OLD SHOES.

How much a man is like old shoes!
For instance, both a soul may lose;
Both have been tanned; both are made tight
By cobblers; both get left and right;
Both need a mate to be complete,
And both are made to go on feet.
They both need healing; oft are sold;
And both in time turn all to mould.
With shoes the last is first; with men
The first shall be the last; and when
The shoes wear out, they're mended new;
When men wear out, they're men-dead, too.
They both are trod upon, and both
Will tread on others, nothing loth.
Both have their ties, and both incline,
When polished, in the world to shine;
And both peg out—and would you choose
To be a man or be his shoes?
Choose neither, gentle reader, but rather choose
To go to FAHY's and buy your shoes.

Yesterday noon, about the time the hands of a large manufacturing business were returning to work from dinner, there was heard a terrible crash, which proceeded from the direction of the elevator. Sold by all druggists. Price, 25 cents.
