DANGEROUS ADVENTURE.

The annexed extract is taken from a paper in Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, entitled "Adventures in the North West Territory." It is a graphic description of a most thrilling scene:

After residing nearly a year in one of the most distant posts of the Northwest Company, and conducting the fur trade there, I began to look forward to my return to Montreal. I waited with the greatest impatience for the arrival of the period which was to terminate banishment, and restore me to society. I was nearly three thousand miles distant from any settlements, and my only companions were two young men, clerks in the establishment, whose characters and limited acquirements, rendered them very uninteresting associates. Our post was situated upon the banks of a small lake, about sixteen miles broad. This lake discharged itself by means of a river into another of much greater dimensions, and thick forests covered every part of the neighboring country.

One afternoon I took my gun, and strolled out in search of game. Though it was now the beginning of spring, the lake was completely frozen across, the cold of the preceding winter having been very intense. I soon fell in with a flock of wild ducks, but before I could get a shot at them, they began to fly towards the middle of the lake; however, I followed them fearlessly over the ice, in the expectation that they would soon alight. The weather was mild, though rather blowy. Detached black clouds moved rapidly along the face of Heaven in immense masses, and the sun blazed forth in unobscured splendor at one moment, and completely shrouded from the eye the next. I was so intent on the pursuit of my game, that I hastened forward almost unconsciously, my progress being much facilitated by a thin layer of snow which covered the ice, and rendered the footing tolerably secure. At last I fired at the ducks, and immediately picked up the first, but its companion having only been winged, began to leap away before I caught hold of it. I followed but had not advanced more than twenty yards when, to my astonishment, I found that the ice was in many places covered with water to the depth of several inches. I stopped short, full of alarm, and irresolute what to do. It was evident that a thaw had already commenced, and as I well knew with what rapidity the ice broke up when once affected by a change of temperature, became alive to all the dangers of my situation, and almost thought of moving from the spot on which I stood.

The weather had grown calm and hazy, and the sky was very black and lowering. Large flakes of snow began to fall languidly and perpendicularly through the air; and after a little time, these were accompanied by a thick shower of sleet rain, which gradually became so dense, that I could not discern the shore. I strained my eyes to catch a glimpse of some living object, but a dreary and motionless expanse stretched around me on every side, and the appalling silence that prevailed was sometimes interrupted by the reeling cries of the wounded bird. All nature seemed to be awaiting some terrible event. I listened in fearful suspense to hear. I soon distinguished a distant thundering noise, which gradually became stronger, and appeared to approach the place where I stood. Repeated explosions and hollow murmurings of irregular loudness, were succeeded by a tremendous sound like that of rocks bursting asunder. The ice trembled beneath my feet, and the next moment it was disunited by a vast chasm, which opened itself within a few yards of me. The water of the lake rushed upwards through the gap with foaming fury and began to flood the surface all around.

I started backwards, and ran, as I conceived, towards the shore; but my progress was soon stopped by one of those weak parts of ice called air-holes. While walking cautiously round it, my mind grew somewhat composed, and I resolved not to advance any farther, until I had fixed upon some way of regulating my course; but I found this to be impossible. I vainly endeavored to discern land, and the moaning of the wind among the distant forests alone indicated that there was any air near me. Strong and irregular blasts, loaded with snow and sleet, swept wildly along, involving everything in obscurity, and bewildering my steps with malignant influence. I sometimes fancied I saw the spot where our post was situated, and even the trees and houses upon it; but the next moment a gust of wind would whirl away the fantastic shaped fogs that had produced the agreeable illusion, and reduce me to actionless despair. I fired my gun repeatedly, in the hope that the report would bring some one to my assistance; however the shores along acknowledged by feeble echoes, that the sound had reached them.

The storm increased in violence, and at intervals the sound of the ice breaking up, rolled upon my ear like distant thunder, and seemed to mutter appalling threats. Alarm and fatigue made me dizzy, and I threw down my gun and rushed forwards in the face of the drifting showers which were now so thick as to affect my respiration. I soon lost all sense of fear and began to feel a sort of frantic delight in struggling against the careering blasts. I hurried on, sometimes running along the brink of a circular opening in the ice, and sometimes leaped across frightful chasms—all the while unconscious of having any object in view. The ice every where cracked under my feet, and I knew that death awaited me, whether I fled away or remained on the spot. I felt as one would do, if forced by some persecuting fiend to range over the surface of a black and shoreless ocean; and aware, that whenever his tormentor withdrew his sustaining power, he would sink down and be suffocated among the billows that struggled beneath him.

At last night came on, and exhausted by fatigue and mental excitement, I wrapped myself in my cloak, and lay down upon the ice. It was so dark that I could not have moved one step without running the risk of falling into the lake. I almost wished that the drowsiness, produced by intense cold would begin to affect me; but I did not feel in the slightest degree chilled and the temperature of the air was in reality above freezing. I had lain only a few minutes when I heard the howl of a wolf. The sound was indescribably delightful to my ear, and I started up with the intention of hastening to the spot from whence it seemed to proceed; but hopeless as my situation then was, my heart shrunk within me when I contemplated the dangers I would encounter in making such an attempt. My courage failed, and I resumed my former position, and listened to the undulations of the water as they undermined, and beat against the lower part of the ice on which I lay.

About midnight the storm ceased, and most of the clouds gradually forsook the sky, while the rising moon dispelled the darkness that had previously prevailed. However, a thick haze covered the heavens, and rendered her light dim and ghastly, and similar to that shed during an eclipse. A succession of noises had continued with little interruption for several hours, and at last the ice beneath me began to move. I started up, and, on looking around, saw that the whole surface of the lake was in a state of agitation. My eye became dim, and I stretched out my arms to catch hold of some object, and felt, as if all created things were passing away. The hissing, grinding, and crushing, produced by the different masses of ice coming into collision, were tremendous. Large fragments sometimes got wedged together, and impeded the progress of those behind them which being pushed forward by others still farther back, were forced upon the top of the first, and fantastic-shaped pyramids and towers could be indistinctly seen rising among the mists of night, and momentarily changing their forms and finally disorganizing themselves with magical rapidity and fearful tumult. At other times, an immense mass of ice would start up into a perpendicular position, and continue gleaming in the moonshine for a little period, and then vanish like a spectre among the abyss of waters beneath it. The piece of ice on which I had first taken my position happened to be very large and thick, but other fragments were soon forced above it and formed a mound six or seven feet high, on the top of which I stood, contemplating the awful scene around me, and feeling as if I no longer had the least connection with the world, or retains any thing human or earthly in my composition.

The wind, which was pretty strong, drove the ice down the lake very fast. My alarms and anxieties had gradually become less intense and I was several times overcome by a sort of stupor; during the continuance of which, imagination and reality combined their distracting influences. At one time I fancied that the snow still drifted as violently as ever, and that I distinguished through its hazy medium, a band of Indian chiefs walking past me upon the surface of the lake. Their steps were noiseless, and they went along with wan and dejected looks and downcast eyes, and paid no attention to my exclamations and entreaties for relief. At another I thought I was floating in the middle of the ocean, and that a blazing sun flamed in the cloudless sky, and made the ice which supported me melt so fast that I heard streams of water pouring from its sides, and felt myself every moment descending towards the surface of the billows. I was usually awakened from such dreams by some noise or violent concussion but always relapsed into them whenever the cause of disturbance ceased to operate.

The longest and last of these slumbers was broken by a terrible shock, which my ice island received, and which threw me from my seat, nearly precipitated me into the lake. On regaining my former position and looking round, I perceived to my joy and astonishment, that I was in a river. The water between me and the shore was still frozen over, and was about thirty yards wide, consequently the fragment on which I stood could not approach any nearer than this. After a moment of irresolution, I leaped upon the frozen surface, and began to run towards the bank of the river. My feet seemed scarcely to touch the ice, so great was my terror lest it should give way beneath me; but I reached the shore in safety and dropped down completely exhausted by fatigue and agitation.

Of the N. Y. State Temperance Society—To the Trustees and Teachers of the Common Schools of the State of New-York:—

The Executive Committee of the N. Y. State Temperance Society, have now in the press, and will issue in the course of eight or ten days, an Extra Temperance Recorder, intended as a "NEW YEAR'S OFFERING" to the Common Schools of the State.

This paper will consist of twenty-four quarto pages, and will contain about four times as much reading matter as one of the Temperance Recorders. A sufficient number of copies will be sent by mail to each town in the state, to furnish one copy to the teacher, of every school in said town. Every copy will be charged with newspaper postage, which it is hoped will be cheerfully paid by the Teacher or Trustees. The Executive Committee had at first in contemplation to defray the postage themselves; but as the total amount would have been quite large, while the expense to each school is but a single cent, they concluded to enlarge the size of the paper, and expend in that way, what would otherwise have been required for postage.

This publication will contain—
1. A brief address to the Teachers and Scholars, explaining the design of the paper.
2. A succinct account of the state of N. York, extracted from the Appendix to the ninth volume of the Encyclopedia Americana, and brought down to the present date, with some additional observations.
3. A condensed view of the principal provisions of the Constitution of the United States; with an exposition of their design and practical operation; chiefly extracted from Sullivan's Political Class Book.
4. Miscellaneous articles, intended to illustrate the advantages of industry and perseverance in the acquisition of knowledge, &c.
5. The last eight pages will be devoted to the illustration of the evils of Intemperance; the history, objects and advantages of the Temperance Reformation; and the duty and importance of active and permanent co-operation—and especially of such co-operation on the part of the youth in our Common Schools—in aid of this great work.
6. A poetical address written for the occasion by one of our first female writers, will grace the pages of the "New Year's Offering."

The great object of this publication, is to place before the children and youth in our numerous Common Schools, a considerable amount of useful information not to be met with in ordinary school books, in connection with such observations on the evils of Intemperance, and the importance and value of the opposite virtue, as may have a tendency to make favorable and permanent impressions on the youthful mind. It is hoped that the Teachers will find the contents of the paper, seasonable, instructive and essentially beneficial; and that they will therefore cause them to be read in their respective schools.

As the "New Year's Offering" will not be exclusively devoted to the subject of Temperance, its contents could not be included in the Temperance Recorder, without departing from the plan on which that journal is conducted. For the same reason, and also from the additional expense it would involve, it cannot be sent to the regular subscribers for that paper.

The Post Masters (to whom one copy is sent) and Trustees of School Districts in the respective towns, are respectively requested to aid in the early dissemination of the proposed publication.

Bal. on hand 30th Sept. 1832, $19,205 87

The aggregate balances in hand on the 30th Sept. 1832, deposited in eighteen different banks, amounted to $1,422,864 82.

The receipts and expenditures for the present year are estimated as follows:

Receipts of Erie and Champlain Canal (tolls estimated at $1,100,000),	$1,637,421 42
Expenditures,	682,666 80

Est'd surplus for the year ending Sept. 30, 1833, $954,754 62
Receipts of Oswego Canal, $15,800 00
Expenditures, $5,167 36

Deficiencies of revenue, $19,367 36
Rec'ts on Cayuga & Seneca Canal, $13,000 00
Expenditures, 17,350 00

Deficiency, 4,350 00

The whole amount of the surplus moneys of the Canal Fund, under the care of the Commissioners, and applicable to the payment of the Canal debt, at the close of the fiscal year, Sept. 30, 1832, was $3,055,247 65, variously invested, loaned and deposited.

The earliest period at which any portion of the canal stocks become redeemable, is the first of July, 1837, and on that day the following amounts are payable to wit:

Six per cents,	$3,093,500 00
Five per cents,	1,355,500 00

Making a total of $3,489,000 00
From this amount deduct the above means applicable to this object, 3,055,247 65

$433,752 35
And there will remain a balance as yet unprovided for, of $433,752 35

This comparison, however, satisfactorily shows, that the current year will more than meet this balance, and therefore that the fund will be able to pay this portion of the debt about four years before it becomes payable. The whole remaining portion of this debt falls due on the first of July, 1845, and consists of the following amounts and discriptions of stock, to wit:

Six per cents,	$50,000 00

Making a total of $3,112,035 86

The Commissioners state, that they have been far more satisfactory to have purchased the canal stock with the surplus moneys, as fast as they came into their hands; but that hitherto all efforts to purchase, upon advantageous terms, have failed; and that the rapid extinction of the U. S. stocks promises to elevate rather than to depress the price of the state stocks. That they have therefore resorted to the policy of the act of 1831, (authorizing loans to banks) that "no other plan has as yet suggested itself to the Commissioners, by which the moneys of this fund can be made so immediately and extensively productive; and, that unless the legislature should signify a change of policy, it is their present contemplation to continue these loans to the banks of the state, upon terms which shall seem to them the most favorable, coupled with the greatest amount of security."

MANUFACTURE OF SALT.—The annual report of the Superintendent of the salt springs and Inspector of Salt in the county of Onondaga, was made to the legislature on the 12th inst. The whole number of bushels of salt inspected during the year 1832, was one million six hundred and fifty-two thousand nine hundred and eighty-five; of which one hundred eighty-seven thousand six hundred and fifty-three, was coarse salt. The report states that the number of manufacturing are substantially the same as at the time of the last annual report, two or three having been erected and the same number gone to decay.—Albany Arg.

Leonard G. Worden has been appointed Postmaster at the new office of Scottsburg, Livingston county, and Philip Woodruff has been appointed Postmaster of the office established at North Sparta, in the same county.

Letters received at Washington from Brazil, state that it is believed there that an English force has actually sailed to dispossess the Buenos Ayrean government of the Falkland Islands. The correspondent who gives us this information says that the report is thought not improbable at Washington.—N. Y. Evening Post.

Singular Circumstance.—There is a woman now living in this village, who has been the mother of eleven living children, all born within eleven years, and all single births; and what is a little singular, these births, with one exception, have happened regularly between the ninth and nineteenth of every May; the exception above named, occurred last June. Three of the children are now living.—Granville Gaz.

Collision at Sea.—On Saturday night the Talavera, 78, and the French frigate Calypso, got foul of each other. The Talavera in her station on a wind, and going at the rate of five and a half knots per hour, saw a strange ship running off the wind and approaching. The Talavera showed lights the stranger ran first one way and then another, until at length she ran completely athwart the Talavera.—The confusion and alarm cannot be described; both ships were expected to go down, the shock was so severe. About 60 Frenchmen jumped on board the Talavera, and the English pilot of the Calypso, who got on board her, exclaiming that if he did go to the bottom it should be in an English man-of-war. The Talavera has suffered much, and the Calypso, a double banked frigate, is cut down nearly to the water's edge, and both vessels will require considerable repair. They have put back to Sheerness.

Bahia.—Extract of a letter dated Bahia, Dec. 1st: "To-morrow is the Emperor's birth day, and there are reports about (as usual) that we are to have some disturbance but our great security consists in there being no regular troops to seduce, and the three different parties will not act together, consequently we hope to remain quiet."—Boston Trans.

Infanticide.—An infant about 24 hours old, was found dead in an old herring box, which was floating yesterday morning, near the end of Warren bridge, in Charlestown. The box was marked R.W.—Boston Atlas.

Counterfeiters.—Several of a gang of Counterfeiters, who had long and successfully carried on their trade in the vicinity of Detroit, have recently been apprehended and are now in the Detroit Jail, awaiting their trial. Counterfeit bills of the following banks were found in the possession of those who have been arrested:—
$10 and $100 bills of the U. S. Bank.

DR. RELF'S Botanical Drops!
Is one of the most efficacious compounds in the Art of Medicine, for the cure of that class of incurable diseases, produced by an impure state of the blood, and vitiated habit of the body, and usually exhibiting themselves in the form of Scorfula, Salt Rheum, Leprosy, St. Anthony's Fire, Fever Sore, (even when the bones are affected) White Swellings, (if applied with Dr. Relf's Liniment), Foul and Obsolete Ulcers, Sore Legs, and Eyes, Scald-head in children, Scurvy, and Scorbutic Gout, Pimples or Curbuncled Faces, Festering Eruptions, and Venerable Taints, throughout the body, in which last case the Drops often cure when Mercury fails. They are also the best Spring and Autumnal Physic to purify and cleanse the system from humors which frequently appear at this season of the year. They also aid the process of digestion, and by purifying the blood, prevent the secretion of malignant humors on the lungs. The proprietor confidently relies upon the vast number of surprising cures effected by these Drops, not only in Boston and its vicinity, but throughout the Union, for the best proof of their excellence as an unfailing Alternative Medicine in all the cases above specified. This article has recently been pronounced by a physician of the first respectability, who had witnessed its surprising efficacy, as entitled, in his opinion, to take the lead of all the popular articles known for the above complaints, and indeed it is fast gaining this point in public estimation throughout the country.
Price $1 a Bottle, or Six Bottles for $5.

DYSPEPSIA, OR INDIGESTION, of long standing, and of the most obstinate character, has been immediately relieved, and often permanently cured, in a variety of cases that have occurred in Boston and vicinity, by using for a short time DR. RELF'S VEGETABLE SPECIFIC AND ANTI-BILLIOUS PILLS; both of which are to be taken together, according to valuable, plain and practical directions, accompanying the Specific. Price 50 cents each.

TO THE ASTHMATIC AND CONSUMPTIVE.
THE most prevalent and fatal of all the diseases incident to civilized society, the Consumption, may generally be traced to the least alarming of disorders, a slight but neglected cold. By estimation it appears that one hundred and fifty thousand persons die annually of the Consumption. Most of these dreadful results may be attributed to common colds, and a negligent treatment of the harassing cough that generally ensues—which is usually followed by difficult breathing, pain in the side, and at last ulcerated lungs. Violent and repeated Asthmatic attacks absorbing on consumptive symptoms. One or two dollars expended in the purchase of Dr. Relf's Asthmatic Pills, and a little attention to their timely administration will usually ensure a mitigation of these disorders and generally effect a cure. The Pills are also an easy and effectual remedy for the symptoms preceding and accompanying the asthma and consumption. For colds, coughs, difficulty of breathing, tightness and constriction across the chest, wheezing, pain in the side, spitting of blood, &c. Few cases can occur of any of this class of disorders which will not find a rich return for their trifling expenditure.
Price, whole boxes, 30 pills, 1 dollar; half do, 12 pills, 50 cts.

TO THE LADIES.
WHITE and sound Teeth are both an ornament and a blessing. The best security for their advantages is to be found in the use of the British Antiseptic Dentifrice. This elegant Tooth Powder, with a very little use, eradicates the security in gums, and prevents the accumulation of tartar, which not only blackens but loosens the teeth and accelerates their decay. The Dentifrice thus removes the prevailing causes of offensive breath, preserves the healthiness and floridness of the gums, and renders the teeth beautifully white.
Price, 50 cents.
None genuine unless signed on the outside printed wrapper, by the sole proprietor, T. KIDDER, immediate successor to the late Dr. W. T. Conway. For sale at his counting room, over No. 99, Court-street, near Concert Hall, Boston, and also by special appointment, by Wm. Pitkin, Buffalo-street, Nov 26-[2] No. 18, Buffalo-st. Rochester.

IMPOSITION AVOIDED.
WHITWELL'S ORIGINAL OPODELDOC (One bottle of which contains more than three times the strength of the hard kind.)
EXTERNALLY applied, it is considered infallible in bruises, sprains, gout, rheumatism, cramps, numbness, weakness or stiffness of the neck or joints, chilblains, tooth and ear ache, chapped hands, stings of insects, vegetable poisons, &c. Taken internally, it is useful in jaundice, cholera, headache, flatulence, hysterical affections, pains in the stomach occasioned by extra exertions, &c., coughs, unattended by fever, asthma, &c.
N. B. Beware of imitations of every description, especially of those bearing fictitious names, comprising half my real name, as Whitman's, Whitney's, Whitling's, and about fifty others, all of which can only be forced into the market at reduced prices, and under the impression of the consumer that it is the genuine article.
Prudence in all cases is a desirable virtue, but the saving of a few cents in a phial of medicine is pitiful economy, and may lead to worse consequences than the loss of money.

COUNTRY DEALERS.
Purchasing this preparation at wholesale prices, will obtain more profit on the sale than on any of the imitations, besides having the satisfaction of selling to their customers the genuine article.
Tests of the only true kind—
1st. See that the certificate of the late Dr. Samuel L. Mitchell, L. D. of the city of New-York, is on the inside direction paper.
2d. That my name is stamped on the bottle.
3d. That the retail price is not less than thirty-seven cents a bottle.
All others are but base imitations, little better than whiskey or N. E. Rum.
Sold by Wm. Pitkin, Rochester, and by all the principal Druggists in the United States, who also keep for sale the VOLATILE AROMATIC SNUFF. For many diseases, dimness of eyesight, drowsiness, loss of spirits, hypochondria, nervous weakness, &c. Is most fragrant and grateful to the smell, composed principally of roots and aromatic herbs. It is absolutely necessary for those who watch with or visit the sick, being an excellent prevention of contagion. Recommended by Dr. Waterhouse, late Professor of the Theory and Practice in Harvard University.
Price 50 cents and 25 cents. Nov 19-1891

FOR FEMALES!
THE complaints peculiar to the female part of the community, have been long successfully treated by the administration of the Aromatic Pills, originally prescribed and compounded by Dr. Relf. They cleanse the blood from those disorders of the female constitution, for which the Pills are an effectual specific; they restore a free circulation, reform the irregular operations of the sanguiferous system, and rectify the disordered habits. The proprietor's confidence in the superior excellence of this equally innocent and powerful preparation, is founded on the most decisive testimony from many restored patients. He can assure this portion of the public that when Dr. RELF'S AROMATIC PILLS FOR FEMALES, are regularly taken according to the directions accompanying them, they revive and establish the desired healthy habits, and restore to the pale countenance the natural glow of health and good spirits.
The Pills are an approved general remedy in cases of Obstructions, Debility, Hypochondria, Green Sickness, Giddiness, Palpitation of the Heart, bad Digestion, Loathing of Food, Pain of the Stomach, Shortness of Breath upon every little motion, Sinking of Spirits, and its consequences, a Disordered countenance, dislike for exercise and conversation.
Married ladies will find the Pills equally useful, except in cases of pregnancy, when they must not be taken, neither must they be taken by persons of hectic or consumptive habits. They may be used successfully by either men or women in all Hypochondria, Hysteria or Vaporous disorders. In all cases of this description, the Pills purify, invigorate and revive the disordered system.
Price, $1 50 a box.

THIS beautiful Animal Oil restores Hair on Bald Heads, fastens and nourishes the hair which prevents it from falling out, removes all Dandruff and Eruptions from the head, at the same time causes the hair to curl, imparting to it a beautiful lustre.
Extract of a letter from a medical gentleman, dated Ceylon, March 10th, 1827, to his friend in London:—"The natives are in possession of a remedy that makes hair grow on bald heads. I have witnessed several instances in which the hair has been produced by the use of this oil. The hair between the shoulders is said to be the part that produces this Oil by pressure, without heat. AN EFFECTUAL REMEDY.
THE ASTHMA, DYSPEPSIA, INDIGESTION, &c. &c. THIS celebrated medicine has established its virtues in the cure of dyspepsia in its worst forms, where all the nostrums of the present day have been unsuccessful; and in many cases where the purgative exercises of Dr. Halsted in kneading the bread basket has failed, this medicine has removed the disease. We, the undersigned, having been afflicted with indigestion, loss of appetite, and great weakness about the stomach and bowels, attended with an inward fever, for many years past, for the cure of which we had recourse to a great many remedies without relief. On the recommendation of a friend, we have been induced to try the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, from which we have found complete relief; and we feel it a duty to recommend this excellent medicine to all those who are afflicted with the above complaint.
Margaret Beekman, 321, Lombard-street; John Tappen, 57, Orchard-st.; Alexander Stevens, 352, Grand-st.; Jared Ferguson; Mary Ann Morris; John Williamson, New-York.
Letter from a physician, dated Richmond, August 20, 1826.
Dr. C. L. SMITH—I have sold three dozen of the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, and I am confident it is a most excellent remedy for dyspepsia; several gentlemen have called on me and expressed their decided belief in its efficacy; a lady in particular, who had been for six or seven years afflicted with palpitation of the heart, and debility of the stomach, is to my knowledge now enjoying tolerable good health from the use of the Elixir. In fact, I have seen no person that has taken the Elixir in this place, but that has been greatly benefited.
Do not fail to send me a further supply, say six dozen, or as many more as you think proper, I am respectfully your servt.
ANDREW BROOKS.
Dr. C. S. SMITH—Dear Sir, Having been afflicted for some time with the distressing effects produced by indigestion, I was induced to try the Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir, and after the use of three bottles, my stomach was perfectly restored to its former tone and usefulness. I am convinced from experience that purgatives in cases of this kind are injurious, "instead of beneficial." Any one laboring under this disease, and will make a trial of this Elixir, will soon be convinced of its unrivalled excellence. Respectfully yours,

REMEDY FOR RHEUMATISM.
THE excruciating pain, the deepitude and deformity, and the premature old age which are the usual attendants of this disorder, are suffered by many from despair of a cure, or disappointment in the efficacy of the numerous pretended antidotes used to effect this purpose. Dr. Jubb's Celebrated Liniment, even in cases of long standing, and of the most severe character, have received certain relief, and many have been cured in a few days—some in 24 hours: as a number of persons in Boston and vicinity, who were formerly afflicted with the rheumatism, have very fully testified. Certificates are in the possession of the proprietor, proving the most thorough and surprising cures by means of this powerful Liniment, in cases where other approved Liniments had utterly failed. The Liniment is also used with success for bruises, sprains, numbness, stiffness of the joints, chilblains, &c. Price, 50 cents a bottle.

DR. MILDENBERG'S VEGETABLE COMPOUND
For the Growth and Nourishment of Hair on Bald Places.
DR. M. in his travels through the Creek nation of Indians, and during his residence of two years, paid particular attention to the method of curing diseases, and the compound he prepared and used for the growth of their hair. It was the custom of the Indians, whenever the heads of their children became soiled to get several plants, bruise and boil the juice in bear's oil; with this their heads were anointed morning and night, until a thick growth of black hair was produced. Both the males and females were in the habit of rubbing this ointment at the roots of the hair two or three times a week. The reason they gave when interrogated by the Doctor for this custom was, that it made long black hair. What was astonishing, the Doctor never saw an Indian bald during his intercourse with them! The proprietor having made use of this preparation for some years with decided success, in several instances, fine heads of healthy hair has been brought out when the scalp has been as smooth as the back of one's hand. AN INVALUABLE REMEDY FOR CORNS!
Tested by experience and sustained by testimonials!!
MOST people have a remedy for Corns as well as other complaints; but the proprietor of the long known and justly celebrated Albion Corn Plaster! as prepared by the late Dr. Conway, has been made acquainted with no instance of its proper application, in which it has not been preferred to all other REMEDIES for Corns, those painful disfigurements of the feet, and enemies of locomotion.
The Albion Corn Plaster softens the Corn, however old and tough, and extracts it to the very roots. The relief afforded is gentle, immediate and thorough.
The proprietor begs leave to submit the following case, from Mr. Stowell, who is well known to the inhabitants of this city, especially at the south end, and at South Boston, as a very worthy and respectable citizen.

A CASE.
SIR—I do not hesitate to give my most unqualified approbation in favor of your valuable Albion Corn Plaster. By the use of less than a box, Mrs. Stowell has been cured of a corn on each foot, which had been exceedingly troublesome and painful for years; and I think it but justice to your invaluable preparation to add, (for the encouragement of those who, owing to repeated disappointments in the various remedies resorted to, have finally despaired of a cure,) that your plaster cured her corns after trying other highly recommended remedies to no purpose; and what increases my confidence in the superiority of your plaster, is the fact, that it has been used by several of my neighbors with equally good success. A man advanced in years, had become so supplied with corns as to be obliged to cut holes in his shoes to ease his feet, and had long suffered great torture and inconvenience, has lately been entirely cured by the use of your Corn Plaster, so that he can now walk with comfort and in whole shoes.

ANOTHER CASE.—A young woman living near me had become so lame in consequence of corns as not to be able to go up and down stairs without great trouble, is now using the plaster with the most happy success, and prospect of speedy cure.
I could refer to several other cases were it necessary, but I have seen enough of the plaster to satisfy me it is the best preparation in this country, or perhaps in any other, for the cure of Corns; and were its virtues generally known, I doubt whether you could prepare the article fast enough to meet the public demand.
