SORDIDO—FARTS, THEORY AND PRACTICE.

I have received the following excellent article from Mr. P. R. H. of Chicago, and it is too long to print in full.

There is a heavy duty put on the imports of paper from foreign countries; but the proceeds of this duty are not sufficient to defray the expense of the manufacture of the paper for home consumption. The expense of manufacture is about 3 dollars per ton, and the duty is 5 dollars per ton. The paper is therefore sold at a loss of 2 dollars per ton.

There is a strong feeling against the importation of foreign paper, and it is urged that the use of native paper should be encouraged. The paper is sold at a lower price than foreign paper, and it is of better quality. It is also more durable and requires less money to be spent for its manufacture.

The paper is made from the wood of the paper mulberry, and is of a high quality. It is also more suitable for the manufacture of books and other papers, and is more durable.

To avoid the potato famine, it shall be the duty of every farmer, on receipt of his crops, to sow a portion of the land for the next season, and to plant vegetables for the market, to thereby lessen the danger of a famine. When the crops are gathered, they shall be turned under, to enrich the soil for the future. This will prevent the possibility of a famine in the future.

And if we do not make the effort to plant our crops, we shall only reap the consequences of our carelessness.

The farming community has the facilities for breeding and raising all kinds of livestock, and should take advantage of them. If we do not, we shall only reap the consequences of our carelessness. The farming community should be the engine of the economy, and should be encouraged to do so.

Here is a simple recipe for making ice cream at home:

Ingredients:
- 1 quart of milk
- 1 pint of sugar
- 1 egg
- 1/4 teaspoon of salt
- 1 tablespoon of vanilla extract
- 1/2 teaspoon of cream of tartar

Instructions:
1. In a large bowl, combine the milk, sugar, egg, salt, and cream of tartar. Stir until the sugar is dissolved.
2. Place the bowl over a pan of simmering water and heat until the mixture reaches 140°F.
3. Remove the bowl from the heat and stir in the vanilla extract.
4. Let the mixture cool to room temperature, then refrigerate for at least 4 hours, or until it is cold.
5. Pour the mixture into a freezer container and freeze according to the manufacturer's instructions.

This recipe makes a small batch of ice cream. You can double or triple the recipe to make more ice cream.

The end.
AMBITIOUS CHRISTIAN MOTHERS.

AMBITIOUS CHRISTIAN mothers consider a knowledge of the true religion and the works of piety as the chief school subject to be taught to their children. They believe the Bible to be the best lesson book, and the school that will best prepare them for life is that which inculcates the duties of piety. They consider the Bible to be the best school book, and the school that will best prepare them for life is that which inculcates the duties of piety.

To this end, many mothers have adopted the plan of teaching their children from the Bible. They have copied out the most important passages, and have prepared a series of questions on each passage, and have taught their children to answer these questions.

The following are some examples of questions that have been prepared for this purpose:

1. What is the meaning of the word "sin"?
2. What is the difference between a soul and a body?
3. What is the difference between a true belief and a false belief?
4. What is the difference between a true word and a false word?

These questions are designed to test the children's knowledge of the Bible, and to teach them the duties of piety.

The following passages from the Bible have been used for this purpose:

1. "And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Go to the people, and sanctify them today and to-morrow, that they may offer sacrifices unto the Lord, and let none man eat bread upon the sabbath day." (Ex. 31:13-17.)
2. "And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Go to the people, and sanctify them today and to-morrow, that they may offer sacrifices unto the Lord, and let none man eat bread upon the sabbath day." (Ex. 31:13-17.)
3. "And the Lord spake unto Moses, saying, Go to the people, and sanctify them today and to-morrow, that they may offer sacrifices unto the Lord, and let none man eat bread upon the sabbath day." (Ex. 31:13-17.)

A short story about a boy named John, who is young and eager to learn to spell. He is working on a speller and finds it challenging. His teacher, Mr. Murray, is a good and bad speller, the one who knows a word and the other who doesn’t. Mr. Murray answers questions about the first sentence John wrote and gives him advice on how to improve his spelling.
