To the Soldiers, Sailors and
Marines of Rochester :

To you loyal sons of Rochester, who departed in honor and return in glory, I extend, on behalf of the people of the city, a sincere and loving greeting. Your faithful service to your country and to humanity in the great crisis just passed, has endeared you to us all. The service you have rendered civilization has won for you the respect and admiration of the world.

For your safe return to Rochester I am grateful to God. With sorrow, but with steadfast reliance on the wisdom of Divine Providence I pray for those who have made the Supreme Sacrifice. With the extended arms of affection I welcome you home.

Sincerely yours,

Frederic H. Edgerton

Mayor

1 THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous
fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

2 THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

3 LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Chorus

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys; that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while; so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are
stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift
sword;
His truth is marching on.

Chorus

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;
His day is marching on.

WHEN THE GREAT RED DAWN IS SHINING

B Flat

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

SONGS

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home.

8 LONG BOY

He was just a long, lean country gink
From 'way out West where th' hop-toads wink;
He was six feet two in his stockin' feet,
An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

9 SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

K-K-KATY

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines, over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

11 OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning.
Oh, boy! the minute the battle is over
Oh, boy! the minute the foe is dead
I'll put my uniform away and move to Philadelphia
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God! To Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

BANQUET

in honor of

Soldiers, Sailors and Marines

of Rochester

Who Served in the War

Chamber of Commerce

Wednesday, January twenty-ninth

Nineteen hundred and nineteen

Given by the People of the City

G r e e t i n g

To the Soldiers, Sailors and
Marines of Rochester :

To you loyal sons of Rochester, who departed in honor and return in glory, I extend, on behalf of the people of the city, a sincere and loving greeting. Your faithful service to your country and to humanity in the great crisis just passed, has endeared you to us all. The service you have rendered civilization has won for you the respect and admiration of the world.

For your safe return to Rochester I am grateful to God. With sorrow, but with steadfast reliance on the wisdom of Divine Providence I pray for those who have made the Supreme Sacrifice. With the extended arms of affection I welcome you home.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Edgerton
Mayor

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous
fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Chorus

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys; that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while; so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are
stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift
sword;
His truth is marching on.

Chorus

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;
His day is marching on.

WHEN THE GREAT RED DAWN IS SHINING

B Flat

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

SONGS

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home.

8 LONG BOY

He was just a long, lean country gink
From 'way out West where th' hop-toads wink;
He was six feet two in his stockin' feet,
An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

9 SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

K-K-KATY

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines, over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

11 OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning.
Oh, boy! the minute the battle is over
Oh, boy! the minute the foe is dead
I'll put my uniform away and move to Philadelphia
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God! To Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

BANQUET

in honor of

Soldiers, Sailors and Marines

of Rochester

Who Served in the War

Chamber of Commerce

Thursday, February thirteenth

Nineteen hundred and nineteen

Given by the People of the City

G r e e t i n g

To the Soldiers, Sailors and
Marines of Rochester :

To you loyal sons of Rochester, who departed in honor and return in glory, I extend, on behalf of the people of the city, a sincere and loving greeting. Your faithful service to your country and to humanity in the great crisis just passed, has endeared you to us all. The service you have rendered civilization has won for you the respect and admiration of the world.

For your safe return to Rochester I am grateful to God. With sorrow, but with steadfast reliance on the wisdom of Divine Providence I pray for those who have made the Supreme Sacrifice. With the extended arms of affection I welcome you home.

Sincerely yours,

Frederic H. E. Gordon
Mayor

1 THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous
fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

3 LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Chorus

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile;
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys; that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while; so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.

Chorus

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;
His day is marching on.

WHEN THE GREAT RED DAWN IS SHINING

B Flat

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

SONGS

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home.

8 LONG BOY

He was just a long, lean country gink
From 'way out West where th' hop-toads wink;
He was six feet two in his stockin' feet,
An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

9 SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

10

K-K-KATY

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines, over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

11 OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning.
Oh, boy! the minute the battle is over
Oh, boy! the minute the foe is dead
I'll put my uniform away and move to Philadelphia
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God! To Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

Badgers + Cars.

Dear boys.

If you could read the hearts of these men who mingle with you, these men who are given the great privilege to represent the citizenship of Rochester, and who vie with each other for the honor of being at your tables, you would find there written a welcome that cannot be expressed by word of mine. None the less anxious to be here with you are these splendid women, who volunteer in numbers exceeding largely the requirements and who look forward with increasing interest for the next opportunity to serve you. With the pleasure of being permitted to join with us in expressing our great thanksgiving at your safe return, are these people of unusual ability to entertain, who come to us with eagerness to be of service. Each and every one is but the servant of the people, fortunate in having been selected to

to do this pleasant task. All these things must be convincing proof to you of the unrestrained gratefulness to God with which Rochester outstretches her loving arms to you men who have given us liberty and a lasting peace.

All honor to your heroic comrades who will never return to us. Their memory shall be hallowed and revered for all time. Let their sacrifice be the beginning of an understanding that shall make peace and prosperity rule the world forever more.

Mayor Edgerton gives you a message which expresses the heartfelt gratitude of a true and loyal friend. He watched you depart with tears and a breaking heart. He is very sorry that he cannot be here tonight to welcome you personally.

You will be guided thru the program by our beloved citizen Mr. Charles S. Owen whom I now have the honor to present to you, and we hope that you will thoroughly enjoy every moment of the evening.

Later

Rochester does not doubt your desire to remember this occasion, and does not feel that the presentation of a souvenir is necessary, but the mere fact of being the proud possessor of a token of esteem from your fellow citizens will make your sacrifices all the more ~~graciously~~ precious to you, and we feel sure will remind you of your further duty as a member of a community which looks to you to be the guiding spirits of the great reconstruction that is about to come to us.

With the love of the entire city and the best wishes for your future from every citizen I am honored by the privilege of presenting to each of you a medal, which carries with it a great message of honor nobly won.

BANQUET

in honor of

Soldiers, Sailors and Marines

of Rochester

Who Served in the War

Chamber of Commerce

Wednesday, February twenty-sixth

Nineteen hundred and nineteen

Given by the People of the City

Greeting

To the Soldiers, Sailors and
Marines of Rochester :

To you loyal sons of Rochester, who departed in honor and return in glory, I extend, on behalf of the people of the city, a sincere and loving greeting. Your faithful service to your country and to humanity in the great crisis just passed, has endeared you to us all. The service you have rendered civilization has won for you the respect and admiration of the world.

For your safe return to Rochester I am grateful to God. With sorrow, but with steadfast reliance on the wisdom of Divine Providence I pray for those who have made the Supreme Sacrifice. With the extended arms of affection I welcome you home.

Sincerely yours,

Frederic H. E. Gordon
Mayor

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous
fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Chorus

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile;
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys; that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while; so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.

Chorus

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;
His day is marching on.

WHEN THE GREAT RED DAWN IS SHINING

B Flat

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

SONGS

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home.

8 LONG BOY

He was just a long, lean country gink
From 'way out West where th' hop-toads wink;
He was six feet two in his stockin' feet,
An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

9 SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

10

K-K-KATY

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines, over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

11 OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning.
Oh, boy! the minute the battle is over
Oh, boy! the minute the foe is dead
I'll put my uniform away and move to Philadelphia
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God! To Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

BANQUET

in honor of

Soldiers, Sailors and Marines

of Rochester

Who Served in the War

Chamber of Commerce

Thursday, March Sixth

Nineteen hundred and nineteen

Given by the People of the City

G r e e t i n g

To the Soldiers, Sailors and
Marines of Rochester :

To you loyal sons of Rochester, who departed in honor and return in glory, I extend, on behalf of the people of the city, a sincere and loving greeting. Your faithful service to your country and to humanity in the great crisis just passed, has endeared you to us all. The service you have rendered civilization has won for you the respect and admiration of the world.

For your safe return to Rochester I am grateful to God. With sorrow, but with steadfast reliance on the wisdom of Divine Providence I pray for those who have made the Supreme Sacrifice. With the extended arms of affection I welcome you home.

Sincerely yours,

William H. E. Gordon

SONGS

1 THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous
fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

3 LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters--
It's the last, long mile.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Chorus

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile;
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys; that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while; so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are
stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift
sword;
His truth is marching on.

Chorus

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;
His day is marching on.

WHEN THE GREAT RED DAWN IS SHINING

B Flat

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

SONGS

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home.

8 LONG BOY

He was just a long, lean country gink
From 'way out West where th' hop-toads wink;
He was six feet two in his stockin' feet,
An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

9 SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

10

K-K-KATY

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines, over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

11 OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning.
Oh, boy! the minute the battle is over
Oh, boy! the minute the foe is dead
I'll put my uniform away and move to Philadelphia
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God! To Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

BANQUET

in honor of

Soldiers, Sailors and Marines

of Rochester

Who Served in the War

Chamber of Commerce

Thursday, March Thirteenth

Nineteen hundred and nineteen

Given by the People of the City

G r e e t i n g

To the Soldiers, Sailors and
Marines of Rochester :

To you loyal sons of Rochester, who departed in honor and return in glory, I extend, on behalf of the people of the city, a sincere and loving greeting. Your faithful service to your country and to humanity in the great crisis just passed, has endeared you to us all. The service you have rendered civilization has won for you the respect and admiration of the world.

For your safe return to Rochester I am grateful to God. With sorrow, but with steadfast reliance on the wisdom of Divine Providence I pray for those who have made the Supreme Sacrifice. With the extended arms of affection I welcome you home.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Edgerton
Mayor

SONGS

1 THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous
fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

3 LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters --
It's the last, long mile.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Chorus

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys; that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while; so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift sword;
His truth is marching on.

Chorus

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;
His day is marching on.

B Flat

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

SONGS

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home.

8 LONG BOY

He was just a long, lean country gink
From 'way out West where th' hop-toads wink;
He was six feet two in his stockin' feet,
An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

9 SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

10

K-K-KATY

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines, over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

11 OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning.
Oh, boy! the minute the battle is over
Oh, boy! the minute the foe is dead
I'll put my uniform away and move to Philadelphia
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God! To Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

BANQUET

in honor of

Soldiers, Sailors and Marines

of Rochester

Who Served in the War

Chamber of Commerce

Thursday, March Twentieth

Nineteen hundred and nineteen

Given by the People of the City

G r e e t i n g

To the Soldiers, Sailors and
Marines of Rochester :

To you loyal sons of Rochester, who departed in honor and return in glory, I extend, on behalf of the people of the city, a sincere and loving greeting. Your faithful service to your country and to humanity in the great crisis just passed, has endeared you to us all. The service you have rendered civilization has won for you the respect and admiration of the world.

For your safe return to Rochester I am grateful to God. With sorrow, but with steadfast reliance on the wisdom of Divine Providence I pray for those who have made the Supreme Sacrifice. With the extended arms of affection I welcome you home.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Engdine
Mayor

SONGS

1 THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous
fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

2 THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

3 LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Chorus

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile;
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys; that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while; so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are
stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift
sword;
His truth is marching on.

Chorus

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;
His day is marching on.

6 WHEN THE GREAT RED DAWN IS SHINING

B Flat

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

SONGS

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home.

8 LONG BOY

He was just a long, lean country gink
From 'way out West where th' hop-toads wink;
He was six feet two in his stockin' feet,
An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

9 SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

10

K-K-KATY

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines, over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

11 OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning.
Oh, boy! the minute the battle is over
Oh, boy! the minute the foe is dead
I'll put my uniform away and move to Philadelphia
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God! To Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

BANQUET

in honor of

Soldiers, Sailors and Marines

of Rochester

Who Served in the War

Chamber of Commerce

Thursday, April Tenth

Nineteen hundred and nineteen

Given by the People of the City

G r e e t i n g

To the Soldiers, Sailors and
Marines of Rochester:

To you loyal sons of Rochester, who departed in honor and return in glory, I extend, on behalf of the people of the city, a sincere and loving greeting. Your faithful service to your country and to humanity in the great crisis just passed, has endeared you to us all. The service you have rendered civilization has won for you the respect and admiration of the world.

For your safe return to Rochester I am grateful to God. With sorrow, but with steadfast reliance on the wisdom of Divine Providence I pray for those who have made the Supreme Sacrifice. With the extended arms of affection I welcome you home.

Sincerely yours,

Frederic H. Egerton

1 THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous
fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

2 THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

3 LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Chorus

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile;
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys; that's the style.

It never was worth while; so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile.

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home.

8 LONG BOY

He was just a long, lean country gink
From 'way out West where th' hop-toads wink;
He was six feet two in his stockin' feet,
An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

9 SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines, over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

11 OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning.
Oh, boy! the minute the battle is over
Oh, boy! the minute the foe is dead
I'll put my uniform away and move to Philadelphia
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Given by the People of the City

G r e e t i n g

To the Soldiers, Sailors and
Marines of Rochester :

To you loyal sons of Rochester, who departed in honor and return in glory, I extend, on behalf of the people of the city, a sincere and loving greeting. Your faithful service to your country and to humanity in the great crisis just passed, has endeared you to us all. The service you have rendered civilization has won for you the respect and admiration of the world.

For your safe return to Rochester I am grateful to God. With sorrow, but with steadfast reliance on the wisdom of Divine Providence, I pray for those who have made the Supreme Sacrifice. With the extended arms of affection I welcome you home.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Edgerton
Mayor

2 THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

3 LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

1 THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous

O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

2 THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

3 LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

Chorus

Glory, glory, hallelujah!

6 WHEN THE GREAT RED DAWN IS SHINING

B Flat

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home.

8 LONG BOY

He was just a long, lean country gink
From 'way out West where th' hop-toads wink;
He was six feet two in his stockin' feet,
An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

9 SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

K-K-KATY

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines, over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

11 OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning.
Oh, boy! the minute the battle is over
Oh, boy! the minute the foe is dead
I'll put my uniform away and move to Philadelphia
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God! To Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys; that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while; so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,

9 SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

K-K-KATY

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines, over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

11 OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning.
Oh, boy! the minute the battle is over
Oh, boy! the minute the foe is dead
I'll put my uniform away and move to Philadelphia
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God! To Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

Given by the People of the City

G r e e t i n g

To the Soldiers, Sailors and
Marines of Rochester :

To you loyal sons of Rochester, who departed in honor and return in glory, I extend, on behalf of the people of the city, a sincere and loving greeting. Your faithful service to your country and to humanity in the great crisis just passed, has endeared you to us all. The service you have rendered civilization has won for you the respect and admiration of the world.

For your safe return to Rochester I am grateful to God. With sorrow, but with steadfast reliance on the wisdom of Divine Providence I pray for those who have made the Supreme Sacrifice. With the extended arms of affection I welcome you home.

Sincerely yours,

Frederic H. Egerton
Mayor

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!

And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.

WHEN THE GREAT RED DAWN IS SHINING

B Flat

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

SONGS

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home

8 LONG BOY

He was just a long, lean country gink
From 'way out West where th' hop-toads wink;
He was six feet two in his stockin' feet,
An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

9 SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily

Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home

An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,

You've got to get up, you've got to get up,

Given by the People of the City

G r e e t i n g

To the Soldiers, Sailors and
Marines of Rochester :

To you loyal sons of Rochester, who departed in honor and return in glory, I extend, on behalf of the people of the city, a sincere and loving greeting. Your faithful service to your country and to humanity in the great crisis just passed, has endeared you to us all. The service you have rendered civilization has won for you the respect and admiration of the world.

For your safe return to Rochester I am grateful to God. With sorrow, but with steadfast reliance on the wisdom of Divine Providence I pray for those who have made the Supreme Sacrifice. With the extended arms of affection I welcome you home.

1 THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh! say can you see by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous
fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there!
Oh! say, does the star spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

2 THERE'S A LONG, LONG TRAIL

Key G

Nights are growing very lonely,
Days are very long;
I'm a-growing weary only
List'ning for your song.
Old remembrances are thronging
Thro' my memory,
Till it seems the world is full of dreams,
Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

3 LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Chorus

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile;
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys; that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while; so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile.

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are
stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift
sword;
His truth is marching on.

Chorus

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;
His day is marching on.

WHEN THE GREAT RED DAWN IS SHINING

B Flat

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!

When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll got you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

Just to call you back to me.

Chorus

There's a long, long trail a-winding
Into the land of my dreams,
Where the nightingales are singing
And a white moon beams;
There's a long, long night of waiting
Until my dreams all come true,
Till the day when I'll be going down
That long, long trail with you.

3 LAST LONG MILE

Key G

Chorus

Oh, it's not the pack that you carry on your back,
Nor the rifle on your shoulder,
Nor the five-inch crust of khaki-color'd dust
That makes you feel your limbs are growing older.
And it's not the hike on the hard turnpike
That wipes away your smile,
Nor the socks of sister's that raise the blooming blisters—
It's the last, long mile.

PACK UP YOUR TROUBLES

Chorus

Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,
And smile, smile, smile;
While you've a lucifer to light your fag,
Smile, boys; that's the style.
What's the use of worrying?
It never was worth while; so
Pack up your troubles in your old kit-bag,

BATTLE HYMN OF THE REPUBLIC

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord;
He is tramping out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are
stored;
He hath loosed the fateful lightning of His terrible swift
sword;
His truth is marching on.

Chorus

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory, glory, hallelujah!
His truth is marching on.

I have seen Him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded Him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read His righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps;
His day is marching on.

6 WHEN THE GREAT RED DAWN IS SHINING

B Flat

Chorus

When the great red dawn is shining,
When the waiting hours are past,
When the tears of night are ended,
And I see the day at last;
I shall come down the road of sunshine
To a heart that is fond and true,
When the great red dawn is shining,
Back to home, back to love, and you.

7 WHEN JOHNNY COMES MARCHING HOME

G Minor

When Johnny comes marching home again, hurrah, hurrah!
We'll give him a hearty welcome then, hurrah, hurrah!
The men will cheer, and the boys will shout,
And the ladies they will all turn out,
And we'll all feel gay, when Johnny comes marching home

LONG BOY

He was just a long, lean country gink
From 'way out West where th' hop-toads wink;
He was six feet two in his stockin' feet,
An' kept gettin' thinner th' more he'd eat.
But he was as brave as he was thin,
When th' war broke out he got right in.
Unhitched his plow, put th' mule away,
Then th' old folks heard him say:

Chorus

Good-by, Maw! Good-by, Paw!
Good-by, Mule, with yer old hee-haw.
I may not know what th' war's about,
But, you bet, by gosh! I'll soon find out.
An', O my sweetheart, don't you fear;
I'll bring you a king for a souvenir;
I'll get you a Turk an' a Kaiser, too,
An' that's about all one feller could do!

SMILES

There are smiles that make us happy,
There are smiles that make us blue,
There are smiles that steal away the teardrops,
As the sunbeams steal away the dew.
There are smiles that have a tender meaning,
That the eyes of love alone may see,
And the smiles that fill my life with sunshine,
Are the smiles that you give to me.

K-K-KATY

K-K-K-Katy, beautiful Katy,
You're the only g-g-g-girl that I adore;
When the m-m-m-moon shines, over the cow-shed,
I'll be waiting at the k-k-k-kitchen door.

11 OH! HOW I HATE TO GET UP IN THE MORNING

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning!
Some day I'm going to murder the bugler,
Some day they're going to find him dead.
I'll amputate his reveille and step upon it heavily
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

Oh! how I hate to get up in the morning,
Oh! how I love to remain in bed.
For the hardest blow of all is to hear the bugle call
You've got to get up, you've got to get up,
You've got to get up this morning.
Oh, boy! the minute the battle is over
Oh, boy! the minute the foe is dead
I'll put my uniform away and move to Philadelphia
And spend the rest of my life in bed.

AMERICA

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the Pilgrim's pride,
From ev'ry mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God! To Thee,
Author of Liberty,
To Thee we sing:
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light,
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.
