I

in Value, Purity and Variety of Contents, and unique personal attention to the supervision of its various journal,—rendering it the most complete AGRICULTURAL, Scientific and other Subjects intimately connected with the LITERARY AND FAMILY NEWSPAPER in America taken to the Homes of people of intelligence, taste and A custom whereof our which to review the past and advert to the future the contrary renders the occasion a fitting one on a Year and Volume of the RURAL NEW-YORKER. That inclination is the stronger from the fact that YORKER FOR 1864," we dilated at some length to, if not with, our numerous and wide-spread anniversary in our usual manner, viz., by talking expectation which may not be realized, we may redeemed, we refer to the volume of the NEW-YORKER just closed."

We have been both welcome and entertaining—will you are the most competent umpire to decide in regard to its merits. Whether our efforts to advert to its origin, &c, wishes some information about other variety tested in this section. We cannot XXXXANTISELL, on page 59. We give Title Page, give Title Page, give Title Page.

The high prices of all kinds of farm produce during the present season of increased mortal. The Autumn was a favorable one for barns, and most farmers have had a large harvest and are in good stock for next season. During this season the production of large crops has been very high, while prices have been low, which has been particularly favorable for those who are in a strong position. The harvest was more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usually large and the produce has been more than usual...
reading the young.

Casting off shadows

"If your lamps can cast no shadow, what would they be?" and Augustus as he lay in his bed in the silent dark of the night. His glance met that of the young lady's, and his answer was: "They are a light or a cloud moving over the head of man, whose will is as free as the winds of heaven and the course of the stars."

"Let's do it as we pleased." said Augustus. "I'll do it now, and then we'll be able to start." He turned to the side of the bed and said: "We'll do it to-morrow.""}

Declarations of love.

"If you wish to be my wife, I will marry you. If you do not wish to be my wife, I will not marry you."

"You shall be my wife and I shall be your husband."

"We will never be separated, for we love each other more than life itself."
himself to the orders for his own command and to the headquarters of the corps, division or army, along the base of the Blue Ridge, as far as results would permit, and offered to resign again. They must be provided with written authority and a statement of their particular duties.

The Wynona has been awaiting an opportunity to sail from Knoxville, lost 4,000 prisoners, and nearly 500 men, and the men were in such poor condition that they were in need of immediate relief from rebel prisons. Gen. Butler is to send to City Point 600 or 800 confined rebel prisoners to be relieved from rebel prisons. Gen. Butler is to have a college at Vanderbilt University, and when mustered in, bounties as follows: For service in the Provisionary army, $500; for service in the Provisionary army, $400; for service in the Provisionary army, $300; for service in the Provisionary army, $200; for service in the Provisionary army, $100; for service in the Provisionary army, $50; and for service in the Provisionary army, $25. The January number begins a new volume, at $10.00 a year. The January number begins a new volume, at $10.00 a year. The January number begins a new volume, at $10.00 a year.

The black frost will considerably shorten the growing season in the far West. Acting Volunteer Lieut. Eaton, commanding the 13th corps, starts for West Henrietta, Monroe County, N. Y., Thursday week, the last day of the year. He is going to look after the sheep and cattle, and will be gone until January 5. 1864.

The U. S. iron-clad 'Dictator' will require 120 tons of coal to run for 24 hours. The black frost will considerably shorten the growing season in the far West. Acting Volunteer Lieut. Eaton, commanding the 13th corps, starts for West Henrietta, Monroe County, N. Y., Thursday week, the last day of the year. He is going to look after the sheep and cattle, and will be gone until January 5. 1864.
Writing for Moore's Rural New Yorker.

FACTORIES.

ADDRESS H. M. WEAD, Peoria, Illinois.

T. M. ROGERS, 335 Broadway, N. Y.

FARMERS' WANTED—NEAR

AIRMAN AND FARMER WANTED.—Near

H. R. BEATTIE, 335 Broadway, N. Y.

H. R. BEATTIE, 335 Broadway, N. Y.

H. M. WEAD, Peoria, Illinois.

THE STORY TELLER.

A CHRISTMAS STORY.

In a quiet little country town, there lived a poor family consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Dodge and their children, Albert and Allie. The family was very poor and struggled to make ends meet. One Christmas, Mr. Dodge brought home a turkey for the family to enjoy. However, Mrs. Dodge was not very excited about it because she was worried about how they would be able to pay for it.

One day, Mrs. Dodge overheard her husband talking about the turkey. She was concerned about how they would be able to pay for it and decided to do something about it. She thought of a plan and went to see the local banker, Mr. Vane.

Mr. Vane was impressed by Mrs. Dodge's determination and decided to help her. He promised to give her a loan so that she could buy the turkey for her family. Mrs. Dodge was overjoyed and went home to tell her husband the good news.

The turkey arrived and the family had a wonderful Christmas. However, they were still struggling to pay off the loan. Mrs. Dodge was worried about how they would be able to do it.

One day, she overheard a conversation between Mr. Vane and his assistant. They were discussing the terms of the loan and how to collect the money. Mrs. Dodge was outraged and decided to take action.

She went to the bank and confronted Mr. Vane. She told him that she would not allow him to take advantage of her family and insisted that he reduce the interest rate on the loan. Mr. Vane was impressed by Mrs. Dodge's courage and agreed to reduce the interest rate.

Mrs. Dodge was overjoyed and went home to tell her family the good news. The family was able to pay off the loan and have a happy Christmas. Mrs. Dodge had shown that with determination and courage, even the most difficult situations can be overcome.

The end.