BAL

MASQUE

MONDAY FEB. 5TH 1883.

AT THE CORINTHIAN ACADEMY OF MUSIC.

ROCHESTER, N. Y.

Mænnerchor Programme.

THE MÆNNER CHOR BAL MASQUE is to be the consummate flower of the Terpsichore's garden, the "Boss" of all the balls.

We dare not reveal to the public eye all the dazzling splendors of this

Imperial Entertainment.

But it is permitted us to give a brief sketch of the magnificence with which the annual ball of the Mænner Chor will be celebrated.

The preparations for this ball have been made upon a scale of magnificence never before dreamed of. No expense whatever has been spared, and novel features have been introduced which will open the eyes of our American friends to new vistas of gorgeousness.

The entertainment will be opened promptly at eight o'clock, by the rendition of choice promenade music, by an Orchestra of (30) musicians, selected from the Symphony Society, under the leadership of Professor HENRY GREINER.

The ball proper commences with the Indigo March, by Strauss. The Prince and Princess Carnival, seated on their throne, receiving the obeisance of their Court, consisting of Harlequins, Columbines, Pierrottes, Clowns, Punchinellos, etc., after which the Floor Committee in the costume of Hungarian Demetrius, and the Reception Committee, in Mexican Costume will parade before the Prince and Princess, performing sundry evolutions which have never yet appeared in any manual of tactics, and will be apt to astonish even the defunct and eminent commanders of the late Ryan Batallion.

The Coal Scuttle Brigade

Will then be formed in line and go through sundry evolutions consistant with their peculiar dress and riggings.

One of the prominent entertainments will be the introduction of

Trained † Monkeys † and † Bears †

Which have been trained to the highest point of efficiency, by a germanized Italian, Signor Kleinini.

Next in order will be the introduction of the LADIES' ALERT HOSE CO. No. 2.

No necessity of making any remarks about them, they will excel any male company in this city in their most efficient evolutions and drill.

The Acrobats will give several acrobatic, grotesque, carnivalistic performances during the intermissions, among which they will form several Pyramids to represent and many others.

A number of the most distinguished Outlaws, House-breakers, and Banditti in general, have been kindly selected by our German Police Commissioner, and they have been engaged as Floor Committee. They have adopted the following NOTES.

The costumes for the Floor Committee have been furnished by Mr. JOHN STOLLWERK of New York, also costumes for Prince and Princess Carnival. Arrangements have been perfected with Mr. and Mrs. Kuhlman, whereby they will be present, with a large assortment of costumes, on the evening of the ball, to accommodate any who may wish to rent them.

Mr. MAT DOLANTY is intrusted with the Culinary Department, and he promises the best the season affords. He will issue his own programme, which will be distributed at the Wine Rooms, on the night of the ball.

The Wine Rooms and Supper Rooms will adjoin the stage and occupy the spacious Hall of GEO. D. SMITH'S Music Warerooms.

All spectators wishing to reserve their seats in advance, can do so by applying at GEO. D. SMITH'S Music Store, on Friday, February 2d, at 9 o'clock A. M., for an additional charge of 50 cents.

The front rows of the Parquette Seats are reserved for Masks only.

Tickets can be procured of members of the Manner Chor only, and in particular of Henry Hebing, Main st., Schmidt & Kaelber, Opticians, Main street bridge, Bausch & Dransfield, Arcade, and Geo. D. Smith, State street. For special Ladies' tickets apply to Schmidt & Kaelber, only.
