PREFACE.

THE third issue of the Batavia Village Directory gives promising assurance of the appreciation with which such a work is received by the people; and the liberal patronage bestowed upon it by the leading business firms and private citizens generally assures the publishers of its future success. It will hereafter be issued regularly every two years, and no pains will be spared to make it increasingly useful to those who may consult it for information.

Returning our sincere thanks for the many favors received in preparing the information, we remain,

Respectfully,

HERRICK & ROBINSON,
