CHARLOTTE
HIGH SCHOOL

COMPETITION, to be most wholesome, should remove all handicaps possible that every competitor may be afforded an even chance. Whenever a school engages in contests with other schools five to ten times its own size, it assumes a handicap hard to remove. At the best it may expect to make a creditable showing, it cannot hope often to win. When such a smaller school in such stern competition is victorious, the fact may well be noted and long remembered. Therefore, the Class of June 1924 of Charlotte High School dedicates its Year Book to the Basketball team, City Champions for the present season.

The Past

1920-1924

On September 6, 1920, we entered Charlotte High School, fifty-four proud and haughty freshmen, the largest class that had ever entered up to that date.

But proud? Ah, yes until our dreaded Seniors and upper classmen delighted in telling us about the very important initiation they were preparing for us. Immediately we began to worry about what they might do to us on the night of October 28, the date which had been set almost at once for the inquisition.

In spite of this anxiety we called a meeting about a month before the great night and elected our officers, Edward Freckleton, President; Fred Kimmel, Vice-President; Walter Whelehan, Secretary; Avis Miller, Treasurer. Little did we know that this meeting would give another idea to the initiators.

The great day came. Mr. Butterfield called an assembly and warned the Seniors not to damage the school. He announced to freshmen only, "Report at 6:45 in Room 4 to prepare for the worst of penalties."

At 6:45 sharp fifty-four freshmen reported in Room 4, each wearing the oldest apparel known to him. At seven o'clock the initiation began.

The upper corridors were absolutely dark except for one lonely pumpkin which sat on the victrola dressed up in ghostly robes. We were taken into Room 5 which was also dark. There we saw the forms of our distinguished upper classmen standing before a huge flame with many irons placed in it being heated for some branding process. We were blindfolded and burned (supposedly) and told to move on. The blindfold was then removed from our eyes and we walked up the stairs leading to the 'gym'. About the sixth or seventh step up we were filled with pep by receiving a shock from two electric plates. Next we were blackened and '24 written across our foreheads. Then we were given a solution of naphtha and quinine and compelled to eat macaroni which we were told was worms. Thus ended the physical torture.

After that we went to the assembly hall and the by-laws of C. H. S. were read to us by an esteemed Senior Elliot Maynard. After many "I do's" and "I will's" we were given the honor of the first dance for Freshmen only. A very enjoyable evening was spent with our classmen and the initiation had not been such a torture after all.

Knowing what was expected of us we got together and gave a return party in February. It was a huge success and even the proud and haughty Seniors acknowledged the wonderful time they had.

In 1921 several members of our class took part in the school activities and athletics.

Our Junior year found us losing our classmates very fast. Several had decided to still remain a "Soph" because they liked their old classes and teachers.

Looking up our class record I realized we had a few of Charlotte's most famous and popular athletes. 'General' Howe, 'Wis' Henry and 'Gerry' Cronin were the three men in our class who fought and conquered with the best basketball team Charlotte has ever known. Through hard work and loyalty that team brought us an honor which Charlotte never gained before, the City Championship in Basketball.

In February, 1924, we organized our class to prepare for graduation. What a surprise to find that only nine of the original fifty-four who had entered in 1920, were to end our high school days together.

On leaving Charlotte High after four years of study and development, our sincere hope is that all future graduates will enjoy their careers here as we have.

AVIS MILLER, Class Historian.

The Future (?)

Dear Gertrude:

Before I left Rochester, I tried to see you, but was unable to find anyone who knew where you lived or what you were doing. When I arrived here, I called on Helen Pye who is the confidential secretary of our Honored President, Mr. Gerald Cronin. She gave me your address, and I am going to take advantage of it and tell you about some of our old friends that I have just seen or heard about.

The first morning in the hotel I was reading a paper and saw in the headlines, "'General Howe' attacks Mexico City." Just think Gertrude of Gordon Howe, one of our graduates attacking the Mexicans at whose head is another of our old friends Senor George Bliven. This notice was of great interest to me, so I looked around to see who else I could see. During one of my travels I met Hilda Hellaby who was clerking in the 5 and 10c store with the expectation of becoming its oldest clerk. Hilda was certainly surprised to see me, and we had a great deal to talk over. You know how Hilda used to like to talk, Gert, well she isn't over it yet. While we were talking a very well dressed person came up and said very familiarly "Hello Hilda" and looking around I recognized Avis Miller who has a very responsible position here as a pianist in one of the leading theaters. Avis told me that Harry Hickman had just returned from Europe and was imitating Paderewski to the satisfaction of the Washington audiences. I guess we can look for a bright future for our young musician.

Who would have ever believed that our timid classmate Gerald Cronin was some time to be President? But you can see what time will do. You remember Keith Green of course, that little boy who used to sing in assembly with all the ease of a great musician? Well he is here, carrying messages for Mr. Cronin. He told me very confidentially that he didn't like his work very well, and he thought in a few weeks he would go back to Charlotte and work for Felix Fleming who is manager of a Hart store there.

Washington, D. C.

April 1, 1935.

The fairer sex of our 1924 class is making a contribution to art. Rose St. Maurice and Eva Defendorf are conducting a Beauty Parlor, and Helen Cummings has just finished a book entitled "Beauty Makes the Heart Grow Younger." Not so bad for the smaller part of our class is it Gertrude?

The next person I met was our Standard Bearer, Robert Critchell. I saw a very stately looking gentleman walk past me, giving me a very condescending look. Not being of a timid nature I returned the look and recognized this personage as Robert Critchell. I walked up to him and said bravely "How do you do, Robert?" He turned on his heel and after scrutinizing me remarked: "Ah, Miss Moore I do believe." How like Robert, yet how different now that he was one of the leading statesmen. Robert kindly asked me to lunch and after lunch showed me the city. That evening we went to a theater at which I saw Margurite Blowers in "Way up North," written and directed by Elmer L. Wheeler. I was very glad to see another of his plays and I certainly enjoyed it. After the play we went to a restaurant where Robert said another surprise awaited me. Of all the surprises this was the biggest! Gertrude Mabee was in the act of doing a toe dance. I remembered that at school she told me that with a few more lessons she would be real good. I formed the opinion that she had at least had some of the lessons. After her dance Gertrude came out and sat with us. She said she couldn't stay because Willis Henry was playing basketball and she just had to see the game. He was such a wonderful player. Of course I agreed with her and she excused herself.

That night I was saved the loneliness of a hotel because I was cordially invited to stay with Elizabeth Argus who is now happily married.

We Do Bequeath —

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

of the Class of June 1924

We, the class of June 1924, of the Charlotte High School, Rochester, New York, of the County of Monroe, in the State of New York, United States of America, being in full possession of our senses, and of sound mind and memory, do hereby ordain and establish this, our last will and testament.

First—We direct that all our just debts, graduation and other miscellaneous expenses be paid.

Second—To the faculty and Mr. Butterfield, we leave our respect, admiration and kindest wishes for success in the future years.

Third—To Miss Sharer and Mr. Bird, we leave our appreciation and gratitude for their efforts in behalf of the class of June, 1924.

Fourth—The following individual bequests are made with perfect confidence that the heirs will make the most of them:

1. To Lucile Bailey, the use of the Charlotte Dance hall for the entire summer season.

2. To Dorothy Burghart, a few dozen new hearts to break.

3. To Dick Smith, a vacant study hall so that he may talk unceasingly; we hope the walls will blush at his sarcastic remarks.

4. To Lois Speares we can leave nothing,—she takes what she wants.

5. To Bob Decker the care of our silver-tongued oratorical lawyer Fred Hughes.

6. To Louis Schwartz, a few cases of chewing gum. He will then never have to cease chewing.

7. To "Red" Keeler one cent so that he can say that he was a true treasurer of the Senior English class.

8. To "Vic" Briefer, a hat; some day he may catch cold.

9. To Bernice Ritzenthaler, a large quantity of mosquito netting to wind around her head. Bernice always was fond of veils and we hope that she gets a sheik.

10. To Johnny Maher and Nelson Ahrns a teawagon full of lettuce sandwiches. We hope the former's complexion will fully bloom and that the latter's craving for the said sandwiches will be somewhat subdued.

11. To Harry Tarrant, a new pair of pants and we warn him to be careful while playing baseball.

12. To "Dick" Nesbitt a can of shellac. We earnestly hope his hair will hereafter stay perfect.

We hereby appoint the class of January, 1925 to be the sole executor of this our last will and testament, hereby revoking all former wills by us made.

In witness whereof we set our hand and seal on this ninth day of June in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four.

Class of 1924,

HARRY G. HICKMAN, Testator.

Witnesses:

Gerald Cronin, Vice-President.

Eva Defendorf, Secretary.

The City Champions

The high-water mark in Basketball at Charlotte High, was reached on March 14, 1924 when the East High Team was defeated, this bringing the first city Championship to our School.

The season of 23-24 will long be remembered by Charlotte rooters as the most successful season ever enjoyed by the school. For the first time since 1918, the second time in the history of the school, the Alumni team was defeated. This in itself was a notable feat, as we are proud to say that among our Alumni are many athletes who have demonstrated their ability on some of the best college teams in the country.

By their victory over East High, Charlotte won the right to represent Rochester in the State Tournament. Here again the boys demonstrated their ability and game-ness by defeating Dansville on the first night of the tournament, and Cuba on the second night. On the third day Charlotte was defeated by Painted Post in a hard-fought game.

After the finish of the season the team received the following letter from Mr. Elmer K. Smith, director of the Sectional Tournament in Rochester:

My Dear Mr. Chamberlain:

Will you please extend to the student body of Charlotte High School and to the members of your team in particular, my hearty commendation for the fine spirit of good sportsmanship shown throughout the Sectional Tournament?

While victory is the immediate goal for which athletic teams strive, we all realize that there is something far more valuable than this, namely, how a victory is won and how a defeat is accepted. I can sincerely say that I did not hear one remark or see any act on the part of the Charlotte student body which was in any way unsportsmanlike. We all agree that although this is the ideal for which we are striving, it is very seldom that we attain it 100 per cent. The fact that the Charlotte student body attained this good record, is certainly worthy of special commendation.

I trust that the school will be able to maintain this record for some time to come.

April 2nd, 1924.

Yours truly,

(Signed) ELMER K. SMITH.

Baseball

From the beginning of the school year athletics at C. H. S. have been pushed along with all kinds of energy and support along with everything else that tends to make a record noticeable on the soccer pitch, the basketball court and the baseball diamond.

From the very outset of the season Coach Chamberlain has worked hard with the players trying to find the best combination possible. A great many things have hampered the work of the Coach. Some of the players were declared ineligible because of scholastic difficulties, and an injury to the Captain early in the season, weakened the team considerably.

The team, which was finally decided upon was made up of men, playing their first year of High School baseball, only three veterans of last year's team remaining. Thus the team lacked experience, a great asset to any team.

The team has played six games to date, losing five and winning one. The players have shown a marked improvement in the last few games, and before the season is over, are bound to win a few more victories.

The record to date is as follows:

Charlotte	11	East High	25
Charlotte	7	Canandaigua	17
Charlotte	8	Fairport	6
Charlotte	2	Lima	8
Charlotte	2	West High	11
Charlotte	4	Technical	8

Class Prophecy (Continued)

The next day I was to leave for Rochester, but I thought I would stop in to see Mr. Bird who was teaching Chemistry, and bring back some of the old days to his mind. He said that he had just won a lawsuit against Raymond Sherman who runs a gas station, on the claim that the gas was half water. Frederick Hughes was the attorney in the case for Mr. Bird. Mr. Bird said Frederick had won half of his cases. I asked him how many he had had and Mr. Bird said two. Frederick certainly has a good start. I asked him about Miss Sharer and he told me she was correcting English Papers in Albany. When I reached Rochester I thought I had seen all my old friends, but I was mistaken for I met Elwood Meyerhoff who was running a market at Charlotte. He told me he had been up to see Wilbur Neuffer who was selling pet dogs. It sounded like a conspiracy to me, but who can tell?

If you ever have the opportunity to go to Washington take advantage of it, because you will see most of our old pals, and if your birds can spare you, go up soon.

Very truly yours,

HELEN MOORE, Class Prophet.

FELLOWS!

"H. J." Norton Says: Plan to Spend a Few Weeks at

Camp Pathfinder
This Summer.

Its a real Boy's Camp in the Canadian North Woods—a Camp for Red Blooded Fellows like you.

Have you ever hiked through virgin forests, paddled through mountain lakes, matched your skill with a gamey trout in deep waters and at the end of a day's paddle pitched your tent on some rugged spot; cooked and ate your supper amidst the pines, cedars and balsams of the Canadian North woods? Have you ever gathered around the campfire at night and listened to the call of the wild birds and animals, and then crawled into your warm woolen blankets and enjoyed a real night's sleep in God's great out-of-doors? If you haven't, you've missed the thrill of a life-time, and if you have, you'll feel the call to try it again. At CAMP PATHFINDER you will get this thrill and many others.

In CAMP PATHFINDER you will find the following organized activities: Manual Training, Swimming, Sailing, Fishing, Canoeing, Athletics, Scouting, Life Saving, Wrestling, Boxing, Archery, Photography, Baseball, Rowing, Nature Study, Tutoring, Camp fire songs and stories plus 3—5 and 7 day CANOE TRIPS through VIRGIN FORESTS, STREAMS AND LAKES. No finer FISHING GROUNDS on the American continent.

SEASON—July 2nd to August 20th.

For further information and Camp booklet (Phone Park 900-X) H. J. Norton, 18 Nunda Blvd.
