Alma Mater

Sing, oh fellow-students, praise of dear Monroe,
Praise that shall not falter, but shall ever grow
As those coming pupils in her loved halls throng
With undying ardor, join us in our song.

Let the stirring chorus bring to us the day
When we yet were treading youthful Learning's way.
Let her colors streaming proudly to the sky
Symbolize those standards kept by us as high.

Come, oh fellow-classmates, join with us and sing
To our Alma Mater, let her praises ring.
We'll obey her teaching, strive to serve her well.
Hail, our Monroe High School. Hail, and now Farewell !

—Janet L. Wile, '27.

FOREWORD

THE Monrolog IS THE RESULT OF THE EFFORTS OF THE STAFF TO PRODUCE A BOOK WHICH CHRONICLES THE CHIEF EVENTS IN THE LIFE OF THE CLASS OF JUNE, 1927, THE FIRST GRADUATING CLASS OF MONROE HIGH SCHOOL. IT WAS WITH THIS PURPOSE IN VIEW THAT THE NAME WAS SELECTED: MONROLOG, A LOG OF EVENTS IN MONROE HIGH.

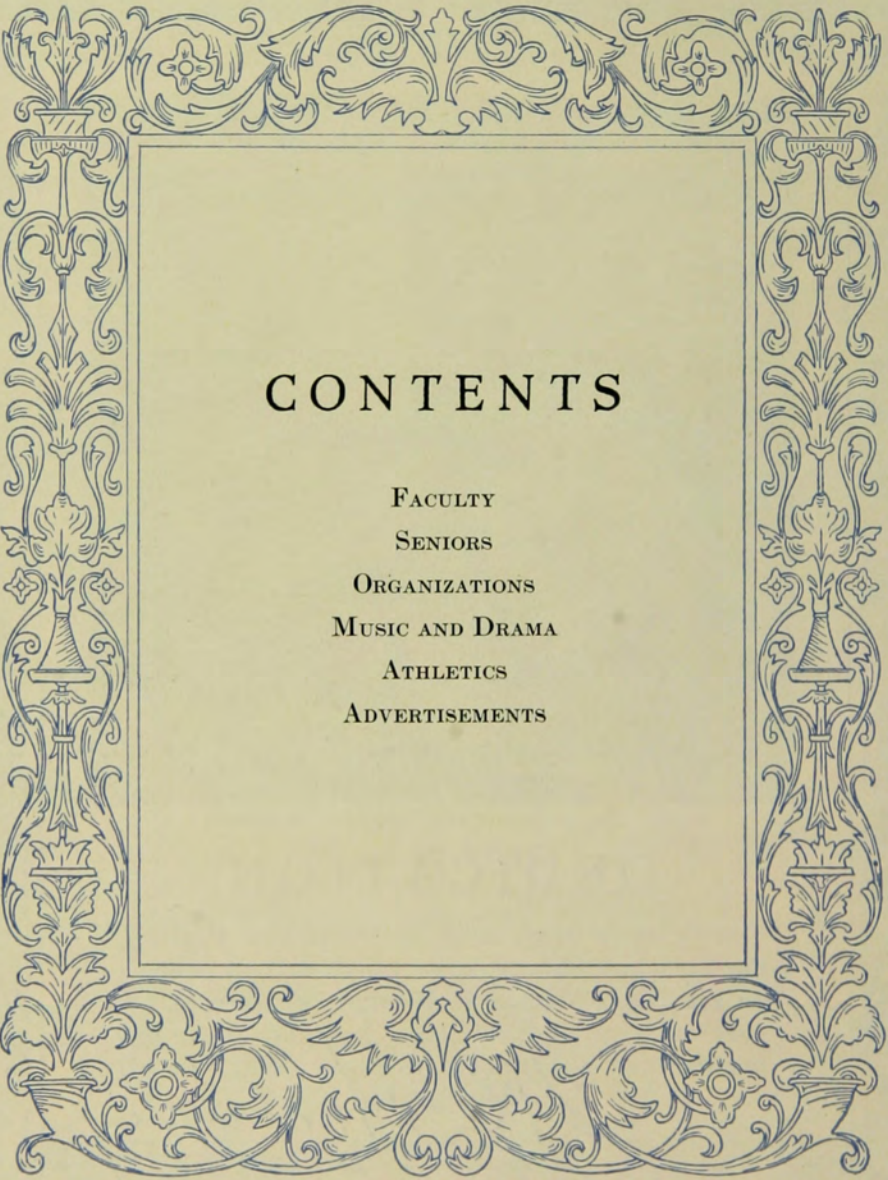

THIS YEAR-BOOK, IF NOT THE ACME OF PERFECTION, CARRIES WITH IT, AT LEAST, THE ESSENCE OF THE FINE SPIRIT OF THE CLASS OF JUNE, 1927.

DEDICATION

THE CLASS OF JUNE, 1927, DEDICATES THE Monrolog,
THE FIRST SENIOR ANNUAL OF MONROE HIGH SCHOOL,
TO PRINCIPAL WILLIAM E. HAWLEY IN GRATEFUL AP-PRECIATION OF HIS INVALUABLE GUIDANCE, DEEP UN-DERSTANDING AND SINCERE INTEREST IN ALL OF ITS UNDERTAKINGS.

Class Poem

*When we came to Monroe High School,
Four years seemed so long,
But those four years quickly vanished,
Vanished like a song.
Days that we have passed together
Seem but yesterday;
Now, at last, through hard toil we have come
To the parting of the way.*

*There are long, long years before us,
For the deeds that we must do;
There are years of youth and gladness,
And of sadness, too.
But the boys and girls of our class,
Though we pass through toil and strife,
Will not ever fear nor falter
Through those long, long years of life.*

Class Dairy

To all whom it may concern: I do hereby swear (violently) that this so-called "Diary of the Class of 1927" is an honorable, reliable, accurate chronicling of the "highlights" of the worthy Class of 1927.

(Signed) F. W. K.

- SEPT. 3—Primus dies scholae, the first day of school. Needless to say, it had rained the day before.
- SEPT. 10—Nominating committee appointed: Fred Kates, chairman; Marie Van Valkenburg, William Boldt and Shirley Gray.
- SEPT. 16—Class elections. Results:
- | | |
|------------------------------|--------------------------|
| Frank Hensel, president | Dorothy Gray, secretary |
| Betty Backus, vice-president | John Richards, treasurer |
- OCT. 24—First Sophomore Class party! Big time! Miss Florence Farlow (who later became class advisor), conducted a fortune-telling booth, which proved to be very popular with the boys. Wonder why?
- NOV. 20—Class meeting. Treasurer tried to collect dues! Preposterous idea! A committee was appointed "to revise standards of dancing." The committee: Dorothy Meade, chairman; Helen Greene, Edwin Curtice, Powell Beyland, Fred Kates, Oscar Katz and Miss Elizabeth McCord, girls' advisor.
- DEC. 1—Mr. Arthur Neff, coach of basketball, announced the following men as composing the first squad of the Soph. basketball team: Hensel, Holstein, Ford, Chilson, Rapaport.
- DEC. 17—Monroe Sophs 30, Kodak Sophs 5. (Basketball.)
- Other scores of the season:
- Monroe Sophs 20, Charlotte Sophs 9.
East High Sophs 23, Monroe High Sophs 19.
- DEC. 18—"Strangler" Lewis, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, gave an exhibition wrestling match between halves of Monroe-Spencerport basketball game, which ended Monroe 43, Spencerport 18.
- DEC. 19—Class Christmas party. Heavy program of wild entertainment commenced at three o'clock in the afternoon. Powell Beyland, social chairman, had charge of the affair.

1925

- JAN. 5—School re-opened.
- JAN. 16—Class meeting. More wild threats by the treasurer!
- FEB. 2—A spirited tug-o-war took place in the girls' gym. between the Soph Finals (us) and the lowly Soph Terms (they). Picked teams of 25 strong-armed and weak-armed men, respectively, represented each class in the combat. Non-participant members of the classes screamed, cheered, and hooted during the battle. The decision was awarded to the venerable Soph Finals (us), who pulled the scurvy "theys" over the fatal line twice. The losers (they) according to the conditions of the contest agreed (rather were compelled), to entertain us at a party on Feb. 20.
- FEB. 20—Soph party, the well-earned reward of victory. Just a nice party—no chairs broken, no teeth knocked out!
- MAR. 18—Monroe Life celebrated its first anniversary. Fred Kates retired as editor-in-chief and was succeeded by Lucile Brewer.
- MAR. 25—Dorothy Meade, the class pearly-tongued orator, won the school oratorical contest and, incidentally, a gold medal awarded by Monroe Life. Dot won second place in the district contest a few weeks later.
- APR. 26—Health Campaign. We all had to face our hands this week!
- MAY 1—Health Campaign over!
- MAY 22—Soph Hop. Some of the dashing young gallants hopped too much. Result: quite a number of sprained ankles, fractured toes, and broken arches. Riot almost ensued when someone produced the ice cream.
- JUNE 3—French play, L'Anglais Tel Qu'On Le Parle or English As It Is Spoken by Tristan Bernard, presented admirably in assembly by students in 1-2 French class. Those in the cast: Ijain Renckert, Powell Beyland, Ten Eyck Munson, Fred Kates, Ted Benedict, Helen Greene and William Packer. Miss Lucile Hunt directed the play.
- JUNE 10—Moving-Up Day—for some of us!
- Jeannette Hurvitz presented with medal and certificate for proficiency in typewriting. Elsie Werner, Florence Schenck, and Myrtle Glossner also awarded certificates.
- Letters awarded to members of following Soph teams: Basketball, Hensel, Rapaport, Holstein, Meyers, Burnett, Walters, Ford; track, C. Burnett, A. Burnett, Ford; baseball, Rapaport, A. Burnett, C. Burnett, Ford, Plant, Hensel, Kates, Clark, Bogoshian, Saperstone, Powell, Walters.
- JUNE 12—Senior day for junior high "graduates!" A nice time was had by all! Many a sorry-looking Senior wended his way slowly homeward after school on this day, and many a jubilant Soph triumphantly bore off the booty of victory! No cracked skulls, however!
- JUNE 15—Exams. commenced. Amen.
- JUNE 19—We went back to school for our marks. Exams. were finished and so were we!
- JUNE 20—Class held a picnic at Durand-Eastman Park. The concessions and attractions at Sea Breeze were marvelous!
- As a class of "rough-neck Sophomores" we remain unsurpassed by any Soph class of any school of the past, present, or future!

Class Diary (Continued)

- SEPT. 8—We enter upon a prison sentence of forty weeks.
- SEPT. 17—Monroe Hi-Y Club organized. Officers elected as follows:
 Powell Beyland, president Louis Rodger, secretary
 James Chilson, vice-president Fred Kates, treasurer
 Other charter members of the club: MacFarlane, Draper, Richards, Powell, Bastian, Taplin, Gibaud, Hensel, Benedict and Kane.
- SEPT. 29—Nominations for class officers announced by committee composed of: Lucille Cook, chairman; Isabel MacNaughton, Robert MacFarlane, Fred Draper, Robert Cragg and Kathryn Gutland.
- SEPT. 30—Oscar Katz and Fred Kates elected senior high cheerleaders in assembly.
- OCT. 1—Class elections. Results:
 Helen Greene, president Alice Maywood, secretary
 Fred Kates, vice-president William Ross, treasurer
 Louis Rodger, social chairman
 Miss Florence Farlow and Mr. V. James Morgan are class advisers.
- NOV. 6—French students present L'Anglais Tel Qu'On Le Parle before Teachers' Convention at Madison Junior High.
 First senior high inter-class party. Committee: Greene, Palmer, Warburton, Posner, Rodger, Hall, Irons. Midnight Serenaders supplied the necessary static for the tussle.
- NOV. 25—Monroe Hi-Y Club presented program in assembly. Draper, Kates, Beyland, Chilson, Rodger were speakers.
- DEC. 4—Basketball team triumphs over Charlotte High by score of 34-26.
- DEC. 11—Team played Attica at Attica. When the smoke cleared away after the battle our boys had the bacon (24-13).
 Fitting celebration for the event was provided in an inter-class dance in girls' gym. Nobody killed.
- 1926
- JAN. 8—Monroe High wrestlers stretch out the Kodak High matmen by a score of 26-16 in Monroe High's first wrestling competition. Ross, Saperstone, Williams, Whipple, McNab, Stein, Jobs formed winning team.
- JAN. 18—Same old line: Exams!
- FEB. 5—Senior high marshals organize. Rockcastle, "chief"; Howland, "captain"; Henderson, Bradley, Russell, Ely, Beyland, Kates, Draper, "patrolmen."
- FEB. 19—One of the best inter-class dances ever held was bumped off in the old, familiar stamping-ground—the girls' gym. Goodwin, Palmer, Irons, Rodger, Leader and M. Williams, in charge of brawl.
- FEB. 22—School presented big pageant in Eastman Theater. Builders of the Ship under direction of Miss Winona English was staged. Principal parts were taken by: Meade, Rollins, Henderson, Draper, Angle, Goodwin, Sears, Backus, Flanders, Laney, Russell, Chilson, DeBlauwe, Leader, Hall, Pierson, Judd, Kates, Coddington, Southworth.
- MAR. 16—Fred Kates hooks bronze medal for winning city-wide high school essay contest on subject of "Old Ironsides."
- MAR. 19—Monroe Life celebrated second anniversary in assembly. Why always in the assembly, I ask you?
- APR. 22—Class meeting. Our petite president, Helen, presided at heavy skull session of class. Staff of Senior Annual chosen:
 Fred Kates, editor-in-chief Brewster Bastian, advertising mgr.
 Bill Southworth, business manager Ralph Whipple, art editor
 Elizabeth Scheible, literary editor Louis Rodger, statistics editor
 Harry Powell, sport editor William Ross, assistant editor.
- APR. 23—School party. Baseball team walloped Caledonia High, 10-1. Grand shake-down was means of celebrating. Frank Williams' orchestra did the work. Faculty turned out well for a trimming-down.
- APR. 30—Representatives at meeting to discuss form of proposed student government elect following committee to draw up final report: Catherine Laney, Margaret Williams, Betty Backus, Arden Howland, Wallace Ely, Fred Kates.
- May 13, 14—O Hara San presented under direction of Miss Eva Wannemacher. Helen Greene, Paul Yaeger, Arden Howland, Margaret Palmer, Walter Pundt, Betty Backus and John Loasby played the heavy parts.
- MAY 17—Track team sliced Kodak High, 60½ to 29½.
- MAY 26—Nominations for officers of Students' Association made it assemblies. Sizzling lines thrown; everyone was splattered with oil and slipped on the grease.
 Nominees: President, Southworth, Beyland, Kates; vice-president, Manson, Henderson; secretary, Brewer, Russell, Rodger, Howland, Draper, Scheible.

MAY 27—Strenuous and riotous campaigning throughout the school.

MAY 28—Election results:

Fred Kates, president
Dick Henderson, vice-president
Fred Draper, secretary

Monsieur Perrichon presented by Miss Rene Dumas' French students. Cast and management: Beyland, Bishop, Schutt, Posner, Meade, Benedict, Munson, Draper, Giambrone, Reed, Powell, Laney, Backus, Greene, Brown, Hunt, Gallant, Gutland, Walters, Clark, Whipple, Rodger, Kates, Southworth. Powell Beyland did nobly! The play was a tremendous success.

JUNE 9—Moving-Up Day. Athletic letters awarded. Monroe Life awarded gold pins to: Brewer, Henderson, Walker, Williamson, Chantrueil, Kates.

JUNE 11—Senior Day for junior high graduates. Rebel Juniors mussed them up a bit. Mr. Willis was a nervous wreck when the day was over.

Inter-class dance. Good brawl!

JUNE 14—Regents' exams. We all feel the same about this matter. Three cheers for the Board of Regents!!

JUNE 18—We are put on probation for ten weeks.

SEPT. 7—Jail opens its gloomy portals once more to greet us. We are happy, smiling, and just tearing to get back to work!

SEPT. 16—Class meeting. We are Seniors now! Don't touch us, we'll blow up! Following officers were elected:

Powell Beyland, president
Lucille Cook, vice-president
Edith Reed, secretary
Harry Powell, treasurer
Ruth Walker, social chairman

SEPT. 28—Executive Board convenes for first session. Excellent start made.

OCT. 14—Class meeting. Betty Backus appointed to investigate concerning a senior play.

Elizabeth Scheible elected editor-in-chief of the Annual to succeed Fred Kates, resigned.

OCT. 28—Southworth elected vice-president of Students' Association to succeed Henderson, resigned. Katz and Clark elected cheerleaders.

OCT. 29—Monroe mops up Cobb's Hill Field with remnants of Penn Yan's soccer team. Grand finish to the season! Every senior on the squad got into the game. Walters put in 3 goals, Hensel 2, Chilson, Rappaport, Russell.

OCT. 29—Genuine, old-fashioned "pog wrassel" held in girls' gym. Louis Rodger's Blue-Chasers played.

NOV. 29—New lunch room and cafeteria opened. The cause of great joy!

DEC. 3—Class meeting. Important reports on Senior Annual presented.

DEC. 6, 10—Courtesy Campaign conducted by Hi-Y Club, M-Y Club, Girl Reserves and Triangle Club. Chilson, chairman, Woodruff, Walker, Hannick, Risley, Southworth.

DEC. 13—Senior class meeting. Green Stockings by A. E. W. Mason selected for senior play. Miss Emily Beebe to direct play.

DEC. 17—Inter-class party. Blue-Chasers on the job again for party. Basketball team socked Attica High by a score of 25-16 at Attica.

DEC. 20—Christmas vacation. Thanks, Santa Claus!

1927

JAN. 3—School again. We can't avoid it somehow. Thousands of well-meant New Year's resolutions broken.

JAN. 17—Examination orgies commenced. Reader is requested to use his imagination.

JAN. 21—Last class of graduates from Monroe Junior High was given diplomas. Class of '27 is first class to graduate from both Junior and Senior High schools.

JAN. 27—7 degrees below zero. Beyland, Bastian, Conklin, T. Benedict and other agrarians had difficult task getting out of their cabins and snow-shoeing into civilization.

FEB. 11—Basketball team chalked up 10th straight victory over Holley High, 22-16.

MAR. 4—Green Stockings, senior play, scored tremendous triumph before full house. Draper and Meade play leads. Munson, Reed, Manson, Laney, Benedict, Bishop, Schutt, Wishman, Posner, Pundt, Schaller performed nobly. Success due to Miss Emily Beebe, director, and excellent cast.

MAR. 16—Monroe Life celebrated its fourth anniversary.

APR. 1—Every member of the class shined in classes—April Fool's Day.

Inter-class party was thrown. Punch was mild—everyone stayed on the ground. Pleasant memories!

APR. 8—French comedies presented. Much senior class talent engaged. Another success!

JUNE 10—Senior Day.

JUNE 13—Fatal Regents' began—guillotine!

JUNE 20—Graduation.

Student Government

The proposed student government organization of Monroe High became an actual fact May 26, 1926, when nominations were held in assemblies. May 28th Monroe's "ship of state" received its pilot and officers, and was launched. Fred Kates was elected admiral, Richard Henderson, vice-admiral, and Fred Draper, log-keeper.

The first meeting of the Students' Executive Board, the administrative organ of the association, was held Sept. 28, 1926. The student legislators attacked with zest the pile of "bills" awaiting action.

During the fall semester a great deal was accomplished by the Board. With competent members on the Board, the Students' Association was soon functioning as a long-established institution. The outstanding measures adopted and accomplishments of the first Board are:

1. Exceeding last year's contribution to the Memorial Scholarship Fund by $100.
2. Establishment of point system for regulation of student participation in school activities.
3. Formulating system of letter awards and qualifications.
4. Organization of all school athletics under Board. Association tickets issued for all season games.
5. Organization of Association; Forum and Board active.
6. Adoption of standard school design for emblems, class pins, etc.

At the beginning of the present term the command of the Monroe "ship of state" was transferred to Albert Burnett, Richard Henderson and Lucile Brewer.

The new Board is functioning well and is fulfilling its aim in being of service to the student body. One of the outstanding tasks performed so far is the business-like arrangements provided for by Mr. Morgan in regard to handling tickets, etc.

Whatever may be the success of the plan of student government, now in operation as an experiment until June, 1927, it has been proved by the loyal work of the Association and its officers that co-operative student government has a valuable, intrinsic value and one which Monroe High can never be without.

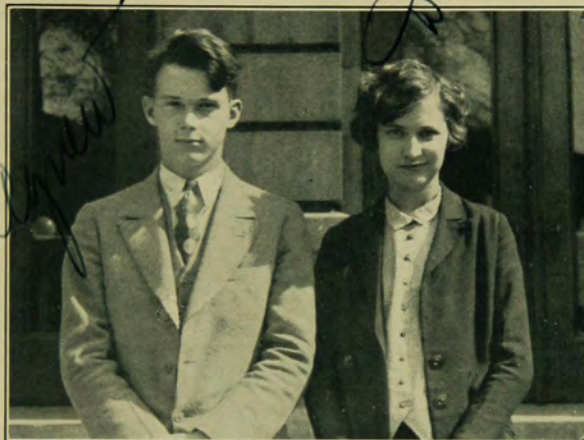

Student Forum

The Students' Forum is an organization composed of the presidents of each home room in the school. This makes it a truly representative body. Its position in student government might be compared to that of the House of Representatives of our own Federal Government.

It was first organized in 1926 and its function has been, so far, of an advisory nature, but Dr. Holzwarth who is faculty advisor of the group, predicts greater usefulness as a student governing body.

Monroe Life

The history of Monroe Life, the school newspaper, is one of accomplishment, enlargement and continual amelioration. It is a history of repeated successes. Since the publication of the first number, as the newspaper of Monroe Junior High, twenty-eight issues have appeared, always to meet with instant popularity and support from the student body.

The original staff, which edited the first number of March 19, 1924, has but two of its members on the present staff—Lucile Brewer, the present editor, and Fred Kates, the first editor-in-chief.

Monroe Life has been of great service to the school in various ways. Its standard has always been high and it has done everything possible to promote the school and student's welfare.

One permanent feature of Monroe Life is an annual Oratorical Contest and a Literary Contest conducted each term for junior and senior students. Deeds like these are what endear Monroe Life to the school and make it indispensable to Monroe High.

Students who have won Oratorical Contest gold medals are: Dorothy Meade, Richard Henderson.

Winners of the gold medal for the Literary Contests are: Roger Williamson, Frederick Kates, Lucile Brewer, Malcolm MacQueen, Elizabeth Cambier, William Silverman.

One part of the Monroe Life organization which is very essential to its existence and to whom the staff and students are grateful is the Printing Department under Mr. Harry P. Bohrer.

Students who have been editor-in-chiefs of Monroe Life are Frederick Kates, Lucile Brewer and Richard Henderson. The business managers of Monroe Life have been: Frederick Draper, Jean Chaintreuil, and William Ross. Faculty advisers have been: Harry P. Bohrer, Miss M. Morrison, Mrs. I. R. LaWall, Miss H. O'Connell, Mr. W. W. Jones.

Monroe Life is a member of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association. It is also holder of the largest net paid circulation record of any school newspaper known of in Western New York.

Monroe Life is one of the most valuable and vital of all student activities in Monroe High, one worthy of continued prosperity and success under the leadership of its future editors, who by proper guidance can establish it even more firmly in our lives than it is at present.

The Monrolog

The MONROLOG, the first senior annual of Monroe High, is intended primarily to be an accurate record of the "vital statistics" of the class. The staff hopes the book will be of increasing value to its readers.

This year-book, published in spite of various obstacles and several handicaps, is acknowledged to be only a pioneer in the field of what future Monroe High annuals will be. The MONROLOG staff merely essayed in the production of this book to place the first stepping-stone to better Monroe High year-books of the future.

A few words of grateful appreciation for the splendid work of the editor-in-chief, Elizabeth Scheible, and her capable assistants are certainly appropriate. The invaluable services rendered by Mr. Elmer P. Meulendyke and Mr. George S. Carhart, are also acknowledged.

Appreciation

Since our city is so rapidly becoming a famed center of music, it is not surprising that Monroe should devote herself wholeheartedly to reach the best stage of development in that department. Especially is honor due the directors of our musical organizations. They have given freely of their time and energy in order to present to students and school patrons many delightful programs. We take this opportunity to express our sincere appreciation of their constant efforts and cheerful leadership.

Eva Luise Wannemacher
Frank Showers

Music at Monroe

Because music is such a vital part of all our activities and pleasures at Monroe, it is difficult to find words to show how much we value it. Perhaps the best way to prove the worth of the organizations is to give a brief outline of them, and their accomplishments.

There is rarely any event, athletic, dramatic, social, taking place in school or out, that does not call upon one or more of our musical organizations to add to the attractiveness or liveliness of the program. The band or orchestra under the direction of Mr. Livermore have now become most necessary parts of our assembly program. The frequent appearances of the Girl's Glee Club conducted by Miss Wannemacher and the Boy's Glee Club under the leadership of Mr. Troup have been greatly appreciated, as also were assembly concerts given by the combined organizations.

Among the other musical organizations of the school whose accomplishments are noteworthy are the Voice Training, Theory, and Appreciation Classes taught by Miss Wannemacher, Mr. Troup, and Mr. Showers. The facts that the membership of these classes has increased greatly, and that the pupils in them are highly interested and find them most beneficial show that progress has been made in that phase.

The May Festival, an annual spring concert given by the combined musical organizations of the school has always drawn large audiences. Much credit is due the various groups for the fine music given at each of these concerts.

A large event that caused much favorable comment was the production of O-Hara San, a Japanese Operetta in 1926. Both dramatic and musical talent were taxed to the utmost and Monroe was proud of the resulting performance. Miss Wannemacher, the conductor, deserves a special word of praise for the excellent work of both the choruses and principals.

Monroe, in her first four years of existence can feel that the stress that has been placed upon music has been amply rewarded.

Dramatic Review

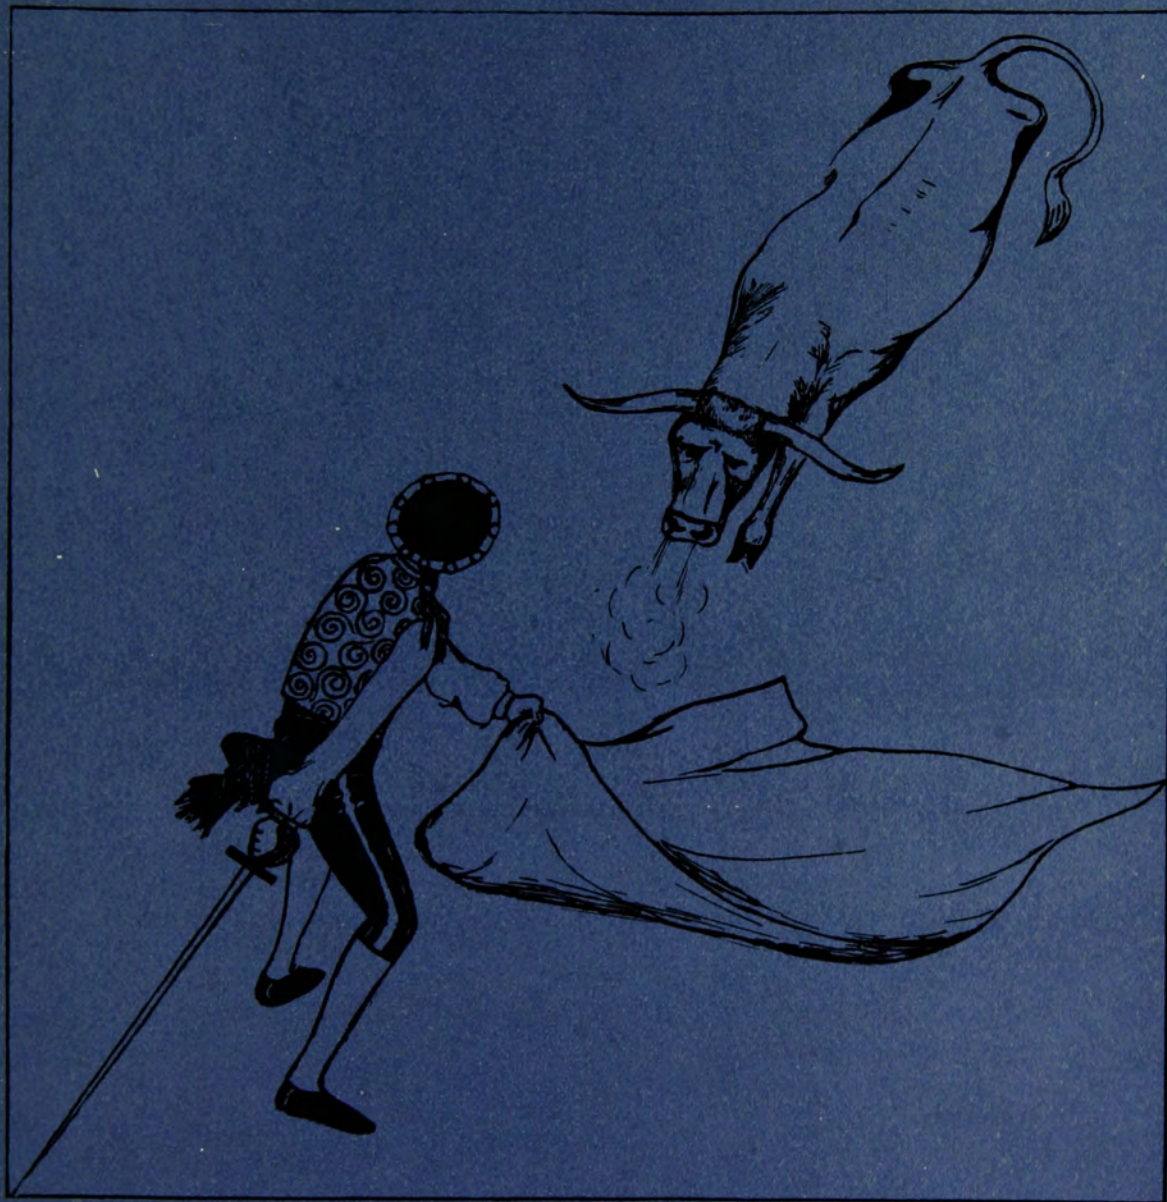

It has been most interesting to watch the progress made in dramatics during Monroe's first four years, and particularly to note the gratifying results of the past year.

The success of the first Senior play, Green Stockings, may be estimated by the fact that its repetition elsewhere was desired. It was notable for the excellency of the cast; the character parts were all well done, and those interpreting normal individuals portrayed normality exceedingly well. Much credit is due to the admirable direction and the careful attention to all details given by Miss Emily Beebe. The play itself was ideal; interesting, humorous, and full of action.

The presentation of French plays by the French classes is another achievement of which Monroe High School can be proud. For three successive years the French students have presented performances of plays spoken entirely in French. The pioneer attempt was by a first year French class entitled English As It Is Spoken. It received its first performance on an assembly program and was later given at the French Teachers' Convention. This play was directed by Miss Lucile Hunt.

The second play, given in 1926 was Le Voyage de Monsieur Perrichon. This play was well received because of its clever pantomime and good French. In April, 1927, three one-act French comedies were given: Par Un Jour de Pluie, directed by Miss Lucile Hunt, and La Surprise-D'Isadore and L'Ete de la Saint Martin, directed by Miss Rena C. Dumas.

The graduating class wishes to thank Miss Beebe, Miss Hunt and Miss Dumas for their splendid service and cooperation in the production of Monroe's first dramatic performances.

Basketball Season

The 1926-1927 basketball season was a decided success at Monroe High School. The team started the season in great style, winning eight consecutive games before John Marshall High snapped the string in an extra period game. The Shop School game which was forfeited, due to a misunderstanding, has not been taken into consideration.

After but two years membership in the "B" League, and the first year as a full-fledged high school, the players earned for Monroe and for themselves, the enviable honor of winning the League championship.

This necessitated a series of games with East High to decide the city championship which was won by East High.

The complete record shows nine victories and but four defeats, two of which were due to the superior strength of the East High team. Only two other teams were able to eke out a narrow margin of victory: John Marshall and Fredonia, Champion of Chautauqua County.

The spirit shown by the entire student body was very gratifying. The gym was filled to its capacity for every game, and the cheering sections did their work nobly. To Mr. Alton Stevens, Coach of the team, and to these loyal rooters must go a large share of the credit and honor won by the team in making such a splendid record.

The season was formally closed with a banquet given by the Monroe Hi-Y Club, at which the entire squad were guests of honor.

Soccer Season

The Monroe soccer team set a scoring record which is certain to stand for some time when the players overwhelmed the Penn Yan team by a 10-1 score.

The team won the reputation of being the hardest team to beat in the League. In the dressing room after the game, opposing players always commented upon the clean, hard playing and splendid sportsmanship shown by our boys.

Such a compliment is infinitely better than winning the most games.

The team finished the season in third place with a .500 percentage.

Monroe students will always be proud of Monroe's 1926-1927 soccer team.

The swimming team won a unique distinction which brightens an otherwise rather drab record. The swimmers were the first Monroe Athletic representatives to defeat an East High team.

The loss of the capable captain of the team, Powell Beyland, will be sorely felt next year, but the added year of experience gained by the rest of the team is expected to compensate somewhat for his loss.

The Girl's Basketball Team is to be commended for its successful season. The spirit and sportsmanship displayed by the team were its outstanding merits. As a result of their team work, Monroe shared second place glory with John Marshal High, an excellent beginning for the Monroe girls inasmuch as this is the first year they have had an organized team.

"ONE OF THE GREAT CLOTHING STORES OF AMERICA"

Growing—As A Good Store Should

Working A Little Harder, Planning A Little More Carefully, Content With A Little Less Personal Gain To Build Good-Will.

Making clothes in our own shops in order to sell them closer to cost. Taking advantage of every opportunity to secure the better values that our greater buying-power makes possible. As one of the most progressive and fastest growing men's store in Western New York, National prestige in the markets is able to secure many price advantages and we constantly endeavor to demonstrate it — by passing them along to you.
