Presented by the Senior Class of Monroe High School, Rochester, N. Y.

APPRECIATION

·IN

The Class of 1940, respectfully dedicates this book to Mr. Charles D. Gates, guidance counselor at Monroe High School.

Mr. Gates has been a member of our faculty since the school opened in 1923. He has been counselor for the past eight years. Since our entrance into Monroe he has cheerfully helped us to choose our course of study, and to plan our future educational pursuits. We are glad to take this opportunity to show our appreciation.

After a lapse of twenty years football returned to Rochester's Public High Schools. Two teams were organized of the combined efforts of the East and West sides. Ten boys from each school were chosen to meet at Benjamin Franklin and put in their bid for a position on their respective varsity.

Three games were played in Red Wing Stadium. The East side team found little trouble gathering in the championship by winning three straight.

We may say that the return of football was the direct result of the action set up by John Forsyth '39.

After tying Edison and Jefferson, Monroe scored a win over East. The '39 season can not be called an impressive one but the Redjackets proved dangerous to all rivals. The losses to Madison and West were hard fought battles and showed the spirit of the squad. Though West and Madison were classed as fast and hard fighting squads, the Redjackets fought to the last minute.

Washington, Charlotte, and East meets are yet to be swum.

Monroe's finsmen lost their virtual ownership of the interscholastic championship when they fell before the onslaught of West High, last year's contenders.

Though the season has not been completed, there is little doubt in the minds of either the team or the coach that they will be beaten by any of the remaining opponents, all of which are in the lower brackets.

Monroe still has a chance to avenge West in the Sectional Championship swim at the U. of R.

At the present time Monroe's kegglers are in second place, runners-up to Edison Tech. It is doubtful that our squad will be able to hold their runners-up position as they still have Franklin, Edison, and Charlotte to play. Losing to Franklin would mean a drop in standing, and no chance to regain their present position.
