CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I

NAME

This Association shall be known as the Genesee Valley Club.

ARTICLE II

OBJECT

Its object shall be to promote social intercourse among its members and provide for them the comforts and conveniences of a Club House.

ARTICLE III

MEMBERS

The number of its resident members shall be limited to four hundred and fifty, and no others shall be admitted to its privileges except as permitted by this Constitution.

ARTICLE IV

MANAGEMENT

1. A Board of Managers of fifteen shall control all of its affairs, elect members, take cognizance of all infractions of its Constitution and By-Laws, fill vacancies in its own body, and shall hold in trust all the Club property.

2. The Board of Managers shall be elected in the first instance, five for one year, five for two years, five for three years. At each annual meeting thereafter five members shall be elected for the full term of three years.

January 25, 1890, it was by the Managers Resolved: That the Secretary of this Board print, and have ready for use, at the annual election of the Club, any ticket for Managers which any five resident members of the Club may request, in writing, delivered to him at least two days prior to said election; that the Secretary post each of the said tickets upon the bulletin board of the Club at least one day prior to said election; that the President appoint two tellers to receive and canvass the ballots thereat, and that the polls at such election be kept open from 8:30 to 9:30 p. m.

3. This Board shall hold monthly meetings upon the first Saturday of each month, and on such other days as such Board, by its rules, may appoint.

4. A quorum of the Board of Managers shall consist of eight members, and any member who shall be absent from two consecutive regular monthly meetings of the Board, except by reason of sickness or absence from the city, shall no longer be a member of the Board of Managers, and the Board may elect a member to fill the vacancy.

Resolved: That the word "meeting" in Section 4, Article IV, shall be held to apply to any regular meeting regularly called, whether a quorum shall be present at the time of such meeting or not.

Proceedings of Managers, November 3, 1894.

Resolved: That a Committee of Five, two at least of which shall not be Managers, shall be appointed by the President and announced at the January meeting of the Board, to nominate five candidates for Managers of the Club for election at the next annual meeting, and to be known as the Nominating Committee.

Proceedings of Managers, December 4, 1897.

5. The Board of Managers shall annually, not later than the second Monday after the annual Club meeting, elect from its members by individual ballot (and may at any time remove and replace) four officers: a President, a Vice-President, a Treasurer, and a Secretary. The Board shall also elect (subject to removal in like manner), (1) three members of the Club, who with the Treasurer shall constitute a House Committee, and (2) three members of the Board who shall constitute a Committee on Admissions. The Managers may also appoint a Clerk of the Board who shall act as Assistant Secretary.

6. The Board of Managers shall from time to time, make rules and regulations for the guidance of members on matters not herein determined, which rules shall be posted on the bulletin board, or otherwise communicated to the Club.

7. The aggregate amount of indebtedness created by the Board of Managers, except for current expenses, shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars at any one time.

8. The Board of Managers shall exercise the right, at their discretion, of inviting strangers, who may visit the city, to enjoy the privileges of the Club during their stay, and may extend invitations to such persons as they may think proper to any reception or entertainment given by the Club.

9. The interpretation of the Constitution and By-Laws shall rest with the Board of Managers.

ARTICLE V

PRESIDENT

The President of the Club, or, in his absence, the Vice-President, Secretary or Treasurer, shall authorize the call of all special meetings of the Board of Managers and the Club, and exercise the usual functions of the presiding officer.

ARTICLE VI

SECRETARY

The Secretary of the Club shall notify each member of the Board of Managers of all its meetings, and each member of the Club of all meetings of the Club; issue all authorized notices to members; make and keep a true record of all meetings of the Board of Managers and of the Club; have custody of its Constitution and By-Laws and corporate seal; conduct its correspondence and execute all such writing as he may be officially instructed and authorized to do. He shall also post all notices on the bulletin board, and shall have exclusive control of the same.

ARTICLE VII

TREASURER

The Treasurer of the Club shall be charged with the collection and custody of the funds of the Club, and their disbursement, under the direction of the House Committee, and shall make a full written report to the Board of Managers quarterly.

ARTICLE VIII

COMMITTEES

1. The House Committee shall make all purchases of articles used in the Club, and in general transact its current business and regulate its internal economy, subject to such general rules as may be imposed by the Board of Managers.
2. The Committee on Admissions shall consider the eligibility of all candidates for admission, and if the report of the Committee is favorable to the applicant, his name and residence shall be posted in the Club as provided by Article X, Section 1. If the conclusion of the Committee is not favorable to the applicant, its report shall be made to the Board at its first meeting thereafter, for such action as the Board may decide to take.

ARTICLE IX

VACANCIES

If the office of the President or of the Treasurer shall become vacant, the Secretary shall call a special meeting of the Board of Managers to fill such vacancy for the remainder of the term; said meeting to be held within thirty days after such vacancy occurs.

ARTICLE X

ADMISSIONS

1. Every candidate for admission into the Club must be at least twenty-one years of age; and he must be recommended in writing by two members, under their signatures, to the Board of Managers. The application shall then be submitted to the Committee on Admissions, which shall immediately consider the eligibility of the applicant and if its report is favorable to the application, his name and residence (with the names of the proposers) shall be posted in the Club House, by the Secretary, for ten days before balloting. Two black balls shall be sufficient to exclude any candidate; but any member of the Board may, before adjournment, move the reconsideration, either of a vote of admission or exclusion. In cases of reconsideration, a second ballot, which shall be the final ballot, must be taken before adjournment. All votes, conversations and debates, on the subjects of admission, exclusion and expulsion shall be held by the Board in honorable secrecy.

Resolved: That the Secretary be instructed to notify the proposers and seconders of candidates for election that no nomination will be acted upon by the Board of Managers until a letter has been received from such proposers and seconders, stating that, to their personal knowledge, the candidate desires election and intends to qualify if elected.

Resolved: That no candidate for election will be considered who is not personally known to one or more members of this Board.

Proceedings of Managers, May 4, 1901.

2. Every person thus elected must, within thirty days after being informed of his election by the Secretary, pay to the Treasurer his admission fee and first half-year dues, and subscribe to the Constitution; and he shall then, and not until then, be entitled to the privileges of the Club House and become a member of the Club. The Board of Managers have a right to extend, by a two-thirds vote, the time for the payment of such dues.

3. Non-resident members may be admitted in the same manner and by the same forms as are prescribed for the election of resident members, but shall be required to pay only one-half the amount of initiation fee of resident members and twenty dollars annual dues, plus 10% war tax; total, $22.00. A non-resident member shall not be allowed to vote or hold office, and, upon dissolution of this Club, shall not be entitled to any interest in the Club property. The dues and initiation fee paid by him shall be wholly in consideration of his social rights and privileges.

Officers of the Army and Navy, Professors of the University of Rochester, and the Clergy of the city shall, for the purpose of this article, be deemed non-residents.

4. All persons whose names are upon the original subscription, or the certificate of incorporation, shall be taken as charter members of the Club.

5. The Club may, at any regular meeting,

Resolved: That the term "non-resident members" shall be construed as not to include persons having a customary place of residence or of business or study in the City of Rochester or within ten miles thereof.

Proceedings of Managers, December 21, 1889.

or at any special meeting called for that purpose, elect honorary members, who shall be unanimously nominated by the Board of Managers. Said honorary members shall have all the privileges of the Club, except voting at meetings and being eligible for office.

ARTICLE XI

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF MEMBERS

1. All members of the Club shall be entitled to equal rights and privileges in the Club House.
2. Every member of the Club shall subscribe to the Constitution, and, except as above provided, shall pay an admission fee of $100, plus 10%, total $110.00, and thereafter a semi-annual fee of $57.50, plus 10%, total $63.25, payable in advance, on the first of January and July of each year.
3. Any member who shall neglect to pay his dues for more than two months after notice, or any other indebtedness to the Club, for thirty days after his account shall be rendered, shall be suspended from membership, and his name posted as a suspended member until such indebtedness be paid. Any member who is suspended shall be refused the privilege of the Club House and, if such suspension remains in force thirty days, he shall be expelled by the Board of Managers.

4. Any member shall forfeit his membership in the Club whose conduct shall be pronounced, by a vote of two-thirds of the full Board of Managers, to have endangered, or to be likely to endanger, the welfare, interest or character of the Club.

At any time within ninety days after such forfeiture a meeting of the Club shall be called, if requested in writing by twelve members, addressed to the Secretary, at which meeting an appeal may be taken from the decision of the Board of Managers, and the member may be restored by a two-thirds vote of the members then present.

No vote shall be taken upon a proposed forfeiture of membership until ten days' notice shall have been given to the member in question.

All voting shall be by ballot.

5. Any member having complaints or suggestions to make, as to the management of the Club, must do so in writing to the House Committee.

6. No member shall take any property whatever belonging to the Club, from the Club House, except on the authority of a resolution of the Board of Managers.

7. Any member wishing to resign can do so by making his resolution known to the Secretary, in writing; but no resignation will be effectual while the member offering it shall be indebted to the Club for dues, or in any way; any such member, so resigning, shall forfeit all interest in and claim to the property of the Club.

8. Any member who is about to be absent from the city for six months, or longer, shall, upon application to the Board of Managers, be entitled to a rebate of one-half of his dues.

9. It shall be the duty of every member to pay all indebtedness which he has incurred in the Club House, in accordance with the rules which may from time to time be established by the House Committee.

10. No member shall receive any profit, salary or emolument from the funds of the Club, on any pretense, or in any manner whatever.

11. No member shall give any gratuity to any servant of the Club.

12. Members who shall hereafter resign shall be entitled again to all the privileges of membership, on payment of one-half the current initiation fee, provided they be regularly posted, balloted for and re-elected.

13. No subscription paper or petition (unless relating to the business of the Club) shall be posted or circulated in the Club House, nor shall such subscriptions be solicited from members therein.

ARTICLE XII

MEETINGS

1. The members of the Club shall hold an annual meeting on the first Saturday in February in each year, at 8 o'clock P. M., at the Club House, at which meeting the Club shall ballot for and elect the managers in place of those whose terms are next to expire; and such Board of Managers shall, not later than the second Monday thereafter, meet at the Club House and elect a President, a Vice-President, a Treasurer, a Secretary, a House Committee and a Committee on Admission.

2. The Board of Managers, of its own motion, may, and upon the written request of twelve members must, call special meetings of the Club, at any time; and ten days' notice, in writing, stating the object of such meeting, shall be mailed to each member. Twenty-five members shall constitute a quorum at any regular or special meeting of the Club.

3. The order of business at any regular or special meeting of the Club, unless otherwise ordered, shall be as follows:

1. Reading of the minutes of the last meeting.
2. Report of officers.
3. Report of committees.

4. Written communications.
 5. Unfinished business.
 6. Election of officers or members.
 7. New business.
4. At no meeting of the Club shall any subject be introduced or discussed which does not directly relate to its affairs.

ARTICLE XIII

INTRODUCTIONS

1. No gentlemen residing in the City of Rochester and not a member of the Club shall be introduced into the Club House, except upon occasions of public entertainment or reception, and then only by invitation of the Board of Managers, and except, also, in cases of private entertainment, by special permission of the House Committee.

Ladies related to or accompanied by members may be admitted to such portions of the Club House as may be set apart by the Board of Managers for that purpose.

2. Members can receive resident non-members in the reception room only, and persons calling to see a member shall be shown into the reception room, and the member visited shall be notified.

3. Any member may introduce persons not members, residing ten miles or more from the City Hall, to all parts of the Club House, and such persons so introduced may enjoy the privileges of the Club for one week and no longer, except as provided in the following sections.

4. The House Committee or the President may, at the request of any member, issue written invitations to strangers residing as aforesaid, for a period of thirty days, and may renew the same at discretion. Any member who may avail himself of the privileges of this or the preceding section shall be held responsible for the payment of all debts or liabilities to the Club that may be incurred by any person introduced by him.

ARTICLE XIV

AMUSEMENTS

No game shall be played in the Club on Sunday; and no round game or games of hazard at any time; and no person shall bet on any game.

ARTICLE XV

AMENDMENT OF CONSTITUTION

To amend this Constitution, the proposed amendment shall (first) be subscribed to by at least ten members, and by them presented to the President, who shall (second) cause the amendment with their signatures to be posted for thirty days on a conspicuous bulletin board in the Club House, and (third) bring it before the Board of Managers at their next meeting thereafter; (fourth) in case the Board of Managers by a two-thirds vote recommend its passage; (fifth) the Secretary shall issue notices, enclosing a copy of the amendment, to all the resident members of the Club; and (sixth) a vote of two-thirds of all the members present at the annual meeting of the Club, on the first Saturday of February thereafter, or at a special meeting called for the purpose of the amendment, as proposed by the ten members, shall be requisite to its passage.

March 28th, 1885

HOUSE RULES

RULE 1

The Club House shall be open from 8 o'clock A. M. until 1 o'clock A. M., excepting on Saturday, when it shall be closed at midnight. No member can claim admission after the closing hour. The lights in all parts of the house shall be extinguished by 2 o'clock A. M.

RULE 2

Nothing shall be ordered from the Kitchen after 12 P. M.

RULE 3

The Billiard and Card Rooms shall be closed on Saturday nights at 12 o'clock.

RULE 4

No betting or play for any stakes is allowed in the Club.

RULE 5

Any damage to the Club property by any member shall be charged by the House Committee to the account of that member.

RULE 6

On the first day of every month a statement of each member's indebtedness shall be mailed to his address. If the same be not paid on or before the tenth of that month, it shall be the duty of the Treasurer to notify the delinquent members by mail; and, if not paid on or before the thirtieth of the same, the names of the members then in default for any sum exceeding five dollars shall be posted on the bulletin board as suspended members in accordance with Section 3 of the Constitution. If a member shall at any time become indebted to the Club in the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) or more, he shall be immediately notified of the same, and upon failure to pay the indebtedness within one week after notification, his name shall be posted and his credit suspended. In every case where credit is suspended, no further supplies shall be furnished to such member until the indebtedness already incurred shall have been discharged.

RULE 7

Under no circumstances will members be allowed to send the Club servants out of the Club House.

RULE 8

No member or visitor shall give money or any gratuity to a servant of the Club.

RULE 9

Any member of the Club wishing to entertain a non-member resident of the city in the Club house may do so not oftener than once in each calendar month, provided however that the non-member be registered in the guest book upon his entrance into the Club house and also that the non-member shall not have access to the card rooms.

No member may entertain more than two resident non-members at one time except in a private room, or by special permission of the House Committee.

RULE 10

Payments can be made only at the office.

RULE 11

Dogs will not be allowed in the Club House, but may be left in charge of the Janitor.

RULE 12

All suggestions or complaints should be made in writing, over a member's signature, addressed to the House Committee, and deposited in the box provided for that purpose.

RULE 13

The House Committee has power to grant to any member of the Club the use of such portions of the Club House as such members may require for occasions of a private or semi-public nature.

RULE 14

No member shall reprove a servant. All complaints must be made to the House Committee.

RULE 15

Members may have their checks cashed for an amount not exceeding fifty dollars in one day, but only when presented in person by the drawer or endorser of the check.
