INTRODUCTION.

In presenting this book to the citizens of Fairport, we feel more than satisfied that the directory will meet a long felt want and something the people will appreciate. We have tried to make it complete in every form and any mistake can be traced largely to the incorrect answers given us by the people themselves. We wish to thank the people most cordially for the courtesies extended when compiling the names and numbers; also the business people who have contributed most generously, thereby making the directory possible. We also take occasion to express the hope that the information found on these pages may be most valuable.

Yours very truly,

CLAUD M. LUMBARD.

A COMPARISON

¶ Compare the Fairport of today with the Fairport of ten years ago.

¶ There has been a sturdy growth—a marked improvement.

¶ This growth—this improvement is directly due to the remarkable train service afforded by the Empire Railways, formerly the R. S. & E. R. R.

Fairport can well afford to give its loyal support to the excellent passenger and freight service of the

All Premiums Waived

WHO is going to pay the premiums on your life insurance if you become permanently disabled by accident or sickness?

The Home Life Insurance Co. of New York is now issuing a policy whereby the Company in such event waives all premiums. Yet the Surrender Values, Dividends and all other benefits continue the same as if premiums were duly paid by the insured. This is perfect protection. Ask for proposition at your own age.
