Once Upon a Frog...

Story by Fonda

Mother of Young Creators

There lived a frog with a magical gift, hearts appeared whenever he said "Ribbit".

Other frogs thought his love language was quite strange.
But his gift made them feel well when they were in pain.

Ponds threw huge parties whenever he came,
for he was a frog that loved with nothing to gain.

For years, the frog roamed from pond to pond,
gifting love to whomever he tumbled upon.

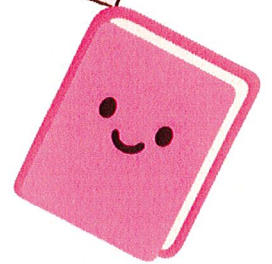

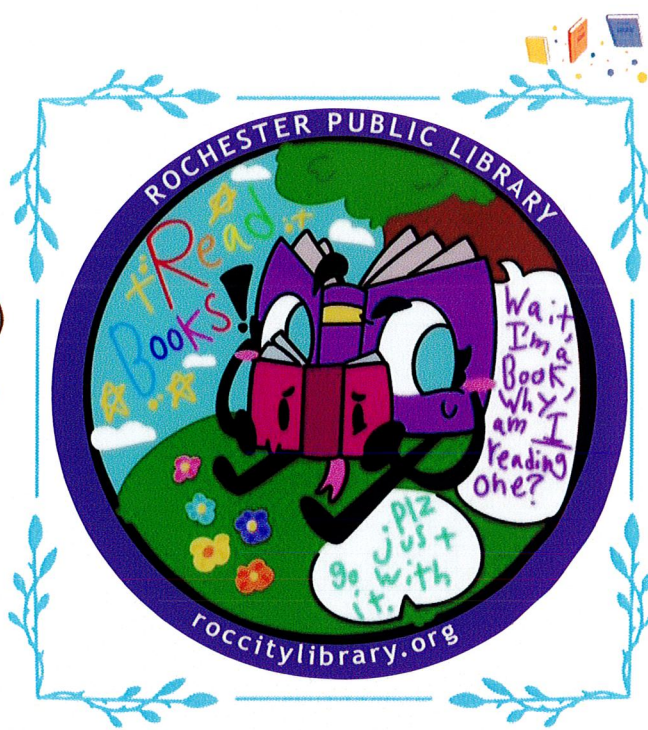

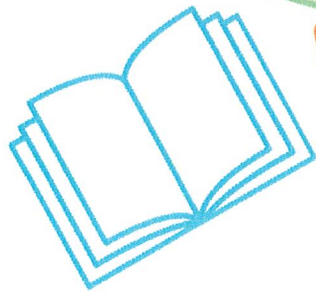

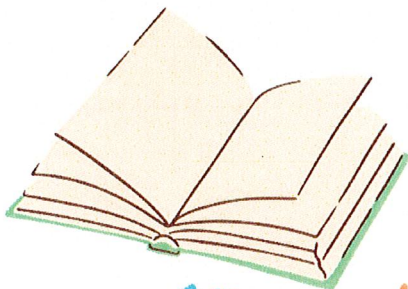

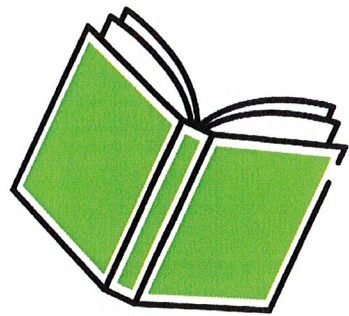

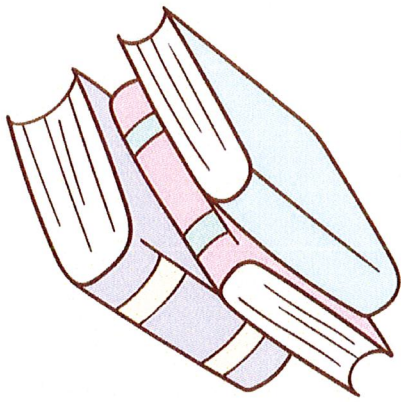

The frog's hops stopped at a pond with only one lily pad.
On it sat one frog, she was alone but not sad.

This frog could only sing, not a word she could speak.
Maybe a hum, but not even a moo or a squeak.

she sang in a language that only he knew,
And together they travelled to make other hearts anew.

For years, the frogs roamed from pond to pond,
gifting love to whomever they tumbled upon.

Why Am I a Book?

Story by Ayla

Age 7 Grade 2

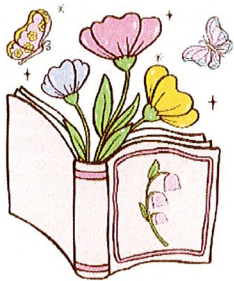

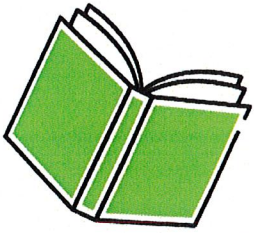

"Wait! I'm a book. Why am I reading one?" said the book named Devin.

Devin looked through his pages.

They were blank.

The book he was reading had words on its pages.

Devin goes to the library to find out what is the purpose of books.

He read many books, piles of books.

Devin looks through his pages again.

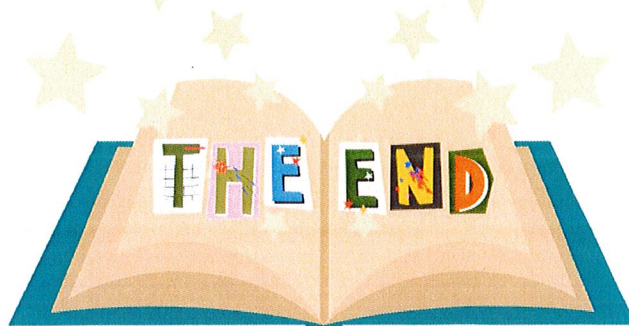

Now, there are words on his pages!

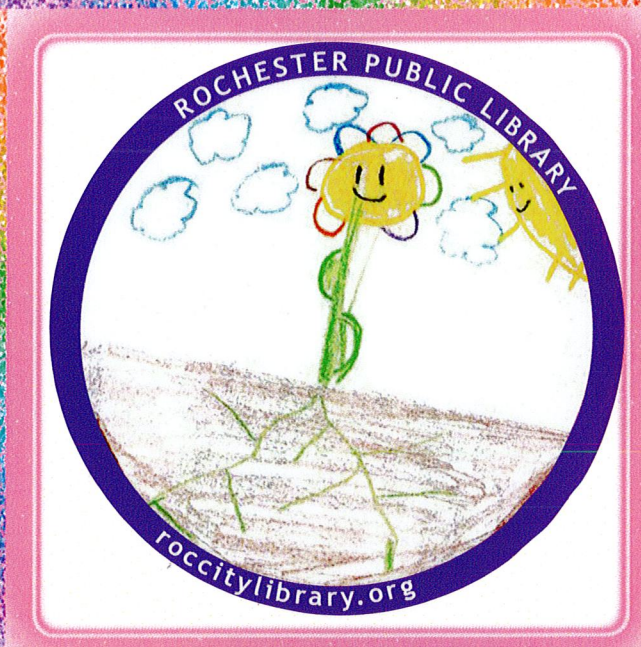

Devin knows the purpose of him being a book.

Devin went in his community
and let other books read him.

Devin helps other books find their purpose.

Flower Power

Story by Amirah

Age 11 Grade 7

You probably think this flower is beautiful but dull. You may even think it's colorless and is useless. But, this is a special flower. The most special flower in Flower City.

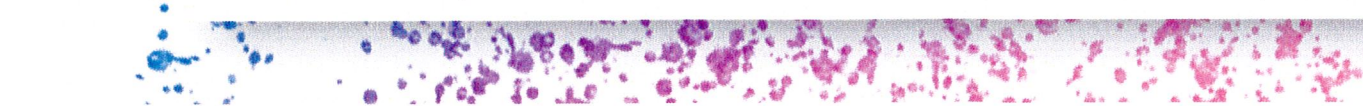

The flower was born with rainbow petals and rose gold leaves. The flower's parents named her Flower Power.

All the flowers in Flower City would talk about the flower all the time. "Flower Power is the most perfect flower", said a young blue flower. "Flower Power is the most talented flower", said an old purple flower.

One day Flower Power saw a dull, colorless flower. The flower was not rainbow, not purple, not even blue.

Flower Power went up to the flower and said "Hey, flower would you like some color?". "Of course" said the flower with a big smile on his face. Flower Power flipped her petals and a stream of rainbow glitter came out and splashed on the dull flower. The petals of the dull flower were now rainbow colored and so were all of the dull flowers in Flower City!

But then, Flower Power's colors went away, she was now the only dull flower in Flower City. However, the flowers still called her the most colorful flower in Flower City because her kindness still made her unique.
