WILLIAM C. WOLGAST

WHEN Mr. Wolgast came to Jan. '21 in the middle of the Junior year, we at once found in him a real advisor and a true friend. He has given us good times at our jollifications, more than a square deal in his relations as teacher, and good fellowship all the time.

INDIVIDUAL RECORDS

JACOB ABRAMOW
EUGENE FIELD SCHOOL No. 10.

24 OREGON ST.
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Principals (1, 2), Chess Club (2, 3), Class Chess Team (3), Class Soccer (3, 4), Home Room Soccer (3, 4), Janua Board (4).

If that old saying about silence being golden is really true, Jake will probably never be bothered with a very heavy income tax. One of the most difficult tasks he ever had was to give the meaning of the word "reticent." It's no wonder he stumbled over it.

HELEN L. BETTIS Hgly
AUDUBON SCHOOL No. 33

349 PARSELLS AVE.
CORNELL UNIVERSITY

Executive Council (4), Home Room Committee (2, 3), Executive Committee (3), Class Volley Ball Team (4), Wearer of Numerals, Interclass Gym Meet (4), Hike Club (4), Glee Club (4), Soccer Ticket Committee (4), Senior Day Committee (4).

Helen is a good all-around good sport. She never pushes herself to the front, but when called on to help, she's always there to help it through to the top.

LILLIAN R. BAKER
W. J. H. S.

28 ALMIRA ST.
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Glee Club (2, 3), Hike Club (2), French Club (3), Thrift Stamp Committee (4).

When Lillian recites you don't have to sit on pins and needles for fear she's going to fall down. You can usually depend on her to have it right.

HARRIET T. BLOCK
W. J. H. S.

570 PORTLAND AVE.
GENESEO NORMAL SCHOOL

Harriet seems to prefer to sit and smile rather than to make much noise. But we are much obliged to her for loaning her sister to entertain at class socials, in her place. We can see the coming world's toe dancer.

FRANK BLOOM
CARTHAGE GRAMMAR SCHOOL No. 8

1063 ST. PAUL ST.
CORNELL

Wearer of Numerals, Class Soccer (3, 4), Home Room Soccer (3, 4), Class Baseball (4), Home Room Baseball (3, 4), Home Room Basketball (3), Class Orchestra (4), Senior Farce (4).

When it comes to tickling the ivories (of course we refer to those that grow on pianos) Frank is a real artist. When he starts playing the most dignified person in the world just naturally can't make his feet behave.

HENRY WELCH BLOSS
FRANCIS PARKER SCHOOL No. 23

334 OXFORD ST.
CORNELL

Wearer of Numerals, Class Soccer (1, 2, 3, 4), Class Baseball (1, 2, 3, 4), Class Treasurer Boys' Section (2), Assistant Class Treasurer (3), Member of Executive Council (2), Patrician (1), Ass't. Editor Janua (4).

Hank is one of the wise birds that rally around the lunch room at noon, and deliver political speeches to desperate schoolmates who are trying to get a bite to eat. However, Hank undoubtedly furnishes them with much food for thought.

DORIS V. BOOTH
No. 15 SCHOOL

Adams

1183 MONROE AVE.
RADCLIFFE COLLEGE

Doris can be relied upon to help and give her best everytime. Doris' giggle has pulled many a class out of the "blues of ignorance."

*Doris Booth Adams
Buffalo, N. Y.*

CLAYTON D. BRAUN
CARTHAGE GRAMMAR SCHOOL No. 8

14 KAPPEL PLACE
ALVIENE SCHOOL

Home Room Soccer (3, 4), Senior Farce (4).

Like the little girl in the nursery rhyme, Clayton is "very, very good" when's he's good, which is all the time. His temperament, like his pencil, inclines to the artistic. If all pupils were like Braun, the teachers would get a lot more sleep.

E. EVERETT BROUGH
CITY NORMAL SCHOOL No. 14

12 WINTHROP ST.
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Whenever we hear somebody pounding on a desk or otherwise making a noise, we know that Broughie is somewhere in the immediate vicinity. He seems to have a crowd around him whether he is making a noise or not, which is largely due to the fact that he can really make bright remarks when he wants to.

HARRIETT ANNA BURGESS
SAMUEL A. LATTIMORE SCHOOL No. 11

254 MELVILLE ST.
UNDECIDED

Mr. Silbert W. Graham

You may think Harriet one of our quiet and dignified girls but once she gets out in "farmerettes" she sure can go.

IRMA CAMMAN
WEST HIGH SCHOOL

1755 EAST AVE.
UNDECIDED

Class Basketball (3, 4), Girls' Gym Demonstration (3, 4), Class Volley Ball (4), Girls' Track Meet (4), Girls' Gym Exhibition (4), Wearer of Numerals, Hike Club (4), Senior Faree (4).

Irma has surely made a lot of fun and added greatly to the class. Her crazy ideas have always broken the monotony in recitations and caused a great deal of amusement. Our only sorrow is that she hasn't been with us from the beginning.

ELIZABETH CENZER
W. J. H. S.

78 VIENNA ST.
CITY NORMAL SCHOOL

We owe "more than tongue can tell" to Elizabeth. Many have been the times in prose class that Libby has pulled us through. The few times she did fall, the whole class sank and even "Doc" gave up.

CELIA CLIFTON
W. J. H. S.

Ely Levy

53 LOWELL ST.
DARROW SCHOOL OF BUSINESS

Hike Club (2), Magister (2), Clarion Agent (2), French Club (2), Class Pin Committee (2), Senior Farce (4).

"Cele" has always had a lot of class spirit. We have appreciated how much she has supported every class social, and her ideas at class meetings have been of the greatest help.

HELEN COCHRANE
OSWEGO ST. NORMAL GRAMMAR SCHOOL

Mac Cargo

522 Parsells Ave.

29 1/2 KENILWORTH TER.
SYRACUSE UNIVERSITY

Glee Club (3), Glee Club Concert (3), Gym Demonstration (4).

Bobby Burns very nicely described Helen for us when he wrote:

"She's a winsome wee thing
She's a handsome wee thing
She's a bonnie wee thing
This sweet girl o' ours."

Helen is always there to keep the fun going and we're sorry she didn't enter with us to enjoy our full four years.

RUTH COMINSKY
W. J. H. S.

462 S. GOODMAN ST.
DENTAL HYGIENE SCHOOL

Girls' Athletic Meet (2).

Ruth has certainly caused some excitement and a great deal of variety in the class, but like all the others she has added to our "family circle" and it wouldn't have been complete without her.

ZELDA KNOWLTON CONKLIN
FRANCIS PARKER SCHOOL No. 23

Hall

131 ALLIANCE AVE.
DREXEL INSTITUTE

Class Treasurer Girls' Section (1), Clarion Board (2, 3), Executive Council (3), Social Committee (1), Clarion Agent (2, 3), Janua Board (4), Class Historian (4), Senior Farce (4).

I hope every class has a Zelda Conklin. It would have been hard for us to get along without ours. Zelda is always there with some kind of amusement and is always willing to do her best to give everyone a good time—and she sure knows how, too.

HAZEL CORLETT
AUDUBON SCHOOL No. 33

Phillips
Denver

570 HAYWARD AVE.
MECHANICS INSTITUTE

Hike Club (4), Program Committee (2, 4), Janua Board (4), Soccer Ticket Committee (4).

We think Hazel would make a good movie actress. Her facial expressions are quite interesting. Watch them! Hazel's always there to keep up the "pep."

HUGH E. DEWART
MONROE GRAMMAR SCHOOL

41 ALLIANCE AVE.
CORNELL

Senior Farce (4), Class Colors Committee (4).

Quite often when we try to get Eddie to do something, he is apt to tell us that he has to look after the chickens. Don't be alarmed, however, for he simply refers to his poultry farm, which unfortunately for the class occupies much of his time outside of school hours.

WARREN B. DE WITT
AUDUBON SCHOOL No. 33

PINE GROVE AVE., IRONDEQUOIT
CORNELL

Wearer of Numerals, Class Baseball (2, 3, 4), Home Room Baseball (4), Class Basketball (3, 4), Home Room Basketball (3, 4), Class Soccer (3, 4), Home Room Soccer (3, 4), Senior Annual Board (4).

If everyone in East High School were blessed with Warren's easy-going disposition we should almost be in favor of dispensing with vacations. If such things as lessons ever bother him, he successfully hides it under the wise policy of never troubling trouble till trouble troubles him.

ELOISE DeYOUNG mills
CARTHAGE GRAMMAR SCHOOL No. 8

87 CLIFFORD AVE.
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Class Vice-President (1), Patrician (1), Class President (2), Class Vice-president (3), Press Club (3, 4), Clarion Board (3, 4), Testatrix (4), Senior Farce (4), Home Room Committee (3, 4).

By "trotting" through her four years, Eloise has helped give us all a good time. Nor does she waste the advantage of eyes. But one is always more cheerful by a glance in her direction, for she is never close in returning same with a cheery smile.

DAVID DIAMOND
W. J. H. S.

41 RHINE ST.
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Class Baseball (2), Home Room Baseball (4), Thrift Stamp Committee (3).

Diamond plays baseball, which answers Bill Shakespeare's historic question, "What's in a name?" He isn't a Diamond in the rough, either. But two puns are enough to inflict on as good a fellow as Dave, so we'll stop.

MARGARET LOUISE DICKERSON
WADSWORTH SCHOOL No. 12

*Mrs. Charles Jackson - 55 Lakeview Pkwy.

87 SAVANNAH ST.
CITY NORMAL SCHOOL

Glee Club (3), Clarion Agent (4).

Peggy is another of our class standbys. She is so much in demand on the north side of the building, however, that some of us couldn't see her as much as we'd have liked to.

LEO J. DIRKSEN
SPRINGFIELD TECH. HIGH SCHOOL

330 FRANK ST.
UNDECIDED

When Leo strikes his pace he generally accomplishes what he sets out to do, and scores a K. O. in doing it. His spirit of co-operation and willingness to pitch in and help, are what help to produce the finest type of school spirit, and the best class organization.

SARAH LEA DUNSKY
W. J. H. S.

39 ROHR ST.
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Sarah is seldom seen but in classes. She does enough reading for all of us. But keep it up Sarah, for they say "the reader often makes the writer."

ROSE F. EIDELSTEIN
W. J. H. S.

65 SELLINGER ST.
MECHANICS INSTITUTE

You have to really know Rose to find out what a good sport she is. We're sorry she didn't step to the front more and give us a better chance to know her.

DOROTHY LANEY FILLINGHAM
W. J. H. S.

Mrs. G. D. Greenfield

119 PECK ST.
UNDECIDED

Class Basketball Team (3), Wearer of Numerals (3), Senior Farce (4),
Volunteer Hike Club (4).

Dorothy is one of those rare people left in this big school who seems to enjoy studying. Someday we expect to see her stories and ideas in the leading magazines. We wish you the best of luck, Dorothy.

F. WILLIAM FLADD
LONGFELLOW SCHOOL No. 36

36 COUNCIL ST.
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Orchestra (2), Operetta, Trial by Jury (2), Class Orchestra (3, 4), Cross Country (3, 4), Fall Tennis Tournament (4), Home Room Baseball (4), Home Room Soccer (4), Senior Annual Board (4), Remington Typewriter Certificate and Cardcase (2).

Fladd doesn't waste a great deal of time with words, but whenever something is to be done, he's always right on hand to do it and do it well. Incidentally he is quite a typist, and if he only had the advantage of living in the state of Ohio there is no telling what fame he might achieve.

J. DEVERE FORMAN
WADSWORTH SCHOOL No. 12

365 CLINTON AVE. S.
NEW YORK UNIVERSITY

Wearer of R, Numerals, Class Baseball (2), Class Soccer (1, 2), Class Basketball (1, 2), Captain (2), Class Track (Capt. 2), E. H. Baseball Team (3, 4), Manager (4), Soccer Team (3, 4), Ass't. Advertising Manager Janua (4), Inner Circle, Athletic Field Committee (4), Home Room Athletic Manager (3), Glee Club (3, 4).

Any fellow who stars in two or three school athletics, and at the same time takes an active interest in class affairs, deserves all the credit that is coming to him. Devvie is just that sort of a fellow, and few have done any more for Jan. '21 than he.

*clauder
withup*
EVELYN MAY FORSTER
CARTHAGE GRAMMAR SCHOOL No. 8

55 SCRANTON ST.
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Glee Club (1, 2), Class Secretary (2, 3), Stamp Committee (3), Janua Board (4), Chairman Color Committee (4), Senior Day Committee (4), President Hike Club (4).

Ev has been the best of friends through our four years. If things didn't seem quite right, we'd go to Evelyn and her ready smile and good word always made it better.

EDWARD FRICKER
SAMUEL A. LATTIMORE SCHOOL No. 11

185 WEBSTER AVE.
CORNELL

Wearer of Numerals, Class Baseball (2, 3, 4), Captain (4), Home Room Baseball (4), Captain (4), Class Basketball (2, 3, 4), Captain (4), Home Room Basketball (3, 4), Home Room Soccer (4), Class Track (2), Class Orchestra (3, 4).

Ed. can always be depended upon to liven up any social or dance with his banjo, which he plays with much dexterity. Perhaps that is responsible for his even disposition, which seems to remain unruffled on all occasions. If this is true we might suggest a study of the banjo on the part of more high school pupils.

ROBERT S. GARSON
FRANCIS PARKER SCHOOL

Cadet Corps (1).

One of Bob's greatest delights is to take up class time in arguments with his teachers. Other members of the class don't object to this habit, but strange to say the unfortunate instructors seem to object quite strongly. Some day we expect to make him a congressman, so that he can then talk to his heart's content.

2030 EAST AVE.
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

WILLIAM B. GELB
W. J. H. S.

9 FIEN ST.
UNDECIDED

Class Chess Team (2), June '20 Senior Play (4).

Bill used to have a regular appointment with Doc. Gray after each prose class to write out little exercises, from 10 to 100 times. Yet he fearlessly bearded the lion in his den, and some even say that he is one of the reasons why Doc. gave up his prose classes in East High. Who knows?

EDWIN GOHR
CARTHAGE SCHOOL No. 8

1510 ST. PAUL ST.
MASSACHUSETTS INSTITUTE OF TECHNOLOGY

Official of Roman State (1), Class Baseball (2), Home Room Basketball (2), Electrician Senior Farce (4).

Although very silent and quiet, he seems to have a way of making friends with everyone. However, we do wish he would become a bit more loquacious sometime, for he is quite an electrician, and would doubtless be able to release some brilliant ideas.

MEYER GORIN
W. J. H. S.

26 HOELTZER ST.
UNIVERSITY OF BUFFALO

Orchestra (3, 4), Glee Club (2, 3), Press Club (3), German Club (1).

Meyer joined Jan. '21 at the last minute, so that the class is just making his acquaintance. He's a serious little fellow who is right there in the musical line.

SARAH D. GORSLINE
FRANCIS PARKER SCHOOL No. 23

When it comes to Sally, we get both "Quantity and Quality." Sally has made a mighty fine class mate and has always been a good sport to give us a good time. She makes a wonderful Juliet perched on the top of a ladder!

(80 BERKELEY ST.)
MECHANICS INSTITUTE,
Philadelphia
N.Y.

CHARLES H. GRANATA
W. J. H. S.

232 CENTRAL PARK
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Class Baseball (3), Home Room Baseball (2, 4), Home Room Soccer (3, 4).

Here's a fellow with a great future as a gum-shoe detective. For rendering himself inconspicuous, he is without an equal, and at the same time tends to business in a way to make Sherlock Holmes strangle with envy.

RICHARD L. GREENE
FRANCIS PARKER SCHOOL No. 23
WESTFALL RD.
UNION

President of Executive Council and Students' Association (4), Wearer of Numerals, Class Soccer (2), Class Baseball (4), Home Room Soccer (3, 4), Home Room Baseball (4), Publications Committee, Executive Council (4), Chairman Publications Committee (4), Clarion Board (2, 3, 4), Clarion Pin (3), Clarion Certificate (4), Editor Nut Bowl (4), Editor-in-chief Clarion (4), (resigned), Assistant Editor Clarion (4), Vox Populi Board (1, 2), Chairman Home Room Committee (3), Press Club (3, 4), Hamilton Declamation Contest (4), Senior Farce (4), Class Social Committee (3), Inner Circle Athletic Field Committee (4), College Supper Committee (4), Editor-in-chief Janua (4).

After looking over Dick's record, we can't help wondering how he has ever accomplished so much in four short years. He has gone into all the school and class activities ever since he was a small frosh and always put across whatever he undertakes. We often wonder where he gets all his pep and energy.

GLADYS C. GRIBBROEK
W. J. H. S.

37 BAUMANN ST.
CITY NORMAL SCHOOL

Hike Club (3, 4).

Glad's motto seems to be "better late than never." But we're glad she came, though late, for we'd rather have her late than not at all.

ELWYN G. HATCH
MONROE SCHOOL No. 15

26 SUMNER PARK
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

Class Soccer (1, 2), Class Baseball (1), Class Basketball (2), Home Room Basketball (3), Social Committee (3, 4), Tennis Tournament (4), Wearer of Numerals, Senior Farce (4), Chairman of Senior Day Committee (4).

Although Hatch has been a most frequent visitor to the south side of the building, he has managed to take a lively interest in the welfare of his class. In fact, just how much he has done along these lines isn't very generally known as he is of a truly modest disposition.

HAROLD V. HEBING
NAZARETH HALL ACADEMY

716 E. MAIN ST.
COLUMBIA

Master of Ceremonies (4), June '20 Senior Play (4), Senior Farce (4).

Few classes are blessed (?) with so much oratorical ability as Jan. '21. If our old friend, Dan Webster, could hear Harold orate, he would probably turn over in his grave, from jealousy. Furthermore he is an actor of great ability, and is always right at home when behind the foot-lights.

ALBERT HEGNAUER
SUSAN B. ANTHONY SCHOOL No. 27

Senior Farce (4).

We haven't been able to analyze Al exactly, but we know that he's made up of fun, common sense and serious purpose, in just about the right proportion. Add to that, that he's a good hard worker and that's all anyone could ask.

96 CAMERON ST.
UNIVERSITY OF ROCHESTER

BENEDICT S. HERT
FRANCIS PARKER SCHOOL No. 23

170 WESTMINSTER RD.
CORNEIL

Class Baseball (1, 3), Home Room Baseball (3, 4), Basketball league (2), Home Room Basketball (3), Home Room Soccer (3), Nature Club (2, 3), Science Club (3), Tennis Tournament (3), Golf Tournament (4), Senior Farce (4).

Benny isn't much given to conversation, but he seems to have a large following of friends who are always willing to put in a good word for him. Perhaps this wouldn't be true though, if they knew that he has attended Sunday School on several occasions.

ARTHUR J. HILL
SCHOOL No. 14

361 UNIVERSITY AVE.
UNIVERSITY OF PENNSYLVANIA

Class Basketball (2, 3), Class Baseball (2, 3), Class Soccer (1, 2), Home Room Baseball (2, 3), Home Room Basketball (2, 3), Wearer of Numerals, Executive Council (3, 4), Chairman Athletics Committee, Advertising Mgr. Janua (4)

Some fellows are born leaders, some acquire it and others have it thrust upon them. We don't know just which one of these possibilities applies to Art, but we do know that he is one, and rather suspect that it is the first case. He is not only a husky athlete but also a shrewd business man, which is about enough for anyone.

JAMES B. HILICK
GENEVA HIGH SCHOOL

441 ALEXANDER ST.
CORNELL

Senior Play (4), Advertising Manager of Senior Farce (4).

CLASS POEM

Dear old East High! There's little we can do
To make return for what we take away;
The debt we owe for gifts received from you,
Our love and gratitude alone can pay.

Why should we say farewell - we do not part
You always will go with us, guide and friend
To spur our high ambition - cheer our heart
And to our aims your inspiration lend.

However far away our fortunes lead,
However much the Fates may us deny,
Or to what height of fame we may succeed
We ever will remember you, East High.

EVELYN FORSTER

CLASS HISTORY

AT the thought of leaving our Alma Mater, a thrill like that experienced on a roller coaster is being experienced by every member of the class of Jan. '21. It is not exactly a thrill of pleasure to think we are leaving the school we hold so dear, nor is it a thrill of disappointment to think that at last we are to be graduated—"after all these years." It is rather a thrill of anticipation for the future. But whether it is "out of school life, into life's school" or out of this school into college, there isn't a member of the class who will not look back when he's old, decrepit and grey-haired and say, "those were the good old days!"

When we were sweet and innocent little "greenies", quite unaccustomed to the ways of East High, the girls organized and planned a Masquerade Party which was (as the Oxford students would say) "perfectly ripping!" The boys, however, did not organize until they were Sophs and as they were not socially inclined at the time, did not have any "jolly-get-togethers" until they became Juniors.

"United we stand—divided we fall", so the classes combined and we gave the first, last, and only "Junior Jounce" which was a dance and social combined. Then in the same year came a Hallowe'en Party where clammy-fingered ghosts held sway. And then a regular dance with neat little programs of purple and white (the best colors, excepting the red, white and blue, in the world). On the programs was printed "Junior Dance". Don't you remember? My, but we felt big.

CLASS HISTORY - Continued

When we became "sophisticated seniors" we gave a Dinner-Dance which was strictly a class affair, and a successful one, at that. Then our first voyage as a class and we went "sailing, sailing over the bounding main" to a little berg called Coburg. Many games, dancing and the best of eats composed the trip and we arrived back in Rochester just as the 'lil ol' moon peeped up over the horizon.

The last big term found members of the class active in many lines of school life, but not too busy for a party, planned for Irondequoit Bay, but thanks to chilly Boreas, held at school. Supper cooked in the manual training shop and dancing in the corridors made up the evening's activities.

Then came the "County Chairman" presented by Jan. '21 all alone, and admittedly the best farce ever. Thus ends the history of January 1921 in East High, but her sons and daughters are going forth to make history yet unwritten.

CLASS PROPHECY

ONE day in the year 1940 I chanced upon an article in the New York Tribune by Wilfred Price the noted Press correspondent. This described the solving of the mystery of the Sphinx, which achievement had been accomplished by an expedition led by Richard Greene, archaeologist, and Albert Hegnauer, the geologist. I found also while reading the paper that Alexander Campbell was its editor.

This rather aroused my interest. I began to wonder what had become of my old classmates. So I called up Dorothy McKay who had retired from public life after the success of her book "Pep and How To Acquire It."

She asked if I had seen the cartoon by Thomas Horiwitz depicting Senators Henry Bloss as the leader of the Republican Party and Horace Wood as that of the Democratic in their annual fight. We became quite enthused and decided to visit the Sphinx.

We went to New York the following day and stopped at the Aldorena which was under the management of Jessie Weissager. Around the hotel were numerous posters advertising Smith's Sweetheart Shoppe. And as we had nothing to do until our boat should sail we decided to visit the place.

When we arrived we found that it was conducted by an old friend Lucius Smith. He told us he had been advised to go into the business not so much for the ability to pick pretty girls but because the girls all flocked to him. Among his assistants were Mildred Kimber and Irma Camman. While there Elwyn Hatch and Harold Hebing dropped in and we were assured that they were regular patrons of the place.

From there we went to the Transportation Company to engage our state rooms. We found Lillian Baker in charge and she promised to do the best she could for us. On the way back to the hotel we came upon a florist. We went in and found Clayton Braun anxious to attend to our wants. He told us that the beautiful flowers came from the farms of Marion Metzger and Martha Weilbye.

CLASS PROPHECY - Continued

When we reached the hotel we decided to indulge in a manicure and found upon trying to get an appointment that Harriet Block would wait upon us.

That evening we went to the theater. The manager, Vernon Warney, appeared and told us that the program to follow would be quite varied. The first sketch was Marvel Wickman the great American violinist. Then Louise Ramsbeck appeared accompanied by Ruth Van Graafeiland. We were then entertained by William Gelb and Leo Dirsken the aerial toss brothers. Next was Belle Levi accompanied by Rose Robfogel. The next member was very interesting. Eloise De Young the famous expert in modern dances and husbands, appeared with Louis Saunders her partner. Then Rose Eidelstein, the mind reader was followed by Celia Walberg who was introduced by her business manager Celia Clifton. The program ended with Zelda Conklin, America's greatest exponent of the silent drama telling the audience of some of the inside workings of the cinema.

The next day we decided to do some much needed shopping and went to the Dainty Shoppe which was run by Hazel Corlett. We passed the abode of Mildred Wunder, the great palmist who together with Sarah Dunsky the inventor of the mystic circle was able to read both the past and the future.

A little further down the street we came to a haberdashery. Hugh Dewart was standing in the door and invited us in. There we found Edward Fricker his prize model. Benedict Hert was trying to persuade Hugh to invest in life insurance. Robert Garson, the noted manufacturer of soap was looking over the neckties.

Later that afternoon we boarded the ship and found Captain David Kaplan in charge. We recognized a great many of our old friends. Jacob Abramow, the U. S. representative of the League of Nations, Emerson Pfeifer capitalist and Ruth Cominsky and Harry Simon labor's representative. Lester Ressegger Canada's man was also there.

Some of the contestants for the Olympic games were Devere Forman with Arthur Hill, his business manager and Frank Bloom, his trainer, and William Uhlen with Louis Jackson, his manager and William Fladd for trainer. Allen Oliver was with them as their press correspondent.

That evening Lura Schank, president of Sargent who was going abroad to study the Swedish System was at our table. Also Roberta Pfafflin who was on her way to hang her picture in the salon at Paris and with her the famous orator Lois McLellan.

There were several people who were going for pleasure among them Lawrence Ogden and George Jameson the editors of Life. Dr. Mildred Scribner the noted surgeon and Elsa Schramm the biologist. May Taylor, head of the mathematical department and Dorothy Fillingham of the Latin at Columbia University were on board.

When we reached France, we heard on all sides the news about Brand Johnson who had just finished the swim across the English channel.

CLASS PROPHECY --Concluded

At Paris we went to visit Gladys Gribbroek's famous business school and met there Margaret Meier who was trying to get some of her pupils for her establishment. She said she was with Charles McIntosh who was head of a large rubber plant.

Thence we went to Alexandria. There we found the American consul to be Erwin Sloane. Count de Granata was also there. We told the consul of our errand and he secured for us the necessary papers.

The next day we arrived at the Sphinx whereon was a small tablet recording the famous ones of all times. From this we learned more of our classmates.

Doris Booth was superintendent of a hospital and Gertrude Howe was the dietician. Helen Bettis, a chemistry expert had recently been added to the staff and Margaret Seymour was in charge of the training school. Everett Brough and Fletcher Garlock were the opposing candidates for constable. Warren Dewitt was running Monte Carlo.

Alice Wood had just finished her latest problem novel. She had been assisted by Helen Nettelmann, a social settlement worker and Mildred Wright who had charge of the playgrounds of N. Y. City. Evelyn Forster was the wife of the president. "Truly Jan. '21 had become famous," I murmured to myself.

Kathryn Parker and Dora Levin were running a home for old maids. Claude Westburg had fallen heir to the Pierpont Morgan's Millions and Sarah Levine was his secretary and she was kept busy paying the bills presented by Edwin Wilson, landscape architect and Helen Cochrane, interior decorator who had just finished his home on Long Island.

Edwin Gohr had been appointed by the government to take charge of all the electric lighting on Broadway. This measure had been introduced by U. S. Senator John Jameson and most strenuously fought by Gilbert Strayer, speaker of the house.

Elizabeth Cenzer was head of a New Thought institution of learning in connection with which Mildred Komisarsky and Rose Levine ran a domestic science school. They obtained most of their supplies from Sabin's which was especially noted for its sea foods. Levi Olan and Mitchell Jossem the respective heads of the Telegraph and Telephone companies had united which was a great step forward.

As I read this record of the famous men and women and their achievements I was struck with the fact that after each name were the symbols E. H. S. Jan. '21.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT of The Class of 1921 EAST HIGH SCHOOL

WE The Class of January 1921, East High School of the City of Rochester in the County of Monroe and State of New York being of sound mind and memory, do make, publish and declare this our last WILL AND TESTAMENT, in manner following that is to say:

- First: To the entering Freshmen, we leave the so-called "elevators" in loving remembrance of our state of greenness on entering E. H. S.
- Second: To those following we bequeath all epistles left by us in the drawers of the library tables, and gum adhering to said tables.
- Third: To those who shall be suitably initiated, we leave all space occupied by any of our members, in "The Ancient and Honorable Order of Skippers," the club-rooms of which are located behind the assembly. May they skip there in peace.
- Fourth: To the future ranking senior classes, we leave the front rows of seats in the assembly, together with the elevated feeling that goes with them.
- Fifth: To all who shall be "A. W. O. L." we leave our earnest prayers for their safety.
- Sixth: To those who depend upon the fare of the lunch-room for their daily repast, we do give and bequeath said lunch-room and the pie and doughnuts thereof.
- Seventh: To those who, with many words shorten the periods on Friday, we leave fervent blessings. May they long live to be a benefit unto the pupils of East High School.

Last Will and Testament - Concluded

- Eighth: To the poor deluded creatures who persevere in the study of Latin, we leave Room 14. It is a burden lifted from our shoulders.
- Ninth: To Junior Finals we do give and bequeath our Vergil trots. May they derive as much comfort from them as we have.
- Tenth: To the school in general, we leave those of our number who are so enamoured of their "Alma Mater" as to insist upon remaining within her walls.
- Eleventh: To him who shall not have learned his Caesar lesson we leave the bust of the Honorable Julius. Would that his works had been buried with him.
- Twelfth: To those who shall get there first we leave the seats in the rear of the assembly, in which to rest their weary limbs during lunch periods.
- Thirteenth: To some lucky class we leave our advisors, Miss Sheehan, and Mr. Wolgast, whose friendship we keenly appreciate.
- Fourteenth: To our under classmates and fellow pupils we leave the memory of Jan. '21. We hope it will be a pleasant one.
- LASTLY: We hereby appoint all classes which come after us executors of this, our last Will and Testament: hereby revoking all former wills by us made.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we hereunto subscribed our name the 1st day of January in the year Nineteen Hundred and Twenty-one.

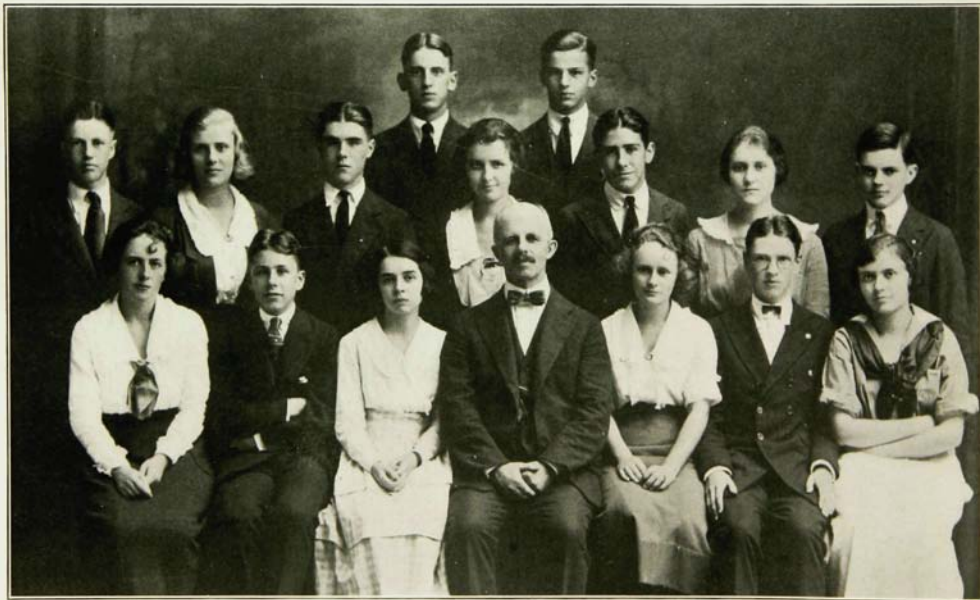

The Class of January 1921
By Eloise DeYoung, Testatrix.

WITNESSES:
Claude Westburg, Pres.
Dorothy McKay, Vice-Pres.

The Book Exchange

ONLY those who have served on the Book Exchange staff really know the amount of time and effort given for the good of the school. Their service is still more remarkable because of the relatively small number of those who engage.

OTHER ACTIVITIES

THE MASQUERS

A new activity which is striking both in its novelty to this school and in the value of the results produced is Mr. Parry's Dramatics class, who style themselves The Masquers.

All scenery, costumes, properties, lighting effects, etc. are designed and executed by the students. No pupils are repeatedly assigned prominent parts, but all members of the class are given an equal opportunity to display their talent.

The major part of the proceeds of the performances is given to the Memorial Scholarship Fund, and the scenery and costumes become the property of the school.

This term two performances of "Mrs. Bumpstead-Leigh" were given, as well as a bill of three one-act comedies, "Overtones," "Helena's Husband," and "Spreading the News."

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

This year the girls' Glee Club has about thirty members. Mr. Spouse is working hard with the girls and although he does not hope for startling results this term, he expects that the Glee Club will make a fine record for itself by the end of the school year.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

The boys' Glee Club is in about the same state as the girls'. It is working steadily toward its goal and expects to have some fine work to show the school before the end of next term. Our greatest advance in school singing has been in the assembly where the students have made a record in vocal work of which we may be justly proud.

THE BAND

That the band is a popular organization is shown by the enthusiasm with which it is greeted in assemblies. That its members work hard is evident in the splendid results produced under the exceptionally capable direction of Mr. Fay.

THE ORCHESTRA

A new epoch in the history of the orchestra was marked this term by the fact that for the first time there were more applicants than could be accommodated. With a full personnel the orchestra has been showing gratifying results.

CHEERING has always been a vital part of East High life, and upon it largely depends the success of an athletic season. During his term as cheerleader, Gilbert Strayer has upheld the very best traditions of the school in this regard, and in addition has introduced several new and effective yells. He has furnished a splendid example of a whole-hearted and school-spirited cheerleader.

DOES YOUR LIST OF STUDIES SEEM TOO LONG?

As high school students you may think so at times, but we are going to suggest that you add one more—one quite different from all the others—the study of this store, its merchandise, its methods, its values, its service.

In other words we want you to know this store so well that you will come to it instinctively to supply your needs, not only now, but throughout the years to come, knowing that you will be accorded every courtesy and the best possible service.
