Guild Sponsoring Diet Workshop
The Diet Workshop meets every Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Holy Rosary School Hall at 420 Lexington Ave. Since the Holy Rosary Guild first sponsored this project for the area many people have taken advantage of the opportunity to lose weight under expert guidance and a "fantastic" amount of excess poundage is said to have been dieted away.
There is no special time to begin at the Diet Workshop, it is explained; a person may come down any Wednesday night and join. There is a small fee.
It is not necessary to be a member of the parish to join. Any adult (man or woman) or teenager may come.

OUR GREATEST NEED . . . . .

Old foundations are crumbling away. What will replace them? We are discovering, rather painfully, that drugs and divorce solve no problems. They cannot fill the spiritual void which underlies today's tragedies.

However "man's extremity is God's opportunity." He can fill that void. Give Him a chance. Come to church Sunday.

PRESCRIPTION PERFECTION

When your doctor prescribes special shoes or shoe adjustments for your child, your first concern is that the prescription be followed to the letter. In addition it is important that such shoes give maximum comfort, are soft and pliable and are properly fitted.

Few shoe stores are equipped (by training or inventory) to fill a doctor's prescription as it should be filled. We are. We carry a complete line of Edwards Pedic shoes, designed by specialists who know little feet. So bring your youngsters' shoe prescriptions to us . . . where there is an Edwards Pedic shoe to meet every prescription need . . . and expert fitters to guarantee the proper size every time.

9th Republicans Meet Thursday

Regular meeting of the 9th Ward Republican Women's Club will be held tomorrow (Thursday) at 8 p.m. at Wesley Methodist Church, Christian & Dewey Aves. Committees will be set up for the card party to be held on Friday, Oct. 23.

This is the first fall meeting. Refreshments will be served. Hostesses for the evening are Mary Allin; Virginia Young and Virginia Andrews.

A joint meeting with the men will be held after the ladies' meeting.

The first of four meetings to be held between now and election day is also being held tomorrow evening by the Ninth Ward Republican organization at the same meeting place.

Ward Leader George F. Esse, in urging all committeemen, inspectors and organization members to attend, promises "a discussion of all phases of the campaign and a review of the issues". Candidates are scheduled to appear at these meetings which will be held each Thursday evening until the end of the month.

Dinner Tuesday For No. 7 PTA

The PTA of Virgil I. Grissom School No. 7 has been busy preparing for its first two events of the new school year. They have arranged for a photographer to take individual color photographs of every child in the school tomorrow. Parents will be able to purchase if they so desire, these pictures at reasonable prices.

On Tuesday, Oct. 13, the first social event for parents only will be a pot luck supper entitled "Dinner at Seven". Everyone is asked to bring his favorite casserole dish, his own table service, and to come and get acquainted with the teachers and other parents in the school. Punch will be served at 6:30 and dinner at 7.

Save Aquinas Stadium

The advisability of saving Aquinas Stadium cannot be disputed. It is a much needed community asset from the recreational point of view and if it is demolished, it will have to be replaced with a much costlier structure in the very near future.

A similar stadium, at today's construction costs, would run many hundreds of thousands more than the asking price. Even if such a structure were not badly needed by our city and county, it is a terrible economic waste to destroy it.

The land, of course, could be turned over to housing. But so could Maplewood Park, Genesee Valley Park, the Community War Memorial, our high school football fields and all our playgrounds.

Apparently most people including Aquinas Institute officials themselves hate to see this happen. The big stumbling block is how to finance it. But the money involved (plus the fact that it could conceivably be self-liquidating) is a relatively small amount, especially when one considers how great the need is.

We commend the SOS (Save Our Stadium) committee for its efforts and urge our city and county governments to give careful thought to lending a hand.

THANKS TO THE BLOOD DONORS

I'm writing directly to you all in behalf of Genevieve Krickmire, the Red Cross staff, and myself to say a very huge thank you for the blood collected from our Bloodmobile drive at Sacred Heart School on Sept. 23. You who came were wonderful; 142 pints were collected and 177 people showed up to give.

It's impossible to thank each and every one who volunteered to work for the blood drive personally so we're going to say thank you all now. A very special thanks to our phone committee, who made appointments for 230 people. That took a lot of calling. And special thanks to the volunteers who worked so hard typing schedules and sending out confirming cards to prospective donors.

It is regrettable that of 230 promised donors only 177 bothered to come.

Again thanks to you 177 who did come. A big thank you goes to the women and young girls who worked so hard the actual day. You were great. I'm sure the workers who were exhausted by 6:30 p.m. really appreciated the firemen from Truck Company No. 8 under the direction of Lieutenant Robert Rowan, group 2, who came in and cleaned up Sacred Heart Hall.

Remember we have another bloodmobile drive in the spring and we will need every one again and more. For mothers there is free babysitting while you're donating and also transportation to and from is available.

MRS. SALLY SCREWS
(Publicity Chairman)

Members of the Northwest Housing Task Force are sponsoring the meeting.

Campaign Starting For YMCA Funds

The long anticipated Capital Funds Campaign of the YMCA of Rochester and Monroe County will have its kickoff meeting at Eastridge High School on Wednesday, Oct. 14 at 7:30 p.m. The drive to raise $7.5 million will have over 1400 volunteer workers. Leader in the Northwest Area is Kenneth J. Keating, 138 Westgate Dr., Maplewood Branch Campaign Chairman.

The funds raised will benefit all divisions of the YMCA in Monroe County. Maplewood Branch YMCA is scheduled for a new and larger swimming pool with an estimated cost of $500,000.

"Campaign workers will call upon about 10 thousand prospects who are known to be interested in the YMCA and community betterment. There will be no door-to-door solicitation," said David M. Strassenburgh, General Chairman.

SPAIN and PORTUGAL

(The Post-Courier editor, Fred R. Metzinger, and his wife have just returned from their sixth trip to Europe. They tell some of their experiences in a series starting this week and to be continued in future issues).

On the morning of the day of our departure for three weeks in Europe, the headlines blazed with news of the thwarted hi-jacking of an Israeli plane involving the shooting of one hi-jacker and the capture of another. The El Al jet had made it to Heathrow Airport, our destination in London.

It was not the most auspicious start imaginable, but we boarded our jumbojet 747 at Kennedy International Airport calmly, as did some 310 other passengers and proceeded to enjoy one of the smoothest ocean crossings we have ever experienced.

We were off on a self-charted trip which, after a couple of days in England was to take us to southern Portugal, starting at Faro; then to Seville, Algeciras and Malaga in Spain driving a sturdy little Morris 1300; back to Faro, then to Lisbon and home. Favored by perfect weather and some very fine hotel accommodations, we had one of our most successful excursions.

Our TWA flight was an entirely new experience in air travel. We have no complaints, but we still prefer the smaller jets. The cabin where we sat had some of the appearance of a living room with high ceilings and good leg room. There were six sections and you have the choice of a general movie,

Democrats To Hear Wm. vandenHeuvel

It is being held at the Red Men's Club, 1001 Lexington Ave. on Friday evening, Oct. 23. Co-chairmen Anthony DePerna and Mae Paxhia, in announcing the speaker said that "it will indeed be a pleasure to hear what one of the most articulate and youthful, yet experienced political leaders of this state has to say about the condition of our state and nation."

All area residents are invited to attend. Tickets may be obtained from the co-chairmen or from the ticket committee which includes Robert Walls, Mary Monteith, Helen Petix and Carolyn Brumber. Music will be provided for dancing after the dinner. Reservations close Oct. 19.

Ames-Child Traffic Proposal Condemned By Area Residents

Bi-partisan support in the City Council has been won by Dutchtown area residents in their battle to keep Ames and Child Sts. two way.

Councilmen Andrew Celli and Robert Wood assured a stormy meeting of irate men and women gathered in the meeting hall at Holy Family Church last week Tuesday that, as far as they were concerned the one way plan of state engineers and the city's traffic control engineer will not be put into effect. They promised joint sponsorship of a resolution to this effect that was scheduled for introduction at last night's Council meeting.

Others who spoke at the Holy Family meeting and pledged their support were State Senator James Powers, Assemblyman Frank Carroll, Councilman Frank Lamb, County Legislators Joseph Esposto and Joseph Ferrari, State Engineer Peter TenHagen and Alexander Morris, head of the city's traffic control, defended their one way decision as "part of the deal" which brought federal and state funds for the Western Expressway. Robert Juliano of the Charles House staff presented the case against the one-way plan.

SCHOOL COMMISSIONER CANDIDATES AT NO. 17

The five contenders for school commissioner will be present at candidates' night meeting scheduled by No. 17 School PTA on Tuesday, Oct. 20 in the multi-purpose room at the school starting at 7 p.m. Each will give a two minute talk, followed by questions and answers. Candidates expected are Emilio Serrano, Mrs. Jean Crapsy, James Sims, Jr., David Branch and Wyoma Best. All mothers are asked to bring cookies.

Further information is available from the committee Diane Courtney (328-4371) Carm Hughes (235-2020) Jean Hanson (436-8362) Jean Angora (328-4975) and Alice Hill (328-7644).

TO THE EDITOR:
At a recent Executive Board Meeting of #41 School P.T.A. a rather disturbing and deplorable fact was called to our attention. Large groups of youths are using schoolgrounds for all kinds of parties late in the evening and night. On the very evening of the meeting the Police had to be called because of gangs assembling outside, drinking beer, wine, etc. and writing the foulest obscenities on the building, which our children read the next morning and which cost precious dollars to have washed or sandblasted off the building. They smash bottles, leaving broken glass all over the grounds, not to mention the hundreds of beer cans or the destruction they cause including throwing rocks thru windows and mutilating shrubs that were planted only last year. The broken windows we have had are innumerable, costing hundreds of dollars this year alone.

PEOPLE, this is our community, our pride and joy, OUR CHILDREN. This sort of behavior cannot be tolerated any longer. So please let me make a few suggestions as to how we can, at least, make a start to eliminate this tremendous problem. Parents, do you know where your children are when they are not at home at night? Do you care? Let's begin with keeping a closer check on them.

Merchants, is business that bad that alcoholic beverages must be sold to minors for which you can be penalized?

People living close to the school and grounds, are you deaf? Do you not hear the commotion these gangs create; do you not hear the breaking of glass when glass is being broken? Are you too interested in watching a criminal show on your T.V. set when the very thing is going on in your own backyard?

I must beg you to PLEASE, get involved AND CARE. Call the Police if you see or hear anything suspicious, you need not identify yourself, but please, PLEASE help us stop this insanity.

Do not approach them alone, Security Patrols have had to flee into the building for protection from these gangs. We no longer have the Patrol, sad as it may be.

Are we to live in fear of mere children, and this they must be, judging only by their behavior, who, if not stopped, may turn to do worse, perhaps to your house and your property? The Police will co-operate in this matter, but the school is located so that kids can hide in the darkness, in bushes or in trees when a patrol car drives by. It is then up to us to stop them, no matter how loud we yell that our taxes are supposed to pay for the protection. If the Police don't know, they can't do anything for you. The problem exists city-wide, but dare we use this as an excuse "not to get involved?" I beg you to, PLEASE, do get involved. All it takes is a phone call.

THERESE H. SCHROEDER

TO THE EDITOR:
Residents near the corners of Saxton and Smith Streets have become innocent participants of the game "Give and Take" with the Dept. of Traffic Engineering in this past 14 months or so. Traffic signs have been alternately removed and then replaced with some serious accidents in the meantime. Cars have tipped over, wheels have rolled from cars, cars have ripped up fences and landed in people's yards, etc.

The explanation for their removal was to expedite the traffic flow that is anticipated from the Western Expressway.

Again the people and the area are asked to sacrifice even their lives for the Western Expressway. The original cost was the demolition of over 200 houses and countless families to just put the Expressway on the map. Now it is the turn of those who chose to remain in the area.

It is true that traffic has to flow smoothly to eliminate block by block bottlenecks. However, consideration for the safety of our area residents should be given priority over those who just use these streets to get from "here to there" or to get from work to home, using the quickest way possible.

Pedestrians have become insignificant and inconsequential in the eyes of the planners, giving all rights and priorities to ve-

Morning worship on Sunday is at 10; also Church School with classes to grade 4. Church School with classes for all ages is at 11. "Laymen's Day" will be observed and Mrs. John Kelly will be the speaker at the morning worship hour.

A rummage sale will be held in the Fellowship Hall on Oct. 20 and 21.

W.S.C.S. meets at 8 tonight in room 31. Cliff Carpenter, writer for the Democrat and Chronicle, will present a slide show with question and answer program about South America. The public is invited.

And who are the pedestrians? They are mainly the young children and the elderly who could never begin to have the reflexes or even the brilliance needed to cross the street while the cars pause ever so briefly at the posted stop signs.

These corners and the entire area are heavily populated with citizens within the age cycle of 2 to 90. It is their lives that are in serious jeopardy; for they lack even the protection of the steel framework of the automobile; that is in itself little protection for occupants or the cars involved in accidents at these corners.

UNITE has accumulated a portfolio of correspondence exchanged with every department official that could help us relieve this situation, from the present administration all the way back to the past one. Telegrams have been sent on several occasions to councilmen, traffic engineers, Public Safety commissioners, the Mayor.

The question most frequently asked is, "why remove a stop sign that has proven it is needed?"

 One of the highlights of the last Holy Rosary Cub Scout Pack 101 meeting was the presentation of a new flag donated by the V.F.W. Dick Schied Post in a special ceremony by their officers. The cub pack is taking this opportunity to publicly thank the Post for its thoughtfulness.
 Every year the committee members plan an out-of-town trip for the Cub Scouts. On Saturday, Oct. 17, the boys will have the fun of riding the train at Arcade and having a picnic lunch at a nearby park. They will be transported by car.
 Pack 101 has openings for new members. Any member of Holy Rosary parish who has a boy 8 through 10 years at Holy Rosary School or at No. 34 or No. 7 may come to Holy Rosary School hall tomorrow (Thursday) when pack leaders will be on hand to give information and sign up any boy who wishes to join. The following letter was written to Councilman Robert Wood in hopes of changing the proposed one way street plan for Ames and Child St. I thank Councilman Wood for his statement in the daily press, and for his words of encouragement to many interested area residents, who attended a meeting on Oct. 6, 1970 in the Holy Family school auditorium.

place before it actually became a reality.
 "If the council has final judgment on this proposal, I would appreciate your investigating this situation before a final decision is made. I know you have always been receptive to people and their neighborhood problems and I am certain you will do your best to satisfy the majority of the people."

"The residents and businessmen of the Dutchtown area are quite disturbed about the proposal to make Ames and Child one way streets.

Spain and Portugal

 a mature movie or a quiet zone depending on where you were seated. Our stewardess served us dinner about an hour after we took off and a light lunch about three hours later. It was dark when we left (about 8:30 p.m.) and daylight some six hours later when we landed in London where it was 7:30 a.m. We tried to sleep, but got only catnaps.

"I met with Mr. Alexander Morris last week and expressed my concern about the people in the area and if an alternate plan was feasible. It is my understanding, according to Mr. Morris, that this proposal was resolved several years ago and nothing can be done to change the plans. He stated the reason for this being the narrow bridges and the exit roads off the expressway.

There was more than the usual confusion at Heathrow, but our English friends were there to pick us up and as soon as we got through customs they whisked us off in their Bentley, driving on the left hand side of the road, scaring the wits out of us until we got accustomed to seeing traffic whiz by us on the wrong side of the street. It took us over an hour to skirt the southern border of London on the outer loop that wound up in Chiselhurst, the home of our friends.

"We are all aware that you can't stop progress. Hundreds of people in this area, who were forced to move, will surely attest to that. Perhaps, on occasion, a little slower progress and a little more understanding would do much for the tranquility of a certain area, or entire community. In this case, I believe the people should have been advised what was to take

Fortunately we were only staying three days. We ran into typical English fall weather, rain and quite cool. The change in time caught up with us at this point. We had lost five hours and a night's sleep on the way over and an afternoon siesta was more than welcome.

Greenwich Observatory
 Despite the weather we did plenty of sightseeing in the short time at our disposal. The Greenwich Observatory, the center of the universe as far as time is concerned, was just around the corner high on a hill. You could look down on the British Naval Academy on the banks of the Thames and off in the distance got a very comprehensive view of the London sky-line about ten miles away. We snapped pictures of the clocks that are the official time-pieces for the entire world.

We had dinner one night at the famous LeMarquis de Montcalm in Quebec Square, Westerham, Kent, which has been written up in Gourmet Magazine. It was French cooking, quite tasty and served with a flourish.

One of our visits was to the Chiselhurst Golf Club which from about 1855 on had been the exile home of Napoleon III, Empress Eugenie and the Imperial Prince. The building, now the clubhouse for the golfers, is much the worse for wear, but dripping in historical lore. Napoleon, the last emperor of France, had died there 100 years ago and preparations were being made for a big celebration a few days hence. The threadbare carpets and the general air of decay made it difficult for even our English friends to stay long enough to avail ourselves of the manager's invitation to a drink at the bar.

The news of two more hi-jackings and the subsequent rough treatment of the hostages by the guerillas on the Jordan desert made us apprehensive about boarding our Portugese (TAP) Carevelle for the flight to Portugal. We were lucky, however, not to be flying any great distance. Overseas travelers were being subjected to close inspection and long delays, but we got out of Heathrow with a minimum of inconvenience.

THIS IS WHY WE CREATED A DEPARTMENT OF ENVIRONMENTAL CONSERVATION

You don't have to be an expert to know that the air is full of smog and dirt, that the water is polluted with sewage and poisonous chemicals . . . it's something we know all too well.

The New York State Assembly, a Republican Assembly, accepted the challenge of preserving our environment and put us on the road toward making New York State a better place to live.

The 1970 session of the State Assembly established a new State Department of Environmental Conservation, thus consolidating all State programs to fight air and water pollution, aid solid waste disposal, control pesticides, and preserve our State's natural beauty in a single agency.

The next two years will be vital in determining the course of our State for the future. This year's Assembly, a Republican Assembly, has started us on the right road.

Now let's continue the job.

Double Celebration At Precious Blood

Sunday, Nov. 1 will be a memorable day for Father Sebastian Congiaco and also for his church. Father Sebastian, as he is familiarly known, will be celebrating the golden jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood and the Most Precious Blood Church of which he is pastor will be dedicating its new church building in Stenson St. at Lexington Ave.

A solemn Anniversary Mass of Thanksgiving at 12:15 a.m. will open the celebration with Bishop Joseph Hogan preaching the sermon and a number of prominent priests on the altar. Father Sebastian's three brothers, two sisters, a sister-in-law and a niece are coming from Italy to join in the celebration.

Parishioners and friends of Father Sebastian are invited to a reception in his honor during the afternoon from 4:30 to 7 in the school hall.

The new church represents the fulfillment of a lifetime dream of Father Sebastian. Built of brick, it has a seating capacity of 460 and is completely air-conditioned.

Set Open House

A teachers' conference scheduled for Friday, Oct. 23, at John Marshall High has been broadened to include a series of meetings for parents, students and teachers. Philip SanFillipo, head of the English department at Marshall and chairman of the teachers' conference, says that all parents of Marshall students are invited to come.

Purpose of the afternoon session, which starts at 1 o'clock, is "to discuss how to make the educational system more meaningful to the students and to the community," says Mr. SanFillipo, "and to involve parents in the education of their children and the workings of the school".

A similar program is being held in other city high schools.

The plan for the day is to open with an assembly at 1 p.m. and then to break up into smaller groups of parents, students and teachers with a department head in charge of each group. There will also be a secretary to take notes on the discussions. Then there will be half hour break for refreshments followed by general assembly at which the secretaries will read their notes.

A testimonial dinner, honoring "Father Sebastian" is to be held at the Mapdale Party House on Maple St., Sunday evening, Nov. 8.

Friends wishing to attend may call 458-4974 or 458-1424. Advance reservations only will be accepted until Monday, Oct. 26.

UNICEF To Benefit From Collections

Last Fall, 3 1/2 million children raised $3 1/4 million in nickels, dimes and quarters for UNICEF. $22,000 of this came from Rochester and Monroe County.

In this area, UNICEF Trick or Treaters will be out between Oct. 30 and Nov. 3 under the sponsorship of the Rochester Association for the United Nations. Dressed in a variety of costumes, these ambassadors of international goodwill are planning to visit local homes.

The UNICEF Trick or Treaters will be identified by their official collection box: a small orange and black carton with the UNICEF symbol of the mother and child. "Only those carrying this particular carton are authorized to collect for UNICEF," points out Mrs. Kenneth Price, chairman. Groups interested in participating in the program this year should first have the approval of their advisor, and should then contact Mrs. Price of the RAUN, 232-1080.

JOSEPH R. PIAZZA, who lives with his wife and three sons at 62 Perrinton St., has been named manager of the Joseph Ave. office of Marine Midland Bank. He has been manager of the Charlotte office and was elected an assistant secretary last year.

Service Academy Applications Due

Representative Barber B. Conable, Jr. asks candidates interested in appointment to the U.S. Service Academies to submit their applications to him by Nov. 20. The Congressman will make nominations to the Air Force Academy, Military Academy and Merchant Marine Academy for the class beginning next July.

Applicants for appointment must meet the following requirements: be at least 17 years of age but not over 22 on July 1, 1971; be a citizen, unmarried, in good physical condition and of good moral character; and reside in the 37th Congressional District. The 37th District includes all the Northwest area.

Applications may be obtained by writing to the Congressman at 105 Federal Building, Rochester, or at the House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515. Each candidate is asked to furnish a copy of his school records and take a physical examination at a military post. Results of college board tests, if taken, will also be considered.

The Congressman said his selection of nominees will be based on the results of the exams, scholastic records, extracurricular activities and character references.

SKI FAIR PLANNED

The Monroe "Y" Ski Club is sponsoring a ski fair on Friday night and all day Saturday, Nov. 6 and 7 at the Monroe County Fair Grounds, Calkins Rd. at East Henrietta Rd.

William J. vandenHeuvel, a former Rochesterian who is regarded as one of the leaders in state Democratic politics, will be the speaker. A close associate of the late Sen. Robert F. Kennedy, vandenHeuvel has served as an assistant U.S. attorney general and was a contender for the nomination for governor last spring.

The affair is being held at the Red Men's Club in Lexington Ave. There will be music for dancing after the dinner.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Friend of the chains whacks them.

Back in the 1930's the Tenth Ward Courier raised its small voice to protest chain store practices which it is interesting to note have now come home to roost. The deceptive tactics by which the chains have hoodwinked the American public are now recognized by the daily newspapers here in Rochester. And a major chain operation, without admitting that it, too, has been a party to this deception, has embarked on a new policy of honesty—and gets a pat on the back from the daily newspaper.

Of course, it's too late in history to bring back the independent grocer to the status he once enjoyed—a symbol of service, friend in need, creditor to the neighbor temporarily in financial difficulty—you name it. But who can blame us for taking a moment to reminisce and also to lament the short-sightedness of the American public for letting this happen.

We wrote an editorial 35 years ago, pointing out that a big mustard manufacturer was putting up a special size jar—a couple of ounces less—but available only at chain stores at a "big savings". We were crusaders in a lost cause. Significantly, however, no one sued us.

One day last week, the local daily used its editorial page to praise a chain operation specifically by name, for going to unit pricing—in other words honesty. You don't call it "the giant size" in your advertising; you tell the contents, so that the housewife knows what she's buying. And this in a newspaper carrying the ads of several other chains who haven't yet seen the light!

Pardon us if we say "we told you so"

About illegal sign posting.

A reader who signs her letter Mrs. A. Williams, with no further identification or address, complains about signs posted along Dewey Ave. and Ridge Rd. West.

"This is contrary to an agreement between the parties as to ethical and proper campaign practices", she writes. "More importantly they are an eyesore in the community and should be removed immediately."

We agree.

Thoughts from an anonymous letter.

We received another anonymous letter this week and a P.S. from the writer who didn't want his (or her) name printed, but was straightforward enough to include a telephone number where he could be reached. He wanted the letter signed "In the interest of good government".

We just could not print the letter although several points it made were well taken. No one prints anonymous letters, but when a person says "The complete indifference by so many people to our political system at times sickens me, and it should concern us all", we say amen!

The writer admitted to being "personally involved actively in politics", but claimed he was sincerely trying to be non-

German Measles Immunization Set

The Monroe County Department of Health will hold mass immunization clinics next month to provide free vaccine protection against German measles (Rubella) for children from 1 through 9 years of age.

County Health Director Dr. Wendell R. Ames said about 25 immunization clinics will be held throughout the city and county, at schools, churches and other public buildings with easy access and parking facilities.

The clinics will be conducted on Saturday, Nov. 7, from 1 to 4 p.m. and the locations will be announced as soon as the schedule is completed.

The immunizations will be given by jet injector gun, which injects a fine jet spray of vaccine by hydraulic pressure. Immunizations by this process are faster and have the advantage of being painless since no needles are required.

Dr. Ames said the goal of the clinics is to immunize 50,000 children in the hope of averting an epidemic of German measles this winter. The Health Department during the past year has immunized about 30,000 children, and is now undertaking mass clinics because of the availability of the new vaccine in large supplies.

Now let's finish it!
Drug addiction, has become widespread throughout our State. Unsafe streets and organized crime are problems that affect all of us. The New York State Assembly, a Republican Assembly is doing something about crime and drugs.
Let's look at the results.
DRUGS
— greater penalties for possession and sale of dangerous drugs;
— funds to build, and operate local treatment centers for youthful addicts;
— creation of a Methadone maintenance program for heroin addicts.
CRIME CONTROL
— an organized crime task force to fight State-wide crime;
— initial passage of a constitutional amendment creating a State Department of Criminal Justice;
— greater penalties for illegal use of explosives and tighter control of the sale of explosives;
— broader State authority to fight the infiltration by organized crime of the air freight industry.
The next two years are important. The war against crime and drugs must be continued. This year's Assembly, a Republican Assembly, has begun to fight . . .

partisan. His letter could only be construed as being from one very disillusioned by the Republican administration of both city and county. And he could even be a Republican for all we know. But he lambasted the powers-that-be for the proposed raises for county officials, for conflict of interest as "exposed by the Democrat & Chronicle". He was even critical of the state government and its operation.

"Know what is at stake, seek out the issues, know who you are voting for and why, this year more than ever cast an intelligent vote". It was a worthy thought and we pass it on to the voters.

LETTERS

TO THE EDITOR:
On Sept. 8, 1970, all who knew Ruth M. Jones, suffered a great loss in her sudden death. To me, she was a beloved Aunt and my namesake. To her husband, Arthur, she was a devoted wife. To her two daughters, Bonnie and Penny, she was everything a mother should be and more. And to everyone who know her, she was just as the meaning of the name Ruth implies.... "a beautiful friend".

Her first love was her family. But she was a special kind of person who was capable of giving of herself to others, and she was happiest when she was giving. She devoted much of her time and interest in Girl Scouting since 1966. She served as Neighborhood Chairmen of the Kodak Park District, Assistant Scout Leader of Troop #298 and #30, and Brownie Leader of Troop #30. She loved her Brownies and these girls could not have had a more perfect woman to look up to and to have lead them.

Even though she is no longer here with us, it is our wish that her service and concern for others be carried on. Through the love and generosity of family members and friends, a memorial is being established in her name for the benefit of the Brownies of the Kodak Park District. Those wishing to contribute may do so by sending their contribution in her name to Girl Scout Headquarters, 75 College Ave. in Rochester. To all those who have already done so, her family is deeply appreciative.

She was the kind of person who one meets once in a lifetime. How fortunate many of us were that she touched our lives.
RUTH A. HOGAN

Holy Rosary Guild will hold its annual baked food sale in the Holy Rosary School Hall at 420 Lexington Ave. next Saturday, Oct. 24 after the 5:30 p.m. mass and after the morning masses on Sunday. As this is the harvest time as well as that of witches and goblins, the Guild has decided to enter into the spirit of things by decorating the hall with a harvest theme. Cider, donuts, pizza, and coffee will be on sale for the convenience of those who come to buy and would like to relax a while.

"One thing that won't be changed is the quality of the baked goods for sale so generously donated by our members", say the Guild leaders. "Proceeds will go a long way toward helping the Guild meet expenses."

Priest To Note Golden Jubilee

Rev. Sebastian Contegiacomo, CPPS., pastor of Most Precious Blood Church, will celebrate the golden jubilee of his ordination to the priesthood next Sunday.

A solemn Anniversary Mass of Thanksgiving will be offered at 12:15 by Bishop Joseph Hogan with Father Sebastian, Rev. Alessandro Contegiacomo, CPPS., brother of Father Sebastian, Rev. Nicholas Arioli, CPPS., Vicar of the Precious Blood Fathers, and Rev. Michael Biondi, CSB, as concelebrants. The sermon will be preached by Bishop Hogan.

Bishop Hogan will also dedicate the new church at this time. This dedication represents the fulfillment of a lifetime dream of Father Sebastian's. The new brick structure has a seating capacity of 460 and is completely air-conditioned.

Parishoners and friends of Father Sebastian are invited to a reception in his honor on Sunday afternoon from 4:30 to 7 p.m. in the school hall.

Father Sebastian's three brothers, two sisters, a sister-in-law and a niece have come from Italy to join him in the celebration. In November 1969, the Rev. Peter Nobile, CPPS., came from Rome to take up duties as assistant pastor.

The PTA at Virgil I, Grissom School 7 are also holding a baked food sale on Election Day from 9 to 3 and will serve free coffee. On the same day, from 9:30 to 10:30, Mr. Rubin, the school principal, invites those interested to a coffee hour and discussion of school policies and other topics of general interest.

New Neighborhood Group Planned

Residents in the area bounded by the Mt. Read Blvd., Lyell Ave., New York Central Railroad on the East; and Jay St. on the South are invited to form a neighborhood association.

An organizational meeting will be held tonight (Wednesday) in the Pine Room of Holy Family School at 7:45.

All neighbors who are interested in joining together to form a new sister organization to the DASH and DOVE Neighborhood Associations are invited to attend the meeting, says Robert Giuliano, Community Organizer.

Ames and Child Staying 2-Way

Dutchtown's protest on Ames and Child Sts. has reached sympathetic ears at Albany and these two important north-south thoroughfares will continue to carry two-way traffic.

City Councilman Robert F. Wood, in announcing that the State Department of Transportation has agreed to leave traffic patterns on Child and Ames Streets as they presently are, stated, "I am extremely pleased that we were able to convince the State Department of Transportation that the City Council and the people of the community will not be denied when it comes to decisions that affect our city."

"The decision to make those streets one-way was made without consultation with the neighbors and at best, the decision was arbitrary and capricious. Those of us in the city will no longer tolerate such actions by those in government who do not communicate with the people whose lives they are affecting by their decisions."

"I am personally pleased that we were able to stop this particular action by the state. This should serve notice on all government officials that people are important and government cannot run roughshod over them," Wood said.

Councilman Wood emphasized that this is not a temporary measure and that Ames and Child will continue two-way on a permanent basis.

Wood, Councilman Andrew Celli; County Legislator Joseph Esposito and other elected officials who gave their support, were praised by Elmer Musclow, president of DASH which organized the protest meeting at Holy Family.

MARSHALL OPEN HOUSE

It's open house tomorrow (Thursday) at John Marshall High from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Parents are invited to come and observe a typical school day and to meet the teachers. Refreshments will be served.

Jefferson High Lists Open House

Jefferson High School invites all parents of Jefferson students, and interested members of the community, to attend its annual open house as part of American Education week tomorrow (Thursday) at 7:15 p.m.

Due to the major success of last year's program, the format for the evening will be relatively the same with some minor additions. The evening will begin with a brief welcoming assembly in the auditorium, to be conducted by Principal Norman Morreale.

Following the assembly, there will be classroom visitations where-in parents will be informed about their children's academic program. Since the time is so short and it would be impossible to question the teacher concerning the progress of each individual child, appointment cards will be made available so that a conference between parent and teacher may be scheduled at a time convenient to both.

Various departments have scheduled demonstrations throughout the evening in an effort to display some of the unique educational opportunities available to Jefferson High students. Among the demonstrations will be found the Audio-Visual Center, Dry Cleaning Lab, General Lab, Graphic Arts, Ceramics, Gymnastics, Home Economics, Transportation Lab, and many other displays.

The evening will conclude with refreshments being served in the school cafeteria during a brief social hour where parents and teachers can meet informally.

LUTHERAN REDEEMER

The Fisherman's Players of Cape Cod are coming to Redeemer Lutheran Church on Sunday, Nov. 1 at 7 p.m. to present a play called "Son of Man" by Richard Waters, a Methodist minister. Mr. Waters, director, playwright, actor and producer will engage the audience in a discussion following the production.

The play deals with this question: "If Jesus Christ returned today, how would he meet modern problems?"

Tickets are available at the church office (9 to 4) priced at $2.50 for adults, $1.50 students.

THOMAS P. RILEY ON PLANNING COMMISSION?

Thomas P. Riley of Seneca Pkwy., apparently is in for appointment in the near future to the City Planning Commission.

The official announcement is yet to be made, but Republican County Chairman William Dwyer strongly hinted at the possibility during the course of his remarks at the Tenth Ward Republican dinner last week.

Riley is the son of Thomas F. Riley, superintendent of the penitentiary and Tenth Ward GOP leader. He confirms the fact that he has been approached by city hall, but that the appointment has not yet been made.

Church Gets Apology From Youth Group

A letter from an irate mother who referred to the Concerned Youth as a "radical group trying to reach our youth in the neighborhood", has brought a reply from the minister of Dewey Avenue Presbyterian Church, including an apology which the church received from the youth group. The mother complained that her son was given a circular entitled "Why do you go to school?" as he left John Marshall recently. The letter from the minister, Rev. Charles Taylor, is self-explanatory. It follows:

Several days ago some members of the Concerned Youth Community distributed a paper to students at John Marshall and Aquinas High Schools, called, "Why Do You Go to School?" It raised a number of questions about our present educational system. Because it has come to our attention that the residents of the neighborhood do not understand the church's relationship to Concerned Youth, the church would like to clarify this.

Christmas Party Set For First Democrats

Annual Christmas party for the First Ward Republican Club will be held on Dec. 5 at Schukarts Restaurant, 630 Ridge Rd. W.

Reservations can be made by calling Mrs. Rose Barberi, 254-1899; Mrs. Betty Waldo, 254-6598; or Mrs. M. Quirin, 458-9604. Tickets are $5.00 per person.

CATHEDRAL GUILD SUPPER ON NOV. 9

A tureen supper is being held Monday, Nov. 9 in Sacred Heart Cathedral by the Rosary Guild. A mass at 6:30 will precede the supper and the evening's program will include a talk by Rev. Sebastian Falcone, C.P. Mrs. Edward Lum is chairman and reservations are being taken by Mrs. Thomas Bell, 458-7233, Mrs. John Conannon, 266-4462 and Mrs. Walter Heizyk, 254-4268.

HOLIDAY FLOWERS sent out-of-town. Order early, save the phone charge. Blanchard Florist, 58 Lake Ave., 232-2255.-Adv.

First, the church has no direct relationship with Concerned Youth. They are an independent group of young people and adults who share some genuine concerns about the issues of the times. Concerned Youth receives no funds from any of the churches in the Northwest including Dewey Avenue. The church simply permits them to use--as it often does for other groups--a portion of its building for their experimental youth program. The church neither endorses their programs nor controls what they do. Agreement or disagreement with their programs is purely a matter of individual members.

Second, Concerned Youth has sent the church a letter of apology for using the church's name without permission on the paper they distributed. They said: "When we discovered this error, we immediately ceased distribution of the leaflet, pending its revision."

Plan Discussion For Play Area

The Open Space program of the Department of Urban Renewal has scheduled a discussion meeting concerning the proposed new playground and park planned for the Mt. Read-Emerson area. A circular signed by Thomas McHugh, acting project director, has been sent to many interested residents and McHugh urges a good turnout for the discussion to be held Thursday, Nov. 12 at Most Precious Blood School, 179 Stenson St., off Lexington, at 7:30 p.m.

Drug Discussion Here Thursday

John Marshall parents and interested residents of the community are invited to a discussion meeting on the drug problem scheduled for tomorrow (Thursday) evening in the school auditorium. The physical education department of the school, headed by Bennett Daly has arranged a panel of "informed specialists" for the discussion which starts at 7:15.

Mrs. Nap Hardesty, program chairman of the John Marshall Community Association, and her committee are cooperating with Mr. Daly, and his staff in the presentation of this program.

Two Open House Dates At No. 41

Kodak Park No. 41 School will hold open house on Nov. 10 and 17 starting at 7:45 p.m. Nov. 10 will be for kindergarten a.m. through 3rd grade and intermediate ungraded; Nov. 17 for kindergarten p.m. 4 through 7 grades and advanced ungraded classes.

P.T.A. memberships will be sold at both open house dates. The membership books show much information for parents to know such as P.T.A. chairmen and dates of school recesses throughout the entire year.

"Please join P.T.A. and show your child that you care by meeting your teachers and attending the open house," is the committee plea.

OPEN HOUSE AT NO. 7

Virgil I. Grissom School No. 7 is holding an open house next Tuesday, Nov. 10. All parents are urged to attend.

SATURDAY SMORGASBORD OPEN TO PUBLIC

If you're looking for something to do Saturday night, the ladies of Lyell Ave. Baptist Church suggest that you come to their annual Harvest Supper being held Nov. 7 in their church in Cameron St., from 5:30 to 7. They will be serving smorgasbord style. Tickets are adults $2.00, children 6 to 12, $1.00.

Two staff members of Maplewood Branch YMCA are shown checking reports of pledges turned in by their workers in the "Y" capital funds campaign. They are Katherine Nolan, office secretary, and Bert Maggio, Youth Work director. Report meetings are being held each Wednesday night.

Eighteen Maplewood "Y" Branch teams have been hard at work since October 14 securing pledges for the $7.5 million capital funds campaign. Kenneth J. Keating, branch campaign chairman, has reported 177 pledges for $28, 181. He is assisted by John A. Harrington, Frederick Jennings and David B. Reed, division leaders.

Total amount raised in the county to date is over 50% of the final goal.

Maplewood Branch is slated to receive $500,000 for the construction of a new swimming pool, converting the existing pool to a better teaching facility for young members and some other items of renovation including new boilers and a new gym floor.

OUR GREATEST NEED . . . . .

Old foundations are crumbling away. What will replace them? We are discovering, rather painfully, that drugs and divorce solve no problems. They cannot fill the spiritual void which underlies today's tragedies.
However "man's extremity is God's opportunity." He can fill that void. Give Him a chance. Come to church Sunday.

Geislers Celebrate
60th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Geisler, 241 Pullman Ave., noted the 60th anniversary of their marriage on Nov. 1. They were married at St. Michael's Church and have lived at the Pullman Ave. address 35 years. Mr. Geisler is retired from the postoffice where he served as superintendent of West Ridge Office and also for a time as assistant superintendent of mails.

The Geislers have 12 living children and one deceased; also 58 grandchildren and 23 great-grandchildren.

A family dinner was held at the Dutch Mill on the previous evening in celebration of the anniversary. A mass was said for them also on Oct. 31 at Sacred Heart Cathedral.

Mayor Stephen May recently presented a special citation in honor of "his abiding commitment to his fellow man" to one of the North-west's best known residents, Joseph "Papa Joe" Fortino. The occasion was the 85th birthday of Mr. Fortino, who resides at 361 Selye Terrace. Papa Joe's daughter, Mrs. Ida Cerami (on left in picture) hosted the surprise dinner for 200 of Papa Joe's closest friends at the Moose Club. Mayor May presented the citation on behalf of the people of the City of Rochester in honor of the Italian immigrant "who has spent the major portion of his life giving of himself to assist his fellow man."

Rubella Clinic Here Saturday

The Monroe County Department of Health will hold a mass immunization program against Rubella on Saturday, Nov. 7, from 1 to 4 p.m. for children 1 through 9 years of age.

In this area the immunizations will be given at No. 34 School, 530 Lexington Ave.

The goal is to immunize 50,000 children. If this number is immunized, the Health Department hopes to be able to avert an anticipated epidemic of Rubella this winter.

Rubella, or German measles, is a cyclic disease, occurring in epidemics every 6-7 years. Although the illness is usually mild and of little consequence in children, the trouble begins when youngsters expose mothers to the disease. If the mother is pregnant, the disease may deform or kill her unborn child.

As a result of the 1964-65 epidemic, an estimated 20,000 infants in the United States were born with cataracts, hearing defects, heart malformations and mental retardations, and some 30,000 pregnancies terminated in miscarriage or stillbirth.

"Save Aquinas" Plans In Making
Several proposals have been advanced and those interested in saving Aquinas Stadium are hopeful that one of them will materialize. The S.O.S. (Save Our Stadium) Committee, headed by attorney Charles Schiano, has expressed confidence in its ability to come up with a workable plan and appears to have the best prospects. One of several other proposals is that of the 13/30 Youth Development co-op advanced by Al Frattare, active Aquinas alumnus and proprietor of bowling alleys in Lyell Ave.

BIRTH ANNOUNCED
A possible future manager of Fabulous Flowers arrived on the scene on Oct 15 when Catherine Marcel Dougherty was born to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dougherty of English Rd. The mother is proprietor of the florist shop located in Ridge Rd. West. This is her first child. Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Dennis of Dewey Ave.

"The stadium has to be saved at all cost", says Frattare. "It should be purchased by the young of our entire community of Rochester and Monroe County. And it is not too far fetched that we as unselfish adults can help the young to own, operate and control it as a profitable business venture". Young people between the ages of 13 and 30, as well as older people, who are interested are urged by Frattare to call him at 458-0472 or to write him at 956 Lyell Ave.

Church Gets Apology

The church wants all area residents to understand this.

Third, it should also be clearly understood that the Area Youth Ministry, directed by Mr. Andrew Armstrong is NOT Concerned Youth. They are two separate and distinct organizations with different purposes. Area Youth Ministry is supported by 9 area churches and is governed by an Advisory Committee appointed by the churches.

Finally, Dewey Avenue is most concerned about our neighborhood and its residents and always welcomes the expression of opinion and the opportunity to talk with them about the church's programs for the neighborhood.

Honors Divided Here In Election Results

The tendency of voters to be a little more selective resulted in some surprises in last week's elections. Four of the Northwest wards, as usual, showed a Democratic trend. Wards 1, 15, 20 and 24 gave pluralities to Arthur Goldberg and the Ninth and Tenth went for Rockefeller.

Barber Conable (R) won all six wards in his successful campaign for re-election to Congress. And State Senator James Powers (D) also came out ahead in all wards, giving him a sizeable margin over Joseph Campbell (R). County Court Judge Edward Provenzano (R) also won in all wards as did State Comptroller Arthur Levitt (D) and Attorney General Louis Lefkowitz (R).

Councilman Andrew Celli (D) who was elected a City Court Judge was the top vote getter among the four candidates in Wards 1, 15, 20 and 24; was second only to Harold Galloway (R) in Celli's home ward, the Tenth as well as in the Ninth. Galloway was a winner in all local wards and also was elected.

Assemblyman Frank Carroll (R) carried the three wards in which he ran, 15, 20 and 24 in winning re-election. Assemblyman William Steinfeldt (R) carried the Ninth and Tenth, but trailed in Wards 1, 15 and 24. He came out of Greece with enough plurality to insure his re-election.

The Ninth and Tenth favored U. S. Senator-elect James Buckley (C) but the other wards gave their pluralities to Richard Ottinger (D).

In the surprising school board results, David Branch (D) did well in all six wards, but it was Emilio Serrano (R) who was the top favorite in all but the 20th. Wyoma Best (D) was close to the leaders in all wards and James Sims (C) did well in all but the 15th. Branch and Best were elected despite the fact that they apparently will be for a more liberal school policy.

Sims Unhappy About Election

Proud as he is of the more than 20,000 votes he got in last Tuesday's election, James R. Sims, Jr. is not happy with the outcome in the School Commissioner race. He told the Post-Courier that he finds it difficult to explain how people could vote for the two Democratic candidates who were elected.

"They must have voted the straight party line", says Sims. "And now I am afraid they will get just what they deserve".

Sims is quite certain that he would have been elected if he had been successful in getting the Republican nomination in the Primaries. (He lost the Republican endorsement by 17 votes). He feels that he could have held the 20,000 plus votes he got running as a Conservative and with the Republican vote could have emerged a winner.

Sims has been a leader in the development of Rochester Neighborhood School Association and served as its president. He is badly disillusioned by lack of support from the parents who favor the neighborhood school concept and who are opposed to busing. He is willing to run again next year, but only if he is nominated on a major party ticket.

Tenth Republican Party Is Dec. 2

The Tenth Ward Women's Republican Club is having its annual Christmas Party on Wednesday, Dec. 2. It will be held at the Chessman Restaurant at Ridge and Dewey at 8 p.m.

Reservations must be in no later than Nov. 25 to Mrs. Frank Afronti, 647-1688.

Republican Women of the Ninth Ward will hold election of officers at their meeting tomorrow (Wednesday) night. The meeting is being held at Wesley Methodist Church, Dewey at Christian at 8 p.m. Hostesses will be Mary Allin and Virginia Young. Refreshments will be served.

Also on the agenda will be plans for the annual Christmas party which is scheduled at Sellitto's Restaurant on Dec. 5. This will be for both men and women.

SPAIN and PORTUGAL

By FRED R. METZINGER, Post-Courier Editor

(The first portion of this tale of our experiences in our sixth trip to Europe ended in London. Now we have flown to southern Portugal).

At Faro we had reservations at a modern and very comfortable hotel, right on the shores of the Atlantic and set in the midst of a golf course with the greenest grass you ever saw. (It hadn't rained there in weeks and the countryside was badly scorched). Water was the answer and the golfers' fairways as well as greens were watered day and night. Food and service at the hotel was the finest. We rented our snappy little Morris here and spent a few days exploring the nearby towns and seaside resorts.

This is in the area of Portugal known as the Algarve where there is no wintertime. The skies were cloudless every day and it was in the 80's. At night, the temperature dropped only about ten degrees. There is a curving shoreline at this point and Faro Island is the part jutting out the farthest toward Africa. It is also interesting to note that Faro is within about 50 miles of the western-most point of the European continent where it extends out into the Atlantic toward North America.

There are still 125 miles of relatively untouched beach, but Englishmen with the aid of American money are rapidly exploiting the area, building high rise apartments, white stucco town houses and Spanish haciendas--the same as they are doing all over Portugal and Spain as well as elsewhere in Europe. The modern touch strikes you as quite bizarre when you see natives riding donkeys and driving oxen in the fields in the same general vicinity. The rank and file still live in the close

Aquinas Open House

Aquinas Institute will hold its annual open house for prospective students on Sunday, Nov. 15, 3 to 5 p.m., in the Dewey Ave. school, it was announced today by Father Albert R. Gaelens, C.S.B., principal.

With the title, "Aquinas in Action", a program has been prepared to show academic and extra-curricular activities that take place during the school year. Students will present much of the activity.

Elementary school students and their parents will have an opportunity to investigate scientific research using high-powered microscopes and other laboratory apparatus. Physical Education and the arts also will be part of the program. Audio-visual materials, including closed circuit television, will be on display and demonstrated.

The school band and color guard will perform at regular intervals as well as athletic teams.

Aquinas has just completed a $700,000 renovation. Many new additions and new methods of education have been installed at the school.

Nine Aquinas Band students have been selected to participate in the area All-State Band and Orchestra to be held in Brockport High School, Nov. 21, according to Alfred Fabrizio, Aquinas music director.

SPAIN and PORTUGAL

confines of very narrow alleyways--behind white-washed but ancient stucco walls that have been home for many, many generations of Portugese.

But Portugal is not called the Cinderella of Europe without good reason. The bondage of a dictatorship and the practical peonage it imposed on the working class is gradually becoming a matter of history. They still have a long way to go, but the Portugese are definitely on the go, especially the younger generation. (We could see noticeable improvements since our 1966 visit to Portugal).

Even in the small towns you see evidence of the new era--from the mini skirts on the girls to the mini-motor cars piloted by daring young men, and young ladies, too, darting hither and yon like scared jack rabbits, on the narrow streets oblivious to the comfort and safety of the dodging pedestrians.

And the younger ones don't walk around balancing bundles on their heads as do their mothers. You don't see many of the young folks riding donkeys along the highways, either, like their parents still do.

The jackass, as mentioned previously, is still the beast of burden and the principal mode of transportation for much of the population. It's a sight to see, on a Sunday morning as we did, a veritable parade of donkey carts carrying mom and pop, along the main highway, into town--their version, apparently, of a hilarious holiday excursion.

We learned that for centuries the Algarve had existed in exclusive remoteness. The invading Moors had held this part of the country for 500 years and had transformed it into a real garden spot, capturing the water from the wells and springs on the slopes that screen this part of Portugal from the north winds and give it the warmer climate. They planted orange groves and fig trees, which are still in abundance, but most of the rural landscape is now covered with millions and millions of olive trees standing in long straight rows uphill and down dale, all over the place. Olives and sardines are very important elements in the Portugese economy. (Incidentally we saw our first pomegranate trees here).

A fresco painted on the ceiling of his parents' home in Smith St. by Alex Liccione was the subject of a full page article and illustration in a recent Upstate Magazine distributed with the Democrat & Chronicle. Young Liccione is now back in Italy resuming his art studies at the Brera Academy in Milan. He had been home on a summer vacation after two years in Italy.

The scene which Alex painted on the ceiling lying on his back in the manner of Michaelangelo depicts a Roman warrior on a white horse being attacked by a tiger. It is done in classical style with angels, Roman columns and other authentic touches.

Alex is the son of letter carrier James Liccione who works out of Dewey Station.

Kodak reports to the community

On TOP, with Tony Douglas.

Maybe you didn't know it, but you live in a town where many inner-city teenagers like Tony Douglas spend their summers working with policemen. They do it through an organization called TOP—Teens on Patrol, an organized attempt to improve understanding between youth and local law enforcement officers.

Hired as civilian employees of the Rochester Police Bureau, the teens take a two-week training course and are then assigned to help patrol city playgrounds, parks, and other recreational areas. In many cases, their mere presence has prevented possible rowdiness, vandalism, or other acts which might have provoked confrontations with police.

This past summer the TOP program reached 70 young people through the cooperation of the Rochester Police Bureau and Rochester Jobs Inc., with funding help from Kodak. The teenagers got an inside look and a better appreciation of a city policeman's job, and police got to know 70 city teenagers a lot better.

Our hats are off to both the kids and the police on a job well done together.

Who owns Kodak?

At last count, over 24,000 Kodak employees were participating in our Savings and Investment Plan, which is available to help supplement retirement income through a long-term investment program.

Participants elect to have us deposit all or a portion of their anticipated Wage Dividend with a trustee, who invests the money in one or more of three funds. Most of the money is invested in Eastman Kodak common stock, but it can be invested in a diversified group of preferred and common stocks or in U.S. Government securities.

Many employees also participate in a pay-roll-deduction stock plan.

All these Kodak people, and others in the community who have invested in Kodak stock, create a "people's capitalism" that enables the community to share in the rewards of free enterprise.

Who owns Kodak? Lots of people do, but mostly it's you, your neighbors, and Kodak people themselves . . . altogether around 45,000 share owners in this area alone. All we can say is, thanks for the vote of confidence. We couldn't work for nicer people.

Fish don't like it—and neither do we!

Mercury pollution.

There isn't a more ruinous element known in the manufacture of photographic film. Even in tiny amounts, mercury can fog miles and miles of film.

Now, with government agencies recently having discovered alarmingly high mercury levels in fish caught in fresh-water lakes, we are in a position to share our knowledge of mercury control with public health officials everywhere.

We're making available a bibliography of technical know-how developed during our 30-year struggle to keep mercury out of our Kodak Park manufacturing environment.

Over the years, some mercury detection methods we've developed range up to 100 times more sensitive than those generally employed elsewhere.

Knowledge, procedures, and techniques contained in the bibliography will show public health officials how to prepare samples to test for the presence of mercury—even how to assemble a reliable analyzer, using basic materials found in any laboratory. Knowledge gained should go a long way toward giving many communities efficient, low-cost mercury-monitoring capability.

It's nice to know that not only have we learned some ways to keep mercury pollution from putting us out of business, now we can help make sure it won't put you out of business either.

EASTMAN KODAK COMPANY

Some of our best teachers are students.

Every day, Kodak goes to class with thousands of high-school students in the six-county Rochester area. Under the school services program, Kodak provides schools with programs and teaching aids designed specifically to reach and hold the interest of young, inquiring minds. What we get in return is candid, instantaneous response from students and teachers as to any given program's worth as an effective learning aid.

A full range of teaching aids are available, including 16mm color movies, slide-tape programs, career display sets, and Kodak speakers on a variety of topics. All are available free of charge.

Our school services program is getting into full swing right now, as the school year begins, and now is the time for area teachers and administrators to contact us for complete details.

Just call 325-2000. Extension 4124.

This is what a traffic jam looks like to our computer.

It takes the place of the Kodaker behind the wheel—the person who creeps out of a company parking lot and onto a stretch of double-yellow-striped, bumper-to-bumper molasses every 5 p.m.

A large part of the traffic in Northwest Rochester has long stemmed from 28,000 Kodak Park people who head out of 175 manufacturing buildings and make tracks for cars in 35 parking lots every day. So our Kodak Park traffic committee decided to help do something about the problem.

Working with city and state traffic experts, our industrial engineers designed a basic simulation model of the surrounding streets. They allowed for the capacity of plant parking lots and the proximity of lots to roadways. Using a computer to simulate thousands of cause-effect traffic situations, they introduced these elements onto a mathematical map showing 400 sections of surrounding streets.

Engaging in mathematical "logic," it was the computer's job to move as many cars as possible from one section to the next, without causing a jam-up in another section. A tough job? Not for the computer. It proved capable of simulating the entire three hours of rush traffic from 3 to 6 p.m. in less than 3 minutes.

After studying the computer data, we staggered the arrival times and especially the quitting times of thousands of our people. Our engineers shared their knowledge with city and state traffic experts, who were doing their part by adjusting signal light intervals and widening intersections.

We're glad our computer technology could work with our community's engineers to help ease the strain of one of America's best known and least-loved afternoon phenomena—the rush-hour traffic jam.

PRESCRIPTION PERFECTION

When your doctor prescribes special shoes or shoe adjustments for your child, your first concern is that the prescription be followed to the letter. In addition it is important that such shoes give maximum comfort, are soft and pliable and are properly fitted.

Few shoe stores are equipped (by training or inventory) to fill a doctor's prescription as it should be filled. We are. We carry a complete line of Edwards Pedic shoes, designed by specialists who know little feet. So bring your youngsters' shoe prescriptions to us . . . where there is an Edwards Pedic shoe to meet every prescription need . . . and expert fitters to guarantee the proper size every time.

LETTERS

TO THE EDITOR:

We have read with interest the comments of Mrs. A. Williams and yourself concerning the placing of political posters on trees and telephone poles. This of course also affects us and we would like to offer some comments on the subject.

For several years the Ninth and Tenth Ward Republican and Democratic organizations have had a "gentlemen's agreement" that no such posters would be placed on our streets. To our knowledge, this agreement has never been violated by these organizations.

In the spring of 1970, Democratic County Chairman Robert Quigley wrote to the county chairmen of each of the other political partner suggesting that such an agreement be extended to the entire county to prevent visual political pollution. He never received a reply from any of the other political county chairmen.

Each fall the various candidates organize volunteer committees which are composed of hard working and sincere friends and neighbors. They are usually not associated in any way with the regular political organizations. Some of these people become over-zealous at times and do things (such as lining our streets with political posters) which the regular political organizations have no knowledge of and would not do themselves.

We neither commend nor condemn them for this. We merely explain it. We do none-the-less congratulate them for being interested citizens, which too few of our neighbors are.

Plumbing and Furnace Work
For Reliable Service Call
Metzger & Brayer-458-5000

This letter is addressed to Ninth and Tenth Warders. Last spring the P.T.A. of Rochester had a poll. Ninety-two percent of the people voted they were against busing. Last spring at every reorganizational meeting I attended I heard the majority of the people not only say, but shout they were against the plan. Last spring I heard people yell for a referendum.

You just had one and you voted into office two people who were honest with you and told you beforehand they would bus your kids.

You voted into office a man who has said publicly that the best form of government is a dictatorship. You voted in a man who publicly gave the heil Hitler sign to a man who was asking that our freedom not be taken away. You voted in a man who publicly said he would put the wishes of the students above the wishes of the parents and taxpayers.

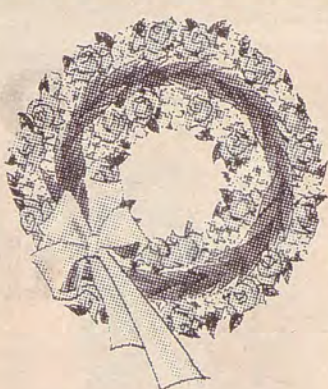

You also voted in a woman who publicly said over and over again the busing issue was a joke. Mrs. Best if the reorganizational plan used kids all over the city to make our schools completely segregated would it still be a joke or is it only a joke when busing suits your wishes?

I don't know and I don't care what you're going to do, but RNSAC is not going to let our freedom be taken. I'm not going to beg you nor even ask you to join us in our fight. I just want to let you know we've lost a major battle, but not the war and if only a few of us have the guts to fight for what we believe in - so be it.

If you want to be an active member of RNSAC - you call me, I won't call you. When I say active I MEAN ACTIVE. This means meetings, phone calls, walking the streets and lots of work. It all depends on you if you want to fight or whether you will meekly send your kids off like lambs to slaughter.

I've got about three hundred names on our phone lists. I'm throwing it out. Only a handful of these people helped me when asked. I want workers! Only people willing to do this should put their name back on the list by calling 458-9097.

MARILYNN COLLIER

Do something different this weekend.

The crisp, colorful days of autumn are tailor-made for pleasant family jaunts into the country. One you won't want to miss is the beautiful drive to Brookwood Science Information Center in a parklike setting on the shore of Lake Ontario. And, of course, there's no charge.

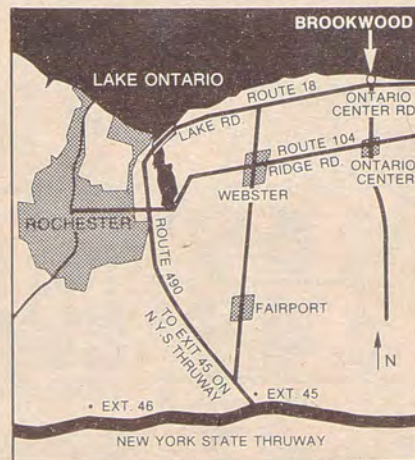

Here you and your family will enjoy the unique experience of seeing nuclear energy's place in the world of today and tomorrow. Through animated displays with audio descriptions you'll learn how man has harnessed this energy for the clean, efficient production of electric power.

- One display graphically demonstrates the generation of electricity.
- Another explains the structure of the atom and the occurrence of nuclear fission.
- One of the most exciting exhibits depicts the operation of the nuclear reactor used in RG&E's nearby Ginna Plant. A narrated flow diagram shows how heat from the reactor produces steam to operate the turbine that drives the electric generator.

- Actual Geiger counters demonstrate the detection of radiation and the effects of various shielding materials on it.
- Other displays follow the story of uranium fuel from the mine to the final fuel element used in the Ginna Plant.
- In the Auditorium, slide illustrated lectures and movie presentations elaborate upon the nuclear energy story.
- The competent Brookwood staff is always on hand to answer any questions you may have.

Take the family to Brookwood Science Information Center this weekend. Open Wednesdays thru Sundays, 10:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. Here's how to get there.

A special program for the parents of the Junior High department will take place at 8 p.m. in the auditorium, featuring a panel of faculty in dialogue directed toward an evolution of the newly inaugurated "Encirchment Program" within which the 6th, 7th and 8th grades are currently operating. This program is pointed to a better preparation of the student for high school. On this occasion parents can learn what the teacher expects of the pupil and conversely, what the pupil can expect of the teacher, says Sister Sheila.

Residents Get Voice
In Playground Plans

Representatives of Urban Renewal including Thomas F. McHugh, acting project director, met with residents of the Lexington-Mt. Read area last Wednesday for a public discussion of desirable equipment for the new recreation center which the city plans to provide as part of its $450,000 open space program. Gabriel De-Rosa of Polaris St., chairman of the Northwest Neighborhood Association, presided at the meeting at which many suggestions were advanced for consideration of the planners and architects.

The playground idea was first proposed in 1966 and now is about to become a reality.

Maplewood Assn. Fights Eyesores

"All abandoned junk cars reported to the Maplewood Neighborhood Association, with a single exception, have been removed from the area. This exception proved too difficult for the towing equipment available at the time and will be taken care of at a later date."

This was a welcome report delivered by Ellen Nehr, MNA Beautification Committee, at a recent meeting of the association's executive group. Mrs. Nehr also told of other neighborhood eyesore problems that were receiving the attention of her committee.

MNA and other neighborhood association representatives met with engineers from Wilbur Smith and Associates, the firm which is conducting a 12 month full-range study of traffic operation improvements to existing streets in urban Rochester. The program is financed with state and federal funds.

Smith people pointed out that since the program is designed to maximize the efficiency of the existing urban street system, members of the community can make a valuable contribution to the success of the program by bringing to their attention, through their neighborhood associations, annoying or unsafe traffic conditions.

The crisp, colorful days of autumn are tailor-made for pleasant family jaunts into the country. One you won't want to miss is the beautiful drive to Brookwood Science Information Center in a parklike setting on the shore of Lake Ontario. And, of course, there's no charge.

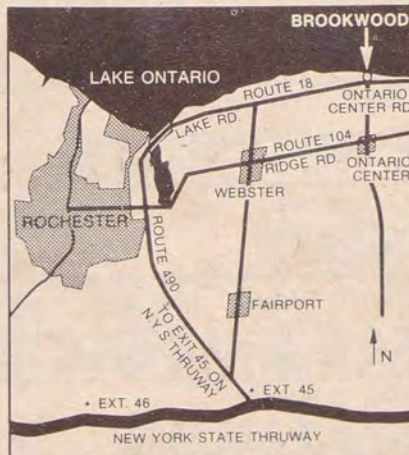

Here you and your family will enjoy the unique experience of seeing nuclear energy's place in the world of today and tomorrow. Through animated displays with audio descriptions you'll learn how man has harnessed this energy for the clean, efficient production of electric power.

- One display graphically demonstrates the generation of electricity.
- Another explains the structure of the atom and the occurrence of nuclear fission.
- One of the most exciting exhibits depicts the operation of the nuclear reactor used in RG&E's nearby Ginna Plant. A narrated flow diagram shows how heat from the reactor produces steam to operate the turbine that drives the electric generator.

- Actual Geiger counters demonstrate the detection of radiation and the effects of various shielding materials on it.
- Other displays follow the story of uranium fuel from the mine to the final fuel element used in the Ginna Plant.
- In the Auditorium, slide illustrated lectures and movie presentations elaborate upon the nuclear energy story.
- The competent Brookwood staff is always on hand to answer any questions you may have.

Take the family to Brookwood Science Information Center this weekend. Open Wednesdays thru Sundays, 10:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M. Here's how to get there.

Dorschel Appliance Doubles Floor Space

The expanding business of Dick Dorschel Appliances has resulted in leasing of an additional store and nearly doubling the floor space of the fast growing dealership. The necessity to display many more samples of the leading appliances sold by the firm made the move necessary.

Dorschels carry three top lines of television, Sylvania, RCA and GE and now have doubled the number of floor samples to show almost the complete line of all makes. They also have displays of the full line of Whirlpool and GE major appliances, as well as Tappan ranges.

This marks the second anniversary of the store, located at Dewey and Ridgeway Aves. It is now rated as one of the most modern appliance stores in Western New York as well as being one of the largest.

A remodeling sale is now in progress celebrating completion of the extensive changes made necessary. The new addition is fully carpeted and painted in pastel colors to match the decor of the original store.

In addition to Dick Dorschel, the staff includes Norm Michael and Fred Burgess, both widely known for many years in the appliance business.

Christmas Party At Holy Family

Those not wishing to bring a dish may pay the amount of $2.00. In lieu of a grab bag members are asked to bring a donation of cash for the needy.

The members will be entertained by a musical group, from Holy Name of Jesus parish, called "The Every Day People." Co-chairmen are Mrs. Peter Grisanelli and Mrs. Ormond Maeder. Mrs. Grisanelli at 436-6395 and Mrs. Robert Spahn at 235-3136 are taking reservations, deadline for which is Monday noon, Dec. 7.

Thanksgiving Service Set

A special service on Thanksgiving Day has been announced by Second Church of Christ, Scientist, 1 Seneca Pkwy.

Traditional music will include hymns of gratitude sung by the congregation. The soloist, David A. Stuart, will also sing Song of Thanksgiving by Wallbridge, accompanied by the organist, Mrs. Nelson D. Morrow.

Open to people of all faiths, the service will be held on Thursday, at 10:30 a.m. No collections of any kind are to be taken, says the church announcement.

The first reader, Frederick H. Brightman, and Mrs. LeRoy A. Dickinson, the second reader, will conduct the service.

New readers who will take office Jan. 1, have been elected. They are, Joseph W. Mengel of Irondequoit, first reader, and Mrs. David A. Stuart of Greece, second reader. They carry the main responsibility for the Sunday and Wednesday evening services. The Christian Science Church staff consists entirely of laymen elected to fill all administrative posts and to conduct services.

Primary duty of the readers is to read the Christian Science lesson-sermon on Sunday. The first reader also conducts the Wednesday evening service when members of the congregation speak informally of experiences of Christian healing as understood in Christian Science.

To Benefit Marshall Association

"Song of Norway," the giant motion picture musical based on the life and music of composer Edvard Grieg will open here during the Christmas season on a reserved seat basis, announces Linn Smeal, Riviera Theatre manager.

The opening performance on Dec. 22 is planned as a glittering premiere sponsored by the John Marshall Community Association for the benefit of its activities at the school. Tickets at $3.50 are available from members of the association as well as at the Riviera box office at $3.50 each. Mrs. Peg Hardesty, 536 Augustine St., and Mrs. Marion Cunningham, 3 1/2 Marigold St., are co-chairmen of the "Red Carpet" benefit theatre party.

The Andrew and Virginia Stone production presented by ABC Pictures Corp. was photographed in color for the wide screen in Norway and throughout Europe at the actual locations known by Grieg. Florence Henderson heads an international star cast that includes Edward G. Robinson, Robert Morley, Frank Porretta and Toralv Maurstad, Norway's leading actor, who portrays Grieg. Christina Schollin, the Swedish beauty introduced to American audiences in "Dear John," also stars as the second love interest in the composer's life.

The concept of "painting Norwegian nature, life, history and national poetry" photographically to match the inspiration of Grieg's music proved quite a challenge to Virginia Stone as well. The editing was her chief contribution, and the finished 70mm stereophonic print will reflect her efforts to blend with the music the visual impressions of the composer all photographed by her "Song of Norway" crew on the exact locations where the dramatic moments in Grieg's life took place.

Great care was given to document and use the natural settings, homes, concert halls and the village streets that Grieg knew. When the Stones found a specific background no longer existed, they insisted on finding another real setting that represented a legitimate duplicate. Not one studio shot exists in the picture. All scenes were made on location. The outdoor Christmas sequence was shot in 30 degree-below temperatures at a Norwegian village called Malmhaugen which dates to 1205. The musical number, "Ribbons and Wrappings" was photographed there in the actual home of the playwright Bjornson, a key figure in the screenplay.

Most of the photography was done in Norway. But when the events in Grieg's story took him to London, Copenhagen's Tivoli Gardens, Italy or other Continental spots, the cameras moved south to document these locations as well.

LETTERS to the EDITOR

TO THE EDITOR:
The Diet Workshop is still being held in the Holy Rosary School hall at 420 Lexington Ave. every Wednesday at 8 p.m.

In a little less than a year and a half a fantastic weight loss of 6,509 1/2 lbs by our members has been recorded. Once a member has reached his or her desired weight, that member has the privilege of continuing to come down free-of-charge as long as he or she keeps that weight within 2 lbs. of what is lost. This means you will receive help in learning not only how to lose weight but also you will learn how to maintain your desired weight. The counselors here are themselves graduates of the course.

You may come down and start at any time but think how much better it would be to have lost a few pounds by New Years instead of having to make a resolution to lose what you have gained.

The weekly charge is very reasonable and any man, woman or teen-ager is welcome. Many a person has thanked the Holy Rosary Guild for sponsoring this project. We hope you will too.

RENEE MYERS

TO THE EDITOR:
I wish to publicly thank everyone in the 15th ward who worked so very hard for Mr. James Sims.

I also wish to thank everyone who had voted for him on Nov. 3. As a parent of three, two in the Rochester school system, I can not visualize any parent who would want their children taken from their neighborhood school and sent to a distant school.

Apparently the voters proved me wrong.

The people have spoken!! It is now time to see if the Board of Education has the gumption to put the entire, I repeat entire, plan into effect.

Congratulations Rochester liberal voters for the mess you have created.

JOAN K. CHERWONIK
15 Myrtle Street

TO THE EDITOR:
I would like to take this opportunity to thank publicly all those who worked so diligently in the Citizens for Jim Sims campaign in the First Ward; and also to thank those of you who supported Jim by your vote on election day.

At the same time I am bewildered by the returns, and must ask myself why? Do we really want our children to be re-organized into K-3 and K-6 schools, which is going to require busing and/or walking long distances over major streets? Do we agree, really, with those we put on the board, Mr. Branch has stated publicly that he does not think our children are hurt by listening to such people as the "Flower city conspirators" or for that matter communists. Mrs. Best has stated that our children should work out their own code of conduct in our schools. Do we really believe in disrupting our whole school structure and going into an unproven and seemingly unworkable program in regard to our children's education? If that is what our community really believes then I do not want to be a part of it. My children will never be bused or involuntarily transferred out of our neighborhood school.

"Twenty-Eight" TOPICS
By John J. Romano
28th District County Legislator

This is a brief report on major actions of your County Administration and Legislature during the third quarter of 1970. As your representative I have taken part in numerous committee meetings which have contributed to what I consider commendable progress in County planning and accomplishment.

Since the County is now taking a larger share of the Sales Tax, it is only natural that taxpayers expect an accounting of what we are doing with the extra money. (Incidentally this Sales Tax distribution was based on 1964 census figures and if 1970 census figures were to be used the County would be entitled to an even greater share).

As a representative of a city district it is my special obligation to see to it that a change in the tax structure is balanced by more assumption of service by the County. And that I am doing.

Let's look at some of the recent accomplishments of the County Legislature:

PURE WATERS-Projects such as the construction begun in the Northwest Quadrant and Western Extension, plus other phases, will indirectly alleviate some of the sewer problems in our area.

SOLID WASTE DISPOSAL-It is now recommended that the County assume responsibility in this field. In order to close the Emerson dump as quickly as possible, the City is to move on its own for the present time. However, accepting the Greeley-Hanson report, the County would amortize any expense in the operation of the landfill, the purchase of the land, or the construction of incinerators for the destruction and disposal of solid wastes.

NEW CHILDREN'S DETENTION CENTER-It has been authorized at a maximum cost of two million dollars, reimbursed 75% by the State. We would save the $38,000 yearly rental for the present facility which has a capacity of 12 boys and 8 girls (and more than twice that number are frequently held in detention). The new one story structure is to be built on county-owned land in the Iola area and will house 60 children.

CONSOLIDATIONS-The City's share of operating the Rochester Museum and Science Center has been transferred to the County involving $274,186 for the last six months of this year.

SOCIAL SERVICES-A major reorganization of this department went into effect on Nov. 12, scrapping many traditional welfare concepts and eliminating reams of paper work. It should make more efficient use of social services and personnel and should eliminate the need for creating some 50 department positions at a cost of $600,000. Also over 1000 welfare clients and applicants have been placed in jobs in the Welfare Rolls to Payrolls program.

NARCOTIC GUIDANCE COUNCIL-This has already been at work, approving establishment of a residential treatment center for adolescent drug abusers; and initiating studies on a hot-line at Strong Memorial Hospital plus a series of crisis centers on a 24 hour basis. Application for funds will be made to the State.

PRISONER REHABILITATION - A Work Release Program, approved by the State Department of Correction, will provide opportunity for prisoners to be released for gainful employment or education, returning to the institution at night. The wages thus earned would be applied to support the dependents, payment of debts and reimbursing the County for food and lodging.

CABLE TELEVISION-The Legislature has approved a plan that the State Legislature enact legislation enabling Monroe County to create a non-profit, publicly regulated body to construct and operate a cable TV system. (This is expected to give the County a new source of revenue other than property tax for support of education.)

MONROE COMMUNITY COLLEGE-The County is contributing $2.7 million to the $9.6 million budget for 1970-71.

As I said at the outset these are only some of the major concerns of the County Legislature. Of course there are hundreds of other services which the County is providing, too numerous to mention here, but which will be found in the minutes of our meetings as published periodically in the newspapers.

ALUMINUM CLEANER PROVES DANGEROUS

Housewives and other users are warned to carefully read the labeling on a "care-free" aluminum and door cleaner being sold house to house, according to John A. Temmerman, Director of the County Public Safety Laboratory. A local housewife recently suffered skin irritation where the cleaner had splattered onto her skin, said Temmerman.

This cleaner contains Hydrofluoric Acid and Sulfuric Acid and should not be allowed to come in contact with the skin.

In addition the cleaner should be flushed away from any aluminum metal, explained Temmerman.

Army Opens Office On Ridge Road W.

By Staff Sgt. Donald R. Carey

To assist you in planning your military service the United States Army has opened a new Recruiting and Counseling Service on Route 104 west at Long Pond Rd. The new office is located on the 3rd floor in the Town Hall in Greece.

Under an "early choice option plan you can reserve a space in the Army Technical School of your own choice 120 days prior to graduation and receive a written guarantee that your school is available. Providing you can qualify, the course you select will be reserved for you until you graduate. You are under no obligation if you inquire about available schools and take qualifying test.

Blood Donors "Regulars" Overcome Their Fears After First Giving

"My blood isn't the right type."
"I'm too thin."
"Frankly, I'm scared of giving blood."

All are common excuses for not giving blood. However, any blood is the right type, and if you weigh 110 pounds, you're not too thin, according to Dr. Jacob Nusbacher of the Rochester Regional Red Cross Blood Program. As for being scared, nearly every donor feels this way the first time, but it soon passes. Donating has become a regular habit with thousands of people and many regulars have become 15-gallon donors.

There are two main factors to be considered before the Red Cross will decide whether you can give blood - the health and safety of you, the donor, and the health and safety of the unknown recipient of your blood.

In making this decision, the Red Cross medical officer has the prospective donor, who must be over 18 and hasn't yet reached his 66th birthday, answer a number of medical questions.

Donors may give blood eight weeks - no oftener - and no more than five times a year.

After being registered the donor has his temperature taken, his blood pressure noted, and he is weighed. Then he moves from table to table to give his medical history, receive a hemoglobin test, and finally, to give his blood.

The actual process of giving blood is quite easy with the donation taking approximately seven minutes and the remainder of the processing usually requiring 40 minutes. All is performed under the watchful eye of medical per-

Social Security

Banks, department stores, and smaller merchants are losing a great deal of money each year because they accept social security cards as identification in cashing checks, Joseph Tomaino, Social Security District Manager, warned today.

For years, Tomaino noted, the card has carried a notation "Not For Identification" -- and the Social Security Administration, in posters and press releases has explicitly pointed out that a social security number card is issued for the convenience of workers and their employers and helps to identify a worker's social security account for social security purposes only. "The mere possession of the card is obviously not a positive method of identifying an individual, since the card could easily fall into the hands of the wrong person," Tomaino said. "We do not consider it such when claims are filed for social security benefits, and we certainly do not expect others to do so," he added.

Tomaino's warning followed reports of stolen checks cashed on the basis of stolen or forged social security cards.

Tomaino also pointed out that build-in safeguards in the social security claims process protect the social security trust funds from imposters who might use forged or counterfeit cards in attempts to collect social security benefits.

He also noted that under the Federal law, a person could receive up to five years imprisonment and up to $5,000 fine for falsifying a social security card. In addition, violations would be subject of prosecution on the charges of cashing forged checks or other fraudulent transaction, using the false cards.

Football Mysteries Solved

Why pro football is a mystery to so many of you women is a mystery to me. Perhaps you feel it's too late to catch up with 31 million established fans. If that's the problem, let me suggest an approach that can put you one up on the old bunch. And that is, watch the defense.

Instead of trying to figure out who has the ball, watch the people who don't have the ball. Take the middle linebacker, for instance. He generally keys on the fullback or halfback. The fascinating duels between the Giants' great linebacker, Sam Huff, and Cleveland's fabulous fullback, Jimmy Brown, are memories long to be cherished by fans. On a good day, Sam was largely responsible for holding Jimmy to less than fifteen yards a game (though Brown's average was close to 100). But no matter how he fared, his eyes never left Brown until Jimmy was out of the play.

The cornerbacks probably have the toughest assignment. They have to be constantly vigilant for the pass - yet always ready to tackle a runner who bolts through the line. Sometimes they'll red dog: that is, rush in with the lineman. But it's a gamble. They might make a dramatic tackle behind the line of scrimmage, but that leaves a spot open for a pass receiver. Probably no defensive player has the chance to look so good or so bad on so many plays as the cornerback.

The safeties, deepest defenders, are the last men who can stop a successful running play. But more often they have to watch out for the fleet-footed receivers, fastest men in the game. Safeties, like cornerbacks, are vulnerable to all eyes as heroes or goats. (By the way, don't leave yourself vulnerable as a football hostess. Use NFL Training Table Foods to prepare snacks for TV guests or the picnic hamper at the stadium. They're what the pros use.)

Everyone knows the best offense is a good defense. Most of your friends will talk about why a team won a game. Watch the defense and you'll be able to talk about why a team didn't.

Rated Outstanding Among Young Men

Francis C. Argento (above) is one of four St. John Fisher College graduates selected to appear in the 1970 edition of "Outstanding Young Men of America." Nominated earlier this year, these men were chosen for the publication on the basis of community and professional achievements.

Argento is owner-president of Specialized Warehouse Corporation of Rochester. He is the immediate past president of the St. John Fisher College Alumni Association and is presently serving on the college's Board of Trustees.

An economics graduate of the college, he is a member of several associations for businessmen including the Rochester Chamber of Commerce, the Businessmens Association of Rochester, the Small Business Association of Rochester and the Transportation Club of Rochester.

He is also a member of the Civic Music Association, Friends of the Rochester Public Library, New York State Conservation Council and Pi Gamma Mu, national Social science honor society.

He resides with his wife, the former Elaine Busico and their four children at 26 Landau Drive, Gates. His wife is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Busico of 346 Glenwood Ave.

Edmund A. Calvaruso, City Clerk of Rochester, also is listed. He received a B.A. in political science from St. John Fisher College and a law degree from St. John's University School of Law, Brooklyn.

At present he is president of the Alumni Association of St. John Fisher College, member of the American Bar Association, New York State Bar Association, Monroe County Bar Association, member of the Civic Music Association, Young Republican's Club and is an honorary member of the Locust Club.

He and his wife and child reside at 65 Ambrose St.

School Commissioners Views Are Re-stated

The two Democrats who won election to the school board in the recent election have issued no new statements on proposals which they will bring to the board when it is re-organized in January. Nor have they chosen, to date, to answer the claim of a recent letter-to-the-editor in this newspaper that they favor more busing and re-organization of the schools.

Before election, Mrs. Wyoma Best issued this statement, printed in "The Neighborhood Forum", Charles House area newspaper: "As Commissioner of Education, I pledge to consider first the educational needs of our 47,000 pupils. I will work to create an educational system responsive and sensitive to all segments of the community, particularly in the area of curriculum development. Today's student is more sophisticated and has been exposed to more stimuli than yesterday's student. The curriculum must reflect this fact and prepare our youth to make meaningful decisions in a constantly changing world. Additionally, I pledge to involve all members of the community--parents, students, teachers and administrators--in the decision making process which determines the education priorities and programs."

David Branch, in the same publication, was quoted as saying: "School Commissioners should speak out for children. Voters should stand up for the right of every child to the best education this community can provide. Children have no votes. They have little interest in political bickering. Challenging schools which build on each child's unique abilities and interests offer the real solution. We need only decide to do it. Many differences between younger and older generations stem from the failure of schools and could be avoided with a School Board that did not fall back on political slogans and blame young people for a world they never made."

There is a natural border between Portugal and Spain at this point—a river. No bridge; just ferry boats and not very pretentious at that. One accommodated three cars and the other eight. We had to wait in line for over an hour and when we arrived on the Spanish side, lost another half hour while they did the paper work, mostly on the car. It was the longest delay we have ever experienced at any European border. But the boat ride was fun. We were packed in so tight you couldn't even get out of the car. But was interesting just to observe the antics of our fellow travelers, Germans, Frenchmen, Algerians, Dutchmen—you name it, all dressed very casually and comfortably for traveling.

Our route took us through Villa Real, center of the Portuguese tuna industry. It seems that the tuna come to the warm waters of the Algarve to spawn and fishing is good from April to July. This provides work for the canneries and gives the region its main source of income. Not a single shred of the fish is discarded, we were told. The choicest filets are canned in their natural flavor with oil or tomato sauce. The less desirable portions are dried and sold for food to the poor classes. The by-products go into fertilizer which has a high phosphate content.

After crossing the border, it was only a short distance to Seville and we soon found ourselves in this busy city. We had a few anxious moments finding our hotel, the Dona Marie. Caught in heavy traffic and getting directions from policemen that were not too explicit due to the language difficulty—well, we made it.

Our hotel was just off a little square in the downtown area, directly across the street from the 800 year old Seville Cathedral, said to be the largest church edifice in the world. It took up about six city blocks. It has fabulous riches in both decorations and works of art. The remains of Saint Ferdinand, the liberator of Seville, are enshrined there, the guide told us. Every day 50 masses are said, utilizing most of the 80 chapels.

It was in the heat of the day when we arrived and we were greatly relieved to find that we could park our car, right at the hotel door, on the street. A rather nondescript old fellow came up to us as we got out of the car and presented us with a ticket. We paid him the equivalent of about 15 cents and he tucked the ticket under our windshield blade. The hotel doorman assured us it was perfectly legal, that he had the concession from the city, and that this gave us parking rights until 8 the next morning.

It was close to 90 in the shade and if you were silly enough to be found on the street from noon to 4 in the afternoon, you looked for the side of the street where the buildings shade you from the sun. As soon as we completed checking-in formalities, we settled down for a siesta in our hotel room. At about 4:30 we sauntered down to a sidewalk cafe in front of the Cathedral and settled down to observe the Spanish shoppers as they hurried along to their favorite stores—now open after being closed since noon. Most of the stores, including the larger ones, stay open until 8 p.m.

We sipped our beverages and watched the crowds go by—the tourists' most enjoyable pastime. Then we strolled a few blocks down the street and came upon a public square about the size of a football field. It was a huge cement floored playground where the old folks sat around on park benches and the children were having a gay time of it chasing each other around, skipping rope and acting like normal boys and girls. You had to pay a few pesadas for a chair or a seat on a bench if you wanted to linger.

The next day we left Seville and found the best roads ever on our way to Algeciras, passing but not visiting Jerez de la Frontera, a name to conjure with and home of sherry wine. And we also skirted numerous seacoast towns. It was only about 200 kilometers and we made it easily in about four hours.

At Algeciras we had the experience of staying at a very fine hotel, the Reina Christina, set in the middle of a 12 acre estate, beautifully flowered and shrubbed. Favored by perfect weather here, as elsewhere on the entire trip, we felt pretty lucky.

We took side trips to numerous towns and places of interest including the Rock of Gibraltar which towered skyward across the bay and looked just like the picture most everyone knows so well, thanks to the insurance company ad. Stranger than fiction, however, we drove to within a quarter mile of the Rock only to be stopped by a roadblock. We were not surprised since we had been told if you want to go to Gibraltar, the only way is via ship—to Africa, Tangiers that is, and thence to Gibraltar by ship. The quarrel between England and Spain over possession of this important gateway to the Mediterranean is unabated and although Gibraltar is populated mostly by Spaniards and is part of the mainland of Spain, the border is closed tight. We took a picture and drove away.

Our attractive and comfortable hotel was quite a contrast to the nearby town. Algeciras' streets appeared to have the dust of the centuries on them. They were very dirty and the whole town, except for some swanky new apartments on the outskirts, smelled bad. In particular, a canal that ran right thru the center of town was veritably an open sewer. It was one of the few towns in our travels that we were glad to leave behind.

And now we headed up the famed Costa del Sol, the sunny coast of Spain, toward Malaga.

Housing Group Meets Tonight

The Northwest Housing Task Force is holding a general membership meeting tonight (Wednesday,) at 8 in the Rectory Hall of Sacred Heart Cathedral, 296 Flower City Park.

Featured speaker will be Richard Pine, local executive director of the Urban Development Corporation of New York State. Mr. Pine will speak about the UDC, how it came into being, its authority, what it has done, what its future plans are, and what is the role of the community organization as related to UDC.

Lt. Lappan Wins Navy Commendation

Lt. George J. Lappan, (above) former Tenth Warder, was the recipient of the Joint Service Commendation Medal a month ago for his accomplishments as program director for American Forces Radio and Television Service in Washington. Presentation was made by Rear Admiral Oliver H. Perry, Jr., in ceremonies at the Naval Submarine Base in New London,

New Management At Arrow Market

Announcement was made this week of a change in management in the Arrow Supermarket, 537 Dewey Ave., effective Dec. 7. Family illness has resulted in a decision by Frank and Phillip Casaceli and their brother-in-law John Dinolfo to retire from business after serving this area for 33 years.

There will be a change in name, but otherwise the store will maintain the same policy and hopes to continue to serve the same clientele as Arrow Market. It will be known as McBride's Foodland.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Lappan, 66 Clay Ave., where the lieutenant and his family were Thanksgiving holiday guests. He and his wife, the former Martha Marsocci of Rochester, have two sons, James, 5, and Joseph, 4. Lt. Lappan, who is 29, is a graduate of Nazareth Cadet School, Bishop McQuaid High and LeMoyné College. He received his master's degree in television-radio production at Syracuse University in 1963.

He entered the Navy and for two years served as electrical division officer aboard the USS Chicago, including six months service in the Vietnam area. He left the service in 1967 to return to civilian life working with an insurance company. But in 1968 he was accepted back into the Navy on a voluntary recall basis and was assigned to the Washington job where he was responsible for daily 24 hour programming with duties comparable to a network director. The mission of AFRTS headquarters in Washington is to disseminate news and informational programming on a live basis to approximately 490 affiliate stations throughout the world.

There will be a change in hours, starting next Monday when the store will be open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m.; also on Sundays, starting Dec. 13, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Traffic Subject Of Meeting Here

A study team sent by the New York State Department of Transportation will be meeting with Dutchtown residents tomorrow (Thursday) night in the Pine Room of Holy Family Church to discuss the local traffic situation. The meeting is sponsored by DOVE and DASH, the neighborhood associations, and is open to the public. It starts at 7:45.

The study is being conducted by Wilbur Smith and associates and is part of a citywide traffic survey of main arterial streets by TOPICS (Transportation, Operation Program to Insure Capacity and Safety).

Local residents will have an opportunity to tell of the traffic problems in the Dutchtown area as they see them. This includes street lighting, traffic lights, traffic flow, street directions (possibly Jay and Amès St.), railroad crossings, street signs and other matters.

Portugal Spain

By FRED R. METZINGER, Post-Courier Editor

The Costa del Sol region of Spain runs about 100 miles up the Mediterranean coast from Estepona, a short distance from Gibraltar, to Motril. We covered quite a bit of it on an excellent road that hugs the shore line most of the way to Malaga. We stopped frequently at the seaside beaches and resort areas, the favorite vacation spots patronized by the wealthy, including many Americans.

There were only a few of these areas that looked good to us. The Mediterranean is anything but blue in most places, often littered with seaweed and quite rocky and uninviting. But there were enough temptations along the way, particularly at Toremolinos, to more than make up for the poor ones.

Situated right on the Mediterranean just about 10 miles south of Malaga, Toremolinos is a real gem. A huge complex of tourist trap shops, restaurants by the dozens, skyscraper apartment houses, ultra modern hotels and motels—everything!

It was getting late in September, well beyond the normal tourist

OUR GREATEST NEED . . . . .

Old foundations are crumbling away. What will replace them? We are discovering, rather painfully, that drugs and divorce solve no problems. They cannot fill the spiritual void which underlies today's tragedies.

However "man's extremity is God's opportunity." He can fill that void. Give Him a chance. Come to church Sunday.

Football Players Named on All-Stars

High school football players in this area fared well in the Democrat & Chronicle and Times-Union All-Star selections. Two of them were among the top 11 selected from several hundred players representing schools in a wide area from as far away as Batavia and Nunee.

Kevin Fernandez, 16 year old junior at Jefferson High, was named as a tackle. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Fernandez, 72 Felix St. He also wrestles and plays lacrosse. His extra-curricular activities include membership on the school's executive council and president of the Varsity Club.

An Aquinas player, Mark Schmidt, made the first team as fullback. Two other Aquinas players were chosen on the second team--Dave Nicodemus at end and William Cinelli at guard. Honorable mention was given to two other Aquinas players--Ray Quercia, quarterback, and Mike Palumbo, halfback.

Bowling Tournaments At Avery Center

Under the direction of Miss Barbara Nagel, the Junior Bowling Leagues at Frattare's Avery Bowling Center ran their first annual Thanksgiving Family doubles bowling tournament recently.

Forty two teams of juniors rolling with mothers and dads and relatives vied for the event which was won by Albert Smith Jr. and his dad. The Smith duo had total score of 1209. Second place went to James Brongo and his father John Brongo, with an 1172 series.

Mrs. Shirley Bryan teamed with her son Terry and copped third place with a score of 1152.

Miss Nagel announces that during Christmas season another similar event will take place. Trophies for these events are donated by Al Frattare.

season, but the place was alive with people and the beach which stretched along several miles was literally black with well-tanned sun worshippers vieing with each other to see how much anatomy they could legally expose. There were thousands of thatch-roofed shelters they could lie in when the sun got too hot; and a huge open-air restaurant where you could buy anything from a bottle of coke to a full course dinner.

The old town sits high above the Mediterranean. On the steep hill running down to the sea, the new town has been built, including shopping plazas housing a hundred or more stores. None of them are too large, but between them all there isn't much you could ask for that you couldn't find. It is considered to be THE place to shop along the Costa del Sol.

Tourists swarm all over the place, browsing, buying and when they get a bit weary, sitting, drinking, eating or just gaping. Sidewalk cafes are there by the dozen and believe it or not at least one hot dog and hamburg stand, where a side attraction is a man cooking those thin Swedish pancakes on an electric grill, tossing them in the air as he turns them over with his spatula to the delight and admiration of an assembled throng--some wanting to buy, others just enjoying the show.

Toremolinos is really a fun place and we drove back there a couple of times from Malaga, to eat at a small Danish restaurant where we got non-Spanish food and to kill time with the rest of them.

TO THE EDITOR:
Operation Morale would like to convey a most sincere "Thank You" to all the people who helped us with our Christmas packing. The school children who collected and brought items to school, the ladies who spent time baking cookies, the senior citizens who donated gifts and the girls who packed boxes are all to be praised. Without these people and many others who contributed in other ways our Christmas packing could not have been the success it was. Our goal of 500 boxes was surpassed with a total of 599 from the Rochester Northwest branch of Operation Morale.
I am certain that the men who receive our boxes will have a more joyous holiday knowing that many individuals back home are concerned enough to remember them at this busy time of the year. Christmas will be a lot less lonely for them. Christmas will also mean more to those who helped because of their concern for our "G.I.'s" far away from home.
When I receive responses from the boys I will be glad to show the letters to anyone interested in seeing the wonderful sentiments they send back home. Groups also are invited to share these letters at meetings. I should have the largest share of the letters by Jan. 1. Call 328-3642 if you are interested.
Those who missed helping Operation Morale before our packing can still do so by sharing the postage and supply cost. Checks should be made payable to Operation Morale, 98 Campbell Pk., Rochester, N.Y.
Again, I would like to say thank you and also to wish everyone who participated a very Merry Christmas and a happy, prosperous New Year.
MRS. DAVID BENHAM,
Chairman

Council Aspirants Seek Celli Seat

month, Cerame, a former executive committeeman for the 24th Ward, says he is not a candidate but would accept "an interim appointment until the next election if asked to do so". The man named will stand for election next November.

Thomas J. Fenlon, a public accountant and First Ward resident, has sent a letter to Robert Quigley, Democratic county chairman, seeking the nomination for himself. He points out that he is a ward committeeman and has always been a loyal Democrat, running once for county clerk and receiving a larger plurality than either of the previous two Democratic candidates for that office.

It has been reported that the Democrats are seeking an Italian-American for the job, but Fenlon criticizes this stand as "archaic". The office should be filled by the person having the necessary qualifications regardless of race, color or creed, wrote Fenlon.

Celli has been elected as city court judge, taking office the first of the year. He must relinquish his Council seat to which he was first elected three years ago.

McGee's letter on Cerame, also addressed to Quigley, reads as follows:

Very soon Judge Celli will be assuming his position in City Court, and a vacancy will be created for the Northeast District in City Council. I would like to take this opportunity to recommend to you a man whom I think is most eminently qualified, Mr. Michael Cerame of 1259 Lyell Ave. Mr. Cerame's qualifications for this position are outstanding. I'm sure you recall that he is a past leader of the 24th Ward and he was Monroe County Coordinator for the campaigns from 50 to 60. Several years ago he managed Al Cassetti's campaign for Congress which was a definite stepping stone for Al's election to City Court. He also managed a successful campaign for former Mayor Henry Gillette and Judge James Sheehan in his last two campaigns.

Mike was born and raised in the 24th Ward and is well acquainted with the entire area and its problems. He is a very successful businessman and would be able to give the Council the benefit of his experience and knowledge without running the risk of conflict of interest charges.

I would like to point out at this time that our City Council is already over loaded with attorneys and Mike's business experience and ability would provide a much needed balance. I am sure he would be an excellent candidate for the 1971 campaign and could be re-elected easily if he would be willing to serve. I realize that we might have some difficulty persuading him to take time out of his own business to serve in this capacity. However, past experiences indicated that Mike is very public spirited and I am sure that with the proper approach he will be persuaded to accept the position.

THERE IS NOTHING LIKE A GAME

For Christmas—and other holidays—the young in age and the young at heart will acclaim a game that can put boredom to shame. Here are six fun-filled examples which joyous players will pursue without blame:

rive at the Charmed Circle breaks the power of the witches and wins.

1. For all ages. PADDLE POOL. 2 to 4 players. This is a fast-moving skill and action game that will provide hours of fun and excitement for all members of the family. Object is to keep the Paddle Pool ball out of your goal with your swinging paddle and try to bat it into your opponent's.

2. Ages 7 to 12. SNOOPY AND THE RED BARON. For 2 players. Featuring that daring cavalier of the sky, Snoopy, and his arch-enemy, the villainous Red Baron, here's a delightful game for youngsters. The object is to foil the Red Baron by fending off the bad bullets (marbles) that he fires at Snoopy while rounding up the good bullets in the doghouse. Two players take turns in the "dog fights", acting as Snoopy and the Baron.

3. Ages 7 to 12. WHICH WITCH. A wild and weird three-dimensional game which is the ultimate in spookiness, complete with cobwebs, spider and spells. Play is controlled by three witches: Goulish Gertie, Wanda the Wicked and Glinda the Good. Object is to get through all four rooms of the witch's house with minimum spells and to avoid the Whammy Ball. Player who can travel safely up the staircase and ar-

4. Ages 6 to 12. DOODLEY-DOO. Here's a wild way to make wiggly and colorful designs. With this squeeze craft you can write your name, make funny jewelry and decorations, crazy clowns or weirdo monsters by squeezing the color out of its tube and onto the foil included in the kit. You bake your design for 10 minutes to make it permanent, allow it to cool and then peel off. Creatures or things will stick to any glass surface, so you'll have hours of fun putting them up or showing them around.

5. Ages 6 to 12. THE DESIGN MACHINE. A creative and fascinating activity for boys and girls, the Design Machine turns each patterned disc into a kaleidoscope of continually changing patterns and colors. Kids can use the pre-printed discs to experiment by creating patterns on the blank discs provided. The wonderful designs appear and disappear.

6. Ages 8 to Adult. FINDER'S KEEPERS. For 2, 3 or 4 players. A fun game to watch! A funnier game to play! Finder's Keepers is the thinker's game in which a good memory really pays off. You spin the spinner and pick up one of the cup shapes specified. If you find a coin you keep it, if the coin is not there, you pay. Win the most money and win the game.

A Weight-y Matter

Adolescent medicine is one of the most recent medical specialties and clinics devoted to the care and feeding of teenagers have sprung up all over the country since the first one opened in Boston 18 years ago. Of the five most frequently cited medical problems of teens attending these clinics, the leading one is obesity.

Some of the weight problems are glandular; but these are the smallest percentage. Overweight can be a family affair—that is, an inherited faulty metabolism or a too-rich cook for a mother. But the main problem stems from teen's poor nutrition habits.

Think of the greasy french fries, the pizzas, the thick shakes; the excessive dependence on sweet carbonated sodas and you can see the problem growing before your eyes.

Diet control by the mother in the home is 9/10 of the battle according to the adolescent medical specialists. So, eschew the rich desserts, cut down on the breads and puddings, stock fruit juices instead of soda, and resist the temptation to bake. Turn, instead, to making available a good variety of fresh wholesome fruits and vegetables. Prepare attractive salads with plenty of tomatoes, chunky wedges Chiquita brand lettuce and celery. Cook without fat, broil instead of fry.

Pay special attention to snacks, since teens are never close-mouthed. For a mid-afternoon nibble, don't offer a plateful of cupcakes. But consider instead the delicious (and nutritious) value of a bowl of sliced Chiquita brand banana rounds. Or make a banana split using creamy cottage cheese "scoops" instead of ice cream. The banana is a perfect diet food—and one that teens love—because it has a mere 85 calories yet rich in vitamins and other food values.

All these alternatives are in the hands of the mother of the teen with a weight problem—and as in all things pertaining to adolescence constant nagging, say the doctors, is the worst approach; but a little subtle guidance goes a long way.

YMCA Drive Goes Over Top Here

The Maplewood "Y" Branch team achieved well over 100 per cent in its efforts for the capital funds campaign. All of its 15 teams made or exceeded their quotas, including one captained by Charles A. Gorka, 150 Selye Terr. Kenneth J. Keating, 138 Westgate Dr., was the Maplewood chairman.

The drive for seven and a half million is within a half million of its goal and Chairman David Strasenburg expresses confidence that it will be raised.

New Neighborhood Group Meets Dec. 16

The new neighborhood association, as yet unnamed, being formed in the area west of the railroad in the Glide and Mt. Read area between Jay St. and Lyell Ave. is holding a meeting on Wednesday, Dec. 16 at 7:45 p.m. in the Pine Room at Holy Family Church.

Members are reported to be concerned over present zoning in the area and have hopes of eventually upgrading it.

Changes In Deductibles Announced By Medicare

Beginning in January, an older person who goes to the hospital under Medicare will be responsible for the first $60 of his hospital bill--now running about $750 for the average stay by a Medicare beneficiary.

The present hospital deductible is $52 and will remain in effect for all Medicare hospital admissions during the remainder of the year.

"The increase is mandatory under the law," Robert M. Ball, Commissioner of Social Security said. "It is a result of the long term upward trend in hospital costs, and in part, of course, the general inflation."

"The Administration," he said, "has been working hard to bring inflation under control and has also been working with the professional health community, health insurance organizations and others so that the Medicare program and general consumers, too, will get full value for each health care dollar spent."

In announcing the new $60 deductible, Commissioner Ball explained that the law requires an annual review of hospital costs under Medicare and an adjustment of the portion of the bill for which a Medicare beneficiary is responsible, if these costs have risen substantially. The law provides a formula for determining the amount of any adjustment in the deductible amount.

Based on 67 million days of hospitalization covered by Medicare bills in 1969, the current average per diem rate for inpatient hospital services amounted to $55.70 compared to a rate of $37.94 for the base year of 1966. Applying the formula, i.e., multiplying the ratio of the 1969 rate to the 1966 rate by $40, the result is $55.72, which must, under the law, be rounded to $60, the new deductible amount.

The hospital deductible amount, Commissioner Ball explained, is intended to make the Medicare beneficiary responsible for expenses equivalent to the average cost of one day of hospital care. It is like the deductible amounts specified in many auto insurance policies where the car owner pays the first $50 or $100 on a repair bill, and the insurance policy covers the rest.

Ball said that when the hospital deductible amount changes, the law requires comparable changes in the dollar amounts that a Medicare beneficiary pays toward a hospital stay of more than 60 days, or a posthospital extended care stay of more than 20 days.

When a Medicare beneficiary has a hospital stay of more than 60 days, he will pay $15 a day for the 61st through the 90th day, up from the present $13 per day. If he has a posthospital stay of over 20 days in an extended care facility, he will pay $7.50 per day toward the cost of the 21st day through the 100th day, up from the present $6.50 per day.

If he needs to draw on his "lifetime reserve", the reserve of hospital days a beneficiary can draw upon if he ever needs more than 90 days of hospital care in the same benefit period, he will pay $30 for each day used, instead of the present $26 per day.

Don't File Too Late

Don't lose out on your reimbursement for medical expenses under Medicare's Part B because you file too late, advises Joseph Tomaino, Social Security District Manager.

Under the law there are specific time limits for making payments on your claims, December 31, 1970 is the latest date a claim may be filed for any medical services you received from October 1, 1968 through September 30, 1969. Tomaino stressed the date the medical service was received determines the latest date you may file your claim.

Tomaino also suggest those who have any questions in connection with Medicare consult their Medicare Handbook or contact the local social security office. The office is located at 107 Clinton Ave. N. The telephone number is 325-6640. The office hours are from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily and until 8 p.m. on Thursdays.

by Jean Kingsley, Women's Consultant
The Travelers Companies
The Younger Generation Versus Money

Teaching your children how to handle money wisely can either be a very easy and relatively painless process, or it can work into a long drawn-out battle. The time to start is when they're young, two or three—not when they reach their teens.

Children settle into financial habits at a very early age. In fact, either good or bad habits can be well formed before they enter kindergarten and even learn to count. The attitudes a child forms towards money can make the difference between a financially-responsible adult, or one who is constantly fighting to make ends meet.

Probably the most important things a mother can teach her children about money are what it really is—a medium of exchange—and how to use it properly. An allowance is the best way to give a child experience in handling money. But, allowances should be kept on a businesslike basis—not used as reward or punishment. Saving should also be stressed in a way that places emphasis on some future good rather than an immediate satisfaction.

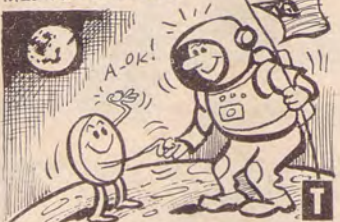

Instructing your children to handle money wisely depends a great deal on your knowledge, as a woman in the know, of family financial management. You may have to answer questions about your own financial security before embarking on your children's money education. There are professionally trained financial planners at The Travelers Companies who can answer your questions—this can then be applied to your children's education.

Helping your children develop good money habits can make life more enjoyable for your entire family. Who knows, you might even help close part of the generation gap—and that's something everyone would like.

Louis Romano Gets Top County Job

The County Legislature has appointed Deputy County Sealer Louis P. Romano to succeed the late Richard J. Veness as County Sealer. Romano, an employee of the county for 23 years, has been working in the Department of Weights and Measures for 18 years. He started as an inspector.

Romano served as secretary of the New York State Weights and Measures association for 10 years. In July, 1970, he was elected to the Association's Executive Committee.

"Mr. Romano's experience certainly qualifies him for the position of sealer. He has served the County well in his many years of service to the people of this community," says County Legislature President Joseph N. Ferrari, who announced the appointment.

A longtime resident of the 15th Ward where he served as constable at one time, Romano is now a resident of Greece, living with his wife and four children at 134 Corona Rd.

Christmas Play Given By Scouts

Highlight of the Brownies' Christmas party Monday afternoon at Sacred Heart was a play, staged as a surprise by Troop 43 led by Mrs. Michael Cringoli with her Brownies and two junior scouts, Tracy Boburka and Robin Cringoli from Troop 729. The play had also been staged the day before at the Cathedral.

The play, titled "The Birth of Christ" had this cast: Maureen O'Neil, Janet Donner, Paula Cringoli, Patricia Janes, Susan Harnes, Ellen Donner, Regina Cringoli, Kim Blumeri, Judith Zimmer, Janet Lynch, Tracy Boburka and Robin Cringoli.

Mothers of the girls sewed the costumes and the girls themselves made the wings, crowns, scenery, etc. Michael Cringoli made the crib.

Father O'Connor Ordination Set

A Rochester Basilian, Rev. Paul Francis O'Connor, C.S.B., (above) son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. O'Connor of 8 Marigold St., will be ordained to the priesthood on Saturday, Dec. 12 in Sacred Heart Cathedral at 10 a.m. by Bishop Joseph L. Hogan, D.D.

Father O'Connor is one of several Basilian Fathers who will be ordained Saturday in home parishes throughout the country.

A 1959 graduate of Aquinas Institute, Father O'Connor was born in Akron, Ohio in 1941. Upon moving to Rochester with his parents he attended Sacred Heart Cathedral School and Aquinas Institute. After high school he entered the novitiate of the Basilian Fathers of Pontiac, Mich., and made his first vows as a religious in 1960. The following year he began his college studies at St. John Fisher and was awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree in 1964. He was then appointed to the faculty of Aquinas Institute where he taught from 1964 to 1967. In 1970 the University of Detroit conferred on him a Master of Arts degree in English.

Father O'Connor pursued his theological studies for three years at St. Basil's Seminary in Toronto. His fourth year of Theology was spent in teaching part time at Aquinas and studying at St. Bernard's Seminary in Rochester.

Father O'Connor will offer his first Mass, a concelebrated liturgy, in Sacred Heart Cathedral on Sunday, Dec. 13 at 1 p.m. The sermon will be preached by Father Joseph Dorsey, C.S.B., vice-president of St. John Fisher College.

There will be a public reception for Father O'Connor on Sunday in the parish hall immediately after his first Mass.

They plan to run the Foodland operation with the same policies generally followed by the Casaceli brothers for the past 33 years, featuring cut to order meats in the meat department, a full selection of fresh fruits and vegetables, as well as a full grocery line.

Store hours have been changed, however, including addition of evening and Sunday hours. The store will be open daily 9 to 9 and Sundays 9 to 6.

Mrs. Kazmayer Dies On European Trip

A trip to Europe intended principally to celebrate their 15th wedding anniversary has ended in a tragic manner. Mrs. Robert Kazmayer, 50, passed away in Belfast, Ireland, and her husband is now in a hospital in Copenhagen, Denmark recuperating from a heart attack. Their home is at 84 Rand St.

Mrs. Kazmayer, the former Ida Wright and known to her friends as Jeri, had suffered from headaches for many years and her fatal illness was described as a tumor on the brain. She failed to rally from an operation performed in a Belfast hospital.

The Kazmayers had always traveled extensively and had agreed that in case of death, their remains were to be given for research wherever the death occurred.

Mr. Kazmayer went on to Copenhagen to honor previous commitments, but was stricken with his third heart attack. He writes that he is doing well and hopes to be out of the hospital in two to four weeks when he will return home.

Mr. Kazmayer, an ordained minister, was pastor of the Lewiston Ave. Methodist Church and subsequently Monroe Ave. Methodist in the late 30's. He gave up the ministry when he entered the travel business escorting parties throughout the world. He has also developed a national reputation as a political commentator on world affairs. For the past two and a half years he has been program chairman for the Rochester Rotary Club.

MOUSEPROOF YOUR HOUSE

Mice may look cute and harmless—but they're not; they can be quite destructive. Mice can contaminate your food and get into blankets and stored clothes to breed—and they multiply quickly.

Right now, while the thermometer outside is sinking and Felix is snoozing by the fire, fieldmice are looking for ways to invade your house in search of warmth and food. They probably won't have much of a problem either, because they can sneak in through some tiny holes.

Mice are difficult to control, for a number of reasons: they can get into houses easily; they can live in small, inaccessible places so that you seldom see them; and they are difficult to poison because they don't eat much.

How can you rid your home of mice before they have a chance to cause damage to your health and furnishings?

You can forget mousetraps, because they're cruel and ineffective. Research scientists have developed chemicals that assure a safer, surer, painless death for these household pests. One such product that has been highly successful is Mouse-Prufe, a unique bait made by d-Con which mice seem to like. It acts upon the rodent's blood supply, lowering the ability of the blood to coagulate and killing the rodent painlessly.

The secret of controlling mice is not only in knowing what to use, but in knowing how to use it, according to d-Con experts. Mice are not heavy eaters but nibble here and there, frequently as much as 40 times a day. The "goodie", which comes in a dispenser that can serve as a feeding station, should be placed in small quantities, in a number of locations near and in small enclosures where mice might be living.

You won't be bothered by mice this winter if you follow this advice—even if Felix is still snoozing by the fire.

Birmingham Named Dinner Chairman

Martin F. Birmingham, Executive Vice President of Marine Midland Trust, was named today as general chairman of the Monroe County Republican Lincoln Day dinner to be held Feb. 11.

Birmingham will be responsible for all activities relating to the $100-a-plate dinner which will be held in the War Memorial. He said a nationally known Republican will be the guest speaker and his identity will be made known next month.

SECOND CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

The basis for expecting divine guidance and protection will be brought out Sunday at Christian Science church services. Keynoting the lesson-sermon entitled "God the Preserver of Man" is the Golden Text from Psalms: "The Lord loveth judgement, and saints; they are preserved for ever."

Services begin at 10:45 a.m. at Second Church of Christ, Scientist, One Seneca Pkwy. All are welcome.

Aquinas Stadium Backers Continue Efforts To Save Its Destruction

Although efforts by the Save Our Stadium committee appeared doomed to failure when it was announced last Thursday that Aquinas had agreed to accept an offer by a Cleveland building firm, the committee is still confident it can accomplish its purpose.

"There are so many contingencies that the stadium can be saved if we act quickly", says Charles Schiano, SOS chairman. Getting it rezoned to permit low and middle-income housing and gaining approval for the proposed housing from both Rochester Housing Authority and the City Council gives the committee much needed time, he says.

Schiano has a meeting (tomorrow (Thursday) morning with three County Legislature committees and hopes to convince them the stadium can be run in the black.

The Aquinas Board of Trustees has declared that the school can no longer bear the high interest cost on their loan for school renovations recently completed.

Joseph King, chairman of the property resources committee of the Aquinas board, stated that the decision was taken regretfully and praised the efforts of the SOS group to find some way to finance continued existence of the stadium. He pointed out that the stadium has been up for public sale for four years, ever since Aquinas was pressed by the State Education Department to make necessary changes if it wished to keep its academic accreditation.

The Housing Development Co. of Cleveland plans to raise the stadium and subject to approval by the city will build a community of high rise apartments, and other residential units including some low cost housing, plus a shopping center for convenience of the area residents.

"Song of Norway" Premiere Dec. 22

"Song of Norway" will begin its reserved-seat engagement at the Riviera Theatre on Tuesday, Dec. 22, with a red carpet gala which will benefit the John Marshall Scholarship Fund. This production, rated "G" for general audiences, will be presented in full color on the G-I-A-N-T 70mm Riviera screen.

Mrs. Peg Hardesty, 536 Augustine St., and Mrs. Marion Cunningham, 3 1/2 Marigold St., co-chairmen of the theater party, will be responsible for all efforts in connection with the premiere. Mrs. Helen O'Sullivan is publicity director.

Plans Under Way For No. 17 Recreation Area

The new recreation area adjacent to School No. 17 and provided for in the federally financed Open Space program is now in the planning stage. A playground, pavilion, tennis courts and a picnic and recreation area will be included.

The site chosen fronts on Campbell St. and 11 pieces of property on the north side of the street between Saxton and Orchard Sts. will be cleared for the purpose. This will eliminate several commercial buildings and all remaining homes in the block.

A committee from the Charles House Area Neighborhood Council has met with Thomas McHugh of the city's Urban Renewal office and has been in on the planning, according to Phyllis Burruto, editor of the Charles House newsletter "The Neighborhood Forum".

Assistance will be made available to those who must re-locate because of the land acquisition, in the form of financing aid, moving assistance, loans, housing and similar needs.

Future meetings are scheduled with the Urban Renewal architectural planners who, after consultation with area representatives, will prepare drawings of possible arrangements of the types of recreation that are wanted. It is emphasized that adult recreation is a part of the program.

Mrs. Burruto also revealed that signatures are being obtained from residents, business men and non-resident owners of property on Jay St. for the benefit of the City Planning Commission. The plan is to upgrade zoning of Jay St. and at least 60 per cent of the property owners must be signed up. The City Planners will appraise the action and present their findings to the City Council.

The Charles House Council has elected John Lanzone to head the group in 1971. He is affiliated with DRIVE.

Cub Scouts To Go On Xmas Outing

Cub Scout Park 101 which meets at Holy Rosary is going on its annual Christmas outing Saturday, Dec. 12, starting at 11 a.m. Its next regular meeting after that is on the first Friday of the new year.

The pack gratefully acknowledges donation of a ham and turkey by the A-1 Caterers, won by Miss Mary Magee of Kissingbury St. and Mrs. Robert Puskas of Selye Terr. This was in connection with a successful baked food sale held by the Cub Scout mothers.

Bank Assets Pass 400 Million Mark

Assets of Community Savings Bank are over the $400 million mark for the first time, setting a new record in the Bank's fiscal year-end Statement of Dec. 1.

In reporting the historic high, John E. Schubert, president, said that the asset total of $401,532,964 represents a gain of $100 million in the four years since December 1966 when assets were at $300 million. He also pointed out that assets have doubled in eight years from the $200 million figure of 1962.

Up to 75 percent of the bank's assets are invested in mortgage loans primarily on single homes in Rochester and Monroe County.

Community continues to lead by substantial margins all other local financial institutions in providing mortgage funds for Monroe County home-owners, Schubert said. "At one period in 1970 (Aug.-Sept. we released an additional $9 million in excess of our original budget for home financing. These funds were available at less than competing rates in an effort to stimulate the home market. Our strong deposit gains of June made it possible for us to provide these additional funds for housing."

Summer Dump Closing Still City's Objective

City Manager Kermit Hill and County Legislator Joseph Esposito set at rest many of the apprehensions of resident of the Emerson landfill area last Thursday night. Also set in motion was a grievance committee which will look into many of the troubles which beset the area--in addition to the principal nuisance, the dump itself.

The city manager pledged closing of the dump next summer as a primary concern of himself, personally, and said he would resign his post "if he is at fault". In order to be at the meeting, he had canceled a scheduled trip to Atlanta, Georgia, with Mayor Stephen May in search of federal funds for the city.

Legislator Esposito, who said he lost a lot of sleep when the Evans Company and its Western New York subsidiary decided to pull out, affirmed his faith in the city manager and assured the Northwest Neighborhood Association, sponsors of the Dec. 10 meeting, that he was satisfied that some means would be found to assure the closing of the dump next summer.

A nine man investigating unit has been set up by Hill to look into charges of foul odors, polluted roadside ditches and other bad conditions around Emerson and Lexington Aves. It is headed by Eugene Tennis, city community relations director, and is to report back to Hill within two weeks with recommendations for action on "environmental problems" there.

The city now plans to build "in the shortest time legally possible" its own transfer station in Colfax St. where refuse will be compacted and then trucked to a landfill site as yet unnamed, but possibly in Riga, although Hill said that several other sites also were under consideration. The county is also actively entered in the solid waste disposal business now and the state is showing interest, as well.

Protests were raised at the meeting about dump trucks which travel through local streets often uncovered and littering the area with refuse. Hill said he knows about the situation, but is inclined to blame private truckers for most of the violations brought about by the failure of the truck drivers to use tarpaulins to cover their loads. He admitted that the "whole thing, the carting and dumping" at the Emerson landfill is illegal.

More Hope For Aquinas Stadium

The forces endeavoring to save Aquinas Stadium got a new and powerful ally last week when the Rochester Jaycees (Junior Chamber of Commerce) released a fact sheet, the result of three months' investigation, strongly urging that the status quo be maintained. The Jaycees have urged the county government to step into the situation and have issued facts and figures to back their stand.

The Jaycees have met with committees of the county legislature to press the point and are reported to have many legislators won over, including the three from the Northwest area.

A chart of probable income and expense has been drawn up by the Jaycee committee, indicating that even under minimum usage there is a potential yearly profit of $13,000 which would include an annual depreciation of $20,000 on the purchase price of $800,000 which Aquinas Institute is said to be asking. With the right type of promotion, the report states that an estimated revenue of $165,000 yearly could be realized with a potential profit of $81,000 yearly.

The report also re-affirms the claims made by many others that the stadium is badly needed and that it will eventually have to be replaced at a cost running into as much as five million dollars.

Political Lines Due For Change

Major changes in the political complexion of the city are to be expected shortly, according to Republican County Chairman William F. Dwyer. City Council lines are to be re-drawn and the ward setup is about to be scrapped, it is said.

The elimination of ward lines and substitution of county legislative districts as political guidelines has long been under consideration. Both Democrats and Republicans lean this way.

The plan on city re-alignment would return the Northwest district essentially to its former status as of 1962 when the Democrats took over and changed the election lines. The Northeast district, now represented by Councilman Urban Kress (D), would lose the lower Ninth and Tenth as well as the 23rd Wards which would be added to the present Northwest District, represented until Jan. 1 by Councilman Andrew Celli (D). Third and 11th Ward areas, now included in the Northwest would be lopped off.

There are now seven wards in this area which would be consolidated into four districts along county legislative lines. This could possibly mean seven men vying for four jobs, but neither major party looks on this as an insurmountable hurdle, since it is felt that some of the present leaders would not be inclined to fight for the new posts.

The Democrats have been moving in the direction of consolidation of their ward organizations as evidenced by their establishment of a common west side meeting hall in Emerson St. However, none of the local leaders has made any public comment on either side.

Family Still Needs Beds For Children
The Glendale Park family mentioned two weeks ago in the Courier still is in need of beds for their six children. A plea was made for beds at that time, but unfortunately the person who had agreed to receive messages was called to California by the death of her mother. Mrs. Hargrave has returned to Rochester now and may be reached after 7 any evening at 254-1503. She will relay the information to her neighbor and arrangements will be made to pick up anything donated.
Short of money, the family is forced to sleep on mattresses on the floor. They also need a couch and drapes.

Kodak Park Installing New Disposal Unit

Solid wastes will pay most of their own disposal costs -- while also cleaning up the air -- when Eastman Kodak Company's new combustible waste disposal unit goes into operation at Kodak Park here by the end of this year.

A unique heat-reclaiming cycle, coupled with advanced silver recovery and sludge combustion features, will help the new unit earn back much of its building costs, according to Kodak.

John M. Walsh, manager of the Engineering, Construction, Maintenance and Utilities Organization at Kodak Park said the unit will be unique in industry since it is far more advanced and sophisticated than anything in use today.

"Today's average incinerator equipment," he said, "is usually nothing more than an enclosure for a bonfire sitting on a grate. The closest approach to the Kodak unit is a Norfolk Navy Yards prototype, but it was built for other purposes, and so it is not comparable except for its heat recapturing feature."

Walsh said the new unit represents only the first phase -- aimed at more complete combustion of solid wastes -- of a continuing Kodak program.

"As soon as the new combustible disposer becomes fully operational," he said, "a full-scale second phase investigation will focus on the existing incinerator which also feeds the same tall stack at Kodak Park."

Phase two experiments will be directed at the more thorough burning of semi-solid liquid combustible chemicals. Closer attention to the fluctuating volume and the content of the chemical loadings is expected to develop more appropriate burning techniques and -- eventually -- even cleaner plumes from the stack.

When fully operational this winter, the Kodak combustible disposer will be capable of handling up to 300 tons of solid industrial wastes each day. The residue of ashes, amounting to about 3 tons at full capacity, will then be processed for its residual silver.

The unit will also be unusual in its ability to capture heat from industrial waste treatment sludge reclaimed from the company's King's Landing water purification plant on the nearby Genesee River. It will burn this sludge right along with the solid wastes. Sludge is expected to make up about one-fifth of the incinerator load.

Another combustion byproduct will be close to 77,000 pounds of steam an hour.

"This is enough to heat a thousand homes," Walsh said. "Although it's a relatively small figure, about 2 1/2%, it will be a worthwhile addition to Kodak Park's existing boiler capacity, and will go a long way toward helping to pay the cost of operating the new system."

Up to 300 tons of refuse -- enough to load 50 trash trucks -- will be reduced to less than one railroad car hopper of ashes. Residual ashes will be shipped to a smelter to reclaim valuable silver.

Total cost of the Kodak combustible waste disposal unit will be between six and seven million dollars.

College Glee Club Giving Concerts

The St. John Fisher College Glee Club, under the direction of H. Wendell Howard, is presenting several concerts locally during the Christmas season. It opened Monday at Midtown Plaza, then Tuesday at the Rochester Methodist Home, at Wesley Manor and at Upton Court.

Tday (Wednesday) the 30 member club will be at the Monroe County Home for a concert at 1:30 p.m. and will be at McCurdy's Long Ridge Store tomorrow night at 7:30.

A taping has been made for Channel WXXI-TV of a concert which will be aired three times during the Christmas season.

The glee club features such songs as: "Jingle Bells," "Angels, We Have Heard on High," "Little Drummer Boy," "Mighty Fortress," and "While By My Sheep." The barbershop quartet, another of the club's features, includes Dan Cappon, base; Joe McCaffrey, baritone; Terry Ging, second tenor; and Ray Ragosta, first tenor.

Every year the club participates in the Inter-collegiate Glee Club Festival. Another highlight of the club's career came in 1969 with the release of the first record album. Recorded in stereo by Century Records, the album is entitled "Saint John Fisher College Glee Club."

LIBRARIES TO CLOSE FOR HOLIDAY WEEKEND

Christmas Gift - Life and Sight

By Edward T. Boyce

In this holiday season, one often hears the complaint that the practice of Christmas gift giving has developed into a meaningless this-for-that exchange -- transfer of tangible goods often deliberately balanced in terms of dollar-and-cents value. People give, but they expect to receive in like measure. Yet, the spirit of Christmas which we celebrate is the spirit of selfless charity, giving for the sake of giving.

A Rochester organization offers the suggestion that this year each of us give a unique gift of the latter type -- one so inexpensive that it costs us nothing, yet so priceless that it could not be bought with all the money in the world.

This is the gift of sight, of life, of growth to children. A gift that each of our citizens holds the power to give to some person now living in complete darkness, on borrowed time, and retarded growth.

This gift, made possible by the donation of tissue and parts on death, is one which is given with the expectation of nothing in return -- except the donor's eternally warm knowledge that he has performed perhaps the greatest act of charity of his lifetime. The gift costs nothing. Yet, its value is unbelievably limitless.

Through the miracle of modern medical science it is now possible for eye tissue, kidneys and pituitary glands taken from a deceased person to bring sight, prolonged life, and growth, to those whose disability is caused by the same human parts being damaged or diseased.

Transplant operations have now become commonplace and the incidence of success is high. Those who desire more information about donations or desire literature explaining the value of their gift may contact the Rochester Eye and Human Parts Bank, Inc., 311 Alexander St. (458-7173).

By FRED R. METZINGER, Post-Courier Editor

Malaga we found to be a densely populated metropolis, bustling with activity and many attractions to excite the tourist. It is a sea-coast town with the wharfs a short walking distance from its center. Our hotel, the Palace, was only a stone's throw from the water's edge and we could watch the ships coming and going from the comfortable vantage point of our hotel room balcony.

One of the big events of our stay in Malaga was the arrival of a huge tourist ship, flying the familiar hammer and sickle flag of Russia. The vessel was painted a sombre black, but there was nothing sombre about the passengers.

We were standing on the dock snapping a picture of the ship when a group of young people apparently in their 20's and 30's came up behind us. They were Russians who had been into town shopping--like all good tourists--and were on their way back to the ship with their loot. They didn't look like Russians as we are apt to picture them. They were quite evidently in a most happy mood and definitely not alcoholic-inspired. One had a camera and he lined up about a dozen of his pals --both men and women-- to snap their pictures with their ship in the background. I grabbed a shot of the fellow taking the picture, and incidentally got the entire group in the same film.

We found out later that this ship calls at Malaga quite a bit; that it sails from its home port in the Crimea, via the Black Sea and the Dardanelles into the Mediterranean where it visits numerous ports. There is no apparent restriction on the movements of the Soviet tourists and they don't seem to worry about defections.

CHILDREN FEATURED ON KODAK ROSE BOWL FLOAT

Eastman Kodak's float in the Rose Bowl Parade on New Year's Day will be entitled "It's A Big, Big, World", visualizing the world of nature as children sometimes imagine it.

Large, gaily decorated insects center their attention on three children in the middle of the float. The three chosen are well known on television, Marc Gopage, and Erin and Diane Murphy.

HOW CAN CHRISTIAN SCIENCE HELP YOU?

Whatever your needs are, God can help you if you understand His laws. Christian Science can give you this understanding.

These laws bring healing. They restore the body and uplift the heart. You may learn how to apply these laws in your own life, and prove them for yourself.

A good way to begin is to come in and read this week's Bible Lesson in the Christian Science Reading Room. It is there for you to use.

 It was encouraging to note that there is some progress toward normalization--as we see it-- in Russian behavior.
 The contrast in the old and the new characterizes Malaga as in most other Spanish towns. The downtown area has many of the old buildings standing, but its main street is in modern architectural style and the stores are right up to date. The new Woolworth store was one of the best places to buy anything and also a good place to eat--at popular prices.
 The big contrast strikes you, however, as you leave the business district and head back into the hills where the people live. The narrow streets are lined on either side with white-washed walls behind which the people live. Thousands of front doors, but few windows and a real problem for anyone afflicted with claustrophobia. Occasionally, however, there is a break in the walls and you see a very liveable courtyard scene, complete with balconies, ornamental Spanish iron railings and lots of green plants trailing down. Plus many children who pose without much persuasion for your camera. They were not reluctant to accept a few pesetas from us, but at this juncture mother would often appear on the scene and confiscate the money.

 One particularly touching picture we took was of a fish peddler who had stopped on one of these alleyways called streets to do a little business. The little tots gathered around his cart and when one of them started to cry, the kindly old guy put his arm around the waif and wiped away the tears with his apron. The kids had no money, but the peddler took out his knife, carved up one of his fish and carefully wrapped little pieces in paper and passed these samples out to each of about half a dozen, patting them on the back and apparently telling them to hurry home to mama, which they did.

 One of the most popular spots in Malaga is a park-like street which ran alongside our hotel. It is nearly a mile long with very wide marble-like sidewalks and a canopy of trees that covered the sidewalks and the wide street in the middle to provide a delightful place to stroll. There were several small playgrounds for the children; a band shell where concerts were played almost nightly; a mammoth booth featuring fumes of chance, ring and ball tossing for dolls and stuffed animals just like Sea Breeze, with loudspeakers blasting out the shrill entreaties of the shills. Late in the afternoon, this area is the rendezvous for scores of other promoters with their carriages and gaily decorated horses lying in wait for tourists, and offering a pleasant sight-seeing expedition, seeing the town at night for about $2.00 an hour.

The meeting is open to all parishioners and Amida Magee, the Guild president, hopes many will attend. Dr. Barrett of the Monroe County Conservation Council will be the speaker.

Refreshments will be served by the members of the Jean Patrick-Maxwell Band.

Those Lake Ave. Signal Lights

Residents of the Lake and Ravine Ave. area expressed their resentment earlier this year when the traffic control engineers took away the signal light from their busy corner. Now, after the fatal hit and run death of a young woman there on Christmas Eve, they are really upset, and rightly so.

Why should there be three signal lights within a few hundred feet of each other--at Glendale, Lexington and Driving Park--and none in the very long three block span between Glendale and Phelps?

There is much more pedestrian traffic at Ravine than anywhere else in this whole stretch of Lake Ave., and it had a signal light for years. One wonders what is the thinking behind this elimination?

Admittedly this is a layman's point of view, but as we see it there could be considerable improvement in the Lake Ave. expressway setup. All north-south traffic should move in a synchronized manner. At regular intervals then it would be comparatively safe to cross on foot, with only cars coming in from the side streets to contend with.

SERVICE NEWS

City Maps "Corrective Action" For Emerson Landfill Area

Councilman John R. Parrinello and County Legislator Joseph Esposito have advised City Manager Kermit E. Hill that several immediate steps will be taken to alleviate environmental conditions in the area of the Emerson St. landfill.

The lawmakers met with the Northwest Environmental Task Force, appointed by Hill, to determine what immediate corrective action could be taken.

The Task Force felt that the most serious problem was the illegal dumping of refuse on the landfill's perimeter by suburban drivers. Signs will be posted on recently installed snow fence urging persons who wish to dump refuse to use the landfill by driving to an entrance instead of dumping outside the grounds. In addition, DPW crews have begun regular patrols of the area in an effort to discourage illegal dumping. Should the condition still occur, sanitation trucks will be dispatched immediately to clean up the area, says Parrinello.

Other actions to be undertaken include:

-Correcting the drainage problem on Emerson St. by installing pipe by DPW maintenance division. Weather permitting, this can be corrected by mid-January.

-Unplugging the drainage pipe to alleviate the overflowing of Lexington Avenue.

-Planting a "screen" of young trees along Times St. to act as an "esthetic barrier" between the residential sector and the dump. The plantings will take place early next spring.

-Breaking ground for a 6-acre park (to be named after Father

Unique Rochester Cooperative Prepares Students For College

About 30 students, who until a few months ago had little chance of continuing their formal education beyond high school, are expected to go to college next month in Rochester's unique Cooperative College Center.

The Center, which is a joint venture of nine Rochester area colleges and universities, has helped them develop the skills needed to survive in college," according to William B. Thomas, dean of faculty at the Center. Most of the 30 students will go to nine Rochester area colleges with the largest number going to the State University of New York College at Brockport. Currently 10 students are enrolled at the center and Thomas expects most of them to be ready to go on to college next fall.

Students at the Center include recent high school graduates; men and women in their mid-20's who have worked for a few years or who are military veterans, and middle-aged men and women who have been out of school for years. They range in age from 18 to 49.

According to Thomas they are all at the Center because they want to continue their education and they realize they need help. A few have been to college and found they weren't ready.

The Center is financed by a state appropriation to the State University of New York. The College at Brockport is coordinating the program. Other schools besides Brockport which are involved are: The Community College of the Finger Lakes in Canandaigua; Monroe Community College; Nazareth College; Roberts Wesleyan College; Rochester Institute of Technology; St. John Fisher College; the State University College at Geneseo, and the University of Rochester.

SECOND CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST

No matter how desperate the human need, freedom and salvation are always available, according to the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God" to be read Sunday at Christian Science church services.

A citation from Isaiah opens the Bible readings: "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none else."

The public is welcome at services beginning at 10:45 a.m. at Second Church of Christ, Scientist, One Seneca Pkwy.

RAUN Sponsors Essay Contest

Applications for participation in a Visual Essay Contest in celebration of the 25th anniversary of the United Nations are now available from the Rochester Association for the United Nations, 55 St. Paul St., 232-1080.

The contest, sponsored by the RAUN Junior Council, is designed to encourage the production of creative, visual material to celebrate the UN anniversary.

Any student or group of students enrolled in grades 9 to 12 in a high school may submit a film, slide-tape or photographic essay.

Prizes of $75 for first, $50 for second and $25 for third place will be awarded. Entries will be accepted until April 21, 1971.

SLIMNASTIC CLASSES

Maplewood Branch YMCA will be starting its second series of slimnastics classes for women on Tuesday, Jan. 5 at 9:15 a.m. "The holidays will be over, your resolutions are made, so start now on the road to improved fitness through exercise and jogging," says Bernie Davis of the "Y" staff.

Slimnastic classes meet twice a week on Tuesday and Thursday mornings for ten weeks. Babysitting is available for children two years old and older.

These classes are offered to wives or mothers of members or women who affiliate with the Maplewood YMCA Mothers Club. More information is available at 254-5250.

Sebastian Contegiaco of Most Precious Blood) next summer. A community planning group, which includes a Grammar and a High School student, will work with the City in designing the recreational facility. The $500,000 playground will be partially funded by the State. Landscape architects are readying site plans. Rat-baiting will be accelerated. Neighbors will report migration of rats to the County Health Department and the lairs will be baited without delay. Robert Bouley of the Health Department, who is a member of the Task Force, reported that 9,443 bags of bait have been used at the dump in the past seven months and Mrs. Gabriel DeRosa, a member of the Northwest Neighborhood Association, agreed that the rat control problem is less severe than it was a year ago.

The Task Force's next meeting is set for Jan. 4. It will begin at 3 p.m. with a walking tour of the area and convene at 4 p.m. at Most Precious Blood Hall on Stenson St. for a regular business meeting.

THANK YOU!
-from Dale's Hardware

AS WE COME to the end of 15 years of successful business, we want to take this opportunity to thank all our friends for making it possible.
It has been our constant aim to create good will and always will be. What pleases us most is to hear hundreds of comments about our store such as:

"It's good to come to a store with decent prices."
"It's good to come to a REAL hardware store instead of a pot and pan hardware."
"It's good to come to a hardware store that can solve Paint, Plumbing and Electrical problems, too."
"How can you spend so much time with me for a 10¢ item?"
"I wish your store was on the corner of our street."
"How can you two guys keep so pleasant hearing everyone's problems?"
"You must be giving something away, seeing all the cars parked outside."
Well, we blush a little, but we must confess we love it.
