HOOPER RESIGNS FROM MINISTRY

Resignation of Rev. Alfred E. Hooper as pastor of Lyell Avenue Baptist Church has been announced and he will conclude 39 years in the ministry in services at his church next Sunday. He is retiring from the active ministry.

Rev. Hooper received his bachelor and master degrees at Colby College at Waterville, Maine, and his divinity degree at Rochester Theological Seminary in 1897. He came to Rochester from Utica 11 years ago to accept the call to Lyell Baptist.

No successor has as yet been chosen. C. S. Davenport is chairman of the pulpit committee, including Miss Pearl French and Joseph Arva, which is seeking a new pastor. Rev. Hooper and Mrs. Hooper will continue for a short time to occupy the parsonage and Rev. Hooper will preach on Easter day and baptize candidates. A reception in their honor is planned for Friday, Apr. 3.

Primary Day, Next Thursday, To Decide Party Leadership

Next Thursday, April 2, will be Primary Day, when voters will go to polls to elect their party officers. In most instances, voting will be a cut and dried affair with "organization" slates for all parties unopposed. There are a number of exceptions, however, and two of them are in The Vicinity.

The battle here is over the selection of ward and county committeemen, and ultimately the ward leadership. In the 15th Ward it is the Democrats who are conducting a wide-open fight and in the 20th Ward the Republicans are doing battle.

Whereas the 20th Warders' set-to seems to have slimmered down with both sides confident of a victory, the 15th Ward struggle apparently is unabated.

The Buckley-Hodges-Shatzel-Johnson-Flanigan group of Democrats continues to pound away at Jacob Smith, who they claim has not resigned as leader because he did not submit his resignation to the 15th Ward county and ward committee. It is their avowed aim to place one of the five, William A. Buckley, John B. Hodges, James E. Shatzel, Harold Johnson or James A. Flanigan, in the leadership in case their ticket is elected. Their slogan is "remove Smith from the leadership for once and all time."

In the meantime, Smith maintains that his resignation went through the regular channels and has been officially accepted both by Donald Dailey, Monroe County Democratic leader, and by the ward and county committee. Hugh Neary is and is not leader of the 15th Ward, depending upon your point of view. In next Thursday's balloting, a clear majority for regulars or insurgents will go a long way toward solving the existing tangle.

HELP FOR THE HOME MAKER
CAKES

Cakes are of two general types depending upon the basic ingredients they contain. As one type of cake we have those which are made with fat. They are called butter cakes. Then there are the air cakes which are made with out fat. Either type of cake may be baked in many different forms. First of all, let's discuss the most commonly made cake which is the butter cake. Materials used in cake making must be given some consideration. The sugar should be finely granulated as a coarse sugar produces a coarse grain cake with a hard crust. It is advisable to roll the sugar if it is coarse. Any fat that has a mild flavor may be used. Generally, we prefer to use butter or part butter because of the flavor. Most fats except butter are unsalted. So when using these, increase the amount of salt by one-half. Eggs vary in size and therefore vary in quantity. One should attempt to use eggs that are medium in size as the quantity of eggs makes an appreciable difference in texture of cake. The liquid generally used is milk. A pastry flour or a general purpose flour is most often used unless a cake flour is specified. It is important to use a good standard brand of flour. If a recipe calls for pastry flour, a bread flour may be substituted if you use 2 tablespoons less flour per cup. Last but not least, baking powder of a good national brand is important to successful cake baking.

Tonight—"The Crusades" with Loretta Young and Henry Wilcoxon; and "1,000 a Minute" with Roger Pryor.

Fri. and Sat.—"She Couldn't Take It" with George Raft and Joan Bennett; and "Ivory Handled Guns" with Buck Jones.

Sun., Mon., Tues.—"If You Could Only Cook" with Jean Arthur and Herert Marshall; and "Mary Burns, Fugitive" with Sylvia Sidney and Melvyn Douglas.

Wed., Thur.—"Riff Raff" with Jean Harlow and Spencer Tracy; and "Perfect Gentleman" with Frank Morgan and Patricia Ellis.

Review

Crammed with action, thrills and romance, "Mary Burns, Fugitive," starring Sylvia Sidney, is a swift-moving, soul-stirring drama, a distinguished photoplay of first class entertainment.

Providing Miss Sidney with a part that is distinctly her metier, "Mary Burns, Fugitive" emerges as an emotionally powerful, tensely dramatic photoplay, packed with romance and adventure all the way. In the title role, Miss Sidney gives one of the finest performances of the year as an innocent girl, hunted by the law and relentlessly pursued by a former sweetheart gangster.

'REGULARS' WIN PRIMARY FIGHTS

The two movements in The Vicinity aimed at upsetting political leadership failed to "click" in last week's primaries, showing some strength, but suffering the fate common to most primary fights. Established leadership appears solidly entrenched unless some unforeseen development occurs before the ward and county committees are organized.

In the 15th Ward, Hugh Neary's forces captured 21 of Democratic ward and county committee posts. The opposition succeeded in winning only 11 committee seats. A meeting of the newly elected committeemen has been called by Neary for tonight, to be held at 443 Lyell Avenue.

William Kramer, 20th Ward Republican leader, faced with contests in nine of ten districts in his ward, came out of the elections with 25 of the 26 contested seats. He has called for an organization meeting of the committee for Monday night, Apr. 13, at the clubrooms, 274 Colvin Street.

There were no fights in the other Vicinity wards and re-election of the same leaders is expected.

Keeping Ahead of Yourself

There's a lot of truth in that very trite saying "Woman's work is never done." So, with the first thaw of a long dreary winter, the housewife turns her thoughts to spring housecleaning. By planning ahead the housewife may take time out to enjoy other things without courting disaster in her housecleaning.

A great deal of dirt and dust always collects on our upholstered furniture and overdrapes. We like to clean our living rooms first. It gives a general fresh appearance to the entire house. Take your electric cleaner and go over entire room. Use your small cleaner for drapes and furniture. Perhaps the furniture is stained and soiled. Let's take our zeal for soap and water from the laundry into the living room.

There are all sorts of ways of using even the most ordinary thing as soap and water. The procedure is as follows: Dissolve 1/4 cup of mild soap in 1 quart of water and beat 1/2 cupful at a time. This makes a large bowlful of suds. Before we go to work we spread an old sheet under the furniture to protect the rug.

Home Heating Hints
by JOHN BARCLAY

HERE is a daily heating schedule that will help you to get more satisfaction from the fuel you burn:

INTHEMORNING—In order to get heat up quickly, open the Ashpit Damper wide and close the Check Damper. Do not add fresh coal until the fire is burning briskly. And when you do put on fresh coal, don't forget to leave an exposed spot of live coals directly in front of the fire door. It may also be necessary to shake the grates a little. This depends on whether or not they were shaken the night before.

DURING THE DAY—Rely entirely on the Check and Ashpit Dampers to control the fire. Never use the Turn Damper for daily regulation. Keep it as nearly closed as possible without hindering the free burning of the fire.

AT NIGHT—Before banking the fire shake the grates gently... until the first red glow appears in the ashpit. Wet the ashes and remove them. When banking the fire always open the Check Damper and close the Ashpit Damper. Never leave the Fire Door open when banking the fire. (9)

Murray Theatre

Tonight—"I Dream Too Much" with Lily Pons; and "Sunset of Power" with Buck Jones.

Fri., Sat.—"The Lady Consents" with Ann Harding; and "Grand Exit" with Edmund Lowe and Ann Sothern.

Sun., Mon., Tues.—"Rose Marie" with Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy; "Desert Death"; "The Pinch Singer" with Our Gang; Colored musical cartoon; and Metro-tone news.

Review

The gifted quartette who piloted "Naughty Marietta" to unprecedented success—Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, Director W. S. Van Dyke and Producer Hunt Stromberg—have again turned their talents to a giant enterprise, the production for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer of the classic light opera, "Rose Marie."

One of the most successful theatrical properties extant, "Rose Marie" is known the world over. It was first produced in New York in 1924, running two years.

It opened in London in 1925, and ran two years there, at the Drury Lane Theatre. The Magador Theatre in Paris first saw "Rose Marie" in 1926, where revivals of it have been produced almost every year since.

CHAPEL MINISTER TO BE ORDAINED

Services ordaining Robert T. Frerichs, student minister of the Maltby Street Chapel, into the Baptist ministry will be held at the Chapel on Sunday at the regular evening church service. Mr. Frerichs, who is graduating this spring from the Colgate-Rochester Divinity School, has been student minister of the chapel since September, 1934.

The ordination sermon will be preached by Dr. Conrad H. Moehli-man, professor of Church History at the Divinity School. Dr. H. B. Robins will give the ordination prayer, and Dr. Ernest W. Parsons will give the charge to the candidate. Dr. D. J. Evans will give a charge to the church. Professor Gustav A. Lehmann, director of music at the Divinity School will sing a solo, and the chapel choir will take part in the service.

This is the first ordination service ever to be held at the chapel. Mr. Frerichs, a native of Oregon, came to Rochester in 1933 after his graduation from Linfield College. During his first year in Rochester, he was student assistant at the St. Paul's Evangelical Church in Norton Street. Guests at the service will include his mother, Mrs. Wm. R. Frerichs of McMinnville, Oregon, and his sister, Margaret, who have come to Rochester for his graduation.

NOTICE

The next issue will be published on Wednesday instead of on Thursday as customary. All news must be in one day earlier than usual. The date is Wednesday, May 27.

INSURANCE

7 Immel St. Gen. 3046

We are advising our clients to take advantage of a new comprehensive automobile fire and theft policy, one of the most all-inclusive policies ever written. Its cost is so little extra over an ordinary fire and theft policy, averaging only about $1.00 more, that few hesitate to take our advice.

The coverage is for any direct loss or damage not caused by collision or upset. For instance, you are protected against damage to your car by tornado, cyclone, windstorm, hail, earthquake, explosion, water, flood, rising water, strike, riot, civil commotion, riot attending a strike, insurrection, falling aircraft, vandalism, proven maliciousness, spray from trees, attempted theft, breakage of glass from any cause, immersion, battery acid, losses, dust, sand, scorches, etc.

The only exception is in the case of uninsurable losses caused by wear and tear, electrical and mechanical breakdowns, breakages, failures, freezing and tire damage.

Such coverage for so small an amount of money can hardly be ignored by any automobile owner.

Reimbursement for towing and road service expense, towing and emergency expense or loss of use by theft may also be obtained by payment of a small additional premium. —Adv.

HELP FOR THE HOME MAKER

Soft pies afford the housewife a means of having something on hand in case of company. The shell can be baked when you are doing your regular baking. It is baked in a very hot oven at 450 degrees for 10 minutes or until delicately brown. This is not hard to do in the new automatic heat controlled ranges. Now, it can be stored in your refrigerator until ready for use. Also, the filling may be made up and stored at the same time. Then when the time arrives put the filling in the pie shell, cover with whipped cream or meringue. If you cover it with meringue it will be necessary to chill the pie again. These pies should always be served cold.

It is necessary to caution you about keeping the fillings too long. They keep nicely for two or three days except those made with cornstarch. Those made with cornstarch become watery and your filling separates.

There is probably one member of your family who is especially fond of chocolate pie. Mix 1/2 cup sugar with 1/4 teaspoon salt, 3 tablespoons of cornstarch and 3 tablespoons of flour. Add 2 cups boiling water to 2 ounces melted chocolate. Stir slowly into the first mixture. Cook in a shallow pan over heat until thick. Remove from the heat. Add 1/2 cup more of sugar to the two beaten egg yolks. Add this mixture to the cooked mixture stirring continuously. Now add 2 tablespoons of butter and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Cool slightly. Pour into a baked pie shell. Use the two whites beaten stiff with 2 tablespoons of sugar for the meringue. Bake at 300 degrees F for 10-15 minutes.

For those of us who do not eat chocolate or care for such a pie, a cream pie may be more to our taste. Mix together 2/3 cup sugar, 1/3 cup flour, 1/4 teaspoon salt. Gradually add 1 cup hot milk and 1 cup hot water. Cook in a shallow pan directly over heat until thick. Remove from heat. Slowly add two beaten egg yolks to the mixture stirring continuously. Now add 2 tablespoons butter and 1 teaspoon vanilla. Pour into a pie shell. Cover with meringue.

Try this on your family. They may be tired of the same type of soft pie all the time. I am sure they will like this "Sour Cream Pie." Beat 2 eggs slightly and add 1 cup sugar slowly. Combine 1/4 cup vinegar and 1/4 cup water and add to the egg and sugar mixture. Add the 1 cup sour cream, 1/4 teaspoon each of cinnamon, cloves, nutmeg and 1 cup diced dates and blend thoroughly. Pour this mixture into an unbaked pie shell. Bake in your heat control range shell. Make a latticed top crust. at 450 degrees for 15 minutes and then at 325 degrees for 15 minutes.

Safety

Believe it or not, the safest place for money is not in the safe. Thieves who broke into Russer's Market Saturday night proved this beyond a doubt when they left a bag containing $100 and carted off the safe, which unfortunately had over $600 inside of it. Now, if that money had been in the sugar barrel or on the top shelf behind the crackers and if the safe had been packed with old newspapers or something, wouldn't those thieves have been mortified?

Gets Relief

Sufferers from sinus trouble will be interested in the following letter, addressed to J. R. Maid of the Maid Drug Co., which was sent, unsolicited, by a Tenth Ward resident, Mrs. M. Yvonne Higbie of Brooklyn Street:

"Having doctored for sinus trouble for the last twelve years and having had an operation nine years ago with apparently no relief, I feel it is my duty to tell you what wonderful results I have had from your Nose Drops.

"After the operation I lost the sense of smell, but am happy to say it is coming back. I can detect the different odors from food I am cooking. I used from nine to twelve large size men's handkerchieves a day. Now I use but one or two ladies' size handkerchieves a day. The severe headaches have practically all gone. I am on the road to complete recovery.

"I have used your Nose Drops about four months, having been told by my hair dresser how wonderful they were, but like everything else I did not have much faith in them, but I thank her and also you for the wonderful results I have received.

"Yours very truly,
(Mrs.) M. Yvonne Higbie"

Lyell Ave. Baptist

On Sunday at 10:30 the guest speaker will be Philip Anderson, a student at Westminster Theological Seminary, Philadelphia. Sunday School will follow at 12 M. and Christian Endeavor at 6:30.

At the May meeting of the World Wide Guild the following officers were elected: President, Eleanor Nicholson; vice-president, Catherine Arva; secretary, Irene Hirschler; treasurer, Hazel Demerest; reading contest, Catherine Arva; programs, Pearl French; White Cross, Velma Arva.

Plans were made to hold the annual World Wide Guild picnic at Seneca Park late in June.

Plans are also under way for the observance of Children's Day, June 14, when the pageant "For Every Child" will be presented.

Bobb's Takes Over Beckler's Cleaners

Bobb's, tailors and cleaners, announce that they have taken over the former Beckler's Studio Cleaners at 442 Lyell Avenue and will operate it as a branch store for the convenience of their Vicinity customers.

This company has two other stores, one on North Clinton Street and the other on Lake Avenue. It owns and operates its own cleaning plant, using the famous Tri-cylene method. This cleaning method, it is claimed, insures a fresh, clean appearance in the garments, free from objectionable odors. It is also free from oil films which pick up dust and quickly dull appearance.

Winners of the "capacity" contest had not been determined at press time, but these may be published at a later date.

Do You Know?
Sponsored by Medical Societies of the State of New York and the County of Monroe
VISITS are expected this year from the 17-year cicadas, mistakenly called "locusts." They will appear in late spring from the tip of Long Island to the Mississippi, as well as in other parts of the country. They are the longest-lived insects known. After they are hatched, they burrow into the ground and live for 17 years on the roots of trees. This spring they will work to the surface, climb up into the trees, and emerge from their chrysalis as singing insects. In general they are harmless, laying their eggs in the trees, and dying after a few weeks. Those we see this spring will be "war babies"—born in 1919, and orphaned ever since.

HELP FOR THE HOME MAKER

During these warmer days, let your automatic refrigerator do most of your meal preparation for you while you enjoy the sunshine.

Many of you are looking for something different in the way of fish recipes. Try this one for jellied shrimp ring. If you are using fresh shrimp, simmer in salted water for about ten minutes or until the shell turns pink. Then wash and remove the shells. Be sure to remove the dark vein which runs the length of the body, whether using fresh or canned shrimp. Melt 2 packages lime flavored gelatin in 2 cups hot water. Add 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 2 teaspoons minced parsley, 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 1 tablespoon onion juice. Chill over ice cubes and water stirring occasionally. When gelatin has thickened, add 1 lb shrimp, 2 diced cucumbers and 1/2 cup diced celery. Pour into a ring mold and place in your refrigerator to jelly. Serve on a plate of crisp lettuce or watercress. Fill center with radish roses and olives or tomatoes and cucumbers. With this ring, creamed carrots and peas can be served in individual mousse cups.

For dessert, we are offering chocolate bisque. Melt 3 squares bitter chocolate in the upper part of a double boiler. Add 1-1 1/2 cups sweetened condensed milk. Stir over boiling water until the mixture thickens. Remove from the heat, adding 1 cup hot water and 2 slightly beaten egg yolks. Cool. Fold in the 2 stiffly beaten egg whites and 1-8 teaspoon salt. Rub the freezing tray of your refrigerator with butter. Line with graham cracker crumbs and pour the chocolate mixture on the crumbs. When frozen, cut in squares. Garnish with whipped cream and cherries.

Here is a refrigerator ham loaf easy to prepare for that Sunday night supper for the bridge luncheon. Soak 2 tablespoons gelatin in 1-2 cup cold water. Add 1 cup boiling water. Cool. Add 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 tablespoon horseradish, 2 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce 1/2 teaspoon grated onion, 1 finely chopped pimiento, 1-8 teaspoon cayenne, 1/2 cup mayonnaise and 2 1/2 cups cooked ground ham. When mixture is beginning to thicken, pour into a loaf pan and chill until firm. Unmold on a platter and garnish. Buttered peas and diced asparagus are delicious served with this ham loaf.

We always think of pineapple as an accompaniment for ham. Here is a new recipe for a frozen dessert salad. Boil together 1/2 cup sugar and 1 cup hot water for five minutes after sugar is melted. Add 2 teaspoons gelatin which has been soaked in 1-4 cup cold water. Add 1/2 cup grapefruit juice, 1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple which has been soaked in 1-4 cup cold water. Add 1/2 cup orange and 1 lemon and green coloring. Freeze until about half frozen and then beat thoroughly. Pack in individual ring molds and freeze until hard. Unmold on lettuce and fill centers with fresh fruit. Cream cheese balls may be served with

YMCA NEWS

Tom Sharp, ex-commodore of the Rochester Yacht Club, and owner of the famous "Thisbe," eight meter sailing yacht which was successful in winning Canada's Cup, has presented a cup to stimulate interest in sailing at Camp Cory, the boys' camp on Lake Keuka operated by the Rochester Y. M. C. A.

The interest and advice of Mr. Sharp and other members of the Rochester Yacht Club has been of real value to the camp in stimulating interest in this popular sport.

Edward Hulek, while best known to boys of Rochester as director of the department of Health and Physical Education at Washington High School and for his skill in refereeing the championship high school football and basketball games, is himself an experienced sailor. Before becoming director of the senior camp at Cory he, for several years, operated a camp in which sailing was the major activity. With the assistance of Mr. Sharp, a program for the Cory Yacht Club is being worked out, based on Mr. Sharp's experience in the Rochester Yacht Club.

The four 16-foot, sloop-rigged sailing dinghies were selected for their safety and the possibilities they offered for instruction. Senior campers who pass a sailing and swimming test are eligible for the yacht club. Two new 16-foot canoes will add another interesting feature to the waterfront program.

Camp Cory is conducted primarily for boys of Rochester and community, whether or not they are now members of the Y. M. C. A., but its program has attracted boys from many parts of the country. The camp season is from July 1 to August 26. The junior section of the camp accommodates boys 8 to 12 years of age.

Mrs. Mary Donehue, 218 Hague St. Call at Van Zeilen Hardware, 412 Ames St., for free Murray Theatre ticket.

Do You Know?

Sponsored by Medical Societies of the State of New York and the County of Monroe

THE Pioneer Cup of the Chemical Foundation has been awarded Dr. Leo Baekland, Belgian-American chemist who invented Bakelite.

CAMP-time is coming soon. Dr. Philip M. Stimson, of New York Hospital, has this to say to parents about camps: "A parent wants to know—is my child going to be reasonably safe? What are the people like who are to guide my child's life these two months? Then the wise parent will ask about the activities. Is the program well planned with provision for individual differences? Is there joy in living and doing? Is work held honorable? The best method of learning about a camp is by having an interview with the director. Directories of summer camps are to be obtained from Boy and Girl Scouts, Camp Fire Girls, Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. Having chosen the camp, parents should see that the child's teeth are in good condition, and it is well to have your own doctor give him an examination, and send a report of his findings and recommendations to the camp director."

There will be free peanuts and gifts for the children. Races, music and a grand drawing with many valuable prizes.

Peanuts and suckers, Mrs. Mae Dunham, Mrs. Carrie Raymond, Mrs. Sarah Marx; press, Mrs. Mary Dalton.

"Regulars" of 20th To Picnic Aug. 16

Due to some misunderstanding as to the date of annual picnic of the 20th Ward Regular Republican organization, James Bergin, ward leader, announced this week that there has been no change. The outing will be held on Sunday, August 16, at Rice's Grove in Chili Avenue.

Harry Boehm is general chairman, assisted by the following sub-chairmen: Reception committee, William Kramer and James Bergin; prizes, Miss Marcella May; finance, Richard Baker; program, Joseph J. Schlafler and Seth A. Dibble.

Mr. Bergin also emphasized in his announcement that the regular organization headquarters is at 216 Danforth Street, not as formerly at the Everyday Club in Colvin Street.

CAMELIO STORE OPENS TONIGHT

Formal opening of the new Camello Bros. market and grocery at Otis and Austin Streets will take place tonight. The store, more than double its former size, as the result of extensive alterations, has been most attractively remodeled.

An unusual feature of the opening tonight is that nothing will be for sale. The public is invited to come and inspect the new store, which will be open from 8 o'clock no. Cigars, flowers and balloons will be given away to the visitors.

Alterations include the addition of a modern store front with two spacious display windows finished in tile. The interior of the store has been done over in white with tile floors, and new stream-line shelving, for easier selection, has displaced the old-type wood shelves.

Daylight lighting system, and a Dayton Mist-or vegetable display stand are other additions to the store which make it one of the most up-to-date on the west side.

This school is meant for all children interested in games, stories, and religious instruction and memory work. It will be interdenominational in aim, and devoted to the interest of all religions, and the encouragement of the religious training of the child.

IN MEMORIAM

REICHENBERGER, Esther, died July 4th, 1936. Your gentle face and patient smile With sadness we recall. You had a kindly word for each And died beloved by all.

The voice is mute and stilled the heart That loved us well and true; Ah, bitter was the trial to part From one so good as you.

You are not forgotten, loved one, Nor will you ever be; As long as life and memory last We will remember thee.

We miss you now, our hearts are sore, As time goes by we miss you more; Your loving smile, your gentle face, No one can fill your vacant place. Parent, Sisters and Brother.

Sponsored by Medical Societies of the State of New York and the County of Monroe

Proof that hay fever is caused by pollen was first offered in England as long ago as 1873.

Hay fever patients must cooperate fully with their physicians in conducting a systematic search for the guilty agent. Hay fever patients practically never have fever, and hay causes only a small proportion of the difficulty and is not at all an element in the fall months. The ailment is usually due to pollen, but not always.

Thunderstorms occur only once or twice a season on the Pacific Coast.

CLAUS-SCHLAFFER

The marriage of Miss Bertha Schlaffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Schlaffer of Ames Street, and Charles A. Claus of Immel Street, took place Thursday morning, July 16, at a 10 o'clock nuptial mass in Holy Family Church. Attendance was restricted to members of the immediate families.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. G. L. Aman, newly appointed assistant at Holy Family, who was officiating at a wedding for the first time. Rev. Roy Morphy assisted.

Attendants were Miss Marie Claus, daughter of the groom, and Theodore Schlaffer, a brother of the bride. The wedding party had breakfast, following the ceremony, at Old Madrid in Dansville.

Mr. and Mrs. Claus, who are at home at 7 Immel Street, expect to leave August 15 on a two weeks motor trip.

NITZMAN—SPAHN

In a pretty church wedding on July 21 at Holy Family Church, Miss Marie Spahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Spahn of Ames Street, became the bride of Erwin Nitzman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Nitzman of Rosewood Terrace. Rev. Roy Morphy performed the ceremony at a 9 o'clock high mass on an altar decorated with gladioli and palms.

The bride wore a gown of white moire with satin stripes, mouseline de soie hat and veil and white slippers, carrying white roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaid, Miss Eleanor May, wore pink moire with blue hat and slippers and carried pink roses and blue delphinium. Vernon Ruf was best man.

Breakfast for the wedding party and a reception following were held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Nitzman have returned after spending their honeymoon at Madison, N. Y., and are now at home at 16 Diamond Place.

BROWN—WEBER

Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Weber of Glide Street announce the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Ida, to John H. Brown, formerly of Savannah, Ga. The wedding took place July 4 at 11 a. m. at Holy Family Church, the Rev. Joseph Gefell, pastor, performing the ceremony.

The bride wore a white shark-skin suit with large straw hat of dusty pink, and dusty pink accessories; she carried pink roses and gypsophila. Miss Doris Weber, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor and wore a white suit with primrose yellow hat and accessories; Miss Maude Brown, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and wore a white suit with pale blue hat and accessories. Both attendants carried bouquets of yellow roses and snapdragons, and blue larkspur. Raymond Weber, brother of the bride, acted as best man for Mr. Brown.

The bride's mother wore a white crepe dress with printed jacket and white accessories, and her corsage was of Talisman roses and delphinium. After the ceremony, a dinner was served at the Hotel Rochester to members of the bridal party and the immediate family.

Fishin'

Late flashes from Chippewa Bay indicate that the fish in that section are becoming very much Vicinity-minded even though they are not allowing themselves to be hooked too often. After munching on bait from the line of Herman Pommerening for the last two weeks, they had only a day or two respite when along came Anthony and Joe Camelio and John Ackerman to tickle their palates with Vicinity crabs and worms. The latter group is still angling and not expected home until tomorrow or Saturday.

Townsend Club

Townsend Club No. 4 will meet tonight at 8 o'clock at Grace Presbyterian Church, Lyell Avenue. Mr. Harris, a delegate to the Townsend convention will speak. All members are requested to attend.

Around The Vicinity

It has been a long time since this column last appeared in The Post, but in celebration of the largest issue of this publication that has ever come off the presses, it seemed opportune to revive it, if only the once. . . . Here's the latest gossip, news and nonsense we've been able to scrape together:

Councilman Fred Ruppel's efforts to have the new bussee swing out Jay Street to Mt. Read Boulevard meet with the whole-hearted approval of residents there, who since time immemorial have had to hike considerable distances to the street car lines. . . . This section deserves and warrants as good service as any other. Certainly in this day and age, a built-up residential section of a large city should have transportation facilities within reasonable walking distance. . . . Here is an opportunity for the New York State Railways to rectify a long-standing inequality.

Charlie Claus, we hear, will hurry home from his honeymoon to preside at the organ in Holy Family Saturday morning for the Charles Henchens' silver wedding anniversary.

The chairman of the speakers' committee refusal to back down on his word to Senator George Kelly will probably put this year's picnic of the 15th Ward Democratic Club, Inc., down in history, judging by the furor it stirred up at Democratic headquarters . . . and also judging by the headlines in the dailies accorded the meeting at No. 5, allegedly held by the Democrats to "resolutionize" out of the mess.

Back in 1932 The Vicinity went Democratic in a big way. Franklin D. Roosevelt lead his ticket to a clean sweep in every ward here, even down to the local contest for county treasurer. . . . It will be interesting to see what color the local political picture is painted this Fall. The trend in the last two years has been back toward Republicanism and a determination of whether or not this leaning will be extended to the presidential contest is the purpose of The Vicinity Post ballot, details of which will be found on another page. . . . Followers of Rev. Charles E. Coughlin are numerous in this area, with several clubs flourishing, thus introducing a new element into the picture. Townsendites, although apparently not so numerous or well-organized here, are also an unknown quantity. . . . If Post readers take kindly to this straw ballot, we will have some idea of what's going to happen in November, in The Vicinity at least.

The Cook Coffee Company just moved into its new building in Glide Street, only to be the victim almost immediately after settling there, of a safe robbery. . . . What kind of hospitality is that?

In the past ten years, Lyell Avenue from Howard Road to State Street has been in a major state of repair, involving detours and inconvenience five times, in this order: 1—Widening and repairing of the avenue from State to Burrows; 2—Rebuilding of Lyell Road from Barge Canal westward; 3—Sewer construction and reconstruction of the avenue from Mt. Read to the Barge Canal; 4—Widening of Lyell Road; 5—Construction of new and wider bridge over the canal. . . . Will No. 6 and 7 be the long-discussed underpasses at Lyell and Glide and the widening and re-surfacing of Lyell from Mt. Read to Burrows? . . . There seems to be no other hope of extending the tradition of

ROUTES CHANGED BY STREET CARS

Replacement of many of Rochester's street cars by busses this week end will have special significance for Vicinity patrons of the railways. Street cars will be continued on Lyell Avenue, but the route downtown will be materially changed. The Allen Street Line will be served with busses.

Lyell Avenue, heretofore linked with Park Avenue, will be a system all of itself. The cars will make a long loop in the downtown area, thus making a considerably longer trip for those desiring to go to upper Main Street East.

After leaving Lyell, the line will proceed by way of State, Exchange, Court and North Clinton to Main Street. Crossing Main, it will run to Andrews to St. Paul and over South Avenue to Court and thus back to Lyell by way of Exchange and State. The line will cross Main Street at three different points, State, St. Paul and Clinton.

The present route of the Hudson-Allen line will be followed, according to announcement, with the exception that the busses will go as far as Mt. Read Boulevard and Buffalo Road on this end and Sea Breeze on the other. Whether or not the request for service out Jay Street to Mt. Read has been recognized could not be determined as yet.

Councilman Fred Ruppel and others have been seeking extension of the line to serve the large area around Jay Street between Ames and Mt. Read, which has never had transportation facilities. Mr. Ruppel was seeking another interview with New York State Railways officials as this issue went to press.

Finish Alterations At Independent Co.

The Independent Gasoline and Oil Company, which recently took over the former Kinso Corporation gasoline station at 585 Lyell Avenue, has completed alterations which make it one of the most modern stations in town.

Old style pumps have been replaced by the meter-type and construction of a new greasing pit has been completed. To insure perfect greasing, Independent has installed the floating body lubrication system, which takes the body weight off the springs and moving parts and takes out all squeaks. Seven different greases are used to make sure that each fitting is properly lubricated.

Rescue Mission Leader To Speak Here Sunday

The speaker Sunday at Grace Presbyterian Church will be Herbert L. Baker, superintendent of the People's Rescue Mission. The service as usual will be held at 11 a. m.

Tribute to Bob Miller

From His Vicinity Pals
In the quiet stillness of the sunset you left us for a peaceful hill where you always wished to be. Now you are near to Him closer than all fulfillment of your desire could bring.

No longer shall we walk those winding trails together—no longer shall your presence and fair smile make light those paths. But always your life shall lead us, inspire us with your attainments and influence us by the memory of your example and the love that made you "Our Bob." In our grief we shall not forget you, in our sorrow we shall remember that death is but a path that must be trod if we would pass to God.

Recalls Early Scenes On Her 85th Birthday

Celebrating her 85th birthday, Mrs. Margaret Kohlmeier, lifelong Vicinity resident, was entertained Saturday at the summer home of her son, Francis J. Kohlmeier, at Conesus Lake.

Mrs. Kohlmeier, who enjoys excellent health and is unusually active for her years, was born in 1851 on Ames Street, near Campbell, which at that time was as far as Ames Street extended to the north. She has lived in that neighborhood all her life until recently when she moved to Glide Street.

Recalling some of Dutehtown's history, Mrs. Kohlmeier remembers clearly the Civil War period, for it was then that her father, George Leonard died, the victim of a smallpox epidemic. She and her sister, Mrs. Julia Eckl, are the only survivors of 13 children.

The Vicinity then was only sparsely built up, she stated, as she called to memory the early settlers, some of whom are still numbered among this section's residents. Many others, however, have passed away although their names and homesteads are still "carried on" by descendants.

Mrs. Kohlmeier was a member of SS. Peter and Paul's Church, transferring to Holy Family when it was built. Her husband, Jacob, who was a barber, passed away at the turn of the century. They had seven children, six of whom are living.

A shore supper was served at the birthday party to a large number of guests, including three daughters, Miss Rose Kohlmeier, Mrs. Frank Sauter and Mrs. William Senz; two sons, Henry G. and Francis J. Kohlmeier; and a number of grandchildren, nieces and nephews. Another son, George, residing in California, was unable to attend.

Mrs. Kohlmeier was the recipient of many fine gifts and several beautiful floral tributes.

In Nazi-Land

Policeman Edwin Sullivan of No. 5, accompanied by Mrs. Sullivan, sailed for Germany on July 28 for a three months' visit. They have arrived and are staying with relatives of Mrs. Sullivan in Weiden.

Sully's only difficulty over there seems to be in conquering the language. He writes back that he is meeting lots of relatives, but he can't talk to them nor they to him, except through an interpreter. His father-in-law, he says, threatened to take him to a barber shop for a Nazi haircut, which it is surmised means a brush cut.

Crowds Pour Into Exposition Grounds

Every day is a busy day at the Great Lakes Exposition in Cleveland and this picture shows the crowds pouring across the Court of Presidents into the compact grounds of the Exposition. The grounds cover 150 acres lying along the cool shores of Lake Erie. Overhead are two of the blimps which take passengers for trips over the grounds and the city.

Exposition Proving Meccato Traveling America

Visitors to the Great Lakes Exposition on Cleveland's lake front are enthusiastic about the way the original purpose of the Exposition—the demonstration of the industries which have made the prosperity of the Great Lakes Basin—has been carried out. It is a graphic picture of the reasons for the country's wealth.

These visitors to date have numbered nearly one million persons and each day the industrial and commercial exhibits are attracting increasing attention.

Iron and steel are recognized as the basis of the industry of the middle west, and the great producers of iron and steel have combined, in intensely interesting exhibits, to show not only the extent to which manufacturing processes have been carried out also to demonstrate in striking fashion the historical beginnings of the industry. From a graphic portrayal of the production and shipment of the ore, coal and limestone used in blast furnaces and steel mills to moving models of giant machines of manufacture, the exposition visitor is able to study the industry to a point where books could not take him.

There are also interesting exhibits of many articles of manufacture, from machine tools and steel house frames to office and household equipment. Various lines of food products are shown, and there are automobiles, farm tractors, heating and air conditioning units, printing presses and almost everything which helps to make up the equipment for modern living.

But the big exposition is not entirely a school, even though the lessons it teaches are of vital interest to the many thousands who pass through the grounds each day. The location, on the shores of Lake Erie, makes a perfect setting for a playground, and there have been provided many amusements including the marine theater with aquatic acts, a most unusual horticultural display, the Streets of the World with an unusually beautiful grouping of Old World architecture and displays, and a midway with many striking attractions. Over it all the Goodyear dirigibles come and go, giving passengers a wonderful view of the grounds and the business section of Cleveland and lending their touch of the modern to the Exposition picture.

Social Justice Unit To Meet Tomorrow

The monthly meeting of Unit No. 31 of the National Union for Social Justice will be held tomorrow at 8:00 P. M. at 334 Hague Street.

Recent developments in National Union Activities will be discussed and information received from city and national headquarters will be explained. New membership cards will be distributed.

Members are reminded that future meetings of this unit will be held on the last Friday of each month at the same time and place.

Henchens To Observe Silver Anniversary

At an eight o'clock nuptial mass Saturday morning in Holy Family Church, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Henchen of Jay Street will observe their 25th wedding anniversary. They were married in 1911 at the same church.

Mrs. George Wacker, formerly Caroline Lays, the only one of their marriage attendants now living, will be present with Mr. Wacker as the male attendant. Joseph Schreiner, who was best man, and Marguerite Schreiner, maid of honor, have both since passed away.

Following the mass, Mr. and Mrs. Henchen with a party of 12 will have breakfast at Rossenbach's on the Ridge Road.

Do You Know?

Sponsored by Medical Societies of the State of New York and the County of Monroe

HARMFUL bacteria do not survive long in raw sea water, claims Prof. Claude E. S. ZoBell of the University of California.

SCIENTISTS estimate that at least 60,000,000 buffalo once roamed the United States.

MANY parents in dealing with their children command obedience as a matter of rightful authority. It would be better to give directions in the form of requests, accompanied by the reason, always explaining to the child what is expected of him.

CHILDREN should never be punished in anger. The offense should never be exaggerated. The act, not the child, should be condemned.

NEVER compare the mental ability of one child with another—praise for commendable effort is much better than admiration of ability.

THE usual period for an increase in infantile paralysis is at hand, but this season so far has not witnessed any sensational outbreak. A few years ago it was impossible to diagnose these cases until there was definite evidence of paralysis. In the light of increased knowledge, it is known today that many cases of this disease may have little more than a sore throat and a stiff neck. The best prevention is to avoid exposure of children to crowds.

AGE changes human features; the mouth grows wider, the ears longer, the nose both wider and longer, according to Dr. Alex Hrdlicka, of the Smithsonian Institute.

Mistress (to new maid): "Now, Norah, when you wait on guests at dinner, please don't spill anything."

LORD HORDER SAID:

Nature is herself conservative and yields little or nothing to our hustling.

NEW things are not assuredly true things.

A YOUNG baby needs adequate medical and nursing care even more than a sick adult does.

A LARGE proportion of hay fever victims who have taken pollen treatment before the season begins are satisfied with the results obtained. Like most things, and many people, sometimes this doesn't work.

DR. SOLOMON Andrews made a flight in a cigar-shaped dirigible on May 28, 1863. He was mayor of Perth Amboy, N. J., and designed a balloon to which was suspended a shallow wicker basket. The flight extended thirty miles from downtown New York to Long Island City. This was forty years before Count Zeppelin began to blow up big balloons.

SUICIDE among primitive men was an act of self-preservation, according to Dr. Gregory Zilboorg of New York City, chairman of the Committee for the Study of Suicide. By dying, the individual entered eternal life, besides escaping the difficulties of this one.

WOMEN are more likely to talk in their sleep than men, according to Dr. Lawrence Gahagan of the University of California, who studied five hundred and fifty-nine students and found that three out of five had talked in their sleep at some time or other.

DR. BLAKE Crider, Fenn College psychologist, lists these habits which made people dislike others: Gushing, tight with money, trying to be funny, goody-goody, bragging about love affairs, fussy, acting superior, making fun of people, correcting others, talking too much, too much dignity, monopolizing conversation, talking about personal troubles.

HENRY WARD BEECHER SAID Half the spiritual ills of the world arise from poor health.

Lyell Ave. Baptist

On Sunday the Rev. George Hammon, pastor-elect of the Lyell Avenue Baptist Church, will preach on the subject "Successful Failures" at 10 o'clock. Sunday School immediately follows the morning service.

Prayer meeting is held every Wednesday evening at 7:45 under the direction of the deacons. The book of Romans is being studied.

HELP FOR THE HOME MAKER

Canning Fruits and Vegetables
Tomatoes and fruits can be canned very easily and processed either in a hot water bath or a regulated oven. All vegetables except tomatoes are non-acid and need higher temperatures or the addition of acid such as lemon juice or vinegar. It is for this reason that the pressure cooker is recommended. The directions that come with the cooker should be followed for both time and pressure.

Only freshest vegetables should be canned. Prepare as for cooking. Pre-cook all vegetables 5 or 6 minutes to shrink them, then pack while still hot into clean jars, add enough of the water vegetables were cooked in to fill jars within 1/2 inch of the top. Add 1 t salt to each qt. of vegetables. Seal completely and place on rack in cooker. Process according to chart that comes with cooker.

When using cooker, be sure that there is a rack in bottom of cooker and that 1 cup of water is added before jars are placed on rack. After cover is in position and fastened down, be sure petcock is open before placing over flame. Steam should issue freely before petcock is closed. Bring cooker up to pressure slowly and take time for processing from when required pressure is reached. Reduce flame to keep pressure at required number of lbs. At end of processing time, allow pressure to go to zero then open petcock slowly. When all steam has escaped, open cooker and remove jars. Keep out of drafts until cool.

Tomatoes have enough acid to supply the lack of it in other vegetables when in a combination.

Tomato Combinations

Peas, green beans, lima beans and corn may be used in combination with tomatoes in oven-canning and hot-water bath. One cup of the vegetables is used with one cup of the tomatoes. Prepare vegetables as for cooking, fill hot clean jars half full of vegetables.

Prominent Firms Will Have Display at Show

With space in October's Electrical Show selling like hot cakes, each day adds new names to the growing list of prominent exhibitors. According to Frank Houston, chairman of the space committee, the sale of commercial space is proceeding far more rapidly than it did for the first Rochester Electrical Show, staged by the Electrical Association (then the Electrical League, three years ago).

Mr. Houston attributed the success of the space sale to the fact that the first Electrical Show proved beyond the shadow of a doubt that a spectacle of this nature will receive the wholehearted support of the general public. He said:

"Our first Electrical Show was an experiment, the result of which exceeded our best hopes; 85,000 people from all parts of Western New York visited the show and enjoyed it. The Electrical Show which comes to Edgerton Park October 3 to 10, is not an experiment. We know definitely in advance that we can count upon cooperation and support from everyone.

We know that it will be the greatest Electrical Show ever staged in this part of the country. And we expect that the coming show will break all previous attendance records."

Bowling Alleys Open For Annual Warm-Up

Bowlers are getting their arms in shape for the rapidly approaching start of another maple-mauling season. The Henchen Alleys in Jay Street again resound to the crash of the ball against the pins and the organization of leagues is well under way.

Henchens have resurfaced their alleys and have put in new runways and return racks. Johnny Stone, manager, announces that the alleys available for leagues are nearly all taken, with openings left on Monday and Tuesday nights only. It looks like another good season for the bowlers.

Eta Zeta Gamma Frat. Planning Annual Dance

The Eta Zeta Sigma Fraternity met at the home of Michael Bingo, president, to discuss plans for the forthcoming annual dance.

Although plans are well underway the exact date for the dance is still undecided. Music will be furnished by Anton Duke and his Monarchs.

This will mark the opening of a series of entertaining events for the Autumn and Winter program.

Vicinity Post Offers Presidential Ballot

Not to be outdone in the straw ballot wave which is sweeping the country, The Vicinity Post presents below an opportunity for Vicinity voters to show which way the wind is blowing here. All eligible voters may take part in this vote. It is requested, just for the sake of comparison, that voters indicate which ward they reside in. No signature is required on the ballot.

This will be a secret ballot. Cut out the voting coupon below, fill it out and drop it in one of the boxes which will be found at five conveniently located stores. You will note that all ballot boxes are sealed, except for an opening at the top where you can drop your folded ballot.

You will find boxes located at these stores: Camelio Bros., Otis at Austin; Klier Pharmacy, Ames at Maple; H. C. Pommerening & Son, Lyell at Glide; Roland's, 415 Lyell Ave.; and Shatzel Hardware, 498 Lyell Ave. You may take your ballot to whichever store you like, or if you prefer, mail it direct to The Vicinity Post, 149 1/2 Andrews St.

In order that results may be tabulated for the next issue, it is requested that you vote at the earliest possible time. The ballot boxes will be closed on Saturday, Sept. 5.

Fill out ballot below and deposit in ballot boxes at one of these stores before Sept. 5.

ICE CREAMS

Now that Rochester peaches are just coming on the market we can them to make delicious ice cream. The first recipe is particularly nice for the children. They can use it in ice cream cones.

Peach Ice Cream

- 1 can fresh peach pulp juice and grated rind of 1 lemon
- 1 1/4 cans sugar
- 2 cans milk
- 1/2 can evaporated milk or cream

Whip peaches with a fork until fluffy. Add lemon juice, sugar and milk and stir until dissolved. Pour into trays of a gas or an electric refrigerator and freeze to a firm mush. Beat well and fold in the whipped milk or cream. Freeze 2 to 3 hours.

The second recipe is richer and more fluffy. It is also a smaller recipe. This cream makes an attractive dessert when served with a white cake.

Peach Ice Cream

- 1 cup peach pulp
- 1 tsp. lemon juice
- 2-3 cup sugar
- 1-3 cup top milk
- 2 eggs
- 2 tsp. sugar
- 1 cup evaporated milk

Whenever fruit is used in ice cream it is important to mash the fruit through a sieve or whip it with a fork until it is fluffy. If this is not done, the fruit will be in chunks that will freeze in icy particles. Icy pieces of fruit are not easy to eat.

Ice cream is better the second day than it is the day it is made, providing the cream has not been allowed to melt. When making any frozen dessert in a gas or an electrical refrigerator it is advisable to turn the temperature regulator to the coldest point before the dessert is made. Leave at this temperature until the dessert is frozen and then turn the regulator to a point that will give a temperature not above 19 degrees Fahrenheit in the chilling unit. If a large recipe is used, faster freezing is possible if two smaller trays are used in place of one large tray.

The two important factors in making good ice cream in refrigerators are first a good recipe and second a low temperature. Use recipes that have been tested and proved satisfactory.

"Lyell Avenue always under construction." These are the next logical steps.

In broad daylight someone stole a bank deposit at Beckwith's totaling $175. . . . Ernie Gibbs, the genial animal hobbyist who runs the store, announced a sizeable reward for information leading to the recovery of the money, but so far there have been no takers. . . . Undaunted, Ernie has decided to make it a standing offer.

The pick-up in business and employment has been at once reflected in an acute shortage of desirable homes in The Vicinity. Renters are paying more money and if the present improved outlook continues to brighten, they haven't reached the top yet. . . . There aren't over three or four vacant stores in the whole neighborhood and empty houses or apartments are mighty hard to find. . . . Of course every time you talk about "returning prosperity" it might be good judgment to throw salt over your shoulder, cross your fingers or knock on wood. Yet there are few of us, no matter how partisan, who do not hope that this is the real McCoy and not just an election year boom.

"Our farmers are so heavily stocked up on fruits and vegetables that they are practically willing to give them away; the produce is yours for the picking." That was this column's chronicling in 1931. . . . What a difference five years and a drought make!

Vicinity Votes Lightly In Post Straw Ballot

The first presidential straw ballot ever to be conducted by The Vicinity Post was not a 100 per cent success. In fact, editorial honesty compels the Post to admit that results were a disappointment. This, however, was not entirely unanticipated, for it was known in advance, on good authority, that newspaper polls for a number of reasons are not successful.

There were exactly 47 votes cast, 20 of which went to Roosevelt, 16 to Lemke, six to Landon and two to Browder. Two ballots were marked for both Roosevelt and Lemke, thereby being disqualified, and one was marked up facetiously by a jokster.

Figuring on the basis of 44 valid ballots, President Roosevelt would be ahead here with a percentage of 45.45, which is about the percentage other polls being conducted seem to accord him. Second choice would appear to be Lemke with a percentage of 36.36, which varies markedly from nation-wide figures as does Landon in third place with 13.63 per cent.

On the margin of one ballot for Lemke was written "There are six votes in our house for the candidate marked." But inasmuch as voting is an individual, rather than a group proposition, it was thought proper to count this as only one vote.

A number of readers were asked if they had voted in this straw ballot. Those who answered in the negative gave a number of reasons for their failure to take part, but the principal drawback seemed to be that it was "too much bother." Some suggested that it was too long before Election Day and others expressed doubt of the value or authenticity of straw ballots.

It has been suggested by several that The Post continue the straw ballot for several more issues, but this is deemed inadvisable, principally due to the possibility that duplication of ballots might make the ultimate result less conclusive than the first test. Thus concludes The Post's first straw ballot on the presidency.

KELLY TO SPEAK HERE TOMORROW

State Senator George B. Kelly will bring his campaign for the Democratic congressional nomination to the 15th Ward tomorrow night in a rally to be held at the headquarters of the 15th Ward Democratic Club, Inc., 814 Smith Street. Kelly is contesting with Congressman James P. B. Duffy for the 38th District nomination.

The committee which is making arrangements for the rally is headed by Angelo Rose and includes Daniel O'Leary, George Elliott, Louis Panetta, Joe Martino, John Iacelli, John Petrelli and Louis Bellucio. Representatives of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers are also taking part.

Admitting that the rally is contrary to the wishes of Hugh Neary, 15th Ward leader, and other prominent "organization" officials Rose states that Kelly's record at Albany has won him many friends here, who are backing him "to the limit."

"George Kelly merits the support of every registered Democrat in the 38th District," Mr. Rose said in a prepared statement. "He entered politics in 1932, at the time when Roosevelt first entered the presidential picture and was elected assemblyman on the same principles as those on which Mr. Duffy was elected to Congress, namely: Social Security for Old Age, Public Ownership of Utilities, Right of Labor to Organize and Minimum Wage Laws.

"The entire ticket from the President down was elected and Duffy has sided with opponents of these very principles, while Kelly has always stood by the Governor and the President. In his four years at Albany, Kelly has introduced nearly every measure beneficial to labor."

HELP FOR THE HOME MAKER

ICE CREAMS

Here is a new recipe for vanilla ice cream that tastes very much like the cream that Grandma used to make every Sunday when the family came home for dinner.

Old-Fashioned Vanilla Ice Cream
2 eggs
1-3 cup sugar
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup cream
2 teaspoonsful vanilla
Beat eggs until very light. Add sugar gradually, beating until mixture is rather thick. Combine with syrup, milk, cream and vanilla. Pour into the trays of a gas or an electric refrigerator and freeze to a firm mush. Beat well. Return to freezing tray and freeze until firm.
A very elegant dessert may be made using the vanilla ice cream and a Peach Ice.

Peach Ice

1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup water
1/2 cup light corn syrup
2 teaspoonsful lemon juice
1 cup peach pulp
Boil sugar and water for 5 minutes. Cool. Add rest of ingredients. Pour into trays of a gas or an electric refrigerator and freeze to a firm mush. Beat well. Return to trays and freeze 2 to 3 hours.
When the Vanilla Ice cream is frozen 2 inches in from the sides remove some of the soft center part and put the frozen Peach Ice in its place. Spread the removed vanilla cream over the top to cover the Peach Ice.

When frozen, unmold and slice. Many women find it easy to unmold desserts if the mold is first lined with two pieces of waxed paper put in as in a candy box.

For company, it is sometimes nice to dress up the ice cream or maybe there isn't enough cream to go around. Combinations can be made easily.
Suggestions for ice cream desserts:

Banana Charlotte

Line sides of a sherbert glass alternately with lady fingers and a banana split lengthwise and cut in half. Fill glass with vanilla ice cream and top with whipped cream and a cherry.

Cocoonut Puff

Roll scoops of ice cream in toasted cocoonut. Serve on a slice of pineapple.

Apple Sauce a la Mode

Serve apple sauce in sherbert glasses with a spoon or two of vanilla ice cream. Top with cherry.

Ice Cream Sandwich

Put slices of day-old sponge or angel-food cake together with vanilla or chocolate ice cream. Serve with chocolate sauce.

It must always be remembered when making frozen desserts that too much sugar will prevent freezing. If the recipe calls for fresh fruit and sugar, the amount of sugar must be reduced when most canned fruits are used.

'House Of Magic' To Be Feature Of Show

The General Electric "House of Magic" will be one of the most sensational features of the Electrical Show which comes to Edgerton Park October 3 to 10. The entire floor space of Building 3 at the park will be devoted to this mammoth display.

According to Frank Beaucaire, chairman of the feature committee for the show, the varied exhibits which make up the "House of Magic" are mystifying electrical developments fresh from the research laboratories of the General Electric Company. They are said to constitute a fascinating glimpse into the future.

Visitors to the "House of Magic" will see, among other things, the "inductotherm," an electrical fever-making machine. This peculiar apparatus has already caused widespread comment in the field of medicine.

The "Stroboscope" is a moving demonstration of the speed of light which gives visual impressions of speed which in reality may, or may not exist.

Speech and music will be transmitted over a beam of light in the exhibit billed as "Audible Light."

The "House of Magic" will contain a "neon mercury combination lamp" which emits either red or blue light at will from the same source. "Ultra Violet Light" will produce beautiful fluorescent effects.

The exhibits listed above are, according to Mr. Beaucaire, only a few of the many that will be on display in the "House of Magic." Negotiations are now in process for a number of additional features some of which have never before been presented for public inspection. Mr. Beaucaire hopes to be able to announce details of these displays soon.

Meanwhile, with the opening date of the show still nearly a month away, the sale of commercial display booths is progressing rapidly. Almost 70 per cent of all available floor space has already been spoken for.

The Electrical Show is sponsored by the Electrical Association. Show officials predict a total attendance of close to 100,000 people from Rochester and Western New York.

START NEW PLAN AT UNION TRUST

On Monday of this week, W. W. Foster, president of the Union Trust Company, announced the inauguration of a new service which is expected to be a real convenience to the residents in this area.

The Midland Economy Check Plan provides old and new depositors with the privilege of a checking account without the requirements of a minimum balance. A checking account may be opened for any amount. At the time the account is opened, the depositor will be required to buy a check book containing five economy checks costing 50c. After these five checks have been used, additional checks will be sold at the rate of 10c each, in books of 5 for 50c, or in books of 12 for $1.00.

This simple "pay as you go" plan eliminates the necessity of carrying large balances. It enables customers to pay bills by check with greater convenience than by money orders or other form of money transfer.

These economy checks may be used as in a regular account without restrictions as to amount or number. Of course it is necessary to have on deposit sufficient funds to cover the checks issued. Deposits may be made whenever desired and without charge.

An Economy Checking Account is said to assist in building a banking relationship which may prove helpful in many ways throughout the years. The plan is in effect in a number of large cities in the United States and the inauguration of the plan in Rochester is in conjunction with all the other Marine Midland Banks located throughout New York State.

The plan is especially drawn up to meet the demands of persons on a small salary and wage earners, also others who have found it impossible to maintain the minimum balance requirements now demanded by commercial banks on checking accounts. It will give people the opportunity of paying bills by check and having an indisputable receipt.

The Union Trust Company has, in addition to its main office at 19 Main Street West and its Merchants East Avenue Office at Main Street and East Avenue, seven other branches throughout the city, as well as offices in Avon,odus, Palmyra and Webster.

MASS MEETING TO BE TONIGHT

A mass meeting is scheduled for tonight at 8 o'clock in Powers Hotel ballroom under sponsorship of Independent Merchants. The public is invited.

Tom Glasgow of Charlotte, N. C., will be the speaker on the topic "Chains or Independents?" Glasgow, who is said to be a speaker of rare ability, maintains that the chain system of business is the greatest menace there is to the youth of the country. It is his aim to awaken the public to a danger, which he says menaces not only the retail merchants, but the consumer and the professional man as well.

PLANS FOR YEAR MADE BY P.-T. A.

Parent-Teachers Association of School No. 30 held its first meeting of the school year on Sept. 16. The president, Mrs. Charles Schencke, gave an interesting report of the P.T.A. School which was held at Cornell University. Plans for the year were also discussed.

The next meeting will be an evening gathering and will be held at the school in Otis Street during "Know Your School Week" which begins Oct. 19. Mothers of the kindergarten children will be entertained that night.

The association is taking part in a city-wide campaign for new members and an endeavor is being made to get as many mothers enrolled as possible. A number of new members have been secured during the past month.

Street Car Service Protested by Reader

To the Editor:
I wish to enter a protest against the present routing of the Lyell car. It is such a long, roundabout trip to get up to the business section of town, which I would say was 2 or 3 blocks east of South Avenue.

The crosstown bus is so overcrowded that one dislikes riding in them. At night from 5 to 5:30 it is impossible to get a seat and after a day's work it is not so pleasant being packed in a bus.

We need two busses leaving Lyell Avenue at 7:30 A. M. to accommodate the people who must be uptown at 8 o'clock.

I think through the Post we ought to get decent service, that is, more busses during the rush hours, and roomier busses.

ANDRASZEK—CONNOR

The marriage of Miss Marian Connor of Hague Street to Frank Andraszek of Weeger Street took place Sept. 5 at 9:20 a. m. in St. John's Church, Greece. Rev. John Baier, uncle of the bride, performed the ceremony. Solemn Nuptial Mass was celebrated by Rev. David Baier, assisted by Rev. John Baier and Rev. Frederick Necker.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with train and veil of tulle, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley. Her cousin and maid of honor, Miss Virginia Baier, wore green velvet with hat to match and carried Talisman roses. Another cousin, Miss Gertrude Meyer, was bridesmaid and wore Dubonnet velvet with hat to match and carried Talisman roses.

Miss Lois Stohr, also a cousin of the bride and flower girl, had a pink taffeta dress with hat to match and an old fashioned bouquet. Edward Andraszek, brother of the groom, was best man.

A wedding breakfast at the Green Gables Tea Room followed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Andraszek left on a wedding trip to the Thousand Islands and upon their return will be at home at 646 Campbell Street.

A NEW Service
THE MIDLAND
ECONOMY CHECK

The MIDLAND Economy Checking Account Plan brings to new thousands all the many conveniences of a checking account which may be opened at any office of the Union Trust Company.

With this simple "pay-as-you-go" plan you do not have to carry a minimum balance. You can pay bills by check, and at a much lower cost per check, for example, than through money orders.

An Economy Checking Account will assist you in building a banking relationship which may prove helpful later. Here, in simple detail, is how the plan works:

TO OPEN AN ACCOUNT Go to the most convenient office (for Vicinity residents, Lyell-Saratoga Office). You will be given a pass-book and you may purchase a check-book at the rate of twelve checks for $1.00, or 5 checks for 50 cents.

DEPOSITS You may make deposits whenever you wish. There is no charge for this. If you deposit checks, the funds are available for withdrawal as soon as collected by the bank.

THE CHECKS Use these checks just as you would a regular checking account. You can cash them or pay bills with them without any further charge—as long as you have on deposit sufficient money to cover your checks.

STATEMENT OF YOUR ACCOUNT Every three months we will prepare a statement of your account, which you may secure by calling at the bank. We will also return your cancelled checks which gives you a permanent receipt for each bill paid by check.

Vicinity Schools Plan For Parent Visitation

Parents of children attending the three public schools in The Vicinity will become better acquainted with the work their boys and girls are doing in classes during "Know Your School Week" when special programs will be presented under the direction of the principals and teaching staffs. Schools throughout the city have designated Oct. 19 to 23 as the week for mothers and fathers to visit the city's educational units.

At Jonathan Child School No. 21, Mrs. Dorothea Lorcher, principal, is inviting parents to a continuous program in the assembly hall Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 20, beginning at 1:30 and lasting until 3:30 p. m. During this time there will be demonstrations of radio classes in science and music. There will also be exhibits from the Rochester Museum, the use of which the children will explain to the visitors. On the next day, Wednesday, parents are being urged to visit the classrooms where lessons in music, health education, manual training, cooking and sewing will be demonstrated.

While these two days have been set aside for special programs, Mrs. Lorcher expressed a wish that parents visit the school any day during the week.

Pupils of General E. S. Otis School No. 30 will show their visiting parents just how their classes are carried on every day during the week. Principal Isabel McCook Butler and her teaching staff have arranged daily programs in all the rooms in order that parents may see the actual work being done by their children. Special assemblies will be announced in the classrooms and parents will be notified of the days for these events by their children.

The Parent-Teachers Association of No. 30 School is taking advantage of "Know Your School Week" to begin a membership drive. This group is planning on holding four evening meetings during the school year, the first of which will be held Oct. 19. These are in addition to the regular sessions on the second Wednesday of each month. Opening at 8 o'clock in the evening, parents will make a tour of the classrooms where teachers will be present to greet the mothers and fathers and to answer any questions that may be asked by the visitors. Officers of the association have planned this program so that a better understanding of mutual problems of parents and teachers will result.

In the assembly hall refreshments will be served and at 9:20 visitors and teachers will gather to hear a radio program of music and an address by James M. Spinning, Superintendent of schools. The entertainment program for the meeting is under the direction of the mothers of first grade pupils.

Out on Lyell Avenue at Mt. Read Boulevard, School No. 43

DEMOCRATS PLAN FOR CARD PARTY

Democratic Women of the 15th Ward are making plans for a card party and entertainment next Tuesday, Oct. 13, at Edgerton Park. The party will be held in the assembly hall, starting at 8 o'clock.

Several door prizes and a prize for each table will be provided. Tickets for the affair, to which the public is invited, are 25 cents. They may be obtained from Mrs. George Connors, 91 Myrtle Street, at the campaign headquarters, 448 Lyell Avenue, or by calling Gen. 5379-M.

A big attendance is expected, including a number of prominent Democrats of the county.

under the direction of Principal George W. Cooper, will continue throughout the week with a normal program in classes to show visiting parents the daily method in classroom work. Oral recitations by pupils will give mothers and fathers an insight into the progress made by their children thus far in the new term. Special centers of interest will be found in the first, third, and fifth grades, according to Mr. Cooper.

Thursday afternoon, Oct. 22, is being set aside at No. 43 School as general visitation day. On this one day every parent is urged to attend the classes throughout the school. A special program has been arranged by the teaching staff.

Following the address an interesting program of entertainment has been prepared.

New Bus Schedule For Allen Line Announced

Bus riders who live in the Jay Street section, beyond Ames Street, for the first time are receiving transportation service from the New York State Railways without walking several blocks to a somewhat distant car stop. The new service was inaugurated when 75 buses were placed in operation by the railway company recently.

After three weeks trial, during which the bus company compiled schedules best suiting the need of their passengers, announcement has been made of the time and routes which become effective Saturday morning, on the Allen lines. West bound buses, leaving State and Andrews Streets, will use three different routes in arriving at the terminal at Buffalo Road and Mt. Read Boulevard. Trips going toward town will travel the same three routes ac-ording to the time of day and the number of passengers expected. Each route will be clearly indicated on the bus sign and it is expected that after a few days riders will have become accustomed to the schedules and the route markings.

Regular weekday schedules from Monday to Friday, inclusive, eastbound, call for buses to leave Mt. Read Boulevard and Buffalo (Continued on Page 8)

Public School Activities

School No. 21

At a faculty meeting yesterday, James F. Barker, recently retired assistant superintendent of schools, described the various classes in adult education which are being offered by the Board of Education through federal aid.

Tea was served by the girls of Miss Catherine Lovell's class. The girls helping this time were Kathleen Brown, Mary Murano and Bessie Lamonico.

Mrs. Edna Tichenor's class will have charge of the assembly for the fourth and fifth grades Friday at 1:30. The program will center around Columbus and the Seneca Indians. Practically the whole class will have a part in the program.

The class has worked out an original acrostic with the words Columbus Day and October Twelve.

There will be a standing assembly for the sixth and seventh grades Friday morning at 8:50. The standard bearer, Sam Pianacca, and the guardian of the flag, Gloria Lehrer, will have charge of the pledge of allegiance.

All schools have a continuous stroke electric signal for fire drill. This bell rings for 90 seconds. Practice this fall has made it possible for every child to be out of the building before the gong stops ringing. The following boys have special duties at fire drills: Fred Kemmet, Michael Farricone, Joseph Burgio, Foster Morphet, Robert Burns and Tony Ciacla.

During fire prevention week Jack Allen, Leonard Leach, Geo. D'Amato and Raymond Weber acted on a special fire committee. They inspected the building for fire hazards under the guidance of the engineer-janitor and the principal of the school. Miss Durkee's first grade visited the fire house last Thursday.

The school has a group of boys who help to direct traffic at the street corners near the school. The boys on duty now are: Henry Schmitt (captain), Mike Terricone (assistant), Charles La May, Robert Lo Presti, Jack Allen, Phillip Coleprete, Donald Dart, Rugaro Ranaletto, Sam De Carlo, Tony Angelone.

Within the school building at the doors and on the stairway, girls are stationed to help direct traffic. Girls on duty are Margaret Radner (captain), Genevieve Scaldone (assistant), Anne Perkanis, Dorothy Furnia, Elfrieda Gerlach, Elinor Horwath, Rose Imbro, Carmella Nebbia, Edith Perrotta, Doris Rutherford, Nicoletta Tantalio.

Classes for Adults

Each Friday afternoon from 1:30 to 3:30, there is a sewing class for adults held in room 205.

On Mondays and Fridays from 4 to 5:30 there are classes for those adults who wish to learn to read and write English.

Arrangements will be made for a class from 2:30 to 4, if there are enough for such a class. It is announced.

School No. 43

School No. 43, corner Lyell Avenue and Mt. Read Boulevard, will be open every Thursday night from 7 to 11 o'clock for adults of the neighborhood who are invited to partake in the recreational activities.

A tentative program consists of calisthenics, special exercises, various types of games, volleyball, first aid, dramatics and dancing. Registration is being taken in the school auditorium.

School No. 30

The Hobby Show recently given by the pupils of No. 30 School was proof conclusive that the summer was well spent. Ten large tables were filled with collections of stamps, shells, coins, dolls, etc. A white rat, baskets of vegetables and fruits showed that nature study and gardening were appealing, while a beautiful hand made bedspread, models of boats and airplanes, showed handcraft was not forgotten.

The display was held for two days in the assembly. Parents and teachers showed as great an interest as the children.

Fraternity To Hold Dance on October 16

Eta Zeta Sigma Fraternity will open a series of entertaining events to be held this Winter, with the first annual dance, Oct. 16 at the Madison Ballroom.

Music will be furnished by Anton Duke and his Monarch's, who have just finished a successful season at Cottage City. Publicity manager, Louis Izzo, also announces he is trying to secure the services of a number of Rochester's leading entertainers for this occasion.

Examination of children before they enter school marks a high point in their careers. It has been established time and time again that children in good health make better progress than those who may be hampered by eye trouble, dull hearing or any other unfavorable condition. Prompt discovery and remedying of defects, and timely vaccination against small-pox and protection against diphtheria, may change the whole course of the child's life.

Fifty-nine per cent of the persons in the hospitals of the United States are in institutions for nervous or mental ailments.

The decrepit old car drove up to the toll bridge.

"Fifty cents," cried the gate-man.

HELP FOR THE HOME MAKER

When Lunches Are Carried
If you have to pack a lunch for school children or if your husband carries his lunch you will find many suggestions that may prove very helpful.

As sandwiches play such an important part in every lunch it might be well to consider how we may vary the bread and the fillings used. We have a wide variety of breads to choose from in the grocery store but there are so many interesting breads that can be made in your own kitchen. Quick breads, that is bread made without yeast, will keep several days and in many cases these breads are even better after they have ripened for a day or two.

Probably one of the most popular breads is Boston Brown Bread which we serve with Boston Baked Beans. If you are planning on having baked beans for Saturday night supper be sure to make an extra loaf of the delicious Boston Bread to be used for sandwiches during the next week. Dates, raisins or nutmeats may be added to the extra loaf to give greater variety.

A recipe that makes an extra special loaf of bread is the following one:

Banana Bread

- 1/2 cup butter
- 1 cup sugar
- 2 eggs
- 2 ripe bananas
- 2 cups all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1/4 cup nutmeats

Cream the butter and sugar together and gradually add the sugar. Gradually and the well-beaten eggs. Beat the bananas with a fork until fluffy. Mix and sift the flour and soda, add the nuts and add with the bananas to the first mixture. Beat well and pour into a buttered loaf tin. Bake 45 minutes in a 350 degree F. oven. Most children and a great many adults are very fond of peanut butter. We use it for a spread on bread, cake, muffins and cookies. It also makes a delicious bread. Peanut butter bread does not require any filling aside from creamed butter but jelly is a very nice addition.

Peanut Butter Bread

- 3/4 cup peanut butter
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1/3 cup sugar
- 1 egg
- 2 cup all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup milk

Cream peanut butter and butter together, add sugar gradually and the well-beaten egg. Mix and sift the flour, baking powder and salt. Add alternately with the milk to the first mixture. Pour into a buttered bread tin and bake 50 to 60 minutes in a 350 degree F. oven.

A sweet is another very important addition to the lunch box. The small paper containers with tight fitting covers are ideal for carrying a baked apple, custard or a fruit cup. A salad may be packed in them or a pudding may be used.

Cup cakes can be changed in many ways to make them more interesting and different. When making chocolate cupcakes, pour a small amount of batter into tins then put a marshmallow in each tin and cover with more chocolate batter. Spice cupcakes are equally good if a piece of peach is used in place of the marshmallow. Just before cup cakes come out of oven top with a marshmallow and sprinkle with coconut.

Children especially love a surprise in their lunch box. One or two stalks of crisp celery, shreds of raw carrot, match-like strips of raw turnip or beet are crunchy and good to eat with a sandwich that has a meat filling. One or two pieces of candy or a stuffed fig or date will top off the simplest lunch.

For those who prefer a healthful sweet there is none better than the following recipe:

Healthful Sweets

- 1/4 lb. dried apricots
- 1/2 lb. dried prunes
- 1/2 lb. dates
- 1/4 lb. cocoanut
- orange juice
- 1/4 lb. figs

Put apricots, prunes, dates, cocoanut and figs through the food chopper. Add enough orange juice to make the mixture soft enough to knead. Knead until well mixed then press into a buttered tin. Mark into squares and chill. Roll in sugar.

Napkins in a variety of colors, paper spoons and forks, covered paper containers and wax paper envelopes makes it simple and easy to pack an attractive lunch.

Do You Know?

Sponsored by Medical Societies of the State of New York and the County of Monroe

BLACKBOARDS made of green glass are now offered by a manufacturer who claims they decrease eye strain.

EXERCISE should be adapted to the type of work the individual is organized to do. If violent, it impairs the sensitiveness of the nervous organization. To store up energy and use it when needed is the function of the body. The body cannot be adapted to intellectual work, which depends on the excitability of the nervous system, and at the same time endure strenuous exercise, which tends to dull this excitability. A "golden mean" must be found between the two extremes.

TWICE as many children under 15 years are killed by accidents as by measles, scarlet fever and diphtheria combined.

FIRST law to regulate the practice of medicine in the colonies was passed in Massachusetts in 1649; a similar act was made law in New York State, 1665.

ALEXANDER the Great, Persius and Terence died just under or over thirty years of age. Keats, Shelley and Schubert had their careers cut short. How little this really proves is shown by the fact that the average age at death of the eminent men of antiquity was 66.7 years, while in modern times, 82 noted mathematicians averaged 64.3, 75 poets 64.1, and all the presidents of the United States 68.4. The figures so often cited about increasing the "expectation of life" and supposed to prove this or that, refer to expectation at time of birth. This increase is the result of removing many of the perils of infancy and early childhood. In the modern era more babies grow up to maturity than before, but among people who arrive at maturity the average do not live to die at a greater age than formerly.

WOMEN are rarely color blind. They are much more interested in color than men are, having reason to be constantly aware of differences in color in clothing and the decoration of the home.

SINCLAIR LEWIS SAID:

There are too many people who ask "What is the matter with America?" and then dash out and try to do something about it.

Beginning at 6:39 a. m. and up to 8:46 a. m. every other bus will travel downtown from the Mt. Read, Buffalo Road terminal, via Buffalo Road, Independence Street, Maple, Glide, Jay and then over the regular route. The alternate buses leaving for downtown will operate from Alice and Glide Street, via Glide, Maple, Ames, Jay, and over the regular route.

After 8:52 a. m., the close of the rush hour, officials of the railway company have ordered alternate eastbound buses to operate from Mt. Read Boulevard and Buffalo Road to State and Andrews Street via Mt. Read to Jay, to Ames, and then over the regular route. This territory will be served approximately every 20 minutes until 3:30 in the afternoon. Alternate buses will operate from the Buffalo Road terminal to the downtown area via Buffalo Road to Independence, Maple, Ames, Jay, and then on the regular route.

During the evening rush hour, from 3:30 to 6:40 p. m., the same routes and approximate schedules used during the morning period will be maintained. Again at 6:44 the buses bound for downtown will alternate in covering the Jay Street area west of Ames Street and will continue this operation through the evening, the last eastbound bus running through Mt. Read and Jay, leaving the terminal on Buffalo Road at 12:15 a. m.

The newly compiled schedule for Saturday is approximately the same as that for weekdays. Sunday service over the new route will begin at 7:18 in the morning and continue every 22 minutes throughout the day until 12:15 a. m. Monday morning.

Bus riders homeward bound from downtown will find that the schedule above will be maintained in west-bound trips. During the weekday rush hours no buses will travel over the Jay Street route beyond Ames Street. In the daytime, from 8:38 to 3:18 p. m. every other bus leaving State and Andrews Street, westbound, will use the Jay Street, Mt. Read Boulevard route while alternate trips will continue to carry passengers through Jay, Ames, Independence Streets, and Buffalo Road to Mt. Read Boulevard. On Sunday every other bus leaving downtown will use the Jay Street to Mt. Read Boulevard route.

Bus Signs Listed

Bus riders will not become confused, say officials of the railway company, if they remember the signs that will be used on the various westbound trips. Those signed "Allen St. Loop" will operate via Jay, Ames, Maple, Potomac, Alice and Glide Streets. Signs of "Allen St" will denote a bus which will operate via Jay, Ames, Maple, Independence Streets and Buffalo Road to Mt. Read. Buses signed "Mt. Read Blvd. via Jay" will operate through Mt. Read Boulevard to Buffalo Road.

Users of the bus system after 12:30 in the morning are in-

Uffert, general manager of the New York State Railways. It was hoped that a statement could be secured from the trolley company head, but due to his absence from the city no comment was forthcoming as to a possible remedy or what action the railway company contemplates.

Record Vote Expected On Election Day, Nov. 3

Political observers throughout The Vicinity anticipate one of the heaviest votes on Nov. 3 ever cast in the history of the city. Basing their predictions on the intense interest being shown in the presidential campaign by persons formerly inactive in politics and the imposing totals of party registrations which broke even the high records of 1928, Vicinity workers of both major parties are bending every effort to win.

When voters visit the polls on Election day no one will be able to say that they have not had the opportunity of being informed on the issues of the day. From newspaper pages, through radio loud-speakers, even from planes flying overhead have come speeches and political propaganda which "pointed with pride" if from the Democratic party, or "viewed with alarm" if emanating from a Republican campaign stumper. Prize fighters, actors, burlesque queens, bankers, pick-and-shovel workers, even circus acrobats have been "sent out on the circuit" by campaign directors for both parties to woo votes from the population.

In addition to all this, voters have been barraged by the third party movement. Under the banner of the Union party, candidates of which have been endorsed by Rev. Charles E. Coughlin, an attempt is being made to break the domination of the Democrat and Republican parties in national politics.

Figures released by the Board of Elections yesterday show the following totals for the four registration days which closed last Saturday: Ninth ward, 2011; Tenth ward, 17,623; 15th ward,

A carnival of the 80's, with a background of callopo music, animals, snake charmers, barkers and concession operators, is setting for the W. C. Fields picture, "Poppy," coming Sunday, Monday and Tuesday at the Murray Theatre. The scene is one in which Fields is completely at home.

Fields appears as a patent-medicine vendor and shell game worker who finds "separating a yokel from his financial burden" a pastime without equal. In his custody he has "Poppy," eighteen-year-old girl who has grown up as a carnival follower.

Fields and Poppy, played by Rochelle Hudson, arrive at a small village as a carnival opens. Fields manages to arrange for space for his medicine concession and embarks on his sales drive.

Meanwhile, Rochelle has fallen in love with the son of the village's mayor, Richard Cromwell, and the two plan to marry.

SINUS SUFFERER GETS RELIEF

Sufferers from sinus trouble will be interested in the following letter, addressed to J. R. Maid of the Maid Drug Co., which was sent, unsolicited, by a Tenth Ward resident, Mrs. M. Yvonne Higbie of Brooklyn Street:

"Having doctored for sinus trouble for the last twelve years and having had an operation nine years ago with apparently no relief, I feel it is my duty to tell you what wonderful results I have had from your Nose Drops.

"After the operation I lost the sense of smell, but am happy to say it is coming back. I can detect the different odors from food I am cooking. I used from nine to twelve large size men's handkerchieves a day. Now I use but one or two ladies' size handkerchieves a day. The severe headaches have practically all gone. I am on the road to complete recovery.

"I have used your Nose Drops about four months, having been told by my hair dresser how wonderful they were, but like everything else I did not have much faith in them, but I thank her and also you for the wonderful results I have received.

"Yours very truly,
(Mrs.) W. Yvonne Higbie"

PLEASE NOTE

If you have had relief from Maid's Nose Drops, won't you write in and tell us about it, so that thereby other sinus sufferers may come to know this is a bonafide remedy?

Public School Activities

School No. 21

To keep the blackboard erasers clean for each classroom is a big task even though the cleaning is done by air suction.

Six boys and girls give up their time from 8:30 to 8:45 or 1:00 to 1:15 each day to attend to this work. Vincenza Vasile and Beverly Kemp take care of erasers on the first floor; Michael Gala, Charles Rau, Wallace Tuschong and Robert Keefe on the second and third floor.

Pupils and teachers were happy to learn that five boys had been chosen as members of either the Inter-Grade Band or Inter-Grade Orchestra by Sherman Clute, assistant director of music. Those chosen for the band are: Carl Miller, Dominic Vecchioli, Russell Capogreco and Joe Cardinali. Arthur Fantaci was chosen for the orchestra. The orchestra and the band meet on Saturdays at Monroe High School for rehearsals.

There are several children in the school for whom it is desired to procure violins in order that they might learn to play. Have you a violin which is not being used and which you would be willing to lend to the school to be used by the children?—The school promises to return the violin in as good condition as it was received. It will make any necessary repairs now.

The first issue of the school paper, "Jonathan Child News," was distributed Monday. The officers are: Editor, Gloria Lehrer; reporters, Gilda Tarricone, Mary Schlicker, Norman Frenzel, Jean Herron, Norma Schaller, Philip Nangreave; illustrators, Betty DeFrank and Charles Rau.

During "Know Your School Week" boys were ushers whenever ushers were needed. The ushers were Henry Schmitt, Tony Angelone, Leonard Leach, Robert Brown.

Officer Baglin of the police department, who is one of the three officers to help in the safety work of the schools met with the Safety Patrol boys Monday. It is recommended that all children for the sake of their own safety cross Jay Street at Colvin where safety patrols are stationed. Children living on Murray Street particularly should follow this safety plan.

School No. 30

The junior traffic squad of No. 30 School meets every two weeks to map out any changes in posts, and to plan ways of making the school and nearby streets a safe place for children. The captain of the outside squad is Mario Piccone and the captain of the inside squad is Grace Bloom.

Among the many suggestions given each week is one in which the boys and girls feel the community could assist. The traffic squad would like to ask all drivers of trucks and cars delivering goods to the stores not to park on the cross walks or in front of the school. It is sometimes impossible to see the oncoming cars as the officer guides the pupils across the street.

A new publication in the newspaper field is the "O'Tis News," published by the seventh grade pupils. The attractive cover was designed by Raymond Shea and the paper is edited by Grace Bloom. This issue contains original poems, stories and news items contributed by pupils of all grades. This paper is published every other month.

The seventh grade hopes to earn money for the Memorial Scholarship Fund from the sale of their paper at two cents a copy.

Another interesting booklet, a program for Know Your School Week, was designed by the pupils of No. 30 School. The attractive slip design on the cover was executed by Merwyn Beeley of the seventh grade. The following committees printed the material in the booklet on the Ditto machine: Grace Bloom, June Johnson, Virginia Berardini, Victor Bonaldi.

An English class for foreign born is held at No. 30 every Tuesday and Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock. All who are interested in learning to read and write the language of their adopted country, are invited to join the class. Mrs. Jeanette G. Wilburn is teacher who submits the following explanation for the benefit of Italian readers:

Essai importante per la felicitae prosperita di guelle persone che sono venute qui da nazioni straniere che sia data a loro ogni opportunita di imparade la lingua inglese.

Una classe di lingua inglese viene data nella scuola No. 30 di Otis St. ogni Martedi Venerdi alla ora una dopo pranzo.

Tutti coloro che desiderano di imparare a leggere e scrivere la lingua della loro nazione adottiva sono invitati ad iscriversi in questa classe.

Membership Round Up For YMCA This Week

The annual Y. M. C. A. Membership Round Up is on. In the spirit of the early West, more than 500 cowboys, foremen and outfit bosses rode out of Red Triangle Ranch headquarters Tuesday night intent upon branding 3500 strays and mavericks before the end of the campaign on Oct. 26.

Taking as its theme set up a Western cattle ranch, the annual Y. M. C. A. membership campaign is known this year as the "Round Up of Red Triangle Ranch." There are six teams, called "outfits" with eight men on a team. Each of the teams has been given a picturesque western name and team members are competing for the largest number of new and renewal memberships. Ranch headquarters are at the Central Y. M. C. A.

Each night during the campaign week, cowboy workers gather around at ranch headquarters for a "chow" and discuss the results of the day's branding. Outfit foremen and bosses are attired in cowboy outfits, complete to spurs, sombreros and six shooters. All of the campaign workers are outfitted in western style cowboy hats.

A. S. Mertz, drive leader for the past three years, is ranch "boss" this year. Outfits and their leaders are: Coyote Flats, Charles R. Kirby, boss; Broncho Butte, Henry B. Hanley, boss; Indian Hollow, Joseph W. Martin, boss; Silver Ledge, Thomas A. Sharpe, boss; Snake River, Edward L. Cook, boss; and Mesquite Canyon, Dewitt Pike, outfit boss.

Enthusiasm this year is exceedingly high among the workers, and they are out to follow their slogan of "AIM HIGH — JOIN THE 'Y,'" which they are confident will find them in excess of their goal when the campaign closes next Tuesday.

COUNTRY STORE FRI. AND SAT.

Greece Baptist Church assembly hall will be the center of unusual activities this Friday and Saturday, Oct. 23 and 24.

Sales booths bordering the hall, and in connecting rooms, will feature farm produce, fruit, vegetables, dressed poultry, eggs, cheese, fancy work, aprons, quilts, home baked goods, canned fruit, jelly, and many things too numerous to mention.

The larger part of the hall will be used for tables, and the serving of meals. The fun will begin with the serving of lunch Friday noon, and will continue until after dinner Saturday night. Noon meals will be served from 12 to 2 o'clock for 35 cents, and evening meals from 5 to 7:30 o'clock for 50 cents.

Clarence A. Ford, Mrs. A. E. Sperry and Mrs. M. F. Clark are the general committee in charge of the 1936 Country Store, which will be the 15th annual event of this kind conducted by Greece Church. This year, as from the beginning, proceeds of the sale will be devoted to the building fund.

Rochesterians are invited to drive out to the church which is located on Ridge Road, opposite Greece Town Hall.

New Minister Given Reception by Parish

A reception in honor of the Rev. and Mrs. George A. Hammon was held in the Lyell Avenue Baptist Church on Friday evening, Oct. 9, with Henry Arva, chairman of the program committee, presiding.

Among the guests of honor were the Rev. A. E. Isaac, executive secretary of the Monroe County Baptist Union; Rev. W. S. K. Yeaple of the Lake Avenue Baptist Church, Rev. Henry C. Erbs, of the Trinity Lutheran Church; Rev. Robert Findlay of the North Presbyterian Church, Rev. Henry J. Walsh of the Grace Presbyterian Church, Rev. Carl Haas of the Trinity Evangelical Church and the Rev. Leon Randall of Grace Methodist Church.

Rev. Edgar Williams, pastor of the Walworth Baptist Church, and college chum of Mr. Hammon, sang a tenor solo. Walter Andrus played a violin solo, accompanied by Mrs. Floyd Andrus, and Harford Fordham, pastor of the Maltby Mission, pronounced the benediction.

During the social hour which followed, Miss Kaiheleen Green of Calgary, Alberta, Canada, gave two readings and Joseph Arva sang "Your Land and My Land." Otto Ludwig, on behalf of the men of the church, presented Mr. and Mrs. Hammon with a gift. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the church.

HELP FOR THE HOME MAKER

The Correct Time and Temperature for Roasting Meat
Not so many years ago when we wanted to do the weekly cleaning, we would tie our head up in a towel to protect it from dust and dirt, open the doors and windows and set to with a broom. The electric vacuum cleaner eliminated the necessity for that. Now when we want to clean we dust first and the electric cleaner picks up every bit of dust and dirt with no more effort on our part than directing the way in which it is to go.

To-day the modern gas range, well insulated, with oven-heat control and speedy top burners is as much of an improvement over the broom. However, if we do not take advantage of the improvements in the modern gas range and we use it just as we did the old one it would be the same as using the vacuum cleaner just as a sweeper.

Meat is one of the costliest items in our food budget and is one of the easiest foods to ruin if improperly cooked. A great deal of experimental work has been done on meat cooking in the modern gas range. In the main much lower temperatures are used so there is less shrinkage of meat, the meat is more moist and more tender. No water is used and we have eliminated covers and basting of the meat. This applies for chickens, turkey and duck as well as for lamb, beef, pork and veal, although there are some who claim veal should be roasted covered and with 1/4 cup water added.

We roast pork on a rack in an uncovered pan. We rub the meat with salt and pepper and place in a preheated gas oven with the oven heat control set at 350 degrees F. and roast 35 minutes per pound. We have eliminated searing when roasting the pork as searing makes the fat melt and gives a dryer roast. Be sure you know the weight of your roast so that it will be cooked the correct length of time.

Roast beef may be cooked at the same temperature but the time will vary according to the degree of doneness desired. A great many people, however, prefer the flavor and appearance of roast beef that has been seared. So rub the beef with salt and pepper and place on a rack in a roasting pan. By placing the meat on a rack it is kept out of the juice and there is more uniform roasting. Place the meat in a preheated gas oven with the oven heat control set at 475 degrees F. Sear for 15 minutes, then reduce the temperature to 350 degrees F. and roast, allowing 18 minutes per pound if a rare roast is desired, 22 minutes per pound for medium done and 27 minutes per pound for a well-done roast.

All too often when roasting meat salt and pepper are the only seasoning used. When roasting lamb, you will find it has a new deliciousness when the meat is rubbed with a cut clove of garlic. Or if the bone is removed from a leg of lamb a savory stuffing may be used. Use the following stuffing with other meats as well as lamb:

Stuffing

Six slices slightly dry bread, 3 teaspoon melted butter, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon pepper, 1/2 onion minced, 2 teaspoon Worcester'shire sauce, 1/4 teaspoon seasoning.

Crumble the bread and add other ingredients. Mix lightly but thoroughly. Use to stuff meat.

There seems to be some question as to the correct method of cooking veal. Some prefer to sear veal in a 475 degree F. oven then add 1/2 cup water. Cover and reduce temperature to 325 degrees F. and roast, allowing 30 minutes per pound. Others prefer to place veal in an uncovered pan without water and roast in a 325 degrees F. oven 35 minutes per pound. Whether you follow one or the other ways of roasting veal you will be sure to like Veal Creole.

FRITSCH SPEAKS FOR "SECURITY"

Addressing a group in Webster Town Hall last night, Joseph Fritsch, Jr., Republican candidate for Congress for the 38th District, last night declared his position with respect to those "who labor and do the work, necessary for the smooth and happy conduct of life."

He stated: "They are entitled to every protection which can be given by law. By this, I mean not only while employable, but when overtaken by loss of job, or illness, and when a reasonable lifetime of work is completed, be permitted to retire, adequately provided with income consistent with their accustomed standards of living, to the point of a happy and contented retirement."

Mr. Fritsch, who for many years served as U. S. Marshal here, is one of the early settlers of the Tenth Ward. He has resided in his present home in Parkdale Terrace for the past 26 years. His Democratic opponent is George B. Kelly.

1 green pepper, veal outlet. Time, 45 minutes. Seasoned flour, 1/2 cup tomato catsup, 1 cup water.

Melt the drippings, add the onion and green pepper and cook until lightly browned. Dip the veal outlet in the seasoned flour and brown in the fat. Add the catsup mixed with the water.

Bake uncovered in a preheated gas oven.

Not only is it economical to roast meat at the correct temperature because of less shrinkage, but when the oven heat-control is set at the right temperature and you know how long the meat should be in the oven you are free to leave the kitchen or do anything else you wish. You will not have to look at the meat, baste it or turn it and you will be sure to have a delicious, tender, juicy roast to serve.

Flower Show Advance Ticket Sale Opened

Advance tickets for the Fall Flower Show, to be staged at Convention Hall Nov. 12 to 15, are now available at all florists' and at all garden clubs. This announcement was made this week by Horace Head, chairman of the advance ticket sale committee. The price of admission to the show is 25 cents.

Simultaneously with Mr. Head's announcement regarding the advance sale came another announcement from George B. Hart, general chairman of the show, naming an advisory committee to consist of the following persons: Leroy Snyder, Dr. Meyer Jacobstein, Harold Sanford, William Fay, Clarence Wheeler and Miss Betty Keiper.

The Fall Flower Show as tentatively designed by Alling S. DeForest, will present a most beautiful appearance. In the foyer at the entrance to Convention Hall evergreens of all descriptions will be massed. Upon entering the hall, the first thing to strike the eye will be the stage upon which will be erected a gorgeous church altar setting. There will be an organ surrounded by palms, lilies, etc., with a flower-strewn canopy overhanging it.

Adding to the vista which leads up to this altar will be hedges, enormous palms and colorful chrysanthemums occupying the center portion of the exhibition hall.

Around the sides will be various types of floral displays emphasizing the adaptation of floral decorations to the interior of the home. There will be formal and informal table settings, bridal settings, birthday and anniversary settings, etc. There will be orchids, roses and chrysanthemums of one hundred different varieties.

Mr. DeForest stated that the complete plan of design is not definitely set in every detail as yet, but the above rough description is an approximation of what the Fall Flower Show will be like. The committees working on the Fall Flower Show are: Commercial growers, Hugo Tonte, chairman; Charles Curtice, John Suhr, Harold Phelps, Thomas J. Sullivan, William Spafford and H. E. Rogers. Florist exhibits: James McGregor, chairman; Horace Head, George Boucher, Edwin Wilson and George Havill. Information: Roy Bennett, chairman; Austin W. Thompson, Anna Serre, Howard Weller and Charles Briggs.

Decorations: Felix Albert, chairman; Charles Ward, Carl Stark, Donald Blanchard and Harold Keller. Nursery exhibits: Paul Thomann, chairman; William Lauwert and Donald Brown. Music: William Levis, chairman; Mrs. Kathryn Farnen, Bertha McGregor and Rose Raleigh Smith. Installation: Alling DeForest, chairman; Harry Glen, Horace Head, Hugo Tonte Sr., John Perlo and Hugo Tonte Jr.

George B. Hart, general chairman of the show, is assisted by Charles Owen. Vice-chairmen are Hazel Newman and Felix Albert. Secretary and treasurer of the show is Richard B. Hart.

Fall Entertainment Planned by Pupils

Pupils of the Holy Apostles' School will present their fall entertainment in the school auditorium on Monday and Tuesday evenings, Oct. 26 and 27, at 8 o'clock.

These entertainments, presented twice a year, have proven very popular due to the exceptional nature of the programs offered and the unusual talent manifested by the participants.

The capacity crowds drawn in previous years has made it necessary to extend the presentation another evening.

Lyell Ave. Baptist

The Solus Class will hold its October meeting at the home of John Braund of Rand Street on Friday evening.

On Friday evening the Fidelis Class will hold its class meeting at the home of Mrs. C. Moyses of Murray Street. Assisting hostesses are Mrs. Otto Ludwig and Mrs. Roy Mallory.

The regular church service on Sunday begins at 10 o'clock and is followed by Sunday School at 11:15. At 6:30 p. m. the monthly Christian Endeavor Consecration Service will be held under the direction of Joseph Arva. The topic for discussion is "Turning the Dials."

On Wednesday evening, Oct. 28, the regular weekly prayer service is held at the church at 7:30. Mr. Hammon will continue his series of talks on the Lord's Prayer, using the phrase, "Thy will be done" as the basis for discussion.

The Senior Christian Endeavor Society will hold a Halloween party at the church on Friday evening, Oct. 30, at 8 o'clock.

Sunday evening, Nov. 1, the Rev. S. S. Feldman, a returned missionary from the Philippine Islands, will give an illustrated talk at the church at 7 p. m. Mr. Feldman is a young man and an interesting speaker. His slides and information are up-to-date, so that this is an excellent opportunity to acquire accurate first-hand knowledge of the Philippine Islands.

Grace Presbyterian

Morning worship begins Sunday at 11 o'clock. The pastor will preach the sermon. Sunday School meets at 10 o'clock preceding the church service.

The Young People's Society will meet at 6:30 p. m. in the home of the Johnsons, 45 Orlando Street. Edith Lyon will talk on "A Sociologist's Tour of New York."

One week from Sunday is communion Sunday. On this day the church will join with all Christians the world over in observance of a world-wide celebration of communion.

The teachers and officers of the Sunday School will meet at 6:15 next Wednesday evening for supper and a brief, but important meeting.

Athlete's foot is caused by a microscopic plant called fungus. It is probable that seventy-five per cent of the adult population has, or has had, this infection. Leo Hosenfeld Democratic candidate for Assembly in the Fifth District, Leo Hosenfeld was born on a farm in Webster, April 2, 1904. After being educated in private schools in Rochester, he returned to Webster and worked with his parents on their farm until he became of age. He then set out for himself and organized the Hosenfeld Ice Company at Webster. At the same time he picked and shipped fruits and produce in carload lots from that community.

Hosenfeld was one of a family of eleven children and was denied a college education. Through his business experience he developed a desire for the study of law. He sold his business to his brother, which is still being operated, and went to New York City and entered Fordham University to prepare himself. Having qualified for the study of law, he entered St. John's University, School of Law, from which he was graduated with honors in 1932, six months ahead of his class. During all his college career, he held a full time job, working eight hours every night and thus paid the entire expense of his education.

After graduation in January, 1932, he returned to Rochester and associated himself with Chamberlain, Page & Chamberlain. He was admitted to the bar June 1, 1933. On October 1 of this year he opened his own law office at 339 Powers Building.

Hosenfeld married Gertrude Skahan who taught in the Rochester Public Schools for several years. They have two children and live in Spencerport where they own their own home.

Hosenfeld has the endorsement of the Pension Party although his name does not appear on the Pension Party ticket. He also has the support of the New York Milk Committee, a non-partisan organization working out a solution of the milk problem. He has given considerable study to the problem and has a plan whereby he believes the price of milk to the consumer can be reduced, without impairing the farmers' income.

The Fifth Assembly District includes the 18th and 19th districts of the 10th Ward, all of the 11th Ward except the 1st and 2nd districts, all of the 15th Ward except the first three districts and all of the 19th, 20th and 24th Wards.

"POPPY" COMING

His scheme is revealed only a short time after Rochelle has been given charge of the estate. It seems as though she is about to drift back into carnival life, but a twist ending leaves her settled in the village, engaged to Cromwell, while Fields heads for the open country to follow his chosen career from town to town.

The setting and story give Fields his best opportunity in a long and successful film career to exploit the inimitable Fields humor. Backing up the star are a list of featured players headed by Lynne Overman, Catharine Doucet and Rosalind Keith.

A POINT Well Taken

An Oneonta grocer, turned poet temporarily, penned the following verses which he printed below a picture showing a grocer boy delivering groceries to a housewife, who was busy in her kitchen:

*This young lady is mighty wise,
She stays at home and bakes her pies
And lets this big good-looking lad
Have the job that she once had
She tried this business of shopping
'round -
To save some money—but soon she found
With this to do, and housework too,
Her hours for pleasure were mighty few
And not only that, but when she sought,
To figure the gain on what she bought,
And tried to find just where she stood
She said, "Hereafter, I'll phone for Food."
"A nickel or two on all this stuff!
Well say, life isn't long enough,
I may never be a thrifty wife,
But I'm off this loting goods for life."
And so, with cares and troubles o'er,
And groceries brought right to her door,
To all her neighbors now she'll say:
"Phone for Food!—the better way."*

Although the picture might have shown the lady in more leisurely pose, such as at the bridge table, the point, nevertheless, is well taken. The delivery service featured by independent stores is a real convenience, as housewives who utilize it will testify.

VOTING MACHINE DEMONSTRATION

Republican Women of the Tenth Ward, who for several years have maintained their own clubrooms at 840 Dewey Avenue, have actively enlisted in the campaign for the election of the entire Republican ticket.

Mrs. Joseph H. Bush, executive committeewoman, and Mrs. Joseph A. O'Connor, president, are directing activities aimed to reach every woman voter in the ward. To enable women voters to acquaint themselves with the political issues the clubrooms will be open every week day afternoon from 1 to 5 until after election. Mrs. Bush will be in charge.

The Friday evening open house for members and their husbands will be held as usual. All games are played.

by JOHN BARCLAY

IN ORDER to regulate the fire for daily temperature changes, rely entirely on the Check and Ashpit Dampers. The Check Damper is a flap-like damper which should be located in the chimney pipe between the Turn Damper and the chimney. When this damper is open it retards the burning speed of the fire. The Ashpit Damper is located below the grates and controls the amount of air supplied to the fire. For best operation these two dampers should work together—that is, when one is open the other should be closed. In mild weather, when you want a slow lasting fire, the Check Damper should be wide open and the Ashpit Damper closed. This saves coal. When you want more heat, the Check Damper should be partly closed and the Ashpit Damper opened part way. In extremely cold weather, of course, the Check Damper should be closed tight and the Ashpit Damper wide open. (3)

ANOTHER SINUS SUFFERER GETS RELIEF

Here is another letter received by the Maid Drug Co. regarding Maid's Nose Drops. It comes from Mrs. Mable Rintoul of 248 Santee Street. Its contents speak for itself:

"In reading your ad in The Vicinity Post in which you ask to reveal the results that have been obtained from the use of your Maid's Nose Drops, I wish to convey the results that my son Richard has received.

"Early last fall I was worried to death as the doctors had told me that they could do nothing for my son, as they had used every known means with no results, even such as douching the nostrils out twice a day.

"He had had a running ear for two years previous, with repeated cold in the head that developed into an asthma condition. The doctors had given him tests for this also, and it was hard for him to breathe and extremely hard when he tried to sleep. He could not play like other boys on account of the condition. I was heart broken and you suggested that I should use your Maid's Nose Drops. It seemed impossible that this could help, but I am very grateful that I accepted your suggestion. My boy, in the short time of one year, had almost entirely recovered, the ear stopped running in about two months, the asthma condition had entirely disappeared. The cold in the head appears but very slightly, he plays like the other boys in our neighborhood and has gained in weight.

"You may use this letter to convey the message to other mothers so their children may obtain relief from sinus trouble as my son has. Mrs. Mable Rintoul"

Public School Activities

School No. 21

Miss Cuppings' class has just completed an anti-noise campaign. One chart the class made shows how the pupils are trying to cooperate in the classroom. Such points as the following were listed:

1. Entering the room quietly.
2. Closing the door quietly.
3. Moving seats quietly.
4. Doing our work without talking to others.

Miss Cuppings' class has now begun the study of "Our City." At present they are particularly interested in learning how firemen and policemen help to make Rochester a safe place in which to live. Soon they will learn about those who help to make Rochester a clean and healthy place in which to live.

Miss Naracong's First Grade is much interested in farms. The large paintings in the classroom mounted by the children show that milk is the topic of greatest interest at this time. There is a picture of a cow slowly eating her hay. Another picture shows a cow standing quietly in the stanchion while the farmer is milking her. There is also a painting of the large truck which is bringing milk from the farm to boys and girls. There is also a picture of the farmer's wife who is busy making butter.

Mrs. O'Brien's class is beginning the study of clothing. They will talk about cotton, wool and silk materials as well as furs and leathers. They are planning to make stocking dolls and then dress them. Each girl and boy is making an individual book in which to place pictures they have cut out or painted to show dress designs and materials.

Study Desert

Mrs. Tichenor's class will complete the study of the Sahara desert this week. They learned that people who live on deserts find it necessary to move from one place to another so that they may find grass and food for their flocks and fresh water for themselves and animals.

Mrs. Tichenor's class is also studying the industries of Rochester and are leading just now how Rochester helps people all over the world with the things that are made in the different factories here.

The class has seen a downy woodpecker on a maple tree in the school yard. This made them happy, as it is the bird the group is making a special study of in the science class.

In the health classes, foot prints are being taken of all the children. Any child whose foot pictures show weakness or flat feet will be given special exercises. These exercises should be done at home as well as in school.

This month boys and girls in every public school of the city will try to save or earn money to give to the Children's Memorial Scholarship Fund. The boys and girls of No. 21 are planning a

School No. 30

On the afternoon of Nov. 12, an entertainment will be given at No. 30 School by the Alexander Novelty Trio. The members of the trio will entertain on a variety of musical instruments, and will also give musical numbers on a saw, spoons and toy balloons. There will be folk dancing and tap dancing numbers. One of their number is a ventriloquist and will entertain in this way.

The Alexander Trio has performed on the Chautauqua platform for many years and is well known throughout the United States.

The price of the entertainment is five cents for children of the school, and ten cents for adults and visitors. The proceeds will be used for the school to purchase books and equipment which are needed from time to time.

An enjoyable evening was spent by parents and faculty of No. 30 School on Oct. 19, when friends and parents were invited to observe the work of the children and to participate in a social evening later in the gymnasium. Mrs. Charles Schencke, president of the P.T.A., presided and spoke briefly. Guests and faculty listened to Superintendent Spinning's radio address and later refreshments were served.

School No. 43

An unusual celebration took place at Theodore Roosevelt School, No. 43, Oct. 27, when the children and faculty of that school gave honor to the birthday of President Theodore Roosevelt, and welcomed five ambassadors from Japan.

Four were dolls in exquisite dress sent by school children of Japan to the children of Theodore Roosevelt School and the other was Kenichi Moriwake, a member of the Japanese Consulate in New York and correspondent in the metropolis for the Society of International Cultural Relations.

He presented the dolls on behalf of the children of the Primary School attached to the Tokyo Women's Higher Normal School. About 100 Rochester educational leaders and teachers were present, among them Superintendent of Schools James M. Spinning.

HELP FOR THE HOME MAKER

Let's Help Celebrate Apple Week

National Apple Week is being celebrated from October 31st to November 6th. Too much attention cannot be given to this versatile fruit which may be eaten from the hand or can be used in every meal in a variety of ways.

A bright shiny apple makes an ideal addition to a child's lunch box, is perfect for that empty feeling at 4:00 o'clock and is truly refreshing just before bed at night. For a perfect ending to a special dinner serve a bowl of choice apples, pass plates and fruit knives and a tray of choice Roquefort cheese. Thin slices of apple are spread with the cheese.

Applesauce is as well known as apples themselves. Strained applesauce is included in the diet of very small children and from it can be made a great variety of things, cake, cookies, pie and frozen desserts. If served with cookies or cupcakes it makes a simple but satisfying dessert for luncheon or dinner.

There are several ways in which applesauce may be made. In choosing apples for sauce, two or three varieties may be used. The apples are washed, peeled and cored, enough water is added to start cooking them, about 3/4 cup water for 4 cups sliced apples, then are brought to the boiling point while tightly covered and when they are almost tender sugar to sweeten is added. Continue cooking until apples are tender.

Baked Apple Sauce

Temperature—350° F.

- Time—1 hour
- 8 tart apples
- 1 cup sugar
- 1 cup water
- 3/4 teaspoon nutmeg

Wash, peel, core and slice apples. Place in a baking dish, add sugar, water and nutmeg. Cover. Place in preheated gas oven. This may be served for breakfast or as an accompaniment to Roast Pork. Whenever an oven-cooked meal is being planned if room is available in the oven make up a dish of applesauce as it can be used in many ways.

Apple Sauce Cake

Temperature—350° F.

- Time—40 minutes.
- 1/2 c shortening
- 1 c sugar
- 1 egg
- 1 1/2 c applesauce
- 2 c all-purpose flour
- 2 t soda
- 1/2 t cinnamon
- 1-4 t cloves
- 1 c raisins
- 1 c nutmeats
- 1 t vanilla

Cream the butter, add sugar gradually, and the well-beaten egg. Add applesauce and beat well. Mix and sift the flour, soda, cinnamon, cloves, add the raisins and nutmeats. Add to the first mixture, then add the vanilla. Pour into a buttered square pan and bake in a preheated gas oven.

Probably the favorite American dessert is apple pie with ice cream a close second. As a variation for Apple Pie why not try Deep Dish Apple Pie.

Deep Dish Apple Pie

Temperature—350° F.

- Time—1 hour.
- 3 c sliced apples
- 1 c sugar
- 1-4 t nutmeg
- 4 T butter

Rich biscuit dough
Mix the apples, sugar, nutmeg. Pour into a buttered baking dish. Rot with butter. Pat the biscuit dough out to fit the dish and cut one or two steam vents in the dough. Press down around the edge. Place in a preheated gas oven.

Apples make a perfect garnish for meat. A spicy accompaniment for pork is Spiced Apples. Quarters of apples are cooked in syrup to which cinnamon drops have been added. Care must be taken to cook the apples until just tender but not mushy. After arranging meat in platter garnish with spiced apples.

If breakfasts seem to offer a problem from time to time you will find that Apple Ring with sausage meat offers a favorite dish for most men. Shape sausage meat into flat patties and cook until done in a hot frying pan. When cakes are done remove to a hot platter. Arrange thick apple slices in the hot fat and sprinkle with granulated sugar when slices are tender, turn and brown on other side. Place one apple slice on each sausage and serve.

For a cold Fall morning a hot apple coffee cake means a real treat. It isn't for mother though if she has to get up early to make it. The following recipe can be made up a day or two ahead and stored in your gas or electric refrigerator. If you plan to serve bacon and eggs for breakfast that morning arrange bacon on a rack in a pan, butter muffin tins and drop an egg in each cup. Place cake and bacon in the oven at the same time. About 5 minutes before cake comes out place eggs in oven.

Apple Coffee Cake

Temperature—425° F.

- Time—30 minutes.
- 2 c all-purpose flour
- 3 t baking powder
- 1 t salt
- 1 t cinnamon
- 1-4 c sugar
- 1 T grated orange rind
- 1-3 c melted shortening

1 egg
3/4 c milk
Mix and sift the flour, baking powder, salt, cinnamon and sugar. Add the orange rind, melted shortening, the well-beaten egg and the milk. Mix well and spread in a buttered square pan. Cover with thinly sliced apples. Mix 1 T melted butter, 4 T sugar and 2 T orange rind. Sprinkle over the apples. Bake in a preheated gas oven.

These suggestions for using apples are only a few of the many that may be used. Your family will enjoy apple dishes and you will find that they will add new interest to your menus.

Do You Know?

Sponsored by Medical Societies of the State of New York and the County of Monroe

Snakes are good swimmers.

Among 700 companies studied by the National Association of Manufacturers, executive salaries amounted to three per cent of the total payroll, taxes to 34 per cent. In the oil business, taxes were 120 per cent of the payroll, $2,111 per employee.

The season for "colds" is at hand. They should not be neglected. Go to bed. Stay there as long as there is high temperature or fatigue. Pneumonia would show a sharp decrease if everyone did this.

"Why Am I a Doctor?" was the subject of a talk recently by Dr. Floyd S. Winslow, president, Medical Society of the State of New York. Said Dr. Winslow: "Why did we go into medicine? Why do we stay in medicine? Why do we live for, fight for, and sometimes die for medicine? Glory?"

"Where is the romance in our pursuit for those who follow it? It is said that every ship is a romantic object but the one we are sailing in; and it may also be said that medicine has romance for those who do not practice it. We work in the quiet of the sick room or the hospital. We walk daily with troubled humanity. Our satisfaction can only derive from the knowledge that we have performed our obligation to heal the sick, in this way paying the debt we owe for the accumulated knowledge and experience of the ages which has been made available to us.

"Quacks are plying their trade in the realm of economics and sociology as well as in that of medicine. There is a need for a generous skepticism to counteract what often seems to be pathological optimism, substituting rhetoric for reason. Sooner than we think we may see the complete triumph of mediocrity."

Daniel Webster said: Keep cool; anger is not argument.

Hoarseness that does not get well in a few days may be the symptom of serious disease.

Knowledge of cancer has increased a great deal. Many millions of dollars, and the energies of hundreds of experts are devoted to further increasing this knowledge. As yet, nobody has been able to prove conclusively just what substance, circumstance or condition causes cancer. But the advances which have been made in diagnosis and treatment are well worth the effort expended.

There is no basis for the popular belief that thunderstorms turn milk sour.

First radio broadcast was demonstrated by Nathan B. Stubblefield in 1892. He gave a public exhibition of his invention January 1, 1902, in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia.

Jaundice, yellow color under the skin, is either toxic or obstructive. If toxic, it means that too many red blood corpuscles are broken down into the colored material which is found in the bile, and the condition is definitely in the nature of poisoning. The jaundice caused by obstruction is due to blocking of the bile passages between the liver and the intestines which throws bile pigments into the blood. It is often the symptom of gall stones.

Small knives are called penknives because they were originally used for cutting quill pens.

Why do children boast? In many instances, doubtless, because unstable conditions at home instill in them a feeling of inferiority to other children, which can be compensated for by boasting.

William Gillette said: Don't do anything until you do it, and when you have done it, stop doing it.

The word "cure" comes from the Latin "cura." Originally, the cure of the patient meant the care of the patient, and, incidentally, it still does.

First radio broadcasting as now known was November 2, 1920, of the Harding-Cox presidential campaign, from station KDKA, Pittsburgh, owned and operated by the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company.

Dummy clocks used by jewelers as signs are set at 8:18 because this is the most symmetrical arrangement, not because Lincoln died at this hour.

Eat more fish. It is still cheap. The proteins are fully as nutritious as those found in meats. Salt-water varieties produce iodine, necessary for health. "They always form a profitable addition to the diet," says Dr. James S. McLester, authority on nutrition and past president, American Medical Association.

It is an old saw that we should eat to live, not live to eat.

"The ordinary mixed diet of dwellers in cities and towns of America and Europe," observes Prof. H. C. Sherman, "is probably more often deficient in calcium than in any other chemical element." Calcium may be added to the diet in milk, cheese, eggs, leafy vegetables, peanuts, turnips, carrots, oatmeal. This does not mean assimilation, which can be prevented by the lack of other factors, such as sunlight, ultraviolet rays, or Vitamin D. These matters are highly complicated and the average person is utterly without the knowledge or experience to know whether the calcium made available to him is sufficient to act as a preventive of conditions which may be conducive to such disorders or arthritis.

Ralph Waldo Emerson said: If I cannot brag of knowing something, then I brag of not knowing it.

Anniversary Banquet At Trinity Lutheran

An anniversary banquet of unusual nature was held on Sunday, Oct. 25, at Trinity Lutheran Church, Campbell and Walnut Streets. It was in celebration of the 45th anniversary of the founding of the church as well as a testimonial to four active workers in the church, including the pastor.

For Rev. Henry C. Erbes, pastor, the banquet marked the 39th anniversary of his connection with the church. For Miss Grace Roeser it was the beginning of her 15th year as a teacher in the Sunday School. For Miss Harriett Bohrer it was in commemoration of 35 years at the Trinity organ. And for Oscar Schulz it marked the 35th anniversary of his connection with the Sunday School, during which time he has never missed a Sunday.

Ralph Witherow was toastmaster at the dinner which was held in the flower-bedecked banquet room. Albert Gerling made gift presentations to the honored guests. There were over 400 present, including Rev. William Von Deben, pastor at Guilderland Center Church and a former member of Trinity, who preached last Sunday at Trinity. Music was furnished by Eddie Snyder's orchestra and a vocal duet was rendered by Edwin Wagner and Arthur Bernhard.

Millers Entertained On 45th Anniversary

A surprise party in honor of the 40th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Miller of Glide Street was given by friends and relatives last Friday night in the Senz Rathskeller. Games and dancing were followed by a midnight supper.

Mr. and Mrs. Miller were married at Holy Family Church and have lived in the Glide Street vicinity all their lives. They have two daughters, Mrs. Loretta Krause and Miss Vera Miller, and three grandchildren, James, Vincent and Marjorie Krause. All were present at the party.

Home Heating Hints

by JOHN BARCLAY

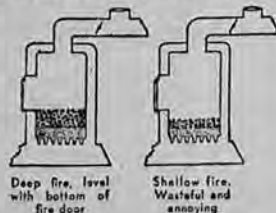

ONE mistake that a great many home owners make is in not putting enough coal on the fire. This is a false economy. A thin, skimpy fire not only burns up too fast, goes out more easily, and causes many unnecessary trips to the cellar, but it also wastes fuel.

For the most economical operation, always put on enough fuel to keep the fire-bed level with the bottom of the fire-door. In mild weather you can leave a little heavier accumulation of ash on the grate. The fire will then burn very slowly, yet there will be sufficient fuel in the process of burning to provide ample heat in case of a sudden drop in the outside temperature. And remember, whenever you put on fresh coal, always leave an exposed spot of live coal directly in front of the fire-door to act as a pilot light to ignite the gases arising from the fresh coal. (3)

RADIO TUBES

By H. S. Russell

Five years ago people came into our store and said, "How much are radio tubes?" Today they still say, "How much are radio tubes?" The fact that 74 per cent of the customers don't know what type tube they want (or even that there are various types) has brought us to the realization that the many rapid and marvelous advances made in the construction and function of radio tubes are all unknown and unrealized by the public that uses them.

When we started in business five years ago there were 21 types of tubes listed by the manufacturers and our equipment was built to check 21 types. We thought this a lot. The latest manufacturers list includes 180 types, an increase of about 35 or 40 over this time last year.

The tubes are grouped under their filament voltages, that is, there is a 1½ volt group, a 2 volt group, a 2½ volt group, a five volt group, a 6.3 volt group, and some tubes with 25 volt filaments. Each group contains radio frequency amplifiers, audio amplifiers, rectifiers, combination 1st detectors and oscillators, combination 2nd detectors and audio frequency tubes, automatic volume control tubes, etc.

There are almost as many prices as there are tubes. On the manufacturers' lists before me the cheapest tube is 59c and the most expensive $2.75. (Of course, these do not include transmitting tubes.)

It might be of interest to know why some radios are labelled—"Six tubes—10 tube performance" or "8 tubes—11 tube performance", etc. The reason is that in the early days of radio each tube performed one duty only.

Now we have tubes that perform three or as many as four functions. Thus, the radio using such a tube might have only seven tubes but would have the performance ability of a radio using 10 single purpose tubes. One might wonder why all tubes aren't multi-purpose. The answer is that the many purpose tube is so compact (so much "works" crammed into such a small space) that it is much less substantial in performance and less liable to give satisfactory service than the single purpose type.

I have tried to keep this article as non-technical as possible, and at the same time to show the vast increase in numbers, types, and purposes that have been made in tubes.

Now here is a friendly tip. Don't go to your dealer and say, "How much are tubes?" or "How much are tubes for my XYZ radio." Every manufacturer builds a dozen or two different models each year and each model uses a different tube combination. If you wish to replace one or two tubes, note the numbers on these tubes and ask for these numbers at your dealers. Or if you are interested in a full set of tubes then get your radio model number from the back of your receiver and your dealer can then "look up" the combination of tubes your receiver uses.

P. S. Did I mention that there are 4, 5, 6 and 7 prong tubes, octal base glass tubes and octal base metal tubes? We wonder where it will all end.

ties of the Department of Justice agents of the U. S. Treasury have come spectacularly to the fore. Their intrepid operations in law enforcement have now been vividly dramatized in a Columbia production entitled "Counterfeit."

Featured in the imposing cast are Chester Morris, Margot Grahame, Lloyd Nolan and Marian Marsh.

Briefly, the story relates the adventures of T-man Chester Morris, who gains entry into the counterfeiting ring headed by Nolan and his sweetheart, Margot Grahame, posing as a ruthless killer. His assignment is complicated when he falls in love with Miss Marsh, Margot's screen sister, who has been innocently involved in their activities.

A bright, fast, fun-filled musical, filled with swingable, singable tunes and featuring some of the most outstanding dance talent on the screen is "Three Cheers for Love."

It gives "Swing music" its first screen glorification. A gay story with its emphasis on youth, it moves in a tempo built for summer entertainment.

Eleanor Whitney, called the owner of the "fastest feet in the world," and Robert Cummings have leading roles. Also featured are Olympe Bradna, French dance sensation; Louis DaPrun, speed tapper of the first order, and a cast including William Frawley, Roscoe Karns, John Halliday, Elizabeth Patterson, Grace Bradley, Veda Ann Borg and Billy Lee.

All Exhibit Space For Annual Auto Show Sold

Edward C. Schoen, manager of the annual Auto Show which will be staged at Edgerton Park Nov. 21 to 28, under sponsorship of the Rochester Automobile Dealers' Association, announced today that all exhibit space in Buildings 4 and 5 at the park is already completely sold out. This announcement, coming three weeks in advance of the show's opening, signifies the unusual interest that dealers, distributors and manufacturers are taking in the Auto Show this year.

Buildings 4 and 5 will house the exhibits of 1937 passenger cars, trucks and trailers, as well as the motor boat displays. Twenty of the nation's leading automobile manufacturers will send from five to eight of their latest models to the Rochester show. The total number of passenger cars at the show will exceed 150.

The features that will be stressed in the new cars are safety, economy and ease of operation. Colors will be brighter, lines will be perfected and interiors will be more luxurious than ever. The new durable finishes will be practically impervious to the most severe weather conditions.

Almost every automobile manufacturer has made extensive changes in the body design of his products. Show visitors will find it difficult to identify the various makes without close and careful inspection. An evident attempt has been made to make each 1937 model definitely individual in character so that it may be easily distinguished at first glance. Prices will remain, in general, about the same as last year.

The small-sized "puddle-jumper" has gone the way of the Dodo Bird. There will not be a car at the Auto Show that cannot qualify as a "big" car. In fact, roominess might be considered an outstanding characteristic shared mutually by the entire crop of 1937 American-manufactured automobiles.

Building 3 will be entirely devoted to automobile accessories. It is believed that this arrangement will enable the accessories to be exhibited to better advantage than ever before.

The New York Auto Show is to be staged at Grand Central Palace, Nov. 11 to 18. A large number of local dealers and distributors are planning to attend this show next week in order to get a "preview" of what the Rochester show will be like.

PARENT WEEK

By A Mother

"Mother, we must take an apple and some sugar to kindergarten today."

"Oh, what for?"

"I can't tell, that's for a surprise when you visit us next Wednesday."

The next day the invitation to come to visit during "Know Your School Week" arrives. Mother muses for a week—"I wonder what those apples will be used for."

At last the big day arrives. Up early, baby cared for, lunch gotten, neighbor reminded about the day to care for baby, child off to school and finally Mother off.

"Hello Mama," from many in the group of 30 when the mothers come into the room.

"Oh, gee, my ma didn't come." Teacher: "It's early yet."

Now for activities—painting—apples falling from trees, potatoes on ground and the pumpkins. The new members are working with pegs . . . What's that in the corner? . . . "Choo-Choo" Two trains moving across the floor made of blocks by a boy and girl. And here are some houses, too.

Now for clean up time. (My! how fast they do it, I wish they would at home.)

Ah! song time. After an hour of songs and games Mother wonders how the little heads learned so much in a month and a half.

Now for the surprise! It's grape jam. The kindergarten children made it! And on crackers served on fancy napkins also made by them. . . "Yum it's good."

Each mother carefully folds the napkin in her purse to show daddy. "Now, children, let's invite our mothers to visit us later and see what we have learned."

Oh yes do, we think. Its been wonderful. What patience that teacher has!

I, for one, shall try to be more patient.

Wedding Tableau Scene Flower Show Feature

A beautiful wedding tableau will be presented every evening at the Fall Flower Show which is to be staged at Convention Hall, Nov. 12 to 15. This was announced this week by George B. Hart, general chairman of the show.

According to Mr. Hart, this elaborate wedding scene will be presented from 8 to 8:30 in the church altar and choir setting which will occupy the central stage at Convention Hall. Gowns for the bride and her attendants will be furnished by B. Forman Company. The formal attire of the groom and his attendants will be furnished by McFarlin Clothing Company. The gowns will be modeled by women of the University of Rochester.

Plans for this wedding tableau are at present in an indefinite state, but the tentative plans call for a bride, a matron of honor and four bridesmaids, a groom, a best man, and four ushers.

With this news, the Fall Flower Show now assumes the proportions of a three-fold attraction—flowers, fashions and music.

Flowers will play an important part in the wedding tableau. The bride will carry a gorgeous bouquet; the bridesmaids will have colorful corsages; the groom and his attendants will have attractive boutonieres, and the flower girls will strew petals along the path of the procession.

To add to the charm of this scene, a large organ, set amid banks of flowers and evergreens, will furnish appropriate music for the occasion. This organ will also supply accompaniment for vocal selections at intervals throughout

Auto Show Presenting New Models This Week

The three largest buildings at Edgerton Park are bedecked in colors that rival the rainbow for the 29th Auto Show there all this week.

Building 5 is canopied with thousands of yards of green and white bunting. The walls, too, are completely covered in green and white. Royal blue, white and yellow are the predominating colors in Building 4. In both of these buildings scores of decorative lanterns are hung. The color scheme of Building 3 is sea-foam green and burnt orange.

Amid these attractive surroundings the newest members of the royal families of Motordom are making their initial bows to Rochesterians. The following makes of new 1937 passenger cars are exhibited: Buick, Cadillac, Chevrolet, Chrysler, Dodge, DeSoto, Ford, Graham, Hudson, Lafayette, Lincoln, LaSalle, Nash, Oldsmobile, Packard, Plymouth, Pontiac, Terraplane, Studebaker and Willys.

Trucks include Chevrolet, Dodge, Ford and Reo. Among the trailers are the famous Covered Wagon, Pierce-Arrow and Silver Dome, Chris-Craft motorboats are also on display.

The total number of passenger cars, trucks, trailers and motor boats on exhibition is in the neighborhood of 200. Twenty-five of Rochester's leading distributors and dealers have taken display space at the show.

A feature of the show is $2,000 worth of prizes in automobile accessories. These prizes include 14 car radios, 14 car heaters, 14 rubber-bladed fans, 14 clocks and 14 two-tone automobile horns. These

Community Vesper Service On Sunday

A community vesper service, non-sectarian and non-denominational, featuring the Rochester Community Choir of 400 voices, will be held next Sunday afternoon, Nov. 29, in the Monroe Avenue Methodist Church.

The service, like the choir, will be open to and planned for all, regardless of creed, sect, or belief. One hour in length, the service will start promptly at 5 p. m., and end sharply at 6. Features of the service include four numbers by the choir, "The Pilgrims' Chorus," by Wagner; "Prayer of Thanksgiving," Netherland Folk Song; "The Heavens Resound," by Beethoven; "Send Out Thy Light," by Gounod, and a community sing led by Edward C. May, director of the choir. Howard Hinga will be at the organ and Mrs. Margaret Beckwith at the piano.

The Community Choir, itself non-sectarian and non-denominational, was organized under Mr. May's direction last May and had an initial membership of 35. Since that time it has grown steadily and today numbers 535, with an attendance at rehearsals and services averaging 400. It will broadcast a holiday program from 9 to 9:30 Thanksgiving morning over WHAM.

Still another new feature at the Rochester Auto Show this year is the addition of trailers to the exhibits. Public interest in trailer travel has been increasing in leaps and bounds during the past two years, and the new trailer models are literally mansions on wheels. Northway, president, Elmer H. Wilson, vice president; Edward C. Schoen, secretary; Edward J. Horton, treasurer; and Joseph J. Judge, C. L. Cool and Albert E. Quinton, directors.

ANOTHER SINUS SUFFERER GETS RELIEF

The letter below, addressed to Maid Drug Co., comes from Diane Salter of 131 Gibbs St.

"I wish to state the following facts in regard to your Maid's Nose Drops:

"About seven years ago I was operated on to have an obstruction removed from my nostril, as the doctor said this was the cause of my trouble. For six months to a year this helped, but then I noticed in the morning I would have a bad taste in my mouth and the breath had an odor, or halitosis. It kept getting worse. I started to have pains in the head and in back of the ears, also continued dropping into the throat, which caused hacking and expectoration and a lot of embarrassment. The cold in the head continued.

"All of these troubles have been relieved. I have used your Maid's Nose Drops for over a year every two hours until you told me to use them only night and morning.

"I cannot explain how pleased and relieved I am from using your nose drops. I would not be without them for anything.

"You may use this letter to convey the message to other sufferers so that they, too, may obtain results.

HELP FOR THE HOME MAKER

PLANS FOR THANKSGIVING

Whether you are planning to have a Thanksgiving dinner in the best traditional manner or one with modern touches, the actual cooking of the food is the easiest part of it. Perhaps the most difficult part is the planning of the meal and then the working out of the plan to make the job an easy one.

First of all, take into consideration the number to be served, how much help will be available in preparation, how much can be spent for the dinner and whether there are enough of the right dishes on hand to be used. For instance, if you are planning a fruit cup for the first course, choose a dessert other than one that would require sherbet glasses unless you have enough to go around without washing between courses. Then several days ahead check up and see that the linen to be used is ready, silver cleaned and that those seldom used plates and platters are ready.

There are many things that can be gotten ready several days ahead. Cranberry sauce or jelly can be made up ahead. Pastry may also be made up ahead and stored in the refrigerator in case a mince pie or a pumpkin pie is chosen for dessert.

If you are using a gas or an electric refrigerator you will find that lettuce, parsley, green peppers, celery and other vegetables can be washed and stored for use several days ahead. Some of the other vegetables to be used could also be prepared ahead, such as sweet potatoes. A sweet potato puff makes a most attractive dinner dish. Mashed sweet potatoes could be planned for dinner on Tuesday night and enough mashed then to provide for the Thanksgiving dinner. You might like to try out this recipe before hand to see if your family will like it:

SWEET POTATO PUFF
Temperature, 400° F.; time, 30 to 40 minutes

6 medium sized sweet potatoes
1/4 cup butter
1 No. 2 can crushed pineapple.
2 T brown sugar
Wash, peel and cook potatoes in boiling salted water until tender. Beat until well broken up, add butter, the pineapple and the brown sugar. Beat until fluffy. Pour into a buttered dish and bake in your preheated gas oven.

As Thanksgiving weekend is a time of many parties and there are many occasions when cake is desired, a loaf or two of a good fruit cake will supply the need and any left over may be used as a steamed pudding or saved for Christmas. A simple, inexpensive fruit cake that will keep well is Somerset Cake. This is best after it has been kept a day or two.

SOMERSET CAKE
Temperature, 350° F. oven; time, 1 1/4 hrs.

1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 t vanilla
1 1/2 cup grated apple
2 1/2 cups all-purpose flour
3/4 t baking powder
1/4 t soda
1 t cinnamon

1 t nutmeg
2 T cocoa
1 cup chopped nuts
1 cup raisins or dates
Cream the shortening, add sugar gradually, the vanilla and the grated apples. Mix and sift flour, baking powder and spices. Add nuts and dates. Add to first mixture. Pour into a tube pan and bake in your preheated oven.

You will find that a frozen dessert is a great help in planning this type of dinner. This also may be gotten ready ahead of time. Be sure to make up plenty of ice cubes ahead and store in chiller under freezing compartment. This eliminates another job. Care must be taken not to plan too rich or heavy a dessert.

ORANGE PISTACHIO CREAM
2 eggs
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1 1/4 cup milk
1/2 cup heavy cream
1/2 cup orange juice
2 T lemon juice
1 T grated orange rind

Beat eggs very light. Add sugar gradually, beating until mixture is rather thick. Combine with syrup, milk, cream, lemon juice and rind. Beat well. Return to trays and freeze 2 to 3 hours. Serve in sherbet glasses with a garnish of whipped cream and finely chopped pistachio nuts.

Home Heating Hints

by JOHN BARCLAY

A NUMBER of my readers have asked me how to avoid dust seeping through the cracks in the ashpit door when they shake the grates. This can be very easily ended by having a small pipe

The spray can be easily made by drilling small holes in a short length of pipe and capping the free end. The cost is negligible.

Then when you are ready to shake the grates you simply turn on the spray which throws a fine mist over the entire ashpit. Thus the ashes are wet down as they fall through the grates and the dust is settled immediately, and kept inside the ashpit. And when the ashes are removed from the ashpit they are wet enough to prevent any more dust from arising and flying through the cellar. (21)

First ambulance service was started in June, 1869, by Bellevue Hospital, New York City, under the direction of Dr. Edward B. Dalton.

Chronic arthritis may have its source in an abscess or area of infection at the root of a tooth, or in diseased tonsils, or other focus of infection. Often great skill is required to determine the cause of arthritis; there is no universal cause or universal treatment applying to all cases.

Athlete's heart is supposed to be an ailment resulting from active exercise. There is no evidence that a healthy heart is harmed by athletic activities.

Good posture is a sign of self-respect, besides being conducive to health.

Diphtheria is more frequent during the cold months than at other periods of the year. Toxoid is an absolute preventive, and is not dangerous. It is given in two doses two weeks apart. If your child is not thus protected, do so at once. Every child dying of diphtheria in these times is killed as a result of somebody's ignorance or indifference.

Orange or tomato juice makes an addition to a baby's diet which helps prevent scurvy. Like sailors, babies are susceptible to this disease.

The world knew nothing of ice-cream until America invented it and promoted its introduction in other countries.

First bi-focal eyeglasses were invented by Benjamin Franklin.

Your eyes are the only ones you will ever have. People living in the world today subject their eyes to greater strain than in any other period of the world's history. Medical science compensates to some extent for this by providing us with more knowledge of the eye, more precise instruments and techniques for testing its condition, and greater skill in providing medicament and spectacles for the individual case. It should always be remembered that many eye conditions are due to a generalized disease, and glasses do not always reach the source of the trouble. The eye is the only place in the body where the physician is able actually to look at and see nerve endings and blood vessels, giving him an opportunity in some cases to detect deterioration long before symptoms have appeared.

Moderate priced homes are being built in England on the pyramid idea, each floor having an open balcony.

Homicides and suicides are decreasing with the improvement of economic conditions, but fatal accidents are on the increase.

Each of the billions of red blood-cells in the body contains, besides life-giving oxygen, a charge of electricity. Two scientists of the Biological Laboratory at Cold Springs Harbor, Long Island, have measured this charge. The electricity of the blood-cells of a full-grown man, they found, would light a twenty-five watt bulb for five minutes.

Shakespeare said: They are as sick as surfeit with too much as they that starve with nothing.

It is estimated that there are 15,000,000 dogs in the United States.

First instruction in first aid was proposed by George Ryerson Fowler and given in 1885 at the annual encampment of the New York State militia at Peekskill, N. Y.

Scarlet fever increases with cold weather. It is especially serious because of frequent after-effects, damage to ears, heart or kidney. The onset is marked by fever, sore throat, a general scarlet rash, and often the typical "strawberry" tongue. Children between five and ten years are most susceptible. The disease is highly contagious and requires the cooperation of the general public to enforce quarantine regulations and prevent its spread.

Whooping-cough is another disease of children which increases in the winter time. It is serious, especially to children in their first year of life. During the first week or two it resembles a cold. Then the "whoop" appears. Prompt medical care eases the spasms and may save a life.

School No. 21

The school doors open at 8:30 in the morning and at 1 in the afternoon. Since the weather is changing and the days are getting colder, parents are asked to send their children to school so that they will not arrive before the time for the opening of the doors. Their cooperation in this matter will be greatly appreciated.

Miss Hanna's Fifth Grade is planning a Thanksgiving assembly to be held in the assembly hall, Wednesday at 2:15 P. M. It is an original play, having been composed by the class, called "The First Thanksgiving."

The story takes place at Grandfather's House, where the children and grandchildren come for the day. As they wait for dinner, Grandfather suggests that they hear the story of the First Thanksgiving.

The opening song, "Over the River," will be sung by the following: James Brown, Antoinette Muratone, Nicoletta Lloy, Anna Bellini, Joseph Cardinale, Josephine DiMarco, Frances Crothers, Titina Yaona, Enrico DiNapoli, Calvin Magro and Tony Cocchiara. The grandfather will be Norman Frenzel, while Titina Yaona will be the grandmother, George Hirsch, father; Frances Crothers, mother; and James Brown and Theresa Mieccki, children, are guests at grandfather's.

The story of the first Thanksgiving:

Josephine DiMarco—Landing of Pilgrims.
Joe Cardinale, Antoinette Muratore and Tony Cocchiara will tell about Pilgrims' first winter.
Nicoletta Lloy—Planting and harvesting corn.
Carl Hartman—Pilgrims going to church.
Mary DiMonte—Inside Pilgrim Church.
Anna Bellini—Preparation for Thanksgiving dinner.
Herbert Brown—Governor Bradford.
Indians—Big Chief, Arthur Palumbo; Big Chief's brother, Tony DiVincents; Indian dancers, Antoinette DaMello, Jean Voegtle, Geraldine Neff, Enrico DiNapoli, Glenn Post and Edward Lipa.
After dinner the Peace Pipe is smoked and the Indians and white men pledge friendship to each other.

The second and third grades will be in charge of the primary program to be held Wednesday at 1:15 P. M.

The second grade will give a dramatization of "The First Wash Day in America." A poem, "Little Pilgrim Children," a Thanksgiving song, and "Homes in America at the Time of the Pilgrims" will also be shown. This is all a part of the grade center of interest of "Food, Clothing and Shelter."

The third grade will give a poem with illustration made by the children. Two dramatizations are planned. The first being "Brother Rabbit's Thanksgiving Dinner" and the other "The First Thanksgiving." They will also sing an Indian Dance.

Miss Leighton's class will have charge of the assembly program Wednesday, for the 6th and 7th grades. Seven pupils, Claude Berlin, Grace Pfahl, Frances Baldo, Fred Kemmet, Gilda Tarricone, Dorothy Domenick and Loretta Schulwitz will give the story of The First Thanksgiving.

Pictures made by Fred Kemmet, Dan D'Amato, Renee Picaretto and Tony Da Mello will be described. The pictures will compare the Pilgrims attending church with people of the present time on their way to church. Fred Kemmet and Dan D'Amato will explain the pictures.

The next number will be a pantomime. It will contrast "The First Thanksgiving feast with the Thanksgiving dinner of this day." The four grades participating will join in the singing of Thanksgiving songs.

Pantomime

The First Thanksgiving will be described by Anthony Palermo and a group of boys and girls will represent Indians and Pilgrims at the feast.

The present Thanksgiving will be described by Vincent La Della, and a group of boys and girls representing people of today at Thanksgiving dinner.

Each week one grade on each floor has charge of the bulletin board. This week Mrs. Harmer's seventh Grade was responsible for the one on the third floor. They put up a very interesting exhibit on rocks. Some of the different types were metamorphic, sedimentary, igneous rocks and some fossils.

Often in rocks layers of sandstone, limestone and shale are found imprints of plants or animal life. These records are called fossils. Sometimes a fossil is the imprint of an animal. Often it is just a foot-print or the portion of a leaf. Occasionally it is the entire animal or plant.

Many fossils are of extinct animal or vegetable life. Most of them were native to salt water.

Gloria Lehrer

The pupils and teachers thank the parents for their cooperation in helping with the raising of money for the Children's Memorial Scholarship Fund. The home-made candy sale was a great success. With the money from the sale and the voluntary contributions it is hoped several children may find it possible to remain in school another year.

EDUCATIVE PLAY MATERIALS

What toys has your child? What toys does he need for a well-rounded development?

For dramatic, initiative and imaginative play. Such play introduces the child to the social and cultural patterns of the world in which he lives. The materials are many: Dolls, doll furniture, doll houses, housekeeping toys, toy theatres, puppets, costumes for dress up, circus sets, automobiles, boats.

For constructive and creative play. Children of all ages should be supplied with raw materials to enlist their constructive and creative powers, beginning with simple, crude expressions and developing gradually to high levels of obvious excellence, such as blocks, hammer and nail sets, work benches, tool chests, erector and meccano sets, construction sets.

Toys for development of strength and skill. Play builds health. Both indoor and outdoor toys in this group should be a type to encourage creative play as well as exercise, such as floor toys, wagons, carts, jump ropes, hoops, balls, garden tools, tennis rackets, table tennis, skates, velocipedes.

Toys for social development. Play is one of the greatest socializing forces. Co-operation, the ability to get along with others, are taught through wisely selected play materials. Equipment to make "doll corners", dishes, blocks, games of all sorts.

For artistic development, arts and crafts. Play should serve as an early introduction to rhythm, music, the arts and the handicrafts. Thus may be laid the ground work on which a rich, cultural life may grow. Drawing, painting and crayon books, paints, easel, clay and wax for modeling, drums, horns, xylophones, weaving looms.

Toys leading to an interest in science and mechanics, chemistry sets, magnifying glasses, engines and model power plants, compasses, magnets, telescopes.

Hobbies and special interests. The encouragement of hobbies as children grow older is of educational value, and frequently provides an interest which lasts throughout life. These hobbies usually take the form of "collecting" or making something, such as stamp collecting, model making, puppets (doll clothes), entomology, Indian lore, woodcraft.

Course of Lessons Devised by Rector

The Church School of Church of the Ascension has an interesting course of lessons prepared especially for its parish under the personal direction and supervision of the rector, Rev. William C. Compton, who has acted as editor and supervisor. A natural and progression system of developing the child character in the ways of Christian living and the amassing of information has been assembled in the material used.

A pre-school group meets each Sunday with Mrs. Edward Young and the kindergarten with Mrs. L. Johns. During the church hour at 11 a. m. the smaller children are assembled in a nursery class under the direction of Mrs. W. J. Scheick.

The primary group, designated as "Kingdom Boys and Girls" are busily engaged in "Learning About God." Misses Helen Budd, Laura De Welles and Doris Edsal are working with this group. The grammar grades in the junior department, designated as "Treasure Hunters," are seeking information through the method of search and enquiry asking officers, organization members, reading in Bibles and other sources the information which they are asked to find by Misses Constance Knapp, Barbara Smith, Marion Snellgrove and Marion Roda. The junior high and intermediate group under the careful supervision of Miss Nora Gillan and Emery Lowe are studying the Life of Christ while the Seniors with Mrs. Emery Lowe and the Rector find much interest in their study of "The Privileges of the Christian Sacraments"

Children not connected with any school are invited to attend the sessions of the school or to join the class discussions led by the Rector on "Why Be A Christian?" The latter class meets at 10:15 a. m.; the others at 9:45.

School No. 30

Many of the citizens of Rochester do not realize that much of the equipment used in the schools is not furnished by the Board of Education. No. 30 School has purchased from its own school fund such equipment as radios, books, pictures, etc., during the past years.

This year, No. 30 is trying to raise enough money to purchase a new curtain for the assembly hall, and a projector and sound equipment for the recently completed fire-proof movie booth. There are very few ways by which the schools are allowed to raise this money. Some of these ways are by entertainments, salt sales, and by contributions from the Parent Teachers Association.

For this reason, No. 30 is holding a salt sale from Nov. 16 to Nov. 25. This money will be used in part to augment the pupils' contributions to the Memorial Scholarship Fund. At this date, Miss Haller's Seventh Grade is leading in the amount contributed to the Memorial Scholarship Fund among the upper grades and Miss Baldwin's First Grade among the lower grades.

On Dec. 22 a Christmas movie show will be given. The program includes two sound films, "Oliver Twist," with Dickie Moore, and Mickey and Minnie Mouse in "Mickey's Orphans." The admission will be five cents for children and ten cents for adults.

Many interesting activities in connection with the geography and history work are in progress. Miss Mahoney's Fifth Grade has just completed a Mexican scene, showing the homes of the peons and a marketplace. The pupils made dolls, using bottles as foundations, and dressed these as Mexicans.

MATHIS-LENHARD

A very pretty wedding took place at Holy Family Church Nov. 14 when Lois Lenhard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lenhard of Wetmore Park became the bride of George Mathis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Mathis of Joseph Avenue.

The bride wore white velvet with matching hat and face veil, and carried white roses, gardenias and orchids.

KNITTERS! SAVE YOUR YARN ENDS

Bits of wool are being sought again this year to be utilized in making socks, mittens and scarfs for the Convalescent Hospital for Children. Knitters, who have small ends of yarn left over and others who have old woollen articles that may be unraveled are especially appealed to.

Mrs. Ulricka Pike, 83 year old resident of Seneca Parkway, and her daughter, Mrs. Elsie Burrows, have carried on this project for several years. Mrs. Pike does the knitting.

The children at the hospital are in need of the warm things to wear when they are taken out on the porch each day.

Those who have yarn to give are asked to take it to the Stitch Shop, 1302 Dewey Avenue, or to the Knit Shops in the Seneca Arcade or Franklin Street.

School No. 30

No. 30 School is proud of the recently completed Practical Arts rooms in the basement. They include a manual training room and a cooking room. The manual training room is equipped with benches and tools to accommodate a class of 15 boys. The cooking room is most attractively decorated. Although neither room is complete in every detail, they are in use on Mondays and Fridays.

Both teachers and pupils appreciate the convenience and are glad that the classes do not have to take the long walk to Jefferson High School each week for Practical Arts classes. A small classroom on the second floor has been equipped as a sewing room with work tables and sewing machines.

An interesting activity in connection with the study of Switzerland has been completed by the Primary Special class. This is a museum case, made of wood with a glass front. A scene of Swiss Mountain life is shown in the case, which is lighted by an electric bulb in the top. The box was constructed by the pupils as was also the display inside.

For safety's sake, the children of the school are asked to wait until they get in their own yards before making snow balls. Dangerous accidents often happen when children throw snowballs on the way to and from school. Coasting in the street is another dangerous pastime. The school tries to discourage unsafe practices on the part of the children and urges the parents to cooperate.

The Parent-Teachers' Association will hold the annual Christmas bazaar and sale tomorrow in the school assembly hall. Features of interest to the children will be a fish pond and magic tree. Any donations of gifts, games, etc. that the parents care to make will be greatly appreciated by the association. The money made will be used to further the work of the club and to purchase necessary equipment for the school.

What We Are Doing for the Junior Red Cross

Last month Mrs. Harmer's Seventh Grade decided to join the Junior Red Cross. Miss Maher, secretary of the Rochester Chapter of the Red Cross, gave us a most interesting talk on Dec. 2. We have made several articles to send to the Veteran's Hospital in Canadaigua and also far away to Japan.

The first articles we made were spatter cards and Christmas calendars. We enjoy this kind of work very much. Now we are preparing to make a science album. We eagerly look forward to

Vespers Resumed at Lyell Baptist Church

The Lyell Avenue Baptist Church has resumed Sunday evening services in response to requests from its membership.

"This desire for the evening service, has come out of the realization that too many of the Christian churches have forgotten their mission on earth, which is to preach the Gospel of Christ unto the salvation of lost people," says Rev. George Hammon, pastor. Last Sunday evening Rev. Hammon preached on "Our Mission" which put before the people the idea that "evangelization is still the important task of the church of Christ."

month are as follows:

Dec. 13—4:30 p. m. Vesper Music service, Rochester Training Choir, directed by Prof. G. A. Lehman.

HELP FOR THE HOME MAKER

Start to Plan for Christmas
Now is the time to make your fruit cake and plum pudding. The longer it ripens the better it is and then there is a decided advantage in getting it done and out of the way before the actual rush of Christmas comes along.

There are many recipes of fruit cake to choose from, white, light, or dark as well as rich or plain. In many families there are traditional recipes that are used year after year. Due to new methods of cookery a great deal of work can be eliminated, which makes it much easier. If a new recipe is desired the following recipes may be of help.

Before starting out to make fruit cake perhaps it is just as well to consider the ingredients used and their cost. One of the biggest items for fruit cake is the candied peel used. This not only is expensive, but also takes time to prepare if it must be cut up. One store is offering the peel in bulk, cut in just the right size and at the same price as the uncut peel. If time is important, this is a great help. Of course the cut-up peels may be purchased in the package. Some of the recipes call for dried fruits like apricots. This, of course, lowers the cost of the cake.

If you are planning on giving a fruit cake for Christmas you may want to bake it in a pyrex dish. This saves the bother of using tins. If tins are used line the tins with two thicknesses of wrapping paper and two of wax paper. For a rich fruit cake try the following:

- Favorite Fruit Cake
Temperature, 275 deg. F.
Time, 3-5 hours
- 1 lb. raisins
 - 1 lb. currants
 - ½ lb. citron
 - ¼ lb. lemon peel
 - ¼ lb. orange peel
 - ¼ lb. candied pineapple
 - ¼ lb. dates
 - ½ c candied cherries
 - 2 c all-purpose flour
 - 1½ t cinnamon
 - ½ t mace
 - 1 t nutmeg
 - 1 t allspice
 - ½ t salt
 - 1 c shortening
 - 1 c sugar
 - 6 eggs
 - 1-3 c lemon juice
 - ½ c orange juice

Mix the raisins and currants and add the rest of the fruit cut in dice. Mix and sift the flour, salt and spices and mix with the fruit. Cream the shortening, add sugar gradually and the unbeaten eggs, one at a time. Mix the lemons and orange juice and add alternately with the floured fruit to the first mixture. Fill paper-lined pyrex dishes ¾ full. Cover with a double thickness of wax paper or the cover-of-the container and place in your preheated oven.

perature. The following fruit cake is not as rich as the one above. It has a delicious flavor and keeps very well.

- Just-Right Fruit Cake
Temperature, 300 deg. F.
Time, 2½ hours
- 1½ c water
 - 2½ c raisins
 - 2 c dried apricots
 - ¾ c shortening
 - 1 2-3 c sugar
 - 3 egg yolks
 - 3 c all-purpose flour
 - 4 t baking powder
 - ½ t salt
 - 1 t allspice
 - ¾ t cloves
 - 1½ t cinnamon
 - 1 c candied fruits
 - ¾ c orange juice
 - ½ c sour milk
 - 3 egg whites
 - ½ t soda

Cook the raisins, apricots and water for 10 minutes. Drain, cool and cut in pieces. Cream the shortening, add sugar gradually and well-beaten egg yolks. Mix and sift the flour, baking powder, soda, salt and spices and add the candied fruit cut in pieces. Add to the creamed mixture with the orange juice and sour milk. Add the cooled fruit. Fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Pour into paper-lined tins or into a buttered glass baking dish. Bake in your preheated oven.

There are many people who much prefer a light fruit cake. This is not so rich and will not keep as long. It is a delicious cake to serve with tea or to give as a gift. As a rule this fruit cake is nicer if the citron is cut into strips rather than chopped. If desired the receipt may have one-half cup of nutmeats added.

- Washington Pound Cake
Temperature, 325 deg. F.
Time, 1 hour
- 1 c shortening
 - 1 c powdered sugar
 - 4 eggs
 - 2 c cake flour
 - 2 t baking powder
 - 1½ c sliced citron
 - ¾ c sliced candied cherries
 - ½ c sliced candied pineapple
- Cream the shortening and add sugar gradually. Add 1 unbeaten egg at a time, beating thoroughly. Mix and sift the flour and baking powder. Add the citron, cherries and pineapple. Fold into the creamed mixture. Pour into a tube or loaf pan and bake in your preheated oven. For those who just prefer a dark fruit cake but not a rich one the Somerset Cake is ideal. This cake is best if it's two or three days old before it's cut.

- Somerset Cake
Temperature 350 deg. F.
Time 1 hour
- ½ c shortening
 - 1 c sugar
 - 1 t vanilla
 - 1½ c grated apple
 - 2½ c all-purpose flour
 - 3½ t baking powder
 - ¼ t soda
 - 1 t cinnamon
 - 1 t nutmeg
 - 2 T cocoa
 - 1 c chopped nuts
 - 1 c raisins or dates
- Cream the shortening, add sugar gradually, the vanilla and grated apple. Mix and sift the flour, baking powder and spices. Add the nuts and dates. Add to the first mixture. Pour into a tube pan and bake in your preheated oven.

A well regulated gas oven will be the greatest help in the making and baking of fruit cake. The right temperature will give a moist, tender cake, that will keep well and will cut nicely.

Do You Know?

Sponsored by Medical Societies of the State of New York and the County of Monroe

ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO, September 5, 1926, Sam Houston was elected the first president of the Republic of Texas.

PERSONS suffering from nervous ailments are usually difficult to convince that they are not the victims of serious organic diseases.

FATIGUE, excessive or unexplained, is a serious symptom. He who pushes himself to the point of true exhaustion is like a motorist who goes through a red light. He may do it once in safety, but in the end, the Fate which waits round the corner will get him.

TUBERCULOSIS, heart disease and many other ailments, have fatigue as one of their symptoms. In fact, it is sometimes the earliest symptom, a warning to the wise to seek help early, when the chances for successful treatment are greatest.

MORE BANKING on curves of highways to avoid accidents is advocated by Joseph Barnett of the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads, after 900 tests at speeds up to 70 miles an hour.

HEADACHES may be caused by trouble with the eyes or kidneys, from high blood pressure, or a number of other causes, more or less obscure. Pains are often remote from the location of the real cause of pain.

EVEN small babies can be taught to take orange or tomato juice from a spoon, and it is good for them to learn to do this.

AMONG the leading causes of death in New York State pneumonia ranks third—tuberculosis seventh. Heart disease caused

EVERY BABY should be vaccinated against small-pox at the age of four months.

GOETHE SAID:

100 YEARS AGO, October 24, 1826, the first match patent was awarded to Alonzo D. Phillips.

TISSUE building foods: milk, beans, fish, meat and nuts.

ENERGY FOODS: bread and cereals, sweets and fats.

MOST deaths from pneumonia occur during the winter months.

PNEUMONIA is an inflammation of the lung. Cough, fever, chill, pain, heaviness of the side or chest, blood-stained expectoration, weakness or prostration—these are red lights which call "Stop!" Go to bed. Call a doctor at once.

PNEUMONIA was recognized by Hippocrates (460-370 B. C.) but confused with pleurisy, which was regarded as a less severe form.

SUNLIGHT kills the germ in an hour and a half.

THE MEDICAL Society of the State of New York, in co-operation with the State Health Department and other agencies is conducting a campaign of education to reduce the ravages of pneumonia.

CHRISTMAS SEALS help save human lives. Buy them. Use them.

LORD CHESTERFIELD SAID:

100 YEARS AGO, Samuel Colt began to make and sell a pistol with a revolving barrel.

SHINGLES follow the course of a nerve branch. The pain is of a neuralgic character due to inflammation, usually of a cutaneous or skin nerve. One side of the chest and back—usually the right—is involved. Emotional upsets, exposure to bad weather contribute as a causative factor. It is rarely serious.

ELECTIONS by secret ballot are known to have been a custom among certain tribes of American Indians.

CHRISTMAS SEALS help save human lives. Buy them. Use them.

FROSTBITE is not helped by dubbing with snow the parts affected, as is popularly recommended by "grandma." Warm the parts gradually. It is dangerous to warm rapidly by sitting near a fire or stove. Rubbing, if gently done without severe friction, will help.

"BACKACHE"—Who does not remember the patent-medicine advertisements that years ago appeared everywhere showing a man bent over, with his hands on his back, while the headline screamed: "Stop that pain!" After a while people learned that nothing could be put in a bottle to stop the pain, because what might be the cause of backache in one case might not be in another. Diagnosis comes first, treatment after.

A LEARNED judge was once asked why his opinions were so seldom reversed on appeal. "I make myself master," he replied. "of the facts in the case, and then I get the law from my wife." What he meant was that once the facts are clear, the rule of law was not difficult to find. When a man is sick, the first thing is to get the facts, all the facts. The next thing is the diagnosis, sometimes difficult. Last comes treatment—usually the simplest part of the entire process of healing.

H. L. MENCKEN SAID:
It is the dull man who is always sure, and the sure man who is always dull.

HEAD COLDS

Last week a young mother visited our store to get something for her child's ear ache. We asked her if the child had a cold in her head and she replied: "Yes, for about a week."
We suggested that she use Maid's Nose Drops to relieve the head cold, and call a doctor. Being late at night, she did not call the doctor until morning. By then the ear ache had disappeared, but the child had a high temperature from the infection in her head.

The doctor said the ear trouble was not alarming, but found plenty of evidence of trouble. The fever, he said, was from infection in the head caused by the cold.

Colds in the head are carelessly neglected, but they are the direct cause of Sinus (Abscess) in the ears, running ears (Mastoids) and sometimes deafness.

For cold in the head, use Maid's Nose Drops. They do not irritate and contain no Ephedrine.

Ethiopian Warriors in Mock Cavalry Charge.

Prepared by National Geographic Society, Washington, D. C.—WNU Service.

SINCE the fall of Aduwa, important trading center of northern Ethiopia, to the forces of Italy, the towns of Aksum, Harar and Dire-dawa, and the province of Ogaden have taken important places in the news owing to the further movements of Italian and Ethiopian troops.

Perched high in the mountains, about 7,000 feet above the sea, and only 12 miles almost due west of Aduwa, Aksum today is a small town of only about 5,000 inhabitants, but the memory of ancient glories still clings to huge stone monuments that stand there.

Aksum was the capital of Ethiopia, according to ancient records, and since time immemorial has been regarded as sacred by the people. Its sacred character has made the city immune to attack or plundering by brigands or the armies of rival Ethiopian chieftains fighting for the surrounding country.

This is not the first time that Italian armies have held Aksum. The Italians conquered the city and nearby territory in the war which was ended by their disastrous defeat at Aduwa in 1896.

In Aksum is a church which, according to legend, contains the original Ark of the Covenant of the Hebrews. The church has been so closely guarded by the clergy, however, that no scholars from the Western world have been able to confirm or deny the legend.

Tradition says that the Ark was brought to Ethiopia by Menelik I, son of King Solomon and the Queen of Sheba. Menelik, according to the story, was educated at Jerusalem by Solomon until he reached the age of nineteen; he then went to Ethiopia with the Ark and a large delegation of Hebrews.

Ark May Have Been Burned.

The original church in which the Ark of the Covenant was supposed to have been lodged was burned when the city was sacked by a Moslem invader, Mohammed Gran, about 1535, but a new one was erected soon after by the Portuguese, who had visited Ethiopia earlier, and had established friendly relations there. There is no record of whether the Ark was destroyed in this fire, or carried to some safe place before the invasion and later restored to the new church.

Native tradition says that Aksum dates back many thousands of years. The earliest authoritative mention of it is in a manuscript written in 67 A. D., in which it is described as the capital of the Aksumite kingdom, which was the successor of the ancient land of Punt and the forerunner of Ethiopia. Punt is mentioned in Egyptian records as a place with which the Egyptians traded for gold, ivory, ostrich feathers, and other valuable merchandise.

Aksum is thought to have been much larger in ancient times than now, for there are traces of stone foundations of large buildings over a wide area near the present town, some of them probably temples and palaces.

The city of Harar, about 180 miles from the Red sea and 35 miles south of the railroad from

Harar a Walled City.

A survivor of the Middle ages of Europe would feel at home in Harar, for it has long been the custom to close the five gates in its high stone wall at nightfall. None may leave or enter the city until the following morning. Just as was the former practice in European walled cities. The wall, about three miles in circumference, is guarded by 24 towers. Recent reports from Harar say that the governor of the city has torn breaches in the walls to make it possible for the inhabitants to flee without congestion at the narrow gates in case of raids by Italian bombing planes.

The streets of Harar are little more than narrow alleys, some of them only three or four feet wide, steep and irregular and cluttered with refuse. They wind between one and two-story buildings built of undressed stone and mud, with thatched roofs. Along the streets are many small shops, some a few steps below the street level, in which work blacksmiths, silversmiths, swordmakers, and other artisans.

About 40,000 people, according to the most recent estimate, normally live in and around Harar and the city contains the palace of the governor and several foreign consulates which are of more substantial construction than the huts of the common folk. There are both Christian (Ethiopian) churches and Moslem mosques, and two hospitals within the walls.

Harar and its province stand on a plateau, between 4,000 and 5,000 feet above the sea, which has a pleasing climate and is extremely fertile. Harar province is famous for its coffee, much of which is exported, a portion of the crop coming to the United States where it is preferred by many discriminating coffee drinkers. Coffee grows wild in some parts of Harar province, for Ethiopia was the original home of coffee.

Arabs Founded Harar.

The history of Harar goes back to the Seventh century A. D. when the Immigrant Arabs from Yemen arrived and founded the city, according to tradition. The state which was then organized was known as Adel or Zaila. Of this state Harar was the capital in the Fifteenth century. During that tury a ruler of Harar, Mohammed Grain (the left-handed), invaded what was then Ethiopia and conquered a large part of it.

No white man visited Harar, so far as is known, until 1854 when an Englishman, Sir Richard Burton, spent ten days there disguised as an Arab. In 1875 the region was occupied by an Egyptian army and held for ten years until troubles in the Sudan forced the withdrawal of the garrison. The province then was under British influence until 1887 when it was conquered by Menelik II who later became emperor of Ethiopia and who conquered the Italians at Aduwa in 1896. During the period from 1891 to 1896, Harar province was an Italian protectorate.

Diredawa, 35 miles to the north of Harar, can be reached in one day's journey on mule back or in four hours by automobile over the rough terrain. This city, in many ways the most progressive in Ethiopia, is a key-point on the railroad which is Ethiopia's only outlet to the sea.

Formerly Diredawa was the terminus of the railroad from Djibouti. It is about 180 miles from the coast and stands on the fringe of the Ethiopian plateau about 4,000 feet above sea level.

Ogaden Province.

Ogaden province is in Ethiopia's southeastern corner, jutting out into an angle formed by British Somaliland on the north and Italian Somaliland on the south and east.

On the southwest it extends to the Webbe (river) Shibell, one of Ethiopia's two queer streams which flow hundreds of miles toward the sea only to disappear into the earth a few miles from their goal.

This strange river tumbles down from Ethiopia's high central mountains, almost reaches the sea near Mogadisejo on the Indian ocean, then changes its mind and runs 170 miles along the coast only 12 to 15 miles inland, finally losing itself in the Italian Somaliland plains a few miles from the equator. Another of Ethiopia's disappearing rivers, the Awash, flows out of the mountains near Addis Ababa north-eastward, but loses itself about 60 or 70 miles inland from Djibouti, the chief port of French Somaliland on the Gulf of Aden.

From the Italian Somaliland border north through Ogaden to Dire-dawa and the Addis Ababa-Djibouti railroad, the Italians must travel 350 miles, half again as far as General Sherman's famous march from Atlanta to the sea.

On the Italians' right as they move north is the vast dry plateau of the Haud country, which stretches along the frontier between Ethiopia and British Somaliland. Its undulating surface is broken up by shallow stream courses, but in the dry season the Haud plateau is virtually waterless.

making many other things to help people in hospitals enjoy themselves and cause the time to pass quickly.

Third Grade (Miss Hixson)
The third grade is joining The Junior Red Cross. The slogan is "I Serve." This means that the grade will try to work for others and make them happy. Scrap books will be made to send to the hospitals for sick children and disabled veterans.
The children will be very busy in the coming weeks getting ready for Christmas by making posters and gifts to make others happy.

First Grade
Miss Preiner's first grade visited the fire house on Campbell Street not long ago. The class wrote about the visit when they returned to school. This is what they saw:
We went to the Fire-Station.
We saw the fire truck.
We saw the poles.
The fireman slid down the pole twice.
We heard the siren.
We heard the bell.
We had a good time.
Dictated and composed by children.

Fourth Grade A & B (Mrs. Tichenor)
The children in the 4A group are cutting interesting pictures out of the paper and different magazines. We have decided to make booklets on the following subjects prepared by these committees:
Early Rochester—Betty Louise Sedbery, Doris Radner, Ida LaPaglia; New York State Canal System, Harriet Hirsch, Concetta Papagiani, Rose DiVietro; Rochester Today, Anna DiGiaceo, Louise Bernadino, Kathleen Heater; Rochester's Parks, Viola Lippa, Anna Bernadini, Carmella Cala.
Rochester Industries, Paul Colaprete, Walter Zimmer, Donald Poulton; An Elephant Book, Robert Franz, Lawrence Richto; Switzerland, Florence Cotter, Joyce Kemp, Madeline Allmannsberger; Mediterranean Lands, Alice Johnson, Helen Huber, Anna Mangione; Holland, Roberta Frazier, Betty Muchard, Joan Stoll.
Written by Betty Louise Sedbery.

Second Grade (Mrs. O'Brien)
The 2A grade has just finished studying about cotton. Each child made a book about the people, buildings and food on a cotton plantation. The boys and girls made a cotton plantation on a table. We wrote and told stories and riddles about a cotton plantation. We saw a movie about cotton. We like to study about cotton.
The 2B grade has finished studying about clothing. Each one made a book about clothes and where they come from. A street with several kinds of clothing stores was built. Now the class will make some Christmas things. We are going to make a surprise for our fathers and mothers.

The Second Grade B (Mrs. King) is planning a toy store for the Christmas season. We are making skills, sleds, toboggans, skates and many other toys in our store. In connection with this work we are making presents and cards for our friends and smaller children in our own families. We invite all of you to come to see our store before Christmas vacation.

CHRISTMAS SEAL PURCHASE URGED

A practical means of participation in the winning movement to prevent and control tuberculosis is afforded to its citizens by the purchase and sale of Christmas Seals, according to Governor Herbert H. Lehman, who issued a proclamation in honor of the 30th annual sale of Christmas Seals now in progress, in which he called attention to the fact that citizens' organizations help to secure public health nursing service; support special measures for the education of school children and of the public generally in the ways of healthy living; and supplement and facilitate official health administration.

"During the past 30 years of warfare against this disease in our state," said Governor Lehman, "the tuberculosis death rate has declined 70%."

In endorsing the nation-wide sale of Christmas Seals, President Roosevelt pointed out that it is the duty of each local community to raise funds for its own protection against tuberculosis—"Enemy of homes and health."

"It is tremendously encouraging to know," said President Roosevelt, "that tuberculosis is no longer the leading cause of death and that the fight against this scourge is continuing without remission. However, the fine progress that has been made should not be permitted to arouse a false sense of security. Quite on the contrary there is need for continued and intensified activity. Especially should these efforts be directed to the elimination of the disease as it prevails among children, as well as young men and women, in which groups are unnecessarily high toll is exacted. There still exists, too, the necessity for the early discovery of tuberculosis patients and their prompt hospitalization. When these obvious steps have been taken, the complete and final victory over this disease will be brought nearer."

L. J. Tabor, master of the National Grange, urged the purchase of Christmas Seal Bonds as an investment in health and happiness. "Let everyone help to make this the largest sale of Christmas Seals in the history of this most worthy cause," said Mr. Tabor.

The work of the County Health Committee of the Tuberculosis and Health Association in Monroe County outside of Rochester is made possible by the sale of Christmas Seals and Bonds now in progress.

THE CHRISTMAS CAROL by Helen Waterman

THE Christmas Spirit, if such a sprite there be, must have fled in dismay from old Silas Wentworth, for a crustier, harder, less Christmas-spirited man would be hard to imagine.

Yet Sally Blaine, his clerk and bookkeeper, had the temerity to bring Christmas into the store, stringing lines of tinsel.

Old Silas, coming to work, stopped and stared at this unusual addition to the colored globes and patent medicines with which his windows were adorned.

Sally Blaine, rather frightened now, looked up. "Merry Christmas, Mr. Wentworth."

Silas surveyed the store grimly. "Take it down!"

But Sally hesitated. "I said take it down. More of your fool notions! What's this?"

"Dickens' Christmas Carol, sir."

He thrust the book on a back shelf. "Humph! Don't let me catch you reading on the job."

"Yes, sir. I'm sorry about the decorations—"

At nine o'clock on Christmas eve Silas saw out his last customer, and began putting up the shutters. It was beastly cold, and his numb fingers were slow at their task. As he was about to lock up, he was confronted by two men, one carrying a revolver.

"Let us in and lock the door," said the man.

Silas, his teeth chattering from fear more than cold, complied.

"Now if you're quiet you won't get hurt," said the spokesman. "My pal here has had an accident. I need some medicines. You'll be paid all right."

"Of course; of course," Silas answered, and brought out a stock of supplies.

The wounded man spoke up. "Sorry to keep you on Christmas eve, buddy."

Silas grunted. "Tommyrot." The other man had been rummaging about the store. "Here," he commanded. "I can't watch what you're doing. So you read aloud until I get through." And he handed Silas "Christmas Carol."

Silas Surveyed the Store Grimly. "Take it Down!"

He was scarcely half way through when the men paid him and left. He threw the book down and started off, but at the door he turned, and sitting by the night light, read again. "So like me," he muttered, as he finished.

From the wastebasket he drew out the tinsel and strung it awkwardly around the store. He looked through his accounts marked "Overdue," and selected several bills which he marked "Paid in Full," and put in proper envelopes. Then he got his wraps.

"Merry Christmas, Silas," he exclaimed, and went out to the dawning of his first merry one in many years.

HELP FOR THE HOME MAKER
CHRISTMAS ENTERTAINING

Probably no season of the year offers more excitement than the Christmas season. From the youngest child to the oldest member of the family this feeling of festivity is apparent. Not only is there a great deal of extra work to be done, but there is, as a rule, a great deal of extra entertaining to be done, for this seems to be the time of year when most families have reunions.

This year with the long weekend and feeding the family and guests in the proper manner will be quite a problem. Of course by this time definite plans will have been made to have Christmas cookies, candies, fruit cake and plum pudding ready. Cranberry sauce and jelly as well as orange marmalade can also be made up. If all of these are used as a definite part of the various meals to be served a great deal of time and energy can be saved.

If we start off with a midnight snack to be served Christmas Eve after church service or the decorating of the Christmas tree, we might have roasted sandwiches, hot chocolate and Christmas cookies.

The sandwiches may be made hours ahead, brushed with melted butter, wrapped in waxed paper and stored in the refrigerator until needed. Any type of filling may be used provided it is not too runny. Baked beans mashed to a paste and chopped sweet pickle added; American cheese put through the food chopper, with onion and green pepper or sardines mixed to a paste with lemon juice and chopped hard cooked eggs added make tempting, appetizing sandwiches. These fillings also make delicious spreads for hors d'oeuvre. Then while you make the hot chocolate, light your oven set oven-heat control at 500 degrees F., arrange sandwiches in rack of broiler pan and toast to a rich brown.

The following recipe will make enough for six cups:

- Hot Chocolate
- 1 quart milk
- 1 1/2 squares chocolate
- 1/4 c sugar
- f. g. salt
- 4 drops vanilla
- whipped cream or marshmallows

Put the milk, chocolate, sugar and salt into the top of a double boiler, place over hot water and cook until a skin forms. Whip vigorously with a beater and add the vanilla. Serve with a garnish of whipped cream or marshmallows.

As a Christmas dinner is the next important meal, let's consider that. With our modern method of roasting fowl there will be plenty of room in the oven to cook the vegetables. Then with chilled grapefruit, a jellied salad and a frozen dessert made up and ready in the refrigerator, actual time spent in preparation is cut down to a minimum.

CHRISTMAS DINNER

- Minted Grapefruit
- Consomme
- Relishes
- Roast Turkey
- Mashed Potato Baked Squash
- Glazed Onions
- Jellied Cranberry Salad
- Hot Rolls Coffee
- Plum Pudding or Holiday Pudding
- Roast Turkey

Prepare turkey the day before and fill with favorite stuffing. Truss and rub with unsalted fat. Sprinkle with salt and pepper. Place breast down on a rack in a roasting pan. Place in a 350 degree F. oven and roast, allowing 25 minutes per lb. for a turkey weighing less than 10 lbs. Allow 20 minutes per lb. for a turkey weighing 15 lbs.

After Christmas dinner a light supper is in order. A large bowl of fruit salad, a plate of rolls and crackers and plenty of good hot coffee as a rule is as much as most people want. This can be a very informal affair served from a tea wagon.

A gas range with an oven-heat control, a gas or an electric refrigerator and an electric mixer all add to the fun of the holidays and make the preparation and serving of holiday meals an easy task.

Annual Xmas Bazaar Of PTA Is Success

Children and grown-ups as well had a merry time at the annual Christmas bazaar of the Parent-Teachers Association of No. 30 School on Dec. 11. The candy and cookie tables, the mystery tree and the fish pond were well patronized.

The ladies wish to thank everyone who helped make the affair such an outstanding success.

The next event on the program is the January meeting at which Charles Miller, director of the music department in the public schools will be the speaker. This will be held on Jan. 13.

Following Mr. Miller's talk, there will be a general card party of which Mrs. William Lamson is general chairman. Refreshments will be served. Those who do not play cards are invited to attend as there will be "plenty of fun" for everyone.

Card Club Holds Its Annual Xmas Party

Gifts were exchanged by the members, Mrs. Mary Bennett, Mrs. James Boland, Mrs. Margaret Buckley, Mrs. J. Doell, Mrs. Claude Hill, Mrs. Josephine Haag, Mrs. Frank Henneberger, Mrs. James Meaghan, Mrs. Henry Streiker, Mrs. Esther Rugraff and Mrs. Patrick Sullivan.

A supper was served by the Misses Elinor, Margaret and Maude Sullivan.

School No. 30

Two of the most regular attendants at No. 30 School are "Jackie Rabbit" and "Susie Mouse," both of which are permanent pets in the Kindergarten. The children thoroughly enjoy their animal friends, and give them daily care, such as cleaning the cages and supplying fresh water and food.

"Jackie" has become so tame that he is allowed to hop about the room during school to investigate the various activities of the children. "Susie" is growing rapidly on a diet of milk, whole wheat bread, lettuce and apple.

The children also watch with interest their turtle, named "Petey," and the gold fish.

The students in the 5th, 6th and 7th grades have been given voice tests. The best voices have been selected and are to form an organization called the Glee Club. This club will learn special music to be sung on assembly programs. The Glee Club had its first meeting the first week in December.

The children of the Kindergarten and Miss O'Connell's first grade entertained the school by giving a Christmas assembly on Dec. 18. The first grade presented a play, "Waiting for Santa," and the Kindergarten gave shadow pictures. Music was furnished by the toy orchestra from the Kindergarten.

No. 30 School wishes to thank the people of the community for purchasing salt during the recent salt sale. Thanks to the co-operation of the neighborhood, the sale was a great success.

The Christmas bazaar and food sale sponsored by the Parent-Teachers' Association of No. 30 School was most successful. Toys, books, games, candy and cooked food were sold on Friday, Dec. 11.

A further opportunity will be given to parents and children to co-operate in raising money by attending the talking movie to be held today at No. 30 School. "Oliver Twist" with Dickie Moore and "Mickey Mouse" in "Mickey's Orphans" will be shown. The price is five cents for children and ten cents for adults.

The December number of the "O-Tis" News, the monthly paper published by the seventh grade, is most attractive. In this issue of the paper, the children of the seventh grade have voiced their appreciation of their visit to the new Rundel Library.

A contest is being held in the gymnasium classes for the pupils in the grades 3A through the 7th.

The pupils compete for a bronze medal. Only three events have been marked so far. The following children have the most points to date: 3rd Grade, Rocco DiPonzio, 25 points; 4th Grade, Alfred Agricoloso, 25 points; 5th Grade, Albert Essig, 28 points; 6th Grade, Cosmo Mongelli and William Rose, (tie), 27 points; 7th Grade, Mario Piccone, 26 points.

The liberty bat ball contest between the 5th, 6th and 7th grade boys' and girls' teams finished last week and the boys of Alphonse Pochiarri's team in the 7th grade won. The girls from Eunice Strassner's team in the 7th grade won.

V. F. W. Post Gives Party for Children

The Veterans' Memorial Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and its auxiliary, held a Christmas party last night at Schulz's Hall. The children of the members had as their guests children chosen from a selected list.

Mrs. Wilma Falavdean and Oliver McQuay were co-chairmen and were assisted by these committees: Hall, Frank Smith; hostess, Evelyn Studley; gifts, Louis Becker; entertainment, Florence Smith; tree, William Maher. Helen Maher furnished the trimmings for the tree and was assisted by Janet Becker, Marianne Smith and Carolyn McQuay.

THE FIGURINE
A Christmas Story
Martha B. Thomas

MARIE LA FARGE was the prettiest girl in Beaulaire. Her dark eyes sparkled; her black hair framed a lovely, vivid face. It was inevitable that many young men should fall in love with her. Which they did. But chief among them was tall handsome Jules Gareau, the son of a wood-carver.

Marie's mother was a small hard-working woman whose beauty differed from the girl's. Strong lines were graven on her face; and in her eyes shone clear fortitude. Madame La Farge's eyes looked steadily at everything, whether it was the snow which lay so many months about the small tight cabin, or at one of her children who had, perhaps been angry or selfish. So, while Marie's face was sweet and winning, her mother's expression was full of character.

It could hardly fail that Marie should grow a little arrogant under the circumstances. "You are unkind to me," said Jules one day. "I have loved you always, yet you act as if it did not matter. And now you tell me you are going away from here." He waved his arm.

"What is that to you?" Marie was dressed in bright jacket, full woolen skirt and high, laced boots. A red knitted cap was pulled jauntily over her curls.

"How can you ask such a question of me?" Jules reproved her. "A girl cannot stay in this simple village forever!"

"But Marie," he reached for her mittened hand. His eyes, looking down at her, were filled with beseeching love. "We had plans together, you and I. Already father has given me the land. Already I have cut the timbers for our house . . . have you forgotten?"

Marie laughed goodnatureedly. "You handsome stupid . . . I must see a bit of the world before settling down to . . . she nodded towards her own house where her mother stood in the door, calling to one of the children. "You see?"

said Marie, "she's worn out with work. She's old before her time. She wears old clothes and thinks old thoughts . . . It cannot be otherwise, here in Beaulaire."

"Your mother," replied Jules sternly, "has the most truly beautiful face in the village. My father says so."

Marie raised her long lashes in surprise, and shrugged her shoulders.

"We Had Plans Together, You and I," He Said.

"We Had Plans Together, You and I," He Said.

ers. A week before Christmas the girl left the village. "I have a position. During the holidays extra girls are needed in the stores. Soon I shall have money of my own. Soon I shall dance and go places with many fine people."

"So that is what you are thinking," said her mother. But she added no words of advice or reprimand. "Don't forget us, child. Think of us at Christmas with the white snow about us, and the green spruces on the hills. Think of your father in the woods, chopping. Think of me cooking, and mending and singing to the baby . . . and nothing shall go wrong with you. Come home when it seems best. We love you."

But Jules was silent and heartbroken. "You'll never be the same to me, Marie, again. Your head will be filled with idle notions. And to think you can go and leave us at Christmas!"

But Marie went. And if they missed her sadly in the village where she was born, she worked hard. And because of her energy and lovely face, she was kept on in her position after the holidays. She sent presents home but she did not go there. She liked her new life.

One year. Two years. For one reason or another she never found time to visit her people. She was doing well. She was thrifty. She went about with this or that admiring escort. And she smothered the occasional pangs of homesickness in her heart.

Five years away. Now and then she heard from Jules, short letters which related how her father had cut his hand chopping wood. How her brother had fallen through the ice and was rescued. How her mother was just the same. "Everyone loves her," wrote Jules.

Then one day Marie happened to meet an artist named Tom Santos. "You are so very beautiful, I must paint you at once," declared this impulsive young man.

Marie laughed at him, but it soon happened that she posed regularly for this brilliant painter. She liked his queer, jerky way of talking while he worked. She felt that she was lucky to be admired by him. One day in the studio he asked about her home. Marie told him a little, rather grudgingly.

"You say you were born in Beaulaire?" cried the man. "How odd!"

He laid down his brushes and went to a shelf. "One of the finest wood-carvers in Quebec made this, a young man called Jules Gareau." He picked up a small figurine and held it in his hands.

Marie felt a quick trembling run all over her. "Oh," she breathed, "Jules never told me he had taken up his father's work!"

"You know him then . . . this artist Jules?"

"Yes," she answered stepping down from the dias where she posed. "Let me see, please."

Tom gave her the small figurine as if it were something precious. "Look at the pose," he said, "Look at the old woman's face. Isn't she wonderful . . . and beautiful in character? I'd like to meet her."

"You shall," murmured Marie in a low voice, and added, "I must stay away from home for years, before I discover from a stranger how fine my mother is. Come . . . we can catch the evening train."

"Oh, She Breathed, 'Jules Never Told Me.'"

Snow lay thick on Beaulaire that Christmas eve. Bright lights shone from the houses. The mountains were dark with purple shadows. Two figures walked along the squeaking snow. "How could you

School No. 21
The children in Miss Naracong's first grade have been painting a very interesting Christmas frieze. The first scene shows Santa Claus saying good-bye to Mrs. Santa Claus. Then we see Santa, packed in his sleigh full of toys, driving his reindeer on the long journey. When we next see Santa he is descending into a chimney with the pack of toys flung on his back. After going down the chimney we find Santa before the fireplace, filling the stockings. In the last picture is a large Christmas tree with the children gathered around it. This picture is supposed to be typical of Christmas morning.

A great many of the children helped to paint the frieze. Many others gave helpful suggestions and ideas.
Miss Maltz's 5B Grade has made some books which are called Center of Interest books. In them we have put what we have studied so far this term. We made up stories on cotton, corn, wheat, sugar cane, irrigation, the Mississippi River Delta and others. Some children have put in poems on coal and iron. At the end of the term we are going to take them home. We like them very much.
Written by Betty Jane Furnia, 5B.

Our science work, since the beginning of the term, has included such interesting subjects as migration of birds, hibernating animals, insects, etc. We are now studying heavenly bodies. Pupils have been making their own nightly observations, which they are representing in different forms in their Science Discovery Books. One is the daily chart of the phases of the moon for a month. Another, the drawing of the Big and Little Dippers, in their position in the sky at this season.

The class is gradually adding to a booklet made by one of the pupils and called "Famous Europeans." In our study of different countries we have chosen outstanding men and women and written short biographies of them. Some of the subjects are Florence Nightingale, Joan of Arc, John Gutenberg, Hans Christian Anderson.

At present we are giving some thought and attention to interior decorating. Each pupil has made a drawing of a portion of a living room, using his or her own taste in arrangements and color schemes. Many are planning to make a booklet containing a model home with all its rooms, from pictures collected from magazines.
Written by 6B grade (Miss Dowd)

Our grade is trying to co-operate and be dependable in its work. Co-operation means you can be trusted to do your work without talking or whispering when the teacher is busy helping someone else. It also means work with your teacher when she asks you to do something. To be dependable means you can be trusted to play fair and not to cheat whether the teacher is looking or not. It pays to play fair and be a good pupil.
Written by Stanley Norman, 5B, (Miss Maltz).

The following children helped to choose the Christmas Tree for the Assembly Hall: Thomas Nebbia, Hope Allen, Sam Cariello, Norma Pittisi, Gloria Isgro, Peter Cocchiara, Ada Perrotta, Ugo Mattucci, Anna Desino, Mike Belluccio, Irene Mengel, Anthony Salvatore.

The Girls' Prevocational classes held a Christmas program and tea for their parents and friends Friday afternoon. All the well-known carols were used in the program.

Wednesday morning there will be two groups participating in carol singing.

CHAMPION
A handsome oversize aluminum badge was pinned on "Sonny" Steininger last week in recognition of his "outstanding pre-eminence" as a euchre player. In fact the badge, which was presented by Frank Dietrich, labels him a champion of champions. "Tis said, however, he well merits the award, for every minute of time he spends at the Bauer and Raetz Hotel is at the euchre table.

NAMED TO CHECK ON LEGISLATION
Appointment of James E. Shatzel, Lyell Avenue hardware man, as county representative in this area for the purpose of consolidating the interests of retail merchants and checking on legislation affecting business at Albany and Washington, was announced this week by the New York State Retail Hardware Association.

"The situation is so serious," says the announcement, "that our national office and this association have agreed upon a 'county representative' plan as not only desirable, but necessary, in order that as occasions arise for hardware dealers to speak as a trade on legislative questions, we will be in a position to do so, promptly and effectively."

It is the purpose of the movement to crystallize "back home" sentiment that state and national legislators may know how their constituents feel on matters affecting their welfare.
Mr. Shatzel, who was quite active in the recent campaign as a backer of Representative George B. Kelly in the 15th Ward, which was carried for Kelly, is a veteran fighter for the cause of the retail merchant. His standing with the Kelly forces is said to have been taken into consideration in the appointment.

Structural Surgery

Ernest Gibbs called in the "doctors" for a face-lifting operation on the building which houses Beckwith's coal company and sporting goods store at 271 Lyell Avenue. Above is the result. A structural glass front, two new display windows and a seven-foot neon sign have transformed the store front into one of the most attractive modern designs in town.

Etiquette Problems Discussed at Hi-Y

Over 100 boys from Maplewood Y.M.C.A.'s nine Hi-Y Clubs were present at the December Forum meeting to hear Raymond Murphy of Benjamin Franklin High School. Mr. Murphy's topic was, "Your Reflection in the Public Mirror." During his presentation he discussed problems of etiquette for the high school student, "Do's and Don'ts" when going to a party, and some of the secrets of making people like you.

This was the fourth of a series of Forum meetings which will continue throughout the winter. John Verso, president of the Jefferson Beta Club, presided at the December session.

have left all this for an ugly city, Marie?"

The girl answered nothing. She hurried faster and her heart beat furiously. "I cannot wait to get there," she thought.

"Over there," she said aloud, "is the Gareau home, and now, here we come to our house. Hurry, hurry!"

They pushed through the gate; they entered the house without knocking. A huge fire blazed on the hearth. Singing and dancing filled the low-ceilinged room. Marie pulled her friend towards a slight figure sitting in a chair. "This is my mother," she said.

At once the room was in an uproar. People flocked about the new guests, all talking together, kissing Marie, laughing and shouting.

But Tom Santos bent low over Madame La Farge's hand. "I'm proud and happy to know you. Yes—" looking at her critically, "Gareau is a genius."

Marie with a new light and radiance about her next pulled him to a tall young man standing by the fire. "And this is Jules," she explained simply. "Jules Gareau." The two men shook hands.

"Please, please, all of you," she cried. "be quiet!"

The room fell into silence.

"I have been away a long while," began the girl. "But I am home again. I have neglected you all, but chiefly my family. But now, on Christmas eve, I come to my senses . . . and you!" Her lovely smile encircled them all. "Mother, the figurine which Jules carved of you, brought me back. I could not wait, for then I knew how I'd missed you."

A murmur of pleasure ran about the room.

"Jules," her voice faltered, plumes rose in her cheeks, "are you still . . . ?" She could not finish.

The tall handsome young man, as if in a dream, strode close to her. "No, Marie, I'm not married. I've waited so long for you."

And then uproar rose again. They danced. They feasted. And Marie sat close to her mother, and looked and looked at that kind, strong, forgiving face.

And all the children fell asleep and were waked up again, and Marie's father roared with laughter.

Thus Marie La Farge came back to the village of Beaulaire . . . and Jules.
