Cambridge, confidently expected, that every member will beTerritory was very numer-

Western New York Anti-Slavery Society! The desire to hear is great, and many wishes aroused, to a certain degree, a universal Ai-

The meeting at the Molodeon, last evening, thoir duty to mako, the effort. The last and treasure, for the sole purpose of extending make this meeting one of eountry, should remind us of how much of the work is still to ject of my exclusion from the saloon of the English friends, relative to the testimonial ofj question of equal right6 in the new district press perform^ its duty—that ot vindicating, humanity in its humblest and mast defence-

made

personal consideration. I look upon it as an aid to a great cause, and I cannot but accept of them who are readers of the NORTH STAR, editors are for a time absent from thoir

Mr. Parker said, in allusion to our refusing notices will give some idea of their where-

Mr. 1). did not speak of national reform as n moral subjects in such towns. They are

&

in company With C. L. Remond and J. C.

EDITORIAL

•OTTOEX'CIS.

oppressed brethren. He has the good wishes| the blessings of those ready to perish will ot a coimiui. of freemc.i.- '

Meeting also adopted a petition to the School Committee, a liberal-minded gcntle-

Of the Anti-Slavery Society, to celebrate the. immediate forward, after the slave, despite all trpposition of the con-and Sturges,

of those- divisions, and placing the re-

ORS of these Chris-

0S

the slave, despite all trpposition of the conthey may labor.

the North Star. We commend him to the Prison House of American Slavery, at the!

have, up to the present, been treated like my horse, and otherwise treated me with kind in this instance, the hospitality of our friend ing to-morrow evening. From there I pro-agents for the Journal are Bedford & Co.,

A. It., Kennebunk.—Your list of Subscribers years. Of them I shall have occasion heremers. Of them I shall have occasion here-joy, to see colored men spend their winter in the sturdy work and politics, and it is hard to reach them on Canawaga Falls is talked of by these inland Saturday and Sunday, April 9th and 10th.

There is however, some interruption of this f that cause. We s»all remember with sincere buds are swelling out on the trees, and are the primrose, the crocus, and the crowfoot, and luxuriant verdure. The violot, and of the truthj

i

plates of this ' law and order' city havej class. Mr. Myers told him that he did not by a puppy of a conductor, who told him that deck. They had been there but a few min-usually hugged the seats, and sometimes in the press, which, since this Society was formed, has argued the decision of this question. There rights of colored children. The church and famous of our fellow laborers and friend* Remond other useful and saleable forms for the mar-are intending to forto a sewing circle for the more than three hundred miles down the beau-

It must in places prepared for the purpose. Jt must to the discussion. The Chairman of the

made

press perform^ its duty—that ot vindicating,

humanity in its humblest and mast defence-

made

personal consideration. I look upon it as an

aid to a great cause, and I cannot but accept

of them who are readers of the NORTH STAR,

editors are for a time absent from thoir

Mr. Parker said, in allusion to our refusing

notices will give some idea of their where-

Mr. 1). did not speak of national reform as

n moral subjects in such towns. They are

&

in company With C. L. Remond and J. C.

EDITORIAL

•OTTOEX'CIS.

oppressed brethren. He has the good wishes| the blessings of those ready to perish will

ot a coimiui. of freemc.i.- '

Meeting also adopted a petition to the

School Committee, a liberal-minded gcntle-

Of the Anti-Slavery Society, to celebrate the. immediate