◀SEAL SKIN.▶
These Cigars are better now than ever, and all who love a Cigar free from Drug Flavors are invited to try them. There is a combination of fine Vuetta Abajo Havana in these Cigars known only to a few manufacturers which gives them their peculiar but rich aroma and taste. The tobaccos used in them are perfectly pure and harmless as tobacco can be, and when you give them a fair trial you will smoke none other. Call for them and take none other.

What They All Say.

"PEARL MIST" has been selected by ladies in preference to all other preparations, because it does not contain any poisons, such as White Lead, Sugar of Lead, Flake White, Corrosive Sublimate, or anything that will close up the pores of the skin.
The result is certain, and it indicates a degree of attention to the niceties of the toilet and personal grace, which the refined of both sexes are quick to observe and appreciate.
TRY IT, YOU WILL LIKE IT.

BETWEEN THE ACTS.

—The same stories are being told of the number of pairs of gloves, etc., to be brought with her by Mlle. Rhea, as heralded Bernhardt's coming.
 —Joe Howard says Booth has the most beautiful eyes of any actor on the stage, and the worst mouth.
 —A circus lunatic asks the difference between a dromedary and the "Galley Slave," and answers his own conundrum, by informing us that "one is all camel, and the other is only Bartley Campbell."
 —Haverly has secured a four-years' lease of a San Francisco Theatre.
 —The Booth-Barrett performance in New York last week, for the Michigan sufferers, netted $3,000.
 —"Olivette," has been played for 350 nights at the Strand, London.
 —When Anna Dickinson saw the trousers she is to wear in Hamlet, she exclaimed, "O, lovely things! Can I ever live up to them?"
 —Mme. Janauschek, it is stated, will revive "The Winter's Fall" during her forth-coming metropolitan engagement.
 —The Mapleson Opera Company opened their New York season with "Lohengrin." Minnie Hauk was the Elsa.
