Dated at Rochester, N. Y., February 3, 1885.

CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

NAME.

This Association shall be known as the Genesee Valley Club.

ARTICLE II.

OBJECT.

Its object shall be to promote social intercourse among its members and provide for them the comforts and conveniences of a Club House.

ARTICLE III.

MEMBERS.

The number of its resident members shall be limited to three hundred, and no others shall be admitted to its privileges except as permitted by this Constitution.

ARTICLE IV.

MANAGEMENT.

1. A Board of Managers of fifteen shall control all of its affairs, elect members, take cognizance of all infractions of its Constitution and By-Laws, fill vacancies in its own body, and shall hold in trust all the Club property.

2. The Board of Managers shall be elected in the first instance, five for one year, five for two years, five for three years. At each annual meeting thereafter five members shall be elected for the full term of three years.

3. This Board shall hold monthly meetings upon the first Saturday of each month, and on such other days as such Board, by its rules, may appoint.

4. A quorum of the Board of Managers shall consist of eight members, and any member who shall be absent from two consecutive regular monthly meetings of the Board, except by reason of sickness or absence from the city, shall no longer be a member of the Board of Managers, and the Board may elect a member to fill the vacancy.

5. The Board of Managers shall annually, not later than the second Monday after the annual Club meeting, elect from its members by individual ballot (and may at any time remove and replace) four officers: a President, a Vice-President, a Treasurer and a Secretary; also three members of the Club, eligible and removable in like manner, who shall, with the Treasurer, constitute a House Committee. The Managers may also appoint a Clerk of the Board who shall act as Assistant Secretary.

6. The Board of Managers shall, from time to time, make rules and regulations for the guidance of members on matters not herein determined, which rules shall be posted on the bulletin board, or otherwise historic communicated to the Club.

7. The aggregate amount of indebtedness created by the Board of Managers, except for current expenses, shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars at any one time.

8. The Board of Managers shall exercise the right, at their discretion, of inviting strangers, who may visit the city, to enjoy the privileges of the Club during their stay, and may extend invitations to such persons as they may think proper to any reception or entertainment given by the Club.

9. The interpretation of the Constitution and By-Laws shall rest with the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE V.

PRESIDENT.

The President of the Club, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, Secretary or Treasurer, shall authorize the call of all special meetings of the Board of Managers of the Club, and exercise the usual functions of a presiding officer.

ARTICLE VI.

SECRETARY.

The Secretary of the Club shall notify each member of the Board of Managers of all its meetings, and each member of the Club of all meetings of the Club; issue all authorized notices to members; make and keep a true record of all meetings of the Board of Managers and of the Club, have custody of its Constitution and By-Laws and corporate seal; conduct its correspondence, and execute all such writing as he may be officially instructed and authorized to do. He shall also post all notices on the bulletin board, and shall have exclusive control of the same.

ARTICLE VII.

TREASURER.

The Treasurer of the Club shall be charged with the collection and custody of the funds of the Club, and their disbursement, under the direction of the House Committee, and shall make a full written report to the Board of Managers quarterly.

ARTICLE VIII.

HOUSE COMMITTEE.

The House Committee shall make all purchases of articles used in the Club, and in general transact its current business and regulate its internal economy, subject to such general rules as may be imposed by the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE IX.

VACANCIES.

If the offices of the President or of the Treasurer shall become vacant, the Secretary shall call a special meeting of the Board of Managers to fill such vacancy for the remainder of the term ; said meeting to be held within thirty days after such vacancy occurs.

ARTICLE X.

ADMISSIONS.

1. Every candidate for admission into the Club must be at least twenty-one years of age ; and he must be recommended in writing by two members, under their signatures, to the Board of Managers, and his name and residence (with the names of the proposers) be posted in the Club House, by the Secretary, for ten days before balloting. Two black balls shall be sufficient to exclude any candidate; but any member of the Board may, before adjournment, move the reconsideration, either of a vote of admission or exclusion. In cases of reconsideration, a second ballot, which shall be the final ballot, must be taken before adjournment. All votes, conversations and debates on the subject of admission, exclusion and expulsion shall be held by the Board in honorable secrecy.

2. Every person thus elected must, within thirty days after being informed of his election by the Secretary, pay to the Treasurer his admission fee and first half-year dues, and subscribe to the Constitution, and he shall then, and not until then, be entitled to the privileges of the Club House and become a member of the Club.

The Board of Managers have a right to extend, by a two-thirds vote, the time for the payment of such dues.

3. Non-resident members may be admitted in the same manner and by the same forms as are prescribed for the election of resident members, but shall be required to pay only one-half the amount of initiation fee of resident members and ten dollars annual dues. A non-resident member shall not be allowed to vote or hold office, and, upon dissolution of this Club, shall not be entitled to any interest in the Club property. The dues and initiation fee paid by him shall be wholly in consideration of his social rights and privileges.

Officers of the Army and Navy, Professors of the University of Rochester and the Clergy of the city shall, for the purpose of this article be deemed non-residents.

4. All persons whose names are upon the original subscription, or the certificate of incorporation, shall be taken as Charter members of the Club.

5. The Club may at any regular meeting, or at any special meeting called for that purpose, elect honorary members who shall be unanimously nominated by the Board of Managers. Said honorary members shall have all the privileges of the Club except voting at meetings and being eligible for office.

ARTICLE XI.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS.

1. All members of the Club shall be entitled to equal rights and privileges in the Club House.

2. Every member of the Club shall subscribe to the Constitution, and, except as above provided, shall pay an admission fee of $50, and thereafter a semi-annual fee of $25, payable in advance, on the first of January and July of each year.

3. Any member who shall neglect to pay his dues for more than two months after notice, or any other indebtedness to the Club, for thirty days after his account shall be rendered, shall be suspended from membership, and his name posted as a suspended member until such indebtedness be paid. Any member who is suspended shall be refused the privilege of the Club House, and if such suspension remains in force thirty days he shall be expelled by the Board of Managers.

4. Any member shall forfeit his membership in the Club whose conduct shall be pronounced, by a vote of two-thirds of the full Board of Managers to have endangered, or to be likely to endanger the welfare, interest or character of the Club.

At any time within ninety days after such forfeiture, a meeting of the Club shall be called, if requested in writing by twelve members, addressed to the Secretary, at which meeting an appeal may be taken from the decision of the Board of Managers, and the member may be restored by a two-thirds vote of the members then present.

No vote shall be taken upon a proposed forfeiture of membership, until ten days' notice shall have been given to the member in question.

All voting shall be by ballot.

5. Any member having complaints or suggestions to make, as to the management of the Club, must do so, in writing to the House Committee.

6. No member shall take any property whatever belonging to the Club, from the Club House, except on the authority of a resolution of the Board of Managers.

7. Any member wishing to resign can do so by making his resolution known to the Secretary, in writing; but no resignation will be effectual while the member offering it shall be indebted to the Club for dues, or in any way; any such member, so resigning, shall forfeit all interest in and claim to the property of the Club.

8. Any member who is about to be absent from the city for six months, or longer, shall, upon application to the Board of Managers, be entitled to a rebate of one-half of his dues.

9. It shall be the duty of every member to pay all indebtedness which he has incurred in the Club House, in accordance with the rules which may from time to time be established by the House Committee.

10. No member shall receive any profits, salary or emolument from the funds of the Club, on any pretense, or in any manner whatever.

11. No member shall give any gratuity to any servant of the Club.

12. Members who shall hereafter resign shall be entitled again to all the privileges of membership, on payment of one-half the current initiation fee, provided they be regularly posted, balloted for, and re-elected.

13. No subscription paper or petition (unless relating to the business of the Club) shall be posted or circulated in the Club House, nor shall such subscriptions be solicited from members therein.

ARTICLE XII.

MEETINGS.

1. The members of the Club shall hold an annual meeting on the First Saturday of February in each year at eight o'clock, P. M., at the Club House ; at which meeting the Club shall ballot for and elect the managers in place of those whose terms are next to expire ; and such Board of Managers shall, not later than the second Monday thereafter, meet at the Club House, and elect a President, a Vice-President, a Treasurer, a Secretary, and three persons to act as House Committee.

2. The Board of Managers of its own motion, may, and upon the written request of twelve members must, call special meetings of the Club, at any time ; and ten days' notice, in writing, stating the object of such meeting, shall be mailed to each member. Twenty-five members shall constitute a quorum at any regular or special meeting of the Club.

3. The order of business at any regular or special meeting of the Club, unless otherwise ordered, shall be as follows :

1. Reading of the minutes of the last meeting.
2. Report of Officers.
3. Report of Committees.
4. Written communications.
5. Unfinished business.
6. Election of officers or members.
7. New business.

4. At no meeting of the Club shall any subject be introduced or discussed which does not directly relate to its affairs.

ARTICLE XIII.

INTRODUCTIONS.

1. No gentleman residing in the city of Rochester and not a member of the Club shall be introduced into the Club House, except upon occasions of public entertainment or reception, and then only by invitation of the Board of Managers, and except, also, in cases of private entertainment, by special permission of the House Committee.

Ladies related to, or accompanied by members may be admitted to such portions of the Club House as may be set apart by the Board of Managers for that purpose.

2. Members can receive resident non-members in the reception room only, and persons calling to see a member shall be shown into the reception room, and the member visited shall be notified.

3. Any member may introduce persons not members, residing ten miles or more from the City Hall, to all parts of the Club House, and such persons so introduced may enjoy the privileges of the Club for one week and no longer, except as provided in the following section.

4. The House Committee or the President may, at the request of any member, issue written invitations to strangers residing as aforesaid, for a period of thirty days, and may renew the same at discretion. Any member who may avail himself of the privileges of this or the preceding section shall be held responsible for the payment of all debts or liabilities to the Club that may be incurred by any person introduced by him.

ARTICLE XIV.

AMUSEMENTS.

No game shall be played in the Club on Sunday; and no round game or games of hazard at any time; and no person shall bet on any game.

ARTICLE XV.

AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION.

To amend this Constitution, the proposed amendment shall (first) be subscribed to by at least ten members, and by them presented to the President, who shall (second) cause the amendment with its signature to be posted for thirty days on a conspicuous bulletin board in the Club House, and (third) bring it before the Board of Managers at their next meeting thereafter; (fourth) in case the Board of Managers by a two-third vote recommend its passage, (fifth) the Secretary shall issue notices, enclosing a copy of the amendment, to all the resident members of the Club, and (sixth) a vote of all the members present at the annual meeting of the Club on the first Saturday of February thereafter, or at a special meeting called for the purpose of the amendment, as proposed by the ten members, shall be requisite to its passage.

HOUSE RULES.

RULE 1.

The Club House shall be open from 8 o'clock A. M., until 1 o'clock A. M., excepting on Saturday, when it shall be closed at midnight. No member can claim admission after the closing hour. The gas in all parts of the house shall be extinguished by 2 o'clock A. M.

RULE 2.

RULE 5.

No betting or play for any stakes is allowed in the Club.

RULE 6.

Any damage to the Club property by any member shall be charged by the Steward to the account of that member.

RULE 7.

On the first day of every month a statement of each member's indebtedness shall be left for him at the post-office of the Club. If the same be not paid on or before the tenth of that month, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to notify the delinquent members by mail : and, if not paid on or before the thirtieth of the same, the names of the members then in default for any sum exceeding five dollars shall be posted on the bulletin board as suspended members in accordance with Section 3, of the Constitution.

RULE 8.

Under no circumstances will members be allowed to send the Club servants out of the Club House.

RULE 9.

No member or visitor shall give money or any gratuity to a servant of the Club.

RULE 10.

No person, not a member of the Club, and residing in the City of Rochester, shall be introduced into the Club, except in cases of private entertainment, and then only by special permission of the House Committee.

RULE 11.

No wines or liquors shall be served in the Reading Room.

RULE 12.

No refreshments, wines or liquors shall be served in any of the Bed Rooms.

RULE 13.

Payments can be made only at the office.

RULE 14.

Smoking is strictly prohibited in the Main Dining Room between the hours of 12 M. and 1:30 P. M., and 6 P. M. and 7:30 P. M.

RULE 15.

Dogs will not be allowed in the Club House, but may be left in charge of the Janitor.

RULE 16.

The Steward is fully authorized to enforce these rules.

RULE 17.

All suggestions or complaints should be made in writing, over a member's signature, addressed to the House Committee, and deposited in the box provided for that purpose.
