At the meeting in celebration of its sixtieth anniversary the Scottsville Literary Society was called upon to chronicle the sad event which had occurred since its last gathering, that of the death of Mr. Eugene Thomas Swain.

Upon an accepted motion it was agreed that a committee of three be appointed to draft resolutions of sympathy, a copy to be forwarded to his sorrowing family, another to be recorded in the minutes of the society.

Whereas it has pleased the Father of us all to call from our midst our esteemed, and, for many years, active and interested member, Mr. Eugene Thomas Swain, this society deeply appreciative of his cooperation during his life time and feeling the loss which it has sustained is -

Resolved to pay tribute to the memory of one who as a citizen of our town and member of our society stood forth in active participation in all that pertained to his community's welfare, and as a man so well lived that he was ever ready to obey the Divine summons and, too, is it

Resolved to extend to his family sincere expressions of sympathy in this a universal bereavement.

Scottsville, his home town for so many years and Warsaw his later home united with a host of friends in paying tribute to his memory and we, as members of the Scottsville Literary Society, ask that you accept our tribute and derive some little consolation in our sympathy.

of Thomas Eugene
Swain, who died

Dec-10-1931.

The Committee appointed at the meeting of the Scottsville Literary Society held on February 20th, 1926, to present a memorial upon the decease of our esteemed member, Rear Admiral Franklin Hanford, present the following resolutions:

RESOLVED, that in the passing away of Rear-Admiral Franklin Hanford, U.S.N., (Retired), the home, the community and The Literary Society have lost one of its most valued and efficient members. One to whose active and intelligent efforts the society is greatly indebted.

Due to his interest in the welfare of the society the first meeting of the season was held at his home for many years.

Through his instrumentality, papers of local historical interest to the society, written some by himself and some by members, were published and left on file and some were sold at a nominal cost to members wishing to buy.

The yearly programs were printed and distributed by him to the members as a gift. In all that pertained to the welfare of the community in which he lived he took an active and useful part.

RESOLVED, that we desire to place on the records of our society this testimonial of our appreciation of Rear-Admiral Franklin Hanford and express to his family our sincere sympathy.
