Dugan

Christopher Dugan (H. 119) an Irishman & former Sergeant in the British Army received the Grant of Abney Allan & had a farm on Indian Land at Dugan's Creek betw. Scotts Hill & Casawapug. It was sold in 1790 to Samuel Street (Sr) of Niagara Canada Co., who moved upon it or worked it for a season
I suppose following that year; & Jeremiah Olmsted his brother-in-law, from Fairfield Conn came & occupied it. Mr Street had stocked it largely with cattle some & sheep, horses &c.
of this family & their hired help ten died in one season of Gennessee Fever, one of whom was Sam Olmsted

Abney Allan purchased in 1789 a part of his grant mill at the Gennessee Rapids on the 100 A. lot, for use for dwelling purposes; & in the Spring of 1790 was living in it with his wives Suskey & Lucy. It is said he moved in some time in the fall either before or after selling to the Schaeffers [died date Nov 23, 1789 Ried Mich 29, 1794 out C L 2 p 178 acted Nov 17, 1793] & that Mr & Mrs Dugan lived that winter with the Schaeffers on the Allan farm at Allan's Creek. This is probably

Dugan

True as Firm says Sheffers Cooling was done by Mrs Dugan.

That lady was well educated in New Jersey, her native state & that of her brother, Somerset Co.
she had been an instructor of children them in a wealthy private family - & taught school at Avon after coming to the Genesee County. It is believed she was the pioneer or first school teacher in all the state West of Newtown & Bronsiga Indian Town where the French Priests had Indian Schools earlier by one hundred years. But she taught principally white children except the daughters of her brother & a few Indian boys $\times \times \times$ Ebenezer Allan $\times \times$ lived in the first mill until the Spring of 1792 as I suppose. He then put Christopher Dugan \times in the charge of the mills & went to

Dugan

New York & sold the property arranging that Dugan remain in charge and he did so remain & so on

Dugan lived in the old Allan Grist Mill until the Spring of 1798 & ran it & the Saw Mill for Char.
Williamson. Then he removed to Canada & Coll Wm. placed Col Josiah Tusk in charge.

Mr Dugan was mild & amiable & Somewhat accomplished. Form 375.
