THE 1940
SENIOR OCCIDENT
Tomorrow can we dare to face
A life that's new—a different place?
If our world and niche should go,
Could we survive with what we know?
Could we succeed by longing for
The things we had but have no more?

Have we the right to tell the truth,
To live as rebels, wild as youth;
To fight, have peace, to hate or love,
To own the land or skies above?
The only rights we have are those
Opinion gives us, I suppose.

There is no safety, peace, or rest
In things of substance we request;
But in the port of shadows lie
Elusive things for which we die;
The things we feel but never see
In questions of Infinity.

Ralph Stephan

THINGS TO REMEMBER
Proudly waves old West High's emblem
Black and Orange fair,
Floats triumphant in the breezes;
No dishonor there.
Student days have fondest memories,
Comrades here we stand,
As our troth to Alma Mater
Pledge we hand in hand.

From thy halls dear Alma Mater
We at length must part,
But thy memory shall not perish
From one student's heart.
Far away on life's broad highway
All must fortune try:
Still our loving hearts shall cherish
Thoughts of thee, West High.

We, the members of the athletic teams of West High School, wish to dedicate our section of this Senior Occident to John "Pop" Mills for the fine cooperation he has given and the great interest he has shown in us and our various endeavors.

John Alden, John Barber, Willard Jacobs, Cort Miller (Captain and Manager), Carl Uffelman.
After losing the opening game 1-0 to Madison on a penalty kick, West's soccer team swept through eight straight games to take second place behind Madison, who failed to lose a game. Paced by "Moose" Hoobing, "Marty" Cummings, and Art Ciccarelli, who were chosen for All-Scholastic, the Occidentals took up where last year's team left off and made it twenty-three wins in the last twenty-six starts. Coach Herbert Smith can be proud of this record, and we look forward to his next year's eleven. An interesting side-light is that ten of the eleven regulars were mentioned on one of the All-Scholastic teams.

VARITY 1940

John Hogan (Co-Captain), William Snyder (Co-Captain), Jack Mestler, Dick West, Jack Johnston, Arthur Ciccarelli, Tom Bailey, William Zielinski, Bob Williams, Don Williamson (Manager).

From the time Jack Mestler scored the first basket against Washington till Tom Bailey dropped in the winning foul against Charlotte, West High was represented by one of the scrappiest teams seen here in the last decade. In rolling up a record of five wins and four losses, good enough for a third place tie, the Occidentals gained the respect of every team in the league. Not given a chance to win more than one game by pre-season forecasters, the veteranless team developed into a fast breaking, smooth passing machine under the patient coaching of Barney Smith.

Robert Harris, Tom Stocum, Joseph Grassi (Captain), Arthur Ciccarelli, Roy Schamloeffel, Howard Leavenworth, Frank Lamb, Kenneth Burke, John Buckley, Don Burton, Bob Upson, George Middleton, Robert Solan (Manager).

With seven veterans returning, West High’s outlook for 1939 was very bright. The Barney Smith coached team started fast by winning its first three games in true championship style. However, mid-season found them in a slump from which they couldn’t quite recover until their last game, in which they badly trounced Washington. This victory gave West High a season’s record of four wins and five losses, placing us in the first division in a fourth-place tie.

SQUAD

Living up to the high standards set by former swimming teams, the West High Mermen captured the city interscholastic title in a convincing manner. They also dominated the city championships with four first places, and the district sectionals with the same number of winners. Individual championships were taken by Don Agate in the 100 yard free style, Fred Becker in the 100 yard breast stroke, Walter "Jiggs" Behleu, fancy diving, and the 200 yard relay team composed of Agate, Pigage, Conyne, and Brooks.

TENNIS: Courtney Crane, Tom Smith, Herb Reed, John Hogan, Jack Pink, Bob Cook (Captain).

GOLF: James Beal (Captain), Charles Hawken, John Darcy, Louis Schultz, Edward Burke.

In School Or Out…

There are a hundred-and-one needs that a big store can answer, quickly, satisfactorily, and within your budget. That’s one explanation why the majority of Rochester makes Sibley’s its shopping headquarters—because Rochester knows that if what it wants is sold in a store, it’s most likely to be found at Sibley’s!
