ARTICLES OF FAITH.

Having, through the grace of Christ, given up ourselves to the Lord to serve Him with supreme devotion, and to one another in a common faith and in mutual love, we deem it proper to make a declaration of our faith, being assured that as with the heart man believeth unto righteousness, so with the mouth confession is made unto salvation; for which salvation we adore and praise the triune God forever and ever.

I. THE SCRIPTURES.

We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testament are the infallible word of God, inspired by his Spirit, and contain our only and sufficient rule of faith and practice.

II. Sam., xxiii., 2; Acts, i., 16; iii., 21; II. Tim., iii., 16; II. Pet., i., 19, 20, 21; Luke, xxiv., 44; II. Tim., iii., 15.

II. THE BEING OF GOD.

We believe in one God, who is a Spirit, self-existent, immutable, eternal, infinite in wisdom and power, in holiness and love; the Creator, Upholder and absolute Ruler of the Universe.

Deut., vi., 4; John, iv., 24; Ex., iii., 14; Ps., cii., 25-27; xc., 2; Job, ix., 4; Lev., xxi., 8; I. John, iv., 8; Gen., i., 1; Ps. lxxxiii., 18.

III. THE TRINITY.

We believe that God has revealed Himself in the Scriptures in three subsistences, or modes of existence; that each of these is presented to us as a divine person, to be distinctly recognized and adored; yet that they are the same in essence, and are one God.

Matt., xxviii., 19; Heb., i., 3; John, i., 1; xxvii., 22; xiv., 16.

IV. THE FALL.

We believe that God created man holy and upright; that man by his disobedience fell from his state of rectitude, involving the entire race in a total estrangement from God, and in the curse of his violated law; and that the penalty denounced upon his transgression embraced both physical and eternal death.

Gen., i., 27, 31; iii., 6; Eccl., vii., 29; Rom., v., 12; iii., 10-18; Eph., ii., 1-3; Gal., iii., 10, 11; Gen., iii., 3.

V. THE PURPOSE OF REDEMPTION.

We believe that God, immediately after the Fall, announced a gracious purpose toward man; and that in the fulness of time He sent forth his Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, to accomplish his work of salvation, predestined from eternity.

Gen., iii., 15; Gal., iv., 4.

VI. THE WORK OF CHRIST.

We believe that Jesus Christ is the pre-existent and eternal Son of God; that He took upon him our nature in being born of a woman, perfectly obeyed the law, died on the cross for our offences and rose for our justification, and ascended to the right hand of God, where He reigns as universal King, and ever lives as our High-priest, to intercede for and save all who come to God through Him.

John, i., 1; xviii., 14; viii., 58; Heb., i., 8; ii., 14; John, vii., 46; Rom., iv., 25; Acts, i., 9; Heb., i., 3; John, iii., 16; Heb., vii., 25; Matt., xxviii., 19.

VII. THE GOOD NEWS.

We believe that salvation is, by the command of Christ, proffered freely to all men, and that the acceptance of it by faith in his name is the privilege and the immediate and unconditional duty of all.

Isa., lv., 1; I. Tim., ii., 4-6; Rev., xxii., 17; Rom., xvi., 26; Mark, i., 15; Phil., ii., 7-9.

VIII. THE METHOD OF SALVATION.

We believe that the way of salvation is through justification of the sinner from all his offences; that justification is a free gift, prompted by the love of God, and bestowed consistently with his justice, solely on account of the vicarious and propitiatory obedience and death of Jesus Christ; and that it is always accompanied with a divine renewing of the heart.

Rom., iii., 28; iv., 6; v., 16-19; iii., 25; Eph., i., 7; Col., ii., 13; I. John, i., 7-9.

IX. THE HOLY SPIRIT.

We believe that the Holy Spirit, the third person in the Blessed Trinity, sent forth by the Father and the glorified Son, is the grand agent in carrying forward the work of salvation in the hearts of men.

John, xiv., 26; xv., 26; xx., 22; Acts, ii., 17, 33; Eph., i., 13; iv., 30.

X. SOVEREIGNTY OF GOD IN SALVATION.

We believe that God from eternity chose his people in Christ Jesus, and ordained them to eternal life; that all so elected are regenerated by the Holy Spirit; that by his indwelling influence they are sanctified, and will, through the grace of Christ, infallibly be brought to glory.

Eph., i., 4, 5; II. Tim., i., 9; John, iii., 3; Eph., ii., 1; I. Cor., iii., 16; Rom., viii., 29, 30; Phil., i., 6.

XI. THE SECOND COMING OF CHRIST.

We believe that when all the elect are gathered in, and his plans of Grace consummated, Christ will appear again in the glory of his Father, and with the holy angels; will raise the dead, and will judge in righteousness the whole race of mankind; that the wicked will go away into everlasting punishment, and the righteous into life eternal.

Acts, i., 11; Rev., i., 7; Heb., ix., 28; I. Thess., iv., 13, 18; Acts, xxiv., 15; I. Cor., xv., 12-59; Dan., xii., 2; John, v., 28, 29; vi., 40; xi., 25, 26; Matt., xiii., 49; Matt., xiii., 37-43; xxiv., 30, 31; xxv., 31-46; Rev., xxii., 11; II. Cor., v., 10; II. Pet., ii., 9.

XII. THE VISIBLE CHURCH.

We believe that a Christian Church is a body of baptized believers in Christ, organized on the principles of the New Testament, and permanently associated for mutual edification and the diffusion of the gospel; and that its regular officers are Bishops or Elders, and Deacons; the former charged more especially with the spiritual, the latter with the temporal interests of the church.

I. Cor., i., 2; Acts, ii., 41, 42, 47; Phil., i., 1; Acts, xiv., 23; xv., 22; I. Tim., iii.; Tit., i.

XIII. THE ORDINANCES.

We believe that to be baptized into the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit is the divinely appointed duty of every believer in Christ, and is appropriate for believers only; that baptism is by the immersion of the body in water, and is an indispensable prerequisite to a church membership and to participation in the Lord's Supper; and that, by command of Christ, the Lord's Supper is to be regularly celebrated in the church, in commemoration of his dying love, until his second coming.

Matt., xxviii., 19, 20; I. Cor. xi., 23, 26; Acts, ii., 41, 42; ix., 18, 26; Mark, xvi., 16; Acts, viii., 12, 36, 37; xvi., 31-34; xviii., 8; Matt., iii., 6-16; John, iii., 23; Rom., vi., 4; Col., ii., 12.

XIV. CHURCH GOVERNMENT.

We believe that it is the right and duty of each church to elect and, when necessary, depose its officers; to exclude such members as walk disorderly; and to manage independently its own affairs, subject only to the authority of Christ, its sole and supreme Lawgiver and Head.

Acts, i., 15-16; vi., 1-8; II. Thess., iii., 6; Eph., i., 22.

XV. THE RULE OF DISCIPLINE.

We believe that the rule of discipline, as laid down in the 18th chapter of Matthew, is to be followed in all cases to which it is applicable; and that in general the entire discipline of the church should be regulated by the two-fold principle of fidelity to the truth, and love towards an erring brother.

Matt., xviii., 15-17; I, Cor., v.; II. Thess., iii., 6; II. Cor.; ii., 5-11.

XVI. THE CHRISTIAN SABBATH.

We believe that the first day of the week, or the Lord's day, is the Christian Sabbath; and is to be joyfully hallowed as a day of sacred rest, by abstinence from secular labor and worldly recreations, by the public worship of God in the sanctuary, and by special endeavors to promote religion in the heart, and to extend the kingdom of God.

Acts, xx., 7; Gen., ii., 3; Col., ii., 16, 17; Mark, ii., 27; John, xx., 19; I. Cor., xvi., 2; Ex., xx., 8; Rev., i., 10; Ps., cxviii., 24; Isa., lviii., 13, 14; lvi., 2-8; Ps., cxviii., 15; Heb., x., 24, 25; Acts, xi., 26; xiii., 44; Lev., xix., 30; Ezek., xlvi., 3; Luke., iv., 16; Acts, xvii., 2, 3; Heb., iv., 3-11.

XVII. DUTIES OF CHRISTIANS.

We believe that every member of the church should observe the worship of God in public, in the household, and in the closet; should be scrupulously faithful in regarding all the appointments, and in bearing his proper share of the burdens of the church; should conscientiously contribute, according to his pecuniary ability, for the extension of the Gospel and the relief of the wretched; that in all his intercourse with his brethren and the world, he should seek in every particular to exemplify the spirit of Christ, and thus glorify God in his body and spirit which are His.

RULES.

(Adopted by the Church Wednesday Evening, December 15, 1880.)

1. Any member of this church who may leave the city, intending to be absent one year, shall take a "Letter of Commendation," certifying to his or her relation to us.

2. Any member who may remove from the city for permanent residence, shall, save in exceptional cases, take a "Letter of Dismission."

3. Any member who may be absent from the city for a period over two years shall report annually by a friend or by letter his or her spiritual condition, and send a contribution for the support of the church, unless contributing elsewhere. In case of failure, a vote of exclusion may be passed by the church for neglect of covenant obligations.

4. The habitual attendance of any member of this church upon the worship of any other church in the city or vicinity for the term of one year, without having given previous notice of intention to this church through the Pastor, will be held and construed by this church as a ground for discipline.

5. Any member signifying their intention of uniting with a church of another faith and order may be granted a letter certifying to their christian character, and the hand of church fellowship be withdrawn.

6. Any member uniting with a church of another faith and order without notifying this church, shall be excluded.

7. Letters of Dismission from other churches shall be submitted to the Prudential Committee before presentation to the church.

8. Letters of Dismission from this church shall be asked for through the Prudential Committee. No such letters shall be granted to any person whose pecuniary dues to the church have not been fully paid or remitted for good cause.

9. Any member desiring to make a complaint against the church or any member of it, must first submit the same to the Prudential Committee, in order that the Committee may see to it that the prescribed steps shall be taken.

COVENANT.

[The Covenant unfolds in part and so far as it goes, the baptismal vow; it imposes, therefore, no obligations other than those assumed in baptism.]

We whose names are underneath, having been baptized upon profession of faith, and feeling it our indispensable duty to hold up our light in the world, do solemnly covenant together before God that we will meet together for His worship and ordinances, on the first day of the week, and likewise that we will attend all the stated appointments of this Church, so far as Divine Providence permits, and contribute to its pecuniary support according to our ability; and that we will extend a faithful watch over each other, according to the direction given by our Lord in the 18th chapter of Matthew, and in other parts of the New Testament, taking his Holy Word for the rule of our conduct, whether public or private.

And we agree to use our influence, in every relation and station in life, to promote true piety at home and abroad; giving up ourselves, and all that we have and are, to the service of God, without any known reserve; humbly trusting in the merits of Christ alone for the pardon of all our sins, and in the indwelling of the sanctifying influences of his Holy Spirit, to enable us to persevere in holiness and righteousness, unto the coming of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ; to whom be the glory and power everlasting. Amen.
