There are two kinds of Advertising

That which the Buyer seeks, and that which is thrust upon him.

Both are good

Display advertising suggests wants and creates desire. Of its tremendous power many present day successes bear witness.

Reference Advertising steps in when the desire has been created. It shows where the goods can be purchased and gives information that the buyer wants when he wants to buy.

A Connecting Link

The weakness of display advertising is that often a need is not realized until the ad that suggested it is misplaced or thrown away.

A shrewd buyer usually looks the field over before buying and where is so logical a place to look as in this book.

A Help to You

In your buying, use the lists in this book. If you see a name in heavy type it is because that concern thought enough of your possible business to make it easy for you to find them. If it says "See page — —", you will find there information that will really help you.

Are You Covered?

Have you made it easy for buyers to find you, by putting a bold type listing under every heading where they might look for you or a competitor? Have you put information in the "Selling Section" that will really help a buyer, and point to you as the one who can serve him best?

If not, make a note to do it in the next edition, and let us tell you now how little it costs to be protected.

UNDER ONE ROOF

Early in store history, following the trend of the times, foreign offices were established so that the styles and needs of our patrons would never want for the latest good thing, fad or fancy.

In Paris, in London, in Berlin, style changes are quickly recorded, and from our offices there instantly cabled to Rochester.

Chemnitz, Vienna, Lyons, Florence and Belfast share in this. Each office is a center for our department managers who throughout the year are constantly commuting to every corner of the continent. Rumors are no part of our business, nor do we accept information second hand. It is a policy of this house always to have representatives at the pulsating markets of the world, where the best that is obtainable may be quickly assembled under one roof.

In all of our eighty departments, this buying consciousness is ever alert. The early principles of the founders are never forgotten; the best possible merchandise at the lowest possible cost.

In all this there is a keynote that says: no transaction will be considered satisfactory to us unless it is equally satisfactory to you.

THE STORE FOR MEN

Right here in Rochester—right here in Sibley, Lindsay & Curr Company—is a clothing section which gives the fullest interpretation to the meaning of its name—Store for Men. A shop which is masculine in every sense and fully in tune with the character of the world it serves—a men's world.

A separate elevator takes you directly from the Main Floor Haberdashery Sections to the Store for Men. You step into the Lounge, with its deep, comfortable chairs, its tables of magazines devoted to masculine interests and its handy ash trays—inviting you to relaxation as enjoyable as an hour's rest at your club.

You'll find the Store for Men an ideal place to "sit down for a moment"—a most convenient rendezvous to meet your friends. And—fittingly in such an establishment—you'll find here clothing of an aristocratic pedigree—from the London-styled Clothes by Tailor Guild of Rochester to the highly specialized "Fabric Group" garments.

To you is extended a hearty welcome to take advantage of these facilities.
