INDEX

This is a surname index to the scrapbook collection of "Early Rochester Family Records" which appeared in the Rochester Post Express July 1, 1910 until it abruptly disappeared April 13, 1912. Numbers after the name are page numbers in the scrapbook and you should read the entire page as a name may appear more than once on that page.

The author of "Early Rochester Family Records", Anah Babcock Yates was the daughter of Rev. DeGrand and Harriet Babcock and the wife of Frederick W. Yates. She did many things to advance genealogy in Monroe County. She was a founding member of the Rochester Historical Society, served as a state genealogist for the New York Genealogical Society and was a member of many patriotic societies including the Irondequoit Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. She collected many genealogical records of Monroe Co. some of which are in the Rochester Public Library and some of which are in the D. A. R. series "Unpublished Church, Cemetery, and Town Records" located in the State Library in Albany.

Another Anah B. Yates scrapbook in the Rochester Public Library (Rqr 929.2 Y31s) has her genealogical articles from the Honeoye Falls Times (Sept. 30, 1920 - May 18, 1922) and the Monroe County Mail (Aug. 12, 1920 - Jan. 13, 1922). The articles in the Honeoye Falls Times mostly deal with the town of Mendon and the articles from the Monroe County Mail are primarily a history of Perinton. The articles indexed herein are more of a county wide selection.
