Leavenworth - Kan-

Dear Mrs Coonley

Well - here I am yet- wholly unfit - to be seen on the cars- or anywhere else - so the "fixing up" & "the company" will all have to be postponed until some other time-- Had the thing come anywhere out of sight - I could have managed to hide it & so- but-right on the little cartilage between the two nostrils - it protrudes itself- I broke a little yesterday - but the core? doesn't loosen a bit yet- So I shall be bound here yet-the lord only knows how many days- and since-if I can get anywhere - I must be at our N.Y. State Con-Nov. 14,15,16- I may have to go strait through Chicago- It doesn't look now as if I would be fit to be seen-even a week hence - but we shall see I have been in bed most of the time with the plaguey thing-

The Doctor - homeopathic lady - says it is the only way nature could compel me to rest - well - the rest-won't do me any good - I fear- because fo the fretting that I put in with no do- nothingness generally-

I am sorrier than I can tell - but you & your dress maker have been hindered with me- but throw me over-board now - until I can behave better than all this!!

With love to your mother & your dear self - Don't think anything serious is the matter-only something awfully bothering & sickening.

Lovingly

Susan B. Anthony
