Kodak Supports Ricketts Gym

The Boys and Girls Club of Rochester have announced a $150,000 grant from Eastman Kodak Company to equip a gymnasium and create a motivational clinic honoring the life and achievements of Dick Ricketts, well-known professional athlete and corporate executive.

Ricketts, two-time All-American in basketball at Duquesne University, played for the Rochester Royals of the NBA and pitched for the Rochester Red Wings, Buffalo Bisons and St. Louis Cardinals before joining Kodak in 1965. His Kodak career, in Rochester and Oakbrook, Ill., focused on people-oriented assignments in recruitment, industrial and personal relations. At the time of his death (March 6, 1988), Ricketts was personnel director of the Kodak Apparatus Division.

Dick Ricketts

Kodak's five-year grant will establish the Dick Ricketts Gymnasium and fund an annual Dick Ricketts Motivational Clinic for Youth at The Boys and Girls Club, 500 Genesee Street.

"Kodak's grant supports new programming and constructive efforts in the city's southwest district in addition to honoring a former resident," said Tonja Olds, executive director of The Club. "These living remembrances of Dick and a successful life well lived will have educational impact on youth in our community," concludes Olds.

"Dick Ricketts used his physical and intellectual abilities to achieve successful careers in sports and business," observed Kay R. Whitmore, Kodak president and executive officer.

"While many words have been used appropriately to describe this man -- understanding, sensitive, responsible, effective, professional, loyal, humorous -- friend is most frequently used. And it is our friend we honor," he said, "in the belief that his life and achievements will continue to inspire through example."

The Dick Ricketts gymnasium will be dedicated in Spring 1989 and the first Motivational Clinic will be held later that year at The Boys and Girls Club.

"We are extremely proud of the high esteem that was accorded Dick throughout his life," said his widow Margaret Ricketts, "and it pleases us as a family that The Boys and Girls Club and Kodak would wish to pay tribute to him in such a special way."

Financial Aid Questions Answered At Library

January is Financial Aid Awareness Month across the state. Your state government and the Lyell Branch Library want you to know that higher education is available to all, through several financial aid programs. Because of the number and complexity of these programs at the local, state and federal level, the New York State Higher Education Services Corporation is sponsoring a tv show on PBS on January 4, 9-10 p.m., entitled "Paying for College '89." They are also holding workshops around the state to help parents and students fill out the FAF (Financial Aid Forms) which must be sent in to Princeton, NJ, by mid February. The Rochester workshop is scheduled for Sunday, January 29, at the Convention Center downtown. For reservations, call the SUNY Brockport Financial Aid Office, (716) 395-2501. There is also a toll-free phone number you may call for help, available January 2-27, weekdays, 1-7 p.m.: 1-(800) 367-2670. The Lyell Branch Library will have a poster listing all the various types of aid available. We also have some good books to help you locate scholarships and grants. One is prepared locally called Sources of Financial Assistance for Rochester Area Youth. Another useful book is The Directory of Athletic Scholarships. These are both reference books and so are always available in the library at 956 Lyell Avenue, at the corner of Lyell and Avery. Please call the library at 254-0790 for listings of other workshops if January 29 is not a convenient date for you. As always, the library is accessible to the handicapped.

Wesley Crowned Fireman Queen

Lynn Wesley, a sophomore at Aquinas Institute, was crowned Queen of the Western New York Volunteer Fireman's Association. Her competition covered a span of two weeks and entailed being interviewed by judges from across New York State; preparing and delivering a memorized speech on firematics, which also won her best speech in the competition; doing a personality review, which involved a skit about herself that said who she was and what her future ambitions in life were going to be; as well as modeling an evening gown.

Since winning she has traveled all over Western New York speaking with young people about fire prevention, peer pressures and vandalism. Just recently she attended several grammar schools to speak with fourth through sixth graders and held a small seminar on safety prevention. She has appeared throughout Monroe County promoting fire safety, with the Senior Citizens where she recently attended the first annual seminar for Senior Citizens held at the Mapledale Party House. In her travels Lynn has met many dignitaries, including senators and assemblymen as well as working at the Fire Prevention Booth at the New York State Fair in Syracuse.

Lynn has said, "That thinking about what I say and do before I say or do something and gaining more confidence when speaking before a group are two of the most important changes in my life."

Lynn will continue to speak with people of all ages about fire prevention as well as safety standards.

La France Promoted

Marine Cpl. Dale M. La France, son of William and Marion Parker of La Salle St., has been promoted to his present rank while serving with 2nd Marine Aircraft Wing, Marine Corps

Air Station, Cherry Point, N.C. A 1984 graduate of Thomas Jefferson High School, he joined the Marine Corps in March 1986.

Not being able to write is wrong.

Tragically, one in five Americans can't write or read. In Monroe County alone, 20,000 people are functionally illiterate.

But illiteracy is a wrong you can help right. Just call the Volunteers of America Project for Illiteracy. One hour of your time each week can help us erase illiteracy in our community.

We've helped many people learn to read and write. And they've rewarded us with their gratitude. With joy. But we need your help, your time, your skill to continue. So please, help us help others. Call 232-6936 or 454-1150.

Not being able to read is a terrible sentence.

JASON Project Creator Opens RMSC Scholarship Series

Dr. Robert Ballard, creator of The JASON Project, will describe the unprecedented scientific endeavor that will link the Rochester Museum &

Science Center live via satellite with a deep-diving submersible as it explores ancient shipwrecks on the floor of the Mediterranean Sea during an illustrated lecture in the RMSC's Eisenhart Auditorium on Wed., Jan. 25 at 8 p.m.

Dr. Ballard's lecture on The JASON Project is the first in the RMSC's 1989 Distinguished Scholars Series of five presentations by internationally prominent authorities in fields aligned with RMSC disciplines.

Best known for his 1985 discovery of the wreckage of the Titanic, Robert Ballard is deeply committed to encouraging America's young people to consider scientific and technical careers. Next May, The JASON Project will provide thousands of Rochester-area school children and the general public with the opportunity to see, through live telecasts, exactly what scientists are seeing as the JASON robot explores the sea floor two miles below.

In addition to Ballard, the RMSC's 1989 Distinguished Scholars Series features lectures by Malcolm Miller, a scholar who has studied Chartres Cathedral for three decades; Dr. Brian O'Leary, a former astronaut who advocates a combined U.S.-Soviet mission to Mars; Dr. Gerald Bigelow, an archaeologist who has excavated Norse sites throughout the North Atlantic region; and Dr. Jesse Jaynes, a pioneer in the field of agricultural genetic engineering.

On Wed., Feb. 22, Malcom Miller, one of the preeminent interpreters of Chartres Cathedral, will lecture on the medieval monument's art and architecture. Called by one magazine the "pilgrim who stayed," Miller has lived and worked at Chartres since writing his final university honors paper on the cathedral 30 years ago. He is the author of three books and made a six-part British television documentary on medieval stained glass entitled "Every Window Tells A Story."

Futurist, author and former astronaut Dr. Brian O'Leary has urged American space scientists to take advantage of glasnost and move toward world peace with concrete projects such as a joint U.S.-U.S.S.R. mission to Mars that could be accomplished as early as 1999. O'Leary will describe his vision of the future and experiences in the U.S. and the Soviet Union in a lecture entitled "Manned Missions to Mars" on Wed., March 22.

The Vikings who stormed out of Norway, Denmark and Sweden to raid their European neighbors were far more than pirates and pillagers, according to archaeologist Dr. Gerald Bigelow. Based on his excavations at Norse sites in the Shetland Islands, Greenland and Iceland, Bigelow's lecture on Wed., April 13 will show how the Vikings created long-distance trade networks, developed sophisticated art styles, composed masterful literary epics, and explored and colonized new lands.

The RMSC's 1989 Distinguished Scholars Series will conclude on Wednesday, May 10 with biochemist Dr. Jesse Jaynes' lecture entitled "Bio-technology: The Emerging Revolution." Using the science of recombinant DNA, Jaynes has synthesized genes that could make potatoes, cassava and rice much better sources of protein in an effort to end the chronic ill-nourishment of the billions of people whose diets rely mainly on these major food plants.

Each Distinguished Scholars lecture will begin at 8 p.m. in the RMSC's Eisenhart Auditorium and will be followed by a reception with the speaker in the adjacent Donor's Lounge. Advance tickets are available by series subscriptions only; ticket orders will be filled in the order received.

Series tickets are $25 general; $20 for RMSC members. To receive a series brochure, call (716) 271-4320, extension 332.

The Rochester Museum & Science Center is located at 657 East Avenue at Goodman Street and is accessible via the Goodman Street, Monroe Avenue or Culver Road exits from the I-490 Expressway. Free parking is available.

The Carnival Comes To Town

It was carnival time downtown despite the wintery temperatures and snowy skies. Children and parents alike enjoyed the rides, side shows and carnival food set up in the Rochester Convention Center earlier this month.

Aquinas Teachers On Evaluation Teams

"Meeting other teachers and administrators that are coping with the same problems was one of the great advantages of being part of the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools Evaluation Team" was a comment from Jim Scarfia, Social Studies teacher at Aquinas Institute. Jim and Aquinas Vice Principal Vilma Goetting were part of two separate teams that evaluated schools for their accreditation.

"The procedure was interesting in that we interviewed everyone who had anything to do with the school; administrator, teachers, students, staff, parents, and alumni, to better understand where the school had been, where it is and where it intends to go in the future," said Vilma Goetting. The entire evaluation takes three days and a written report is compiled before the team left.

The chance to meet students and find out what their expectations for their school are very interesting, for in talking with our own students a lot of the same expectations surfaced. How are the other schools meeting these expectations?

We are not alone in our struggle to constantly offer our students the best education possible.

Padilla To Serve

Nancy Padilla, of Maple Street, was recently elected to the 20-member Board of Directors for the National Women's Hall of Fame located in Seneca Falls, New York. She will serve a three-year term as a board member of this prestigious organization which was founded 20 years ago to honor and remember the achievements of American women.

Padilla, an active member of many local, state, and national organizations, is currently vice president of the Rochester City School District Board of Education.

Aquinas Students DARE

The Rochester Police Department, in cooperation with the City of Rochester School District and the Catholic Schools of the Diocese of Rochester, offer Project DARE to the students in the fifth grade.

What is DARE? DARE stands for Drug Abuse Resistance Education and is a seventeen week program taught in the school by trained Police Officers.

The twelfth session of the project is role modeling. High school students from city schools are brought into the classrooms to talk about; high school, drugs, alternatives to drugs, peer pressures and whatever the students want to talk about.

Aquinas students were chosen to accompany; Officers Gonzales, Everett, Givens and Mammano to the schools.

Aquinas students were; Paul Ciavari, Chris Mancini, Joe Valentino, Renee Prame, David Yehl, Kristen Commercial, Pat Plumeri, Ellen Stoffel, Nick

Penna, Beth Reiter, Paul Kucwicz, Sandy Hoffard, Ken Marentette, Katie Crowley, Bill Stroud, and Jeannine Williams.

The Aquinas Students found the experience very rewarding and reinforcing. "It really made us think and realize that what we are doing is the right way to go." "The students were great and some of the questions they asked were very well thought out."

Nazareth Site For Science Study

Nazareth Academy is one of two private high schools in Rochester to be chosen for a study on girls' attitudes toward science. Cardinal Mooney High School is also participating. Kathleen Hunt, a graduate student in Science Education at Ohio State University, is conducting the study, which she hopes will shed some light on the differences between girls' attitudes towards science when they attend a single-sex school, versus girls' attitudes when they attend a co-educational school.

"Science is viewed by society as a male-dominated discipline," said Hunt. "This study will investigate whether girls have a better attitude toward science and their participation in it while studying in an environment that lacks direct competition with, and comparison to, male students." As part of her study, Hunt will pass out detailed questionnaires to girl science students in grades 9 through 12, in every academic level.

Kathleen Hunt is a graduate of Cornell University, and went to high school in Mt. Morris, NY. She has taught high school in Worthington, Ohio, and is currently a resident of Farmington, NY. After the completion of her degree, she plans to teach high school biology and chemistry.

Nazareth Welcomes New Gospel Choir Director

Nazareth Academy has announced Lynny C. Walters as director of the Academy's first Gospel Choir, an ensemble that features fifteen voices. Walters is a Health Professions Recruiter with the United States Air Force.

Originally from Florida, Walters has been in Rochester for five years, during which time he has been the choir director and organist for the Memorial

A.M.E. Zion Church on Clarissa Street in Rochester. He also plays gospel music for other community and civic groups around town, such as the Hillside Children's Center.

The Gospel Choir's repertoire consists mainly of contemporary gospel music with some traditional spirituals. The students meet for an informal music class and rehearsal hour every Monday afternoon.

Apply Now For Federal Financial Aid

If you plan to apply for federal financial aid to pay for next year's college costs, the time to file is now. The federal government started accepting applications last week and procrastination can be costly, says the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants (NYSSCPA).

You can obtain an application form at either your high school or your college's financial aid office. The three most common forms are the College Scholarship Service's Financial Aid Form (FAF), the American College Testing Program's Family Financial Statement (FFS), and the Application for Federal Student Aid (AFSA). All three applications require specific information related to your 1988 income tax return.

If you estimate your income tax information, the application may be delayed due to inquiries regarding your figures, especially if any estimate is off by more than $200. For this reason, experts advise applicants to prepare their tax returns prior to filling out the financial aid application.

Once complete, the application is sent to a "needs analysis" service which then examines your application and determines the "estimated family contribution," also referred to as the Student Aid Index.

While you may judge this amount to be beyond your current means, the federal government will nevertheless use this figure to assess your eligibility for a loan, as well as to establish the amount of the loan.

In addition to the needs test, each of the six federal financial aid programs has its own requirements and purposes. A Stafford Loan (formerly called the Guaranteed Student Loan or (GSL) allows you to borrow money from the bank at relatively low interest rates.

You won't have to begin repaying the loan until six months after you graduate or leave school, and you'll have ten years from that time to complete the repayment.

Eligibility is based on "remaining need," which is the amount remaining when you subtract the sum of your estimated family contribution and any other aid such as a scholarship or Veterans Administration benefits from the cost of attending your particular school.

Parent Loans to Undergraduate Students (PLUS) and Supplemental Loans to Students (SLS) provide two other ways to reduce or eliminate remaining need. Unlike Stafford Loans, the repayment of interest and principal on PLUS and SLS loans begins 60 days after the loan is released.

Interest rates are adjusted annually and usually are calculated on the basis of the 91-day Treasury bill rate plus several percentage points, with a cap around 12 percent. The repayment period ranges from five to ten years.

Pell Grants are designed specifically for students who demonstrate financial need. But even if you doubt your eligibility, apply anyway. If you don't, you may jeopardize your eligibility for other federal financial aid programs.

Three other financial aid programs based on need are available through individual colleges: the Supplemental Education Opportunity Grants, work-study programs, and the Carl D. Perkins Loan Program.

Remember, federal financial aid programs are just one of the resources available to help you pay for a college education. Since many financial programs have debt ceilings, CPAs advise you to combine federal, state, college, and private aid whenever possible in order to obtain the most aid at the lowest interest rate.

Bump And Set For Fun And Prizes

The Annual Easter Seal Volleyball Marathon is coming your way again this winter, but with a new twist. Due to the popularity and success of the event in past years, the marathon has been scheduled for two dates, Sat., Feb. 4 and Sun., Feb. 5. Games will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Hosted by Holiday Health & Fitness Center, E. Ridge Rd. and sponsored by Pizza Hut, the event is fast becoming a favorite of beginner and league teams in the area. Five time slots are available for matches on the two nights, and a minimum of 40 teams is needed for a workable tournament structure.

An exciting prize list has been made available by Century 21 with more prizes going to the teams raising more money in sponsorships. All collected pledges will be put directly into programs for the disabled of this community.

Prizes include t-shirts, baseball caps and sweat-shirts, and trophies for all winning teams. The top fundraising team will enjoy the Grand Prize...two weeks free membership at Holiday Health for each team member. And everyone will be treated to Pizza Hut pizza and Pepsi between games!

Interested teams of men, women or both should call Easter Seals at 232-2540. Come join us for a night of volleyball fun and competition!

Donating To Charity

How much does your individual contribution count when you give to a charitable organization? More than you may think. Over 80 percent of the money raised by charities in the U.S. comes from individuals.

The Better Business Bureau advises donors to plan their giving and seek accountability of the organizations that solicit their support. Before making a donation, find out if the charity is licensed by state and local authorities. But remember, being licensed does not mean the state or local government endorses the charity.

If an unfamiliar charity is soliciting your support, ask specific questions about the charity and its programs. Don't be per-sueded to give based on an emotional appeal alone. If the charity is addressing a specific problem, how will its programs help and who will benefit? Also ask how much of your donation will go directly to the charity's programs and how much will go to administrative and fund raising costs.

For help in evaluating local charitable appeals, contact your local BBB. For information on national charitable organizations, contact the Philanthropic Advisory Service of the Council of Better Business Bureaus, 1515 Wilson Blvd., Arlington, VA 22209.

When you make a donation, never give cash. Always make a check out to the charity, not to the individual collecting the donation.

Also, keep records of your donations (receipts, cancelled checks, and bank statements) so you can document your charitable giving at tax time. If you have bought items such as candy or tickets to a show to benefit charity, only the portion of your donation that exceeds the value of what you receive is tax deductible as a charitable donation. For example, if you pay $10 for a box of candy that normally sells for $8, only $2 can be claimed a charitable contribution.

Remember, don't be pressured to give the money on the spot or allow a "runner" to pick up your contribution. A charity that needs your money today will welcome it just as much tomorrow.

Tax Preparation Checklist Saves Time And Worry

If you think you have all the time in the world to get ready for your preparer, think again. Whether in a file drawer or in a shoe box, a year's worth of bills, and other papers is a lot to organize.

Where do you begin? According to the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants (NYSSCPA), a tax-preparation checklist can get you off to a good start. To devise your own check list, follow these guidelines.

Unless your tax situation has changed drastically in the past year, your 1987 tax return may be your best guide to the types of information you need to gather now.

You'll need to gather income records. Document the amount of money you received from each of your income sources, from wage to state tax refunds. In most cases, your employer will automatically provide you with a W-2 form, which lists your annual wages as well as the amount of taxes paid.

To report interest and dividend earnings, you need forms 1099-Int and 1099-Div, usually provided by the bank or company holding your account or securities. You should also set aside the various forms 1099 that you receive for income sources such as unemployment compensation, taxable Social Security or pension benefits, or state and local income tax refunds.

If you sold your home in 1988, be ready to show your CPA any closing statements plus receipts for fixing up the house prior to its sale.

Other documents to collect include Form 1098, which indicates the amount of mortgage interest you paid last year. In addition, you should gather all receipts and cancelled checks for property and real estate taxes. If you own rental property, rummage through your files and summarize any expenses you incurred in maintaining and managing the property.

Nine million tons of salt are applied to American highways each year for road de-icing.

Your checkbook can be a treasure trove of overlooked tax deductions. Carefully review your cancelled checks and pull out any related to your business, charitable donations, medical expenses, child-care bills, real estate activities, and other miscellaneous expenses.

Remember, you don't have to drag all these checks to your accountant.

A summary listing the date, check number, amount, payee, and purpose is usually much more efficient.

The charge account statements you may have forgotten about may support tax deductions. Summarize any expenses that may be tax deductible and review them with your accountant. You should also record the amount of interest paid on each account for 1988.

And while you're reviewing, take a closer look at your paycheck stubs, and you may discover automatic payroll deductions for IRA accounts, medical insurance, or donations to charities such as the United Way.

Changes in your personal life such as marriage, divorce, a new child, or a suddenly dependent parent all can have a significant impact in your taxes. Make sure that you notify your tax preparer of any change in your marital status or family life.

Don't let the April 15 deadline jolt you into a frenzy. Remember, you always can file for an extension, if necessary. Sort through your documents and records slowly, taking time to jot down any questions you may want to discuss with your tax preparer.

According to the NYSSCPA, taxpayers who invest time and care in preparing their tax returns are less likely to earn an auditor's visit and also are more likely to save money on their tax bill.

On behalf of the Oversight Collaborative Board, Mayor Thomas P. Ryan, Jr. and William Johnson, Jr. and William Johnson, Jr., Chair of the Search Committee of Oversight Collaborative Board, has announced the appointment of James W. Winston as President of the New Futures Initiative, a local partnership of private, public, and non-profit organizations established improve opportunities for at-risk youth.

Winston was chosen from among 72 applicants for the position. Since 1981, he has been employed at AC Rochester (Rochester Products) as a personnel coordinator, trainer and labor relations specialist. Winston has served as director of the Threshold Youth Services

Learning Center, director of the Control Data Corporation Learning Center and as a Community Resource Coordinator for the Community Partners for Youth agency. He attended School #3 locally graduated from Madison High School and holds a Bachelor of Science degree from SUNY Brockport.

In making the announcement, Mayor Ryan stated that, "The Oversight Collaborative Board was impressed with Winston's training and diverse experience. He has had a variety of experience in both the non-profit and private sectors and he also had extensive experience with educational systems. That background has helped him develop the talents and skills which

Johnson stated, "On behalf of the search committee, I'd like to note that a number of very qualified individuals applied for this position and we were impressed with their sincerity and commitment. As a result of that process, we feel very confident that the New Futures Initiative will be in the hands of a very qualified and competent person. We all look forward to working with Mr. Winston as he brings this initiative to life."

More than $1 million has been committed to the New Future's first program year. Winston will assume the position of president in mid-January at a salary of $55,000. A small administrative staff will be formed soon thereafter.

In accepting the position, Winston indicated that his commitment to ensure that New Futures will serve as a catalyst for facilitating and coordinating services among public and non-profit agencies serving youth and the City School District.

Winston commented that "To be successful, the educational system must involve not only formal instruction in classrooms but also the experience and resources of the greater community. I expect to do all I can to ensure that young people of our community are served well as a result of significant connections between all community resources and the educational system."

Baseball Legend Greets Fans

Baseball great Pete Rose jokes with fans who come to see him at the Baseball Card Show at the Diplomat Party House recently. Rose signed autographed baseballs during the show and exhibit.

Landmark Restaurant Becomes Sports Bar

Gigi's Italian Restaurant had become a landmark in the Greece and 10th Ward area, but nothing is forever.

After 18 years, Lou Giordano and son Joe have remodeled, refurbished and altogether changed the restaurant into a sports bar complete with bocce court and basketball hoops.

Patrons are able to take part in sporting events or watch televised events in one of the six screens while enjoying full dinner specials or popular snack foods.

Bathtub Billy's Sports Bar, located in West Ridge Plaza is as unusual as their name and is open seven days a week.

Gymnastics Now Held At The Y

The YMCA Progressive Gymnastics Program, previously held at Nazareth Academy, is now held at Maplewood Family YMCA, 25 Driving Park Avenue, beginning January 4th, 1989.

"It's exciting to be able to bring a program formerly run for eight years off-site to its home at the Maplewood Y", says Karin Southard, Aquatic/Preschool Director. "The Maplewood YMCA conducted Gymnastics at Iroquois School in West Irondequoit from 1980 til October 1988, and since then til December '88 at Nazareth Academy. Having the program at Maplewood Y helps make it more accessible to children using the Y after school," says Southard.

Classes are scheduled for Monday and Wednesday afternoons from 3:45-4:45 p.m. With emphasis on bars, vaulting and tumbling, children improve their flexibility and coordination, while making new friends.

Classes are taught by Karin Southard, who holds a Bachelors degree in Physical Education and has obtained her U.S. Gymnastics Federation Safety Certification.

Register now for January classes by stopping in at Maplewood Family YMCA, 25 Driving Park Avenue.

Postal Alert Program

People 60 years of age and over are invited to register for Postal Alert, a program designed to provide an "early warning system" in the event of an emergency.

If mail accumulates in the box of a Postal Alert patron for more than 24 hours, the letter carrier contacts Life Line immediately. Life Line, who maintains all Postal Alert registration information, calls the patron's emergency contacts, or if necessary, the police, to check on the patron's welfare.

The program is free of charge. All senior citizens living in Monroe County are eligible to participate.

Registration forms can be obtained by calling Life Line at 275-5151; TDD for the hearing-impaired 275-2700. After filling out and returning a registration form, the Postal Alert patron will receive a mailbox sticker and instruction sheet by return mail. The sticker is valid through 1990.

Postal Alert is a cooperative effort of the U.S. Postal Service, the Monroe County Office for the Aging and the Life Line. The program has been in effect for several years and currently has over 700 patrons registered. For more information, call Life Line at 275-5151.

Rochester Deaf Artists Plan Exhibition

Artwork by six Rochester-area artists who are deaf will be on display from Jan. 6 to Feb. 10 in the Deaf Artists of America Gallery in downtown Rochester.

The exhibit will feature artwork by the following artists: James Canning (painting); Randy Dunham (painting); Paula Grcevic (paper-making); Valerie Nelson-Metlay (illustration); Wai Pong Ng (watercolor and furniture design) and Dorothy Schieven (watercolor).

The exhibit will take place in the gallery established last summer by Deaf Artists of America (DAA), a national non-profit arts service organization run by and for hearing-impaired artists. The gallery is the only one of its kind in the United States.

There will be an opening reception on Fri., Jan. 6 at 7:30 p.m. which will be open to the public. The gallery is located on the fourth floor of the Michaels/Stern Building at 87 North Clinton Avenue, two blocks north of Main Street.

DAA is also planning an artists symposium, where interested persons can meet the artists and discuss their artwork. The symposium will take place Tues., Jan. 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the DAA Gallery. Refreshments will be provided and a reverse interpreter will be available for non-deaf participants. An admission fee of $2 will be collected at the door.

The exhibit and symposium are made possible with public funds from the New York State Council on the Arts. In Monroe County, the decentralization program is administered by Arts for Greater Rochester.

DAA was established in 1985 by Tom Willard and Tracey Floyd, hearing-impaired alumni of Rochester Institute of Technology. The organization serves nearly 500 members from almost every state and offers a variety of services to its members in addition to running the gallery.

Future gallery exhibits planned include: Woodblock prints by David

Bloch, a deaf survivor of the Holocaust concentration camps; an exhibit of photographs by deaf photographers in recognition of the 150th anniversary of photography; and a celebration of deaf women artists from around the country.

DAA is also working with Pyramid Arts Center on a Deaf Arts Festival and Exhibition, which is scheduled for May 1989.

There will be one evening course offered on Wednesday evenings from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., beginning February 1, and one daytime course which will be held from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., beginning January 31.

"Penance: A Sacrament of Hope," will be presented by Ms. Marie Venaglia, Director of Religious Education at St. Charles Borromeo Parish in Greece. This series will explore some of the basic concepts of the theology of the sacrament of Penance.

Topics such as confession, conscience, sin and our call to holiness will be discussed. This five-week course will meet on Wednesday nights from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m., beginning February 1, in the Sacred Heart Rectory Hall.

"The Passover," this course on the Passover will have two presenters; Ms. Nancy Jean Rubin, a member of the Religious School Faculty of Temple Sinai, and Fr. Stan Kacprzak, parochial vicar at Sacred Heart Cathedral. During this course we will share the rich tradition of the Passover that comes down to us through the ages in history, literature and art.

We will also examine the relationship of the Jewish Seder to us at Christians. This five-week course will meet on Tuesday afternoons from 1:30 to 2:30 p.m., beginning January 31, in the Sacred Heart Rectory Recreation Room.

Fifth Anniversary Of NYS Games For Physically Challenged

The focus for the Fifth Anniversary of the annual four-day New York State Games for the Physically Challenged, will be to reach-out to every eligible 5 through 21 year old in New York State, to participate in the Games when they are held June 1-4.

"We may not yet get every boy and girl to compete here, or in the regional events in upstate New York, but we are using this anniversary as a standard from which we will work to make every physically challenged youngster aware of the program," said Susan Gordon Ryan, the Executive Director.

The program, which began in 1985 with approximately 200 kids competing in track, field, swimming, table tennis and equestrian events, plus many non-competitive demonstration sports, drew nearly 1,300 participants at last June's games at Mitchel Athletic Complex and Nassau Community College in Uniondale, plus a team of twelve athletes from Ireland.

"We have tried to make this a program where every young person who competes is rewarded with unforgettable memories of doing things that they might not even have considered before," said Ryan. "What is universally the result is all positive; new friends in a common interest, an awakened sense of their abilities, and of course pride of parents, schoolmates, and peer groups, in these new accomplishments."

This coming year, the program will be held in three locations. Youths who are blind, deaf, spinal cord injured, amputees, have Cerebral Palsy, Muscular Dystrophy, dwarfism, arthritis, asthma, etc. will be encouraged to compete in up to four of the athletic events that are offered.

There will be a first time regional meet of central New York in Amsterdam (near Albany) on April 8, followed by the big four-day competition on Long Island June 1-4, and winding up with the autumnal classic, now its third year at SUNY Brockport, October 6-7.

Registration is free and information regarding applications for any of the three events on Long Island, Amsterdam, or Brockport, may be obtained by mail or telephone. For additional information, write to the New York State Games for the Physically Challenged, PO Box 247, Belmont Lake State Park, Babylon, NY 11702, or call (516) 669-1000, x 294.

January Proclaimed Financial Aid Awareness Month

Governor Cuomo and local officials throughout New York will for the fifth consecutive year proclaim January 1989 as Financial Aid Awareness Month. The proclamations and events scheduled for January are intended to provide means of alerting parents, students and other interested parties about the availability of financial aid for post-secondary education and about the application process. Presentations at high schools, colleges and other community-based locations will be held throughout January to disseminate more specific information about federal, state and institutional financial aid. Financial Aid Awareness Month is a public service project sponsored by the New York State Financial Aid Administrators Association (NYSFAAA) in conjunction with Higher Education Services Corporation.

As part of this project, the Rochester area region of NYSFAAA and Chase Lincoln Bank are sponsoring a "Walk Through the Financial Aid Form" on Sun., Jan. 29 from 2-5 p.m. at the Rochester Convention Center. The Financial Aid Form is the main document used by schools to determine a family's eligibility for financial aid. Representatives from area colleges will present a line-by-line explanation of the Form with a small group question and answer session to follow. The program is free of charge and open to all interested parties, particularly parents of high school seniors. Reservations can be made by calling SUNY Brockport at 395-5445.

A second source of information being provided to area residents is a toll-free Financial Aid telephone Hotline 1-800-367-2670. The Hotline, staffed by financial aid professionals, will be in operation throughout January, Monday through Friday, one to seven p.m.

It is hoped that this entire effort will result in heightened awareness of the availability of financial aid, and will motivate consumers to recognize that Education Is Our Best Investment. For further information regarding Financial Aid Awareness Month in this area contact Edward Reiman, SUNY Geneseo, 245-5731.

Consumer Demo Days

On January 22, Bristol Mountain will hold its 4th Annual Consumer Demo Days. Representatives from well know manufacturers such as Elan, Dynaster, Head, Fischer, Volkl, Olin, and many more have been invited to bring their trucks and vans to Bristol Mountain on these days from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. so you can talk to the "Reps" and actually have the opportunity to try out all that great new ski equipment.

The public will be able to experiment on a variety of skis from all over the world and talk with the "experts" on how they're made. Many ski manufacturers will have their demo vans at Bristol. You can ski and compare and feel for yourself why one ski makes your style of turn better than another.

For further information contact Bristol Mountain, Route 64 South, Canandaigua, New York 14424. Phone (716) 374-6331.

New Offering

Breathtaking charm of yesteryear with all of the conveniences of today.

Surrounded by natural oak and refinished pine floors, the large foyer has the original fluted columns which add grace and elegance to this 7-room colonial.

Focusing on the fireplace, which is uniquely located in the dining room, gives an even flow into the parlor. The new oak kitchen has center island, built-in stove, and ceramic counter top.

Three bedrooms on the second floor are wall-to-wall carpeted. The bathroom, recently updated, has an oak vanity, tub and shower enclosure.

An added feature includes a finished room on the third floor.

This is a very special offering. It must be seen to be appreciated. Call Empire Realty, 458-7070, for an appointment.

Now that the holidays have passed, it's time to start the new year off on the right foot. If the busy holiday season has left some household chores or repairs unattended, the volunteers of the Regional Council on Aging's Home chore Program are waiting anxiously to help you out.

The Home Chore Program offers the elderly and handicapped of suburban Rochester eight hours of free volunteer home service. The services that can be provided range from light cleaning and rug shampooing to heavier work such as minor repairs, window washing, and yard work. New types of chores are always welcomed.

To qualify for the free service you must be at least 62 years of age or handicapped, meet the generous income guidelines and be a resident of one of the following participating suburbs: Brighton, Chili, East Rochester, Gates, Henrietta, Penfield, Perinton, Pittsford, Town or Village of Webster.

REAL ESTATE UPDATE

Dolores L. Celli OWNER/BROKER

FINANCIAL INDEPENDENCE

QUESTION: How does real estate investment fare as a method of making you financially independent in your old age?

ANSWER: Being financially independent in your later years is a feat by itself. According to a study by the U.S. Government, of all people over the age of 65, only 6% are financially independent. Also, according to this same study, all of the lucky segment became financially independent partly or wholly through ownership of real estate. No one buys their first home as a reason for financial independence at retirement but that's the way it normally works out.

OWNERSHIP OF REAL ESTATE is the major source of wealth for those in retirement years.

If there is anything we can do for you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at our location listed below. We have 18 professional agents to service you.

Do You Know The Difference Between An Adult Home and A Nursing Home?

Chances are you don't, and with over 51 Long Term Care facilities in Monroe County alone, choosing the best level of care for a relative can be difficult.

Besides being an advocate of patient's rights and quality treatment, an Ombudsman is a source of information: They are volunteers trained and certified by the State of New York to deal with the concerns of patients and their families in regards to long term care. They can provide quick answers to critical questions or help in the planning and placement of a relative when care outside the home is necessary.

If you need help understanding issues such as the types of facilities and levels of care available, the related costs and options for financing, or even counselling for the feelings of guilt that may accompany decisions that must be made, talk to an Ombudsman.

Whether you're a patient, concerned relative, or a friend, an Ombudsman can help. Or if you'd like to volunteer, we could use your help! For more information call 454-3224 today, ask for Sharon Boyd.

Carnevale Dinner Dance

St. Francis of Assisi Church, 77 Whitney St., has scheduled its annual pre-lenten Carnevale Dinner Dance for Sat., Feb. 4, in the parish hall.

There will be a buffet dinner catered by Wilshire Restaurants and dancing will be to the music of Disc Jockey Sam Trulio (Tru-Sound Studios). Everyone participates in the musical chairs, hokey-pokey, chicken dance, polkas and tarantellas.

Tickets are $13 per person and can be purchased after all weekend masses or from the rectory during office hours. Call and make your reservations for parties of 6 or more, 436-6693 (rectory) or Alga Liluette, 458-1809 or Phyllis Burruto, 328-1055.

A Cash Bar starts at 6 p.m. with Dinner at 7 p.m. and dancing. There will be an added attraction as a surprise for your enjoyment and entertainment.

Students Take Exam

Two hundred seventy three grade 8 students wrote the Aquinas entrance exam on January 7. This figure compares very favorably with numbers who wrote for the past six years. Anyone who missed this date or the make-up exam on January 14 at Cardinal Mooney, and still wishes to be considered for admission to Aquinas for September 1989, can make alternate arrangements to become members of the Class of 1993. Please contact Mr. Dennis Sadler, Vice-Principal: Academics (phone: 254-2020) about particulars for being included.

HOLY SPIRIT, you who solve all problems, who light all roads so that I can obtain my goals, You have given me the divine gift to forgive and forget all evils against me in that in all instances of my life you are with me. I want in this short prayer to confirm once again, that I never want to be separated from you and even in spite of all material illusions I wish to be with you in eternal glory. Thank you for your mercy to me and mine.
Say for three consecutive days; after third day, favor will be granted even if it appears to be difficult. This prayer must be published immediately after the favor is granted without mention of the favor. Thank you.

Youngsters Tour Downtown

Nazareth Kicks Off Magazine Drive

Nazareth Academy's Magazine Drive is an annual fund raising event that not only raises money for school operations and programming, but that also develops students' self-confidence as they go out into the community selling magazines.

Sister Margaret Kunder, SSJ, is coordinator of the drive. "Our students want to help Nazareth Academy any way they can, and by participating in the drive, they can help their school while winning prizes for salesmanship," said Sister Margaret. To order magazines for your home or business, call Sister Margaret at 458-8583. The drive closes February 9.

Sue Ikel, a senior at Nazareth Academy and one of last year's top salespeople, said that it's hard work selling magazines, but that she has developed poise in dealing with customers she doesn't know. "For the first two years I went door to door everywhere, and obtained a list of those people who bought from me," she said. "Now I can work from that list and get renewals. I've recently expanded into area businesses, from doctors and dentists to lawyers and architects. Some people buy from me because I'm from Nazareth Academy!"

Aquinas Sports Banquet

The fifth annual Aquinas Sports Celebrity Dinner will take place on Wed., Feb. 8 at the Diplomat Party House at 1956 Lyell Avenue. Refreshments are at 6 p.m. and dinner begins at 7 p.m.

This year's Sports Celebrity Dinner will induct four new members into the Aquinas Hall of Fame: John Sullivan (coach who introduced football to Aquinas in 1930), Max O. Russer (played on the 1930 and 1931 Aquinas teams for Coach Sullivan), Pete Pavia (basketball captain and now major college referee) and Dr. Greg Riley (outstanding ten letter man at Aquinas). Their induction will bring to twelve the number of persons inducted into the Hall of Fame. Coach Sullivan's family will be attending the event, plus the other three inductees and their families and friends.

An impressive array of speakers will address the dinner attendees: quarterback Jim Kelly of the Buffalo Bills, boxer Aaron Pryor, coach Rollie Massimo of the Villanova Wildcats, LPGA leading rookie Dottie Pepper-Mochrie, Yvon Lambert of NHL hockey, Johnny Oates of the Rochester Red Wings, and many, many others.

Joint Resolution May Result In Shared Space Agreement

City Council President John G. Curran and Board of Education President Benjamin L. Douglas are submitting a joint resolution which amounts to an historic first-step between the District and the City Council. The agreement codifies a commitment to shared use of space in all new and renovated public buildings. It will first affect the District's plans to build four new school buildings in the near future, and how those school buildings will be put to optimal use by the Rochester community. In the future, it may affect city recreation, library and other community buildings.

The resolution calls for two basic actions:

- the creation of a committee of Council and Board members to examine shared use potential on each public building and community project; and,

- a commitment to create the greatest shared use possible.

Community use of the many school buildings throughout the city has been a long-standing topic of discussion between the City government and the School Board. This new policy, created by both the City Council and the Board of Education, will ensure that the potential for maximum use, not only in education, but also for a wide range of community programs and activities, is incorporated into the building plans. "It provides the maximum benefit for each capital dollar invested by the Rochester taxpayer," says Curran.

President Douglas went on to say that "rather than building a school and, for example, a separate recreation center or library, it makes more sense to consider building one complex, with both facilities included. The bottom line remains that the buildings currently being planned and built will first, and foremost, be school buildings."

The City Council and the Board of Education will participate in a collaborative process to determine the specific needs of both the City and the District for each public building construction and/or major rehabilitation project. "This policy has evolved from many detailed discussions between members of the Council and the Board of Education," says Curran. "As the policy-making bodies for the City and the District, we have set in motion a program of capital productivity dedicated to giving the Rochester taxpayers the most for their capital dollars."

The policy takes effect immediately. The School Board will determine the list of potential sites for the four new school buildings, after which the joint committee will be named and begin to examine shared use shortly after.

No. 34 Students Write To Pen Pals

Did you ever notice how hard it is to get a youngster to write a letter? Well, the children in Mrs. Ciccarelli's class at School 34 are all busy writing letters -- and not grumbling one bit about it. The class is participating in the "Weekly Reader" Writing Pals Program. The children are writing to pen pals in Rockaway Borough, New Jersey.

The School 34 children have written about all kinds of things to their writing Pals in New Jersey. They've told their unseen friends about what they like to do at home and at school as well as about their families. In return, the Rockaway students in

New Jersey have told local youngsters about their school and their hobbies.

The Writing Pals Program, which is sponsored by the editors of "Weekly Reader", has matched more than five million children in this nationwide letter exchange program during the past ten years. Students exchange letters with children of similar ages and different backgrounds who are located many miles away.

Dr. Lynell Johnson, executive Editor of "Weekly Reader," says: "It's great to see how excited children and their teachers get about the Writing Pals Program. Because it's not just fun. It's also very much worthwhile. The program builds friendships across the miles. It teaches kids about other parts of their country and it gets them writing!"

Nazareth Academy Students To Visit Europe

Saturday, February 11, nine students from Nazareth Academy and three adults will fly out of New York City to visit Europe over the school's winter recess. The trip is one of the many special opportunities for cultural enrichment that Nazareth Academy's Foreign Language Department offers its students.

Among the countries the group will visit is Spain, where they will spend time in Madrid's royal palace; the cities of Prado and Es-corial, with its famous palace monastery; Segovia; with its medieval fortress and Roman aqueduct; and Toledo, where students will have a chance to view El Greco artwork, the cathedral, and the city's castle. In Paris, the group will tour the city, see Versailles, Chartres, the Louvre, and the nineteenth-century Musee d'Orsay.

The trip is coordinated by Sally McMahon, a member of the Foreign Language Department at Nazareth Academy.

Festivities Scheduled At Center For Youth Services

Some open houses are a bit solemn and drab, but The Center for Youth Services is too excited about its new Northwest counseling and Prevention Education Services offices to just stand around chit-chatting over a dull punch. Instead, The Center is inviting the whole community to a party, on February 6, from 3:30 to 7 p.m., with music, juggling, balloons for all, and really good food. The new office is at 234 Dewey Avenue. Maria Gillard's lively songs and acoustic guitar will complement the food catered by Jazzberry's Uptown and staff gourmets, and Rick Simpson will not only show off his clowning and juggling skills -- he'll teach them, too.

The Center, a non-profit agency, provides counseling to teens (12 to 21) and their families, emergency housing for homeless youth, and prevention education workshops in area schools and organizations. Services are free, confidential, and easy to schedule.

Families, teens, and any neighbors interested in learning about agency services are invited to stop in for fun, food and information.

Knaak Completes Course

Navy Petty Officer 3rd Class Gerald E. Knaak, son of John H. and Yung H. Knaak of Curtis St., has completed the Advanced First Term Avionics (aviation electronics) Course.

During the 26-week course at the Naval Air Technical Training Center Millington, Tenn., Knaak studied airborne communications, fire control systems and anti-submarine warfare systems. In addition to the technology of these systems, he studied mathematics, physics, electronic theory and the operating principles of digital and analog computers.

He joined the Navy in November 1987.

Seniors Raise Money For House Of Mercy

Nazareth Academy seniors raised over $125 among themselves in the few weeks before Christmas to donate to the House of Mercy. The money was accepted by Sister Rita Lewis, RSM, who is on the staff at the House of Mercy, a neighborhood "drop-in" center where the homeless, alcoholics, drug addicts, and others can receive food, clothing, and advice about programs such as Welfare and Social Security Income.

"At Christmas time we receive lots of donations," said Sr. Rita. "But when we run out, and we inevitably do, we purchase food vouchers for the people redeemable at Amalfi's Grocery on Portland Avenue. The money that Nazareth Academy raised for us went towards these food vouchers."

Nazareth Academy,

located at 1001 Lake Avenue, is known for its outreach into the community. "Our students serve the public in many capacities," said Sr. Ann Collins, SSJ. "They work at St. Joseph's House of Hospitality; our Show Choir performs for elementary school students and for nursing home residents; each year students travel to Selma, Alabama, and work at the Sisters of St. Joseph mission; and the whole school gets involved with such diocesan hunger programs as Operation Breadbox." According to Sr. Ann, community service is an important aspect of an education at Nazareth Academy that teaches students a respect for the dignity of others and an awareness of the students' own gifts that they have to share.

Model Railroad Club Moves Giant Train 'Puzzle'

Bob Moore connects track on model railroad layout.

Recently members of the Ironhorse Model Railroad Club Inc. were faced with a dilemma; to move a 14 foot by 43 foot railroad layout from a member's home. It was decided to cut the layout into giant jigsaw puzzle pieces. All the pieces were cut to fit through a standard doorway which meant some of the pieces would be 6 feet tall when stood on edge. The resulting 17 pieces were transported to the new home and assembled. Careful preplanning meant most of the puzzle pieces have gone together well.

This is the third home for the club which has been in existence for over 23 years. The Ironhorse was originally located at the corners of West Main and Broad streets, where many families enjoyed our open houses at Christmas time.

After ten years the club moved to a member's home in Greece. It remained there for thirteen years. During that time it was shown to community organizations such as the Boy Scouts. Members also provided a Model Railroad Building course for the Greece School District - Adult Education.

The Ironhorses' new home is above Simon's Furniture Co., 461 Ridge Road West. Members meet Thursday nights and Sunday afternoons. New members are welcome who share a love of trains and model railroading. If you would like to join or see the railroad layout stop by or call 254-0108 for more information.

'Earn Your Way To Camp Candy Sale'

"The annual YMCA of Greater Rochester earn your way to camp candy sale kicks off at the Maplewood YMCA February 4, continuing until May 13, 1989," according to Nancy Egan, Program Director at the Maplewood Family YMCA, 25 Driving Park Avenue.

Egan adds "Children earn their way to any YMCA Summer Camp by selling candy bars to friends and neighbors. Parents who want their children to attend camp, but are hesitant because of affordability will be able to by participating in the YMCA Candy Sale. This year, youngsters will sell the three most popular varieties, Almond, Crisp and Carmello Candy Bars."

For more information about the Candy Sale or summer programming, contact Nancy Egan at 647-3600.

New Medicaid Guidelines Are Out

More people will be eligible for Medicaid in 1989, thanks to state legislation that increases eligibility levels to the Federal poverty level effective January 1, 1989.

"Although it is not known how many more Monroe County households will be eligible, the state estimates an additional 233,000 New Yorkers will be eligible for Medicaid," according to Monroe County Executive Thomas R. Frey.

Governor Mario Cuomo signed legislation in September that raised eligibility levels effective in January. The new levels, which will benefit households with three or more persons, are: three persons, $8,500, up from $7,600; four persons, $10,200, up from $7,800; five persons, $11,900, up from $7,900.

The NYS Department of Social Services estimates that more than 90,000 new people will be eligible during the first year of the expanded program, including about 55,000 children.

Another group of people that will benefit from the change, according to Frey, are approximately 500 current clients whose income is slightly above the current eligibility level for Medicaid and are eligible only if they spend some of their income on medical expenses.

"Many of these recipients will no longer have to spend their own money in order to remain eligible under the higher eligibility guidelines," Frey said.

Currently, more than one million New Yorkers are covered by Medicaid, including 57,000 Monroe County residents.

Ice Fishing Hints For Area Sportsmen

Area fishermen planning on ice fishing for the first time this year may need to know the best method of fishing for northern pike and on what waters.

Pike are predator fish usually found lurking in the shallow weed beds. Tip-ups are generally used to catch them. The tip-ups should have a good strong main line of braided nylon in the 20 to 30 pound test range. Leaders can either be steel or monofilament, dependent on your preference. If monofilament is used, make sure it's at least 15 pound test or the razor sharp teeth of the pike will cut the line. Treble or English hooks seem to be preferred by fishermen. For bait, 3 to 6 inch suckers, chubs and/or shiners seem most productive, in the order given. The bait is attached to the treble hooks under the dorsal fin to allow the minnow natural movement. On English hooks, the bait fish is threaded on just behind the head with the hook toward the tail. Depth of bait should be 1 1/2 to 2 feet above the weed bed.

Waters, in Region 8, frequented by anglers after northern pike are: Conesus Lake, Braddock Bay, Buck Pond, Seneca Lake, Port Bay and Sodus Bay.

You will also want to contact Fin, Fur & Feather Facts, NYSDEC in Avon to obtain a copy of the brochure "Ice Fishing's Great in Region 8."

Selecting Child Care From The BBB

Most working parents, whether a single parent or a family where husband and wife both have jobs outside the home must make arrangements for child care. Naturally, working parents want to make certain that the child care they select is the best for the child and that it is affordable.

Since the quality of child care facilities and the experience of those who care for children varies widely, parents want to explore all the alternatives before making this very important decision.

To help parents evaluate child care services the Better Business Bureau has published the pamphlet, "Tips On Selecting Child Care Services."

The booklet emphasizes starting the search early so you will have plenty of time to make the best choice. Many such services have waiting lists and it is a good idea to check with other parents to see what their experience has been. The 10-page booklet provides other practical suggestions for making the best possible decision.

This new booklet is available without charge from the BBB/Rochester - 1122 Sibley Tower Rochester, N.Y. 14604.

Families Needed For Exchange Students

American Scandinavian Student Exchange Programs (ASSE) is seeking local families to host Scandinavian, French, Spanish, German, Dutch, British, Swiss, Japanese and Australian girls and boys, 15 to 18 years of age, coming to this area for the upcoming high school year. These personable and academically select foreign exchange students are bright, curious and anxious to learn about this country through living as part of a family, attending high school and sharing their own culture and language with their newly adopted American family. The students are fluent in English and are sponsored by ASSE, a non-profit, public benefit organization, affiliated with the Swedish and Finnish Departments of Education and cooperating with the Canadian Provincial Ministries of Education. The exchange students arrive from their home country shortly before school begins in late August and return at the end of the school year in June. Each ASSE student is fully insured, brings his or her own personal spending money and expects to bear his or her share of household responsibilities, as well as being included in normal family activities and lifestyle. The students are well screened and qualified by ASSE. Families may select the youngster of their choice from extensive student applications, family photos and biographical essays. Students and families are encouraged to begin corresponding prior to the students arrival. ASSE is also seeking local high school students to become ASSE exchange students abroad. Students should be between 15 and 18 years old and interested in living with a European, Canadian or Australian family, attending school and learning about the lands and people of Scandinavia, France, Spain, Germany, Holland, Britain, Switzerland, Canada and Australia. Students should have a good academic record and desire to experience another culture and language through living with a warm and giving volunteer family. Academic year and shorter term summer vacation programs are available. Persons interested in obtaining more information about becoming a host family or becoming a student abroad should contact ASSE's local representative: Lucille Bradford at (716) 392-9702 or call (800) 333-3802.

Charity Dance Marathon Slated

The seventh-annual "Dance for Love," a 24-hour dance marathon to benefit terminally-ill children, kicks off Fri., Feb. 3, at 8 p.m., at St. John Fisher College. More than 200 Fisher students are expected to jump and jive their way to exhaustion during the event, which last year raised about $25,000 in pledges. The money is used by the Teddi Project, a

Camp Good Days and Special Times program that grants terminally-ill children a last wish. Once again, a host of live bands and guest disc jockeys will be on hand, as well as an army of volunteers ready to feed, nurse and encourage marathoners. The dance marathon, always an emotional event for those taking part, will be particularly meaningful this year, as it is dedicated to Lisa Pieczonka, a junior at Fisher who died of cancer Oct. 2, 1988. "The Teddi Project has come home," said marathon organizer Lou Buttino, an associate professor at Fisher. "It's really taken root in the Fisher community. "It's not only because it is dedicated to Lisa, but I'm stopped by everyone, from security guards to the president, saying 'What can I do?' It belongs to all of us now. It's part of the community." The public is invited to stop by Fisher's Kearney Auditorium during the marathon, make a donation, and lend their support to the dancers. Donations can also be sent by mail. Send check, payable to the Teddi Project, to Dr. Lou Buttino, St. John Fisher College, 3690 East Ave., Rochester 14618.

Council Member Scott Named Recipient Of Civic Award For Government

Vice President Ruth H. Scott, an at-Large Council Member since 1977, has been named by the Greater Rochester Chamber of Commerce as the recipient of their 1989 Civic Award for Government. The Chamber each year awards seven different Civic Medals to area community leaders for Social Services, Culture & Art, International Relations, Commerce, Education and Government.

As the recipient of the government medal, Vice President Scott is being recognized for the many contributions she makes to the Rochester community, far above and beyond her duties as City Council Member and Vice President. The unique aspects of the Chamber's Civic

Medals include: recognition of a community leaders contributions to people and groups where they are not financially compensated; understanding that the willingness to share one's talents and time with their neighbors is invaluable to a better community; and that volunteerism, in its many forms and with its many positive results, will make

Rochester a better community, and Rochesterians better people.

Vice President Scott has contributed to the Rochester community in many ways, including service as a Board Member for the Rochester Area Foundation, the Women's Career Center and Women in Municipal Government, in addition to many other organizations.

Slaughter Announces Appointments

Congresswoman Louise Slaughter, announced the names of local men and women she has nominated for appointments to the U.S. Air Force, Naval, Military and Merchant Marine academies.

Slaughter said the caliber of students applying for appointments was "outstanding" and the competition among the students was "keen."

Slaughter selected the candidates with the help of her local Military Academy Advisory Committee, comprised of educators and professionals, many of whom are veterans.

"We had some tough choices to make," Slaughter said, "and we can be extremely proud of the number of highly qualified students we have in our area."

Students nominated from the Rochester area are:

Sarah Ann Kerwin and David Dixon of Rochester, Joshua J. Masson, Steven Lee and Todd Lounsbury of Pittsford, and Karl Fishbach of West Henrietta to the Air Force Academy.

Clay Berardi and Alexa Castle of Rochester, and Richard J. Slakes of Henrietta to the Naval Academy.

Christianne Turner of East Rochester to the Merchant Marine Academy.

REAL ESTATE UPDATE

WHICH CLOSING COSTS ARE DEDUCTIBLE?

QUESTION: I signed a lot of checks during the closing of the purchase of our home. Can you tell me which closing costs are deductible from my income tax?

ANSWER: Property taxes are usually pro-rated so that both the buyer and the seller each pay the taxes for the portion of the year that each owns the property. Each may deduct this amount—and only this amount. Another deductible item that appears in closing costs is interest charged to the seller on the mortgage up to the date of closing. Also deductible as interest is the amount charged as points.

Non-deductible closing expenses are fire insurance, FHA mortgage insurance, and charges for rent for occupancy before closing.

MANY CLOSING COSTS ARE DEDUCTIBLE. Keep good records of the transaction so as not to lose any.

"Dad, was George Washington really a Mason?"

"He certainly was. He even took his oath-of-office on a Bible borrowed from a Masonic Lodge, and was Master of his Lodge during his Presidency."

In all, fourteen Presidents and eighteen Vice-Presidents have been Masons, along with many other names you would recognize. For example:

"Buzz" Aldrin	Garibaldi	Arnold Palmer
Gene Autry	John Glenn	Norman Vincent Peale
Beethoven	Barry Goldwater	Paul Revere
Irving Berlin	Burl Ives	Eddie Rickenbacker
Simon Bolivar	John Paul Jones	Will Rogers
Ernest Borgnine	Rudyard Kipling	Red Skelton
Omar Bradley	Lafayette	Danny Thomas
Jimmy Doolittle	Mozart	Mark Twain
Henry Ford	Douglas MacArthur	John Wayne
Benjamin Franklin

You might even be more surprised at how many of your friends and neighbors are Masons.

Freemasonry (or Masonry) is the oldest and largest fraternity in the world. It brings men together from all walks of life, for fellowship, the promotion of integrity, and good citizenship. It is not a political or religious organization, but does require a belief in a Supreme Being.

If you would like to know more, talk to a Mason--your questions will be welcome.

Sciortino Finishes Recruit Training

Navy Fireman Recruit Eugene T. Sciortino, son of Eugene O. Sciortino of Locust St., has completed recruit training at Recruit Training Command, San Diego.

During Sciortino's eight-week training cycle, he studied general military subjects designed to prepare him for further academic and on-the-job training in one of the Navy's 85 basic fields. Sciortino's studies included seamanship, close order drill, Naval history and first aid. Personnel who complete this course of instruction are eligible for three hours of college credit in Physical Education and Hygiene.

A 1988 graduate of John Marshall High School, he joined the Navy in September 1988.

Military Records Found Could Benefit Vets

The discovery of some 10 million military medical records, which would help replace records lost in a 1973 fire, may help many World War II and Korean War Army and Army Air Corps Veterans file for VA Disability compensation claims. In a letter to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, providing advance notice of the discovery, VA Administrator Thomas K. Turnage said that his agency had just been advised by the National Archives that the records had been located a few days earlier.

The VFW Nationwide Network of Service Officers, working with the VA, now hopes to assist many veterans whose claims had previously been denied because no record was available to confirm medical disabilities that occurred while in the military service. For assistance please contact the Veteran's of Foreign War's Post in your community.

CP Telethon Raises $228,073

Star-athon '89, United Cerebral Palsy Association's annual telethon, raised $228,073, according to Campaign Chairman Anthony V. Savine. This total represents an increase of $55,481 over 1988 contributions. The telethon, broadcast from UCP's Brighton Center over WOKR-TV 13, is United Cerebral Palsy's tenth telethon.

More than 800 volunteers worked on the telethon fund raising campaign. More than 5,000 residents of the Greater Rochester area made contributions to UCP through the event.

WOKR-TV 13 was joined this year by WVOR-FM Radio, which promoted Star-athon over the past week.

WOKR-TV Assistant News Director Don Alhart and his wife, Mary, were joined by WVOR co-hosts Tony Matthews and Dee Alexander, and almost twenty other area television and radio personalities.

Contributions help fund a variety of equipment and services for physically handicapped children and adults living in the Greater Rochester area. Recent telethon-funded projects have included an equipment workshop, containing special tools and parts for the design and repair of adaptive equipment, a training apartment, used to teach consumer, homemaking and self-help skills to physically handicapped adults and a therapeutic horseback riding program.

Other projects have included an equipment loan center, allowing parents and relatives of handicapped persons to borrow adapted equipment without charge, competitive athletic programs for the handicapped and training and therapy devices, including voice synthesis equipment, electronic selffeeders and computer devices.

United Cerebral Palsy Association of Rochester was founded in 1946 by parents and friends of physically handicapped children. Today, UCPA provides a variety of educational and therapeutic services to children and adults with cerebral palsy and other disabling conditions. Last year, United Cerebral Palsy Association of Rochester gave more than three-quarters of a million hours of direct service to physically handicapped children and adults living in the Rochester area.

Deputies Take Jail Supervisors Course

Twenty-two sheriff's deputies from eight counties have graduated from a unique course for jail supervisors run by the County of Monroe - Office of the Sheriff.

Sheriff Andrew P. Meloni said 59 deputies in all from Monroe and 12 other counties across the state are taking the 70-hour course, believed to be the first of its kind in New York.

Sheriff Meloni said he recognized a need to provide training for jail personnel who have supervisory roles. "We long have had such a course for our Police Bureau personnel and I felt it time we afforded such training to our jail supervisors as well," the Sheriff said.

Thirty-six Monroe County deputies from the rank of corporal to lieutenant are enrolled in the course along with 23 men and women from Wayne, Genesee, Ontario, Wyoming, Oswego, Livingston, Tioga, Yates, Washington, Oneida, Putnam and Ulster counties.

Sheriff Meloni said the course, being held at the Monroe County Criminal Justice and Public Safety Training Center, was offered free of charge to all sheriff's departments in the state.

Twelve of the 14 certified instructors were drawn from the County of Monroe - Office of the Sheriff staff. The other two are from the Rochester Police Department and Monroe Community College.

The course content is made up of classes on leadership, the role of the supervisor, the supervisor and management, time management, information management, employee concerns, legal issues, civil liberties, management of rights, stress management, staffing and budget, counseling and discipline, review of reports, the art of documentation, dynamics of communication, evaluation of personnel, managerial values and the supervisor as a trainer.

The graduates from Monroe County are Lt. William Forman, Sgt. Thomas Wren, Sgt. Edl- traud Bergmann, Sgt. Miguel Pereira, Sgt. Raymond Chalifoux, Cpl. Willie Brown, Cpl. Leonard Pecorella, Cpl. Edwin Scorse, Cpl. Henry Rouse, Cpl. John Dianetti and Cpl. Charles Rosen- zweig.

Park Ridge Opens Acute Rehab Unit

Park Ridge Hospital has announced the opening of a 15-bed acute rehabilitation unit.

"The Unit will serve patients who suffer from traumatic or chronic illnesses or disabilities such as multiple sclerosis, stroke, arthritis, fractures of lower extremities, or Parkinson's disease," said Richard Dobson, M.D., medical director of the new Unit.

At present, area residents in need of these services are transferred to a rehabilitation unit in one of three area hospitals, or are placed in a less intensive, less comprehensive rehabilitation program.

"To date, Monroe County has had approximately 55 acute rehabilitation beds, some of those however are specifically designated for spinal cord or head injuries," Dobson said. "The addition of Park Ridge's unit increases the county's acute rehabilitation bed count to 70." With the growth of our elderly population, anticipated to comprise 12.1 percent of northwestern Monroe County's total population by 1990, and an increased percentage of people surviving serious accidents, the demand for acute comprehensive rehabilitation is expected to continue.

"Rehabilitation has changed over the years from discrete therapy to comprehensive treatment," Dobson said. "The new Unit focuses on an inter-disciplinary team approach, comprised of a physician, a social worker, primary nurse, chaplain, and all necessary therapists, to address every need of the patient."

Some outpatient rehabilitation services provided by Park Ridge, in addition to physical therapy and occupational therapy, include a geriatric assessment clinic, a back program, sports medicine clinic, speech therapy - swallowing program, and respiratory care.

Dumpster Tales Come To School 41

Cynthia Anderson came to School 41 in early winter to perform the forty minute trilogy on environmental issues called "Tales From The Dumpster." This program explores the environmental issues of littering, recycling and graffiti. This situation offers use of theatrical spoofing that is both entertaining and educational to youngsters of elementary school age.

The present script is a product collaboration between Tim Anderson (cartman) and Cynthia Anderson. It's message allows youngsters to realize they have the power to change their world and make it better.

This program is sponsored by the City of Rochester and the Department of Environmental Services.

Nazareth Educator Published In Nationwide Journal

Two Sisters of St. Joseph recently made headlines in the January 1989 issue of Sisters Today (vol. 60, n. 5), a monthly journal published in Collegeville, MN., that addresses concerns and experiences of women religious today. Sister Julie LeVeque, a consultant to Restart Substance Abuse Service and a privately pastoral counselor, and Sister Beatrice Ganley, known locally for her years of teaching at Nazareth Academy. Sister Beatrice, a well-known local poet, contributed the poem "Canticle (from Luke 1:46-53)" to Sisters Today. Currently Sister Beatrice is Student Publications Advisor to Nazareth College; in addition, she is editor and principal writer of re:union Magazine, a thrice yearly publication of the Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester that reaches some 3,000 people around Rochester and across the nation. In addition, she has been the editor of "Voices of Peace" column in the Rochester Peace and Justice Education Center newsletter; Director of Public Relations at the Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester; and has taught extensively in diocesan elementary schools and at Nazareth Academy. Her work, including poetry, book reviews, and interviews, has been published in such journals as Verity, Voices for Peace, Agape, the Courier-Journal, The Brockport Forum, Images, and Lake Effect. She has held poetry readings throughout Rochester, and is a member of the Poetry Society of America, Rochester Poets, Women in Communications, Inc., and Poets and Writers, Inc., among other organizations. Highly involved in the Witness for Peace movement for Nicaragua in Rochester, Sister Beatrice traveled to Nicaragua in October, 1985, and has been engaged as a speaker by innumerable groups, from local parishes and artists' groups to colleges and other organizations, to discuss the situation in Nicaragua and other subjects. The Sisters of St. Joseph of Rochester are a not-for-profit congregation of women religious working in a spirit of service for others since 1854.

CHIROPRACTIC FOR BETTER HEALTH

DR. ALBERT V. CERA

—CHIROPRACTOR—

Lower Back Problems

If you've been treated for lower back problems and the pain and discomfort are still there, you may be able to benefit from chiro-practic treatment. If your spine is out of alignment, this may be causing other problems in addition to lower back pain. Because the body's nervous system is closely integrated with the spine, any misalign-ment can cause painful ir-ritation. Abnormal nerve function may affect what-ever organs, glands, or tis-sues that are supplied by that nerve.

Thus, since this health problem may occur, more scientific research and in-dependent clinical studies show that all health pro-fessionals, dealing with this type of back problem bringing on this symptom can be treated effectively. More especially, Chiro-practic care, a leading health profession, that deals more toward the holistic and traditional ap-proach to health, specifi-cally renders health care, treating the "whole per-son's" physical, psychol-ogical, spiritual and emo-tional dimensions regard-ing this No. 1 health disease - back problems - resulting in back pain.

The nerves of the lower back, for example, are con-nected to certain organs and other structures in that area. If lower back spinal misalignment is putting undue pressure on the nerves, you may be suffering from more than lower back pain. It may be having a direct effect on other areas of your body. A thorough examination can disclose exactly where the problem is and how it can be corrected.

For further information regarding this subject or should you or others you know have similar prob-lems, you may call our central office for help at 906 Dewey Ave., Roch-ester, N.Y., (716) 458-9725 where for 30 years thou-sands of cases have expe-rienced effective relief and lasting results.

I'll be looking forward to sharing with you each month, with my next arti-cle on: "The Spinal Exam" in the next issue. Until then, yours truly for Bet-ter Health!

Mastery Learning Program Travels Around NYS

Sister Diana Dolce, Director of the Mastery Learning Program (MLP) at Nazareth Academy, recently presented MLP theory at an Albany conference in December, sponsored by the New York State Association for Non-Public Schools, and appeared at the Melrose Community School in the South Bronx on January 27. In June, she will follow up with a twelve-hour course which will enable the Melrose faculty to use MLP theory in their classrooms.

Mastery Learning is a special technique for teaching, developed by Dr. Benjamin Bloom and John B. Carroll. At Nazareth Academy, Sister Diana has modified this technique to work in conjunction with the New York State curricula.

"MLP's philosophy holds that there are no better or poorer students, only faster and slower learners," said Sister Diana. Given enough time and the right learning environment, all students can learn well."

A visit to Syracuse in April is also planned by Sister Diana, where she will attend the sixth annual convention of the Catholic School Administrators Association of New York State and the New York State Federation of Catholic School Parents.

Masons Raise Funds For Ronald McDonald House

The newest Rochester's Ronald McDonald House in Rochester will be built on one and a half acres made available through the University of Rochester, and within walking distance of Strong Memorial Hospital at 333 Westmoreland Drive. The cornerstone laying ceremony is expected to be performed by the Grand Master of Masons of the State of New York, Roswell T. Swits of Schenectady in May of 1989. There will be 20 bedrooms, a kitchen, dining area, living room, children's area, library and laundry facilities. It is expected to be opened as a lodging for families of hospital patients in September of this year. Ground was cleared for the $1.1 million house last fall.

There are currently 114 Houses around the country which provides homey, inexpensive lodging near hospitals for families of seriously ill children. Rooms cost $10 a night. Each guest has to perform a simple chore like dusting or vacuuming. The Houses enable families to remain near their children when being treated in hospitals that are often great distances from their homes.

The first House was built in Philadelphia in 1974. Fred Hill, a tight end for the Philadelphia Eagles, pointed out the need after his daughter was diagnosed with leukemia. The team, Philadelphia's McDonald's restaurants and the community raised the money for the home. The same kind of support has been developed in Rochester involving the efforts of volunteers from the many service, social and fraternal organizations in the metropolitan community.

In February of 1988 for instance, the Freemasons of Monroe County set up booths in Greece Town and Marketplace Malls, with the full cooperation of owners from the Genesee Management firm. The public generously contributed over $20,000 in a week long drive.

From January 30 through February 11 of this year, the Masonic campaign has been repeated with a goal of $25,000. Eastview Mall has joined in the effort and Masons from Ontario, Seneca, Livingston and Yates counties are participating as solicitors.

On February 6th at Marketplace Mall, Gabe Dalmuth of TV Channel 10 News worked with the Masons as a solicitor. He received a donation of $2000 from James Lee, secretary of Union #45 Lodge from Lima, New York, pictured by area Masons as a small lodge of about 140 members, but having a big heart. The general campaign is featured as "Have a Heart - Buy a Heart", wherein each donation is recognized by the donor's name being printed on a heart that is displayed with thousands of others in the malls. The donor also receives a small red heart to wear as they shop to show they were contributors. The Junior Grand Warden of Masons of the State, and a Rochester resident, Ronald D. Mertens, the Shrine Clowns and members of the staff of the West Henrietta McDonald's along with manager Elmer Potter were soliciting contributions when this special presentation was made.

Jack Slattery, recently retired from radio station

Jim Kirkwood, Ron Mertens, Jim Lee and David Clarke were on hand for the donation of a $2000 check from Union #45 Lodge in Lima to the Ronald McDonald House. Mason clowns "Sleepy" and "Bubbles" took time from their fundraising to pose for the cameras.

WHAM, and Sheriff Andrew Meloni have also volunteered time as solicitors appearing at Eastview and Greece Town malls with other Masons from the 27 local lodges, and those from surrounding counties. Donald Cook, retired assemblyman from Henrietta was a solicitor. Nancy S. Robbins, president of Home Away From Home, Inc., which will own and operate the Rochester House, is very pleased the local Masons have taken on this charitable activity as an annual event. She serves many organizations and agencies throughout the Monroe County area in a volunteer capacity. She has been recognized for her efforts by being named Woman of the Year by Rochester Women Magazine in 1985, receiving Central Trust's "Annual Nathaniel" award in 1986, being presented the prestigious Jefferson Award for outstanding public service in 1988 and in January of 1989, receiving the DeWitt Clinton Award from New York State Masons which recognizes outstanding public service by non-Masons.

On behalf of the fraternal order, David Clarke, District Deputy Grand Master of Masons and Ronald Mertens expressed deep appreciation to the people of western New York for their caring attitude and renowned generosity. Terry Wihlen, president of Masonic Masters and Wardens which sponsors this event, joins in this acknowledgement.

After the meeting the Association celebrated with a reception in the Sacred Heart Rectory.

Kelly Services To Volunteer Help To Non-Profit Organizations

Imagine devoting 60 years of labor - a lifetime of work - to helping charitable organizations accomplish their work. Kelly Services is setting out to achieve that goal by 1989.

Over the past four years, Kelly Services has donated almost 97,000 hours to non-profit organizations in the U.S., Canada and Puerto Rico during Kellyweek. This year more than 27,000 additional hours will be given away during the company's annual community service programs.

For Kellyweek 1989, the Rochester District, will provide 400 hours of free temporary help to 7 non-profit organizations in the Rochester area.

Kelly Services is currently accepting nominations of local charitable organizations that could benefit from temporary help services in Kelly's more than 150 job classifications, such as personal computer or word processing, packing and delivering and telemarketing fundraising.

The 7 winning organizations will be randomly drawn by Mayor Ryan from nominations made to Kelly Services between now and February 22 and will be announced during Kellyweek 1989, March 12-18.

Those interested in nominating their favorite non-profit organization can call Kelly Services at 454-3990. Deadline for nominations is February 22.

For additional information, please contact the District Office at 454-3990.

SETTING THE STAGE

QUESTION: Do you have any suggestions on how to prepare a home for its best showing?

ANSWER: Don't just sell a house—sell a home! For evening inspection, brighten your home from the front porch light on through all the rooms in the house. Little decorator touches—a vase of flowers, a plant, small pillows—can add much to the comfortable feeling.

If it's winter, a crackling fire (in the fireplace) adds irresistible charm. A working fireplace is a major attraction to home buyers.

A large mirror can make a room look larger, reflect and magnify many of your best selling points. Turn off the TV and turn on soft background music. Create that subtle, lived-in atmosphere.

DON'T JUST SELLA HOUSE—sell a home. Subtle showmanship can help set the right atmosphere.

HOLY ROSARY SCHOOL
420 Lexington Ave.
Miss Mary Beth Fuehrer
254-8180

"Holy Rosary School is a caring place."
Our school slogan reflects our philosophy of personal concern for each youngster in our care.

The faculty and staff of Holy Rosary School recognizes the importance of providing a setting in which our students are able to grow spiritually, educationally, morally and physically.

Spiritual growth is developed daily to help our children realize how unique and special they are in the eyes of God, to see the Truth, and to live in the Light as Jesus taught us. This growth is fostered by the Formation of a prayer life, understanding the meaning and importance of the Sacraments, and by our teaching and example, giving the children a sense of belonging to a Church community.

Educational growth is provided to help each child realize and develop his/her potential to the fullest. Opportunities for this are given through self-motivated study, self-discipline, and an intrinsic awareness and appreciation of learning. Using these opportunities helps the children find who they are, why they are here, and what God has in store for them to do with their knowledge.

Moral growth entails the awareness of knowing right from wrong. Once presented, moral values are constantly nurtured to provide the strength and responsibility to live a life of good example in today's world.

Physical growth is provided in teaching proper balance of exercise, work, recreation and rest.

As the new administrator of Holy Rosary, I heartily endorse this educational philosophy. It is a joy to spend each day in such a warm, loving atmosphere.

Aquinas Institute To Hold Annual Mission Bouts

One of the great traditions associated with Aquinas Institute is the Mission Bouts, the boxing program at Aquinas that is making its fifty-sixth anniversary.

Learn To Swim Week

Basic swimming instruction and water safety for all ages are offered free to non-swimmers during "Learning-to-Swim" Week, March 27-31 at Maplewood Family YMCA.

The YMCA's annual "Learning-to-Swim" Week is designed to help non-swimmers become water-wise, by teaching basic personal and water safety skills. Participants are encouraged to enroll early, as space is limited. Classes run every day for the entire week, and participants should plan on attending each day. Scheduled for morning and evening, classes are divided into four age groups: babies, preschoolers, school age children and teens and adults.

"Learning-to-Swim" Week registration begins March 1, and participants must register at the "Y."

There are many components that help make the program as successful as it has been over the years. Initially, and most important, the students participating in this program must have a strong desire and a sense of dedication. They must be willing to sacrifice, train hard, and have the courage to face each other in a one on one sport. Safety and proper conditioning are stressed, a physical examination by a physician is mandatory. Head gear and mouthpieces are worn at all times during sparring sessions; every participant is carefully evaluated while sparring by a trainer to determine equitable pairing for the elimination bouts. The boxers must fit into certain classifications by experience and weight. All these prerequisites are carefully sorted under the watchful eye of Coach Dom Arioli and trainer Kevin Farrell. Dom and Kevin work long hours to make the boxing program a success and the friendships they develop with the participants are equally long-lasting.

Besides Dom and Kevin this year Bob Martell will be chief judge and will bring with him other members of the Amateur Boxing Federation to act as judges. Frank Ciaccia will be the referee.

The bouts will be March 10, at 7:30 p.m. in the Aquinas Institute Gym. Tickets may be purchased by calling Aquinas at 254-2020.

RMSC Spring Antique Show Features Roaring '20's Fun

Art pottery, wooden toys, antique furniture and heirloom jewelry and a taste of the roaring twenties will fill the Eisenhart Auditorium when the Rochester Museum & Science Center presents its 1989 "Spring Antique Show & Sale" on Friday, Saturday and Sunday, March 10-11-12.

Not only does the RMSC's Spring Antique Show & Sale bring together dozens of fine antiques and collectibles dealers from throughout western New York, it also features verbal appraisals, on-site repairs by an expert glass-grinder, roving models dressed in vintage 1920s clothing, and a display of four '20s-era cars by members of the Genesee Valley Antique Car Association.

Among the expert dealers at this year's show are vendors specializing in oak furniture, antique lamps and lamp repair, sterling silver pattern-matching, and arts and crafts accessories. On all three days, glass grinder John Lord will perform on-site repairs, including removal of chips and scratches and minor gluing.

On Saturday from 1 to 4 p.m., expert independent appraisers will give verbal appraisals of antique glass, porcelain, sterling, furniture and dolls. Appraisals are $2 per item for RMSC members, $3 per item for non-members.

A special new feature of the 1989 Spring Antique Show is a display of four Roaring Twenties-vintage automobiles -- a 1921

Dodge, a '27 Dodge, and two Model A's. The cars will be exhibited in front of the Eisenhart from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday, weather permitting. And following the '20s theme, strolling models dressed in vintage clothing will mingle with shoppers from 1 to 3 p.m. those two days.

Hours for the Antique Show are Friday, 5 to 9 p.m.; Saturday, 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.; and Sunday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is $2.50 general, $2 for RMSC members. Light meals and refreshments by The Tasteful Connection will be available all three days.

The Rochester Museum & Science Center is located at 657 East Avenue at Goodman Street and is accessible via the Goodman Street, Monroe Avenue and Culver Road exits from the I-490 Expressway. Free parking is available.

Former 10th Warder Receives RIT Honor

The Rev. James Sauers, formerly of Champlain Street, is one of six Rochester Institute of Technology staff members to be named a 1989 "Celebration of Excellence" honoree by RIT President Richard M. Rose. The honorees, recognized for "outstanding service to the Institute," recently attended a dinner in their honor at the president's home.

Sauers, co-pastor of the Catholic campus parish and director of Campus Ministries, has been with RIT for more than five years. Active in many student support efforts, he sits on President Rose's Council for Drug and Alcohol Prevention and Education. "Working with the students in any way I can is a very important part of my work," says Sauers.

A Rochester native, Sauers graduated from Aquinas Institute in 1963, from St. John Fisher College in 1972 and from St. Bernard's Seminary in 1976.

Named To Dean's List

Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute has announced the names of students who made the Institute's Dean's List for the fall semester. The Dean's List recognizes full-time students who maintain grade-point averages of 3.0 out of a possible 4.0 and have no grades below "C."

Probir Matthew Das of Maplewood Ave., a Junior majoring in Electrical Engineering was named to the prestigious list. Founded in 1824, Rensselaer is the nation's oldest degree-granting technological university. The institute is known for its rigorous academic programs and for its strengths in aeronautics, robotics, and computer sciences, management, architecture, and the humanities and social sciences.

Rensselaer is an independent, coeducational, nonsectarian university with approximately 4,500 undergraduate and 1,800 graduate students.

Many of the unique native plants that make Hawaii a tropical paradise are disappearing, according to botanist Robert Gustafson, whose 110 full-color photographs of "Hawaii's Unique and Vanishing Flora" are featured in an exhibition that opens on Sat., March 11 in the Hurst Gallery at the Rochester Museum & Science Center's Cumming Nature Center.

Circulated by the Natural History Museum of Los Angeles County, "Hawaii's Unique and Vanishing Flora" begins its tour of the continental United States and Canada at the Nature Center after being shown at museums throughout the Hawaiian Islands.

In the exhibit, 110 color photos of rare and endangered flora are grouped by habitat in five sections around large scenic murals of the Island's five major ecological zones - coastal, dry forest, wet forest, alpine and bog.

Traveling by helicopter, jeep, boat or on foot, Gustafson, who manages the botany collections of the Los Angeles museum, has ventured into areas with limited or no public access.

"More species of plants have disappeared from Hawaii in the last 100 years than from the entire North American continent," says Gustafson.

The cause is habitat destruction, he says, but the primary culprits aren't resort hotels and golf courses; they're farm animals - the goats, sheep, cattle and pigs that were introduced during the 19th century - and alien plants that adapt to island habitats so successfully that they crowd out native flora.

"Hawaii's Unique and Vanishing Flora" will be on view at the Nature Center through April 23. Admission is free with general Nature Center admission of $3 for adults, $1 for students (through high school) and free to RMSC members and preschoolers; senior citizens are admitted free on Tuesdays.

The RMSC's Cumming Nature Center is located 40 miles south of Rochester on Gulick Road between Honeoye and Naples, New York. To receive a free map of directions, call 271-4320.

GERRATANO'S RESTAURANT

885 Buffalo Rd.
436-9340

Just six years ago, Tony & John Gerratano decided to enter the restaurant business, specializing in homestyle Italian cooking... the type their mother was so good at. It turned into a family venture when their mother, Josephine, decided not only to share her favorite recipes but volunteered to help prepare the dishes herself. Today, you'll still find her hovering around the restaurant stove and ovens helping the restaurant maintain its reputation for food excellence.

Gerratano's reputation for fine Italian cooking hasn't gone unnoticed. Recently, Kathy Lindsley, Food Editor of the Times Union newspaper, gave it a Four-Star Rating, meaning "Very good; I'd take my friends." In addition, the article stated, "Gerratano's Restaurant is about as close as you can come to real Italian home cooking short of having a close, personal relationship with an Italian mama."

Some of the more popular items on the menu include stuffed peppers, lasagna, eggplant parmesan, fettucini alfredo, greens & beans, tripe and of course, spaghetti. A real attraction is the homemade Italian bread made on the premises and served with every dinner. In addition, Gerratano's homemade pizza is the best you'll find anywhere in town and it can be ordered to go.

Gerratano's serves dinners to 9 PM Monday thru Saturday. It is open for breakfast at 6 AM daily. Light lunches and dinners are available from 11 AM. American food is also part of the complete menu.

A recent addition to the original building now permits Gerratano's to cater small parties and banquets up to 35 capacity.

SALON DePARIS

1458 Lake Ave.

254-4049

"If you haven't tried us lately, you haven't tried us!" That's Jim Rossetti's explanation of the changes and updating that has gone on at his Salon DeParis. Jim, along with Pat Johnson and Maureen Cosgrove, who have been providing beauty services to their clientele for years, will have completed 4 styling and color classes in the last year alone. "You can't stop learning and changing," says Jim.

Their "Kids Korner," complete with special chair, mirrors, movie and cartoon tapes, has been a great hit with the little customers.

The salon offers complete beauty care including tanning bed and nail technician, and customer information and appointments are kept by computer—an up-to-date salon to best serve its clientele.

Hair Design

834 DEWEY AVE.

254-7554

The best way to get a job done right is to do it yourself! How many times have you heard that statement? Pat Gilman has built her business around that sentiment.

Pat works alone in her shop dealing with each client personally. She took to hairdressing as a way of life. "I've always done it," explains Pat; and her customers know it's more than just cutting hair. She cares about her customers and it shows.

Pat intends to continue serving her customers in the years to come. She enjoys helping people to "make themselves feel great by looking great."

Some 22 year olds are still looking for their first job. Lisa Arbore has been working at Salvatore's Pizza for over 10 of her 22 years, starting in her cousin's pizza business when she was only 12. "I've worked here at least part-time since then and now manage the 537 Dewey Avenue store full-time."

Lisa explains that Salvatore's has the largest delivery menu in the city (maybe the world) and sees the business increasing even more over the next few years. She plans on eventually owning and operating as many as a dozen locations. As for the immediate future, Lisa is pleased to note her Dewey Avenue location is quickly becoming one of the most successful.

When asked about their extensive full menu, Lisa explains "We deliver anything but babies."

Weather In English Terms

He will discuss the atmosphere, pressure and altimetry, the wind, wind shear, cloud formation, stable and unstable air, aviation charts and graphics, among other topics.

The course will be offered by Monroe Community College on Tuesdays, March 7 to March 21 from 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. at MCC's Bailey Centre, located at 125 Tech Park Drive, at the corner of Bailey Road and John Street in Henrietta. The fee for the course is only $36. However, space is limited.

Girl Scout Troop Celebrates 55th Year

The Girl Scouts of Sacred Heart are celebrating their 55th year of continual scouting at Sacred Heart.

A picnic type luncheon is being held in Sacred Heart School Hall Sat., March 4 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m. Congresswoman Louise Slaughter will be present to enjoy the celebration.

This will be a fund raiser for Girl Scout Troop 619 to raise money for a trip to Washington, D.C. in April.

For reservations, call Helen, 225-2718 or Chris, 458-7437.

New Rent Payment System In Effect

County Executive Thomas R. Frey has announced that the Monroe County Department of Social Services, which distributes more than $58 million for rent and mortgage payments annually, will change the way it pays landlords who receive rent payments for public assistance families directly from the agency.

"Beginning in February landlords who receive direct rent will receive payments during the first few days of the month the rent is due instead of the following month," according to Frey.

The rent payment system was developed by DSS in cooperation with the Apartment Owners Association of Rochester, Inc.

Approximately 6,000 of the counties, 19,000 public assistance households have their rent paid directly to landlords. The remainder receive a shelter allowance on the first of each month and make their own rent payments.

"The new procedure is an outstanding example of the public and private sectors working together to solve a problem," said David Schuler, president of the Apartment Owners Association of Rochester, Inc. "We anticipate more landlords will be willing to rent to low-income families," he added.

Along with the earlier payments, clients will be required to remain in their rental housing for the entire month, and to notify the department, in writing, by the 15th day of the month before they move to a new address. "This is necessary to ensure that the next month's rent will go to the new landlord, and to allow enough time for address changes to be made by the department," said W. Burton Richardson, Social Services Director for the County.

An estimated 40 percent of the county's public assistance caseload moves at least once during a year's time, according to Richardson.

The amount of money clients receive for shelter (rent or mortgage) is set by the state. In Monroe County a family of four, for example, may receive up to $329, if heat is not included, and up to $374 if the rent includes heat.

Tenth Ward Catholic Schools

"Where Values Come First"

9 Reasons To Consider Our Tenth Ward Catholic Schools:

1. Catholic schools are big business. Last year we spent $470 million to run the Catholic schools of New York State. As we spend about 1/3 per pupil, compared with public schools ($2,000. vs. $6500.), this resulted in a savings of $1,410,000,000.00 to New York taxpayers. In addition to that, we employed 17,000 persons in our schools.

2. According to NYSED figures, Catholic school students scored better in state administered standardized tests than their public school peers in every area. While the percentage of public school graduates attending college and universities is about 58%, the percentage for Catholic school graduates is 87%.

3. While SED officials are very concerned about a state-wide drop-out rate of almost 6% (43% in NYC), the Catholic school drop-out rate is only 0.3% state-wide, including NYC.

4. Catholic schools, according to sociologists James Coleman and Philip Hoffer (who are not Catholics) are still the most effective, most successful educational institutions in the US today.

5. Catholic schools provide a day-to-day program of religious instruction in all subjects, allowing students the opportunity to make moral judgments about a variety of current problems. The teaching concerning such topics as AIDS, chemical abuse, teen pregnancy, etc. utilizes a course of study that is 2000 years old.

6. Studies show that Catholic schools are most successful with slower students, minorities, the marginalized who, instead of being a burden on society, receive the tools and training to be productive, contributing members of the American populace.

7. Catholic school students have a more positive attitude toward: marriage, the importance of church attendance, the value of education and service to community than their public school peers, according to a 1988 NCEA poll. In addition, a recent Gallup poll shows that young married people who are returning to church attendance after their college "sabbatical" are, by and large, graduates of Catholic schools.

8. Catholic school teachers are expected to have the same credentials as public school teachers, and they are fully certified by NYS. In addition, a recent poll by the Catholic University shows that most teachers are in Catholic schools because they feel that they can truly share their faith and values in the context of an institution whose philosophy matches theirs.

9. According to NYSED Commissioner Lioel Meno, in a recent address at the Nonpublic School Administrators' Conference, while public schools have been concentrating on minimal outcomes, nonpublic schools have been concentrating on excellence. This has resulted in a higher success rate in all areas for students who do not attend public schools.

Y's Women's Group Begins Program

Enhancing family life, making new friends, and developing character and leadership skills is what the Maplewood Family YMCA Y's Women's group is all about. In working toward these goals, guest speakers, group crafts and service projects are undertaken at weekly meetings.

YMCA Offers Free Swim Classes

Free basic instruction in swimming and water safety for all ages is offered March 27-31 at the Maplewood Family Branch of the YMCA of Greater Rochester.

"Covering personal safety skills, basic rescue techniques and knowledge of pool, beach and lake safety tips are all part of 'Learning-to-Swim' Week, offered to everyone -- infants to adults. Participating in our 'Learning-to-Swim' Week will make this summer safe and more enjoyable," reports Karin Southard, Aquatic Director at Maplewood Family

YMCA. "This is a good time of year to learn about water safety," Southard continues. "With our proximity to Lake Ontario and the Finger Lakes, Upstate New York offers a wealth of water activities for the summer. The YMCA is dedicated to helping families and individuals feel more confident in the water -- whether it's a lake, pool or beach."

Enrollment is now underway for "Learning-to-Swim" Week. To register, stop in at the Maplewood Family YMCA, 25 Driving Park Avenue.

Program highlights for Spring '89 include a presentation of "Jewelry: Selection and Care" by Emroy Olson representing Baldwin Jewelers, a speaker from the Shear Ego School of Beauty Culture, a "behind-the-scenes" tour of Seneca Park Zoo, a special craft for Mother's Day and the opportunity to perform community work with the Volunteer Connection.

Interested women are invited to join the group, meeting every Tuesday morning from 9:00-11:00 at the Lutheran Church of the Resurrection, at the intersection of St. Paul Blvd. and Cooper Road.

Child care is available while the Y's Women's group meets. For further information, contact Karin Southard at Maplewood Family YMCA, 647-3600.

Chemical Awareness Week

Chemical Awareness Week
Students at Edison Technical High School will take part in a variety of classroom activities, including guest speakers and videos, with drug and alcohol abuse as the main topics. Special guest speakers will include: March 6, 8:30-9:10 a.m. -- Jim Hafferd of the Rochester Amerks who is sponsored by New York State Athletes Against Drunk Driving; March 8, 7:50 a.m.-2:05 p.m. -- Kevin Wanzer of the Just Say No Foundation who has worked with the Reagans at the White House, with David Letterman, and with the creators of Max Headroom; and March 9, noon-1:30 p.m. -- Greg Monroe, former area high school athletic star, Syracuse University basketball star, Nazareth College coach. For more information, contact Judy Andrew or Dorothy Pecoraro, 647-2200.

WRONG PRICING LOGIC

QUESTION: Why do so many homeowners go wrong when they try to set a realistic selling price on their home?

ANSWER: Most people base their price tags on the only facts known to them: original price, cost of improvements, hoped-for profit and what they think similar homes are bringing. The original price, improvements, and hoped-for profit only determine whether you gain or lose, buy they have nothing to do with the right price to produce a sale. Prices of other homes? Most of the time you only hear of the asking price, not the selling price.

Consult a local Realtor whose business it is to know how much property can and will bring.

Arts Festival At School 7

Virgil I. Grissom School Seven will be holding an International Arts Festival from March 13 to March 23 in collaboration with the Artists-in-Residence Program of the City School District. Each grade level in the schools has selected a country or culture to explore and study. Students will engage in a wide range of learning experiences which they will share with their peers and their parents.

Professional artists from the City School District Artists-in-Residence Program will join the students in learning about various cultures.

The artists will conduct a wide range of workshops and performances which illustrate how people have expressed themselves through the arts. Elizabeth Clark, for example, will conduct workshops on the classical dance of Northern India for First Graders and guide 6th graders in learning about Mexican dance styles, while Hsin Chen Chen, a native of Taiwan, will perform Chinese dances for the entire student body.

The International Arts

Festival is being held in memory of Mrs. Rita F. Tacci, a former first grade teacher at Number Seven School. The balance of the Rita F. Tacci Memorial Fund will be combined with P.T.A. and Artists-in-Residence funds to sponsor the artists.

The memory of Mrs. Tacci will be commemorated at a special ceremony on Tuesday, March 14, 1989 at 7:00 p.m. This will be held in conjunction with an evening of folk dancing for some students and parents sponsored by the P.T.A. Well known dancer, David Valentine, will teach the dances.

All parents, students, and friends are welcome to attend the International Arts Festival Evening of Sharing which will be held on Wednesday, March 22, 1989 from 6:45 p.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Hidden Talent

Discovering Hidden Talent: Nathaniel Rochester Community School will hold its annual Talent Show on Friday, March 17 in the cafeteria in the afternoon. Those unable to attend the afternoon show are welcome to the evening performance.

Call the school for show times. For more information, contact Dave Caiazza, 454-3525.

Big Brother, Big Sister Day At Sacred Heart

Pictured is Tom Yitsi of Sister Marion's 7th Grade at Sacred Heart School with his "Little Brothers": Michael Scarlett, Tomas Andino, and Robert Redfield and the box lunches he prepared for them.

Seminar For School Board Candidates

The Monroe County School Boards Association's annual seminar for school board candidates and prospective candidates will be held on Saturday, March 18th, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon at the Holiday Inn Airport, Brooks Avenue.

The panel members will be Martha Clasquin, Brockport board member; Bud Stander, Gates-Chili board vice-president; Dr. Henry Peris, Wheatland-Chili Superintendent, Dennis Barrett, attorney; and Dr. John J. Woods, MCSBA Executive Director.

Among the topics the panel will discuss are:

- effective campaigns
- the role of a board member
- the board member's relationship with the Superintendent
- negotiations and the legal responsibilities of a board member.

There will be a question and answer period, printed handouts and refreshments.

The MCSBA Information Exchange Committee sponsors this annual seminar as a service to those considering running for election to their local school boards. Flyers describing the workshop and containing a registration form are available in local school district administrative offices, or from the MCSBA office at 1600 Dewey Avenue, (458-7788).

There is a registration fee of $5.00 to cover expenses. Pre-registration by March 15th is preferred but is not required. The meeting is open to all.

Spelling Competition

Spelling Competition: Students at Dr. Louis Cerulli School No. 34 will participate in a school Spelling Bee on Friday, March 17 at 9:15 in various locations throughout the school building. Students are selected to participate by classroom spell-offs. The winners of the school spelling bee will receive gift certificates to area book stores and go on to participate in a district-wide contest.

For more information, contact Mike Christman, 458-3210.

Jefferson Middle School Receives New Computer Program

The Jefferson Middle School Tech Prep Magnet has been chosen as the national test site for a new educational computer program. Starting this spring, Jefferson will have exclusive use of the Scientific Education, Evaluation and Diagnostic System (SEEDS) program for six months, according to David Henderson, House Administrator.

The program includes 250 units covering specific science topics such as dinosaurs, features of stars, the calendar and day and night. These topics come from the broader range of life science, earth science and physical science.

Through a series of problems, activities and games, the units illustrate and support the classroom instructional program. The teachers have complete control over how the computers are used and can set program levels of them.

"The computer makes science interesting," explains Elena Brandes, Cluster Coordinator for Tech Prep. "The units are very interactive and the content does hit the mark."

The program is being loaned to Tech Prep for six months by Edunetics, a southern U.S. based company. I.B.M. is granting the use of 30 computers.

The teacher will have access to a master computer that all the others are also connected to. With this computer, the teacher can check how each student is performing on an individual basis.

HEARING AID DEVELOPED
NO BATTERIES TO REPLACE
TINY RECHARGEABLE POWER CELL
FITS ENTIRELY IN EAR

If you can hear people talk and can't make out the words clearly, this extremely small hearing aid that fits entirely in one ear may be your answer. The main part of the hearing aid, an 8 transistor silicon chip, the size of a matchhead is made by Westinghouse Electric Corp., not the size of a wooden matchhead, but a tiny paper matchhead.

NERVE DEAFNESS CAN NOW BE HELPED
This type of aid is what people with hearing loss have been waiting for since hearing aids were invented. Nothing outside your ear. NO wires, NO buttons, NO tubes.

To acquaint the PUBLIC WITH THE latest strides in the hearing industry, we are giving actual size non-operative samples-which are smaller than the human eye and are worn entirely in your ear. These models will be given to those who send the attached coupon. Wear in privacy of your home at no cost. YOU MAY KEEP IT FREE OF CHARGE. You will receive your model on a first come, first serve basis. Clip this coupon now before you forget.

CHIROPRACTIC FOR BETTER HEALTH

DR. ALBERT V. CERA

The Spinal Exam

If you have a back problem or some other problem caused by a misalignment of your spine, a thorough exam can disclose where the problem is located.

The usual position for a spinal examination is lying on the examination table. But this is only one phase of a thorough spinal exam. For one thing, it won't give a full picture of your spinal condition when you're in the relaxed position.

The examination should include a study of how your spine aligns itself when you are carrying heavy objects, when you're standing, and also want to know how your spine reacts to stress. He will test various muscles to look for any weakness. Thus, since a health problem may occur, now scientific research and independent clinical studies show that all health professionals, dealing with back problems, bringing on symptoms, can be treated effectively.

More especially, Chiropractic care, a leading health profession, that deals more toward the holistic and traditional approach to health, specifically renders health care, treating the "whole person's" physical, psychological, spiritual and emotional dimensions regarding this No. 1 health disease - back problems - resulting in back pain.

The spine is closely integrated with many parts of your body and the nervous system through which it flows. Areas out of alignment may not only affect the spine but other parts of your body as well. Only a thorough exam will tell if it's in good working order.

For further information regarding this subject or should you or others you know have similar problems, you may call our central office for help at 906 Dewey Ave., Rochester, N.Y. (716) 458-9725, where for 30 years thousands of cases have experienced effective relief and lasting results.

I'll be looking forward to sharing with you each month with my next article on "The Machine That Never Stops" in the next issue. Until then, yours truly for Better Health!

Registration Set For City School Kindergarten

Advance Kindergarten registration for the 1989-90 school year will be held from March 20 to 23, for children interested in attending a school in the Rochester City School District.

Only those children whose fifth birthday comes on or before December 1, 1989, may register. Kindergarten children must register in the kindergarten program in their home schools, unless they have already been accepted in a kindergarten program in a school outside their neighborhood. If students have been accepted in programs outside of their neighborhood schools, they may register in either the home school or the school in which they have been accepted.

Parents should also note that children six years of age must be registered for full-time instruction, according to the revised Education Law.

To register, parents should visit the elementary school's office where school personnel are ready to help. They should bring each child's birth record, baptismal certificate, or alien registration form, and an immunization record. No child will be registered without these documents.

On the immunization record, each child must have a minimum of 3 DPT, 3 OPV (polio), AND the following immunizations which must be given after 12 months of age: 1 measles - 10 day, 1 mumps, and 1 Rubella - German measles (3 day).

Tenth Ward Courier Publishes Final Edition

A cornerstone of the Maplewood and Edgerton area has come to an end with this, the final edition of the Tenth Ward Courier Pennysaver.

Nearly 65 years ago, Fred Metzinger addressed the need of area residents in the Northwest section of the city by publishing a biweekly newspaper distributed to homes and businesses in the 10th Ward. Soon two papers were printed, each biweekly. The Tenth Ward Courier and the Vicinity Post became a link between consumers and merchants, and kept residents apprised of activities and events in the neighborhood.

Eventually both papers were merged and were distributed weekly in the area between Otis-Dutchtown and Ridge Road west of the Genesee River.

YMCA Offers Free Swim Classes
Free basic instruction in swimming and water safety for all ages is offered March 27-31 at the Maplewood Family Branch of the YMCA of Greater Rochester.

Program highlights for Spring '89 include a presentation of "Jewelry Selection and Care" by Emory Olson representing the Rochester Jewelers, a speaker from the Sheraton School of Beauty Culture, a "behind-the-scenes" tour of Seneca Park Zoo, a special craft for Mother's Day and the opportunity to perform community work with the Volunteer Connection.

Northwest Community Services on Lake Ave. Community pairs a monthly surplus distribution.

In the Spring of 1987 Suburban Circle Publications acquired the newspaper, currently the oldest in the city of Rochester. Their decision to discontinue publishing the paper was two fold. "Due to a continually changing merchant base and the expanded needs of consumers living in the 10th Ward area, the paper no longer serves the needs of the residents as it once did," explains sales director Larry M. Lucier. "Shopping patterns show the need for weekly Pennysavers to be greatest in the suburban areas."

suburban markets. The Greece Pennysaver, The Northwest Pennysaver, The Gates-Chili Pennysaver and The Henrietta Pennysaver are delivered weekly to 74,000 homes each week. The company's headquarters are located at 2808 Dewey Avenue in Greece.

Easter Week Programs At Maplewood

The Maplewood Community Library, 1111 Dewey Avenue, will host several programs for both children and adults during Easter Vacation week.
There will be two events for children. On Tuesday, March 28 at 10:00 a.m. Mr. Beau the Clown will entertain children with his delightful antics. Pre-registration for this program is not required. Children ages 3 and older are invited to attend this free program.
On Thursday, March 30 at 2:00 p.m., Maureen Whalen of "Puppet Tree" will conduct a puppetmaking workshop for children ages 6-12. Participants will craft a simple hand puppet from easily found household materials. All materials for the workshop will be provided by the library. Pre-registration is required for this program; registration begins on March 20.

American Impressionist Mary Cassatt is the topic of conversation for the March 28 meeting of Maplewood's adult discussion group, "Let's Talk About... Artists and Their Art." Read a book about the artist and come to the library to talk about her life and work. Reading lists and books are available at the library. A slide presentation on Cassatt's painting will precede the discussion. The meeting begins at 7:00 p.m.; new attendees are welcomed.

On Wednesday, March 29, adults may learn the art of stenciling in a hands-on workshop conducted by Nancy Spinning. Participants will learn the basic techniques of this popular craft as they complete a fabric stencil project. All materials for the workshop will be supplied by the library. Pre-registration for this program is required.

HOME BUYING PSYCHOLOGY

QUESTION: Just how important a factor is overpricing when selling a home?

ANSWER: Buyers buy homes by comparison. The average buyer is no slouch. He'll shop a particular neighborhood and home type. He'll rarely buy the first one he visits. It's too big an investment to be nonchalant. He will then compare prices against comparative value. He'll quickly throw out any obviously overpriced homes.

If the buyer really likes an overpriced home, he may make a counter offer at a lower price—closer to its true value. But history shows that he'll probably make his offer for one already realistically valued. Overpricing will hurt a sale.
