THE ALMA MATER

Words by Bertha S. Poole,

Music by J. Guernsey Curtiss.

Sweet be thy memory,
High School of ours;
Fair be thy destiny,
Fadeless thy flowers;
Hearts that have loved thee
Have won in life's fight
Names that we honor
Thy standard holds bright.

Our Alma Mater dear,
To thee we sing;
May all thy future years,
New honors bring;
May friends thy banner raise
Thy foes grow less,
All love and praise
To our old E. H. S.

FOREWORD

In issuing this annual souvenir, it would seem appropo at this time to sum up the situation.

Four years ago when this publication first saw the light as an annual souvenir, Old Orient was experiencing one of her banner years. The team won the championship, the glee club was one of the best and the spirit throughout the school was famed and regarded as a precedent. With the following year the establishment of a West High team robbed East High of her best men and it became necessary to form a team of green men. Things looked a little dark and the band wagon followers soon flocked to our sister school whose team was a wonder to behold. But the sons of Old Orient rallied around, we beat some of our opponents, gave West High heart failure on Thanksgiving day and then settled down to prophecy for the next season.

Last year the phenomenal spirit still remained. The team was beaten but once, by Syracuse, and at the annual game between East and West High the braves clearly outplayed their confident West High opponents and only hard luck prevented them from winning.

This year East High seems to have come into her own again. The team has not been beaten. The customary slump has been experienced and we still survive. It remains for the Thanksgiving game to decide the championship. To those whose unwavering loyalty during the "fearful moments" of the past three years sustained and strengthened us all and proved them to be real sons, can nothing be due but praise and admiration. Anyone can shout "hurray" for a winning team but it takes a man woven of the proper fiber to cheer on the losers. The latter has always been an Orient tradition and to that consequent "never say die" spirit is due the front rank position of East High to day. May she always be there. Placed there by earnest effort, clean tactics and sportsmanlike conduct.

Here's hoping for victory,

ARTHUR E. WILLIAMS, Editor.

Sullivan.

As a coach, George T. Sullivan is characterized for his skill, his square and fair methods and his gentlemanly conduct.

At the West High game last Thanksgiving the result of his coaching was especially evident and the clean slate of the team this year is a most convincing testimonial. Sully refuses to show the slightest favoritism but puts each man solely upon his merits. He shuns profanity and at the most critical moments has never been known to give way to temper or feeling. As a coach, an alumnus and a man, Sully is a credit to his Alma Mater.

Bradstreet.

The opening of the fall term found the managerial end of the foot ball season in a bad way. The intended incumbent suddenly decided not to return to school and it remained for the council to select a new manager. There was no schedule and the chances for a good one at so late a date were anything but entertaining. Realizing this the council elected Willis Bradstreet. "Braddy" went ahead and by almost superhuman effort has not only presented a good schedule but generously equipped the team, (a point not always emphasized by some managers), and those who are fortunate enough to know him look forward to a big balance in the treasury at the end of the season.

Grant.

Francis Grant, captain of the team, is a quiet fellow who by his playing and example well deserves his position. For the past three years, Grant has never been out of the game for one minute of one half. Such a record speaks for itself. Grants playing has ever been phenomenal and he never slumps but at all times puts up a consistent game. He is a hard worker, a conscientious captain and a good fellow. We are proud of him.

To Our Cheer Leader

To be a successful cheer leader demands a good many qualities that can not always be found in the same combination. A cheer leader must have the confidence of the students, an extremely humble opinion of self and an unfailing good nature. Coupled with this must be a natural ability to lead. Old Orient has been extremely fortunate in her late cheer leaders. The wonderful spirit and high tone of the school have been a great help to be sure but Herman Norton, the present cheer leader, can rest assured that his own hard work and talent is in a measure responsible for the way the yells and songs boom out over the field. In spirit and cheering East High is known from New York to Buffalo as the "blue ribbon bunch" and "Herm" has certainly done his share toward boosting the already fine reputation.

Words by A. E. Williams,

THE SCALP DANCE

With big chief Sully and his band
Of fearless Orient Braves,
We've jumped the reservation
We're on the warpath looking for
Some pale face scalps to raise,
Have heap big celebration
We've hit the trail, yi, yi, yi,
Blood in our eye, yi, yi, yi,
Our curdling yells are ringing,
When the game is done and we have won
Their tops knots we will wave,
Back to our wigwam bringing.

Chorus

Yes, we'll scalp 'em, scalp 'em, scalp 'em,
Make 'em bite the dust ;
We'll smear up their backs you bet,
Beat them worse than they've been yet,
We're up to the minute, always in it
And well rub it in ;
So while we yell, they'll play like—well,
Old Orient will win.

TUNE—"The Guard of Old Nassau"

Oh ! here they come with fife and drum,
They are marching down the field,
With banners high, and victor's cry
They are the team that can't be beat, they are ;
So give a cheer, an Orient Cheer,
And let the echo of it roar,
With a tramp, tramp, tramp,
And a stamp, stamp, stamp,
They are the guard of old East High.

Music by J. G. Curtiss

SONS OF ORIENT.

Sons of Orient lift high your voices,
Let the Purple proudly stream,
See them plunging ever, ever onward,
As we cheer the Orient team ;
Rah ! Rah ! Rah !

Chorus

Tear, them up for old Orient,
Let your courage never fail ;
'Gainst the might of the Purple and White,
No team ever can prevail.
Just spill their ends with one good smash,
And hit that line with an awful crash ;
The men from the West may play their best
But old Orient will win.

TUNE—"Down the Field."

March, march, on down the field,
Fighting for Orient;
Break through that West High line,
their strength to defy ;
We'll give a long cheer for Sully's men,
We're here to win again ;
The West High team may fight to the end, but we will win,
Rah ! Rah ! Rah !

TUNE—"Harrigan"

S U double L I V A N spells Sullivan,
He's the man who made those braves so winnin'
The Lord be with the team that play ag'in 'em.
S U double L I V A N with vim,
Whose is the team that defeat never
Will be connected with,
Sullivan's, that's him.

THE ORIENT BOW WOW

A Football Growl

Words by A. E. Williams,

Music by C. R. Bausch

With flags and banners waving
We're on the job once more ;
Down the field we'll go sweeping
As we roll up a score ;
We've loosed our Orient bull-dogs,
And soon you will hear us roar—
Bow, wow, wow, wow, wow, wow,
Bow, wow, wow, wow, wow, wow,
Oh we'll more than make that bunch feel sore.

Chorus

Plunging to the goal
They sink their teeth right in with vim ;
Each man's a wonder,
They never will give in ;
Bow, wow, wow, wow, wow, wow,
Ne'er falter, crash right on,
Oh we'll triumph once again ;
Two thousand strong we yell—
Bow, wow, wow, for old Orient's men.

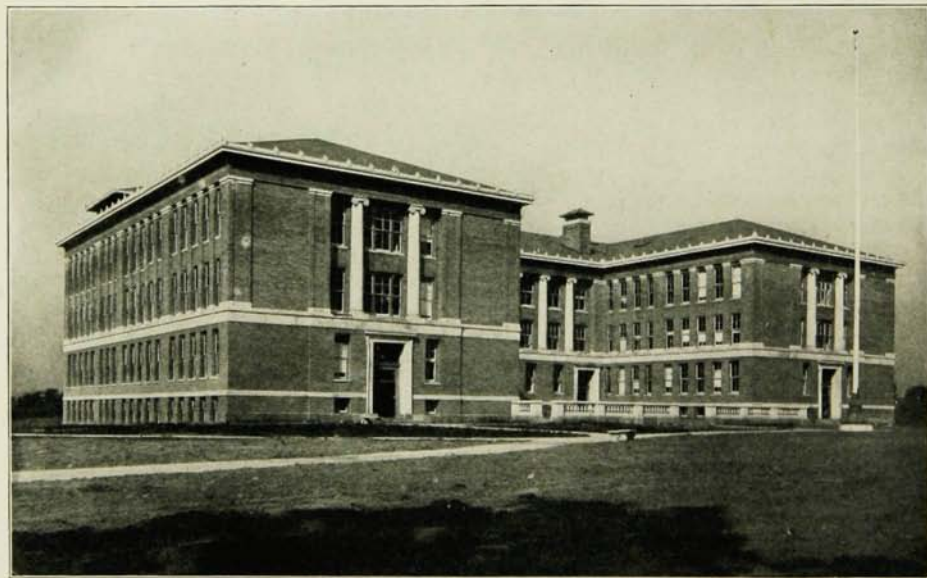

When the game is over, victorious we'll be We'll return rejoicing to our home by the Genesee ;
And through the dusky twilight,
Our fires of victory will gleam ;
Bow, wow, wow, wow, wow, wow,
Bow, wow, wow, wow, wow, wow,
As we proudly cheer that Orient Team.

TUNE—"Take me out to the Ball game".

We're out to clean up the ball game,
We're out to capture the rag,
We'll hand that bunch an awful crack,
Well hit 'em so hard that they'll never come back,
And we'll shake 'em from end to center and we'll raise a dust and a din
There'll be nothing to it but us, for we're going to win.

TUNE—"Cannon March".

Crash through that West High line
And shove those back around the end,
Fight, Fight, for every inch,
East High's honor to defend,
Rah ! Rah ! Rah !
Old Orient, Sis, Boom, Bah !
And locomotives by the score,
For we'll fight with a vim that is dead sure to win,
For old East High.

WEST HIGH SCHOOL

Song.

Words by Ben. Levy

TUNE—"I'm Afraid to Go Home in the Dark"

East High's team certainly is the cream,
They're the pride of our famous old school,
Winning team championship form,
Our motto and golden rule.
They keep up the record of the old E. H. S.
Victories more and more ;
For there's no team like East High's
You will say when you look at the score.

Yell.

Ho, Hi, Zip Zi,
Yell, Yell, East High—
Ho, Hi, Zip, Zi,
Yell, Yell, East High.

Just a Few Words Alone

THE SPORTING LIFE.

Now father walks it to and fro
From work at morn and night,
Luxurious cigar he must forego,
Seeks solace in a pipe ;
Coat tails pulled down lest by chance
Some unfriendly eye should see
The neatly darned patches in his pants,
And laugh with fiendish glee.

And mother too she needs must save
And scrimp each copper coin,
Deny the pleasure they all crave,
" We must save," they each enjoin ;
Poor brother Bill he needs a shave
And sister wears her last year's hat,
But they need the money they all must save
For Johnny is pledged to a High School Frat

Especial attention is called to the graceful contortions of Norton as he winds up to lead a yell.

The magician covered the newspaper with a piece of cloth Then he read what was beneath. The audience gasped. He covered another paper with two folds of cloth and he again read the sheet. The audience was astounded. Just then an old colored lady started hurriedly for the door exclaiming, " This aint no place for a respectable lady with a calico dress on."

They were sitting in the parlor,
And the lights burned dim and low ;
He was telling how he loved her
And his face was all aglow.

" You're the light of my life," she whispered,
Just then he wished that he was dead
As her old man hollered out, " Lizzie,
" Put that light out and come up to bed "

TUNE—"When Johnny Comes Marching Home".

We're going to win the championship,
Hurrah, Hurrah,
We're going to win the championship,
Hurrah, Hurrah,
We'll wipe that crew right off their feet,
We'll make 'em taste the sting of defeat,
Hip Hurrah, Boys, Hurrah,
Hip Hurrah, for that Orient team

We'll put the kissing bug to them,
Hurrah, Hurrah,
We'll put the kissing bug to them,
Hurrah, Hurrah,
We know their heads are inclined to swell,
But before we're through they'll shrink like —
Hip Hurrah, boys, Hurrah,
Hip Hurrah, for the Orient team.

TUNE—"John Brown's Body".

Purple is the color of the stalwart and the brave,
Purple is the color that the conquering heroes wave,
Purple are the violets above the lonely graves,
Of poor old West High's team.

Chorus

Glory, glory, for the Purple and the White,
Glory, glory, for the Purple and the White,
Glory, glory, for the Purple and the White,
For this is East High's day.

TUNE—"Honey Boy".

Honey boys when once you get a going,
Bear in mind we're out to make a showing,
Just sail right in tear up that West High line,
Honey boys, Honey boys.
You're the bunch that's sure to take the wampum,
Play like blazes and we'll more than swamp 'em,
We'll be here, never fear, proudly cheering, cheering,
Cheering for our Honey Boys.
