auspices of the Women's Field Army of the Monroe County Branch of the American Cancer Society.

Two selections will be sung by the Perisian Choir of Nazareth Academy under the direction of the Rev. John Maney; Several numbers will be offered by John Marshall High School Band, to be directed by Harold Geschwind; and a Walt Disney film will be shown.

Feature attraction, however, will be the talk by Mlle. Curie, internationally renowned biographer of her distinguished mother. As co-publisher with Philippe Barres of Paris Presse, Mlle. Curie has seen the paper which emerged from the libera-

CLOSET CLEANUP TODAY'S FIRE PREVENTION JOB

Today is the day to tidy up those "Fibber McGeeish" closets. That is, if you are observing Fire Prevention Week which started Monday. And if you're not, you ought to be, according to the Rochester Safety Council's Fire Prevention Committee, sponsors of the clean-up drive.

Even Mayor Dieker has said so in a proclamation liberally sprinkled with whereases and wherefores urging Fire Prevention Week observance by all citizens.

Already 23,000 day-by-day schedules have been distributed to school children for their own clean-up operations. The pamphlet, in cartoon form, details locations in the home where most rubbish and waste materials accumulate.

If they are on schedule, householders cooperating in the drive for safer and more beautiful homes and yards have already:

Rid their stairways of all accumulated rubbish;

Given the attic a thorough cleaning out and;

Cleaned up the basement.

Today they will go after the closets; tomorrow they'll straighten and clean kitchen cupboards and shelves; and on Saturday they'll be outdoors in whatever sunshine the weatherman decides to offer making sure that the yard and garage is spruced up for summer.

Of course those who have not yet started their own "operation clean-up" still have time to catch up with the schedule by dividing the week's program of work into the next two days.

If the rubbish collectors haven't been on your street yet, you can expect them before the week is over. According to William Kullick, chairman of the sponsoring committee, assurances have been given by officials of the Department of Public Works that ash and rubbish collectors will visit all sections of the city during the week.

Don't burn down—clean up! Everyone who wants to can participate in the drive simply by getting on the south end of a broom going north. And everyone ought to want to participate in Fire Prevention Week.

'BOY PREACHER' OF 30 YEARS AGO RETURNS TO CITY

Boys will be boys—but they soon grow up—even boy preachers.

No one will admit that any quicker than "Charlie" Taylor, erstwhile boy preacher who first visited Rochester with his father 30 years ago. In 1917 Taylor, then 17 years of age conducted a 3-week campaign at the Second Baptist Church which has since become the Baptist Temple. He was already a seasoned preacher at 17, having preached his first sermon in his native England at the age of nine.

Now he has returned for a campaign at the Baptist Temple through May 5. Of course he's no longer the "boy preacher." But outside of the exchange of a head of bushy black hair for a somewhat reduced quantity of grey hair, Taylor has changed little and has lost none of his dynamic appeal.

With him in his present campaign is his brother "Laurie," an accomplished pianist who nightly offers several piano numbers from among the "classics" as an "extra added attraction." Colored movies are also shown.

Tomorrow night "Laurie" will offer a recital in a special "music night" program. He has scheduled the following:

Spoon River, Granger; Gavotte, Gluck-Brahms; Music Box, Liszt; Le Coucou, Danquin; Caprice, Scarlatti; Moonlight Sonata, Beethoven; The Maiden's Wish, Chopin-Liszt; Prelude, Nacturne and Waltz, Chopin; Rhapsody No. 10, Liszt; and Polonaise A Flat, Chopin.

Meetings are conducted by the duo each night except Saturday beginning at 7:30 p. m.

peals made in his behalf had been turned down. He went to the prison last November to begin serving his sentence. He was assigned to a bed in the prison hospital ward because of his heart ailment. Then, early this month, in a strangely-quiet deal, he was transferred to Genesee Hospital upon order of Attorney General Thomas Clark.

Since that date veterans of both wars have been waiting for their organization leaders to take action. But none have. Individual veterans, however, much concerned over the "soft" treatment handed the criminal convicted during the war are up in arms over Antonelli's virtual release.

Wilbur T. Smith, of 130 Sanford St. an army veteran who served in the European Theater of Operations writes:

During the war that has just passed, I served with an Infantry Unit, in the ETO. During our maneuvers for assault at the south coast of England we had various mishaps with faulty grenades and mortar shells. In one day alone four of our men were blown to bits by large (81 M. M.) mortar shells that went off upon being dropped in the tube. On Utah beach in Normandy, one of our men was killed, not instantly, it took an hour, by a faulty grenade, which he was carrying close to his stomach on his belt. It hurt morale to lose men this way, but that's a minor detail, think of them and the families still suffering.

Packing numbers were taken from the faulty ammunition boxes, and officers swore that those involved in making the things "would pay." Then I read of the good fortune of one Amerigo Antonelli. The first surprise is the light sentence he received, and now, a release from Federal prison, to a very good hospital in Rochester.

What kind of justice do you call that? Isn't there someone of standing in this fair city, some group or organization who can put this culprit back where he belongs? I wonder what my friend, who lost his life with a bum grenade, would say to all this if he had lived through it.

POLKA . . .

There is no secret as to why the Republican convention is slated for Philadelphia rather than Chicago. The windy city had a recent experience with GOP "openhandedness." Chicago merchants and hotel people considered their last visit far from a spending orgy and a dead loss commercially.

In the words of a Chicago taxi driver "Bring on the Democrats but leave them Republican nickle tipper to Philly — it will serve them both right."

D & C Headline of the week: AIRPORT NETS $53,300. Which would be mighty nice if it were true. Deep in the text of the story it disclosed that the Airport operation showed a $27,000 deficit for last year. Somebody should show these head writers the difference between net and gross, profit and loss.

In the same paper the same day, "Communists Called Chief Peril To Press." However the text discloses that Arthur Hays Sulzberger said the chief peril to the press was their own shortcomings and the communist peril was way way down on the list.

We suppose it's only natural not to want to admit that the main trouble with the press is the people that own and run newspapers.

No. 42 PTA PLANS SUMMER PLAY SCHOOL

Plans to use the facilities of No. 42 School kindergarten and a segregated part of the playground as a supervised play school this summer for children two to five years of age are being formulated by the school's PTA. A meeting to discuss the project was held Tuesday in the school auditorium. According to proposed plans a nominal fee would be charged to cover expenses. An experienced director will be in charge but volunteer help from mothers of children enrolled in the project will also be required to the extent of one morning from each mother each week. That would provide one adult for each five children. Enrollment will be limited to 50 youngsters. Those interested in the project are invited to attend next Tuesday's meeting.

Mead finally joined the rest of the Democratic bigwigs in finding himself "unavailable" for the meeting. Shore says he received a telegram from Mead sending his regrets, but the message arrived too late to be read at the meeting.

Other divisions of opinion appeared regarding total attendance at the affair. The Times-Union estimated attendance at 500. Shore says that "more than one thousand people were at the rally. Independent observers saw the 500 figure as "more nearly correct."

Shore says his committee "regrets the implications of the Times-Union which imply that the memorial meeting was a partisan affair. All shades of political opinion were represented, according to Shore.

"It is the firm belief of the Roosevelt memorial committee," says Shore, "that the memory of FDR and his contributions to our nation for 13 years deserve to be raised above the level of partisan politics."

CENTURY FILM BASED ON LIFE OF COMPOSER

Intriguing entertainment, as keenly conceived as the whipping duel that provides one of its highlights, sounds the keynote for "Song of Scheherazade," now showing at the Century Theatre.

Done in the warm tints and chromes of Technicolor, the production doesn't miss a page in the book of audience appeal. Each phase of the presentation has been paced for interest and enjoyment, from the dashing story of one of Rimsky-Korsakoff's early adventures in love, to the blending of the composer's most popular musical masterpieces into the romance.

The players list is headed by co-stars Yvonne De Carlo, dancing beauty; Brian Donlevy, character artist, and Jean Pierre Aumont, the charming and personable French actor.

Miss De Carlo, in a full-scale classic dancing role, gives a fiery interpretation of the vivacious Spanish girl who carries on her clandestine terpsichorean career.

Donlevy, swaggering, hard-bitten captain of a Russian Naval training ship, stamps out a rugged and stormy character that should rank with his best screen interpretations.

Aumont is sincere, suave and capable in his convincing portrayal of Midshipman Rimsky-Korsakoff.

'BOOMERANG' MOVES TO REGENT SCREEN

The dramatic hit, "Boomerang" opened for a second week at the Regent yesterday. With Dana Andrews as its star, the picture tells a stranger-than-fiction story of an unsolved murder in a small New England city.

The film story was adapted from the Reader's Digest article entitled "The Perfect Crime," in which a State's attorney, played by Andrews, put the life of a man above his own political ambitions and made American court history during the original trial.

The producer was Louis de Rochemont's whose practice of filming his picture thousands of miles away from Hollywood always pays off in unusual authenticity and realism. His outstanding successes have been "House on 92nd Street" and "13 Rue Madeleine."

The new Regent program also includes the latest March of Time on "The Teacher's Crisis."

CAPITOL BILL FEATURES 'CALIFORNIA'

"California," technicolor spectacle of frontier days is the Capitol's main feature starting today.

This adventure-romance is brought to life by a top flight cast, headed by Ray Milland, Barbara Stanwyck and Barry Fitzgerald.

It has a story, which, based on the turbulent history of California early days, is at all times tense and exciting.

Set against this background is the blazing romance of a calloused lady lady of the gambling halls.

It is all embellished by some of the most magnificent outdoor color sequences in film history.

An excellent musical score is most effective in enhancing the mood and tempo of the action.

RADIO LISTENERS LIKE MOUNTAIN MUSIC

It may surprise you, but Western New Yorkers seem to go for mountain music in a big way. WRNY recently found that out—to the tune of dozens of phone calls and letters asking that a mountain music program be extended.

It seems that schedule changes had forced a cut from a half hour to ten minutes for this type of music. But in response to the repeated requests WRNY program directors reestablished "Mountain Music" as a full half hour daily feature, being heard each morning from 9:05 A. M. following the news until 9:30

By CURT GERLING

Political leaders in Syracuse last week showed the way in handling the political hot potato handed them by Mr. Dewey. The sizzling spud is of course "how are the communities to raise the dough to pay the increased salaries awarded the teachers."

As you know Mr. Dewey finally conceded that the teachers were entitled to slightly more than a bare existence as long as the state did not have to carry the burden and his carefully compiled surplus was not disturbed.

The bill gave the counties the "privilege" of levying a new assortment of taxes to pay the

Second Band Named For Police Ball May 12

Though only about a year old, the Bill Flanagan Dance Band of Rochester will play for the city's biggest dance crowd of the year when it appears at the annual Spring Police Ball at the New York State Armory on Monday night, May 12.

Capt. Edward Fisher, chairman of the Police Ball Committee, has announced the signing of the Flanagan Band as the local musical group to supplement the music of the Police Ball's big-name band, the original Glenn Miller Orchestra under the direction of Tex Beneke. Featured vocal

O'DWYER BOOMED AS 'NEXT N. Y. GOVERNOR'

First peek at "New York's next governor" will be offered Rochesterians on Wednesday, May 13, when William O'Dwyer, mayor of New York City and prominently mentioned as Democratic choice for governor in 1950, comes to the city to speak at a Democratic dinner rally in Hotel Seneca.

Current rate of ticket sales however, will preclude the possibility of many Republicans getting near enough O'Dwyer to get a close-up view of the New York leader. According to Roy F. Bush, chairman of the Monroe County Democratic Committee, sponsors of the affair, Democrats have already snapped up almost all the available tickets. That they will be sold out long before date of the dinner is a foregone conclusion in Democratic headquarters.

New York City will pay its tribute to its leader shortly after the Rochester affair. A testimonial dinner for O'Dwyer is scheduled for Monday, May 26 in New York at $100 per plate. In the matter of finances Rochesterians also have the jump on their Manhattan brethren. Localities can see and hear O'Dwyer at a $93 per plate saving. Cost of the Hotel Seneca dinner is a modest $7.

Bush attributes the rapid pace of ticket sales to the popularity here of O'Dwyer. Bush says the upstate demand for the New York Mayor in 1950 is overwhelming.

O'Dwyer, who rose from an Irish immigrant boy through the ranks of the New York City Police Department to the District Attorney's office and into the mayor's chair, will discuss a circular distributed throughout the city today and in a broadcast over WHAM at 7 (See O'DWYER Page 7)

Voter League Adds Plea For House Authority

Still another survey of Rochester's housing problems is in the making if recommendations of the county's League of Women Voters are heeded by the city council.

Plans for improving living conditions for all income groups in the city will also be made.

Pressure for a housing authority is mounting with each passing day in Rochester one of the last strongholds of "rugged individualism" which translated into housing terms means letting people who want and need houses go without them while individual builders give out rosy statements about their ability priced and in adequate number to insure proper homes for all.

Latest to take up the plea for a housing authority are the women voters of the area. In

NEW MARKET PLAN IS SCHEME TO AID SUBWAY

If Rochesterians are puzzled as to why Commerce Commissioner Harold S. W. MacFarlin is stubbornly going ahead with his plans to relocate the Rochester Public Market way out on the northwestern limits of the city despite overwhelming opposition they need look no further than the subway for their answer.

Members of the Monroe County Food Merchants Association have voiced their protest against the proposed site in an area bounded by Ridge-way Avenue, Mt. Read Blvd. and Driving Pk. Ave. Farmers from Eastern Monroe, Wayne and Ontario Counties are reportedly up in arms over the move from the present central location astride the New York Central Railroad. A special committee of the Food Merchants, headed by M. L. Webster has surveyed sentiment among its members and has prepared a strong report of protest against the move.

But MacFarlin says the grocers are all wrong. They don't know what they're talking about. He says the move is being made primarily to benefit them. But if they are the ones who are supposed to benefit, and they don't want any part of such "benefits" observers believe the logical course would be to drop the idea.

Those holding such naive beliefs don't know their Harold S. W. MacFarlin very well.

The key to that estimable official's love for the proposed site on the very fringe of the city is found in the announcement released by the Commerce Department that "the squad car crew found—a couple of detectives who were looking for other suspicious men

Housewives Aid Asked To Fight City Sales Tax

Aid of housewives in fighting imposition of a sales tax in the county is being enlisted this week by the Anti-Sales Tax Committee of the Central Trades and Labor Council. Distribution of 30,000 pamphlets to homes was undertaken yesterday by members of the Teamsters Union representing milk, ice, coal, bread and laundry drivers.

The pamphlet warns housewives that "It's time the women of Rochester rallied against the raids on their pocketbooks" and points out that "once your dollar was worth a dollar but now it's worth only 60 cents."

A cartoon showing Mrs. Housewife fighting with Mr. Sales Tax (who looks strangely like Governor Dewey) for possession of the family budget dollars carries the caption,—"Don't Let Him Get Away with a Red Cent."

Upon recommendation of Governor Dewey the legislature recently passed bills enabling counties to levy several new taxes to finance teacher pay raises in the state.

The labor committee now fighting the tax points out that the Board of Supervisors or the City Council can levy new taxes as follows:

- 2c on the dollar on everything you buy except food and drugs;
- $5.00 on passenger automobiles;
- $10.00 on commercial vehicles;
- 3 per cent on restaurant meals and drinks over $1.00;

COUNTY LEGION TO PROBE RELEASE OF ANTONELLI

With his attorney labelling conspiracy as a "minor crime" and suggesting that The Sun correct the erroneous impression which it is fostering in exposing his release, Amerigo Antonelli, a war-time fire grenade and incendiary bomb manufacturer convicted of conspiracy to defraud the government in connection with his manufacture of the munitions was reported as "comfortable" by the Genesee Hospital where he has been recovering from a heart ailment since his sudden release from Lewisburg Federal Prison on April 4.

The Sun learned this week that one influential veterans' group had, at last taken action to see what could be done about returning the convicted munitions maker to a cell in a federal prison. The Monroe County American Legion has appointed a special committee to investigate his release. The committee will report its findings (See PROBE Page 6)

DEADLINE NEARS FOR HIGH SCHOOL PHOTO CONTEST

Last call for entries in the 1947 National High School Photographic Awards has just been sounded by the Eastman Kodak Co.

Pointing out that entries must be postmarked before midnight, May 15, to compete for the $3,500 offered in cash prizes, the company re-emphasized the fact that there is still time for high school students to submit entries.

Open to any student attending daily any of the high school grades from the ninth to the twelfth, inclusive, in any public, parochial, or private school in the United States, the contest offers a total of 361 awards, ranging from $5 to $500.

Students may enter pictures in any or all of the five classes into which this year's competition is divided. These include classes for pictures of school projects; babies and small children; scenic and still life; hobbies and recreations; and animals and pets.

As if he didn't have enough to do, Gregory Peck is now talking to Zoltan Korda about doing three pictures for him—"The Taming of the Shrew," "Cyrano de Bergerac" and "Peer Gynt."

DR. WITHERSPOON TO BE CITED AT MEDICAL MEET

Dr. Charles R. Witherspoon, well known Rochester physician, will be honored by the Rochester Academy of Medicine with a life membership and a special citation at the annual meeting this month. Dr. Paul W. Beaven, who leads the committee on awards for the academy, on announcing the award this week stated, "Dr. Witherspoon exemplifies the best ethical traditions of the medical profession." Other members of the committee making this special award which was confirmed by the Board of Trustees at its meeting this week, are Dr. Jerome Glaser, Dr. David McGarvey, Dr. S. S. Snow, Jr., and Alfred Wedd.

The citation will be read by Dr. Albert C. Snell, who was a classmate of Dr. Witherspoon at the University of Pennsylvania, where they both attained their M. D. degrees.

A member of the attending staff of the Rochester General Hospital, Dr. Witherspoon is a past president of the Medical Society of the County of Monroe, a member of the Medical Society of the State of New York, of the American Medical Association and is the present secretary of the Board of Visitors of the Rochester State

UNUSUAL DOGS ENTERED IN BUFFALO SHOW

Two practically unknown breeds of dog will be exhibited at the Kennel Club of Buffalo's All-Breed Dog Show, in the Memorial Auditorium on Sunday.

Perhaps the most unusual among the entries will be the three Basenjis, owned and entered by Mrs. Mary McWain of Batavia. In a recent dispatch from London it was noted that Basenjis, whose graven image had invariably been depicted on the tombs of the Pharaohs, were thought to have disappeared thousands of years ago. However, in 1893, a small group of these unusual dogs was found living among the native tribesmen of South Africa. Thus—after an absence of practically 5000 years, Basenjis were again discovered. Recently Farouk, King of Egypt, purchased four Basenjis puppies, once more bringing back to their royal status the dogs who thousands of years before, were the pampered pets of the Pharaohs of ancient Egypt.

Another rare breed of dog that will be shown, is the German Drahthaar, a newer breed of German extraction. H. Grohman of Buffalo, the owner of this particular German-born dog, states that there are but three of these animals in the State of New York, and very few more in the entire United States. This breed is so new to American competition that, although the American Kennel Club recognizes the Drahthaar, it has not yet set up championship standards for it, even though such standards have been established in Germany for the past 45 years.

Other dogs in the Show will include 50 Great Danes; more than 100 Collies; and better than 100 Cocker Spaniels among the over 1000 dogs—over one-quarter of a million dollars worth of them!—from nearly every state in the Union, and Canada, who will be competing in this, the greatest dog show ever held in Buffalo.

NOT ALWAYS THE BAD PENNY THAT COMES BACK

Lynchburg, Va. — Not appreciating some "good-luck" coins which came into his possession, Lyle Apperson tossed them into the cash register of his store. The coins, however, were "lucky" for him for they enabled police to identify a burglar who robbed the store. Apperson got his money back—including the coins and the burglar got — ten years.

SITS TIGHT, AIDS CAPTURE

New Castle, Del. — While seated at his desk in his office, Patrolman Francis J. Hewlett, New Castle's one-man night police force, saw two men break into a grocery store across the street. He telephoned Delaware State police five miles away and reported the fact, saying, "They can see me, so if a make a move they'll scam." Ten minutes later two state troopers rushed into the store and the burglar ran out the back way — right into the arms of two policemen covering the rear door.

AVC POST CONDEMNS 'REDS' IN ORGANIZATION

Alarmed at what they say is the action of a small group of communists and fellow travelers within their ranks who are bringing discredit to the organization, members of the local veterans organization this week took action to eliminate the "commies" from their group.

Members of the Mathew T. Piccolo Memorial Post of the American Veterans Committee have signed a resolution supporting the organization's national planning committee in its announced campaign to "eradicate from the AVC all communists, their fellow travelers, subversives and all those who seek to undermine or overthrow the democratic form of government of the United State.

The resolution was drawn up at the behest of Louis Farace, post chairman, who said the group not only wished to make its own position clear but also to "rectify the popular misconception that all those who belong to the American Veterans Committee are either communist, in sympathy with the communists, or are in some way un-American."

Farace said popular misconception of the AVC members is result of the actions a small group which has infiltrated the organization which is fast discrediting the organization in the eyes of the public.

The resolution also voiced its support of "the President of the United States and the Congress in their efforts to keep world peace by taking a strong stand against any nation or coalition of nations who would threaten it."

DOUBLE TROUBLE
Springfield, Ill. — Waiting near a drugstore door for a homeward bus, Miss Jean Harris started to move toward the bus only to find that the tail of her coat was caught in the locked drugstore door. Jean, the bus driver, the passengers and a squad of policemen were unsuccessful in freeing the coat from the door, so a policeman drove three miles to the manager's home, got a key and released the coat — and Jean. But, in the meantime, Jean had missed the last bus home. The policeman started to drive Jean home in a squad car. The car broke down and she had to walk the last few blocks.

LIKE IT OR NOT—HERE IT IS—Despite almost total opposition to his scheme, Commerce Commissioner Harold S. W. MacFarlin has announced that he will go ahead with his plans to locate a new Public Market out on Mt. Read Blvd. This map shows the proposed market site.

major railroads serving Rochester. Let it be remembered that the subway is one of Commissioner MacFarlin's pet projects. What matters it if the buyers and sellers find the new market inconvenient and time-wasting? The move will help subway receipts. And, apparently that factor is a lot more important to MacFarlin than the mere convenience of citizen-business men. But MacFarlin still has a large job on his hands if he is going to "sell" the embattled food merchants on his brain-wave. They don't like it at all.

From Rags To Riches To Rags Again

Chicago. — Thomas Grady, who came to this country in 1911 a penniless Irish immigrant and who became a millionaire through real estate investments, only to lose it all by 1945, died trying to escape a fire which swept his tiny living quarters in a South Side garage. Judge — So you were convicted of burglary twice, robbery with violence three times and manslaughter once? Prisoner — That's right sir. After that I seemed to drift into a life of crime.

WARES OF CRAFTS GUILD ON SALE AT EXHIBIT

Craft articles made by more than 100 men and women of Monroe and adjacent counties will be exhibited and offered for sale by The Genesee Valley Craft and Cookery Guild, at 181 East Ave., May 7 through 13, from 10 to 6 daily and Friday evening.

The Guild was formed last October as a non-profit organization for the purpose of encouraging craftsmanship in this area. Guild committees meet with consignors to advise them on the quality and workmanship of their products, to help them on pricing, and to suggest how they may market them through regular retail outlets and possibly develop small home businesses. It plans an educational program of meeting and consultation clinics.

The Guild has the approval of the Rochester Home Bureau, the Monroe County Home Bureau and the Women's Council of the New York State Department of Commerce, as well as of leading Rochester business men. Mrs. J. Edward Hoffmeister is chairman of the Guild. Membership is open to all men and women interested in the purposes of the Guild, at a nominal fee, whether they are craft workers or wish to encourage crafts.

The 100 consignors already entered come from a large area

MAN 'BURIED' IN ST. LOUIS THIRD TIME

St. Louis. — Satisfied that there was no error in identification, Coroner Thomas F. Callahan authorized the burial of John P. Miller, who on two previous occasions was declared legally dead but reappeared alive and well. In 1935, after Miller had been missing for seven years, he was declared legally dead, but later showed up. In 1941, a man died at a hospital and was identified by Miller's sister as John F. Miller. A few weeks later, Miller appeared alive and well.

Chicken Farmer Nabs Hawk Which Nabbed Hen

Cumberland Court House, Va. — When a big chicken hawk swooped down, dived under a corn crib and grabbed one of Ira W. Crutchfield's chickens, Crutchfield dashed over, caught the hawk as it emerged and cut off its head with a pocket knife. While the chicken was unharmed, Crutchfield suffered five deep talon scratches.

HELPFUL NEIGHBORS

Waynesboro, Pa. — Friendly neighbors went into action to help Mrs. Evelyn Harbaugh, mother of eight children, who lost her husband, her home and all her possessions in a fire. Shortly after the tragedy, they presented her with a furnished house with rent paid for nearly two years, a year's supply of clothing for the whole family and year's supply of non-perishable foodstuffs.

ings to the legion body next Monday.

Antonelli entered the prison last November to begin serving a 2-year sentence but was released to Genesee Hospital here without fanfare early in April at the order of Attorney General Tom C. Clark without any court order or presidential pardon. Before he entered the prison several appeals had been made on his behalf after his conviction. They were all turned down.

Veteran organizations were of the opinion that Antonelli "ought to be comfortable" encoined in a private flower-banked room available for visits from family and friends without limit except for hospital regulations.

While names of those serving on the legion investigating committee could not be learned, it is known that two of its members are attorneys said to be wise in the ways of legal maneuvering. A third member is a disabled war veteran.

Antonelli's local attorney William J. Malone, admitted to The Sun that the two-year sentence originally handed Antonelli was "the very maximum which could be imposed by law."

But Antonelli, who, it is reported, will not be eligible for

the New York state political situation in his Hotel Seneca address. It will be his first speech on this subject since he was drafted by the Democrats of New York at their last state convention to preside over the gathering which nominated United States Senator James M. Mead for Governor in 1946.

Incidentally, it was Roy Bush who escorted O'Dwyer to the platform at that convention. They have been close friends ever since.

"Mayor O'Dwyer will be drafted for Governor on the Democratic ticket in 1950 without doubt," said Bush. "His record as Mayor of the greatest city in the world has made him a national figure. For he has made great strides in magnificent style as the chief executive of the metropolis. He will be invincible as our standard bearer three years from now."

If you read the New York papers and localities who want to know both sides of all questions usually do you may have noticed the advertising of our Department of Commerce. Their ads invite manufacturers to sell their merchandise in Rochester and offer to provide the names of responsible distributors etc.

On the same pages of these metropolitan dailies you will find the advertisements of other cities and the comparison is odious. These cities offer inducements to industries to come and settle in their town. They offer concrete aid in the way of free land, good buildings, financing and tax advantages for the early years while they are becoming established.

While the Rochester department of Commerce seeks to exploit the pocketbooks of its citizens, progressive cities seek to lessen the pressure on them by bringing in new industries which not only add to the population but help spread the tax burden.

The handful of industries which have settled in Rochester in the past decade is a civic disgrace and unless something is done to take Rochester off the list of "closed cities" our population will continue to lag and decrease, and our tax burden continue to increase.

We notice that the local press continues to editorialize on tax reduction—of course they are talking about national taxes. To make up your mind fellows.

It's the same newspapers that are now crying out for the federal government to slash income taxes who a short while ago predicted national bankruptcy if Mr. Roosevelt kept on increasing the national debt.

They recommended as the only sound policy a balanced budget and immediate reduction of the national debt. Now they just want taxes reduced and are quite unmindful of the fact that with a tax slash the dear old astronomical federal debt is going to be just as big as ever.

the Dewey bill empowers, should be used.

Mayor Costello knowing full well just as Mr. Dewey did, that levying nuisance taxes on restaurant checks, taxi cabs, movies, hotel rooms and vending machines won't pay the bill, he intends that his political party use the citizens committee as a means of ducking the responsibility for levying a sales tax. A politician's job is to conceal responsibility as well as taxes. A sales tax is a daily reminder and people reminded too often of taxes are apt to tire of it and vote for the other side.

Our own Mr. Broderick every bit as smart and perhaps some what smarter than Mr. Costello is quite apt to do the very same thing. To date no direct steps have been taken, but Mr. B. has made it plain that he has no powers in the matter—"it is up to the board of supervisors." All of which is most complimentary to the board.

Rochesterians do not have to be college graduates to know that whatever Senor Broderick tells the Board will be done. The handful of militant Democrats and their protests not with standing.

If Mr. Broderick chooses the Syracuse method it will be most interesting to find just what citizens he will select. After careful screening it is quite unlikely that local merchants will have enough votes to matter, nor will the Tax League or any one who ever registered Democratic.

Meanwhile you can get long odds that Broderick & Co. will do nothing in the matter until after this fall's political campaign.

BETTER BUS SERVICE—

THANK YOU riders and employees for your patience and co-operation!

You who have tried to get repair parts for your pre-war automobile (or anything else, for that matter!) will surely sympathize with what we're up against! Although our engineers continuously and persistently visit parts factories in order to speed things up, parts on order for more than a year are still undelivered. Meanwhile, despite the great job our mechanics are doing to keep old equipment in service, many buses continue to be tied up for lack of repair parts.

We're mighty sorry our present service leaves much to be desired but, as new buses and repair parts become more plentiful, the situation is sure to change for the better.

We sincerely appreciate your patience, and we're sure you'll continue to bear with us until things get back to normal.

ROCHESTER HAD MORE NEW BUSES IN 1946 THAN ANY OTHER CITY IN N. Y. STATE BUT IT'S STILL NOT ENOUGH!

Last month 30 more new buses arrived. (A partial shipment on our 2-year-old order). That's a lot of buses,—but still not enough for our replacement needs. So what?—So we'll keep on trying to get more!

SECOND CAR GOES INTO MEDICAL MOTOR SERVICE

Medical Motor Service of Rochester and Monroe County, a "red feather" chest supported agency, this week put a second car into service, transporting patients to and from hospital clinics, where they receive necessary medical treatment.

For many years Motor Service has owned and operated one car and for the past year has had extra, part-time, paid drivers who have used their own cars to carry on the work. Hereafter, the two cars now owned by the agency will be used daily to take patients to clinics that they would otherwise be unable to reach.

Statistics presented at the recent meeting of the board of directors, show that the demand for service has doubled in the past few months, a situation forecast by a survey committee last year. This subsequent expansion of service is made possible through the financial aid of the Community Chest, combined with the annual contributions from the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis and the Rochester Female Charitable Society which has supported Motor Service since its organization.

In the past six months, 223 trips have been made for polio patients alone. From December 1st to March 20th, a special car was operated mornings to take spastic children to the newly

p. m. Saturday, they will try to point out to local taxpayers that they are paying for something they aren't getting.
But local taxpayers are accustomed to that and are not expected to raise much of a fuss.

In their publicity, the league asks taxpayers if they realize they have "a hole in their pocket." They point out that Rochesterians are paying taxes which support public housing projects in Buffalo, Syracuse, New York City and all other major New York State cities, but that none of that money comes back to the city because Rochester has no housing authority with legal powers to apply for funds.

Official Rochester has always turned thumbs down on any authority to see that adequate housing is available in Rochester and even if the pleas of the lady voters are heeded, it is almost certain that the survey-plan-file-and-forget treatment will be given to any action that proposed body might take.

Truth of the matter is that public housing is a federal measure which was started under President Roosevelt to relieve the ever-mounting shortage of adequate homes in the nation. The project is being carried on under President Truman's administration. Of course both those estimable gentlemen are Democrats.

That in itself insures that official Rochester would not be in favor of the idea.

Now, after several years of delay, even Republican stalwarts are beginning to realize that private contractors can not erect houses fast enough and will not erect homes low enough in cost to provide for all. This fact has been recognized elsewhere in the country for more than a decade.

Rochester is at last catching on to the idea.

But that doesn't mean Rochester wants a housing authority. To relieve the stigma of "government planning" some bright minds have called for a "housing commission." But such a commission would be only an advisory body without legal powers to act.

And Rochester city fathers are famous for receiving advice. Acting upon that advice is another matter.

Each passing day more and more people, Republican and Democrat alike are awaking to the realization that proper housing is not rightly a political measure - it is a civic measure - a responsibility that rests on all people regardless of their political affiliations.

But try to tell that to those in control of the city today.

They'd rather retain their political prejudices than have adequate housing.

To date they've been eminently successful. Rochester is still safely Republican. And still blighted by insufficient, improper, overpriced housing. - (Ask anyone who has tried to buy a house lately).

The League of Women Voters defines a housing authority as "an official body of three to five civic-minded Roch-esterians appointed by the Mayor, working without pay.
The duties of such an authority, the league points out would be to:

1. Make an official survey of the living conditions in Rochester.
 2. Make plans for improving such conditions for all income groups.
 3. Plan slum clearance and public housing, if necessary, to meet the needs of low income families, which profit building or even building-at-cost cannot provide.
 4. The Rochester Housing Authority would act only in the interest of Rochester. Its plans would have to be approved by the City Planning Commission and the City Council.
- The aroused women suggest that taxpayers write to or telephone their city councilmen and ask them to "sew up that hole in the taxpayer's pocket."

'SCHEHERAZADE' MOVES TO REGENT SCREEN

The romantic Technicolor film "Song of Scheherazade," mood yesterday to the Regent for a second week's showing, inspired by the immortal and colorful youth of Nicholas Rimsky-Korsakoff, famed composer, the tuneful extravaganza photographed against flaming backgrounds of Mediterranean splendor, dramatizes an exciting, heart-stirring episode in the swashbuckling, carefree life of the great Russian composer Yonne De Carlo, Brian Donlevy and Jean Pierre Aumont are co-starring in the film. "Song of India," and "Hymn to the Sun" are sung by Charles Kullman, Metropolitan Opera star, in his screen debut. Other music used for Miss De Carlo's ballets include Rimsky-Korsakoff's famed "Arabesque," "Caprice Espagnol," and the "Scheherazade." Tilly Losch, noted choreographer staged the ballets and other dances. Among the film's highlights is a fierce whip duel performed by Aumont and Philip Reed with "Bull Whips". The supporting cast includes Eve Arden, Philip Reed, Quallen.

"The Long Gray Line," dealing with the history of the United States Military Academy since its establishment in 1802, will be made by Paramount, with the approval and cooperation of Major General Maxwell D. Taylor, superintendent.

never had before. Macdonald Carey and Arleen Whelan are also very much involved in the reportedly hilarious experiment. Paulette is seen as "Captain Lonelyhearts," the Dorothy Dix of the WAC, who returns from overseas to find her estranged husband, MacMurray, waiting on the pier with divorce papers for her to sign. Paulette had been away too long, and Arleen Whelan had moved in on Fred's heart. Paulette sets out to dislodge the enemy, with such usual feminine tricks as alluring black negligees reinforced by newly learned military tactics. Aided by Macdonald Carey, who would like to see Paulette free for personal reasons, she engaged Fred in a series of whacky maneuvers that are said to make "Suddenly It's Spring" one of the season's singiest comedies. "Suddenly It's Spring" is a reunion for the stars who teamed up previously to turn out the delightful comedy, "Standing Room Only" for MacMurray, his latest role is proclaimed as a riotous romp, his comedy ranging from sophistication to slapstick, including four of the pratfalls which are his singular specialty.

Spencer Tracy is to have the leading role in the film version of "State of the Union", the successful Broadway play, which has been running since November, 1945. The film is to be produced by Liberty Films, on the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer lot, for Metro release. The authors, Howard Lindsay and Russell Crouse, will receive 50 per cent of the profits, in addition to the $300,000 already received.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

Harold S. W. the Dragon slayer of the Department of Commerce finds his present quarry snorting resentful fire from each quivering nostril. Harold's last dragon (renaming Cobbs Hill Park) sent him hie-tailing to the hills or to wherever Harold hie-tails when he gets into a jam—and now the public market row has the commissioner treading gingerly forward then backward in the matter.

As the public is quite aware Mr. MacFarlane is trying to give the produce people a lesson in geography. He says that they should be where they aint—which is way out yonder near the end of his subway line west. The public marketeers say they are doing just fine where they are and that is where they wish to stay.

The man with the initials has found that the substantial majority just as in the case of renaming Cobbs Hill Park to Veteran's Park, against him. The commissioner is fighting or so it seems, and he has a very good reason. He has to look after his baby—and his baby is definitely the subway which in case of relocating the public market would stand to benefit.

In spite of carefully worded releases on the subways traffic totals and small operating deficits the public sooner or later will have to be given the facts and—those facts will prove most unattractive, financially.

The run down condition of the stations should be obvious enough that all is not "beer and bagels" with our outdoor underground. It would cost thousands to put it in shape and for the sake of the financial statement no adequate sinking fund has been set up to take care of these repairs. We don't know what the excess rolling stock is carried on the subway balance sheet but it's an even bet no self-respecting junkman would give the commissioner ten cents on the dollar for it.

The subway is the Department of Commerce's number one headache and such brainstorms as the relocation of the public market are really only so much spicery. Temporary relief for the ailing subway which

O'Dwyer Dinner Opens Campaign

Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse

Mayor William O'Dwyer

The Mayor O'Dwyer dinner next Tuesday night will signal the opening of the election campaign of the Monroe County Democratic County Committee.

Mayor William O'Dwyer, New York, will be the principal speaker at the dinner to be held in Hotel Seneca. The affair has received state-wide publicity through announcement by the State Democratic Committee. The Gotham mayor will speak on state politics. It will be his first political speech since he presided as chairman at the State Democratic Convention in Albany last year.

He will be introduced by Democratic County Chairman Roy F. Bush who recently gained fame by hailing the New York mayor as "the next Governor of New York State."

Tickets for the Rochester dinner are listed at $7. On May 26 Mayor O'Dwyer will be given a testimonial dinner by the State Committee in the Commodore Hotel at $100 per plate.

Mrs. Chase Going Woodhouse, New London, Conn., executive director of the Women's Division of the Democratic National Committee, will share the speaking honors with Mayor O'Dwyer.

His Honor and Mrs. Woodhouse will get an earful of Western New York Democratic politics when they attend a reception to be given for them at 6:30 p. m. in Hotel Seneca. Members of the Democratic County Committee, Democratic State Chairman Paul E. Fitzpatrick, chairmen of upstate counties and other prominent Democrats have been invited.

John F. Curran will be toastmaster. Former Congressman James P. B. Duffy is chairman of the reception committee. Ernest J. (King) Mahoney is dinner chairman and Mrs. Anna May Rush, vicechairman of the county committee, co-chairman.

Mrs. Veronica Doran is in charge of tickets. More than 400 are expected to attend the dinner. Reservations should be made at once. (See O'DWYER Page 10)

Everybody Gives... Everybody Benefits COMMUNITY CHEST

Four thousand Community Chest volunteer canvassers are ready to start work on Rochester's 30th annual campaign. Its official opening is scheduled for next Monday.

The 1947 goal will be close to two million dollars—considerably above the $1,869,963 raised by the Chest in 1946. The increase has been dictated by the increased operating costs of the local "Red Feather" agencies, 46 agencies that, in-every other organization and every housewife, have seen sharp price rises during the past twelve months. Everything the agencies buy, food, soap, milk, fuel, linoleum, surgical instruments and anaesthetics comparable to those paid by industry to people of comparable skill and ability. Now the agencies use in large quantities—soap, for example—have more than doubled in price. The agencies, like nearly every other group of employers have been compelled to raise wages. Because they are non-profit organizations, the agencies have never had sufficient funds to pay their staffs wages comparable to those paid by industry to people of comparable skill and ability. Now the agencies use in large quantities—soap, for example—have more than doubled in price. The agencies, like nearly ev-

City Hall In Jitters Over Lack Of Houses

By JOE CASEY

If every city in the United States were as jittery over the prospects of having a public housing project "forced" upon it as is Rochester, the housing problem would be considerably lessened.

A survey of the housing situation in town will lead you right to that conclusion.

There's housing shortage here. Positively. But say what you will, it's nothing compared with that it is in most cities. The city fathers and real estate men and builders and leading institutions and business people are going all right now trying to produce living units. They're scrambling frantically to meet housing demands.

Why? In the first place, because it's their business, and business is good. In the second place, because they know that if they slacken their efforts for a minute—if they give various groups any sort of argumentative wedge—they'll have public housing dumped right into their laps. That they don't want for a minute.

From real estate men who have made nationwide surveys from persons who wave the flag of private enterprise to a fare thee well, comes the word that "Rochester is doing a better job in providing housing than virtually any city in the country."

By that, of course, is meant a better job through private in-

Sales Tax In County Leads To Confusion

Gov. Dewey's legislation establishes 57 different and separate administrative units and will create a confusion patchwork of special city and county taxes, according to Robert J. Menzie, executive secretary of the Citizens' Tax League of Rochester and Monroe County.

Known generally as a sales tax measure the bill actually allows six special county taxes for educational purposes and two for city general expense, Menzie asserted.

The retail sales tax item has assumed greater importance because of its possible revenue on a county basis, the other five county taxes are peanuts in comparison. The general increase in teacher salary schedules created this demand for more tax revenue. The state assumed part of this increase from surplus funds for the first year, assumes a part from general revenues in future years and leaves the balance to be financed by the localities. The permanent salary schedule is a mandated expenditure by the state. The much touted principle of home rule was invoked in allowing the counties to levy special taxes.

Unlike previous state mandated expenses, real estate escaped an additional load this time chiefly because, in the larger cities, the required amount of funds could not be raised within the 2% constitutional limitation on current expense. This limited current expense tax rate of $30.00 per

MOTHER'S DAY MAY 11-TH The one day — May 11th, is the day set aside to remember MOM. It's her day — and our chance to show how much we love her. Thrill her with a gift from EDWARDS. It no doubt is HER favorite store, so any gift bearing the Edwards label, will be doubly appreciated. Plan to spend a little time at EDWARDS. Gloves, for instance are always acceptable and Edwards have a wonderful selection. Take a peek in a pair of Mom's old gloves so you'll be sure and get the proper size. Call SHAFER CO. today Stone 18, and a bonded messenger will pick up your coat. Or if you feel that any repairing or remodeling must be done, drop into SHAFER CO. and talk it over with Mr. Shafer. BOND The little falls suit has taken New York by storm. Long sleeved and tailored it is worn everywhere. A wise investment 'cause you can wear it all summer. In black of course.

If you're on a diet, remember chicken is LOW in calories — but high in PROTEIN.

SPECIAL PRICE In my humble opinion, I don't think there's any feature as important to milady — as so rightly called "her crowning glory". You have seen women dressed "to the teeth", and if their hair is stringy, dull, and generally neglected, they look like a "frump". The most important step — is a GOOD PERMANENT plus the right hair-do — and of course conditioning of the noggin. At VIRGINIA'S BEAUTY SALON, at the present writing, you may have a GOOD PERMANENT for $7.50. Your choice of machine or machineless. A test curl of course, plus a shampoo and wave are included in this low price. Call Stone 346 today for appointment. 4th Floor, Present Bldg. Opposite Hotel Seneca.

BRIGHTON PLACE When you ask for BRIGHTON PLACE Homogenized Vitamin D MILK at your store, you now find this delicious milk in a handy new carton. You'll find a protected pouring lip. The carton is unbreakable, leak-proof, and is so easy to store in your refrigerator. But of course the easier simpler way to buy HOMOGENIZED VITAMIN D MILK is to have it delivered regularly to your door. Try their COTTAGE CHEESE, it's wonderful. The HEAVY CREAM, delicious and so handy to solve the ever present problem of dessert. Call Glenwood 144 today — BRIGHTON PLACE DAIRY — (Div. of G I C Corp.) 45 Fulton Ave.

Mother Does It Falmouth, Maine. — Sighting a large buck in the fields behind her home, Mrs. Ralph W. Luce, who just a few days before had returned home from the hospital where she had given birth to her fifth child, sent her eldest son, Ralph, 13, to shoot the animal. Changing her mind, she called him back to watch the sleeping baby and went out herself and bagged the 225-pound, eight-point deer.

She—"Daddy is so pleased to hear you are a poet."

He—"Fine. He likes poetry, then?"

She—"Not at all. But the last friend of mine he tried to throw out was an amateur boxer."

COUNTY LEGION TO GET FACTS ON ANTONELLI

The Monroe County American Legion at its convention in the Powers Hotel on June 21 will consider the removal of Amerigo Antonelli, war-time fire grenade and incendiary bomb manufacturer, from the federal prison at Lewisburg, Pa., to the Genesee Hospital. A special committee of the county legion, headed by Edward I. Christy, is investigating the matter. The committee reported to the County Committee meeting on Monday night that it had not completed its investigation. It stated it would have a full report for the convention. Antonelli, who has been in Genesee Hospital since April 4, was reported as resting "comfortably." His condition was said to be fair.

STEEL MAKING TO BE SCREENED AT MUSEUM HERE

Two spectacular movies will be shown at the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences on Sunday, at 3 p. m. "The Drama of Steel," traces the history of steel-making from the crude charcoal furnaces of the ancients to the modern blast and open-hearth furnaces of today. The picture portrays the "accidental" discovery of one of the earliest known methods of steel manufacture. The second moving picture, "Glimpses of Old Santa Fe," depicts in full color Indian pueblos, Indian harvest dances and the isolated Spanish-Indian mountains round about Santa Fe, New Mexico. A Zuni Pueblo Indian exhibit, which was recently completed, is on view in the Hall of Man on the second floor of the Museum. In this display one will see miniature reconstructions of houses and human figures against a painted landscape, depicting the many activities of Zuni home life. This diorama in rich color was authentically and accurately executed by museum artists, Jon Alexander and John B. Upham, under the scientific direction of Dr. William A. Ritchie, archeologist.

ED RANDALL'S Scene & Word

Don Diamond, Veteran Foods raconteur, is responsible for the following silly about two inmates of an insane asylum!

It seems that a group of social workers were making an inspection tour of the booby hatch, checking on the conditions of the cells and the general welfare of the loonies incarcerated therein.

They approached one cell in which sat an unfortunate individual. He was seated bolt upright in his chair, a dank lock of hair straggling down his forehead and his left hand thrust into his shirt front.

The leader of the group, a sanctimonious appearing lady spoke up and asked: "And what's your name, my good man?" "Napoleon," replied the wacky one.

"That's a very honored and respectable name," said the investigator. "Who gave it to you?"

"God gave it to me," was the reply.

Then came a voice from the next cell: "Oh, no I didn't!"

All of the recent publicity about teachers demanding more wages, marching on Albany, striking, etc. reminds me of the story about the inspector for the board of Education who was making his regular visit to a country school.

While making an inspection of the third grade room he became extremely provoked at the noise the unruly students were making in the next room. Angriily, he slammed out into the hall, opened the door of the room from which the unseemly noise was proceeding and grabbed one of the taller boys who seemed to be doing most of the talking.

He dragged the boy into the third grade room and stood him in a corner. "Now, then," he ordered. "Be silent and stand there." A few minutes later a small boy poked his head in the door and said: "Please, sir. May we have our teacher back?"

Observation: When a woman lowers her voice, it's a sign she wants something; when she raises it, it's a sign she didn't get it.

Want ad in Akron Beacon Journal: "LOST — teeth in ladies' room of Falls Tap Room, 2021 Front Street. Reward $10. Return to Tap Room." A China Clipperless, you might say.

Here's another silly classroom story:

It was examination time and one of the hopeful young students was looking long and thoughtfully at the second question on the paper, which read: "State the number of tons of coal shipped out of the United States in any given year." Suddenly the student's brow cleared, the beautiful light of comprehension flooded his features, and he wrote his answer: "1492 — none."

Advice to prospective used car buyers: If you are doubtful about the condition of the car you want to buy, take it to another used car dealer and ask him to buy it. Brother, he'll point out the defects, and how.

Then there is the sad little saga about an Irishman whom we'll call Pat O'Houlihan who had worked on tugboats in New York Harbor for more than fifty years. One day he fell overboard and was drowned. This regrettable incident brought about a very fine wake. Toasts were drunk to the deceased, the highest praise was given to his character and the widow was consoled by all and sundry.

During the proceedings, a neighbor of the grieving widow asked her: "Sure, and did Pat leave you well fixed?"

"That he did," was the reply. "Tis fifty thousand he's after leavin'-me."

The neighbor rolled her eyes heavenward. "Teh, teh, teh," she said. "Think of that. And him that couldn't read nor write."

"Yes, that's true," agreed the widow, shaking her head seriously. "nor swim."

WRNY TO AIR RED WING GAMES

Baseball broadcasts return to the Rochester airwaves in a limited way this summer after a lapse of several years. WRNY, Rochester's new station, announced this week that it would carry play-by-play accounts of the Red Wings' home opener and all Saturday afternoon games, home and away. First Saturday game is listed for this week with Newark opposing the Red Wings here.

The airings will be voiced by Add Penfield, WRNY sportscaster, under sponsorship of the Genesee Brewing Co. Home games will be given direct from the Norton Street ballyard and out of town tilts will be recreated via telegraph ticker accounts. Penfield, who does a daily sports stint for the same sponsor, is no newcomer to play-by-play sports broadcasts. Before coming to Rochester, he did several top flight grid games via national hookups and has done baseball and football over regional networks.

VETS WIN ROUND ONE IN FIGHT FOR RADIO RIGHTS

According to reports out of Washington this week the veterans seem to have the inside track in the competition for the establishment of still another Rochester radio station.

The FCC granted tentative approval to the Veterans Broadcasting Company to operate a standard-band station here at the same time denying an application for a similar station to a group of local business leaders known as the Rochester Broadcasting Company.

The company winning approval has thirty-eight stockholders, thirty-seven of which are veterans of World War II. Final briefs for both applicants will be necessary before the Federal Communications Commission makes its official decision.

William B. Maillefort, now head radio buyer for Compton Advertising Agency in New York City, is president of the Veterans' company. FCC said he plans to resign that position to become general manager of the new station which would operate at 5,000 watts and have unlimited operating hours.

Other officers are: Vice-president, John S. Houseknecht; secretary, Granter Neville; treasurer, Frederick T. Finucane.

RADIO SHORTS

LOMBARDO'S FAVORITE FIVE: On his MBS program each Monday night, Guy Lombardo features the five musical numbers most requested of him that week, which he plays in a medley called the "Lombardo Favorite Five." A recent survey reveals that the all-time "Favorite Five" of Lombardo's listeners are "Easter Parade," "A Pretty Girl is Like a Melody," "Stardust," "What Is This Thing Called Love?" and "Tea For Two."

HIGHEST HOOPERATING FOR FAITH: "Musical Courier," a leading publication in the musical world, devotes a picture spread and story to maestro Percy Faith of NBC's "Contented Hour" in its current issue. Faith is lauded both for his conducting and composing and is given credit for the program's great popularity. The magazine says, in part, "His program today enjoys the highest Hooper rating in its seven-year history and seemingly grows in favor with each passing show."

JACKIE KELK SOLVES IT: An oft-asked question these days is "Where is Glocca Morra?" Jackie Kelk, "Homer" on NBC's "Aldrich Family," has come up the most practical answer, "On the 'Hit Parade.'"

HIT PARADER PLAQUE FOR COMO: Perry Como has been voted "Radio's Top Male Singer" by Hit Parader Magazine. This is another in a long series of honors accorded to the baritone star of the NBC "Supper Club." The announcement of the award will be made in the forthcoming issue of the publication at which time Como will receive a plaque.

JACK BARRY'S NASAL ACADEMY: Page Mr. Ripley! Among the hobbies of Jack Barry, creator and co-creator of MBS' "Juvenile Jury," is the collecting of hankkerchiefs. Barry estimates that he has over 5,000 of all sizes, shapes and colors. He came by this hobby quite naturally. Before turning to radio, Jack and his father were partners in a hankkerchief manufacturing firm in Long Island.

SUPERMAN NIXES CIRCUS: Clayton Collyer, who plays the title role in the MBS Superman series, has declined an offer to tour with the Barnum and Bailey Ringling Bros.-Circus. Collyer smilingly explained that he prefers to confine his flying through the air to radio.

Bob Hope's films on schedule, so far, are "The Paleface," "Clown of Fortune," and most recent addition, "Caliph of Baghdad." Bob, by the way, has been invited to London to serve as master of ceremonies when the British hand out their best picture and performance awards on April 17.

Old-timers will probably be delighted to hear that some of Mack Sennett's old silent comedies are about to be re-issued, completely refurbished with sound and appropriate narration, in a series generally titled "Nickelodeon Chackles." When Larry and Steve pay a visit to the Teller ranch, they both are attracted to Rory (Alexis Smith).

Steve declares his interest in Rory, but she has fallen in love with Larry. Her love, however, is shaken with jealousy when she discovers that Daisy Otis (Peggy Khudsen) attractive wife of the town banker, is going to ride Larry's horse in the Range show. Rory's horse, after winning the jumping race becomes ill and Rory phones Larry for help. Larry, who is innoculating the Otis' cattle against anthrax, explains that it's more important to stop the spread of the disease than to take time out to treat one here, and the horse dies.

Rory feeling that Larry has let her down accepts Steve's proposal. Larry continues working on his anti-anthrax serum, but before he can perfect it, an epidemic breaks out and he himself becomes a victim. While watching Rory's reaction to Larry's illness, Steve realizes the mistake he almost made, as the film reaches a heart-warming climax.

Vivien Leigh is well on the road to health now and her first film since "Caesar and Cleopatra," during which her lung trouble developed will be "Anna Karenina," Greta Garbo's old star vehicle, for Alexander Ford. In going back to London Films, she rejoins the group that first discovered her.

FISH STORY GETS AWAY

Jack Ross, WHAM's news editor received a phone call the other day from a very anxious gentleman. It seemed that this man had been riding down University Ave. with a huge five pound fish in his arms. He was sitting on the back end of a truck and during the course of the bumpy ride down the avenue the fish bounced out of his arms into the street. Before he could stop the truck and retrace his steps to the spot where the fish had dropped, it had disappeared. He asked many of the pedestrians if they had seen it but all to no avail. He finally turned to the radio stations in an attempt to recover his fish. Jack readily agreed and was pleased that he now had a human interest story with a little different twist for his next newscast.

He tested the reactions of several of the other members of the announcing staff and they agreed that it was good, meanwhile suppressing an urge to laugh. But finally the truth was out and Jack was told that it was all a joke and that one of the other announcers was the guilty party and there wasn't any missing fish.

Needless to say Jack is ever more cautious now when he answers the phone and takes a story.

A number of service men have dropped government insurance and plan to take another policy when circumstances demand. They might look into improvements recently made in service insurance policy and also into proper ways to reopen their insurance with the government.

Reverse

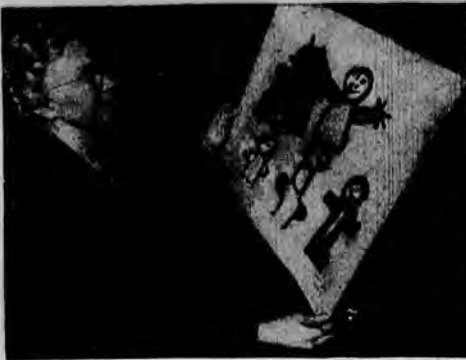

During the Sunday morning sermon a baby began to cry at the top of its voice, and its mother carried it toward the door.

"Stop!" said the minister. "Your baby is not disturbing me."

The mother turned toward the pulpit and addressed the preacher:

"Oh, he ain't, ain't he? Well, you are disturbin' him."

Philadelphia has been the capital of the country under three different governments, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica. It was the capital of the United Colonies until 1781, capital of the United States under the Articles of Confederation from 1781 to 1789, and under the Constitution from 1790 to 1800.

MOTHER OF THE YEAR . . . Mrs. Frederick G. Murray, 72, Cedar Rapids, Ia., named the American Mother of 1947, scans the art work of one of her ten grandchildren, Janet Fiske, Washington, D. C. The youngster's picture tells the story of "the old woman who lived in the shoe." Mrs. Murray, whose husband is a practicing physician, has been active in child welfare work. She is the mother of five children.

SOFTBALL AT NIGHT

The Higbie Tuesday and Thursday night softball circuits will go "under lights". Higbie league organizer announced.

The circuit, boasting the strongest combination of independent clubs since the pre-war days of the Daw team, will use the new Russer field facilities.

The league will consist of twelve teams with a triple header under lights and the remainder on city diamonds. Other wheels under near completion are the Higbie Industrial, Monday and Wednesday nites, and Sunday morning circuits.

Managers interested in obtaining available franchises in one or more of the leagues are urged to contact the league headquarters, 37 St. Paul St. or call "Chuck" Higbie at Stone 3133.

Military Strategy
War consciousness and a close adherence to the spirit of military discipline was evidenced in our younger generation the other day when an officer in Times Square approached a bootblack for a shine. The youngster hurriedly fished out a grimy booklet from his pocket, studied the military insignia pictured therein, then confidently and briskly saluted. "Hi, Major; yes sir, shine coming right up!"

Letters to Editor...

Editor, Rochester Sun,

It is too bad that liberal instructors in many of our Colleges, liberal newspaper editors and reporters and liberal Radio commentators are gradually being eliminated. The latest one to go is William R. Shirer a noted news commentator and author whose experience as a war correspondent made him well qualified to tell the truth about European affairs and about those in this country who see a communist behind every ash barrel and who are not so much interested in Humanity as they are in power politics and world trade.

It would be quite refreshing if this Country or should I say those who are at present running this Country would be consistent once in a while. They preach democracy and practice dictatorship. They believe in Christianity but allow those to rule who worship Mammon. There are certain Religious groups that make no bones about their willingness to fight Russia and there are other Religious groups who just sit and say nothing and do nothing while this mad race toward death goes on knowing full well that sins of omission are more deadly than sins of commission.

We see our State Department being used as a cats paw by those whose interests are purely mercenary and we see our Diplomats cow-towing to Fascists and Nazis whose hands are smeared with the blood of innocent victims. We are preparing to give money to Turkey that thieving, marauding Country that has never cared for the rights of others and has made war on little Armenia time and time again and never lifted a finger to help the Allies during the last war.

While England signs a forty to fifty year non aggression pact with Russia we stick our necks out for a war with Russia by taking over England's commitments in Greece to the tune of $250-million. London Banks and British bond holders hold $400-million worth of Greek bonds and they expect to get $32,780,000 interest on these bonds out of our $250-million loan. All together $50,000,000 will be used out of our loan to bolster Greek credit abroad.

We have brought Nazi Scientists into this Country to help make more deadly implements of war while we talk peace.

Vivien Leigh has been signed by Alexander Korda to appear in an English film version of Tolstoy's "Anna Karenina" in 1935. This story has been filmed twice in Hollywood—as a silent picture in 1915 and with sound in 1935.

QUIZ

Solve the riddle about two trouser suits

- Where are they?
Very definitely, at Bond's. Before the war, Bond was the world's largest maker and seller of Two Trouser Suits. You'll find us right back in the driver's seat.
- Why keep it secret?
Frankly, we didn't dare talk. The demand for Two Trouser Suits is terrific. But the 210 tailoring operations we put into your suit couldn't be rushed. We'd rather show you one good suit than a dozen not so good.
- What about sizes?
Plenty! We're now making Two Trouser Suits in 81 different sizes and models. So if you're hard to fit, make Bond's your first stop. If your correct size should be temporarily missing, our manager will get it for you in a hurry.
- How about quality?
Worsteds are what you want. And worsteds are what you'll get. Handsomely styled, firm long-wearing worsteds from America's topflight weavers. They're still rare as crown jewels—but Bond has 'em!
- How much?
Bond prices stand firm as Old Hickory—$4.75 to 47.75. Your extra trousers are down at rock-bottom, too—9.95 to 12.95. Put 'em together for a sensibly priced Two Trouser Suit that'll keep you good company a long time.

RECORD CROWD PREDICTED FOR POLICE BALL

Patrons of the annual Rochester Spring Police Ball at the New York State Armory on Monday night next are scheduled to see one of the greatest dance throngs in Rochester's history.

That's on the word of Sgt. Arthur Doyle, treasurer of the Rochester Police Benevolent Association Fund, who has been in charge of ticket sales and knows whereof he speaks. Ticket sales up to this week, Doyle said yesterday, have been the largest in the association's history. And the last rush of ticket buying over this weekend still is in prospect.

It was at one of the last police balls before the advent of World War II forced the policemen out of the Armory, that Tommy Dorsey and his band entertained, and for months afterward declared far and wide that the crowd at the Rochester ball — it was the Police Valentine Ball in those days — was the largest he ever played before.

This year the policemen will have Tex Beneke and the original Glenn Miller Band, with Ginny O'Connor, vocalist, numerous instrumental soloists and the Mello Larks Quartet as the major attraction. Also no mean attraction, according to the way police said the ticket sales jumped after his selection, is Bill Flanagan and his band, the comparatively young Rochester 14-piece organization that was selected as the local band to spell off Tex Beneke and his Miller experts. The dance music addicts want to see what it is that within less than a year skyrocketed Flanagan's outfit to the point where it was selected for Rochester's largest annual dance event. Featured vocalist with the Flanagan Band is Gracie Baumann.

All proceeds from the ball will go into the Police Association's Benevolent Fund. Because it is virtually impossible for policemen to obtain insurance at rates they can pay because of their hazardous occupation, the fund was set up. It pays $2,000 to the widow or family of each policeman who dies. Last year there were 17 deaths in the organization, which meant a total outlay from the fund of $34,000.

Something new for the "jam session" addicts will be introduced at the Police Ball this year. Capt. Ed Fisher, chairman of the ball committee has announced that prior to the of-

Official start of the ball at 9 p. m. when Tex Beneke and the Glenn Miller Band will get in its first lick, a full hour "jam session" will be held, starting at 8 o'clock Monday night, with Bill Flanagan and his band presiding.

Carries B-B Shot In Jaw For 25 Years

Catskill, N. Y. — An X-ray made in a dentist's office revealed that Sergt. Paul Kelly, of the Police Department, had a piece of metal in his jaw. After probing, the dentist removed a B-B shot. While Kelly couldn't remember ever having been shot, his brother recalled that Paul had gotten in the way of a B-B shot when they were playing "cops and robbers" more than 25 years ago.

Death Ends 50-Year Tryst Of Irishmen

Reading, Pa. — For probably the last time, Irish melodies were played on St. Patrick's Day at midnight over the grave of Tom Hannahoe. Alvah O. Schaeffer, a former church organist, who had kept his rendezvous at the grave of his friend since 1898, died on March 10th, just one week before his fiftieth tryst to the lonely Nevversink Mountain Cemetery.

CHEST . . .

led workers leave, and go where wages are higher. This isn't a local situation. Red Feather agencies in other cities have been confronted with the same problem. As a result there is a nation-wide shortage of nurses, case workers, therapists, youth leaders, and other essential employees.

In addition to the 46 local Red Feather agencies, five nation-wide appeals have been joined to the Community Chest this year; the National USO American Cancer Society, the "Marching Forward" program of the Salvation Army, the World Reconstruction Funds, the YMCA and of the YWCA. Otherwise each of these five organizations would have conducted its own separate campaign in Rochester and Monroe County during 1947.

The local Red Feather units have given direct service to a record number of individuals and families this year; about 160,000 people have been assisted, according to the agencies' annual reports.

"That 160,000 people represent a fairly sizeable portion of the total population of Rochester and Monroe County," Raymond N. Ball, Community Chest president, said. "The larger share of this 160,000 used the Chest hospitals, the Visiting Nurses, or other Red Feather health agencies, or were members of the Red Feather youth agencies.

"It's literally true, as the 1947 Community Chest slogan says, that 'Everybody Benefits' from the services of the Chest agencies. Nobody can fail to benefit as health agencies care for the sick and prevent illness; and everybody is benefited as the youth agencies develop citizenship and prevent delinquency.

"Everybody benefits when family counseling agencies keep families from breaking up, and when homeless children are given a good new home and given their chance to develop into healthy, useful citizens. They benefit, everybody benefits.

"The majority of the Chest agencies serve not the city alone, but reach out into the whole county. That's why we have a County Division."

Give Them Credit For Courage

Galesburg, Ill. — Three men — strangers in town, no doubt, stole a car from in front of the home of Policeman Henry Bocock and cracked it up at the home of Policeman C. E. Bertiaux. Both officers were in the squad car which recovered the automobile, but the thieves escaped.

REHEARSAL TOO REALISTIC
Ogden, Utah. — La Moine Wall's part in the second play called for him to be "knocked out" in a fight. During a rehearsal, La Moine didn't get up when the curtain fell. Examination showed that he had bumped his head a little too hard when he fell to the floor, but first-aid treatment brought him around.

7 Day Cruise

The popular seven-day, all-expense Great Lakes cruises of the Canada Steamship Lines across Lakes Huron and Superior, from Detroit to Duluth will start June 21, according to an announcement of C. C. Bonter, passenger traffic manager. Vacationists find the trips a cool, relaxing, leisurely mode of travel, and a zestful way to spend a week's vacation. They cruise two of America's mighty inland waters for 1600 miles through territory teeming with historic and scenic attractions. Here is the land of Hiawatha and along these routes Champlain, La Salle, Pere Marquette and other early American explorers pushed back the unknown and paved the way for settlers. Here, too, is Superior's wondrous "Sleeping Giant" and the man-made locks of the "Soo" through which ships are shuttled into lake Superior. More maritime traffic is funneled through the "Soo" than the combined tonnage of the Panama and Suez Canals together. Stops are made at Sarnia, the "Soo", Fort William and Port Arthur, and time ashore is arranged for sightseeing, golf swimming and other sports. Cruise Directors add to the comfort and pleasure of the trip.

NARROW "WALK"
Springfield, Mo. — When an 8-year-old boy walked through an open window into the second-floor office of the Sheriff, Deputy Sheriff Troy Garrison stared at him in amazement. The boy's "walkway" was a six-inch ledge around the building just below the second floor windows. The lad was kept in the juvenile jail a half hour "just to frighten him a little."

GLASS TOO CLEAR
Salem, Mass. — A window-washer polished up the glass door to Salem tobacco shop so carefully that a customer, Henry L. Wiley, of Middleton, walked right through the plate glass and landed in the hospital with severe cuts in his legs. He told police he thought the door was open.

MOTHER SAVES BABY

—IN WELL
Reeds Spring, Mo. — When her 17-month-old baby son tumbled into a cistern containing eight feet of water, Mrs. Luther Fly fastened a rope to the top of the cistern and let herself down to the frigid water and grasped the child. She braced herself against the walls, clung to the rope with one hand and held her baby with the other until her husband arrived some three hours later.

CITY HALL . . .

dustry—without public housing projects. Since the first of the year the Mayor's Advisory Housing Committee and the city administration, under the supervision in this case of Real Estate Advisor Harry P. Ruppert, have pushed several housing projects into the open, have several others still in the blueprint stage but not too far from realization.

The key to the situation, according to builders, is the city's tax foreclosure program which has made available thousands of lots at low prices. Without high priced land to boost their operation costs even higher than usual, builders have been able to go ahead with their construction on a large-scale basis.

The prospects for 1947 are for nearly 1,000 new housing units in the city, many of them of the rental variety, according to C. Storrs Barrows, chairman of the Mayor's committee and that, if accomplished should take the edge off the shortage to a great extent.

It's no secret that the state-sponsored project at Lyell Avenue hasn't been any great shakes so far as the city is concerned.

tions have been received from several Western New York counties. Mrs. Woodhouse will arrive by plane. She will be met at the Airport by former Congressman George F. Rogers and Mrs. Rush Rogers served with Mrs. Woodhouse in the 79th Congress. She is a former professor of economics at Connecticut College and taught at Smith College, Columbia University, University of Texas and University of Iowa. She is active in League of Women Voters, American Association of University Women and American Home Economics Association.

One thing which has caused considerable comment recently is the criticism roused by the proposed construction of a garden-type layout for 180 families at Hillside Avenue and Winton Road South.

Mrs. Carolyn Cool, director of the Serice Housing Bureau has pointed out that "while the city is obviously in need of housing—and while this project would be an added help to meet the shortage—there is concerted opposition to it." The opposition has come from residents in the neighborhood who claim the project would cause their property to lose value.

Treasurers In The Air?

NEW YORK. — If you complain a lot about broadcasting, put the blame squarely on your own bad radio habits. Revise old listening habits, respecting radio as a source of pleasure and learning, and you will no longer have cause for complaint.

Such is the thesis of an article called "Treasurers in the Air?" by Margaret Cathbert, NBC Director of programs for women and children, in the April issue of Today's Woman Magazine. For the improvement of listening habits, Miss Cathbert offers 15 "commandments." Here are a few:

Don't concentrate on one type of program lest your point of view be restricted. Plan your work so you are free to listen attentively to worthwhile programs. Make definite engagements with radio and don't let visitors break those engagements; rather, invite your guests to join you, or, better still, start a small listening group to provoke discussion. Follow up programs of interest with special reading; many shows, such as "World's Great Novels," "Home Is What You Make It" and "Chicago Round Table," issue special handbooks concerning the broadcasts. Don't let radio habits dictate your tastes, but revise your listening schedule when old interests wane and new ones redevelop.

"Since the financial cost of radio listening is negligible, we tend to take indiscriminately what comes, forgetting that there is a personal cost involved," Miss Cathbert says. "That cost is TIME. A grab-bag listener short-changes herself on time, but the intelligent listener makes listening time pay dividends."

LAW-ABIDING CONVICT.

Salt Lake City. — After sentencing a man to prison, Judge Will L. Hoyt, of Nephi, Utah, with the view of saving the state some transportation expense, put the defendant on his honor to report to the prison 90 miles away. The prisoner hitchhiked the distance and showed up at the prison main gate lugging a suitcase and a guitar.

Two Theories In Conflict?

"Here's an old order," said the mail order clerk. "What is it?" inquired the assistant to the auditor. "A woman writes in for a book on child psychology," replied the mail order clerk, "and a hair prush with a good stout handle."

sooner or later must undergo either a major operation — or die an expensive death.

Washington has taken a leaf from Tom Dewey's book. Noting how successfully the governor transferred the problem of raising the money for school teacher's salaries from the state to the towns and cities Congress will undertake to dispose of one of their problems in like manner.
Rent controls has been a most perplexing to Congress — it's the sort of thing that could lose a lot of votes in '48. Hence the federal master-minds will devise a law shifting the responsibility (and the blame) to the mayors of the various cities.
Under the new law local officials if they wish can eliminate rent controls. Furthermore new construction will be exempt from such control.
With the results of OPA lifting on food prices a daily reminder to the public, the prospect of rent control abolition is a grim spectre to citizen and politician alike.
When this comes to pass we

He Was Lucky
As she eyed her small son more in anger than in sorrow, Mrs. Jones said:
"Fighting again! You naughty boy! Look at the state you're in—holes in your stockings and your suit all tattered and torn. Now I'll have to buy you a new suit!"
Tommy raised his innocent young eyes to hers as he replied:
"But, mummy, I think Freddy's mother will have to buy a new boy!"

thousand of assessed valuation, in these larger cities is now being absorbed by general operating expenses. The assessed valuation of real estate could, of course, be raised. That was done in the 1920's after the last war when inflation and rising prices necessitated the securing of more revenues. The experience of that period, however, was not too pleasing. Excessive assessed valuations had to be reduced when the depression set in and just at the time when more money was needed than ever before.
"If more funds are needed the Tax League advocates a statewide retail sales tax for uniformity of tax, avoidance of a confusing patchwork of tax setups, economy in administration, and elimination of the establishment of trade barriers along the county lines. The Tax League further advocates that this statewide sales tax should be returned to the counties on the basis of the amount collected. On any other basis of distribution the wealthier counties contribute generously to the so-called poorer counties in the state.
"Collection of such taxes on a local basis however does have one advantage in that it is strictly a nuisance tax. It would be administered locally where the administrative powers are closer to the people. There is the chance that this nuisance value might hasten the repeal as soon as conditions might warrant.

"In any case if additional expense is to be assumed the money must first be raised by taxation from some source.
"Determination of the necessity and the amount of a special county tax as permitted by this measure rests in the requirements of the ONE poorest school district out of the 111 districts of the state if only one district is in financial difficulty a special county wide tax might be necessary regardless of the needs of the remaining districts.
"Erie County has already passed a 1% sales tax. Genesee County (Batavia) has indicated that no county tax will be instituted as have several of the Southern Tier counties. The law was passed in Albany. It can also be repealed there, which may possibly happen if sufficient objection is forthcoming from county administrations in favor of some state wide measure of tax to produce the needed revenues."

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

The hardest thing to find in the Seneca Hotel on Tuesday night was a Republican. Never in Rochester political history were there so many banquet-going Democrats under one roof and never before for such an affair has so much cash rolled into the local Democratic war chest.

There was a hard-working committee to put the O'Dwyer Dinner across but the principal credit has to be given to leader Roy Bush. The dazzling success of the affair put the shindigs of his predecessors strictly in the amateur class.

A surprisingly large number of Rochesterians attended the Early Bird Breakfast of the Rochester Convention and Publicity Bureau Monday morning. Whether they were lured there because it was a good breakfast for free, or because of their loyalty to Allan Doyle and his fine work was not determined.

The election of officers was on the agenda and the list of nominees was read by Postmaster Donald Dailey, a member of the nominating caucus. The nominees were unanimously elected. Retiring president Hallauer succinctly observed "That this was probably the first time in history that former Democratic leader Dailey ever proposed a slate that was elected without a dissenting vote."

Mr. Hallauer might have added that it was the first time a Democrat ever named a solid Republican ticket.

Our Commerce Department Commissioner must have been in Jake Turner's fish market last week — no other place but at Prices could Harold S. W. have found such a large red herring. Mr. MacFarlin proceeded to use his piscatorial prize to drag across the pages of the daily press and another the smell of the Public Market removal row.

Of course the ruddy herring was called "MacFarlin Assails Threatened Loss of Airport Plan." The press intimated that this was very serious and that Harold would fight it out with Congress and come out victorious and it went on and on for a whole column. Mr. MacFarlin managed to keep the finny tid-

Sun's Expose Of Antonelli Release Brings Action

By ORVILLE ALLEN

This week it looked as though Amerigo Antonelli, convicted munitions maker might be on his way back to federal prison to complete his 2 year term for conspiracy against the government.

He was convicted in 1944 on the conspiracy charge in connection with the manufacture of alleged defective incendiary grenades. After several appeals in his behalf to various courts had been denied he finally began serving his sentence last November. But on April 4, he was quietly released to the Genesee Hospital here for treatment of a "heart ailment."

Quietly released, that is, until The Sun learned the facts concerning "The Strange Case of Antonelli." The Sun questioned local and federal authorities and revealed the information it had gained. Then things began to happen:

The American Legion appointed a committee to investigate Antonelli's release;

Veterans by the score wrote letters to The Sun, the daily papers and Genesee Hospital authorities condemning Antonelli's release;

The Veterans of Foreign Wars passed a resolution condemning Attorney General Tom Clark's action in ordering Antonelli's release;

William J. Maloney, Antonelli's Rochester attorney addressed a letter to The Sun finding it "necessary to call your attention to certain laws against libel and defamation of character which would guide you in your publication." Maloney's letter described Antonelli's crime as "minor", but ad-

CHEST DRIVE POISED FOR STRETCH DRIVE

Community Chest campaigners were confident of passing the million dollar mark this noon thus completing their task. Their goal is $1,955,678 by Monday night.

Yesterday they reported $48,170 in pledges to bring the total to $837,185 or 42.8 percent of their goal. James W. Gray led his individual subscriber division to the top of the pack reporting a total of 55.5 percent of the division's goal. Close on their heels was the county division, led by Sheriff Al Skinner, with 55.2 percent of goal attained.

The Special Committee has a quota of over a million dollars; it needs to get sizeable increases over 1946 giving to reach it; and the $500-and-over givers are responding to the Chest's pleas for increased contributions. So far, the Special Committee has reported gifts running 10 percent or better ahead of last year.

In the Individual Subscriber Division, two teams set an all-time record by reporting 100 percent of their quotas on Tuesday, at the first report meeting of the week. Captains of these teams were Jacob S. Hollander, now working in his 29th successive Chest campaign, superintendent of the Jewish Children's Home; and E. M. (Tim) Hanley, with a team made up largely of Delco Appliance Division employes, a freshman captain.

The County Division also got away to a fast start on the first day, with six towns and villages reaching their quotas; Henletta was ahead of the pack with 100 percent, and

Kodak Reveals Results Of Atom Bomb Tests

Eastman Kodak revealed today that tests for radio-activity made by the company for six days following the aerial atom bomb blast at Bikini last July showed no significant dissemination of radioactive dust.

The tests were described as "spot checks" rather than exhaustive scientific research. They were conducted to learn possible effects of the bomb's radioactive fission products on the photographic industry and showed such low values as to be classified "negative," the company stated.

The tests were made at various Kodak branches in the United States and the Pacific area including Chicago, San Francisco, Hollywood, Honolulu, Melbourne and Manila.

Cotton samples in open film containers were set out to collect dust from the air on July 1 date of the Bikini air explosion, the company explained.

City - Paid Canvassers Try To Sell 'Market'

Is the city conducting an impartial survey among northwest area residents to learn whether or not they want the public market located out on the fringes of the city as suggested by Commerce Commissioner Harold S. W. MacFarlin?

Or is the city's public relations bureau sending out city-paid emissaries to try to "convert" recalcitrant residents who are presently opposed to the move, already condemned by retail and wholesale food merchants, farmers and food commission brokers?

Northwestern residents would like to know the answer. They think it must be the latter.

This week a young lady representing herself as from the "city public relations bureau" has been making a canvass of homes in the northwest area asking whether or not the people in the section would or would not like to have the public market relocated in the MacFarlin proposed Mt. Read Blvd. Ridgeway Ave. site.

Several of those interviewed by the young lady report that when they voiced objections to moving the market the interviewer attempted to "sell" the site to them — pointing out all the alleged advantages the new site is supposed to have. One resident declared that "if the city wants to spend money on something, let it build houses for the unhouseed and the inadequately housed." This reports the resident, precipitated a lecture on the merits of privately-

Grant's Gossip

We were at the point of putting our winter merchandise back on the counter when Spring broke forth this week and people began coming into our store without their fur coats. Grant's is ready for Spring Ready with the greatest array of needs for home and garden and you, it has ever been their good fortune to offer quantities of much wanted and much needed items in every department . . . and at prices that you wouldn't believe possible unless you are a regular Grant customer.

Everywhere it's FIX UP week and if there is a shabby spot here and there in your house, we have just what you're looking for. Outside white house paint @ $4.89 per gallon, and big brushes, medium brushes and little brushes to apply it with, at prices that begin as low as 35 cents. If you are a garden expert or just a "putterer around" GRANT'S garden shop has what it takes to make you happy and your grounds beautiful. There are seeds, vegetable, flower and grass, — and the fertilizer to make 'em grow. Then there are the tools you need to get 'em started — rakes, spades, trowels, hoes, etc. . . . Of course after it's all up and done, we have what you need for that . . . lawn mowers, pruning shears, cultivators of all types and descriptions. . . . They can all be bought on GRANT'S Easy Payment Plan if you wish. . . .

We have a buyer in our basement who hasn't gotten over war time habits. He and the weather put a big scowl on the boss's face where the smile should be. . . . Those wonderful rose bushes were the cause. Our happy buyer was successful in making a huge purchase of these fine bushes from the world famous Maxwell Bowden Nurseries at Geneva, N. Y., and all would have been just dandy if Spring hadn't been a month late. Folks haven't been thinking much about planting with snow still on the ground. So I mean we have roses, shrubs and hundreds of 'em — originally we considered them a bargain at 59 cents. The boss said that we had to move them out fast — so we have marked them at 49 cents and we know that there is no better value in garden beautification than these. . . . It's not to cost us a lot of money but we expect that we will make a lot of customer — friends doing it. . . . Betty the Budget Buying lady from our way recommends comparative shopping on these Grant values. She says they can't be beat anywhere. . . . for instance. . . .

We have WINDOW SCREENING enough to keep all the mosquitoes in New Jersey out of your home. . . . It's the quality bronze type 24" to 36" and priced way down at 26 to 39 cents a lineal foot. . . . The ordinary WINDOW SCREENS we have at this extraordinary low price. . . . 69 cents. . . . For cool and peaceful sleeping this summer we have just received a shipment of those highly desirable and hard-to-get muslin SHEETS in the 81 x 108 size. These fine count muslins shouldn't last long at $2.85. . . . yep, we have the PILLOW CASES too, 42" x 36" and they are worth a lot more than 65 cents. . . . and if you want to fool the neighbor's children who have always swung your clothes line into bits we have the answer — it's WIRE CLOTHES LINE 25 ft. 14 cents, 50 ft. for 27 cents and a 100 ft. for only 37 cents. . . .

Although there are many places they want twice as much as we do, we are selling RAG RUGS 24"x48" for only 99c this week, yes, they're washable too. . . . and while we are on the subject of interior arts we have some mighty colorful WASTEBASKETS that see should get much more than 24 cents each for but that's our price. . . . Then there are TABLE LAMPS with gaily decorated bases, brass stands, you have seen them elsewhere for a lot more than our price of $4.47. . . .

For the more sordid chores of everyday living we have the latest thing in AUTOMATIC FLATIRONS, heavy enough for use but still light enough to make ironing almost a pleasure, they're $4.98 and worth more. . . . Just in case you're ready to put a few things away for the summer — don't forget MOTH BALLS AND MOTH FLAKES — that we have at two for 25 cents. . . .

Say are you one of those people who have to drag a teetery old chair around when you want to get something off the top shelf in the cupboard? It's mighty dangerous and totally unnecessary — we have A KITCHEN STEP STOOL sturdy as Joe Louis and with an attractive red leatherette top to brighten up your culinary department — we've reduced them this week from $3.99 to $2.27. Get one to solve your household mountain climbing problems. . . .

For the Sun tan addict and the backyard picnic fiends we have everything but the ants and horseflies. . . . Canvas covered beach chairs at $2.98 in very sporty patterns. . . . BEACH UMBRELLAS in case you want a little shade with your sun tanning. Ours are the snappy kind you see in the pictures taken of those lucky people who went south last winter. At $14.95 you can afford to make your backyard look like Palm Beach. . . . We have PICNIC GRILLS that are guaranteed to make the kind of fires that make poor steaks good and good steaks better. $4.19 is the price and last year we couldn't get 'em at all. . . . Then if you serve a little something with your outdoor suppers we have the PICNIC GRILLS that are guaranteed to make the kind of fires that make poor steaks good and good steaks better. $4.19 is the price and last year we couldn't get 'em at all. . . . Then if you serve a little something with your outdoor suppers we have the PICNIC GRILLS that are guaranteed to make the kind of fires that make poor steaks good and good steaks better. $4.19 is the price and last year we couldn't get 'em at all. . . .

constructed housing and a denunciation of a public housing authority in Rochester.

Another point the interviewer-saleslady is stressing is that freight movement off the railroads to the market via the subway will cost no more time nor money than the present public market. But this fact is also disputed by food traffic experts.

Residents as far away from the proposed market site as Lakeview Pk. are being interviewed. And many are protesting that it is a misuse of taxpayers' money to send out city employees to try to "sell" the proposition to those opposed to it — even if it is Commissioner MacFarlin's currently pet brain-storm.

TAYLOR EMPLOYEES READY MUSICAL COMEDY

Employees and friends of Taylor Instrument Companies are going to get a new version of their concern's operations tonight and tomorrow night. But it will all be in fun. The demonstration of Taylor technique is an original musical comedy "Hooray, A Holiday," which will be staged in the Auditorium Theatre by the Taylor Fellowship Club.

The book was written by George Caswell, a member of the club, and the 20 original songs were penned by Esther Cook.

The play has special appeal for Taylor people because it is built around the company, its products and personnel.

Direction of the play will be in the hands of George Caswell and Jay H. Jeffries, well known in the Community Player circles. Edmund King is general music chairman and the Taylor chorus of 40 voices will be under the direction of Theodore C. Hollenbach.

ANNUAL MEETING AND TEA SET BY MOTOR SERVICE

To acquaint members and friends with the work done in the community by Medical Motor Service of Rochester and Monroe County, an annual meeting and tea will be given by the board of directors next Tuesday afternoon at the new A.A.U.W. clubhouse, 494 East Ave.

Mrs. Vilas M. Swan, president of the board, will open the business meeting at 3:30. Annual reports will be made by officers and committee chairman. Mrs. Philip O. Viall, driver of one of the two cars owned and operated by Medical Motor Service, will speak on the transportation furnished throughout the year.

Chief function of the organization is to provide free transportation for ambulatory patients, both adult and children, to and from hospital clinics or other places where they can obtain necessary medical care. This service, being based on need, is available only to those patients whose physical disabilities make travel by bus an extreme hardship or an impossibility, who cannot afford taxi fare and who have no other means of reaching the clinics. Most requests are cleared through the medical social workers at the hospitals.

Tuesday's meeting will mark conclusion of the first year in which Medical Motor Service has been a participating agency of the Community Chest. Almost twice as many trips were made in the past fiscal year as in the previous year. A special car was added in December to take youngsters to and from the new Cerebral Palsy Center on East Ave.

Mrs. Harold M. Kingston has been appointed general chairman of the tea which will follow the business session.

NO. 37 PTA TO INSTALL OFFICERS

New officers of No. 37 school PTA were scheduled for installation this afternoon at 1:30 under the direction of Mrs. F. Mory Champney. Miss Anna Kuhn, of the Parent Education and Child Development department of the Board of Education was to speak on "Considering the Family."

Entertainment by the school's kindergartners was also on the schedule.

The sad fact remains that children seem to inherit the vices of their parents rather than their virtues.

17TH WARD WOMEN DEMOCRATS TO BANQUET

Democratic Women of the 17th ward organization will gather in Powers Hotel Empire Room Saturday evening for their annual banquet at 8:30 p. m. Following the dinner Mrs. Beatrice Jacob will offer a special musical program. Arrangements for the dinner have been made by Mrs. Frances Stitts, chairman and Mrs. Minnie Ades, co-chairman.

COPPER COFFERS REPLENISHED — More than 10,000 dancers and onlookers overflowed the Main St. Armory Monday evening for the annual Police Ball. Funds will be used for the Police Benevolent Fund which last year paid out $34,000 to widows of deceased policemen. One of the highlights of the evening was the discovery of a singing star within the bluecoats' ranks. Frank (Butch) Minkau a member of the Traffic Division sang two numbers to the thunderous applause of the huge crowd. His buddies are now trying to get him to go on the stage.

TO NAME OFFICERS — New officers will be nominated tomorrow evening by the Degree of Pocahontas, Starlight Council 302, at a meeting scheduled for 7:30 p. m. An entertainment program will follow the business session which is under the direction of Jennie Simmons.

mitted that his client had been handed the maximum sentence for the crime.

Attorney General Tom Clark, who originally signed the release order has now ordered a reexamination of Antonelli and reported he would be returned to Lewisburg Federal Prison if his condition warranted such a move.

Even the daily newspapers have, at long last, decided to look into the case.

This week, more than a month after Antonelli's release, The Times-Union sent a reporter down to Washington who was able to confirm the information earlier revealed by the Sun. The Times-Union even elicited the information that former Congressman Joseph O'Brien had interceded for Antonelli in the capitol. This The Sun revealed last month.

Attorney General Clark declared Antonelli was paying his own expenses while he is in the hospital. He said the convicted munitions maker was reported to be suffering from a serious heart ailment and was growing progressively worse during his confinement in the prison hospital. Clark said Antonelli was released because "the government does not intend to impose death penalties on persons not so convicted. Antonelli's sentence should not be turned into a death penalty."

But many observers are wondering what would have happened to Antonelli had he been unable to pay for his own care in a public hospital.

Would his sentence then have been allowed to become a death penalty?

Or would he have been sent to a flower-banked private room in a public hospital at government expense?

Or does money, or the lack of it, determine what type of treatment prisoners of the federal government shall receive?

bit alive in the papers for two whole days meanwhile he made no utterances concerning the Public Market problem.

Harold is hopeful that the Public Market trouble like the Cobbs Hill Park re-naming will die quietly — to be forgotten like so many other GOP mistakes.

It is unlikely that the resourceful administration spokesman will ever run short of herrings.

It used to be that Cuban elections were settled with firearms. The group with the most guns won and deposed officials skipped the country with suitcases laden with american banknotes.

It is apparently very much different these days. Candidates take their campaign pledges seriously and firearms are turned only upon ones self.

The Mayor of Havana, Cuba, recently committed suicide because "insurmountable obstacles" prevented him from carrying out his promise to the people of Havana.

It seems that the Mayor advocated new water works to replace an antiquated and inadequate system and that his campaign pledge won many votes on the issue. When unable to secure money for the project, either from public or private sources, the official was unable to carry out his pre-election pledge. His picture was booted in movies and sometimes he was jeered at on the street.

Admitting that he faced failure and that he could not bear it, the Mayor, "as a man with a conscience," preferred suicide. It is rather rare for a public official to suffer so keenly over inability to carry out campaign pledges. While many persons will not agree that the suicide was justifiable, everybody must respect the courage and conscience of Dr. Manuel Hernandez Supervielle, late Mayor of Havana.

If the Republican Congress who has promised so much and accomplished so little should take the view of the Havana mayor, apartments would be a lot easier to get in Washington.

measurements of the dust accumulated on the cotton were made in Kodak Research Laboratories.

The company stated that the measurements, while revealing enough radioactivity to indicate the method of collecting dust from the air had some merit, "showed such low values as to be without definite significance as to dissemination of radioactive dust" from Bikini.

The extremely low activity found in the samples can be taken as evidence that fission products disseminated in the atmosphere from the aerial detonation of a single bomb "at that distance" appear insufficient to have any significant effect on the photographic industry generally, the company added.

It was pointed out, however that many scientists believe that most of the material from such an atomic explosion goes high into atmosphere and is deposited on the earth more or less uniformly over a period of years.

An individual who reads two good books a month is something of a rarity, despite the prevalence of the printed word.

Sweden recorded 100 percent. Reports from the employe divisions were uneven. For the first day, Navy Ordnance Division of Kodak had an impressive $12.84 average. Rochester Gas and Electric employes raised a 1946 average of $6.15 to $7.92; Walz and Krenzer, from $3.03 to $10.04; Hickey-

Freeman employees, from $2.15 to $8.08.

If this upward move in employe giving should spread to other industries, and to the Commercial and Public Divisions, there would be no doubt of victory for this thirtieth annual campaign of the Community Chest, Campaign manager Raymond N. Ball said yesterday. Also, there would be little doubt that the Red Feather agencies could carry on their present work with no lessening of quality and no curtailment in quantity of service.

Included in the larger gifts reported Tuesday and Wednesday were the $220,000 contribution of the Eastman Kodak Company; $35,000 from the Rochester Clearing House Association; $25,000 from the Bausch & Lomb Optical Company; $13,000 from the Rochester Telephone Corporation, and $10,500 from Stromberg-Carlson Company. All show substantial increases over 1946 giving.

LET'S KEEP 'EM SMILING!

The good your Community Chest Dollars do

Teen-agers of Scouts, Camp Fire and the "Y" learn valuable lessons of leadership and service as junior aides in community day nurseries on playgrounds.

"Heart O. K." says the doctor—and yours is, too when by your gift you offer to everybody's baby the kind of protection and care you'd want for your own.

Parents know that Jimmy is busy, absorbed and happy when he's at the Settlement—and best of all, they know he's with a mighty good gang!

When Missy strikes or crawls, she soon, it's reassuring to know that your Red Feather service offer you—and everybody—the best in healing care.

Nothing was ever truer than the maxim: "An idle mind is the Devil's playground." By providing youth with healthy recreation, the Chest's Red Feather services go a long way in preventing juvenile delinquency. As you know, you'll never find a healthy, happy child in a juvenile court.

Here are four important people. Those four smiles are important too, and for the children's sakes, and our own sakes, we ought to keep them smiling.

Our Community Chest gifts help give these children, and our own children, "the breaks." And we are investing, not giving, when we protect the happiness and well-being of children.

So... let's invest in Red Feather hospitals, clinics, Visiting Nurses, that have the high-priority job of guarding child health.

Invest in Scout troops, settlements, youth agencies, that build health and self-reliance, that give young people practical schooling in democracy.

Invest in strengthened family life, for that helps the kids, too.

Give now... give more... give enough... giving is investing when we help children!

the tear effect. But not Miss Hayward. She scorns the use of glycerine, menthol or any of the prepared eye washes. She gets her effect in another way. "I try to think of the most goshawful thing that ever happened or could happen to me," she explained while "Smash-Up" was in production, "and that usually has the desired effect. Something like losing all my hair, or a good friend hurt in an automobile accident."

"That sounds kind of juvenile, I know, like a youngster who cries when he hears the story of the wolf who ate up grandma. But it works, all the same."

"It's necessary to be careful, though. Tears and laughter are on emotional tracks that are parallel and pretty close together. It's very easy to start laughing when you're about ready to weep, and at my shut off production of those big, fat salt drops that Stuart Heister, my director, so likes to see."

In "Smash-Up" Miss Hayward has full opportunity to use all her emotions. The drama involves from a wife's loneliness as a public idol, and her eventual addiction to alcohol.

HAYWARD'S TEARS GENUINE IN 'SMASHUP'

There are no idle tears around a motion picture studio. They are working tears — used by actresses as part of their trade. Some of the most industrious are those tears shed by Susan Hayward in her current vehicle Walter Wanger's "Smash-Up—The Story of a Woman," now at the Century Theatre. Co-starred with Miss Hayward in the Universal-International drama are Lee Bowman, Marsha Hunt and Eddie Albert.

For motion scenes, many players use preparations to get (See CENTURY Page 4-A)

HOPE, LAMOUR TEAMED IN CAPITOL FILM

Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour are teamed for the seventh time in Paramount's new comedy release, "My Favorite Brunette," which starts today at the Capitol Theatre.

Hope and Miss Lamour first appeared together in "The Big Broadcast of 1938," and, since then, four of their co-starring roles have been in the popular "Road" pictures.

"In 'My Favorite Brunette,'" Hope, who plays a private eye with cold feet, for a great change, has no rival for the affection of Miss Lamour, and he certainly makes the most of it.

In addition to the stars, "My Favorite Brunette" features a stellar Peter Lorre, Lon Chaney and Jack La Rue.

The second feature on the program is "Bedelia," starring Margaret Lockwood in the title role, gripping film story of the wickedest woman who ever lived.

Here, in brief, is the unforgettable story of the woman who lied to her husband about her past, and then was exposed as the cold-blooded murderer who had killed three previous husbands.

STORY OF RANCH LIFE NOW ON REGENT SCREEN

"Stallion Road," the dramatic story of modern California ranch life opened at the Regent yesterday. The production which co-stars Ronald Reagan, Alexis Smith and Zachary Scott, filmed against a magnificent background of California mountain scenery was adapted from the best-selling novel by Stephen Longstreet.

This is Reagan's first appearance since his return from the service and tells a heartwarming story of people who love horses, and of a triangle that almost ruined the lives of the three people concerned.

The Regent also has a complete program of short subjects including a "urette," "Dog In The Orchard" with Howard da Silva, a color cartoon, a Grantland Rice Sportlight, "Selling The Sun," and the latest Paramount News.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

It's more than a year ago that a local newspaper carried the headline "Realtors Hear Blast at OPA Restrictions." One Walton Onslow public relations officer of the National Association of Real Estate Boards was sounding off on government ceilings.

Said this bundle of brains, "Veteran Housing will remain hamstrung unless etc," "adequate building supplies would mean stable prices etc," "The removal of hobbling ceilings actually would result in a reduction in the cost of home building and a saving to the purchaser."

If Mr. Onslow can bite a hunk off his trailing expense allowance and drop in Rochester he might find that we still haven't any housing for the veterans, prices are so high that no one wants to build, and no purchaser can save anything. We suggest that he work up another speech. His last one was about as accurate as a Wall St. chart.

Still a little more than a year ago a man named Rogers was congressman. Mr. Rogers was a grocer by trade and being a congressman was just an extra-curricular activity. He wasn't an economist, held no college degrees, just a typical corner groceryman—but as such had learned somewhat more about realistic economics than the boys with the college degrees.

Said George Rogers on April 23, 1946 (and also found in a local newspaper) "Living costs will soar if the House bill curbing OPA becomes law." The white collar worker, government employees, and those on a pension are going to have a tough time."

Mr. Rogers said a mouthful and his predictions have come true. In case you have forgotten he was defeated for re-election—but judging from the way things are going in the present Congress he probably rather "be right than Congressman."

Factory Jobs Hold 62% over 1940 in Rochester, 110,000 on payrolls, says Chamber of Commerce.

What became of those dire predictions by Washington thinkers two years back? Ask (See POLKA Page 9)

Parents Fight To Save Child Care Centers

More than 200 pre-school youngsters will be tossed out into the street at the end of next month by edict of the City Council to effect a saving of a paltry $12,000 per year.

The youngsters are now enrolled in Day Care Centers, financed jointly by the state, the city and parents of the children. All city funds for the projects have been ordered cut off after June 25.

The Day Care Centers were set up by the war council in the early days of the war to release mothers for employment in war industries. It was particularly designed to aid the families of GI's who were called to war leaving wives and children to subsist as best they could at home.

The heads of almost half the 216 families currently affected by closing of the centers are returned veterans who are either in school under a government subsidy of $90 per month, or are working at low-paid jobs. In 59 of the remaining families, through death, divorce or illness, the mother is the sole support of the family.

With the child care centers closed the veterans will have to give up their schooling, mothers will have to leave their jobs to take care of their children, thus forcing several of the affected families on to relief rolls which, informed opinion concurs, will cost the taxpayers even more than what will be saved through closing the day care centers. Fathers who are sole care of their children are in a complete quandary as to what they will do.

Day care centers are maintained in schools 12, 17, 22, 27, and 44. Average attendance is approximately 50 children per day at each school. Parents pay up to $5 per child per week for the care with the state paying a large share of the balance. The city pays in approximately $12,000.

When the changes were not forthcoming after three months, MacFarlin, on April 8, 1946, announced that changeover would be made to the arrival of ad-

OFFICIAL STALLS PROMISED CITY BUS REROUTING

While grocers, wholesale food brokers and farmers hoped against hope that Commerce Commissioner Harold S. W. MacFarlin would forget about his threat to relocate the public market on the northwestern outskirts of the city, another large segment of the population was still waiting for action promised more than a year ago by Railways Commissioner Harold S. W. MacFarlin.

They are the bus riders. More than a year ago, after much pressure had been put on him, the triple-threat official (he is also Republican political strategist) announced an extensive overhauling of Rochester's present all-down-Main-St. bus routings. With much fanfare of publicity and accolade from newspapers, businessmen and ordinary bus riders, MacFarlin on Jan. 19, 1946, outlined extensive changes in bus routing including additional cross-town service and the rerouting of several lines off Main St. to relieve the rush hour congestion.

JAP SUICIDE PLANE ON VIEW HERE

A Jap Baka plane, one more symbol of Japan's suicidal Bushido spirit, made its first appearance in Rochester yesterday when it went on display in the downtown business area. It will remain here through tomorrow evening.

Captured on one of the Okinawa airfields, the plane is now touring the country in the interest of Marine Corps welfare. It is displayed in a specially constructed 10 ton truck on which it is being transported.

This highly publicized weapon has been given the name of Kamikaze, derived from the strutting Kamikaze Korps pilots whose funeral services were held before they undertook their fatal missions.

The high-speed, rocket-propelled Kamikaze bomb was

REPORT AWAITED IN MOVING OF ANTONELLI

Results of a government-ordered examination of Amerigo Antonelli by Dr. Walter Crombine, a Buffalo physician, to determine whether or not the convicted munition maker is physically able to be returned to Lewisburg Federal Prison is expected to be made in Washington today by the Federal Bureau of Prisons.

It is believed the report will say Antonelli's condition is worse and he ought not to be moved from his bed in a private room in Genesee Hospital here.

But advice of physicians has been ignored in the prisoner's case before, if reports on file at the prison are true. It remains to be seen what action will now be taken in the case.

Antonelli was handed a two-year term for conspiracy against the government during the war in connection with manufacture of allegedly defective grenades and fire bombs. He began his prison sentence on Nov. 7, 1946 after several appeals in his behalf had been turned down. On the day he left Rochester for the prison he was described by newspaper reporters as "looking dapper in a pin stripe suit."

A photograph of him on that day shows a well-dressed man walking jauntily along unaided. Suddenly last month it was revealed by the Sun he had been transferred at his own expense in a private ambulance to Genesee Hospital here early in April. He was said to be suffering from a heart ailment. Prison officials said he had been in the prison hospital ever since his incarceration. Just when he was taken sick could

Confused Builder Confuses City On Housing Laws

EDITOR SPEAKS—Joseph Entress, editor of Townsend National Weekly, of Cleveland, will speak to Townsdenites here next Monday at 7:30 p. m. in Towner Hall, 708 University Ave.

MUSEUM LISTS YEAR'S FILM LINALE

The season's final program of moving sponsored by Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences will be shown on Sunday, at 3 p. m. Two films in natural color will be presented "TIMBER IS A CROP" will tell the story of forestry and logging with a spring log drive down one of Maine's rivers, and "MAIN LINE-U. S. A." will portray the everyday role of America's great railroad.

This will also be the last Sunday the Museum will be closed on Sundays during June, July, and August.

As the comic strip characters would have it, the housing situation in Rochester grows more confusioin than amuzin with each passing day. Added to the general confusion is the confused thinking of leading opponents of public housing measures which would relieve the tension on unhoued families and alleviate the distress of poorly housed groups.

For instance, last week Joseph Entress, president of the Rochester Home Builders Exchange took to the daily newspapers to advance the theory that public housing laws are set up to make a private, money-making scheme for public housing promoters. His arguments were well marshalled and appeared to contain much logic.

Sec. 179 permits salaries to be paid if approved by the commissioner. Sec. 184 allows opportunities for a public housing corporation to increase rentals in order to safeguard the interests of the stockholders of the corporation. Sec. 185 permits stockholders when a public housing corporation is being dissolved to receive the par value of their stock plus accumulated, accrued or unpaid dividends or interest from surplus.

Sec. 190 holds a public housing corporation free from payment of any state taxes or fees. "This branch of the state public housing law," said Grossman, "has no connection direct or indirect, with a housing authority, since such companies which are strictly private companies may exist without a housing authority."

Any three or more persons, even Mr. Entress and his associates, said Grossman, can start a public housing corporation without a housing authority and with no more authorization than contained in these regulations. They can benefit by all the provisions of the law, providing they accept the responsibilities and erect housing structures within the regulations so cited.

Grossman also pointed out that no member of a housing authority can have any financial interest in the projects under his jurisdiction. The Home Builders leader had cited, among others, these sections of the housing law:

Sec. 170 permits a Public Housing Corporation to issue stock at rates up to 6% per year. Sec. 171 permits more than 6% per year return if in previous years any unpaid deficiency in the interest amount was experienced by the stockholders of the Corporation. Sec. 178 permits a public

Grossman explained that public housing corporations were originally set up by the government in 1926 to advance the cause of decent housing (See HOUSING Page 11)

LOOK If you're one of those women who are screaming, "I simply can't wear those extreme styles shown this season." Here's NEWS. Grab your hat and money and make for the young and old. Mrs. Zweig is a careful "buyer." Prints, pastels, in crepes and plenty of COTTONS. As for price, you'll be surprised how LOW ZWIEG merchandise is marked. 240 ROSEDALE OFF Monroe. Open Eve.

Men think women go to extremes in hat styles today, but, according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica, there was one period in ancient Egypt when royal women shaved their heads so that their favorite headresses would fit.

R. G. & E. The price of electricity has come down because the business — managed power companies have found ways to get more energy out of each pound of coal and have been able to put other operating economies into effect. Of course this holds true of our own R. G. & E. Today electricity runs the washing machine, the refrigerator, the vacuum cleaner, the radio, the range, toaster for about the same or a tiny bit more than once charged for light alone. HOW DOES
CHRISTIAN SCIENCE HEAL?

THE DISAPPEARANCE of organic and functional disease, as well as of trouble in other forms, is continually recorded among those who have turned to Christian Science for help.

The method of such overcoming of difficulty is prayer—a spiritually scientific manner of thinking based on the teaching of Christ Jesus.

What this prayer is and how anyone can understand it and use it effectively in accordance with his need are fully explained in the Christian Science textbook.

Radio's Prof. Quiz To Show Here Next Week

Professor Quiz, the man who made the radio quiz a national pastime will bring his famed battle of wits to Rochester next Tuesday, for a five day round of personal appearances. Highlight of his visit will be the broadcast of his network quiz show on Saturday, May 31st, over station WRNY and the American Broadcasting Company network from the Auditorium Theatre. Residents from Rochester and vicinity will be featured as contestants.

Professor Quiz, generally credited with having originated radio quiz shows in their present form, is Dr. Craig Earl in private life. Mrs. Earl, better known to audiences as "Mrs. Quiz," will, as usual, accompany the Professor on his tour. In addition to originating his broadcast from Rochester, he will spend five days entertaining civic and social organizations, youth centers, children's homes, veterans organizations and employee groups. In all, he will contribute ten personal appearances.

On Tuesday he will appear as guest of honor at a luncheon meeting of the Zonta Club in the Hotel Seneca. In the afternoon, he will present a show at the Baden Street Settlement House. That evening he will enertain at a dealer meeting of the American Oil Company, sponsors of his network quiz program.

Wednesday from 11:00 a. m. to 1:00 p. m. he will present separate shows for three consecutive shifts of Bausch & Lomb Laboratory employees. At 4:15 p. m. he will entertain the youngsters at the Convalescent Home for Children. In the evening, after making an appearance before the Veterans of Foreign Wars, he will stage a show for members of the Elks Club.

On Thursday, from 11:45 a. m. to 12:25 p. m. he will present two shows for consecutive shifts of Eastman-Kodak Corp. employees at the Eastman Kodak Auditorium on State Street. Friday evening at 9:30 p. m. he will stage a special show for members of the Gannett Newspapers Youth Club at the newly-erected clubhouse on Hamilton and Calkins Road.

Saturday is his broadcast day. His regular broadcast over station WRNY and the American Broadcasting Company network at 10 p. m. will originate from the Auditorium Theatre on Main St. E. Doors to the theatre will be open at 9 p. m.

not be learned. He left Rochester apparently in good health.

Even though Dr. Crombine may recommend that Antonelli should not now be moved, Attorney General Tom Clark who ordered Antonelli's transfer to Genesee Hospital in the first place has a precedent which he himself set for sending the munitions maker back to the clinic to finish out his term.

A report now on file at Lewisburg Prison made by a consultant cardiologist of the U.S. Public Health Service states:

"Even though this man should remain here until his eligibility date for parole, it is my belief that it will never be safe to discharge this man from the hospital while incarcerated here even though he should make parole."

Two factors can be gleaned from this report:

Antonelli was moved in spite of heart specialists recommendation that he ought not to be moved from the hospital;

By recommending that he remain in the hospital, the heart specialist must have felt that sufficient apparatus and facilities were available within the prison hospital to treat Antonelli's ailment. When it was finally learned that Antonelli had been sneaked into the local hospital, federal officials said the move had been made because prison hospital facilities were insufficient to successfully treat the prisoner. But that doesn't square with the heart specialist's recommendations if they were made in good faith.

Otherwise the consultant was deliberately sentencing Antonelli to death. And Attorney General Clark has already declared that it isn't the policy or desire of the government to impose the death penalty on any prisoner not so sentenced.

PLANE . . .

used primarily against the U. S. fleet. It carries 1135 pounds of high explosives and has no landing gear. Its maximum speed, at level flight is 535 miles per hour and it has a flying range of 55 miles. It is carried near the target by a mother plane and then released.

This Baka is one of first to be released for public inspection. It is the property of the Technical Air Intelligence Center and was loaned to the Marine Corps League for the current exhibit. Funds derived from contributions to view the plane are disbursed by the League and used for the welfare and rehabilitation of honorably discharged and enlisted men and officers of the United States Marine Corps and their dependents. Marine Corps League, a non-profit welfare organization, is incorporated by an Act of Congress, passed in 1937.

000 per year through the Board of Education which is administering the program.

Of course parents of the children now in the centers are up in arms. Led by John McHugh, 91 Bartlett St., they have demanded a public hearing before the city council. It has been scheduled for next Tuesday evening.

According to McHugh, state funds were turned over to its Youth Commission last year to be administered by that agency while a study was made of the question. The Horan report was submitted to the last legislature by Gov. Dewey as result. In that report the Governor promised that "the needs of individual communities will be met if municipalities will submit their needs." Otherwise, the funds are scheduled to be cut off Oct. 1.

Now, charges McHugh, instead of making any local study or submitting any request to the state for funds, the city council has arbitrarily cut off city funds as of June 25 which will close the centers on that date.

McHugh reports that Youth Commissioner Gauhn only this week said that the local project was one of the most efficient in the state. Cost per child per month here is reported as "under $40" against a statewide average of $62.50 per month per child.

In addition to the embattled parents, next week's council meeting will hear from heads of private day nurseries in the city who are expected to declare their facilities inadequate to take on the additional burden represented by the children now in the schools' nursery classes.

Miss Charlotte Sennet, in charge of placement in the day care centers has already declared that "facilities of private day nurseries under Community Chest sponsorship are inadequate to handle the actual needs of these youngsters."

If the parent group can get the city council to extend funds until Oct. 1, it is believed that through the state department of welfare the program can be continued beyond that date.

Erie County "regretfully" decided for the sales tax. Is in the process of setting up the cumbersome and expensive machinery to collect and administer the fund. Included are two nice political plums known as the director who will grab off $9000. per annum for his stint, and a deputy who will do two thirds as well at $6000. (and probably most of the work).

Here in Monroe County nothing has happened. Mr. Broderick was reported to have cleared his throat a few times but no noises resulted that could be construed as "positively."

The low cost of last year's snow removal ($718,147) was strictly with "God's Help." There was less snow than any three years previous.

Nevertheless after a dangerously close call at the polls, the administration spent the necessary time to organize snow clearing, and the salt that has annoyed motorists no end, played an important part in keeping streets open.

HOUSING . . .
which has been lagging for the 150 years this government has been in existence and while private enterprise was proclaiming that "we can do the job" and promising that "we will do the job" in the meanwhile allowing slums to increase by leaps and bounds.

Entress said that the "taxpayer and home owner, through increased taxes are forced to support profits on the stock and bonds held and issued by the individuals of a housing authority or public housing corporation."
He further charged that "so-called public housers" want an authority because actually "their desire is to become builders, subsidized by the taxpayer and financed by the government at the ridiculous figure of one-half per cent interest."

Sound Investment

Grossman admitted that much public housing has been built with funds borrowed at "one-half" per cent interest and in some cases even less "but deflated Entress' argument that this represented a government subsidy when he pointed out that those funds were borrowed from regular, commercial investment houses and were able to command such low interest rates because they were such a "good financial buy." He pointed out that the securities were short-term loans, available on the open market, just the same as bonds of municipalities, counties, states, etc. and the interest paid represents their investment value. Thus, public housing short-term bonds, carry the stamp of approval of some of the leading financial institutions of the nation as "good investments," and so willing are they to grab up the bonds that the interest rates are unusually low.

Confusion Continues

In the same statement made by Entress declaring that public housing financing had to pay "only 1/2 per cent interest," thus taking unfair advantage of the private builders who must pay upwards of 4 1/2 per cent interest, the president of the home builders' group reversed his field and declared that public housers really want to have an authority so they could make money for themselves through the purchase of stock which, according to the law he cited, can pay up to six per cent.

Here again Entress was confusing public housing authority projects with regular public housing corporations, according to officials of the Better Housing Association.

And while Rochester goes on its merry way, debating and delaying, cogitating the pros and cons of a housing authority, a housing commission, or some sort of organized house building program Raymond H. Foley, head of the National Housing Agency this week declared: "We cannot solve the housing shortage by building homes only for sale."

"Nearly half of all the families — veteran and non-veteran alike," said Foley, "who are now looking for a place to live want to rent, rather than buy or build."

"The government," he added,
"is offering every possible encouragement, from increasing supplies of building materials to liberalized financing and every other means at its disposal (to create large scale rental housing). Local communities can and must do their utmost to get more rental housing built."

Many are wondering if Rochester is doing all it "can and must" to get more rental housing built.

Sunday's Democrat & Chronicle unwittingly squelched another of Entress' arguments promulgated in the columns of that same newspaper a few days earlier. Entress said:

"The home building industry under free enterprise is composed of relatively small units, however large numerically.
They are, therefore, very closely self-supervised thus reducing to a minimum red tape, confusion, waste and inefficiency."

He further said, "Public housing therefore must resort to its usual procedure in its construction which almost universally is produced by concerns whose organizations are not geared to home or residential construction: organizations which primarily are better equipped and adapted for heavy construction like bridges, dams, skyscrapers, etc. organizations not equipped or qualified to complete in the highly specialized industry of home building.
Public housing therefore must construct its projects without proper consideration to economy in dealing with a segment of the building industry not equipped or qualified to eliminate overlapping inefficiency and waste in residential construction. Thus is borne out why private home builders can completely outstrip economically the cumbersome procedure of construction adopted by public housers . . .

Against these arguments advanced by Entress, the Sunday D & C reported results of a survey among builders in various sections of the country by the National Real Estate and Building Journal showing that:

"Virtually all builders agree that there is a saving through well-organized and managed large scale operations. The saving was estimated at from 1 to 20 per cent."

As a spokesman for the Better Housing Association so aptly remarked this week, "Let's be fair about this question of a housing authority for Rochester. The public is entitled to both sides of an argument, but the argument should be based on facts."

'SMASH UP' MOVES TO REGENT SCREEN

Like any other housewife, a beautiful, talented night club singer who sacrifices her career to make her husband a success has problems to solve. How one charming redhead meets and solves such problems is revealed in "Smash-Up," the dramatic story of a woman which opens for a second week at the Regent on Wednesday. Susan Hayward rises to the new dramatic heights as the wife while Lee Bowman turns to a sympathetic role as the husband. Marsha Hunt and Eddie Albert head the supporting cast.

This startling story of a woman who tries to solve and ease her sorrows with highballs is given a poignant interpretation by Miss Hayward who has been given a role to display her fine acting ability. Several musical numbers give relief in this production from an original story by Dorothy Parker and Frank Cavett.

A complete program of shorts including Juvenile Jury No. 2, American Sports Album, a color cartoon and Latest Paramount News, will be shown.

"SO SORRY," SEZ JACKIE KELK: A huge order of ink has been placed by Jackie Kelk, squeaky-voiced Homer of NBC's "Aldrich Family," to be delivered June 1. Jackie is playing it safe with the recollection of last June when he received 76 proposals of marriage via the mails, all of which he dutifully answered. He is now quite an expert in writing "Ooops, so sorry," in a manner that qualifies him for the diplomatic service.

FAMED RACE TRACKS SEEN IN CENTURY FILM

With its exciting love story set to the stirring tempo of thundering hoof-beats and flooded with the thrills and color of the world's great racing classics, "The Homestretch," 20th Century-Fox's new Technicolor hit starring Cornel Wilde and Maureen O'Hara now showing at the Century Theatre.

The film reveals the story of a boy and a girl whose conflicting personalities catapult them into a race across the world in search of the thrills of the turf which welds their turbulent romance into a truly great love. In filming the pictures, no expense was spared in capturing the gripping drama and colorful spectacle of the sport of kings against which the romance is unfolded.

Some of the greatest racing scenes ever recorded are included in the picture with the camera visiting even world famous race tracks including Ascot in England, Palermo in South America, and Churchill Downs, Jamaica, Aqueduct, Hollywood Park, Santa Anita, Belmont, Hialeah, Arlington and Saratoga in the United States.

Cornel Wilde, who won such wide acclaim for his outstanding portrayals in "Leave Her To Heaven" and "Centennial Summer," assays another completely different type role in "The Homestretch."

Cornel's love interest is titian-haired Maureen O'Hara, who plays the part of Leslie Hale, a member of a dignified, reserved Boston family, who finds herself propelled into the dizzy pace and haphazard life set by Jock and his race track cronies.

Glen Langan, who followed up his holes in "Dragonwyck" and "Sentimental Journey" with the male lead in Margie," was picked for the part of Bill Van Dyke, whose patience and understanding is sorely tried by Maureen's romance indecision. Helen Walker, the blue-eyed lovely who scored in "Cluny Brown," is seen as Kitty Brant, the ex-chorus girl, who twice married millionaires, is wrapped up in and around horses racing exhibits a flare to live every hour to its fullest.

The filming of an episode from the life of the famous Russian composer, Nicolai Rimsky-Korsakoff, forms the basis of the entertaining "Song of Scheherazade," which is the Capitol's main feature starting today.

Done in technicolor, the film is a feast to both the eyes and the ears, with Yvonne De Carlo handling a demanding job in the leading role.

Brian Donlevy and Jean Pierre Aumont are in supporting roles.

Charles Kullman, Metropolitan Opera tenor sings three of the principal numbers, including the well known "Song of India."

The companion feature on the program is the riotous comedy-romance "That Way With Women" which co-stars Dane Clark and Martha Yuckers.

YOU BET YOUR LIFE... By Beltron

Travelers Safety Service

... when you get impatient in heavy traffic and pull out of line.

The advent of Memorial Day ushers in the 1947 vacation traveling season — and with it an expected heavy toll of injuries and deaths due to faulty driving, carelessness and mechanical defects of aged cars.

If you have the ole' buggy all gassed up and rarin' to go, it might be a good idea to clip out this cartoon and paste it in your hat — right near your brain — as a reminder that several drivers will be dead before night-fall. It needn't be you if you're careful. It may be you if you're not.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

The "selling" crew of the Department of Commerce are having very tough going down in the tenth ward. Reports of the past week indicate that Mr. MacFarlane's attempt to put over the new public market down that way is meeting with rebuffs, both polite and vitriolic.

The projected and protested public market plan would in the opinion of the tenth warders be door to door canvassing is no easy life and the ladies who seek to sell the idea for the commissioner are learning plenty of embarrassing things about the local administration and, many of its administrators.

Perhaps by coincidence his condition reportedly became still worse when the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars met last night.

Convict Munitions King To Stay Here

That Amerigo Antonelli would continue to occupy a private room in the Genesee Hospital here despite his conviction on a charge of conspiracy against the government in connection with the wartime manufacture of defective grenades and fire bombs was announced this week from Washington according to word received here through Congressman Kenneth B. Keating.

The munitions maker was sentenced to two years in federal prison after being convicted by a jury here. Appeals to several courts, including the Supreme Court were turned down. He was finally taken to the jail to start his term last November. Shortly after his arrival at the prison, he suddenly developed a "serious heart condition" and was confined to the prison hospital. Finally, through efforts of his attorneys here and in Washington and after pleas had been offered in his behalf by influential friends, he was released from the prison to enter Genesee Hospital as a regular paying patient.

Apparently on the road to recovery, Antonelli suffered a relapse shortly after The Sun revealed the many peculiar angles to the release, ordered by Attorney General Thomas Clark.

Perhaps by coincidence his condition reportedly became still worse when the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars met last night.

ADD CROWDS AND MUSIC AND YOU'VE GOT LILAC SUNDAY—All the above picture lacks to make it a typical Rochester Lilac Sunday scene is several thousand people. Rochesterians and their neighbors are expected to supply that lack next Sunday which has been designated Lilac Sunday.

Highland Park Girds For Lilac Sunday 'Invasion'

The lilacs are ready, all 1,400 bushes of them! They'll make their official 1947 debut next Sunday which, by edict of Parks Director Patrick J. Slavin will be Lilac Sunday. That means collective Rochester will join its neighbors from Buffalo, Syracuse and way station in between, to throng, like a horde of locust through the flower-scented area of Rochester's most famous floral park.

Despite the wet weather, the late season (this is one of the latest lilac Sunday's in the event's 45 years history) and lack of continued sunshine, the lilacs are out in full profusion with bushes literally hanging heavy with the perfumed blossoms.

Just in case flower lovers seek more flora and fauna after they've ogled all 1,400 plants

GOOD SAMARITAN KILLED BY MOTORIST

Bloomsburg, Pa. — Realizing that rough lumber that had fallen from a truck created a hazard on the highway, Mrs. Iva Duttlinger, stopped to remove it from the path of traffic. Just as she was throwing the last piece off the highway, she was struck and fatally injured by an automobile.

Pinball War Hits GOP Ward Leader

Rochester's long smoldering pinball-slot machine war erupted into violence this week but, instead of fighting amongst themselves, as is usually the case the bigtime gamblers who operate the multi-million dollar racket in the city choose for their victim the 18th Ward Republican leader, Fred I. Parrish, operator of a plumbing and heating store at 121 Greeley St. in his home ward.

TEN MORE SUN READERS 'CASH IN' ON CONTEST

Final week's winners in the first month's drawings for Sun sustaining subscribers cash award since the plan was reinstated gives the first prize of ten dollars to Andrew Knapp, of 109 Randolph St.

Each week The Sun conducts a drawing to name ten winners from among its sustaining subscribers who pay their carrier ten cents a month for regular delivery of The Sun.

Complete list of winners and their prizes for this week are:

Andrew Knapp, 109 Randolph St., $10; Mrs. A. Jockley, 112 Whitney St., $5; Dora Hammond, 190 Averill Ave., $3; Edith Snuder, 185 Cameron St., E. Lallies, 125 Denise Rd., Mrs. Marg. Fantauzy, 7 Princeton St., Mrs. Wirth, 138 Ave. E., Mrs. O. D. Erwood, 257 Garrison Ave., S. Flagler, 225 Laborum Cres., and Mrs. K. Bary, 45 McEwen Rd., $1 each.

Prizes are in the mails.

The first suggestion of the establishment of an Agricultural college in the United States was made by George Washington in his first message to Congress in 1790.

During the early hours of Sunday someone, or some group, smashed show windows in the Parrish establishment and demolished a large neon sign on the premises. Parrish told detectives reason for the vandalism was a complete mystery to him. Perhaps it was to others, too, but not to those who have their political eyes open.

The attack on Parrish's place followed by less than 48 hours a raid on a diner at 1388 Main St. E. operated by Thomas Lat-in. Pinball and slot machines valued at "more than $3000" were confiscated by police. And because the police raiding party was led by none other than Chief of Police Henry T. Copenhagen himself, those in the know attach particular significance to the action.

As far as could be learned at headquarters no one in the police bureau except Chief Copenhagen and Lt. Bryan Ford who accompanied him knew the raid was coming off. It was a complete surprise to police as well as to the public, to say nothing about restaurateur Latin. Even police in No. 3 Precinct in which the diner is located were unaware of the chief's action.

COST and BELOW

AT COST and BELOW — are those MATERNITY DRESSES at "800" SHOP. And what dresses — did you know that "800" has the largest MATERNITY DRESS DEPARTMENT in New York State (excluding N. Y. City of course.) This SALE is the most outstanding you'll see for many a moon. Styles are adorable, and becoming — in all sizes — and as for materials, you'll be amazed at the how wonderful they are.

G. E. AUTOMATIC BLANKETS

SLIP into bed these raw Spring nights with the feathery lightness of a G. E. AUTOMATIC BLANKET to cover you. They're wonderful. You sleep comfortably, you relax all over. The blanket with a brain keeps the warmth you choose by dial. You do not have to get up to reach for extra covers, or to throw off excess blankets. As your bedroom grows colder your blanket gives you more warmth. If room gets warmer, the blanket gives less warmth. A maid (where to get one) could do no more. Wonderful for invalids. A single G. E. AUTOMATIC BLANKET is all you need for any kind of weather. R. G. & E. is your place to order of course. $42.01 for single control, $52.53 for double control. 89 East Ave.

SPECIAL PRICE

You'll love VIRGINIA's intimate shop and her business. Your appointments are ALWAYS ON TIME. Don't you agree this is important? Work is done RIGHT. If your choice is a new hair-do, a permanent, or a tinting "job" you'll be happy with the results. As the present writing Virginia is offering a machine or machineless PERMANENT for $7.50 for a limited time. Test curl, shampoo and wave included in this VERY SPECIAL PRICE. Make your appointment TODAY. Stone 346. VIRGINIA'S BEAUTY SALON, 4th Floor, Present Bldg. Opposite Hotel Seneca.

VACATION MUSTS FROM EDWARDS

"Afoot and light-hearted I take to the open road. Healthy, free, the world before me. The long brown path before me leading wherever I choose." — Walt Whitman.

Sounds wonderful doesn't it? Gives you wanderlust. But are you ready for your vacation? Of course your clothes are, that is the first item women think of. Here are a couple of suggestions from EDWARDS. On the main floor, in the Stationery, you'll find GLARE-UP GOGGLES that are a MUST for a vacation on land or sea. Scientifically curved for better fit and comfort with cool green lenses, shaped to give full vision. Priced at a mere $6.00. Another MUST for travel is SUTRA SUN TAN LOTION. Your choice of liquid lotion at 50c and 50c. Cream at 80c and $1.00. This particular Sun Tan Lotion filters sun and speeds tan. Another item called TARTAN ANTISEPTIC Sun Tan Lotion priced at 60c is wonderful. It contains no oil, and WILL NOT stain fabrics. Add these to your vacation list, you'll bless EDWARDS every foot of the journey for suggesting them. The Lotions are to be found in EDWARDS, Main Floor, Toiletries, EDWARDS, — Setting A New Pace in Rochester.

CONVICT ...

Continued From Page 1) Foreign Wars set up a howl at the quiet release of a man who was convicted of crime in connection with the manufacture of munitions during war time. Finally Attorney - General Clark ordered a reexamination of Antonelli by Dr. Walter Crombine, a government physician, to determine whether or not he was able to return to prison — at least until July when he will be eligible for parole.

Stearns, Red Cross production department chairman, at the Spring St. office. The garments now being made are distributed to families of war refugees. In addition to the foreign relief program, home, friends and family. Observers this week were inclined to drop the whole affair. They reason it this way: If Antonelli does not recover from his heart ailment, he'll have to face a judge who recognizes neither politics, influential friends nor helpful officials; If Antonelli does recover from his current illness on or shortly after his parole eligibility date in July, he'll have to face his own conscience day in and day out. A jury has already given its verdict. The courts have reiterated that jury's findings. The verdict: Guilty of conspiracy against the government in the manufacture of defective munitions during the greatest war this nation has known.

HELP OFFERED
REBURIAL PLAN

At the behest of the War Department, the Home Service Department of the Red Cross will aid local families in preparing documents for the return of their war dead from overseas cemeteries. The Red Cross throughout the nation will perform their services, according to Mrs. J. Howard Cather, local home service chairman. National headquarters has supplied home service workers with the necessary information to help the next of kin complete the necessary forms, the first 20,000 of which were sent out by the War Department in March when the burial project was launched.

Relatives are urged not to make inquiries of the War and Navy Department before receiving the initial inquiry letter and forms from Washington. This may be several months or more, as the project is expected to take at least two years.

Red Cross aid will be limited to providing general information and helping relatives fill out the necessary papers, Mrs. Cather explained.

Nancy Hanks Lincoln, mother of Abraham Lincoln, died Oct. 15, 1818, at the early age of 35 years.

ANNOUNCES PICNIC PLANS

The church picnic season is here! One of the sure signs of summer appeared this week when it was announced that Westminister Presbyterian Church will stage its annual family picnic in Genesee Valley Park, Pavilion 2 on Saturday, June 7 beginning at 2:30 p. m.

This year the event is sponsored by the Couples' Club of the church under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Merrill. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rissberger and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Estes are in charge of ticket sales, while Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rowlingson are supervising the food.

A program of mixed games for all age groups will get underway at 3 p. m. Each family will provide its own basket lunch for supper. In case of rain the picnic will be held in the church basement.

JAYCEES VET COUNSEL SERVICE SUSPENDS

More than a hundred ex-servicemen are estimated to have found their niche in the business world through efforts of the occupational counselling service established last fall by the veteran's service committee of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

While the service has now suspended its program for the summer, officials of the group say its services will continue to be available at the Jaycee office in the Chamber of Commerce Bldg.

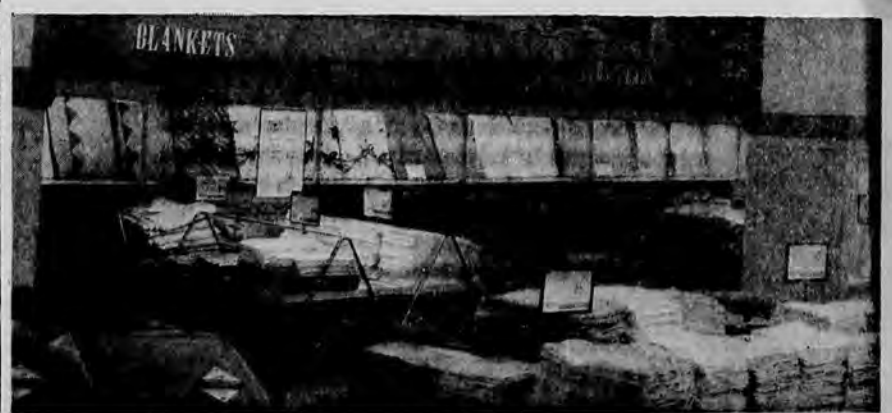

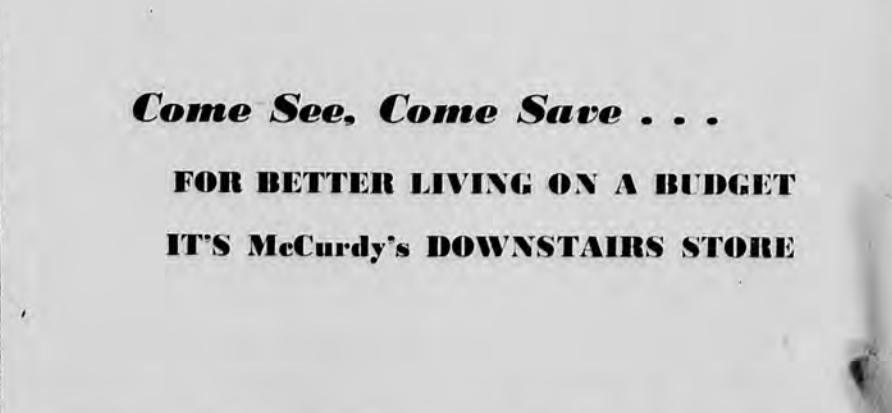

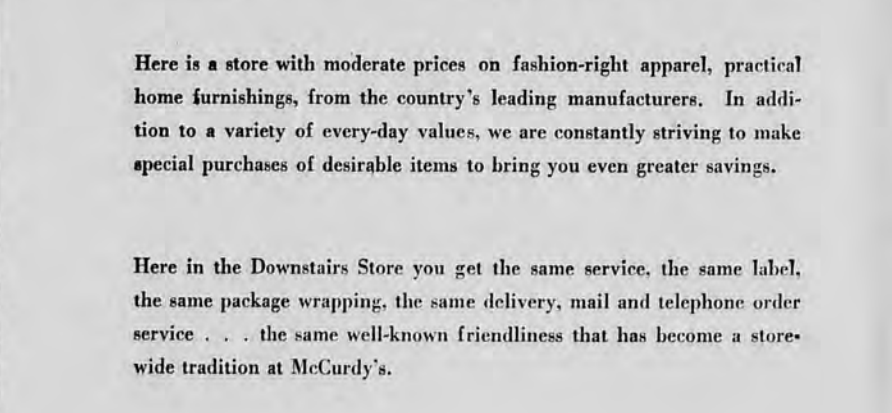

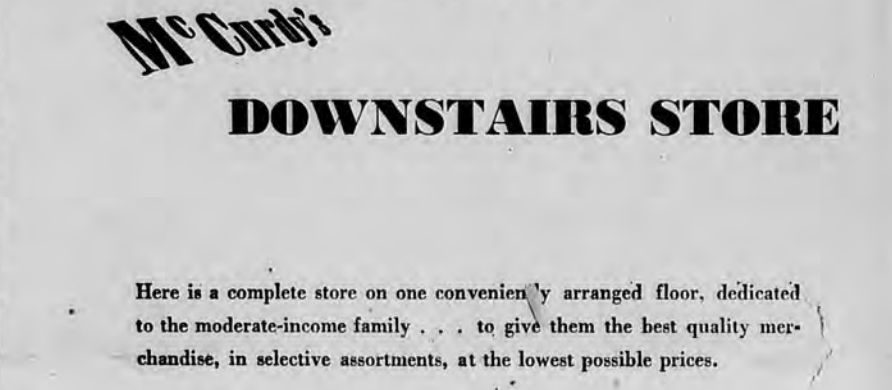

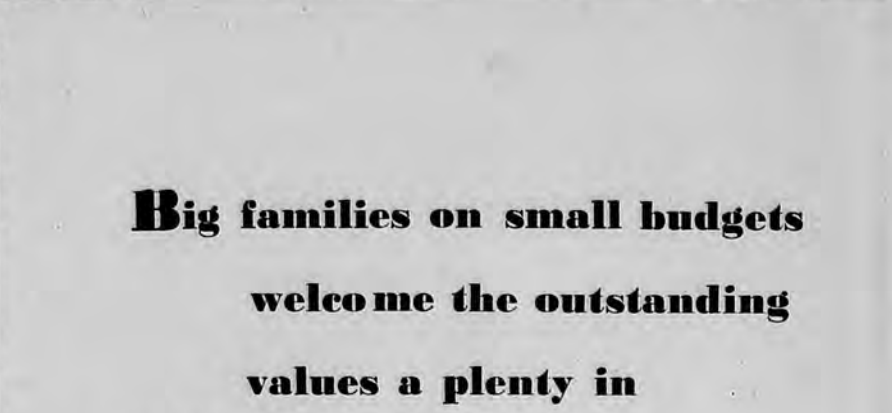

Plans for resumption of a full-scale program in the fall are already underway. Plans of the committee include the organization of a series of open forums to provide further occupational and vocational assistance to local veterans. During the winter and spring forums on small business, advertising, job hunting and insurance were conducted.

NEGRO GROUPS TO COMMEMORATE DEDICATION

Forty-ninth annual celebration of the unveiling of the Douglass Monument will be held Monday, June 9, at 4:30 p. m. in Highland Park Bowl. A short prayer and selections from the Scripture will be read by committee chairman, Howard W. Coles; a wreath will be laid at the base of the monument and taps will be played by Langston Kelo of the Madison Senior High Band.
* It was on June 9, 1898 that the then governor of New York State, Theodore Roosevelt made the dedicatory address at the unveiling of the bronze statue to the memory of the Negro-statesman, orator and abolitionist. Each year, beginning with the celebration sponsored by the late John W. Thompson in 1899, this rite has been commemorated. Two other celebrations are annually observed by local negro civic groups the first on Feb. 14th, supposedly the date of Douglass' birth; the other on Sept. 1st commemorating the rededication of the monument and its removal in 1941 from its original position in St. Paul Square to its present site in Highland Park Bowl. These latter two were originated by Coles, an ardent student of the life of Douglass who has written a book about him. They attract nationally known leaders and educators because of their emphasis on the cultural, educational and social advances of the Negro here and elsewhere.

NIAGARA U. ALUMNI TO STAGE SPRING DANCE

Graduates and former students interested in joining the group may get full details from the secretary, Robert S. Miller, 206 Aldine St.
Assisting Hall in arranging the forthcoming dance will be Jack Roach, Charles Schwartz, Gerald Flynn, Edwin Doley, Leo Muldoon, Emmett Muldoon, Sardinus Virgil, Alvin Gresens and Robert Miller.

Adding to the long series of coincidences, it just so happens that Chief Copenhagen lives in the 18th Ward, as does his boss, Safety Commissioner Thomas C. Woods. No wonder police are bending every effort to locate the perpetrators of Sunday's vandalism at the Parrish place. Detective Chief Edward Collins immediately assigned two men to the case on direct orders. It is rumored, from Commissioner Woods.

Yesterday Detectives Charles A. Sweeney and Harry Schwind, working on the case reported nothing definite had been uncovered but they were working on several "interesting leads." They said the crime might have been committed by some disgruntled political job seeker. That has happened before in the turbulent east side ward. But they also admitted that the deed might have been in retaliation for Friday night's raid on the Main St. E. diner.

If the gamblers were responsible for wrecking the Greeley St. plumbing establishment, they must already realize they "pulled a boner." And if they weren't responsible, there is no doubt they are just as anxious to have the case solved as are police.

Because, until the case is cleared up it is a certainty that slot machines in the 18th ward will be about as scarce in the ward as Democrats at a Dewey rally. They'll have to be kept "under wraps for quite a spell."

A GRATEFUL MAN
Canon City, Col. — Because his mother considered no sacrifice too great in her attempt to clear her son of a murder charge, Loren Hamby turned the $10,000 given him by the State for six years spent unjustly in the penitentiary over to his mother. In the fight to clear his name, a cotton plantation in Texas was sold, the family home was mortgaged, $1,000 was borrowed and other debts incurred.

State Road repair projects were about to join state housing projects in the morass of "nothing accomplished" when a special dispensation was granted permitting road employees to work a 60-hour week instead of a forty.
Bad weather which holds up highway construction means

The Rochester Sun, Friday, May 30, 1947 Page 8 hours lost that can never be regained. The dispensation permits a maximum amount of work in fair weather.
If the Albany master minds would consider similar dispensations for their housing projects they would have more applicants for employment in this essential undertaking.
Carpenters, plumbers, and construction men generally are not going to take work on state housing projects if limited to forty hours. Too many contractors are guaranteeing fifty and fifty-five hours with overtime starting after forty.
In the words of many a skilled tradesman, "A guy is a sucker to work on a state housing job". Thus veterans and others will go homeless until Albany takes a more realistic view of the situation.

BATAVIA RACE MEET OPENS TONIGHT

Batavia, N. Y. — Batavia racing plant for the inaugural Downs becomes the capitol of the harness racing world tonight when thousands of race fans, with an optimistic eye to fattening their pocketbooks converge on this refurbished double windows will close at 8:15.

A record number of horse-men, with a record number of trotters and pacers, has taken over the Batavia area in quest of a new high total in prize money, eclipsing the $250,000 mark. More than 600 horses including some which had to be stabled at Caledonia and Albion stalls, awaits the starting bell tonight. To newest blessing to the sulky sport, the Evenbreak starting gate, will make its debut on the opening card of eight events. This gate, designed and built by William (Lefty) Goldberg of Rochester and Harold Dressel of Batavia, has been acclaimed in its preview and schooling races as the most revolutionary thing to reach the game.

The gate is designed to prevent horses from "beating the barrier," a fault that long has hampered big time harness racing's popularity.

President Pat Provenzani and General Manager Fred S. Buck have gone "all out" in improving the Batavia setup for this eight season of racing. In addition, Race Secretary John Maas has mapped out a program of 33 feature events with purses ranging from $900 to $5,000. Besides this, a pair of weekly free-for-all events with melons of $1,500 and $1,000, have been added to the "special money" list of races.

Why Our Bank Will Operate on a Five-Day Week

Beginning May 31, 1947

IN CLOSING SATURDAYS, in the spirit of the recently passed State Banking Law, two important points have had our thoughtful consideration.

First: Service to you—our customers.

Second: Consideration of our employees.

As our bank will continue to provide the SAME NUMBER OF HOURS OF PUBLIC SERVICE in the week as before, we believe the banking needs of a great majority of the people will be adequately met under the five-day week, instead of five and a half days.

On the other hand our employees will be given what so many other Rochester employees now have—a full week-end.

We believe that the public will appreciate that "Banking Hours" are NOT "Bank Work Hours" for much of the work of a bank is done before the bank opens and long after it closes. So when the bank closes Saturday noon work must go on until the books are balanced. The only way in which we can give our employees Saturday afternoon OFF is by not opening on Saturday mornings.

3 Additional Banking Hours Will Be Available on Fridays

Monday Through Thursday: 10 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Fridays: 10 A. M. to 6 P. M.

MYSTERY IN INDIA TOLD ON CENTURY SCREEN

Paramount has presented Allan Ladd with a new and intriguing setting for his exciting brand of living and loving, and the result is said to be the most thrilling Ladd flicker to date. "Calcutta" is the title and the background of the picture, currently showing at the Century Theatre with Gail Russell and William Bendix in the other starring roles.

Although "Calcutta" is laid in India, it is not a story about India, but a murder mystery with an Indian locale. It also deals with the adventures of daring pilots flying the famous "hump" from Calcutta to Chungking.

Ladd and Bendix cannot wait for the police to hunt down the murderer. They set out after him themselves, and things immediately begin popping. Ladd meets, falls for, but still suspects the girl who was supposed to marry the murder victim, a beautiful American girl with a dubious background.

The chase continues, with Ladd discovering that a gang of jewel smugglers were using his company's planes for their nefarious business, and that his lead friend was involved. This leads to some typical Ladd slugging and another murder, which eliminates one of the suspects. The suspense mounts until it is climaxed by the pulse-pounding, unguessable revelation of the killer.

MYSTERY THRILLER—Allan Ladd and Gail Russell play the lead roles in "Calcutta" a murder mystery in an India locale now at the Century.

HORSE RACE FILM MOVES TO REGENT

With its exciting love story set to the stirring tempo of thundering hoof-beats and flooded with the thrills and color of the world's great racing classics, "The Homestretch," new technicolor hit starring Cornel Wilde and Maureen O'Hara, opened a second week at the Regent Wednesday.

Some of the greatest racing scenes ever recorded are included in the picture with the camera visiting eleven world famous race tracks including Ascot in England, Palermo in South America and Churchill Downs, Jamaica, Aqueduct, Hollywood Park, Santa Anita, Belmont, Hialeah and the Kentucky Derby.

After a taste of comedy on the Don Ameche show, Frances Langford is hoping to get a comedy role in pictures.

DESPITE RAIN, SPRING OPUS IS AT CAPITOL

Fred MacMurray and Paul-ette Goddard co-star in Paramount's new comedy romance, "Suddenly It's Spring" is now at the Capitol Theatre.
The film, a humorous treatment of domestic difficulties, features MacMurray and Paul-ette Goddard in top supporting roles, with Lilian Fontaine and Frank Faylen appearing in smaller parts. Mitchell Leisen directed.
The second feature on the program is the first Rochester showing of the latest Roy Rogers Western, "Home In Oklahoma."
Filled with thrilling action scenes, "Home In Oklahoma" combines a murder mystery with fast moving Western action and the newest popular Western songs.
For its twentieth time Dale Evans appears opposite Rogers and once again, George "Gabby" Hayes and the famous Sons Of The Pioneers headline the supporting cast.
Mickey Rooney and Elizabeth Taylor are to be co-starred in the remake of "The Crowd Roars." This it will appear as "Killer McCoy."
Brenda Marshall is back for her first picture in four years, "Whispering Smith." When husband Bill Holden went to war, Brenda retired from the screen to take care of their children. Now she will divide her time between film and family.

GRANGER

Greta Garbo is being sought for a co-starring role with Gary Cooper in "Good Sam." Wonder if she'll have the good sense to take it.

By CURT GERLING

Mr. Dobbertin, police captain got the axe. Reason revealed is somewhat obscure. Rumor hath it that every time a raid was ordered on gambling establishments in the third precinct, hastily made plans always misfired.

When a citizen of the various precincts complains of the card games, bookie joints and slot machines, Commissioner Woods usually feigns ignorance or promises to "look into it". When enough have complained so that the facts seep into Republican headquarters, the Commissioner is told to do something about it.

We presume that the Commissioner calls the captain of the precinct involved and orders that a raid be made on Joe's cigar store or the Upsadally Social Club, whichever is causing the taxpayers to protest. They knock off the offending establishment and it is closed permanently. It must be explained that in Rochester, "permanently" means from three days to a whole week.

If such supposition on our part is correct it did not work according to plan in the Dobbertin sector. Orders to close various gaming casinos (j.g.) were given to the captain but somehow when the raiding squad arrived in their limousine the black jack game had turned into a few sociable tables of Honest Farmer with Hershey bars as table stakes. The slot machines like Cinderella's coach had changed into pinball machines with large placards "for Amusement Only". Baffled and dismayed the cops returned with nothing to show for their trouble but the two boxes of cigars the proprietors stood treat on.

Just as your Aunt Martha would say "things had come to a pretty pass" over in the third. Republican headquarters didn't like it. Mr. Woods' office didn't like it. So if you believe half of what you hear — and we assure you that you very often cannot — that is why Mr. Dobbertin will be looking for work.

If the police captain is guilty of malfeasance (which is a very good word if you can pronounce it) we believe that he should be asked to resign. In fact any police captain so charged should be "retired". We have only two objections.

Objection number one was that the Commissioner's office used the Hearst technique. For years no publisher of any of Mr. Hearst's newspapers ever dared take a vacation. Any vacationing publisher on his return saw a stranger sitting at his desk twiddling with last year's lineage and circulation figures and holding a nice big pink slip for him.

The only improvement on the Hearst method in the Department of Public Safety is that they don't even wait for the victim to come back to town. He gets "the treatment" in absentia. It probably would have taken too much guts to fire the captain face to face.

Objection number two is that if police captains or sergeants play with the gambling fraternity they get fired. If the politicians play with them they get re-elected. The Rochester police force may not be a paragon of virtue but it's a much better force than the Rochester administration deserves. Honest cops outnumber honest politicians by ten to one. There are more ward leaders and ward heelers "protecting" joints than the police forces of Rochester and Syracuse combined.

If you are a ward leader you can talk back. Not too loud but still loud enough to be heard. So if the "powers" get after you about your friends with the one-armed bandits in their cigar stores and confectionery stores you can reason with 'em (the "powers" that is).

For instance just recently there was a robbery down Pullman Ave. way. The coppers investigated and during their prowling dropped in at a garage in the vicinity and lo! there were three mighty purty little slot machines which the neighboring gentry kept warm most of the day. Officially and dutifully reported by the cops you would think a "raid" might be the order of the day—well of course you'd be wrong—there wasn't any ordered. "Somebody" called the other "somebody" who had asked the machines politically and warned them they "must" be removed. In Rochester "must" means "maybe".

When these two "somebodies" argued back and forth we assure you no one got fired. The ma-

VFW HEAD ASKS REVIEW OF VET LEGISLATION

Congress has been asked to review the entire veteran benefit program, with special attention to the G. I. Bill of Rights, by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, according to a statement just issued by James T. A. Carberry, New York State Commander of the V. F. W. Pending legislation also should be scrutinized, he believes.

Carberry warned that excessive expenditures and uneconomic programs could end up with another economy wave directed at Veterans similar to the Economy Act of 1933. "It would be well for the (See VFW Page 10)

Lithuanians Ask $10,000 For DP's In Europe

Rochesterians of Lithuanian descent will start out Monday to raise $10,000 for Lithuanian DP's in Europe. They hope to reach their goal before June 19. Local drive is under the auspices of the United Lithuanian Relief Fund of America, Inc., member agency of the War Fund and Community Chest. Funds will be used to supplant those now being supplied by UNRRA which is expiring.

According to Miss Isabelle Rovas, chairman of the fund-raising effort, The United Lithuanian Relief Fund is already providing clothing, books and other necessities of life. But now, to fend off impending starvation, the men, women and children who have been banished from their homeland and are now in dis-

'Politics' Blamed For Ouster Of Police Captain

When Commissioner of Public Safety Thomas C. Woods last week cryptically announced that Police Captain Edward J. Dobbertin had been "retired" from his post "in the best interests of the department" he set up a chain of speculation second only to that of the atom bomb in the

PARENTS CARRY ON FIGHT FOR CHILD CENTERS

Parents of children enrolled in child day care centers took issue this week, with Mayor Dicker's assertion that "the mother's place is in her home with her own children of those tender years (pre-school age) in order to guide and nurture them during the time when motherly guidance is needed."

In a letter signed by Mrs. Frieda Salin addressed to the mayor and city councilmen the Parents Child Care Center Committee, declares that:

"Educators have proved that up to the age of two, children need a mother's constant care; but after that age, given the proper supervision, such as Rochester centers have shown themselves so capable of, the children now need the molding of character so ably implanted at these same child care centers."

The centers will be closed June 25 when the city withdraws its financial support from the projects financed jointly by state, city and parents to the children enrolled. The parents have formed the committee to protest the action. The state is scheduled to shut off its funds Oct. 1.

Bikini lagoon climaxing "operation crossroads" last summer. But during all the speculation as to the probable cause of Dobbertin's dismissal and with newspaper reporters unsuccessfully seeking out the facts from Woods' office, no one has thought to ask the one man who surely knows, or at least has a qualified opinion about the matter. That is Dobbertin himself.

Be assured, Dobbertin has some very definite opinions as to the cause for Woods' action. But, like the trained policeman he is, Dobbertin has little to say.

"I never played much politics," he told a Sun reporter at his home this week, as though that were sufficient answer.

Perhaps it is. When asked if he thought the presence of slot machines in the Third Precinct, of which he was in command, had anything to do with his dismissal, he couldn't restrain a hearty laugh. He admitted that he "or any other police officer from Woods on down," knew there were hundreds of machines in the city and the exact location of many.

Recently police have staged two raids within the Third Precinct to seize slot machines without Dobbertin's knowledge. In the most recent raid Police Chief Copenhagen personally led the raiders.

Nation's Traffic Death Toll 133,900 In 1946

HARTFORD, CONN. — More Americans were killed and injured in automobile accidents last year than in any year since before the war, according to figures released by The Travelers Insurance Company.

According to the insurance company's report the 1946 totals show 33,900 killed and 1,300,000 injured.

The report, based on official records from the 48 states, contains tables comparing accident figures for last year with the 1941 summaries.

Highlight figures show that:

Two out of every three automobile accidents in the United States last year involved mistakes by drivers.

Exceeding the speed limit was responsible for 42 per cent of the fatalities. In no other year since the record has been kept has speed loomed so large as a factor in accidents.

Nearly one-third of 1946 automobile accident fatalities were pedestrians.

More than 70 per cent of all accidents occurred on dry streets and highways in fair weather.

Fifty per cent more persons were killed between intersections in cities than at intersections.

Less than 10 per cent of vehicles reported in fatal and non-fatal accidents were found to be mechanically defective.

Sixty per cent of all fatalities occurred during the hours of darkness when only about 25 per cent of a day's total traffic was on the roads.

Saturday became the most dangerous day to travel in automobiles for the first time since the record has been kept.

• Bee-line control from cutting-room to fitting-room — plus the largest clothing volume in America. Our savings from this set-up run into big money. And you Bond customers get every cent of it!

You just can't beat it! Down go our costs of doing business — because more men buy Bond clothes than any others. Out go a lot of heavy expenses — because we make the clothes we sell. Without such economies these same handsome worsteds, tailored the smooth Bond way, would cost you at least $10.00 more. And that's a conservative figure! MUSEUM FEATURES DIORAMA, WILD LIFE

The Feature of the Week at the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences is a miniature diorama of the Aztecs of Mexico portraying the reconstruction of the city of Tenochtitlan as it was in 1519. This is one of the collection circulated by the school service division designed by Mrs. Vera A. Jewett, museum artist.

Another exhibit attracting considerable attention is the collection of wild life in water colors and oil paintings by the artist-naturalist R. Bruce Horsfall.

Horsfall is a pioneer in the field of habitat group presentation and his background paintings for such groups are permanently represented in the American Museum of Natural History, the Peabody Museum of Natural History at Yale University, the Kent Scientific Museum in Grand Rapids, Michigan, the Illinois State Museum, and the Zoological Museum of the University of Minnesota. He was the official illustrator for Nature Magazine, and his long series of illustrations of birds and animals which have appeared in many books and publications, have brought him fame.

LABOR HOBBLER PROPOSED BY U. S. BUSINESS GROUP

To the surprise of almost no one the United States Chamber of Commerce this week revealed that it is "agin" the present labor set-up in the nation. In a "Declaration of Principles" adopted at the U. S. Chamber's annual meeting and released locally through the Department of Retailing of the Rochester Chamber of Commerce, the national group has several suggestions to make. Many of them would, obviously, benefit employers. Few would benefit workers. And how much any of them would benefit the nation as a whole is open to much conjecture.

Like agreeing that Monday should follow Sunday, the U. S. Chamber, at long last, agrees that employees should have the right to organize and bargain collectively. But the restrictions with which they surround their proclamation of that belief would preclude the organization of unions with strength enough to fight off inequities thought up by the nation's industrial leaders. The U. S. Chamber is also against: Strikes that tie up production; All strikes against government, federal state, or local; Strikes against any service affecting the safety, health, and welfare of the people "until due precautions have been taken to safeguard the services upon which the community and the nation are dependent;" Sympathy strikes; Jurisdictional strikes; So-called "monopolistic practices" by labor organizations; Restrictions imposed on speech, conduct or any "legitimate" managerial activities;

questions about us answered so that the

the facts.

FROM GAS LIGHT TO TELEVISION: The International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union was organized in 1900 from early units going back in the gas light era of the '80s when every woman's coat was a "pavement sweeper." The ILGWU has seen our country in three wars. Its knowledge and judgment have been matured by many business cycles of "good times" and "panics." The electric light, automobiles, movies and television came into being while we as a union lived through all the historic social, scientific, industrial and merchandising changes that make our lives what they are today.

A HALF CENTURY OF EXPERIENCE: During all those advancing years as the labor movement came of age, we attended strictly to our own duties and steered clear of jurisdictional squabbles. We have never departed from our responsible role of authorized trade union spokesman for the women's garment workers of the United States and Canada. That's three generations of specialized experience.

THE RECORD: Older members of the ILGWU still working today will tell you that they once had to slave away as many as 70 hours a week for as little as $4. Shops were filthy, health-destroying fire traps. Workers were compelled to pay for needles, and were cheated in forced charges for electric power. They even had to provide their own sewing machines which they dragged on their backs from job to job. The garment-making industry was a shameful slum in the industrial life of America exacting a bitter toll in human wreckage and family despair.

SOLID PROGRESS: Slowly, steadily and solidly through decades of harsh struggle and a long succession of carefully negotiated contracts, pay envelopes were fattened and working conditions improved until today other fields look to the formerly degraded women's garment industry for guidance and inspiration. The ILGWU was the first to negotiate the 35-hour week in manufacturing, the first to gain paid vacations in a piece-work industry, the first to set up an old age retirement fund as a social duty of the employers. With those came job security, respect for the dignity of the worker as a citizen in his shop, and a host of other benefits.

8,500 CONTRACTS: The Union maintains the national pattern of stability vital to the industry through contracts negotiated with 8,500 employers, both "independent" and affiliated with 96 employer associations.

GOOD WAGES: Hourly wage rates and earnings which started down in the cellar of comparative standards are today in the vanguard of general levels for skilled workers. One example can be seen in the fact that rates for ILGWU members making women's coats and suits are more than 40% higher than rates in the men's wear field.

COVERS THE COUNTRY: The ILGWU has 385,000 members in every garment making city, town and village of the United States and Canada. They run their affairs in 420 different "local" units to insure flexibility, efficient on-the-spot administration, and the basic democracy which are so much a part of the ILGWU tradition.

THE INDIVIDUAL MEMBER COUNTS: There is no such thing as "one man" domination in the ILGWU. Meetings are regular and frequent; and members exercise the fullest liberty in "getting up in meeting" with any form of complaint or criticism. Running for office, "sounding off" or doing any of the things that keep union democracy healthy never result in being tossed around or being discriminated against on the job. In the ILGWU, the membership is "boos."

NO MONEY MYSTERIES: Comprehensive financial statements keep the membership and the nation fully informed of the Union's operations. Close to $20,000,000 was collected last year from employers for vacation, health and retirement payments to the members.

PLEDGE: The ILGWU will continue in the future, as it has in the past, to press for its ideal of a prosperous industry supporting a prosperous membership contributing to the prosperity of the communities in which they live and work.

"Through close and personal association, I have observed the progressive and enlightened spirit of your great organization and the efficient and honorable discharge of its responsibilities and contractual relations. Under wise leadership it has helped stabilize the entire industry." 55
Governor Herbert H. Lehman

"You give evidence of the value to America of a model labor organization and have given our Nation a fine example of workers' progress. Your 40-year record in lifting a sweatshop industry to good negotiated conditions is an admirable one. You have made a real contribution to the stabilization of your industry." 59
Father John P. Boland

"I feel very much at home with the members of the ILGWU. Some of the leaders of the organization today were among the women many years ago who gave me my first lesson in a better understanding of what labor relations meant and what they really should be. I owe them a debt of gratitude." 57
Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt

"With a membership of more than 375,000 the ILGWU is one of the strongest and most enlightened unions in the country. Women's garment workers who, three decades ago, were notoriously underpaid and exploited are today protected by this powerful union which has brought great benefits to both the workers and the industry." 59
*Authoritative screen feature seen by 40,000,000 movie-goers.

ED RANDALL'S Scene & Word

Last Friday's nippy air brought out a new wrinkle in picketing:
At the Rochester Ice Company's coal yard on Exchange St. three pickets sat at ease in their sedan with the picket sign hanging on the radiator of the car.
Then there were the pickets parading on the sidewalk in front of the Lincoln-Alliance Bank Building on Main St. where the nearest coal office is six stories above them.

Apropos of the controversy raging about housing and the alleged flimsy homes being constructed is the story about the contractor who stationed his foreman on the other side of a wall in a newly finished dwelling and then called out: "Can you hear me?" "Yes, I can," reply the foreman. "Can you see me?" inquired the contractor. "No," replied the foreman. "That," said the contractor, "is what I call a good wall."

Federal statisticians have just figured out it costs $605.35 a year to buy clothes for a family of five. The sum on the right of the period is used for father

Definition of flat: What your feet get while you're trying to find one.

Eddie Ryan, local barrister says that love letters should be written in invisible ink and mailed in the incinerator. Not getting cynical, are you, Eddie?

A Sunday school teacher asked her class to name the sins of omission. After considerable thought one little girl raised her hand, rose to her feet and said: "I think they're the sins we should have committed and didn't, ma'am."

Jimmy O'Neill, strip artist at Spiegel's, swears the following is true. Two old cronies were drinking beer at his bar the other night when one of them began telling about his wife's appendicitis operation. "I don't know," he said, "how those doctors have the nerve to charge the money they do for such a simple thing as removing an appendix." "Yep, that's right," replied the other. "What this country needs is a good 5-cent scar."

WHAT I SEE BY THE PAPERS DEPARTMENT:

From the Rochester Times-Union, Tuesday, May 27, 1947: "Attorney General Clark stated that Dr. Crombine's medical report shows that Amerigo Antonelli is seriously ill from heart disease which is progressive and which makes 'death at anytime a definite possibility.' To say nothing of it being inevitable.

From the Rochester Democrat & Chronicle of May 19, 1947: "SHOT 5 TIMES, MAN FOUND DEAD; ILL HEALTH CITED." — Just a slight case of lead poisoning, possibly.

Joe E. Brown, who has been clowning and wisecracking throughout most of his forty-four years in the show business, is going to have a complete reversal of character — he's to have the role of a clergyman in a movie about a man, a boy and a dog in a small town in 1860. Beginning at the age of nine, Joe's career has taken him into tent shows, fairs, baseball, burlesque, vaudeville, drama, musical drama, musical comedies, film and tours of the war zones from Africa around the globe to the China-Burma-India theater.

Roland Winters, 43-year-old actor, will be filmdom's new Charlie Chan, a character first made famous by late Warner Oland and later portrayed by Sidney Toler, who died last February. Winters was the forty-seventh actor to test for the role.

Regardless of the fact that "Alice in Wonderland" is already slated for three filmings, Walt Disney is going ahead with his version. Disney doesn't plan to use any live actors this time, depending entirely upon his animated cartoons.

CAT MOTHERS RATS

Nneco, Ill. — Brownie, the cat, has added three baby rats, about the size of mature mice, to her family, which already included four kittens. The cat adopted the rats after catching them in the store of her owner, Stanley Becker, and feeds them, along with her kittens.

Last week the council held a public hearing on the closing and other interested groups. Later, the council, through Mayor Dieker, announced it would abide by its decision to close the centers at the end of this school year on June 25.

Parents say that "child care centers, born of wartime necessity, proved that children thrive physically, socially and mentally in such centers."

The letter continues:
"There are motherless homes, fatherless homes. Both are breadwinners. Their status is the same. There are parents with low incomes; and above all, veterans who deserve better consideration from you."
"These people do not wish to solicit welfare aid. Their present jobs permit them to be self supporting. And they contribute to the cost of operating these centers."
"Do you find it right, morally, to throw them on relief when the cardinal precept of welfare work is to get families off relief?"
"Do you find it right, financially, to increase welfare costs and thrust the burden of such finances upon the city?"

Inflation Catches Veteran

"It must be remembered that the GI bill was enacted by Congress at a time when the current inflation was not present," Carberry emphasized. "Veterans are beginning to realize that the dollar value of the benefits and aids extended them by a grateful nation are worth about half what they were intended to be worth. Further, veterans, as a whole, are resentful of those types of beneficial legislation, enacted under the guise of veteran benefits, which eventually bring little to the individual veteran but great benefits to other segments of our society."

"There is little value in a veterans' housing program if the end result means inflated costs and inflated rents to the individual veteran. The same holds true in training programs — if employers are allowed to duck responsibility thru provisions of the GI bill which allows on-the-job training subsidies to veterans," Carberry said.

"I am sure that the current attempt to economize on federal expenditures is not aimed at the nation's veterans. However, I am sure also that any legitimate economy and savings in the vast veteran program will reflect in favor of all veterans and forestall a any future attempt to drastically reduce the required beneficial aids for disabled veterans," Carberry concluded.

Lana Turner had her hair dyed ash blonde for her role in "Cass Timberlane" but she doesn't like the color as well as did her dark hair, as soon as she finishes work, will go dark again.

POLICE

(Continued From Page 1) leaving the gambling devices in his precinct, he shot back, "I'd have been out a lot quicker if I had refused to allow them."

That isn't hard to believe. Time and again The Sun has pointed out the connection of slot machines with ward politics and only last year caused considerable furor when it reported that slot machines were operating in the Tenth Ward with the knowledge of and for the benefit of that ward's political machine.

Dobbertin doesn't appear to take his dismissal too seriously. He plans to go into some business because, he says, "I'm too young to just lay around." He is 62 years of age.

It is apparent, however, he is upset at some of the "smallness" displayed by Woods in the action. His pension of half pay decreed by Woods is the smallest pension possible under the current pension regulations.

Other members have been retired on higher scales. In fact at least one fire chief was retired within recent memory on full pay. Dobbertin was a member of the department for 34 years.

Woods made his move under the so-called "Collins law" enacted by the City Council in 1938 to speed the removal of Inspector Collins, another storm center in the department. It may be only coincidence that Dobbertin and Collins were very friendly and remain so to this day. So far the pair are the only ones to be hit by that law.

Several other angles are at least interesting, if not enlightening as to some of the factors contributing to Dobbertin's axing.

Several slot machines seized by Chief Copenhagen and his men in Main St. E. diner within the Thrd Precinct were reported to be worth more than

DRIVE

(Continued From Page 1) fear of persecution at the hands of the Russians. Language scholars are already alarmed over Russia's attempt to destroy the Lithuanian language which is said to antedate Greek, Latin, German Celtic and Slav tongues. It belongs to the Indo-European group and is the nearest idiom to ancient Sanskrit. The resemblance is said to be so close that Lithuanian peasants can understand Sanskrit sentences pronounced by learned scholars. Hence philologists are generally agreed that Lithuanian is the most ancient of all the living languages. A remarkable feature of Lithuanian is that it has as much likeness to Greek and Latin as to Sanskrit.

The invaluable service if the language to philologists was recognized by Kant who wrote in the preface of his Lithuanian grammar: "Lithuania, having a royal character, deserves the protection of the state. She must be preserved, for their tongue possesses the key which opens all the enigmas not only to philology but also of history."

The great philologist Schleicher also said: "If the value of a nation in the whole of humanity were to be measured by the beauty of its language, the Lithuanians should rank first among the inhabitants of Europe."

Working with Miss Rovas and Father Babys in the collection drive is the Rev. Frank Valuk, assistant chairman; Helen E. Kondrat, publicity; John Valeska, special committee chairman; John Zelms, planning; Mrs. Joseph Shukis, women's division, and Albert Stugis, men's division.

Santa Monica, Val. — When an alarm came in, Fire Captain Ted Noland recognized it as from his house. It wasn't his house, it was his house-trailer, which was almost a total loss. The trailer was occupied by Fireman Robert Wells, of the Fire Prevention Bureau.

Precious Stamp Lost

New York. — A British Guiana 1856 stamp, valued at $50,000 and listed as the world's most precious stamp, was mysteriously missing from an exhibit when officials made their daily check. Worried officials made a hasty search, took its mounting apart and found the stamp, its fastening loosened by the spotlight's heat, had slid behind a wooden frame.

POLKA

(Continued From Page 1) chine owner and the owners of the place in which they were, swelling lots of political weight (votes that is) and the politico hollered, screamed and pleaded for his boys and their machines. On last report the group who have so little respect for the American quarter continue to drop them in each day and "politics" has won again.

There are a lot of advantages in not wearing a uniform, and this is one of them. In uniform you get the axe, in politics, re-election.

This week the Democrats tried to do the Republicans a favor. The Republicans being Republicans were suspicious and the Democrats being Democrats were outnumbered.

You may have read as how the Democratic handfull on the Board of Supervisors offered a resolution that would toss the permissive sales tax law into Mr. Dewey's lap. Such a move would rid the board of one of the hottest political hot potatoes ever to confront them.

Although there isn't a member of the GOP board who doesn't wish that the sales tax bill was some place else, in fact they not only wish it was back in Mr. Dewey's lap, but preferably down his throat. Being Republicans like Mr. Dewey, this feeling is not publicized — but in the privacy of caucus Mr. Dewey and his method of getting the dough for teacher's increases comes in for a few harsh phrases.

In voting down the move (and no Republican had courage

REGENT SCREENS PAIR OF ACTION "THRILLERS"

Two great action films returned to the Regent screen today. "The Last of the Mohican" and "Kit Carson," are two thrilling chapters of American history that capture all the power and glory of our country's march across the nation to fulfill its inevitable destiny.

Based on James Fenimore Cooper's immortal classic, "The Last of the Mohicans" retells the bloody story of the French and Indian War and the siege of Fort William Henry on Lake George in our own New York State. Randolph Scott, Binnie Barnes, Heather Angel and Henry Wilcoxon have the leading roles.

"Kit Carson" pays tribute to another group of American trail-blazers as they fought their way across the still unsettled American continent in an effort to reach California. The prominent cast includes Jon Hall, Dana Andrews, and Lynn Bari.

COPS WERE ON THE SPOT THIS TIME

St. Louis.—When an order blared out from police headquarters, "Investigate an open manhole, at Grand and Jefferson drives in Forest Park," Police Sgt. John E. Rooney and Patrolman Jhon V. Cunniff, in a patrol car, had no trouble complying. The right front wheel of their car was caught in it.

EARLY KANSAS DAYS PORTRAYED IN CAPITOL FILM

The fabulous exploits of "Bat" Masterson, famous U. S. Marshal and badman's Nemesis are brought to the screen in RKO Radio's dramatic, "Trail Street," now showing on the Capitol screen. Randolph Scott has the role of "Bat," co-starring with Robert Ryan, Anne Jeffreys and George "Gabby" Hayes in this story of the war between farmers and cowmen in Kansas seventy years ago.

Locale of the story is the town of Liberal with its main stem, Trail Street, where the neighboring farmers, confident that Kansas is an agricultural state, are fighting a losing battle against the lawless cattlemen as they drive their herds over the farmlands leaving death and ruined crops in their wake.

In desperation, the harassed farmers send for Masterson to help them and with "Bat" on the scene action gets fast and furious. The showdown comes when farmers and cowmen meet in an all-out battle for the town, with final victory for the farmers and establishment of law and order.

The second feature on the Capitol program is "Philo Vance's Gamble." Playing the famous detective for the first time is Alan Curtis. Terry Austin is in support.

Los Angeles.—While digging up a plot for flowers in her yard, Mrs. Vivian West struck an old fruit jar with her spade. In it were three small stones, each the size of a pea. A jeweler identified them as cultured pearls.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

A great many local citizens will be surprised if any account of this is carried in the dailies and the most surprised ones will be the Republican fathers. It would seem the pontificating commissioner with the initials who spends much of his limited waking hours regimenting the lives of others, needs a short talk to line himself up with the responsibilities of citizenship. Perhaps Mr. Broderick himself might review him on the ten points of political behavior.

Mr. Mac Farlin had an accident Tuesday. He was driving along Plymouth Ave., and suddenly a parked car jumped out in his path. How parked cars with brakes set and no drivers can do this is difficult to explain. Mr. S. W.'s car tore into it and smashed a wheel.

If you are a good citizen and something like this happens, you report it to the police. You stay at the scene of the accident until they come. You show your drivers license, let them smell your breath, and explain how it happened.

Public office holder Mac Farlin is above being a regular run-of-the-mine citizen. As GOP spokesman and party leader, such trivial matters are a bore, hence he did none of the things required of a average citizen-motorist. In fact, the man with the initials, left his car where it wound up, ignored the police calling business, but went into fire house number 7 and spent a nickel of the city's money to call up and have a friend come and get him. He then blithely left the scene of the accident. He didn't bother to find out whose car he hit, wait for operator license-showing, breath-smelling or any of the formalities required of ordinary citizens.

Allen Ellis of 383 So. Plymouth, owner of the parked car, was probably a bit surprised to see the condition of his car and no letter of explanation. It is presumed he was obliged to check with the license bureau to see who owned the offending machine.

At a late hour Tuesday the vanishing Mr. Mac Farlin had not favored the police with any information concerning the accident or his whereabouts. (See POLKA Page 8)

Sun Plans Gala New York Tour

Here's the good news hundreds of Sun readers have been waiting for!

The Sun Travel Department has planned a gala Fourth of July weekend trip to New York City.

That statement in itself will be enough to send dozens of former Sun tourists to their phones to make their reservations but for those who have never experienced a Sun tour, further explanation is outlined.

Before Pearl Harbor knocked the Sun Travel Department right out of business, many tours were conducted to such interesting points as Montreal, Quebec, Boston, Detroit and New York. Always, by far the tops in popularity, was the New York tour.

Now they're back.

Low Cost Tour

As in the past, The Sun has arranged a one-price, low cost tour that will have a wide appeal in these days of higher prices. By taking advantage of bulk buying—ordering hotel rooms 200 and 300 at a time, side trips and transportation in like quantities, The Sun is able to offer its rears an exciting, 3-day holiday in fabulous Manhattan at less than $50 per person.

The Independence Day Sun tour will leave Rochester from the New York Central Station aboard modern speedy, individual seat coaches at 2:10 p. m. Thursday, July 3. It will return to the city late the following Sunday evening. In the meantime, the party will visit Rockefeller Center, make the complete tour of Radio City, participate in a bus sightseeing tour of uptown and downtown New York, take a steamer trip all the way around Manhattan Island, and see the hundreds of

BUS RIDER BLOWS TOP; PETITIONS PSC

Neighbors of George Scheid, who lives at 191 Flint St., will tell you he is a patient man. He is not a chronic complainer nor does he like to get involved in any unpleasantness.

But this week George Scheid ran out of patience.

Object of his wrath is Rochester's bus transportation system. Having waited for city and transit company officials to rearrange routes and schedules as promised for more than a year, Scheid gave up hope this week that they would ever act and is taking his troubles directly to the Public Service Commission.

Scheid has had petitions drawn up, has gone out and obtained signatures and has dumped them into the laps of the Albany Commission.

"We the bus riders of Rochester," says the plea, "herby petition your honorable body for relief from the intolerable conditions of the Rochester Transit Corporation of said city. The specific facts constituting said intolerable state of affairs are as follows, viz:

1. Illegal loading of buses.
2. Routing buses without respect to public needs.
3. Dangerously large number of buses.

BUSH DEMANDS REPUBLICANS REVEAL TAX PLAN

Not that he expects to get an answer — at least until after election day, but County Democratic Leader Roy F. Bush, like thousands of other citizens, is beginning to wonder just where the local Republican hierarchy stands on the little matter of nuisance taxes promulgated by Governor Dewey and the legislature to take care of teacher salary raises.

Bush, in a speech before the 18th Ward Democratic Club, posed the question and gave the not unjust opinion that Thomas Broderick, Republican County Chief ought to make it clear before next November's election.

"The Board of Education," said Bush, "reports a deficit of a third of a million dollars for 1947, and anticipates a $600,000 deficit for 1948. This huge deficit was caused primarily by mandatory state increases for which the state provided no funds.

"The sixty-four dollar question," declared Bush, "is where is the money coming from to meet the added costs of education? The Monroe County Board of Supervisors shows no disposition to avail themselves of Governor Dewey's generosity by invoking a sales tax, at least not before election."

Bush declared that no one in their right mind would suggest that real estate taxes be increased to pay the higher salaries to teachers. The Democratic Chief said that left only one alternative the State of New York "which, he said, "has the moral and legal responsibility to provide the funds."

Continuing, Bush said: "The only aid the Governor has given is more taxing power. This means that the little (See BUSH Page 10)

AROUSING LABORITES — Shown here are part of the 3,500 labor rallyers who Tuesday night heard several national and local labor leaders denounce the Taft-Hartley Labor Bill. The rally overflowed two Amalgamated Halls onto Clinton Ave. N. Other photo shows the committee packing some of the 50,000 petitions to be sent to President Truman to veto the measure. From the left they are: Michael Mungoven, John M. Sachel, Hugh Harley and John Cooper.

50,000 VETO PETITIONS SENT TO TRUMAN

Approximately 50,000 petitions asking President Truman to veto the Taft-Hartley Labor Bill went to the White House last week from Rochester labor circles. Yesterday morning a committee representing the United Labor Action Committee of the AFL, CIO and R. R. Brotherhoods flew to Washington with a token shipment of the petitions for presentation at the White House. They were to be received at the executive mansion late yesterday afternoon.

The Rochester delegation was headed by Michael Mungoven, vice-president of the State Federation of Labor (AFL) and included John M. Sachel, business representative of the Upholsterers' Union (AFL); Hugh Harley, international representative of the United Electrical, Radio and Machine Workers (CIO) and John Deoper, president of the CIO Council.

Labor Leaders Rap Taft Bill

Rochester's labor circles, thoroughly scared by passage of the Taft-Hartley labor bill in Congress and now awaiting action by President Truman rallied Tuesday night in one of the largest demonstrations ever put on in the city to denounce the bill, its authors and investigators and to plead with President Truman to veto the measure.

Despite the heat, Amalgamated Hall on Clinton Ave. N. was jammed to the rafters with freely perspiring working men and women. An overflow audience in the ACWA Hall on Joiner St. heard the proceedings through loud speakers and there were hundreds of standees in the outer entrance and overflowing right on to Clinton Ave. itself.

From a platform studded with national and local labor leaders of both the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organization, the audience heard details of the bill and outlines of what its passage might mean to them. "I warn you right now," said Leo Krzycki, international vice-president of Amalgamated Clothing Workers (CIO) from Milwaukee, "the Taft-Hartley Bill is only the beginning."

"If that bill were to be acted into law, he said, "it would open the gates to still more repressive measures to (See RALLY Page 9)

KAY'S COMMENTS

LOOK If you're a slim young thing size 12 there's a dress for you at ZWIG'S. It will fit you. And when I say fit I mean it. Good simple styles in cottons, sheers, prints & n d pastels. As for price, women on a budget REALLY appreciate the prices at ZWIG'S. Located at 240 ROSEDALE — Off Monroe — Open Eve.

Here's an idea for a quick dessert. Open a can of pears. Place with cut sides up in pie plate. Combine half of pear juice with two teaspoon lemon juice. Pour around fruit. Cream one-half cup butter until soft and blend in 1/4 cup sifted flour — add a pinch of salt and 1/2 teaspoon ginger — then cream into mixture 1/2 cup brown sugar. Place a heaping tablespoon on each pear and any left over pour in juice. Bake 300 F for 25 minutes. Serve warm with cream. Wonderful.

COST AND BELOW MATERNITY DRESSES at "800" SHOP are reduced to cost and below. So if you're on the Stock List, now is the time to take advantage of this wonderful SALE. "800" is famous throughout the state for their large assortment of MATERNITY DRESSES. All sizes and all styles to keep you a happy expectant Mother. Cottons are also included in the Sale. SPRING DRESSES have also come in for their share of price cutting. Highly styled and priced so you can afford more than one. "800" SHOP is located corner MONROE & CANTERBURY. Open Eve. "Moress sponsored."

Hattie Carnegie has "come up with" a dove pink linen summer suit. A one-piece dress with decollete neckline is topped by a brief little coat with flare back. Little boy collar and cuffs are embroidered in a fine lacy pattern like the delicate line of buttons.

Suede shoes, once reserved for fall and winter—are just as "good" in summer. I adore them, 'cause they are always comfortable.

Irish linen is back. It may not look like the Irish linen you remember in your childhood, and actually isn't, 'cause science has treated it to new crease-resistant finishes.

STORY OF LIGHT SHOWN IN B & L MUSEUM EXHIBIT

Visually and pictorially the story of light is graphically unfolded in the Hall of Optical Science, a new feature of the Rochester Museum which will be officially opened Saturday. It is the first modern industrial science exhibit to be presented by the museum and conforms to the current trend in museum exhibition techniques, designed for "audience participation."

The Hall, developed by the Bausch & Lomb Optical Co., discloses the story of optical science in America. The room is laid out in circular pattern and 22 exhibits portray the story of optics from the very beginning to the most modern contributions, leading to better vision, better education, better health, and greater opportunities in the pursuit of happiness. Most of the exhibits are operated by push buttons and control knobs which afford changing light effects and motion for the spectacular demonstration of optical principles. Raw materials are shown together with prisms and lenses used in the manufacture of all types of scientific and medical instruments. A Mechanized operating model of the Bausch & Lomb glass plant illustrates actual manufacturing operations. Lens grinding, optical precision, aerial mapping with the use of the Bausch & Lomb Miltiplex Projector, so important to military conquest in World War II, and the actual stereoscopic principle involved, are all demonstrated by the push of a button. "The Human Eye in Anatomical Transparencies" with its unusual pictorial illustrations and anatomical text, reveal the unlimited possibilities of visual instruction.

GEN. MacARTHUR 'MOST ADMIRER' POLL SHOWS

In a survey conducted by the Gallup Poll and its overseas affiliates on the question: "What person living today anywhere in the world do you most admire?" General Douglas MacArthur received the most votes in this country, reveals the July issue of '47—the Magazine of the Year.

Of twenty individuals chosen in the United States, Great Britain, France and Canada, only one in each group of five was not a military man or government leader, the survey shows.

William A. Lydgate, Editor of the Gallup Poll, lists Winston Churchill the most popular in both Britain and Canada. General de Gaulle leader in France, and MacArthur first in this country. '47's non-military runners-up, never higher than third in each group of five, are Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, George Bernard Shaw, Frederic Joliot-Curie (French atomic energy authority) and, in Canada, Pope Pius.

According to the results of the survey, Churchill is the only celebrity named in all four nations, also being placed in fourth place in France and fifth in this country. Joseph Stalin appears only once, listed as second most admired in France.

'47's complete listing for the U. S. is (1) General MacArthur, (2) General Dwight D. Eisenhower, (3) President Truman, (4) Mrs. Roosevelt, (5) Winston Churchill.

In Canada, President Truman is in the number four position ahead of the King and Queen of England, while in Britain itself, neither receives mention among the first five. The British most admire, in order: Churchill, Montgomery, Atlee, G. B. Shaw, and Ernest Bevin.

Lydgate concludes that: "Apparently the only way to get home sapiens to accord you lasting fame and respect is to be an expert either at giving him bread or at killing him."

300 Volunteers Offer Skin To Burned Vet

Olympia, Wash. — More than 300 persons volunteered to offer their skin that a veteran of three and one-half years in the South Pacific might live. Eldon Clark, 25, was critically burned in an explosion in his garage. Taken to a hospital, specialists said he had a chance to live if new skin could be borrowed. Word went out and volunteers went into action. Twenty-one persons with Type A blood volunteered to provide the skin needed in the delicate operation.

Tuesday afternoon and brought to The Sun office. Just on the chance that Paul might not see this notice, some of his friends who know his address or phone number ought to take it upon themselves to notify him where his lost papers are.

ED RANDALL'S
Scene & Word

Maybe you never heard the sad tale of the inebriated salesman who boarded a New York bound train in Chicago and after finding his compartment with considerable difficulty rang the bell for the porter. When this worthy made his appearance the alcoholic passenger fumbled a five-dollar bill out of his wallet, handed it to the porter and said:

"Now, look, George. I wanna get offa this train at Albany. Albany, hear me? Got a big deal pending there in the morning with the State department. I'm gonna make myself a lotta money on this deal and I must be there without fail. You be sure I get off at Albany, see. I may not wanna get off, but don't let that make any difference. You put me off. O. K.? Member that and it means another fin for you."

The porter assured the passenger that he would awaken him without fail. "You can depend on me, boss. If you want to get off at Albany, you'll get off at Albany. Nevah disappointed a passengah in twenty years. Yassuh, you-all are safe with me, suh."

When the train pulled into Grand Central Terminal in New York City the next morning the passenger who should have gotten off at Albany the night before was still aboard. He was now strictly sober and, to put it mildly, fit to be tied. The porter, several shades lighter and shaking like an aspen in the wind, was wishing heartily that he had never heard of the Pullman company, in fact, he regretted very sincerely that he had ever left the cotton fields of old Kentucky.

The fuming passenger demanded to see the Pullman conductor. Finally, through the joint efforts of this worthy and the porter, the indignant one was pacified momentarily on his insistence that the Station Master be called into the case. When the latter official arrived the whole incident was re-enacted with undiminished vigor. The passenger insisted the railroad was responsible for his loss of a large order and profuse apologies on the part of the railway officials were ineffective. Eventually the still angry man departed vowing dire threats against the Pullman company, the railroad and the train officials individually and collectively.

When the Station Master had caught his breath and mopped his brow, he turned to the porter and said: "Wow: Have you ever in all your life seen a man madder than that?"

"Only one, boss," replied the porter, shaking his head. "That gentleman I put off the train at Albany."

ber of buses operated on Main Street.

4. Failure to route busses across Main Street rather than on Main Street.

5. Operating busses in groups of two or more, rather than on equal distance of ten blocks apart.

We suggest that the following improvements be made, viz:

1. No left or right hand turns on Main Street between Broad Street and University Avenue.
2. Provide for continuation of Weekly Bonus Pass.
3. Limit number of rides on Weekly Bus Pass to thirty.
4. Provide for adequate supervision at all times.
5. Prohibit parking on bus franchised streets of 40 feet or less between curbs.

Make Other Suggestions
In a letter accompanying the petition to Albany, which has been received and acknowledged by the Public Service Commission, Scheid declared that rerouting of Lake-Park busses through Court Street; Dewey-Portland busses through Troup, Exchange, Court, Union, to East Avenue; and Lyell busses across Smith Street bridge down St. Paul to Cumberland turning at Franklin Square are some of the improvements which would "benefit all city bus riders."

Scheid had other suggestions for improvement including the issuance of a special 30-ride pass upon which he has asked the state body to act.

What would happen to an ordinary citizen under similar circumstances we will leave to your dear old Republican imagination. You may rest assured that the commissioner's little setto with the parked car will never come to court, nor will he be reprimanded by the Traffic Bureau. The niceties of accident reporting are for ordinary citizens only.
Rochester is a wonderful town to live in, providing of course you're in politics.
The resignation of Stephen H. Pollard as assistant district attorney caused a bit of a stir in City Hall circles. The back stairs talk is mostly supposition as to why Mr. Pollard suddenly decided to pick up his torts and subpoenas and fly off in a huff. It's a pretty fair guess however that the D.A.'s office has never been a department where brotherly love ran rampant and unconfined. Petty bickerings and jealousies made it difficult. Only about half the staff were on speaking terms.

The affair contrary to what many would have you believe is hardly worth comment except that if Mr. O'Mara is unable to replace Pollard and the now overworked but competent Micelli Henry and Little et al should balk at added tasks, Mr. O'Mara will at long last have to do some of the work himself.
And we might add, Heaven forbid!
The Republican Congress, those men with the mandate from the people, have done a wonderful job. They have accomplished much. They are honest, industrious and far seeing. They are terrific. These of course are facts brought out by Thomas E. Dewey at a recent 50 buck per plate GOP dinner.

If you wouldn't want you to take our word for it.
Prominently mentioned as a candidate for councilman on the Democratic ticket is youngish Bob O'Brien son of the late Smith O'Brien and, like his distinguished father, a lawyer.
We are not one for predictions but if the people of the South District should decide to cast their vote for him they'll get a lot better representation than they ever had before.
That in itself would be a novelty.

OUT OF THE MAIL BAG:
E. A. B.—No, The Sun was not kidding and neither was the deposed Dobbertin. Every police captain does know (or at least should know) where there are hundreds of one-armed bandits in operation. In fact The Sun has a list of over three hundred and we don't bother to keep it up to date.
Tenth Warden: Heavens to Betsy no—There are several wards that have more slot machines than you folks have. You don't want 'em all do you?
F. R. H.—No, we don't know the reason why ex-congressman Joe O'Brien did not march in the East Rochester parade. Maybe his feet are giving him trouble.
Mrs. W.—It isn't so much what we print about the local administration that is interesting. It's what we know and don't print that would curl your hair. We hate to confess it but we are very often too charitable with certain local administration elements.

RBI GROUP ORGANIZES 'SEARCH FOR TALENT'
The Brandeis Club of the Rochester Business Institute will hold its first annual "Talent Parade" on Wednesday June 25, at 8:15 p. m., in the R. B. I. Auditorium on Clinton Ave.
The program will feature Joe Deane, the "Dean of Popular Music" of Station WHEC as master ceremonies. He will seek to find the best talent in Rochester and vicinity in a search for the future "Stars of Rochester."
Five well-known personages will act as judges in the contest which will offer cash prizes amounting to $100.
The committee sponsoring the program is composed of: Al Grossman, chairman; Carl Zitrin, Sybil Ackerman, Ralph Carr, and Helene Blank.

beat down and strangle the workers of this country. A little more than five years ago this country got a stab in the back by a sneak attack from a powerful enemy. The only difference now, with this new stab in the back is that it comes from enemies within our own nation."

Krzycki declared that the only group in the country that could successfully stand against the "attacks of greed and selfishness" is labor and he exhorted his hearers to do all within their power to make their voices heard in the halls of Congress. He promised that if each did his part, the attack could be repelled, pointing out that it wasn't the first time that labor had had to fight "selfish interests."

"Whenever we have stood together, we have won," declared the Milwaukee labor leader. "And," he added, "we'll win this time if we work and fight together, shoulder-to-shoulder with workers throughout the country."

Krzycki was followed by Harold Hanover, secretary of the N. Y. State Federation of Labor who said that labor itself was partly to blame for the present state of affairs.

NEED FOR FIRE FIGHTING APPARATUS PROVED ON SPOT

Goshland, Me. — Proof of the argument which was going on in the Men's Club was provided when the chairman's wife, Mrs. Virginia Williams, interrupted discussion of plans to organize a fire department, by announcing that a nearby farm house was ablaze. The men sped to the fire but stood helplessly by as the house was destroyed. The need for fire-fighting apparatus was apparent.

Florida Waiter Weds Waitress in Restaurant

Fort Myers, Fla. — Although they had secured their marriage license, Mary Louise Shef-

fellow will be hurt again. We are all opposed to a sales tax, and rightly so. It does not make sense to invoke higher local taxes when the state has an unspent surplus of $600,000,000 dollars and is giving a 50 percent credit on state income taxes.

"The State has sources of revenue which are broad compared to a county or municipal city. The localities are without the necessary organization to collect the nuisance taxes and can only do so at prohibitive cost with months of delay. Governor Dewey would rather have this than involve himself in a State Income Tax increase in a Presidential year.

"In a matter of years we might be able to combine city and suburban schools in one group with a saving of cost. This will take time to work out. Meantime we are faced with this anticipated $900,000,000 deficit. We cannot wait. We are entitled to know from the Republican leaders what they intend to do. We cannot permit our schools to deteriorate. Education is important and should not be impaired. We have stated our position. We are opposed to an increase in real estate taxes. We are opposed to any new nuisance taxes, including a 2% sales tax. We believe that the deficit which applies not only to our country, but to the State at large should be met out of state funds. The Cartwright Plan of pay-as-you-go should apply to the Board of Education as well as other city departments.

"The Republican Assemblymen and Senators from Monroe County voted for the Dewey nuisance taxes. The Democratic representatives opposed the Dewey nuisance taxes. We are still opposed to these taxes. Where does Mr. Broderick and the Republican Party stand on this vital issue? We want to know if the Republican Party is going to put the sales tax law in effect either before or after election. Are they going to increase real estate taxes or will they go along with the Democrats and demand a repeal of the Dewey nuisance taxes? The people of Rochester and Monroe County await their answer."

WAKE UP, ROCHESTER!

The gravity of the crisis facing the whole American people — not just members of Labor Unions alone — was recognized by William O'Dwyer, Mayor of Greater New York, who issued the Proclamation at right, which appeared in the New York Times of Tuesday, June 3, 1947.

Time is running out for us who work for our living in Rochester. If the Taft-Hartley Slave Labor bill becomes a law, we will be right back in the middle of the sweatshop era — from which our blood, sweat and tears freed us after a half a century.

This is not a crisis in the so-called struggle between Capital and Labor—it is a crisis which confronts every man or woman, union or non-union, who works for his or her living, whether with hands or brains; it is a crisis which confronts every fair-minded businessman who knows that the just profit of his endeavors depends on the stability of industrial relations in his community; it is a crisis which confronts every far-sighted employer who knows that the productivity of his plant, and consequently his profit, depends on the stability and peacefulness of his labor relations.

The Councils representing the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations are joining in this plea to the people of Rochester to wake up to the grave danger that confronts all of us before it is too late.

Labor has made some advances during the past decade and a half—and those advances have been shared by Labor as a whole, not just Union members, although it took the power of the labor organizations to make the voice of the working people heard in the halls of Congress.

Now the reactionaries of Congress are in the saddle. They have heard their master's voice in the pompous mouthings of the National Association of Manufacturers, and are determined to take away from Labor—organized and unorganized—every right and privilege that would assure to the workingman a decent way of life and a fair share in the nation's prosperity.

Reactionary Republicans, aided and abetted by reactionary Southern Democrats, pushed the Taft and Hartley bills through both Houses of Congress. The enthusiasm of the Southern reactionaries is understandable. The down-trodden condition of Southern Labor has been notorious since the days of the "industrial revolution" in the South when the mill-owners substituted industrial slavery for the physical slavery abolished

Proclamation

WHEREAS, a free labor movement is one of the surest guarantees of a free nation; and

WHEREAS, the American labor movement has demonstrated an inspiring loyalty to our democratic form of government in time of peace and in time of war; and

WHEREAS, our free trade unions have made incomparable contributions to the advancement of democracy in our nation; and

WHEREAS, our free trade union movement is presently imperilled by legislation now before the Congress of the United States; and

WHEREAS, the legislation, known as the Taft-Hartley bill, would emasculate the Clayton Act, the Norris-La Guardia Act and the Wagner Act, laws which extirpated grave injustices against the workingmen of our nation;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, William O'Dwyer, Mayor of the City of New York, designate the fourth day of June, Nineteen Hundred and Forty-seven as a day of protest to our national authorities in Washington, D. C., against the enactment of this legislation which would be detrimental to the national welfare and our democratic system.

AND I further call upon all citizens of this city who oppose such restrictive measures to join with organized labor in making known to our national authorities that the surest road to industrial peace is through friendly cooperation and understanding between management and labor.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City of New York to be affixed this 29th day of May, 1947.

(Signed) William O'Dwyer

by Lincoln in 1863. Is that the kind of "prosperity" they are trying to bring back to the American worker?

The Taft and Hartley bills have passed. The reactionary forces in Congress are riding roughshod over all opposition. The one hope that remains for saving this country from industrial unrest and economic chaos lies in a veto of the conference bill by President Truman and the sustaining of that veto in Congress.

We, the people of America—tradesmen, employers, and workers alike—must let the President and Congress know that we gave our so-called representatives no mandate to murder American Labor and to take away from the man who works for his daily bread the standard of living he has won through years of struggle and sacrifice.

At the bottom of this page is a coupon urging the President to veto the Taft-Hartley bill. Fill it in and mail it to President Truman—NOW! Write or wire your Senators and Congressman to vote to sustain a Presidential veto!

DO IT NOW! This may be your last chance to make your voice heard against a law that would plunge us into the industrial Dark Ages again!

Hon. Harry S. Truman
The White House
Washington, D. C.

The standard of living which is an integral part of our American way of life will be destroyed if the Taft-Hartley Bill becomes law. It will have a disastrous effect on our entire economy. I urge you earnestly to veto that bill.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

If you think a rentable single house is hard to find, or a fifty cent haircut, you should be looking for Harold S. W. McFarlin. Trying to locate the Commissioner under normal circumstances has never been anything but a job for an expert but his present "Houdini" baffles not only our local Pinkertons but Boss Broderick himself.

Ever since the Commissioner tangled with a parked car in the wee hours of Tuesday week certain sources would like to have a few words with him. In fact the cops would like to have a look at his driver's license, a report on the accident and maybe they might, in a nice way of course, quiz him on why he should leave the scene of an accident.

Employees of the City garage no doubt would like to have some direction on the repairs to the city-owned car he was driving on his early morning pleasure jaunt. There is a rumor that Harold might want the car re-painted (at city expense of course) a baby girl pink, and his forty pound siren done over in gold leaf. Some suggest the car might look well with a small monogram (about a foot high) with the initials H. S. W. McF. rampant on a field of dollar bus passes.

Republican headquarters usually unperturbed by the vagaries of the faithful is reported to be in high dudgeon. (High dudgeon is fancy for "sore as a poll"). The man with so many initials cannot be reached at any of his offices, private numbers or old haunts. Not only do they wish to call him to task for his Tuesday night flaunting of the traffic and other laws but they would like to discuss his Wednesday week sortie into the airport.

After a fruitless search for the Commissioner on Tuesday week local police were "baffled". Local gendarmes "baffle" very easy when a GOP politician is involved. Nevertheless the man they sought appeared at the airport around 9:30 on Wednesday night and made what your aunt Mamie calls a "scene". He was loud-mouthed, abusive and "in-"

KODAK OFFICIAL NAMED TO HEAD MUNITION BOARD

President Truman yesterday announced the appointment of Thomas J. Hargrave, Eastman Kodak Company president, as executive chairman of the Army-Navy Munitions Board. On a scale never before attempted in peacetime, the board's job is to chart a workable plan for mobilizing industry in case of national emergency.

In addition to Hargrave, the top board consists of Under Secretary of War Kenneth C. Royall and Assistant Secretary of the Navy W. John Kenney. Succeeding Richard R. Deupree, president of Proctor and Gamble, Hargrave will carry out his Washington assignment on a part-time basis in addition to his Kodak duties.

Army Major General Sidney P. Spalding and Navy Rear Admiral Roger W. Paine guide the board's routine with the help of fifty Army and Navy officers and civil service employees.

Hargrave is close to the national industrial scene through his work as a director of the National Association of Manufacturers and member of the board of Associated Industries of New York State.

Local Soldier With Jap Occupation Force

Pvt. William B. Scouten, 20 Judson Ter. is serving with the famed fighting 1st Cavalry Division, which is on occupation duty in the ten prefectures of the Tokyo-Yokohama area.

Overseas since August 31, 1946, Pvt. Scouten is assigned to Headquarters Troop of the 8th Cavalry Regiment as a member of the ammunition and pioneering platoon.

Wide Interest Shown In New York Sun Tour

More than 100 of the available 300 reservations for the gala Independence Day Sun tour to New York were snapped up within four days of the first announcement of the tour made in these columns last week.

Indications are that at least another hundred will be reserved this weekend by Sun readers who appreciate high quality travel and entertainment value at the low cost made possible by this paper's Travel and Resort Department.

The tour to Manhattan will leave Rochester Thursday afternoon, July 3rd at 2:10 p. m. and arrive at Grand Central Terminal in New York City shortly before 10 p. m. that evening. From then until late Sunday night when the tour returns to Rochester a gay round of sightseeing tours, a cruise around Manhattan Island and a thorough exploration of fabulous Radio City in Rockefeller Center will be enjoyed by members of the party.

For the convenience of its patrons, The New York trip has been arranged as an independent tour. That means each individual and each group can go where it wants to when it wants. A grand four-hour sightseeing tour of uptown and downtown New York has been planned for Friday afternoon. But the

4-Way Ballot Battle Looms

With three tickets already in the field and a fourth expected to be named later this month, indications are that Rochester voters will have a wide choice of candidates upon which to pass in November.

This week the American Labor Party added its list to that of the Democrats, named last Thursday, and to the Republicans who on Wednesday redesignated all incumbents up for election. Fourth in the field, the Liberal Party was expected to make its decision at a meeting called for June 29 by John Shea, Monroe County Chairman.

While some quarters have predicted that the local Democratic ticket will suffer because some of its candidates are not known to the public, it is also conceded that the ALP ticket will suffer equally because some of its candidates are. One in particular, who is expected to add fire if not strength to the ticket, is Attorney James L. Brewer, perennial letter-to-the-editor writer, a one time socialist candidate for a judgeship and more recently an ALP candidate for various judicial offices. Other members of the ALP slate were recruited largely from the ranks of clothing worker members of the Amalgamated Garment Workers Union. Only Democratic designee endorsed by the borites is Thomas L. Higgins.

FORMER SUN EMPLOYEE MAKES POLITICAL BID

Employees and former employees of the Rochester Sun have, up to now, been content to sit on the political sidelines. But not so Howard Palmer. The one-time advertising department attaché of this newspaper is making a bid for political office this year as Democratic candidate for supervisor of the Third Ward.

Palmer, who lives at 207 Edinburgh St., left The Sun to fight in Uncle Sam's Navy during the war. He is now employed at Delco, is married, the father of three children and has received the unanimous endorsement of Democratic ward and committeemen from his home area.

situated himself into groups

where he was neither known nor wanted". Reports from several business and professional men who were awaiting an incoming plane indicate that the rampaging commissioner lost the GOP a mighty nice handful of votes and Mr. Broderick himself came in for a few sharp criticisms for allowing one of his boys to continually carry on in such a reprehensible manner.

"If 'the boss' should suggest that the city treasurer overlook Harold's next pay check it is quite likely the Union Trust Building will be favored with an early visit. Meanwhile those who park their cars on the streets at night are urged to find a garage at all costs.

Competent comptroller Frank C. Moore candidly declared that the state needed "something new" to finance increased teacher cost. Mr. Moore's mouthful probably put him on the purge list of one Thomas E. Dewey who although he has made no public comment is reputed to be inarticulate in his anger. To have Mr. Dewey angry would be no novelty but to have him inarticulate would be a decided relief. It is well known that in devising the tax-raising plan for teacher's increases Mr. Dewey neglected to consult Frank Moore. Moore of course knows more about state financing than Mr. Dewey will ever learn but no one has had the courage to tell the little governor that. Those close to Dewey say that the Governor feels that he was badgered into giving the teachers' their raise and he intends to let the badgering communities stew in their own juice.

Happily a few more counties show their courage each week. They serve notice on the governor that they are not going to levy the taxes authorized by the state legislature. Through their boards of supervisors the counties of Schenectady, Chemung and Wyoming became a part of a formidable list who intend to toss the problem back in the governor's lap. Meanwhile Moore has been lauded by editorially alert newspapers throughout the state for "his high degree of political courage". In other words he had guts enough to talk back to the firm-fisted governor who aspires to bring his high handed methods into the presidency.

Thus far the only county in the state to put forth their plan for a sales tax is Erie — and the merchants and public in Buffalo are none too happy about it. Characteristically, Monroe County has said nothing, done nothing.

Harry Truman must have often reflected on the phrase "I'd rather be right than president". With the Taft-Hartley bill coming up he is definitely in the middle. If he vetoes the bill he will lose some of the conservative Democratic and independent vote. If he signs the bill he will lose the Labor vote — and the Labor vote in such cities as New York, Chicago, Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Detroit can well mean the difference between carrying and losing the states with the big electoral vote.

Mr. Truman probably considered it a lot more fun being vice president.

Cecil B. Dickson the man who voted for himself as the best Washington correspondent and who has a flair for writing just the way his boss wants him to, said officially and on the front page of Tuesday's D & C that Mr. Truman made a mistake in vetoing the tax reduction bill. That we presume, is that!

who has been named for East District Councilman.

The Democratic list announc-new faces to the local political arena. Particularly surprising was, Bush's naming of Lawrence Edenhofer, 158 Barbary Ter., a "dark horse" candidate for Northeast District Councilman. His designation came as a surprise to many of the area's party leaders, but he had the endorsement of Patrick A.

Grimes, 22nd Ward leader and Sal Salone, leader in the Seventh Ward. Edenhofer's naming quashed a contest for the bid between Supervisors Val Rauber, Fifth Ward and Walter Rybacki, 17th Ward.

Others who will make the run on the Democratic ticket besides Hicks and Edenhofer are Robert E. O'Brien and John F. Noonan for councilmen;
James P. Sconfetti, city court judge; and John R. Byer, Jr., and Dr. Harold J. Quigley, school commissioners.

WHY Should Rochester Women's Garment Workers Get PAID less

Our Community will soon become a center for the manufacture of women's garments. Plans are being made and plants built. Several thousand will eventually be employed.

The Rochester community must now ask itself:

"When women's coats and suits are made in quantity here, what wages will be paid? Will they be the standard rate being paid in hundreds of coats or will they rise from coat to wages?"

The unquestioned pay envelope facts are these:

1. Workers making women's coats and suits get paid at least 40 percent more than workers in the men's suit industry.
2. The minimum wages of women's garment workers are far higher.

3. In the women's garment shops you find no favorites and so-called "key people" who get "better work" at the expense of others.

The International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union has built up these for better standards and other benefits for its 385,000 members through a half-century of constructive effort. More than 2,000 manufacturers, making up 98 percent of the entire women's coat and suit industry, have written contracts with us in good faith and are living up garments are sold everywhere. Any plan for a sub-standard women's coat and suit center in Rochester will not only take money from the pockets of Rochester workers but will also tend to destroy the stability of the industry upon which the earnings of all workers and the profits of all employers depend. Everybody will suffer - including Rochester.

Remember always that women's wear and men's wear are two different industries. That is why there is an International Ladies' Garment Workers' Union, founded in 1900 for women's wear, and an Amalgamated Clothing Workers of America, founded in 1913 for men's wear.

We do not know the eventual union adjustment in our community. That can wait.

But this all of us do know: Rochester workers are as good as any in the country. There is no need for them to be step-children of industry at very much smaller pay. They can use the extra money stores and the rest of the community can use the extra pay-rolls.

Thus, we urge all Rochester needleworkers: If you are called on to make women's coats and suits, make them by all means, but get paid what you are entitled to. Get women's garment wages for making women's garments. Your own interests now and in the future are at stake.

ticket was "one of the strongest in years" and represented all phases of the community.
His opinion was not shared, however, by leaders of the ALP who declared that the Democratic ticket was made up without consulting them. When their ticket was named on Thursday, Abraham Chatman, manager of the Joint Board of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers and power in the ALP declared that "there are some Democratic leaders who think they can do better without us." Even though he said this did not apply particularly to Bush, most political observers were inclined to include Bush within the range of Chatman's targets.
Whether or not Bush can win without ALP support is a matter of conjecture. But it is a matter of record that he has lost with them. Last year the labor group named its own ticket to oppose the Democrats, but later its candidates withdrew when Bush recognized some of their demands. The Democrats lost that election badly. Perhaps the Monroe County leader has felt the pulse of the voting public and is convinced he will gain more support among the city's conservative voting elements by shunning the labor party tie-up than he will lose by embracing them.
There is division among the laboring groups themselves. Angelo Rose, regional director of the Liberal Party, a conservative offshoot of the ALP, has announced that his party would name a separate ticket. Of course the possibility still remains that the ALP and the Democrats will get together. They have been at "swords point" prior to other elections, only to get together before election day rolled around.

THE BIGGEST SHOW IN TOWN

Interesting is the news that former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes has been engaged as special counsel for the motion picture industry to fight "encroachments upon the freedom of the screen." The action was necessitated by recent attacks on the industry which has been branded as liberally "Red" by various and sundry groups.

GHOSTLY EPIC—Gene Tierney and Rex Harrison share two thirds of the triple star spotlight playing in "The Ghost and Mrs. Muir" which is now at the Century Theatre. Third star in the highly-rated production is George Sanders.

'THE FARMER'S DAUGHTER' TOPS CAPITOL BILL

Loretta Young, Joseph Cotten and Ethel Barrymore, co-star in RKO Radio's romantic comedy-drama "The Farmer's Daughter" which highlights the screen bill of fare at the Capitol. The story is based on the adventures of a young housemaid who wins a seat in Congress and marries her employer, himself a congressman.

Miss Young, playing the housemaid, defeats the candidate sponsored by her employer, played by Cotten and by Miss Barrymore as his mother, Charles Bickford, in his first comedy role, is featured as Cotten's butler, a free and easy individual who calls his employers by their first names. The picture is Dore Schary production.

Second feature is "The Devil Thumbs a Ride," an exciting drama of a fugitive murderer's ingenious attempts to elude the police. Lawrence Tierney heads the cast.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

No one has suggested calling in the Pinkerton's to locate Commissioner Harold S. W. MacFarlin although the police admit they have not been able to locate him. The police, understandably, are not too keen on making a literal interpretation of the commissioner's traffic law violations. The man with the initials has friends in high places, although rumor hath it his recent escapades are losing them fast.

Our representatives have found that if you are high in the councils of the local GOP you do not have to remain at the scene of an accident until the police arrive nor do you have to appear at headquarters. At least that's what the brass at police headquarters tell us. The first four cops on the downtown beats tell us just the contrary. It's just a matter of living right and being high in public office. So don't leave the scene of an accident without reporting it, the chances are your name isn't MacFarlin.

The records at police headquarters are enigmatically inscribed. Under "condition of driver" are the words "not stated." Driver's license number is written in ink, the balance of the investigation report is typed.

The accident is also reported as a collision. In our books it takes two to make a collision and with both cars moving, not one of them parked driverless. No doubt any smash-up that rang the garage cash register to the tune of $362.00, is a collision. Incidentally the owner of the parked car received Mr. MacFarlin's check. For the present, at least, the city will not have to pay the charges for the commissioner's early a. m. driving spree.

No one knows too much about the new Labor law, or perhaps we should say new "anti-labor" law as yet. Most of the news has been devoted to the fact that the Senate successfully overrode the President's veto.

If management or optimists in general are of the opinion that the new bill puts an end to labor strife, prepare for a (See POLKA Page 6)

Tickets Ready For 4th of July Sun Tour of New York

Vacation-minded Rochesterians have only a few days left in which to join the Sun tour of New York City sponsored by Travel Department of The Rochester Sun.

The tour will leave on special, air-conditioned coaches from the New York Central Station next Thursday at 2:10 p. m. daylight time and arrive in Grand Central Terminal at 9:40 p. m. that evening. From then, until late Sunday night when the tour party returns to Rochester a gay round of activities including a sight-seeing tour of the city, a delightful cruise around Manhattan Island and a tour of Rockefeller Center including a trip to the Observation Towers high above the city have been planned.

The tour party will stay at Hotel Lincoln in the heart of the Times Square area during its visit to the city. Rooms with private baths and showers and individual radios have been set aside for tour party members.

Cost of the tour, whittled down by The Sun's bulk buying power and discount concessions has been set at $34.85 per person figuring two persons to a hotel room. A slight additional charge will be made for single occupancy of rooms in the hotel.

Several parties of four have already signed up for the tour in addition to those who will travel alone or with one companion. The rate is even lower for the parties of four.

The sightseeing tour of the city in modern coach buses has been carefully mapped to take the party through all the most interesting parts of the city— from Battery Park at the tip of Manhattan Island way up past the south end of Central Park. The east side, the bowery, (See TOUR Page 8)

Next Tuesday Is Sun-day

As a convenience to Sunshoppers, next week's issue of The Rochester Sun will be published and distributed on Tuesday, July 1, instead of Thursday. This will give thrifty shoppers two full days to take advantage of the many special holiday values their favorite stores have planned and will advertise in The Sun on Tuesday.

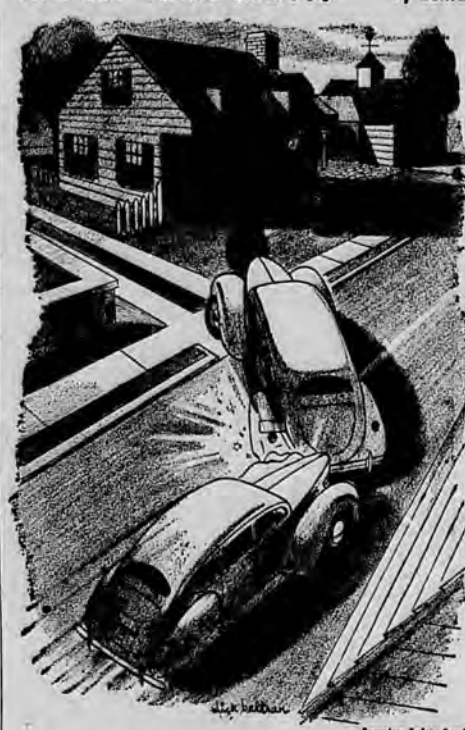

MAP PLANS FOR 'Y' BUILDING FUND DRIVE

Another campaign to benefit teen-agers and other young folks of Rochester will be set in motion early this fall when the YWCA and the YMCA join forces to raise $1,539,485 for new buildings and the rehabilitation of present structures.

Building fund of the two agencies already totals a million dollars raised three years ago, but the additional million-and-a-half will be needed to carry out present plans of the two social agencies' officials. Rising building costs are said to have added considerable to the amounts needed for the proposed construction plans. (See DRIVE Page 5)

YOU BET YOUR LIFE ...

... when you turn suddenly into your driveway without giving an adequate hand signal.

Last year 530 persons were killed and 71,530 persons injured because car drivers failed to signal or signalled improperly. It may be worth your life to accurately hand signal your intentions to the driver behind you.

'DADDY SUNSHINE' ASKS CARS FOR ANNUAL OUTING

One more sign that summer has at last arrived is the announcement that orphans, aged and the shut-ins of Rochester will have their annual field day in Genesee Valley Park on Wednesday, July 16 under the sponsorship of the 'Daddy Sunshine Assisting Committee.'

In case anyone has forgotten, "Daddy Sunshine" is Julius Friedrich spirit of the summer fete which this year is celebrating its 30th anniversary.

Through the generosity of Rochester merchants and manufacturers, the city's unfortunate will be treated to a full afternoon of entertainment and sports, a band concert, a variety show and will gorge themselves on peanuts, popcorn, hot dogs, pop and other delicacies.

All for free! Cars driven by volunteers will transport the picknickers to and from the park—that is—providing enough cars can be corralled. Right now the sunshine man is wearing a slight frown because his committee is getting more applications from people who want to attend than he has offers of cars and drivers to get them to the park.

This week the committee, headed by Mayor Dicker, Frank Joyce and R. C. Meisenzahl, in addition to Friedrich have sent out an SOS for cars and drivers. Approximately 150 cars will be needed and those who can give the afternoon of July 16 to the old folks, the handicapped and the orphans are asked to contact committee headquarters at Main 6069 or Main 2632.

Better Housers See Subsidy In Fernwood Project

What is subsidy sauce for the middle and upper income brackets goose ought to be sauce for the lower-income groups gander. At least, that is the opinion of the Better Housing Association which this week, pointed out that Fernwood Park building project, constructed by banks and builders under the "Rochester plan" received a healthy subsidy from the City of Rochester.

MUSEUM OFFERS COURSE FOR YOUNG ACTORS

Budding thespians will have an opportunity to pick up some pointers on the execution of their art at the Rochester museum this summer. Miss Marion R. Peake, head of the museum's school service division has revealed plans for an 8-weeks course in acting for boys and girls of high school age.

The class will meet three evenings a week during July and August.

The course, based on the Stanislavski method will be directed by Jon Tenor, a former Rochesterian, who is now connected with the Actors' Laboratory. John Garfield's Little-Theatre Experiment, in Hollywood, California. Through a series of lectures and work periods with class participation, all forms of theatre art—drama, stage, screen, radio, coming television — and what it can mean, will be taught. Acting, voice and diction, play analysis and the more technical aspects of the theatre will be stressed.

There is no admission fee and all young people who are interested may apply at the Museum, 657 East Ave. or call Miss Peake, Monroe 7608.

POLKA . . .

shock. Obviously in the United States at least, to put a law on the books is one thing, to make it work is another. Prohibition of the sale of alcoholic beverages will long remain a classic example of a law that was on the books but failed to function.

There are people who will benefit by the new bill. They are the country's lawyers. Every one of the countless loopholes and evasions will be tested and the Supreme Court will have a very, very busy year.

Many were hopeful that big-bodied, big-mouthed John L. Lewis would be whittled down to size, and the impending coal stoppage averted. However the law specifically states that one of those and using this as a safety, John has already pulled one if those and using this as a reason he can well declare another.

Unfortunately the bill will have to be a law a long time before it will help or hinder either management or labor. Meanwhile the legal talents of the country will be exercised ad nauseam — but extremely profitably.

Under the new law federal government employees are strictly prohibited from striking. They will have to get their raises the long, hard way (after all the rest have gotten theirs).

Which is another reason for men and women to seek anything but a political career.

Rumor hath it that about one half of the mail weighed and then placed in its proper category by Senator Robert Taft's secretaries, emanates from indignant housewives who complain about the high cost of living. Many were "sold" on the idea it would be pleasant to shop without OPA coupons and restrictions and went along with the Ohio senator's thinking. Now that it doesn't work and their food budgets go overboard every week they are mad.

Taft policies and Taft thinking are going to lead us smack bang into an even more vicious spiral of inflation unless they are halted. Bob has been looking after the big boys who cry "free enterprise" and they certainly should have no complaint. Removal of excess profits taxes, price controls, and desire to cut taxes instead of pay off the debts are some that should make them happy.

A thoroughly trained lecturer will travel in each of the coaches to point out and explain the passing view.

Approximately 75 reservations remain available for the tour. Those who have already made reservations are now picking up their tickets and those who have not yet made definite arrangements to pick up their tour tickets are asked to contact the Travel Department at Stone 8000. Reservations will be available daily between 10 a. m. and 5 p. m. through next Tuesday when the lists will be closed. A deposit now will hold reservations until Monday.

DRIVE . . .
The fund drive will be headed by Mrs. Wesley M. Angle, churchwoman and wife of a Rochester industrialist, who has been a member of the YWCA board of directors for 15 years, member of the national board for 12 years, and chairman of the building committee.

According to announced plans, major portion of the funds will be allocated to the YWCA for a new building to be erected on the present site at Franklin St. and Clinton Ave. N. and on adjoining property given the agency by Mrs. Henry Alvah Strong. Balance of the money will be used for rehabilitation and alterations or several buildings and other capital needs of the YWCA.

Why this discrimination is fostered by the two daily papers has never been satisfactorily explained, but it is known that the papers' editors and best minds do not favor a housing authority. Fighting against the odds of a "hostile press" and with few outlets for their side of the story, the advocates of public housing nevertheless are sticking to their guns, pointing up facts, answering arguments and continuing to enlist the sympathies and cooperation of an ever more imposing list of citizens. Even some of the so-called "best minds" have joined the clamor for some sort of public housing program that will see homes built to clear slum areas and provide decent, low cost rental housing for lower income groups.

police and health services to low-income families in those areas, and replace delinquent taxes with a definite sum in lieu of taxes.

The Rochester Sun, Thursday, June 26, 1947 Page 9
ity advocates, "Fernwood cannot be rented for less than $60 a month and similar proposed garden-type apartments will rent from $62 to $110 a month, such projects are not the answer to the 'crying' need for low-rent housing in Rochester. We must cut the pattern to fit the cloth," is the logical conclusion of the housing association report.

Officials of the Better Housing Association declared they were not deploring the subsidy given to the Fernwood project in citing the city's contribution but they are wondering why, if the present city administration approves of a city subsidy for a middle-income group, so many of those same city officials and their supporters object so strenuously to a state or federal subsidy which, say the housers, would not only clear the slums, but also cut down city expenses in fire.
