Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

Now is the time for all good men and women whether they are happy or unhappy with the political and economic situation to take the very little time from their daily tasks, to register.

Too many people spend the greater part of the year in more or less articulate protest to their friends and neighbors, about "conditions" but when the opportunity comes to do something about it they are too busy to bet to their nearby polling place to register and register one must, if he or she is to vote.

You can consider yourself a staunch Democrat or a dyed-in-the-wool Republican but unregistered, you are neither, and what's more, you're not a very good citizen, either.

The man or woman who can't find the time to register, and in November, vote should remain very quiet when they get something less than perfection in government and politics.

June may be a long way away but it isn't too long for a great many party leaders to be worrying about the nominating convention. The GOP is faced with one of its greatest cat and dog fights in years. Everyone but the office boy wants the nomination. The Old Guard remembers the smoke-filled room at the Chicago convention of 1920 when Warren Harding emerged the dark horse, because Wood, Lowden and Johnson each failed to muster enough votes.

The odor of the corrupt Harding administration still clings to Republican clothing and they don't want to have to resort to a compromise choice again.

If the GOP cannot agree on one of the present names in the '48 bumper crop of candidates they can fall back on a historic expedient to fill the gap and thereby avoid another Warren G. Harding.

They can nominate an outstanding military man as they did several times in the past. From the Civil War they picked up General Grant, General Hayes, General Garfield, General Harrison and Major McKinley. The Spanish-American war produced Colonel Roosevelt for them. They couldn't go too far wrong with either McArthur or Eisenhower.

The Dewey candidacy considered to be in number one position at this time is really faced with a double threat—a big field of candidates and the threat of an available military man.

The "Ike" Eisenhower grin and the name itself could draw a lot of votes, and would place him in the forefront in a decision involving him and the more dignified but equally capable MacArthur.

One of the principal reasons for Thomas Dewey's "personal" unpopularity as opposed to his political popularity is his unavailability to the little fellow. This quotation from a New York paper illustrates too well what we mean:

"A delegation of 350 parents and children motored to Pawling, Sunday from New York City to see Governor Dewey and to urge him to maintain (See POLKA Page 12)

Food Cost Committee Condemns 'Monopoly'

In its first official action since its organization last week Rochester's Community Committee Protesting Living Costs, like Don Quixote, mounted a sternly-worded resolution and "rode off madly in all directions."

The group, formed under the chairmanship of John J. Walsh to fight high food prices in the area, has adopted a resolution which, in addition to endorsing President Truman's "Less Waste Program" lashes out at among other things "unwarranted speculation," the steel corporations, monopolies, "the wicked devices of some leaders of industry," middlemen, and "the vicious and unwarranted lust of some industries."

Next Wednesday the committee will sponsor a mass meeting in Eagles Hall, 22 N. Washington St. The rally, originally scheduled for Convention Hall, was moved to the lodge quarters when it was discovered that Convention Hall's roof leaks, showering patrons whenever it rains.

On the platform at next Wednesday's rally will be such locally well-known liberals as the Rev. Leon Stitskin; the Rev. George W. Cooke, pastor of West Ave. Methodist Church; the Rev. Arthur Ratigan, of Catholic Charities; the Rev. Anthony Perrotta; and Rochester's "Liberalist" Educator, William C. Wogast, principal of East High School.

Getting 'The Women's Vote Ought To Be Easy for Candidate O'Brien

Win, lose or draw, few will deny that Robert E. O'Brien, democratic candidate for South District Councilman tops the political field in at least one respect:

He's good looking to the point of being handsome! O'Brien wouldn't like to have the fact pointed out as the chief reason he should be elected to represent the southites in the city council. And what's more, it isn't his chief claim to fame. But it is a fact that cannot be denied.

What's more, and of especial interest to lady voters, O'Brien is not married!

His friends will tell you that what he carries around inside his handsome head is considerable. An able attorney, an aggressive, civic-conscious citizen, O'Brien is making his first bid for elective office.

"Bob" O'Brien was born Feb. (See O'BRIEN Page 12)

BRIGHTON WOMAN TO DIRECT SEAL SALE

Mrs. James B. Woodruff Brighton member of the board of directors of the Tuberculosis and Health Association will direct the 1947 Christmas Seal Sale in Monroe County outside the city of Rochester, John C. Malloch, chairman of the association's county health committee, announced this week.

Funds raised in this campaign support the work of the association in Monroe County outside the city. The county effort is part of the nationwide 41st annual Christmas seal sale. It will open Nov. 24 and continue until Christmas.

Former Women War Workers Stay On Jobs

Contrary to expectation in many quarters, employment of women in New York State has not experienced the sharp decline which many expected would come with the end of the war. A survey just completed by the State Department of Labor shows that two years after V-J day there are still more women working than in any previous peacetime year.

According to the survey, in April, 1947, there were 1,848,000 women employed in the State, 27 per cent or approximately 400,000 more than in prewar years. Almost one third of the working women are engaged in manufacture—a substantial increase over prewar years.

Retail trades employment accounts 18 per cent, approximately one eighth were in the (See WORKERS Page 2)

Democrats Seek Big Registration

City voters will be given the first of four opportunities to register tomorrow when polling places throughout the city will be open from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

If efforts of Democratic committeeman, precinct captains and ward workers avail, registration will be heavy.

The American Laborites and the Liberals are also striving for heavy voter lists.

Not so the Republicans. While they give lip service to the desirability of having all eligible voters properly registered, they have made little, if any attempt to get the voters out.

Democratic strategists declare and their Republican counterparts admit that a heavy registration will brighten chances of the Democrats. Hence the efforts of one and lack of effort on the part of the other.

Those same strategists will pay particular attention to registration figures in the northeast and in the south sections. In the heavily industrial northeast, Democrats are conceded their best chance of electing a district councilman. But a four-way fight among Democrats, Republicans, ALPers and Liberals in that area has made prediction hazardous.

In the south district, a determined band of 19th ward property owners led by Lawrence Gehrig have threatened to "get" Vice mayor Frank A. VanLare, Republican district councilman up for reelection, for his alleged lack of cooperation in getting the district registered.

Gehrig refused to attach any importance to the threat declaring it would have no bearing whatsoever on his actions or those of his group working for the political defeat of Vice mayor Frank A. VanLare, south district councilman, and 10th district councilman, and 10th (See THREAT Page 12)

"The dairy industry thinks the free market of the last 2½ months has demonstrated again the reasonableness of the free market."

Editorial in Time-Union, Sept. 17, 1946

"Since May 1, last, Rochester housewives have had to pay steadily increasing prices for milk, a check of the records shows.

 — Now, effective Wednesday, Oct. 1, a producer raise will bring the price to 22 cents a quart.

The march upward started from 16 cents about a year ago' News report in Time-Union, Sept. 27, 1947

Yes, the free market has been "reasonable" — for the dairyman. But how about the consumers? Or doesn't that matter?

Here is the best answer to FOREIGN "ISMS"

The best answer to those who would replace the American way of life with foreign "isms" is a simple presentation of facts. For instance, the "box score" below was compiled by the New York Journal of Commerce and shows the difference between working under the American system of equal opportunity and free enterprise and the Russian Communistic system.

It takes nearly the entire income of the average Russian, working ten hours a day, to buy the family food. Articles that are commonplace in America, such as wrist watches, are practically prohibitive for the Soviet worker.

UNITED STATES	TO BUY	RUSSIA
HOURS WORKED		HOURS WORKED
3 HOURS	DAILY FOOD FOR 5 PEOPLE	9 HOURS
1 HOUR	COTTON STOCKINGS	24 HOURS
3 HOURS	COTTON SHIRT	320 HOURS
2 HOURS	WOOLEN GLOVES	100 HOURS
4 HOURS	ALARM CLOCK	160 HOURS
15 MINUTES	TOOTH BRUSH	4 HOURS
75 HOURS	LADIES COAT	1000 HOURS
30 HOURS	WREST WATCH	1600 HOURS
3 HOURS	GALOSHES	160 HOURS
10 MINUTES	BOTTLE OF BEER	8 HOURS

At right are the comparative figures on the hours that Russians and Americans have to work to purchase ordinary articles.

Let Your CHECK Pay Your BILLS . . .

It's so easy to sit down comfortably and let your pen and check pay your bills. It's so business-like, too—and time and effort saving. "Check-up" on a checking account at Central Trust right away—you can maintain it easily by mail.

R. G. & E. Because electricity does so much for so little is, perhaps, the main reason why Americans voted it the most important invention of all time. And the best part of it all, insofar as you are concerned, is that electricity now costs less per kilowatt hour than at any time in its history. This dependable electric service—the best in the world—is the result of long years of development by the business-managed, taxpayer electric companies of this country. HURRAH! for our own ROCHESTER GAS & ELECTRIC—89 East Ave.

ALICE DRESS SHOP has charm and dignity—even elegance. Softness in drapery does the trick. Styles are the very newest but aren't so extreme. Fabrics many of them combined together are unusually beautiful this season. "Dove shades" soft greys, and misty browns and of course the beloved blacks. ALICE has sizes for all. Prices are within your budget. SWEATERS, lingerie and hankies and a complete line of hosiery are yours for the asking. Make ALICE DRESS SHOP your next stop for your complete fall wardrobe. Located 630 MONROE AVE. Open Eve.

Evening clothes are lovely this season. Slim models do something for the average figure. You'll find flowers and bows in the most unexpected places. Some off-shoulder—some built-up.

The new evening dresses this season are really lovely. Skirts are full and then some. Sequins, embroidery, lace are all in evidence. They really are becoming.

LOOK WHAT kind of fall dress have you been thinking about? What style—what color—I don't know of course—but I do know that MRS. ZWEIF, the owner of Zweig dresses has almost anything you want. If she can't please—you'd better give up. After selection this Fall is wonderful. Colors in profusion—and of course blacks. Styles for everyone—and as for size—you'll find even 52. Half sizes also. PRICES are as always at ZWEIF'S—within the reach of all. Located 240 ROSEDALE OFF Monroe. Open Eve.

With coconuts arriving again from the Philippines, macarons appear on grocery shelves everywhere. Try them.

RIPTON LA PETITE'S—ATTENTION. Here's DRESSES your frock as a wardrobe. Adorable in a selection of colors—TRIMMED IN TAFFETA PLAID. Fashioned into a bustle lined with this gay taffeta plaid they are knock-outs—Splashes of black here and there do the trick. In Junior sizes only. At RIPTON DRESSES—yes you've guessed right. WOMEN'S DRESSES also at this popular shop please the ladies who wear the half-size. All new beautiful autumn shades—and of course darks. The REGULAR "line" is also wonderful. RIPTON DRESSES—739 MONROE AVE. Open Eve.

ELIZABETH ARDEN SAYS—Color news took the spotlight again and again with a series of fashions inspired by her own (Arden's that is) two new makeup colors. Desert Pink, the yellow-touched lipstick shade, appeared in a dinner dress called "Desert Pink"—and frequently throughout the collection as an accent color—for instance as a lining in a dark green coat—as a slip under a black chignon dinner dress—sounds lush doesn't it?

invited to speak, has sent his "regrets" to Walsh. The congressman has promised to forward a letter to the committee in which he will state his views. Walsh had not yet received the letter yesterday but hopes to have it in time to read at the rally.

The committee's resolution, while endorsing the "Less Waste Program" says it does not interpret this to mean eating less.

The resolution makes a bid for the support of churches of every creed, all humanitarian agencies and civic clubs to "stress the use of the American franchise to register at the polls and vote in the forthcoming election."

Whether next week's rally will attempt to solve the high food cost problem or will become another sounding board for American Labor Party politics remains to be seen.

Observers feel the committee will lose much of its effectiveness and much of its support among "religious, fraternal, social, civic, veterans, and political groups" if it first claimed to seek. It is felt that if the food question is put on a purely partisan political basis, the committee's support will be confined to those who agree with its members politics.

SUNDAY MOVIES RESUME AT MUSEUM

Two movies are on the Sunday afternoon schedule of the Rochester Museum, East Ave at Goodman St. The program to start at 3 p. m. will feature "The Power Behind the Nation," and "Watson Wakes Up." The former deals with the story of bituminous coal and its importance to economic life. The latter is an amusing dream fantasy starring Noah Berry, Jr and Virginia Christine.

MOUTON DYED LAMB EDWARDS

EDWARDS WEATHER FORECAST—cold but outside—b ut warm—warmer—warmest inside. EDWARDS help SEASON'S FUR—"MOUTON DYED LAMB." Beaver striped—it is a knock-out. Priced at $248, plus tax. Don't tell the beaver—or your friends—and no one will know you're wearing an inexpensive lamb (mouton) coat. What impressed me about this particular coat—was the subtle striping of beaver. EDWARDS says (unaffected by rain). Sheared (just right (like sheared beaver) it is warm and durable. It is perfect for the college-coed or the girl who goes to business every day. Your high-school or college bound daughter would love one of these beauties. As for the coat, when you figure that she can wear this coat for her entire four years of high school or college, it is really an inexpensive way to solve the coat problem, to say nothing of keeping her looking adorable and dressed to suit her age. If there is anything that is bad taste in this writer's opinion is to dress your daughter—or allow her to dress herself—in coats, frocks, way beyond her eyes. To get back to this MOUTON DYED LAMB, at EDWARDS it is shown in a ¾ length with the newer tight-cuffed sleeves and the softer feminine shoulders. It comes in misses' sizes and at $248—don't you agree it is priced light for heavy budgets. Found at EDWARDS—Fur Salon—Third Floor—Edwards.

To catch the beauty of cranberry glass—you must see it against the light. Try it in your favorite window. But for heaven's sake make sure it's safe.

"800" As always, with the season progressing, fashions "calm down." After having the life scared out of you—wondering how in heaven's name you were going to wear those extreme styles, it is heartening to see the very newest at "800" SHOP. Soft shoulders, yes, natural waistlines, and your very own length. "800" says your length depends on your leg measurements—and how right they are. Fabrics are crepes and wools as usual. Colors are muted mostly and of course the beloved black is always in evidence. "800" also has a wonderful new fall line of MATERNITY DRESSES. All sizes in beautiful fabrics—every one fashioned to conceal the fact you're on the Stork List. "800" is Mores sponsored. Located corner MONROE & CANTERBURY. Open Eve.

Who but your favorite fairy god-mother "REV'ON," pops up at this very instant with a once-upon-a-lifetime make-up color for a brand new YOU. It's called "CINDERELLA'S PUMPKIN"—don't expect orange—it isn't orange—it is a rich crimson—riding in a golden coach. Revlon's complete "line"—may be purchased in this new "CINDERELLA'S PUMPKIN" Nail Enamel—lipstick—Fashion Plate—Powder and Cheek-stick. So there!

professions, 11 per cent were in domestic service and one tenth in other personal service industries such as restaurants, hotels, laundries, cleaning and dyeing and beauty shops. The remainder were in various non-manufacturing industries.

The apparel industry, which hires two fifths of all women working in New York State factories and is the leading women-employing industry in the State, showed a decline.

Women have been disappearing from their wartime jobs in railroad yards and shops, as street car and bus operators, in hotel front office jobs and such but have remained in banks, insurance companies and many jobs into which they made their first important inroads during the war.

Evening performances of the nine-act show are scheduled for Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday with a matinee for children at 3 p. m. Sunday.

Three headline acts will be offered including George M. Cohan, Jr., the song-and-dance son of America's beloved "Yankee Doodle Dandy," Joe Smith and Charlie Dale, veteran Broadway comedians and Milt Britton and his Musical Maniacs, a novelty band which has attracted wide attention in recent engagements.

Billed as "that hero from the draft of 1917," Johnny Burke brings his famous military monologue to the Eastman. Eddie Schaffer, Broadway's favorite comedian, also presents a single act and serves as master of ceremonies for the entire show.

Other acts include the Dale Sisters, continental song stylists; the Three Shyrettos, billed as "wonders on wheels," the Three Rockets, a dancing trio and Eddie Gold and Harry Reed, the Barbary Coast Boys.

Tickets may be purchased at all firehouses. They can be exchanged for reserved seats for all performances at Fire Headquarters in North Street every day from 7 a. m. until 11 p. m. through October 8.

BURTON HOLMES TRAVEL FILM TO PREMIERE HERE

The vivid imagination of an overly-romantic highschool girl leads to hilarious troubles in "The Bachelor and the Bobby-Soxer," the Capitol main feature starting today.

This vehicle co-stars Cary Grant, Myrna Loy and Shirley Temple. Shirley is the teenager who becomes infatuated with a noted painter (Grant) when he lectures at her school, much to his embarrassment, and Miss Loy portrays Shirley's older sister, a woman judge who decides to apply psychological measures to the case. Rudy Valley, Ray Collins, Harry Davenport and Johnny Sands are featured in the romantic comedy.

The companion feature on the program is "Tarzan and The Huntress."

Dealing with the invasion of Tarzan's jungle domain by a ruthless group of hunters bent on trapping beg game, "Tarzan and The Hunters" stars Johnny Weissmuller, Brenda Joyce and Johnny Sheffield.

Hill Residents Continue Zone Fight

If the city zoning board of appeals is waiting for the future to die down before deciding whether or not to allow erection of an FM radio and television sending station in the Pinnacle Hill area, they're apt to have a long wait.

The matter was originally slated for a decision late in August but the board's ruling was postponed. It has likewise been passed over at subsequent meetings of the body.

Opposing the move are the bulk of property owners in the Pinnacle area. Hastily banding together to fight the invasion, the neighborhood's residents have formed a permanent association, enlisted the aid of merchants in the area, held a cooked food sale which was termed a "great success," and are now laying plans for a fall festival patterned after similar affairs once sponsored by the Pinnacle Association, a former neighborhood group that dissolved several years ago.

Another voice was added to the property owners' cause last week when the Burroughs Audubon Nature Club went on record as opposing "commercial exploitation of Pinnacle Hill" and favoring the acquisition of the area as a unit of the city park system.

The nature club was the second organization to come to the aid of Pinnacle residents. Earlier the Federated Garden Clubs of the Seventh District issued a plea to retain the hill in its natural state.

In a carefully documented list, Marian T. Deuel, 79 Pinnacle Rd., publicity chairman for the Pinnacle Residents group has tabulated the number of news articles, letters to editors, pictures, etc. which have appeared since the fight began in August. Mrs. Deuel's records show that more than 60 such articles have been already published.

"There are a lot more where those came from, too," Mrs. Deuel admitted yesterday.

"If they think we're going to quit, or get tired of this fight they've got another think coming," declared Mrs. Deuel.

The resident group has pledged it will continue the fight until homeowners and residents of the area are assured that

1. The Pinnacle Hill will not be used for commercial ventures of any kind; and

2. Their homes and property

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Rochester Sun,
The inconsistencies of our Police Dept. are sometimes amusing, and sometimes maddening.

Several years ago, I attended a meeting at which the Police Chief (Andy Kavanaugh) was asked for questions. I asked asked for questions, a asked how it was possible (that was in the early Thirties) for horse rooms, once closed by a raid to be raided again and again. He admitted he "could not answer the question." Can our present Chief give the answer?

If I park fifteen minutes in front of my home against the left curb, I receive a ticket; while on streets within a block of the Third Precinct, it is not unusual to see cars parked that way. At one time, I reported seeing a Sheriff's Safety Car thus parked, within two blocks of Merriman St. and University Avenue.

Despite the "Anti-noise" nuisance, we daily hear during the traffic congestion, the voice emanating from a Police Car, admonishing pedestrians to use the crosswalks, etc. The other day, I attempted to cross St. Paul at Mortimer west to east, but avoided being knocked down by a Police car which turned south into St. Paul coming west from Mortimer St., because I figured pedestrians have no right to be on the crosswalk when the Bluecoats are at the wheel.

Maybe, after all, one should not question or expect the Dept. to have a reason for its acts.

S. E. Grover

"KING BUB" OUT-BLOWS FATHER—This prize-winning bubble, blown by Jackie Corey at the American Legion Post contest held recently in Philadelphia, receives careful scrutiny. Bubble Gum Okayed By Health Authorities

Parents need no longer cast a worried eye at Junior when he indulges in his favorite pastime — chewing bubble gum. For, after months of research by medical authorities and government agencies, bubble gum has been given a clean bill of health. Moreover, certain organizations have found the gum to be of therapeutic value!

The United States Food and Drug Administration, which recently made an intensive investigation of the entire industry, supports the claim of the Bowman Gum Company, manufacturers of BUB Bubble Gum, that its product is "laboratory pure . . . meets all Pure Food requirements!"

Offering proof positive that there's more than fun in chewing gum, a news story from Chicago reveals that bubble gum is doing an amazing job of rehabilitation for crippled children. Miss Jayne Shower, head of the cerebral palsy division of the National Society of Crippled Children and Adults, explains that bubble gum is used in cases where the patient has no control over neck and face muscles. By learning to blow bubbles, Miss Shower said, children have learned to swallow, move their lips, and even speak after years of facial rigidity.

Whether or not the Gehrig-led forces will throw their support to Robert O'Brien, Democratic candidate for the south district council toge cannot be learned. On Tuesday Gehrig said the group's plans "are still secret but will be revealed in due time." It was disclosed that the group has made plans to circulate the area early next week.

In the 1945 election to name five councilmen-at-large 109,714 city voters registered while last year, in the election of a governor and congressmen, 132,556 voters registered. Using those figures as a yardstick, political dopesters will be able to figure the trend the totals rolled up during this year's four registration days.

In addition to tomorrow's schedule, polls will be open for registration on Saturday and on Friday Oct. 10, from 10 a. m. to 10 p. m. On Saturday, Oct. 11, final registration date, polls will be open from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Voters in the towns will have two registration days — on Saturday Oct. 4, from 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. and Saturday, Oct. 11, from 1 p. m. to 10 p. m.

SHIRLEY TEMPLE FILM ON CAPITOL SCREEN

"The Road to Panama," a new Burton Holmes color film, will be given its world premiere at the Eastman Theater on Tuesday, October 14, at 8:15 p. m.

Thayer Soule, young Rochesterian who has made a national name for himself in travel photography, did the camera work on the movie and will be here in person to give the commentary. At present he is in California assisting Holmes in presenting a series of travelogues.

"The Road to Panama," which will be added to the list of Holmes movie attractions after its Rochester showing, is in 16 mm. original Kodachrome.

It is the record of a 3,000-mile automobile trip down the Pan-American Highway made by Soule and his assistant.

The first part of the picture covers Mexico and Guatemala in considerable detail, then moves along to El Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua, where the highway ends. Next comes an air trip to Costa Rica, then Panama, Uncle Sam's Caribbean base and crossroads of world trade.

Soule, whose family lives in Pittsford, has been associated with Burton Holmes since graduation from Harvard in 1939 — except for three years in the Marine Corps.

'LIFE WITH FATHER' OPENS RUN AT REGENT

Warner Bros.' screen version of Clarence Day's celebrated comedy, "Life With Father," photographed in Technicolor, arrived yesterday at the Regent for its Rochester premiere. William Powell and Irene Dunne are co-starred. The large and impressive cast also features Elizabeth Taylor, Zasu Pitts and Edmund Gwenn.

Michael Curtiz directed the screen play which was based on the record-smashing stage play by Howard Lindsay and Russell Crouse. Max Steiner directed the musical background of the film.

Deanna Durbin will be seen as a White House telephone operator in her next film to follow "Up In Central Park."

but sore feet. On reaching Pawling, the delegation found the roads to the Governor's house blocked by construction workers. Determined to fulfill their mission, the parents proceeded on foot up a dirt road to Mr. Dewey's home.

"Although the road was steep and rocky, only two or three of the group dropped out. A suggestion that a small committee make the trip was voted down unanimously.

"The mothers and fathers either carried their children, or pulled baby carriages. The bumpy road to the Governor's house was two miles long but despite the strain no one stopped to rest.

"On reaching Mr. Dewey's home, the delegates were barred from the grounds by a State trooper who informed them that "Mr. Dewey knew you were coming, but he had previous commitments."

"At first it appeared that there might be trouble, when the tired and indignant mothers and fathers began hurling insults at Mr. Dewey, the trooper, and the Republican party. However, after leaving a message for the Governor, they returned the two miles to their cars.

The message they left said: "Although we are only 350, we are talking for the millions of people in the city and state who do not feel that a program for the prevention of juvenile delinquency is a substitute for a child care program for working mothers."

First thing you know somebody will begin to tell us that the United States is responsible for the mass suffering in China, India and Africa.

O'BRIEN...

27, 1914 and has lived in the 19th ward all his life. Schooled at West High, Genesee Wesleyan Seminary and Grove City College in Pennsylvania, he was admitted to the New York State Bar in 1938 after serving his clerkship with the late Judge John D. Lynn. Judge Lynn, incidentally is O'Brien's great uncle and it was from him as well as from his father, the late Smith O'Brien that "Bob" got his early inspiration for a law career.

The councilman candidate is associated with the law firm of O'Brien, McSweeney & Malone, with offices in the Wilder Bldg. He is a member of the Rochester Bar Association, N. Y. State Bar Association, Knights of Columbus, the Chamber of Commerce, and the United States Power Squadron. His home is at 183 Welling-ton Ave.

Ward Supervisor William T. Nolan, both Republicans.

Last weekend Gehrig and his followers filed a certificate under the name of the "Independent Committee to Move the Airport" with the County Clerk.

According to the papers filed, the committee is composed of U. S. Losey Sr., 211 Genesee Pk. Blvd., Thomas J. Frawley, 243 Weldon St. and Gehrig.

Gehrig said the certificate was necessary to solicit funds for the political campaign this fall.

"We plan to wage an active campaign," said Gehrig, "against the two elected officials who have failed to take any interest in correcting the danger and nuisance to our homes from planes using the Scottsville airfield.

Gehrig said the 19th Warders had submitted a plan for a full-fledged study of airport needs her by experts and the suggestion was "brushed-off."

It was also learned this week that the 19th warders will carry their fight to defeat VanLare into other wards which he represents. Supervisor Harry Barabara, Jr. in the 14th ward, a part of a VanLare's council district, is also expected to feel the wrath of the airport fighters.

BUFFALO HOCKEY CLUB OPENS SEASON SUNDAY

Buffalo. — Montreal Canadiens, defending champions of the National Hockey League, will meet the Buffalo Bisons in the opening game of the current hockey season at Memorial Auditorium at 8:30 p. m. Sunday.

The Bisons, who wound up second, one point behind the Cleveland Barons, in the Western Division of the American Sockey League race last season, are definitely championship material this year, according to General Manager Art Chapman. The Hoed has been greatly strengthened as a result of deals made during the off-season, and such experienced help as Paul Bibeault, Les Douglas, Hal Jackson and Leon Lamoureux, is expected to carry the Bisons along victory trail.

The first U. S. Naval officer to become an Admiral was David Glasgow Farragut, who was appointed to that rank July 25, 1866.

Everybody is asking...

"Why can't I get more Budweiser?"

The fact is that Anheuser-Busch is making more BUDWEISER than ever before—but more people are asking for it than ever before.

Time and again we have built the world's largest brewery bigger. Now we are in the midst of the biggest expansion of all. It will make many more millions of bottles of BUDWEISER available.

Meanwhile we are distributing our tremendous output on a fair-share basis to all.

By CURT GERLING

The other day we noticed that the local Republican machine announced that they had no plans for a general meeting of their committeemen. To some that means the boys are confident that the election is a breeze, nothing to get excited about. The GOP has always depended on voting habits of a normally Republican community to put them back in again—no matter how little they might deserve it.

To others it is an indication of fear on the part of the big brass. Many of the committeemen are small fry and lesser job-holders. The small fry are getting shunted about so the big guys get most of the favors just as before—only more so. The lesser job holders who have been squaring their grocer bills with raise promises since Harry Bareham Sr. wore knee pants are beginning to break under the strain.

If the truth were known the Union Trust Co. brains department would rather juggle a hat-full of atom bombs than call a meeting wherein and whereat all could speak their piece. Normally if you have a political job you don't go around "speaking your pieces" when the boss is there to hear you. This year it could be different. City Hall job holders just can't eat slogans. "We'll take care of you soon," and "hold the line till '49" are not rich in protein or vitamin D content. Thus the privates, corporals and sergeants of the Republican army are too poorly fed to want to go out and fight for the honor of their wards.

It's not only a question of Headquarters not wanting to hear the gringing and screaming but they don't want to be put on the spot for any more promises they both can't and won't fulfill.

TENTH YEAR—No. 65

AIRPORT PLANS DRAW FIRE OF WEST SIDERS

The battle to move the airport from its present Scottsville Rd. site moved another step closer to direct participation in the November election fight this week when the first issue of "Airport Noise" a miniature newspaper was distributed to 15,000 homes in the city's southwest area. Circulation of the folder was concentrated in the 14th and 19th wards where the Independent Committee to Move the Airport has leveled its heaviest guns at political incumbents.

No move of endorsement of any candidates has as yet been announced by Lawrence Gehrig, Genesee Pl. Blvd. spearhead of the committee, but it is becoming more apparent as election nears that the group will take some action along that line before election day. Chief beneficiary of the fight is expected to be Robert O'Brien, Democratic candidate for councilman in the south district. He is opposing Vice mayor Frank VanLare, main target of the airport opposers.

Front page headlines of "Airport Noise" are given over to a plea for heavy voter registration with the declaration that "You Must Register on Oct. 10 or 11 if You Want to Vote to Protest Your Home and Pocketbook."

In an appeal for support outside the wards bordering the present airport, the group's paper asks voters to vote against the wasteful extravagance of

Candidate Edenhofer A Man of Action

Getting things done is a habit with Lawrence G. Edenhofer, Democratic candidate for councilman in the northeast district. The necessity for action in place of talk is a lesson he has learned thoroughly and convincingly during his 29 years service as a railroad passenger department employee.

Edenhofer is chief clerk of the Rochester passenger department of the New York Central. He has been in his present post for ten years, coming here from Buffalo in 1937 with a record of 20 years of railroad service behind him.

He started his business career as a stenographer in the Canadian Pacific Railroad's Buffalo passenger office in 1918. In 1931 he was "furloughed" when the Hoover depression cut a deep dent into the railroad business.

That furlough brought action along two lines: he enrolled in the Democratic party and went over to the New York Central railroad. Neither decision has ever been regretted. Candidate Edenhofer lives at 150 Barberry Ter., surrounded by women—his wife and his three daughters. As much as he loves home and family he is a natural "joiner." He belongs to the Elks, the Holy Name Society, St. Andrews Church and the Barnard Exemptis Firemen and the 22nd Ward Democratic Club. Back in his Buffalo days Edenhofer was a mainspring in the New York Central Athletic Association of which he was secretary. But his interest in athletics has diminished since he passed the 40 year milestone. That was five years ago.

A newcomer to politics as an active candidate, Edenhofer is positioned of three other candidates in his sector. He definitely expect to take his seat in the council next January 1. What's more, many of the political seers give him a good opportunity to do just that.

PROTEST VOTE SEEN IN HEAVY REGISTRATION

Fortunately, no one was in the Franklin High School swimming pool last week when a huge chunk of the ceiling went crashing into the pool. But habits of Union Trust Building's Republican headquarters know just about how it would have felt to be under the plaster deluge when they looked at figures for this year's first two days of registration.

The figures were heavy—much heavier even than expected. And the GOP strategists find no comfort in the totals. Yes, this week, at long last, the Republicans have awakened to the fact that they've a real fight on their hands this November because

You cannot vote if you do not register. Nor can you vote in next year's important primaries if you do not enroll. Registration dates are:

Friday, Oct. 10—10 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Saturday, Oct. 11—7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

It is your duty, as well as your right as an American citizen to register and vote.

the voters are apparently stirring from their usual off-year lethargy.

Added to the shock of heavy registration figures was the appearance of the local Democratic platform with six major planks. Perhaps the platform's appearance had something to do with the registration totals. Observers pronounced the platform "strong," and lauded the party's flat statement that the Democrats "offer no miracles."

That was quite a declaration. While it was no news to the voters who had long ceased to

Republican Aide Gets 266 Percent Salary Hike

The city administration's much-touted "Hold The Line 'Til '49" policy took a swift kick in its posterior this week as the Republican machine controlling the city rewarded one of its favorite sons with a promotion and a healthy salary hike to boot.

The favorite son, Dr. Joseph L. Guzzetta, long a feeder at the public trough and a machine stalwart was given a salary boost as chairman of the Municipal Civil Service Commission from $1200 to $3200.

Underpaid city workers who don't have the strong political connections enjoyed by Dr. Guzzetta have already figured out that the wage boost is more than ample to take care of the increased cost of living, an almost insoluble problem for the less-fortunate.

In an attempt to show that the move was actually "saving" the city some money, it was announced that the Jay St. dentist would assume the duties of chief examiner, a post formerly held by Louis E. Lazarus who retired last week after 33 years of service.

But when Dr. Guzzetta's qualifications for the post of examiner were questioned, it was explained that when the services of an examiner are needed for any specific job, the commission will hire one on a per diem basis.

That "per diem basis" phrase means that one qualified to give the exam will be hired at or about $20 a day to do the work for which the former councilman will also be paid.

It just doesn't add up to civil service workers, nor to taxpayers who will have to foot the bill. They can't figure out how a man who has to hire an examiner to give the tests can carry the title of, and receive the pay of chief examiner. They just don't know their politics.

Dr. Guzzetta was a city councilman for six years but was voted out of office and off the public payroll in 1932. But he

DPW TO ENFORCE ASH CONTAINER SIZE ORDINANCE

Now at the beginning of the heating season is as good a time as any to remind householders that the ordinance governing the size of ash and rubbish containers will be strictly enforced this year.

According to an ordinance adopted by the city, but enforcement of which was suspended by the war, maximum size of an ash container to be picked up by city gangs has been set at 18 to 22 inches.

This week it was announced by officials of the Department of Public Works that crews have been instructed to refuse to handle containers that do not meet those specifications.

So, if your containers are larger than the allowable size, they won't be picked up. If the department's example of recent years is followed, they probably won't be picked up very regularly anyway. But it's worth a try.

11th WARD WOMEN REPUBLICANS TO MEET

A meeting of the 11th Ward Women's Republican Club has been called for this evening at 8 p. m. in the home of Mrs. Edward Barrett, 20 Morgan St. Mrs. Arline Whitehouse will be hostess.

I see by the papers—

By Orville Allen

"Russian Communism is practicing racial equality while we still have lynchings and acquit the murderer. It is a criminal offense to practice anti-Semitism in the Soviet Union, whereas it is common in America. Jesus healed the sick. Russia has provided free medicine to all, while we are still fighting the Wagner health bill. We come dangerously near to hypocrisy if we say our system of capitalism is compatible with Christianity and Communism is not. Christianity should oppose evil both under Communism and under capitalism, but it can operate under either."

Dr. Jerome Davis, writing in the Ashbury-First Methodist Church VISITOR, Sunday, Sept. 26, 1947

"Some of the soft-headed liberals who serve as apologists for Russia should be reminded of this fact: Before a Russian can become a member of the Communist Party he must vow to shun all other faiths, including Christianity. And he must put aside such heresies as liberalism."

Walter Winchell, N. Y. Mirror, Oct. 7, 1947

"You may recall having heard some of the elements in the Communist picture of the world painted here in America at luncheon clubs, churches and off-color political meetings. In the name of open-mindedness, toleration, liberalism or vague good will, some people have swallowed a lot of Communist tripe."

Editorial, Times-Union, Oct. 7, 1947

Like the tripe this alleged minister of the gospel is handing out eh? Whose side are you on, Doc Russia's or Christian-ity?

Attention Dieters — A low calorie French dressing may be made like this:

- 1/2 cup of mineral oil
- 1/4 cup vinegar
- 1/2 teaspoon of dry mustard
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons sugar
- 1/2 teaspoon paprika and one slice of onion
- Yield 1 cup.

Muted greys — soft browns — bright greens are stealing the spotlight for color this fall. The browns especially are different this year — they seem to run to milk blends or that's what the fashion experts call it. It is descriptive — wait till you see them.

FIRST PIANO QUARTET SETS NEW STYLE

Musicians were either skeptical or amused a few years ago when Edwin Fadiman decided to organize the First Piano Quartet, which comes to the Eastman on Friday, October 17.

Who had ever heard of a piano music would they play? The only work for four pianos in the entire repertory was a concerto by Bach (and even that had been a transcription of a work by Vivaldi for four violins).

But Fadiman and the four artists he called on to work out his idea were convinced that an ensemble of four pianos could yield new sonorities, new colors, new dynamics to the performance of music. Confident in their artistic purpose, they set painstakingly, they transcribed much of the world's greatest music.

The story goes that the first work the Quartet transcribed for four pianos was the C-sharp quartet? And, besides, what work was performed before a minor Etude of Chopin. The about to overcome their greatest obstacle: the lack of a repertory group of critics and musicians. One of them remarked "You people are simply wonderful! With one stroke of the pen, you have opened up a completely new repertory for music!"

PADDY HILL PLAYERS ENLISTS GREECE POLITICOS

What does a politician do when he isn't politicking? If he lives down in the Town of Greece, he apparently gives vent to his theatrical urge. A glance at membership roles of the Paddy Hill Players, the town's leading thespian group reveals most of the area's political bigwigs as members. Leading off with Sheriff Al Skinner, the Players also include Supervisor Gordon Howe, Town Clerk Hugh Hughes, Tax Collector Al Johnstone, Health Officer "Doc" Saunders, Town Attorney William Easton, Building Inspector Roy Cole, Town Engineer Harlan Herrick, Sanitation Inspector John Kohn, Councilman Andy Schell and Zoning Board Members John Baybutt and Sam Thayer Altogether, the Players number about 400 members.

Simultaneously, a meeting for delegates and officers will be held to discuss the "Revision of the Constitution". At the luncheon, the Rev. James M. Keller, M. M. author of Men of Maryknoll and founder of the Christopher Movement will address the women. Business sessions will be resumed at 2:20 p. m.

DATE SET FOR PINNACLE GROUP
FALL FESTIVAL

First social affair of the newly-revived Pinnacle Association will be a fall festival scheduled for the Monroe YMCA on Oct. 24 to which all area residents are invited.

The association, dormant for more than a decade was revived this summer to fight erection of a radio and television sending station on Pinnacle Hill. Enthusiasm generated by the combined efforts of area property owners led to the formation of a permanent social and civic betterment group. At first named the Pinnacle Residents Group, it was changed this week to the Pinnacle Association to more closely conform to its predecessor whose functions it seeks to replace.

Last evening the group's executive council meeting in the home of Mrs. Irving Deuel, 79 Pinnacle Rd., outlined detailed plans for the festival. Lester E. Tokars, chairman, said it would be in the nature of a Hallowe'en party. A small admittance charge will be made to defray refreshment and entertainment expenses.

The group also outlined plans for a membership drive to begin this weekend under the chairmanship of Mrs. Paul McManus, 133 Alliance Ave.

15 CLINTON AVE. NO.

What do you think is the greatest invention?

Atomic energy — radio — the wheel — airplane — electricity — automobile — steam engine — telephone — printing press — take your pick. What do you think is the greatest invention ever made?

Certainly each is important, and each has contributed generously to our way of life. But the American public in Dr. Gallup's recent coast-to-coast survey voted electricity the most important invention of all.

It's hard to imagine our type of civilization without electricity. We depend on it for so many things—in our homes—in business and industry—in transportation and communication. The hat on your head — the food on your table—the newspaper on your doorstep—your favorite radio show—each depends directly on electricity.

Because electricity does so much for so little cost is, perhaps, the main reason why Americans voted it the most important invention of all time. And the best part of it all insofar as you are concerned, is that electricity now costs less per kilowatt hour than at any time in its history. This dependable electric service—the best in the world—is the result of long years of development by the business-managed tax-paying electric companies of this country.

71 City Firms In State Safety Drive

Seventy-one firms in Rochester and vicinity have enrolled in the 23rd annual state-wide accident prevention campaign sponsored by Associated Industries of New York State, Inc. It was announced this week by Russell C. McCarthy, Manager of the Industrial Management Council of Rochester which sponsors the campaign in this district.

The firms enlisted in the drive started Sept. 28 on a 3-month campaign to reduce the number of industrial accidents. Immediate objective is a betterment of the accident frequency mark of 12.38 accidents per million man-hours worked last year.

Under the sponsorship and direction of Associated Industries and 80 co-operating organizations, all accident prevention activities in the competing plants will be co-ordinated toward this one objective during the final quarter of the year. Firms will compete in 65 divisions or groups, in accordance with their accident hazards, for special trophies which will be awarded by the sponsoring organization at the annual safety dinner of the Industrial Management Council after close of the campaign.

The 1946 sweet potato crop was estimated at 66,807,000 bushels, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica 1947 Book of the Year. This is slightly more than the 66,865,000-bushel crop of 1945.

S. AMERICAN ORCHID SEEDS OFFERED HERE

Rochesterians interested in growing their own orchids can test their abilities for a dime, according to word received this week from "Los Tropigos" South American, No. 1, Botanical Experimental Station, Quito, Ecuador, South America. According to a notice sent out by Juan Pastor, director, orchid seeds will be sent, with "South America's compliments and good wishes for a continued hemispheric solidarity" upon receipt of 10 cents in coin or fifteen cents in U. S. postage.

Complete instructions accompany each packet of orchid seeds, showing how to propagate the beautiful tropical flowers at home, winter or summer.

As an added inducement, the experimental station promises to include a descriptive folder of tropical exotic and general flora to "better acquaint you with the plant life of equatorial South America."

From six weeks to two months are needed to fill orders which should be directed to: Director, South American No. 1, Botanical Experimental Station, Casilla

BARBERSHOP HARMONIZERS TO GATHER HERE

Come what may in such trying matters as high food costs, election battles, or international problems, all will be harmony in Rochester on Oct. 25 when the city will be host to more than 30 of the best barber shop quartets in the Central-Western New York District of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America Inc.

The Rochester air will be filled with music throughout the day as the competing harmonizers hold their elimination contests in the Powers Hotel ballroom to narrow the field down to five finalists.

Climax of the day's vocalizing will be a contest in the Eastman Theatre, internationally-famed center of symphony and classical music, where (shades of Bach and Beethoven) the finalists will give out with their best chords in renditions of "Dear Old Girl," "Sweet Adeline," "Down by the Old Mill Stream" and other melodies dear to male quartets — and to Americans in general.

JOB AGENCY STRESSES HIRING OF DISABLED

Rochester office of the N. Y. State Employment Service is concentrating its efforts to stimulating employer interest in jobs for the handicapped this week in observance of "National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week."

Particular stress is being made on the employment of disabled veterans.

According to State Industrial Commissioner Edward Corsi New York State's unemployed with physical handicaps number about 21,000. Of these, nearly 9,000 are disabled veterans.

The vast majority of these so-called handicapped workers are handicapped only in a physical sense," said Corsi. "They are capable of doing just as good a day's work as the next man — or better — if they are in the right jobs — jobs where their physical disability does not affect their performance."

5 YEAR PLATES

Sacramento, Cal. — Starting Jan. 1, 1949, California cars will wear their license plates for five years.

The plates will not carry a date and a "5" insignie will be issued each year.

Commissioner Corsi has asked every employer in this area who has an opening or openings he believes handicapped persons can fill to call the Rochester office of the State Employment Service.

Inconvenient "Did she promise to marry you?"

"Oh, yes; but I've got to wait until they move next month. Just at present there's no room for me in her father's house."

Never put off until next week the things that you should have done last week.

Victor Herbert's 'Red Mill' At Auditorium Oct. 23

Two of the youngest theatrical producers in history, Paula Stone and Hunt Stromberg, conceived the idea of reviving the well known musical hit, "The Red Mill" by Victor Herbert, several years ago. They brought the show to New York and presented it for a limited engagement at the Ziegfeld Theatre. In less than a week after the musical opened, the same vehicle that starred the famous team of Montgomery and Stone in 1906, had flashed into the biggest box office hit on Broadway. That was in 1945 and now after a two season run in New York the Victor Herbert-Henry Blossom masterpiece will come to the Auditorium for a three-day engagement beginning on Thursday, Oct. 23rd, with a matinee on Saturday.

The musical far exceeded the original production during the N. Y. engagement and did the same thing during its stay in Boston. When it played at the Ford's Theatre in Baltimore it not only broke the all time 73-year-old house record but it put to shame such record-breaking modern productions as "Oklahoma," "Blossoms," and "Up in Central Park."

Theatregoers of four decades ago will remember "The Red Mill" as the musical hit that offered Fred Stone and Dave Montgomery, leading comedians of their time. It is the show that gave them a chance to get out of their fantastic make-up used in "The Wizard of Oz." The story concerns two young Americans stuck for their Inn rent in a small town in Holland and the subsequent comic problems they endure.

Holding down the Stone and Montgomery roles in this generation's version of the hit are Buster West and Charles Collins, whose comedy routines though reminiscent of their predecessors, have been modernized to meet current tastes. In other featured roles are Odette Myrtil, Dorothy Stone, Edward Dew and Sara Ann McCabe.

The famous Victor Herbert-Henry Blossom score has such hit tunes as "In Old New York," "Mignonette," "Whistle It," "When You're Pretty and the World Is Fair," "Every Day is Ladies' Day With Me," and "I Want You to Marry Me," all now in the top brackets of the popular tunes of today.

Club Lists 2 Former OPA Heads

Twenty noted authorities on politics, education, world problems and the arts and sciences will appear at the weekly Saturday noon meetings of the City Club of Rochester in the Chamber of Commerce banquet hall during the 1947-48 season.

Oponing the schedule on Nov. 1 will be Leon Henderson, former OPA administrator, and now chairman of the board of editors of the Research Institute of America. He will speak on "Our National Economy—Is It Boom or Bust?"

Other scheduled speakers include the Rev. Edward J. Flanagan of Boys Town fame; Former Georgia Governor Ellis Arnall; Friedrich, Mrs. Anna Rosenberg, Dr. Dexter Perkins, Alger Hiss, Chicago University's Robert M. Hutchins, Edwin S. Corwin, Dr. Margaret Mead, Robert A. Taft, H. Struve Hensel, Minnesota Congressman Walter H. Judd, Lester B. Granger, Prof. Howard M. Jones, Murray D. Lincoln, and Former OPA Administrator Paul Porter.

expect miracles from political parties, the Democrats' candor was refreshing. They definitely had the jump on their Republican brethren who have yet to deny they have a God-given mandate to rule Rochester.

Registration in the city was up 10,000 over the same period in 1945 — last comparable election — and came within 2000 for the first two days of last year's gubernatorial election figures. Heaviest gains were made in industrial wards where the Democrats have their main strength.

ing their platform offer "just a few constructive improvements" as a starter. Such important items as reduction of the high cost of living; the restoration of two party government in the city; saving of the bus pass; salvation of the school system from politics; the inauguration of fair rent control measures; and the killing of a proposed sales tax, are included in the "good government charter" promulgated to oppose the present all-Republican city administration.

A bid for labor's vote is carried in the declaration that "Labor knows the Democratic party is traditionally its best friend."

HISTORICAL MOVIE ON SUNDAY MUSEUM BILL

"Red Wagon," a historical romance in color and sound is the title of the moving picture to be presented at the Rochester Museum of Arts and Sciences on Sunday at 3 p. m.

The picture recreates a chapter in the half century history of American industrial expansion and the opening of the west. Five hundred authentic period costumes and 30 stage settings are used to re-enact the growth of the meat industry against a picturesque backdrop of cattle roaming the Western plains, early railroad days and the first refrigerator car, the early telegraph, and the financial panic of 1893.

Everybody is asking

IT'S COMING!

Time and again we have enlarged the world's largest brewery. The present expansion program is the largest ever. But we can't ship you these additional trainloads of Budweiser without expanding our present network of railroad trackage. Supplying your demand for Budweiser has required us to build private railroad yards bigger than the terminal facilities of many major cities.

Although we are producing and shipping more Budweiser than ever before, it is scarce because more people are demanding it than ever before. They demand it because every drop of Budweiser contains the quality that over the years has made it the most popular beer in history.

Meanwhile, we are distributing Budweiser equitably to thousands of dealers throughout America. It seems that people no longer ask for beer... they ask for Budweiser.

are others who are seen in important parts. It is also particularly interesting to note that Delmer Daves who directed this Jerry Wald production, also wrote the screen play. This story is adapted from a David Goodis' novel of the same name.

All of the action is shot on the spot in San Francisco. The Golden Gate Bridge, the Presidio and San Quentin, all figure in the strong stirring action. Franz Waxman conducted the music department on this production, with "Two Marvelous for Words" revived for popular appeal.

More than forty of Hollywood's brightest stars are in the cast of Paramount's romantic musical comedy, "Variety Girl" which opens today at the Capitol Theatre.

Most of the stars, headed by Bing Crosby, Bob Hope, Ray Milland, Alan Ladd, Barbara Stanwyck, Paulette Goddard, Veronica Lake, Burt Lancaster, Dorothy Lamour and Sunny Tufts, contribute at least one specialty number to the film, and the circus finale is made up of the entire cast.

Playing the story leads in "Variety Girl," a fictionalized version of the adventures of the first ward of the Variety Clubs International, a showmen's organization are Mary Hatcher, star of the Broadway musical "Oklahoma," Olga San Juan and De Forest Kelly.

To play a specially important part in "The Miracle of the Bells," is an electronic carillon developed during the war to lure reluctant service men to Sunday services at military posts. A special instrument, which will duplicate the sound of church bells of any size, electrically, is being prepared by the manufacturers to provide the sound track for the climax of the picture, which involves a 78-hour bell-ringing marathon.

Victor Mature hardly had time to unpack from his jaunt to the East before he had to

POLKA . . .

The local Republican machine is quite apt to bog down in spots all over the city. Whether the habit of being an organization man is still strong enough to overcome their better judgement and past experience remains to be seen.

The Nineteenth Ward-Airport war has expanded into a city wide affair. No longer is it a matter of disturbing the tranquillity of the west side's best residential section. Researching petitioners have uncovered the county's plan to disburse seven AIRPORT . . .

"City Hall plans to spend 7 millions to build an elaborate administration building and improve the present municipal airport."

The embattled 19th warders originally asked for an independent survey to determine the advisability of enlarging the present airport but claim their efforts were met with snubs from Councilman VanLare and 19th Ward Supervisor William Nolan. Now they seek to oust the pair from office.

didn't stay off long. In 1938 he "accepted" appointment as a member of the Municipal Civil Service Commission and since 1941 has been its chairman, at $1200 per year. As a councilman he received $1500 annually.

Dr. Guzzetta as its chief beneficiary has understandably been one of the staunchest backers of the reclassification program. Under the reorganization he will be assisted in whatever additional duties he is supposed to have by the other two members of the commission. Their pay has been upped from $1200 to $1500 per year.

FIRE ANSWERING ALARM CHIEFS' CAR CATCHES

Potsdam, N. Y. — When James J. Doyle, Jr., chief of the Potsdam Volunteer Fire Department, led the way to the scene of a blazing automobile he was amazed to find, on stepping out of his car, that his auto was on fire. Firemen extinguished both blazes.

Arson-Minded Cat Starts House Fire

Prince Frederick, Md. — While Mrs. Julius Parran and her daughter, Suzanne, 5, sat in the living room of their home, a pet cat played in a bedroom upstairs. The cat knocked a kerosene lamp off a bedside table and set fire to the bed. The blaze heated the cartridges in a .45-automatic which fired three shots. Mrs. Parran ran outside, saw the fire through a window, called firemen, grabbed a bucket and, by the time the firemen arrived, had the blaze out and had forgiven the cat.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

We note that the local Republican campaign is underway — if the signboards here and there are an indication. The message shows the customary originality of a party who wins repeatedly because the people are too indifferent to break habits and custom.

The signboards we saw stated that the local old Guard was again running on "Its Record of Achievement" which is another way of saying "we haven't done a darn thing to be proud of — but you'll elect us anyway."

No, you don't have to be original in your slogans if you have been slapping the public in the puss for years and have never been slapped back. No matter how bad the public service, how putrid the administration or high the taxes, Rochesterians just can't get their "dander up" and vote incompetently out of office.

We don't think that the Democratic Party locally if elected would work miracles, but the public would have the advantage of putting an oft defeated minority on the spot, and the Democrats would be conscious of the fact that they would have to do a better job or be voted out of office again in the next local election. If you have a critical electorate breathing down your neck you're quite apt to do a good job. Unfortunately for Rochester the GOP have never been conscious that the people they represent even breathe at all.

The Republican "Record of Achievement" compares favorably with the record of last season's baseball club. It's been strictly poor second division stuff.

In Monday morning's paper an editorial writer asked for some definite "practical Democratic proposals" admitting that the GOP administration has been somewhat less than perfect.

We haven't seen any Republican proposals on how to improve the pediculous job they have been doing, in fact anything that has emanated from the local administration has been largely conversation-and-conversation at that.

"One fundamental fact" said the editorial man is that "the sources of revenue now available to the city are insufficient to meet the services the city must provide." Which is another way of saying that the city is so broke, so tax burdened and has such a poor credit standing that it is hamstrung.

Why the city of Rochester is on the verge of bankruptcy is no one's fault but the Republican party. In the last thirty years the Democrats have had control of the city and county less than ten per cent of the time. The wild spending orgies of the GOP boys of the twenties made the Harding administration look like a program set up by a handful of Vermont bankers. Yes, the mess our fair city is in can be laid only to (See POLKA Page 10)

KODAK REVEALS NEW CAMERA FOR U. S. SUBS

A new type of periscope camera for the U. S. submarine service was disclosed today by Eastman Kodak Company.

The new camera can snap closeup beachhead pictures at a clip of better than one a second.

Kodak also reported that it has supplied the navy's undersea force with a device by which a sheet of film from the new camera can be processed in daylight in less than 60 seconds.

The company said that the first models of the new camera were delivered to the navy late in World War II. They were designed to get detailed views of Japanese shorelines and possible invasion spots.

Kodak added that it has completed delivery of the last of the new type cameras, with which the sub fleet will be equipped. Kodak's Camera Works designed and built the camera. The company's Hawk-Eye, or optical, plant produced the lenses.

Earlier in the war Kodak converted two standard Eastman cameras for submarine periscope photography. One was a 35 millimeter "miniature" (Kodak 35) for still pictures. The other was a 16 millimeter motion picture camera for periscope movies.

The new camera, affording low-angle, assault-troop views, was made primarily for reconnaissance work.

The pictures it takes are about four inches square. They can be snapped in quick succession and pieced together to form a mosaic of a shoreline. This method often proves more suitable for beachhead planning than does the use of photos from fast-flying planes.

$500,000 Jewel Collection Shown At Store Opening

When the Kay Jewelry Co. opened its new Rochester store this morning at 143 Main St., E. in the site formerly operated by Klee & Groh, Rochester got its first peek at a diamond and jewelry exhibit worth half a million dollars.

Supervising the store's opening, one of 200 units operated by the firm throughout the country, was Mayor Samuel Dicker, who was scheduled to turn the key at 10 a. m. Presiding over the diamond exhibit is Miss Susanne Steinem, who carries the unique title of gemologist.

Her collection is interesting, no doubt about that. Included are diamond studded jewelry pieces that might have graced Egyptian Royalty, Chinese man-

U. R. PRESIDENT SEEKS NAVY ROTC TRAINEES

As president of the Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps Association of Colleges, Alan Valentine, president of the University of Rochester, will take part in a nationwide radio broadcast from Washington, D. C. tomorrow with Secretary of the Navy John L. Sullivan and Rear Admiral T. L. Sprague, USN, chief of naval personnel.

The purpose of the broadcast is to call attention to the nationwide examination to be held on Dec. 13 for candidates for the Navy scholarships in 52 NROTC colleges and universities, including the University of Rochester. The program will be carried by the NBC network, and will be heard from 10:45 to 11 p. m.

Tests for Rochester and vicinity high school seniors and college undergraduates will be held in Catharine Strong Hall, Prince Street Campus, and at East High School. Applications must be filed with the Naval Examining Section, College Entrance Examination Board, Princeton, N. J., by Nov. 10.

Successful candidates will be offered a four-year college course under the Navy officer procurement program, at government expense. The scholarships are valued at upwards of $5,000.

With hints that a sales tax will be added to the city or county program if the Republicans survive the election and a definite promise that nothing will be done to change the site of the present cramped airport nor efforts made to speed up housing for unhoused veterans in the city, the Monroe County Republican machine this week reached a new high in platitudinous phrases with its 1947 version of a "statement of principles."

MRS. SCHROEDER WINS SUN CONTEST AWARD

Mrs. Wm. Schroeder of 34 Asbury St. is the winner of this week's major prize of ten dollars in the drawing for Sun sustaining subscribers.

Each week The Sun conducts a drawing of ten winners to share in cash prizes from among its sustaining subscribers who pay their carrier ten cents a month for regular delivery of The Sun.

Here is the complete list of winners and their prizes for this week:

1st prize $10, Mrs. Wm. Schroeder, 34 Asbury St.; 2nd prize, $5, Mrs. Louis Spector, 1134 St. Paul St.; 3rd prize, $3, Mrs. F. L. Howell, 31 Margaret St.; 4th through 10th, $1 each, Mrs. Geo. Fady, 291 Hawley St.; Mrs. J. Macello, 52 Locust St.; Mrs. V. Balch, 336 Hayward Ave.; Mrs. Jos. F. Smith, 49 Cragg Rd.; Frank Wabl, 337 Garson Ave.; Mrs. E. Staub, 84 Shady Way and Mrs. L. Merkel, 34 Iroquois St.

Prizes will be mailed to the winners.

In other years Harold S. W. MacFarlin, campaign manager and former advertising man wrote the platform. And into it he usually put all the choicest words used by the advertising writers to entice the public to accept their products. But for reasons unknown to the general public the fine hand of the diminutive campaigner appears to be lacking. Even the roseate promises of other years are absent from the 1947 statement.

On the same day that a prominent Republican member of the Board of Education was protesting that funds provided in the 1946 school budget are inadequate, the Republican statement said that "Republican school commissioners do, and will, maintain our public school system upon an adequate basis."

Within days of the American Airlines' announcement that some of its local flights would (See GOP Page 10)

I see by the papers—

By Orville Allen

"Republicans yesterday hailed the election of Kenneth B. Keating to Congress as a long step toward putting the Rochester Congressional district on the national political map.

In the overturn amounting to a peaceful revolution effected by the United States electorate Tuesday, the new Rochester representative will play an outstanding role.

Keating, it was claimed by ardent admirers, will enter on his new duties with equipment and attainments which promise that the 40th District will have at Washington what the city has not had since it became a city — a Representative who will be a national figure in Congressional affairs."

Some of us "ardent admirers" had such high hopes for you. What happened, Kenny. When are you going to get started on the road to fame?

All these characteristics have been chosen as "fall line" that is all that Dame Fashion demands. But you'll find upon shopping that every type has been considered. Alice knows that all women can't and won't wear the extremes. Colors are rampant — fabric beautiful — many combined for brand new sparkling smartness. Prices are for the budget-minded. WILLKIE AIDE ASKS VIGOROUS GOP PROGRAM

Progressive and liberal Republicans have but one road to take in the opinion of Partley C. Crum, west coast manager for the late Wendell Willkie.

Writing in the current '47, Crum says: "Whether the candidate be Stassen, Dewey, Vandenberg or Warren, progressive Republicans want a progressive program. They realized that the Ivory tower crashed to the ground along with Hiroshima. The fact, already dramatized by Wendell Willkie, that no nation can survive without cooperation with other nations, became incontestable."

"If we are to avoid the fatal error of a multiparty system, as in France, or a one-party system, as the Soviet Union, we must work toward a dominant coalition of liberal forces within the Republican party structure. The Republican party cannot win in 1948 by following a 'Me, too!' policy in 1947," concludes Crum.

READY CONTEST, CONCERT HERE

Tickets for the Central Western New York District Barber Shop Quartet contest and concert at the Eastman Theater Saturday evening, Oct. 25, are now on sale.

The contest will be conducted by the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barber Shop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., and the Eastman Theater concert is sponsored by the Alumnae Association of the University of Rochester for the benefit of the Alumnae Swimming Pool Fund for a new pool at the College for women.

More than 30 quartets from the Central Western New York Area, including at least five Rochester groups, will take part in elimination competition during the morning and afternoon of Oct. 25 in the Powers Hotel Ballroom, and the five finalists will sing for the district title in the Eastman Theater that evening.

In addition to these, four famous guest quartets will sing at the evening concert. They are the Elastic Four, from Chicago, 1942 international champions of the SPEBSQSA, the Harmony Halls, of Grand Rapids, Mich., 1944 international champions, the Garden State Four, Jersey City, last year's international winners, and the Chordollers of Rock Island, Ill., 1947 international finalists.

Rochester has two chapters of SPEBSQSA, and at least five local quartets will vie for the district title—the Silver Dollars, the Melody Mutilators, the Kodachords, the B Naturals, and the Note-Crackers.

SUSPENSE KEYNOTE OF 'DARK PASSAGE' AT REGENT

Excitement and gripping suspense accent "Dark Passage" which brings together for the third time on the screen the dramatic talents of Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall. The film moves to the Regent screen on Wednesday for a second week. This is an action packed screen version of the David Goodis novel of the same name. Most of the film was shot in San Francisco, with considerable footage devoted to outdoor scenes around the Bay City. The supporting cast includes Agnes Moorehead, Bruce Bennett and Clifton Young. Miss Bacall's assignment here is said to be a more sympathetic one than usual, as she depicts a serious-minded young lady, instead of the sultry enchantress.

ERROL FLYNN, BARBARA STANWYCK AT CAPITOL

Errol Flynn and Barbara Stanwyck share stellar billing in Warner Bros. "Cry Wolf" new drama of love and suspense which opened yesterday at the Capitol Theatre. Supporting players include screen newcomers Geraldine Brooks and Richard Basehart as well as veteran performers Jerome Cowan, John Ridely and Helen Thimig. Produced by Henry Blanke "Cry Wolf" was adapted for the screen by Catherine Turney from Marjorie Carleton's novel of the same name. Franz Waxman contributed the original music for the story. New and even more exciting adventures for radio's famous fighting editor, Steve Wilson, are reported to be jam-packed into the Pine-Thomas production of Paramount's "I Cover Big Town", second feature

Inside Hollywood

News comes that Red Skelton will do "The Fuller Brush Man," for Columbia. The idea for the comedy was conceived nearly four years ago, before Skelton joined the Army but no studio could be interested in producing it until Fox made "Miracle on 34th Street," and demonstrated that Macy's and Gimbel's could be used in a film without exposing Hollywood to commercialism.

James Stewart's next film will be "You Belong to Me," and concerns a war correspondent who brings home four adopted Italian youngsters to his prospective bride. It has a spring production date.

Coleen Gray, pert blonde who was seen in "Kiss of Death" and currently in "Nightmare Alley," got her start via a waitress job in swank eating-place. "Garbage heaving," she declares, not only gave her an intensified course in psychology but also helped her to remember dialogue. "Memorizing a script is a snap compared to carrying around a couple of assorted orders in your head."

Everybody who has seen William Powell in his role as Clarence Day, Sr., in "Life With Father," has been delighted. He practically stole the entire picture from everybody in it. His next will be "Mr. Peabody and the Mermaid," a fantasy concerning a mermaid and a man of indeterminate age.

GOP...

have to be cancelled because of the inadequacy of the present airport's runways, the Republican statement dismissed the whole question of aviation with the short meaningless phrase that "the people of this community shall have aviation facilities commensurate with the needs, the demands and the ability to pay."

Upon one point the statement was specific: The party is in favor of the Veterans' Memorial.

So is every other political party in the vicinity. But none has tried to take over this community-wide, non-political effort until the present Republican attempt.

Not only does the local Republican machine intend to do nothing about public housing; it actually boasts of its attitude stating that the present administration proposes to "adhere to this (its present) policy" in the matter of housing.

As is his usual custom, Republican County Chairman Thomas Broderick made a speech opening the campaign. And, also, as is his usual custom when left to his own devices in writing a speech, he started out by "putting his foot in it."

Taking a long deep breath, Broderick dismissed the high cost of living issue raised by the Democrats as having nothing to do with the City Council or any other local candidates. But before he had completely expelled that same breath, he went way back more than a decade to inject the issue of "plowing under wheat and killing of the pigs" in the days when the farmers (largely Republican) were howling to Washington to save them from ruinously low prices. He also referred to the government's egg buying program which was designed to help those same farmers (largely Republican).

If, as Broderick had said, the food issue does not belong in the local campaign, his hearers wondered who in the city administration had killed any pigs, plowed under any wheat or bought for storage any eggs. It was hard to believe that such programs could be laid at the door of local out-of-office Democrats.

POLKA...

the door of the GOP and while they remain in power it is unlikely that it will get any better.

Another quote from the editorial is "It (the city administration) will bend every effort to find money to increase city worker's pay." That remark caused four broken blood vessels and twenty-seven cases of hysterics among the underpaid small fry of City Hall. The city fathers have been "bending every effort" for years and years and the clerks and assistants of the civil services are still getting buttons instead of cash in their pay envelopes.

It's only the big brass and job holding party leaders that it can find more hay for THEY "bend" over so far for these boys it throws out its sacrifice.

A few weeks ago Mr. Dewey, speaking before an important group of Jewish philanthropists, urged the federal government to give all out aid to Europe's Starving.

Last week he asserted that Europe should get aid only if the U. S. weren't hit too hard in the bread basket.

Mr. Dewey does a fine job of mounting a horse and riding off in all directions.

In last week's column we inadvertently made a reference to the Union Trust Co. It was our intention that it should read Union Trust Bldg. the home and headquarters of the Republican Party.

We realize that we did one of Rochester's great banking enterprises a grave injustice. No bank could run its affairs like the Republican Party does the city — and still be in business.

We don't know why the trash collection service suddenly decided to enforce the metal ash can and small basket ordinance just before election — unless of course some maker of galvanized cans is slated for a generous contribution to the war chest.

We hope the ash gangs this year will be restricted to small hammers with which to beat the cans into disgorging their contents. The five pound sledges customarily used don't give even a new can but a very short and noisy life.

$29,000 QUOTA SET FOR COUNTY SEAL CAMPAIGN

To carry on its campaign against tuberculosis and to help promote good health in the community, the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Rochester and Monroe County must raise $29,000 in the 1947 Christmas Seal Sale, according to John C. Malloch, chairman of the County Health Committee of the Association.

The nation-wide 41st annual Christmas Seal Sale begins Nov. 24 and continues until Christmas Day. The Seal Sale

Committee for Monroe County, headed by Mrs. James Woodruff, will handle the sale in the county outside the city of Rochester.

In announcing the quota for the 1947 campaign, Malloch explained that it had been set after a thorough review of the association's activities in the county at a joint session of the budget and program committees.

The quota is based on the estimated minimum needed to continue the health program of the Tuberculosis and Health Association in this county, exclusive of the City of Rochester. It also provides for the expansion of certain services, to make possible a wider attack on tuberculosis and to help bring about its ultimate eradication.

NATIONS TOP MONEY WINNER DUE AT HAMBURG

"April Star," top money winner among the nation's harness horses, has arrived at Buffalo Raceway in Hamburg, and will make his first start there on Saturday night, qualifying for the $10,000 Empire State Pace, which will be held on Friday, Oct. 24. "April Star" has won more than $88,000, having led the field home this year in the $50,000 pace in California and the $40,000 2-mile event at Roosevelt Raceway. The most remarkable feature of his career, however, is not his marvelous racing ability, but the mere fact that he is racing at all. He suffered a broken leg when he was four days old. Upon examination, he was given up as hopeless and was ordered destroyed. X-rays were taken, the leg was placed in a cast, and a perfect set was effected. The case was the talk of the harness racing world, especially when he began his sensational winning streak. Now six years old, the gelding is owned by Roy L. Craig of Urbahn, O. He will meet "Dr. Stanton," the scourge of the Midwest, on Saturday and again in the $10,000 pace. "Dr. Stanton" was such a standout at Northville that he was barred from win, place and show betting in a stake race after he had won 20 of his first 22 races during 1947. Incidentally he won both dashes of the stake race.

"Millbrook" which had the railbirds reeling with a 2:05 1/5 mile and a 2:13 3/5 mile and a sixteenth last week in his first two starts in Western New York, will be back for another crack at added purse money. His mark is the fastest competitive pacing mile in Hamburg history, and the 2:13 3/5 represents a track record. "Jimmy Creed," another sidewheeler that ranks with the best in the game, also will return on Saturday. Each will go in the Empire State.

Arrival of these stars assures a great weekend of racing. The $10,000 J. C. Newton Memorial Trot will be raced on Friday. Among the starter will be "Proximity" and "Wee Laird," each the holder of two Hamburg track records; "Gypsy Prince," "Porter Day" and "Kate Volo."

ENTOMOLOGIST ADVISES FEEDING TERMITES

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Explaining that only hungry termites eat up houses, Frank N. Wallace, state entomologist, suggests that it would be best to have an old woodpile in your backyard to keep them from getting hungry for your floors, walls, or walnut paneling.

SALES TAX FIGHT SPLITS GOP

Republican Raps Plan Favored By Broderick Forces

A political bombshell was dropped into the laps of the local Republican machine over the weekend when a prominent GOP assemblyman came out flatfootedly against a sales tax, called for the repeal of such "nuisance taxes" allowable under the Dewey-sponsored GOP program, and accused Thomas E. Dewey of being the most expensive Governor the state has ever had.

PARADE TO MARK CITY'S NAVY DAY OBSERVANCE

A memorial flower service and parade will highlight Rochester's third peacetime observance of Navy Day next Monday. Rochesterians wishing to participate in the observance are invited to leave a flower, preferably wild or home grown at the Court House anytime Saturday or Sunday and until Monday noon. The flowers will be mounted on an 8-ft. anchor and be on display in the Court House rotunda during the 3-day memorial.

Navy Gold Star mothers will assist in arranging the flowers and a volunteer Navy guard of honor will stand watch during the memorial period. Mothers and widows of Navy men who lost their lives in World War II will have reserved seats at the Navy Day parade. Stands will be erected in front of the Court House for all Gold Star Mothers and wives of Navy, Marine and Coast Guard dead.

Principal marching units in the noon-hour parade through Main St. next Monday will be 100 Midshipmen of the University of Rochester NROTC unit and the 54th Regiment band. Capt. George C. Townner, USN, will be in command of the Middies while Floyd King will lead the band. Color guards representing the Naval Reserve, Marine Corps Reserve, the NROTC, County Council of Veterans of Foreign Wars and Spanish-American War Veterans will escort a Coast Guard jeep carrying the flower-laden anchor.

The parade will leave the YMCA at noon, march south down Grove St. to Main St. and along Main to the Court House where the flowers will be blessed at 12:15 by former Navy chaplains of three faiths. Following the memorial ceremonies on the Court House steps, the flowers will be taken aboard a Navy ship and scattered on Lake Ontario with a final blessing by the chaplains.

COUNTY TRIBUTE TO HONOR WORLD WAR II DEAD

Seat reservations for Monroe County's Memorial tribute to all of the honored war dead of World War II are still available to relatives of the war dead.

The county-wide memorial service will be held in the Main St. Armory Sunday afternoon Nov. 2. A procession starting from the New York Central station at 3:30 p. m. will precede the tribute. Armory doors will open to the public at 3 p. m. and the ceremonies there are scheduled to start at 4:30 o'clock.

Reservations may be secured by filling out the coupon printed in this issue and returning it properly filled out to the Memorial Tribute Committee, 168 Clinton Ave. S. Rochester, 4, New York.

Because of limited seating capacity, officials arranging the memorial service are restricting reservations to two. They have announced, however, that those desiring more than the allotted two reservations should request the number they desire. Requests will be filled whenever and wherever possible. Relationship to the war dead of those requiring additional reservations should be given.

Until Sunday, reservations are being limited to next of kin. Announcement as to other types of reservations to be made available will be made early next week.

Despite the chronic complaints of some business leaders the profits of corporations are setting new records, what would please 'em?

Candidate Noonan Got Early Political Training On Golf Course

John Francis Noonan

Among Rochester's "self-made" men one will have to include the name of John Francis Noonan, Democratic candidate for North District Councilman. Perhaps he hasn't scaled the peaks that some of the others have, but then, neither did he marry the boss' daughter, as did some of the others who now carry the "self-made" label.

Noonan, former golf pro, government employee and attorney did it the hard way. He worked for it.

Born and raised in Rochester, Noonan's father gave him the whole wide world in which to make a living, but wasn't financially able to go far beyond that.

So Noonan went to work. First as a caddy at the old Oak Hill links and later at Durand. While still in high school he landed the job of starter at Durand and later became that club's professional. In the meantime he finished Cathedral High School and put himself through St. Bonaventure College. While at the Olean school he built a golf course and became its first pro—during the school year. Summers he continued as pro at Durand. After getting his B. A. at St. Bonaventure he enrolled in Georgetown University Law School. Here again he had to provide his own funds and so became an employee of the Department of Agriculture. Upon receiving his L. L. B. from Georgetown in 1937, he entered the office of Dwyer, Rellly, Roberts, McLouth & Dicker with whom he was associated (See NOONAN Page 2)

SCHOOL EDITORS JOIN FIGHT ON TB

Young journalists from 30 schools in Monroe County will participate in the 11th annual nation-wide School Press Project sponsored by the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Rochester and Monroe County.

Purpose is to arouse interest of young people in control of tuberculosis which takes the lives of more persons in the 15 to 45 age group than any other disease.

School papers participating in the project will publish articles, editorials or cartoons in their November and December issues on one of the following subjects: "The Role of the Tuberculosis Association in a Community Health Program" and "How My School Can Help Prevent Tuberculosis."

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

We don't know who's writing Marse Tom Broderick's scripts these days but observers are beginning to believe he may be writing his own speeches—they're that bad.

Like all good politicians he has been ignoring charges hurled at him while challenging the other fellow to "come out and fight." Reports are that all his speeches have been roundly applauded. Before a strictly Republican audience that hardly seem unusual. The rumor is that if you can't show red and calloused palms at the end of a Broderick speech—you'll never get another nomination.

There are many who feel that the "vigor" of the GOP campaign is synthetic—mostly fear and uncertainty; whistling in the dark stuff. It's a cinch that the increased enrollment is not all veteran. There is a healthy protest against local state and national GOP "shennanigans."

There is a dangerous chunk of the voting populace that thinks local service has been stinko and the attitude of the administration has been high handed and snooty. Except, of course, just before election. They also think they are without imagination or initiative, jumping behind such ambiguities as "Hold the line til '49." The dear old GOP fathers have been elected so often they are sure the electorate is completely without intelligence. They don't realize that most any school kid knows that after "the line" has been held til '49 the city will be just as broke as it is today and was yesterday and the taxes will be just as high or higher—and there will be more of 'em.

The GOP is running on its customary basis. They are convinced that "people are funny" and they are "paid to be ignorant." The increased registration may indicate the "ignorant" voters are looking for a group who will be less ignorant of their wishes and of good government.

One of the more squeamish of the present GOP candidates is Vice Mayor Van Lare who is not too sure his political head won't roll in the basket. Uncle (See POLKA Page 9)

Mayor Sets Freedom Week

In formal proclamation, Mayor Samuel B. Dicker, honorary chairman of the Rochester Freedom Train Committee, this week named Oct. 31 to Nov. 6 as Rededication Week. In his proclamation, Mayor Dicker called upon the citizens of

THE FREEDOM PLEDGE

I am an American. A free American.
Free to speak—without fear
Free to worship my own God
Free to stand for what I think right
Free to oppose what I believe wrong
Free to choose who govern my country.
This heritage of Freedom I pledge to uphold
For myself and all mankind.

Rochester during that week to repledge their devotion to the basic principles of this republic. Cities across the nation, Mayor Dicker pointed out, are devoting that week prior to the arrival of the Freedom Train to a series of ceremonies in which (See FREEDOM Page 13)

Last May, when OPA closed up shop, he returned to Rochester and set up shop as an attorney and counsellor at law with offices in the Elwood Bldg.
Politically, Noonan has always been a Democrat and has been a county committeeman for the past decade.
Noonan's home is at 304 Driving Pk. Ave. where he lives with his wife, the former Catherine Hock, and his two children — Patricia Ann and Michael Dennis. Incidentally, Noonan is getting some good coaching on the fine points of campaigning from his wife. She is the daughter of the late Louis Hock, who made a bid for the same post to which Noonan now aspires, in 1933 on the Republican ticket. That was the year the Republican got licked. Noonan believes that history is about to repeat itself.

SACSON DRESSES AT EDWARDS
The famous SACSON DRESSES are being featured at EDWARDS this week in three lovely styles. You'll find them in Day-time Dresses on the Third Floor. "Classic Grace" the softly tailored line, new with a pleat-front skirt, and new three-quarters length sleeves is lovely priced at $10.95. Sizes 14-40. Fashioned of soft rayon filament crepe in black grey, or rose beige with white. Ideal for all-around wear. May be dressed up or down with your favorite jewelry. "MATTINEE" so rightly called is what you'll wear to town, to the theatre. Two-piece with a wheeling all around peplum. In light weight rayon linen in navy, black or brown with white. Sizes 10 to 20 and priced at a modest $8.95. "ONCE UPON A TIME" is a darling. Ideal for wintertime. Perfect under your furs — but just enough dash to keep reminding you of Springtime. This dress is the kind you'll wear at all seasons of the year. It is a button coat-dress with a jewel-able round neckline. The fabric is a rayon French crepe in grey, aqua or cocoa print. It is soft as a kitten's ear. May be had in sizes 14 to 44. Perfect for the larger figure. Priced at $8.95. Again EDWARDS have scored a HIT — in the featuring of these wonderful SACSON DRESSES so suitable for all figures and all ages. Prices so you can afford all THREE. To repeat you will find them at EDWARDS — Daytime Dresses — Third Floor, Edwards—Setting A New Pace in Rochester.

RIPTON DRESSES
Women who wear sizes 38 to 44 will sometimes find it hard to dress with a jewel-able line. But not those who KNOW about that wonderful line of "WOMEN'S DRESSES" at RIPTON'S. Graceful slimming lines in dignified styles at prices you can afford are yours for the asking. Blacks, and plenty of muted shades in greys, browns and greens. Another group at RIPTON DRESSES worth seeing are regular sizes from 12 to 20 priced at a modest $12.95. Blacks and beautiful autumn hues. RIPTON DRESSES — 739 MONROE AVE. Open Eve.

OHIO EDITOR TO SPEAK AT Y DRIVE OPENING

Plans for the opening dinner meeting of the $1,539,485 YMCA-YCWA campaign next Thursday are being completed following the announcement that Grove Patterson, editor-in-chief of the Toledo Blade, would be the principal speaker. The meeting will take place in the Chamber of Commerce.

The Ohio editor is a past president of the American Society of Newspaper Editors, a trustee of Oberlin College, a member of the International Board of the YMCA, chairman of the Ohio-West Virginia World Service Committee of the YMCA, a past president of the Toledo YMCA and a member of its board of directors for many years.

In addition to his newspaper activities, Patterson is a world traveler having visited practically all of the countries of Europe as well as many in the Far East, Central and South America.

"We are very happy that Mr. Patterson will be able to be with us at the opening meeting," said Walter L. Todd, chairman of the campaign. "A world traveler, outstanding newspaperman and ardent believer in the work of the two youth associations, his address promises to be an inspiration to all who are working to make this campaign a success."

Other details of the program for the meeting will be completed this week. Volunteer workers will begin their community-wide solicitation at the close of the meeting. The first report meeting will be held Monday Nov. 3 at noon with others following on Nov. 4, 5, 6, 7 and 10. All report meetings will be held at the Chamber of Commerce.

A man may be able to leave a lot of money for his relatives to spend but the only cash he takes across the Great Divide is money freely expended for the benefit of other people.

PINNACLE GROUP TO CELEBRATE ZONE FIGHT WIN

Plans for their first annual fall festival have superseded the radio tower "invasion" of Pinnacle Hill as the main order of business for members of the Pinnacle Association who this week won their fight to keep tower construction off the south side hill. The fete will be held in the Monroe YMCA gymnasium tomorrow evening and is open to all residents of the area bounded by Culver Rd., Field St., Pinnacle Rd., and Monroe Ave.

An entertainment program including magic acts, games, and dancing has been scheduled under the direction of Walter Knopf who will act as master of ceremonies. A topnotch "caller" for the square dance sets has been engaged. Knopf will also act as auctioneer in distributing merchandise donated by Monroe Ave. merchant members of the association.

Admission to the festival is free to all residents but a small donation to defray cost of cider and doughnut refreshments will be sought from the merry-makers.

Mrs. Warren MacKelvey is general chairman of the festival and is being assisted in arrangements by a committee of 25 members.

DEMOCRATS PLAN TUESDAY RALLY IN SOUTHWEST

Heavy on entertainment and light on speeches will be the theme of a southwest district rally of combined Democratic organizations in the 3rd, 4th, 13th, 14th, and 19th wards next Tuesday evening at 8:30 p. m. in the German Club Hall on Gregory St.

Hosts to the group will be Democratic Supervisor Candidates George Jamieson of the 13th and Ben Morlan of the 14th wards.

All area Democratic candidates will be present. Democratic County Chairman Roy Bush will preside.

Heading the entertainment program will be Bill Flanagan's locally famous 14-piece orchestra complete with vocalists and novelty numbers. Several door prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served.

Jamieson took time out this week to categorically deny as "silly" the rumors which he says are being spread about the ward by his opposition that if elected he will "close up all the beer joints on South Ave."

He denied that he had any intentions along that line and cited his complete lack of authority to act in the matter even if he were so inclined.

"It's a vicious lie and almost too silly to recognize with a denial," he said, adding, "it just shows how completely lacking in understanding of a supervisor's bank rates of 5% discount per year per $100 is your only cost. Loans can be arranged from $100 to $2500 and you

GRANDPARENTS STAR IN 'ICE CAPEDES'
If one were looking for grandpa and grandpa, he might check on the easy chair by the fire but certainly wouldn't expect to find them skating on the ice.
Yet that's where you'd have to look to find Orrin Markhus and Irma Thomas the nationally famous "Old Smoothies" of Ice Capades of 1948, to Buffalo Memorial Auditorium Nov. 8 through 16. Both stars are grand parents.

Then late one night they auditioned before John H. Harris, producer of Ice Capades.
Their smooth work together caused Mr. Harris to name them "The Old Smoothies" and that audition started them on the road to fame which increases with each season.

Tom Broderick didn't help matters one bit when he referred to the protests of the people of the southwest district as "that rumpus."

Although typical of the attitude of the Republican hierarchy it would seem that Mr. Broderick went out of his way to put his size nine shoe into trouble. The airport nuisance is real and important to the people of the nineteenth and fourteenth wards. They are seeking to protect their investments in real estate and happiness. They resent being "brushed off" as a nuisance.

To add to Mr. Van Lare's worries the Democrats are presenting one of their strongest candidates in that district—the personable and intelligent Bob O'Brien, youngish, smart-as-a-whip lawyerman who could put Mr. Van Lare in his back pocket on matters that win friends and influence people.

If Mr. Van Lare fails to make the grade this year he can thank not only his own lack of executive ability but Mr. Broderick's lack of tact.

If you were one of the few who tried to figure out the city budget you may have noted that the big brass in the police and fire departments came in for a few token raises. Not enough to throw a good party on—but nevertheless raises.

What did the patrolmen and the firemen get? You guessed it—nothing—not even the customary promise.

What has irked a number of big businessmen and merchants in Rochester is not only the evasiveness of Mr. Broderick on the sales tax (it's a comin' soon) but his complete indifference and lack of guts in protesting to Tom Dewey.

A great many county leaders have been more articulate. They have told the governor in no uncertain terms that they have been jobbed. Many have definitely declared they won't exercise their rights under the "permissive" tax legislation. Others have vigorously demanded that it be taken out of the Dewey slush fund surplus.

If Mr. Broderick doesn't know it yet, Mr. Dewey would like to be president of the United States. To do that he must first get the GOP nomination. He wants the New York state delegation, which includes those voting under the direction of Mr. Broderick.

Too long in power, Mr. Broderick doesn't seem interested enough (like so many other county leaders) to plead the case of his taxpaying electorate.

Tom's sure they'll vote for his boys anyway.

George Jamieson, 13th ward candidate for supervisor, will give his territory a taste of old time campaigning methods before the fatal Tuesday in November.

Lake Ave. Baptist Women To Hear Talk
Mrs. Dorothy Fuldheim will give her lecture "Left or Right—Which Way?" at the Lake Avenue Baptist Church, on Friday, Oct. 31 at 11 a. m., under the auspices of the Women's Society. Mrs. Fred Large will introduce the speaker. Ticket reservations may be made by calling the church office Glenwood 0817, or they can be purchased at the door.

'POP' CONCERT SEASON OPENS SUNDAY

Rochester's perennially popular "Pop" concert season will get underway in the Eastman Theatre on Sunday evening. Highlighting the program aranged by Conductor Guy Frazer Harrison will be the first Rochester performance of George McKay's "Suite on Fiddler's Tunes, Wagner and Sawyer, Smoky Mountain, Callaway Jane, Sandy Land, Sail Away Lady and Leather Britches."

Other numbers on Sunday's program include the prelude to "Lohengrin," Prokofiev's Classical Symphony, selections from

"Finian's Rainbow," Strauss' "Artist's Life," Elgar's "Pomp and Circumstance" and the Polonaise from Tchaikovsky's Third Suite.

On the following Sunday, Nov. 2 jazz clarinetist maestro Benny Goodman will be featured. Goodman has drawn overflow audiences in past appearances here and it is anticipated that a similar response will greet him on his return.

REGENT HOLDS
"FOXES OF HARROW"

Starring Rex Harrison and Maureen O'Hara, the film version of Frank Yerby's "THE FOXES OF HARROW" is staying for a second week at the Regent. Only once in a blue moon has any author's first novel received such widespread critical acclaim, or marked up such phenomenal best-seller records as this book by the former Federal Writer's Project author. Maintaining its position as one of the nation's top ten best-sellers for 32 weeks, the exciting story of passion and conflict in early New Orleans days has been read by well over eleven million people in book form and will be of equal interest to them as a thrilling motion picture of our country's most flamboyant era.

GEORGE BRENT IN COMEDY ROLE
The "new George Brent" is revealed in all his laugh-getting ability. He does as broad a portrayal as he has ever permitted himself in playing the swash-buckling American hero who outwits and outfights the Paasha of Tripoli.

VOICE OF LABOR

A Political Advertisement of the United Labor Action Committee

NOW HAVE YOU HAD ENOUGH?
Have The BIG FELLOWS Pushed You Around Enough?
SINCE THE REPUBLICAN LANDSLIDE OF 1946 THESE THINGS HAVE HAPPENED TO YOUR POCKETBOOK:
FOOD PRICES HAVE RISEN 50% A START HAS BEEN MADE TO DECONTROL RENTS
Most of Your Savings Have Gone Out the Window

WHY A UNITED LABOR TICKET
In this election we offer the voters of Rochester an opportunity to register an overwhelming vote of protest against the dictatorial, undemocratic and inhuman leadership of the Republican political machine in city affairs. . . . We condemn the city administration for firing several hundred DPW employees because they dared to form a Labor Union. . . . We condemn the administration for ordering the wholesale arrest of peaceful pickets and spectators without warrants. . . . We call attention to the humiliating spectacle of a judge being made to serve his anti-labor masters of the political machine by demanding outrageous bail of $100 for each arrested citizen. . . .
We cannot forget that while the Rochester Republican administration was taking steps along the fascist road not one responsible leader of either of the two major parties raised a voice in protest.
The tax policy of the Dewey Administration has been to soak the poor and spare the rich, and entirely out of sympathy with men and women of the wage-earning class.
In the Nation, Republican reactionaries, tools of Big Business, and labor-hating Southern Democrats made an unholy alliance in the Congress to stymie labor. They passed the Taft-Hartley Bill over the veto of President Truman and other bills detrimental to the welfare of working people.

FREEDOM . . .

citizen groups reassert their allegiance to the primary laws of the land.

During Rededication Week Rochesterians will be asked to take the simple but moving Freedom Pledge. Under the leadership of Deputy-Chief William McLaughlin, chairman of the fraternal organizations committee, fraternal groups plan to take the Freedom Pledge at their monthly meeting nearest Nov. 6. Talks on the Bill of Rights and the necessity of preserving the American system of government will feature many of these meetings. Speakers for such meetings are being provided through a speakers bureau headed by Fred E. Ereth, city purchasing agent. Persons going through the Freedom Train, when it is in the city on Nov. 6 will sign a scroll topped by the Freedom Pledge, thus formally attesting their adherence to the principles it asserted.

Movie-going Rochester will see a special 10 minute documentary film about the Freedom Train during Rededication Week. The radio committee under the direction of William J. Adams is planning a series of special programs featuring the great names of screen and radio for Rededication Week.

Sunday, Nov. 2, has been designated Freedom of Worship Day. Churches have been asked to devote part of their sermons or services to the theme of Rededication Week.

Monday, Nov. 3, has been set aside as Susan B. Anthony and Frederick Douglass Day. On that date the city will pay homage to these two great fighters for the further freedom of the individual.

Other ceremonies during the week are still in the formative stage. Each day in that week, in addition to the two listed, has been assigned to a specific objective. Oct. 31 will be Constitution Day; Nov. 1, Civic Organizations Day; Nov. 4 (Election Day), Better Citizenship Day; and Nov. 5, Industry and Labor Day.

GOP . . .
State income.
"Mr. Dewey has spent more millions of dollars than any previous Governor," Van Duzer charged, "in spite of his constant reiteration of the economic government he has given New York State."
Van Duzer cited another reason for his opposition to imposition of such taxes as planned by the Republicans here if they survive the election. Once imposed, he says, they will never be repealed and will probably be increased. He pointed to the gasoline tax to prove his statement. That tax originally was one-tenth of a cent per gallon but has since been increased to four cents a gallon, an increase, in the words of Van Duzer, "of four thousand percent."

Even that tax has been diverted from its original design of maintaining a New York State highway system to "other purposes at the whim of politics," he charged.

He cited other taxes imposed on New York State citizens not paid elsewhere to prove that the Republican sponsored tax program is an expensive luxury.

"The people of this state pay income taxes not levied by many other states. We pay for more kinds of social welfare nonsense than any other state. We pay automobile license taxes three, four and five times as much as any other state."

"We taxpayers," declared the embattled GOP spokesman, "are getting tired of doing all the paying and little of the receiving while commissions and commissioners created by the Legislature loll about in swivel chairs and dream up methods of bewitching and bewildering the ordinary citizen."

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

We are on the eve of another election and there are many responsible elements in the city who are hopeful that the Rochester electorate will snap out of its traditional GOP-mindedness and assert itself. There are those who believe that as long as local voters remain creatures of habit they will continue to be used as door mats. By voting in the Democrats, city affairs will still remain in the hands of GOP but nevertheless they will learn that our tax burdened voters can rise up and slap them down. Even an oft and easily elected Republican might take the hint that their "public be damned — they'll vote for us anyway" policy could be shelved.

WHEC—SATURDAY, 7:50 P.M.
"FORWARD ROCHESTER"
CURT GERLING vs.
THERON ROBINSON
"LOCAL POLITICAL ISSUES"

An analysis of the city administration brings to light a great many odious facts. Perhaps the most odiferous is the death of business judgement. Few communities have had such slap happy direction and such a total disregard for the fact that two and two make four and not six. Running a city is big business and if any of our banks were run like Rochester no one would put a dime in them. If any of our stores were run with such a total disregard for the business facts of life, they wouldn't be there to buy anything from.

Those entrusted with handling and planning the disbursement of huge sums are not appointed because of their abilities but for political reasons. No one is in high city office because of his proven business judgment. He is there because he knew the right people, was a faithful party follower and it was politically expedient. It's about as sensible as appointing a man merchandise manager of

BONUS, FORESTS, HOUSING PLANS STIR INTEREST

In addition to voting for city councilmen, supervisors, judges and other political officials, voters next Tuesday will be called upon to express their wishes regarding six amendments, three propositions, and in the City of Rochester, daylight saving time.

Of the six, Amendments I and VI have attracted most attention and led to the most controversy. One concerns a state bonus to veterans, the other permits additional ski trails in the Catskill and Adirondack Mountains area of Ulster, Delaware and Warren Counties.

The other four amendments concern absentee voting procedure; eliminating the constitution's provision setting current salary schedules of senators and assemblymen; a change in procedure for removal of certain judges; and the formation of a new judicial district.

No clear lines have been drawn in the veteran's bonus proposal. Many veterans themselves, have expressed sentiment against the measure saying that as taxpayers they will have to pay their own bonus.

However, the bonus proposal is expected to meet with the approval of a majority of the state's voters.

No such lack of clarity exists between opponents and proponents of the ski trail measure.

On the one side, slidly entrenched are the strict conservationists, outdoorsmen and hunters. They call the proposal

Hicks Learned Politics 'The Hard Way'

A former political reporter turned candidate! That's Thomas F. Hicks, Democratic nominee for Rochester City Council, East District opposing Mayor Samuel B. Dickler, Republican.

Hicks has covered political and city hall beats for daily newspapers in New York State, Michigan, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. He's observed the efficiency of the mayor and council, city manager, and commission forms of city government.

With this background, Hicks voices the opinion that it's not the title of a government which matters most in assuring a capable administration — it's the persons who hold the city's elective offices who really count. When the elected city officials are responsive to the expressed will of the people, then good government will result, he believes.

This conviction has led Hicks, in the current political campaign, to stress the need of minority party representation on Rochester's council.

Hicks, 42, resides at 48 Delray Road in the 21st Ward. He was born in Canandaigua on Aug. 25, 1905, a son of the late Attorney John H. Hicks and of Augusta Cole Hicks. He was educated in the Canandaigua Union School and Canandaigua Academy, and two days after completing high school he started his newspaper career, as a reporter on the Canandaigua Daily Messenger.

Hicks has been a newspaperman for 22 years, working since 1935 on The Democrat and Chronicle where since 1936 he has been state editor.

Hicks is immediate past president of the Newspaper Guild of Rochester, Local 17, CIO. He is the only Democratic candidate for the City Council who has the endorsement of the American Labor Party, and of the United Labor Action Committee, composed of representatives of the city's American Federation of Labor, CIO, and Railroad Brotherhoods unions.

Thomas F. Hicks

Hicks was married on June 30, 1930, to Claire I. Gage, R.N., of Rushville. They have two sons, John, 15, a student at East High Annex, and Tom Jr., 12, a pupil at School 28 in Humboldt Street. Hicks is a member of Canandaigua Lodge, F & A M, and the Brighton Presbyterian Church.

BELL TOLLS TO SIGNAL FREEDOM TRAIN ARRIVAL

The ringing of church bells will herald the city's welcome to the Freedom Train next Thursday morning. Just as the Liberty Bell in Old Independence Hall at Philadelphia tolled when the news of the signing of the Declaration of Independence had taken place, so the bells of Rochester will ring out at the sight of the red, white, and blue streamliner carrying one of the original copies of the Declaration of Independence. This copy, signed by Benjamin Franklin and Silas Deane, was sent to Frederick the Great of Prussia in 1777.

The Freedom Train will be open to the general public from 10 a. m. until 10 p. m. next Thursday.

Rochester's blue-coats, the men of the Police Bureau, will bear the main burden of the Freedom Train on the day of its arrival. Under the personal direction of Deputy Chief William McLaughlin, the police will be on special duty at the train site at the New York Central Station to handle the expected throngs of people and the heavy traffic. Entrance to the Freedom Train will be on Central Ave. about 120 west of Clinton Ave. The public will pass through a gate, up a ramp, and onto the platform at which the Freedom Train will be located. After going through the train, the public will move east along the platform pass through a second floor corridor of the station and walk out onto Joseph Ave. There will be no admission to the Freedom Train through the New York Central Station itself.

William A. Lang, deputy commissioner, will be in charge of the train.

Voters To OK Daylight Saving

Hopes of another "Pearl Harbor" sneak attack by several minor but, nevertheless, vehement, groups were dashed this week when on the very eve of election, the city finally awoke to the fact that important issue of whether or not Rochester would continue to have daylight saving time would be decided by voters on Tuesday.

'Y' CAMPAIGNERS POISED FOR DRIVE START

Sixteen hundred volunteer workers this weekend are beginning the intensive phase of the $1,539,485 Rochester YMCA-YWCA campaign, seeking contributions throughout greater Rochester to complete the fund to build a new YWCA and improve the facilities of the YMCA.

The community-wide solicitation follows weeks of preparation and information and a series of seven meetings for workers at which they discussed methods and procedure of obtaining contributions.

The 1,600 workers in the solicitation "army" are divided into three groups, the women's teams division under the chairmanship of Mrs. Walter W. Forst; the men's team division under Walter H. Foerisch and the employees division—a project of the Junior Chamber of Commerce — under the leadership of George E. Mayo.

First report meeting of the campaign will be held Monday, with others to follow daily through the week with a final meeting Nov. 10. All meetings except the last one will be at noon. The closing meeting will be in the evening.

Prior to this week, those opposed to daylight saving were hopeful that the issue would remain in the background with a resultant light vote. Past experience had proved to them that a light vote could easily mean victory for them.

Since the inception of daylight saving time during the first world war, the same groups have lined up for and against the measure in the same order year after year.

The bulk of those who favor daylight saving time are city people seeking after-work recreation — gardeners, golfers, motorists, and the like.

Opposed to the measure are theater interests and other indoor entertainment enterprises, marmers and some mothers of small children.

Why the theatres are against prolonging the daylight hours with consequent other attractions for their potential customers is not difficult to realize.

With mothers' story is somewhat different. Educators have said that the mother who guides her child correctly detrimines the child's bedtime hour and that hour is adhered to whether the sun is in the sky or down over the horizon. But contrariwise, those mothers who find their children unmanageable or who for one reason or another are against the measure are in the evening.

24 STAR ACTS SIGNED FOR SHRINE CIRCUS

The signing of Woolford's Daschunds scheduled to appear for the first time in Rochester when the Shrine Circus opens at the Main St. Armory for the week beginning Nov. 10, completes the 24 headline acts booked for the indoor show. Coincidence can probably be best credited for the good fortune which befell the Shrine Circus committee in being able to book this famous dog act for this year's circus. For several weeks, Orrin Davenport, director and producer of the Shrine Circus, scoured the country for a suitable dog act to bill in the coming show but none was available. Only late last week did the tide turn when Davenport received a telegram from Paul Woolford, owner and trainer of the dogs, stating that he would leave the west coast late in October to fill several engagements on the eastern circuit during the winter months. Five days later the way was cleared and the contract signed to bring this outstanding act to Rochester in November.

an "invasion" of the forest preserves which, they claim, should be kept forever wild and in their natural state. Opposed to them are the sports enthusiasts, and those who might profit commercially through the setting up of more trails.

The outcome of this measure is much in doubt.

The three proposals, all of which have been passed by the State Legislature subject to approval by a majority of voters have to do with public housing projects and their financing.

It will be interesting to note how the city votes on these proposals in view of the Republicans' claim that Rochester does not need, nor do a majority of its citizens want anything to do with public housing.

DAYLIGHT . . .

or another, are not guiding their children but are letting the children guide them, find the extra hour of daylight an added hardship to their task of rearing a family.

"It depends on the mother and the child's training," said one outstanding child psychologist recently, "not the position of the sun in the sky."

Farmers, as might be expected, are against daylight saving time — and for several good and legitimate reasons: Farmers must work during daylight hours and daylight saving time throws their work into the late evening instead of the early morning when they are accustomed to starting the day's work.

When daylight saving time is in effect, dairy farmers have to begin their work by moonlight in order to have fresh milk on the city's tables the following morning.

Farmers traditionally are against changing anything — including the clocks.

The question voters ought to decide next Tuesday is whether or not daylight saving time is beneficial to the majority of city people — mothers, recreation seekers, farmers within the city limits, theatre managers, etc. The measure if adopted would apply only to Rochester and it is therefore, a city question which ought to be decided by city residents.

But if everyone decides to "let George do it," Rochester can kiss daylight saving time goodbye for next year. The anti won't wait upon George. They're loaded for bear.

And now that the spotlight of publicity have been focused on the question — it is safe to predict the measure will be approved.

a store because he has nice wavy hair and is kind to his mother.

You may have read the proposed city budget. If you didn't don't let it keep you awake nights. The city of Rochester has been spending months each year cooking up an optimistic set of deluding figures. Someone always points with pride to them, and the partisan local press always says they're just Jim Dandy. Then the city proceeds to forget all about them.

After they've passed each city department proceeds blithely on its way. To them a budget is like ethics — it's something the other fellow should have. It becomes sort of a game with more behind the scenes hidden ball plays than a combined St. James Aquinas backfield.

The city departments are so far overboard in their budgets that they had to sell the airport to the county in order to get some money to square off with. The half million or so that the county is supposed to pay the city won't be enough to get the DPW "even" on the year. That is only one.

To make it still sillier GOP headquarters have just created a post of city auditor, salary six thousand bucks a year.

If Mr. Broderick's team is again re-elected on what is laughingly called "their record." You Rochesterians will be immediately saddled with a sales tax which hurts everybody while hurting those who can least afford it the most.

Furthermore you can take you're cues from the utterances of corporation counsel Emerson on the bus pass situation. At the last meeting Mr. Emerson was quoted in the press as saying "we must take a realistic attitude."

This was another way of saying to the bus rider, "Son, we're going to let them soak you."

Sam Meyers Democratic candidate for supervisor in the 12th ward is quite apt to give the present incumbent a mighty close shave. Even the traditionally Republican twelfth is beginning to realize that a few more Democrats on the Board of Supervisors would be a help in improving local government.

DR. HANSON TO TELL OF MUSIC'S ROLE ON HEALTH

Dr. Howard Hanson, director of the Eastman School of Music since 1931, will be principal speaker at the first fall meeting of the Mental Hygiene Society of Monroe County scheduled for 12:15 p. m. next Wednesday in the Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Hanson will speak on "The Emotional Aspect of Music". His many years of experience in the field of music particularly as president of the National Music Council and the National Association of Schools of Music and the fact that he was among the first to become interested in musical therapy have given him a rich background for his talk.

According to Dr. William A. Sawyer, president of the Society, this is the first time the group has scheduled a speaker on this phase of emotional health.

Dr. Chester Reynolds is chairman of the program committee and Mrs. William Washburn has been appointed chairman of arrangements for the luncheon meeting. She is being assisted by Mrs. Richard Fowler, Mrs. Jean MacLean Pratt, Mrs. James Weil, Mrs. Roland Will and Mrs. Carl Wilson.

SUPERVISOR CANDIDATE CONDEMNS SILENCE

Charging that his Republican opponent has "draped himself with a cloak of silence," Howard F. Palmer, Democratic candidate for Supervisor of the Third Ward told a south district Democratic rally Tuesday night that the people of the ward want to know, and have a right to know where their candidates stand on such pressing issues as a county sales tax, a proposed state veterans bonus and public housing.

Palmer endorsed the bonus plan and said he supported the three propositions to be balloted upon next Tuesday concerning additional funds for public housing. He denounced the proposed sales tax and promised that, if elected, he would fight such a tax "right down the line." Palmer, a Navy veteran of World War II is making his first bid for political office. He lives at 207 Edinburg St. with his wife, the former Mary Winters, and their three children.

Republican Proposed Nuisance Sales Tax

Digs Deep Into The Pockets of Those Who Can Least Afford To Pay

Under Gov. Dewey's Permissive Tax Law local taxes are to be substituted for state aid and counties are authorized to levy:

- Up to 2% Sales Tax
- $5.00 Pleasure Car Tax
- $10.00 Truck Tax
- 3% Tax on Restaurant Meals and Drinks Over $1.00.

IMPORTANT

Republican County Leader Broderick Hints That Dewey's Permissive Taxes Are in the Offing For Monroe County

(Below, Times-Union, Oct. 16)

"That Rochester is creeping closer and closer to some form of Gov. Dewey's permissive taxes to relieve the real estate burden became apparent within the past few days. . . . On the same night as the opening of the GOP campaign, Republican County Chairman Thomas E. Broderick, who for 15 years has preached "some kind of tax" to take the load off real estate, broadly hinted that one or more of Gov. Dewey's permissive taxes are in the offing. Tom Broderick has been ducking the question of the permissive taxes since the new legislation went into effect July 1, but it looks as though he cannot hold out any longer. Discussing a state-wide tax, Broderick said he was opposed to that. . . . It would be far better. . . . that it be a local tax."

ATTACKS MADE ON REPUBLICAN NUISANCE TAXES

Syracuse Post Standard (Republican newspaper, Sept. 16, 1947). "The nuisance taxes should be flung back into the teeth of Gov. Dewey and the state legislature. The plan is a mockery of justice. The taxes ought to be delegated to the ash can."

Edward B. Eastman (Republican, editor and president of the American Agriculturist and one of the 12 members of the State Board of Regents, Times-Union, Oct. 17, 1947). "The nuisance tax program is unfair, inequitable and will not work. . . . We must have additional state aid. . . . There were indications that most of his regret, politicians agreed with him. . . . More than a dozen GOP counties have rejected the Dewey nuisance tax program."

W. C. Van Duzer (Republican Assemblyman, Orange County, Sept. 22, 1947 New York State Journal). "The people have a right to be alarmed at this threat of additional taxation. That is the reason I intend to seek repeal!"

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING
Rochester is like Mobile—Alabama that is. The Democrats always win in Mobile and the Republicans always in Rochester—nearly always that is.

The traditionally Republican county of Monroe and City of Rochester behaved like most Rochesterians believed they would. The rumblings of discontent with the city administration were more audible as the GOP candidates' margins were narrowed in the overall picture in general and many places in particular.

Republican chairman Broderick, sitting on a comfortable plurality in a Republican stronghold, played it safe. He carefully jockeyed the sales tax issue into post election considerations—a wise move in view of what happened in usually Republican Buffalo. The sales tax has been in force in Buffalo for some months and people don't like it. They showed their displeasure by tossing out the entire GOP council. Something similar could have easily happened here and Thomas E. Broderick knew it.

The sales tax will come to Rochester and what's more it will probably stay. The Republican leader is depending upon habit to establish it before the next local election. Politicians know that the voters forget quickly. Two years of paying a local sales tax can become custom, and the disgruntled of the earlier stages of the tax will probably forget it when the local state of candidates is again offered.

We wonder what the Republicans are doing in Mobile tonight.

To prove that it can happen here (or hereabouts) strongly Republican Wayne County has shown a tendency to toss the yoke of the elephant. Jay Van Hall, Democrat, beat out Republican John Foley by 21 votes. Mr. Foley had been town clerk for these long fourteen years.

Wayne County, particularly the towns of Ontario and Ontario Center, must be interesting to live in.

FAMED BIG TOP TROUP HEADS CIRCUS CAST

This year's Shrine Circus patrons will be treated to one of the most outstanding acts in the circus world when the famous Cristiani Troupe comes to Rochester for the six day run at the Main Street Armory beginning November 10.

Generally recognized as the first family under the "Big Top" the daredevil Cristianis in their death-defying aerial feats have left their audiences gasping for breath for almost a hundred years. Compared to five generations of them, the Ringlings are almost newcomers to the Big Top. Yet the Cristianis have become the wizards of bareback riding, tumbling and the high trapeze for the simple reason that their acts are so difficult and so dangerous that no one else can imitate them.

Danger is obviously part of the Cristianis' business. Once when they were using borrowed circus horses, pretty, dark-haired Conchita made a routine leap from the ground to one of the animals. But the horse suddenly bolted, Conchita fell, and a hoof broke her arm.

The most terrifying act of all is Louise Cristiani on the high trapeze. She has hurtled through space dozens of times to clutch a lower trapeze, but the risk is always there. In 1942, when the Cristianis were with Ringling Brothers, she missed the lower trapeze at Madison Square Garden and fell 20 feet to the ring, breaking her spine and four ribs. She spent six months in the hospital and more than a year in training before resuming the act. Many circuses have refused to let her make the fall without a net. But Louise won't perform any other way. "With the net, where is the thrill?" she asks.

The Freedom Train

Four abreast, six New York City blocks long, a patient line of men, women and children, stands tonight waiting their turn to see the Freedom Train. Certainly the fact that there is such an outpouring of interest in, and reverence for, the great documents and principles that made possible America's progress, is as important to our country as the Freedom Train itself.

For a long time, you know, cynics have claimed that no basic American principles have very much appeal any more because we are so interested in selfish appeals, in unreliable promises for the future made without regard for American traditions.

What a mistake, my friends. How badly many have been fooled into assuming that our feet are made of clay.

Stand in line for the Freedom Train—two hours, three hours, four hours at a stretch—not only here, but across the rest of the land, wherever it goes. There you see America's true grass-roots interest in its principles that led our country forward while other nations were falling back.

Opportunities, you know, have existed in more countries than we may realize. But these opportunities have been lost. Political recklessness or public indifference frittered them away. We must not lose them here.

It's true that we've been fortunate in our location. But remember, we made our location. It was not delivered to us ready-made. Our blessings did not come easily. From the days of the first immigrants to the days of every document in the Freedom Train, we have built our nation with more idealism and less greed and more hard work than any other people on earth. It has been a long and difficult and costly struggle—the combined struggle of a great and successive body of freemen. It has been a continuing process.

As a result, America is the Wonderland of the World. How true you find that as soon as you leave our shores. As a people we are more productive, we ask less and give more, we are more generous and more forgiving than any other large group of people on earth. Our men are the most versatile as a whole—our women, the most beautiful and free—our children, the best educated. As a nation we are plagued by neither infancy nor old age. We have the resources and the temperament for our American greatness but they are ours. They were not free to us and they are not free to squander or fritter away. They are not common property.

Our government cannot give them away because they do not belong to the government. They belong to us, just as the Freedom Train belongs to us—not to the engineer or the crew that runs the car.

Yet, as tens of thousands of good Americans approach the Freedom Train in reverence and awe, a hand-picked handful of pimply-faced pickets, Communist-inspired, picket the Freedom Train—parade around with placards, smearing at the very fundamentals that made American progress possible. Shame on any man or woman who would picket the Freedom Train!

It is difficult to feel sorry for such misguided people. It is hard to see how they have any right to stay in America—live in the security of this nation—benefit by the progress and safety that other Americans supply.

They say they are picketing the Freedom Train in accordance with their constitutional rights. They are like the cartoon I saw one time picturing a Communist, (See FREEDOM Page 12)

Sales Tax Looms Following GOP Vote Victory

The power of patronage combined with lethargy of the voting populace and the practice of ancestor worship proved too strong for clear thinking in Rochester on Tuesday.

GERTRUDE CORSET The trite saying "Experience is the best teacher" — certainly applies to the business of FITTING CORSETS. As an R. N. with ten years of experience as Assistant Manager of Katherine-K Corset Shop — Mrs. Gertrude McGee — should and does know her business. Her new shop (Gertrude Corset Shop) is stocked with a complete line of KATHERINE-K corsets and girdles — and also KELLOGG'S complete line. Foundation garments to size 60. Waistline garments to 40. Appointments are suggested if your time is limited. Open daily. THE GERTRUDE CORSET SHOP, 311 Present Bldg. (next door to Pigeons). Stone 2536.

TEXAS HASH — Sauté onion and green pepper one of each in shortening. Add one pound of ground beef — and cook a few minutes. Until beef changes color. Empty into greased casserole — add one-half cup of uncooked rice — one small can of tomatoes — one teaspoon of chili powder — salt pepper to taste. Bake 350 oven for forty-five minutes or one hour. I have found in preparing this dish — if you save a portion of canned tomatoes — and add at the half-way mark in cooking — the "meat" will be more moist and tasty. It is delicious and doesn't cost a fortune. Serves four very nicely. Serve with hot breads — and a salad. Makes a nice dinner.

Try this as a meat stretcher. Select large green peppers — stuff with ground beef — well seasoned — bread crumbs may be used — cooked potatoes or rice. Cook rice before stuffing. Bake in slow oven.

Rats Menace Health And Wealth

The present desperate shortage of grain, affecting the health and lives of millions of people throughout the world, calls attention to the estimate that rats destroy American grain at the rate of 200,000,000 bushels a year.

The Fish and Wildlife Service, which makes the estimate, points out that this is more than one-third the amount of grain this country is planning to export to relieve hunger in Western Europe and twice as much as President Truman has asked the nation to save.

Albert M. Day, director of the agency, says that four per cent of annual grain food production in this country is lost through the activity of rats and that, at current prices, the destroyed grain represents more than $400,000,000. In addition to the monetary loss suffered through the depredations of rodents, one should not overlook the fact that certain diseases are spread among human beings by rats. Many cities and communities have undertaken concerted drives to eliminate rats and some progress has been made in the direction of the goal.

U of R ISSUES FINAL NROTC STUDENT APPEAL

Only a short time remains in which Rochester and vicinity high school seniors and graduates may apply for enrollment in the U.S. Navy College Training Program, points out Capt. George C. Towner, USN, professor of naval science at the University of Rochester.

Applications must be received by the Naval Examining Section, College Entrance Examination Board, Princeton, N. J., not later than next Monday, Dec. 13 has been set as the date on which a nationwide competitive examination will be given in 500 cities to all qualified applicants for the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps, which has units in 52 colleges and universities, including the University of Rochester.

The examination for Rochester area NROTC candidates will be held in Catharine Strong Hall, Prince Street Campus, on Dec. 13 at 9 a. m. A total of 2,500 young men will be selected from all parts of the country to begin college in the fall of 1948 as NROTC trainees.

Capt. Towner pointed out that the program offers a four-year college education at Navy expense and a commission in the regular Navy or Marine Corps upon graduation, and urged all interested youths between the ages of 17 and 21 to consider seriously the advantages of this educational opportunity. Application forms and detailed information about the program may be obtained from high school principals, college deans, Officers of Naval Officer Procurement and Navy recruiting stations, or at the Naval Science Office in Harkness Hall, River Campus, University of Rochester.

Hollywood Model Agency Head Finds Protege Here

A prophet is not without honor save in his own country. Or to paraphrase: a strikingly beautiful junior miss is not without recognition save in her own community.

Almost everyone down in Irondequoit who know pretty and pretty Marion Backus of 67 Park Rd. Pt. Pleasant admits she is one of the cutest youngsters in the whole lake-side town. Her classmates at Irondequoit High have voted her several honors in the good looks field. But no one considered her potentialities as one of the nation's top Junior Miss Models until a Hollywood Model Agency director happened along. He took one look, then another, and then quickly signed her up for his agency.

But Rochester can take some credit for recognizing its home-grown beauties because the model agency head, William Adrian, is a former Rochesterian — and a former Sun carrier at that.

Of course the model man is now Mr. Adrian, or simply, "Adrian," in the best Hollywood manner. His former Sun customers down in the St. Paul St. sector probably remember him better as "Billy."

Adrian started his model agency last year and has built his business exclusively in the junior field. All his models are between 13 and 19 years of age. The agency was inspired by the necessary chore of selecting pretty girls for college shows undertaken by Adrian while a dramatics student at Syracuse University. But several years interval between idea and actuality. Upon graduation, Adrian became a disc jockey, editor of a fashion program, a member of Uncle Sam's Army and a movie bit player — in that order. He opened his agency in the movie city last year and has already marked several special milestones: an Adrian model was chosen queen of Pasadena Tournament of Roses last year; another was runner-up for the Miss California title; Miss America of 1946 is an Adrian girl and three of the six juniors in the Montgomery Ward catalogue are enrolled under the Adrian banner.

His folks still live in Rochester at 505 University Ave. That's how he happens to be in Rochester this week — home on a visit. And that's how he happened to discover Miss Backus — met her through friends of his parents.

Adrian predicts a great future in the modelling field for his newest protege. But he also agrees with her parents that she should finishing her high schooling before going to New York or California to "hit the big time."

FALL IS POPULAR TIME TO SHINE UP THE HOUSE

Fall is an ideal time to brighten up home interiors, looking forward to the winter months just ahead when most folks will be spending a greater number of hours indoors.

In fact, according to John Swain, manager of the local Sherwin-Williams Co. branch, there is every bit as much home redecorating in the Fall as during the Spring when the annual house-cleaning is usually done.

In recent years, resin-and-oil type interior finishes, like Kem-Tone, have made it unusually easy to brighten up drab looking rooms quickly and with comparatively little expense. A gallon of this wall finish mixed with a half-gallon of water is enough for the average size room. One coating applied with a brush or roller coats covers most wall surfaces, even faded and worn wallpaper. It dries in an hour.

Available this year for the first time are 16 new "go-with-anything" Kem-Tone pastel colors to help home planners carry out almost any desired decorative scheme. Sidewalls may be left plain or there are harmonizing ceiling border trims, easy to apply, that may be used to give the room distinction. Unusual room effects can be attained by using one color on three walls of the room and a contrasting color on the fourth wall.

Swain points out that the new colors are particularly appropriate for attic rooms that have been remodeled for living quarters and for brightening up basement recreation rooms at low cost.

The greater supply of enamels and glossy and semi-gloss interior paints for woodwork has removed a major problem that has confronted the home decorator for the last few years.

These finishes may now be obtained in a wide variety of popular colors and the quality is superior to pre-war finishes due to recent technical advances in paint making. The new enamels and semi-lustre paints are faster drying and dry to a porcelain-like hardness that makes them easy to clean with ordinary soap and water.

Sun Sponsored Bureau To Aid Homeowners

Because the average home owner many times does not know just which way to turn when he wants to make improvements to his home, The Sun has established the General Builders Bureau to give free consulting service to its readers.

Where to get a competent mason, a carpenter or a plumber is often times a question for the average home owner to answer. Which is the best oil burner for a particular installation — or the best roof — or the most economical way to add an additional room, build a breakfast nook, install a new shower, or the solution to a hundred and one other problems that crop up every now and then, are sometimes difficult to determine by the average uninformed home owner.

Representatives of the General Builders Bureau are familiar with the problems, know the answers and are conversant with all the latest innovations, products and services on the markets.

As another step in its program of aid to its readers, The Sun offers the services of its General Builders Bureau consultants without charge or obligation. Call on them. They'll be glad to help you. They won't try to "sell" you anything. They'll simply advise you and let you make your own free choice. Their services are available to anyone in The Sun's distribution territory by simply filling out a coupon (printed on this page today) and mailing to The Rochester Sun.

Building Supply Dealers Plan 'Appliance Week'

A National Home Week to dramatize the role of lumber and building material dealers in kitchen and home laundry equipment merchandising has been announced for Dec. 1 to 6, by Building Supply News, industry trade paper sponsoring the event.

Asserting that 94 per cent of all builders and a large segment of the general public buy building supplies from these supply dealers, H. H. Rosenberg, publisher of the magazine, said that 3,500 lumber and material dealers are now supplying appliances to builders and retailing them to consumers. Local and national promotional activities, culminating in "open house" events, will focus attention on this merchandising development, he said.

The publisher pointed out that industry figures show more than one-half of all builders would "prefer to install ranges, refrigerators, home laundries, and other appliances in homes they are now building. Because of retail demand out-pacing supply, few builders have been able to procure appliances for new homes. Meanwhile, lumber and building material dealers, as merchandisers to builders, have been franchised by appliance manufacturers, but have received only a small part of what they can sell.

Predicting that early 1948 would see a change in conditions by which some appliances, such as washing machines, disposals and home freezers would require aggressive selling, Rosenberg said that the Appliance Week was planned to "alert" the industry.

America's Best Fed Mouth Is The Sink

Dr. Gaylord Hausor, dietitian of New York, says that "American women don't know how to cook" and that "one of the best-fed mouths in America is the kitchen sink."

The speaker suggests that sixty per cent of our women use antique methods, overcook food and "their greatest sin is in their cooking of vegetables." He suggests Government-sponsored schools to teach cooking and predicts that "the time will come when poor cooking will be grounds for divorce."

In connection with the United Nations, it is rather easy to exaggerate the importance of a flock of little nations.

Mr. Homeowner,

Are needed repairs a problem at your house? Why not benefit from my experiences. For years I've been burning too much fuel and still spent many a cold day in our house. A contractor pointed out the reasons—a faulty furnace and the lack of proper insulation. But, naturally the cost of insulating and a new heating system threw me for a loss, 'til I talked it over with a friend of mine at Central Trust.

I arranged for a low cost loan and put in a new heating system and had the house insulated. The loan was arranged so that I could take three years to pay it back and my only cost is $5.00 discount per hundred dollars per year . . . and that's much less than the money I'm saving on my fuel bills.

Making needed improvements right/away really saves you money, not costs money, especially when handled so easily the Central Trust Way!

Parents' Bickering May Warp Child's Life, Psychologists Warn

Family quarrels that may clear the air for parents frequently undermine a child's security and do permanent damage to his personality, according to child experts R. Eitel B. Waring of Cornell University and Toni Taylor. Where a family squabble is inevitable, they tell in McCall's for November, how to make them less frightening to the child:

"Children can get used to and accept constructive family argument if they are allowed to speak their minds as freely as the adults, and if they are secure in the knowledge that their parents love them and each other. But the child who is forced to hear parents quarrel too often never knows that the issue has been resolved by them. It has only a sound of his angry words, and these burd deep within him, breed fears that will go into adulthood with him.

"To the young child his parents are his world. If they seem to him to threaten each other by quarreling, his security is undermined. Family quarrels can't be entirely ruled out, but they can lose the violent aspect so frightening to a child if parents will realize these facts:

"Fighting can become chronic. Although the cause of a quarrel is usually temporary, the harsh voice, rude words and thoughtless behavior that accompany it may easily become a permanent pattern of behavior.

"Mealtime should not be battle time. Many a family quarrel would never take place if mealtime, especially supper-time, were ruled out. Then each member is fatigued and less likely to be patient and reasonable. Quarreling, too, has an adverse physical and psychological effect; indigestion and stomach upsets frequently follow.

"Worry quarrels should be kept from children. It is unfair to frighten a child by allowing him to hear fighting over scarcity of money, potential loss of income, overdrinking, serious illness or moral laxity.

"Don't quarrel before your child's friends. They may seem just kids to you, but they are his world, and he dreads humiliation before them just as you do before your friends.

"Don't divide the child's loyalty by telling him in the heat of a quarrel things which might make him fear or dislike his other parent. Hemust believe in both.

"Never allow the child to feel that he is the subject of a quarrel. Nothing is more undermining to childhood security than the fear that he is not wanted by his parents. He should never hear a discussion of how costly he is or how he may limit the social life of his parents.

"Let the child know when the battle is over. Let him know what decision has been reached if the quarrel was specific; and if there has been rude and surly behavior on the part of adults, it calls for an apology."

'Jazz At Philharmonic' To Trace 'Ragtime' Progress

Rochester will get its first hearing of the nationally famous concert feature, jazz at the philharmonic, when its producer, Norman Granz, brings it to the Sports Arena on Friday, Nov. 14.

Now in its fifth annual tour, the noted group of jazz luminaries includes Coleman Hawkins, Flip Phillips, Howard McGhee, and Bill Harris—all winners of the recent Esquire Jazz Poll Award. Their program here will trace the development of jazz from the early New Orleans days to the current be-hop and re-bop styles.

Norman Granz, producer of the concert, has been called the "Barnum of Jazz." He teamed with the famed Life photographer Gjon Mille to produce a movie short, "Jammin' the Blues" which was an Academy Award nominee. He is currently working on a jazz ballet and a new movie, the latter again in conjunction with Mille.

This will be the only Rochester performance this year. The current tour of one night concerts will take the group back to New York in December for their second recital of the season.

Victor Mature has two good stories, about ready for him. One is "Roadhouse," with Ida Lupino, and the other is "The Chair for Martin Rome."

COLEMAN HAWKINS

EARLY WESTERN DAYS DEPICTED IN REGENT FILM

Co-starring Joel McCrea and Veronica Lake, "Ramrod" which yesterday opened its first Rochester showing at the Regent is a filmization of the popular novel by Luke Short. The story centers around a headstrong girl in the early lawless days of the west and tells of the guile she employs to tame the gun-toting town of Signa "Ramrod," which has an 1870 setting, was filmed on location at Zion National Park, Utah, where the entire ghost-town of Grafton was purchased by the producer as a setting for the picture.

The unusually good supporting cast includes Don De Fore, Preston Foster, Donald Crisp and Arleen Whelan. Action and mystery come to the fore in the Regent's co-feature, "Danger Street." Jane Withers, Robert Lowery, Lyle Talbot and Charles Quigley has the leading roles in this Paramount release.

Bob Mitchum, whose salary has been doubled recently, is one busy man. The day after finishing his work on "The Red Pony," he was flown to Oregon to begin "Rachel" without even having time to go over his script. When he finishes that film, he will go to New York for eight weeks for radio shows.

Bob Hope has been selected the "Red Feather man of the nation," by officials of the nationwide Community Chest campaign. Bob suggests: "A chest no goodo without a heart; community Chest." Not bad advice.

LADD, LAMOUR HEAD CENTURY FEATURE CAST

"Wild Harvest," Paramount's action thriller, arrived yesterday at the Century Theatre with Alan Ladd, Dorothy Lamour, Robert Preston and Lloyd Nolan starred.

Ladd, Preston and Nolan are seen as rugged members of a harvesting combine crew whose work on the wheat fields requires them to be as quick with their fists as they are with their machines. Miss Lamour portrays the niece of a farmer, a girl who doesn't belong on a farm and who uses every means however unscrupulous, to get away from it.

The romantic complications added to the thrills of wheat field fires, fistcuffs with rival harvesting crews and other typical Alan Ladd activities, combine to make "Wild Harvest" an excellent movie bet.

DISNEY'S 'FUN AND FANCY FREE' AT CAPITOL

The fantastic novelty in feature length, Walt Disney's enchanting "Fun & Fancy Free" is the main attraction on the program opening today at the Capitol.

Music, as in all Walt Disney pictures, is a major element in this, his newest Technicolor fantasy, in which he has neatly blended the performances of live stars and his familiar animated characters.

The companion feature is entitled "Seven Were Saved" filmed with the co-operation of the Air Forces this picture combines authenticity and exciting story of six men and two women, adrift on a raft in the Pacific.

Things can always be worse. Thirty years from now, the speeders will crash in the sky and fall on pedestrians.

POLKA . . .

If you have any doubts about the high cost of living, the Department of Labor's recent report should clear the air. According to their figures the price index is at an all time high, 20.3 per cent above June 1946 when price controls were removed, and 62.8 above August 1939, the month before the war broke out in Europe.

Such figures must be embarrassing to the party that advocated de-controls and who said there was nothing like dear old competition and rugged individualism to bring about "normalcy"—which incidentally was a word created by another Republican, Warren G. Harding.

Another Department of Labor report showed that wages had also reached a new high. In September, factory workers were, according to the Department, getting $50.42 per week. The far-from-the-poor-house press of the country played this up as a prime cause of higher prices in general.

They carefully avoided, in most cases, other facts of the Schwellenbach report. One was that the wage is only eight per cent above the war time take-home pay compared with an almost 30 per cent increase in the cost of living. In the heavy goods industries the weekly wage of the worker is up only 2 per cent over the same period. Thus, these employees are 28 percent worse off than their brethren in other lines.

After the turn of the year it looks very much as if Labor will have plenty of ammunition to begin its bombardment for more money.

A study of the financial reports in the Wall St. Journal and the retail trade papers indicates that the retail store as well as the consumer is getting it in the neck. Manufacturers are reporting tremendous profits while the mercantile establishments although showing satisfactory volume are dropping way down in their profit decimal.

Thus far it is obvious that it is mostly the merchant retailer who is fighting to keep the cost of living down.

The coming congressional session is not going to be a love feast. The GOP is smarting under the humiliation of what they term "a fast one" on the part of Harry Truman. Republican leaders were called to a conference before the special session was announced. It was their opinion that the president wanted to get the Congress together for the Marshall plan, which public opinion has wholeheartedly endorsed. When the Missouri waltz king injected the high cost of living as being of equal importance they felt the president made himself a wad of political capital at the expense of the GOP, asleep as usual.

Fighting mad, the GOP will probably buck the president on most any sort of food controls but will go along on the Marshall plan because they haven't been able to dream up anything at all — and they realize the general public has more respect for the observations and opinions of a non-political general than they have for pussy-footing congressman who are viewing the 1948 election with alarm.

To make matters worse, they will insist on tax reduction, and in the same breath appropriate a few billions to take care of Europe. Fewer taxes, they contend, is anti-inflationary. However, it would be difficult to find an honest economist who would agree with them.

They're going to trade. If Truman wants something to stave off the inflation spiral they'll want their pound of flesh in fewer taxes. Thus they hope to accomplish two things — embarrass Truman and pay off the big money boys with fewer taxes — and no doubt insure generous corporate contributions for the '48 war chest.

TAX . . .

In the last local election the American Labor Party proved that the Democrats could not win with them.

Tuesday the laborites proved that the Democrats could not win without them at least districts where there is a heavy Labor Party vote.

In the one spot where the Democrats had their strongest chance of electing their councilman candidate, the ALP candidate drew away enough strength to return the Republican almost by default.

Lawrence Edenhof, Democrat in the Northeast district lost out to the incumbent, Republican Schlueter, by 860 votes.

Hofferbert, ALP candidate drew 3063, the bulk of which would have gone to Edenhof had their been no ALP candidate. The district is heavily populated with so-called laboring people and Edenhof's large vote also proved that not all laboring people are enrolled under the ALP banner. In that area, the ALP had a double hold on the voters, political and employment. A majority of the area's residents are workers in the clothing trades enrolled in the Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union run by Abraham Chatman. Chatman is the real power behind the ALP throne. And even in losing, the election proved a vote of confidence for Chatman from his union brethren.

However Democratic candidates for supervisor in the 3rd 9th and 16th wards carried the endorsement of the Labor group and failed to overcome their GOP opponents. All of which makes the Labor vote still one of conjecture—it can be a help in some places, in others it has little effect on the outcome.

As is customary right after an election, the winners saw the vote as a "mandate of responsibility" and the losers saw the need of much fence mending and party reorganization. It will be interesting to watch results of the local election two years hence—after the threatened sales tax has had several months to seep into the voters' consciousness. The Democrats believed the mere threat of such a nuisance tax would be strong enough to sway the voters. That estimate of the voters' intelligence proved wrong.

Over in Buffalo, the Republican machine which had the courage to put through such a tax before election also proved their estimate wrong. The voters threw the perpetrators out of office, electing a Democratic city council.

All of which proves that elections are based on the voters' pocketbook and not their intelligence.

RASSLE FANS AWAIT CARNERA-SEXTON BRAWL

What figures to be the top wrestling show of the year will be staged at the Edgerton Park Sports Arena Wednesday night, when Primo Carnera, former world heavyweight boxing champ, squares off with Frankie Sexton, recognized as world champion in 13 states.

Plans have been made by the Civic Sporting Club to handle an overflow crowd expected to watch meeting of these two kings of the meat world.

Primo has defeated every opponent he's met since turning wrestler two years ago. That tie was also the only mar on Sexton's record for last year.

The match will be a test of raw power against scientific wrestling. Sexton is powerful as most wrestlers go, but he can't compare to the 265-pound, six-foot-seven, Italian who is capable of crushing his foes in to submission.

One on occasion here last year he threw Ray O'Donnell against the ropes with such force that the ring buckles broke and O'Donnell was unable to continue the brawl.

Sexton, on the other hand, has been around a long time. He is considered by far the best all-around performer in the business.

He is smart, he has made a complete study of the science of grappling and he always keeps in top condition. He estimates he has perfected over 1,000 holds many of which he invented himself.

To mention Sexton's list of victims he's beaten in the Edgerton Sports Arena would take more space than available. He has defeated every wrestler he's ever faced at one time or another and in three years of performing here he has lost only to Whipper Billy Watson, a man Frankie has whipped numerous times in other matches.

Da Preem has appeared here three times, twice last year. He whipped Ole Olsen and Sandy O'Donnell in 1946 and Friedrich Von Schacht this year. And each of his victories have been easy ones.

Advance reservations for the match may be made at the Civic Sporting Club, 207 Present Bldg. Telephone 0624. There will be no increase in prices.

Yawn Reveals Hidden $100

DENVER, Colo. — Awakened by a shake from a policeman, a man on a bus bench gave vent to a prodigious yawn. Out popped a $100 bill, which the man had hidden in his upper plate. The police found that the $100 was part of $150 another man complained had been stolen from him. The yawner was taken to jail.

Did you ever stop to think many ancestors you must have had since the days of Columbus?

ED RANDALL'S Scene & Word

One time, so the story goes, the president of a certain railroad hitched his private car to the rear of one of his crack trains. Unbeknown to the train crew he had secured a copy of the train's orders which specified stops at various cities and towns along the route, as well as a schedule of speeds which the engineer was to strictly observe.

When the train reached the end of its run, the president requested that the engineer be summoned to his private car. Presenting himself in his work clothes before his boss, the engineer observed: "This is quite an honor, Mr. Johnson. I've never before had the pleasure of piloting your private car. Hope you enjoyed the trip."

"Never mind that, Carmichael," grated the executive. "I have a very serious question to ask you. How fast were you traveling between Powaxsie and Mullinsport?"

"I never travel over forty-five miles an hour in that stretch," replied the engineer. "My orders are to stay at that speed and that's the speed I go."

"Well, I have a speedometer right here in my private car and when you were between Powaxsie and Mullinsport this car was going sixty-three miles an hour."

"Imagine that!" the engineer said. "I'll swear I never saw you go past us."

Could you call a pawnbroker a man who lives on the flat of the land?

Observation: Every wolf thinks he's entitled to life, liberty and the happiness of pursuit.

Then there is the silly story about the chap who was dining in a very swanky restaurant. He finally finished his dinner and the waiter brought him a finger bowl. A few moments later the waiter was horrified to see his customer washing a spoon in the finger bowl. He called the manager and they both hurried to the table of the unouthright guest.

"My dear sir," remonstrated the manager. "What on earth are you doing? We do not furnish finger bowls to our guests for the purpose of washing the table silver. The finger bowls are for your hands."

"Well," replied the man with a scowl. "If it's any of your business I don't feel like getting ice cream all over my pocket!"

This being the weather when the corn grows tall, you might be able to put up with the following tale.

It concerns a henpecked little man whose name was, most appropriately, Mr. Meek.

On this particular evening with which we are concerned the little woman, Mrs. Meek, that is, was out in the kitchen wrestling with the pots and pans while the "Master" of the house, Mr. Meek, was sitting in the parlor engaged in a subdued conversation with his neighbor, Mr. Wimple.

"I thought your wife's name is Susan," suddenly observed Mr. Wimple. "Why do you call her Peggy?"

"Oh," Mr. Meek replied. "Peggy's a little pet name I have for her." Then he leaned forward and dropped his voice almost to a whisper. "You see, Peggy is short for Pegasus. Pegasus was an immortal steed and an immortal steed is a perpetual nag!"

And then in a louder tone: "Yes, Peggy, I'm coming right away."

YOU'RE TELLING US DEPARTMENT. — There was an article in Coronet entitled: "How the weather affects your life." One paragraph states: "After studying hospital records and university surveys, a California medical authority says that life in the storm-swept Great Lakes region 'calls for a hardy people.'"

Higher Education
1st Little Girl — Why did your mother spank you?
2nd Little Girl — (professor's daughter) — Because she is too untutored, ignorant and archaic in her ideas to devise a more modern reformatory method based on the superior intelligence of the younger generation.

Very Truthful
"Guilty or not guilty of this theft?" queried his honor.
"Not guilty, sir," came the plea.
"Have you ever been in jail?"
"No, indeed, sir," came the indignant reply. "This is the first time I ever swiped anything."

Never Before! A CLOTHESLINE THAT WILL NOT FREEZE!

Everyone agrees that for sanitary and health reasons, laundry should be hung out in the open air . . . to kill off any bacteria and to eliminate all objectionable odors. Until now this has been impossible in cold weather, because a cotton clothesline absorbs moisture and remains wet all winter. Naturally, when you hang wet wash on a wet line it will freeze to the line. To remove the laundry you must TEAR it off! This usually results in torn or shredded garments. But now KORDITE announces a new, revolutionary plastic clothesline that is GUARANTEED NOT TO FREEZE!

FROLIC A LA DUTCH—Bobby Specht and Dona Atwood are featured in "Dutch Treat" one of the huge production numbers in Ice Capades of 1948 which comes to Buffalo Memorial Auditorium Nov. 8 for 12 performances. Matinees are listed for No. 9, 15 and 16.

Donna Atwood Gains New Triumph In 'Ice Capades'

In Ice Capades of 1948 which to Buffalo Memorial Auditorium Saturday visiting Rochesterians will get a peek into that fascinating area backstage in "Curtain Time", an imposing production number which presents Donna Atwood.

As a matter of fact, the spectators first are given a view of feverish activities backstage and a few moments later are seeing things from "out front."

Last year Donna scored a great triumph in a number titled "Auditions" in which she portrayed a newcomer seeking a place in the ballet. It was one of the most talked-about numbers of the 1947 production.

In "Curtain Time", she is a member of the ensemble who is called upon in an emergency to take over the prima donna's part.

It's more than a triumph according to the script because it adds another great performance to Donna's sizeable record of outstanding performances that have continued unbroken since she joined Ice Capades in 1941 after winning National angle and par skating championships at the age of fifteen.

TRUCKERS JOIN WEDDING IN MIDDLE OF ROAD

POLO, Ill. — About ready to begin a wedding ceremony, Rev. Fred Meyer discovered that the license had been issued in nearby Carroll county. Since it was too late in the evening to get another license, he loaded the bride, groom and attendants into his car and drove to Carroll county. While performing the marriage in the middle of the road, several trucks arrived on the scene. The clergyman, explained the situation and, with the grinning drivers as witnesses, finished the ceremony.

That's What He Gets For Gluttony

HASTINGS, Neb. — Crawling through an opening under the fence, a half-grown coyote entered C. A. Nelson's chicken yard and devoured six chickens. Full and satisfied, the animal tried to leave the same way he had entered and found the hole too small. A policeman's gun ended the chicken-stealing career of the coyote.

Family Multiplications

WEYMOUTH, Mass. — Mrs. John J. Walsh, of Quincy Point, on October 3rd, gave birth to her third set of twins in less than two years. The first set were born in Washington on October 10, 1945. The second on October 16, 1946. There are four boys and two girls.

Admiral Ingram, public relations officer in the Navy Department before the war, while serving as wartime Commander Fourth Fleet, with headquarters at Recife, Brazil, established a fleet newspaper which was so popular it was widely read by Brazilians and widely quoted in the Brazilian press.

Admiral Ingram is one of three brothers who made Navy athletic history and his father and the fourth Ingram to excel in sports at Annapolis. In 1906

Jonas scored the only touchdown in Navy's first victory over Army in seven years. His brother, "Navy Bill," starred in 1915-16 when Jonas was the Academy coach. In 1926, Jonas was Director of Athletics and "Navy Bill" was coach. Their star that year was Tom Hamilton, present Navy coach.

Inside Hollywood

Hal Wallis has two, and probably three, pictures about ready to go. They're "Sorry, Wrong Number," with Claudette Colbert, "Be Still, My Love," with a possibility that "House of Mist" with Jennifer Jones and Dana Andrews will be the third.

Fred Astaire has taken Gene Kelly's role in "The Easter Parade," with Judy Garland because of Gene's fractured ankle. This will be his "come-back" film following his announcement sometime ago that he was "through" with pictures.

Cornel Wilde is delighted that Darryl Zanuck has bought "The Immortal Bachelor" for him after he finishes "Walls of Jericho." The story, written by Whit Burnett and John Penn, is based on an episode in the life of Robert Burns.

Rita Hayworth's new contract with Columbia gives her $250,000 a year salary, plus 50 per cent of the profits from her pictures. She will do "Woman Order," a story of the Civil War period.

Evelyn Knight and Tony Martin have been invited to St. Louis to appear as Cinderella and Prince Charming at their annual Cinderella ball.

Dean Stockwell, 10-year-old actor, has traveled across the United States twice in the last year, spent a month in the high Sierras and is currently spending two months in the Maine woods. His travels started with his role in "The Romance of Rosy Ridge," which kept him away from home for three months. Then his studio loaned him out for a film which required two trips to New York and a second loan-out has taken him to Maine.

Urgent?

On being informed that no absences from chapel would be excused, the student on his bedroom door, for the enlightenment of the janitor, put a large sign reading: "Wake me up at 7:30; it is urgent. Don't let me ignore your summons, don't pay any attention to what I may say—wake me up at 7:30."

Then under this firm command, he added: "Try again at 9:30."

OPENING FETES SET FOR WHAM RADIO CITY

A 10-day open house celebration beginning Saturday, Feb. 14 will mark the opening of Rochester's new Radio City which will become the home of station WHAM-WHFM early next year.

During the opening celebration Stromberg-Carlton Co., owner and operator of the two stations will play host to the public with a series of conducted tours, receptions and special audience programs.

Ground for the new building was broken in November, 1945. William Fay, vice-president in charge of broadcasting and station general manager says the new studios will be the most modern in the United States. More than $1,000,000 has gone into the building project, Fay reports.

The building contains an auditorium-studio seating 400 people and a stage large enough to accommodate any orchestra or dramatic performance. It also has five smaller studios for both AM and FM broadcasts, music and transcription libraries, audition rooms, an echo room for sound effects, and air conditioned offices for sales, program, and executive department personnel.

Studios are "floating" rooms within rooms, entirely free of vibration, echo, and other noise disturbances.

Oldest commercial broadcasting station in the city, WHAM has occupied studios in the Sheaton Hotel since 1927. That year it was acquired by Stromberg-Carlson from the Eastman School of Music.

MAGNIFYING GLASS CAUSES $10,000 FIRE

PELHAM MANOR, N. Y. — A magnifying glass, used by John Lydgate, 11, to examine his coin collection, fell from a third floor window and landed in a position to focus the sun's rays on dry cedar shingles on the home of his father, William A. Lydgate. The shingles caught fire and the house suffered $10,000 fire damage.

Wants Old Name Back
LOS ANGELES. — Singer Dennis Day has petitioned the court to give him back his rightful name. Christened Owen Patrick McNulty, he adopted Dennis Day as his professional name and had it legalized when he went into the Navy in 1944. His Irish kinfolk, however, weren't pleased and persuaded him to have it changed back to Owen Patrick McNulty.

Between Two Fires
The unsophisticated statesman shot several surreptitious glances at the fair danseuse, and several times he opened his mouth to speak. But at the sight of so much feminine loveliness so boldly displayed he was struck dumb.

Suddenly the perspiring politician felt a stiff jab in his ribs and the voice of his better half hissing: "John! John! For heaven's sake, talk to that woman or they'll think she's your wife!"

"The reason I can't get along with my wife is that she wants to submit all our differences to arbitration."
"To arbitration?"
"Yes, she always wants to refer disputes to her mother."

That's What He Gets For Gluttony

HASTINGS, Neb. — Crawling through an opening under the fence, a half-grown coyote entered C. A. Nelson's chicken yard and devoured six chickens. Full and satisfied, the animal tried to leave the same way he had entered and found the hole too small. A policeman's gun ended the chicken-stealing career of the coyote.

Family Multiplications

WEYMOUTH, Mass. — Mrs. John J. Walsh, of Quincy Point, on October 3rd, gave birth to her third set of twins in less than two years. The first set were born in Washington on October 10, 1945. The second on October 16, 1946. There are four boys and two girls.

Admiral Ingram, public relations officer in the Navy Department before the war, while serving as wartime Commander Fourth Fleet, with headquarters at Recife, Brazil, established a fleet newspaper which was so popular it was widely read by Brazilians and widely quoted in the Brazilian press.

Admiral Ingram is one of three brothers who made Navy athletic history and his father of the fourth Ingram to excel in sports at Annapolis. In 1906 Jonas scored the only touch-down in Navy's first victory over Army in seven years. His brother, "Navy Bill," starred in 1915-16 when Jonas was the Academy coach. In 1926, Jonas was Director of Athletics and "Navy Bill" was coach. Their star that year was Tom Hamilton, present Navy coach.

Inside Hollywood

Hal Wallis has two, and probably three, pictures about ready to go. They're "Sorry, Wrong Number," with Claudette Colbert, "Be Still, My Love," with a possibility that "House of Mist" with Jennifer Jones and Dana Andrews will be the third.

Fred Astaire has taken Gene Kelly's role in "The Easter Parade," with Judy Garland because of Gene's fractured ankle. This will be his "come-back" film following his announcement sometime ago that he was "through" with pictures.

Cornel Wilde is delighted that Darryl Zanuck has bought "The Immortal Bachelor" for him after he finishes "Walls of Jericho." The story, written by Whit Burnett and John Penn, is based on an episode in the life of Robert Burns.

Rita Hayworth's new contract with Columbia gives her $250,000 a year salary, plus 50 per cent of the profits from her pictures. She will do "Woman Order," a story of the Civil War period.

Evelyn Knight and Tony Martin have been invited to St. Louis to appear as Cinderella and Prince Charming at their annual Cinderella ball.

Dean Stockwell, 10-year-old actor, has traveled across the United States twice in the last year, spent a month in the high Sierras and is currently spending two months in the Maine woods. His travels started with his role in "The Romance of Rosy Ridge," which kept him away from home for three months. Then his studio loaned him out for a film which required two trips to New York and a second loan-out has taken him to Maine.

On being informed that no absences from chapel would be excused, the student on his bedroom door, for the enlightenment of the janitor, put a large sign reading: "Wake me up at 7:30; it is urgent. Don't let me ignore your summons, don't pay any attention to what I may say—wake me up at 7:30."

Then under this firm command, he added: "Try again at 9:30."

OPENING FETES SET FOR WHAM RADIO CITY

A 10-day open house celebration beginning Saturday, Feb. 14 will mark the opening of Rochester's new Radio City which will become the home of station WHAM-WHFM early next year.

During the opening celebration Stromberg-Carlton Co., owner and operator of the two stations will play host to the public with a series of conducted tours, receptions and special audience programs.

Ground for the new building was broken in November, 1945. William Fay, vice-president in charge of broadcasting and station general manager says the new studios will be the most modern in the United States. More than $1,000,000 has gone into the building project, Fay reports.

The building contains an auditorium-studio seating 400 people and a stage large enough to accommodate any orchestra or dramatic performance. It also has five smaller studios for both AM and FM broadcasts, music and transcription libraries, audition rooms, an echo room for sound effects, and air conditioned offices for sales, program, and executive department personnel.

Studios are "floating" rooms within rooms, entirely free of vibration, echo, and other noise disturbances.

Oldest commercial broadcasting station in the city, WHAM has occupied studios in the Shearson Hotel since 1927. That year it was acquired by Stromberg-Carlson from the Eastman School of Music.

MAGNIFYING GLASS CAUSES $10,000 FIRE

PELHAM MANOR, N. Y. — A magnifying glass, used by John Lydgate, 11, to examine his coin collection, fell from a third floor window and landed in a position to focus the sun's rays on dry cedar shingles on the home of his father, William A. Lydgate. The shingles caught fire and the house suffered $10,000 fire damage.

Wants Old Name Back

LOS ANGELES. — Singer Dennis Day has petitioned the court to give him back his rightful name. Christened Owen Patrick McNulty, he adopted Dennis Day as his professional name and had it legalized when he went into the Navy in 1944. His Irish kinfolk, however, weren't pleased and persuaded him to have it changed back to Owen Patrick McNulty.

Between Two Fires

The unsophisticated statesman shot several surreptitious glances at the fair danseuse, and several times he opened his mouth to speak. But at the sight of so much feminine loveliness so boldly displayed he was struck dumb.

Suddenly the perspiring politician felt a stiff jab in his ribs and the voice of his better half hissing:

"John! John! For heaven's sake, talk to that woman or they'll think she's your wife!"

"The reason I can't get along with my wife is that she wants to submit all our differences to arbitration."

"To arbitration?"

"Yes, she always wants to refer disputes to her mother."

By CURT GERLING

In a radio pre-election debate the other week we wandered off the subject of local issues when the moderator made a few observations on the federal government's deficit and how bad that was and Mr. Dewey's "surplus" and how "jim dandy" that was. The moderator was a banker and of course that is just the kind of a remark a banker would make — and being a banker he was also a Republican, which is also what you'd expect.

Now I'd be the first to admit (and was) that the federal government has a big debt. Most of it we got fighting and winning a war and I doubt that it's any secret that fighting wars costs plenty of money — and by winning them you lose the lives of a great many precious sons and the rest is only money. If you lose a war you lose sons, money and freedom.

The other part of the federal debt was largely brought about by priming a pump to prosperity and jacking up the U. S. A. that the Republican Party had let fall on its big fat back. The bankers had the money and the people had apples.

We can forgive any government a few mistakes and a big deficit, if the deficit was because we rehabilitated the people of America and in fighting a war saved freedom.

One of the strange things about the national debt is that the Republicans who decry it want to reduce taxes, thereby prolonging the burden rather than reducing it. The administration seeks to maintain present taxes in an era of prosperity and to reduce the debt while we are best able to do it. Being Democrats this may sound strange, but for the banking minded Republicans the attitude seems even stranger.

As for Mr. Dewey and his reported surplus, that is a dobin of a different hue. First of all, Herbert Lehman had a knack for making two and two come out four. He left the State (See POLKA Page 4)

TENTH YEAR—No. 70

CONTROL OF 'LABOR' VOTE DISPUTED

Just how much of the city's population is constituted "labor" and how much is not, is a problem confronting politicians and political "experts" since last week's election.

According to several styled labor leaders and political seers, the 9000-odd votes rolled up last week by the American Labor Party represents Rochester's "labor vote." But according to all reliable statistics, more than 90 percent of Rochester's population is composed of laboring people.

That same percentage should apply to the voting population. If that be true, voters who polled the ALP ticket represent only a minor segment of the labor vote here. In fact it represents only a minority of the organized labor population. According to the unions' own claims between 50,000 and 60,000 workers are aligned either under the ALP or the CIO banner here.

In several prior elections, the ALP has endorsed Democratic candidates, running them on their own ticket. This year Roy Bush, Democratic county chairman ignored the advice of those who claim to control the labor vote and, with the aid of his county committee, made up a ticket regarded the strongest possible regardless of the in-

Republican 'Shortchange' Breaks Pay Raise Law

By Orville Allen

While County Manager Clarence is taking long sweeping bow for his "concern" over county employees wages by recommending a $200 cost-of-living emergency wage increase for 1948 to all employees receiving $5000 or less annually, according to law, he is shortchanging them more than $100.

A prime example of the utter disregard with which laws, rules, regulations, and such are held by a machine-controlled county administration is shown by the manager's salary recommendation and the accolade given him by other members of the government.

In recommending a $200 increase for next year County Manager Smith is flouting a resolution drawn up and passed by the Board of Supervisors only last year. The board was under the same political control then as now. If the board adopts the budget as received from Smith they will join in breaking their own promises.

According to a resolution put on the law books June 1, 1946 devising a formula for granting cost-of-living wage increases to employees, each county employee receiving $5,000 or less per year is entitled to $312 increase during 1948. Section 3 of Resolution No. 83 of 1946 reads:

"That prior to the adoption of the annual budget salary adjustments shall be made on the basis of the last available cost of living index as established by the National Industrial-Confederation Board."

Preceding sections of the resolution adopted a formula upon which the figures are to be based. The raises were to be computed on a subsistence wage of $1200 annually. According to the latest available official figures of the Bureau of Statistics of the Chamber of Commerce the cost of living index stands at 158.1. That figure was for Aug. 1, 1947 and is unofficially even higher now.

But even taking the figure for last August — 158.1 — simple arithmetic shows that, according to the pay formula devised by the board and promised to its employees, each county worker is entitled to a $312 "re-

WIN POPULARITY POLL — The troupe of merrymaking clowns shown here are registering a laugh-a-minute hit with Shrine Circus patrons this week in the Main St. E. Armory.

Shrine Circus Cheers Armory Throngs

Lack of new routines may have killed vaudeville, but it hasn't dimmed even one little bit the popularity of one of America's most changeful entertainment forms — the circus.

This is Shrine Circus Week in Rochester — a fact which is already known to all kids and most grownups. And the majority of both groups already have visited the Main St. armory, are planning to be there the week is over, or are either too young or too old to care about such things — two groups, incidentally, who represent only a very small minority of the populace.

Afternoon and evening performances since Monday have been attracting babies in arms, the aged with canes and crutches, and all age groups in between.

They watch approximately the same type of entertainment viewed by the grandfathers — and even great-grandfathers — and they come away just as thrilled as grandad did — and still does.

Some of the acts are better than the Shrine average — some not quite up to par with other years. But taken as a whole, this year's edition appears to be far out in front of any previous endeavor.

KAY'S COMMENTS by Kay Shearer

ALICE DRESS This season women reveal in being frankly feminine. It's called "The New Look." The smaller waist, the rounded bosom, the gentling line of the natural shoulder. The general effect is positively pretty and in the collection of clothes at ALICE DRESS SHOP, you'll find these and then some. Alice is a careful "buyer." Experience has taught her that it's takes all kinds of models to suit all kinds of women. Color is rampant this year. Fabrics beautiful. Prices at ALICE DRESS SHOP are within your reach. SWEATERS, a beautiful "line" of 100% wool in pastels are there also. An excellent selection of LINGERIE—a complete line of HOSIERY. Located 630 MONROE AVE. Open Eve.

WAYS TO CUT

The answer to a problem confronting almost every housewife today appears nearer a solution. In fact, members of the Chamber of Commerce Womens Council and the Rochester and Monroe County Nutrition Committee believe they already have solved the problem of how to get the most for your food dollar.

The two organizations are combining talents to present a nutrition institute with that theme next Tuesday in the Rochester Gas & Electric Home Service Auditorium. Three sessions will be held, with Miss Lillian Anderson, chief of the nutrition bureau of the New York City Community Service Society leading the first at 2:30 p. m. with a talk on "Food Cost in the Family Budget." She will be followed at 3:30 p. m. by Mrs. Ethel Marth, director of the Red Cross Nutrition Service speaking on "Buy the Wise Way." At 8 p. m. Miss Irene Muntz, director of the Gas & Electric Home Service Dept. will lead a discussion on "Crack the Whip Over Your Food Budget." Demonstrations will accompany all talks.

The sessions are open to the public.

a pencil himself. In fact, he is so good that he built himself up what he calls a "surplus" that is positively stupendous for a State. He didn't do it with mirrors; he did it with his own magic pencil. Each year he would ponder the budget for the year to come, and by careful miscalculation arrive at a sum several millions in excess of a very comfortable outside figure. It was a cinch to make his legislative bodies approve the budget — they were mostly Republicans.

With this kind of magic-wand every year he had millions left over. There was a war on and even much of the money he intended to spend he couldn't. That left additional millions. Then the income from taxes which he figured low in the first place was higher than high. War swollen incomes filled the till to overflowing and the millions piled up.

Every year the GOP controlled houses smiled knowingly as they passed inflated budgets for their wonder boy and when the receipts were counted and the P. and L. statement rigged for the year, Mr. Dewey had more and more to shout about. For all the world just like little Jack Horner.

Now that Mr. Dewey has this big chunk of dough he intends to sit on it. In fact he is using it as a vehicle to slide into the nomination for the presidency. In fact since Mr. Dewey has been governor he has had both good eyes on the White House. Of course he has during campaign speeches referred to this as the "veterans money" — dough to be spent for the boys. How phoney that statement was is indicated in the recent bonus amendment. Naturally the veterans wanted it, but they are going to be obliged to pay back a big share of it in taxes. The much discussed surplus for the boys is going to be used for the Thruway and to make political capital for a fellow that wants to be president.

The "surplus" is a sacred thing. Some part of it could have been used for teachers pay increases with the proper legislation. No, the man with the magic pencil preferred to force each county to add more taxes for that.

We wonder what would have happened if Mr. Dewey had the courage to permit the Thruway project to come up for the vote of the public, and paid the veterans four hundred million out of his surplus?

Many have called or written in demanding our opinion on the shooting of the colored ex-veteran by the local police. To be honest, the account of the shooting was so carefully handled in the local press and the police have been so reticent it is difficult to express much of an opinion. There was a great many that call it "murder." One Rochesterian opined that he would be mighty careful about reaching in his hip-pocket for his handkerchief when wearing a local blue coat while Red Woerner, pistol expert and instructor, probably feels that Rochester's finest could stand some classes in gun handling. All in all it was an unfortunate affair. This being Rochester, Mr. Woods investigation was as phony as the new look and the daily press will quietly let the matter drop.

EISENHOWER CAN BE DRAFTED
The general, who once refused to be a candidate under any circumstances, has changed his mind. This article, revealing that decision, tells what kind of a candidate — and President — he would be.

THE GERMAN RUSSIA HATES MOST

CONTROL . . .

dividual candidate's labor tie-up or lack of it.

This aroused the ire of labor leader-politicians. They combined their efforts and threatened to prove that "the Democrats need our support." This year, instead of a Democratic-ALP tie-up, the ALP aligned itself with the United Labor Action Committee to present a slate under the ALP banner. Only one Democrat district council candidate carried the ALP endorsement.

Leading the ALP-United Labor Action Committee forces was Anthony Capone, president of the AFL-affiliated Central Trades and Labor Council; Abraham Chatman, head of the CIO-affiliated Amalgamated Clothing Workers and power behind the ALP, and Julius Holsterey, onetime Democratic city councilman but now ALP chairman.

The Central Trades and Labor Council claims 30,000 members. There are an estimated 20,000 clothing workers in the city. Even leaving the other CIO union members and the Railroad Brotherhoods out in the picture, those two groups account for 50,000 members.

Yet, with their combined strength they polled only 9,000 votes, much of which was confined to the industrial northeast section of the city. Total ALP vote was less than eight percent of the council candidates' 119,365 combined vote.

In the northeast area, Lawrence Edenhofer polled 10,528 votes against 3,063 votes cast for Milton Hofferbert on the ALP ticket. Edenhofer lost to Republican Henry Schluter by 860 votes.

While all admit that the Democrats, particularly in Edenhofer's district, lost some votes because of the Democratic-ALP split, no one has yet figured out how many votes he gained because of that split.

It is definitely known that there is a large segment of the voting population who will vote the Democratic ticket as long as they are not aligned with the ALP.

Immediately after the election Chatman, Capone and Hoestery issued statements attributing loss of the election to the split with the Democrats, or this they blamed Bush.

But a little figuring on Bush's part convinced him he had been right all along. Indications are that he will make no move to heal the breach for next year's presidential race. In fact, the state AFL is expected to endorse Dewey if the governor wins the Republican presidential nomination.

Latest to join the cry for Bush's scalp is John J. Walsh, an "Al Skinner Democrat" from the Town of Greece. How much weight Walsh carries with his party even in his own ballroom is evidenced by his deposition as Democratic leader of the town several years ago. Of late, Walsh has been aligning himself more and more closely with the "political-labor" movement here, currently serving as chairman of a labor-sponsored Community Committee to Lower Food Prices which started off with a fanfare of publicity several weeks ago only to sputter out shortly after.

Walsh this week told Bush that "unless labor and the Democratic Party can get together by next fall, you might just as well forget about a 1948 local ticket, for, under the current situation, the whole Democratic cause is lost before you start."

Walsh suggested that Bush should "leave the political scene."

Bush, however, is confident that no one, nor any party controls the so-called "labor" vote. He believes, as do most political experts, that laboring people vote just as do other segments of the population, as Democrats, Republicans, ALP, Liberal Party, Prohibition Party, and whatever other splinter parties happen to be around.

The figures back up his contention that the Democrats did better this year going it alone than they did in the gubernatorial election last year with the ALP tie-up.

An analysis of election figures show that in the only important citywide contest—the school commissioner race—the leading Democrat (Quigley) polled 46,681 votes. Leading Republican (Wray) polled 62,126 votes—a margin of 15,445 over Quigley. Even comparing the Democrats' lowest total (for Byers) against the Republicans' highest (Wray), Republicans won by 16,762. These figures compared with the city vote last year when the Democrats and ALP were together for Mead, the Democratic-ALP-Liberal Party candidate lost by more than 22,207 votes. Mead polled 51,611 on the combined ticket against 73,818 for Dewey.

In other words, the Democrats picked up 5,550 votes this year over last—in spite of the importance of last year's election and the lower total registration this fall.

to the man in the street, astute politicians of both major parties agree that Bush made a smart move in going it alone. They admit that it takes more than 8,000 votes for anyone or any group to say he, or they, "controls the labor vote."

adjustment" to his current salary. When the resolution was adopted last year it embodied a $375 increase for 1947 bringing the subsistence level from $1200 to $1575. The obligated $312 for next year is in addition to this year's increase making a total of $1887.

Republican leaders, queried about the legality of the county manager's action in cutting the promised $312 increase down to $200, readily admitted he was flouting last year's resolution. And here's the payoff:

Asked why the county administration was so soon breaking its promise to its own employees, one prominent Republican guessed it was because the city, being broke" will only be able to grant city employees about $200 more for 1948 and the county administration "doesn't want to embarrass the city government."

That's what happens when one machine controlled by one man, controls both the city and the county.

All the fine words of the County Manager about his "concern" over employees salaries is now seen to be just so much smokescreen. His actions are dictated from above. A similar edict will be handed down for the city administration.

The only legal way out of the county's dilemma is to adopt another resolution rescinding Resolution No. 83 adopted last year and make their promise-breaking official.

It is expected that some action along that line will be quietly pushed through the Board of Supervisors when they meet next Monday.

Otherwise, according to their own record, they are stealing $112 from each county employee.

units, illuminated showcases. An indication of the increasing importance of Daw's prescription business is seen in the placing of the tile-white clean-as-a-hospital prescription department near the front of the store making it readily accessible. The department is staffed by three registered graduate pharmacists.

Another important division of the store is the large and complete toiletries and beauty aids department presided over by three graduate beauty consultants. In addition to many nationally-famous brands of beauty aids, the department stocks an attractive line of costume jewelry.

The firm, headed by Frank C. Weinberg, opened its first store at 60 Clinton Ave. S. in 1932. The store, which the new unit replaces was the third branch opened by the firm in 1936. Today there are 15 units, seven of them in the city. Others are located in Syracuse, Rome, Utica and Auburn.

Alton Booth will manage the new store.

Local Inventor Scores With New Drapery Fixture

PLEATED DRAPERIES—Cartridge pleated draperies are made on this simple device by placing a straight piece of drapery material around five tubular forms and securing with a common pin. Decorod has just been introduced at leading stores throughout the country. Draperies which cannot sag and add beauty to the home can be made in a few minutes . . . for less money than ever before imagined. The fixture is adjustable and fits on any type of window or French door.

Today's Bathroom Would Surprise Chic Sole

Industrial designers have brought the bathroom a long way since the tub stood on hall and claw legs and the flush box was near the ceiling. Investigate the latest developments in plumbing fixtures—the latest ideas in bathroom layout before you remodel your present bath or okay the plans for one in your new house.

Plaster walls are still tops for bathrooms. Tileboard is an interesting surface that can be given any color treatment. The new USG Textolite Semi-Gloss paint, to be introduced in some markets later this year, has been especially developed for kitchen and bathroom application.

Floor space can be small, but should not be minimized to the extent that walking space is sacrificed. If the bathroom is to be used for dressing or applying make-up it should be larger than usual. Families with daughters need extra bathroom space. Better yet, have a second bathroom or powder room.

Here are the features you may want in your bathroom; some necessary, some desirable: easily cleaned surfaces, sufficient storage space, hanging space for clothes while dressing, good lighting correctly placed, towel rod for each person, full length mirror, a place to sit, a dressing table, a built in electric heater for chilly mornings and drying hair.

For years home makers have been spending large sums of money to purchase, or long hours of toil to make attractive draperies with the much-wanted cartridge pleat. No one could think of a short cut.

But a Rochester inventor has cured all that. And with the aid of a Rochester financier he is selling his invention to housewives through leading stores all over the country.

The Product Decorod, a new fixture that makes possible beautifully deep cartridge pleated draperies with the use of flat drapery material and a few pins.

The inventor William F. Binsack, who has spent a lifetime in upholstery and drapery departments of local department stores and furniture factories.

The financier Lawrence A. Hayes, local securities salesman who has joined with Binsack to form the Bin-Hay Corp. to manufacture and sell the patented Decorod fixture.

The new invention pleats perfectly straight flat-hemmed material into the most professional looking treatment imaginable for windows and French doors. And it's done with 24 ordinary pins in ten minutes!

Cartridge pleated draperies are made on this simple device by placing the straight piece of drapery material around the five tubular forms on the Decorod and securing with a common pin, thereby forming the deep cartridge pleats that decorators agree add the newest, smartest note to window treatments. The draperies hang securely from the combination fixture and cannot sag under any condition.

The business world is jammed with executives who know how to run the businesses that belong to others.

By CURT GERLING

We have had a lot to say about Mr. Dewey's arithmetic in past columns. We have pointed out how he made such political capital of his ability to manage the state's financial affairs and how he with the aid of a sympathetic legislature had jammed through huge budgets that he knew he would never need but could be shown as a "surplus" as the end of the year. He was "economy-minded" (so he said) and he was building a surplus for the boys when they came back from the war.

Just how he is going to use his financial record in the future will need a great deal of double talking as the amendment verdict of this year's election will make Mr. Dewey the governor who had the largest state debt in the history of New York.

The Empire State is headed toward a debt of more than one billion dollars. Before election the debt was $340,000,000, equal to approximately $24 per capita. The vote for the bonus amendment will add $400,000,000. The bond issue for the housing amendment $135,000,000 more. This adds up to the tidy little sum of $875,000,000.

Previously the state has committed itself to other housing projects to the tune of $277,000,000, for which bonds must be issued. (Even State bonds must pay interest.) Thus the near future debt of the country's most heavily populated state will be $1,152,000,000, which, as the saying goes, ain't exactly hay. In fact it means that every individual in the state of New York is mortgaged for the sum of $84. An increase of nearly 200 per cent in less than a twelve month period.

Mr. Dewey is going to have to find something else to talk about.

You may have been one of the thousands who scrutinized the window display at McCurdy's not long ago — portraits of all the presidents of the U. S. A., arranged in a proper setting.

While we were standing there two ladies of rather ancient vintage joined the gazing

$169,361 Seen At Deficit Airport

If the railroads entering Rochester should petition the city or the county for an annual contribution of $169,000 to pay the cost of their stations, waiting rooms and other services, taxpayers would roar to high heaven. And if the intercity bus lines made any such plea, the county would probably throw them out of the area altogether — and with the enthusiastic approval of the taxing public.

Yet, it is going to cost the taxpayers $169,361 over and above receipts to maintain the airport during 1948 for the benefit of two major airlines, several small operators and a few private flyers.

The fact that control of the municipal airport passes from city to county control Jan. 1 has little effect on the fellow who pays the bill. Under city control, city taxpayers foot the whole bill. Under county control, the city taxpayer will still pay more than 80 percent of the deficit.

According to the county budget submitted to the Board of Supervisors by County Manager Clarence Smith and supplied without a murmur on Tuesday, the sum of $217,861 will be appropriated for operation of the airport. And even the politicians' rosier estimate of airport receipts for the year totals only $48,500, making a net

THERE'S A QUEEN HERE—One of these 21 girls selected by co-workers from Bausch & Lomb Optical Company's seven divisions has been chosen for the role of Queen in the five-day musical production, "Balco Revue," which opens at the Auditorium Dec. 9. Winner of the title will be announced opening night.

SIXTH CITY RADIO STATION TO GO ON AIR

Rochester sixth radio station, the third to open here this year, will take to the airwaves this weekend with strong emphasis on war veteran management and Mutual Broadcasting System programs.

Call letters of the new outlet are WEVT, broadcasting at 1280 kilocycles. The station, organized and incorporated by several veterans as a "hometown" owned and staffed broadcaster, will have a basic network franchise of the Mutual Broadcasting System and will carry its programs exclusively in the Rochester area.

Under this new setup Rochester will have station outlets for all major chains as well as

Want Price Controls Returned? Sign Coupon

Last year when pressure was being brought against Congress to remove price controls from all goods, the Times-Union, which was in favor of immediate removal of controls, gave its readers an opportunity to express their opinions. The afternoon paper carried on a well-publicized high pressure campaign urging readers to bombard their representatives in Congress with the signed coupons asking immediate removal.

Controls were removed and prices skyrocketed. Whether or not there is any relationship between those two facts is a matter upon which economists do not fully agree. But there is now strong agitation for the reinstatement of controls. Some want full controls, others limited controls on basic commodities only. Earlier this week

JUDGES CHOOSE QUEEN OF 1947 'BALCO REVUE'

Who the queen of the "Balco Revue of 1947" will be remains a mystery to all but the six judges who have now made their choice. Twenty-one candidates for the role in Bausch & Lomb Optical Company's all-employee musical comedy were guests at a dinner meeting in the Sheraton Hotel last Friday where they were carefully eyed by the judges. The choice will be made known on the opening night of the 5-day musical scheduled for the Auditorium Dec. 9-13.

The board of judges which chose the queen is headed by Mayor Samuel B. Dicker

Budget Loophole OKs 'Shortchange'

Hopes of Monroe County employees that the Board of Supervisors would back up its cost-of-living pay resolution with appropriate action were dashed this week when the county legislative body on Tuesday adopted County Manager Clarence Smith's budget without a murmur of dissent.

PARCEL POST WEIGHT RULES RELAXED BY PO

New post office regulations affecting parcel post packages addressed to Italy and Vatican City State go into effect starting today, according to advice from Postmaster Donald Dalley.

Weight limit for parcel post packages to the two addresses will be increased from 11 lbs. to 22 lbs. The limitation of only one parcel per week from the same sender to the same address are removed under the new regulations. Weight limit for packages to Eritrea are also doubled from 11 lbs. to 22 lbs.

Mail for territories formerly under Italian Administration have been ceded as follows: Fiume, Zara, Cherso, Lussino, Unie, Sansego and Asinello to Yugoslavia, Briga and Tenda to France; Dodecanese Islands to Greece; Trieste to Free Territory of Trieste.

Mail for the places named must show the name of the country of destination. Rates and conditions of the country of destination will apply.

To Have Rummage

The Women's Society of Genesee Baptist Church will hold a rummage sale tomorrow and Saturday at 7-1 Main St. W.

After it was revealed by The Sun last Thursday that the board had disregarded its promise to gauge cost-of-living raises to county employees on the index of the National Industrial Conference Board in a resolution adopted June 1, 1946 and never rescinded, several members of the board sought legal advice as to the resolution's effectiveness. Some of the best minds, questioned by The Sun, agreed that on the basis of the 1946 resolution each employee should be entitled to $312 advance next year instead of the $200 given them. But others said they have found a loophole in the resolution which permitted them to take the action they did this week.

The board's action Tuesday reminds of the taxi driver who, given the exact amount of the meter charge with no tip was asked by his tight-fisted passenger "That's right, isn't it?" replied, "That may be correct, Mac, but it ain't right!"

That was the feeling among county employees this week.

Few, other than politicians could find any loophole in the resolution. It reads as follows:

Be it Resolved by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Monroe as follows:

Section 1. That the previous "Emergency Allowance" heretofore authorized that $3,000.00 per annum, be and the same is hereby repealed.

Sec. 2. It is hereby ordered that the publication of the county following the 1st day of national Industrial Conference Board to the basic salaries of all county employees whose basic salary is up to and including $5,000.00.

2. Said cost of living index as published by said National Industrial Conference Board being 100 as of the year 1939 and 121.3 as of December 31, 1945, the date of the latest index.

3. Said 121.3 index applied to a substantive salary of $1,250.00 as of 1939 results in an approximate $725.00 which said $725.00 is hereby established as a cost of living salary increase and is hereby added to the basic salary of all county employees receiving up to and including $5,000.00 per annum.

Sec. 3. That prior to the adoption of the annual budget salary adjustments shall be made on the basis of the latest available cost of living index as established by the National Industrial Conference Board.

Sec. 4. That said adjustments shall in no way effect the basic compensation plan as heretofore adopted.

Sec. 5. That there shall be no increase in the salaries of the members of the Board of Supervisors.

Sec. 6. That this resolution shall be effective as of June 1, 1946.

According to the last available cost of living index as established by the National Industrial Conference Board and reported by the Rochester Chamber of Commerce, each county employee earning less than $5.00 per year is entitled to $312 more in 1948 than he received in 1947. Instead, he will receive only an extra $200.

The latest index figures are for August when they stood at 158.1.

How a machine-controlled administration can steamroller any action it decides to take without complaint from its lower echelon employees was demonstrated at Monday's "public hearing" on the budget. While almost every county worker agreed that according to its earlier promise, the board was obligated to pay them $112 more than was offered, not one word of question or one word of dissent was heard at the open hearing. No employees appeared to question the action. Several employees admitted they didn't dare appear at the meeting and openly question the county manager's or the board's action.

"It would mean our jobs," they admitted. And several said they could not afford to lose their jobs, such as they were, because they were trying to raise families.

Letters to the Editor

Editor, Rochester Sun,
In view of the fact that you have banded me about a bit in your recent issue, I feel entitled to use a little of your newsprint in defense of myself and the stand I have taken in relation to Democrats, Bush and what-not.

Your reference to me as an "Al Skinner Democrat" is very flattering. Mr. Skinner is a very good friend of mine. I was unaware that Democrats were not supposed to associate with Republicans. Perhaps I'm old-fashioned, or possibly it's you, who is reactionary?

I have been a Democrat for a great many years. When the "Citizens Party" came into being for one year our present Democratic Leader aligned himself with it. I have never been in favor of the United Action Committee and have taken the stand to have the A. F. of L. Central Trades divorce itself from it for harmony, and will submit a program at the next meeting Dec. 11.

In one of your issues you stated possibly this committee was a springboard for the A. L. P. This committee planned a petition to be circulated, but did not put it out until after election, to prove it was no springboard. We have 5,000 of these in circulation I am submitting one of them to you, and think it a good idea if you would put a box on your front page to give the people a chance to say whether they wish lower prices in some workable method. The Times-Union gave its readers a chance to vote "we want no controls, but no chance to vote yes." We favor O. P. A. and controls.

I am confident if a new Democrat were in charge there would be more harmony. I have talked with a large number of committeemen and find a lot of dissatisfaction, and am confident there will be opposition in the primaries and look to George Kelly or some other Democrat to assume charge for a complete victory next fall.

DINNER DANCE LISTED AT LOCUST HILL

The Japanese, it is said, have concluded that war-making does not pay and that the American ideal of the good neighbor is the best policy. It apparently takes the Japs only one war to learn!

Mr. President and The Congress of the U. S.:

I, the undersigned urgently request that the President and Congress take the necessary steps to lower the present cost of living through price control, rationing, or any other workable method—

— OR —

I, the undersigned urgently request that the President and Congress take no steps toward further price control or rationing. I am in favor of letting prices "find their own level in a free market."

this week by John Walsh, chairman of the Rochester Community Committee for Lower Prices, in a letter to The Sun which will be found on another page of this paper.
And in that regard Mr. Walsh is correct. The people have as much right to have their voices heard this year as last. They have had a full year of uncontrolled food prices and undoubtedly have as definite sentiments this year as last.
Therefore, The Sun, as a service to the people of Rochester is printing such a coupon today. If you wish to express your sentiments on control of food prices, fill out the coupon in this paper today and mail it to your congressman, President Truman, or to the Sun. Those mailed to this newspaper will be forwarded to President Truman. Congressmen from this area are Kenneth B. Keating may be addressed at Washington, D. C., and James W. Wadsworth, Both at Rochester, N. Y.

Art Gallery Showing Set For Painting Collection

"Paintings of the Year" will get its first showing in Rochester at a preview reception for members of Memorial Art Gallery, their friends and invited guests tomorrow. From 8 p. m. to 10:30 p. m. the gathering will have initial opportunity to view the 159 paintings selected in the annual competition sponsored by Pepsi-Cola. The public is invited to inspect the collection starting Saturday, through Sunday, Dec. 21. The exhibit, representing a wide range of artistry from all sections of the nation, is one of the largest ever to be hung at the gallery.
Rochester's public is asked to compare its observation in art with that of professional judges. Each visitor to the Gallery during the month-long showing will be invited to ballot for his choice as the winning work.
The painter whose offering wins the most votes will be awarded $100 by Reginald Kiefer, president of Pepsi-Cola Rochester Bottling Co.
Bartlett H. Hayes Jr., director of the Addison Gallery of American Art at Phillips Academy, Andover, Mass., will introduce the display at tomorrow's preview with an illustrated talk, "The Artist Has Three Eyes." He will use paintings in the exhibit as subject matter for his speech.
A series of special Sunday afternoon programs has been scheduled during the display. Next Sunday Miss Isabel G. Herdle, assistant director of the gallery, will give an informal talk on "The American Way—in Paint" at 3:30 p. m., using the works in the display to illustrate the various schools of painting current in American art today. A program of travel films will complete the program.
Judges' choice for first prize was "Country Tenement," a romantic effort portraying the artist's reactions to the sight of a lot of rural people crowded into one small building

Red Cross Starts Cookery Course
A class in meal planning, nutrition, and cookery will start next Monday, at 7 p.m. in the Red Cross Demonstration Kitchen, 199 Plymouth Ave. S. Basic principles of cookery will be taught with special attention given to meat, vegetable, and pastry preparation. Class members will prepare meals and have an opportunity to learn timing, table service, and kitchen management. Those interested may enroll by calling Main 7420.

HOME OF THE MONTH—Here is a house that fits any city lot yet has "country" features usually found only in ranch type houses. Designed for maximum liveability in minimum area, this house has no space-eating halls or corridors and achieves a pleasantly roomy feeling through liberal use of glass. Simple, ground-slug lines give the house a cozy appearance. Sheltered entrance and overhanging eaves protect rooms from summer sun yet allow winter's lower sun rays to add warmth. All plumbing is in one wall to add economy, and second story may be left unfinished since the first floor is a complete living unit in itself. Architect Oliver Sandquist designed this functional modern home which won a recent Prize Contest sponsored by PRACTICAL BUILDER magazine.

BEAT WINTER DISCOMFORT WITH INSULATION

While fair weather is still around it's a good idea to make a list of last winter's drafts and chills and take steps to remedy them. Although most new homes are adequately insulated as they are built, older houses develop uncomfortable weakness that can be remedied by some means of insulation. Cracks around windows and doors not only let cold air in but allow heat to escape. Weatherstrip is one answer and there are many excellent types available, most favored being the more permanent metal kind. A plastic crack filler will seal minor spaces left by settling or warping. But where larger breaks are found, a professional job of patching or adjustment is most practical. Storm windows and doors also conserve heat, and vacuum sealed insulated double-pane windows that have no condensation problems can replace your regular windows. Insulating siding that looks like brick or stone for application over any existing surface not only modifies interior temperatures but beautifies the home's exterior. Wall insulation of several types can be poured or blown into hollow walls, usually from the attic if batt, blanket or sheet type cannot easily be installed. Insulating the attic floor and roof will give the house extra protection and keep heat from escaping above the living area. To give your job of insulation proper support, check your heating system thoroughly and have all cleaning and repairing done before the cold weather arrives. Then you can be sure of a snug, cozy shelter when you need it most.

Rightly or wrongly, there are millions of people who have the idea that what business wants is profits, and more profits.

POLKA . . .
group. Said one tight-lipped chromo "There HE is" and she pointed a bony and disparaging finger at F.D.R.
The other lady just said, "Uh-huh." Then tight-lips startled us by saying "I never voted for him — no, not even once — but I have to admit that his face has more character than anyone in the whole bunch — and that goes for Abe Lincoln, too."
Her partner gasped at the observation, looked hard again at F.D.R.'s portrait and then at tight-lips. "I've got to admit you're right—damn it," she said.
If Roosevelt had lived to run for still another term he might have had another two obviously Republican votes.
In Buffalo where an indignant electorate rose up and tossed out the incumbent Republican administration, the fireworks have not as yet ceased. More recently the Buffalo bus companies' plea for an increased fare was denied.

The Bison city voters who didn't like the sales tax didn't like the plan to increase personal transportation costs any better.
Buffalo results no doubt have the local GOP fathers a bit nervous. They still haven't told us where they expect to get the money for the school teacher's pay increase. . . .
Members of the state legislature who were fearful lest the amendment empowering them to fix their own salaries wouldn't pass are now in a quandary, somewhat like the little boy turned loose in the candy factory who was afraid to eat too much lest he be sick.
The legislators are afraid to raise their own salaries too high lest they be criticized and penalized come next election.

Running for office in '48 is too soon for the voters to forget. They'd probably give themselves a generous "hike" if it were an "off" year.
To give the devil his due $2500 is hardly enough to compensate for three months each year in Albany. Hotel and apartment prices are sky high and your dinner check in a halfway decent restaurant is likely to look like a payment on the Marshall plan. The politicians are always besieged by major and minor racketeers whose testimonial dinners for this one and that usually run ten bucks a plate, and lunatic fringe tickets for recitals, "draymas," and drawings when added to other charitable contributions are apt to put the assemblyman behind the eight-ball instead of in front of it.

There is nothing to stop the state houses from voting themselves $5,000 per year and that is what the members from eastern New York want. However, many upstate districts voted against the amendment and legislators from these areas are unwilling to take a chance in such a generous grab. Rural communities in particular are apt to think 5 Gs a whole lot of money.
The law-makers are expected to get around it by voting themselves a thousand dollar hike now and grab off the other fifteen hundred sometime after the votes are counted in November '48.
The primary duty of every good politician is still to get himself re-elected.

IMPOSSIBLE?

No such word, say the 38 young Veteran Stockholders of Veterans Broadcasting Company! Two years ago . . . when they made known their intention of starting a new Rochester radio station . . . with a major network . . . and a power output of 5000 watts, "old timers" cried "Wishful thinking," said "It can't be done!" But these 38 determined fellows drove ahead . . . regardless! Insisting there is no substitute for good old-fashioned "get-up-and-go", they planned . . . went to work . . . and won!

And What They Won! A license to operate full time with 5000-watt power! Exactly the desired call-letters . . . WVET! An affiliation with "The World's Largest Network" . . . the MUTUAL BROADCASTING SYSTEM!

All this . . . because 38 fellows put their collective noses to the grindstone . . . dug in with all they had, for what they wanted!

ACCOMPLISHED WHAT "COULDN'T BE DONE"

WHAT DOES THIS GRINDSTONE MEAN TO YOU?

In Brighton . . . on Westfall Road . . . four win-charger shafts tower 260 feet into the sky. Miles of copper wire and steel cables are grouped in geometric patterns and linked to a maze of transmitting equipment. A strand of cable stretches north to Rochester . . . to connect with WVET's Granite Building studios. Soon electrical impulses will glide over this complex system to fill the air with a vast symphony of sound. Entertainment to make your life richer! News, Drama, Comedy, Education to make your life fuller! Music your heart will listen to! Broadcasting to quicken your pulse . . . to enrich your listening hours . . . broadcasting in your interest.

Said another way . . . WVET is dedicated to the following program policies:

- PRESENTING BEST PROGRAMS POSSIBLE
- DEVELOPMENT OF LOCAL TALENT
- DEVOTING ATTENTION TO YOUTH AND PROGRESS
- PROMOTING ROCHESTER'S WELFARE
- BROADCASTING PROGRAMS OF INTEREST TO MINORITIES AS WELL AS MAJORITIES
- ENCOURAGING INTEREST IN LOCAL GOVERNMENT
- HELPING THE VETERAN

'DARK PASSAGE' OPENS RUN AT CAPITOL

"Dark Passage" a gripping drama co-starring Humphrey Bogart and Lauren Bacall opens today at the Capitol Theatre. In this action-packed story Bogart is cast as an escaped convict from San Quentin; trying to prove himself innocent of the charge of murder that had caused him to be put in jail. In supporting parts are: Agnes Moorehead, Bruce Bennett and Tom D'Andrea. Franz Waxman conducted the music department on this production, with "Two Marvelous for Words" revived for popular appeal.

The companion picture on today's program features the first Rochester showing of the latest Gene Autry picture, "Sioux City Sue." Lovely Lynne Roberts is his co-star.

Title-changing Dept: "The Flapper Age" is now called "You Were Meant For Me" and "Lady in Ermine" (as of today) is titled, "This Is The Moment."

By CURT GERLING

You don't need a cigarette lighter down in Washington — just touch your cig to the collar of any Republican congressman — they're that hot. The Missouri waltz king is the cause. Mr. Truman well versed in rough and tumble politics has learned some of the finer points in his brief stint in the presidency and the quality of advice from his brain trust has been improving with every passing day — and speech.

Truman's request for the return of price controls has put the GOP on the spot. They're opposed to them but they realize that without them prices are going to continue zooming — in fact, a great many Republicans are aware that they're going to zoom anyways, and what's worse they're going to be blamed for it.

Just as their loud talk for the removal of controls in '46 got the votes of a war-weary, control-weary electorate, their opposition to the return of them will make the GOP picture as dark in '48 as it was bright in '46. The Republican party is stuck with the stigma of responsibility for the high cost of living — one that promises to make new records every month until the votes are counted again.

In the Truman list of recommendations he hamstringing his opposition by including "wage controls" in his program. He didn't give Taft and other leaders a chance to make the suggestion. In fact, he left no loopholes of consequence, no opportunities for rebuttal. The GOP "burning" is the fury of helplessness — the inability to fight back. The pinch of higher living costs is already the issue of the next election. The Republicans are on the record as opposed to "controls" — the only thing that kept 'em down before. They gloated when they were removed and their confident predictions blew up in their smug pussies. They're on the spot and they know it. It's going to take something more than conversation and crystal-ball gazing to get the Grand Old Party off the spot.

Sales Tax Fears Wane Here As GOP Joins 'Howl Chorus'

Fears that a sale tax would be imposed in the city or the county by the Republican machine controlling both waned this week as protests against the Dewey-conceived tax program continued to swell.

Political strategists predict that the Broderick-led forces will drop their earlier plans to impose such a tax shortly after election now that the protests have become a statewide roar and already resulting in the turning out of office Republicans in two upstate areas that had imposed the tax before election.

HENRY A. WALLACE

CITY LIBERALS AWAIT SPEECH BY WALLACE

Henry A. Wallace, former vice-president, will speak in Rochester on Thursday, Dec. 16 at a mass meeting in the Sports Arena sponsored by the Rochester Chapter, Progressive Citizens of America.

Wallace is currently the champion of those who claim to be following the paths laid out by the late President F. D. Roosevelt. How they reconcile President Roosevelt's action in getting rid of Wallace — his

The program which granted public school teachers a salary increase but left up to the individual communities the task of raising funds with which to pay it has been roundly denounced ever since Governor Dewey sprung it on the Legislature late last year. Recently members of his own Republican party have been loudest in their demands for repeal.

This week two new bombshells were dropped into the state administration's lap—both of them by Republican interest:

1—The 85,000 members New York State Farm Bureau Federation meeting in Syracuse went on record urging the State Legislature to "reverse the present policy of passing back to the localities the unfair burden of meeting increased school costs through local taxation."

2—Harold B. Johnson, editor of the Watertown Times and prominent Northern New York Republican told 800 delegates of the New York State Teachers' Association meeting here

Give Thanks For Our Heritage

Today in millions of homes across the length and breadth of this land, Americans will sit down to the traditional Thanksgiving Day table. But before that jolly feast begins, heads will bow in reverent meditation of the manifold blessings for which we, as Americans, have a right to be thankful.

As in few other years in this nation's history, her people have so very much for which to be thankful, despite isolated instances of comparative hardship. In contrast to the lot of peoples in almost every other part of the world, Americans are blessed with a land that is free, a land that is productive, a land where brain, brawn and natural resources have combined to make it a land of plenty. More than that, we can be thankful that the overflow of our abundance will be used to mitigate the sufferings of the less fortunate in other parts of the globe.

Thinking Americans who know that this nation's greatness didn't "just happen," that it wasn't only by mere chance that America grew from a handful of courageous pilgrims to the mightiest country on earth in a little more than three centuries will perhaps see a parallel between our heritage and our present material wealth. The pilgrims established this nation to worship God as they chose. And they thanked God when they prospered. Our forefathers established a government for, of, and by the people, and invoked the blessing of God upon their efforts.

Today that same God will be thanked for the continuance of those blessings. And perhaps it is that very readiness to look beyond the material to the supernatural that is the basis of this country's greatness.

Let us be thankful. Let us be reverent. Let us realize that the blessing of God is necessary to the future wellbeing of our land. And let us continue to merit that blessing.

WSAY Operator Lashes Out At New Air Stations

By ORVILLE ALLEN

While the ether waves above Rochester calmly crowded over to accommodate the broadcasting of two more local radio stations last week, here below the radio industry was a seething cauldron of name-calling, suits and network shuffling.

MANY FAMILIES FAVOR PRICE CONTROL RETURN

How many Rochester people want living costs lowered "through price control, rationing or any other workable method" is a most question. But of the more than 100 families who sent petition coupons direct to The Sun this week, only two are in favor of letting prices "find their own level in a free market."

Last week The Sun published a blank readers might fill out and sign indicating their sentiments on the return to price controls recently proposed by President Truman to a joint session of Congress. The Sun published the coupon in the interests of fair play as the two daily papers had published similar coupons last year when the successful effort was made to lift all controls and with the cost of living mounting to new highs, a movement is under foot to restore some controls on basic commodities. Neither of the twolocal daily newspapers have given their readers a coupon opportunity to express themselves.

Sun reader were advised to fill out their coupons and mail to their representative in Congress or to the President. But 129 coupons were sent direct to The Sun. There have been forwarded to President Truman.

Stirring the cauldron is Rugged Individualist Gordon Brown who, since 1936 and until a few months ago operated Rochester's only independent station. But with the arrival of three new stations this year, two of them within the last two weeks, Brown and his station, WSAY lost that distinction. Among other items also lost or mislaid by Brown is the right to broadcast ABC and Mutual programs.

Station WARC quietly took to the airwaves two weeks ago as a fulltime affiliate of the American Broadcasting Station. Last Sunday WRET went on the air — but not quietly — as a basic outlet of the Mutual Broadcasting System. WSAY consequently reverted to its original status of a local program outlet only.

Charges Monopoly According to Brown, the reason for this cold shouldering of his station by the networks is due to his refusal "to accede to the monopolistic practices of a powerful radio network" and his refusal to "be bought out by those interests."

But other sources give a different version. According to officials of the American Broadcasting Corp., Brown for years refused to sign a standard affiliation contract with its network. Mutual Broadcasting officials claim to have experienced the same treatment at Brown's hands.

Sues For $12,000,000 When ABC and MBS notified Brown they were cutting their programs off his station and transferring them to regular affiliates now established in the city, Brown went into court and sought an injunction to stop the networks from their action. He has also entered a damage suit against the two networks and for good measure has included the National and Columbia Broadcasting networks all to the tune of $12,000,000 charging the four groups with a conspiracy in violation of anti-trust laws.

Court suits are no new experience for Rochester's "Lone Eagle" of the airwaves. But victories for him in the courts have been sparse. Latest loss was his injunction pleas.

Blasts WARC Brown has leveled his heaviest attacking guns against a station in Rochester which is over 85 percent owned by out-of-town interests. This would appear to be WARC. In a statement read over WSAY last Thursday evening, Brown alleged that "about 40 percent (of WARC) is owned by the wife of a Mr. Rodger Clipp who is vice chairman of the American Broadcasting Company's station planning and advisory committee."

Records show that a Rodger (See RADIO Page 21)

I see by the papers

By Orville Allen

"Ninety million dollars of proposed Truman stopgap aid would be used by France for payment of international obligations."

"Of the funds requested for France, 45 million dollars is earmarked to pay an obligation to neighboring Belgium — another country coming under the 16-nation Marshall Plan."

"Another 15 million dollars is for repaying Brazil, and another 30 million would be for 'interest' on other foreign debts."

Times-Union, Nov. 7, 1947

I wonder how we'd feel if one of the local banks asked us to pay the interest on some other guy's debt.

Attention Rochester Merchants—

The Rochester Sun

WILL NOT LET YOU DOWN!

The Sun believes that its obligation to its advertisers is the keystone of its service. Therefore there will be no rationing of advertising space during the Christmas buying season.

Because of foresight in its planning and because The Sun was willing to go out on the open market and secure precious paper supplies regardless of cost or effort, this newspaper is now able to fulfill to the limit its function of bringing important news from Rochester merchants into the 70,000 homes of Sun readers.

Yes, we saw the coming need many, many months ago and began hoarding newsprint. Now, during the busiest sales season of the year, we are able to offer the merchants of Rochester all the advertising space they need, when they need it, to adequately reach and tell their customers of their gift values.

KAY'S COMMENTS

R. G. & E. There's one bright spot in these days of mounting living costs. Your electric bill. Today customers of R. G. & E. get more than two and one-quarter times as much electric service as they did thirty-five years ago and more than twice as much as they did twenty years ago. Think of how many more services are performed in your home by electric power. In comparison, your bills are almost the same or maybe a little higher. Your toaster, percolator for your coffee, correct time, to say nothing of radio entertainment day and night. It's the biggest bargain in today's family budget. Our own ROCHESTER GAS & ELECTRIC also wishes to extend to all my readers — a "HAPPY THANKSGIVING" — on this, our real American holiday.

Catherine Mackenzie—of the New York Times—says, "Children of six and seven must win before they can bear to lose. Their quick change from 'I hate you' to 'I love you' is another sign of growth. No I agree maybe you would not have dared to say that to your parents—but then maybe these fresh kids' of ours will be better people than we are. I won't live long enough to see the results—I hope you will."

PETTIS Did you every try those BRAS our PETTIS carries? They are called LACELS. They are fitted to your particular needs. They come in all sizes in flesh and white. I have worn them for years. They wear like iron, launder beautifully, but more important "do something" for your figure. Call Stone 6210 and ask Ben about them. She has a new shipment. VA PETTIS wishes to extend to her many customers and friends a "HAPPY GALA THANKSGIVING" from herself and her entire staff. PETTIS. Burke Bldg.

GERTRUDE CORSET SHOP MRS. GERTRUDE MEGEE is a Registered Nurse. She presides over her new and thriving shop with the confidence of ten years of experience in the Corset world. EDWARDS HANDKERCHIEFS FOR STREET FLOOR — at EDWARDS solve many a problem. Ever since I can remember — Edwards have had a wonderful handkerchief department. Prices are moderate — the stock ample to make your selection easy. A hankie is the ideal gift for that someone, whom you want to remember with more than a card. Ask to see WOMEN'S SWISS HANDKERCHIEFS at 59c, they will delight the sixteen or sixty Christmas queen on your list. Hand-rolled hems and colorful petite point embroidery on one corner. At this low price, you'll find yourself stocking up for yourself. Chinese hand embroidery on women's Irish linen handkerchiefs lend just the right touch. Daintily worked to the delight of anyone, they are priced 70c. Others of pure linen worked in bright print designs — hand rolled hems — priced at 59c, say Merry Christmas for you in the very nicest of ways. MEN'S HANDKERCHIEFS, priced at 70c are Irish linen, with his own initial in cotton embroidery, the hems are one-half inch and true man size. Lovely Lace in a generous size with Irish linen center, lavishly edged with wide, wide lace are smart in a pocket of any frock or suit. Priced $1.50. EDWARDS — Setting a New Pace in Rochester.

Leather Jewel Boxes make nice Christmas gifts. So many women these days have loads and loads of costume jewelry, they would certainly love one of these decorative boxes. Smart on a dressing table, and useful, they keep your jewelry in so much better condition than "kicking round a drawer."

The right angle for women is a long, slow curve, a gentled shoulder, nipped waist, maybe a dash of color. WOMEN'S DRESSES at Rippon's have all these features, every one designed for the larger figure, or the shorter full figure. At the present writing, you'll find a selection of muted prints, just right for you. Or maybe you would like a pastel, you can wear them, you know if they're cut correctly. Dark's, favorite of the larger woman, are also to be found. Get your HOLIDAY DRESS now — so you'll be ready for parties ahead. Prices are gentle — at RIPTON DRESSES 739 Monroe Ave. Open Eve. ALICE GIVE THANKS — today — our Holiday for ALICE DRESS SHOP. More and more Rochester women have made this attractive well-stocked shop their headquarters for wardrobes. The dresses carried by ALICE have an air about them. They are wearable together with being smart — to say nothing of the gentle prices attached. You'll also find a lovely line of LINGERIE, Sweaters, every one of top-flight quality also priced gently. All sizes in her entire line. — ALICE DRESS SHOP—630 MONROE AVE. Open Eve.

Neutral beige is wonderful under turt. One model in a fallie with skirts falling into folds — has double flaps trimmed with buttons fastened under the belt.

A black crepe ankle length frock for evening has a décolletage shadowed in the frailest, most cobwebby lace. From a tiny waist the skirt falls in two tiers, each outlined in lace.

Louise and I have been trying to figure out, desirous methods to keep rubbers on single-back shoes. We know you can wear "toe-rubbers" but in our opinion they are worthless, your heels get simply ruined. Manufacturers of boots" advertise that they are perfect models to take care of platform soles, and with a little stretching you can get toe-rubbers on platforms, but what about that back business. Won't someone please think of something. Shoes are so expensive, and on rainy days, you don't need boots, so what to do.

What did I tell you about those "dark" hose. There's here — and are they smart. Try a pair and see.

LOOK CLOTHES at Zweig's have taken on a holiday mood. Many are sparkling with beads and sequins, all are beautiful, and priced within the reach of everyone. You'll find the full line of half-sizes together with regular sizes 0 to 56. Colors are becoming — styles high. Drop into ZWEIG DRESSES — 240 Rosedale Off Monroe. Open Eve.

The new look in lightens is the lived-in-look. This means that it is permissible from a fashion standpoint — to hang a sauce-pan on the wall — have a rug on the floor with a rocking chair near by.

Visiting Nurse Service Extended To County

Services of the Visiting Nurses Association will be available throughout the county on a full fee basis Jan. 1, according to plans revealed by Edward Harris, president of the group.

A new fee schedule based upon $2.50 an hour will go into effect at the beginning of the year. Those who live outside the city will be expected to pay an additional amount for the round trip beyond the city line at the rate of five cents per quarter mile. Home nursing by-the-visit is given only to patients who are under the supervision of a physician.

The Visiting Nurse Association is a non-profit organization and a participant in the Rochester Community Chest. Free and part pay services within the city of Rochester are made possible by chest contributions. Full pay visits, however, form a substantial portion of the total service.

The association has 45 staff nurses all of whom have had special preparation in public health nursing beyond the basic hospital nursing course. In addition some of the staff have had special preparation in the care of orthopedic patients.

The Association also has a Supply Bureau which makes available upon a rental basis various kinds of equipment necessary to the care of the sick in the home. Patients can be provided with such items as back rests, rubber rings, wheel chairs, hospital beds, tables and the like. Sterile gauze dressings in tin and glass containers are sold at cost and sterile supplies for home deliveries are also obtainable.

CARD PARTY PROCEEDS TO AID VETERANS

Proceeds of a card party to be staged in RBI auditorium, Clinton Ave. S., by Gold Star Mothers Chapter 4, tomorrow evening at 8 p. m. will be used for the benefit of hospitalized veterans in Canandaigua and Batavia Veterans hospitals.

WALLACE...

(Continued From Page 1) running mate after his third term is not clear. FDR shelved Wallace in favor of Harry Truman who succeeded to the presidency when Roosevelt died in office. Wallace then became Secretary of Commerce, but was later asked to resign when he attacked the country's foreign policy during the regime of James F. Byrnes as secretary of state.

Wallace has been acclaimed as a "saviour of mankind" while he has been denounced as (1) an idle dreamer, (2) a crackpot, (3) a communist. Non of the three charges have ever been proved, but stories of his personal oddities and antics and his secular political philosophies have streamed out of Washington ever since he first joined the president's official family.

Wallace has recently returned from Palestine where he went in his capacity as editor of the "New Republic" a liberal journal of national reputation. He is currently touring the South in the interest of his campaign for "peace and good neighborliness everywhere," on his terms.

In addition to the peace theme, which is reputed to include "soft" handling of Russia, William C. Wolgast, chairman of the Rochester PCA says, Wallace is for the return of price controls with rationing if necessary; full relief abroad "without political strings attached"; repeal of the Taft-Hartley Act; and end the "indiscriminate firing" of government employees on the basis of "mere suspicion" (of communist affiliation); the enactment of a federal housing program; abolition of the poll tax; provision of "greater security against ill-health and old age (presumably through socialized medicine); and for duplication of TVA in Missouri and other parts of the country. Prior to his trip abroad, Wallace's tour had taken him into eight states where he addressed. Wherever he has gone he has been able to find enough people agreeing with him to fill whatever hall is available. Rochester is expected to prove no exception. The Sports Arena is expected to be filled to overflowing when Mr. Wallace makes his appearance here.

that "permissive taxes, set up by the state just have not worked and they will not work."

A large majority of the farm organization members are enrolled Republicans, many of them being Republican leaders in their own communities. The organization requested the Legislature to "make available the necessary state aid to meet educational needs."

Johnson has always been interested in Republican state politics and was once actively mentioned as a Republican candidate for the governorship.

Not only did he denounce the Dewey tax program, but in an open attack on his party's state leader during his talk to the teachers, Johnson said:

"It is hoped that the Legislature this coming year will throw off executive control and reflect the thought of the people, rather than the judgement of those whom they have put in high position and those who now attempt to formulate and carry through policies without consulting their creators."

Pointing out that his own Jefferson County, a "solidly Republican" area, had rejected "nuisance taxes," Johnson said the conclusion is unescapable.

"They simply do not want this kind of educational support," he added. "To give them something they do not want is, to my way of thinking, anything but home rule. The Governor and his able aides can probably make what sounds like a good case for the permissive taxes."

"It seems to make no difference how often the leader say this is the right way to handle the education matter how plausible they make it sound, the people have a different view, and in this post-war democracy which represents the foundation of the civilization which we have presented, the people know best. The combined thought of everyone is always better than the opinion of a group of men, no matter how able they may be."

PLANS MADE TO EXPAND AREA HOSTEL SERVICE

Plans for future expansion of hosteling in the Rochester area will be discussed at the American Youth Hostels fall assembly for western New York scheduled for next Tuesday at 88 p. m. in Monroe High School auditorium.

The idea of hosteling originated in European countries to afford young people of limited means the opportunity to travel about the country, usually by bicycle, without great expenditure. Huses, barns, and other countryside structures are set aside for their use as overnight cabins and as a place to cook their meals. A small fee is charged for the use of such accommodations.

Hosteling came to this country during the last decade and has made notable strides in appeal to the younger set. In addition to full vacation itineraries, clubs united in the movement plan overnight group trips.

Next Tuesday's program here will include a talk by William Keeler of the Rochester Police Dept. and presentation of a one-act play depicting hosteling life. The meeting is open to the public without admission charge and all interested groups and individuals are invited to attend.

Arrangements for free parking space in the Sears or Rebeck Co. parking lot have been made with officials of the store.

PHILHARMONIC MAKES FIRST TOUR OF SEASON

The Rochester Philharmonic Orchestra and its conductor, Erich Leinsdorf, will begin the first of their three concert tours this season on Tuesday, Dec. 9, at Colgate University.

The first tour will take the orchestra on successive days to Troy, Newburgh, Springfield, Mass., Dartmouth College and Kingston, N. Y., returning in time to start rehearsals for the Philharmonic concert in the Eastman on Dec. 18, when Sari Biro, young Hungarian pianist, will be soloist. She also will be soloist in two of the tour concerts, Dartmouth and Springfield.

The season's second tour is scheduled for March 12 to 21 and will take the orchestra to New York City for a concert in New York's famed Carnegie Hall, with Isaac Stern as soloist, then as far as Lynchburg, Va.

The orchestra will again take to the road March 29 and will include a swing through Pennsylvania and a concert at Cornell University. They will complete their tour on April 6.

EK SCIENTIST MAKES VISIBLE HUE ESTIMATE

How many separate colors can you distinguish with your own eyes in daylight?

Dr. David L. MacAdam, specializing in research on color vision at Kodak Research Laboratories, has obtained a new estimate which puts the figure in excess of 17,000.

He bases his estimate on the 17,000 distinct colors of equal brightness which are detectable when observations are made with a precise optical instrument. To this figure he adds the fact that, when large pieces of colored paper are observed with the naked eye, roughly 50 per cent more colors can be distinguished than by the finest optical lens.

Under dissimilar favorable conditions only about 500 distinct shades of gray — ranging from black to white — can be detected.

Dr. MacAdam said that when color is introduced, each shade of gray in the middle range of the scale of about 500 shades between black and white is expanded up to 17,000 times. The ultra-fine differences in color studied in the laboratory are known to scientists as "distinct chromaticities" — which are distinguishable features of color when brightness is disregarded.

POLKA . . .

While we are on the subject of Truman's Hooper and Gallup ratings, which way Harry is going to hop is becoming more clearly defined. He is going farther to the left. Republican conservatism so widely proclaimed as the savior of American enterprise during the last congressional elections is running a mighty poor second. It may have saved American enterprise but it sure put the bite on the family budget. The guy that's working for a living doesn't give a hoot about such phrases as "free enterprise," "America's rugged individualism," or "free competition" when it's costing him more to eat and live every day.

The Democrats know that and perhaps it's time the Republicans learned it. Truman will become a second F.D.R. He will champion the cause of the common man. He's going to be for the "pee-pul" for Labor, the little fellow and all the guys and gals making less than five thousand bucks a year. All of which takes in about 95 per cent of the population. It doesn't take a college education to know that the five per cent earning five G's or more haven't got enough votes to elect any president.

Democratic strategy will be to pin a few smelly cabbages on big business. There will be a number of anti-trust suits and charges against cartels and monopolists. This will make just as nice reading to an irritated electorate as was the Republican generated odors on the Unions and their "shenanigans."

If you are one of those trusting souls that think that our Congress is going to industriously work for our interests and the reduction of living costs or that President Truman really thinks that he can get half of what he wants — dismiss such idle dreaming.

For many months to come both the Democrats and Republicans are going to be too busy lining things up for the next election. The people are going to have to wait.

It's going to be embarrassing for presidential candidate Thomas E. Dewey if he chooses to toss any brick-bats at the federal budget. His own for the fiscal year 1948 will be $700,000,000. Highest in history.

Thomas E. has become mighty mum about the Dewey "surplus." It's G.W.T.W.

Senator Bob Taft wished he hadn't said "as Kentucky goes so goes the nation" just before the recent Kentucky election. Earle C. Clements, Democrat, scooted in on a comfortable 100,000 plurality, much to Senator Taft's embarrassment, no doubt.

CAPITOL BILLS ROMANTIC COMEDY AND WESTERN

Unexpected romance between an ambitious young man from the big city and the belle of a small town has a startling effect on the little community and its populace, motivating the action of the romantic comedy, "Magic Town" in which James Stewart and Jane Wyman are co-stars.

"Magic Town" is the Capitol's main feature on the new program opening today.

As the companion feature the Capitol offers another new musical-western, this one in Tricolor, for its first Rochester showing. Monte Hale and Adrian Booth are co-stars. Foy Willing and the Riders Of The Purple Sage are in support.

BING, BARRY TEAMED AGAIN

Bing Crosby and Barry Fitzgerald are to be teamed in another picture for Paramount. This time Barry will play a cop in a small Irish town, while Bing portrays a representative of an insurance company, who goes to the town to investigate a theft but poses as an artist while working on the case.

HOPE IS BACK — Secret panels 'n' everything is Bob Hope's new comedy, "Where There's Life," currently showing at the Century. Signe Hasso and William Bendix are also starred. Hope is trying to prove a point to the doubting Bendix in this scene from the show.

Bob Hope Cast As Disc Jockey In New Film

Get your laugh insurance paid up, folks—Bob Hope's in town in his newest Paramount picture, "Where There's Life," at the Century Theatre, where it arrived yesterday, found Bob's exploits and antics hilariously funny. This time Hope has for his leading lady, the lovely blonde Signe Hasso who shares the featured spotlight with William Bendix and George Soursouris.

Hope is seen as a disk jockey and the things that happen to him never happened to any disk jockey you ever heard of! Bob has a slew of adventures, every one of them a riot and all adding up to a wealth of laughs.

Hope's troubles come about because he is mistaken for the son of the King of Barovia, which country is on the brink of being taken over by the Fascist Mordia who have just shot the King. That worthy gentleman confesses to his number one general (none other than the lovely Miss Hasso) that he has a son in America who goes by the name of Michael Valentine. Since Hope also goes by

Gary Cooper, Paulette Co-starred In 'Unconquered'

It has been three years since Cecil B. DeMille released a motion picture. One of the main reasons for this is that so much time and research is put into each of his productions. His latest masterpiece, "Unconquered" which co-stars Gary Cooper and Paulette Goddard had its Rochester premiere at the Regent Theatre yesterday. Rochester has been included in the list of twelve cities in the United States to have a pre-release showing of this Technicolor production which is a thrilling pictorial re-creation of the pre-Revolutionary days in the Alleghenies when Fort Pitt—now the important steel city of Pittsburgh—was the white man's outpost in a wilderness of hostile Indians.

It tells the exciting story of a Virginia militiaman (Cooper) and an English bond slave (Miss Goddard) and how they became inextricably involved with each other and with the fate of Fort Pitt.

BISON SPORTS SHOW TO HAVE LORE EXPERT

The Campbell-Fairbanks Exposition of Boston and New York announced today, through the offices of Adam F. Eby & Associates, that they have arranged for the appearance of Mary Vandenberg at Buffalo's Fifth Annual Sportsmen's and Boat Show which will be held in Buffalo Memorial Auditorium April 17 through 25 1948.

Miss Vandenberg is an internationally recognized authority on American Indian Lore and Handicraft. Dressed in a hand-mode authentic Indian Costume—the result of painstaking workmanship—with leather beads, feathers, etc., Miss Vandenberg takes one back to the days when the Indians roamed the plains without fear of White Man.

A member of the Wisconsin Archeological Society and a student of Indian custom, dress, language and songs, Miss Vandenberg presents both an accurate and entertaining recitation of authentic Indian folklore, tribal songs and dances.

Inside Hollywood

News comes that Walt Disney is going back to all-cartoon feature films. After using live characters for a few years, Disney now finds that not all of his subjects are suitable for such treatment. So, the studio has decided against a live Alice in the forthcoming "Alice in Wonderland." Anne Carter, 11-year-old actress, will speak the lines, but the actual character will be drawn by Disney artists.

When Harold E. Stassen, former Governor of Minnesota and announced candidate for the Republican presidential nomination was in Hollywood, he made a test at Metro, not for a part in a film, but only to see how he photographs, how his voice sounds and whether his gestures are too "hammy." Not a bad idea for a few others.

If you were had the idea that the life of a movie star is glamorous, ask Ann Southern. "Nuts she says. 'Kissing scenes fun?' They're terrible, she says. 'You have to powder your lips so you won't get lipstick all over the actor. Then you get powder down your throat and you're miserable.'"

Well, the stork is really doing business in Hollywood these days. Among those expecting a visit or having recently had a visit from the stork are: Betty Hutton, Dinah Shore, Deborah Kerr, Eleanor Parker and Mmes. Dana Andrews, Kay Kyser, Macdonald Carey, Red Skelton, Van Johnson, Robert Ryan, Richard Conte, Alexander Knox, John Payne and Burt Lancaster. This year's mothers include: Bette Davis, Betty Grable, Jeanne Crain, Anita Louise, Mona Freeman, Barbara Hale, Mrs. Dick Hayes and Mrs. Lou Costello.

Robert Taylor and Ava Gardner are set to co-star for Metro in Louis Bromfield's story "What Vinnie Knew." The story is about a returned flyer who organized his own airline.

Audie Murphy is to be tested for the baby-faced killer in "Knock On Any Door." By the way, Audie, as you most probably know, joined the Army at 188 and came out with 17 decorations. On returning home from the war, he took his two sisters and a brother out of an orphanage and bought a home for them and his older married sister in Texas. He's still supporting the three children.

All the songsters are busy making records, trying to beat the Dec. 31 deadline set by Mr. Petrillo. Al Jolson is recording 40 songs and Oscar Levant will be off the Music Hall broadcast for a week while he goes east for recordings with the Philadelphia and New York Philharmonic orchestras.

Wallace Berry is one Hollywood actor who vows he'll never retire. Asked if he would ever call a halt on his 35-year-film career, the actor replied, "Naw, I'll just go on acting till I drop." He plans to do a picture a year and spend the rest of the time travelling or at his ranch.

When "Call Me Mister" reaches the screen, all there will be of the original story will be the little and the music that was in the play. It will have an entirely new story and an all-star cast including Betty Grable, Jeanne Crain, Linda Darnell, June Haver, Jean Peters not to overlook Tyrone Power and Rex Harrison.

Six veterans have banded together to bring public dancing open particularly to the younger set back to the city. They call themselves the "Merry Jacks" and claim the are doing it for the benefit of "the young people of Rochester who like to dance." All are employed during the daytime and say that any profit derived from their dances will be used for "bigger and better" dances.
Currently they are staging a series of Tuesday evening dances in Carpenter Hall on Fitzhugh St. N. The dances are open to the public.

The neon tycoon rose nicely to the occasion, still plugging his art, but on a new, high scale. "I'd like," said Leigh, "to take a good-sized dirigible, light it on one side with 'The House Of Morgan' and on the other with 'Standard Oil' and fly the darn thing over Red Square on May Day."
Chester has the dubious honor of creating a world's record by rolling in 11, yes, ELEVEN, bowling leagues each week. Here is his weekly schedule:
Sunday — 11 a. m., 5:30 p. m.
Monday — 9:30 p. m.
Tuesday — 1, 8, 10 p. m. (There is a rough day.)
Wednesday — 11:30 a. m., 7:30 p. m.
Thursday — 7:30, 9:30 p. m.
Friday — 10 p. m.
"And on the seventh day, he rested!"
If the cost of living has spared way beyond your pay increases he consoled by the thought that a man worth ten million dollars is no happier than a man worth nine millions. Which may prove that money does not always bring happiness.
Douglas Leigh, the ubiquitous sign king who is responsible for most of the spectacular displays in the country is a man suffering from a suppressed desire.
Leigh recently addressed the Advertising Women's Club of New York City and told the admen how he happened to get into the business and how he had built some of his more famous jobs. At the finish of his address, the chairlady asked Leigh about his future plans and ambitions—what he would most like to do from here on in.

Clipp is general manager of station WFIL in Philadelphia and is not an official of the network. It is true that he is vice-chairman of the planning and advisory committee but that committee is made up of independent radio station operators affiliated with ABC and, as a committee, represents independent operators in dealings with the network. It is interesting to learn that, despite Brown's charges that Clipp is an ABC network official, the Philadelphia station operator owns an interest in WKST in Newcastle, Pa., which happens to be a Mutual system outlet.

Nativity Questioned
Whether or not a station's stockholders are native born Rochesterians or had the misfortune to be born elsewhere appears to make little difference to the average radio listener. As long as he can dial his favorite programs, he is satisfied.

But if the nativity of a station's stockholders is of great importance, as Brown seems to think, WARC will still be accepted by local radio listeners. Research into the ownership of the new station outlet reveals that more than half the stock is owned by Rochesterians, Samuel W. Townsend, station manager, together with Mrs. Townsend, who obviously lives here in town with her husband, and Stewart Frame, one of Rochester's better-known businessmen together own 60 percent of WARC stock, according to the record. The balance is owned by Clipp.

Townsend didn't happen to be born in Rochester. Neither were several other business leaders of the city. It has learned however, that Townsend would like to become even more of a Rochesterian than he is now—he is trying to buy a house in the city and has been since he came to town last May.

20 Years in Industry
Delving into Townsend's background, it is learned that he has been actively associated with the radio broadcasting industry as station manager, owner and operator since 1927 except for the years he served in the United States Navy. He left his post as operator of station WKST in Newcastle and joined the Navy in May, 1941, before Pearl Harbor, and served with the naval forces for four-and-a-half years. He is presently a Captain in the U. S. Naval Reserve.

Like the promoters and operators of WVET, Townsend got the idea for a Rochester station in 1943 when WHAM shifted to the National Broadcasting Co. This left Rochester without an ABC affiliate. Townsend, seeing the opportunity, applied to the Federal Communication Commission for a license in November, 1943, and was granted his license early this year.

From time to time WSAY has carried several ABC programs, but never as a regular network affiliate.

Refused To Sign
Brown claims that this was because of the network's refusal to enter into a standard affiliation contract with him. However he did admit, in his Thursday air message that the networks at one time offered his station a network contract. Brown claimed he decided that "the contract offered him would make him a tool of the powerful network radio interests and refused to accede to the networks' demands and restrictive clauses."

In testimony before the Federal Communications Commission it was brought out by the attorney for WSAY that at the time the testimony was taken ABC could not enter into a standard affiliation contract with WSAY. A network official explained that all previous efforts to reconcile the differences between their contract terms and Brown's own ideas having failed, the network had given up the attempt and was looking for another outlet in the city.

According to William B. Maillefert, president of WVET, the city's new Mutual outlet, Brown is getting from the network "just the treatment he deserves." Maillefert claims that Brown never did have a signed affiliation contract with Mutual—the two parties working on an oral agreement basis which, says Maillefert, gave both the opportunity of cancelling upon 30-days notice. Maillefert says that it is Brown's attitude that prevented regular contractual relations with the network.

Charges Rate Jump
Testimony before Federal Judge Alfred C. Cox earlier this month Leon Lauterstein, counsel for Mutual, told the judge that WSAY, as the only independent station in Rochester until recently, had jumped its hourly rate in 1943 from $180 to $280 while Columbia's Rochester station (WHEC) receives $175. Lauterstein told the judge that Mutual had contracted with WVET to broadcast at $175 an hour.

While Brown's suit is directed against all four networks, his air attack last Thursday evening was confined largely to his fight with ABC. Local radio circles believe he purposely "laid off" WVET because of its strong connection with war veterans. A majority of the stockholders and operators are veterans, many of them being Rochester natives.

What the outcome of all the litigation will be remains to be seen. Meanwhile, for the first time in history, Rochester radio listeners can tune all major networks into their homes through local stations. In addition they are serviced by WRNY and WSAY with local programs which appear to be filling an important spot.

Brown has announced "expansion plans" for WSAY but what direction this might take could not be learned.

Family Jailed For Son's Crimes
Tampa, Fla. — An entire family, — two boys, their mother and stepfather — was given prison sentence for safe burglaries by the teen-aged youths. The boys Robert Hayes, 16, and his brother, 17, were sentenced to three years for cracking two safes. Mr. and Mrs. Leon Hayes for receiving part of the loot were sentenced to one year each from the safes.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

They talk about a "police shake-up" again. Rochester frequently indulges in such idle talk. "So and so must go." "Good of the service" and similarly empty phrases are batted about in the breeze. Coppers themselves are usually undisturbed.

Police shake-ups in our village usually mean that someone is in the way and a couple of boys get retired, a few more are kicked upstairs into another salary bracket and a half dozen politician's pets are moved a little closer to the top of the ladder.

No wrists are slapped, no nasty remarks are made and every body winds up just as palisewise as before.

Office phones have been ringing all week about ash collections. This ward hasn't had trash removed in ten days and that one hasn't seen the ash gang in two weeks. Apparently a great many are "buried up" about it but not sufficiently so to vote against the administration which is responsible.

Gus Wagener, who stated the other day that plows are poised in all parts of the city just itching to descend in force on any reasonably large congregation of snow flakes had better check some of these trucks that push the plows.

Our men in the know report that most of them haven't any batteries, either to get 'em started or keep 'em running.

The good Dr. Moss who is always feeling political pulses announced this week that George Rogers would oppose Ken Keating for Congress next fall. This surprise diagnosis probably has a great many aspirants running a high temperature.

Whether or not the jovial congressman will shove off his newly nurtured mustache and run is still somewhat of a question.

It's about time for Arch Merrill to check the files to find the ten most photographed faces of the year. The betting is six two and even that vice-mayor Van Lare will win the nomination for 1947's "lense louse" number one.

Assemblyman Joe Bentley is back in circulation which may or may not remove the necessity for a special election.

Political prognosticators assure us that Raymond J. (Judge) Lee of Perinton will be named to the chairmanship of the Board of Supervisors when Carl Bausch steps down.

Such good judgment would be rare in GOP circles.

"Wasting a lot of breath making time on a treadmill," h'tat's what one Republican leader has to say about Dewey, Taft, Stassen and others who are eagerly pressing their respective candidacies for the presidential nominations.

What happens at the national convention depends largely on how strong the polls show Harry Truman to be in June.

If Harry is only "medium strong" Tom Dewey has a good chance. If Truman is a double "A" threat they may have to pull one out of the hat and grab Eisenhower although they would prefer a more experienced politician or a man they "could handle."

Little interest is being displayed in Bobby Taft or his chances no matter what the June score is on Truman.

The state legislators are going to have "a time" giving themselves a pay hike. Last week each senator and assemblyman received an appeal from 67,000 civil service employees that pulled few punches. They (See POLKA Page 9)

Wallace Rally Adds Actors

When former Vice-President Henry A. Wallace steps out onto the Sports Arena platform on the evening of Dec. 16, he is almost certain to face a crowded house.

But whether the crowd will be these mainly to hear Wallace expound his political theories, or to enjoy the offerings of two top-notch entertainers, is not quite so certain.

This week the Rochester Chapter of the Progressive Citizens of America revealed that Zero Mostel, internationally renowned comedian of radio and night-club fame, and Kenneth Spencer, Rochester-trained Negro baritone of stage and radio, will appear here with Wallace.

Why the additional entertainment is offered alongside the Wallace speech has not been explained, but observers find, in the billing, a clue as to how Wallace has been able to command such large audiences elsewhere in the country during his current speaking tour. Whether or not Mostel and Spencer are regular members of the Wallace troupe has not been revealed, but it is believed that other important entertainers have augmented the Wallace speech at other stops.

In addition to Wallace, Mostel and Spencer, the Rev. Stephen H. Frichtman, minister, author and editor, will also appear on (See WALLACE Page 9)

TO HELP SANTA REMEMBER — Helping Santa to remember those who might otherwise be forgotten is the annual task of the Christmas Bureau which aids in distribution of gifts to the needy. Cross checking their files to avoid duplicate are these five workers in the bureau. Seated are Mrs. Howard W. Hall, executive secretary; and Mrs. James F. Mangano, office chairman. Standing (from the left) Mrs. Joseph S. Gray, office assistant; Mrs. Hugh E. Cummings, union League volunteer, and Mrs. George A. Cunningham, office assistant.

Santa Bureau Remembers The 'Forgotten'

The Christmas Bureau of Rochester and Monroe County 25 years old this December, is again hard at work serving as consultant and aide to Santa Claus in bringing Christmas cheer to families who otherwise might be overlooked by Santa.

Toys for children whose own parents can't provide them; gifts for invalids and shut-ins; elderly men and women and lonely folks who have no one to remember them at holiday time, are the chief beneficiaries of the bureau. It is an invaluable counselor to generous people who know that their own Christmas jobs are multiplied as they are shared with the less fortunate.

The bureau maintains a centralized and confidential file through which individual donors may "clear" the names of those whom they wish to remember, so that duplications may be avoided. Individuals, churches, industrial employe groups, schools, clubs, and similar organizations make general use of this service in (See BUREAU Page 8)

Pinnacle Battle Breaks Out Anew

That victory celebrations by members of the Pinnacle Association earlier in the fall had been premature became evident this week when officials of Stromberg-Carlson Co. began a renewal of their efforts to locate a television and FM transmitter station and tower in the Pinnacle Hill area.

TEN WINNERS NAMED IN SUN PRIZE CONTEST

Mrs. Warren K. Dill of 100 Tremont St. is the winner of the major prize of ten dollars in the first December drawing for Sun sustaining subscribers.

Each week the Sun conducts a drawing of ten winners to share in cash prizes from among its sustaining subscribers who paid their carrier ten cents a month for regular delivery of the Sun.

Here is the complete list of winners and their prizes for this week:

1st prize, $10, Mrs. Warren K. Dill, 100 Tremont St.; 2nd prize, $5, Mrs. John Barth, 99 Jackson St.; 3rd prize, $3, Mrs. Geo. Schulte, 11 Athens St.; 4th through 10th, $1 each, Mrs. D. Miller, 33 Qdinary St.; Mrs. W. R. Malley, 270 Keeler St.; Mrs. F. Copenhagen, 93 Delamaine Dr.; Mrs. John Fogarty, 54 Hillendale St.; Mrs. R. S. Laird, 281 Farmington Rd.; Mrs. Stella Wagner, 340 Haywar Ave. and Mrs. L. Willis, 287 Kenwood Ave.

Prizes will be mailed to the winners.

One important difference was apparent between the company's battle strategy last summer when they wound up in defeat before their Zoning Board of Appeals and their current efforts to gain permission for the proposed construction of officials of the radio and the phone manufacturing concern have absorbed a lot of expert professional public relations advice since their summer campaign.

Whereas last July the company had quietly petitioned the Zoning Board of Appeals to change two lots on Pinnacle Hill facing Pinnacle Road from Class A residential to Class C Commercial after visiting a few property owners in the area with their story, this time they were taking their story to the city at large. And whereas main emphasis in the summer fight had been placed on the FM facilities, now, with television increasingly in the news, company officials were stressing that angle of the construction.

When the company's plans were first revealed last summer a holocaust of opposition was stirred up among residents of the adjacent area. A spirited "letters-to-the-editor" campaign and several meetings of property owners in the section finally resulted in the turning down of the Stromberg-Carlson request. As an offshoot of the zoning fight, residents revived the long-dormant Pinnacle Association to "further the interests of the area's residents." (See PINNACLE Page 8)

"You are sentencing me to death."

Boston's Mayor James Curley to the judge last June upon being sentenced to 6 to 18 months in prison for mail fraud.

"I feel ten years younger and I'm ready to take up where I left off when I went away."

The same Mayor Curley upon his release from jail last week.

after serving 5 months.

Too bad Curley was such a poor prophet, eh? And isn't it odd jail life had such an opposite effect on Amerigo Antonelli? He's the guy Attorney General Tom Clark had sprung after 5 or 6 months because "Antonelli allegedly was so ill he might die in jail."

HIGH LIVING COSTS SQUEEZE DISABLED VETS

In all the welter of talk, promised and threatened action, plans and praise of plans for combating the high cost of living little has been done to relieve the one segment of the population which is hardest hit of all.

Those are the people living on fixed incomes — with many of the incomes fixed back in the days when prices were half, and in some cases less than half today's costs. Many of those thus caught are trying to eke out a living from fixed incomes because of their service to their country in time of war.

Take the disabled veterans, for example. Crippled by the ravages of war, in many cases unable to earn a living for themselves, they have had to take what the government gives them. And the government has set rates for compensation which, in many cases, do not adequately take care of rising living costs.

This week a plea in their behalf was raised by John L. Golob, national commander of the Disabled American Veterans, who pointed out that rising food and living costs are jeopardizing the welfare of America's war disabled veterans and their families. He appealed for dependency allowances for wives and children of handicapped ex-servicemen. Speaking before the 52nd national convention of the Jewish War Veterans in St. Paul, Golob said DAV service officers throughout the nation are being flooded with requests from disabled veterans to reopen their compensation rating claims in hope of obtaining increased benefits.

All Time High
"Living costs have hit an all time high," Golob said, "and as a result the disabled veteran and his family that rely to a great extent on fixed government compensation are being forced to greatly reduce their standards of living which at best is not too good."

"DAV service officers throughout the United States are being flooded with requests from disabled veterans to reopen their case files in hope of obtaining increased compensation from the government. Even veterans with total disability are seeking additional aid—for these men who are drawing total disability benefits of $138.00 per month can barely support a family with living costs as high as they are."

The DAV Commander pointed out that although compensation rates were increased 20 per cent last year, food costs have risen more than 97 per cent since 1941 and the overall cost of living has risen more than 57 per cent.

Asks New Law
Golob urged immediate passage of a congressional bill—HR-

2716—that would provide dependency allowances to disabled veterans to ease their present plight.

"Because he cannot work," Golob said, "a totally disabled veteran must depend entirely on his compensation from the government. Those who are partially disabled can only count on a limited income from employment."

"The system of family allotment was recognized by the government when a man was in service. Now that he is disabled his family must not be overlooked or neglected."

COUNTY SEAL
SALE HITS $5000
IN FIRST WEEK

Returns during the first week of the annual Christmas Seal Sale conducted by the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Rochester and Monroe County hit the $5,000 mark according to figures compiled by Mrs. James B. Woodruff, Brighton, Christmas Seal sale chairman. The sale opened with the mail delivery of seals to 24,000 residents of the county outside the city and will continue until Christmas Day.
Occurring each year during the month before Christmas, the sale is the only appeal made by the Tuberculosis and Health Association for funds to finance its tuberculosis prevention and control program in the county.
"The first week's returns represent 17 percent of the 1947 goal of $29,000," Mrs. Woodruff said. The quota is based on estimated operating expenses for 1948, when seal sale funds will be used to support not only the tuberculosis prevention and control program of the county health committee but also education on eye conservation, the social diseases, heart disease, rheumatic fever and nutrition.
"Although the sale will continue until Christmas, it is extremely helpful to the association and to the post office, if returns are made early, before the heavy rush of Christmas mail begins," Mrs. Woodruff said. "We are grateful to those who send in their contributions promptly."

PINNACLE . . .

When the board denied the company's request it was predicted that another effort to get the zone change approval from the board would be made "when things cooled off." Apparently the cooling off period is about over.

This time, the company is not going to attempt to push things through in a hurry. It appears to have launched a long-term campaign to "sell" the city at large on:

- 1—The desirability of having an FM and television sending station atop the city's highest hill;
- 2—The danger that the city will be bi-passed in television wave length allocations if it does not allow the construction of the tower on the Pinnacle site;
- 3—The absurdity of Pinnacle residents' fears that such construction would mar the beauty of the area or reduce property values in nearby streets.

From the facts that have already emerged, it could be seen that the city would now give the company its support which was surprisingly withheld during the summer battle. Last week City Manager Cartwright, made the politically wise move of appointing a "television expert" to advise him and, presumably, to find that television's progress would be impeded locally unless Stromberg-Carlson is allowed to go forward with the plans once turned down by the city. With the expert, the city administration would escape the wrath directed toward it in the pre-election fight.

Second step in the campaign to "soften up" the public was a letter to the editor of the Democrat & Chronicle, released just two days after the appointment of the city television aide, in which Lee McCanne, vice-president and general manager of Stromberg-Carlson Company broadly hinted that the channel which he said is now being reserved by the Federal Communications Commission for later assignment to small communities, may be lost to Rochester unless the city speeds up construction.

"Members of the commission," reported McCanne upon his return from an FCC hearing in Washington, "expressed impatience with cities that are slow in getting started, and indicated that their channels may be reassigned to nearby cities and towns on a first-come, first-served basis."

McCanne thought it might be a good idea to erect a television "Antonelli was so ill he might die in jail."

lower right in a public park, if necessary. But even the newspapers, in later editorials disagreed with that proposition.

After laying his groundwork, McCanne finally got around to the "meat" of the letter.

"The commission," he said, "knows there has been a controversy in Rochester over a possible site for television and may well think television is stymied here, but if someone can find a site and make application soon for even one of our three channels, that should keep faith with the Commission and hold the others for us."

Then McCanne put the issue up to the public at large with the meaningful question, "Does Rochester want television?" He was sure the answer would be "yes." And every reader of his letter was sure he had gotten across his point, viz:

If Rochester is to have television it must have a tower on Pinnacle Hill.

In order to prove the absurdity of residents' claims that the construction would depreciate the surrounding property, McCanne lightly passed over the transmitter station construction at the base of the hill saying that the proposed "home-like ranch house" would give the stations two technical operators per shift a place to garage their cars and go to and from work without risking the climb in any weather on a road to be built up the hillside.

What the next move might be is a matter of conjecture. But it is certain that another flurry of letters to the editor from Pinnacle Hill area residents is in the making.

BUREAU . . .

Social agencies in the family and health field also turn over to the bureau the names of hundreds of families and individuals whose needs are known. From funds contributed by holiday-minded Rochesterians, the bureau supplies gifts. A mother may be, and generally is, given money to buy toys; rising prices, in 1947, have boosted the cost of these toys to an average of one dollar. An elderly couple may be treated to a trip to the movies.

Because the agencies know what the people want and need, their recommendations are followed. Generally speaking, no attempt is made to give presents of food and clothing. For women, toilet articles, potted plants, playing cards, have high preference rating. For men, it's neckties, handkerchiefs, pipes and tobacco, and the like.

If this year follows the 1946 pattern, an estimated 2,300 families and individuals will be registered by organizations, individuals, and social agencies. Christmas cheer distributed in 1946, by the Bureau itself and by co-operating groups, included 532 Christmas baskets; 507 "goodie" baskets, many of them prepared by Girl Scout troops; and special gifts to 887 persons.

They complained of "shabby" treatment and spoke of the state's moral responsibility as an employer in demanding a "living wage." They contend rightfully that "adjustments" of 30 per cent in the lower brackets and 1 per cent in the upper do not compare with industrial wage gains.

"Adjustments" in most cases since 1939 have not equalled more than 27 per cent, yet the cost of living index has risen 66 per cent.
Faced with the biggest budget in the history of the Empire State and new or increased tax levies certainly there are a great many far thinking citizens who think its high time Governor Dewey took his frozen surplus out of deep freeze.

VAUDEVILLE GAVE BOB HOPE EARLY START

Vaudeville and burlesque, now both shells of their former lusty selves, served as incubators for more comic talent than any other training ground in stage history.

One of vaudeville's most famous alumni is Bob Hope, whose latest Paramount comedy, "Where There's a Lift," is currently delighting audiences at the Century Theatre. Hope came up the hard way. He first got his foot on the ladder one night in Newcastle, Indiana. He was doing a blackface routine, singing in a quartet, playing with the band as a saxophonist and doing a soft-shoe number in a dancing act. And, as if that weren't enough to keep a normal man busy, the manager of the theatre asked him if he wouldn't announce the next week's bill to the audience.

Bob decided to give the customers their money's worth. He not only told the audience that Marshall Walker and his Whiz Bang Revue were due to roar into town the following week, but tossed in a few Scotch jokes for good measure. The audience laughed often and loud and Hope decided it was high time he became a solo act.

He played everything from neighborhood houses to private parties until he felt he was ready. Then he moved over to the Big Time and went up like a rocket. Vaudeville took him inevitably to Broadway, and Hollywood promptly snatched him away.

ERIN TENOR TO BE FEATURED AT 'IRISH' CONCERT

John Feeney, eminent Irish tenor, will be soloist in an Irish Night "Pop" Concert sponsored by the Knights of Equity and the Civic Music Association on Sunday, Dec. 7.

Guy Frazer Harrison will conduct the Civic Orchestra in a program of traditional Irish music, with Eileen Malone as harp soloist.

Feeney, a native of Swinford, County Mayo, grew up in the heart of age-old folklore, where song was a part of the daily life. Instinctively he loved the Gaelic ballads and sought to learn all there was to know about the tradition of his native heath. Today he is a master exponent of the musical lore of Ireland.

Feeney was a great friend and admirer of the late John McCormack and today is a frequent visitor at the home of James McCormack, brother of the singer, in Ardmore, Pa. Feeney became acquainted with James shortly after his arrival in this country and later was invited to the McCormack home and gives access to the impressive music library. He studied and practiced there, with James McCormack, who also was a trained tenor but not an aspirant to the concert stage, and who later accompanied Feeney on the latter's concert tour of Ireland and England.

In a previous Rochester appearance, the tenor received a most warm reception from audience and critics.

Safety Rules Outlined For Winter Driving

Ames, Ia., (Special) — Professor Ralph A. Moyer of Iowa State College, a national authority on highway engineering and safety, today made public a formula for safe winter driving. It is based on thousands of actual tests on snow and ice.

Briefing tips from scientific research of eight winters, the fundamental rules for safe driving under adverse road and weather conditions follow:

- Fundamental Rules
1. Get the "feel" of the road on starting out.
 2. Adjust speed to weather, road conditions.
 3. Slow down well in advance of intersections, curves.
 4. Use tire chains when snow or ice prevail.
 5. Keep windshield free of snow, ice, fog and frost.
 6. Follow vehicles at safer distances. Signal intent of turns or stops.
 7. Apply brakes with a gentle pumping action on glare ice.

Prof. Moyer, whom contemporaries have called "a research man who never talks or wets his pen until he has carefully determined the facts," is chairman of the National Safety Council's Committee on Winter Driving Hazards. The committee, made up of 22 leaders in automotive transportation, traffic engineering, safety education and law enforcement includes such men as Tom Carmichael, experimental engineer of General Motors Proving Grounds; Fred Lautzenheiser of International Harvester Trucks, and H. V. Larson of Four Wheel Drive Auto Co.

Some of the new facts follow: Traffic death rates during winter are 24 to 33 percent higher than summer in northern half of country, and 5 to 33 percent higher in southern half. Major factors producing these higher accident rates are INADEQUATE TRACTION and REDUCED VISIBILITY. Poor traction is primarily due to snow and ice and, to a lesser extent, to wetness. Bad visibility involves more darkness and snow, frost or steam-covered windshields.

Test Explode Fallacies
Braking distances increase 3 to 12 times on snow or ice. The committee found that many drivers place false reliance on traction of "non-skid" tire treads on snow or ice. Tests showed good treads are highly desirable because they do help considerably on wet surfaces, but even new treads offer no advantages on packed snow or ice. Tests also proved that "rubber chains," which reappeared on the market last year, actually skid farther than bare tires on ice. Many drivers also have misplaced confidence in reducing tire air pressure below normal to provide extra traction on ice. Tests showed there is no safety aid in this reduction, and it wears out tires fast.

Concerning winter equipment for improving traction on snow or ice, tests were made of tire chains and sanders.

Self Help Necessary

Steel tire chains were shown to be helpful for improving traction on snow or ice. On rear wheels only, they reduced passenger car braking distances grades.

Regarding sanders, used on some commercial vehicles, committee tests showed their stopping effectiveness limited. While easy to operate, tests showed three of four widely used grits actually increased braking distance on ice. Even the best grit did not get under tires sufficiently to help more than 5 to 10 per cent when brakes were locked. Maximum aid with sanders was attained by skillful pumping of brakes and gearing down which reduced distance about 30 per cent.

Adequate windshield defrosters, wipers and other visibility equipment are vital, the committee found. You must see or cease driving.

Dual Solution

The committee has distributed a report entitled "Winter Accident Prevention" to all city and state officials, describing better methods for both snow removal and self-help by individual drivers. It declares experience in snow-belt states show that realistic winter safety is a dual problem involving both winter road maintenance and insistence that vehicle operators who must drive during severe conditions be properly equipped to get through and follow fundamental winter driving rules. Repeated storms often soon after road clearance make it apparent that plowing or sanding at all times and all locations is not possible. Because accidents and traffic tie-ups seriously delay snow removal operations, several states after thorough studies of the problem, adopted winter regulations empowering state and local police to stop vehicles unequipped with tire chains during severe snow and ice conditions, until roads have been cleared. It was found that such policies reduced accidents and traffic tieups. Before such regulations roads were long tied up by stalled or wrecked vehicles, and those properly equipped were unable to move and snow removal crews were seriously delayed.

HEALTH GROUP SETS UP NEW AREA PROJECT

A new neighborhood health project in the northeast section of the city was inaugurated this week by the Tuberculosis and Health Association of Rochester and Monroe County at a special luncheon held at the Y. M. C. A. This is the third neighborhood in the city in which the association is intensifying its efforts as a part of a general plan of developing neighborhood health.
Mrs. F. Ritter Shumway, president at the meeting and spoke of the activities of the Tuberculosis and Health Association in two other neighborhood areas. She stressed the fact that the Neighborhood Health Plan was devised to bring health education directly to the people and is designed to meet some of the health needs in a modern way. "This plan of bringing health messages direct to the home has been universally approved," she said.
Total program of the association was outlined by Miss Marie Goulett, Executive Secretary, who informed the group that the Tuberculosis and Health Association is the official representative of the American Heart Association, the American Social Hygiene Association as well as the National Tuberculosis Association.
Marion J. Wetrick, neighborhood health secretary reported on the organization set up in the westside neighborhood three years ago. She described the neighborhood block representation plan, and expressed the belief that such a plan of house-to-house visit would also be successful and beneficial in the northeast section.
Present at yesterday's meeting with the Tuberculosis and Health Association and assisting in the planning for the new health project were: Milton Priddis, principal of School No. 11; Mrs. Caroline Brown, principal of School No. 33; Mrs. Roy E. VanDelinder, pres. PTA School No. 11; the Rev. Frank Fisher, St. Mark's and St. John's Episcopal Church; Mrs. Lewis Boyce, executive board department of volunteers; the Rev. Roy Morphy, Corpus Christi Church; the Rev. Charles Bollinger, Spencer Ripley Methodist Church; Mrs. Homer Smith, volunteer hospital worker; Wanda Pestke, supervisor of nurses, Rochester Health Bureau; Frank Ashton, 18th Ward Business Men's Association; Norman Kreckman, councilman-at-large; Joseph P. MacSweeney, president of the association; Dr. George Bantleon Dr. Heffernan and Mrs. F. Ritter Shumway.

TEN MEN NEEDED TO LIFT 700 LB. WOMAN
Joliet, Ill. — It took seven men, including ten policemen, to move Mrs. Elizabeth Ebner, 70, from her bed to a hospital. Mrs. Ebner, who weighs 700 pounds has been bedridden for twenty years. A few days ago she fell out of bed and broke her hip. Unable to place her in an ambulance, the men placed her on a casket cart and took her to the hospital in a hearse. She was placed in two hospital beds, which had been bolstered up with lumber.

Jokers' Prank Pleases Speeders
Evanston, Ind. — Traffic officials, horrified when motorists openly flouted 30-mile-an-hour speed zones by whizzing through them at an 80-mile-an-hour clip, investigated and found that pranksters, with a deft hand at printing, had neatly converted the 30-mile-an-hour signs into 80-miles-an-hour signs.

$53,000 LIQUOR CACHE FOUND IN CAVE
Guthrie, Okla. — A bootlegger's cave loaded with $53,000 worth of illicit alcoholic treasure was discovered by a dry squad after they had played All Bets for six hours before finding the necessary "open sesame." The charm was a hidden valve that moved a concealed hydraulic lift in the straw-littered floor of a leased barn. The shaft led to a 12-foot deep, 20-by-40-foot cement vault which held the 496 cases of whiskey.

7-Year Old 'Errand' Boy Willed $10,000
Union Center, Wis. — Ronny Markee, 7, received dividends for his kindnesses to Mrs. Effie Mcnamara for whom he ran errands. Mrs. Mcnamara's will, recently filed, divided her $22,000 estate in half, one share going to Ronny and the other to the caretaker of her home.

Radio Digest

RADIO DAILY: "Crime Photographer," "Big Town" and "The Gene Autry Show" were all renewed for 52 weeks. General Eisenhower is slated to make a radio address in January regarding his availability for the Presidency. CBS will drop the Sunday hidden after January 1 unless non-sponsoring products are handed out without identification. Rudy Vallee makes his bow as a commentator on Mutual beginning December 12. Soup sponsor has renewed Bob Crosby and his troupe for another 13 weeks on "Club 15" heard five times weekly on CBS. CBS has added four new stations to its network bringing the total to 171 affiliates. BILLBOARD: The Jack Paar show on ABC will be up for sale at less than half of its current $16,000 budget since its tobacco sponsor cancelled it after last night show. Story teller John Nesbitt launches a new show on Mutual after the first of the year. The "Hit Parade" show is looking for a new female vocalist since Doris Day will leave for other commitments. The first survey to be made with CBS' new radar audience measurement device will probably be in New York in the spring of 1948. The creation of a special radio industry advisory committee on radio wage problems is being considered by Congress. "Scotland Yard" and "Racket Smashers" on Mutual will be

By CURT GERLING

The rumor persists that there will be a police shake-up and much nearer the top than the bottom. Some opine that Thomas E. Woods public safety commissioner could easily find himself out of that office. What they can find wrong with Mr. Woods is a question. He seems to have obeyed orders from Republican headquarters without protest.

If Mr. Woods goes one would think that they would find another job for him promptly at the taxpayers expense of course.

Republican family in which the will of the head of the house will be heard and heeded.

"Constant Reader" wants to know if we observed who was number one boy on the long list of GOP campaign contributors "and why didn't we say something about it." To please Constant reader we will. The head of a large Packing Co. gave a "G." The same gentleman who, with the blessings of the daily press, fought so valiantly for the removal of price controls "as a sensible and logical way to bring down prices and bring more meat to the city counters."

You will recall that the then Congressman George Rogers, a food merchant of many years' experience protested vigorously against such reasoning. Mr. Rogers, being a Democrat, was defeated for re-election and with today's meat prices, there are many who voted against Mr. Rogers who wish they had not.

The meat packer was "wrong" and is thereby prosperous enough to contribute a thousand dollars to help the cause of the GOP who sabotaged controls and Mr. Rogers who was right in once again a private citizen. If Mr. Rogers would rather "be right than Cong essman," he got his wish.

A great many months back when Dewey's popularity was so great that he seemed the only logical candidate to carry the GOP banner in '48 this column made the observation that certain elements in the Republican

What all the rumored house cleaning is for seems a fair question. In Rochester intra party changes never seemed to have improved the administration. Offices are usually filled again with other deserving party members who frequently are as talented as their predecessors.

Also named in the first of the year City Haul brooming are August Wagener whose D. P. W. has long been a target for irate taxpayers and whose annual deficits for "service" a headache to the budget department.

It is also conceded that Harold ("Initials") Mac Farlin will have his wings clipped for being a bad boy and come January first find himself in a decidedly minor role government-wise.

Of course, the interesting part of the house cleaning is and when it materializes, is that it is only the concern of the Republican party, a sort of washing of soiled linen. It's not because anyone is heeding the voice of a protesting public. It's merely the squabbling of the "So some of you ladies think your husband spends too much time on the golf course or in a bowling alley! How would you like to be married to Chester Smith, a 37-year old paint contractor of Detroit? Chester has the dubious honor of creating a world's record by rolling in 11, yes, eleven, bowling leagues each week."

Early OK Seen For Hill Tele Tower

Get ready for television in Rochester. It is nearer than you think.

And when locally broadcast television programs are beamed into your home, the other waves will emanate from a tower atop Pinnacle Hill.

That Stromberg-Carlson Co. would eventually be granted permission to construct their proposed tower at the site originally planned becomes more evident each day as new facets of the company's campaign to "sell" Rochester on the idea are revealed.

This week's important developments of the project include:

1. Elimination of proposed plans to erect the tower atop one of Rochester's downtown buildings;
2. A proposal to utilize a single tower for the broadcasts of three local television stations;
3. Elimination of any hill site outside the immediate vicinity of the city as a suitable tower location.

Rochester thus must face the decision either to leave the present wild state of Pinnacle Hill unscathed by the intrusion of a commercial tower thus delaying the coming of television to the city, or to compromise the controversy between Stromberg-Carlson Co. and members of the Pinnacle Association representing property owners in the hill area and give the proposed construction the green light, thus paving the way for the beginning of television broadcasts in the city during 1948.

Another important development of the week was the announcement of several companies' plans to market television receiving sets in the $200 price range.

$8,000 NEEDED TO FILL NEGRO COLLEGE FUND

Still $8,000 short of their $18,000 goal, workers in the United Negro College Fund drive redoubled their efforts this week to reach their quota before the campaign's close on the last day of the year.

Added impetus was given the campaign last week when Mrs. Edwin L. Tyler, former secretary and office manager was elevated to the position of executive secretary. Mrs. Tyler takes over the post relinquished by Sidney Carlson who was forced by the pressure of other duties to assume a less active role in the quest for funds.

Since 1944, the United Negro College Fund, Inc. has conducted annual drives throughout the country to raise funds for the support of negro colleges and higher institutions of learning. Rochester has always given generous response. Analysis of the original campaign figures show that 75 percent of the money came from persons who had not previously donated to the support of higher education among Negroes. It was also disclosed that Negroes themselves contributed slightly more than 13 percent of the total.

Mrs. Tyler, the former Ruth Dickinson is well-known in the local Negro community, she returned to the city last year after 10 years of study and research in New York City. She is married to Edwin L. Tyler, a life insurance representative. Before going to New York to become secretary of the Harlem Branch Youth Movement, Mrs. Tyler was junior advisor at the Clarissa St. YWCA. At one time she studied at the Collegiate Center and was a special student of the Eastman School of Music. It was through her efforts that Dr. Mordecai Johnson, president of Howard University, was brought to the city recently in behalf of the drive.

Officers for the reception of pledges have been established in the Democrat & Chronicle Bldg. They are open daily except Saturday.

Airport Ousters Renew Fight; Show Poll Totals

The plea to "standby with us until next election" contained in a letter mailed to more than 500 workers and interested property owners this week signified the renewal of activity by the Independent Committee to Move the Airport.

Last summer the group, concentrated largely in the city's southwestern 19th ward, was formed to fight for removal of the municipal airport from its present Scottsville Rd. location. Their efforts to have an independent study made of the airport problem met with rebuff by city officials. The committee thereupon turned its guns on vice-Mayor Frank A. VanLare, south district councilman, who, spokesmen said, had ignored pleas for intercession on property owner's behalf. They made a strong drive to unseat VanLare in last month's election and came surprisingly close to beating the Republican official in one of the city's strongest Republican wards. On the eve of election they endorsed Democrat John O'Brien.

In the letter to workers who had distributed their petitions last summer, the committee tabulated vote totals in the ward's 35 districts. They also published totals of the preceding district council election in 1943 to prove their contention that they had materially cut down VanLare's strength.

Their figures show that whereas last month VanLare received 8,284 of the 15,235 votes cast for the two major party candidates in 1943 he had captured 9,275 of the 11,381 cast. Thus the vice-mayor's 1943 plurality over Lloyd V. Storandt, Democrat, of 7,169 was cut to 1,333 last month by John O'Brien, Democrat.

Officials of the committee attribute Van Lare's comparatively poor showing this year to their efforts. They say that a switch of only 667 votes would have brought about Van Lare's defeat.

Since organization of the 19th ward committee, the City Council and the County Board of Supervisors have agreed to switch

SNOW TRAIN SCHEDULED FOR DECEMBER 28

Natives of Old Forge, in the heart of the Adirondacks, winter sports area, are planning a special welcome for members of Rochester's first snow train since the beginning of the war when it pulls into the mountain village shortly after 11 a. m. on Sunday, Dec. 28.

Welcoming snow enthusiasts is no novelty to mountain townspeople. Their area is one of the most popular winter sports sections in the entire east. Fourteen restaurants and dining rooms within five minutes of the ski slopes and trails will serve menus ranging from sandwiches to full course dinners. Special church services have been planned with a Low Mass at the Catholic Church scheduled for 11:30 a. m.

The train will leave the New York Central Station here at 6:30 a. m., arriving in Thendara at 11:05. Departure from Thendara will be at 6:40 p. m. with arrival back in the city at 10:40 p. m.

The project is sponsored by the Rochester Retail Merchants Council and tickets are on sale at the New York Central Station, the Chamber of Commerce, offices of the two daily newspapers, at department stores, REDUCE If you're one of those unlucky gals, who have always had that battle of keeping your weight at normal, you know by now, it's really a headache. But you also know, you watch your weight more carefully than milady, who never gives it a thought "all one day she realizes she has been putting on ten to fifteen pounds a year. Even if you have only piled up, say ten pounds — do something about it today. Arrange for a series of treatments with PETTIS. You lose from the beginning. Or if you don't have to lose, you will enjoy the treatments. You leave relaxed as a kitten, your weight will be distributed, bumps here and there disappear. PETTIS knows her business. R. G. & E. The ROCHESTER GAS & ELECTRIC has spent over one and one half million dollars improving its gas distribution system so that when the necessary natural gas is available our own R. G. & E. will be in a position to supply their customers adequately. It is expected that by the spring of 1948, sufficient progress will have been made in the installation of pipe lines between here and Texas, so that sufficient natural gas will then be available to enable them to resume taking orders for gas heating. In my opinion — the perfect heating. R. G. & E. — 89 East Ave.

Pastry tubes are fun to have and use. You may buy them in any store. But if you don't have one, try making a tube of sturdy paper with a small opening. Fill with whipped cream or mayonnaise, and squeeze the middle of paper tube, not the end. It's fun. Try it.

 range, bringing ownership of sets within the realm of a majority of homes.
 Motorola, Inc. already markets a table model set selling for $179.95. Philco Corp. will shortly announce table-model receiver at a price that is claimed will "surprise the industry."
 Hallicrafters Co. also announced a table model at $169.50 to go on sale after Jan. 1 in markets where television sending stations are already in operation.
 Currently Stromberg-Carlson Co. is manufacturing and distributing several television models, but as yet, the firm has not entered the low price field.
 Last summer Stromberg-Carlson requested permission to erect a tower atop Pinnacle Hill and construct a transmitter station on two lots at the base of the hill facing Pinnacle Rd. The proposal brought a storm of protest from property owners in the area, as well as from bird and wildfire lovers. The company's proposal was defeated when the Zoning Board of Appeals refused to grant permission for the construction.
 During the controversy, the Pinnacle Association maintained that the transmitter station on Pinnacle Rd. would constitute a traffic hazard, would be unsightly, and would automatically lower nearby property values. At that time little objection was made to the tower atop the hill beyond the expressed belief that it might be dangerous to children residing in Hillside Home.
 Since renewal of their efforts to obtain the hill site, Stromberg-Carlson officials have soft pedaled plans for the transmitter station. They are concentrating their efforts on the tower site.
 Dr. Ray H. Manson president of the company, speaking Monday before members of the Rochester Section Institute of Radio Engineers and the Rochester Engineering Society ended talk that a tower could be raised atop a downtown building. He said that there is no building in the city capable of supporting a television tower, adding that buildings were not constructed to support thousands of pounds of additional weight.
 Dr. Manson also revealed tentative plans for sharing tower facilities with two other proposed television stations which WHEC and WARC are said to be interested in building. He said the idea was very feasible and that talks with officials of WHEC had already established a basis for operation of the plan.
 Because of the peculiarities of television "wave beams" the idea of locating tower on some other hill outside the city was eliminated by Dr. Manson who explained that beamed signals would be materially weaker if sent from outside the immediate adjacent area and that broadcasting would be disrupted in that section of the city within the "shadow" of Pinnacle Hill and Cobbs Hill, both on the city's rim. Television beams will not climb hills, nor will they turn corners. They travel only in straight lines. Hence the company's desire to obtain the highest site within the city area.
 That site is Pinnacle Hill and upon that hill the tower will eventually be constructed.
 William Fay, general manager of Stromberg-Carlson's radio station WHAM and spokesman for the company's broadcasting interests declared the company had equipment, plans and personnel ready to take to the air with television broadcasts "just as soon as we get a tower up and transmitter station built."
 Fay thus put the issue directly up to the city as to how soon Rochester would have television. He also declared that the controversy last summer definitely delayed inauguration of television broadcasts, is now delaying and will continue to delay them up until it is amicably settled.
 Perhaps the ultimate answer will be the construction of the tower atop the hill as planned with the transmitter station located in some other part of the hill. Much of the hill land is situated in the Town of Brighton—the city line cuts across the hill. The city's eastern neighbor may therefore be the key unlocking Rochester's thus far barred television doorways.

1922-Style Stage, Screen Show Planned For Eastman Anniversary

Silver Anniversary of the Eastman Theater will be celebrated Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 29 and 30, with a stage and screen show reproducing a typical performance of the earliest days of the theater, which was open in 1922 to a brilliant first-night audience.

All seats are reserved — and free. Each Civic Music Association membership card entitled the holder to two tickets. Because there is no admission charge, there is no federal tax payable. Attendance is limited to members of the Association, their guests, and representatives of the press and radio. The same show will be presented both nights at 6:15.

Feature of the program will be a full-length silent film of 1922 vintage, with accompanying musical score prepared by Guy Fraser Harrison and played under his direction by the Civic Orchestra, which will be in the elevator "pit."

Other screen features will be a comedy, also with musical accompaniment, and a 1922 newsreel of Rochester events (come and see your friends as they looked 25 years ago!).

There'll also be a musical stage show and other fun aplenty.

Tickets for the anniversary show may be obtained by presenting a current membership card at the box-office.

With a potential audience of 17,000 and only about 7,000 seats for the two nights an SRO crowd each night is assured.

party would "get" or at least try to "get" Dewey long before the national convention. Such has come to pass.

First of all, Mr. Dewey has slipped, badly. His state will have the highest tax set-up in history come next year. His much vaunted "team" is falling apart at the seams and is riddled with dissension. Albany law-makers are smarting under his alleged "high-handedness" and county leaders are vociferous in their objections to his handling of the teacher pay increases.

Candidate Stassen seems to be carrying the ball for the national Old Guard who are anti-Dewey. The man from Minnesota has repeatedly tried to "smoke out" Dewey on controversial hot potatoes. He has been rather rough on our governor in a great many of his carefully phrased "shots." He has demanded that Thomas E. make known his stand on the Taft-Hartley bill while accusing him of being "evasive" on other issues.

Lesser candidates for the nod of the GOP at Philadelphia next year are doing a great deal of silent hand clapping every time Stassen shoots a barb at diminutive Dewey. They all feel that if New York's governor can't make it on the first ballot there is a chance for any one of the half dozen dark horses.

And at the moment the dark horses are running well up in front at the half way mark.

In to-day's winter book the wise men believe that if the independent vote will win the next election Vandenberg is the one for the GOP to nominate. Unfortunately the best man does not always get the nomination.

control with its resultant financial losses from the city to the county. The changeover is effective Jan. 1. With city, county and federal government plans to pour several hundred thousand dollars into improvements for the present airport, it is highly unlikely that it will ever be abandoned in favor of another location. Despite the apparent enormity of their task, officials of the committee now indicate they will carry on the fight. Next councilmanic election will be in 1949 when five councilmen-at-large will be named. If they have decided on their next move, committee officials have given no indication of what it will be beyond their "standby" plea.

In releasing the election totals, Lawrence Gehrig, spearhead of the Committee, declared the group had compiled the figures because "for the first time within my memory, the two daily papers did not print the vote by districts in the 19th ward." He ventured no reason for this oversight, except the guess that "perhaps the figures didn't jibe with the papers' ideas of what the vote totals ought to have been."

The ward vote totals as published by the airport ousting committee from election board figures is as follows:

THEY'RE DREAMING OF A WHITE SEAL CHRISTMAS!

The PERFECTLY BALANCED Blend

UNCLE MONEYBAGS—All his dough couldn't buy him a finer whiskey than Carstairs White Seal, you know. And being penny-wise as well as whiskey-wise, he'll thank you for the swell steer as well as the swell gift!

FERNICKET PAUL—Hard to please—even has gift-horses X-rayed. But when he gets this whiskey that's rich yet light, mild yet hearty—in ONE Perfectly Balanced Blend—he'll have a real holiday for sure!

OL' JUDGE JUSTLY—Since his admission to the bar, His Honor has tried many a famous case. His most applauded decision was that Carstairs White Seal topped them all. So would you risk contempt of court by presenting him with anything less?

AND HOW ABOUT YOU? Look, you're a grand guy too! Why not corner some of this nectar for yourself? Slip a tag reading "To Me with love from Me" on a bottle of tasty Carstairs White Seal—and you'll make a friend for life!

FOOD DONOR KILLED; CLASSMATES CARRY ON with the need for food in France, James M. Morgan, 25-year-old World War II veteran who served in France, bought a jeep at a war-surplus sale to speed up collection of donations for his personal "Morgan Plan" for Europe. Later, the jeep collided with a car and overturned, fatally injuring Morgan. Fellow members of Jimmy's French Club at the University of Kansas City have decided to carry on his program to fill a boxcar with food for the French.

MARLENE SINGS IN CENTURY SCREEN FEATURE

"Golden Earrings" arrived yesterday at the Century Theatre, co-starring Ray Milland and Marlene Dietrich.
Based on Yolanda Foldes' best-selling novel of the same name, "Golden Earrings" is an account of what happens when a British officer is saved from pursuing Nazis by a quick-thinking gypsy woman. Milland portrays the officer, a gentleman to the core, but nevertheless susceptible to the seductive charms of the rescuer. He puts up a good fight against the insistent gypsy, whose colorful, uninhibited wooing provides the film with many a high-powered romantic scene, but eventually she wins him over.
Miss Dietrich as a gypsy is something to see. Yes, she sings, too! There's a winning title number, and Hungarian gypsy tunes.
Milland, stained to look like a dark-skinned gypsy, and with pierced ears adorned with golden earrings, accomplishes the gradual transformation of the proper gentleman into the unconventional gypsy with great finesse.

'WILD HARVEST' AT CAPITOL STARS LADD

Action in the Alan Ladd tradition is promised film fans in his latest Paramount picture, "Wild Harvest," which arrives today at the Capitol Theatre. In it Ladd cuts a wide swath, romantically as well as dramatically.
Co-starring with Dorothy Lamour, Robert Preston and Lloyd Nolan, Ladd portrays the leader of a tough harvesting combine crew that includes Preston and Nolan. The story concerns their efforts to outsmart rival, unscrupulous crews in obtaining the work of harvesting the vast wheat fields from Texas to Canada.
The companion feature "Born To Kill" concerns the activities of a ruthless killer who has a fatal fascination for women.

Life's Like This In Cineland

Burbank, Calif. — It was the first rehearsal for the first take of the first scene to be filmed for Warner Bros. "The Adventures of Don Juan." The set was an English country home and garden at the turn of the 17th century.
Mary Stuart as Lady Catherine, first love of Don Juan clad in pale blue diaphanous chiffon morning robe of the period, was waiting on a balcony to keep tryst with her lover.
"Now," Vincent Sherman directed Flynn, "you swing up that vine and onto the balcony. Don't hesitate a moment. Take her in your arms and — well make it a long and ardent embrace."
Flynn tossed his wine-colored cape over his shoulder, and proceeded to the arms of Miss Stuart by the unorthodox method indicated.
"Good! Excellent!" said Sherman as the pair broke apart. "I've seen all your pictures," Miss Stuart told Flynn, "and I'm an admirer of yours."
"Oh," exclaimed Sherman, "haven't you two been introduced?"
"I haven't had the pleasure," said Flynn.
"I'm sorry," said Sherman. "Miss Stuart — Mr. Flynn."

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING

It's most discouraging to view the flip-flops and trapeze work of the Washington three ring circus. There are a lot of us who voted to put men in Congress to work for our interests instead of behaving like acrobats. Acrobats who are flip-flopping across the capitol stage, taking easy falls, and running forward for a round of applause.

The special session has been, as far as restraints on inflation are concerned, a bust. Ringmaster Truman has only a minority of his horses trained and in hand. Furthermore everybody wanted to get into the act.

The act was billed as a high dive from the top of the tent but the performers just wanted to topple off a four foot tumbler's table. They were afraid of getting hurt. When we say hurt we mean not re-elected.

Mr. Truman set forth a courageous call to arms asking that something be done to stop ever increasing prices. He suggested the return of controls, restraint of Labor in more wage demands and the allocation of scarce materials. Just how it was to be accomplished was a bit hazy. As the GOP controls Congress it was more or less up to them.

The GOP Congress wanted no part of that. They had already made fools of themselves demanding decontrols and the return to the "American way" and "rugged individualism." They quite forgot that the world has changed a bit since the days of Herbie Hoover and Silent Cal Coolidge. The old-fashioned way of life blew up in their face and prices instead of going down, went up. They have been trying to tie it on to the Democrats ever since which will be a neat trick if they can do it.

Both sides of the political line-up realize that the public want something done about inflation. Neither side wants to take the initiative for after that anti-inflationary plans will back-fire much like decontrols did.

To date and the GOP realizes it, John Public is sure that Republican ideas that prevailed (See POLKA Page 12)

Generous New York State residents who contributed a record total of $920,960.18 in all counties of the State outside of New York City in the 1947 Fund Appeal of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis must do even better this year, Louis A. Wehle, state chairman, said this week.

LOUIS A. WEHLE, state chairman of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said this week that... assistance. Many of them are in hospitals, and at home and in need of physio-therapy treatment. The rising costs in care necessitate definite additional funds over the amounts contributed last year," Wehle pointed out.

Wehle also stressed the importance of continuing research in the polio field and said that through the Fund Appeal contributions significant advances had been made in the recent years. "But all research," Mr. Wehle said, "is long-range in nature even though remarkable results are coming to light. It is not improbable that in time scientists may discover a safe vaccine for human beings. Research in every phase of polio is going on in renowned institutions throughout the nation, and it is in this field of scientific research that the ultimate answers we are seeking will be found."

"But while research in polio is continuing, the need for care of sufferers is deep and challenging. We won't let these men, women and children down. We must renew our pledge to stay in the fight against infantile paralysis unflinchingly." (See DIMES Page 12)

VFW Council Plans Morale-Boosting Entertainment At Batavia Hospital

Spirits will undoubtedly be high on Christmas Day — even in veterans hospitals. Annually individuals and groups from all walks of life make it their business to bring happiness and good cheer to the veterans who occupy beds in government hospitals.

But after Christmas — then what? According to officials of the Veterans Administration, its right after the holidays when spirits really sag. Then comes the letdown when the excitement and good cheer of the festive season has departed with the guests; when patients who are able to get out, have gone home and the hospital suddenly resumes its quiet everyday tempo.

To fill that gap in the season's festivities, members of the Monroe County Council, Veterans of Foreign Wars will stage their annual Christmas party for patients of Batavia Veterans hospital on the Sunday following Christmas — right when it will be most appreciated.

Under the direction of Louis Goler as Chairman, the party committee has lined up a program of entertainment, gift distribution and refreshments that is expected to outshine all previous efforts. Goler has obtained the services of Elmer Eckam, who will pull rabbits out of his hat during his 'act.'

MORALE BOOSTER—Rochester premier purveyor of magic, Elmer Eckam, demonstrates to VFW Hospital Chairman Louis Goler how he will pull rabbits out of his hat during his 'act.'

Arena Crowd Hears Wallace Attack 'Wall St. Control'

One of Rochester's largest admission-paying political rally audiences turned out Tuesday night to hear former Vice-President, former Secretary of Agriculture, former Secretary of Commerce Henry A. Wallace castigate (1) The Country's Foreign Policy, (2) Wall Streeters, (3) Military 'top brass', (4) The Taft-Hartley Law, (5) A Greater Part of the Press, (6) Universal Military Training, and a host of other bogies currently bothering the "liberals".

Outside the arena Wallace and his PCA sponsors got an added assist from representatives of the Socialist Labor party who passed out pamphlets demanding an end to peacetime conscription and condemning capitalism.

Earlier in the day Wallace had accused President Truman of being a "Charlie McCarthy" to both "big business and a big press" and in his Sports Arena speech he referred to the president only by indirectness saying that, "Roosevelt ran the Wall Street men — they didn't run him". The inference was plain, that in Wallace's opinion, the Wall Streeters now have President Truman doing their bidding.

Waves of applause interrupted the speaker on many occasions. They listened intently to his every word. Earlier they had displayed some restlessness as William C. Wolgast, chairman of Rochester Chapter PCA, read a lengthy speech and was followed by the Rev. Stephen Fritchman who wound up his speech with a long appeal for funds with which to carry on PCA activities. It was after 10 o'clock when Wallace reached the platform where many and another warrior had come to the audience warmly applauded the statement. But Wallace made no attempt in his speech to follow it up. Few of his hearers, however, could fail to note the threat of a bolt in his declaration: "I know that if the leadership of the Democratic Party (See WALLACE Page 15)

Winter Sports Enthusiasts Await Mountain Snow Train

More than 100 of the 500 available tickets for Rochester's first snow train to the Adirondacks since beginning of the war have already been reserved, according to William J. McLaughlin, of the Chamber of Commerce Retail Merchants Council, sponsors of the train.

The snowy choo-choo will leave from the New York Central station here at 6:30 a. m. Sunday, Dec. 28, arriving at Thendara shortly after 11 a. m. where special buses will transport the winter sports enthusiasts to Old Forge — a mile distant. Trucks to carry skie equipment will accompany each bus. On the return trip, the train will leave Thendara at 6:40 p. m. arriving back here at 10:40 p. m.

In addition to fourteen trails for skiers from novice to professional class, a skating rink will be open right in the heart of the famed Adirondack winter sports village. A dog sled team will convey parties throughout the area.

All hotels, restaurants, coffee shops and business establishments that cater to winter visitors have promised to be in attendance and ready to supply the sportsters needs.

Tickets for the trip which are priced at $7.00 each are obtainable at the New York Central Station and the Consolidated Ticket office, The Chamber of Commerce, the two daily newspapers, and department, apparel and sports equipment stores.

College Fund Drive Plays Up Donors' Tax Savings

When the volunteer army now being mobilized sets out to obtain $1,047,236 with which to build the proposed St. John Fisher Catholic College on East Avenue, they will offer prospective donors a "sales argument" that will be difficult to refute.

The new men's college of the Rochester Catholic Diocese will be erected and maintained by the Basilian Fathers on a 72-acre plot of land at the junction of East Avenue and Fairport Rd. The Basilians came to Rochester ten years ago to staff Aquinas Institute and have now completed plans for the college.

One of the "sales tools" campaign workers will have in their kit is a chart showing just how much a donor will save on taxes in making a gift for the school. Various tables have been set forth showing the saving in several tax brackets, for individuals as well as corporations.

According to income tax regulations, charitable gifts are deductible up to 15 percent of taxable income. Hence a person with a taxable income of $2,000 who gives $300 to the campaign will actually have a net cost of $243.00 according to the table prepared by drive officials. The difference represents the tax saving.

Substantial tax savings by corporations are also shown in the campaign workers' chart. At the current normal and surtax rate of 38 percent for corporations with income of $50,000 or over the table show that actual net cost of the gift is only 62 cents for each dollar pledged. Thus a gift of $5,000 from a corporation with a $50,000 income would show a $1,900 tax saving, thus making the actual net cost to the donor of $3,100.

MUSEUM MOVIES FEATURE MINING IN KANSAS

The regular Sunday movie feature which is open to the public without charge, will also include "Trappers of the Sea," illustrating the adventure of lobster fishing on the Atlantic Coast, and "Totems," explaining the history and meaning of totem poles of the Pacific Coast Indians.

Another interesting angle has been brought out in campaign literature regarding tax savings. That has to do with savings on securities pledged in the drive. Figures are set forth showing that certain individuals might be able to make a $10,000 securities gift at a net cost to them of $1,590 where unrealized profits to further enhance their tax savings.

Dates for the public appeal for funds are Feb. 12 to 23 but a preliminary drive will be made among business houses and industrial plants prior to the opening.

Postal Forces Await Usual 'Last Minute' Mail Onslaught

They're practically sitting on their hands down at the Cumberland St. Post Office these days. But they're not resting. Too many visions of all night tricks, and 24-hour a day duty just a few days hence disturb whatever day dreams they might like to indulge.

It's the annual mailing habit of the public that has the post office people worried. Postmaster Donald Dailey, trying to plan ahead and get the Christmas mails through without delay, first appealed to the public to "mail early." Then he went out and hired a lot of extra help so that patrons heading his pleas wouldn't have to line up in front of the windows.

The plea went out. The help came in. But, to date, the public is conspicuous by its absence. And postal authorities know this means a big last minute rush. They don't like it and the public usually winds up not liking it either. But each year post office and public go through the same routine.

Dailey is hopeful that the Christmas rush will get underway soon. The sooner it comes, the more able are the postmen to flatten the impact of its peaks.

As an added convenience to the mailing public the post office is staying open evenings until 11 p. m. and classified statistics are open until 8 p. m.

American To Brew Premium Beer Here

Area suds quaffers have a new brew with which to parch their thirst this week as Brewers Best Premium came to the Rochester market under the banner of the American Brewing Co. A franchise granted the brewery by Brewers Best Associates, Inc. of New York, gives American Brewing exclusive brewing and selling privileges for the beer in all of New York State outside New York City and the entire State of Vermont.

Although Brewers Best has been on the market for only a year, it has already achieved distribution in every state in the Union and in several foreign countries. Its wide acceptance is said to be the result of its distinctive flavor which experts have compared to imported Pilsener. Its quality is constantly checked by the licensing firm to insure uniformity at all times everywhere.

Local brewers of the beer have a long history in Rochester circles. Now brewing Tam o'Shanter Lager beer, Tam o'Shanter Dry Hopped ale, Tam o'Shanter Old Stock ale, in addition to Brewers Best, the American Brewing Co. was founded in 1862 by Frederick Loeb. The company has been in the same family continuously ever since. It is now headed by Edward W. and Carl H. Loeb. Edward, who is president, is a graduate of Wahl-Henius Institute of Chicago and the National Brewers Academy of New York. Carl, secretary and treasurer, is president of the New York State Brewers Association and a director of United States Brewers Foundation.

Also announced by the company, along with its appointment as local outlet for Brewers Best, American has launched on an expansion program to its plant. Thirty new tanks used in the ageing process are being installed with a storage capacity of 8000 barrels; a new garage with 25,000 sq. ft. of space was recently completed, providing for the fleet of 60 motor vehicles; and modernization of bottling and canning equipment is now underway.

APPOINT BREWERS—In Rochester this week to complete franchise arrangements for the brewing of Brewers Best Premium Beer by the American Brewing Co. were two executives of Brewers' Best Associates, Inc., of New York City. Frederick G. Mayer, chairman of Brewers Best executive committee is second from the left. At the right is Eric H. Edstrom, vice-president of the organization. Entertaining them are two officials of American Brewing Co. Carl H. Loeb, left is secretary and treasurer and Edward W. Loeb (second from right) is president of the local brewery.

RAILROADS OFFER
FOR TRAVELERS

Major passenger-carrying railroads serving Rochester are now operating a "Traveloan Plan" for installment buying of railway tickets and other travel expenses. The plan was established in cooperation with the city's and area's commercial banks. Railroads participating in the plan are the New York Central, the Lehigh Valley and the Baltimore & Ohio.

Procedure for using the plan, as outlined by Frank D. Courneen division passenger agent of the New York Central, consists of the prospective traveler asking for a "referral memorandum" when making arrangements for tickets and reservations at any of the railroad ticket offices. The memo is sent to the participating bank chosen by the customer which then makes a routine credit inquiry. The traveler is notified immediately that his tickets are ready as soon as the bank clears the loan.

Courneen explained that applications for credit are decided in as short a time as one day, and in most cases the plan requires only the signature of the individual. Repayment is made in monthly installments spread over a year.

The plan, applicable to individuals or entire families, includes Pullman accommodations, all-expense tours (normally with hotels and meals), side trips or any service sold through railroad ticket offices.

TYPICAL 1922 EASTMAN SHOW READIED BY CIVIC MUSIC

Two famous films of the silent days — George Arliss in "Disraeli" and Charlie Chaplin in "A Dog's Life" will feature the Eastman Theater Silver Anniversary Show on Monday and Tuesday, Dec. 29 and 30.

The show, to be given both nights at 8:15, is open only to members of the Civic Music Association who may make reservation by presenting their membership cards at the box office. Each card entitles the holder to two seats for either performance.

The films have been scored for musical accompaniment by Guy Fraser Harrison who will conduct the Civic Orchestra in the pit. During the orchestra's intermission, an organ accompaniment will take over. Also on the bill is a 1922 Rochester newswreel, taken by Joe Durnherr, veteran Times-Union news photographer and former movie cameraman.

"Disraeli" will be of interest to today's audiences for at least two reasons. It is underlying theme is the diplomatic warfare between England and Czarist Russia for Suez Canal rights. Many of the scenes and printed sub-titles are as timely today as they were 25 years ago — or in the period portrayed in the film — especially for audience observing the current struggle for power between Soviet Russia and the Western nations. In addition, movie fans will enjoy the contrast between the movie acting of 1922 and that of today. Scenes of tense drama, 1922 style, verge onto the screamingly funny judged by today's standards.

In "A Dog's Life", Charlie Chaplin is seen at his uproarious best, the woe-begone, disreputable yet somehow elegant, king of pantomime. There is scarcely a printed sub-title in the entire comedy — they just ar not needed by Chaplin who could make a tiny gesture with his little finger speak more eloquently than a five-minute speech from the typewriters of today's Hollywood writers.

Hen Takes To Horseless Carriage

Kankakee, Ill.—The little red hen has gone modern. When Zephire Richard, a farmer, drove three miles into town the other night, he found he had an uninvited passenger — the little red hen perched precariously on the back bumper. Richard says the hen rode home the same way.

JUNIOR COIN COLLECTORS INVITED TO CLUB MEETING

Boys from 12 to 18 years interested in coin collecting and other branches of Numismatics are invited to meet at the Rochester Museum tomorrow evening at 7:15 with the Rochester Junior Numismatic Association. Sanford Nusbaum will present his paper on "The American Dollar" and Emmet Peeke, noted linguist, will be present to act as counsellor.

Sun Carriers To Distribute Calendar Greetings

Within a few days your Sun carrier will ring your doorbell, bringing you the traditional newspaper carrier's calendar greetings. He will be repeating a custom as old as the ages and as widespread as the nation. He has been planning on your reward to him for months. In fact, the distribution of calendars is one of bright spots in your newspaper carrier's career. With his calendar will go his greetings to you for a good year past and the hope of better years to come.

No scientific surveys have ever been made as to just how newsboys spend their calendar earnings. Some of it undoubtedly becomes the base for bank accounts that in a few years will send some of the lads to college. More of it probably goes for clothing, school spending money and into the dozens of other channels where boys spend their money. But the bulk of it surely goes to buy presents for Mom, and Dad, and Sister. We think the distribution of calendars by newspaper carriers

POLKA . . .

have been instrumental in hiking living costs. Truman's special session call considered politically strategic in tying inflation in with the Marshall plan for the short meeting still rankles in Republican camps.

This week they maneuvered to shift the responsibility of stopping inflation to Democratic shoulders. They cooked up a silly set of suggestions on "how it could be done" and then let it be known they were going to jam it through on a "this or nothing basis." This sort of rough shod business was designed to get the Democrats mad enough to kick it right in the pants as a two thirds vote was necessary to pass the legislation. The Democrats reacted just as they thought they would. The GOP foolishness was defeated and the GOP were just as happy that it was. They are hoping that come election time they can cry to the public that the Democrats defeated this "constructive" attempt to stifle inflation.

Republican leader Halleck is already "holding the Democrats responsible" and Democratic leader Rayburn has passed it off with the succinct remark "listen to the voice of the National Association of Manufacturers."

The special session has been a joke as well as a circus. A circus in which the big act never came off - no one wanted to be shot out of the cannon.

When the Happy Warrior Al Smith said he "would take a walk" he meant it. James A. Farley according to observers took one last election, consorting the while with members of the opposition party, and writing a series of nasties about his former boss in a national magazine.

Now it seems James A. didn't take a walk after all. It was, as the French say, a sortie, like going to the corner for a cigar. Mr. Farley is announced as back in the fold. Just recently he was quoted as saying "I want to see President Truman re-elected and like everyone else in the Democratic party I'll take an active part in the 1948 campaign."

Mighty nice of you Jimmie, mighty nice.

til the dreaded disease is conquered," Wehle declared.

Wehle explained that 50 per cent of the funds raised during the Fund Appeal campaign is retained by local chapters for year round treatment and care of victims of infantile paralysis, and for equipping hospitals in their communities with adequate facilities for such care. The other 50 per cent is allocated to National Headquarters to finance research into the cause, prevention and cure of polio to provide a broad educational program and to maintain an emergency fund to aid all local chapters whose funds become exhausted in providing care for polio patients in their area.

The 1948 Fund Appeal will be conducted Jan. 15 to Jan. 30 throughout the state and nation. T. Chester Meisch will again head the campaign in Rochester and Monroe County.

Car Prize Magnet For Armory Veterans Dance

Even though the affair is still more than two months away, ticket sales for the mid-winter all-Rochester veterans dance are reported "encouraging" by Louis C. Binnrt, of Theatrical Memorial Post 1418 VFW, sponsors of the dance.

Two orchestras will play for continuous dancing at the Main St. Armory on Feb. 21 date of the dance, but what is expected to be one of the chief attractions to patrons will be the awarding of a new Hy-

Oldsmobile sedan, completely equipped with radio, heater, seat covers and undercoating. The car will be given away as a door prize. Ken Renick, Bill Flanagan, their orchestras and their vocalists have all been engaged. Funds received from the dance will be used by the post to erect a post home. Tickets are now on sale at 504 Burke Bldg., 5 St. Paul St. and at Raff's Men's Furnishings, 5 Clinton Ave. N.

WALLACE . . .
does not act to fulfill our pledges of 1944, the party will die and there will be a new party — a people's party of workers and farmers."
Obviously Wallace aspires to lead that party.
While earlier in the day at a press interview he had said he 'paid no attention' to the Communists — he reversed himself at the Sport Arena to say:
"The Communists haven't caused the major problems which beset the American people today. They didn't pass the Taft-Hartley bill. They aren't responsible for racial segregation and discrimination. They haven't maintained a poll tax."
None of which was expected to arouse the ire of the Reds.
When the Rev. Frichman made his bid for pledges, he apparently started a bit high for Rochester. He asked for a pledge of $1000 and was greeted with stony silence. However when he dropped his bid to $250 he got an almost immediate response with one bid. He wound up passing the hat for small change and garnered in excess of $2000 for the evening's work.
Names of some of the large donors, as read from the platform were:
Irving Cohen, $250; Julius Greenhouse, $100; Mr. and Mrs. Asher, $50; Joseph Kempion, $50; Mr. and Mrs. Suskind, $50; Henry Belmont, $50; Mr. Goldman, $50; Harry Suskind, $50; Julius Herman, $25; Mr. Schneider, $25; Miss Jeanette Presberg, $10.
While Wallace departed from his prepared scrip several times to speak of domestic matters, his address dealt largely with the nation's foreign policy.
"The heart of our foreign policy," he said, "is still the Truman doctrine. It is a doctrine leading to war, not to peace. It is a military policy, not a peace policy. The President has indicated that the Greek and Turkish governments will need more help. . . More money down the same rat hole. . . More money for reactionaries. More money for a government which has a Taft-Hartley law containing a 'death sentence' for strikers."
Wallace returned to the domestic scene only to tie it up with foreign reaction to our course in handling national problems. He warned that "only one more opportunity is open to us to get our own house in order if we would sway others."
"If — he said — the Democratic people of the world see once again that forces of real action can kill legislation to abolish the poll tax, to prevent discrimination in employment, to use the powers of Federal Government to prevent segregation and discrimination, they would have no confidence left in the United States."

'GOLD EARRINGS' STAYS ON REGENT SCREEN

Milland is cast as a British officer and gentleman whose escape from the Nazis is accomplished with the assistance of a daring, courageous gypsy woman, portrayed by Miss Dietrich. Assisting the two stars is Murvyn Vye, recruited from the stage where he had top singing roles in "Oklahoma" and "Carousel." He appears as a gypsy and is given an opportunity to show off his excellent singing voice. Also in the supporting cast are Bruce Lester, and Quentin Reynolds.

The co-feature "Adventure Island" adapted from the Robert Louis Stevenson story "Ebb Tide," and is photographed in color featuring Rory Calhoun, Rhonda Fleming and Paul Kelly.

It's Deanna Durbin's ambition to do a Broadway musical and, says she: "As soon as I can find one... that's what I'm going to do."

CENTURY THRILLER — Robert Montgomery, a tough war veteran set on exacting vengeance and blackmail, is both star and director of "Ride a Pink Horse," which opened at the Century yesterday. Playing opposite him is Andrea King, the ace criminal's moll.

Tense, Rugged Drama in 'Ride The Pink Horse'

Tense, rugged melodrama, crowded with action, keynotes "Ride the Pink Horse" with Robert Montgomery as director and star, which opened yesterday at the Century Theatre.

With a staccato screenplay by Ben Hecht and Charles Lederer based on the Dorothy B. Hughes best-seller of the same title, Montgomery has directed the film so that it is jammed with sheer excitement.

In the role of a cynical, embittered veteran of the Pacific War, Montgomery comes to a small New Mexico town at fiesta time seeking vengeance and blackmail. The target of his foray is a master criminal, skillfully portrayed by Fred Clark, who he believes was responsible for the death of a pal.

Also on the master criminal's trail is a G-man, handled by soft-spoken Art Smith, who wants to make an ally of Montgomery and get from him the incriminating check that would send Clark to prison for war frauds. Clark promises to pay off but instead sends his henchmen abroad in the little town to kill Montgomery who is knifed and slugged, but not before he has inflicted bloody damage on his pursuers.

Second feature on the Century bill is "Driftwood," starring Walter Brennan, Natalie Wood and Dean Jagger.

Vocal Romance
Ida Lupino makes love to Errol Flynn in Warner Bros. "Escape Me Never" via two original songs, "O Nene" and "Give Me Love For Love." She sings the songs whenever Flynn's affections start wandering.

Luxury's Last Word
Jack Carson's new pool house is to be completed within the month. It will contain dressing rooms, showers, a projection room for 16mm films and a 15-foot barbeque in the fireplace unit.

LAD HOME AFTER TWO YEARS IN HOSPITAL

Cumberland, Md. — After spending more than two years in hospitals, Cecil D. Warnick, 9, is back at home. On Mother's Day, 1945, the fuzzy cowboy pants Cecil was wearing caught fire and he was terribly burned on both legs. Now, after 14 operations and countless skin grafts, the boy is able to walk.

Broken Leg Painless

Timberline Lodge, Ore. — Answering a routine call for help from a ski enthusiast stranded high on the mountains with a broken leg, the Mount Hood ski patrol rescue corps found the skier in no pain. He had broken his artificial leg.

RADIO THEATRE
TO HAVE '34th
ST. MIRACLE'

Producer William Keighley has selected a charming comedy for the Christmas season presentation of the Lux Radio Theatre next Monday, on CBS
(WHEC). It is "Miracle on 34th Street" starring Maureen O'
Hara, John Payne, Edmund Gwenn, and Natalie Wood, who created the original screen roles.

This is a story to change the minds of those who don't believe in Santa Claus and to reassure those who do.

It is the story of Kris Kringle
(Edmund Gwenn) who plays
Santa Claus so well in a Macy's parade that he is hired to portray the merry man in the department store. There is only one trouble—Kris, an inmate of an old man's home, thinks he is Santa Claus. He tangles with the store's psychiatric advisor, who thinks he's crazy and has him promptly sent off to Bellevue where Kris is confined. Friends, trying to get his release, bring the case to court and try to prove that he is Santa Claus. Before it is all over, the prosecuting attorney and even the judge are in doubt about who is right, for the evidence in favor of believing in Santa Claus is unfurled so realistically and logically that Kris becomes a national problem.

Listen-But Don't You'd Stay Slim
Eat With Them If

The usual morning listing of programs aired by WARC, Monday through Friday, might well be called the "housewives' delight, or eat breakfast often and listen to your radio."

Starting at 8 a. m. the initial eat and listen show is the locally produced "Second Breakfast," featuring Bob Lyons, formerly a network feature, with 45 minutes of variety music, chatter, weather reports and time signals.

After a 15 minute break the nationally famous "Breakfast Club" with Don McNeill, hits the airway at 9 o'clock for an hour show. "Breakfast Club" boasts one of radio's largest audiences.

A newer, but equally famous breakfast show "Breakfast in Hollywood" starring Tom Bren-nemann, breaks forth at 11 a. m. for a half-hour of patter, interviews with guests, awarding of flowers and gag gifts to those present.

Starting in Sardi's Restaurant in Hollywood, the show later went into Brenemann's own place, and only a few days ago moved again into a bigger, brand new Tom Brenemann's Restaurant in that city.

tained the services of his fellow members of the Rochester Professional Entertainers Club in lining up more than a dozen topflight acts. Trick bicycle riders, a magician, acrobats, singers and all the other acts that go to make up a good vaunderville show will be included. Art Argyries, of the Consolidated Vaunderville Exchange has also lined up several acts who have volunteered their services for the show.

In addition to the main show in the hospital auditorium, the VFW showmen have made arrangements to entertain in the wards. Acts will be routed through the hospital so that even the bed ridden may see what's going on.

Then when the show is over, gift packages will be distributed to each patient. Refreshments will be served and the party will come to a close.

Entertainers will be transported to the hospital and returned in a special bus which the Rochester Transit Corp. will donate to the fete.

Ed Randall's . . . Scene & Word

An accident of any kind is certainly no laughing matter but the annual survey of "freak" accidents made by the National Safety Council always contain a few so ludicrous they are bound to bring forth a chuckle or two.

Here are some of the more absurd mishaps which occurred during the year as published in the December Redbook:

Take the case of the baby boy in Pennsylvania who swallowed a nickel and coughed up a penny. Or the fond father in Illinois who cooed at his baby daughter while he attempted to diaper her. He was a two-way cooer — in and out — and he sucked in an open safety pin on an intake coo. They got the pin out at the hospital — but without any cooing.

Then there was a man in Iowa who tripped as he hurried to answer the telephone. He crawled to the phone and heard his doctor's voice. "Can you come out here and take a look at the furnace? It's broken."

"Yeah!" said the victim. "Well, you'd better come out here and take a look at my leg. It's broken, too."

People who play with guns are liable to get hurt and a Michigan man was no exception. He was showing a friend how he had shot off part of a finger twenty-six years before and he pulled the trigger of an "unloaded" gun — shooting off the rest of the finger.

A Colorado man was hurled through the roof of his car in an automobile accident and landed on his back in the middle of a railroad track just as a train came along. He had enough presence of mind to lie still or was so dazed by the accident that the long string of cars passed over him and he then discovered that he had a broken leg—caused by the automobile accident.

Without comment we offer the following bit of doggerel written by an overwrought woman in an Atlanta, Ga. advertising agency who has, I fear, been listening to the radio too much.

*I think that I shall never hear Commercials pleasing to the ear;
A minute spot that makes me feel
That I abound with sex appeal;
A break that tells me when I listen
That I'm never missin' kissin'.
I think that they should ban the blurbs
That bristle with dogmatic verbs;
Ads that make me stop while rushing
To hunt for pink while I'm brushing;
Or hurry to the corner for Economy sizes from the store.
I think that they should let me be:
To cure aches preferentially
To take my chances with B. O.,
To let unsightly dandruff show,
To burn my T-zone in small doses—
And if I choose—have halitosis.
I have no faith that I shall hear
An ad that's pleasing to the ear.
In sooth, I find myself resigned
And rather placidly inclined;
I think what Kilmer said is true—
There ARE things only God can do!*

THEY'RE DREAMING OF A WHITE SEAL CHRISTMAS!

The PERFECTLY BALANCED Blend

UNCLE MONEYBAGS—All his dough couldn't buy him a finer whiskey than Carstairs White Seal, you know. And being penny-wise as well as whiskey-wise, he'll thank you for the swell steer as well as the swell gift!

PERNICKEY PAUL—Hard to please—even has gift-horses X-rayed. But when he gets this whiskey that's rich yet light, mild yet hearty—in ONE Perfectly Balanced Blend—he'll have a real holiday for sure!

OL' JUDGE JUSTLY—Since his admission to the bar, His Honor has tried many a famous case. His most applauded decision was that Carstairs White Seal topped them all. So would you risk contempt of court by presenting him with anything less?

AND HOW ABOUT YOU? Look, you're a grand guy too! Why not corner some of this nectar for yourself? Slip a tag reading "To Me with love from Me" on a bottle of tasty Carstairs White Seal—and you'll make a friend for life!

PHONE STONE 6000

By CURT GERLING

The life of a supervisor seems to be a "rocky" road. Again the 18th's Mr. Parrish has been the victim of disgruntled elements of his ward who have audaciously heaved large stones through the windows of his home and business establishments.

The unpopularity of Mr. Parrish has been due mainly to his reputed firm hand in gambling matters. It is a "restricted" ward; restricted to a certain number of gambling joints and no more.

Naturally a lot of Joes want the same break as the "other fellows." The other fellows, having been established a number of years, don't want the ward loused up with horse-dung on every corner. Neither does Mr. Parrish — hence the rocks and busted windows.

Somedays in some places it's almost impossible to make a dishonest dime.

You may have read of Jim Wadsworth's noble gesture this past week. Fox-hunting, well-heeled Jim suggested that he and his congressional brethren forego mileage checks due them for the special session. He would have congressmen contribute the quarter million to the needy.

The motion was slapped flat-ter than a Ford joke. Such generosity was for the public. Congressmen are just as human (they say) as you are when their own personal pocketbook is endangered.

The representatives from California and the far west would, if such a bill passed, have a legitimate squawk. California at twenty cents per mile adds up to important cabbage. Personal finances of the individual enter into the picture, too.

It would have been a cinch for Jim Wadsworth. His mileage check wouldn't feed one of his hunters for a season and Mr. W., according to local legend, has a two dollar bill for every Spaniard in Madrid. Our own Kenneth Keating who was for the "needy" wasn't giving up too much in the way of mileage either and although Kenny (See POLKA Page 4)

Rochester's winter sports enthusiasts, from neophyte to advanced professional, are making merry plans for Rochester's first snow train since the war which will take an estimated 500 to Old Forge in the Adirondacks for a day of skiing, skating, and snowshoeing next Sunday. The train will leave from the

New York Central Station at 6:30 a. m. and will return late that night. At left above Robert F. Melville, 120 Bartlett St., chooses a poplin ski jacket and cap, to go with his new pair of skates. Outfit, including skates is from the stock of Champion Athletic and Sportswear Co.

Christmas Rush Hits Weekend Peak Here

The Christmas spirit (meaning to rush around like mad trying to get things done that should have been done a week ago) finally hit Rochester full force yesterday.

Stores were jammed to the bursting point as harried shoppers pushed their way through crowds of other harried shoppers trying to find that one last gift for "Sis" that colored hankie for Aunt Harriet, and just the right colored socks for pa.

Fortunately, because store managers know their customers buying habits and can usually predict just how things are going to turn out before they happen, customers are finding stocks adequate for their needs.

Christmas card, gift packages, an dother postal matter reached an avalanche proportions at the Post Office. Incoming mail just about balanced outgoing yesterday as the post office neared the millio-and-a-half. Extra help, largely recruited from among high school students and World War II veterans did their best to lighten regular clerks and carriers' load. Of course inexperience of a majority of the 1800 extra hired hands leads to some slowdown of the output per man average, but as a whole, the newly impressed mailmen are going about their business like veteran postal workers. Many of them had performed the same trick last year, hence were considered (See RUSH Page 4)

Turkey Prices Up For Holiday (Naturally!)

Thursday will be a poultry-less day in many Rochester homes as prices of holiday turkey soared to new highs yesterday. Hikes of 10 cents a pound over Thanksgiving's record prices brought the price of prime birds to as high 90 cents per pound retail for eviscerated turkeys.

Fresh dressed turkeys are being quoted at 67 cents for hens and 57 cents for toms, wholesale.

Today is the first of the "free days" for Rochester's public and parochial youngsters. They were dismissed from classrooms early Friday afternoon for their annual Christmas vacation.

Special Issue Notices

Starting Jan. 1, stamp and "first day cover" collectors will have to sharpen their eyes if they want to take advantage of new issues and new cancellation points.

Uncle Sam has announced he will discontinue the practice of sending card notices of new stamp issues to individuals.

Postal officials have made arrangements to publish advance notice of new issues in the Postal Bulletin and notices will be displayed on Post Office bulletin boards. Postmasters have been instructed to give information about new stamp issues to local newspapers and stamp clubs.

Details of new stamps and the procurement of first-day covers are printed in stamp columns of many newspapers and philatelic publications, the authorities advise, and therefore the practice of sending individual notices will be stopped.

What bothers us is that no one re-shaped the motion to make the contribution voluntary, permitting those who wished to forego the mileage money to do so. The way it turned out it looks like a neat trick to grab newspaper space and a few bouquets with the check tucked safely in the hip pocket.

Brakes on inflation seem less likely to be applied than ever before. Congress has demonstrated that it has neither the courage nor the inclination. Truman can't do it with out Congress and it is a question whether he is too keen to make much more noise about it either. Prosperous times are always good for the "ins" but for the "outs". The picture for the Republicans isn't any too bright at the moment. They are stuck with the stigma of responsibility for the higher cost of living — and if all Republicans were named Houdini they still couldn't wiggle out of it.

1948 is going to see another round of demands for higher wages. Corporation reports, despite enormous charge-offs, are still robust and unions are go-

War Orphans Feted At VFW Yule Party

Widows and orphans of deceased World War II veterans had their holiday celebration early this year when they were entertained as guests of the Patchen-Briggs Post, VFW in th Monroe YMCA Saturday afternoon.

A full hour of cartoon movies came as a high point of the afternoon's entertainment program, but this feature was quickly overshadowed by the appearance of Santa Claus who distributed gifts to each child present. Then the kids and their mothers alike were served refreshments, with the youngsters easily winning the capacity prize — especially in the candy and ice cream divisions.

The party was handled by Edward Carpenter as chairman, assisted by a committee of post members and their wives.

ing to point a prejudiced finger at their balance sheets and P and L statements. They will contend that inflation has outdistanced their last round of increases and despite these wage hikes the corporations have made more money than before.

One union leader has already advanced the suggestion that the corporations cease to pass along these wage hikes by increasing the price of their products, arguing that the corporations, particularly manufacturers, could well afford such absorption and that the fight against inflation is as much the responsibility of business as it is of Congress.

Congress, whose short special session indicated the fear and spinelessness of the august bodies when it came to grappling with the problem, is not going to do anything more than talk and blame the other fellow the next time it meets.

Because we can't elect congressman who are not first politicians, nor raise industrialists who learn from past experience, the dear old U. S. A. is going to live on with inflation until finally as in '29 the country again falls flat on its puss.

Three Saved; One Dies
Uniontown, Pa. — Left at home with his four brothers and sisters while his parents were away, Otto Fitzsimmons, 8, he was able to help three of the children escape from their burning house after the kitchen oil stove exploded, but he could not find his three-year-old brother, Ervin, who was burned to death. His body was found under the kitchen sink, where he apparently had sought refuge from the flames.

HUSBAND'S ARREST KILLS WIFE
Philadelphia, Pa. — Five hours after her husband had been held without bail on a charge of arson, Mrs. Celeste Millarg, frail, 22-year-old son, collapsed and died in a living-room chair, where she had been sitting without speaking after returning from her husband's hearing in police court.

CONVENIENT OFFICES

merchandisers knew they are in the clear after the first third of their stock has been sold. From there on out — it is pure velvet for the dealers.

While the bulk of the heavy Christmas shopping ended last evening, stores and departments handling small gift items, gift wrappings and tree trimmings are preparing for a rush today, tomorrow and Wednesday right up to closing time. Tree trimmings are in good supply, but like everything else, are commanding much higher prices than during pre-war days.

Sunday in many Protestant churches the Christmas story was the theme of sermons, but actual religious celebration of Christendom's holiday, will not begin until Wednesday evening. Impressive rites of Solemn High Mass will be celebrated at midnight service scheduled in the city's Catholic churches when overflow crowds are expected to attend the rites. Special services have been scheduled for Wednesday night and Christmas morning in many Protestant Churches. Choirs will journey forth to sing carols in hospitals and charitable institutions. Rochester's social agencies have just about completed their plans for the holiday. A hearty Christmas dinner for the homeless and the forgotten will be served throughout Christmas day by The Salvation Army, the Volunteers of America, The Rescue Mission, and others.

The holiday spirit will reach, as best it can, right into the County Penitentiary and Exchange St. Jail. Bits of holly and tinsel have already been spotted around the penal institutions and a special holiday meal of roast chicken or roast pork will be served Christmas noon.

Frank Courneen, division passenger agent for the New York Central reported yesterday that Friday's business was "considerably above normal." He said the rush was expected to continue during the next three days with Christmas day itself, one of the lightest of the entire year.

Christmas tree buyers added to the holiday business rush yesterday as many of them finally decided nothing was to be gained by waiting until the last minute in the hope of reduced prices. While there had been much talk about high tree prices, a survey of the local market finds them costing approximately the same as last year. Two dollars gets you a room size tree, unless you demand perfection in size, shape color and variety. Then you're apt to pay five or six dollars. But the bulk of the business is in the $1.50 to $3.00 range. With trees for sale on almost every street corner and at two or three spots in between, it is certain some dealers will be stuck with large stocks come Christmas eve. They are little worried however, as smart

480-Inch Skin Graft Fails To Save Boy

Flint, Mich. — Badly burned when his clothing caught fire November 3, little Steven Linden, 6, underwent an operation on November 20 in which 480 inches of skin from twenty volunteer donors was grafted onto his body. The painful ordeal, however, was not successful and the little boy died on Thanksgiving night.

Killer Overlooks Victim's Hoard

Columbus, O. — Police are searching for clues leading to the slayer of an old lamplighter, he died of a crushed skull when would-be robbers broke into his shack near the Cheapeake & Ohio Railroad tracks. The purse of the victim, Donato Mucci, 67-year-old Italian immigrant recluse, was taken, but detectives found $500 in cash and bank deposit books recording a total of nearly $2,000.

Political Polka

By CURT GERLING
There were two earth-shaking pronouncements from the city administration during the past week. One From August Wagener, the DPW's man of the hour, and one from Thomas E. Broderick, GOP master of ceremonies.

Mr. Wagener declared that ashes would now be collected "every week". That, as your neighbor would be quick to say, "we gotta see". Ash collections have been so chronically poor in Rochester that a statement such as this from the DPW head brings forth more laughter than joy. Nevertheless, it is refreshing to know that Mr. Wagener is at least thinking in terms of a weekly ash collection "providing it doesn't snow," instead of on a semi-annual basis.

Mr. Broderick's statement was to the effect that "rumors" of an administration shake-up were spurious, false and without foundation. Local newspapermen have filled quite a bit of space predicting "changes" in City Hall. They apparently presumed that public sentiment would have its way and "the powers" would heed public opinion.

Silly you and silly you! Just as the king can do no wrong, neither can his courtiers. Thomas E. has no intention of letting newspapermen influence his views and he certainly isn't going to lose any sleep about what the people may or may not want.

Mr. Broderick will continue to run Rochester according to Ed Randall's

According to a report in the New York Times Mr. Taft now thinks that President Truman has all the weapons needed to halt inflation, wrapped up in the bill the GOP passed to "help" him. Those who have analyzed the bill know that such as statement from Falding Bobby is an invitation for Harry Truman to hang himself and his chances for re-election. It was a foregone conclusion that the Republicans would not pass a bill that would help the president relieve the inflation spiral or in any way make more prestige for the Democratic administration. The GOP are rightfully fearful that they can't win in '48 as it is. Thus, it is their intention to embarrass the Democrats as much as possible. The good of the country in presidential years is a secondary consideration.

Most proponents of anti-inflation measures suggest the shrinking of credit and they say it is the duty and power of the Federal Reserve System to do it. Aside from bans on installment buying and free mortgage money they suggest that the reserves required of the banks be hiked to around 45 per cent. This as we understand, it means cash of the

BEE KEEPERS ASK HONEY BUY FOR EUROPE AID

New York state's 45 congressmen and two U. S. senators are being urged to support purchase and use for European relief by the U. S. Department of Agriculture of "at least 15 million pounds of strong-flavored, dark-colored honey, for which there is no outlet, and which is depressing market prices," D. H. Lee, Groton, N. Y., general manager of the Finger Lakes Honey Producers Cooperative, said today.

Lee noted that New York's 8,000 beekeepers produced some eight million pounds this past season—most of which was dark and not of table quality—and that about three million pounds remain in the hands of beekeepers, as surplus, in this state alone.

"The problem," he said, "is that the beekeepers of the nation have a tremendous surplus of this dark honey, and no domestic market for it. The industry never has been subsidized—honey does not come under the Steagall price support amendment—and we don't want to be. But in lieu of subsidies we do want this

TB SEAL SALE SHORT OF GOAL; TO CONTINUE

Post card reminders that Christmas Seals provide funds for fighting tuberculosis went out yesterday to all county residents who have not yet paid for the ones they received through the mail at Thanksgiving time.

Mrs. James B. Woodruff, chairman of the sale which is annually made throughout the county outside the city reported on Saturday that while the Rochester and Monroe County Tuberculosis and Health Association had fallen short of its goal of $29,000 by Christmas, contributions were still coming in and now totals more than $24,000. The group will continue its efforts to reach its goal which represents the amount estimated to be needed to carry on its work here in 1948.

Residents outside the city each received two sheets of the seals in November. In the city itself, the health association's work is supported by the Community Chest and Chest contributors, therefore, receive the seals free of charge. Each sheet of seals represents a contribution of one dollar and residents are therefore exhorted to contribute at least two dollars each for their seals.

NORTHEAST DISTRICT HEALTH HEAD NAMED

'Bishop of Wall Street' To Give City Sample of Telephone Sermon Technique

New York's famed "Bishop of Wall St." will move in on Rochester this week to give the city a taste of "telephone sermons" and "ambulating street preaching."

The "Bishop," who is actually the Rev. J. J. D. Hall, 82-year old Episcopal rector, will speak here at a Youth For Christ rally New Year's Eve in West Ave. Methodist Church, at three special services in the Alliance Church Friday, Saturday and Sunday, and at two combined youth rallies in East Rochester Presbyterian Church New Year's afternoon and evening.

He will deliver his now-famous minute phone sermons to anyone calling Monroe 7875 on Friday and Saturday from 9:30 to 11:30 a. m.

Dubbed by Wall Streeters as the "Bishop of Wall St." because of his religious work among the street's financial bulls and bears, the aged minister has recently extended his activities to New York's Times Square area where he is a familiar figure as he moves along the area at night quoting scripture and every now and then unfurling large banners carrying such messages as "Be Sure Your Sins Will Find You Out," "Jesus Saves," and other admonitions. According to many stories about him in such magazines as Newsweek, Colliers, Reader's Digest and New York newspapers, people follow him as if he were the piper.

As alert to opportunities to tell his story as he is sedate in private life, the Bishop stumbled on to the most unique phase of his ministry by accident.

While lying in bed sick one day in December, 1939, his bedside telephone rang and a voice said, "Sorry, but I have the wrong number."

REV. J. J. D. HALL

Like a flash the "Bishop" responded:

"No you haven't, I want to know if you are a Christian?"

The voice came back:

"Oh, I suppose I am."

"Do you read your Bible and pray?" asked Hall?

"Sometimes," was the answer.

"Say, who am I talking to, anyway?"

"I am a minister," said Hall.

"Where do you preach?"

"Everywhere, I am preaching to you right now."

"Well," said the now bewildered party at the other end of the line, "this is the strangest conversation I ever engaged in. I would like to hear you preach somewhere else."

Within a few minutes, the Rev. Hall's telephone bell rang again. This time a voice said, "I was told to call this number and I would receive a message that I need."

BONUS PAYMENT TO NEXT OF KIN OUTLINED

Principal provisions to be considered by next of kin of deceased New York State World War II veterans intending to apply for the state bonus payments voted by the Legislature at its last session and approved by voters in November were outlined this week by Arthur H. Crapsey, director of the Monroe County Veterans' Information Bureau. The bonus becomes payable after Jan. 1.

Under the bonus law's definition of "next of kin," Crapsey pointed out, those eligible are the widow, widower, children, mother, father, brothers and sisters of the deceased veteran, in that order. Payment to any other persons is prohibited by the law's provisions. The widow has first consideration and remarriage does not disqualify her from the bonus.

Payments range from $250 for service outside the continental limits of the United States between Dec. 7, 1941 and September 2, 1945, down to $50 for service of 60 days or less during the same period within the continental limits. Those with more than 60 days service but within the continental limits of the country will receive $150.

Proofs which Crapsey said will have to be filed with next-of-kin applications include:

1) Proof of death of veteran: Photostatic or certified copy of the official United States Government notification of death—letter, not telegram—if veteran died while still in service; photostatic or certified copy of death certificate if veteran died after discharged from service. In "missing in action" cases, photostatic or certified copy of official not-

RED CROSS TO OFFER COURSE IN NUTRITION

Registrations are now being taken at Red Cross Headquarters on Plymouth Ave. S. for a nutrition course entitled, "Three Meals a Day" which will get underway on Tuesday, Jan. 6 at 7 p. m. The course is sponsored by Red Cross Nutrition Service and is open to women of Rochester and Monroe County without charge.

First session will be from 7 to 9 p. m. Jan. 6 and repeated Wednesday, Jan. 7 from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. Meetings will continue weekly at the same times. Mrs. William Allen, nutrition chairman, will have charge.

INDUSTRY USES COTTONSEED HULL IN NEW PLASTIC

Cotton-seed hulls made into plastic by a process developed at the University of Tennessee experimental research laboratories, are finding a wide variety of uses in commercial items and industrial equipment.

Although the plastic is at present employed most extensively for commercial products such as radio cabinets, vacuum cleaner hoods, and automobile accessories are being manufactured from it.

The National Cotton Council says plastic manufacturers expect the new industry to create a monthly demand for 10,000,000 pounds of cottonseed hulls — that were in the past considered useless waste material.

Rosenthal in Charge
Dr. Fritz Rosenthal, former plastics technologist at the University of Tennessee conducted the experiments which led to the discovery of this new use for cottonseed hulls with the Engineering and Agricultural Experiment Stations at Knoxville.

The experiments at the Tennessee laboratory proved successful, and the University patented the process. The University retains the patent but a commercial manufacturer in Knoxville is producing the material.

Cottonseed hulls are shipped to the factory by cottonseed oil mills which have ground them into flour. In 1200-pound quantities the flour is put into a "kneader-master," impregnated with phenolic binder and comes out in powder form.

TRIGGERLESS GUN WOUNDS BOY

New York — Robert Harriott, 15, accomplished the almost impossible when he shot himself accidentally with an old 32-caliber revolver that lacked both a trigger and hammer spring. Tired of pointing the weapon and yelling bang, the boy placed a rubber band on the hammer to give it some spring, then snapped it at his chest several times. One chamber of the gun was loaded and the boy was wounded in the chest.

One Way To Do It

Jersey City.—When the head of four-month-old Rosanne Anillo became wedged between the side bars of her crib, the frightened parents called for help from the Union City Fire Emergency Squad. Calling for petroleum jelly, the Captain of the squad greased the child's head and gently eased it through the bars back into the crib. The baby was unharmed.

Family Cooperation
Toronto.—Two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Snowden and Mrs. John Stevenson, had daughters born to them within two hours at two different hospitals.

Umpire Bill Klem "Never Called One Wrong; But He Once Came Within Three Inches

Bill Klem, dean of big league baseball umpires and a native son of Rochester always said he never "called one wrong." But how close he came to marring that record one day in the Polo Grounds is now told by an engineer who saw the incident and made it his business to accurately check the decision.

Throughout his professional umpiring career Klem insisted that he never called one wrong in his life. In fact, he became famous as "the umpire who never called one wrong."

This week, in the January issue of "Sport" magazine, Ed Fitzgerald tells about the time Klem was umpiring a game at the Polo Grounds between the Giants and the Cubs when one of the Giant players clouted a line drive that bounced off the scoreboard.

The new Polo Grounds had just been built and the scoreboard stood partly on fair ground, partly on foul. The foul line ran along the ground and was painted on the stands as far up as the scoreboard. The line was continued from the top of the scoreboard to the top of the stands. But on the scoreboard itself there was no line.

This particular ball hit the scoreboard very close to where the foul line should have been painted. It was a difficult decision but Klem called it foul. The Giants swore to high heaven that it was a fair ball and John McGraw said Bill was blind as a bat.

Two days after that game Klem met the engineer who built the stadium. He said he had something to tell him. "William," he declared, "they made me do a job on you. They made me check the dent that ball made in the scoreboard to see if it was fair or foul. It was foul by exactly three inches."

Klem left Rochester when he was 21 years old to seek fame and fortune in baseball. Developing a bad arm, he was forced to quit the game and enter the construction business as a time-

letter to the editor

Editor, Rochester Sun,

If the man whose voice came booming over the loudspeakers at the Sports Arena Tuesday evening actually was the "voice of PCA" as claimed, and if he truly voiced the views of that organization, I am worried. I went to the arena to hear the views of Henry Wallace who certainly is a possible presidential candidate.

I wonder if Mr. Wallace actually agrees with the views of his sponsors, the Progressive Citizens of America. Far from advocating peace as Mr. Wallace claims, the "Voice of PCA" kept urging the audience to "get mad," "get burned up," and fight this and fight that, never suggesting anything constructive to replace all these "evils" that we are supposed to fight.

Incidentally, I agree with many of the things Mr. Wallace said. But as far as I could see, PCA's only function is to sling mud at everyone who does not conform to their standards.

Is that the "American Way"? Mr. Wallace spoke about "fighting mad" talk sound like a very definitely "foreign" way to cure our admitted ills?

If Mr. Wallace is going to depend on the backing of groups which base their appeal solely on emotion with little regard for objective reasoning he will surely lose the support of many of us even though we might be with him on every other point.

CONCERNED.

James J. Davis, 74, former U. S. Secretary of Labor and former U. S. Senator from Pennsylvania, died Nov. 22 in Washington, but two outstanding American communities live on as monuments to his memory. They are Mooseheart, Ill., famed City of Happy Childhood for youngsters who have lost one or both parents; and Moosehaven, Fla., City of Contentment for dependent old folks. Both were founded (Mooseheart in 1913 and Moosehaven in 1922) by Mr. Davis, who from 1906 until his death was Director-General of the Loyal Order of Moose, a fraternity dedicated to humanitarian work, and with a membership of 800,000 men throughout the United States and Canada. Nearly 1,000 children receive care and a high school education—plus a trade—at Mooseheart, a 1,200-acre community located 35 miles west of Chicago. Three hundred old folks dwell at Moosehaven, part of Orange Park, Fla., on the banks of the St. John's river, 14 miles south of Jacksonville. The Loyal Order of Moose maintains both communities. Mooseheart children are sons and daughters of members of the Moose. Moosehaven residents are Moose members, wives of members or widows of members.

aid to move 15 million pounds of our surplus."

A four-man committee, representing the National Federation of Beekeepers' Associations, headed by Federation President Woodrow Miller, Colton, Calif., producer, and including Lee, recently spent two weeks in Washington, D. C., informally submitting the problem to the State Department, Army Purchasing for Relief, the Commodity Credit Corporation and other government agencies instrumental in administering the food problem for Europe.

This committee, whose other members are R. F. Romer, Sioux City, Ia., representing the Sioux Honey Association, and Walter Straub, Chicago, sales manager for Sioux Lake Shore brands, followed up its Washington visit with a formal appeal to S. R. Smith, director of the Fruit and Vegetable branch of the Production and Marketing Administration which is responsible for the purchase of surplus foods for Europe under a $1,500,000 interim relief program.

In this plea, Lee said today, the National Federation, which speaks for some 200,000 of the nation's 500,000 beekeepers who produce an average of more than 200 million pounds of honey yearly, pointed out that the long-continued mild fall of 1947 gave bees an opportunity to store 25 to 30 million pounds of honey above their winter and spring needs.

"For most of this honey there is no normal outlet," stated the appeal to Smith which now is going to the national lawmakers. "Because of its strong flavor and its generally dark color, neither packers of table honey nor bakers which are the two leading outlets for extracted honey, are interested in buying much honey of this type at any price."

Recalling that, before the war, surplus stocks of dark honey sometimes were sold in Europe, where they met a cordial response, that little honey is being bought in Europe because of the dollar shortage, and that Latin-American honey, which formerly went largely to Europe, "is being offered in our markets at prices below the cost of production of domestic honey, thus depressing market levels," Lee and his committee added:

"If plans for the early relief of the market depression caused by the large volume of dark-colored honey now remaining unsold are not assured, the American honey industry faces the prospect of a downward price trend... to a point which before the end of the season, could become so demoralized as to result in a lessened bee population banks on deposit with the Federal Reserve System on which no interest is paid.

The banking minded gentry also want to raise the re-discount rate from 1 to 1 1/4 or 1 1/2 per cent which means that when banks are obliged to borrow on their investments, largely in government bonds they will have to pay the higher rate of interest. As most short term government bonds do not pay more than 1 1/4 to 1 1/2 per cent there would be no profit in so doing. Furthermore it would behoove the banks to sell their government holdings. A wholesale selling of government bonds would depress the U. S. bond market and the net result would be to undermine the federal government's credit. Thus, those who are suggesting such moves for the Federal Reserve are unwittingly advocating that the government supervise its own bankruptcy.

Banking sources, wise in the way of politicians, see both sides preparing the U. S. public for inflation and deflation and the sagacious politicians are determined to hang it on the banks for whatever happens. The Democrats and the Republicans are going to make the bankers and banking the whipping boy just as they did in '29.

Mr. Gannett, who publishes newspapers, caused quite a furor last week when he made a few characteristically Old Guard observations on the Marshall plan. Thirteen of Rochester's better known industrialists and clergymen of liberal republican view took issue with Gannett thinking. We presume that Mr. G. was greatly surprised and shocked, to see gentlemen of similar social and financial strata come forward with such human viewpoints. He was very quiet about it for a long, long time.

Saturday, one Anthony Randazzo, identified as a sender of food parcels to Europe was quoted at length in the Democrat & Chronicle. Mr. Randazzo said he considered Mr. Gannett's "intelligent".
That we presume is "that" and Mr. Gannett can now resume his daily trips to the office.

association will have charge of the new project. An important part of the undertaking will be a block plan which will function in the interest of better health through home visiting.

The plan will be developed mainly in census tract 58 which lies in the area bounded by Culver Rd., Bay St., Webster Ave. and Main St. E.

Members of the executive Committee are now choosing representatives for participation in the block representation plan. The block project is the second of its kind to be organized in Rochester. A westside unit was organized last year.

Proof of presumption of death will serve as proof.

3) Proof of service: In cases where death occurred after the veteran's discharge or separation from service, next of kin must furnish actual-size photostatic copies of veteran's original discharge or separation certificate and service record.

3) Proof of relationship: — Photostatic or certified copies of such documents as marriage certificates, probate proceedings, court orders, or other official records which establish relationship.

4) Proof of non-existence of superior claimants: Photostatic or certified copies of death certificates of any relative who, if alive, would be eligible for the bonus ahead of applicant.

Under the law's provisions next of kin do not have to be New York State residents upon filing application. However, they must have the residence certificate on the application form signed by an adult friend or acquaintance of the deceased veteran (not a relative) who knows where the veteran resided before entering service and at the time of death.

The amount to which a veteran would be entitled if still alive will go to the eligible next of kin of a veteran who dies following discharge under honorable conditions. This will also be distributed proportionately if there is more than one qualified survivor with equal status. Crapsey urged potential next of kin applicants to call or visit the Veterans' Information Bureau, 168 Clinton Ave. S., or the American Red Cross, 150 Spring St., before seeking the various certificates needed. The information director advised that when possible, one representative of a family where more than one individual applicant is considered, should make an appointment with one of the offices named. The service officer staff of the Monroe County Veterans' Service Bureau, also located at the Clinton Ave. S. address, is to specialize in this assistance to the next of kin.

Next of kin blanks will be officially identified as Form VB-2.

NEW SPONSOR FOR FRED ALLEN; MASON AS GUEST

When the Ford Dealers of America take over the sponsorship of the Fred Allen Show Sunday, Jan. 4, James Mason will appear as guest. The British-born screen villain will check in with the landlord of Allen's Alley at 8:30 p. m. over NBC (WHAM).

Mason's last appearance with Allen was a result of an article he wrote for the New York Times. In it Mason listed Fred Allen among the things he likes best about America. Knowing that Mason was looking for the "right" story to make a motion picture in the United States, Fred immediately set to work on a movie for him. He then invited the versatile Mason, who is also a director and artist as well as actor and writer to drop in to a broadcast and try out for the part. The play was "The Perfect Crime" in which Mason, as the villain, murders an English nobleman to get a secret plan.

Mason has written a subsequent article for the "Times" entitled "The Six Best Actresses in America". In their next appearance together Fred might have some comments to add to that.

SCREEN STAR TO BE AL JOLSON'S GUEST

Back in Hollywood after a six-year absence due to her work, beautiful Madeline Carroll will take time off from a picture assignment to appear as a guest with Al Jolson when the footlights come up on the first Kraft Music Hall show of the new year — Thursday evening, January 1st, at 9:00 P. M. over WHAM. This will mark the fourteen consecutive year that this show has been on the air. Joining Jolson to welcome Miss Carroll will be pianist Oscar Levant and Lou Brink and his orchestra.

In their first appearance together on the Kraft Music Hall Al and Madeleine will have a lot to talk over. Both were among the first to go into war right after Pearl Harbor. Miss Carroll, then at the pinnacle of screen fame, gave up a lucrative contract to go to New York and organize entertainment for the Merchant Marine. Jolson came out of retirement to join the boys in England and entertain them with his nostalgic songs. Both subsequently went to North Africa with the American troops. Al as a singing entertainer, and Madeleine as a Red Cross worker. Al's next tour took him to Alaska as one of the first big-time stars to entertain troops in the Aleutians.

QUICK TAKES

"He is the one who says, 'and so into the night walks Bulldog Drummond.'"

After Africa, Miss Carroll went to the Italian peninsula where she worked on hospital trains that evacuated more than 50,000 wounded during her six months on them. When the Germans evacuated Paris she went to France where she opened up her chateau as an orphanage.

FOR NEW YEAR'S EVE SHOW—Dennis Morgan as Chauncey Olcott, celebrated Irish balladeer, pictured above with pair of Colleens in the Technicolor musical, "My Wild Irish Rose" which will be shown at the Century for one day only starting at 6 p. m. Wednesday and running through a special midnight performance. The picture will be released through the country next month.

Century To Have Special New Year's Eve Show

Plans for a special New Year's Eve show at the Century theatre were released yesterday by Arthur Krolick, house manager.

Beginning at 6 p. m. Wednesday and continuing through a special midnight performance, the Century will have a pre-release showing of "My Wild Irish Rose."

The bill will be changed again for New Year's Day.

American vaudeville, when the minstrel show was the top form of entertainment, highlights the scintillating musical. Dennis Morgan is starred as the immortal Chauncey Olcott of "My Wild Irish Rose" fame, and Andrea King appears as the beautiful Lillian Russell.

The minstrel show is one of more than a dozen important musical numbers in the motion picture "My Wild Irish Rose," is the story of the great names in show business at the turn of the century.

In addition to Olcott and Miss Russell, famous figures depicted include "The Iron Duke," William Muldoon, theatrical manager Augustus Pitou and the celebrated comedians, Weber and Fields.

The minstrel show sequence of the film, like all the musical numbers in "My Wild Irish Rose," went before the cameras only when dance expert Prinz had completed months of painstaking research to make sure that all the details of each presentation were completely authentic. A nationwide beauty search lasting for several months was conducted to find the eight talented lovelies who appear in the picture as the "Irish roses."

MARIA MONTEZ STARRING IN CAPITOL FILM

"Pirates Of Monterey," co-starring Maria Montez and Rod Cameron, headlines the current holiday week bill at the Capitol Theatre. The story is about California of 1840 — before it became a part of the United States — when Spanish royalists tried to overthrow the Mexican rule.

Miss Montez portrays a Spanish girl who goes from Mexico to Monterey to meet her fiancé, Philip Reed. However, Rod Cameron, as a swashbuckling gringo, enters the scene and provided fuel for a healthy love triangle.

A dramatic highlight of this Technicolor film is a tremendous fire scene in which a whole valley is burned out.

"Danger Street," co-starring Jane Withers and Robert Lewery is featured as the second vehicle of the Capitol's double bill.

'RIDE THE PINK HORSE' STAYS ON REGENT SCREEN

"Ride The Pink Horse," satirical melodrama with Robert Montgomery as star and director, is currently headlining the Regent bill. In the role of a cynical, embittered veteran of the Pacific War, Montgomery comes to a small New Mexico town at fiesta time seeking vengeance and blackmail. The film is said to be interesting photographically because of its authentic New Mexican backgrounds with colorful ancient Indian ceremonies.

Wanda Hendrix, the feminine lead plays a wistful Indian girl and Andrea King and Thomas Gomez are prominent in the cast.

"Driftwood," with Ruth Warwick, Walter Brennan, Dean Jagger, Charlotte Greenwood and Natalie Hamilton is the Regent's co-feature.
