Announcement . . .

Rochester House Directory

For 1907-08

No. VIII

“BLUE BOOK”

PUBLISHED BIENNIALY

The HOUSE DIRECTORY contains the names and addresses of the adult population of Rochester, arranged numerically by streets, and includes many ladies' addresses, not to be found in the City Directory. While being a work of much larger scope, it covers all of the ground usually embraced in the “Blue Books” of other cities.

The HOUSE DIRECTORY may be said to constitute a map in detail of each street, showing the location of dwellings with names of their occupants, the shops, public buildings, school-houses, etc.

It is a valuable medium for sending out notices and circulars, and will be found especially useful to ladies in charitable and missionary work, and for making up invitation lists for receptions, weddings, etc., as it enables the sender to readily select such names or classes of people as may be desired, and to have them already arranged in proper routes for easy delivery by messenger.

General Directory of Selected Names

OF THE NINETEEN

TOWNS OF MONROE COUNTY

This department includes the names of over 5,000 residents of the County, comprising all who are in business, or in any way prominent in social, religious, or educational circles, or who may be desirable customers to the business men of Rochester. This feature alone should lead every business house in the city to secure a copy.

THE CIVIL SERVICE.

For State Board of Commissioners, see page 1196.

By enactment of the legislature, all positions in the public service of Rochester (excepting those filled by public election, the heads of departments and confidential subordinates), must be filled from applicants who have successfully passed an examination by a Board of civil service examiners, or from registered list of laborers.

A Board consisting of three members is appointed by the mayor, who also appoints the secretary and chief examiner.

Whenever a position is to be filled, the examining Board will notify the applicants on record, to appear for examination, and appointments must be made by the appointing power from the list prepared by the commission.

Soldiers or sailors who served in the war of the rebellion, having any standing on the list, have the preference. Soldiers and sailors of Spanish-American war have no preference in appointment.

Local Board of Municipal Examiners. (For City Appointments.)

Chairman, Adolph M. Splehler; George J. Oaks, Oswald J. Bryan; salaries, $300 each. Secretary and Chief Examiner, Samuel P. Burrill; salary, $1,200. Clerk and Stenographer, Margaret A. Lucy; salary, $720. Office, 35 City Hall.
