WOMEN PREPARE FOR ANNUAL PICNIC NEXT WEDNESDAY, JULY 27

With their annual picnic less than a week away, Tenth Ward Republican Women are bending all efforts to equal and surpass former standards. The outing will be held next Wednesday, July 27, at Ontario Beach Park and the ticket committee is in hopes of insuring a crowd of 3,000 or more.

Arrangements have been made for a concert by Julius Friedrich's girl band of 22 pieces. The band will furnish music throughout the day until 7:30 in the evening.

Mrs. Elizabeth Milne, chairman of the supper committee, is all prepared for one of the most exacting tasks of the outing—feeding the huge crowd in an efficient and rapid manner. A change in the customary menu this year will be made and specially baked ham will be served as the entree. Although the ticket price is set at a low figure, the repast will offer generous portions in considerable variety as in previous years, states Mrs. Milne. Afternoon and evening will be taken up with a varied program of sports for grown-ups as well as the youngsters and there will be prizes for all events. The youngest and oldest persons on the grounds will be awarded with prizes.

Mrs. Frances L. Thomson is general chairman of the picnic committee, which includes the following:

The three prizes are as follows: first, 27-piece set of dishes; second, basket of groceries; third, 3-pound box of Vonglis chocolates. The contest has no complications other than explained and the holders of the winning numbers will be presented their prizes immediately on presentation. Names of the winners will be announced in the next issue.

Week End Program

Tonight—"Reserved for Ladies" with Leslie Howard (new star); and "Fast Companions" with Tom Brown.

Fri.-Sat.—"Young Bride" with Helen Twelvetrees; and "Riders of Death Valley" with Tom Mix.

Sun.-Mon.-Tues.—"Two Seconds" with Edward G. Robinson; and "Thunder Below" with Tallulah Bankhead.

Sunday-Monday Tuesday Features

Additional evidence of the versatility of Edward G. Robinson, as a master delineator of human types is provided in his latest starring vehicle for First National Pictures, "Two Seconds."

In previous film roles Robinson has appeared as gunman, gambler, editor and oriental. He has always been a stone-hearted man, dominating men and events with an inflexible will and daring which carried all before it. In "Two Seconds," however, he portrays John Allen, a hard-working iron worker who is a victim of circumstances.

As Allen, Edward G. Robinson makes a radical departure from the characters he has been giving American picture audiences, beginning with "Little Caesar" and through "Five Star Final" and "The Hatchet Man." The actor himself regards the character as the most difficult he has been called upon to portray since his entrance into pictures. Metropolitan critics have hailed Robinson's performance in this picture as one of the brilliant achievements of the dramatic season.

A complete seven-room tropical home with garden recently was completed and furnished on a stage in a Hollywood film studio.

It was built on one of the sound stages for use in Tallulah Bankhead's current Paramount starring picture, "Thunder Below." Assisting Miss Bankhead in the feature roles are Charles Bickford, Paul Lukas, Eugene Pallette and Ralph Forbes.

This is one of the few times a scenic structure has been designed and constructed in its entirety. The average film home has rooms scattered over several stages instead of actually adjoining one another.

John Marshall Zone to Hold Ice Cream Social

All schools and churches in the John Marshall zone are co-operating in donating cakes, candy and articles for a fishpond, and in selling tickets for an ice cream social Friday evening, July 29, on the grounds of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer in Dewey avenue. Money raised will be used to keep the playgrounds, which have been organized in this community, open for the rest of the summer and to buy much-needed equipment for them.

Parents all through this section of the city are so enthusiastic about the valuable work being done on the playgrounds in providing supervised play for their boys and girls, that a most gratifying response has met this effort to raise money, according to members of the committee.

Each school and church in the John Marshall zone of the Community Council on Summer Activities, of which W. C. Storandt is zone chairman, sent representatives to a meeting held in the rooms of the Tenth Ward Republican Club on July 11. At this time it was decided that an ice cream social was the most satisfactory way to raise money in this community.

The Lutheran Church of the Redeemer consented to the use of its grounds, which are central, and well suited for a social. Mrs. A. A. Lohwater, President of the Parent-Teachers' Association of School 41, who is chairman of the social, appointed women from each organization to take charge of soliciting and selling tickets in their own groups.

The following are some of the women who are working on committees: School 41—Mrs. A. A. Lohwater, Mrs. H. A. Faber, Mrs. L. M. McCowan; School 40—Mrs. E. P. Moore, Mrs. J. W. Newton, Mrs. P. A. MacInnes; Sacred Heart School—Mrs. L. S. Everts; Lutheran Church of the Redeemer—Mrs. W. C. Storandt, Mrs. Harry Peters, Mrs. Alfred Doe, Mrs. Fred Kress; Church of the Ascension—Mrs. A. P. Culbertson, Mrs. H. McDonald; Dewey Avenue Presbyterian Church—Mrs. Milton Filius; Dewey Avenue Reform Church—Miss May Durkin.

The tickets to the social are fifteen cents, each ticket having three five-cent coupons. Besides ice cream and cake there will be hot, soft drinks, ice cream cones and a fishpond on which to spend the coupons.

BOY SCOUTS

Here's a mess kit you'll like. It includes frying pan with long adjustable handle, sauce pan, cup, plate, knife and fork and canvas carrying case with adjustable strap. Cut out this advertisement. It is worth 50c on the purchase of this kit which sells regularly for $2. Beckwith's, 271 Lyell Ave.—Adv.

REFINISHING

It's cheaper in the long run to take care of your furniture. Refinished pieces will look as good as new, even though now perhaps badly marred. You can trust even a delicate antique for re-finishing to Jack Fogg, formerly of Hubbard, Eldredge & Miller, 77 Primrose St. Glen. 1345-J.—Adv.

Seeking Volunteers for Playground Leadership

Have you any spare time you could contribute to volunteer playground work? The playgrounds are badly in need of volunteers for groups of boys and girls of all ages. Fathers and mothers, and boys and girls over sixteen who could take groups for even a morning or afternoon a week for some special activity or for games and sports, would be doing a fine service for the community.

In other zones of the city volunteer playground workers have formed classes in such activities as drawing and painting, clay modeling, blue print reading for boys and girls of senior high school age, nature hike clubs, elementary photography, airplane modeling, ship modeling, artwork, leathercraft and art metalry, sewing classes, dramatics. There are many activities which could be carried on at the playgrounds if there were volunteers to take charge of them.

The John Marshall zone of the Community Council on Summer Activities has organized playgrounds at School 41 and School 40, besides a play school on the grounds of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer on Dewey Avenue. Burnell Farnan has been engaged for the summer to supervise the playgrounds in this zone.

If you can give some time to working on the playgrounds, in any capacity, get in touch with Mr. Farnan by phoning Charlotte 1364-R, or at the playground at School 41.

DEWEY IMPROVEMENTS APPROVED BY COUNCIL NOW UNDER PROTEST

The long-discussed improvement of Dewey avenue between Ridge road and the city line and sanitary and outlet sewers to drain the areas between Dewey and Lake avenues and adjoining streets were provided for in a local improvement ordinance adopted on June 28 by the City Council. The estimate of cost was set at $270,000 for the pavement and $260,500 for the sewers.

The ordinance is now said to have been invalidated because the necessary number of Councilmen were not present at its passage and new developments have arisen which may have an important bearing on the improvements. One is a proposal advanced by the departments of public welfare and public works and the other is the threatened protest of a group of property owners in the affected area.

Leo A. McSweeney and John G. Ellendt last week proposed that the sewer work be done by men who are receiving aid from the city, thus probably lowering the cost and at the same time giving the city return for its welfare investment. The proposal has been taken up by the Emergency Work Committee and state approval will be sought.

A protest meeting was called for last night at the Tenth Ward City Manager headquarters in Driving Park avenue at which time action to delay the improvements was to be discussed. Many of the property-owners were said to have been opposed to the ordinance because they felt that they would be unable to stand the cost at this time. However, none appeared at the June 28 Council meeting when a hearing was held, according to newspaper reports.

Councilman Nelson A. Milne, who introduced the ordinance, could not be reached this week for comment upon possible further action. It is probable that the matter will again be discussed at the next meeting of the Council scheduled for August 9.

Church News

Redeemer Lutheran—The women of the Bethany Guild assisted by the Brotherhood and other organizations of the church will hold an ice cream social and lawn fete on the Parish lawn, Dewey and Knickerbocker avenues, this (Thursday) evening, to which the public is most cordially invited. Ice cream and home-made cake, hots and pop, and other refreshments will be served. Games and quoit pitching will be enjoyed.

Mrs. Carrie Kress is chairman of the committee, and will be assisted by Mrs. Graden, Mrs. Gleffe, Mrs. Hammer, Mrs. Haskins, Mrs. Hape, Mrs. Herrman, Mrs. Karweick, Mrs. Knitt, Mrs. Krueger, Mrs. Ladwig, Mrs. Lange, Mrs. Liestman, Mrs. Lewis, and Mrs. Lemcke. Mrs. Lidfeldt, who was to have been assistant chairman, is now in the Strong Memorial Hospital recovering from an operation as the result of an automobile accident.

The Seniors' Luther League and the choir will hold their annual picnic Saturday afternoon at the summer home of Kenneth and Helen Woehr at Shore Acres. All young people of the church are invited to join in this picnic and are requested to meet at the Parish House at one-thirty o'clock where automobiles will be waiting to convey all to the lake. The committee in charge of arrangements consists of Alvira Mender, Dorothy Karweick, Helen Woehr, Marion Low, Mrs. Doe, Leonard Hamner, Arthur Mountain, Wallace King, Alfred Wietz, Donald Whittington, and Carl Schaedlich.

The Ninth Sunday After Trinity will be celebrated next Sunday morning at ten-thirty o'clock in appropriate services with sermon by the Rev. W. L. Dowler on the theme "The Supremacy of Jesus Christ." The chorus choir will sing "We Would See Jesus," by Brackett. The efficient director of Redeemer Choir, Miss Thankful Spaulding, is now in New York City where she is taking a special course in musical appreciation and chorus directing at Columbia University. The last Sunday in July, Charles Schaad and his male quartet, who have won special honors in the school contest, will be present to furnish special music for morning worship.

North Presbyterian—Vacation School closes tomorrow after a successful season. The hours between nine and eleven-thirty every morning have been busy times. The boys and girls have taken a fine interest in the work and the hours have been entirely too short. The spirit of worship has always been manifested whether it be actual worship or during the play period or while the work-shops are open.

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, the church secretary, was connected with the Aurora Conference at Aurora, New York, recently, being a member of the faculty of instruction. Attending the Conference with Mrs. Miller were Harriet Miller, Eleanor Herrle, Gordon Steinfelt and William Muir.

The minister for Sunday, July 24, will be the Reverend B. R. Larrabee, who will preach in the absence of Mr. Findlay. The summer ministers during the month of August are the Reverends T. T. Hays, Robert Wells Veach, William G. Kennedy and Ralph D. Allott. They will preach in the order mentioned.

The second Sunset Pilgrimage will be held July 31 at Adams Basin, the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Clement.

On Sunday, July 31, the young people's division of the Sunday School will conduct the second Sunset Pilgrimage of the season to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore G. Clement, at Adams Basin. The program committee, Miss Dorothy Rhodes, chairman, promises as enjoyable an event as was conducted the last Sunday in June, at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Davison at Hilton Beach. The young people invite members of the congregation to enjoy with them this second pilgrimage.

On Saturday, July 23, the Young People's Sunday Evening Group will sponsor a hike at Mendon Ponds. They will meet at the church at two o'clock, each bringing lunch. Coffee will be provided by the committee.

Direct-to-you Selling Discussed in Magazine

Following is an excerpt from "The Valve World," heating and plumbing publication:

"There is more than mere business policy involved in the method of distributing certain manufactured products, especially those which both directly and indirectly concern the health, safety and comfort of the users or consumers. The welfare of the user often is, or should be, a determining consideration. A 'direct-to-you' selling policy may be both safe and sound for one class of products but distinctly unsafe and unsound for another class.

"Keeping in mind the health, safety and comfort of the user, we would place in the latter class the general run of plumbing and heating materials—that is, materials which require expert installation for the giving of maximum service to the user. If such products should come directly into the hands of the user and he should undertake to install them himself, there would be an obvious danger that they might fail in one or all of their three-fold purpose—the protection of health, the assurance of safety, and the increase of comfort.

"It would seem, therefore, that the business policy which excludes 'direct-to-you' selling as a method of distribution for such products and distributes them exclusively through established trades, serves the double purpose of protecting the user and of fostering those trades that through skill, experience and the investment of capital have become qualified so to install these products that they will give the greatest amount of service and satisfaction. The man who, without the requisite skill and knowledge, undertakes to do his own plumbing or piping, gambles not only with his own health, safety and comfort but with the health, safety and comfort of others. The general welfare demands that he should be protected against himself."

Lady Caller: "Is the manager in?"

Office Boy: "No, he just went out to lunch with his wife."

Lady Caller: "I see. When he gets back with his stenographer, tell him his wife called."

Colonial Garden Party Is Picturesque Affair

A Colonial Garden Fete, given under auspices of the Church of the Ascension, at the home of H. F. Loury, Lake road, Clarkson, last Saturday, Mrs. Ralph Olcott, chairman, had the assistance of a large committee in carrying out the program for the day.

At one o'clock the affair got underway and from that time until closing several hundred people passed into the grounds, the majority purchasing their supper and remaining for the band concert in the evening.

Pupils of Mrs. Florence Colebrook Powers staged a dance revue on the grass court at the rear of the garden and the piano was located in a vine covered pergola at the end of a walk paralleling the court.

A few of the ladies were costumed in dresses of the 18th century which gave an added colonial touch to the occasion. Robert Ascroft in suitable attire portrayed the coach driver.

The prize for the best decorated booth went to the Little Helpers' Auxiliary. The cash prize, won by Miss B. Lux in the balloon contest, went to St. Margaret's Guild, which she represented. Janette Zonneville won the bubble contest for girls while Wayne Olcott took the honors for boys.

The amusement concessions were kept busy through the day and the home cooked food, hots, coffee and ice cream were sold out early in the evening.

The young people enjoyed dancing to the Chili band music. The antique exhibit was well patronized afternoon and evening, causing much interested and favorable comment.

Many people enjoyed playing bridge on the south lawn, the prizes being silhouettes of colonial design. At dark the grounds were lighted with red, white and blue lights.

F. G. Luehm of Seneca parkway was winner of the pair of century-old brass candle sticks, given as gate prize by Mrs. L. S. Pierce. H. S. Thorpe kept his movie camera in action throughout the day and the films will be projected under the auspices of St. Margaret's Guild at a later date.

Many old acquaintances were renewed at this huge gathering, and the committee was greatly pleased with the co-operation given by parishioners, their friends, churches and business houses which donated prizes and loaned their equipment.

Bits of News

Confirmation of rumors that had been circulating about town to the effect that the present police drive against traffic violations had its inception with the higher automobile insurance rates announced this Spring may be read into the statement in city newspapers this week of Ernest A. Paviour, insurance man. Mr. Paviour anticipates that the strict enforcement of traffic rules will result in fewer accidents and a lowered insurance rate perhaps a year from now. . . . Regardless of the reason for the drive, there is no doubt of its effectiveness, despite claims of convicted violators to the contrary, and a permanent continuance of this vigilance on the part of police officers will bring back safety to our streets. The present drive is an intense one and no doubt some times the lines are drawn pretty fine to establish violation, but perhaps we should be comforted in the knowledge that this is the kind of safety education we really need. Respect for law after all is just respect for the rights of others.

Large sales and small profits is reflected in the land office business done since about the first of July in the white cap business. The New York Times says that a couple of fellows out of a job conceived the idea of making up the caps to sell at 25 cents just to provide themselves with a little work. But the idea "took" and the wardrobe that doesn't boast a white cap at the present moment is hardly complete. Nearly all cap-makers have plunged quickly into the new field and neighborhood stores report sales as high as five and six dozen per week.

People lined up on Lake avenue four deep last Friday night in a line extending from Flower City park to Ridgeway avenue, intent on getting into the Riviera Theatre. Four thousand people managed to get in to see the show and many hundreds more were turned away. Six policemen officiated quite efficiently and there was no disturbance and no complaint, even though many of the people stood in line from one to two hours. . . . The winner of the automobile given away by Independent Merchants was drawn from the stage of the Riviera, and everyone wanted to be inside to see the drawing and to learn if perchance they were not the lucky ones. There must have been many coupons among those people, yet the winner apparently was not present. . . . How people do love the thrill of a contest and something for nothing. . . . Movies were taken of the crowds and will be shown tomorrow night on the Riviera screen.

Friends are requested to refrain from mentioning cows in the presence of Bob Newell or Harry Eastman, grocers. George Rogers, their erstwhile friend and fellow-grocer, just about ruined any respect they may have had for that animal on their recent fishing trip to Canada. Bob and Harry were up three successive mornings at four o'clock, before they discovered that a loud "moo" which had awakened them, was originating in the bedroom of George. A small toy cow in George's hands, they finally discovered, was the animal they had sought for three days.

A man unaccustomed to praising his wife went out of his way to call her an angel.

"Mary," he said one morning, "you are an angel," and she felt charmed all day.

In the evening she ventured to ask why she had been so honored. "Well," said the wily one, "in the first place, you are always fitting about; secondly, you are always harping on things; thirdly, by your own account, you have nothing to wear; and fourthly, you are up in the air most of the time."

"Well, doctor, how am I?"
"Very well, your legs are still a bit swollen, but that doesn't disturb me."
"Sure, doctor, if your legs were swollen it wouldn't disturb me either."

Radio Tips, Questions and Answers

By H. S. Russell

Radio receivers for the 1933 season are showing a marked tendency to fall into one of two classes—the very low priced 4 or 5 tube midget type or the de luxe 11, 12 and 14 tube "de luxe" jobs.

It is interesting to note that radio as well as auto history is repeating itself. Years ago there were many 8's and 12's among the large cars. Then these faded from the field until a car with more than 6 cylinders was an exception. Now 8, 12 and 16 cylinders are used by nearly all manufacturers.

Radios, similarly, used to employ 8 or 9 tubes in the average receiver. Then the swing came to midget sets and with few exceptions 4, 5, 6 and 7 tube sets were the sellers. This year's market shows a dividing of the ways—the small set getting smaller and the large set more de luxe with the 7 and 8 tube "middle size" receivers getting little attention.

These new multi tube sets are interesting and worthy of notice. They contain automatic volume controls that really work, are very sensitive (able to "get" distance) and selective. In Rochester it is questionable if more than one station could be heard at a time anywhere on the dial, regardless of how well "they were coming in." This is what many radio owners would call paradise because the crowded condition of the "air" at present makes it impossible to listen with pleasure to certain stations with receivers built several years ago.

Tonal quality has been stressed in these new de luxe receivers. The audio or sound systems have been improved to give great volume without rattle or distortion or to "tone down" to a whisper without losing the bass notes muffling or "fuzzing" the program. Twin speakers, as found in the big sets, add much to the volume and clarity and richness of tone. While not a new idea, they are new in practice and in my estimation the best "point" in the 1933 de luxe radio receivers.

This is thunder storm season. If any part of your house aerial or lead in is exposed (runs outside the house) your insurance company and your safety demand lightning arrester protection. Better check your aerial and see whether or not you are protected.

LITTLE DROPS OF INK

ONE of the advertisers in the first issues of the Tenth Ward Courier was the Schmanke Shoe Store, now Schmanke's Brownbilt Shoe Store. We are pleased to present herewith Mr. Schmanke's comment on the advertising merit of this publication, especially since it is the reaction of one of the veteran business men of the Ward who through consistent advertising has tested amply the effectiveness of The Courier.

"We know of no better medium of bringing a message before the people of this community than the Tenth Ward Courier. We have used The Courier since the first issue was published in 1928 and it has proved it has a real drawing power. We have had special opportunity to check it on special events, sales and seasonal appeals and we can only commend the results it brought. . . . The Courier merits the support of merchants in advertising to the people of this ward, for in every prosperous community there must be a contact between the residents and the business establishments. Our Tenth Ward Courier has accomplished that admirably.

An appeal for more books, magazines and victrolas for the Newark State School is being made by Mrs. B. F. Thompson of Texas street with the assistance of a local committee. Mrs. Thompson, who is a member of the board of directors of the school, will receive donations at her home, 35 Texas street, or a phone call to Glen 3689-J will bring some one to pick them up.

Mrs. Bertha Bush of 133 Maryland street will also receive the donations.

There are 1400 girls and women and 500 boys and men at Newark, states Mrs. Thompson, and the gifts of old books, magazines and victrolas provide enjoyment otherwise lacking. Visitors are welcome to inspect the school.

MAY IS GUEST ORGANIST AT ORGAN'S DEDICATION

Edward C. May of Lakeview park, manager of the Riviera Theatre, was guest organist on July 7 at the dedication of the new $10,000 Wurlitzer organ at the Schine Geneva Theatre. Mr. May played a variety of numbers to demonstrate the possibilities of the new instrument, including "Rhapsody in Blue," a selection from "Rose Marie" and "The American Patrol." He also played for song slides.

He rounded the bend at close to forty. A sudden skid, and the car overturned. They found themselves sitting together, unhurt, alongside the completely wrecked car. He put his arm lovingly about her waist but she pushed it away. "It's all very nice," she sighed, "but wouldn't it have been simpler to run out of gas?"

MILNE TO BE READY SOON WITH FACTS IN DEWEY IMPROVEMENT

The controversy that has marked the proposal of a new pavement for lower Dewey avenue and sewers for a large adjoining area has somewhat subsided with the announcement from Councilman Nelson A. Milne that no improvements will be voted by the Council without the approval of residents of the affected area.

Councilman Milne stated this week that apparently the paving of Dewey avenue from Ridge road to the city line was definitely out in deference to the wishes of the property owners. The sewer proposal, however, is under investigation and the Councilman hopes that it may yet gain the consent of the taxpayers.

Negotiations are in progress with the state government to get approval for the sewers as a Work Relief project. If these are successful, Mr. Milne states that a saving in the neighborhood of $100,000 may be effected. The sewers affect a wide area and must be laid in the near future, regardless of circumstances and Mr. Milne feels that if the work can be done as a Work Relief project it will bring about a saving such as cannot be overlooked. The estimated cost of the sewers is $260,500 but this is spread over a wide area between Dewey and Lake avenues and extending down into a large portion of the 23rd Ward. Consequently, Mr. Milne explains, the cost to any one property owner would not be large.

Within the next few days the Councilman expects to be ready for a meeting of the property owners. He will know shortly whether or not the work can be carried out under the Work Relief Plan and he will also have considerable more data as to costs. These facts and figures he will present before the property owners and will then abide by their decision.

The atmosphere of controversy

Lake-Ridge Association Holds Its Annual Picnic

More than one hundred members and friends of the Lake-Ridge Business Men's Association attended the fourth annual picnic of the organization, held yesterday afternoon at Corbetts Glen. An automobile parade attended by a police escort started the outing, leaving Owen street at 1:30 o'clock for the picnic grounds.

A full program of sports, including two baseball games, occupied the afternoon. Prizes donated by the business men were awarded to the winners of the games and races. Refreshments were served throughout the afternoon, and a picnic supper was served at 6 o'clock.

John Frear, president of the association, served as general chairman of the picnic, and was assisted by F. L. Clark. Harvey M. Johnson, Dr. C. W. Oster, and Frank Short were in charge of refreshments; I. B. Levin attended to the transportation; and the sports program was arranged by Charles P. Coster and Earle R. Clark. C. E. Marsh headed the ticket sale committee.

NEW MANAGEMENT

The Sue Kay Beauty Shop, formerly Allatt and Chase, 840 Dewey Ave., Glen, 1994, offers service, value and guaranteed satisfaction by graduate beauticians. Only finest supplies used. Natural, lustrous permanents $3.50, $5 and up.—Adv.

created between the Councilman and property owners by news articles in the local dailies was dissipated this week when Llewellyn Mahar of Dewey avenue, secretary of the property-owners' committee, asserted that there was no animosity toward Mr. Milne. The committee is ready to call another mass meeting, he said, as soon as Mr. Milne has his data prepared. The property owners, he said, are entirely aware of the need of the proposed improvements even though at the present time they are opposed to them for financial reasons.

ENTER THE COURIER CONTEST

Ten tickets to the Riviera Theatre will be given this week to ten readers of the Tenth Ward Courier. They will be given as prizes in The Courier spelling contest.

In one of the display advertisements in this issue a word has been purposely mis-spelled. It isn't such a hard word to spell, but you'll probably have to search the advertisements carefully to find it. When you find the word, write it plainly on a sheet of paper together with the name of the business house in whose advertisement you find it. Print your name and address on the sheet and get it to the box office of the Riviera Theatre at Lake avenue and Flower City park as soon as possible, either by mail or personal delivery.

The first ten correct answers received will be rewarded with one ticket each. The tickets will be good at any performance at the Riviera. You'll find it fun, get busy.

RIVIERA FEATURE REVIEW

Week End Program

Tonight—"Week Ends Only" with Joan Bennett and Ben Lyon; and "Street of Women" with Kay Francis.

Fri.-Sat.—"The Sea Ghost" with Laura La Plante and Alan Hale; and "The Man From Yesterday" with Claudette Colbert.

Sun.-Mon.-Tues.—"Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm" with Marion Nixon and Ralph Bellamy; and "No Greater Love" with Dickie Moore and Alexander Carr.

Sun.-Mon.-Tues. Features

The attributes that make Rebecca one of the best-loved characters of literature and the drama are said to have fitted Marian Nixon for the role in the Fox version of "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm."

Like the Rebecca who sprang from the creative brain of Kate Douglas Wiggin, creator of the original story, Miss Nixon possesses all the qualities which make for an interesting and lovable personality. She takes intense pride in her work, is considerate of others, and has a genuine friendliness and interest in people that has won her countless friends both as an actress of ability and as a private individual.

Like Rebecca, too, Miss Nixon is keenly imaginative, naturally buoyant, and by training and inclination she is wholeheartedly optimistic. All of these qualities were stressed by Alfred Santell, who directed the picture, and are given able emphasis by the sympathetic support of Ralph Bellamy. He is opposite Miss Nixon as the romantic Dr. Adam Ladd whose love for Rebecca dominates the plot.

Irish and Jew team up again to provide dramatic fare in "No Greater Love," but the combination is unique.

The Irish are represented by a little crippled girl and the Jews by Sidney Cohen, a delicatessen store owner, and the partnership takes place when Mildred's mother dies and "Uncle Sidney" adopts her.

RENT A RADIO

Radios for rent by day, week or month at reasonable rates. You can afford to take one to the lake with you or for any special occasion. J. C. Harrigan Radio Service, 1456 Dewey Ave. Glen. 4352.

The adoption takes place with the sanction of the church, the kindly old Catholic priest being willing to entrust the child's welfare to the Jew who would not interfere with another's religious beliefs any more than he would let another interfere with his own.

But the State is not so kindly disposed toward the adoption, as "Uncle Sidney" finds when Charity—organized charity that leaves the sweetness out—steps in and decides that an institution can help the crippled child far more than the man who has sold his business to raise a tremendous sum for an operation that he hopes will enable Mildred to walk.

So Charity steps out and no good comes of it to little Mildred or to "Uncle Sidney," either, until the old priest takes matters into his own hands, smashes right through a lot of red tape and sets all right in the little world of the wee Irish lass and the big kindly Jew.

Levin Market Contest Is Repeated This Week

Although hundreds of Courier readers responded, none were fortunate enough to have the winning numbers in the Levin Market prize contest announced in the last issue. There were many who came close to the numbers posted at Levin's, but none of the prizes were claimed.

Therefore, the three prizes are offered again this week with the addition of a $2.50 gold piece. In order to insure winners, however, numbers will be given out at the store this time in sealed envelopes. It will not be necessary to cut out the Levin advertisement this week.

The contest drew a gratifying response and the failure of any of the prize winners to appear was the only disappointment. Under the system this week, however, the winners for all four prizes will absolutely be determined.

The prizes besides the gold piece are a 27-piece set of dishes, a basket of groceries and a three-pound box of Vonglis chocolates. Further information may be obtained at the Levin Market, 1525 Lake avenue. Winners will be announced in the next issue.

OVER 3,000 ATTEND WOMEN'S OUTING AT ONTARIO BEACH PK.

An attendance estimated at over 3,000 featured the annual picnic of the Tenth Ward Republican Women last week Wednesday at Ontario Beach Park. The various committees under Mrs. Frances L. Thomson functioned well, as usual at the outings of the women, and the huge task of entertaining and feeding this large crowd was handled efficiently. A large program of sports was run off and supper was served at 5:30.

Among prominent guests were Harry J. Bareham, chairman of the Monroe County Republican Committee; Charles E. Bostwick, Tenth Ward leader; Congressman James L. Whitley, City Court Judge Arthur L. Wilder, Deputy County Clerk Thomas Mykins, Councilmen Nelson A. Milne and Joseph L. Guzzetta, Assemblyman Richard L. Saunders, Senator Frederick J. Slater, Charles B. Bechtold and William F. Zimmer.

Chairmen of committees were: reception, Mrs. Jessica Bostwick; tickets, Mrs. Catherine S. Reynell; supper, Mrs. Elizabeth J. Milne; tables, Mrs. Elizabeth Doty; supplies, Mrs. Rose Meyerhoff and Mrs. Florence McArthur; serving, Mrs. Harriet Wadman, Mrs. Bertha A. Bush and Mrs. Rose Campbell; lollipops, Miss Agnes Mellett; prizes, Mrs. Maud E. Bunn; orangeade, Mrs. Lucy Raymond; tags, Mrs. Florence Coppinger; sports, Miss Harriet Cimino and Miss A. Jeanne Oster; publicity, Mrs. Agnes M. Paskal.

Church News

North Presbyterian—Last Sunday, about sixty attended the second Sunset Pilgrimage planned by the Young People's Division of the North Presbyterian Sunday School. It was held at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Clement at Adams Basin. The theme for the service was "Comradeship" and included a message from the pastor, Rev. Robert Findlay.

Supply preachers for the month of August include Rev. T. T. Hays, of Memorial Presbyterian Church on August 7; Rev. Robert Wells Veach, D. D., on August 14; Rev. William Graham Kennedy, D. D., August 21; and Rev. Ralph D. Alcott, August 28.

The women of the church are making plans for their fourth annual dining tent in connection with the Rochester Exposition. Mrs. S. D. Thorn is president of the Women's Society, the organization in charge of the project. Attractive decorations for the tent were made by the older boys and girls of the Vacation Church School.

Redeemer Lutheran—The Eleventh Sunday after Trinity will be celebrated with appropriate services next Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. W. L. Dowler will deliver the first of a series of sermons on representative characters of the New Testament, on the subject, "John, the Herald of Jesus." The chorus choir will sing with offertory solo "The Voice in the Wilderness," by Mrs. W. L. Dowler.

Next Sunday evening the Church of the Redeemer will sponsor the services being held each Sunday between five and six o'clock under the auspices of the Federation of Churches at the band stand in Genesee Valley Park. The Rev. H. G. Witmeyer will have charge of the music, and the Rev. W. L. Dowler will speak on the subject, "Christ's Great Invitation."

The young people of the Church of the Redeemer are urged to attend the devotional meeting of the Genesee Valley District Luther League next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Church of the Reformation Parish House. The speaker will be the Rev. Foster U. Gift, D. D., chaplain of the Deaconess Motherhouse at Baltimore.

Great interest centers in the group of children under nine years of age which meets each morning from Monday to Friday on the rear of the parish lawn of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer. This group, which is being conducted by Misses Ardath Paget and Eileen Finnegan, students at City Normal School; Miss Llewlyn Marsh, a college student; and Miss Mildred Wakefield, John Marshall student, has proved so helpful and interesting to all concerned that it will be continued until September, and perhaps will then be continued for children of pre-school age. There is no charge for registration, but the mothers are contributing usually about ten cents a week to help furnish materials with which the children are to work and for the light refreshments which are served as a part of each morning's program.

Hundreds of lengths of wire, connections, switches, etc.

Have you had a lot of static this summer? You shouldn't have; it has been a "quiet" summer with the exception of several days and evenings. If you haven't found it so, check your aerial and ground for loose or corroded joints, then remove aerial and ground from your receiver. If the popping continues you are manufacturing your own static—and need a radio doctor's services.

Thomas Nolan of Seneca parkway spent last week at Conesus Lake. In addition to swimming and fishing, he enjoyed a demonstration of the new Chris-Craft.

Radio Tips, Questions and Answers
By H. S. Russell

Modern radio receivers are temperamental and very independent machines. They are independent in several ways. They cannot be given "good care" in the accepted sense of the word. An automobile may be greased and oiled at frequent intervals, started and stopped carefully, never driven hard over rough roads, etc., and will repay its owner with excellent service—the better the care the better the service. Not so a radio—for its parts are inclosed and work without lubrication, its switch turns it on or off instantly with no preliminary warming up or slowing down—so that, really we have not the ability to prolong a radio's useful life through good care. The careful man and the "rough handler" get about equal results from their receivers. Keeping the cabinet polished, turning the knobs gently so as not to loosen them, and having the tubes checked periodically are the limits to which the owner can go in "taking care" of his radio. In this the radio receiver is super-independent—when a part breaks down or starts to break down no preventative measures can be taken, no patching can be done; it completely "lets go" and must be completely replaced.

Many times, in our shop, we test a complete set of tubes for a radio owner and find them in good condition. The owner may say, "Well! That's funny—my aerial and tubes are O. K. yet my set won't work—what else is there to go wrong?" That depends on the set—but look at this list—

5 to 10 tuning and aligning condensers; 3 to 6 windings on the power transformer; 10 to 50 resistors; 10 to 30 condensers; 1 to 4 audio transformers; 1 to 4 r. f. and audio choke coils; 3 to 5 r. f. coils; 1 to 3 intermediate frequency transformers.

LITTLE DROPS OF INK

THE first business house in the Tenth Ward to reserve space in the first issue of The Courier was Bauman & Baynes Market. And no issue has appeared since that time without their advertisement being included. Their comment on the productivity of Courier advertising therefore is especially pertinent inasmuch as they have been as consistent an advertiser as any business house could be in any publication. Here is their reaction after four years in The Courier:

"We feel that we are in an especially good position to judge the advertising value of the Tenth Ward Courier or in fact any good community newspaper. We were space-users in the paper which preceded The Courier in this section, consequently we were pleased when The Courier was proposed in 1928. We advertised in the first issue and in every one up to the present time. . . . The paper reaches our customers and prospective customers in the ward regularly and faithfully. Certainly the excellent results it has brought us reflects its effectiveness as a direct connection between merchants and residents of the Ward. . . . Every live community needs this type of paper and we believe we are very fortunate in having a publication so newsy and so widely-read as The Courier. We feel we have had results which amply justify the confidence which has led us to allot nearly our entire advertising appropriation to The Courier."

LOCAL VET DECRIES GOVERNMENT ACTION AGAINST THE B. E. F.

The article below is written by George W. Studley of Mayflower street, Commander of Jacobson Post and prominent in various veterans' organizations. Mr. Studley returned last week after spending a week with the B. E. F. in Washington and this article deals with his reactions to the movement.

The B. E. F. went to Washington to lobby for a bill. Washington is used to being entertained by lobbyists, but it does not entertain. This fact was made very clear, at once.

Then came the last few days before adjournment, with no word for these men who, like the true Americans they are, braved the hardships of a heart-breaking trip across this whole country just to ask that they, and their comrades back home (who were most willing to accept, but who had developed a broad yellow streak that prevented them from petitioning or helping a just cause), be given their back pay.

Then, to the great surprise of all, there came forward a cripple, bound in steel braces with his head held in position by a strap under the chin and extending back to an upright brace on each side of the back of the head; this man Roy W. Robertson, from Los Angeles, California, a personal friend of the writer, was the leader of the California contingent. They started what will be known as long as men remember — "the Bonus Death March." This was continued until Congress adjourned, and needless to say proved most embarrassing to many, and will always remain a blot upon the political record of those who, with this evidence of great want before them, voted against its relief. The last thing Robertson promised the writer was that he would visit Rochester and bring with him delegations, numbering about 1,000 men, to show the people of Rochester that in some sections of this country there is real poverty.

Congress adjourned and from all reports were proud of their work. They were told by the powers that be, that to pass the Soldiers' Bonus would ruin the country. One bonus seeker wants to know—what country? They could not inflate the currency two billion without undermining the whole financial system of the country. Every one knew that because Andy Mellon told them so, so they only inflated it one billion and took the rest to loan themselves like the other party did in January.

Then came the dark days for the Bonus Army to maintain discipline in the ranks of men who were discouraged and disheartened by the turn of affairs that placed them in an embarrassing position. But here again evolved the constructive plans of the leaders and W. W. Waters, the Commander-in-Chief, proved he is not of a dictatorial turn of mind.

The writer joined forces with Robertson because of personal friendship, but never for a moment has the writer doubted or questioned the leadership of Waters, and brands as a lie any statement that Waters has advocated force.

Those that call the Bonus Army "Reds" do so just to ease their conscience for neglecting to help this worthy cause. In all fairness I ask any one who considers themselves just, to remember that in all the trouble and with all the men in their destitute circumstances and discouraging prospects, not a gun or knife was found upon any of them and I would again remind you that all of these men know how to handle guns. Does this not prove that branding them "Red" was false, and add greatly to the credit of Waters?

The utter disregard of the veterans prompted the writer to go to Washington and advocate a real house-cleaning among the veterans themselves and to emphasize the fact that we must not have a law which applies to one and not to another. The first major objective was the immediate cancellation of all pensions of non-service connected cases; the cancellation of all service connected cases where the recipient is holding a full-time job; the cancellation of all other pensions where recipient is not dependent upon it; the immediate revision of the Civil Service laws that give preference to service men on every examination; the immediate revision of the Civil Service law that gives a disabled veteran, drawing government compensation, first preference on all Civil Service examinations; that a thorough review be given each case and that doctors found guilty of perjury be disbarred from practice.

It is felt that placing this legislation before the people will bring about a better understanding between the taxpayers and the veterans. This met with the wholehearted approval of all and there is little doubt about the sincerity of these veterans to advocate this program.

The order for eviction was accepted as inevitable, as all these men knew that when Congress adjourned it was but a matter of time when they would have to move. This disbanding was started at once, and from July 18 the Veterans' Bureau was besieged with men borrowing their own money for transportation to their homes.

Here again it was proven that every man was a veteran. Contrary to General McArthur's statement that only one in ten of the men were veterans, and contrary to the statement by the President that only half of the men were veterans, none of the men who were living in the camps as Bonus Army men have been proven non-veterans.

Then after a brawl between some of the bonus marchers and a squad of police, a matter that even the Chief of Police, Pelham Glassford, himself a former soldier, stated was of no major importance, the soldiers came. With fixed bayonets, tear gas, and the torch, they made it a major engagement that startled the whole world by the ruthlessness displayed, driving the most helpless men, women and children into the streets, herding former soldiers with far less consideration than ever shown German prisoners during the war. They succeeded in outdoing their counterpart under the Czar of old Russia, who did not have the use of tear gas, and seldom used the torch.

Those who were instrumental in bringing this strain upon our nation, try to justify their action by constantly repeating that these men were not veterans, but if such was the case, then those who are not veterans can look for little relief. They may consider their vote more closely in the future.

And only one gifted with the descriptive powers of Floyd Gibbons or Lowell Thomas could paint a word picture of the hardships suffered and no one but a veteran, with something at stake would or could go through with this expedition.

A birthday party was held July 21 in honor of Catherine Empey and George Copp at the Empey home in Riga street. The party was attended by 26 children.

BOY SCOUT NEWS
Troop No. 81

Last Thursday Boy Scouts of Troop 81 held their first meeting since they returned from Camp Pioneer. They reported that they had had a wonderful time at the camp, and had learned worth while things as well. Most of them learned how to swim or how to swim better, made various advancements, and earned some Merit Badges. Once they went on an overnight canoe trip to a point several miles distant from the main camp. Several evenings they were entertained by L. C. Gould, one of the adult leaders who accompanied the boys, who told interesting campfire stories of his experiences in the Canadian Northwest.

The only casualty was that of George Gunn, who sprained his knee. However, he is now recovering satisfactorily. George is making a scrap book in which he pastes clippings of each article about the troop appearing in The Courier.

Last Saturday members of the troop visited the plant of Teall's Ice Cream Company. They enjoyed seeing it, and also eating the ice cream which was served.

NAZARETH JUNIORS TO ENTERTAIN FRESHMEN

The freshmen of Nazareth College will be entertained by their sister class, the juniors, at a house party at the Hotel Manitou on September 10 and 11. All new students who have not already registered are requested to do so before Wednesday, August 10, in order that they may receive their invitations from the juniors.

Parboiled Hots Finding Favor with Picnickers

Increasing demand for parboiled hots for picnic purposes is indicated by the considerable jump in sales of this sausage at the Ester Market of 1497 Dewey Ave. Ester's find that the sale of parboiled Coney Island hots, a specialty with them, is about as good as it has been at any time in the 19 years that they have been on Dewey avenue. They have at all times a plentiful supply, however, for both wholesale and retail demand.

A new slicing machine, said to be the fastest ever built, has just been added to the Ester Market equipment. It is made by the American Slicing Machine Co. Operated electrically, it cuts all types of cold cuts cleanly and uniformly.

Dewey Beauty Shop Is Under New Management

Due to the illness of Mrs. J. F. Keyes, the Dewey Avenue Beauty Shop has been taken over by Mrs. M. E. Wagner who has been engaged in beauty work for the past ten years. Mrs. Wagner formerly was located in E. Main street.

STREET LIGHTS AGAIN IN FULL ILLUMINATION

All city street lights were to have been turned on again last night as a result of a new contract between the city and the Rochester Gas and Electric Corp., announced yesterday by Mayor Charles S. Owen. About half the street lights have been dark for the past several weeks as an economy measure and pending the new agreement.

The new contract runs for five years and provides a substantial saving over former rates. The saving this year, it is pointed out, will be about $100,000. Councilman Nelson A. Milne, Joseph L. Guzzetta and Louis S. Foulkes represented the City Council in the negotiations.

Tickets Mailed Out to Word Contest Winners

Tickets for the Riviera Theatre were mailed to the ten winners in the mis-spelled word contest in the last issue of The Courier. There were over 300 replies and the bulk of the answers were correct, the winners being determined on the basis of speed in dispatching the replies to the theater. The first ten correct answers were rewarded with tickets.

The mis-spelled word was "and" in the Buell Beauty Shop advertisement. A few, none of which were among the first ten, found a mis-spelled word in a cut which unfortunately it was not possible to correct. About six answers were received pointing to a typographical error in the news columns, but the contest announcement explicitly stated that the word would be found in a "display advertisement."

EDITORIAL

We have been through a terrible storm; the sky has been black for three years and any ray of sunshine that has penetrated the gloom has been quickly overshadowed; we have passed through the darkest period of modern history; the world has been on the brink of utter collapse, tottering to an extent that the least little force applied from the wrong direction would have shoved us over the cliff and down into the canyon of chaos. . . . But now the "break" has come; we take a step backward from the brink; we look up and can see a trace of light penetrating the sombre atmosphere; within the past month the decks have been swept of all debris ready for the future; confidence is returning; factories are opening; the stock market has bounded upward. . . . We rub our eyes and yawn; are we still sleeping? No, we're not, for as we discuss this thing with neighbors, friends and even traveling men, we become aware that they, too, have heard about this "break." . . . Is this artificial resuscitation looking toward the November ballot or is it really a well-founded beginning of a new era? No one seems to know the answer to that one, although many sly phrases indicate suspicions. . . . Yet, regardless of whether this is a vote-getting spurt or a genuine turn in general conditions, we say let's plunge in; let's give them full benefit of the doubt. This stagnated condition is not natural, it's not going to last forever. Why not grasp at this apparent opportunity to get out of the trenches. Anything to get going and then let anybody try to stop us!

In direct contrast to the wave of optimism that has suddenly swept the country is the state of affairs confronting our city fathers. The clamor for drastic reduction in taxation has penetrated the Council chamber, as it has penetrated nearly every governmental body of our country. It is the voice of the people, militant at last, rebelling, one might say, against the system which they themselves directly and indirectly have set up. Political leaders concede that taxes must be reduced, but they state truthfully that the demands of the people for service, service and more service have been largely responsible for the jump in the tax decimal. . . . Rochester approaches its debt limit; default of maturing bond issues can be seen on the horizon for 1933; drastic action will probably be taken, for the municipal credit cannot be impaired. We'll probably have to do without a lot of service; our government will have to scrimp and save just as the majority of individuals have learned to count their pennies. The public mind should be, and we believe to some extent has been, prepared for the large economies that must be instituted at City Hall.

RIVIERA FEATURE REVIEW

Week-end Program

Tonight — "Westward Passage" with Ann Harding and "Explorers of the World."

Friday-Saturday — "Million Dollar Legs" with Jack Oakie and "Hill's House" with Pat O'Brien.

Sunday-Monday-Tuesday — "Red Headed Women" with Jean Harlow and "Bachelor's Affairs" with Adolphe Menjou.

Sunday-Monday-Tuesday

"Red Headed Woman," Katharine Brush's widely-read novel of a stenographer who capitalized on her sex appeal, comes to the screen at last with Jean Harlow, her famous platinum-blonde hair changed to a flaming red, in the title role.

Practically every red-haired actress in Hollywood was given tests for this highly-coveted part before decision was reached by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer officials to assign the role to Miss Harlow, providing she would change the color of her tresses. Report has it that the alteration has given the noted heroine of "Hell's Angels" an entirely new personality, as well as giving her appearance a totally different aspect.

The novel was adapted to the screen by Anita Loos, author of the sensational "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," and was directed by Jack Conway, one of whose recent hits was the Barrymore picture, "Arsene Lupin." A stellar cast was lined up for the production, with Chester Morris of "Corsair" and "Miracle Man" fame, playing opposite Miss Harlow and with important roles filled by Lewis Stone, Leila Hyams, Una Merkel, Henry Stephenson, May Robson, Charles Boyer and Harvey Clark.

"Bachelor's Affairs" has Adolphe Menjou in the featured role. Based on James Forbes' successful stage play, it tells the story of a middle-aged bachelor who, through the machinations of the girl's sister, marries a youthful flapper of the beautiful but not brilliant type. Events soon prove to him that he

Hetzlers Start Practice For Coming Grid Season

The Hetzler Football team, local and Western New York semi-pro champs, will start preparation Monday for their fifteenth season. Anyone wishing to try out for the team is asked to be at No. 7 School playground on Dewey avenue at 7:30 p. m. Monday.

Edward "Honkie" Weaver, who has coached the team since its inception, will resume the position of head coach. Coach Weaver will personally handle the backs, while his assistant, Charles Coyle, will act as line coach. At present about 35 men have been signed. These include the entire squad of last year and a number of newcomers, well known to the football public.

In the past four years the Hetzlers have made quite an enviable record, having won the semi-pro title three times and being twice the runners-up. Last year they lost to the Oxfords, Western New York pros, after leading more than three-quarters of the game, by the score of 8 to 7.

Leo Hetzler, president of the Hetzler Ice and Coal Company, backer of the team, believes that the Tenth Ward should be able to support as good a team as they do in Butterhole and in Dutchtown, and is doing all in his power to give it a good representation.

Arrangements are being made to secure the paddock at Exposition Park for all home games.

FRIDAY-SATURDAY SPECIAL

REPUBLICANS ANNOUNCE CANDIDATES AT OUTING

Politicians had their annual round of gossip and hand shaking, listened eagerly for the "slate" as announced by Harry Bareham, County Republican leader, and discussed candidates, pro and con, to their hearts' content yesterday afternoon at the Supervisors' Picnic. Although there was little opportunity for surprise in the designations, the outing drew its usual throngs.

Of particular interest to Tenth Warders was the re-nomination of Special County Judge Henry D. Shedd, of Lake avenue. According to newspaper reports, Judge Shedd was not regarded favorably by Charles E. Bostwick, Tenth Ward leader, but apparently any difficulty in the way has been ironed out. The only other Tenth Warder on the slate is Richard L. Saunders of Selye terrace, candidate to succeed himself as assemblyman in the fourth district.

The chorus choir will lead the singing of the service, using as the professional hymn, "When Morning Gilds the Skies," and "Blessing and Honor and Glory and Power" as the recessional. The sermon hymn will be "We Follow Thee."

WEDDINGS

DOTY—MILLER
Miss Dorothy Rose Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Finch Miller of Lapham street, and Dr. Ernest C. Doty, son of Elmer J. Doty of Genesee Park boulevard, were married August 10 in the Church of the Ascension. The Rev. William C. Compton, rector, performed the ceremony.

The altar in the church was banked with palms, and candles lighted the sanctuary. Gladoli were the predominating flowers in decorations throughout the interior of the edifice.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was in a close-fitting gown of apricot suede lace with a miniature train. The only trimming was a belt of pearls. She wore a lace hat, gloves and sandals matching the shade of her dress and carried a bouquet of talisman roses and gypsophila.

Two matrons of honor, Mrs. Howard West and Mrs. Gulick Z. Knight, cousins of the bride, were her attendants. Both wore gowns of chalk crepe in sea foam green, shark skin hats of eggshell and eggshell slippers and other accessories. Their arm bouquets were of Pernet roses and gypsophila.

Carl Ursprung was best man and Henry B. Ellenwood was bridegroomsmen. The ushers were Gulick Z. Knight and Dr. Gordon Downes.

The bride's mother wore a gown of triple sheer crepe and alencon lace of pale pink, pink sharkskin hat and accessories and a shoulder bouquet of Ophelia roses and sweet-peas. The sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. H. V. Ellinwood, was in a triple sheer and lace frock of sand color with matching slippers, wearing an orchid velvet turban and a shoulder bouquet of orchids.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, John R. Miller. The attendants were Mrs. K. G. Stewart, sister of the bride, and Charles Ansley.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Boon left for the Lake of Bays, Canada, and after September 1, will be at home at 960 Dewey avenue.

Radio Tips, Questions and Answers
By H. S. Russell

What has become of television? Six months ago it seemed just around the corner—and now very little is heard of it. Has it been found, like perpetual motion, to be a scientific but impractical dream? No, television is still with us, and is constantly being improved and refined. It is in the same class as our former one and two tube receiving sets, earphones, and weak broadcasting stations. In other words television receivers of today can give us the thrill of "getting" a picture, but the clearness of detail and the ability to reproduce scenes of varying light intensity, large area, many bodies or objects and rapid motion so that we can enjoy them (as we would a "movie") are still being worked out bit by bit in the laboratories.

Television sending stations are also unable to cover the area of broadcasting stations and are few in number. But as the sending and receiving equipment approaches a degree of perfection, making its use a source of real entertainment, we may rest assured every broadcasting station will have its television complement.

Broadcasting of speech and music has advanced in scope and technique at a tremendous pace. Television, starting years later, must not only equal this rapid development, but double its speed so that it can catch up with and equal the sound program in its entertainment value. And when this is brought about, the man who has never travelled outside his own city will see and hear more in his own home of the "doings" in this old world than the fastest and most footloose of travellers.

And now a word about our present receivers—have the tubes tested twice a year. You can't judge their value by appearances. They may give a light you can read by—and be worthless. Or they may not show light at all and still be good. So don't believe in them or don't condemn them until you have them tested—and then you'll know.

HALPIN—COLE

LITTLE DROPS OF INK

ESTABLISHED 19 years on Dewey avenue, Ester Pure Food Shop certainly has a background of business experience from a general as well as a Tenth Ward point of view. They chose to open a campaign of advertising in The Courier with a definite purpose in mind. They have waged this campaign consistently and steadily through this newspaper. Their comment on results obtained is a pleasing addition to this series.

"In the many years we have been on Dewey avenue we have endeavored to build a reputation for quality products and we cannot say that we have not been well rewarded. But last year we decided that many people, who either were mis-informed or had not previously been customers of ours, had the impression that our high quality precluded competitive prices. In other words, they thought that our prices would not be within their reach because the quality was too good. . . . Naturally we wanted to correct this false impression. We finally decided The Courier would be a good medium to carry this message to our trade. Accordingly we gave it a good tryout and much to our pleasure it has proved excellent for the purpose. . . . We know that our advertising in The Courier has done a great deal in making new friends for us. We feel that we have found the best possible medium to accomplish the purpose we had in mind, and we have every confidence in The Courier as an advertising connection with people of the ward."

CIVIC DEFENSE URGES TAX ON CHAIN STORES

A four-fold plan of licensing various business enterprises in the city will be presented to the city administration by the Rochester Civic Defense League and immediate favorable action will be sought.

The main feature of the program consists of a chain store license modeled after the chain store tax now levied in St. Louis. This plan provides that every merchandising establishment shall be licensed upon a graduated scale, beginning with a small license fee for a single establishment and increasingly large fees according to the number of retail units operated by a single concern. In St. Louis the Kroger Grocery and Baking Co., the second largest grocery chain in the country, is compelled to pay an average tax of $250 per store.

The second part of the Civic Defense League's program calls for increased license fees for all peddlers and hucksters, other than farmers selling their own produce. The tax situation in this city has become alarming during the past few years and a great factor in the decrease in revenue from real estate is the large number of vacant stores. If the city is to get the maximum revenue from store properties it must do something to protect the store owner. House to house peddlers have increased at a tremendous rate during the past few years and while many of these have no other means of a livelihood, the fact remains that established retail establishments have been seriously affected. Operating upon little or no investment, and at very little cost, they usually try to undersell the merchant who must pay rent or taxes, clerks, and meet the usual items of overhead expense that go with maintaining a store. The city is rapidly coming to a point where, for the sake of its revenues, if for no other reason, it must choose between the stable, responsible store operator or the transient and unreliable peddler who pays little or nothing in the way of taxes.

A third phase of the League program will seek to impose a license upon concerns that do their own retailing from door to door, using delivery trucks. The Jewel Tea Company is a conspicuous example. This concern is usually classified as a chain. In this vicinity its selling is done from its own trucks. Thus they do not help to pay the usual store property tax but they do use the city streets. Local taxpayers maintain these at great expense and it is felt that a tax on such delivery trucks would assist the local property owner without being an injustice to the Jewel Tea Company and others of the same type.

FAMOUS EDITOR WARNS AGAINST "CHEAPENING"

A warning to merchants and to the public that "cheap merchandise makes a cheap people and a cheap town," was made recently by William Allen White, famed editor, in the Emporia Gazette, Emporia, Kan. The editorial follows:

"Last week we had a Dollar Day in Emporia and thousands of dollars were spent on Commercial street by buyers who found genuine bargains. These bargain days and dollar days furnish occasions when merchants can clean up their stocks, thin over crowded lines, get rid of odds and ends that have not been selling well but which are good material sold at a narrow margin and on the whole, everything considered, are sold upon a commercially wise policy, even if at a low profit. The bargain days and the special days are legitimate commercial vehicles for disposing of honest goods in a wise transaction, profitable to the buyer and the seller.

"Having said which, the Gazette now desires to talk to the buyers and merchants of this town about another entirely different tendency, the tendency to go 'Cheap,' to sell, not occasionally once or twice a year, but day in and day out cheap stuff at cheap prices, promoting transactions which do neither side of the bargain any great good.

"The Gazette has a larger interest in this community than that which goes with the immediate dollar. It is easy to grab off the immediate dollar, the quick, more or less dirty dollar in advertising, but The Gazette expects to be running here on something like the same management for the next quarter of a century. Hence we feel licensed to talk to advertisers and buyers alike, and advise them to begin considering quality.

"A Cheap Man"
"In the subsidence of wealth all over this world in the last four years, buyers have been looking for things that would merely piece out, which means cheap things at cheap prices. Forty years ago Benjamin Harrison lost the presidency by saying that 'A cheap coat makes a cheap man.' But it is true just the same. Cheap merchandise makes cheap people. By cheap, we mean shoddy, make-shift, pretentious, just as good substitutes, second and third grade stuff. Quality costs, but it lasts and in the end quality is cheaper than shoddy.

"Emporia cannot afford to go cheap. Somewhat it is the business of the merchants to see that it doesn't; but largely this is the business of the buyer. For every penny you save on the cheap stuff, your town sinks that much lower and your property is cut down that much. Cheap merchandising soon is reflected in vacant buildings. Vacant buildings bring lower rent. Lower rent brings lower real estate values. Up come the cloth signs and down goes the town.

"A cheap town makes a cheap, quick funeral."

BIG CROWD FEATURES DEMOCRATIC OUTING

Tenth Ward Democratic Women held their first picnic Tuesday at Ontario Beach Park and drew the largest attendance that they have ever had for any affair. It was estimated that over 500 persons attended and the success of the outing resulted in a decision to make it an annual affair.

A program of races and games was run off in the afternoon for the children and many fine prizes were distributed. Thanks were extended to Tenth Ward business men who donated the prizes. Peanuts, suckers and pop were given out during the afternoon and at six o'clock basket lunches were eaten. Councilman Charles A. Stanton, candidate for Congressman in the 39th district, was the principal speaker. He stated that he felt very much at home among Tenth Warders inasmuch as he has always carried the ward in elections. Other speakers were Paul Taylor, candidate for Assemblyman in the 4th district; Leo Fay, secretary of the Democratic County Committee, and Thomas Moran, executive committee man of the Tenth Ward.

Mrs. Louise Robinson was general chairman of the picnic committee, assisted by the following ladies: Mrs. Rose Dorsey, Mrs. Mary Hughes, Mrs. Amelia Kunz, Miss Mary Truesdale, Mrs. Mary Prendergast, Mrs. Bessie Cowells, Mrs. Joseph Sharp, Mrs. Clara Stiffner, Mrs. Celia Beck, Mrs. Carolyn Moran, Miss Ruth Murphy and Mrs. Joan Lynn Schild, president of the club.

SHOE REBUILDERS TO HAVE BOOTH AT EXPO

Under the leadership of Michael Persikini, Dewey avenue shoe rebuilder, the Rochester Master Shoe Rebuilders' Association is making preparations for a booth at the Rochester Exposition, which it is believed will be the first of its kind locally. The exhibit will include a fully-equipped modern shoe rebuilding shop in operation throughout the week of the Exposition.

The shoe rebuilders have leased a sizeable space, 33 feet long and 15 feet deep, at No. 93-4-5 Industrial Building. It will be located near the Kodak display. The purpose of the exhibit will be to acquaint the public with the variations existing today in material and workmanship. Their slogan is "Know the truth about Leather."

Four other shoe rebuilders of the Tenth Ward are co-operating with Mr. Persikini and will take their turns on duty at the booth. They are Angelo Volpe and Michael Schiavo of Dewey avenue, Sam Larussa of Driving Park avenue and James LoManto of Lake avenue. Mr. Persikini, who is president of the association, will be at the booth every day throughout the week.

Brookside Riding Club Initiates New Paddock

Members of the Brookside Riding Club and their friends made a sizeable and appreciative audience for the "horse show" attendant on the formal opening of their new paddock at the Bemish Farm on Latta road last Saturday afternoon. A good mixture of comic and well-intended horsemanship was included in the several events staged for the benefit of the onlookers.

Three of the riders were dressed in attire of the gay nineties and disported around the arena with a mule and a saucy pony who refused to be sociable. Following the show, members and their guests went to the clubhouse for an auction of lunches prepared by the ladies. The successful bidder, in each instance, had for his luncheon partner the lady whose sandwiches he had bought at auction.

It was announced that a full-event horse show will be held at the new paddock later this month. Entry will not be restricted to club membership and some of the finest horses in the Rochester area are expected to be entered.

WHAT IS THE TREND?

"Never have values been so great. We hear it on every hand. Is it true? Will prices find still lower levels or is now really the time to buy? If we buy today how will we feel tomorrow? Will a further downward trend make us rue our investments or does a general price advance impend that will make today's prices seem values of the once-in-a-lifetime variety. Isn't this the state of mind today of nearly every one with a few more dollars in his pocket than he needs immediately for food and shelter? The outlook for price in retail business is naturally a good barometer of value. In this and future articles The Courier will present what facts and opinion of the trend of values it can discover in retail business.

Residents of Rochester and elsewhere have been interested in the frequent newspaper reports recently that shoe prices have reached their "low" and that the trend is now upward. Rochester is a shoe-making city and has suffered quite a bit during the depression because the local factories have clung to quality and have not striven for price alone. Rochester-made shoes for many years have been known as high grade merchandise and the manufacturers here feel now that they have been wise in making the same good quality and good fitting shoes. "The price will be forgotten but the quality will be remembered," they assert.

One of the outstanding shoe merchants of this part of the city, John H. Schmanke, 1480 Dewey avenue, was asked by The Courier for his reaction to these newspaper reports.

"Well, so far as the public is concerned, shoe prices have not yet advanced," he explained, adding: "But so far as the merchants go they are looking for advances in shoe prices, for it can hardly be escaped. Hides, from which leather is made, have advanced more than 100 per cent. over their low prices of the depression, and this advance is reflected in the leather tanneries, which are said to be advancing their prices to take care of the increased cost. Tanners have lost millions of dollars, as have many shoe factories, but they cannot absorb the increased cost of hides. The shoe manufacturers, who figure shoe costs in tenths of mills, must advance their prices if they would stay in business.

"Frankly, shoe prices were never so low as at present and men, women and children who take advantage of present prices in any reputable shoe store will save money. Shoes are the cheapest articles a man or woman buys, and they get the hardest usage. It is a science to manufacture correct fitting shoes, and as there are hundreds of types of feet the merchant who really takes pains to sell only the right type of shoes does the public a splendid service."

Mr. Schmanke is a director of the New York State Shoe Retailers' Association and he will attend the annual meeting of the Board of Directors in Elmira in September. He will also remain to the convention, which lasts two days and is devoted to the discussion of the many perplexing problems that shoe merchants of today have to face. Among these is the cheap paper shoe, which looks like a good shoe but goes to pieces in a few days. "Legislation cannot prevent the making of shoes from paper or imitation leather," said Mr. Schmanke, "but the public can outlaw such shoes by avoiding buying them. The cheapest shoes are the most expensive in the long run."

Weed-end Program

Tonight—"Almost Married" with Ralph Bellamy and Violet Hemming; and "Cross Examination" with H. B. Warner.

Fri.-Sat.—"Madam Racketeer" with Alison Skipworth and Richard Bennett; and "Enemies of the Law" with Mary Nolan.

Sun.-Mon.-Tues.—"First Year" with Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell; and "Discarded Lovers" with Natalie Morehead.

"The First Year," Frank Craven's blue-ribbon comedy farce of the stage, neatly spiced with wise lines and alternate heartaches, bring Janet Gaynor and Charles Farrell, Hollywood's first string cupid team, back to the screen.

This film, because of its more modern presentation of the stars, should be extremely popular, although it retains everything which has made Janet and Charlie the screen idols of three continents. The settings show imagination, the photography is consistently excellent, Janet is even more piquant and appealing than ever, while Charlie, in the best-cast role of his talkie career, reveals a hitherto untouched vein of acting talent.

The plot of "The First Year," briefly, is the drama of young love during the most dangerous age—the first twelve months of married life. In the picture, Farrell presses his courtship for Janet's hand, they become engaged, marry, move away to a strange city to begin life on their own. Here it is that the natural laws of economic pressure, jealousy, and the natural tendencies of youth to rebel in discouraging situations gradually outweigh the joys of the honeymoon.

There is so much to say about "Discarded Lovers" that one doesn't quite know where to start. The story, essentially, is a murder mystery, one that will keep you guessing until the last amazing scene, but, running through it, is a daring counterplot of love, intrigue that will draw a gasp or two from even the most sophisticated.

The background is Hollywood, in and out of the studios; and there is one sequence near the opening of the story that gives the most perfect picture of movie-making ever seen on the screen. If you want to see exactly how the talkies are made, here's a chance that you may not get again in a long time.

The cast is unusually good. Natalie Morehead lends her blonde loveliness and no little talent to the role of the "Falling Star," which was the title of the Arthur Hoerl novel from which "Discarded Lovers" was adapted. J. Farrell MacDonald, who coached football through "The Spirit of Notre Dame" and "Touchdown," is at once forceful and amusing as the police captain. Fred Kelsey, in his familiar role of the dumb detective, is funnier than ever.

HOLY ROSARY TAKES CITY CHAMPIONSHIP

Winning the third and deciding game Sunday in its series with St. Andrew's, Holy Rosary copped the Catholic city baseball championship before a huge crowd at Edgerton Playground. With Barney Agness pitching air-tight ball after the fourth inning, the locals unleashed their hitting attack and won handily, 7 to 4.

Up to the eighth inning it looked like anybody's ball game with the east siders favorites by virtue of a 4 to 2 lead. But a four-run rally in that inning turned the tables and another run was added in the ninth to make things certain. Agness struck out 16 during the course of the nine innings. McDonald's single with the bases crowded brought in three of the four runs scored in the rally and was probably the outstanding offensive feat of the game. Score:

Holy Rosary 010000141—761
St. Andrew's 002200000—445
Agness and H. Zellar; Ferrari, Morgan and Tischler.

Independents' Picnic Draws Crowd of 5,000

Independent merchants of Rochester held their first picnic Sunday afternoon at Doud Memorial Park and drew a crowd estimated in excess of 5,000. A long program of activities was enjoyed by the large gathering as was the midway which greeted them at the Buffalo road park. Prizes that totaled several hundred dollars were distributed.

The outing had the atmosphere of a typical country fair and the crowd apparently caught the spirit immediately. The picnic was arranged by the Civic Defense League on behalf of the independent business men.

V. VALENTE ADDS NEW DEPARTMENT TO STORE

Entirely rearranged, the V. Valente store at 205 Lyell avenue opens formally this week as the first large department store to be attempted in the community sections of Rochester. It is a distinctly different type of store than this community or any other local outlying district has seen.

Rochester has been developed as a main street town with little or no attention devoted to the neighborhood sections. Its commercial life has been centered around the thought that people will come to the middle of town for all major purchases and as a consequence real department stores on the outskirts have been slow to appear.

The Valente store will not be fully departmentalized when it opens formally this week. It will present a number of new departments, however, in addition to others which have been developing there during the past few years. The future will probably see other departments opened as the idea of Mr. Valente assumes its full growth.

The departments being added at this time are mostly concerned with ladies' wear. Hats, dresses and lingerie are presented for the first time under the supervision of Miss J. E. Mathes, formerly with B. Forman Co. All this merchandise is in the popular price range.

The men's clothing department is given more prominence with the addition of several items of haberdashery and a more complete showing of fall suits and topcoats, overcoats, hats, shirts, neckwear and hosiery.

The store has featured a line of men's, women's and children's shoes for the past two years which, of course, is continued. The furniture department has been transferred to the three upper floors in the Valente building above. New store fixtures have added a touch of modernism and beauty to the store which put it on a par with leading downtown stores of the city.

Radio Tips, Questions and Answers
By H. S. Russell

Q. I have noticed several makes of 1933 radios advertising the fact that they could give reception practically free from static. Is this possible—and if so how is it done?
T. J. F.

A. If you will re-read these ads
I believe that you will find most of them claiming to remove nearly all man-made static. This is not the true static manufactured by nature, but is the popping, crackling and sputtering induced into a radio reception by electric motors such as operate vacuum cleaners, sewing machines, electrically-stoked furnaces, dentists' drills, elevators, dumb waiters, or by devices such as warming pads, refrigerators, ray lamps or X-ray machines, etc.

While these give little trouble except to the owners when used in separate homes, they create a bedlam of static in office buildings and apartment houses, and it is this type of static to which radio ads refer when they say "man made."

To cut it out of the received program requires a well shielded radio —one that will pick up only what it receives through its antenna connection. To such a receiver is connected a lead-in that is shielded and filtered so that it will not pick up any signals "on its own hook" but will simply act as a connecting link between the antenna and the radio. Therefore, the antenna which must be placed away from and above all interference-creating objects passes its "picked up" signals or programs to the lead-in, which, through proper shielding and filtering, can carry them through, around or past all disturbing or interference-creating objects without picking up any of this interference, to the radio which is so well shielded that it in turn will not pick up any disturbances with which it may be surrounded but only the broadcast programs being conducted to it from the antenna via the shielded lead-in.

Those manufacturers claiming to reduce natural static do it in one of two ways—either by a switch which reduces the sensitivity of a receiver to a point where only strong broadcast signals can be heard, or in other words cutting out the weaker tone and static impulses, or they use a system which emphasises the base notes and minimizes the high audio frequencies. As most static is "high pitched" this device tends to make it much less noticeable in programs. Neither of these latter systems help much on very distant stations or when static is unusually heavy and violent.

Any system or device that reduces static or annoying interference in any degree is certainly commendable. Natural static is "in the air," and present at all frequencies and therefore it seems impossible that it can ever be wholly removed from programs. Nevertheless, what we say can't be done today,
is done tomorrow, and impossible though it seems now I believe that some day static will be much less troublesome to us than it is at present.

LITTLE DROPS OF INK

FOR the past six issues this space has carried endorsement of The Courier by business men of the community. The results which each has obtained from advertising in this publication, of course, have been the basis for the endorsements. In other words each has made what he considers a good investment and does not hesitate to tell about it and to encourage others to make similar investments.

We like to think of advertising as an investment, bearing in mind the fact that every investment must be profitable or otherwise be of no value. Advertising to be profitable must produce business; it must leave its mark in a wider acquaintance. Good advertising is a good investment.

During years like the present ones, the row of advertising is rather difficult to hoe. Prospective customers are more elusive and harder to find. The Courier, of course, knows its place in the scheme of things and is not prone to idle boasting; yet the fact remains that local business men have found this newspaper a productive medium and a good investment even in these times of repressed business.

There are other business men who wish to be and we hope shall be contributors to this series in future issues. We sincerely desire the opportunity to prove to more business men that advertising in The Courier is a good investment.

Bits of News

The most amazing thing about the world record-breaking marathon dance, being conducted here for the duration of weeks and perhaps even months, is the publicity tendered it by local dailies. Granted that every story actually pokes fun at the contest and its promoters, that every line of news space given the contest is packed with irony, it is quite evident that the "publicity" is piquing Rochester curiosity and providing free advertising of the kind the promoters pray for. . . . Unless we miss our guess, at least one of the newspapers has at a time in the past belabored these contests editorially as "useless, nonsensical and bordering on the ifhuman." Can it be that news and advertising departments of the dailies are at last working hand in hand or has somebody made suckers out of the news-hounds. . . . And lest we, too, be accused of giving publicity to this capitalization of human foolishness we shall bring this epistle to a close with a big period.

Genial Jim Corbett, Lake avenue funeral director, has basked in the public eye for the past ten days as the result of probably as narrow escape from drowning as any one would care to experience. The details of his plunge into the waters of Lake Ontario and his subsequent rescue by Carl Hartman, Jr., have been told in the daily press. Mr. Corbett, a good swimmer, would have needed no help had not his arm been injured as he fell from the boat. Young Hartman this week was presented with a gold loving cup at a special father and son luncheon of the Lion's Club.

"Les" Bauman got cheated by Fate out of a chance to show his ability as a horseman at the formal opening on Saturday of the Brookside Riding Club paddock. Instead of competing for the plaudits of the assembled throng, Les had to watch from the sidelines, one arm on the rail and the other suspended almost limp in a sling. Earlier in the week, Les had been practising up when, his mind fully taken up with the details of form, he suddenly discovered there was no horse under him and he was suspended in mid-air. He put his hand out to break the fall and dislocated his shoulder, thereby completing what onlookers classed as a perfect "Prince of Wales."

Youthful Guitarist is Regular Radio Feature

A 12-year old youngster is the idol of his playmates in the Eastman avenue section. He is Angelo Casti, son of Eugene Casti, Ridge road business man, and he is a promising radio soloist and regular performer over WHEC. Under the tutelage of his dad, Angelo has learned to play the guitar, not from music, but rather strictly by ear. As a matter of fact he has learned to play only within the past year, but the ability with which he strums his instrument belies his short experience. He also sings well and as a result has been

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO SEE OUR RE-BUILDING EXHIBIT AT ROCHESTER EXPOSITION NEXT WEEK

The Rochester Master Shoe Rebuilders' Association (of which the five sponsors of this advertisement are members) will have a booth at the 1932 Exposition to demonstrate modern shoe rebuilding methods.

You will see an up-to-date shop in full operation. It will be well worth your while to look for it; it will interest you!

Our slogan is "Know the Truth About Leather" and the purpose of this exhibit is to show now and for all time the big difference between "cheap" jobs and good dependable work.

We also want you to know the difference in materials, for our association has adopted a 3-grade plan. While our workmanship is always the same, you must choose the price leather you wish. We want you to choose intelligently.

BOY SCOUT NEWS
Troop No. 81
Last Saturday and Sunday several Boy Scouts of Troop 81 and their fathers enjoyed taking part in the city-wide Boy Scout Father-and-Son Jamboree at Mendon Ponds. Ideal weather helped to make camping, hiking and cooking in the open a pleasant experience for everyone.
The troop has held only two Tuesday meetings during August because many members have been absent from the city. However, next week, on September 6, weekly meetings will be resumed in the Lewiston Avenue Methodist Church at 7:30 p. m.
This would be an appropriate time for boys who wish to join the troop to turn out, according to Scoutmaster Stephen C. Pool, because a schedule of advancement classes is now being arranged.

LYONS—BATES
Miss Ethel Louise Bates, daughter of James Bates of Clay avenue, and John L. Lyons, son of Mrs.
John L. Lyons of Glendale park, were married in Holy Rosary Church on August 20. The Rev.
Joseph McDonald performed the ceremony.
Palms and roses decorated the church, and the bride, who was given in marriage by Howard F.
Van Saun, was gowned in white embroidered mouselin de sole and wore a white picture hat. She carried roses, lilies of the valley and gypsophila.
Miss Anna Lyons was maid of honor and her chalk crepe gown and hat were blue. She carried pink roses tied with pink ribbon.
Edgar Lyons was best man, and the ushers were James Lyons and Walter Suter.
The bride's mother wore blue crepe and a corsage of talisman roses.
Breakfast was served at Odenbach's to 30 guests. The table was decorated with roses and a large wedding cake.
Prenuptial events included a luncheon and shower by Mrs. Edgar Lyons, a luncheon by Miss Mary Nugent and dinner at the lake given by business associates of the bride.
The couple left on a Great Lakes cruise and will be at home at 89
Glendale park after September 5.

DEMOCRATS PLANNING TO AID IN CAMPAIGN

Tenth Ward Democratic Women held a business meeting last night to make plans for the coming campaign and especially for getting out the voters at the primaries. It was decided to hold two meetings every month, on the first Tuesday at the headquarters either in the form of a business meeting or card party, and on the third Tuesday in one of the districts. The district meetings will be held in different districts every month.

Mrs. Louise Robinson reported for her picnic committee and it was voted to make the outing an annual affair, the date to be set at the last meeting in the Spring. Mrs. Robinson was appointed by the president, Mrs. Joan Lynn Schild, to represent the club on the committee of the Social Agencies for Relief.

Instead of a district card party this month, members will attend the card party on September 28 sponsored by the Monroe County Democratic Executive Committee.

Greece Wins Golf Match From Charlotte Legion

American Legion posts of Greece and Charlotte met on the golf links of the Lakeshore Country Club Sunday morning and after a hard tussle the Greece soldiers were victorious. Colgan and Fleming turned in the best cards for Greece and Gallagher and Bennett starred for Charlotte.

The teams lined up as follows: Greece—Colgan, E. Janes, W. Janes, Cooper, Behrnt, Habel, Fleming and Baybutt. Charlotte—Donohue, Gould, Perry, Bennett, Hogan, Whaley, Gallagher and MacKenzie.

No. 41 P. T. A. Holding Season's First Meeting

Parent-Teachers' Association of No. 41 School holds its first meeting of the season at the school today, starting at two o'clock. Mrs. Arthur Lohwater will preside.

Miss Blanche Thompson of the City Normal School will speak on "Building the Child's Library." The social hour is under the direction of Mrs. Merton Frederick and her committee.

MANY SHOES REBUILT AT EXPOSITION BOOTH

The Tenth Ward's shoe rebuilders had plenty to keep them busy last week with their booth at the Exposition demanding all the attention they could give it. The five local members of the Rochester Master Shoe Rebuilders spent every moment they could spare working for charity at their attractive booth in the Industrial Building at Edgerton Park.

The booth was probably as attractively decorated and as well arranged as any at the Exposition. Full equipment for a modern shoe shop was set up with a colorful background to attract public attention. Michael Persikini of Dewey avenue, president of the association, expressed himself as highly pleased with the results obtained from the shoe rebuilding exhibition.

Nearly 700 Rochester children benefited by the exhibition since that many pairs of shoes were rebuilt during the week of the show. Materials were furnished by the National Leather and Shoe Finders' Association and the shoe rebuilders did the rest. There was a force of men constantly busy at the booth day and evening during the entire week.

The shoes had been solicited from orphanages and charitable societies to supply the workmen with plenty to do. Tenth Warders who worked at the booth, besides Mr. Persikini, were Michael Schiavo, James Lo Manto, Sam La Russa and Angelo Volpe.

Tuxedo Season Approach Noted by Society Shop

Now that the season for tuxedos is approaching, the Society Cleaners, Tailors and Tux Shop of Dewey avenue is preparing to outfit Tenth Warders for their formal occasions. This company makes a specialty of renting tuxedos as well as selling them, furnishing everything including shirts, collars and ties. Society Shop features only formal outfits of the newest design.

AQUINAS ALUMNI MEET TO PLAN FOR SEASON

Aquinas Institute Alumni Association met Monday night to make plans for the coming season. It is expected that a play, written and directed by members of the association, will be presented some time in November.

Nursery School to be Continued at Redeemer

A nursery school has been opened by Ardagh Paget and Winifred Border for children from two to five years of age in the Club House and on the lawn in the rear of the Parish House of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer. This school is an out-growth of the vacation school which was so successfully conducted here this summer under the direction of Miss Paget, who has recently completed her two years of Normal training.

A definite program is carried out each morning from 8:45 to 11:45 o'clock from Monday to Friday, consisting of supervised play, songs, stories, followed by a rest period and the serving of a light lunch. A charge of fifty cents a week for each child is asked to furnish equipment and make the school self-supporting. All parents interested may get in touch with Miss Paget at 562 Magee avenue or Glenwood 2366-R. The school will be limited for the present to 20 children.

WHAT IS THE TREND?

Fall merchandise in the clothing line, especially dresses, in most Tenth Ward stores has been arriving very spasmodically and in some cases is not even arriving. Wholesalers cannot supply the demands made upon them and now that demand has turned out to be surprisingly brisk, the whole merchandising system from the raw product manufacturer to the retailer is worried.

With a demand in excess of that anticipated, the manufacturers are turning their wheels just as fast as they can, and naturally it has been a good thing for the working man. The wheels have been accelerated and this industry is doing its part in the far-reaching back-to-normal sentiment that is taking hold in this country.

With the break in weather about ten days ago, there was a hurried search for fall dresses, which really started much of the trouble. Of course, the return to summer temperatures put a damper on the sale of fall merchandise, but it is just about ready to break loose again. Most dress shops now have a fairly representative assortment on hand, but they still complain that only part of their orders have been filled.

The trend in this particular business, at the moment, seems definitely in the right direction.

WIZARDS' CHAMPION

The Wizards' Indoor baseball team defeated the Locust A. C., 9-3, for the championship of "Tocomo Playground." The airtight defense of the Wizards behind Foley's six-hit pitching won for the Wizards. Robertson got four hits including two home runs for the winners.

RIVIERA FEATURE REVIEW

Week-end Program

Tonight — "Brown of Culver" with Tom Brown, and "Hotel Continental" with Peggy Shannon.

Fri.-Sat. — "Skyscraper Souls" with Warren William, and "Flames" with Johnny Mack Brown.

Sun.-Mon.-Tues. — "What Price Hollywood" with Constance Bennett and Lowell Sherman, and "Winner Take All" with James Cagney and Marion Nixon.

Sun.-Mon.-Tues. Review Adding another characterization to the variety he has already brought to the screen, James Cagney comes to the theater today in the role of a pugilist with Park avenue aspirations in his latest Warner Bros. picture, "Winner Take All."

Cagney is seen as an up and coming prize fighter whose health suffers as the result of dissipation. Going to a rest home in New Mexico to recuperate he meets a former night club entertainer with whom he falls in love. Returning to New York to make his come-back attempt, he meets a society girl who regards him as a new form of entertainment. Jim, however, takes her seriously and decides to become her equal, going in for a re-made nose and ear, an etiquette teacher and Fifth avenue tailors. He is brought to realize his mistake in one of the fastest comedy climaxes ever screened.

the movie capitol, and again proves she is as talented a comedienne as she is a dramatic actress.

Every waitress in every restaurant in Hollywood, they say, cherishes the hope that some day a director will look up from his potato salad and notice her profile. "What Price Hollywood" unfolds the yarn of just such a one—the yarn or the poor little waitress who rises from cold cuts to a Rolls-Royce with the celerity of a meteor.

The producer who talks in terms of millions; the temperamental star whose tantrums are as much a part of her show as her close-ups; the director who would like to produce the Book of Genesis in modern dress; the motley conglomeration of men and women existing in Hollywood—all are depicted under the glaring light of authenticity—and lampooned.

The galaxy of players who lend admirable support to Miss Bennett as she elevates herself from a Brown Derby Restaurant waitress to the ranking star in Hollywood distinguishes itself, respectively.

AQUINAS ELEVEN HAS SEVEN GAMES LISTED

With about 125 candidates fighting for places on the football team, Aquinas Institute bids fair to have another banner year in the gridiron sport. The process of moulding a team has been going on since the opening of school and Coaches Johnny Sullivan and Mort Leary expect to have their eleven fully prepared for the opening game on October 1 with Brighton High School.

Although nearly the entire first team was graduated last June, there is an abundance of material from among the reserves of last year and new candidates.

The schedule this year presents a more difficult assignment than last year, including seven games against some of the best high school elevens of Western New York. The Exposition Park paddock will be the home grounds again this year. The schedule: Oct. 1—Brighton High School. Oct. 8—Le Roy High School. Oct. 15—Caledonia High School. Oct. 22—C. B. A. of Syracuse. Oct. 29—Genesee High School. Nov. 5—Newark High School. Nov. 12—St. Joseph of Buffalo.

Will Study Medicine at Johns Hopkins College

Miss Louise Packard, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. W. H. Packard of 441 Magee avenue, motored to Baltimore over the weekend to make arrangements for her entry to the Johns Hopkins Medical School later this month. Miss Packard is one of five or six girls accepted by the famous medical college for matriculation with the class starting this Fall.

Graduated from Wells College last June, Miss Packard had completed the regulation four year course in three years. Consequently her standings readily gained her the honor of being accepted by Johns Hopkins. Miss Packard's preparatory training was at the Columbia School in Rochester. Her father is owner of the Packard Coal Co.

MILNE WILL PRESENT HIS SUGGESTION FOR SEWER CONSTRUCTION

Although faced with the remonstrance filed Tuesday night, Councilman Nelson A. Milne still hopes to go ahead with his plan to meet the property owners and present full details of his idea for laying sewers in the lower Tenth Ward area.

The Councilman states that he has a plan nearly ready for announcement which the property owners may be interested in and he proposes to present it to them at a meeting in the near future. Action after that will depend upon the decision of the property owners, according to Mr. Milne.

His plan, he estimates, would mean a saving of about $100,000 in the cost. It has the approval of the State so that it can be worked out as an Unemployment Relief project. A unique feature of Mr. Milne's plan is that affected property owners so desiring be allowed to work on the sewers and thus earn money to pay their share.

The remonstrance filed with the City Council Tuesday night says that the property owners do not oppose the proposal, but would like to have action delayed until financial conditions improve.

Tenth Warders Elected Payne Beach Officers

Election of officers last week at Payne Beach resulted in another term as mayor for Walter Baumer of Raines park. Mr. Baumer is also president of the Payne Beach Association which directs activities at the summer colony. O. P. Guinan of Pierpont street was elected vice-president and R. G. Wedel of Summit Grove park is one of three new directors.

O'LOUGHLIN—BYRNES

The marriage of Miss Caroline Byrnes, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Byrnes of Lapham street, and Francis O'Loughlin, son of Patrick O'Loughlin of Lyell avenue, took place September 1 at 9 a. m. in Sacred Heart Church. Msgr. R. V. Burns officiated with Rev. Philip Golding and Rev. O'Bern in the sanctuary. The church was decorated with gladioli and palms.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, John Byrnes, wore light blue transparent velvet with hat and shoes to match and lace mits. She carried a pearl rosary and old-fashioned bouquet of yellow rose buds and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor, Miss Hanna Byrnes, sister of the bride, was dressed in peach transparent velvet with hat and shoes to match and wore lace mits. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of tea roses. Ray O'Loughlin, brother of the groom, was best man.

Wedding breakfast was served for 35 members of the immediate families at Bengals Inn. A reception for friends followed in the afternoon.

Pre-nuptial events included showers by Mrs. Lloyd John O'Loughlin, Mrs. Donald Blanchard and Miss Frances Drexel, Miss Hanna Byrnes, and associates in the Velox office at Kodak Park. Mr. O'Loughlin was given a stag party by friends.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Loughlin left on a motor trip through Canada. After October 1 they will be at home at 433 Lyell avenue.

The Black and White Lunch Room opened for the first time this week at 331 Ridgeway avenue. For the present it will be open only from 9 a. m. to 2 p. m., but later it is hoped to have it open throughout the day. It is managed by Frank Grinnan, who has been at the soda fountain in the Rogers I. G. A. Store.

holding meetings planning for the work of the coming season. These groups will all come together on Saturday afternoon, September 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alden Clark, 70 Harvington drive, to clear their plans, and make any necessary changes, so that there may be no overlapping of work among the various young people's organizations.

James Cagney, above, expertly dons the boxer's toga for the lead in "Winner Take All," one of two features at the Riviera Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. The other half of the double bill is "What Price Hollywood?" starring Constance Bennett.

Radio Tips, Questions and Answers
By H. S. Russell

We are entering the fall and winter seasons when radio is at its best—not only from the standpoint of natural conditions but in the quality and quantity of programs broadcast. Football, world series baseball, wonderful soloists, orchestras, bands, great events—and election.

To get the most from these programs our radio receivers should be in first class condition—here are a few things to do that will help them give their best.

Check the aerial and lead in—clean and tighten all joints and connections—if the aerial is old and badly corroded, replace it—the cost of material won't be great. Replace window strips—they soon cut through when windows are raised and lowered on them.

Check the ground connection—this is important—file the water pipe clean and bright at the clamp and have the clamp tight—don't just take a turn of wire around the pipe and expect anything but noise from such a joint.

If your tubes have seen a year or more of service replace all of them—if the pocketbook won't stand this just now have the tubes tested and replace the poorest one or ones.

If the radio has seen two or three years' service its tuning stages need aligning—this operation restores a radio's distance getting ability. Prices for this operation vary for different models and makes—your service man can quote you a price.

One item I failed to mention in connection with the check up of the aerial—that is the test of the lightning arrester when such a device is used. To test this instrument turn the radio on, tune it to a local station and turn the volume low—then disconnect the ground post of the lightning arrester. If the radio increases its volume when this is done, the lightning arrester is faulty and must be replaced. Many cases of weak reception have been traced to old, leaky lightning arresters.

Holy Rosary indoor team, champions of the Catholic League, were feted last night at the annual banquet of the league held in St. Andrew's Hall. The team was presented with the trophy emblematic of the championship. Bishop John Francis O'Hern and Police Chief Kavanaugh were among the speakers.

Bits of News

Back again now come the time-honored election booths to sit on the street corners until after the November elections. Protests of newspaper columnists and civic-minded individuals have proved of no avail and the little grey booths are coming out of their camping grounds in Colvin street for the second time this year. . . . For some time now, criticism has been leveled at the election commissioner, on the grounds that the booths represent a financial extravagance as well as being architectural liabilities, and in some instances, traffic hazards. The commissioner partially acknowledges the soundness of the criticism, but pleads that no better arrangements can be made for recording the citizens' ballots. If sufficient places were available for rental, and if school authorities would withdraw objections to using the school corridors for the purpose the little grey booths could be relegated to the realm of antiques.

A motorist tells of a rather unusual experience. Out riding one day recently he unfortunately struck and injured a small dog. The dog owner happened to be sitting on his porch and having witnessed the accident, hailed the motorist who promptly stopped, fully expecting a sound rebuke. He steered himself for the assault and had a few choice sentiments for the anticipated charge of the dog owner. But much to the motorist's surprise, the master of the dog was very serene and composed. . . . "You've done that dog a real favor and if he lives I think my biggest problem will be solved. I've had four dogs in the last few years and every one of them has been killed on this road. If Fido lives he'll never venture out on the road again; he's learned his lesson. I want to thank you." Needless to say the motorist was rendered almost speechless.

The four-year old son of Morris Schollnick, owner of the Variety Vacuum Cleaner Co., and a playmate of the same age accomplished something Tuesday that many grown-ups would find difficult. They left their homes in Sullivan street, in the Joseph avenue section, at nine o'clock in the morning and traveled on foot to Mr. Schollnick's shop on Dewey avenue opposite Emerson street without anything except sheer luck to guide them. The youngsters took six hours to cross the city and needless to say the parents had some anxious moments, for they had no idea of the intentions of their four-year old offspring. Police had been notified and were conducting a diligent search. Nonchalantly the two walked into the Variety store about three o'clock in the afternoon, none the worse for their experience except for rather soiled complexions and empty stomachs. Having been to the shop, young Schollnick knew the general direction, but his successful termination of the crossing must have been accomplished solely by the trial and error method.

Summer is gone even though the calendar indicates that a new season does not arrive until later this month. The closing of the Rochester Exposition, the return of youngsters to school, the bowling leagues getting under way to displace the golf tournaments, the return to town of most of the vacationists and the switch from straws to felts are only a few of the indications of the start of a new season.

Will Maine be ejected from the Union or will she merely revert to the category of an ordinary state and her political complexion no longer be the basis for forecasting the national polls? Ask any good Democrat.

The two cent tax on checks, it seems to us, has already proved one of the most impractical and ill-considered provisions of the extraordinary tax-raising bill which Congress adopted earlier this summer. People are beating the tax by paying their bills in cash, and in some instances, by not paying their bills at all. Charging a man for the privilege of paying a bill seems hardly the best method of encouraging him to meet his obligations and the sooner this provision of the tax bill is revised the better it will be for the general welfare of the country, in our humble opinion.

As a "build-up" for "Bring 'Em Back Alive," Ed May, Riviera Theatre manager, last week conceived the idea of displaying the two bears that had gained such notoriety recently, when one of them bit a boy. However, the bears were securely encased in wire netting. . . . The idea "took" and a crowd of youngsters, with not a few grown-ups as well, was almost constantly in attendance. The animal picture drew exceedingly well at the box office. . . . Manager May "has the flare," as they say, for doing the right thing at the right time when it becomes necessary to rouse the public.

Clement Opens Stamp Collection Agency Here

A postage stamp service for the benefit of collectors has been inaugurated by Henry F. Clement at 535 Driving Park avenue. This is Mr. Clement's first attempt to found an agency, although during the greater part of his life he has been an ardent philatelist and has a large private collection.

Although heretofore stamp collection and study has been just a hobby with Mr. Clement, he is now devoting his full time to establishing a stamp headquarters in the Tenth Ward. He has a large show case which he is rapidly filling with choice collections for sale to the public. As a special offer to boys and grown-ups, as well, who are just starting a stamp collection, Mr. Clement is making a special combination offer of all the essential material for a nominal price.

STYLE TREND SHOWN AT VALENTE'S REVIEW

The Valente store of Lyell avenue played host last night to its patrons in a novel fashion review. Living models portrayed the latest fall styles in dresses, hats and footwear.

Patrons viewed the models as they came down stairs onto a runway through the women's wear department. The store was dark except for spotlights which were played on the models as Miss Mathes, who is in charge of the department, gave details regarding each one. Light opera music, played by Robert Ash, accompanied the review.

The showing began with house frocks and school dresses and carried through the day to dinner and evening gowns. At the close of the review the audience voted on the models and prizes were awarded to each girl.

Redeemer Lutheran—The week of Penitence and Prayer will be observed beginning Sunday morning at 11 o'clock with the Confessional service followed by the Holy Communion. The Communion meditation will admonish each Christian to earnestly examine his life in the light of God's eternal truth and ask himself some direct personal questions. "What is there in my life that I am willing to ask Christ to help me remove? What is not in my life that I am willing to ask Christ to help me possess? In these difficult days can Christ count on me and how much? Is there a spiritual depression in my own soul? Am I following Christ afar off, or am I earnestly striving to live in close fellowship with Him every day and seeking to do His will?" The chorus choir will sing Robert's "Seek Ye the Lord" with Mrs. W. L. Dowler singing the obligato solo.

The church will be kept open daily for all who wish to come into the Sanctuary for meditation and prayer.

Thursday evening, the October group of the Bethany Guild in charge of Mrs. W. J. Ohlrich and the executive committee of the Women's Missionary Society in charge of Mrs. George Seel will meet in the Parish House to complete arrangements for the entertainment of the Women's Missionary Convention which will be held in the Church of the Redeemer, Thursday, October 20.

The Confirmation Class will hold its first meeting in the Parish House Saturday morning, October 8, at 9:30 o'clock. All boys and girls of the congregation 12 to 14 years of age should be present for this systematic study of the Bible and the meaning of church membership. The class will meet regularly every Saturday morning.

The Sunday School held a successful Rally Day last Sunday morning. William B. Platt gave an interesting address, after which the pastor made some important announcements with regard to the work of the coming year. All departments, with the exception of the Primary and the Brotherhood Class, will meet for opening service at 9:45 o'clock in the church auditorium, after which they will march to their class rooms in the Parish House.

The Brotherhood Class, under the leadership of Alfred Doe, will entertain members of all other Men's Bible Classes of this community, Tuesday evening, October 11, in the Parish House. James LaPorte will have charge of the music and entertainment and Henry Taylor will provide the refreshments. A membership campaign is now in progress and the attendance is rapidly increasing. James Ropes is the teacher of the class.

Advise Inspection of Home Heating Systems

Sufficient heat from the home heating system will go a long way to prevent colds, grippe, soar throats, etc., according to Matthews, furnace experts of Dewey avenue. Too many people worry through the winter, they say, hoping that their heating system will operate satisfactorily until spring. Frequently they find old heating plants that can be modernized and put in satisfactory condition, although often the heating equipment must be entirely replaced. However, in the latter case, the trend of prices is so much lower that it is possible for many people to afford new furnaces. Monthly payments are available for those who desire them.

Matthews advise an inspection of the heating system which they will make at no charge. After a thorough inspection, they make a full report of conditions with no obligation to the householder. Matthews are located at 1458 Dewey avenue.—Adv.

SAUER—WALKER

Miss Jean Norton Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Warren Walker, of Augustine street and J. Samuel Sauer, Lieut., U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Sauer of Mulberry street, were married at the home of the bride's parents Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. The Rev. John Williamson, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church in Sodus, performed the ceremony.

Candlelight illuminated the house throughout. Tall candlesticks with altar tapers combined with baskets of fall flowers were used profusely. The fireplace, before which the ceremony took place, was banked with greens and a long, low arrangement of pink and white asters and gypsophila decorated the mantle, with seven-branched candlesticks on either side.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore flesh-colored angel-skin lace and carried a white prayer book with a shower of gardenias and lilies of the valley. Mrs. Kenneth Bryant, sister of the bride, was matron of honor and was gowned in flesh-colored ruffled net over pink taffeta with blue sash and matching colored slippers. She carried an old-fashioned bouquet of pink rose buds, larkspur and gypsophila.

The bridegroom was attended by Lieut. William Hardick of Fort Ontario, Oswego.

The bride's mother wore Belanta blue transparent velvet with a shoulder bouquet of gardenias, and the bridegroom's mother wore black lace with a corsage of orchids and lilies of the valley.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception took place and a buffet supper was served in the dining room.

Lieut. and Mrs. Sauer left by motor for the Adirondacks and Montreal and will be at home after November 1 at Fort Ontario, Oswego.

DR. SOUTHWICK MOVES TO NEW OFFICE IN LAKE AVE.

Dr. Chester S. Southwick, dentist, now has his office at 1159 Lake avenue, having moved from his former location in the Professional building. Dr. Southwick has long been a Tenth Warder, residing in Augustine street.

evening service, a dramatization, under the direction of Miss Allene Hoesterey, will announce the beginning of the School of World Friendship on October 9, at 5:45 p. m. Six classes will meet simultaneously, as follows: "Off to China" for boys and girls six, seven and eight years of age; "New Joy," the story of a real Chinese child, for children nine, ten and eleven years of age; "Indian Americans" and "As It Looks to Young China," two classes for high school young folks; and "Facing the Future in Indian Missions" and "Living Issues in China," two courses for older young people and adults. Following the classes, luncheon will be served and the evening will close with a general assembly. The school will continue for six Sunday evenings.

Johnston Introduces Daily Specials Plan

A new plan, designed to introduce all their products to the Tenth Ward, is being worked out successfully by the H. A. Johnston Kleen Bakeries. Two different varieties of baked goods are placed on the special list every day, notice of the specials being posted in the windows. This extra inducement, it is noted, leads Johnson patrons who never have tried many of the numerous items made by the local bakers, to do so.

Conditions Here Good By Comparison—Siamo

Returned from a ten-days' trip to New York, Brooklyn, Bethlehem, Pa., Jersey City and other points in that neighborhood, John Siamo of Dewey avenue is quite confident that business conditions here are much better than in the metropolitan area. People in Rochester are "100 per cent better off" he says.

Mr. Siamo tells of seeing a demonstration in New York in behalf of free electricity and gas, in which he said thousands of people massed in the streets and paraded to no avail. While in New York, Mr. Siamo states he made a very favorable purchase of leather at a considerable saving and he feels confident that he can please all his customers.

Mr. Siamo made the trip by motor with a relative. They had a rather unusual experience on the way home when their car struck and killed a porcupine, which they brought home with them and gave to a friend.

QUICK-FROZEN FOODS TO BE INTRODUCED TODAY AT BAUMAN & BAYNES AND LEVIN'S

Quick-frozen foods, which have been attracting nation-wide attention as representing a revolutionary system of food distribution, are being introduced in the Tenth Ward this week by two stores, Levin's Cash Market of 1525 Lake avenue and Bauman and Baynes of 333 Driving Park avenue.

These new food products, numbering about 100 items and including meats, poultry, seafoods, vegetables and fruits, are quick-frozen in cartons at 50 below zero.

As scientists explain the quick-freezing process, the action of the intense cold, scientifically applied, is so rapid that the foods thus frozen retain their original flavor, texture, appearance and health values indefinitely while kept in a hard-frozen state.

It is pointed out that the new method, which permits foods to be packaged before they are quick-frozen, makes it possible to market meats and other perishable foods as simply as packaged breakfast foods and coffee are now dispensed.

They are kept in retail stores in zero-cold refrigerated cabinets. In the kitchen they are handled exactly like any other fresh foods.

The process by which they are quick-frozen was invented by Clarence Birdseye, a New England scientist who spent several years in Northern Labrador. He learned there the secret of Nature's own method of refrigeration, by which intense cold keeps caribou meat and fish deliciously edible for months in a hard-frozen state.

Horse Shoe Tournament Is Won by Tenth Warder

After two days of eliminations, the Grand View Heights Horse Shoe Tournament finished with Fred Green of 88 Bryan street as the victor. Finalists on Sunday were John Plum, also a Tenth Warder, and Mr. Green, both defeating the other contestants easily.

Green breezed through the first game of the last contest with great accuracy, defeating Plum, 27-6. The second game was evenly played, Plum coming from behind to hang up the game with two ringers, 25-24.

In the third and deciding game Green became the victor in an exciting contest that kept the spectators tense until the last ringer.

RIVIERA FEATURE REVIEW

Week-end Program
Tonight—"By Whose Hand" with Ben Lyon and Barbara Weeks; and "Lena Rivers" with Joyce Compton. Fri.-Sat.—"War Correspondent" with Jack Holt and Ralph Graves; and "Texas Bad Man" with Tom Mix. Sun.-Tues.—"Strange Love of Molly Louvain" with Ann Dvorak and Lee Tracy; and "Congorilla" with Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson. Sun.-Mon.-Tues.—Review

The most thrilling talking picture to come out of the African jungle, with its amazing close-up shots of the ferocious gorilla, its remarkable photographs of that grotesque race of people, the pygmies, and its blood-chilling, unadulterated screams and cries of the wildest denizens of the dark continent is "Congorilla," Mr. and Mrs. Martin Johnson's production. The scenes of the gorilla, in its native habitat, in the vast Alum-bongo Mountain region of the Belgian Congo are the most hair-raising ever seen. The camera first picks up a pair of piercing eyes, leering menacingly out of the forest. Then a large hairy head appears, and accompanied by an ear-splitting scream, the monstrous monster charges the camera, to stop within a few feet of the very lens and rise up on his hind legs to his full height of what seems to be at least preservation to his young and on his never-ending quest for food.

Lee Tracy and Ann Dvorak, two young screen players of note teamed together for the first time, have the leads in "The Strange Love of Molly Louvain." Tracy's work heretofore has been confined principally to the New York stage, where he carried off top honors in such outstanding plays as "Broadway," "The Front Page" and "Louder Please." Ann Dvorak will be seen in her first role since her highly successful one in "The Crowd Roars," one of the most successful pictures of the year, in which she shared honors with James Cagney. Tracy, as a reporter, living in the boarding house where Ann and Richard Cromwell seek refuge after Nick's (Leslie Fenton's) shooting scrape with an officer of the law, fails, for all his nose for news, to discern that Ann is the notorious Mollie, mistress and accomplice of Nick, whom the police are seeking. Mollie's baby gives Tracy the clue he wants, and he pulls one of the oldest newspaper tricks in the world, advertising that Mollie's baby is sick and needs her. He does this on the eve of his own departure for Paris with Mollie, whom he has persuaded to go to Paris with him for a hilarious two or three months, leaving Cromwell to a "better break than marriage with Mollie would be," as Tracy puts it.

The climax is one of the most absorbing in years, and contains the primary element of all good drama—human interest.

LAKEVIEW SCHOOL 7
Recently an exhibit was held in the Assembly Hall. The things on display showed how the boys and girls had busied themselves during the summer. Boys built objects of wood and also carved articles out of soap and wood. Collections of stamps, minerals, rocks, shells, flowers, etc., were shown. Many parents and friends of the children came to see the display.

The following pupils have been assigned special duties during fire drill: Walter Bergevin, Charles Copeland, Jack Handy, Ernest Crewdson, Renkert Meyer and Perry Smith.

The following pupils have been assigned to give the signal for the return of classes to the building after the fire drill: Donald Lum, Leonard Wolk, Billy Boone, Lewis Botts, Fred Kittleberger.

R. B. I. Students Guests At School's Reception

New friendships were begun and many old ones revived at the informal welcome party given last week in the R. B. I. auditorium by members of the faculty and administrative staff for new and second year students. It was the official greeting of the teachers and officers to the students who attended to the number of several hundred. A large majority of the students come from homes throughout New York State with a fair representation from other states and places as distant as Porto Rico.

Miss Ethel B. Pearson, registrar, was general chairman for the affair and headed the committees responsible for the entertainment of the young people. Dancing and cards occupied the attention of those present following the entertainment furnished by Melvin Schwartz of the Y. M. C. A. Refreshments were served by a committee in charge. Dr. Meyer Jacobstein, president and Ernest W. Veigel, Jr., general manager, led the reception committee.

Given 33rd Degree at Convention of Masons

Highest honor in the Masonic order was paid to Lewis G. Ames of Electric avenue last week at the 120th annual session of the Supreme Council of the Scottish Rite, F. and A. M., in Indianapolis. Mr. Ames was the recipient of the honorary 33rd degree.

Mr. Ames has been prominent in local Masonic life since he came to Rochester in 1919. He has been master of Graftsmen Lodge of which he is a charter member; three times potent master of Rochester Lodge of Perfection and is an officer in Rochester Consistory and a member of Damascus Temple Nobles of the Mystic Shrine and Lalah Rookh Grotto.

BOY SCOUT NEWS Troop No. 81

On September 17, Boy Scouts of Troop 81 enjoyed an outing on Stanley Moore's ranch near Hilton. They cooked meals in the woods and then went on a treasure hunt. Billy Spain and Bob Puffer found two of the treasures, which were compasses supplied by Committeeman William E. Turner. Ben Taber found the other treasure, a collection of unusual postage stamps.

Last Saturday noon the scouts and parents and friends visited the plant of the Rochester Times-Union. They saw the great presses start with rolls of paper and turn out finished newspapers and were thrilled to hear their names broadcast over the radio from the editorial rooms.

Last week George Gunn was elected Beaver patrol leader, while John Peer and Jack Baybutt were re-elected leaders of the Flying Eagles and Foxes, respectively. John Caister, Keene Engelhardt and Ben Taber were elected assistant patrol leaders of the Beaver, Flying Eagle and Fox Patrols, respectively.

Redeemer Play School Has Interesting Plan
The Play School which was opened by Ardagh Paget and Winifred Border at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer for children from two to five years of age has been in session for three weeks. The school is open from 8:30 to 11:45 each morning.

A definite program is carried out every day. It begins with a "good morning" song followed by an hour of free play on the saw-horses, benches, slides and teeter-totters. The children are then taken into the Parish House for a short recess and light lunch followed by a ten-minute rest period. The children sing songs, listen to the morning's story, and then follow the supervised games. The morning closes with a creative period with each child making something. When clean-up time comes every child helps to put things away. Then a "good-bye" song is sung and the children are ready to go home.

The whole session is out-of-doors on pleasant days and, when the weather does not permit, in the club house.
Miss Paget and Miss Border express their appreciation to parents for their co-operation and donations.
