My dear friends,

Your delightful and toothsome remembrance came as a great surprise to us, and we are all so grateful to you. It is a gift in which all the family can share and so the household joins me thanking you and praising your skill as a cook.

I cannot tell you how pleased I was to get it. Not at having the cake so much as to know you cared to make and send it to me. For you must be very busy in your new home, with all the new and added work.

Miss Anthony and I were sorry to miss you the day I called, but perhaps I may have a chance to see you in your new home when I go to Rochester in Feb.

Miss Mary will no doubt feel relieved at having the house all to themselves but they will no doubt feel lonely many times.

I am sure you will do all you can to cheer them up by running in often.

With thanks from us all and love from myself to you both and with an earnest prayer that the new year may be not only the happiest but the best of your lives so far.

I am sincerely yours,
Anna H. Shaw
