Dear Anna Dann,

I have puttin a good days work in the attick - and when you come home I'll show you where everything is - and that will be knowing more than for the(few years?-) since the attick was built - It is the first time I have really taken it in hand - This afternoon, a lady from Canada, Montreal - called with a Rochester woman and I gave her a big package to carry home with her - she was very much interested in the Council - talked of Lady Aberdeen very cordially - her name is Mrs. MacLeod Moore - The Herald - Montreal - tell Mrs. Harper to send her the Council Bulletin - when she gets one out - Sister Mary's old friend & scholar - Jennie Giolding - is spending the day her - but I have worked - yesterday and haven't come down to day - so you see I am getting interested in the attick.

Well, Winifred thinks you have a pretty escort all round - it was nice of Mr. Cooley to go on board a big liner with you - what sights you saw - you must get the time to write it all up just once - for all to read - not just for one - the one Nellie thinks you were crying because you were leaving - "I am sure it wasn't for me" she said - and I don't think it was for Charlotte - nor for you or Miss Mary or Miss Heath" she said - then she laughed - Well do your duty - and stay to the end of the allotted time - and then come home again - We shall be glad enough to see you - I know you are sensible & will do all that lies in you to make the most & best of your time - both for Mrs. Harper & yourself -- You'll never be sorry you patiently & faithfully carried out the plan assigned you - - I am sorry enough for Mrs. Winifred - I hope she is better - she will need to be in good trim for Grand Rapids - the time will come before she dreams -

Lovingly yours,
Susan B. Anthony
