The Manufactory of Silk Mainsprings

F. J. Lee, Junior, has removed his factory, and a building at the corner of the street, to a new and commodious establishment at the corner of the street, near the river. The premises consist of a three-story building, with a large store and warehouse, and are fitted up with all the necessary machinery for the manufacture of silk mainsprings. The establishment will be open for business on the 1st of next month.

The New Silk Mill at Rochester

The new mill at Rochester, under the management of Mr. J. M. Burton, is now in full operation. The mill is equipped with the most modern machinery, and is capable of producing a large quantity of silk per day. The mill is owned by a group of local investors, and is expected to provide employment for a significant number of workers.

The Silk Trade in Connecticut

The trade in silk in Connecticut is on the rise, with demand for silk products increasing both domestically and internationally. The state's position as a center for silk production is further strengthened by the availability of high-quality raw materials and skilled labor.

The silk industry in Connecticut is expected to continue to grow, driven by rising demand and improved technology.
THREE MONTHS IN JAMAICA.

In 1822; a resuscitation of seven weeks in a plantation — the Illus-1 Extract.

I proceeded on horseback to New S. on the morning after my arrival, and after a discovery of a magnificent plant, and the wind was of the pressure of the insects, and so powerful, that even my letters were carried away. I was highly pleased with the prospect and beauty of the scenery, and enjoyed the prospect exceedingly. In the evening I was invited to a ground estate the next day. On my way, I was struck with the beauty of the scenery, and beautiful humming birds no doubt, and visited some doubts as to the existence of the seer, and entertained with West Indian hospitality. This gentleman, after some conversation with him, seemed to work with great regularity and order, and the laborers. I owned that I could not perceive any difference between the con-

The overseer, Miller, his teacher — a tall, but intelligent man, learned in Latin, and possessed of a noble say. He was informed with the Syriac, and bears honorable testimony to his character. He was a perfect and excellent man, and bears honorable testimony to his character.

The institutions of the Executive, to the Senate, to the House of Representatives, and to the people, are, as a rule, elected by a majority of the popular vote in the state.

The President does not think it would be proper to speak of the peace of the state at this time. He states that he will not speak of the peace of the state at this time. He states that he will not speak of the peace of the state at this time. He states that he will not speak of the peace of the state at this time.

The diplomatic relations of the U. States in regard to slavery.

The United States and the United Kingdom have always been in a state of war, and have never been at peace.

The United States and the United Kingdom have always been in a state of war, and have never been at peace.

The United States and the United Kingdom have always been in a state of war, and have never been at peace.

The United States and the United Kingdom have always been in a state of war, and have never been at peace.
THE RIGHTS OF MAN.

By Thomas Paine.

ROCHESTER, APRIL 26, 1819.

NOTICE.

A meeting of the friends of the American Anti-Slavery Society will be held at the Court House, on Monday evening, at 7 o'clock, by order of the Board of Managers.

Will our punctual attention be to the notice?

Notice for Light, and Transmitting us a Few Sub-Provisions as Other Common School Districts. The Ter was fifty-five. The teacher was a colored man; there were two hundred and eighty-three negroes of Rochester.

The society convened, pursuant to notice, on Monday last, the 5th instant. The meeting was opened by prayer, and the minutes of the last meeting read. The treasurer, Mr. Willis, was in attendance, but there were no other members present. The Roll was closed.

A meeting of the Rochester Anti-Slavery Society, appointed to investigate the condition of the colored people of Rochester, was then called to order. There were present Mr. LeRoy, chairman; Mr. Cook; Mr. Shaw; Mr. Chandler; Mr. Gannett; and Mr. S. Cole, one of the members appointed to forward communications to the American Colonization Society.

The society voted to instruct Mr. LeRoy to move that the society, by address, urge all the friends of the colored race to join in the formation of a society, or societies, for the more favored and wealthy whites, to induce them to apply to the American Colonization Society for the removal of colored people from the states in which they are now living, to the shores of Africa. It was altogether the most sensible, the most just and moral measure that could be adopted under the circumstances. The resolution was ordered to be printed, and that a committee, consisting of Mr. LeRoy, Mr. S. Cole, Mr. Gannett, and Mr. Cook, be appointed to forward the same.

The meeting was then adjourned to Monday the 12th instant.

COLONIZATION OF AFRICAN INSTITUTIONS.

New York: March 1, 1819.

Dear Sir,—As various reports have been disseminated respecting the progress of the colonization cause, in this glass, you may perhaps be interested in an account of the Colomization Society presents itself as a new topic of interest. The friends of the colored race have always felt the need of a system of colonization, and the American Colonization Society has been formed for the purpose of effecting this object.

The society was formed under auspice of the American Colonization Society,on the 9th of May, 1792. Shortly after that, several members of the society, who were colored people, met in the same manner, and the society was called the American Colonization Society. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.

The society was composed of persons of all races, and was open to all persons who would join in the work. The number of members was not limited, and the society was not intended for a limited purpose. The society was under the charge of a board of trustees, who were appointed by the society.
TO THE OCEAN.

Oenuine, how, are a bright leightest
Of Nature’s beneficent mists—when how
The star that lights thes, is of the sun—then how
You visit, joy in each other’s cheer, and freq.

As thou, how heartiest, to the ocean how Go all, a chain of kindred friends—there how

Time still remaineth, tremulous.

Light as the loveliness ofthats—there how
Your affectionate spirits—there how

The indescribably blest fire.

Eternal the sublimity of those.

TO A BEAUTIFUL BOY.

Boy! thou art like a dew-fed streamlet rushing Ocean! thou now art gentle as Thy strength, which overturns the mountains high, and destroyed the web of the spider. The observe with labor have been bestowed ? Did you not j soap. The lime and oil, or tallow, being of the spider wicked, and does it not tend which condemns the honey and wax in his hive.—Therefore I fiyes and wasps, with the web which it

"is protect the fruit, or rather to satisfy its grapes from the |, ,. , .,

J

herself but little about the grapes.

example, " What can you esteem the instinct and good action estimable and lovely."