PREFACE

THE Fifteenth edition of THE BLUE BOOK is presented with the earnest hope that it will merit the high place accorded its predecessors. We desire especially to thank our patrons for their constant and substantial support of our efforts.

We have striven to make this edition more complete and valuable than the past. The difficulties, particularly in these days, attending the compiling of this book should be appreciated; and while the Publishers will in no way be responsible for any errors that may occur, we trust any inaccuracies or omissions will be brought to our notice, so they may be corrected in the next edition.

The BLUE BOOK is neither a city directory nor absolutely an elite directory; neither do we pretend to pass upon the social or financial standing of the persons whose names are contained therein. In an area as extensive as this book embraces it is impossible for everybody to know everyone else. But it is possible for people to know many other people of a similar mode of life, such as characterizes the numerous clubs, etc., both city and suburban, of your locality. For members of these organizations and their friends THE BLUE BOOK is meant to serve as a directory, setting forth such personal information as may be useful and needful and not available elsewhere.

The title "BLUE BOOK" does not refer to blue blood, as many people suppose. Webster's defines Blue Book as follows: "Blue Book—a book containing a list of fashionable addresses." It has been published regularly for over thirty years and should not be confused with any imitative and transitory publication.

Will you kindly forward any information that will aid in keeping these listings correct to The Blue Books Company, 224th Street, Springfield Gardens, N. Y.

ROCHESTER-MADE and ROCHESTER-CONSCIOUS

⋈ The growth of Sibley, Lindsay & Curr Company, from its twenty-five feet of frontage in 1868 to its "twenty-three acres of service" today, has been a true reflection of the growth of Rochester. Times and manners have indeed changed, but the principles of store-keeping are as faithfully observed here

⋈ today as ever. You do not buy the things your grandfathers bought, but you are as sure as they were of finding what you want at Sibley's. You do not pay the prices the folks of '68 paid, but

⋈ now, as then, every dollar spent here brings you one hundred cents' worth of value. The years have served to solidify the slogan that, at Sibley's you get

The World's Finest Merchandise at the Lowest Possible Cost
