MOORE'S RURAL NEW-YORKER;

THE LEADING WEEKLY

AGRICULTURAL, LITERARY, AND FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

The Rural New-Yorker has already attained an extensive circulation and high reputation. It embraces more Agricultural, Horticultural, Mechanical, Educational, Scientific, Literary and News matter, interspersed with numerous Engravings, than any other paper in the Union—and has no superior as an Agricultural, Literary and Family Newspaper. Its various Departments are under the supervision of an efficient corps of Editors, who are determined to render the whole paper Useful, Pure and Entertaining. As our motto is Excelsior, we shall strive to keep the Rural in the van—maintaining its reputation as the leading Weekly of its class in America.

FORM AND TERMS OF THE PAPER.

The New-Yorker is published in the best style. Each number contains Eight Double Quarto Pages, (forty columns) illustrated with Engravings. A Title Page, Index, &c., at the close of each volume complete for binding.

TERMS—IN ADVANCE:—Two dollars a year—$1 for six months. Three copies one year for $5; Six copies, and one to agent, for $10; Ten Copies, and one to agent, for $15; Twenty copies for $25. Subscriptions can commence with any number.

TERMS OF ADVERTISING.—$1 per square (ten lines—100 words, or less) for each insertion—in advance. The circulation of the New-Yorker is much larger than that of any other newspaper published in the State, out of New York city. All communications, and business letters, should be addressed to D. D. T. MOORE, Rochester.

THE WOOL GROWER AND STOCK REGISTER.

This Journal is the only one published in America, primarily devoted to the interests of Wool Growers, Stock Breeders, Graziers, Dairymen, &c., and should be in the hands of every owner of domestic animals. The fifth volume, commencing July, 1853, will embrace a vast amount of useful and reliable information, and illustrated with numerous beautiful engravings.

TERMS,—ONLY FIFTY CENTS A YEAR: Five copies for $2; Eight for $3; Eleven for $4; Twenty for $7—in advance. Back numbers and volumes furnished.
