CHARLOTTE.

An incorporated village in the north-eastern part of Greece, near the mouth of the Genesee River. It is a U. S. port of entry in the Genesee district, and the lake port for Rochester, 7 miles above. It contains 8 churches, a light house, a large grain elevator, and a blast furnace. There are several hotels, those on the lake shore being open only during the summer months. A branch of the N.

Y. C. R. R. connects it with Rochester, and the E., W. & O. R. R. passes through the village. There is a daily steamer to Port Hope and Cobourg during the season of navigation. Stage to Rochester. American Express. Western Union Telegraph.

PITTSFORD DIRECTORY.

The town of Pittsford is situated south-east of the city of Rochester, its population in 1880 being 2,225. Its area is 14,378 acres; assessed valuation real estate, $1,524,124; personal property, $91,000. The village of Pittsford, located a little north of the centre of the township and about seven miles from Rochester, is the only village and contains the only post-office in the town. The village was incorporated in 1827 and now has about 1,000 population. The lines of the N. Y. C. & H. R. R. R., the N. Y., W. S. & B. R. R., and the Erie Canal pass through the village. In addition to the offices of the said railroads, the following companies have offices in the village, viz.: Western Union Telegraph Co., Baltimore & Ohio Telegraph Co., American Express Co., and National Express Co. The post-office bears the name of the town and village and is a Money Order office. Pittsford is a large produce market, especially for potatoes. The leading manufactures are flour and malt. The churches are six in number, viz.: Presbyterian, Episcopal, Baptist, German Lutheran, Methodist, Episcopal, and Roman Catholic. Societies: F. & A. M., G. A. R., I. O. G. T., and E. O. of M. A. The direct line of the N. Y. C. & H. R. R. passes through the north part of the township and "Penfield" station is therein located.
