ROCHESTER BUSINESS DIRECTORY,

Price, $1.50.

“RED BOOK”

INCLUDING A CLASSIFIED BUSINESS DIRECTORY OF MONROE COUNTY.

The fourth number of this now well established publication is in preparation, and will be issued early in September.

The work is divided into five departments, as follows:

I. The Rochester Street Directory, a complete guide to all streets, avenues, parks, etc., in Rochester, in tabulated form, showing the cross streets in their regular order, with the street number at which they intersect.

II. An alphabetical directory of the business and professional men and women of the city, which will be found to answer the purpose of the general directory of Rochester for many uses, as in many cases it gives the house address as well as the business address, as in the case of carpenters, masons, physicians, clergymen, nurses, dressmakers, saloon keepers, and generally all whose place of business and residence are at the same place.

III. A classified Business Directory of City of Rochester.

IV. A classified Business Directory of the County of Monroe. A thorough canvass of the County is now in progress, and each of the nineteen towns of the County will be visited by an experienced canvasser for the purpose of obtaining the necessary information.

V. The City and County Register, giving the names, salaries, terms of office, etc., of the officials of the City and County, public institutions, etc., together with population, census statistics and other matter.

The many ways in which this book can be used, when the City Directory is not at hand, together with its small cost, make it a desirable work to all classes of business men.

The growing demand which has year by year developed for this book is the best indication of its substantial value.

SOME REASONS WHY NAMES ARE NOT FOUND IN THE DIRECTORY,

Many persons fail to find names on account of not knowing where to look for them. A slight variation in spelling will place names almost exactly alike, far apart. For instance—such names as Brown, Browne, Braun, though pronounced the same, and really the same name, are found in different places in the Directory. So, also, of Conner, Connor, Connors, O'Connor, and many others, each has its own place.

The pronunciation of foreign names usually varies from the pronunciation of such names in English. For instance—if an Irishman pronounces his name Agan, it is probably spelled Eagan or Egan. So, Mar, spelled Meagher or Mahr; Fay, spelled Fahy, etc. In names of nearly all European languages, the sounds of the vowels are usually as follows:—a is ah, e is æ, i is ē, o is o, u is oo.

In German names, ei and ai are pronounced like I, ie like ē, au like ow, eu like oi; j is pronounced like y, w nearly like v, dt and th like t, etc. Thus, a name which is pronounced Yack, may be spelled Jack; Young, Jonge; Roiter, Reuter; Keefer, Kiefer; Line, Lein; and they must be looked for as spelled, not as pronounced.

The letters æ, ö, ü, in a German name, are equivalent to æ, oe, ue, and the name should be looked for as if the e appeared.

Owing to the difficulty which foreigners find in getting their names properly pronounced by the Americans with whom they come in contact, they frequently make very decided changes in them; taking sometimes an English name which sounds similar to theirs—as Gilbert for Gebhardt, Rice for Reis, Cole for Kohl, etc.; sometimes translating their names, as Blanc changed to White, Stein to Stone, etc.

Sometimes, members of the same family spell their names in two or three different ways; as Ballantyne, Ballantine, Ballintine; sometimes men bear two or three names, being known by one in their family, another in the shop, and perhaps still another among their associates.

To find a name, you must know how to spell it.

THE CIVIL SERVICE.

For State Board of Commissioners, see page 908.

By enactment of the legislature, all positions in the public service of Rochester (excepting those filled by public election, the heads of departments, and positions under the city treasurer, or the Board of Education), must be filled from applicants who have successfully passed an examination by a board of civil service examiners.

Two Boards, consisting of three members each, are appointed by the mayor, and not more than two members can be of the same political party.

Whenever a position is to be filled, the examining board will notify the applicants on record, or such number of them as can be conveniently examined, to appear for examination, and appointments must be made by the appointing power from the three on the list of the highest standing. Soldiers or sailors serving in the war of the rebellion, having any standing on the list, and otherwise equally competent, have the preference. The civil service does not affect removals from office. The civil service is classified as follows:

Schedule B, Part 1. Includes all officers and members of the Police and Fire Departments.

Schedule B, Part 2. Includes subordinate officers, clerks, and assistants not included in Part 1.

Laborers and day workmen are not subject to examination.
