

O Rochester, My Rochester!

A Centennial Hymn

With dignity, not too fast.

(1834 - 1934)

Alfred Jones

1. O Roch-es-ter, my Roch-es-ter, A hymn of praise we sing to thee whose
2. A sim-ple church-house served our sires, in days now long gone by; To - stur-dy fa-thers built so well be-side the Gen-e-see They day from count-less reach-ing spires our prayers as-cend on high O fought the fight! They planned a-right! (see-ing) See-ing thro faith al-way, The Roch-es-ter, my Roch-es-ter (this) this be our fer-vent prayer, May Roch-es-ter we love so well, the cit-y of to-day!

God, from day to end-less day, still have thee in His care!

