"OLD GLORY'S" BOYS WHO WORE THE BLUE.

My boy, you ask me now to name
Some humble men who've won true fame,

Not rich—but useful to the race,
Whose names would merit honored place.

Cho.—It's glory to have stood with those [foes;
Who put down Freedom's deadly
It's fame enough, and honor too,
To be "Old Glory's" boys in blue.

The men who sprang to save our land
Among earth's truly great will stand.
In Freedom's real. it's men of worth
That do good deeds, who lead the earth. Cho.—It's glory, &c.

The deeds the Boys in Blue have done,
The Freedom triumphs they have won,
Wrote names to which proud fame will lend
A glory crown till time shall end. Cho

REVERE YE THE RED, WHITE AND BLUE!

A Bequest Forever from the Defenders of the Sixties to Columbia's Rescued Millions.

WRITTEN BY COL. J. C. O. REDINGTON, EDITOR Acme Haversack.

(Tune.—"Columbia, The Gem of the Ocean.")

In midst of the sharp rifles' rattle,
The air full of shot and of shell,
Who were they who dared face the battle
Where thousands of brave heroes fell?
Who stood by our banner with glory,
Maintained it triumphantly on high?
Who shrank not on fields red and gory,
Our flag to defend or to die?

CHORUS:

Then revere ye the Red, White and Blue!
Through death-fires it has come down to you; [defenders,
'Twas redeemed by the blood of its
Grand heroes to Liberty true.

The stars in that banner are glorious;
Its stripes, in brave blood baptized,
Are the old flag and saved flag victorious,
Heav'n's blessing as life to be prized.
't tells of a sacrifice unending,
By millions of noble men and true,

Of woman in agony sending Her life to the war clad in blue
CHORUS.

And, children, that flag to your keeping
Will soon proudly be handed o'er:
Soon the last brave defender'll be sleeping
With comrades mustered out before.
Brave boys, and fair girls, do your duty!
To your grand heritage prove true;
And maintain in its glory-crown'd beauty
Columbia's Red, White and Blue!

CHORUS: Then revere ye! &c.

SECOND CHORUS (for last verse):

[: Three Cheers for the Red, White and
Blue! :]
Our "Old Glory" banner forever! [Blue!
Three cheers for the Red, White and

WE'LL BE EVER LOYAL.

(Tune.—"Battle Hymn of the Republic.")

The men who saved our banner are our nation's grateful pride;
We'll cherish all the living, crown with honor those who died;
We'll pledge them our devotion that no power shall e'er divide
The land their valor saved.

Chorus. Heroes! we'll be ever loyal! Heroes! we'll be ever loyal Heroes! we'll be ever loyal To our "Old Glory" flag!

MARCHING THROUGH GEORGIA.

Bring the good old bugle, boys! we'll sing another song;
Sing it with that spirit that will start the world along—
Sing it as we used to sing it, fifty thousand strong,

While we were marching through Georgia.

CHORUS.—Hurrah! hurrah! we bring the Jubilee!

Hurrah! hurrah! the flag that makes you free!

So we sang the chorus from Atlanta to the sea,

While we were marching through Georgia.

How the darkies shouted when they heard the joyful sound!
How the turkeys gobbled, which our commissary "found"!
How the sweet potatoes even started from the ground!

While we were marching through Georgia.

CHORUS.—Hurrah! hurrah! etc.

Yes, and there were Union men who wept with joyful tears,
When they saw the honored flag they had not seen for years;
Hardly could they be restrained from breaking forth in cheers,

While we were marching through Georgia.

CHORUS.—Hurrah! hurrah! etc.

"Sherman's dashing Yankee boys will never reach the coast!"
So the saucy rebels said, and 'twas a handsome boast;
Had they not forgot, alas! to reckon with the host,

While we were marching through Georgia.

CHORUS.—Hurrah! hurrah! etc.

So we made a thoroughfare for Freedom and her train,
Sixty miles in latitude—three hundred to the main;
Treason fled before us, for resistance was in vain,

While we were marching through Georgia.

CHORUS.—Hurrah! hurrah! etc.

TRAMP! TRAMP! TRAMP!

BY GEORGE F. ROOT.

In the prison-cell I sit
Thinking, Mother dear, of you,
And our bright and happy home so far away;

And the tears they fill my eyes,
Spite of all that I can do,
Tho' I try to cheer my comrades and be gay.

Chorus:—Tramp! tramp! tramp! the boys are marching,

Cheer up comrades they will come!
And beneath the starry flag
We shall breathe the air again
Of the free-land in our own beloved home.

In the battle-front we stood,
When their fiercest charge they made,
And they swept us off a hundred men or more;
But, before we reached their lines,
They were beaten back dismayed,
And we heard the cry of vict'ry, o'er and o'er.

Chorus:—Tramp! &c.

So, within the prison-cell,
We are waiting for the day
That shall come to open wide the iron door;
And the hollow eye grows bright,
And the poor heart almost gay,
As we think of seeing home and friends once more.

Chorus: Tramp, &c.

BOY, IN THY KEEPING THAT FLAG SHALL SOON BE. ♣

In answer to a boy's question why the flag floated over the school-house and what it meant

Words by MRS. JULIA HOLLAND.

Music by J. C. O. REDINGLOW.

Solo.

Chorus.

What is that, mother? Its our flag, my boy,
Floating so proudly, an emblem of joy;
Firm are its colors, which no storm can efface;
Bright are its stars that no power can erase.
Boy, in thy keeping that flag shall soon be;
Learn to love it; and keep it the flag of the free.

Why is it ours? We bought it, my son;
And the price that we paid is exceeded by none waves
Save the price of Salvation Rejoice that it
'Twas a pillar of fire to millions of slaves
Boy, in thy keeping, etc.

The red why so bright? 'Tis the glory, my son,
Reflected from fields where battles were won;
Where the life-blood of heroes encrimsoned
the sod, iship God.
That in freedom of conscience we might wor-
Boy, in thy keeping, etc.

The white why so pure? Freedom cleansed
it, my child, defied.
From the infamous stain which its beauty
Now spotless it floats o'er our land where o'
old sold
The babe from the breast of its mother was
Boy, in thy keeping, etc.

And the blue, is it sky? 'Tis the favor, my love
To the ransomed below from the ransomed above, view.
When for freedom and right our flag burs' in
The heavens descended and crowned it with blue.

Boy, in thy keeping, etc.
Will a star ever fall? No, never, my boy,
Effulgently bright and radiant with joy
Forever they'll stand if our youth but be

WHEN JOHNNY CAME MARCHING HOME AGAIN.

1. When Johnny came marching home again, hurrah ! hurrah !
 We gave him a hearty welcome then, hurrah ! hurrah !
 The men all cheered, the boys did shout,
 The ladies every one turned out ;
 [: And we all felt gay, when Johnny came marching home. :]
2. The old church bell pealed out with joy, hurrah ! hurrah !
 To welcome home our darling boy, hurrah ! hurrah !
 The village lads and lasses, they
 With beauteous roses strewed the way ;
 [: And we all felt gay when Johnny came marching home. :]
3. We all prepared a jubilee, hurrah ! hurrah !
 We gave the heroes three times three, hurrah ! hurrah !
 The laurel wreath of glory then
 Was placed upon those noble men ;
 [: And we all felt gay when Johnny came marching home. :]
4. True love and friendship every day, hurrah ! hurrah !
 Their choicest treasure did display, hurrah ! hurrah !
 Each one performed some cheerful part,
 To fill with joy the warrior's heart ;
 [: For we all felt gay when Johnny came marching home. :]
5. Though twenty years have passed since then, hurrah ! hurrah !
 We honor more those glorious men, hurrah ! hurrah !
 Their valor saved Columbia's land,
 With joy we grasp each veteran's hand,
 [: And we all feel gay when Johnny came marching home. :]

The Battle Cry of Freedom.

1. Yes, we'll rally round the flag, boys, we'll rally once again,
 Shouting the battle cry of freedom !
 We will rally from the hill-side we will gather from the plain,
 Shouting the battle-cry of freedom.

Chorus.—The Union forever, hurrah ! boys hurrah !

Down with the traitors, up with the stars,
 While we rally round the flag, boys,
 rally once again,
 Shouting the battle-cry of freedom !

2. We are springing to the call of our brothers gone before,
 Shouting the battle-cry of freedom,
 And we'll fill the vacant ranks with a million freeman more,
 Shouting the battle-dry of freedom !

Chorus.—The Union forever. &c.

3. We will welcome to our numbers the 107,
 true and brave,
 Shouting the battle-cry of freedom !
 And although he may be poor, he shall never be a slave,
 Shouting the battle-cry or freedom !

Chorus.—The Union forever, &c.

4. So we're springing to the call, from the East and from the West,
 Shouting the battle-cry of freedom !
 And we'll hurl the rebel crew from the land
 we love the best,
 Shouting the battle-cry of freedom !

Chorus.—The Union forever, &c.

5. Now a score of years have passed since we conquered treason's band,
 Shouting the battle-cry of freedom,
 And we'll never let a traitor talk rebellion
 in our land,
 We shout the battle-cry of freedom !

Chorus.—The Union forever. &c.

Sleeping A Soldier's Sleep.

Written For "Columbia's Memorial," by Comrade Redington.

1. Sweet by the slumber of heroes at rest, Sleeping the sleep that Glory gave;
2. Noble in grandeur their self-sacrifice, Battling for right, for others' did;
3. Over our heroes spread beautiful flowers, Set the Old Flag above them wave.

Fame has with gratitude every name blessed, Proudly with honor crowned each grave.
 Built they a monument piercing the skies, Records and deeds no grave can hide.
 These dead are our dead, yes! all of them ours: Rescuing us, their lives they gave.

Refrain - for every verse.

Over them Glory a faithful guard will keep, nobly resting, sleeping a soldier's sleep

A Singing Salute to the Flag.

Our Hearts are United For God and Country

Words and Music by COL. REDINGTON, Editor ACME HAVERSACK.

Our hearts are u-nit-ed; de - vot - ed to stand For God and country; one language, one land:

A - mer - i - ca, redeemed for Freedom's own, With on - ly one flag, Old Glory a - lone.

NOTE.—When sung as a duet for female voices, the alto voices can sing the tenor notes on the words "America," and also "one flag, Old Glory alone."

THE STAR-SPANGLED BANNER. (Key C)

Oh say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
 What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming;
 Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
 O'er the ramparts we watched, were so gallantly streaming;
 And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
 Gave proof, through the night, that our flag was still there.
 Oh say, does the star-spangled banner yet wave
 O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave?!

On the shore dimly seen through the mists of the deep,
 Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes;
 What is that which the breeze, o'er the towering steep,
 As it fitfully blows, half conceals, half discloses;
 Now it catches the gleam of the morning's first beam,
 In full glory reflected, now shines on the stream!—
 'Tis the STAR-SPANGLED BANNER! oh, long may it wave
 O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave!!

Oh thus be it ever, when freemen shall stand
 Between their loved homes and foul war's desolation;
 Blessed with vict'ry and peace, may the heaven-rescued land
 Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a nation,
 Then conquer we must, for our cause, it is just;
 And this be our motto—"IN GOD IS OUR TRUST;"
 And the star-spangled banner in triumph shall wave
 O'er the land of the free, and the home of the brave!!

Unceasing Loyalty.

(TUNE:—"America.")

God bless our prosp'rous land,
 United long to stand!
 With pride we sing—
 Columbia, grand and free,
 Let each one pledge to thee
 Undying loyalty;
 Fresh tribute bring!

Uphold Their Hands.

(TUNE:—"Auld Lang Syne.")

God bless the Woman's Relief Corps,
 Loved Women, tried and true!
 Women who all uphold the hands
 Of boys who wore the blue.
 All loyal women who unite,
 Who ever willing are
 To bring relief to burdens of Comrades of G. A. R.

To you left by those glorious men;
Let every deed allege
You are true, like as they were then.
Vurs the priv'lege to become
Leaders in the land;
Guarding liberty and home,
Freedom's honored band.
Sons of your noble sires, &c. | 3. Heaven's blessings on you fall,
Keep you keenly to duty true;
Then will loyal millions all
Feel secure ev'ry day anew.
How the G. A. R. has brought
Safety to the land!
Soon will sons of those who fought
In their places stand.

I'M THE DAUGHTER OF A SOLDIER.

Words and Music by COMRADE REDINGTON.

Chorus.

2. All ages the same have honored the fame
Of heroes who brave deeds do:
To me honor came, bequeathed in the name
Of a daughter of a soldier in blue.

Cho. For I'm the daughter of a soldier, &c.,

3. Though humble his fate in affairs of the State,
He's a king in deeds of worth;
Proudly fame will relate till time's latest date
His sacrifice for freedom on earth.

4. The old flag they saved in triumph will wave,
Forever to praise their deeds;
On hist'ry engraved the devotion they gave,
Those saviors in our country's sad needs.

5. To be hero enrolled is better than gold,
And glory encircleth me;
There's a wealth all untold doth my name now unfold,
My father fought for the flag of the free.

Cho. And I'm the daughter of a soldier, &c

The Vacant Chair.

1. We shall meet, but we shall miss him;
 There will be one vacant chair;
 We shall linger to caress him,
 While we breathe our evening prayer
 When those years ago we gathered,
 Joy was in his mild blue eye;
 But a golden cord is severed,
 And our hopes in ruin lie.

CHORUS: We shall meet, but we shall miss him
 There will be one vacant chair;
 We shall linger to caress him,
 When we breathe our evening prayer.

2. At our fireside, sad and lonely,
 When will the bosom swell,

At remembrance of the story,
 How our noble soldier fell;
 How he strove to bear our banner
 Through the thickest of the fight,
 And upheld our country's honor,
 In the strength of manhood's might
CHORUS: We shall meet, etc.

3. True, they tell us wreaths of glory
 Ever more will deck his brow;
 But this soothes the anguish only,
 Sweeping o'er our heart strings now
 Sleep, to-day, O early fallen!
 In thy green and narrow bed,
 Dirges from the pine and cypress,
 Mingle with the tears we shed.
CHORUS: We shall meet, etc.

SLEEPING COMRADES WHO MARCHED THROUGH GEORGIA.

Two verses have recently been added to the stirring old war song, "Marching Through Georgia," and were sung at the meeting of the Indiana Grand Army Comrades at Indianapolis. The new verses run as follows:

Soft, soft, the boys are sleeping; do not wake them from their rest;
 May flowery sods lie lightly o'er each slumbering patriot's breast,
 They paid a mighty ransom for the land that they loved best,
 While we were marching through Georgia.

Chorus: 'Twas they, with us, that carried jubilee
 To all enslaved; the flag that made them free;
 As we sang the chorus from Atlanta to the Sea,
 When we were marching through Georgia.

The blood so freely offered then has brought the jubilee,
 And fixed the star eternal on the banner of the free—
 Sing soft, their mighty sacrifice was made for you and me,
 While we were marching through Georgia.

Chorus: 'Twas they, &c.

THE ACME HAVERSACK has for nine years been a leading exponent of thorough patriotism, in song and story. With hundreds of contributors, some of them eminent writers, it has furnished more available material for orators, singers, elocutionists, readers, and for schools, than any other publication. Its compilations of statistics, facts and history have won a national reputation for superior value and ready usefulness.

In the now popular work of Patriotic Teaching the ACME HAVERSACK has for years been an effective leader; most efficient because promoting the universal use of the patriotic "Songs of the Nation"—more potent than its laws. Its editor, a favorite pupil of Dr. Lowell Mason and Dr. George F. Root, has had a long and extensive experience as instructor in music and vocal culture in normal and other schools, Teachers' Institutes and musical conventions. With the assistance of his able corps of writers and composers, the best and most practically useful patriotic songs can always be supplied at low cost.

CALMLY THEY'RE SLEEPING.

Music by VERDI.

Adapted by COMRADE REDINGTON.

Quartette or Chorus.

Fine.

1. Calmly they're sleeping, While we are weeping, And love's watch keeping, Over their graves.

Solo or Duet.

Sweet - ly rest - ing in peace, Free from war's shrill a - larms;

Let our love still in - crease, For our com - rades in arms.

D. C.

2. Their deeds reviewing,
Love's work renewing,
While flowers we're strewing
Over the dead.
Cherish ye devotion
To their grand and holy cause;
Unto farthest ocean
For sad requiems pause.
Calmly they're sleeping, &c.

3. Tell o'er the story,
How on fields gory,
They won true glory,
Heroes were they.
In a grateful mem'ry keep
Every name of those who fell;
Garlands spread where they sleep,
And their sacrifice tell.
Calmly they're sleeping, &c.

While The Grand Army Assembles—

Tune, "Marching through Georgia."

1. Rouse the good old tune again, we'll sing a soldier song.
Sing it to the army boys who bring good cheer along; [and strong,
Sing it with a chorus that shall echo loud
While the Grand Army assembles.

Chorus.—Hurrah! hurrah! the G. A. R. has come.
Hurrah! hurrah! the bugle greets
the drum.
Pork and beans are baking while the comrades cry, "yum, yum."
When the Grand Army assembles.

2. Throw away the years, my boys, some twenty less or more,
Forget your hair is growing gray, or parted
wide before,
Weare young recruits again, as in the days
of yore,
When the Grand Army assembles.

Cho. Hurrah! &c.

3. We grasp the hand of comrades with that grip that holds like steel,
Our cheers are like the tempest wild that swept the battle-field.
Within the Nation's proud domain our power shall never yield—
While the Grand Army assemble

Silently They Came Home

Written during the war. (Tune, "Repose.")

In the city, in the village,
In the hamlet, far away;
See the mothers watching, waiting
For their soldier boys to-day.
They are coming, daily coming,
One by one, and score by score,
In their leaden cases folded,
Underneath the flag they bore.

The Soldier's Noble Friend.

(Tune, "Repose.")

Blessed is the pure devotion
Of sweet woman's love, all true;
As her tears to farthest ocean
Crowns the graves of boys in blue.
Many hours she spends relieving
Soldiers' families who need;
Soothes the sorrows of those grieving
Proves anoble friend, indeed.

These Brave Boys Have Finished Marching.

These brave boys have finished marching,
Here they're resting one by one,
While a grateful nation's blessings
Join to say, "Grand men, well done!"

Truer heroes never rallied,
Braver men were never found.
Many tears to-day are falling,
As these graves we gather round.

WE LOVE OUR FLAG!

BY COL. J. C. O. REDINGTON,
Editor Acme Haversack, Syracuse, N. Y.
(Tune: "Webb".)

We love our flag, our dear old flag,
Our banner of the free;
From vale to highest mountain crag
Proclaiming liberty.
Fame proudly writes the story
Of sacrifice for you,
When heroes saved "Old Glory,"
Our Red, and White and Blue.

Let all our hearts, in loyal zeal,
True equal rights defend;
That earth's oppressed firm faith may feel
That tyranny shall end.
To us they look with eager eye,
America, the free:
A hope we hold, their eager cry,
That we have liberty.

As o'er us float in beauty
Old Glory's folds so fair;
Reverse it, loyal duty,
Protect it everywhere.
Our heads and hearts we will anew
To God and country give:
One country, and one language, too.
Our ONE FLAG ever live.

THE ARMY BEAN NO. 1.

(TUNE, Sweet Bye and Bye.)
There's a spot that the soldiers all love,
The mess-tent is the place that we mean,
And the dish that we like to see there
Is the old-fashioned white Army Bean.
CHO. 'Tis the bean that we mean.
And we'll eat as we ne'er ate before;
The Army Bean, nice and clean.—
We will stick to our beans evermore.

REFRAIN—TUNE, "Tell Aunt Rhoda." [May be used also for No. 2.]

Beans for breakfast, beans for dinner,
Beans for supper. Beans! Beans!!!

Home of Liberty.

(TUNE:—"Hold The Fort.")
Come, ye loyal, join the chorus,
Cheer for welcome peace.
Freedom's glorious banner o'er us
Floats till time shall cease.
CHO.—Glory, glory, glory ever;
Land forever free!
All the ages bless Columbia,
Home of Liberty.

Now the bean in its primitive state,
Is a plant we have all often met;
And when cooked in the old army style,
It has charms we can never forget.
CHO. 'Tis the bean, &c.

The German is fond of Saur-kraut,
The potato is loved by the Mick;
But soldiers have long since found out
That thro' life to our beans we should stick.
CHO. 'Tis the bean, &c.

Glory for her gallant soldiers,
Victors o'er all foes:
Noblest, truest, most enduring,
Who all wrong oppose.
CHO.—Glory! &c.
Glory for her noble women,
Fairest of the fair;
Whose self-sacrifice and courage
Blessed us everywhere.
CHO.—Glory! &c.

THE GRAYBACKS SO TENDERLY CLINGING.

(Tune:—"Marching Through Georgia.")

There were companions on the march, as every soldier found,
With ceaseless zeal in digging deep in every spot around,
And though each hero killed a lot, still thousands more abound.

The graybacks so tenderly clinging.

Chorus.—O! ho! no! no! we never can forget,

Ow-ow! ow-ow! we almost feel them yet;

The busy little grayback teeth in us so firmly set,

Who went with us marching through Georgia.

Those visitors were never big, in fact were rather small,
In silence they put in their work, no sound they made at all,
They thought it was full fun enough to hear the comrades bawl

While graybacks were busily biting. (Chorus.)

And never partial were those bugs, no mortal would they spare,
No dignity could keep them off, they just bit everywhere,
And generals could not deny but what each had a share

Of graybacks so constantly nibbling. (Chorus.)

The Fun of the Yanks and Johnnies.

410 Illustrations, Articles and Songs, furnished by over 100 participants, on both sides. It is not only the most interesting and entertaining War-book ever issued, for both veterans and the public at large, but an almost exhaustless reservoir of heroic humor—far funnier than any in civil life. It contains also some of the most beautiful and eloquent language of the best orators and writers on the re-united good feeling.

The "Fun of the Yanks and Johnnies" contains facts, fun and humor sufficient to keep lively and interesting every Camp fire and patriotic meeting for the next hundred years, as well as millions of congenial groups. The most complete and varied collection ever collated. 104 illustrations; 55 principal articles; 85 songs; 168 items, amusing and fraternal. Price 25 cents (mailed). Agents wanted everywhere.

A Possession of Which Rochester May Be Proud.

The Editor of THE ACME HAVERSACK OF PATRIOTISM AND SONG knows whereof he speaks, in voicing the verdict of our Comrades throughout the entire Grand Army that one of the best, most gifted, and useful members is our genial comrade, Sherman D. Richardson, whose portrait we present. His eloquent and thrilling words will live long after the last veteran has been mustered into the Endless Beyond. The patriotic teaching which he is daily doing in scores of thousands of schools, hundreds of thousands of families, and millions of hearts, is a national benefaction. His words cannot be forgotten. Long may he live and prosper!

Posts, Corps, Camps, Patriotic Societies, Churches, Schools, and others who may secure his services for an evening of patriotism, will be enthused, instructed, and more than satisfied. He can be addressed at 63 Arcade, Rochester, N. Y.

PROUDLY IN GLORY FLOATING O'ER US.

BY I. E. THORP.

(Tune.—"Battle Cry of Freedom.")

We will rally round the flag, boys, we'll rally once again,

Proudly in glory floating o'er us;

Always gallantly defended on every battle plain,

Proudly in glory floating o'er us.

Cho.—The old flag forever! hurrah! boys, hurrah!

We stood by "Old Glory," it hasn't lost a star,

We will rally 'round the flag, boys, we'll rally once again,

Proudly in glory floating o'er us.

'Twas for it our heroes fought in the woeful war-days past,

Proudly in glory floating o'er us;

For it marched in summer's sun, for it stood thro' winter's blast,

Proudly in glory floating o'er us.

Cho.—The old flag forever! &c.

'Twas a fearful sacrifice that was offered for it then,

Proudly in glory floating o'er us;

Of the noblest and the best of Columbia's worthy men,

Proudly in glory floating o'er us.

Cho.—The old flag forever! &c.

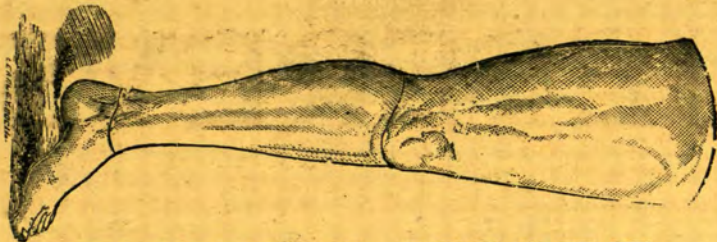

And to-day we'll firmly pledge, boys, we'll rally round the gift,

Proudly in glory floating o'er us;

That our deeds be ever faithful humanity to lift,

Proudly in glory floating o'er us.

Cho.—The old flag forever! &c.
