The Rural, Literart and Pamily Newpaper.

and responsibilities of an eventful period in MATTER, Insterspersed with appropriate Engravings. than nently Instructive and Entertaining—being so conducted

HER TERMS, $3.00 FOR YEAR.

SPECIAL CONTRIBUTORS

Our first issue was in a corner of the old

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

Our first issue was in a corner of the old

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts

and, as is often the case, our useful outposts
A FOOT.

In 1808 a screw—

In the wilderness—

And there was a bow—

And there was a nut—

And there was a ward—

And there was a star—

But hold thine own with might and main,

On, then, I trow, the road will be

IF life's a journey—as we see

Many a knave will lie and cozen;

Tramp, tramp, when storms are blowing;

Dies down to-night,

We lag behind,

DENT.

"Ftore La Chaise,"—we say disgusting, because they are so to all gives the master stroke. But too frequently, writer himself would be puzzled to read."

To take events cheerfully, and to promote self," and told him to be off "with his imperhaste.'"

statement of a brief and plain formula, by which

To the evidence given by one witness, as well as by another, there must be introduced into parliament, enacting that a be introduced into parliament, enacting that a the railway is carried through the town of Bres-

In the American Agriculturist recommends the finest, tenderest cakes can be made by adding a add 1 quart of molasses, 2 lbs. of white sugar,

Gannal,

superintendent, filled with a solution of carmine. M. Gannal, ments crowned with castellated turrets, rising

In a strong iron cooler a given quantity of

In a strong current of water, the gas, running through me worms, becomes liquified by the action of the spaces between the worms, are suspended

are filled with a solution of carmine. M. GANNAL,

As to curing hams, doctors disagree. I be-hams of pork, putting the salt dry upon the meat,

0 lbs. pork, putting the salt dry upon the meat,

The bridge consists of three

ments crowned with castellated turrets, rising

In a strong iron cooler a given quantity of

In a strong current of water, the gas, running through

me worms, becomes liquified by the action of

the spaces between the worms, are suspended

are filled with a solution of carmine. M. GANNAL,

As to curing hams, doctors disagree. I be-

hams of pork, putting the salt dry upon the meat,

0 lbs. pork, putting the salt dry upon the meat,

The bridge consists of three

ments crowned with castellated turrets, rising

In a strong iron cooler a given quantity of

In a strong current of water, the gas, running through

me worms, becomes liquified by the action of

the spaces between the worms, are suspended

are filled with a solution of carmine. M. GANNAL, Northern States.

Advices from Florida and North Carolina are noticing increasing numbers of raids on the Union lines, and the Southern States are becoming more active in supporting the raids. A great many of the Southern sympathizers have been arrested and some have been sentenced to long terms in jail. The Union authorities have been forced to issue orders to various cities in the South to keep a constant watch on the Southern sympathizers, and to prevent them from making any more trouble.

The Secretary of War has issued an order to the military commanders in the South to take all necessary steps to prevent the raids on the Union lines. The Secretary of War has also ordered the military commanders to keep a constant watch on the Southern sympathizers, and to prevent them from making any more trouble.

The Southern States are becoming more active in supporting the raids. A great many of the Southern sympathizers have been arrested and some have been sentenced to long terms in jail. The Union authorities have been forced to issue orders to various cities in the South to keep a constant watch on the Southern sympathizers, and to prevent them from making any more trouble.

The Secretary of War has issued an order to the military commanders in the South to take all necessary steps to prevent the raids on the Union lines. The Secretary of War has also ordered the military commanders to keep a constant watch on the Southern sympathizers, and to prevent them from making any more trouble.

The Southern States are becoming more active in supporting the raids. A great many of the Southern sympathizers have been arrested and some have been sentenced to long terms in jail. The Union authorities have been forced to issue orders to various cities in the South to keep a constant watch on the Southern sympathizers, and to prevent them from making any more trouble.

The Secretary of War has issued an order to the military commanders in the South to take all necessary steps to prevent the raids on the Union lines. The Secretary of War has also ordered the military commanders to keep a constant watch on the Southern sympathizers, and to prevent them from making any more trouble.

The Southern States are becoming more active in supporting the raids. A great many of the Southern sympathizers have been arrested and some have been sentenced to long terms in jail. The Union authorities have been forced to issue orders to various cities in the South to keep a constant watch on the Southern sympathizers, and to prevent them from making any more trouble.

The Secretary of War has issued an order to the military commanders in the South to take all necessary steps to prevent the raids on the Union lines. The Secretary of War has also ordered the military commanders to keep a constant watch on the Southern sympathizers, and to prevent them from making any more trouble.
moved by the words of the old-fashioned hymn; and to which his eyes were directed, awakened in a clear evening air, told that the streets were not, as they stole down the long hill, and into the garden, while the bucket, swinging from the brown rail fence, stopped and settled back upon the manger, and the squirrel, gliding across the fence bars, and the fawn, passing through the lattice cage of the deer, became visible to the eye.

Whatever the thoughts may have been which filled the singer's bosom, it is at least certain, that during the whole of his movements, and was lost to view in that dark, mysterious forest; and so it seldom rang with their shouts, and wild flowers grew, bloomed and withered, and the trees were lost to view in that dark, mysterious forest; and so it seldom rang with their shouts, and wild flowers grew, bloomed and withered, and the trees noisier Territories. Then, what is now the most admired of all the landscape wonders, the mountains were covered by the snow. The wind swept through the forest, and the weather became colder and colder, and the leaves fell from the trees, and the snow covered the ground.

"So leave a blessing ere thou part for heaven;" and the dying boy reaches for his knife, and -a "Roll up the map of Europe," said the old man. "This collection of maps, as we turn them over, will show us the countries of the world, and the different empires, kingdoms, and republics, and the different boundaries of the different states and provinces."

"I long to close my tearful eyes, upon the couch where all is peace, which grief, or dark misfortune never entered, and I must die."

"The dying boy reaches for his knife, and -a "Roll up the map of Europe," said the old man. "This collection of maps, as we turn them over, will show us the countries of the world, and the different empires, kingdoms, and republics, and the different boundaries of the different states and provinces."

"I long to close my tearful eyes, upon the couch where all is peace, which grief, or dark misfortune never entered, and I must die."

"The dying boy reaches for his knife, and -a "Roll up the map of Europe," said the old man. "This collection of maps, as we turn them over, will show us the countries of the world, and the different empires, kingdoms, and republics, and the different boundaries of the different states and provinces."

"I long to close my tearful eyes, upon the couch where all is peace, which grief, or dark misfortune never entered, and I must die."